

Unleavened Bread Service on the First High Day Sabbath

Blow Trumpets
Songs of Praise
Opening Prayer

The Feast of Unleavened Bread is all about freedom from being slaves of sin. It is the story of how God sent his only begotten Son to destroy Satan's hold over us and how He will teach us and lead us into ever greater righteousness and give us eternal life in Paradise with Him.

The first High Day (Annual) Sabbath is the first day of the Week of Unleavened Bread (Leviticus 23:4 to 8):

The events of this day:

During the Exodus: The Passover lambs have been slain, their blood painted on the doorways. During the night they have been eaten and the Angel of Death has passed over. Finally Pharaoh has released his hold on the Israelites and told them to go. This is the day that they begin their march from slavery into freedom. There will be more on this after lunch.

During the Year Jeshua was Impaled: Our Passover lamb has been slain, but Jeshua is still in grave. Nonetheless, Jeshua has paid the penalty for our sins in full and we are released from Satan's control when we accept what Jeshua has done for us, as the following scriptures show.

First, let us review the events leading to the Sacrifice of Jeshua as recorded by Luke:

Luk 22:63 Now the men who held Jeshua mocked Him and they covered Him.

Luk 22:64 Then they struck Him on His face and they said to Him, "Prophecy! Who struck You?"

Luk 22:65 And many other things and blasphemies they spoke against Him.

Luk 22:66 And when day had dawned, the elders, the chief priests and the scribes came together and they brought Him to their assembly place.

Luk 22:67 Then they said to Him, "If You are the Messiah, tell us." He said to them, "If I tell you, you will not believe Me.

Luk 22:68 "And if I ask you, you will not return an answer to Me nor will you release Me.

Luk 22:69 "After this hour the Son of Mankind will sit on the right hand of the power of God."

Luk 22:70 Then they all said, "Are You therefore the Son of God?" And He said to them, "You say that I AM! I AM!"

Luk 22:71 And they said, "Why do we need witnesses again, for we have heard it from His mouth."

Luk 23:1 Then their whole crowd arose and brought Him to Pilate.

Luk 23:2 And they became consumed with slandering Him, and they said, "We found this One seducing our people, and He forbids paying the head taxes, to not give them to Caesar, and He says about Himself that He is the Messiah, the King."

Luk 23:3 So Pilate asked Him, and said to Him, "Are You the King of the Jews?" He said to him, "You have said it."

Luk 23:4 Then Pilate said to the chief priests and to the crowd, "I do not find any fault in this Man."

Luk 23:5 But they were shouting and they said, "He stirs up our people, He taught through all Judea, beginning from Galilee and then to here."

Luk 23:6 And when Pilate heard the name of Galilee, he asked if the Man was a Galilean.

Luk 23:7 And when he knew that He was under the authority of Herod, he sent Him to be before

Herod, because he was in Jerusalem during those days.

Luk 23:8 Now when Herod saw Jeshua, he was very glad; for he had wanted to see Him for a long time, because of what he had heard about Him, and he hoped that he would see some sign from Him.

Luk 23:9 Then he questioned Him about many matters, but Jeshua, He brought him no answers.

Luk 23:10 And the chief priests and the scribes stood and they were consumed with vehemently accusing Him.

Luk 23:11 Then Herod mocked Him, he and his servants, and when he had insulted Him, he clothed Him in a purple robe, and he sent Him to Pilate.

Luk 23:12 And on that day Pilate and Herod became friends with each other, for there had been enmity between them before that.

Luk 23:13 Then Pilate called the chief priests, the rulers, and the people,

Luk 23:14 and he said to them, "You have brought this Man to me as one who subverts your people. But behold, I have examined Him in your sight, I have not found any fault in this Man concerning everything of which you are accusing Him;

Luk 23:15 "And neither did Herod, for I sent Him to him; and behold, nothing worthy of death has been committed by Him.

Luk 23:16 "Therefore I will chastise Him and I will release Him."

Luk 23:17 For it was the custom for him to release one to them at the feast.

