Jer 38:13 So they pulled Jeremiah up with ropes and lifted him out of the dungeon, and Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison.

Jer 38:14 Then Zedekiah the king sent and had Jeremiah the prophet brought to him at the third entrance of the House of Jehovah. And the king said to Jeremiah, "I will ask you something, hide nothing from me."

Jer 38:15 Then Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, "If I declare it to you, will you not surely put me to death? And if I give you counsel, you will not listen to me."

Jer 38:16 So Zedekiah the king swore secretly to Jeremiah, saying, "As Jehovah lives, who made our very souls, I will not put you to death, nor will I give you into the hand of these men who seek your soul."

Jer 38:17 Then Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, "Thus says Jehovah, the God of hosts, the God of Israel: 'If you surely surrender to the king of Babylon's princes, then your soul will live; this city will not be burned with fire, and you and your house will live.

Jer 38:18 'But if you do not surrender to the king of Babylon's princes, then this city will be given into the hand of the Chaldeans; they will burn it with fire, and you will not escape from their hand.'"

Jer 38:19 And Zedekiah the king said to Jeremiah, "I am afraid of the Judeans who have defected to the Chaldeans, lest they deliver me into their hand, and they abuse me."

Jer 38:20 But Jeremiah said, "They will not deliver you. Please, obey the voice of Jehovah which I speak to you, so it will be well with you, and your soul will live.

Jer 38:21 "But if you refuse to surrender, this is the word that Jehovah has shown me:

Jer 38:22 'Now behold, all the women who are left in the king of Judah's house will be surrendered to the king of Babylon's princes, and those women will say: "Your close friends have set upon you and prevailed against you; your feet have sunk in the mire, and they have turned away again."

Jer 38:23 'So they will surrender all your wives and children to the Chaldeans. You will not escape from their hand, but will be taken by the hand of the king of Babylon. And you will cause this city to be burned with fire.'"

Jer 38:24 Then Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, "Let no one know of these words, and you will not die.

Jer 38:25 "But if the princes hear that I have talked with you, and they come to you and say to you, 'Declare to us now what you have said to the king, and also what the king said to you; do not hide it from us, and we will not put you to death,'

Jer 38:26 "then you will say to them, 'I presented my request before the king, that he would not make me return to Jonathan's house to die there.'"

Jer 38:27 Then all the princes came to Jeremiah and asked him. And he told them according to all these words that the king had commanded. So they stopped speaking with him, for the conversation had not been heard.

Jer 38:28 Now Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison until the day that Jerusalem was taken. And he was there when Jerusalem was taken.

Jer 39:1 In the ninth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the tenth new moon, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and all his army came against Jerusalem, and besieged it.

Jer 39:2 In the eleventh year of Zedekiah, in the fourth new moon, on the ninth day of the new moon, the city was split open.

Jer 39:3 Then all the princes of the king of Babylon came in and sat in the Middle Gate: Nergal-Sharezzer, Samgar-Nebo, Sarsechim, Rabсарis, Nergal-Sarezzer, Rabmag, with the rest of the princes of the king of Babylon.

Jer 39:4 So it was, when Zedekiah the king of Judah and all the men of war saw them, that they fled and went out of the city by night, by way of the king's garden, by the gate between the two walls, and he went out by way of the desert plain.

Jer 39:5 But the Chaldean army pursued them and overtook Zedekiah in the desert plain of Jericho. And when they had captured him, they brought him up to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, to Riblah in the land of Hamath, where he pronounced judgement on him.

Jer 39:6 Then the king of Babylon killed the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes in Riblah; the king of Babylon also killed all the nobles of Judah.

Jer 39:7 Moreover he put out Zedekiah's eyes, and bound him with bronze fetters to carry him off to Babylon.

Jer 39:8 And the Chaldeans burned the king's house and the houses of the people with fire, and broke down the walls of Jerusalem.

Jer 39:9 Then Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive to Babylon the remnant of the people who remained in the city and those who defected to him, with the rest of the people who remained.

Jer 39:10 But Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard left in the land of Judah the poor people, who had nothing, and gave them vineyards and fields on that day.

Jer 39:11 Now Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon gave charge concerning Jeremiah to Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard, saying,

Jer 39:12 "Take him and look after him, and do no evil to him; but do to him just as he says to you."

Jer 39:13 So Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard sent Nebushasban, Rabсарis, Nergal-Sharezzer, Rabmag, and all the king of Babylon's chief officers;

Jer 39:14 then they sent someone to take Jeremiah from the court of the prison, and committed him to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, that he should take him home, so he dwelt among the people.

Jer 39:15 Now the word of Jehovah had come to Jeremiah while he was shut up in the court of the prison, saying,

Jer 39:16 "Go and speak to Ebed-Melech the Cushite, saying, 'Thus says Jehovah of Hosts, the God of Israel: "Behold, I will bring My words upon this city for evil and not for good, and they will be performed in that day before you."

Jer 39:17 "But I will deliver you in that day," says Jehovah, "and you will not be given into the hand of the men of whom you are afraid.

Jer 39:18 "For I will surely deliver you, and you will not fall by the sword; but your soul will be as a prize to you, because you have put your trust in Me," says Jehovah."

Jer 40:1 The word that came to Jeremiah from Jehovah after Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had let him go from Ramah, when he had taken him bound in chains among all who were carried away captive from Jerusalem and Judah, who were carried away captive to Babylon:

Jer 40:2 And the captain of the guard took Jeremiah and said to him: "Jehovah your God has pronounced this evil on this place.

Jer 40:3 "Now Jehovah has brought it, and has done just as He said. Because your people have sinned against Jehovah, and not obeyed His voice, therefore this thing has come upon you.

Jer 40:4 "And now look, I free you this day from the chains that were on your hand. If it seems good to you to come with me to Babylon, come, and I will look after you. But if it seems wrong for you to come with me to Babylon, remain here. See, all the land is before you; wherever it seems good and convenient for you to go, go there."

Jer 40:5 Now while Jeremiah had not yet gone back, Nebuzaradan said, "Go back to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon has made governor over the cities of Judah, and dwell with him among the people. Or go wherever it seems convenient for you to go." So the captain of the guard gave him rations and a gift and let him go.

Jer 40:6 Then Jeremiah went to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam at Mizpah, and dwelt with him among the people who were left in the land.

Jer 40:7 Now when all the captains of the armies who were in the fields, they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam governor in the land, and had committed to him men, women, children, and the poorest of the land who had not been carried away captive to Babylon,

Jer 40:8 then they came to Gedaliah at Mizpah; Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, Johanan and Jonathan the sons of Kareah, Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth, the sons of Ephai the Netophathite, and Jezaniah the son of a Maachathite, they and their men.

Jer 40:9 And Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, took an oath before them and their men, saying, "Do not be afraid to serve the Chaldeans. Dwell in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and it will be well with you.

Jer 40:10 "As for me, I will indeed dwell at Mizpah and serve the Chaldeans who come to us. But you, gather wine and summer fruit and oil, put them in your vessels, and dwell in your cities that you have taken."

Jer 40:11 Likewise, when all the Judeans who were in Moab, among the Ammonites, in Edom, and who were in all the countries, heard that the king of Babylon had left a remnant of Judah, and that he had set over them Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, Jer 40:12 then all the Judeans returned out of all places where they had been driven, and came to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah at Mizpah, and gathered wine and summer fruit in abundance.

Jer 40:13 Moreover Johanan the son of Kareah and all the captains of the forces that were in the fields came to Gedaliah at Mizpah, Jer 40:14 and said to him, "Do you know that Baalis the king of the Ammonites has certainly sent Ishmael the son of Nethaniah to murder you?" But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam did not believe them.

Jer 40:15 Then Johanan the son of Kareah spoke secretly to Gedaliah in Mizpah, saying, "Let me go, please, and I will kill Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and no one will know it. Why should he murder you, so that all the Judeans who are gathered to you would be scattered, and the remnant in Judah perish?"

Jer 40:16 But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam said to Johanan the son of Kareah, "You will not do this thing, for you speak falsely concerning Ishmael."

Jer 41:1 Now it came to pass in the seventh new moon that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, of the royal family and of the officers of the king, came with ten men to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, at Mizpah, and there they ate bread together in Mizpah.

Jer 41:2 Then Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and the ten men who were with him, arose and struck Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, with the sword, and killed him whom the king of Babylon had made governor over the land.

Jer 41:3 Ishmael also struck down all the Judeans who were with him, that is, with Gedaliah at Mizpah, and the Chaldeans who were found there, the men of war.

Jer 41:4 And it happened, on the second day after he had killed Gedaliah, when as yet no one knew it, Jer 41:5 that certain men came from Shechem, from Shiloh, and from Samaria, eighty men with their beards shaved and their clothes torn, having cut themselves, with offerings and frankincense in their hand, to bring them to the House of Jehovah.

Jer 41:6 Now Ishmael the son of Nethaniah went out from Mizpah to meet them, weeping as he went along; and it happened as he met them that he said to them, "Come to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam!"

Jer 41:7 So it was, when they came into the midst of the city, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah killed them and cast them into the midst of a pit, he and the men who were with him.

Jer 41:8 But ten men were found among them who said to Ishmael, "Do not kill us, for we have treasures of wheat, barley, oil, and honey in the field." So he desisted and did not kill them among their brethren.

Jer 41:9 Now the pit into which Ishmael had cast all the corpses of the men whom he had slain, because of Gedaliah, was the same one Asa the king had made for fear of Baasha king of Israel. Ishmael the son of Nethaniah filled it with the slain.

Jer 41:10 Then Ishmael carried away captive all the rest of the people who were in Mizpah, the king's daughters and all the people who remained in Mizpah, whom Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had committed to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam. And Ishmael the son of Nethaniah carried them away captive and departed to go over to the Ammonites.

Jer 41:11 But when Johanan the son of Kareah and all the captains of the forces that were with him heard of all the evil that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had done, Jer 41:12 they took all the men and went to fight with Ishmael the son of Nethaniah; and they found him by the great pool that is in Gibeon.

Jer 41:13 So it was, when all the people who were with Ishmael saw Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces who were with him, that they were glad.

Jer 41:14 Then all the people whom Ishmael had carried away captive from Mizpah turned around and came back, and went to Johanan the son of Kareah.

Jer 41:15 But Ishmael the son of Nethaniah escaped from Johanan with eight men and went to the Ammonites.

Jer 41:16 Then Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were with him, took from Mizpah all the rest of the people whom he had recovered from Ishmael the son of Nethaniah after he had murdered Gedaliah the son of Ahikam; the mighty men of war and the women and the children and the eunuchs, whom he had brought back from Gibeon.

Jer 41:17 And they departed and dwelt in the habitation of Chimham, which is near Bethlehem, as they went on their way to Egypt, Jer 41:18 because of the Chaldeans; for they were afraid of them, because Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had murdered Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, whom the king of Babylon had made governor in the land.

Jer 42:1 Then all the captains of the forces, Johanan the son of Kareah, Jezaniah the son of Hoshaiah, and all the people, from the least to the greatest, came near Jer 42:2 and said to Jeremiah the prophet, "Please, let our petition be acceptable to you, and pray for us to Jehovah your God, for all this remnant, since we are left but a few of many, as you can see,

Jer 42:3 "that Jehovah your God may show us the way in which we should walk and the thing we should do."

Jer 42:4 Then Jeremiah the prophet said to them, "I have heard. Indeed, I will pray to Jehovah your God according to your words, and it will be, that whatever Jehovah answers you, I will declare it to you. I will keep nothing back from you."

Jer 42:5 Then they said to Jeremiah, "Let Jehovah be a true and faithful witness between us, if we do not do according to everything which Jehovah your God sends us by you,

Jer 42:6 "Whether it is good or evil, we will obey the voice of Jehovah our God to whom we send you, that it may be well with us when we obey the voice of Jehovah our God."

Jer 42:7 And it happened after ten days that Jehovah's word came to Jeremiah.

Jer 42:8 Then he called Johanan the son of Kareah, all the captains of the forces which were with him, and all the people from the least even to the greatest,

Jer 42:9 and said to them, "Thus says Jehovah, the God of Israel, to whom you sent me to present your petition before Him:

Jer 42:10 'If you will still abide in this land, then I will build you and not pull you down, and I will plant you and not pluck you up, for I relent concerning the evil that I have brought upon you.

Jer 42:11 'Do not be afraid of the king of Babylon, of whom you are afraid; do not be afraid of him,' says Jehovah, 'for I am with you, to save you and deliver you from his hand.

Jer 42:12 'And I will show you mercy, that he may have mercy on you and cause you to return to your own land.'

Jer 42:13 "But if you say, 'We will not dwell in this land,' disobeying the voice of Jehovah your God, Jer 42:14 "saying, 'No, but we will go to the land of Egypt where we will see no war, nor hear the sound of the shophar, nor be hungry for bread, and there we will dwell.';

Jer 42:15 "Then hear now Jehovah's word, O remnant of Judah! Thus says Jehovah of Hosts, the God of Israel: 'If you wholly set your faces to enter Egypt, and go to sojourn there, Jer 42:16 'then it will be that the sword which you feared will overtake you there in the land of Egypt; the famine of which you were afraid will follow close after you there in Egypt; and there you will die.

Jer 42:17 'So will it be with all the men who set their faces to go to Egypt to sojourn there. They will die by the sword, by famine, and by pestilence, and none of them will remain or escape from the evil that I will bring upon them.'

Jer 42:18 "For thus says Jehovah of Hosts, the God of Israel: ‘As My anger and My fury have been poured out on the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so will My fury be poured out on you when you enter Egypt. And you will be a swearing, a horror, a curse, and a reproach; and you will see this place no more.’

Jer 42:19 “Jehovah has said concerning you, O remnant of Judah, ‘Do not go to Egypt!’ Know certainly that I have admonished you this day.

Jer 42:20 “For you used deceit against your souls when you sent me to Jehovah your God, saying, ‘Pray for us to Jehovah our God, and according to all that Jehovah your God says, so declare to us and we will do it.’

Jer 42:21 “And I have this day declared it to you, but you have not obeyed the voice of Jehovah your God, or anything which He has sent to you by me.

Jer 42:22 “Now therefore, know certainly that you will die by the sword, by famine, and by pestilence in the place where you desire to go to sojourn.”

Jer 43:1 Now it happened, when Jeremiah had stopped speaking to all the people all the words of Jehovah their God, for which Jehovah their God had sent him to them, all these words, Jer 43:2 that Azariah the son of Hoshaiah, Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the proud men spoke, saying to Jeremiah, “You speak falsely! Jehovah our God has not sent you to say, ‘Do not go to Egypt to sojourn there.’

Jer 43:3 “But Baruch the son of Neriah has set you against us, to deliver us into the hand of the Chaldeans, that they may put us to death or carry us away captive to Babylon.”

Jer 43:4 So Johanan the son of Kareah, all the captains of the forces, and all the people would not obey the voice of Jehovah, to remain in the land of Judah.

Jer 43:5 But Johanan the son of Kareah and all the captains of the forces took all the remnant of Judah who had returned to dwell in the land of Judah, from all nations where they had been driven;

Jer 43:6 men, women, children, the king’s daughters, and every soul whom Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had left with Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, and Jeremiah the prophet and Baruch the son of Neriah.

Jer 43:7 So they went to the land of Egypt, for they did not obey the voice of Jehovah, and they went as far as Tahpanhes.

Jer 43:8 Then Jehovah’s word came to Jeremiah in Tahpanhes, saying,

Jer 43:9 “Take large stones in your hand, and hide them in the sight of the men of Judah, in the clay in the brick courtyard which is at the entrance to Pharaoh’s house in Tahpanhes;

Jer 43:10 “and say to them, ‘Thus says Jehovah of Hosts, the God of Israel: “Behold, I will send and bring Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, My servant, and will set his throne above these stones that I have hidden, and he will spread his royal pavilion over them.

Jer 43:11 “When he comes, he will strike the land of Egypt: death to those for death, and captivity to those for captivity, and the sword to those for the sword.

Jer 43:12 “I will kindle a fire in the houses of the gods of Egypt, and he will burn them and carry them away captive, and he will array himself with the land of Egypt, as a shepherd puts on his garment, and he will go out from there in peace.

Jer 43:13 “He will also break the pillars of the House of the Sun that are in the land of Egypt; and the houses of the gods of the Egyptians he will burn with fire.””

Jer 44:1 The word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the Judeans who dwell in the land of Egypt, who dwell at Migdol, at Tahpanhes, at Noph, and in the country of Pathros, saying,

Jer 44:2 “Thus says Jehovah of Hosts, the God of Israel: ‘You have seen all the evil that I have brought on Jerusalem and on all the cities of Judah; and behold, this day they are ruins, and no one dwells in them, Jer 44:3 ‘because of their evil which they have committed to provoke Me to anger, in that they went to burn and serve other gods whom they did not know, they nor you nor your fathers.

Jer 44:4 ‘However I have sent to you all My servants the prophets, rising early and sending them, saying, “Oh, do not do this abominable thing that I hate!”

Jer 44:5 ‘But they did not listen or incline their ear to turn from their evil, to not burn to other gods.

Jer 44:6 ‘So My fury and My anger were poured out and kindled in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem; and they are ruins and desolate, as it is this day.’

Jer 44:7 “Now therefore, thus says Jehovah, the God of hosts, the God of Israel: ‘Why do you commit this great evil against your souls, to cut off from you man and woman, child and breastfeeding infant, out of Judah, leaving none to remain,

Jer 44:8 ‘in that you provoke Me to wrath with the works of your hands, burning to other gods in the land of Egypt where you have gone to dwell, that you may cut yourselves off and be a curse and a reproach among all the nations of the earth?

Jer 44:9 ‘Have you forgotten the evil of your fathers, the evil of the kings of Judah, the evil of their wives, your own evil, and the evil of your wives, which they committed in the land of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem?

Jer 44:10 ‘They have not been crushed to this day, nor have they feared; they have not walked in My Instructions or in My statutes that I set before you and your fathers.’

Jer 44:11 “Therefore thus says Jehovah of Hosts, the God of Israel: ‘Behold, I will set My face against you for evil and for cutting off all Judah.

Jer 44:12 ‘And I will take the remnant of Judah who have set their faces to go into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, and they will all be consumed and fall in the land of Egypt. They will be consumed by the sword and by famine. They will die, from the least to the greatest, by the sword and by famine; and they will be a swearing and a horror and a curse and a reproach!

Jer 44:13 ‘For I will punish those who dwell in the land of Egypt, as I have punished Jerusalem, by the sword, by famine, and by pestilence, Jer 44:14 ‘so that none of the remnant of Judah who have gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there will escape or survive, lest they return to the land of Judah, to which their souls long to return and dwell. For none will return except those who escape.”

Jer 44:15 Then all the men who knew that their wives had burned to other gods, with all the women who stood by, a great crowd, and all the people who dwelt in the land of Egypt, in Pathros, answered Jeremiah, saying:

Jer 44:16 “As for the word that you have spoken to us in the name of Jehovah, we will not listen to you!

Jer 44:17 “But we will certainly do whatever has gone out of our own mouth, to burn to the queen of heaven and pour out drink offerings to her, as we have done, we and our fathers, our kings and our princes, in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem. For then we had plenty of bread, were well-off, and saw no evil.

Jer 44:18 “But since we stopped burning to the queen of heaven and pouring out drink offerings to her, we have lacked everything and have been consumed by the sword and by famine.”

Jer 44:19 The women also said, "And when we burned to the queen of heaven and poured out drink offerings to her, did we make cakes for her, to worship her, and pour out drink offerings to her without our husbands?"

Jer 44:20 Then Jeremiah spoke to all the people; the men, the women, and all the people who had given him that answer; saying:

Jer 44:21 "The incense that you burned in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem, you and your fathers, your kings and your princes, and the people of the land, did not Jehovah remember them, and did it not come into His mind?

Jer 44:22 "So Jehovah could no longer bear it, because of the evil of your doings and because of the abominations which you committed. Therefore your land is a wasteland, a horror, a curse, and uninhabited, as it is this day.

Jer 44:23 "Because you have sacrificed and because you have sinned against Jehovah, and have not obeyed the voice of Jehovah or walked in His Instructions, in His statutes or in His testimonies, therefore this evil has happened to you, as at this day."

Jer 44:24 Moreover Jeremiah said to all the people and to all the women, "Hear Jehovah's word, all Judah who are in the land of Egypt!

Jer 44:25 "Thus says Jehovah of Hosts, the God of Israel, saying: 'You and your wives have spoken with your mouths and fulfilled with your hands, saying, "We will surely perform our vows that we have made, to burn to the queen of heaven and pour out drink offerings to her." You will surely fulfil your vows and perform your vows!'

Jer 44:26 "Therefore hear Jehovah's word, all Judah who dwell in the land of Egypt: 'Behold, I have sworn by My great Name,' says Jehovah, 'that My Name will no more be named in the mouth of any man of Judah in all the land of Egypt, saying, "Lord Jehovah lives."

Jer 44:27 'Behold, I will watch over them for evil and not for good. And all the men of Judah who are in the land of Egypt will be consumed by the sword and by famine, until there is an end to them.

Jer 44:28 'Yet a small number who escape the sword will return from the land of Egypt to the land of Judah; and all the remnant of Judah, who have gone to the land of Egypt to sojourn there, will know whose words will stand, Mine or theirs.

Jer 44:29 'And this will be a sign to you,' says Jehovah, 'that I will punish you in this place, that you may know that My words will surely stand against you for evil.'

Jer 44:30 "Thus says Jehovah: 'Behold, I will give Pharaoh Hophra king of Egypt into the hand of his enemies and into the hand of those who seek his soul, as I gave Zedekiah king of Judah into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, his enemy who sought his soul.'"

Jer 45:1 The word that Jeremiah the prophet spoke to Baruch the son of Neriah, when he had written these words in a book from Jeremiah's mouth, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, saying,

Jer 45:2 "Thus says Jehovah, the God of Israel, to you, O Baruch:

Jer 45:3 'You said, "Woe is me now! For Jehovah has added grief to my sorrow. I fainted in my sighing, and I find no rest.'"

Jer 45:4 "Thus you will say to him, 'Thus says Jehovah: "Behold, what I have built I will break down, and what I have planted I will pluck up, that is, this whole land.

Jer 45:5 "And do you seek great things for yourself? Do not seek them; for behold, I will bring evil on all flesh," says Jehovah, "But I will give your soul to you as a prize in all places, wherever you go.'"

Jer 46:1 The word of Jehovah which came to Jeremiah the prophet against the nations,

Jer 46:2 against Egypt, concerning the army of Pharaoh Necho, king of Egypt, which was by the River Euphrates in Carchemish, and which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon defeated in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah:

Jer 46:3 “Order the buckler and shield, and draw near to battle!

Jer 46:4 Harness the horses, and mount up, you horsemen! Stand forth with your helmets, polish the spears, put on the armour!

Jer 46:5 Why have I seen them dismayed and turned back? Their mighty ones are beaten down; they have speedily fled, and did not look back, for fear was all around.” says Jehovah.

Jer 46:6 “Do not let the swift flee away, nor the mighty man escape; they will stumble and fall toward the north, by the River Euphrates.

Jer 46:7 “Who is this coming up like the Nile, whose waters move like the rivers?

Jer 46:8 Egypt rises up like the Nile, and its waters move like the rivers; and he says, ‘I will go up and cover the earth, I will destroy the city and its inhabitants.’

Jer 46:9 Come up, O horses and glory, O chariots! And let the mighty men come forth: the Cushites and the Libyans¹ who handle the shield, and the Lydians who handle and bend the bow, Jer 46:10 for this is the day of Lord Jehovah of Hosts, a day of vengeance, that He may avenge Himself on His adversaries. The sword will devour. It will be satiated and made drunk with their blood; for Lord Jehovah of Hosts has a sacrifice in the north country by the River Euphrates.

Jer 46:11 “Go up to Gilead and take balm, O virgin, the daughter of Egypt; in vain you will use many medicines; you will not be cured.

Jer 46:12 The nations have heard of your shame, and your cry has filled the land; for the mighty man has stumbled against the mighty; they have both fallen together.”

Jer 46:13 The word that Jehovah spoke to Jeremiah the prophet, how Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon would come and strike the land of Egypt:

Jer 46:14 “Declare in Egypt, and proclaim in Migdol; Proclaim in Noph and in Tahpanhes; say, ‘Stand fast and prepare yourselves, for the sword devours all around you.’

Jer 46:15 Why are your valiant men swept away? They did not stand because Jehovah drove them away.

Jer 46:16 He made many fall; yes, one fell upon another. And they said, ‘Arise! Let us go back to our own people and to the land of our nativity from the oppressing sword.’

Jer 46:17 They cried there, ‘Pharaoh, king of Egypt, is but a noise! He has passed by the appointed time!’

Jer 46:18 “As I live,” says the King, whose name is Jehovah of Hosts, “As surely as Tabor is among the mountains and Carmel is by the sea, so he will come.

Jer 46:19 O you daughter dwelling in Egypt, prepare yourself to go into captivity! For Noph will be a horror and be desolate, uninhabited.

Jer 46:20 “Egypt is like a very pretty heifer, but destruction comes, it comes from the north.

Jer 46:21 Also her hired servants are in her midst like fat bulls, for they also are turned back, they have fled away together. They did not stand, for the day of their calamity had come upon them, the time of their punishment.

Jer 46:22 Her noise will go like a serpent, for they will march with an army and come against her with axes, like those who chop wood.

Jer 46:23 “They will cut down her forest,” says Jehovah, “Though it cannot be searched, because they are innumerable, and more numerous than grasshoppers.

Jer 46:24 The daughter of Egypt will be ashamed; she will be delivered into the hand of the people of the north.”

Jer 46:25 Jehovah of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: “Behold, I will bring punishment on Amon of No, and Pharaoh and Egypt, with their gods and their kings; Pharaoh and those who trust in him.

Jer 46:26 “And I will deliver them into the hand of those who seek their souls, into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and the hand of his servants. Afterwards it will be inhabited as in the days of old.” says Jehovah.

Jer 46:27 “But do not fear, O My servant Jacob, and do not be dismayed, O Israel! For behold, I will save you from afar, and your offspring from the land of their captivity. Jacob will return, have rest and be at ease. No one will make him afraid.

Jer 46:28 Do not fear, O Jacob My servant,” says Jehovah, “for I am with you. I will make a complete end of all the nations to which I have driven you, but I will not make a complete end of you. My judgement will chasten you, for I will not leave you wholly unpunished.”

Jer 47:1 The word of Jehovah that came to Jeremiah the prophet against the Philistines, before Pharaoh attacked Gaza:

Jer 47:2 Thus says Jehovah; “Behold, waters rise out of the north, and will be an overflowing torrent. They will overflow the land and all that is in it, the city and those who dwell within; then the men will cry, and all the inhabitants of the land will wail.

Jer 47:3 At the noise of the stamping hooves of his strong horses, at the rushing of his chariots, at the rumbling of his wheels, the fathers will not look back for their children, lacking courage, Jer 47:4 because of the day that comes to plunder all the Philistines, to cut off from Tyre and Sidon every helper who remains; for Jehovah will plunder the Philistines, the remnant of the country of Caphtor.

Jer 47:5 Baldness has come upon Gaza, Ashkelon is cut off with the remnant of their valley. How long will you cut yourself?

Jer 47:6 “O you sword of Jehovah, how long until you are quiet? Put yourself up into your scabbard, rest and be still!

Jer 47:7 How can it be quiet, seeing Jehovah has given it a charge against Ashkelon and against the seashore? There He has appointed it.”

Jer 48:1 Against Moab: Thus says Jehovah of Hosts, the God of Israel: “Woe to Nebo, for it is plundered! Kirjathaim is shamed and taken; the high stronghold is shamed and dismayed.

Jer 48:2 No more praise of Moab. In Heshbon they have devised evil against her: ‘Come, and let us cut her off as a nation.’ You also will be cut down, O Madmen! The sword will pursue you.

Jer 48:3 A voice of crying will come from Horonaim: ‘Plundering and great destruction!’

Jer 48:4 “Moab is destroyed; her little ones have caused a cry to be heard;

Jer 48:5 for in the ascent of Luhith they ascend with continual weeping. For in the descent of Horonaim the enemies have heard a cry of destruction,

Jer 48:6 “Flee, save your souls! And be like the juniper in the wilderness, Jer 48:7 because you have trusted in your works and your treasures, you also will be taken. And Chemosh will go forth into captivity, his priests and his princes together.

Jer 48:8 And the plunderer will come against every city; no one will escape. The valley also will perish, and the plain will be destroyed, as Jehovah has spoken.

Jer 48:9 “Give wings to Moab, that she may flee and get away; for her cities will be a horror, without any to dwell in them.

Jer 48:10 Cursed is he who does the work of Jehovah deceitfully, and cursed is he who keeps back his sword from blood.

Jer 48:11 "Moab has been at ease from his youth; he has settled on his dregs, and has not been emptied from vessel to vessel, nor has he gone into captivity. Therefore his taste remained in him, and his scent has not changed.

Jer 48:12 "Therefore behold, the days are coming," says Jehovah, "That I will send him tippers who will tip him, empty his vessels and break the bottles.

Jer 48:13 Moab will be ashamed of Chemosh, as the house of Israel was ashamed of Bethel, their confidence.

Jer 48:14 "How can you say, 'We are mighty and strong men for the war.'?"

Jer 48:15 Moab is plundered and gone up from her cities; her chosen young men have gone down to the slaughter," says the King, whose name is Jehovah of Hosts.

Jer 48:16 "The calamity of Moab is near at hand, and his evil comes quickly.

Jer 48:17 Bemoan him, all you who are around him; and all you who know his name, say, 'How the strong branch is broken, the beautiful stick!'

Jer 48:18 "O daughter inhabiting Dibon, come down from your glory, and sit in thirst; for the plunderer of Moab has come against you. He has destroyed your strongholds.

Jer 48:19 O inhabitant of Aroer, stand by the way and watch; ask him who flees and her who escapes; say, 'What has happened?'

Jer 48:20 Moab is shamed, for he is broken down. Wail and cry! Tell it in Arnon, that Moab is plundered.

Jer 48:21 "And judgement has come on the plain country: on Holon and Jahzah and Mephaath,

Jer 48:22 on Dibon and Nebo and Beth Diblathaim,

Jer 48:23 on Kirjathaim and Beth Gamul and Beth Meon, Jer 48:24 on Kerieth and Bozrah, on all the cities of the land of Moab, far or near.

Jer 48:25 The horn of Moab is cut off, and his arm is broken," says Jehovah.

Jer 48:26 "Make him drunk, for he magnified himself against Jehovah. Moab will wallow in his vomit, and he will also be in derision, Jer 48:27 for was not Israel a derision to you? Was he found among thieves? For whenever you speak of him, you shake your head in scorn.

Jer 48:28 You who dwell in Moab, leave the cities and dwell in the rock, and be like the dove which makes her nest in the sides of the cave's mouth.

Jer 48:29 "We have heard the pride of Moab—he is exceedingly proud of his loftiness and arrogance and pride, and of the haughtiness of his heart."

Jer 48:30 "I know his wrath," says Jehovah, "But it is not right; his lies have made nothing right.

Jer 48:31 Therefore I will wail for Moab, and I will cry out for all Moab; I will mourn for the men of Kir Heres.

Jer 48:32 O vine of Sibmah! I will weep for you with the weeping of Jazer. Your plants have gone over the sea, they reach to the sea of Jazer. The plunderer has fallen on your summer fruit and your vintage.

Jer 48:33 Joy and gladness are taken from the plentiful field and from the land of Moab. I have caused wine to fail from the winepresses; no one will tread with joyous shouting; not joyous shouting!

Jer 48:34 "From the cry of Heshbon to Elealeh and to Jahaz they have uttered their voice, from Zoar to Horonaim, like a three-year-old heifer; for the waters of Nimrim also will be desolate.

Jer 48:35 "Moreover," says Jehovah, "I will cause to cease in Moab the one who comes up to the high places and burns to his gods.

Jer 48:36 Therefore My heart will wail like flutes for Moab, and like flutes My heart will wail for the men of Kir Heres.¹ Therefore the riches they have acquired have perished, Jer 48:37 “for every head will be bald, and every beard clipped; on all the hands will be cuts, and on the loins sackcloth.

Jer 48:38 For there will be a general lamentation on all the housetops of Moab and in its streets; for I have broken Moab like a vessel in which is no pleasure.” says Jehovah.