Luk 23:18 But the whole mob shouted, and they said, "Take away this One, and release Barabbas to us."

Luk 23:19 Because of sedition which had occurred in the city and murder, he had been thrown into the prisoner house.

Luk 23:20 Then Pilate spoke with them again, as he wanted to release Jeshua.

Luk 23:21 But they were shouting, and they said, "Impale Him, impale Him!"

Luk 23:22 And he said to them the third time, "Why, what evil has this One done? I have not found any fault that deserves death in Him. Therefore I will chastise Him and I will release Him."

Luk 23:23 But they were urging him with loud voices and they were demanding that they could impale Him. And their voices and those of the chief priests prevailed.

Luk 23:24 So Pilate commanded that it should be done as they demanded.

Luk 23:25 And he released to them him that they demanded, who for sedition and murder had been thrown into the prisoner house; but he delivered Jeshua to their will.

Luk 23:26 Now as they took Him away, they seized Simon, a Cyrenian, who came from a village, and they laid the stake on him that he might carry it behind Jeshua.

Luk 23:27 And a multitude of the people followed Him, and women who mourned and lamented over Him.

Luk 23:28 But Jeshua turned to them, and He said, "Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for Me, but weep for yourselves and for your children.

Luk 23:29 "Behold, the days are coming in which they will say, 'Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bore, and the breasts which never nursed!'

Luk 23:30 "Then they will begin to say to the mountains, "Fall on us!" and to the hills, "Cover us!"

Luk 23:31 "For if they do these things with green wood, what will happen with the dry?"

Luk 23:32 Two others were being taken with Him, evil-doers to be killed.

Luk 23:33 And when they came to a certain place called the Skull, there they impaled Him and the evil-doers, one on His right and one on His left.

Luk 23:34 Then Jeshua said, "Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they are doing." And they divided His garments and they cast lots for them.

Luk 23:35 And the people stood and watched. Even the leaders were mocking Him and they were saying, "He gave life to others; let Him save Himself if He is the Messiah, the Chosen One of God."

Luk 23:36 And the soldiers also scoffed at Him as they came near and offered sour wine to Him ,

Luk 23:37 and they said to Him, "If You are the King of the Jews, save Yourself."

Luk 23:38 And an inscription also was written over Him in Greek, and in Latin, and in Hebrew:

‘This is the King of the Judeans’.

Luk 23:39 Then one of the evil-doers who was impaled with Him blasphemed Him and he said, "If You are the Messiah, save Yourself and also save us."

Luk 23:40 But his companion rebuked him, and he said to him, "Are you not also afraid of God, for you are also condemned with Him?"

Luk 23:41 "And we justly, because we are deserving to be repaid according to what we have done; but this One, nothing bad was done by Him."

Luk 23:42 Then he said to Jeshua, "My Lord, remember me when You come in Your kingdom."

Luk 23:43 Jeshua said to him, "Truly, I say to you, that day you will be with Me in Paradise."

Luk 23:44 And it was about the sixth hour, and there was darkness on all the earth until the ninth hour.

Luk 23:45 And the sun was darkened, and the veil of the booth was torn apart from its middle.

Luk 23:46 Then Jeshua called out in a loud voice, and He said, "My Father, I place My spirit into Your hands." He said this, and He expired.

Luk 23:47 Now when the centurion saw what had happened, he glorified God, and he said, "Truly, this Man was the Righteous One!"

Luk 23:48 And the whole crowd which had gathered for this spectacle, when they saw what had happened, returned while they beat on their breasts.

Luk 23:49 But all of Jeshua's acquaintances, and the women who followed Him from Galilee, they all stood well back, and they watched these things.

Luk 23:50 And a certain man named Joseph, a Sanhedrin member from the Judean city of Arimathea, was a good and just man.

Luk 23:51 This one had not consented to their decision nor to their act. And he was waiting for the kingdom of God.

Luk 23:52 This man came to Pilate and he asked for the body of Jeshua.

Luk 23:53 Then he took it down and wrapped it in a winding sheet of linen, and laid it in an excavated tomb, in which no one had yet been placed.