Jer 48:39 “They will wail: ‘How she is broken down! How Moab has turned her back with shame! So Moab will be a derision and a dismay to all those about her.’”

Jer 48:40 For thus says Jehovah: “Behold, one will fly like an eagle, and spread his wings over Moab.

Jer 48:41 Kerioth is taken, and the strongholds are surprised; the mighty men’s hearts in Moab on that day will be like the heart of a woman in birth pangs.

Jer 48:42 And Moab will be destroyed as a people, because he has magnified himself against Jehovah.

Jer 48:43 Fear and the pit and the snare will be upon you, O inhabitant of Moab.” says Jehovah.

Jer 48:44 “He who flees from the fear will fall into the pit, and he who gets out of the pit will be caught in the snare. For upon Moab, upon it I will bring the year of their punishment.” says Jehovah.

Jer 48:45 “Those who fled stood under the shadow of Heshbon because of exhaustion. But a fire will come out of Heshbon, a flame from the midst of Sihon, and will devour the brow of Moab, the crown of the head of the sons of tumult.

Jer 48:46 Woe to you, O Moab! The people of Chemosh perish; for your sons have been taken captive, and your daughters captive.

Jer 48:47 “Yet I will bring back the captives of Moab in the latter day.” says Jehovah. Thus far is the judgement of Moab.

Jer 49:1 Against the Ammonites, thus says Jehovah: “Has Israel no sons? Has he no heir? Why then does Milcham inherit Gad, and his people dwell in its cities?

Jer 49:2 Therefore behold, the days are coming,” says Jehovah, “that I will cause to be heard the shouting of war in Rabbah of the Ammonites. It will be a desolate mound, and her villages will be burned with fire. Then Israel will take possession of his inheritance.” says Jehovah.

Jer 49:3 “Wail, O Heshbon, for Ai is plundered! Cry, you daughters of Rabbah, gird yourselves with sackcloth! Lament and run to and fro by the walls; for Milcham will go into captivity with his priests and his princes together.

Jer 49:4 Why do you glory in the valleys, your flowing valley, O backsliding daughter who trusted in her treasures, saying, ‘Who will come against me?’

Jer 49:5 Behold, I will bring fear upon you,” says Lord Jehovah of Hosts, “from all those who are around you. You will be driven out, everyone headlong, and no one will gather those who wander off.

Jer 49:6 But afterwards I will bring back the captives of the people of Ammon.” says Jehovah.

Jer 49:7 Against Edom, thus says Jehovah of Hosts: “Is wisdom no more in Teman? Has counsel perished from the prudent? Has their wisdom vanished?

Jer 49:8 Flee, turn back, dwell in the depths, O inhabitants of Dedan! For I will bring the calamity of Esau upon him, the time that I will punish him.

Jer 49:9 If grape-gatherers came to you, would they not leave some gleaning grapes? If thieves by night, would they not destroy until they have enough?

Jer 49:10 But I have made Esau bare; I have uncovered his secret places, and he will not be able to hide himself. His descendants are plundered, his brethren and his neighbours, and he is no more.

Jer 49:11 Leave your fatherless children, I will preserve them alive; and let your widows trust in Me.”

Jer 49:12 For thus says Jehovah: “Behold, those whose judgement was not to drink of the cup have truly drunk, and are you the one who will altogether go unpunished? You will not go unpunished, but you will surely drink of it.

Jer 49:13 “For I have sworn by Myself,” says Jehovah, “that Bozrah will become a horror, a reproach, a waste, and a curse, and all its cities will be perpetual ruins.”

Jer 49:14 I have heard a message from Jehovah, and an ambassador has been sent to the nations: “Gather together, come against her, and rise up to battle!

Jer 49:15 “For indeed, I will make you small among nations, despised among men.

Jer 49:16 Your fierceness has deceived you, the pride of your heart, O you who dwell in the clefts of the rock, who hold the height of the hill! Though you make your nest as high as the eagle, I will bring you down from there.” says the Lord.

Jer 49:17 “Edom also will be a horror. Everyone who goes by it will be appalled and will hiss at all its plagues, Jer 49:18 as in the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah and their neighbouring cities.” says Jehovah. “No one will abide there, nor will a son of man dwell in it.

Jer 49:19 “Behold, he will come up like a lion from the flooding of the Jordan against the habitation of the strong; but I will suddenly make him run away from her. And who is a chosen man that I may appoint over her? For who is like Me? Who will meet with Me? And who is that shepherd who will stand before Me?”

Jer 49:20 Therefore hear the counsel of Jehovah that He has taken against Edom, and His purposes that He has proposed against the inhabitants of Teman. Surely the least of the flock will draw them out; surely He will make their habitations desolate with them.

Jer 49:21 The earth shakes at the noise of their fall; at the cry its noise is heard at the Soph Sea.

Jer 49:22 Behold, He will come up and fly like the eagle, and spread His wings over Bozrah. The heart of the mighty men of Edom in that day will be like the heart of a woman in birth pangs.

Jer 49:23 Against Damascus, “Hamath and Arpad are shamed, for they have heard evil news. They are fainthearted. There is trouble on the sea; it cannot be quiet.

Jer 49:24 Damascus has grown feeble and turns to flee and fear has seized her. Trouble and sorrows have taken her like a woman in labour.

Jer 49:25 Why is the city of praise not deserted, the city of My joy?

Jer 49:26 Therefore her young men will fall in her streets, and all the men of war will be cut off in that day.” says Jehovah of Hosts.

Jer 49:27 “I will kindle a fire in the wall of Damascus, and it will consume the palaces of Ben-Hadad.”

Jer 49:28 Against Kedar and against the kingdoms of Hazor, which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon will strike, thus says Jehovah: “Arise, go up to Kedar, and devastate the men of the East!

Jer 49:29 Their tents and their flocks they will take away. They will take for themselves their curtains, all their vessels and their camels; and they will cry out to them, ‘Fear is on every side!’

Jer 49:30 “Flee, get far away! Dwell in the depths, O inhabitants of Hazor!” says Jehovah, “For Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has taken counsel against you, and has conceived a plan against you.

Jer 49:31 "Arise, go up to the wealthy nation that dwells securely," says Jehovah, "which has neither gates nor bars, dwelling alone.

Jer 49:32 Their camels will be for booty, and the multitude of their cattle for plunder. I will scatter to all winds those in the farthest corners, and I will bring their calamity from all its sides," says Jehovah.

Jer 49:33 "Hazor will be a habitation for dragons, a desolation forever; no one will reside there, nor son of man dwell in it."

Jer 49:34 The word of Jehovah that came to Jeremiah the prophet against Elam, in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, saying, Jer 49:35 "Thus says Jehovah of Hosts: 'Behold, I will break the bow of Elam, the foremost of their might.

Jer 49:36 Against Elam I will bring the four winds from the four quarters of heaven, and scatter them toward all those winds. There will be no nations where the outcasts of Elam will not go, Jer 49:37 For I will cause Elam to be dismayed before their enemies and before those who seek their souls. I will bring evil upon them, my fierce anger,' says Jehovah; 'and I will send the sword after them until I have consumed them.

Jer 49:38 I will set My throne in Elam, and will destroy from there the king and the princes.' says Jehovah.

Jer 49:39 'But it will come to pass in the latter days: I will bring back the captives of Elam,' says Jehovah."

Jer 50:1 The word that Jehovah spoke against Babylon and against the land of the Chaldeans by Jeremiah the prophet:

Jer 50:2 "Declare among the nations, proclaim and set up a standard; proclaim and do not conceal it. Say, 'Babylon is taken, Bel is shamed. Merodach is broken in pieces; her idols are humiliated, her images are broken in pieces.'

Jer 50:3 For out of the north a nation comes up against her, which will make her land a horror, and no one will dwell there. They will move, they will depart, both man and beast.

Jer 50:4 "In those days and in that time," says Jehovah, "The children of Israel will come, they and the children of Judah together; with continual weeping they will come, and seek Jehovah their God.

Jer 50:5 They will ask the way to Zion, with their faces toward it, saying, 'Come and let us join ourselves to Jehovah in a perpetual covenant that will not be forgotten.'

Jer 50:6 "My people have been lost sheep. Their shepherds have led them astray; they have turned them away on the mountains. They have gone from mountain to hill; they have forgotten their resting place.

Jer 50:7 All who found them have devoured them; and their adversaries said, 'We have not offended, because they have sinned against Jehovah, the habitation of justice, Jehovah, the hope of their fathers.'

Jer 50:8 "Move from the midst of Babylon, go out of the land of the Chaldeans; and be like the rams before the flocks, Jer 50:9 For behold, I will raise and cause to come up against Babylon an assembly of great nations from the north country, and they will array themselves against her. From there she will be captured. Their arrows will be like those of an expert warrior; none will return worthlessly.

Jer 50:10 And Chaldea will become plunder; all who plunder her will be satisfied," says Jehovah.

Jer 50:11 "Because you were glad, because you rejoiced, you destroyers of My heritage, because you have grown fat like a heifer threshing grain, and you bellow like bulls,

Jer 50:12 your mother will be deeply ashamed; she who bore you will be ashamed. Behold, the least of the nations will be a wilderness, a dry land and a desert plain.

Jer 50:13 Because of the wrath of Jehovah she will not be inhabited, but she will be wholly desolate. Everyone who goes by Babylon will be horrified and hiss at all her plagues.

Jer 50:14 "Put yourselves in array against Babylon all around, all you who bend the bow; shoot at her, spare no arrows, for she has sinned against Jehovah.

Jer 50:15 Shout against her all around; she has given her hand, her foundations have fallen, her walls are thrown down; for it is the vengeance of Jehovah. Take vengeance on her. As she has done, so do to her.

Jer 50:16 Cut off the sower from Babylon, and him who handles the sickle at harvest time. For fear of the oppressing sword everyone will turn to his own people, and everyone will flee to his own land.

Jer 50:17 "Israel is like scattered sheep; the lions have driven him away. First the king of Assyria devoured him; now at last this Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has broken his bones."

Jer 50:18 Therefore thus says Jehovah of Hosts, the God of Israel: "Behold, I will punish the king of Babylon and his land, as I have punished the king of Assyria.

Jer 50:19 But I will bring back Israel to his habitation, and he will feed on Carmel and Bashan; his soul will be satisfied on Mount Ephraim and Gilead.

Jer 50:20 In those days and in that time," says Jehovah, "The iniquity of Israel will be sought, but there will be none; and the sins of Judah, but they will not be found; for I will pardon those whom I preserve.

Jer 50:21 "Go up against the land of Merathaim, against it, and against the inhabitants of Pekod. Waste and utterly destroy them," says Jehovah, "and do according to all that I have commanded you.

Jer 50:22 A sound of battle is in the land, and of great destruction.

Jer 50:23 How the hammer of the whole earth has been cut apart and broken! How Babylon has become a horror among the nations! I have laid a snare for you;

Jer 50:24 You have indeed been trapped, O Babylon, and you were not aware. You have been found and also caught, because you have contended against the Lord.

Jer 50:25 Jehovah has opened His armoury, and has brought out the weapons of His indignation; for this is the work of Lord Jehovah of Hosts in the land of the Chaldeans.

Jer 50:26 Come against her from the farthest border; open her storehouses; cast her up as heaps of ruins, and destroy her utterly; let nothing of her be left.

Jer 50:27 Slay all her bulls, let them go down to the slaughter. Woe to them, for their day has come, the time of their punishment.

Jer 50:28 The voice of those who flee and escape from the land of Babylon declares in Zion the vengeance of Jehovah our God, the vengeance for His Palace.

Jer 50:29 "Call together the archers against Babylon. All you who bend the bow, encamp against it all around; let none of them escape. Repay her according to her work; according to all she has done, do to her; for she has been proud against Jehovah, against the Sacred One of Israel.

Jer 50:30 Therefore her young men will fall in the streets, and all her men of war will be cut off in that day," says Jehovah.

Jer 50:31 "Behold, I am against you, O you most proud!" says Lord Jehovah of Hosts; "For your day has come, the time that I will punish you.

Jer 50:32 The most proud will stumble and fall, and no one will raise him up; I will kindle a fire in his cities, and it will devour all around him."

Jer 50:33 Thus says Jehovah of Hosts: "The children of Israel were oppressed, along with the children of Judah; all who took them captive have held them fast; they have refused to let them go.

Jer 50:34 Their Redeemer is strong; Jehovah of Hosts is His Name. He will thoroughly plead their case, that He may give rest to the land, and disquiet the inhabitants of Babylon.

Jer 50:35 "A sword is against the Chaldeans," says Jehovah, "against the inhabitants of Babylon, and against her princes and her wise men.

Jer 50:36 A sword is against the soothsayers, and they will be fools. A sword is against her mighty men, and they will be dismayed.

Jer 50:37 A sword is against their horses, against their chariots, and against all the mixed peoples who are in her midst; and they will become like women. A sword is against her treasures, and they will be robbed.

Jer 50:38 A drought is against her waters, and they will be dried up, for it is the land of carved images, and they are insane with their idols.

Jer 50:39 "Therefore the wild desert beasts will dwell there with the jackals, and the ostriches will dwell in it. It will be inhabited no more forever, nor will it be dwelt in from generation to generation.

Jer 50:40 As God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah and their neighbouring cities," says Jehovah, "So no one will reside there, nor son of man dwell in it.

Jer 50:41 "Behold, a people will come from the north, and a great nation and many kings will be raised up from the ends of the earth.

Jer 50:42 They will hold the bow and the lance; they are cruel and will not show mercy. Their voice will roar like the sea. They will ride on horses, set in array, like a man for the battle, against you, O daughter of Babylon.

Jer 50:43 "The king of Babylon has heard the report about them, and his hands grow feeble; trouble has taken hold of him, pangs as of a woman in childbirth.

Jer 50:44 "Behold, he will come up like a lion from the flooding of the Jordan against the habitation of the strong; but I will make them suddenly run away from her. And who is a chosen man that I may appoint over her? For who is like Me? Who will arraign Me? And who is that shepherd who will withstand Me?"

Jer 50:45 Therefore hear the counsel of Jehovah that He has taken against Babylon, and His purposes that He has proposed against the land of the Chaldeans. Surely the least of the flock will draw them out; surely He will make their habitation desolate with them.

Jer 50:46 At the noise of the taking of Babylon the earth trembles, and the cry is heard among the nations.

Jer 51:1 Thus says Jehovah: "Behold, I will raise up against Babylon, against those who dwell in Leb Kamai, a destroying wind.

Jer 51:2 And I will send winnowers to Babylon, who will winnow her and empty her land, for in the day of evil they will be against her all around.

Jer 51:3 Against her let the archer bend his bow, and lift himself up against her in his armour. Do not spare her young men; utterly destroy all her army.

Jer 51:4 Thus the slain will fall in the land of the Chaldeans, and those thrust through in her streets.

Jer 51:5 For Israel is not forsaken, nor Judah, by his God, Jehovah of Hosts, though their land was filled with sin against the Sacred One of Israel."

Jer 51:6 Flee from the midst of Babylon, and every one save his soul! Do not be cut off in her iniquity, for this is the time of Jehovah's vengeance. He will recompense her.

Jer 51:7 Babylon was a golden cup in Jehovah's hand that made all the earth drunk. The nations drank her wine; therefore the nations are deranged.

Jer 51:8 Babylon has suddenly fallen and been destroyed. Wail for her! Take balm for her pain; perhaps she may be healed.

Jer 51:9 We would have healed Babylon, but she is not healed. Forsake her, and let us go, everyone to his own country; for her judgement reaches to heaven and is lifted up to the skies.

Jer 51:10 Jehovah has revealed our righteousness. Come and let us declare in Zion the work of Jehovah our God.

Jer 51:11 Make the arrows bright! Gather the shields! Jehovah has raised the spirit of the kings of the Medes, for His plan is against Babylon to destroy it, because it is the vengeance of Jehovah, the vengeance for His Palace.

Jer 51:12 Set up the standard on the walls of Babylon; make the guard strong, set up the watchmen, prepare the ambushes, for Jehovah has both devised and done what He spoke against the inhabitants of Babylon.

Jer 51:13 O you who dwell by many waters, abundant in treasures, your end has come, the measure of your covetousness.

Jer 51:14 Jehovah of Hosts has sworn by His soul: "Surely I will fill you with men, as with locusts, and they will lift up a shout against you."

Jer 51:15 He has made the earth by His power; He has established the world by His wisdom, and stretched out the heaven by His understanding.

Jer 51:16 When He utters His voice there is a multitude of waters in the heavens: "He causes the vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth; He makes lightnings for the rain; He brings the wind out of His treasures."

Jer 51:17 Everyone is dull-hearted, without knowledge; every metalsmith is put to shame by the carved image; for his moulded image is falsehood, and there is no breath in them.

Jer 51:18 They are futile, a work of errors; in the time of their punishment they will perish.

Jer 51:19 The Portion of Jacob is not like them, for He is the Maker of all things; and Israel is the branch of His inheritance. Jehovah of Hosts is His Name.

Jer 51:20 "You are My battle-axe and weapons of war: for with you I will break the nation in pieces; with you I will destroy kingdoms;

Jer 51:21 with you I will break in pieces the horse and its rider; with you I will break in pieces the chariot and its rider.

Jer 51:22 With you also I will break in pieces man and woman; with you I will break in pieces old and young; with you I will break in pieces the young man and the virgin.

Jer 51:23 With you also I will break in pieces the shepherd and his flock; with you I will break in pieces the farmer and his yoke of oxen; and with you I will break in pieces governors and rulers.

Jer 51:24 "And I will repay Babylon and all the inhabitants of Chaldea for all the evil they have done in Zion in your sight," says Jehovah.

Jer 51:25 "Behold, I am against you, O destroying mountain, who destroys all the earth," says Jehovah, "And I will stretch out My hand against you, roll you down from the rocks, and make you a burnt mountain.

Jer 51:26 They will not take from you a stone for a corner nor a stone for a foundation, but you will be desolate forever," says Jehovah.

Jer 51:27 Set up a banner in the land, blow the shophar among the nations! Prepare the nations against her, call the kingdoms together against her: Ararat, Minni, and Ashchenaz. Appoint a marshal against her; cause the horses to come up like the bristling locusts.

Jer 51:28 Prepare against her the nations, with the kings of the Medes, its governors and all its rulers, all the land of his dominion.

Jer 51:29 And the land will tremble and sorrow; for every purpose of Jehovah will be performed against Babylon, to make the land of Babylon an uninhabited horror.

Jer 51:30 The mighty men of Babylon have ceased fighting, they have remained in their strongholds. Their might has failed, they became like women; they have burned her booths, the bars of her gate are broken.

Jer 51:31 One runner will run to meet another, and one envoy to meet another, to show the king of Babylon that his city is taken on all sides.

Jer 51:32 The passages are blocked, the reeds they have burned with fire, and the men of war are terrified.

Jer 51:33 For thus says Jehovah of Hosts, the God of Israel: "The daughter of Babylon is like a threshing floor when it is time to thresh her; yet a little while and the time of her harvest will come."

Jer 51:34 "Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon has devoured me, he has crushed me; he has made me an empty vessel, he has swallowed me up like a dragon; he has filled his stomach with my delicacies, he has spit me out.

Jer 51:35 Let the violence done to me and my flesh be upon Babylon," the inhabitant of Zion will say. "And my blood be upon the inhabitants of Chaldea!" Jerusalem will say.

Jer 51:36 Therefore thus says Jehovah: "Behold, I will plead your case and take vengeance for you. I will dry up her sea and make her springs dry.

Jer 51:37 Babylon will become a heap, a habitation of dragons, a horror and a hissing, without inhabitant.

Jer 51:38 They will roar together like lions, they will growl like lions' whelps.

Jer 51:39 In their excitement I will prepare their feasts; I will make them drunk, that they may rejoice, and sleep a perpetual sleep and not awake." says Jehovah.

Jer 51:40 I will bring them down like lambs to the slaughter, like rams with male goats.

Jer 51:41 "Oh, how Sheshach is taken! Oh, how the praise of the whole earth is seized! How Babylon has become a horror among the nations!

Jer 51:42 The sea has come up over Babylon; she is covered with the multitude of its waves.

Jer 51:43 Her cities are a horror, a dry land and a desert plain, a land where no one dwells, through which no son of man passes.

Jer 51:44 I will punish Bel in Babylon, and I will bring out of his mouth what he has swallowed; and the nations will not stream to him anymore. Yes, the wall of Babylon will fall.

Jer 51:45 "My people, go out of the midst of her!¹ And let everyone deliver his soul from the fierce anger of Jehovah.

Jer 51:46 And lest your heart faint, and you fear for the rumour that will be heard in the land. A rumour will come one year, and after that, in another year a rumour will come, and violence in the land, ruler against ruler.

Jer 51:47 Therefore behold, the days are coming that I will bring judgement on the carved images of Babylon. Her whole land will be ashamed, and all her slain will fall in her midst.

Jer 51:48 Then the heavens and the earth and all that is in them will sing joyously over Babylon; for the plunderers will come to her from the north." says Jehovah.

Jer 51:49 As Babylon has caused the slain of Israel to fall, so at Babylon the slain of all the earth will fall.

Jer 51:50 You who have escaped the sword, get away! Do not stand still! Remember Jehovah afar off, and let Jerusalem come to your mind.

Jer 51:51 We are ashamed because we have heard reproach. Shame has covered our faces, for strangers have come into the Sanctuary of Jehovah's House.

Jer 51:52 "Therefore behold, the days are coming," says Jehovah, "that I will bring judgement on her carved images, and throughout all her land the wounded will groan.

Jer 51:53 Though Babylon were to mount up to heaven, and though she were to fortify the height of her strength, yet from Me plunderers would come to her." says Jehovah.

Jer 51:54 The sound of a cry comes from Babylon, and great destruction from the land of the Chaldeans,

Jer 51:55 because Jehovah is plundering Babylon and silencing her loud voice, though her waves roar like great waters, and the noise of their voice is uttered, Jer 51:56 because the plunderer comes against her, against Babylon, and her mighty men are taken. Every one of their bows is broken; for the God of Retribution, Jehovah, will surely repay.

Jer 51:57 "And I will make drunk her princes and wise men, her governors, her deputies, and her mighty men, and they will sleep a perpetual sleep and not awake." says the King, whose name is Jehovah of Hosts.

Jer 51:58 Thus says Jehovah of Hosts: "The broad walls of Babylon will be utterly broken, and her high gates will be burned with fire. The people will labour worthlessly, and the nations, because of the fire; and they will be weary."

Jer 51:59 The word which Jeremiah the prophet commanded Seraiah the son of Neriah, the son of Mahseiah, when he went with Zedekiah the king of Judah to Babylon in the fourth year of his reign and Seraiah was the quartermaster.

Jer 51:60 So Jeremiah wrote in a book all the evil that would come upon Babylon, all these words that are written against Babylon.

Jer 51:61 And Jeremiah said to Seraiah, "When you arrive in Babylon and see it, and read all these words, Jer 51:62 "then you will say, 'O Jehovah, You have spoken against this place to cut it off, so that none will remain in it, neither man nor beast, but it will be desolate forever.'

Jer 51:63 "Now it will be, when you have finished reading this book, that you will tie a stone to it and throw it out into the Euphrates.

Jer 51:64 "Then you will say, 'Thus Babylon will sink and not rise from the evil that I will bring upon her, and they will be weary.'"

Thus far are the words of Jeremiah.

Jer 52:1 Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.

Jer 52:2 He also did evil in the sight of Jehovah, according to all that Jehoiakim had done.

Jer 52:3 For because of the anger of Jehovah this happened in Jerusalem and Judah, until He finally cast them out from His presence. Then Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

Jer 52:4 Now it came to pass in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth new moon, on the tenth day of the new moon, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and all his army came against Jerusalem and encamped against it; and they built a siege wall against it all around.

Jer 52:5 So the city was besieged until the eleventh year of King Zedekiah.

Jer 52:6 By the fourth new moon, on the ninth day of the new moon, the famine had become so severe in the city that there was no food for the people of the land.

Jer 52:7 Then the city wall was split open, and all the men of war fled and went out of the city at night by way of the gate between the two walls, which was by the king's garden, even though the Chaldeans were near the city all around. And they went by way of the desert plain.

Jer 52:8 But the army of the Chaldeans pursued the king, and they overtook Zedekiah in the desert plain of Jericho. All his army was scattered from him.

Jer 52:9 So they took the king and brought him up to the king of Babylon at Riblah in the land of Hamath, and he pronounced judgement on him.

Jer 52:10 Then the king of Babylon killed the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes, and he killed all the princes of Judah in Riblah.

Jer 52:11 He also put out the eyes of Zedekiah; and the king of Babylon bound him in bronze fetters, took him to Babylon, and put him in prison until the day of his death.

Jer 52:12 Now in the fifth new moon, on the tenth day of the new moon, which was the nineteenth year of King Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard, who served the king of Babylon, came to Jerusalem.

Jer 52:13 He burned the House of Jehovah and the king's house; all the houses of Jerusalem, that is, all the houses of the great men, he burned with fire.

Jer 52:14 And all the army of the Chaldeans who were with the captain of the guard broke down all the walls of Jerusalem all around.

Jer 52:15 Then Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive some of the poor people, the rest of the people who remained in the city, the defectors who had deserted to the king of Babylon, and the rest of the craftsmen.

Jer 52:16 But Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard left some of the poor of the land as vinedressers and farmers.

Jer 52:17 The bronze pillars that were in the House of Jehovah, and the carts and the bronze Sea that were in the House of Jehovah, the Chaldeans broke in pieces, and carried all their bronze to Babylon.

Jer 52:18 They also took away the pots, the shovels, the trimmers, the bowls, the spoons, and all the bronze utensils with which the priests served.

Jer 52:19 The basins, the firepans, the bowls, the pots, the menorahs, the spoons, and the cups, whatever was of solid gold and whatever was of solid silver, the captain of the guard took away.

Jer 52:20 The two pillars, one Sea, the twelve bronze bulls which were under it, and the carts, which King Solomon had made for the House of Jehovah; the bronze of all these articles was beyond measure.

Jer 52:21 Now concerning the pillars: the height of one pillar was eighteen cubits, a measuring line of twelve cubits could measure its circumference, and its thickness was four fingers. It was hollow.

Jer 52:22 A capital of bronze was on it; and the height of one capital was five cubits, with a network and pomegranates all around the capital, all of bronze. The second pillar, with its pomegranates, was the same.

Jer 52:23 There were ninety-six pomegranates on the sides; all the pomegranates, all around on the network, were one hundred.

Jer 52:24 The captain of the guard took Seraiah the chief priest, Zephaniah the second priest, and the three doorkeepers.

Jer 52:25 He also took out of the city an officer who had charge of the men of war, seven men of the king's close associates who were found in the city, the principal scribe of the army who mustered the people of the land, and sixty men of the people of the land who were found in the midst of the city.

Jer 52:26 And Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard took these and brought them to the king of Babylon at Riblah.

Jer 52:27 Then the king of Babylon struck them and put them to death at Riblah in the land of Hamath. Thus Judah was carried away captive from its own land.

Jer 52:28 These are the people whom Nebuchadnezzar carried away captive: in the seventh year, three thousand and twenty-three Judeans;

Jer 52:29 in the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar he carried away captive from Jerusalem eight hundred and thirty-two souls;

Jer 52:30 in the twenty-third year of Nebuchadnezzar, Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive Judeans: seven hundred and forty-five souls. All the souls were four thousand six hundred.

Jer 52:31 Now it came to pass in the thirty-seventh year of the captivity of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth new moon, on the twenty-fifth day of the new moon, that Evil-Merodach king of Babylon, in the first year of his reign, lifted up the head of Jehoiachin king of Judah and brought him out of prison.

Jer 52:32 And he spoke kindly to him and gave him a more prominent seat than those of the kings who were with him in Babylon.

Jer 52:33 So Jehoiachin changed from his prison garments, and he ate bread regularly before the king all the days of his life.

Jer 52:34 And as for his provisions, there was a regular ration given to him by the king of Babylon, a portion for each day until the day of his death, all the days of his life.

Ezekiel

Eze 1:1 Now it came to pass in the thirtieth year, on the fifth day of the fourth new moon, as I was among the captives by the River Chebar, that the heavens were opened and I saw visions of God.

Eze 1:2 On the fifth day of the new moon, which was in the fifth year of King Jehoiachin's captivity, Eze 1:3 Jehovah's word came expressly to Ezekiel the priest, the son of Buzi, in the land of the Chaldeans by the River Chebar; and the hand of Jehovah was upon him there.

Eze 1:4 Then I looked, and behold, a whirlwind was coming out of the north, a great cloud with raging fire engulfing itself; and brightness was all around it and radiating out of its midst like the colour of amber, out of the midst of the fire.

Eze 1:5 Also from within it came the likeness of four living creatures. And this was their appearance: they had the likeness of a man.

Eze 1:6 Each one had four faces, and each one had four wings.

Eze 1:7 Their legs were straight, and the soles of their feet were like the soles of calves' feet. They sparkled like the colour of burnished bronze.

Eze 1:8 They had the hands of a man under their wings on their four sides; and each of the four had faces and wings.

Eze 1:9 Their wings touched one another. The creatures did not turn when they went, but each one went straight forward.

Eze 1:10 As for the likeness of their faces, each had the face of a man, each of the four had the face of a lion on the right side, each of the four had the face of an ox on the left side, and each of the four had the face of an eagle.

Eze 1:11 Thus were their faces. Their wings were stretched upward; two wings of each one touched one another, and two covered their bodies.

Eze 1:12 And each one went straight forward; they went wherever the spirit wanted to go, and they did not turn when they went.

Eze 1:13 As for the likeness of the living creatures, their appearance was like burning coals of fire, and like the appearance of torches. Fire was going back and forth among the living creatures; the fire was bright, and out of the fire went lightning.

Eze 1:14 And the living creatures ran back and forth, in appearance like a flash of lightning.

Eze 1:15 Now as I looked at the living creatures, behold, a wheel was on the earth beside each living creature with its four faces.

Eze 1:16 The appearance of the wheels and their works was like the colour of beryl, and all four had the same likeness. The appearance of their works was, as it were, a wheel in the middle of a wheel.

Eze 1:17 When they went, they went toward any one of four directions; they did not turn aside when they went.

Eze 1:18 As for their rims, they were so high they were awesome; and their rims were full of eyes, all around the four of them.

Eze 1:19 When the living creatures went, the wheels went beside them; and when the living creatures were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up.

Eze 1:20 Wherever the spirit wanted to go, they went, because there the spirit went; and the wheels were lifted together with them, for the spirit of the living creatures was in the wheels.

Eze 1:21 When those went, these went; when those stood, these stood; and when those were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up together with them, for the spirit of the living creatures was in the wheels.

Eze 1:22 The likeness of the firmament above the heads of the living creatures was like the colour of an awesome crystal, stretched out over their heads.

Eze 1:23 And under the firmament their wings spread out straight, one toward another. Each one had two which covered one side, and each one had two which covered the other side of the body.

Eze 1:24 When they went, I heard the noise of their wings, like the noise of many waters, like the voice of the Almighty, a tumult like the noise of an army; and when they stood still, they let down their wings.

Eze 1:25 A voice came from above the firmament that was over their heads; whenever they stood, they let down their wings.

Eze 1:26 And above the firmament over their heads was the likeness of a throne, in appearance like a sapphire stone; on the likeness of the throne was a likeness with the appearance of a man high above it.

Eze 1:27 Also from the appearance of His waist and upward I saw, as it were, the colour of amber with the appearance of fire all around within it; and from the appearance of His waist and downward I saw, as it were, the appearance of fire with brightness all around.

Eze 1:28 Like the appearance of a rainbow in a cloud on a day of heavy rain, so was the appearance of the brightness all around it. This was the appearance of the likeness of the glory of Jehovah. So when I saw it, I fell on my face, and I heard a voice of One speaking.

Eze 2:1 And He said to me, "Son of man, stand on your feet, and I will speak to you."

Eze 2:2 Then the Spirit entered me when He spoke to me, and set me on my feet; and I heard Him who spoke to me.

Eze 2:3 And He said to me: "Son of man, I am sending you to the children of Israel, to a rebellious nation that has rebelled against Me; they and their fathers have transgressed against Me to this very day, Eze 2:4 "for they are impudent and stubborn children. I am sending you to them, and you will say to them, 'Thus says Lord Jehovah.'