Luk 23:54 That was the day of Preparation, and the Sabbath was beginning.

Luk 23:55 And the women who had come with Him from Galilee approached, and they saw the tomb and the way in which His body was laid.

John the Immerser prophesies about who Jeshua is and what He must do:

Joh 1:29 The next day John saw Jeshua coming to him, and he said, "Behold! He is the Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world!"

Joh 1:30 "This is the One about whom I said, ‘After me comes a Man who is before me, for He preceded me.’"

Joh 1:31 "And I, I did not know Him; but that He should be revealed to Israel, therefore I came immersing in water."

Joh 1:32 And John testified and said, "I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and remaining upon Him."

Joh 1:33 "And I, I did not know Him, but He who sent me to immerse in water, He said to me, ‘He upon whom you see the Spirit descending, and remaining upon Him, this is the One who immerses in the Holy Spirit.’"

Joh 1:34 "And I, I have seen and I testify that this One is the Son of God."

Joh 1:35 Again, the next day, John was standing with two of his disciples.

Joh 1:36 And he gazed at Jeshua as He walked, and he said, "Behold the Lamb of God!"

And John the Apostle tells us who Jeshua is and what He will do in the future:

Rev 1:4 John, to the seven churches which are in Asia: Grace to you and peace from Him who is and who was and who is to come, and from the seven Spirits who are before His throne,

Rev 1:5 and from Jeshua the Anointed, the faithful witness, the firstborn from the dead, and the ruler over the kings of the earth. To Him who loved us and washed us from our sins in His own blood,
Rev 1:6 and has made us kings and priests to His God and Father, to Him be glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen.

Rev 1:7 Behold, He is coming with clouds, and every eye will see Him, and they who pierced Him. And all the tribes of the earth will mourn because of Him. Even so, Amen.

We must focus on our walk with our Messiah: Our body of sin is broken, and we are washed in the blood of Messiah: We are newly-begotten in Jeshua, growing in a new and deeper relationship with our Anointed Saviour:

Rom 6:1 Then what shall we say? Shall we continue in sin that grace may abound?

Rom 6:2 It cannot be so! For those of us who died to sin, how shall we live in it again?

Rom 6:3 Or do you not know that all of us who were immersed into the Anointed Jeshua were immersed into His death?

Rom 6:4 We were buried with Him through immersion into death, that as Jeshua our Messiah rose from the dead through the glory of His Father, so we also shall walk in new life.

Rom 6:5 For if we have been planted with Him in the likeness of His death, in this way we shall also be in His resurrection,

Rom 6:6 for we know that our old person was impaled with Him, that the body of sin will be destroyed, so we shall not serve sin again.

Rom 6:7 For the one who has died has been freed from sin.

Rom 6:8 But if we died with the Anointed, we believe that we shall also live with the Anointed,

Rom 6:9 knowing that the Anointed, having been raised from the dead, dies no more. Death has no further dominion over Him.

Rom 6:10 For when He died, He died to sin once for all; but now that He lives, He lives to God.

Rom 6:11 So you also, count yourselves as dead indeed to sin, but alive to God in our Lord and Messiah, Jeshua.

Rom 6:12 Therefore do not let sin reign in your mortal body, to obey it in its lusts.

Rom 6:13 Nor yield your members as instruments of unrighteousness to sin, but yield yourselves to God as being alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness to God.

Rom 6:14 For sin shall not have dominion over you, for you are not under the Instruction but under grace.

Rom 6:15 What? Shall we then sin because we are not under the Instruction but under grace? It cannot be so!

Rom 6:16 Do you not know that to whoever you present yourselves to obey, you are bonded as slaves to him who you obey, if your ear listens to sin or if to righteousness?

Rom 6:17 But thanks be to God that though you were slaves of sin, you obeyed from the heart that form of teaching to which you were delivered.

Rom 6:18 And having been freed from sin, you became slaves of righteousness.

Rom 6:19 I say, as to the children of the house, because of the weakness of your flesh, that as you presented your members to serve defilement and evil, now also in this way present your members to serve righteousness and holiness.