Eze 2:5 "As for them, whether they hear or whether they refuse; for they are a rebellious house; yet they will know that a prophet has been among them.

Eze 2:6 "And you, son of man, do not be afraid of them nor be afraid of their words, though briars and thorns are with you and you dwell among scorpions; do not be afraid of their words or dismayed by their looks, though they are a rebellious house.

Eze 2:7 "You will speak My words to them, whether they hear or whether they refuse, for they are rebellious.

Eze 2:8 "But you, son of man, hear what I say to you. Do not be rebellious like that rebellious house; open your mouth and eat what I give you."

Eze 2:9 Now when I looked, there was a hand stretched out to me; and behold, a scroll of a book was in it.

Eze 2:10 Then He spread it before me; and there was writing on the inside and on the outside, and written on it were lamentations and mourning and woe.

Eze 3:1 Moreover He said to me, "Son of man, eat what you find; eat this scroll, and go, speak to the house of Israel."

Eze 3:2 So I opened my mouth, and He caused me to eat that scroll.

Eze 3:3 And He said to me, "Son of man, feed your belly, and fill your stomach with this scroll that I give you." So I ate it, and it was in my mouth like honey in sweetness.

Eze 3:4 And He said to me: "Son of man, go to the house of Israel and speak with My words to them.

Eze 3:5 "For you are not sent to a people with depth of speech and a difficult language, but to the house of Israel, Eze 3:6 "not to many people with depth of speech and a difficult language, whose words you cannot understand. Surely, had

I sent you to them, they would have listened to you.

Eze 3:7 "But the house of Israel will not listen to you, because they will not listen to Me; for all the house of Israel are impudent and hard-hearted.

Eze 3:8 "Behold, I have made your face strong against their faces, and your forehead strong against their foreheads.

Eze 3:9 "Like adamant stone, harder than flint, I have made your forehead; do not be afraid of them, nor be dismayed at their looks, though they are a rebellious house."

Eze 3:10 Moreover He said to me: "Son of man, receive into your heart all My words that I speak to you, and hear with your ears.

Eze 3:11 "And go, get to the captives, to the children of your people, and speak to them and tell them, 'Thus says Lord Jehovah,' whether they hear, or whether they refuse."

Eze 3:12 Then the Spirit lifted me up, and I heard behind me a great thunderous voice: "Blessed is the glory of Jehovah from His place!"

Eze 3:13 I also heard the noise of the wings of the living creatures that touched one another, and the noise of the wheels beside them, and a great thunderous noise.

Eze 3:14 So the Spirit lifted me up and took me away, and I went in bitterness, in the heat of my spirit; but the hand of Jehovah was strong upon me.

Eze 3:15 Then I came to the captives at Tel Abib, who dwelt by the River Chebar; and I sat where they sat, and remained there astonished among them seven days.

Eze 3:16 Now it came to pass at the end of seven days that the word of Jehovah came to me, saying,

Eze 3:17 "Son of man, I have made you a watchman for the house of Israel; therefore hear a word from My mouth, and give them warning from Me:

Eze 3:18 "When I say to the wicked, 'You will surely die,' and you give him no warning, nor speak to warn the wicked from his wicked way, to save his life, that same wicked man will die in his iniquity; but his blood I will require at your hand.

Eze 3:19 "Yet, if you warn the wicked, and he does not turn from his wickedness, nor from his wicked way, he will die in his iniquity; but you have delivered your soul.

Eze 3:20 "Again, when a righteous man turns from his righteousness and commits iniquity, and I lay a stumbling block before him, he will die; because you did not give him warning, he will die in his sin, and his righteousness which he has done will not be remembered; but his blood I will require at your hand.

Eze 3:21 "Nevertheless if you warn the righteous man that the righteous should not sin, and he does not sin, he will surely live because he took warning; also you will have delivered your soul."

Eze 3:22 Then the hand of Jehovah was upon me there, and He said to me, "Arise, go out into the plain, and there I will talk with you."

Eze 3:23 So I arose and went out into the plain, and behold, the glory of Jehovah stood there, like the glory which I saw by the River Chebar; and I fell on my face.

Eze 3:24 Then the Spirit entered me and set me on my feet, and spoke with me and said to me: "Go, shut yourself inside your house.

Eze 3:25 "And you, O son of man, surely they will put ropes on you and bind you with them, so that you cannot go out among them.

Eze 3:26 "I will make your tongue cling to the roof of your mouth, so that you will be mute and not be a reprover to them, for they are a rebellious house.

Eze 3:27 "But when I speak with you, I will open your mouth, and you will say to them, 'Thus says Lord Jehovah.' He who hears, let him hear; and he who refuses, let him refuse; for they are a rebellious house.

Eze 4:1 "You also, son of man, take a clay tablet and lay it before you, and portray on it a city, Jerusalem.

Eze 4:2 “Lay siege against it, build a siege wall against it, and heap up a mound against it; set camps against it also, and place battering rams against it all around.

Eze 4:3 “Moreover take for yourself an iron plate, and set it as an iron wall between you and the city. Set your face against it, and it will be besieged, and you will lay siege against it. This will be a sign to the house of Israel.

Eze 4:4 “Lie also on your left side, and lay the iniquity of the house of Israel upon it. According to the number of the days that you lie on it, you will bear their iniquity.

Eze 4:5 “For I have laid on you the years of their iniquity, according to the number of the days, three hundred and ninety days; so you will bear the iniquity of the house of Israel.

Eze 4:6 “And when you have completed them, lie a second time on your right side; then you will bear the iniquity of the house of Judah forty days. I have laid on you a day for each year.

Eze 4:7 “Therefore you will set your face toward the siege of Jerusalem; your arm will be uncovered, and you will prophesy against it.

Eze 4:8 “And surely I will constrain you so that you cannot turn from one side to another until you have ended the days of your siege.

Eze 4:9 “Also take for yourself wheat, barley, beans, lentils, millet, and spelt; put them into one vessel, and make bread of them for yourself. During the number of days that you lie on your side, three hundred and ninety days, you will eat it.

Eze 4:10 “And your food which you eat will be by weight, twenty shekels a day; from time to time you will eat it.

Eze 4:11 “You will also drink water by measure, one-sixth of a hin; from time to time you will drink.

Eze 4:12 “And you will eat it as barley cakes; and bake it using fuel of human waste in their sight.”

Eze 4:13 Then Jehovah said, “So will the children of Israel eat their unclean bread among the gentiles, where I will drive them.”

Eze 4:14 So I said, “Oh, Lord Jehovah! Indeed my soul has never been unclean from my youth until now; I have never eaten a carcass or what was torn by beasts, nor has abominable flesh ever come into my mouth.”

Eze 4:15 Then He said to me, “See, I am giving you cow dung instead of human waste, and you will prepare your bread over it.”

Eze 4:16 Moreover He said to me, “Son of man, surely I will cut off the branch¹ of bread in Jerusalem; they will eat bread by weight and with anxiety, and will drink water by measure and with dread, Eze 4:17 “that they may lack bread and water, and be dismayed with one another, and waste away because of their iniquity.

Eze 5:1 “And you, son of man, take a sharp sword, take it as a barber’s razor, and pass it over your head and your beard; then take balances to weigh and divide the hair.

Eze 5:2 “You will burn with fire one-third in the midst of the city, when the days of the siege are finished; then you will take one-third and strike around it with the sword, and one-third you will scatter in the wind: I will draw out a sword after them.

Eze 5:3 “You will also take a small number of them and bind them in the extremity of your garment.

Eze 5:4 “Then take some of them again and throw them into the midst of the fire, and burn them in the fire; for from there a fire will go out into all the house of Israel.

Eze 5:5 “Thus says Lord Jehovah: ‘This is Jerusalem; I have set her in the midst of the nations and the countries all around her.

Eze 5:6 ‘She has rebelled against My judgements by doing wickedness more than the nations, and against My statutes more than the countries that are all around her; for they have refused My judgements, and they have not walked in My statutes.’

Eze 5:7 “Therefore thus says Lord Jehovah: ‘Because you have multiplied disobedience more than the nations that are all around you, and have not walked in My statutes, nor kept My judgements, nor even done according to the judgements of the nations that are all around you,’

Eze 5:8 “therefore thus says Lord Jehovah: ‘Indeed I, even I, am against you and will execute judgements in your midst in the sight of the nations.

Eze 5:9 ‘And I will do among you what I have never done, and the like of which I will never do again, because of all your abominations.

Eze 5:10 ‘Therefore fathers will eat their sons in your midst, and sons will eat their fathers; and I will execute judgements among you, and all of you who remain I will scatter to all the winds.

Eze 5:11 ‘Therefore, as I live,’ says Lord Jehovah, ‘surely, because you have made My sanctuary unclean with all your detestable things and with all your abominations, therefore I will also diminish you; My eye will not spare, nor will I have any pity.

Eze 5:12 ‘One-third of you will die of the pestilence, and be consumed with famine in your midst; and one-third will fall by the sword all around you; and I will scatter another third to all the winds, and I will draw out a sword after them.

Eze 5:13 ‘Thus will My anger be spent, and I will cause My fury to rest upon them, and I will be avenged; and they will know that I, Jehovah, have spoken it in My zeal, when I have spent My fury upon them.

Eze 5:14 ‘Moreover I will make you a wasteland and a reproach among the nations that are all around you, in the sight of all who pass by.

Eze 5:15 ‘So it will be a reproach, a taunt, a lesson, and a horror to the nations that are all around you, when I execute judgements among you in anger and in fury and in furious rebukes. I, Jehovah, have spoken.

Eze 5:16 ‘When I send against them the evil arrows of famine which will be for their destruction, and which I will send to destroy you, I will increase the famine upon you and cut off your branch of bread.

Eze 5:17 ‘So I will send against you famine and evil animals, and they will bereave you. Pestilence and blood will pass through you, and I will bring the sword against you. I, Jehovah, have spoken.’”

Eze 6:1 Now Jehovah’s word came to me, saying:

Eze 6:2 “Son of man, set your face toward the mountains of Israel, and prophesy against them,

Eze 6:3 “and say, ‘O mountains of Israel, hear the word of Lord Jehovah!’ Thus says Lord Jehovah to the mountains, to the hills, to the ravines, and to the valleys: “Indeed I, even I, will bring a sword against you, and I will destroy your high places.

Eze 6:4 “Then your altars will be desolate, your pillars will be broken, and I will cast down your slain men before your idols.

Eze 6:5 “And I will lay the corpses of the children of Israel before their idols, and I will scatter your bones all around your altars.

Eze 6:6 “In all your dwelling places the cities will be laid waste, and the high places will be desolate, so that your altars may be laid waste and made desolate, your idols may be broken and made to cease, your pillars may be cut down, and your works may be abolished.

Eze 6:7 “The slain will fall in your midst, and you will know that I am Jehovah.

Eze 6:8 “Yet I will leave a remnant, so that you may have some who escape the sword among the nations, when you are scattered through the countries.

Eze 6:9 “Then those of you who escape will remember Me among the nations where they are carried captive, because I was crushed by their prostitute’s heart which has departed from Me, and by their eyes which prostituted after their idols. They will loathe themselves for the evils which they committed in all their abominations.

Eze 6:10 “And they will know that I am Jehovah, and that I have not said in vain that I would bring this evil upon them.”

Eze 6:11 ‘Thus says Lord Jehovah: “Pound your fists and stamp your feet, and say, ‘Alas, for all the evil abominations of the house of Israel! For they will fall by the sword, by famine, and by pestilence.

Eze 6:12 ‘He who is far off will die by the pestilence, he who is near will fall by the sword, and he who remains and is besieged will die by the famine. Thus will I spend My fury upon them.

Eze 6:13 ‘Then you will know that I am Jehovah, when their slain men are among their idols all around their altars, on every high hill, on all the mountaintops, under every green tree, and under every thick oak, wherever they offered soothing aromas to their idols.

Eze 6:14 ‘So I will stretch out My hand against them and make the land desolate, yes, more desolate than the wilderness toward Diblah, in all their habitations. Then they will know that I am Jehovah.”’

Eze 7:1 Moreover Jehovah’s word came to me, saying,

Eze 7:2 “And you, son of man, thus says Lord Jehovah to the land of Israel: ‘An end! The end has come upon the four extremities of the land.

Eze 7:3 Now the end has come upon you, and I will send My anger against you; I will judge you according to your ways, and I will repay you for all your abominations.

Eze 7:4 My eye will not spare you, nor will I have pity; but I will repay your ways, and your abominations will be in your midst; then you will know that I am Jehovah!’

Eze 7:5 “Thus says Lord Jehovah: ‘Evil, a singular evil; behold, it has come!

Eze 7:6 An end has come, the end has come; it has dawned for you; behold, it has come!

Eze 7:7 Doom has come to you, you who dwell in the land. The time has come, a day of trouble is near, and not of rejoicing in the mountains.

Eze 7:8 Now upon you I will soon pour out My fury, and spend My anger upon you; I will judge you according to your ways, and I will repay you for all your abominations.

Eze 7:9 ‘My eye will not spare, nor will I have pity; I will repay you according to your ways, and your abominations will be in your midst. Then you will know that I am Jehovah who strikes.

Eze 7:10 ‘Behold, the day! Behold, it has come! Doom has gone out; the branch has blossomed, pride has budded.

Eze 7:11 Violence has risen up into a branch of wickedness; none of them will remain, none of their multitude, none of them; nor will there be wailing for them.

Eze 7:12 The time has come, the day draws near. ‘Do not let the buyer rejoice, nor the seller mourn, for wrath is on their whole multitude.

Eze 7:13 For the seller will not return to what has been sold, though he may still be alive; for the vision concerns the whole multitude, and it will not turn back; no one will strengthen himself who lives in iniquity.

Eze 7:14 ‘They have blown the trumpet and made everyone ready, but no one goes to battle; for My wrath is on all their crowd.

Eze 7:15 The sword is outside, and the pestilence and famine within. Whoever is in the field will die by the sword; and whoever is in the city, famine and pestilence will devour him.

Eze 7:16 ‘Those who survive will escape and be on the mountains like doves of the valleys, all of them mourning, each for his iniquity.

Eze 7:17 Every hand will be feeble, and every knee will be as weak as water.

Eze 7:18 They will also be girded with sackcloth; horror will cover them; shame will be on every face, baldness on all their heads.

Eze 7:19 ‘They will throw their silver into the streets, and their gold will be like refuse; their silver and their gold will not be able to deliver them in the day of the wrath of Jehovah; they will not satisfy their souls, nor fill their stomachs, because it became their stumbling block of iniquity.

Eze 7:20 ‘As for the beauty of his ornaments, he set it in majesty; but they made from it the images of their abominations and their detestable things; therefore I have made it like refuse to them.

Eze 7:21 I will give it as plunder into the hands of strangers, and to the wicked of the earth as spoil; and they will defile it.

Eze 7:22 I will turn My face from them, and they will defile My secret place; for robbers will enter it and defile it.

Eze 7:23 ‘Make a chain, for the land is filled with judgements of blood, and the city is full of violence.

Eze 7:24 Therefore I will bring evil gentiles, and they will possess their houses; I will cause the pomp of the strong to cease, and their holy places will be defiled.

Eze 7:25 Destruction comes; they will seek peace, but there will be none.

Eze 7:26 Disaster will come upon disaster, and rumour will be upon rumour. Then they will seek a vision from a prophet; but the Instructions will perish from the priest, and counsel from the elders.

Eze 7:27 ‘The king will mourn, the prince will be clothed with desolation, and the hands of the common people will tremble. I will do to them according to their way, and according to what they deserve I will judge them; then they will know that I am Jehovah!’”

Eze 8:1 And it came to pass in the sixth year, in the sixth new moon, on the fifth day of the new moon, as I sat in my house with the elders of Judah sitting before me, that the hand of Lord Jehovah fell upon me there.

Eze 8:2 Then I looked, and there was a likeness, like the appearance of fire; from the appearance of His waist and downward, fire; and from His waist and upward, like the appearance of brightness, like the colour of amber.

Eze 8:3 He stretched out the pattern of a hand, and took me by a lock of my hair; and the Spirit lifted me up between earth and heaven, and brought me in visions of God to Jerusalem, to the door of the north gate of the inner court, where the seat of the image of jealousy was, which provokes to jealousy.

Eze 8:4 And behold, the glory of the God of Israel was there, like the vision that I saw in the plain.

Eze 8:5 Then He said to me, “Son of man, lift your eyes now toward the north.” So I lifted my eyes toward the north, and there, north of the altar gate, was this image of jealousy in the entrance.

Eze 8:6 Furthermore He said to me, “Son of man, do you see what they are doing, the great abominations that the house of Israel commits here, to make Me go far away from My sanctuary? Now turn again, you will see greater abominations.”

 Eze 8:7 So He brought me to the door of the court; and when I looked, there was a hole in the wall.

Eze 8:8 Then He said to me, “Son of man, dig into the wall”; and when I dug into the wall, there was a door.

Eze 8:9 And He said to me, “Go in, and see the evil abominations which they are doing there.”

Eze 8:10 So I went in and saw, and there was every pattern of creeping things, abominable beasts, and all the idols of the house of Israel, portrayed all around on the walls.

Eze 8:11 And there stood before them seventy men of the elders of the house of Israel, and in their midst stood Jaazaniah the son of Shaphan. Each man had a censer in his hand, and a thick cloud of incense went up.

Eze 8:12 Then He said to me, “Son of man, have you seen what the elders of the house of Israel do in the dark, every man in the room of his idols? For they say, ‘Jehovah does not see us, Jehovah has forsaken the land.’”

Eze 8:13 And He said to me, “Turn again, and you will see greater abominations that they are doing.”

Eze 8:14 So He brought me to the door of the north gate of Jehovah’s House; and to my dismay, women were sitting there weeping for Tammuz.

Eze 8:15 Then He said to me, “Have you seen this, O son of man? Turn again, you will see greater abominations than these.”

Eze 8:16 So He brought me into the inner court of Jehovah’s House; and there, at the door of the Palace of Jehovah, between the porch and the altar, were about twenty-five men with their backs toward the Palace of Jehovah and their faces toward the east, and they were worshipping the sun toward the east.

Eze 8:17 Then He said to me, “Have you seen this, O son of man? Is it a trivial thing to the house of Judah to commit the abominations which they commit here? For they have filled the land with violence; then they have returned to provoke Me to anger. Indeed they put the branch to their nose.

Eze 8:18 “Therefore I also will act in fury. My eye will not spare nor will I have pity; and though they cry in My ears with a loud voice, I will not hear them.”

Eze 9:1 Then He called out in my hearing with a loud voice, saying, “Let those who have charge over the city draw near, each with a deadly weapon in his hand.”

Eze 9:2 And suddenly six men came from the direction of the upper gate, which faces north, each with his battle-axe in his hand. One man among them was clothed with linen and had a writer’s inkhorn at his side. They went in and stood beside the bronze altar.

Eze 9:3 Now the glory of the God of Israel had gone up from the cherub, where it had been, to the threshold of the house. And He called to the man clothed with linen, who had the writer’s inkhorn at his side;

Eze 9:4 and Jehovah said to him, “Go through the midst of the city, through the midst of Jerusalem, and put a mark on the foreheads of the men who sigh and cry over all the abominations that are done within it.”¹

Eze 9:5 To the others He said in my hearing, “Go after him through the city and kill; do not let your eye spare, nor have any pity.

Eze 9:6 “Utterly slay old and young men, virgins and little children and women; but do not come near anyone on whom is the mark; and begin at My sanctuary.” So they began with the elders who were before the house.

¹ Those marked by God are those who know and love God’s Instructions, as shown in Deu 11:18 and Exo 13:9 to 16.

Eze 9:7 Then He said to them, "Make the house unclean, and fill the courts with the slain. Go out!" And they went out and killed in the city.

Eze 9:8 So it was, that while they were killing them, I was left alone; and I fell on my face and cried out, and said, "Oh, Lord Jehovah! Will You destroy all the remnant of Israel in pouring out Your fury on Jerusalem?"

Eze 9:9 Then He said to me, "The iniquity of the house of Israel and Judah is exceedingly great, and the land is full of bloodshed, and the city full of perversity; for they say, 'Jehovah has forsaken the land, and Jehovah does not see!'

Eze 9:10 "And as for Me also, My eye will neither spare, nor will I have pity, but I will recompense their deeds on their own head."

Eze 9:11 Just then, the man clothed with linen, who had the inkhorn at his side, reported back and said, "I have done as You commanded me."

Eze 10:1 And I looked, and there in the firmament that was above the head of the cherubim, there appeared something like a sapphire stone, having the appearance of the likeness of a throne.

Eze 10:2 And He spoke to the man clothed with linen, and said, "Go in among the wheels, under the cherub, fill your hands with coals of fire from among the cherubim, and scatter them over the city." And he went in as I watched.

Eze 10:3 Now the cherubim were standing on the south side of the house when the man went in, and the cloud filled the inner court.

Eze 10:4 Then the glory of Jehovah went up from the cherub over the threshold of the house; and the house was filled with the cloud, and the court was full of the brightness of Jehovah's glory.

Eze 10:5 And the sound of the wings of the cherubim was heard even in the outer court, like the voice of Almighty God when He speaks.

Eze 10:6 Now it happened, when He commanded the man clothed in linen, saying, "Take fire from among the wheels, from among the cherubim," that he went in and stood beside the wheels.

Eze 10:7 And the cherub stretched out his hand from among the cherubim to the fire that was among the cherubim, and took some of it and put it into the hands of the man clothed with linen, who took it and went out.

Eze 10:8 The cherubim appeared to have the pattern of a man's hand under their wings.

Eze 10:9 And when I looked, there were four wheels by the cherubim, one wheel by one cherub and another wheel by each other cherub; the wheels appeared to have the colour of a beryl stone.

Eze 10:10 As for their appearance, all four looked alike; as it were, a wheel in the middle of a wheel.

Eze 10:11 When they went, they went toward any of their four directions; they did not turn aside when they went, but followed in the direction the head was facing. They did not turn aside when they went.

Eze 10:12 And their whole flesh, with their back, their hands, their wings, and the wheels that the four had, were full of eyes all around.

Eze 10:13 As for the wheels, they were called in my hearing, "Wheel."

Eze 10:14 Each one had four faces: the first face was the face of a cherub, the second face the face of a man, the third the face of a lion, and the fourth the face of an eagle.

Eze 10:15 And the cherubim were lifted up. This was the living creature I saw by the River Chebar.

Eze 10:16 When the cherubim went, the wheels went beside them; and when the cherubim lifted their wings to mount up from the earth, the same wheels also did not turn from beside them.

Eze 10:17 When the cherubim stood still, the wheels stood still, and when one was lifted up, the other lifted itself up, for the spirit of the living creature was in them.

Eze 10:18 Then the glory of Jehovah departed from the threshold of the house and stood over the cherubim.

Eze 10:19 And the cherubim lifted their wings and mounted up from the earth in my sight. When they went out, the wheels were beside them; and they stood at the door of the east gate of Jehovah's House, and the glory of the God of Israel was above them.

Eze 10:20 This is the living creature I saw under the God of Israel by the River Chebar, and I knew they were cherubim.

Eze 10:21 Each one had four faces and each one four wings, and the likeness of the hands of a man was under their wings.

Eze 10:22 And the likeness of their faces was the same as the faces which I had seen by the River Chebar, their appearance and their persons. They each went straight forward.

Eze 11:1 Then the Spirit lifted me up and brought me to the east gate of Jehovah's House, which faces eastward; and there at the door of the gate were twenty-five men, among whom I saw Jaazaniah the son of Azzur, and Pelatiah the son of Benaiah, princes of the people.

Eze 11:2 And He said to me: "Son of man, these are the men who devise iniquity and give evil counsel in this city, Eze 11:3 "who say, 'The time is not near to build houses; this city is the caldron, and we are the meat.'

Eze 11:4 "Therefore prophesy against them; prophesy, O son of man!"

Eze 11:5 Then Jehovah's Spirit fell upon me, and said to me, "Speak! 'Thus says Jehovah: "Thus you have said, O house of Israel; for I know the things that come into your spirit.

Eze 11:6 "You have multiplied your slain in this city, and you have filled its streets with the slain."

Eze 11:7 'Therefore thus says Lord Jehovah: "Your slain whom you have laid in its midst, they are the meat, and this city is the caldron; but I will bring you out of the midst of it.

Eze 11:8 "You have feared the sword; and I will bring a sword upon you," says Lord Jehovah.

Eze 11:9 "And I will bring you out of its midst, and deliver you into the hands of strangers, and execute judgements on you.

Eze 11:10 "You will fall by the sword. I will judge you at the border of Israel. Then you will know that I am Jehovah.

Eze 11:11 "This city will not be your caldron, nor will you be the meat in its midst. I will judge you at the border of Israel.

Eze 11:12 "And you will know that I am Jehovah; for you have not walked in My statutes nor executed My judgements, but have done according to the customs of the gentiles which are all around you."'''

Eze 11:13 Now it happened, while I was prophesying, that Pelatiah the son of Benaiah died. Then I fell on my face and cried with a loud voice, and said, "Oh, Lord Jehovah! Will You make a complete end of the remnant of Israel?"

Eze 11:14 Again Jehovah's word came to me, saying,

Eze 11:15 "Son of man, your brethren, your relatives, your kinsmen, and all the house of Israel in its entirety, are those about whom the inhabitants of Jerusalem have said, 'Get far away from Jehovah; this land has been given to us as a possession.'

Eze 11:16 "Therefore say, 'Thus says Lord Jehovah: "Although I have cast them far off among the gentiles, and although I have scattered them among the countries, yet I will be a little sanctuary for them in the countries where they have gone."

Eze 11:17 "Therefore say, 'Thus says

Lord Jehovah: "I will gather you from the peoples, assemble you from the countries where you have been scattered, and I will give you the land of Israel."

Eze 11:18 "And they will go there, and they will take away all its detestable things and all its abominations from there.

Eze 11:19 "Then I will give them one heart, and I will put a new spirit within them, and take the stony heart out of their flesh, and give them a heart of flesh,¹ Eze 11:20 "that they may walk in My statutes and keep My judgements and do them; and they will be My people, and I will be their God.

Eze 11:21 "But as for those whose hearts walk after the heart of their detestable things and their abominations, I will recompense their deeds on their own heads," says Lord Jehovah.

Eze 11:22 Then the cherubim lifted up their wings, with the wheels beside them, and the glory of the God of Israel was high above them.

Eze 11:23 And the glory of Jehovah went up from the midst of the city and stood on the mountain, which is on the east side of the city.

Eze 11:24 Then the Spirit took me up and brought me in a vision by the Spirit of God into Chaldea, to those in captivity. And the vision that I had seen went up from me.

Eze 11:25 So I spoke to those in captivity of all the things Jehovah had shown me.

Eze 12:1 Now Jehovah's word came to me, saying:

Eze 12:2 "Son of man, you dwell in the midst of a rebellious house, which has eyes to see but does not see, and ears to hear but does not hear; for they are a rebellious house.²

Eze 12:3 "Therefore, son of man, prepare your belongings for captivity, and go into captivity by day in their sight. You will go from your place into captivity to another place in their sight. It may be that they will consider, though they are a rebellious house.

Eze 12:4 "By day you will bring out your belongings in their sight, as though going into captivity; and at evening you will go in their sight, like those who go into captivity.

Eze 12:5 "Dig through the wall in their sight, and carry your belongings out through it.

Eze 12:6 "In their sight you will bear them on your shoulders and carry them out at twilight; you will cover your face, so that you cannot see the ground, for I have made you a sign to the house of Israel."

Eze 12:7 So I did as I was commanded. I brought out my belongings by day, as though going into captivity, and at evening I dug through the wall with my hand. I brought them out at twilight, and I carried them on my shoulder in their sight.

Eze 12:8 And in the morning Jehovah's word came to me, saying,

Eze 12:9 "Son of man, has not the house of Israel, the rebellious house, said to you, 'What are you doing?'

Eze 12:10 "Say to them, 'Thus says Lord Jehovah: "This burden concerns the princes in Jerusalem and all the house of Israel who are among them."'

Eze 12:11 "Say, 'I am a sign to you. As I have done, so will it be done to them; they will be carried away into captivity.'

Eze 12:12 "And the prince who is among them will carry his belongings on his shoulder at twilight and go out. They will dig through the wall to carry them out through it. He will cover his face, so that he cannot see the ground with his eyes.

Eze 12:13 "I will also spread My net over him, and he will be caught in My snare. I will bring him to Babylon, to the land of the Chaldeans; yet he will not see it, though he will die there.

² Deu 29:4, Mat 13:15, Joh 12:40, Act 28:27, Rom 11:8

Eze 12:14 “I will scatter to every wind all who are around him to help him, and all his troops; and I will draw out the sword after them.

Eze 12:15 “Then they will know that I am Jehovah, when I scatter them among the nations and disperse them throughout the countries.

Eze 12:16 “But I will spare a few of their men from the sword, from famine, and from pestilence, that they may declare all their abominations among the gentiles wherever they go. Then they will know that I am Jehovah.”

Eze 12:17 Moreover Jehovah’s word came to me, saying,

Eze 12:18 “Son of man, eat your bread with quaking, and drink your water with trembling and anxiety.

Eze 12:19 “And say to the people of the land, ‘Thus says Lord Jehovah to the inhabitants of Jerusalem and to the land of Israel: “They will eat their bread with anxiety, and drink their water with dread, so that her land may be emptied of all who are in it, because of the violence of all those who dwell in it.

Eze 12:20 “Then the cities that are inhabited will be laid waste, and the land will become desolate; and you will know that I am Jehovah.””

Eze 12:21 And Jehovah’s word came to me, saying,

Eze 12:22 “Son of man, what is this proverb that you people have about the land of Israel, which says, ‘The days are prolonged, and every vision fails’?

Eze 12:23 “Therefore tell them, ‘Thus says Lord Jehovah: “I will lay this proverb to rest, and they will no more use it as a proverb in Israel.” But say to them, “The days are at hand, and the fulfilment of every vision.

Eze 12:24 “For no more will there be any false vision or flattering divination within the house of Israel, Eze 12:25 “for I am Jehovah. I speak, and the word which I speak will come to pass. It will be postponed no more; for in your days, O rebellious house, I will say the word and perform it,” says Lord Jehovah.”

Eze 12:26 Again Jehovah’s word came to me, saying,

Eze 12:27 “Son of man, look, the house of Israel is saying, ‘The vision that he sees is for many days from now, and he prophesies of times far off.’

Eze 12:28 “Therefore say to them, ‘Thus says Lord Jehovah: “None of My words will be postponed any more, but the word which I speak will be done,” says Lord Jehovah.”

Eze 13:1 And Jehovah’s word came to me, saying,

Eze 13:2 “Son of man, prophesy against the prophets of Israel who prophesy, and say to those who prophesy out of their own heart, ‘Hear the word of Jehovah!’”

Eze 13:3 Thus says Lord Jehovah: “Woe to the foolish prophets, who follow their own spirit and have seen nothing!

Eze 13:4 “O Israel, your prophets are like foxes in the wastelands.

Eze 13:5 “You have not gone up into the gaps to build a wall for the house of Israel to stand in battle on the day of Jehovah.

Eze 13:6 “They have envisioned futility and false divination, saying, ‘Thus says Jehovah!’ But Jehovah has not sent them; yet they hope that the word may be confirmed.

Eze 13:7 “Have you not seen a futile vision, and have you not spoken false divination? You say, ‘Jehovah says,’ but I have not spoken.”

Eze 13:8 Therefore thus says Lord Jehovah: “Because you have spoken nonsense and envisioned lies, therefore I am indeed against you,” says Lord Jehovah.

Eze 13:9 “My hand will be against the prophets who envision futility and who devise lies. They will not be in the council of My people, nor be written in the record of the house of Israel, nor will they enter into the land of Israel. Then you will know that I am Lord Jehovah.

Eze 13:10 “Because, indeed, because they have seduced My people, saying, ‘Peace!’ when there is no peace; and one builds a boundary wall, and they plaster it with untempered mortar;

Eze 13:11 “say to those who plaster it with untempered mortar, that it will fall. There will be flooding heavy rain, and you, O great hailstones,¹ will fall; and a stormy wind will split it open.

Eze 13:12 “Surely, when the wall has fallen, will it not be said to you, ‘Where is the mortar with which you plastered it?’”

Eze 13:13 Therefore thus says Lord Jehovah: “I will cause a stormy wind to break forth in My fury; and there will be a flooding heavy rain in My anger, and great hailstones in fury to consume it.

Eze 13:14 “So I will break down the wall you have plastered with untempered mortar, and bring it down to the ground, so that its foundation will be uncovered; it will fall, and you will be consumed in the midst of it. Then you will know that I am Jehovah.

Eze 13:15 “Thus will I accomplish My wrath on the wall and on those who have plastered it with untempered mortar; and I will say to you, ‘The wall is no more, nor those who plastered it, Eze 13:16 ‘that is, the prophets of Israel who prophesy concerning Jerusalem, and who see visions of peace for her when there is no peace.’” says Lord Jehovah.

Eze 13:17 “Likewise, son of man, set your face against the daughters of your people, who prophesy out of their own heart. Prophecy against them,

Eze 13:18 “and say, ‘Thus says Lord

Jehovah: “Woe to the women who sew magic charms on their sleeves and make veils for the heads of people of every height to hunt souls! Will you hunt the souls of My people, and keep the souls that come to you alive?

Eze 13:19 “And will you defile Me among My people for handfuls of barley and for pieces of bread, killing souls who should not die, and keeping souls alive who should not live, by your lying to My people who listen to lies?”

Eze 13:20 ‘Therefore thus says Lord Jehovah: “Behold, I am against your magic charms by which you hunt their souls like birds. I will tear them from your arms, and let the souls go, the souls you hunt like birds.

Eze 13:21 “I will also tear off your veils and deliver My people out of your hand, and they will no longer be as prey in your hand. Then you will know that I am Jehovah.””

Eze 13:22 “Because with lies you have made the heart of the righteous sad, whom I have not made sad; and you have strengthened the hands of the evil, so that he does not turn from his wicked way to save his life,

Eze 13:23 therefore you will no longer envision futility nor practice divination; for I will deliver My people out of your hand, and you will know that I am Jehovah.””

Eze 14:1 Now some of the elders of Israel came to me and sat before me.

Eze 14:2 And Jehovah’s word came to me, saying,

Eze 14:3 “Son of man, these men have set up their idols in their hearts, and put before them that which causes them to stumble into iniquity. Should I let Myself be inquired of at all by them?

Eze 14:4 “Therefore speak to them, and say to them, ‘Thus says Lord Jehovah: “Everyone of the house of Israel who sets up his idols in his heart, and puts before him what causes him to stumble into iniquity, and then comes to the prophet, I Jehovah will answer him who comes according to the multitude of his idols,

Eze 14:5 “that I may seize the house of Israel by their heart, because they are all estranged from Me by their idols.”

Eze 14:6 “Therefore say to the house of Israel, ‘Thus says Lord Jehovah: “Repent, turn away from your idols, and turn your faces away from all your abominations.

Eze 14:7 “For anyone of the house of Israel, or of the immigrants who sojourn in Israel, who separates himself from Me and sets up his idols in his heart and puts before him what causes him to stumble into iniquity, then comes to a prophet to inquire of him concerning Me, I Jehovah will answer him by Myself.

Eze 14:8 “I will set My face against that man and make him a sign and a proverb, and I will cut him off from the midst of My people. Then you will know that I am Jehovah.

Eze 14:9 “And if the prophet is induced to speak anything, I Jehovah have induced that prophet, and I will stretch out My hand against him and destroy him from among My people Israel.

Eze 14:10 “And they will bear their iniquity; the punishment of the prophet will be the same as the punishment of the one who inquired,

Eze 14:11 “that the house of Israel may no longer stray from Me, nor be unclean anymore with all their transgressions, but that they may be My people and I may be their God,” says Lord Jehovah.”

Eze 14:12 The word of Jehovah came again to me, saying:

Eze 14:13 “Son of man, when a land sins against Me by persistent unfaithfulness, I will stretch out My hand against it. I will cut off its branch¹ of bread, send famine on it, and cut off man and beast from it.

Eze 14:14 “Though these three men,

Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, they would deliver only their own souls by their righteousness,” says Lord Jehovah.

Eze 14:15 “If I cause evil animals to pass through the land, and they empty it, and make it so desolate that no man may pass through because of the beasts, Eze 14:16 “even though these three men were in it, as I live,” says Lord Jehovah, “they would deliver neither sons nor daughters; only they would be delivered, and the land would be desolate.

Eze 14:17 “Or if I bring a sword on that land, and say, ‘Sword, go through the land,’ and I cut off man and beast from it, Eze 14:18 “even though these three men were in it, as I live,” says Lord Jehovah, “they would deliver neither sons nor daughters, but only they themselves would be delivered.

Eze 14:19 “Or if I send a pestilence into that land and pour out My fury on it in blood, and cut off from it man and beast,

Eze 14:20 “even though Noah, Daniel, and Job were in it, as I live,” says Lord Jehovah, “they would deliver neither son nor daughter; they would deliver only their own souls by their righteousness.”²

Eze 14:21 For thus says Lord Jehovah: “How much more it will be when I send My four evil judgements on Jerusalem; the sword and famine and evil animals and pestilence; to cut off man and beast from it?

Eze 14:22 “Yet behold, there will be left in it a remnant who will be brought out, both sons and daughters; surely they will come out to you, and you will see their ways and their doings. Then you will be comforted concerning the evil that I have brought upon Jerusalem, indeed all that I have brought upon it.

Eze 14:23 “And they will comfort you, when you see their ways and their doings; and you will know that I have done nothing without cause that I have done in it," says Lord Jehovah.

Eze 15:1 Then Jehovah's word came to me, saying:

Eze 15:2 "Son of man, how is the wood of the vine better than any other wood, the vine branch which is among the trees of the forest?

Eze 15:3 "Is wood taken from it to make any object? Or can men make a peg from it to hang any vessel on?

Eze 15:4 "Instead, it is thrown into the fire for fuel; the fire devours both ends of it, and its middle is burned. Is it useful for any work?

Eze 15:5 "Indeed, when it was whole, no object could be made from it. How much less will it be useful for any work when the fire has devoured it, and it is burned?

Eze 15:6 "Therefore thus says Lord Jehovah: 'Like the wood of the vine among the trees of the forest, which I have given to the fire for fuel, so I will give up the inhabitants of Jerusalem;

Eze 15:7 'and I will set My face against them. They will go out from one fire, but another fire will devour them. Then you will know that I am Jehovah, when I set My face against them.

Eze 15:8 'Thus I will make the land desolate, because they have persisted in unfaithfulness,' says Lord Jehovah."

Eze 16:1 Again Jehovah's word came to me, saying,

Eze 16:2 "Son of man, cause Jerusalem to know her abominations,

Eze 16:3 "and say, 'Thus says Lord Jehovah to Jerusalem: "Your birth and your nativity are from the land of Canaan; your father was an Amorite and your mother a Hittite.

Eze 16:4 "As for your nativity, on the day you were born your navel cord was not cut, nor were you washed in water to cleanse you; you were not rubbed with salt nor swathed in swaddling cloths.

Eze 16:5 "No eye pitied you, to do any of these things for you, to have compassion on you; but you were thrown out into the open field, when your soul was loathed on the day you were born.

Eze 16:6 "And when I passed by you and saw you struggling in your own blood, I said to you in your blood, 'Live!' Yes, I said to you in your blood, 'Live!'

Eze 16:7 "I made you thrive like a plant in the field; and you grew, matured, and became very beautiful. Your breasts were formed, your hair grew, but you were naked and bare.

Eze 16:8 "When I passed by you again and looked upon you, indeed your time was the time of love; so I spread My wing over you and covered your nakedness. Yes, I swore an oath to you and entered into a covenant with you, and you became Mine," says Lord Jehovah.

Eze 16:9 "Then I washed you in water. Yes, I thoroughly washed off your blood, and I anointed you with oil.

Eze 16:10 "I clothed you in embroidered cloth and gave you sandals of badger skin; I clothed you with fine linen and covered you with silk.

Eze 16:11 "I adorned you with ornaments, put bracelets on your wrists, and a chain on your neck.

Eze 16:12 "And I put a jewel in your nose, earrings in your ears, and a beautiful crown on your head.

Eze 16:13 "Thus you were adorned with gold and silver, and your clothing was of fine linen, silk, and embroidered cloth. You ate pastry of fine flour, honey, and oil. You were exceedingly beautiful, and succeeded to royalty.

Eze 16:14 "Your fame went out among the nations because of your beauty, for it was perfect through My splendour which I had bestowed on you," says Lord Jehovah.

Eze 16:15 "But you trusted in your own beauty, prostituted yourself because of your fame, and poured out your fornications on everyone who passed by.

Eze 16:16 “You took some of your garments and adorned multicolored high places, and prostituted yourself on them. Such things should not happen, nor be.

Eze 16:17 “You have also taken your beautiful jewellery from My gold and My silver, which I had given you, and made for yourself male images and prostituted yourself before them.

Eze 16:18 “You took your embroidered garments and covered them, and you set My oil and My incense before them.

Eze 16:19 “Also My food which I gave you; the pastry of fine flour, oil, and honey which I fed you; you set it before them as soothing aromas; and so it was,” says Lord Jehovah.

Eze 16:20 “Moreover you took your sons and your daughters, whom you bore to Me, and these you sacrificed to them to be devoured. Were your acts of fornication a small matter, Eze 16:21 “that you have slain My children and offered them up to them by causing them to pass through the fire?

Eze 16:22 “And in all your abominations and fornications you did not remember the days of your youth, when you were naked and bare, struggling in your blood.

Eze 16:23 “Then it was so, after all your evil; ‘Woe, woe to you!’ says Lord Jehovah; Eze 16:24 “that you also built for yourself a shrine, and made a high place for yourself in every street.

Eze 16:25 “You built your high places at the head of every road, and made your beauty to be abhorred. You spread your feet for everyone who passed by, and multiplied your fornications.

Eze 16:26 “You also prostituted yourself with the Egyptians, your very fleshly neighbours, and increased your fornications to provoke Me to anger.

Eze 16:27 “Behold, therefore, I stretched out My hand against you, diminished your allotment, and gave you up to the will of those who hate you, the daughters of the Philistines, who were ashamed of your lewd behaviour.

Eze 16:28 “You also prostituted yourself with the Assyrians, because you were insatiable; indeed you prostituted yourself with them and still were not satisfied.

Eze 16:29 “Moreover you multiplied your fornications as far as the land of the trader, Chaldea; and even then you were not satisfied.

Eze 16:30 “How degenerate is your heart!” says Lord Jehovah, “Seeing you do all this, the deeds of a brazen female prostitute.

Eze 16:31 “You erected your shrine at the head of every road, and built your high place in every street. Yet you were not like a prostitute, because you scorned payment.

Eze 16:32 “You are an adulterous wife, who takes strangers instead of her husband.

Eze 16:33 “Men make payment to prostitutes, but you made your payments to all your lovers, and hired them to come to you from all around for your fornication.

Eze 16:34 “You are the opposite of other women in your fornication, because no one solicited you to be a prostitute. You gave payment, but no payment was given to you, therefore you are the opposite.”

Eze 16:35 ‘Now then, O prostitute, hear the word of Jehovah!

Eze 16:36 ‘Thus says Lord Jehovah: “Because your filthiness was poured out and your nakedness uncovered in your fornications with your lovers, and before all your abominable idols, and because of the blood of your children which you gave to them,

Eze 16:37 “surely, therefore, I will gather all your lovers with whom you took pleasure, all those you loved, and all those you hated; I will gather them from all around against you and will uncover your nakedness to them, that they may see all your nakedness.

Eze 16:38 "And I will judge you as women who commit adultery or shed blood are judged; I will bring blood upon you in fury and jealousy.

Eze 16:39 "I will also give you into their hand, and they will throw down your shrines and break down your high places. They will also strip you of your clothes, take your beautiful jewellery, and leave you naked and bare.

Eze 16:40 "They will also bring up an assembly against you, and they will stone you with stones and thrust you through with their swords.

Eze 16:41 "They will burn your houses with fire, and execute judgements on you in the sight of many women; and I will make you cease prostitution, and you will no longer hire lovers.

Eze 16:42 "So I will lay to rest My fury toward you, and My jealousy will depart from you. I will be quiet, and be angry no more.

Eze 16:43 "Because you did not remember the days of your youth, but agitated Me with all these things, surely I will also recompense your deeds on your own head," says Lord Jehovah. "And you will not commit lewdness in addition to all your abominations.

Eze 16:44 "Indeed everyone who quotes proverbs will use this proverb against you: 'Like mother, like daughter!'

Eze 16:45 "You are your mother's daughter, loathing husband and children; and you are the sister of your sisters, who loathed their husbands and children; your mother was a Hittite and your father an Amorite.

Eze 16:46 "Your elder sister is Samaria, who dwells with her daughters to the north of you; and your younger sister, who dwells to the south of you, is Sodom and her daughters.

Eze 16:47 "You did not walk in their ways nor act according to their abominations; but, as if that were too little, you became more corrupt than they in all your ways.

Eze 16:48 "As I live," says Lord Jehovah, "neither your sister Sodom nor her daughters have done as you and your daughters have done.

Eze 16:49 "Look, this was the iniquity of your sister Sodom: She and her daughter had pride, fullness of food, and abundance of idleness; neither did she strengthen the hand of the poor and needy.

Eze 16:50 "And they were haughty and committed abomination before Me; therefore I took them away as I saw fit.

Eze 16:51 "Samaria did not commit half of your sins; but you have multiplied your abominations more than they, and have justified your sisters by all the abominations which you have done.

Eze 16:52 "You who judged your sisters, bear your own shame also, because the sins which you committed were more abominable than theirs; they are more righteous than you. Yes, be disgraced also, and bear your own shame, because you justified your sisters.

Eze 16:53 "When I bring back their captives, the captives of Sodom and her daughters, and the captives of Samaria and her daughters, then I will also bring back the captives of your captivity among them, Eze 16:54 "that you may bear your own shame and be disgraced by all that you did when you comforted them.

Eze 16:55 "When your sisters, Sodom and her daughters, return to their former state, and Samaria and her daughters return to their former state, then you and your daughters will return to your former state.

Eze 16:56 "For your sister Sodom was not a byword in your mouth in the days of your pride, Eze 16:57 "before your evil was uncovered. It was like the time of the reproach of the daughters of Syria and all who were around her, and of the daughters of the Philistines, who despise you everywhere.

Eze 16:58 “You have paid for your lewdness and your abominations,” says Jehovah.

Eze 16:59 ‘For thus says Lord Jehovah: “I will deal with you as you have done, who despised the oath by breaking the covenant.

Eze 16:60 “Nevertheless I will remember My covenant with you in the days of your youth, and I will establish an everlasting covenant with you.

Eze 16:61 “Then you will remember your ways and be ashamed, when you receive your older and your younger sisters; for I will give them to you for daughters, but not because of My covenant with you.

Eze 16:62 “And I will establish My covenant with you. Then you will know that I am Jehovah,

Eze 16:63 “that you may remember and be ashamed, and never open your mouth anymore because of your shame, when I provide you an atonement for all you have done,” says Lord Jehovah.””

Eze 17:1 And Jehovah’s word came to me, saying,

Eze 17:2 “Son of man, pose a riddle, and speak a proverb to the house of Israel,

Eze 17:3 “and say, ‘Thus says Lord Jehovah: “A great eagle with large wings and long pinions, full of feathers of various colours, came to Lebanon and took from the cedar the highest branch.

Eze 17:4 He cropped off its topmost young twig and carried it to a land of trade; he set it in a city of merchants.

Eze 17:5 Then he took some of the seed of the land and planted it in a fertile field; he placed it by abundant waters and set it like a willow tree.

Eze 17:6 And it grew and became a spreading vine of low stature; its branches turned toward him, but its roots were under it. So it became a vine, brought forth branches, and put forth shoots.

Eze 17:7 “But there was another great eagle with large wings and many feathers; and behold, this vine bent its roots toward him, and stretched its branches toward him, from the garden terrace where it had been planted, that he might water it.

Eze 17:8 It was planted in good soil by many waters, to bring forth branches, bear fruit, and become a majestic vine.””

Eze 17:9 “Say, ‘Thus says Lord Jehovah: “Will it thrive? Will he not pull up its roots, cut off its fruit, and leave it to wither? All of its spring leaves will wither, and no great power or many people will be needed to pluck it up by its roots.

Eze 17:10 Behold, it is planted, will it thrive? Will it not utterly wither when the east wind touches it? It will wither in the garden terrace where it grew.””

Eze 17:11 Moreover Jehovah’s word came to me, saying,

Eze 17:12 “Say now to the rebellious house: ‘Do you not know what these things mean?’ Tell them, ‘Indeed the king of Babylon went to Jerusalem and took its king and princes, and led them with him to Babylon.

Eze 17:13 ‘And he took the king’s offspring, made a covenant with him, and put him under oath. He also took away the mighty of the land, Eze 17:14 ‘that the kingdom might be abased and not lift itself up, but that by keeping his covenant it might stand.

Eze 17:15 ‘But he rebelled against him by sending his envoys to Egypt, that they might give him horses and many people. Will he prosper? Will he who does such things escape? Can he break a covenant and still be delivered?

Eze 17:16 ‘As I live,’ says Lord Jehovah, ‘surely in the place where the king dwells who made him king, whose oath he despised and whose covenant he broke; with him in the midst of Babylon he will die.

Eze 17:17 ‘Nor will Pharaoh with his mighty army and great company do anything in the war, when they heap up a siege mound and build a wall to cut off many souls.

Eze 17:18 ‘Since he despised the oath by breaking the covenant, and in fact gave his hand and still did all these things, he will not escape.’”

Eze 17:19 Therefore thus says Lord Jehovah: “As I live, surely My oath which he despised, and My covenant which he broke, I will recompense on his own head. Eze 17:20 “I will spread My net over him, and he will be taken in My snare. I will bring him to Babylon and judge him there for the treason which he committed against Me.

Eze 17:21 “All his fugitives with all his troops will fall by the sword, and those who remain will be scattered to every wind; and you will know that I, Jehovah, have spoken.”

Eze 17:22 Thus says Lord Jehovah: “I will take also one of the highest branches of the high cedar and set it out. I will crop off from the topmost of its young twigs a tender one, and will plant it on a high and prominent mountain.

Eze 17:23 “On the mountain height of Israel I will plant it; and it will bring forth boughs, and bear fruit, and be a majestic cedar. Under it will dwell many winged birds; they will dwell in the shadow of its branches.

Eze 17:24 “And all the trees of the field will know that I, Jehovah, have brought down the high tree and exalted the low tree, dried up the green tree and made the dry tree flourish. I, Jehovah, have spoken and have done it.”

Eze 18:1 The word of Jehovah came to me again, saying,

Eze 18:2 “What do you mean when you use this proverb concerning the land of Israel, saying: ‘The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the children’s teeth are set on edge’?”

Eze 18:3 “As I live,” says Lord Jehovah, “you will no longer use this proverb in Israel.

Eze 18:4 “Behold, all the souls are Mine; as the soul of the father is, so also the soul of the son. They are Mine. The soul that sins, it will die.

Eze 18:5 “But if a man is just and does righteous judgements;

Eze 18:6 “if he has not eaten on the mountains,¹ nor lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, nor made his neighbour’s wife unclean, nor approached a menstruous woman;

Eze 18:7 “if he has not oppressed anyone, but has restored to the debtor his pledge; has robbed no one by violence, but has given his bread to the hungry and covered the naked with clothing;

Eze 18:8 “if he has not exacted usury nor taken any increase, but has withdrawn his hand from iniquity and executed true judgement between man and man;

Eze 18:9 “if he has walked in My statutes and kept My judgements faithfully; he is just; he will surely live!” says Lord Jehovah.

Eze 18:10 “If he begets a son who is a robber or a shedder of blood, who does any of these things

Eze 18:11 “and does none of those duties, but has eaten on the mountains or made his neighbour’s wife unclean;

Eze 18:12 “if he has oppressed the poor and needy, robbed by violence, not restored the pledge, lifted his eyes to the idols, or committed abomination;

Eze 18:13 “if he has exacted usury or taken increase; will he then live? He will not live! If he has done any of these abominations, he will surely die; His blood will be upon him.

Eze 18:14 “If, however, he begets a son who sees all the sins which his father has done, and considers but does not do likewise;

Eze 18:15 “who has not eaten on the mountains, nor lifted his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, nor made his neighbour’s wife unclean;

Eze 18:16 “has not oppressed anyone, nor withheld a pledge, nor robbed by violence, but has given his bread to the hungry and covered the naked with clothing;

Eze 18:17 “who has withdrawn his hand from the poor and not received usury or increase, but has executed My judgements and walked in My statutes; he will not die for the iniquity of his father; he will surely live!

Eze 18:18 “As for his father, because he cruelly oppressed, robbed his brother by violence, and did what is not good among his people, behold, he will die for his iniquity.

Eze 18:19 “Yet you say, ‘Why should the son not bear the iniquity of the father?’ Because the son has done righteous judgements, and has kept all My statutes and done them, he will surely live.

Eze 18:20 “The soul that sins, it will die. The son will not bear the iniquity of the father, nor the father bear the iniquity of the son. The righteousness of the righteous will be upon himself, and the wickedness of the wicked will be upon himself.

Eze 18:21 “But if a wicked man turns from all his sins which he has committed, keeps all My statutes, and does righteous judgements, he will surely live; he will not die.

Eze 18:22 “None of the transgressions which he has committed will be remembered against him; because of the righteousness which he has done, he will live.

Eze 18:23 “Do I have any pleasure at all that the wicked should die?” says Lord Jehovah, “and not that he should turn from his ways and live?

Eze 18:24 “But when a righteous man turns away from his righteousness and commits iniquity, and does according to all the abominations that the wicked man does, will he live? All the righteousness which he has done will not be remembered; because of the unfaithfulness of which he is guilty and the sin which he has committed, because of them he will die.

Eze 18:25 “Yet you say, ‘The way of Jehovah is not fair.’ Hear now, O house of Israel, is it not My way which is fair, and your ways which are not fair?

Eze 18:26 “When a righteous man turns away from his righteousness, commits iniquity, and dies in it, it is because of the iniquity which he has done that he dies.

Eze 18:27 “Again, when a wicked man turns away from the wickedness which he committed, and does righteous judgements, he keeps his soul alive.

Eze 18:28 “Because he considers and turns away from all the transgressions which he committed, he will surely live; he will not die.

Eze 18:29 “Yet the house of Israel says, ‘The way of Jehovah is not fair.’ O house of Israel, is it not My ways which are fair, and your ways which are not fair?

Eze 18:30 “Therefore I will judge you, O house of Israel, every one according to his ways,” says Lord Jehovah. “Repent, and turn from all your transgressions, so that iniquity will not be your ruin.

Eze 18:31 “Cast away from you all the transgressions which you have committed, and get yourselves a new heart and a new spirit. For why should you die, O house of Israel?

Eze 18:32 “For I have no pleasure in the death of one who dies,” says Lord Jehovah. “Therefore turn and live!”¹

Eze 19:1 “Moreover take up a lamentation for the princes of Israel, Eze 19:2 “and say: ‘What is your mother? A lioness: she lay down among the lions; among the young lions she nourished her cubs.

Eze 19:3 ‘She brought up one of her cubs, and he became a young lion; he learned to catch prey, and he devoured men.

Eze 19:4 ‘The nations also heard of him; he was trapped in their pit, and they brought him with chains to the land of Egypt.

Eze 19:5 ‘When she saw that she waited, that her hope was lost, she took another of her cubs and made him a young lion.

Eze 19:6 ‘He roved among the lions, and became a young lion; he learned to catch prey; he devoured men.

Eze 19:7 ‘He knew their desolate places, and laid waste their cities; the land with its fullness was desolated by the noise of his roaring.

Eze 19:8 ‘Then the nations set against him from the provinces on every side, and spread their net over him; he was trapped in their pit.

Eze 19:9 ‘They put him in a cage with chains, and brought him to the king of Babylon; they brought him in nets, that his voice should no longer be heard on the mountains of Israel.

Eze 19:10 ‘Your mother was like a vine in your bloodline, planted by the waters, fruitful and full of branches because of many waters.

Eze 19:11 ‘She had strong branches for branches of rulers. She towered in stature above the thick boughs, and was seen in her height amid the dense foliage.

Eze 19:12 ‘But she was plucked up in fury, she was cast down to the ground, and the east wind dried her fruit. Her strong branches were broken and withered; the fire consumed them.

Eze 19:13 ‘And now she is planted in the wilderness, in a dry and thirsty land.

Eze 19:14 ‘Fire has come out from a branch of her limbs and devoured her fruit, so that she has no strong branch; a branch for ruling.” This is a lamentation, and has become a lamentation.

Eze 20:1 It came to pass in the seventh year, in the fifth new moon, on the tenth day of the new moon, that certain of the elders of Israel came to inquire of Jehovah, and sat before me.

Eze 20:2 Then Jehovah’s word came to me, saying,

Eze 20:3 “Son of man, speak to the elders of Israel, and say to them, ‘Thus says Lord Jehovah: “Have you come to inquire of Me? As I live,” says Lord Jehovah, “I will not be inquired of by you.”’

Eze 20:4 “Will you judge them, son of man, will you judge them? Then make known to them the abominations of their fathers.

Eze 20:5 “Say to them, ‘Thus says Lord Jehovah: “On the day when I chose Israel and lifted My hand in an oath to the descendants of the house of Jacob, and made Myself known to them in the land of Egypt, I lifted My hand in an oath to them, saying, ‘I am Jehovah your God.’

Eze 20:6 “On that day I lifted My hand in an oath to them, to bring them out of the land of Egypt into a land that I had searched out for them, flowing with milk and honey, the glory of all lands.

Eze 20:7 “Then I said to them, ‘Each of you, throw away the abominations which are before his eyes, and do not make yourselves unclean with the idols of Egypt. I am Jehovah your God.’

Eze 20:8 “But they rebelled against Me and would not obey Me. They did not all cast away the abominations which were before their eyes, nor did they forsake the idols of Egypt. Then I said, ‘I will pour out My fury on them and fulfil My anger against them in the midst of the land of Egypt.’

Eze 20:9 “But I acted for My Name’s sake, that it should not be defiled before the gentiles among whom they were, in whose sight I had made Myself known to them, to bring them out of the land of Egypt.

Eze 20:10 “Therefore I made them go out of the land of Egypt and brought them into the wilderness.

Eze 20:11 “And I gave them My statutes and showed them My judgements which, if a man does, he will live by them.

Eze 20:12 “Moreover I also gave them My Sabbaths, to be a sign between them and Me, that they might know that I am Jehovah who sanctifies them.

Eze 20:13 “Yet the house of Israel rebelled against Me in the wilderness; they did not walk in My statutes; they despised My judgements, which, if a man does, he will live by them; and they greatly defiled My Sabbaths. Then I said I would pour out My fury on them in the wilderness, to consume them.

Eze 20:14 “But I acted for My Name’s sake, that it should not be profaned before the gentiles, in whose sight I had brought them out.

Eze 20:15 “So I also lifted My hand in an oath to them in the wilderness, that I would not bring them into the land which I had given them, flowing with milk and honey, the glory of all lands, Eze 20:16 “because they despised My judgements and did not walk in My statutes, but defiled My Sabbaths; for their heart went after their idols.

Eze 20:17 “Nevertheless My eye spared them from destruction. I did not make an end of them in the wilderness.

Eze 20:18 “But I said to their children in the wilderness, ‘Do not walk in the statutes of your fathers, nor observe their judgements, nor make yourselves unclean with their idols.

Eze 20:19 ‘I am Jehovah your God: Walk in My statutes, keep My judgements, and do them;

Eze 20:20 ‘hallow My Sabbaths, and they will be a sign between Me and you, that you may know that I am Jehovah your God.’

Eze 20:21 “Notwithstanding, the children rebelled against Me; they did not walk in My statutes, and were not careful to observe My judgements which, if a man does, he will live by them; but they defiled My Sabbaths. Then I said I would pour out My fury on them and fulfil My anger against them in the wilderness.

Eze 20:22 “Nevertheless I withdrew My hand and acted for My Name’s sake, that it should not be profaned in the sight of the gentiles, in whose sight I had brought them out.

Eze 20:23 “Also I lifted My hand in an oath to those in the wilderness, that I would scatter them among the gentiles and disperse them throughout the countries, Eze 20:24 “because they had not executed My judgements, but had despised My statutes, defiled My Sabbaths, and their eyes were fixed on their fathers’ idols.

Eze 20:25 “Therefore I also gave them up to statutes that were not good, and judgements by which they could not live;

Eze 20:26 “and I pronounced them unclean because of their ritual gifts, in that they caused all their firstborn to pass through the fire, that I might make them desolate and that they might know that I am Jehovah.”

Eze 20:27 “Therefore, son of man, speak to the house of Israel, and say to them, ‘Thus says Lord Jehovah: “In this too your fathers have blasphemed Me, by being unfaithful to Me.

Eze 20:28 “For when I brought them into the land for which I had lifted My hand in an oath to give them, and they saw all the high hills and all the thick trees, there they offered their sacrifices and provoked Me with their offerings. There they also sent up their sweet aroma and poured out their drink offerings.

Eze 20:29 “Then I said to them, ‘What is this high place to which you go?’ So its name is called Bamah¹ to this day.”

Eze 20:30 “Therefore say to the house of Israel, ‘Thus says Lord Jehovah: “Are you making yourselves unclean in the manner of your fathers, and prostituting yourselves according to their abominations?”

Eze 20:31 “For when you offer your gifts and make your sons pass through the fire, you make yourselves unclean with all your idols, even to this day. So will I be inquired of by you, O house of Israel? As I live,” says Lord Jehovah, “I will not be inquired of by you.

Eze 20:32 “What you have in your spirit will never be, when you say, ‘We will be like the gentiles, like the families in other countries, serving wood and stone.’

Eze 20:33 “As I live,” says Lord Jehovah, “surely with a mighty hand, with an outstretched arm, and with fury poured out, I will rule over you.

Eze 20:34 “I will bring you out from the peoples and gather you out of the countries where you are scattered, with a mighty hand, with an outstretched arm, and with fury poured out.

Eze 20:35 “And I will bring you into the wilderness of the peoples, and there I will judge you face to face.

Eze 20:36 “Just as I judged your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so I will judge you,” says Lord Jehovah.

Eze 20:37 “I will make you pass under the branch, and I will bring you into the bond of the covenant;

Eze 20:38 “I will purge the rebels from among you, and those who transgress against Me. I will bring them out of the country where they sojourn, but they will not enter the land of Israel. Then you will know that I am Jehovah.

Eze 20:39 “As for you, O house of Israel,” thus says Lord Jehovah: “Go, serve every one of you his idols; and after this, if you will not obey me do not defile My sanctified Name with your gifts and your idols any more.

Eze 20:40 “For on My sanctified mountain, on the mountain height of Israel,” says Lord Jehovah, “there all the house of Israel, all of them in the land, will serve Me; there I will accept them, and there I will require your offerings and the firsts of your sacrifices, together with all your sanctified things.

Eze 20:41 “I will accept you as a sweet aroma when I bring you out from the peoples and gather you out of the countries where you have been scattered; and I will be hallowed in you before the gentiles.

Eze 20:42 “Then you will know that I am Jehovah, when I bring you into the land of Israel, into the country for which I lifted My hand in an oath to give to your fathers.

Eze 20:43 “And there you will remember your ways and all your doings with which you became unclean; and you will loathe yourselves in your own sight because of all the evils that you have committed.

Eze 20:44 “Then you will know that I am Jehovah, when I have dealt with you for My Name’s sake, not according to your evil ways nor according to your corrupt doings, O house of Israel,” says Lord Jehovah.””²

Eze 20:45 Furthermore Jehovah’s word came to me, saying,

Eze 20:46 “Son of man, set your face toward the south; preach against the south and prophesy against the forest land, the South,

Eze 20:47 “and say to the forest of the South, ‘Hear Jehovah’s word! Thus says Lord Jehovah: “Behold, I will kindle a fire in you, and it will devour every green tree and every dry tree in you; the blazing flame will not be quenched, and all faces from the south to the north will be scorched by it.

Eze 20:48 "All flesh will see that I, Jehovah, have kindled it; it will not be quenched."'''