Rom 6:20 For when you were slaves of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness.

Rom 6:21 What fruit did you have then in the things of which you are now ashamed? For the end of those things is death.

Rom 6:22 But now having been set free from sin, and having become slaves of God, you have your fruit to holiness, and the end, everlasting life.

Rom 6:23 For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is everlasting life in the Anointed Jeshua, our Lord.

Leaven is to be removed from our lives. Jeshua teaches us that false teaching can also be like leaven that we need to find and get rid of:

Mat 16:11 "How is it you do not understand that I did not speak to you concerning bread?; but you should beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees."

Mat 16:12 Then they understood that He did not tell them to beware of the leaven of bread, but of the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees.

Our new walk requires growth and commitment:

1Co 9:19 For though I am free from all things to everyone, I have subjected myself to the many that I may gain;

1Co 9:20 and I am with Judeans as a Judean, that I may gain Judeans; and with those who are under the Instruction, I am like those who are under the Instruction, that I may gain those who are under the Instruction;

1Co 9:21 and with those who do not have the Instruction, I am like one without Law, though I am not without Law to God but within the Instructions of the Messiah, that I may also gain those who are without Instruction;

1Co 9:22 I am with the weak as a weak one, that I may gain the weak. I am everything to everyone, that I may give life to everyone.

1Co 9:23 Now I have done this, that I may be a partaker of the good news.

1Co 9:24 Do you not know that all of those who run in a stadium run, but one of them takes the prize? Also run like this so you may obtain it.

1Co 9:25 Now everyone who competes restrains himself in all things. Now they run to obtain a perishable crown, but we for one that is imperishable.

1Co 9:26 Therefore I run like this: it is not as if it is for something unknown. Thus I fight: not as he who fights the air.

1Co 9:27 But it is my body I discipline and I bring into subjection, lest I, who have preached to others, I should become rejected myself.

1Co 10:1 Therefore, my brethren, I want you to know that all of our fathers were under the cloud, and all of them passed through the sea,

1Co 10:2 and all of them were immersed by Moses in the cloud and in the sea,

1Co 10:3 all of them, they ate the one food of the Spirit,

1Co 10:4 and all of them, they drank the one drink of the Spirit. For they drank of that Rock of the Spirit which was with them, and that Rock was the Messiah.

1Co 10:5 But God was not pleased with the majority of them, for they fell in the wilderness.

1Co 10:6 Now these things are examples to us, that we should not lust after evil just as they lusted.

1Co 10:7 Nor should we serve idols as some of them also served. As it is written, "The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play."

1Co 10:8 Nor should we commit sexual immorality, as some of them committed fornication, and in one day twenty-three thousand of them fell;

1Co 10:9 nor should we tempt the Messiah, as some of them tempted, and serpents destroyed them;

1Co 10:10 nor should we complain, as some of them complained, and they were destroyed by the destroyer.

1Co 10:11 Now all of these things happened to them for our example, and they were written for our warning, for the end of the age is coming upon us.

1Co 10:12 From now on, whoever thinks he stands, let him beware lest he fall.

1Co 10:13 No temptation has come to you except those of the children of man; but God is faithful, who will not allow you to be tempted beyond what you are able, but with the temptation will also make an escape, so you can endure it.

1Co 10:14 Because of this, my beloved, flee from serving idols.

1Co 10:15 I speak as to the wise; you judge what I say.

1Co 10:16 The cup of thanksgiving which we bless, is it not partaking in the fellowship of the blood of the Anointed? The bread which we break, is it not partaking in the fellowship of the body of the Anointed?

1Co 10:17 Just as that bread is one, so are we all one body; for we all receive from that one bread.

Break for Lunch

We are now to learn to walk in the Spirit:

Gal 5:13 For you, my brethren, you have been called to liberty; only do not let your liberty become an opportunity for the flesh, but through love you should serve one another.