Eze 20:49 Then I said, "Oh, Lord Jehovah! They say of me, 'Does he not speak proverbs?'"

Eze 21:1 And Jehovah's word came to me, saying,

Eze 21:2 "Son of man, set your face toward Jerusalem, preach against the sanctuaries, and prophesy against the land of Israel;

Eze 21:3 "and say to the land of Israel, 'Thus says Jehovah: "Behold, I am against you, and I will draw My sword out of its sheath and cut off both righteous and wicked from you.

Eze 21:4 "Because I will cut off both righteous and wicked from you, therefore My sword will go out of its sheath against all flesh from south to north,

Eze 21:5 "that all flesh may know that I, Jehovah, have drawn My sword out of its sheath; it will not return anymore."'''

Eze 21:6 "Sigh therefore, son of man, with a breaking heart, and sigh with bitterness before their eyes.

Eze 21:7 "And it will be when they say to you, 'Why are you sighing?' that you will answer, 'Because of the news; when it comes, every heart will melt, all hands will be feeble, every spirit will faint, and all knees will be weak as water. Behold, it is coming and will be brought to pass,' says Lord Jehovah."

Eze 21:8 Again Jehovah's word came to me, saying,

Eze 21:9 "Son of man, prophesy and say, 'Thus says Jehovah! "Say: 'A sword, a sword is sharpened and also polished!

Eze 21:10 Sharpened to make a dreadful slaughter, polished to flash like lightning! Should we then make mirth? It despises the Branch of My son, as it does all wood.

Eze 21:11 And He has given it to be polished, that it may be handled; this sword is sharpened, and it is polished to be given into the hand of the slayer.'

Eze 21:12 "Cry and wail, son of man; for it will be against My people, against all the princes of Israel. Terrors including the sword will be against My people; therefore strike your thigh.

Eze 21:13 "Because it is a testing, and what if the sword despises even the branch? The branch will be no more," says Lord Jehovah.

Eze 21:14 "You therefore, son of man, prophesy and strike your hands together. The third time let the sword do double damage. It is the sword that slays, the sword that slays the great men, that enters their private chambers.

Eze 21:15 I have set the point of the sword against all their gates, that the heart may melt and many may stumble. Ah! It is made bright; it is grasped for slaughter:

Eze 21:16 "Swords at the ready! Thrust right! Set your blade! Thrust left; wherever your edge is ordered!

Eze 21:17 "I also will beat My fists together, and I will cause My fury to rest; I, Jehovah, have spoken."

Eze 21:18 The word of Jehovah came to me again, saying:

Eze 21:19 "And son of man, appoint for yourself two ways for the sword of the king of Babylon to go; both of them will go from the same land. Make a sign; put it at the head of the road to the city.

Eze 21:20 "Appoint a road for the sword to go to Rabbah of the Ammonites, and to Judah, into fortified Jerusalem.

Eze 21:21 "For the king of Babylon stands at the parting of the road, at the fork of the two roads, to use divination: he shakes the arrows, he consults the images, he looks at the liver.

Eze 21:22 "In his right hand is the divination for Jerusalem: to set up battering rams, to call mouths for a slaughter, to lift the voice with shouting, to set battering rams against the gates, to heap up a siege mound, and to build a wall.

Eze 21:23 “And it will be to them like a false divination in the eyes of those who have sworn oaths with them; but he will bring their iniquity to remembrance, that they may be taken.

Eze 21:24 “Therefore thus says Lord Jehovah: ‘Because you have made your iniquity to be remembered, in that your transgressions are uncovered, so that in all your doings your sins appear; because you have come to remembrance, you will be taken in hand.

Eze 21:25 ‘Now to you, O pierced wicked prince of Israel, whose day has come, whose iniquity will end, Eze 21:26 “thus says Lord Jehovah: ‘Remove the turban, and take off the crown; nothing will remain the same. Exalt the lowly, and abase the exalted.

Eze 21:27 Overthrown, overthrown, I will make it overthrown! It will be no longer, until He comes whose judgement it is, and I will give it to Him.’¹

Eze 21:28 “And you, son of man, prophesy and say, ‘Thus says Lord Jehovah concerning the Ammonites and concerning their reproach,’ and say: ‘A sword, a sword is drawn, polished for slaughter, for consuming, for flashing;

Eze 21:29 while they see vain visions for you, while they divine a lie to you, to bring you on the necks of the wicked, the slain whose day has come, whose iniquity will end.

Eze 21:30 ‘Return it to its sheath. I will judge you in the place where you were created, in the land of your nativity.

Eze 21:31 I will pour out My indignation on you; I will blow against you with the fire of My wrath, and deliver you into the hands of brutal men who are skillful to destroy.

Eze 21:32 You will be fuel for the fire; your blood will be in the midst of the land. You will not be remembered, for I Jehovah have spoken.”

Eze 22:1 Moreover Jehovah’s word came to me, saying,

Eze 22:2 “Now, son of man, will you judge, will you judge the bloody city? Yes, show her all her abominations!

Eze 22:3 “Then say, ‘Thus says Lord Jehovah: “The city sheds blood in her own midst, that her time may come; and she makes idols within herself to make herself unclean.

Eze 22:4 “You have become guilty by the blood which you have shed, and have made yourself unclean with the idols which you have made. You have caused your days to draw near, and have come to the end of your years; therefore I have made you a reproach to the nations, and a mockery to all countries.

Eze 22:5 “Those near and those far from you will mock your unclean name and great tumult.

Eze 22:6 “Look, the princes of Israel: each one has used his power to shed blood in you.

Eze 22:7 “In you they have made light of father and mother; in your midst they have oppressed the immigrant; in you they have mistreated the fatherless and the widow.

Eze 22:8 “You have despised My sanctified things and defiled My Sabbaths.

Eze 22:9 “In you are men who slander to cause bloodshed; in you are those who eat on the mountains; in your midst they commit lewdness.

Eze 22:10 “In you men uncover their fathers’ nakedness; in you they violate women who are set apart during their uncleanness.

Eze 22:11 “One commits abomination with his neighbour’s wife; another lewdly makes his daughter-in-law unclean; and another in you violates his sister, his father’s daughter.

Eze 22:12 “In you they take bribes to shed blood; you take usury and increase; you have made profit from your neighbours by extortion, and have forgotten Me,” says Lord Jehovah.

Eze 22:13 “Behold, therefore, I beat My fists at the dishonest profit which you have made, and at the bloodshed which has been in your midst.

Eze 22:14 “Can your heart endure, or can your hands remain strong, in the days when I will deal with you? I, Jehovah, have spoken, and will do it.

Eze 22:15 “I will scatter you among the nations, disperse you throughout the countries, and remove your uncleanness completely from you.

Eze 22:16 “You will defile yourself in the sight of the nations; then you will know that I am Jehovah.””

Eze 22:17 The word of Jehovah came to me, saying,

Eze 22:18 “Son of man, the house of Israel has become dross to Me; they are all bronze, tin, iron, and lead, in the midst of a furnace; they have become dross from silver.

Eze 22:19 “Therefore thus says Lord Jehovah: ‘Because you have all become dross, therefore behold, I will gather you into the midst of Jerusalem.

Eze 22:20 ‘As men gather silver, bronze, iron, lead, and tin into the midst of a furnace, to blow fire on it, to melt it; so I will gather you in My anger and in My fury, and I will leave you there and melt you.

Eze 22:21 ‘Yes, I will gather you and blow on you with the fire of My wrath, and you will be melted in its midst.

Eze 22:22 ‘As silver is melted in the midst of a furnace, so will you be melted in its midst; then you will know that I, Jehovah, have poured out My fury on you.”

Eze 22:23 And Jehovah’s word came to me, saying,

Eze 22:24 “Son of man, say to her: ‘You are a land that is not cleansed or rained on in the day of indignation.’

Eze 22:25 “The conspiracy of her prophets in her midst is like a roaring lion tearing the prey; they have devoured souls; they have taken treasure and precious things; they have made many widows in her midst.

Eze 22:26 “Her priests have violated My Instructions and profaned My sanctified things; they have not distinguished between the sanctified and profane, nor have they taught the difference between the unclean and the clean; and they have hidden their eyes from My Sabbaths, so that I am profaned among them.

Eze 22:27 “Her princes in her midst are like wolves tearing the prey, to shed blood, to destroy souls, and to get dishonest gain.

Eze 22:28 “Her prophets plastered them with untempered mortar, seeing false visions, and divining lies for them, saying, ‘Thus says Lord Jehovah,’ when Jehovah had not spoken.

Eze 22:29 “The people of the land have used oppression, committed robbery, and mistreated the poor and needy; and their judgements oppress the immigrant.

Eze 22:30 “So I sought for a man among them who would make a wall, and stand in the gap before Me on behalf of the land, that I should not destroy it; but I found no one.

Eze 22:31 “Therefore I have poured out My indignation on them; I have consumed them with the fire of My wrath; and I have recompensed their deeds on their own heads,” says Lord Jehovah.

Eze 23:1 The word of Jehovah came again to me, saying:

Eze 23:2 “Son of man, there were two women, the daughters of one mother.

Eze 23:3 They prostituted themselves in Egypt, they prostituted themselves in their youth; their breasts were embraced there, their virgin nipples were celebrated there.

Eze 23:4 Their names: Oholah¹ the elder and Oholibah² her sister; they were Mine, and they bore sons and daughters. As for their names, Samaria is Oholah, and Jerusalem is Oholibah.

Eze 23:5 “Oholah prostituted herself even though she was Mine; and she lusted for her lovers, the neighbouring Assyrians, Eze 23:6 who were clothed in purple, captains and rulers, all of them desirable young men, horsemen riding on horses.

Eze 23:7 Thus she committed her fornications with them, all of the choice men of Assyria; and with all for whom she lusted, with all their idols, she made herself unclean.

Eze 23:8 She has never given up her fornication brought from Egypt, for in her youth they had lain with her, celebrated her virgin nipples, and poured out their immorality upon her.

Eze 23:9 “Therefore I have delivered her into the hand of her lovers, into the hand of the Assyrians, for whom she lusted.

Eze 23:10 They uncovered her nakedness, took away her sons and daughters, and slew her with the sword. She became a byword among women, for they had executed judgement on her.

Eze 23:11 “Now although her sister Oholibah saw this, she became more corrupt in her inordinate lust than she, and in her fornications more corrupt than her sister’s prostitutions.

Eze 23:12 “She lusted for the neighbouring Assyrians, captains and rulers, clothed most gorgeously, horsemen riding on horses, all of them desirable young men.

Eze 23:13 Then I saw that she was unclean; both took the same way.

Eze 23:14 But she increased her fornications; she looked at men portrayed on the wall, images of Chaldeans portrayed in vermilion, Eze 23:15 girded with belts around their waists, flowing turbans on their heads, all of them looking like captains, in the manner of the Babylonians of Chaldea, the land of their nativity.

Eze 23:16 As soon as her eyes saw them, she lusted for them and sent envoys to them in Chaldea.

Eze 23:17 “Then the Babylonians came to her, into the bed of love, and they made her unclean with their fornications; so she was made unclean by them, and her soul was alienated from them.

Eze 23:18 She revealed her fornications and uncovered her nakedness. Then My soul was alienated from her, as My soul was alienated from her sister.

Eze 23:19 “Yet she multiplied her fornications in calling to remembrance the days of her youth, when she had prostituted herself in the land of Egypt.

Eze 23:20 For she lusted for her paramours, whose flesh is like the flesh of donkeys, and whose issue is like the issue of horses.

Eze 23:21 Thus you called to remembrance the lewdness of your youth, when the Egyptians celebrated your nipples because of your youthful breasts.

Eze 23:22 “Therefore, Oholibah, thus says Lord Jehovah: ‘Behold, I will stir up your lovers against you, from whom your soul is alienated, and I will bring them against you from every side:

Eze 23:23 the Babylonians, all the Chaldeans, Pekod, Shoa, Koa, all the Assyrians with them, all of them desirable young men, governors and rulers, captains and men of renown, all of them riding on horses.

Eze 23:24 And they will come against you with chariots, wagons, and war-horses, with a horde of people. They will array against you buckler, shield, and helmet all around. ‘I will delegate judgement to them, and they will judge you according to their judgements.

² Means “woman of the tent”.

Eze 23:25 I will set My jealousy against you, and they will deal furiously with you; they will remove your nose and your ears, and your remnant will fall by the sword; they will take your sons and your daughters, and your remnant will be devoured by fire.

Eze 23:26 They will also strip you of your clothes and take away your beautiful jewellery.

Eze 23:27 'Thus I will make you cease your lewdness and your prostitution brought from the land of Egypt, so that you will not lift your eyes to them, nor remember Egypt anymore.'

Eze 23:28 "For thus says Lord Jehovah: 'Surely I will deliver you into the hand of those whom you hate, into the hand of those from whom your soul is alienated.

Eze 23:29 'They will deal hatefully with you, take away all you have worked for, and leave you naked and bare. The nakedness of your prostitutions will be uncovered, both your lewdness and your fornications.

Eze 23:30 'I will do this to you because you have prostituted yourself before the gentiles, because you have become unclean by their idols.

Eze 23:31 'You have walked in the way of your sister; therefore I will put her cup in your hand.'

Eze 23:32 "Thus says Lord Jehovah: 'You will drink of your sister's cup, the deep and wide one; you will be laughed to scorn and held in derision; it contains much.

Eze 23:33 You will be filled with drunkenness and sorrow, the cup of horror and desolation, the cup of your sister Samaria.

Eze 23:34 You will drink and drain it, you will break its shards, and tear at your own breasts; for I have spoken,' says Lord Jehovah.

Eze 23:35 "Therefore thus says Lord Jehovah: 'Because you have forgotten Me and cast Me behind your back, therefore you will bear the penalty of your lewdness and your fornications.'"

Eze 23:36 Jehovah also said to me: "Son of man, will you judge Oholah and Oholibah? Then declare to them their abominations.

Eze 23:37 "For they have committed adultery, and blood is on their hands. They have committed adultery before their idols, and even sacrificed their sons whom they bore to Me, passing them through the fire, to devour them.

Eze 23:38 "Moreover they have done this to Me: They have made My sanctuary unclean on the same day and defiled My Sabbaths.

Eze 23:39 "For after they had slain their children for their idols, on the same day they came into My sanctuary to defile it; and indeed thus they have done in the midst of My house.

Eze 23:40 "Furthermore you sent for men to come from afar, to whom an envoy was sent; and there they came. And you washed yourself for them, painted your eyes, and adorned yourself with ornaments.

Eze 23:41 "You sat on a stately couch, with a table prepared before it, on which you had set My incense and My oil.

Eze 23:42 "The sound of a carefree crowd was with her, and Sabeans were brought from the wilderness with men of the common sort, who put bracelets on their wrists and beautiful crowns on their heads.

Eze 23:43 "Then I said concerning her who was old in adulteries, 'Will they fornicate with her now, and she with them?'

Eze 23:44 "Yet they went into her, as men go into a woman who is a prostitute; thus they went into Oholah and Oholibah, the lewd women.

Eze 23:45 "But righteous men will judge them after the manner of adulteresses, and after the manner of women who shed blood, because they are adulteresses, and blood is on their hands.

Eze 23:46 “For thus says Lord Jehovah: ‘Bring up an assembly against them, give them up to trouble and plunder.

Eze 23:47 ‘The assembly will stone them with stones and execute them with their swords; they will slay their sons and their daughters, and burn their houses with fire.

Eze 23:48 ‘Thus I will cause lewdness to cease from the land, that all women may be taught not to practice your lewdness.

Eze 23:49 ‘They will repay you for your lewdness, and you will pay for your idolatrous sins. Then you will know that I am Lord Jehovah.’”

Eze 24:1 Again, in the ninth year, in the tenth new moon, on the tenth day of the new moon, Jehovah’s word came to me, saying,

Eze 24:2 “Son of man, write down the name of the day, this very day; the king of Babylon started his siege against Jerusalem this very day.

Eze 24:3 “And utter a proverb to the rebellious house, and say to them, ‘Thus says Lord Jehovah: “Put on a pot, set it on, and also pour water into it.

Eze 24:4 Gather pieces of meat in it, every good piece; the thigh and the shoulder. Fill it with choice cuts.

Eze 24:5 Take the choice of the flock, also pile bones under it, make it boil well, and let the cuts cook in it.”

Eze 24:6 ‘Therefore thus says Lord Jehovah: “Woe to the bloody city, to the pot whose scum is in it, and whose scum is not gone from it! Bring it out piece by piece, on which no lot has fallen.

Eze 24:7 For her blood is in her midst; she set it on top of a rock; she did not pour it on the ground, to cover it with dust.

Eze 24:8 That it may raise up fury and take vengeance, I have set her blood on top of a rock, that it may not be covered.”

Eze 24:9 ‘Therefore thus says Lord

Jehovah: “Woe to the bloody city! I too will make the pyre great.

Eze 24:10 Heap on the wood, kindle the fire; cook the meat well. Mix in the spices, and let the cuts be burned up.

Eze 24:11 “Then set the pot empty on the coals, that it may become hot and its bronze may burn, that its uncleanness may be melted in it, that its scum may be consumed.

Eze 24:12 She has wearied herself with lies, and her great scum has not gone from her. Let her scum be in the fire!

Eze 24:13 In your uncleanness is lewdness. Because I have purged you, and you were not purged, you will not be purged of your uncleanness anymore, until I have caused My fury to rest upon you.

Eze 24:14 I, Jehovah, have spoken it; it will come to pass, and I will do it. I will not hold back, nor will I spare, nor will I relent. According to your ways and according to your deeds they will judge you.” says Lord Jehovah.”

Eze 24:15 Also Jehovah’s word came to me, saying,

Eze 24:16 “Son of man, behold, I take away from you the desire of your eyes with one stroke; yet you will neither mourn nor weep, nor will your tears run down.

Eze 24:17 “Sigh in silence, make no mourning for the dead; bind your turban on your head, and put your sandals on your feet; do not cover your lips, and do not eat man’s bread of sorrow.”

Eze 24:18 So I spoke to the people in the morning, and at evening my wife died; and the next morning I did as I was commanded.

Eze 24:19 And the people said to me, “Will you not tell us what these things signify to us, that you behave so?”

Eze 24:20 Then I answered them, “The word of Jehovah came to me, saying, Eze 24:21 ‘Speak to the house of Israel, “Thus says Lord Jehovah: ‘Behold, I will defile My sanctuary, your arrogant boast, the desire of your eyes, the longing of your soul; and your sons and daughters whom you left behind will fall by the sword.

Eze 24:22 ‘And you will do as I have done; you will not cover your lips nor eat man’s bread of sorrow.

Eze 24:23 ‘Your turbans will be on your heads and your sandals on your feet; you will neither mourn nor weep, but you will pine away in your iniquities and mourn with one another.

Eze 24:24 ‘Thus Ezekiel is a sign to you; according to all that he has done you will do; and when this comes, you will know that I am Lord Jehovah.”

Eze 24:25 ‘And you, son of man; will it not be in the day when I take from them their stronghold, their joy and their glory, the desire of their eyes, and the burden of their souls; their sons and their daughters?

Eze 24:26 ‘On that day one who escapes will come to you to let you hear it with your ears.

Eze 24:27 ‘On that day your mouth will be opened to him who has escaped; you will speak and no longer be mute. Thus you will be a sign to them, and they will know that I am Jehovah.”

Eze 25:1 The word of Jehovah came to me, saying,

Eze 25:2 “Son of man, set your face against the Ammonites, and prophesy against them.

Eze 25:3 “Say to the Ammonites, ‘Hear the word of Lord Jehovah! Thus says Lord Jehovah: “Because you said, ‘Aha!’ against My sanctuary when it was defiled, and against the land of Israel when it was desolate, and against the house of Judah when they went into captivity,

Eze 25:4 “indeed, therefore, I will deliver you as a possession to the men of the East, and they will set their encampments among you and make their booths among you; they will eat your fruit, and they will drink your milk.

Eze 25:5 “And I will make Rabbah a stable for camels and Ammon a resting place for flocks. Then you will know that I am Jehovah.”

Eze 25:6 ‘For thus says Lord Jehovah: “Because you clapped your hands, stamped your feet, and rejoiced in your soul with all your disdain for the land of Israel,

Eze 25:7 “indeed, therefore, I will stretch out My hand against you, and give you as plunder to the nations. I will cut you off from the peoples, and I will cause you to perish from the countries. I will destroy you, and you will know that I am Jehovah.”

Eze 25:8 ‘Thus says Lord Jehovah: “Because Moab and Seir say, ‘Look! The house of Judah is like all the nations,’ Eze 25:9 “therefore, behold, I will clear the territory of Moab of cities, of the cities on its frontier, the glory of the country, Beth Jeshimoth, Baal Meon, and Kirjathaim.

Eze 25:10 “I will give it to the men of the East as a possession, together with the Ammonites, that the Ammonites may not be remembered among the nations.

Eze 25:11 “And I will execute judgements upon Moab, and they will know that I am Jehovah.”

Eze 25:12 ‘Thus says Lord Jehovah: “Because of what Edom did against the house of Judah by taking vengeance, and has greatly offended by avenging itself on them,” Eze 25:13 ‘therefore thus says Lord Jehovah: “I will also stretch out My hand against Edom, cut off man and beast from it, and make it a wasteland from Teman; Dedan will fall by the sword.

Eze 25:14 “I will lay My vengeance on Edom by the hand of My people Israel, that they may do in Edom according to My anger and according to My fury; and they will know My vengeance,” says Lord Jehovah.

Eze 25:15 ‘Thus says Lord Jehovah: “Because the Philistines dealt vengefully and took vengeance with a spiteful soul, to destroy because of the old hatred,” Eze 25:16 ‘therefore thus says Lord Jehovah: “I will stretch out My hand against the Philistines, and I will cut off the Cherethites and destroy the remnant of the seacoast.

Eze 25:17 “I will execute great vengeance on them with furious rebukes; and they will know that I am Jehovah, when I lay My vengeance upon them.”’

Eze 26:1 And it came to pass in the eleventh year, on the first day of the new moon, that Jehovah’s word came to me, saying,

Eze 26:2 “Son of man, because Tyre has said against Jerusalem, ‘Aha! She is broken who was the gateway of the peoples; now she is turned over to me; I will be filled; she is laid waste.’

Eze 26:3 “Therefore thus says Lord Jehovah: ‘Behold, I am against you, O Tyre, and will cause many nations to come up against you, as the sea causes its waves to come up.

Eze 26:4 ‘And they will destroy the walls of Tyre and break down her towers; I will also scrape her dust from her, and make her like the top of a rock.

Eze 26:5 ‘It will be a place for spreading nets in the midst of the sea, for I have spoken,’ says Lord Jehovah; ‘it will become plunder for the nations.

Eze 26:6 ‘Also her daughter villages which are in the fields will be slain by the sword. Then they will know that I am Jehovah.’

Eze 26:7 “For thus says Lord Jehovah: ‘Behold, I will bring against Tyre from the north Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, king of kings, with horses, with chariots, and with horsemen, and an army with many people.

Eze 26:8 ‘He will slay with the sword your daughter villages in the fields; he will heap up a siege mound against you, build a wall against you, and raise a defence against you.

Eze 26:9 ‘He will direct his battering rams against your walls, and with his axes he will break down your towers.

Eze 26:10 ‘Because of the abundance of his horses, their dust will cover you; your walls will shake at the noise of the horsemen, the wagons, and the chariots, when he enters your gates, as men enter a city that has been split open.

Eze 26:11 ‘With the hooves of his horses he will trample all your streets; he will slay your people by the sword, and your strong pillars will fall to the ground.

Eze 26:12 ‘They will plunder your riches and pillage your merchandise; they will break down your walls and destroy your pleasant houses; they will lay your stones, your timber, and your soil in the midst of the water.

Eze 26:13 ‘I will put an end to the sound of your songs, and the sound of your harps will be heard no more.

Eze 26:14 ‘I will make you like the top of a rock; you will be a place for spreading nets, and you will never be rebuilt, for I Jehovah have spoken,’ says Lord Jehovah.

Eze 26:15 “Thus says Lord Jehovah to Tyre: ‘Will the coastlands not shake at the sound of your fall, when the wounded cry, when slaughter is made in the midst of you?

Eze 26:16 ‘Then all the princes of the sea will come down from their thrones, lay aside their robes, and take off their embroidered garments; they will clothe themselves with trembling; they will sit on the ground, tremble every moment, and be astonished at you.’¹

¹ This prophecy was fulfilled in two stages: Nebuchadnezzar destroyed the portion of the city of Tyre on the mainland. Then Alexander the Great built a causeway to the island portion of Tyre, using the remains of mainland

Eze 26:17 ‘And they will take up a lamentation for you, and say to you: “How you have perished, O one inhabited by seafaring men, O renowned city, who was strong at sea, she and her inhabitants, who caused their terror to be on all her inhabitants!”

Eze 26:18 Now the coastlands tremble on the day of your fall; yes, the coastlands by the sea are troubled at your departure.”

Eze 26:19 “For thus says Lord Jehovah: ‘When I make you a desolate city, like cities that are not inhabited, when I bring the deep upon you, and great waters cover you,

Eze 26:20 ‘then I will bring you down with those who descend into the Pit, to the people of old, and I will make you dwell in the lowest part of the earth, in wastelands from antiquity, with those who go down to the Pit, so that you may never be inhabited; and I will establish glory in the land of the living.

Eze 26:21 ‘I will make you a terror, and you will be no more; though you are sought for, you will never be found again,’ says Lord Jehovah.”

Eze 27:1 The word of Jehovah came again to me, saying,

Eze 27:2 “Now, son of man, take up a lamentation for Tyre,

Eze 27:3 “and say to Tyre, ‘You who are situated at the entrance of the sea, merchant of the peoples on many coastlands, thus says Lord Jehovah: “O Tyre, you have said, ‘I am perfect in beauty.’

Eze 27:4 Your borders are in the midst of the seas. Your builders have perfected your beauty.’

Eze 27:5 They made all your planks of fir trees from Senir; they took a cedar from Lebanon to make you a mast.

Eze 27:6 Of oaks from Bashan they made your oars; the company of Ashurites have inlaid your planks with ivory from the coasts of Cyprus.

Tyre, and levelled it as well.

Eze 27:7 Fine embroidered linen from Egypt was what you spread for your sail; blue and purple from the coasts of Elishah was what covered you.

Eze 27:8 “Inhabitants of Sidon and Arvad were your oarsmen; your own wise men, O Tyre, were in you; they became your pilots.

Eze 27:9 Elders of Gebal and its wise men were in you to caulk your seams; all the ships of the sea and their oarsmen were in you to market your merchandise.

Eze 27:10 “Those from Persia, Lydia, and Libya were in your army as men of war; they hung shield and helmet in you; they gave splendour to you.

Eze 27:11 Men of Arvad with your army were on your walls all around, and the men of Gammad were in your towers; they hung their shields on your walls all around; they made your beauty perfect.

Eze 27:12 “Tarshish was your merchant because of your many luxury goods. They gave you silver, iron, tin, and lead for your goods.

Eze 27:13 “Javan, Tubal, and Meshech were your traders. They bartered human souls and vessels of bronze for your merchandise.

Eze 27:14 “Those from the house of Togarmah traded for your wares with horses, steeds, and mules.

Eze 27:15 “The men of Dedan were your traders; many isles were the market of your hand. They brought you ivory tusks and ebony as payment.

Eze 27:16 “Syria was your merchant because of the abundance of goods you made. They gave you for your wares emeralds, purple, embroidery, fine linen, corals, and rubies.

Eze 27:17 “Judah and the land of Israel were your traders. They traded for your merchandise wheat of Minnith, millet, honey, oil, and balm.

Eze 27:18 “Damascus was your merchant because of the abundance of goods you made, because of your many luxury items, with the wine of Helbon and with white wool.

Eze 27:19 “Dan and Javan paid for your wares, traversing back and forth. Wrought iron, cassia, and cane were among your merchandise.

Eze 27:20 “Dedan was your merchant in saddlecloths for riding.

Eze 27:21 “Arabia and all the princes of Kedar were your regular merchants. They traded with you in lambs, rams, and goats.

Eze 27:22 “The merchants of Sheba and Raamah were your merchants. They traded for your wares the choicest spices, all kinds of precious stones, and gold.

Eze 27:23 “Haran, Canneh, Eden, the merchants of Sheba, Assyria, and Chilmad were your merchants.

Eze 27:24 “These were your merchants in choice items; in purple clothes, in embroidered garments, in chests of multicolored apparel, in strong twined cords, which were in your marketplace.

Eze 27:25 “The ships of Tarshish were carriers of your merchandise. You were filled and very glorious in the midst of the seas.

Eze 27:26 Your oarsmen brought you into many waters, but the east wind broke you in the midst of the seas.

Eze 27:27 “Your riches, wares, and merchandise, your mariners and pilots, your caulkers and merchandisers, all your men of war who are in you, and the entire company which is in your midst, will fall into the midst of the seas on the day of your ruin.

Eze 27:28 The common-land will shake at the sound of the cry of your pilots.

Eze 27:29 “All who handle the oar, the mariners, all the pilots of the sea will come down from their ships and stand on the shore.

Eze 27:30 They will make their voice heard because of you; they will cry bitterly and cast dust on their heads; they will roll about in ashes;

Eze 27:31 they will shave themselves completely bald because of you, gird themselves with sackcloth, and weep for you with bitterness of soul and bitter wailing.

Eze 27:32 In their wailing for you they will take up a lamentation, and lament for you, ‘What city is like Tyre, destroyed in the midst of the sea?’

Eze 27:33 ‘When your wares went out by sea, you satisfied many people; you enriched the kings of the earth with your many luxury goods and your merchandise. Eze 27:34 But when you are broken by the seas in the depths of the waters, your merchandise and the entire company will fall in your midst.

Eze 27:35 All the inhabitants of the isles will be astonished at you; their kings will be greatly afraid, and their countenance will be troubled.

Eze 27:36 The merchants among the peoples will hiss at you; you will become a horror, and be no more forever.””

Eze 28:1 The word of Jehovah came to me again, saying,

Eze 28:2 “Son of man, say to the prince of Tyre, ‘Thus says Lord Jehovah: “Because your heart is lifted up, and you say, ‘I am a god, I sit in the seat of gods, in the midst of the seas.’ yet you are a man, and not a god, though you set your heart as the heart of a god.”’

Eze 28:3 Behold, you are wiser than Daniel! There is no secret that can be hidden from you!

Eze 28:4 With your wisdom and your understanding you have gained riches for yourself, and gathered gold and silver into your treasuries;

Eze 28:5 by your great wisdom in trade you have increased your riches, and your heart is lifted up because of your riches.”

Jehovah: "Because you have set your heart as the heart of a god,

Eze 28:7 behold, therefore, I will bring strangers against you, the most terrible of the nations; and they will draw their swords against the beauty of your wisdom, and defile your splendour.

Eze 28:8 They will throw you down into the Pit, and you will die the death of the slain in the midst of the seas.

Eze 28:9 "Will you still say before him who slays you, 'I am a god'? But you will be a man, and not a god, in the hand of him who slays you.

Eze 28:10 You will die the death of the uncircumcised by the hand of foreigners; for I have spoken," says Lord Jehovah."

Eze 28:11 Moreover Jehovah's word came to me, saying,

Eze 28:12 "Son of man, take up a lamentation for the king of Tyre, and say to him, 'Thus says Lord Jehovah: "You were the seal of perfection, full of wisdom and perfect in beauty.

Eze 28:13 You were in Eden, the Paradise of God; every precious stone was your covering: the sardius, topaz, and diamond, beryl, onyx, and jasper, sapphire, turquoise, and emerald with gold. The workmanship of your timbrels and pipes was prepared for you on the day you were created.

Eze 28:14 "You were the anointed cherub who covers; I established you; you were on the sanctified mountain of God; you walked back and forth in the midst of fiery stones.

Eze 28:15 You were perfect in your ways from the day you were created, until iniquity was found in you.

Eze 28:16 "By the abundance of your trading you became filled with violence within, and you sinned; therefore I cast you as a defiled thing out of the mountain of God; and I destroyed you, O covering cherub, from the midst of the fiery stones.

Eze 28:17 "Your heart was lifted up because of your beauty; you corrupted your wisdom for the sake of your splendour; I cast you to the ground, I laid you before kings, that they might gaze at you.

Eze 28:18 "You defiled your sanctuary by the multitude of your iniquities, by the iniquity of your trading; therefore I brought fire from your midst; it devoured you, and I turned you to ashes upon the earth in the sight of all who saw you.

Eze 28:19 All who knew you among the peoples are astonished at you; you have become a horror, and will be no more forever."'''

Eze 28:20 Then Jehovah's word came to me, saying,

Eze 28:21 "Son of man, set your face toward Sidon, and prophesy against her,

Eze 28:22 "and say, 'Thus says Lord Jehovah: "Behold, I am against you, O Sidon; I will be glorified in your midst; and they will know that I am Jehovah, when I execute judgements in her and am hallowed in her.

Eze 28:23 For I will send pestilence upon her, and blood in her streets; the wounded will be judged in her midst by the sword against her on every side; then they will know that I am Jehovah.

Eze 28:24 "And there will no longer be a pricking brier or a painful thorn for the house of Israel from among all who are around them, who despise them. Then they will know that I am Lord Jehovah."

Eze 28:25 'Thus says Lord Jehovah: "When I have gathered the house of Israel from the peoples among whom they are scattered, and am hallowed in them in the sight of the gentiles, then they will dwell in their own land which I gave to My servant Jacob.

Eze 28:26 "And they will dwell safely there, build houses, and plant vineyards; yes, they will dwell securely, when I execute judgements on all those around them who despise them. Then they will know that I am Jehovah their God.”””

Eze 29:1 In the tenth year, in the tenth new moon, on the twelfth day of the new moon, Jehovah’s word came to me, saying,

Eze 29:2 “Son of man, set your face against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and prophesy against him, and against all Egypt.

Eze 29:3 “Speak, and say, ‘Thus says Lord Jehovah: “Behold, I am against you, O Pharaoh king of Egypt, O great dragon¹ who lies in the midst of his rivers, who has said, ‘My River is my own; I have made it for myself.’

Eze 29:4 But I will put hooks in your jaws, and cause the fish of your rivers to stick to your scales; I will bring you up out of the midst of your rivers, and all the fish in your rivers will stick to your scales.

Eze 29:5 I will leave you in the wilderness, you and all the fish of your rivers; you will fall on the open field; you will not be picked up or gathered. I have given you as food to the wild animals and to the flying creatures of the heavens.

Eze 29:6 “Then all the inhabitants of Egypt will know that I am Jehovah, because they have been a walking stick of reed to the house of Israel.

Eze 29:7 When they took hold of you with the hand, you broke and split open all their shoulders; when they leaned on you, you broke all their loins and made them shake.”

Eze 29:8 “Therefore thus says Lord Jehovah: “Surely I will bring a sword upon you and cut off from you man and beast.

Eze 29:9 “And the land of Egypt will become desolate and ruined; then they will know that I am Jehovah, because he said, ‘The River is mine, and I have made it.’

¹ From the Hebrew תנינין ha tanniyim, meaning the large reptiles, pliosaurs, dinosaurs, etc.

Eze 29:10 “Indeed, therefore, I am against you and against your rivers, and I will make the land of Egypt utterly ruined and desolate, from Migdol to Syene, as far as the border of Cush.

Eze 29:11 “Neither foot of man will pass through it nor foot of beast pass through it, and it will be uninhabited forty years.

Eze 29:12 “I will make the land of Egypt desolate in the midst of the countries that are desolate; and among the cities that are laid waste, her cities will be desolate forty years; and I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations and disperse them throughout the countries.”

Eze 29:13 ‘Yet, thus says Lord Jehovah: “At the end of forty years I will gather the Egyptians from the peoples among whom they were scattered.

Eze 29:14 “I will bring back the captives of Egypt and cause them to return to the land of Pathros, to the land of their origin, and there they will be a lowly kingdom.

Eze 29:15 “It will be the lowliest of kingdoms; it will never again exalt itself above the nations, for I will diminish them so that they will not rule over the nations anymore.

Eze 29:16 “No longer will it be the confidence of the house of Israel, but will remind them of their iniquity when they turned to follow them. Then they will know that I am Lord Jehovah.”””

Eze 29:17 And it came to pass in the twenty-seventh year,² in the first new moon, on the first day of the new moon, that Jehovah’s word came to me, saying,

Eze 29:18 “Son of man, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon caused his army to labour strenuously against Tyre; every head was made bald, and every shoulder rubbed raw; yet neither he nor his army received wages from Tyre, for the labour which

Eze 29:19 “Therefore thus says Lord Jehovah: ‘Surely I will give the land of Egypt to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; he will take away her wealth, carry off her spoil, and remove her pillage; and that will be the wages for his army.

Eze 29:20 ‘I have given him the land of Egypt for his labour, because they worked for Me,’ says Lord Jehovah.

Eze 29:21 ‘In that day I will cause the horn of the house of Israel to spring forth, and I will open your mouth to speak in their midst. Then they will know that I am Jehovah.’”

Eze 30:1 The word of Jehovah came to me again, saying,

Eze 30:2 “Son of man, prophesy and say, ‘Thus says Lord Jehovah: “Wail, ‘Woe to the day!’

Eze 30:3 For the day is near, even the day of Jehovah is near; it will be a day of clouds, the time of the gentiles.

Eze 30:4 The sword will come upon Egypt, and great anguish will be in Cush, when the slain fall in Egypt, and they take away her wealth, and her foundations are broken down.

Eze 30:5 “Cush, Libya, Lydia, all the mingled people, Chub, and the men of the lands who have covenants, will fall with them by the sword.”

Eze 30:6 ‘Thus says Jehovah: “Those who uphold Egypt will fall, and the pride of her power will come down. From Migdol to Syene those within her will fall by the sword,” says Lord Jehovah.

Eze 30:7 “They will be desolate in the midst of the desolate countries, and her cities will be in the midst of the cities that are laid waste.

Eze 30:8 Then they will know that I am Jehovah, when I have set a fire in Egypt and all her helpers are destroyed.

Eze 30:9 On that day envoys will go forth from Me in ships to make the careless Cushites afraid, and great anguish will come upon them, as on the day of Egypt; for indeed it is coming!”

Eze 30:10 ‘Thus says Lord Jehovah: “I will also make a multitude of Egypt to cease by the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon.

Eze 30:11 He and his people with him, the most terrible of the nations, will be brought to destroy the land; they will draw their swords against Egypt, and fill the land with the slain.

Eze 30:12 I will make the rivers dry, and sell the land into the hand of the evil; I will make the land waste, and all that is in it, by the hand of foreigners. I, Jehovah, have spoken.”

Eze 30:13 ‘Thus says Lord Jehovah: “I will also destroy the idols, and cause the images to cease from Noph; there will no longer be princes from the land of Egypt; I will put fear in the land of Egypt.

Eze 30:14 I will make Pathros desolate, set fire to Zoan, and execute judgements in No.

Eze 30:15 I will pour My fury on Sin, the stronghold of Egypt; I will cut off the multitude of No, Eze 30:16 and set a fire in Egypt; Sin will have great pain, No will be split open, and Noph will be in distress daily.

Eze 30:17 The young men of Aven and Pi Beseth will fall by the sword, and these cities will go into captivity.

Eze 30:18 At Tehaphnehes the day will also be darkened, when I break the yokes of Egypt there. And her arrogant strength will cease in her; as for her, a cloud will cover her, and her daughters will go into captivity.

Eze 30:19 Thus I will execute judgements on Egypt, then they will know that I am Jehovah.”””

Eze 30:20 And it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the first new moon, on the seventh day of the new moon, that Jehovah’s word came to me, saying,

Eze 30:21 “Son of man, I have broken the arm of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and see, it has not been bandaged for healing, nor a splint put on to bind it, to make it strong enough to hold a sword.

Eze 30:22 “Therefore thus says Lord Jehovah: ‘Surely I am against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and will break his arms, both the strong one and the one that was broken; and I will make the sword fall out of his hand.

Eze 30:23 ‘I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and disperse them throughout the countries.

Eze 30:24 ‘I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon and put My sword in his hand; but I will break Pharaoh’s arms, and he will groan before him with the groanings of a mortally wounded man.

Eze 30:25 ‘Thus I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, but the arms of Pharaoh will fall down; they will know that I am Jehovah, when I put My sword into the hand of the king of Babylon and he stretches it out against the land of Egypt.

Eze 30:26 ‘I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations and disperse them throughout the countries. Then they will know that I am Jehovah.’”

Eze 31:1 Now it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the third new moon, on the first day of the new moon, that Jehovah’s word came to me, saying,

Eze 31:2 “Son of man, say to Pharaoh king of Egypt and to his multitude: ‘Whom are you like in your greatness?

Eze 31:3 Indeed Assyria was a cedar in Lebanon, with fine branches that shaded the forest, and of high stature; and its top was among the thick boughs.

Eze 31:4 The waters made it grow; the deep raised it up, with their rivers running around the place where it was planted, and sent out channels to all the trees of the field.

Eze 31:5 ‘Therefore its height was exalted above all the trees of the field; its boughs were multiplied, and its branches became long because of the abundance of water, as it sent them out.

Eze 31:6 All the flying creatures of the heavens made their nests in its boughs; under its branches all the wild animals brought forth their young; and in its shadow dwelt all great nations.

Eze 31:7 ‘Thus it was beautiful in greatness and in the length of its branches, because its roots reached to abundant waters.

Eze 31:8 The cedars in the Paradise of God could not surpass it; the fir trees were not like its boughs, and the chestnut trees were not like its branches; no tree in the Paradise of God was like it in beauty.

Eze 31:9 I made it beautiful with a multitude of branches, so that all the trees of Eden that were in the Paradise of God envied it.’

Eze 31:10 “Therefore thus says Lord Jehovah: ‘Because you have exalted it in height, and set its top among the thick boughs, and its heart was lifted up in its height,

Eze 31:11 ‘therefore I will deliver it into the hand of the mighty one of the nations, and he will surely deal with it; I have driven it out for its wickedness.

Eze 31:12 ‘And foreigners, the most terrible of the nations, have cut it down and left it; its branches have fallen on the mountains and in all the valleys; its boughs lie broken by all the rivers of the land; and all the peoples of the earth have gone from under its shadow and left it.

Eze 31:13 ‘All the flying creatures of the heavens will remain on its ruin, and all the wild animals will come to its branches;

Eze 31:14 ‘so that no trees by the waters may ever again exalt themselves for their height, nor set their tops among the thick boughs, that no tree which drinks water may ever be high enough to reach up to them, for they have all been delivered to death, to the depths of the earth, among the children of men who go down to the Pit.'

Eze 31:15 "Thus says Lord Jehovah: 'In the day when it went down to Sheol, I caused mourning. I covered the deep because of it. I restrained its rivers, and the great waters were held back. I caused Lebanon to be darkened for it, and all the trees of the field wilted because of it.

Eze 31:16 'I made the nations shake at the sound of its fall, when I cast it down to Sheol together with those who descend into the Pit; and all the trees of Eden, the choice and best of Lebanon, all that drink water, were comforted in the depths of the earth.

Eze 31:17 'They also went down to Sheol with it, with those slain by the sword; and those who were its strong arm dwelt in its shadows among the nations.

Eze 31:18 'To which of the trees in Eden will you then be likened in glory and greatness? Yet you will be brought down with the trees of Eden to the depths of the earth; you will lie in the midst of the uncircumcised, with those slain by the sword. This is Pharaoh and all his crowd,' says Lord Jehovah."

Eze 32:1 And it came to pass in the twelfth year, in the twelfth new moon, on the first day of the new moon, that Jehovah's word came to me, saying,

Eze 32:2 "Son of man, take up a lamentation for Pharaoh king of Egypt, and say to him: 'You are like a young lion among the nations, and you are like a dragon in the seas, bursting forth in your rivers, stirring up the waters with your feet, and fouling their rivers.'

Eze 32:3 "Thus says Lord Jehovah: 'I will therefore spread My net over you with a company of many people, and they will draw you up in My net.

Eze 32:4 Then I will leave you on the land; I will cast you out on the open fields, and cause all the flying creatures of the heavens to settle on you. And I will fill the animals of the whole earth with you.

Eze 32:5 I will lay your flesh on the mountains, and fill the valleys with your carcass.

Eze 32:6 'I will also water the land with the flow of your blood, even to the mountains; and the riverbeds will be full of you.

Eze 32:7 When I put out your light, I will cover the heavens, and make its stars dark; I will cover the sun with a cloud, and the moon will not give her light.

Eze 32:8 All the shining lights of the heavens I will make dark over you, and bring darkness upon your land,' says Lord Jehovah.

Eze 32:9 'I will also trouble the hearts of many peoples, when I bring your destruction among the nations, into the countries which you have not known.

Eze 32:10 'Yes, I will make many peoples astonished at you, and their kings will be horribly afraid of you when I brandish My sword before them; and they will tremble every moment, every man for his own soul, in the day of your fall.'

Eze 32:11 "For thus says Lord Jehovah: 'The sword of the king of Babylon will come upon you.

Eze 32:12 'By the swords of the mighty warriors, all of the most terrible of the nations, I will cause your multitude to fall. 'They will plunder the pomp of Egypt, and all its multitude will be destroyed.

Eze 32:13 Also I will destroy all its beasts from beside its great waters; the foot of man will muddy them no more, nor will the hooves of beasts muddy them.

Eze 32:14 Then I will make their waters settle, and cause their rivers to flow like oil,' says Lord Jehovah.

Eze 32:15 'When I make the land of Egypt desolate, and the country is destitute of all that once filled it, when I strike all who dwell in it, then they will know that I am Jehovah.

Eze 32:16 ‘This is the lamentation with which they will lament her; the daughters of the nations will lament her; they will lament for her, for Egypt, and for all her multitude,’ says Lord Jehovah.”

Eze 32:17 It came to pass also in the twelfth year, on the fifteenth day of the new moon, that Jehovah’s word came to me, saying:

Eze 32:18 “Son of man, wail over the multitude of Egypt, and cast them down to the depths of the earth, her and the daughters of the famous nations, with those who go down to the Pit:

Eze 32:19 ‘Whom do you surpass in beauty? Go down, be placed with the uncircumcised.’

Eze 32:20 “They will fall in the midst of those slain by the sword. She is delivered to the sword, drawing her and all her multitudes.

Eze 32:21 The strong among the mighty will speak to him out of the midst of Sheol with those who help him: ‘They have gone down, they lie with the uncircumcised, slain by the sword.’

Eze 32:22 “Assyria is there, and all her company, with their graves all around her, they are all slain, fallen by the sword.

Eze 32:23 Her graves are set in the sides of the Pit, and her company is all around her tomb, all of them slain, fallen by the sword, who caused terror in the land of the living.

Eze 32:24 “There is Elam and all her multitude, all around her tomb, all of them slain, fallen by the sword, who have gone down uncircumcised to the lower parts of the earth, who caused their terror in the land of the living; now they bear their shame with those who go down to the Pit.

Eze 32:25 They have set her bed in the midst of the slain, with all her multitude, with her graves all around it, all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword; though their terror was caused in the land of the living, yet they bear their shame with those who go down to the Pit; it was put in the midst of the slain.

Eze 32:26 “There are Meshech and Tubal and all their multitudes, with all their graves around it, all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword, though they caused their terror in the land of the living.

Eze 32:27 They do not lie with the mighty who are fallen of the uncircumcised, who have gone down to Sheol with their weapons of war. They have laid their swords under their heads, but their iniquities will be on their bones, because of the terror of the mighty in the land of the living.

Eze 32:28 Yes, you will be broken in the midst of the uncircumcised, and lie with those slain by the sword.

Eze 32:29 “There is Edom, her kings and all her princes, who despite their might are laid beside those who were slain by the sword; they will lie with the uncircumcised, and with those who go down to the Pit.

Eze 32:30 There are the princes of the north, all of them, and all the Sidonians, who have gone down with the slain in shame at the terror which they caused by their might; they lie uncircumcised with those slain by the sword, and bear their shame with those who go down to the Pit.

Eze 32:31 “Pharaoh will see them and be comforted over all his multitude, Pharaoh and all his army, slain by the sword,” says Lord Jehovah.

Eze 32:32 “For I have caused My terror in the land of the living; and he will be placed in the midst of the uncircumcised with those slain by the sword, Pharaoh and all his multitude,” says Lord Jehovah.

Eze 33:1 Again Jehovah’s word came to me, saying,

Eze 33:2 “Son of man, speak to the children of your people, and say to them: ‘When I bring the sword upon a land, and the people of the land take a man from their territory and make him their watchman,

Eze 33:3 'when he sees the sword coming upon the land, if he blows the shophar and warns the people,

Eze 33:4 'then whoever hears the sound of the shophar and does not take warning, if the sword comes and takes him away, his blood will be on his own head.

Eze 33:5 'He heard the sound of the shophar, but did not take warning; his blood will be upon himself. But he who takes warning will save his soul.

Eze 33:6 'But if the watchman sees the sword coming and does not blow the shophar, and the people are not warned, and the sword comes and takes any soul from among them, he is taken away in his iniquity; but his blood I will require at the watchman's hand.'

Eze 33:7 "So you, son of man: I have made you a watchman for the house of Israel; therefore you will hear a word from My mouth and warn them for Me.

Eze 33:8 "When I say to the wicked, 'O wicked man, you will surely die!' and you do not speak to warn the wicked from his way, that wicked man will die in his iniquity; but his blood I will require at your hand.

Eze 33:9 "Nevertheless if you warn the wicked to turn from his way, and he does not turn from his way, he will die in his iniquity; but you have delivered your soul.

Eze 33:10 "Therefore you, O son of man, say to the house of Israel: 'Thus you say, "If our transgressions and our sins lie upon us, and we pine away in them, how can we then live?"'

Eze 33:11 "Say to them: 'As I live,' says Lord Jehovah, 'I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked, but that the wicked turn from his way and live. Turn, turn from your evil ways! For why should you die, O house of Israel?'

Eze 33:12 "Therefore you, O son of man, say to the children of your people: 'The righteousness of the righteous man will not deliver him in the day of his transgression; as for the wickedness of the wicked, he will not fall because of it in the day that he turns from his wickedness; nor will the righteous be able to live because of his righteousness in the day that he sins.'

Eze 33:13 "When I say to the righteous that he will surely live, but he trusts in his own righteousness and commits iniquity, none of his righteous works will be remembered; but because of the iniquity that he has committed, he will die.

Eze 33:14 "Again, when I say to the wicked, 'You will surely die,' if he turns from his sin and does righteous judgements, Eze 33:15 "if the wicked restores the pledge, gives back what he has stolen, and walks in the statutes of life without committing iniquity, he will surely live; he will not die.

Eze 33:16 "None of his sins which he has committed will be remembered against him; he has done righteous judgements; he will surely live.

Eze 33:17 "Yet the children of your people say, 'The way of Jehovah is not fair.' But it is their way which is not fair!

Eze 33:18 "When the righteous turns from his righteousness and commits iniquity, he will die because of it.

Eze 33:19 "But when the wicked turns from his wickedness and does righteous judgements, he will live because of it.

Eze 33:20 "Yet you say, 'The way of Jehovah is not fair.' O house of Israel, I will judge every one of you according to his own ways."

Eze 33:21 And it came to pass in the twelfth year of our captivity, in the tenth new moon, on the fifth day of the new moon, that one who had escaped from Jerusalem came to me and said, "The city has been captured!"

Eze 33:22 Now the hand of Jehovah had been upon me the evening before the man came who had escaped. And He had opened my mouth; so when he came to me in the morning, my mouth was opened, and I was no longer mute.

Eze 33:23 Then Jehovah's word came to me, saying:

Eze 33:24 "Son of man, they who inhabit those ruins in the land of Israel are saying, 'Abraham was only one, and he inherited the land. But we are many; the land has been given to us as a possession.'

Eze 33:25 "Therefore say to them, 'Thus says Lord Jehovah: "You eat meat with blood, you lift up your eyes toward your idols, and shed blood. Should you then possess the land?"

Eze 33:26 "You rely on your sword, you commit abominations, and you make one another's wives unclean. Should you then possess the land?"

Eze 33:27 "Say this to them, 'Thus says Lord Jehovah: "As I live, surely those who are in the ruins will fall by the sword, and the one who is in the open field I will give to the animals to be devoured, and those who are in the strongholds and caves will die of the pestilence.

Eze 33:28 "For I will make the land most desolate, her arrogant strength will cease, and the mountains of Israel will be so desolate that no one will pass through.

Eze 33:29 "Then they will know that I am Jehovah, when I have made the land most desolate because of all their abominations which they have committed."

Eze 33:30 "As for you, son of man, the children of your people are talking about you beside the walls and in the doors of the houses; and they speak to one another, everyone saying to his brother, 'Please come and hear what the word is that comes from Jehovah.'

Eze 33:31 "So they come to you as people do, they sit before you as My people, and they hear your words, but they do not do them; for with their mouth they show much love, but their hearts pursue their own gain.

Eze 33:32 "Indeed you are to them as a very lovely song of one who has a pleasant voice and can play well on an instrument; for they hear your words, but they do not do them.

Eze 33:33 "And when this comes to pass; surely it will come; then they will know that a prophet has been among them."

Eze 34:1 And Jehovah's word came to me, saying,

Eze 34:2 "Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel, prophesy and say to them, 'Thus says Lord Jehovah to the shepherds: "Woe to the shepherds of Israel who feed themselves! Should not the shepherds feed the flocks?"

Eze 34:3 "You eat the fat and clothe yourselves with the wool; you slaughter the fatlings, but you do not feed the flock.

Eze 34:4 "The weak you have not strengthened, nor have you healed those who were sick, nor bound up the broken, nor brought back what was driven away, nor sought what was lost; but with force and cruelty you have ruled them.

Eze 34:5 "So they were scattered because there was no shepherd; and they became food for all the wild animals when they were scattered.

Eze 34:6 "My sheep wandered through all the mountains, and on every high hill; yes, My flock was scattered over the whole face of the earth, and no one was seeking or searching for them."

Eze 34:7 "Therefore, you shepherds, hear the word of Jehovah:

Eze 34:8 "As I live," says Lord Jehovah, "surely because My flock became a prey, and My flock became food for every wild animal, because there was no shepherd, nor did My shepherds search for My flock, but the shepherds fed themselves and did not feed My flock";

Eze 34:9 'therefore, O shepherds, hear Jehovah's word!

Eze 34:10 ‘Thus says Lord Jehovah: “Behold, I am against the shepherds, and I will require My flock at their hand; I will cause them to cease feeding the sheep, and the shepherds will feed themselves no more; for I will deliver My flock from their mouths, that they may no longer be food for them.”

Eze 34:11 ‘For thus says Lord Jehovah: “Indeed I Myself will search for My sheep and seek them out.

Eze 34:12 “As a shepherd seeks out his flock on the day he is among his scattered sheep, so will I seek out My sheep and deliver them from all the places where they were scattered on a cloudy and dark day.

Eze 34:13 “And I will bring them out from the peoples and gather them from the countries, and will bring them to their own land; I will feed them on the mountains of Israel, in the valleys and in all the inhabited places of the country.

Eze 34:14 “I will feed them in good pasture, and their fold will be on the high mountains of Israel. There they will lie down in a good fold and feed in rich pasture on the mountains of Israel.

Eze 34:15 “I will feed My flock, and I will make them lie down,” says Lord Jehovah.

Eze 34:16 “I will seek what was lost and bring back what was driven away, bind up the broken and strengthen what was sick; but I will destroy the fat and the strong, and feed them in judgement.”

Eze 34:17 “And as for you, O My flock,” thus says Lord Jehovah: “Behold, I will judge between sheep and sheep, between rams and goats.¹

Eze 34:18 “Is it too little for you to have eaten up the good pasture, that you must tread down with your feet the residue of your pasture; and to have drunk of the clear waters, that you must foul the residue with your feet?

Eze 34:19 “And as for My flock, they eat what you have trampled with your feet, and they drink what you have fouled with your feet.”

Eze 34:20 ‘Therefore thus says Lord Jehovah to them: “Behold, I Myself will judge between the fat and the lean sheep.

Eze 34:21 “Because you have pushed with side and shoulder, butted all the weak ones with your horns, and scattered them abroad, Eze 34:22 “therefore I will save My flock, and they will no longer be a prey; and I will judge between sheep and sheep.

Eze 34:23 “I will establish one shepherd over them, and he will feed them; My servant David. He will feed them and be their shepherd.

Eze 34:24 “And I, Jehovah, will be their God, and My servant David a prince among them; I, Jehovah, have spoken.²

Eze 34:25 “I will make a covenant of peace with them, and cause evil animals to cease from the land; and they will dwell safely in the wilderness and sleep in the woods.

Eze 34:26 “I will make them and the places all around My hill a blessing; and I will cause heavy rains to come down in their season; there will be heavy rains of blessing.

Eze 34:27 “Then the trees of the field will yield their fruit, and the earth will yield her increase. They will be safe in their land; and they will know that I am Jehovah, when I have broken the bands of their yoke and delivered them from the hand of those who enslaved them.

Eze 34:28 “And they will no longer be a prey for the nations, nor will the animals of the land devour them; but they will dwell safely, and no one will make them afraid.

Eze 34:29 “I will raise up for them a garden of renown, and they will no longer be consumed with hunger in the land, nor bear the shame of the gentiles anymore.

Eze 34:30 "Thus they will know that I, Jehovah their God, am with them, and that they, the house of Israel, are My people," says Lord Jehovah.

Eze 34:31 "You are My flock, the flock of My pasture; you are men, and I am your God," says Lord Jehovah.

Eze 35:1 Moreover Jehovah's word came to me, saying,

Eze 35:2 "Son of man, set your face against Mount Seir and prophesy against it,

Eze 35:3 "and say to it, 'Thus says Lord Jehovah: "Behold, O Mount Seir, I am against you; I will stretch out My hand against you, and make you most desolate;

Eze 35:4 I will make your cities ruins, and you will be desolate. Then you will know that I am Jehovah.

Eze 35:5 "Because you have had an ancient hatred, and have shed the blood of the children of Israel by the power of the sword at the time of their calamity, when their iniquity came to an end, Eze 35:6 "therefore, as I live," says Lord Jehovah, "I will prepare you for blood, and blood will pursue you; since you have not hated blood, therefore blood will pursue you.

Eze 35:7 "Thus I will make Mount Seir most desolate, and cut off from it the one who leaves and the one who returns.

Eze 35:8 "And I will fill its mountains with the slain; on your hills and in your valleys and in all your ravines those who are slain by the sword will fall.

Eze 35:9 "I will make you perpetually desolate, and your cities will be uninhabited; then you will know that I am Jehovah.

Eze 35:10 "Because you have said, 'These two nations and these two countries will be mine, and we will possess them,' although Jehovah was there,

Eze 35:11 "therefore, as I live," says Lord

Jehovah, "I will do according to your anger and according to the jealousy which you showed in your hatred against them; and I will make Myself known among them when I judge you.

Eze 35:12 "Then you will know that I am Jehovah. I have heard all your blasphemies which you have spoken against the mountains of Israel, saying, 'They are desolate; they are given to us to consume.'

Eze 35:13 "Thus with your mouth you have boasted against Me and multiplied your words against Me; I have heard them."

Eze 35:14 'Thus says Lord Jehovah: "The whole earth will rejoice when I make you desolate.

Eze 35:15 "As you rejoiced because the inheritance of the house of Israel was desolate, so I will do to you; you will be desolate, O Mount Seir, as well as all of Edom; all of it! Then they will know that I am Jehovah."

Eze 36:1 "And you, son of man, prophesy to the mountains of Israel, and say, 'O mountains of Israel, hear Jehovah's word!

Eze 36:2 'Thus says Lord Jehovah: "Because the enemy has said of you, 'Aha! The ancient high places have become our possession,'"

Eze 36:3 "therefore prophesy, and say, 'Thus says Lord Jehovah: "Because they made you desolate and swallowed you up on every side, so that you became the possession of the rest of the nations, and you are taken up by the lips of talkers and slandered by the people";

Eze 36:4 'therefore, O mountains of Israel, hear the word of Lord Jehovah! Thus says Lord Jehovah to the mountains, the hills, the rivers, the valleys, the desolate wasteland, and the cities that have been forsaken, which became plunder and mockery to the rest of the nations all around;

Eze 36:5 'therefore thus says Lord

Jehovah: "Surely I have spoken in My burning jealousy against the rest of the nations and against all Edom, who gave My land to themselves as a possession, with whole-hearted joy and spiteful souls, in order to plunder its open country."

Eze 36:6 "Therefore prophesy concerning the land of Israel, and say to the mountains, the hills, the rivers, and the valleys, 'Thus says Lord Jehovah: "Behold, I have spoken in My jealousy and My fury, because you have borne the shame of the nations."

Eze 36:7 'Therefore thus says Lord Jehovah: "I have lifted My hand in an oath that surely the nations that are around you will bear their own shame.

Eze 36:8 "But you, O mountains of Israel, you will shoot forth your branches and yield your fruit to My people Israel, for they are about to come.

Eze 36:9 "For indeed I am for you, and I will turn to you, and you will be worked and sown.

Eze 36:10 "I will multiply men upon you, all the house of Israel, all of it; and the cities will be inhabited and the ruins rebuilt.

Eze 36:11 "I will multiply upon you man and beast; and they will increase and bear young; I will make you inhabited as in former times, and do better for you than at your beginnings. Then you will know that I am Jehovah.

Eze 36:12 "Yes, I will cause men to walk on you, My people Israel; they will take possession of you, and you will be their inheritance; no more will you bereave them of their children."

Eze 36:13 'Thus says Lord Jehovah: "Because they say to you, 'You devour men and bereave your nation of children,'

Eze 36:14 "therefore you will devour men no more, nor bereave your nation anymore," says Lord Jehovah.

Eze 36:15 "Nor will I let you hear the taunts of the nations anymore, nor bear the reproach of the peoples anymore, nor will you cause your nation to stumble anymore," says Lord Jehovah."

Eze 36:16 Moreover Jehovah's word came to me, saying:

Eze 36:17 "Son of man, when the house of Israel dwelt in their own land, they made it unclean by their own ways and deeds; to Me their way was like the uncleanness of a menstruous woman.

Eze 36:18 "Therefore I poured out My fury on them for the blood they had shed on the land, and for their idols with which they had made it unclean.

Eze 36:19 "So I scattered them among the nations, and they were dispersed throughout the countries; I judged them according to their ways and their deeds.

Eze 36:20 "When they came to the nations, wherever they went, they defiled My sanctified name when they said of them, 'These are the people of Jehovah, and yet they have gone out of His land.'

Eze 36:21 "But I had concern for My sanctified name, which the house of Israel had defiled among the nations wherever they went.

Eze 36:22 "Therefore say to the house of Israel, 'Thus says Lord Jehovah: "I do not do this for your sake, O house of Israel, but for My sanctified name's sake, which you have profaned among the nations wherever you went.

Eze 36:23 "And I will sanctify My great name, which has been defiled among the nations, which you have defiled in their midst; and the nations will know that I am Jehovah," says Lord Jehovah, "when I am hallowed in you before their eyes.

Eze 36:24 "For I will take you from among the nations, gather you out of all countries, and bring you into your own land.

Eze 36:25 "Then I will sprinkle clean water on you, and you will be clean; I will cleanse you from all your uncleanness and from all your idols.

Eze 36:26 "I will give you a new heart and put a new spirit within you; I will take the heart of stone out of your flesh and give you a heart of flesh.¹

Eze 36:27 "I will put My Spirit within you and cause you to walk in My statutes, and you will keep My judgements and do them.

Eze 36:28 "Then you will dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers; you will be My people, and I will be your God.

Eze 36:29 "I will deliver you from all your uncleannesses. I will call for the grain and multiply it, and bring no famine upon you.

Eze 36:30 "And I will multiply the fruit of your trees and the increase of your fields, so that you need never again bear the reproach of famine among the nations.

Eze 36:31 "Then you will remember your evil ways and your deeds that were not good; and you will loathe yourselves in your own sight, for your iniquities and your abominations.

Eze 36:32 "Not for your sake do I do this," says Lord Jehovah, "let it be known to you. Be ashamed and confounded for your own ways, O house of Israel!"

Eze 36:33 "Thus says Lord Jehovah: "On the day that I cleanse you from all your iniquities, I will also enable you to dwell in the cities, and the ruins will be rebuilt.