Gal 5:14 For the Instruction is all fulfilled in this one saying: "You shall love your neighbour as yourself."<sup>1</sup>

Gal 5:15 But if you bite and you devour one another, beware lest you be consumed, one by another!

Gal 5:16 So I say that you should be walking in the Spirit, and then you will never fulfill the cravings of the flesh.

Gal 5:17 For the flesh craves everything that opposes the Spirit, and the Spirit craves everything that opposes the flesh; and they are both contrary to one another, so you aren't doing everything that you want.

Gal 5:18 And if you are led by the Spirit, you should not be beneath the Instructions.<sup>2</sup>

Gal 5:19 For the works of the flesh are known, which are: fornication, impurity, whoring,

Gal 5:20 idol worship, witchcraft, hatred, contentions, jealousies, rage, insolence, dissensions, schisms,

Gal 5:21 envy, murder, drunkenness, revelries, and all such things. Those who commit such things, as I told you from the beginning, and now I say again; they will not inherit the kingdom of God.

Gal 5:22 But the fruits of the Spirit are love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, a sweet spirit, faithfulness,

Gal 5:23 humility and endurance. The Instructions are not against these.

Gal 5:24 And those who are the Anointed's have impaled their flesh, with all of its sicknesses and cravings.

Gal 5:25 Therefore, we will live in the Spirit, and we will surrender to the Spirit.

Gal 5:26 And do not let us become empty of glory by putting one another down and envying one another.

Gal 6:1 My brethren, if any one of you is overtaken in a trespass, you who are in the Spirit restore him in the spirit of humility, and be careful lest you also may be tempted.

Gal 6:2 And bear one another's burdens, for in this way you fulfill the Instructions of the Anointed.

Gal 6:3 For if anyone thinks that he is something, when he is not, he is deceiving himself.

Gal 6:4 But each one should examine his work, and then his soul may rejoice to himself alone, and not to others.

Gal 6:5 For every person must bear his own load.

Gal 6:6 And let him who hears the word share in all good things with him who preaches.

Gal 6:7 Do not err, do not put God to shame; for whatever a son sows, that he will also reap.

Gal 6:8 Whoever sows to the flesh will reap destruction from the flesh, and whoever sows to the Spirit will reap everlasting life from the Spirit.

Gal 6:9 And when we do what is good, do not let it become tedious for us, for there will come a time when we will reap, and that will not be tiring for us.

<sup>2</sup> That is, your thoughts and actions are to be above those set by the Instructions. You should be doing better than what Jehovah requires from those who do not have His Spirit dwelling in them as you do.

Gal 6:10 Therefore, while we still have time, let us do good to everyone, especially to the children of the household of faith.

Yes, let us all do good to everyone and remember always to walk in the Spirit.

The events of this day during the Exodus:

Exo 12:43 And Jehovah said to Moses and Aaron, "This is the statute of the Passover: No foreigner shall eat it.

Exo 12:44 "But every man's servant who is bought for money, when you have circumcised him, then he may eat it.

Exo 12:45 "A sojourner and a hired servant shall not eat it.

Exo 12:46 "In one house it shall be eaten; you shall not carry any of the flesh outside the house, nor shall you break one of its bones.

Exo 12:47 "All the congregation of Israel shall keep it.

Exo 12:48 "And when a stranger dwells with you and wants to keep the Passover to Jehovah, let all his males be circumcised, and then let him come near and keep it; and he shall be as a native of the land. For no uncircumcised person shall eat it.

Exo 12:49 "One Torah shall be for the native-born and for the stranger who dwells among you."

Exo 12:50 Thus all the children of Israel did; as Jehovah commanded Moses and Aaron, so they did.

Exo 12:51 So it came to pass, on that very same day, that Jehovah brought the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt according to their armies.

Exo 13:1 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

Exo 13:2 "Consecrate to Me all the firstborn, whatever opens the womb among the children of Israel, both of man and beast; it is Mine."

Exo 13:3 And Moses said to the people: "Remember this day in which you went out of Egypt, out of the house of bondage; for by strength of hand Jehovah brought you out of this place. No leavened bread shall be eaten.

Exo 13:4 "On this day you are going out, in the new moon Abib.

Exo 13:5 "And it shall be, when Jehovah brings you into the land of the Canaanites and the Hittites and the Amorites and the Hivites and the Jebusites, which He swore to your fathers to give you, a land flowing with milk and honey, that you shall keep this service in this new moon.

Exo 13:6 "Seven days you shall eat unleavened bread, and on the seventh day there shall be a feast to Jehovah.

Exo 13:7 "Unleavened bread shall be eaten seven days. And no leavened bread shall be seen among you, nor shall leaven be seen among you in all your quarters.

Exo 13:8 "And you shall tell your son in that day, saying, 'This is done because of what Jehovah did for me when I came up from Egypt.'

Exo 13:9 "It shall be a sign to you on your hand and a reminder between your eyes, that Jehovah's Instructions may be in your mouth; for with a strong hand Jehovah brought you out of Egypt.

Exo 13:10 "You shall therefore keep this statute in its season from year to year.

Exo 13:11 "And it shall be, when Jehovah brings you into the land of the Canaanites, as He swore to you and your fathers, and gives it to you, Exo 13:12 "that you shall set apart to Jehovah all that open the womb, that is, every firstborn that comes from an animal which you have; the males shall be Jehovah's.

Exo 13:13 "But every firstborn of a donkey you shall redeem with a lamb; and if you will not redeem it, then you shall break its neck. And all the firstborn of man among your sons you shall redeem.

Exo 13:14 "So it shall be, when your son asks you in time to come, saying, 'What is this?' that you shall say to him, 'By strength of hand Jehovah brought us out of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

Exo 13:15 'And it came to pass, when Pharaoh was stubborn about letting us go, that Jehovah killed all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both the firstborn of man and the firstborn of beast. Therefore I sacrifice to Jehovah all males that open the womb, but all the firstborn of my sons I redeem.'

Exo 13:16 "It shall be a sign on your hand and an ornament between your eyes, for by strength of hand Jehovah brought us out of Egypt."

Exo 13:17 Then it came to pass, when Pharaoh had let the people go, that God did not lead them by way of the land of the Philistines, although that was near; for God said, "Lest perhaps the people change their minds when they see war, and return to Egypt."

Exo 13:18 So God led the people around by way of the wilderness of the Red Sea. And the children of Israel went up in battle array out of the land of Egypt.

Exo 13:19 And Moses took the bones of Joseph with him, for he had placed the children of Israel under solemn oath, saying, "God will surely visit you, and you shall carry up my bones from here with you."

Exo 13:20 So they took their journey from Succoth and camped in Etham at the edge of the wilderness.

Exo 13:21 And Jehovah went before them by day in a pillar of cloud to lead the way, and by night in a pillar of fire to give them light, so as to go by day and night.

Exo 13:22 He did not take away the pillar of cloud by day or the pillar of fire by night from before the people.

The Book of Numbers adds more detail to their itinerary and confirms that they began their march out of Egypt on the day after the Passover, which is the First Day of Unleavened Bread:

Num 33:1 These are the journeys of the children of Israel, who went out of the land of Egypt by their armies under the hand of Moses and Aaron.

Num 33:2 Now Moses wrote down the starting points of their journeys as the mouth of Jehovah told him. And these are their journeys according to their starting points:

Num 33:3 They departed from Rameses in the first new moon, on the fifteenth day of the first new moon; on the day after the Passover the children of Israel went out with boldness in the sight of all the Egyptians.

Num 33:4 For the Egyptians were burying all their firstborn, whom Jehovah had killed among them. Also on their gods Jehovah had executed judgements.

Num 33:5 Then the children of Israel moved from Rameses and camped at Succoth.

So, just as the Egyptians were burying their firstborn, so the followers of Jehovah had placed His Firstborn, Jeshua our Messiah, into a tomb.

But we have some hope. Will Jeshua keep His promise to rise from the grave on the third day? We will see that He does on the Wave Offering, held on the morning of the day after the weekly Sabbath during Unleavened Bread.