Eze 36:34 "The desolate land will be worked instead of lying desolate in the sight of all who pass by.

Eze 36:35 "So they will say, 'This land that was desolate has become like the Paradise of Eden; and the wasted, desolate, and ruined cities are now fortified and inhabited.'

Eze 36:36 "Then the nations which are left all around you will know that I, Jehovah, have rebuilt the ruined places and planted what was desolate. I, Jehovah, have spoken it, and I will do it."

Eze 36:37 "Thus says Lord Jehovah: "I will also let the house of Israel inquire of Me to do this for them: I will increase their men like a flock.

Eze 36:38 "Like a flock offered as sanctified sacrifices, like the flock at Jerusalem on its feast days, so will the ruined cities be filled with flocks of men. Then they will know that I am Jehovah."'''

Eze 37:1 The hand of Jehovah came upon me and brought me out in the Spirit of Jehovah, and set me down in the midst of the valley; and it was full of bones.

Eze 37:2 Then He caused me to pass by them all around, and behold, there were very many in the open valley; and indeed they were very dry.

Eze 37:3 And He said to me, "Son of man, can these bones live?" So I answered, "O Lord Jehovah, You know."

Eze 37:4 Again He said to me, "Prophecy to these bones, and say to them, 'O dry bones, hear Jehovah's word!'

Eze 37:5 'Thus says Lord Jehovah to these bones: "Surely I will cause breath to enter into you, and you will live.

Eze 37:6 "I will put sinews on you and bring flesh upon you, cover you with skin and put breath in you; and you will live. Then you will know that I am Jehovah."'''

Eze 37:7 So I prophesied as I was commanded; and as I prophesied, there was a noise, and suddenly a rattling; and the bones came together, bone to bone.

Eze 37:8 Indeed, as I looked, the sinews and the flesh came upon them, and the skin covered them over; but there was no breath in them.

Eze 37:9 Then He said to me, "Prophecy to the breath, prophecy, son of man, and say to the breath, 'Thus says Lord Jehovah: "Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe on these slain, that they may live."'''

Eze 37:10 So I prophesied as He commanded me, and breath came into them, and they lived, and stood upon their feet, an exceedingly great army.

Eze 37:11 Then He said to me, "Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel. They indeed say, 'Our bones are dry, our hope is lost, and we ourselves are cut off!'"

Eze 37:12 "Therefore prophesy and say to them, 'Thus says Lord Jehovah: "Behold, O My people, I will open your graves and cause you to come up from your graves, and bring you into the land of Israel."

Eze 37:13 "Then you will know that I am Jehovah, when I have opened your graves, O My people, and brought you up from your graves.¹

Eze 37:14 "I will put My Spirit in you, and you will live, and I will place you in your own land. Then you will know that I, Jehovah, have spoken it and performed it," says Jehovah."

Eze 37:15 Again Jehovah's word came to me, saying,

Eze 37:16 "As for you, son of man, take a stick for yourself and write on it: 'For Judah and for his companions from the children of Israel.' Then take another stick and write on it, 'For Joseph, the stick of Ephraim, and for all of his companions from the house of Israel.'

Eze 37:17 "Then join them one to another for yourself into one stick, and they will become one in your hand.

Eze 37:18 "And when the children of your people speak to you, saying, 'Will you not show us what you mean by these?';

Eze 37:19 "say to them, 'Thus says Lord Jehovah: "Surely I will take the stick of Joseph, which is in the hand of Ephraim, and his companions from the branches of Israel, and I will join them with the stick of Judah, and make them one stick, and they will be one in My hand."'

Eze 37:20 "And the sticks on which you write will be in your hand before their eyes.

Eze 37:21 "Then say to them, 'Thus says

Lord Jehovah: "Surely I will take the children of Israel from among the nations, wherever they have gone, and will gather them from every side and bring them into their own land;

Eze 37:22 "and I will make them one nation in the land, on the mountains of Israel; and one king will be king over them all; they will no longer be two nations, nor will they ever be divided into two kingdoms again.

Eze 37:23 "They will not make themselves unclean with their idols anymore, nor with their detestable things, nor with any of their transgressions; but I will deliver them from all their dwelling places in which they have sinned, and will cleanse them. Then they will be My people, and I will be their God.²

Eze 37:24 "David My servant will be king over them, and they will all have one shepherd; they will also walk in My judgements and observe My statutes, and do them.

Eze 37:25 "Then they will dwell in the land that I have given to Jacob My servant, where your fathers dwelt; and they will dwell there, they, their children, and their children's children forever; and My servant David will be their prince forever.³

Eze 37:26 "Moreover I will make a covenant of peace with them, and it will be an everlasting covenant with them; I will establish them and multiply them, and I will set My sanctuary in their midst forevermore.⁴

Eze 37:27 "My booth also will be with them; indeed I will be their God, and they will be My people.⁵

Eze 37:28 "The nations also will know that I, Jehovah, sanctify Israel,¹ when My sanctuary is in their midst forevermore.””²

Eze 38:1 Now Jehovah’s word came to me, saying,

Eze 38:2 “Son of man, set your face against Gog, of the land of Magog,³ the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal,⁴ and prophesy against him, Eze 38:3 “and say, ‘Thus says Lord Jehovah: “Behold, I am against you, O Gog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal.

Eze 38:4 “I will turn you around, put hooks into your jaws, and lead you out, with all your army, horses, and horsemen, all splendidly clothed, a great company with bucklers and shields, all of them handling swords.

Eze 38:5 “Persia, Cush, and Libya are with them, all of them with shield and helmet; Eze 38:6 “Gomer and all its troops; the house of Togarmah from the far north and all its troops; many peoples are with you.

Eze 38:7 “Prepare yourself and be ready, you and all your companies that are assembled about you; and be a guard for them.

Eze 38:8 “After many days you will be visited. In the latter years you will come into the land of those brought back from the sword and gathered from many people on the mountains of Israel, which had long been wastelands; they were brought out of the nations, and now they all dwell safely.

Eze 38:9 “You will ascend, coming like a storm, covering the land like a cloud, you and all your troops and many peoples with you.”

Eze 38:10 ‘Thus says Lord Jehovah: “On that day it will come to pass that thoughts will arise in your mind, and you will make an evil plan:

Eze 38:11 “You will say, ‘I will go up against a land of unwallled villages; I will go to a peaceful people, who dwell safely: they are all dwelling without walls, and having neither bars nor gates’;

Eze 38:12 “to take plunder and to take booty, to stretch out your hand against the inhabited wastelands, and against a people gathered from the nations, who have acquired livestock and goods, who dwell in the midst of the land.

Eze 38:13 “Sheba, Dedan, the merchants of Tarshish, and all their young lions will say to you, ‘Have you come to take plunder? Have you assembled your army to take booty, to carry away silver and gold, to take away livestock and goods, to take great plunder?’”

Eze 38:14 “Therefore, son of man, prophesy and say to Gog, ‘Thus says Lord Jehovah: “On that day when My people Israel dwell safely, will you not know it?

Eze 38:15 “Then you will come from your place out of the far north, you and many peoples with you, all of them riding on horses, a great company and a mighty army.

Eze 38:16 “You will come up against My people Israel like a cloud, to cover the land. It will be in the latter days that I will bring you against My land, so that the nations may know Me, when I am hallowed in you, O Gog, before their eyes.”

Eze 38:17 ‘Thus says Lord Jehovah: “Are you he of whom I have spoken in former days by My servants the prophets of Eze 38:18 “And it will come to pass at the same time, when Gog comes against the land of Israel,” says Lord Jehovah, “that My fury will show in My face.

Eze 38:19 “For in My jealousy and in the fire of My wrath I have spoken: ‘Surely in that day there will be a great earthquake in the land of Israel,

Eze 38:20 ‘so that the fish of the sea, the flying creatures of the heavens, the wild animals, all creeping things that creep on the earth, and all men who are on the face of the earth will shake at My presence. The mountains will be thrown down, the steep places will fall, and every wall will fall to the ground.’

Eze 38:21 “I will call for a sword against Gog throughout all My mountains,” says Lord Jehovah. “Every man’s sword will be against his brother.

Eze 38:23 “Thus I will magnify Myself and sanctify Myself, and I will be known in the eyes of many nations. Then they will know that I am Jehovah.”

Eze 39:1 “And you, son of man, prophesy against Gog, and say, ‘Thus says Lord Jehovah: “Behold, I am against you, O Gog, chief prince of Meshech and Tubal;

Eze 39:2 “and I will turn you around and lead you on, bringing you up from the far north, and bring you against the mountains of Israel.

Eze 39:3 “Then I will knock the bow out of your left hand, and cause the arrows to fall out of your right hand.

Eze 39:4 “You will fall upon the mountains of Israel, you and all your troops and the peoples who are with you; I will give you to many winged birds of prey and to the wild animals to be devoured.

Eze 39:5 “You will fall on the open field; for I have spoken,” says Lord Jehovah.

Eze 39:6 “And I will send fire on Magog and on those who live in security in the coastlands. Then they will know that I am Jehovah.

Eze 39:7 “So I will make My sanctified name known in the midst of My people Israel, and I will not let them defile My sanctified name anymore. Then the nations will know that I am Jehovah, the Sacred One in Israel.

Eze 39:8 “Surely it is coming, and it will be done,” says Lord Jehovah. “This is the day of which I have spoken.³

Eze 39:9 “Then those who dwell in the cities of Israel will go out and set on fire and burn the weapons, both the shields and bucklers, the bows and arrows, the hand-sticks and spears; and they will make fires with them for seven years.

Eze 39:10 “They will not take wood from the field nor cut down any from the forests, because they will make fires with the weapons; and they will plunder those who plundered them, and pillage those who pillaged them,” says Lord Jehovah.

Eze 39:11 “It will come to pass in that day that I will give Gog a burial place there in Israel, the valley of those who pass by the east of the sea; and it will obstruct travellers, because there they will bury Gog and all his multitude. Therefore they will call it the Valley of Hamon Gog.⁴

glorified,” says Lord Jehovah.

Eze 39:14 “They will set apart men regularly employed, with the help of a search party, to pass through the land and bury those bodies remaining on the ground, in order to cleanse it. At the end of seven new moons they will make a search.

Eze 39:15 “The search party will pass through the land; and whenever anyone sees a man’s bone, he will set up a marker by it, until the buriers have buried it in the Valley of Hamon Gog.

Eze 39:16 “The name of the city will also be Hamonah.¹ Thus they will cleanse the land.”

Eze 39:17 “And as for you, son of man, thus says Lord Jehovah, ‘Speak to every winged bird and to every wild animal: “Assemble yourselves and come; gather together from all sides to My sacrificial meal which I am sacrificing for you, a great sacrificial meal on the mountains of Israel, that you may eat flesh and drink blood.

Eze 39:18 “You will eat the flesh of the mighty, drink the blood of the princes of the earth, of rams and lambs, of goats and bulls, all of them fatlings of Bashan.

Eze 39:19 “You will eat fat until you are full, and drink blood until you are drunk, at My sacrificial meal which I am sacrificing for you.

Eze 39:20 “You will be filled at My table with horses and riders, with mighty men and with all the men of war,” says Lord Jehovah.

Eze 39:21 “I will set My glory among the nations; all the nations will see My judgement which I have executed, and My hand which I have laid on them.”²

Eze 39:23 “The gentiles will know that the house of Israel went into captivity for their iniquity; because they were unfaithful to Me, therefore I hid My face from them. I gave them into the hand of their enemies, and they all fell by the sword.

Eze 39:24 “According to their uncleanness and according to their transgressions I have dealt with them, and hidden My face from them.”

Eze 39:25 Therefore thus says Lord Jehovah: “Now I will bring back the captives of Jacob, and have mercy on the whole house of Israel; and I will be jealous for My sanctified Name;

Eze 39:26 “after they have borne their shame, and all their unfaithfulness in which they were unfaithful to Me, when they dwelt safely in their own land and no one made them afraid.

Eze 39:27 “When I have brought them back from the peoples and gathered them out of their enemies’ lands, and I am hallowed in them in the sight of many nations, Eze 39:28 “then they will know that I am Jehovah their God, who sent them into captivity among the nations, but also brought them back to their own land, and left none of them captive any longer.

Eze 39:29 “And I will not hide My face from them anymore; for I will have poured out My Spirit on the house of Israel,” says Lord Jehovah.”

Eze 40:1 In the twenty-fifth year of our captivity, at the beginning of the year, on the tenth day of the new moon, in the fourteenth year after the city was captured, on the very same day the hand of Jehovah was upon me; and He took me there.

Eze 40:2 In the visions of God He took me into the land of Israel and set me on a very high mountain; on it toward the south was something like the structure of a city.

Eze 40:3 He took me there, and behold, there was a man whose appearance was like the appearance of bronze. He had a line of flax and a measuring branch in his hand, and he stood in the gateway.

Eze 40:4 And the man said to me, "Son of man, look with your eyes and hear with your ears, and fix your mind on everything I show you; for you were brought here so that I might show them to you. Declare to the house of Israel everything you see."

Eze 40:5 Now there was a wall all around the outside of the house. In the man's hand was a measuring branch six cubits long, each being a cubit and a handbreadth; and he measured the width of the wall structure, one branch; and the height, one branch.¹

Eze 40:6 Then he went to the gateway which faced east; and he went up its stairs and measured the threshold of the gateway, which was one branch wide, and the other threshold was one branch wide.

Eze 40:7 Each gate chamber was one branch long and one branch wide; between the gate chambers was a space of five cubits; and the threshold of the gateway by the porch of the inside gate was one branch.

Eze 40:8 He also measured the porch of the inside gate, one branch.

Eze 40:9 Then he measured the porch of the gateway, eight cubits; and the gateposts, two cubits. The porch of the gate was on the inside.

Eze 40:10 In the eastern gateway were three gate chambers on one side and three on the other; the three were all the same size; also the gateposts were of the same size on this side and that side.

Eze 40:11 He measured the width of the entrance to the gateway, ten cubits; and the length of the gate, thirteen cubits.

Eze 40:12 There was a space in front of the gate chambers, one cubit on this side and one cubit on that side; the gate chambers were six cubits on this side and six cubits on that side.

Eze 40:13 Then he measured the gateway from the roof of one gate chamber to the roof of the other; the width was twenty-five cubits, as door faces door.

Eze 40:14 He measured the gateposts, twenty cubits high,² and the court all around the gateway extended to the gatepost.

Eze 40:15 From the front of the entrance gate to the front of the porch of the inner gate was fifty cubits.

Eze 40:16 There were bevelled window frames in the gate chambers and in their intervening archways on the inside of the gateway all around, and likewise in the arches. There were windows all around on the inside. And on each gatepost were palm trees.

Eze 40:17 Then he brought me into the outer court; and there were chambers and a pavement made all around the court; thirty chambers faced the pavement.

Eze 40:18 The pavement was by the side of the gateways, corresponding to the length of the gateways; this was the lower pavement.

Eze 40:19 Then he measured the width from the front of the lower gateway to the front of the inner court exterior, one hundred cubits toward the east and the north.

Eze 40:20 On the outer court was also a gateway facing north, and he measured its length and its width.

¹ The context of Ezekiel makes it clear that this is a structure which will be built in Israel at the beginning of the Millennium of Peace, following the Great Tribulation. It is not New Jerusalem, which will come down from Heaven to Earth after everything has been made New. Also, this verse specifies that the cubit used in these measurements is the 'royal cubit', which is seven hand-widths (28 fingers) long, rather than the standard one which is only six. This makes a cubit about 20.6 inches or 523 mm long, and the branch 10.3 ft or 3.14 meters long.

² Based on the Septuagint, the Masoritic has sixty.

Eze 40:21 Its gate chambers, three on this side and three on that side, its gateposts and its archways, had the same measurements as the first gate; its length was fifty cubits and its width twenty-five cubits.

Eze 40:22 Its windows and those of its archways, and also its palm trees, had the same measurements as the gateway facing east; it was ascended by seven steps, and its archway was in front of it.

Eze 40:23 A gate of the inner court was opposite the northern gateway, just as the eastern gateway; and he measured from gateway to gateway, one hundred cubits.

Eze 40:24 After that he brought me toward the south, and there a gateway was facing south; and he measured its gateposts and archways according to these same measurements.

Eze 40:25 There were windows in it and in its archways all around like those windows; its length was fifty cubits and its width twenty-five cubits.

Eze 40:26 Seven steps led up to it, and its archway was in front of them; and it had palm trees on its gateposts, one on this side and one on that side.

Eze 40:27 There was also a gateway on the inner court, facing south; and he measured from gateway to gateway toward the south, one hundred cubits.

Eze 40:28 Then he brought me to the inner court through the southern gateway; he measured the southern gateway according to these same measurements.

Eze 40:29 Also its gate chambers, its gateposts, and its archways were according to these same measurements; there were windows in it and in its archways all around; it was fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits wide.

Eze 40:30 There were archways all around, twenty-five cubits long and five cubits wide.

Eze 40:31 Its archways faced the outer court, palm trees were on its gateposts, and going up to it were eight steps.

Eze 40:32 Then he brought me into the inner court facing east; he measured the gateway according to these same measurements.

Eze 40:33 Also its gate chambers, its gateposts, and its archways were according to these same measurements; and there were windows in it and in its archways all around; it was fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits wide.

Eze 40:34 Its archways faced the outer court, and palm trees were on its gateposts on this side and on that side; and going up to it were eight steps.

Eze 40:35 Then he brought me to the north gateway and measured it according to these same measurements;

Eze 40:36 also its gate chambers, its gateposts, and its archways. It had windows all around; its length was fifty cubits and its width twenty-five cubits.

Eze 40:37 Its gateposts faced the outer court, palm trees were on its gateposts on this side and on that side, and going up to it were eight steps.

Eze 40:38 There was a chamber and its entrance by the gateposts of the gateway, where they washed the burnt offering.

Eze 40:39 In the porch of the gateway were two tables on this side and two tables on that side, on which to slay the burnt offering, the sin offering, and the trespass offering.¹

Eze 40:40 At the outer side of the porch, as one goes up to the entrance of the northern gateway, were two tables; and on the other side of the porch of the gateway were two tables.

¹ These sacrifices, and tithing, stopped when Herod's Temple was destroyed. They will be reinstated when this Millennial Temple is built, but unlike the earlier sacrifices which looked forward to Christ's sacrifice, these will serve as reminders of what Christ has done for us.

Eze 40:41 Four tables were on this side and four tables on that side, by the side of the gateway, eight tables on which they slaughtered the sacrifices.

Eze 40:42 There were also four tables of hewn stone for the burnt offering, one cubit and a half long, one cubit and a half wide, and one cubit high; on these they laid the instruments with which they slaughtered the burnt offering and the sacrifice.

Eze 40:43 Inside were hooks, a handbreadth wide, fastened all around; and the flesh of the sacrifices was on the tables.

Eze 40:44 Outside the inner gate were the chambers for the singers in the inner court, one facing south at the side of the northern gateway, and the other facing north at the side of the southern gateway.

Eze 40:45 Then he said to me, "This chamber which faces south is for the priests who have charge of the house.

Eze 40:46 "The chamber which faces north is for the priests who have charge of the altar; these are the sons of Zadok, from the sons of Levi, who come near Jehovah to serve Him."

Eze 40:47 And he measured the court, one hundred cubits long and one hundred cubits wide, foursquare. The altar was in front of the house.

Eze 40:48 Then he brought me to the porch of the house and measured the doorposts of the porch, five cubits on this side and five cubits on that side; and the width of the gateway was three cubits on this side and three cubits on that side.

Eze 40:49 The length of the porch was twenty cubits, and the width eleven cubits; and by the steps which led up to it there were pillars by the doorposts, one on this side and another on that side.

Eze 41:1 Then he brought me into the Palace and measured the doorposts, six cubits wide on one side and six cubits wide on the other side; the width of the tent.

Eze 41:2 The width of the entryway was ten cubits, and the side walls of the entrance were five cubits on this side and five cubits on the other side; and he measured its length, forty cubits, and its width, twenty cubits.

Eze 41:3 Then he went inside and measured the doorposts, two cubits; and the entrance, six cubits high; and the width of the entrance, seven cubits.

Eze 41:4 He measured the length, twenty cubits; and the width, twenty cubits, before the Palace; and he said to me, "This is the sanctified sanctuary."

Eze 41:5 Next, he measured the wall of the house, six cubits. The width of each side chamber all around the house was four cubits on every side.

Eze 41:6 The side chambers were in three stories, one above the other, thirty chambers in each storey; they rested on house ledges which were for the side chambers all around, that they might be supported, but not fastened to the wall of the house.

Eze 41:7 As one went up from storey to storey, the side chambers became wider all around the house, because their supporting ledges in the wall of the house ascended like steps; therefore the width of the house increased as one went up from the lowest storey to the highest by way of the middle one.

Eze 41:8 I also saw an elevation all around the house; it was the foundation of the side chambers, a full branch, that is, six cubits high.

Eze 41:9 The thickness of the outer wall of the side chambers was five cubits, and so also the remaining terrace by the house of the side chambers of the house.

Eze 41:10 And between it and the wall chambers was a width of twenty cubits all around the house on every side.

Eze 41:11 The doors of the side chambers opened on the terrace, one door toward the north and another toward the south; and the width of the terrace was five cubits all around.

Eze 41:12 The building that fronted the separating courtyard at its western end was seventy cubits wide; the wall of the building was five cubits thick all around, and its length ninety cubits.

Eze 41:13 So he measured the house, one hundred cubits long; and the separating courtyard with the building and its walls was one hundred cubits long;

Eze 41:14 also the width of the eastern face of the house, including the separating courtyard, was one hundred cubits.

Eze 41:15 He measured the length of the building behind it, facing the separating courtyard, with its galleries on the one side and on the other side, one hundred cubits, as well as the inner Palace and the porches of the court,

Eze 41:16 their doorposts and the bevelled window frames. And the galleries all around their three stories opposite the threshold were panelled with wood from the ground to the windows; the windows were covered;

Eze 41:17 from the space above the door, even to the inner room, as well as outside, and on every wall all around, inside and outside, by measure.

Eze 41:18 And it was made with cherubim and palm trees, a palm tree between cherub and cherub. Each cherub had two faces, Eze 41:19 so that the face of a man was toward a palm tree on one side, and the face of a young lion toward a palm tree on the other side; thus it was made throughout the house all around.

Eze 41:20 From the floor to the space above the door, and on the wall of the Palace, cherubim and palm trees were carved.

Eze 41:21 The doorposts of the Palace were squared, and so also the front of the sanctuary; the appearance of the one was like the appearance of the other.

Eze 41:22 The altar was of wood, three cubits high, and its length two cubits. Its corners, its length, and its sides were of wood; and he said to me, "This is the table that is before Jehovah."

Eze 41:23 The Palace and the Holy had two doors.

Eze 41:24 The doors had two panels apiece, two folding panels: two panels for one door and two panels for the other door.

Eze 41:25 Cherubim and palm trees were carved on the doors of the Palace just as they were carved on the walls. A wooden canopy was on the front of the porch outside.

Eze 41:26 There were bevelled window frames and palm trees on one side and on the other, on the sides of the porch; also on the side chambers of the house and on the canopies.

Eze 42:1 Then he brought me out into the outer court, by the way toward the north; and he brought me into the chamber which was opposite the separating courtyard, and which was opposite the building toward the north.

Eze 42:2 Facing the length, which was one hundred cubits (the width was fifty cubits), was the north door.

Eze 42:3 Opposite the inner court of twenty cubits, and opposite the pavement of the outer court, was gallery against gallery in three stories.

Eze 42:4 In front of the chambers, toward the inside, was a walk ten cubits wide, at a distance of one cubit; and their doors faced north.

Eze 42:5 Now the upper chambers were shorter, because the galleries took away space from them more than from the lower and middle stories of the building.

Eze 42:6 For they were in three stories and did not have pillars like the pillars of the courts; therefore the upper level was shortened more than the lower and middle levels from the ground up.

Eze 42:7 And a wall which was outside ran parallel to the chambers, at the front of the chambers, toward the outer court; its length was fifty cubits.

Eze 42:8 The length of the chambers toward the outer court was fifty cubits, whereas that facing the Palace was one hundred cubits.

Eze 42:9 At the lower chambers was the entrance on the east side, as one goes into them from the outer court.

Eze 42:10 There were also chambers in the thickness of the wall of the court toward the east, opposite the separating courtyard and opposite the building.

Eze 42:11 There was a walk in front of them also, and their appearance was like the chambers which were toward the north; they were as long and as wide as the others, and all their exits and entrances were according to the judgement.

Eze 42:12 And corresponding to the doors of the chambers that were facing south, as one enters them, there was a door in front of the walk, the way directly in front of the wall toward the east.

Eze 42:13 Then he said to me, "The north chambers and the south chambers, which are opposite the separating courtyard, are the sanctified chambers where the priests who approach Jehovah will eat the sanctuary sanctified offerings. There they will lay the sanctuary sanctified offerings; the grain offering, the sin offering, and the trespass offering for the sacred place.

Eze 42:14 "When the priests enter them, they will not go out of the sanctuary into the outer court; but there they will leave their garments in which they serve, for they are sanctified. They will put on other garments; then they may approach that which is for the people."

Eze 42:15 Now when he had finished measuring the inner House, he brought me out through the gateway that faces toward the east, and measured it all around.

Eze 42:16 He measured the east quarter¹ with the measure, five hundred cubits,² by the measuring branch all around.

Eze 42:17 He measured the north quarter, five hundred branches by the measuring branch all around.

Eze 42:18 He measured the south quarter, five hundred cubits by the measuring branch.

Eze 42:19 He came around to the west quarter and measured five hundred cubits by the measuring branch.

Eze 42:20 He measured it on the four quarters; it had a wall all around, five hundred long and five hundred wide, to separate the sanctified from the common areas.³

Eze 43:1 Afterwards he brought me to the gate, the gate that faces toward the east.

Eze 43:2 And behold, the glory of the God of Israel came from the way of the east. His voice was like the sound of many waters; and the earth shone with His glory.

Eze 43:3 It was like the appearance of the vision which I saw; like the vision which I saw when I came to destroy the city. The visions were like the vision which I saw by the River Chebar; and I fell on my face.

Eze 43:4 And the glory of Jehovah came into the House by way of the gate which faces toward the east.

¹ Quarter is translated from רוּחַ ruwach, usually meaning spirit or wind. In this case, it is referring to the cardinal direction the wind comes from.

² Or branches, both are in the Masoritic Hebrew in this verse. The Septuagint uses the branch to measure, but allows the measurement to be in cubits, which is consistent with all the internal measurements, and this is followed in the next three verses.

³ As noted, Ezekiel's royal cubit is about 523 mm long, making each of these quarters about 261.5 meters (858 ft) long. This will create an enclosed worship center/palace well over twice the area of the Temple Mount.

Eze 43:5 The Spirit lifted me up and brought me into the inner court; and behold, the glory of Jehovah filled the House.⁴

Eze 43:6 Then I heard Him speaking to me from the House, while a man stood beside me.

Eze 43:7 And He said to me, "Son of man, this is the place of My throne and the place of the soles of My feet, where I will dwell in the midst of the children of Israel forever. No more will the house of Israel make My sanctified Name unclean, they nor their kings, by their prostitution or with the corpses of their kings on their high places.

Eze 43:8 "When they set their threshold by My threshold, and their doorpost by My doorpost, with a wall between them and Me, they made My sanctified Name unclean by the abominations which they committed; therefore I have consumed them in My anger.

Eze 43:9 "Now let them put their prostitution and the corpses of their kings far away from Me, and I will dwell in their midst forever.

Eze 43:10 "Son of man, describe the House to the house of Israel, that they may be ashamed of their iniquities; and let them measure the pattern.

Eze 43:11 "And if they are ashamed of all that they have done, make known to them the design of the house and its arrangement, its exits and its entrances, its entire design and all its statutes, all its forms and all its Instructions. Write it down in their sight, so that they may keep its whole design and all its statutes, and perform them.

Eze 43:12 "These are the Instructions of the House: The whole area surrounding the mountaintop will be the sanctified sanctuary. Behold, these are the Instructions of the House.

Eze 43:13 "These are the measurements of the altar in cubits (the cubit is one cubit and a hand-breadth): the base one cubit high and one cubit wide, with a rim all around its edge of one span. This is the height of the altar:

Eze 43:14 "from the base on the ground to the lower ledge, two cubits; the width of the ledge, one cubit; from the smaller ledge to the larger ledge, four cubits; and the width of the ledge, one cubit.

Eze 43:15 "The altar hearth is four cubits high, with four horns extending upward from the hearth.

Eze 43:16 "The altar hearth is twelve cubits long, twelve wide, square at its four corners;

Eze 43:17 "the ledge, fourteen cubits long and fourteen wide on its four sides, with a rim of half a cubit around it; its base, one cubit all around; and its steps face toward the east."

Eze 43:18 And He said to me, "Son of man, thus says Lord Jehovah: 'These are the statutes for the altar on the day when it is made, for sacrificing burnt offerings on it, and for sprinkling blood on it.

Eze 43:19 'You will give a young bull for a sin offering to the priests, the Levites, who are of the seed of Zadok, who approach Me to serve Me,' says Lord Jehovah.

Eze 43:20 'You will take some of its blood and put it on the four horns of the altar, on the four corners of the ledge, and on the rim around it; thus you will cleanse it and make atonement for it.

Eze 43:21 'Then you will also take the bull of the sin offering, and burn it in the appointed place of the house, outside the sanctuary.

Eze 43:22 'On the second day you will offer a kid of the goats without blemish for a sin offering; and they will cleanse the altar, as they cleansed it with the bull.

Eze 43:23 ‘When you have finished cleansing it, you will offer a young bull without blemish, and a ram from the flock without blemish.

Eze 43:24 ‘When you offer them before Jehovah, the priests will throw salt on them, and they will offer them up as a burnt offering to Jehovah.

Eze 43:25 ‘Every day for seven days you will prepare a goat for a sin offering; they will also prepare a young bull and a ram from the flock, both without blemish.

Eze 43:26 ‘Seven days they will make atonement for the altar and purify it, and so consecrate it.

Eze 43:27 ‘When these days are over it will be, on the eighth day and thereafter, that the priests will offer your burnt offerings and your peace offerings on the altar; and I will accept you,’ says Lord Jehovah.”

Eze 44:1 Then He brought me back to the outer gate of the sanctuary which faces toward the east, but it was shut.

Eze 44:2 And Jehovah said to me, “This gate will be shut; it will not be opened, and no man will enter by it, because Jehovah God of Israel has entered by it; therefore it will be shut.

Eze 44:3 “As for the prince, because he is the prince, he may sit in it to eat bread before Jehovah; he will enter by way of the porch of the gateway, and go out the same way.”

Eze 44:4 Then He brought me by way of the north gate to the front of the House; so I looked, and behold, the glory of Jehovah filled the House of Jehovah; and I fell on my face.

Eze 44:5 And Jehovah¹ said to me, “Son of man, mark well, see with your eyes and hear with your ears, all that I say to you concerning all the statutes of the House of Jehovah and all its Instructions. Mark well who may enter the House and all who go out from the sanctuary.

Eze 44:6 “Now say to the rebellious, to the house of Israel, ‘Thus says Lord Jehovah: “O house of Israel, let us have no more of all your abominations.

Eze 44:7 “When you brought in the sons of foreigners, uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, to be in My sanctuary to defile it—My House—and when you offered My food, the fat and the blood, then they broke My covenant because of all your abominations.

Eze 44:8 “And you have not kept charge of My holy things, but you have set others to keep charge of My sanctuary for you.”

Eze 44:9 ‘Thus says Lord Jehovah: “No son of a foreigner who is uncircumcised in heart or uncircumcised in flesh, will enter My sanctuary, including any foreigner who is among the children of Israel.

Eze 44:10 “And the Levites who went far from Me, when Israel went astray, who strayed away from Me after their idols, they will bear their iniquity.

Eze 44:11 “Yet they will be servants in My sanctuary, as gatekeepers of the House and servants of the House; they will slay the burnt offering and the sacrifice for the people, and they will stand before them to serve them.

Eze 44:12 “Because they served them before their idols and caused the house of Israel to fall into iniquity, therefore I have lifted My hand in an oath against them,” says Lord Jehovah, “that they will bear their iniquity.

Eze 44:13 “And they will not come near Me to serve Me as priest, nor come near any of My sanctified things, nor into the sanctuary; but they will bear their shame and their abominations which they have committed.

Eze 44:14 “Nevertheless I will make them keep charge of the House, for all its work, and for all that has to be done in it.

Eze 44:15 “But the priests, the Levites, the sons of Zadok, who kept charge of My sanctuary when the children of Israel went astray from Me, they will come near Me to serve Me; and they will stand before Me to offer to Me the fat and the blood,” says Lord Jehovah.

Eze 44:16 “They will enter My sanctuary, and they will come near My table to serve Me, and they will keep My charge.

Eze 44:17 “And it will be, whenever they enter the gates of the inner court, that they will put on linen garments; no wool will come upon them while they serve within the gates of the inner court or within the house.

Eze 44:18 “They will have linen turbans on their heads and linen trousers on their bodies; they will not clothe themselves with anything that causes sweat.

Eze 44:19 “When they go out to the outer court, to the outer court to the people, they will take off their garments in which they have served, leave them in the sanctuary chambers, and put on other garments; and in these garments they will not sanctify the people.

Eze 44:20 “Nor will they shave their heads, nor let their hair grow long; but they will keep their hair well trimmed.

Eze 44:21 “No priest will drink wine when he enters the inner court.

Eze 44:22 “They will not take as wife a widow or a divorced woman, but take virgins of the descendants of the house of Israel, or widows of priests.

Eze 44:23 “And they will teach My people the difference between the sanctified and the profane, and cause them to discern between the unclean and the clean.

Eze 44:24 “In controversy they will stand as judges, and judge it according to My judgements. They will keep My Instructions and My statutes in all My appointed meetings, and they will hallow My Sabbaths.

Eze 44:25 “They will not make themselves unclean by coming near a dead person. Only for father or mother, for son or daughter, for brother or unmarried sister may they make themselves unclean.

Eze 44:26 “After he is cleansed, they will count seven days for him.

Eze 44:27 “And on the day that he goes to the sanctuary to serve in the sanctuary, he must offer his sin offering in the inner court,” says Lord Jehovah.

Eze 44:28 “It will be, in regard to their inheritance, that I am their inheritance. You will give them no possession in Israel, for I am their possession.

Eze 44:29 “They will eat the grain offering, the sin offering, and the trespass offering; every dedicated thing in Israel will be theirs.

Eze 44:30 “The best of all first-fruits of any kind, and every sacrifice of any kind from all your sacrifices, will be the priest’s; also you will give to the priest the first of your ground meal, to cause a blessing to rest on your house.

Eze 44:31 “The priests will not eat anything, flying creature or beast, that died naturally or was torn by wild animals.

Eze 45:1 “Moreover, when you cast lots for the land for inheritance, you will raise up an offering for Jehovah, sanctified land; its length will be twenty-five thousand cubits, and the width ten thousand. It will be sanctified throughout its territory all around.¹

Eze 45:2 “Of this there will be for the sanctuary, five hundred by five hundred, square all around, with fifty cubits for an open space all around it.

Eze 45:3 “And from this measure you will measure the length: twenty-five thousand, and the width: ten thousand; and in it will be the sanctuary, the sanctified sanctuary.

¹ This is a Holy Portion that is 13.1 km (8.1 mi) long and 5.23 km (3.25 mi) wide.

Eze 45:4 “It will be a holy land, belonging to the priests, the servants of the sanctuary, who come near to serve Jehovah; it will be a place for their houses and a sanctuary for the sanctuary.

Eze 45:5 “An area twenty-five thousand cubits long and ten thousand wide will belong to the Levites, the servants of the House; they will have twenty chambers as a possession.

Eze 45:6 “You will appoint as the property of the city an area five thousand cubits wide and twenty-five thousand long, adjacent to the sanctified district; it will belong to the whole house of Israel.

Eze 45:7 “The prince will have a portion on one side and the other of the sanctified district and the city’s property; and bordering on the holy district and the city’s property, extending westward on the west side and eastward on the east side, the length will be side by side with one of the tribal portions, from the west border to the east border.

Eze 45:8 “The land will be his possession in Israel; and My princes will no more oppress My people, but they will give the rest of the land to the house of Israel, according to their branches.”

Eze 45:9 ‘Thus says Lord Jehovah: “Enough, O princes of Israel! Remove violence and plundering, execute justice and righteousness, and stop dispossessing My people,” says Lord Jehovah.

Eze 45:10 “You will have just balances, a just ephah, and a just bath.

Eze 45:11 “The ephah and the bath will be of the same measure, so that the bath contains one-tenth of a homer, and the ephah one-tenth of a homer; their measure will be according to the homer.

Eze 45:12 “The shekel will be twenty gerahs; twenty shekels, twenty-five shekels, and fifteen shekels will be your mina.

Eze 45:13 “This is the offering which you will offer: you will give one-sixth of an ephah from a homer of wheat, and one-sixth of an ephah from a homer of barley.

Eze 45:14 “The statute concerning oil, the bath of oil, is one-tenth of a bath from a kor. A kor is a homer or ten baths, for ten baths are a homer.

Eze 45:15 “And one lamb will be given from a flock of two hundred, from the rich pastures of Israel. These will be for grain offerings, burnt offerings, and peace offerings, to make atonement for them,” says Lord Jehovah.

Eze 45:16 “All the people of the land will give this offering for the prince in Israel.

Eze 45:17 “Then it will be the prince’s part to give burnt offerings, grain offerings, and drink offerings, at the feasts, the New Moons, the Sabbaths, and at all the appointed seasons of the house of Israel. He will prepare the sin offering, the grain offering, the burnt offering, and the peace offerings to make atonement for the house of Israel.”

Eze 45:18 ‘Thus says Lord Jehovah: “On the first day of the first new moon, you will take a young bull without blemish and cleanse the sanctuary.

Eze 45:19 “The priest will take some of the blood of the sin offering and put it on the doorposts of the house, on the four corners of the ledge of the altar, and on the gateposts of the gate of the inner court.

Eze 45:20 “And so you will do on the seventh day of the new moon for everyone who has sinned unintentionally or in ignorance. Thus you will make atonement for the house.

Eze 45:21 “On the fourteenth day of the first new moon, you will observe the Passover, a feast of seven days; unleavened bread will be eaten.

Eze 45:22 “And on that day the prince will prepare for himself and for all the people of the land a bull for a sin offering.

Eze 45:23 “On the seven days of the feast he will prepare a burnt offering to Jehovah, seven bulls and seven rams without blemish, daily for seven days, and a kid of the goats daily for a sin offering.

Eze 45:24 “And he will prepare a grain offering of one ephah for each bull and one ephah for each ram, together with a hin of oil for each ephah.

Eze 45:25 “On the fifteenth day of the seventh new moon, at the Feast, he will do likewise for seven days, according to the sin offering, the burnt offering, the grain offering, and the oil.”

Eze 46:1 ‘Thus says Lord Jehovah: “The gateway of the inner court that faces toward the east will be shut the six working days; but on the Sabbath it will be opened, and on the day of the New Moon it will be opened.

Eze 46:2 “The prince will enter by way of the porch of that gateway from the outside, and stand by the gatepost. The priests will prepare his burnt offering and his peace offerings. He will worship at the threshold of the gate. Then he will go out, but the gate will not be shut until evening.

Eze 46:3 “Likewise the people of the land will worship at the entrance to this gateway before Jehovah on the Sabbaths and the New Moons.

Eze 46:4 “The burnt offering that the prince offers to Jehovah on the Sabbath day will be six lambs without blemish, and a ram without blemish;

Eze 46:5 “and the grain offering will be one ephah for a ram, and the grain offering for the lambs, as much as he wants to give, as well as a hin of oil with every ephah.

Eze 46:6 “On the day of the New Moon it will be a young bull without blemish, six lambs, and a ram; they will be without blemish.

Eze 46:7 “He will prepare a grain offering of an ephah for a bull, an ephah for a ram, as much as he wants to give for the lambs, and a hin of oil with every ephah.

Eze 46:8 “When the prince enters, he will go in by way of the porch of that gateway, and go out the same way.

Eze 46:9 “But when the people of the land come before Jehovah on the appointed feast days, whoever enters by way of the north gate to worship will go out by way of the south gate; and whoever enters by way of the south gate will go out by way of the north gate. He will not return by way of the gate through which he came, but will go out through the opposite gate.

Eze 46:10 “The prince will then be in their midst. When they go in, he will go in; and when they go out, he will go out.

Eze 46:11 “At the festivals and the appointed feast days the grain offering will be an ephah for a bull, an ephah for a ram, as much as he wants to give for the lambs, and a hin of oil with every ephah.

Eze 46:12 “Now when the prince makes a voluntary burnt offering or voluntary peace offering to Jehovah, the gate that faces toward the east will then be opened for him; and he will prepare his burnt offering and his peace offerings as he did on the Sabbath day. Then he will go out, and after he goes out the gate will be shut.

Eze 46:13 “You will make a daily burnt offering to Jehovah¹ of a lamb of the first year without blemish; you will prepare it every morning.

Eze 46:14 “And you will prepare a grain offering with it every morning, a sixth of an ephah, and a third of a hin of oil to moisten the fine flour. This grain offering is an everlasting statute, to be made regularly to Jehovah.

Eze 46:15 “Thus they will prepare the lamb, the grain offering, and the oil, as a regular burnt offering every morning.”

Eze 46:16 ‘Thus says Lord Jehovah: “If the prince gives a gift of some of his inheritance to any of his sons, it will belong to his sons; it is their possession by inheritance.

Eze 46:17 “But if he gives a gift of some of his inheritance to one of his servants, it will be his until the year of liberty, after which it will return to the prince. But his inheritance will belong to his sons; it will become theirs.

Eze 46:18 “Moreover the prince will not take any of the people’s inheritance by evicting them from their property; he will provide an inheritance for his sons from his own property, so that none of My people may be scattered from his property.””

Eze 46:19 Then he brought me through the entrance, which was at the side of the gate, into the sanctified chambers of the priests which face toward the north; and there, a place was situated at their extreme western end.

Eze 46:20 And he said to me, “This is the place where the priests will cook the trespass offering and the sin offering, and where they will bake the grain offering, so that they do not bring them out into the outer court to sanctify the people.”

Eze 46:21 Then he brought me out into the outer court and caused me to pass by the four corners of the court; and in fact, in every corner of the court there was another court.

Eze 46:22 In the four corners of the court were enclosed courts, forty cubits long and thirty wide; all four corners were the same size.

Eze 46:23 There was a row of building stones all around in them, all around the four of them; and cooking hearths were made under the rows of stones all around.

Eze 46:24 And he said to me, “These are the cook houses where the servants of the house will cook the sacrifices of the people.”

Eze 47:1 Then he brought me back to the door of the House; and there was water, flowing from under the threshold of the House toward the east, for the front of the House faced east; the water was flowing from under the right side of the House, south of the altar.

Eze 47:2 He brought me out by way of the north gate, and led me around on the outside to the outer gateway that faces east; and there was water, running out on the right side.

Eze 47:3 Then, when the man went out to the east with the line in his hand, he measured one thousand cubits, and he brought me through the waters; the water came up to my ankles.

Eze 47:4 Again he measured one thousand and brought me through the waters; the water came up to my knees. Again he measured one thousand and brought me through; the water came up to my waist.

Eze 47:5 Again he measured one thousand, and it was a river that I could not cross; for the water was too deep, water in which one must swim, a river that could not be crossed.

Eze 47:6 He said to me, “Son of man, have you seen this?” Then he brought me and returned me to the bank of the river.

Eze 47:7 When I returned, there along the bank of the river were very many trees on one side and the other.

Eze 47:8 Then he said to me: “This water flows toward the eastern region, goes down into the desert plain, and enters the sea. When it reaches the sea, its waters are healed.

Eze 47:9 “And it will be that every living soul that moves, wherever the rivers go, will live. There will be a very great multitude of fish, because these waters go there; for they will be healed, and everything will live wherever the river goes.

Eze 47:10 “It will be that fishermen will stand by it from En Gedi to En Eglaim; they will be places for spreading their nets. Their fish will be of the same kinds as the fish of the Great Sea, exceedingly many.

Eze 47:11 “But its swamps and marshes will not be healed; they will be given over to salt.

Eze 47:12 “Along the bank of the river, on this side and that, will grow all kinds of trees used for food; their leaves will not wither, and their fruit will not fail. They will bear fruit every new moon, because their water flows from the sanctuary. Their fruit will be for food, and their leaves for medicine.”¹

Eze 47:13 Thus says Lord Jehovah: “These are the borders by which you will divide the land as an inheritance among the twelve branches of Israel. Joseph will have two portions.

Eze 47:14 “You will inherit it equally with one another; for I lifted My hand in an oath to give it to your fathers, and this land will fall to you as your inheritance.

Eze 47:15 “This will be the border of the land on the north: from the Great Sea, by the road to Hethlon, as one goes to Zedad, Eze 47:16 “Hamath, Berothah, Sibraim (which is between the border of Damascus and the border of Hamath), to Hazar Hatticon (which is on the border of Hauran).

Eze 47:17 “Thus the boundary will be from the Sea to Hazar Enan, the border of Damascus; and as for the north, northward, it is the border of Hamath. This is the north side.

Eze 47:18 “On the east side you will mark out the border from between Hauran and Damascus, and between Gilead and the land of Israel, along the Jordan, and along the eastern side of the sea. This is the east side.

Eze 47:19 “The south side, toward the South, will be from Tamar to the waters of Meribah by Kadesh, along the brook to the Great Sea. This is the south side, toward the South.

Eze 47:20 “The west side will be the Great Sea, from the southern boundary until one comes to a point opposite Hamath. This is the west side.

Eze 47:21 “Thus you will divide this land among yourselves according to the branches of Israel.

Eze 47:22 “It will be that you will divide it by lot as an inheritance for yourselves, and for the immigrants who sojourn among you and who bear children among you. They will be to you as one raised up among the children of Israel; they will have an inheritance with you among the branches of Israel.

Eze 47:23 “And it will be that in whatever branch the immigrant sojourns, there you will give him his inheritance,” says Lord Jehovah.

Eze 48:1 “Now these are the names of the branches: From the northern border along the road to Hethlon at the entrance of Hamath, to Hazar Enan, the border of Damascus northward, in the direction of Hamath, there will be one portion for Dan from its east to its west side;²

Eze 48:2 “by the border of Dan, from the east side to the west, one portion for Asher;

Eze 48:3 “by the border of Asher, from the east side to the west, one portion for Naphtali;

Eze 48:4 “by the border of Naphtali, from the east side to the west, one portion for Manasseh;

Eze 48:5 “by the border of Manasseh, from the east side to the west, one portion Eze 48:9 “The district that you will set apart for Jehovah will be twenty-five thousand cubits in length and ten thousand in width.

Eze 48:10 “To these, namely, to the priests, will this holy district belong: on the north twenty-five thousand cubits in length, on the west ten thousand in width, on the east ten thousand in width, and on the south twenty-five thousand in length. The sanctuary of Jehovah will be in the center.¹

Eze 48:11 “It will be for the priests of the sons of Zadok, who are sanctified, who have kept My charge, who did not go astray when the children of Israel went astray, as the Levites went astray.

Eze 48:12 “And this district of land that is set apart will be to them the sanctified sanctuary, by the border of the Levites.

Eze 48:13 “Opposite the border of the priests, the Levites will have an area twenty-five thousand cubits in length and ten thousand in width; its entire length will be twenty-five thousand and its width ten thousand.

Eze 48:14 “And they will not sell or exchange any of it; they may not alienate this best part of the land, for it is sanctified to Jehovah.

Eze 48:15 “The five thousand cubits in width that remain, along the edge of the twenty-five thousand, will be for general use by the city, for dwellings and common-land; and the city will be in the center.²

Eze 48:16 “These will be its measurements: the north side four thousand five hundred cubits, the south side four thousand five hundred, the east side four thousand five hundred, and the west side four thousand five hundred.

Eze 48:17 “The common-land of the city will be: to the north two hundred and fifty cubits, to the south two hundred and fifty, to the east two hundred and fifty, and to the west two hundred and fifty.

Eze 48:18 “The rest of the length, alongside the sanctified district, will be ten thousand cubits to the east and ten thousand to the west. It will be adjacent to the sanctified district, and its produce will be food for the workers of the city.

Eze 48:19 “The workers of the city, from all the branches of Israel, will cultivate it.

Eze 48:20 “The entire district will be twenty-five thousand cubits by twenty-five thousand cubits, foursquare. You will set apart the sanctified district with the property of the city.

Eze 48:21 “The rest will belong to the prince, on one side and on the other of the holy district and of the city’s property, next to the twenty-five thousand cubits of the holy district as far as the eastern border, and westward next to the twenty-

The Minor Prophets

Hosea

Hos 1:1 The word of Jehovah that came to Hosea¹ the son of Beeri, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash, king of Israel.

Hos 1:2 When Jehovah began to speak by Hosea, Jehovah said to Hosea: "Go, take yourself a wife of prostitution and children of prostitution, for the land has prostituted with great prostitution by departing from Jehovah."

Hos 1:3 So he went and took Gomer² the daughter of Diblaim, and she conceived and bore him a son.

Hos 1:4 Then Jehovah said to him: "Call his name Jezreel,³ for in a little while I will avenge the bloodshed of Jezreel on the house of Jehu, and bring an end to the kingdom of the house of Israel.

Hos 1:5 It will come to pass in that day that I will break the bow of Israel in the Valley of Jezreel."

Hos 1:6 And she conceived again and bore a daughter. Then God said to him: "Call her name Lo-Ruhamah,⁴ for I will no longer have mercy on the house of Israel, but I will utterly take them away.

Hos 1:7 Yet I will have mercy on the house of Judah, will save them by Jehovah their God, and will not save them by bow, nor by sword or battle, by horses or horsemen."

Hos 1:8 Now when she had weaned Lo-Ruhamah, she conceived and bore a son.

Hos 1:9 Then God said: "Call his name Lo-Ammi,⁵ for you are not My people, and I will not be your God.

Hos 1:10 "Yet the number of the children of Israel will be as the sand of the sea, which cannot be measured or numbered. And it will come to pass in the place where it was said to them, 'You are not My people,' there it will be said to them, 'You are the sons of the living God.'⁶

Hos 1:11 Then the children of Judah and the children of Israel will be gathered together, and appoint for themselves one head; and they will come up out of the land, for great will be the day of Jezreel!

Hos 2:1 Say to your brethren, 'My people,' and to your sisters, 'Mercy is shown.'

Hos 2:2 "Bring charges against your mother, bring charges; for she is not My wife, nor am I her Husband! Let her put away her prostitutions from her sight, and her adulteries from between her breasts;

Hos 2:3 Lest I strip her naked and expose her, as in the day she was born, and make her like a wilderness, and set her like a dry land, and slay her with thirst.

Hos 2:4 "I will not have mercy on her children, for they are the children of prostitution.

Hos 2:5 For their mother has prostituted; she who conceived them has done shamefully. For she said, 'I will go after my lovers, who give me my bread and my water, my wool and my linen, my oil and my drink.'

Hos 2:6 "Therefore, behold, I will hedge up your way with thorns, and wall her in, so that she cannot find her paths.

Hos 2:7 She will chase her lovers, but not overtake them; yes, she will seek them, but not find them. Then she will say, 'I will go and return to my first husband, for then it was better for me than now.'

Hos 2:8 For she did not know that I gave her grain, new wine and oil, and multiplied her silver and gold; which they prepared for the LORD.

Hos 2:9 "Therefore I will return and take away my grain in its time and My new wine in its season, and will take back My wool and My linen, given to cover her nakedness.

Hos 2:10 Now I will uncover her lewdness in the sight of her lovers, and no one will deliver her from My hand.

Hos 2:11 I will also cause all her mirth to cease, her feast days, her New Moons, her Sabbaths; all her appointed feasts.

Hos 2:12 “And I will destroy her vines and her fig trees, of which she has said, ‘These are my rewards that my lovers have given me.’ So I will make them a forest, and the wild animals will eat them.

Hos 2:13 I will punish her for the days of the LORDS to whom she burned. She decked herself with her earrings and jewellery, and went after her lovers. Then she forgot Me,” says Jehovah.

Hos 2:14 “Therefore, behold, I will allure her, will bring her into the wilderness, and speak comfort to her.

Hos 2:15 I will give her vineyards from there, and the Valley of Achor as a door of hope; she will sing there, as in the days of her youth, as in the day when she came up from the land of Egypt.

Hos 2:16 “And it will be in that day,” says Jehovah, “that you will call Me ‘my Husband,’¹ and no longer call Me ‘my LORD,’²

Hos 2:17 For I will take from her mouth the names of the LORDS, and they will no longer be remembered by these names.

Hos 2:18 In that day I will make a covenant for them with the wild animals, with the flying creatures of the heaven, and with the creeping things of the ground. Bow and sword of battle I will shatter from the earth, to make them lie down safely.

Hos 2:19 “I will betroth you to Me forever; yes, I will betroth you to Me in righteousness and justice, in loving-kindness and mercy;

Hos 2:20 I will betroth you to Me in faithfulness, and you will know Jehovah.

Hos 2:21 “It will come to pass in that day that I will answer,” says Jehovah; “I will answer the heavens, and they will answer the earth.

Hos 2:22 The earth will answer with grain, with new wine, and with oil; they will answer Jezreel.

Hos 2:23 Then I will sow her for Myself in the earth, and I will have mercy on her who had not obtained mercy; then I will say to those who were not My people, ‘You are My people!’ And they will say, ‘You are my God!’”³

Hos 3:1 Then Jehovah said to me, “Go again, love a woman who is loved by a lover and is committing adultery, just like the love of Jehovah for the children of Israel, who look to other gods and love the raisin-cakes of grapes.”⁴

Hos 3:2 So I bought her for myself for fifteen shekels of silver, and one and one-half homers of barley.

Hos 3:3 And I said to her, “You will stay with me many days; you will not prostitute yourself, nor will you have a man; thus I will also be toward you.”

Hos 3:4 For the children of Israel will abide many days without king or prince, without sacrifice or sacred pillar, without ephod or teraphim.

Hos 3:5 Afterwards the children of Israel will return, seek Jehovah their God and David their king, and fear Jehovah and His goodness in the latter days.⁵

Hos 4:1 Hear the word of Jehovah, you children of Israel, for Jehovah brings a charge against the inhabitants of the land: “There is no truth or mercy or knowledge of God in the land.

Hos 4:2 By swearing and lying, killing and stealing and committing adultery, they break all restraint, with bloodshed after bloodshed.

Hos 4:3 Therefore the land will mourn; and everyone who dwells there will waste away with the wild animals and the flying creatures of the heaven. Even the fish of the sea will be taken away.

Hos 4:4 “Now let no man contend, or reprove another, for your people are like those who contend with the priest.

Hos 4:5 Therefore you will stumble in the day; the prophet also will stumble with you in the night; and I will destroy your mother.

Hos 4:6 My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge. Because you have rejected knowledge, I also will reject you from being priest for Me. Because you have forgotten the Instructions of your God, I also will forget your children.

Hos 4:7 “The more they increased, the more they sinned against Me; I will change their glory into shame.

Hos 4:8 They eat up the sin of My people; they set their soul on their iniquity.

Hos 4:9 And it will be: like people, like priest. So I will punish them for their ways, and reward them for their deeds.

Hos 4:10 For they will eat, but not have enough; they will prostitute themselves, but not increase; because they have ceased obeying Jehovah.

Hos 4:11 “Prostitution, wine, and new wine enslave the heart.

Hos 4:12 My people ask counsel from their wooden idols, and their stick informs them. For the spirit of prostitution has caused them to stray, and they have prostituted themselves against their God.

Hos 4:13 They sacrifice on the mountaintops, and burn on the hills, under oaks, poplars, and terebinths, because their shade is good. There your daughters prostitute themselves, and your brides commit adultery.

Hos 4:14 “I will not punish your daughters when they prostitute themselves, nor your brides when they commit adultery; for the men themselves go apart with prostitutes, and offer sacrifices with temple prostitutes.¹ Therefore people who do not understand will be thrown down.

Hos 4:15 “Though you, Israel, prostitute yourself, let Judah not offend. Do not come up to Gilgal, nor go up to Beth Aven, nor swear an oath, saying, ‘As Jehovah lives’; Hos 4:16 “For Israel is stubborn like a stubborn calf; now Jehovah will let them forage like a lamb in open country.

Hos 4:17 “Ephraim is joined to idols, let him alone.

Hos 4:18 Their drink is rebellion, they prostitute and prostitute themselves. Her rulers dearly love dishonour.

Hos 4:19 The wind has wrapped her up in its wings, and they will be ashamed because of their sacrifices.

Hos 5:1 “Hear this, O priests! Take heed, O house of Israel! Give ear, O house of the king! For yours is the judgement, because you have been a snare to Mizpah and a net spread on Tabor.

Hos 5:2 The revolvers are deeply involved in slaughter, though I rebuke them all.

Hos 5:3 I know Ephraim, and Israel is not hidden from Me; for now, O Ephraim, you prostitute yourself; Israel is unclean.

Hos 5:4 “They do not direct their deeds toward turning to their God, for the spirit of prostitution is in their midst, and they do not know Jehovah.

Hos 5:5 The pride of Israel testifies to his face; therefore Israel and Ephraim stumble in their iniquity; Judah also stumbles with them.

Hos 5:6 “With their flocks and herds they will go to seek Jehovah, but they will not find Him; He has withdrawn Himself from them.

Hos 5:7 They have dealt treacherously with Jehovah, for they have begotten pagan children. Now a New Moon will devour them and their heritage.

Hos 5:8 “Blow the ram’s horn in Gibeah, the trumpet in Ramah! Cry aloud at Beth Aven, ‘Look behind you, O Benjamin!’

Hos 5:9 Ephraim will be a horror in the day of rebuke; among the branches of Israel I make known what is sure.

Hos 5:10 “The princes of Judah are like those who remove a landmark; I will pour out my wrath on them like water.

Hos 5:11 Ephraim is oppressed and broken in judgement, because he willingly walked by human precept.

Hos 5:12 Therefore I will be to Ephraim like a moth, and to the house of Judah like rottenness.

Hos 5:13 “When Ephraim saw his sickness, and Judah saw his wound, then Ephraim went to Assyria and sent to King Jareb; yet he cannot cure you, nor heal you of your wound.

Hos 5:14 For I will be like a lion to Ephraim, and like a young lion to the house of Judah. I, even I, will tear them and go away; I will take them away, and no one will rescue.

Hos 5:15 I will return again to My place until they acknowledge their offence. Then they will seek My face; in their affliction they will diligently seek Me.”

Hos 6:1 Come, and let us return to Jehovah; for He has torn, but He will heal us; He has stricken, but He will bind us up.

Hos 6:2 After two days He will revive us; on the third day He will raise us up, that we may live in His sight.

Hos 6:3 Let us know, let us pursue the knowledge of Jehovah. His going forth is established as the morning; He will come to us like the heavy rain, like the spring rain pouring to the earth.

Hos 6:4 “O Ephraim, what will I do to you? O Judah, what will I do to you? For your faithfulness is like a morning cloud, and like the early dew it goes away.

Hos 6:5 Therefore I have hewn them by the prophets, I have slain them by the words of My mouth; and your judgements are like light that goes forth.¹

Hos 6:6 For I desire mercy and not sacrifice, and the knowledge of God more than burnt offerings.²

Hos 6:7 “But like men they transgressed the covenant; they dealt treacherously with Me there.

Hos 6:8 Gilead is a city of evildoers, and is defiled with blood.

Hos 6:9 As bands of robbers lie in wait for a man, so the company of priests murder on the way to Shechem; surely they commit lewdness.

Hos 6:10 I have seen a horrible thing in the house of Israel: there is the prostitution of Ephraim; Israel is unclean.

Hos 6:11 Also, O Judah, a harvest is appointed for you, when I return the captives of My people.

Hos 7:1 “When I would have healed Israel, then the iniquity of Ephraim was uncovered, and the evil of Samaria. For they have committed fraud; the thief comes in; a band of robbers takes spoil outside.

Hos 7:2 They do not consider in their hearts that I remember all their evil; now their own deeds have surrounded them; they are before My face.

Hos 7:3 They make a king glad with their evil, and princes with their lies.

Hos 7:4 “They are all adulterers. Like an oven heated by a baker; he ceases stirring the fire after kneading the dough, until it is leavened.

Hos 7:5 In the day of our king princes have made him sick, inflamed with wine; He stretched out his hand with scoffers.

Hos 7:6 They prepare their heart like an oven, while they lie in wait; their baker sleeps all night; in the morning it burns like a flaming fire.

Hos 7:7 They are all hot, like an oven, and have devoured their judges. All their kings have fallen. There is none among them who calls upon Me.

Hos 7:8 "Ephraim has mixed himself among the peoples; Ephraim is a cake unturned.

Hos 7:9 Foreigners have devoured his strength, but he does not know it. Yes, grey hairs are here and there on him, yet he does not know it.

Hos 7:10 And the pride of Israel testifies to his face, but they do not return to Jehovah their God, nor seek Him for all this.

Hos 7:11 "Ephraim also is like a silly dove, without sense. They call to Egypt, they go to Assyria.

Hos 7:12 Wherever they go, I will spread My net on them; I will bring them down like the flying creatures of the heaven. I will chastise them according to what their congregation has heard.

Hos 7:13 "Woe to them, for they have fled from Me! Destruction to them, because they have transgressed against Me! Though I redeemed them, yet they have spoken lies against Me.

Hos 7:14 They did not cry out to Me with their heart when they wailed upon their beds. They assemble together for grain and new wine. They rebel against Me.

Hos 7:15 Though I disciplined and strengthened their arms, yet they devise evil against Me;

Hos 7:16 They return, but not to the Most High; they are like a deceitful bow. Their princes will fall by the sword for the indignations of their tongue. This will be their derision in the land of Egypt.

Hos 8:1 "Set the trumpet to your mouth! He will come like an eagle against the House of Jehovah, because they have transgressed My covenant and rebelled against My Instructions.

Hos 8:2 Israel will cry to Me, 'My God, we know You!'

Hos 8:3 Israel has cast off the good; the enemy will pursue him.

Hos 8:4 "They set up kings, but not by Me; they made princes, and I did not acknowledge it. From their silver and gold they made idols for themselves; that they might be cut off.

Hos 8:5 Your calf is rejected, O Samaria! My anger is aroused against them. How long will it be until they attain to innocence?

Hos 8:6 For from Israel is even this: a workman made it, and it is not God. But the calf of Samaria will be broken to pieces.

Hos 8:7 "They sow the wind, and reap the whirlwind. The stalk has no bud; it will never produce meal. If it should produce, foreigners would swallow it up.

Hos 8:8 Israel is swallowed up; now they are among the gentiles like a vessel in which there is no pleasure.

Hos 8:9 For they have gone up to Assyria, like a wild donkey alone by itself; Ephraim has hired lovers.

Hos 8:10 Yes, though they have hired among the nations, now I will gather them; and they will be defiled a little, because of the burden of the king of princes.

Hos 8:11 "Because Ephraim has made many altars for sin, they have become for him altars for sinning.

Hos 8:12 I have written for him the great things of My Instructions, but they were considered a strange thing.

Hos 8:13 For the sacrifices of My offerings they sacrifice flesh and eat it, but Jehovah does not accept them. Now He will remember their iniquity and punish their sins. They will return to Egypt.

Hos 8:14 "For Israel has forgotten his Maker, and has built palaces; Judah also has multiplied fortified cities; but I will send fire upon his cities, and it will devour his palaces."

Hos 9:1 Do not rejoice, O Israel, with joy like other peoples, for you have prostituted yourself against your God. You have loved for reward on every cereal threshing floor.

Hos 9:2 The threshing floor and the winepress will not feed them, and the new wine will fail in her.

Hos 9:3 They will not dwell in Jehovah's land, but Ephraim will return to Egypt, and will eat unclean things in Assyria.

Hos 9:4 They will not offer wine offerings to Jehovah, nor will their sacrifices be pleasing to Him. It will be like bread of mourners to them; all who eat it will be unclean. For their bread will be for their soul; it will not come into the House of Jehovah.

Hos 9:5 What will you do in the appointed day, and in the day of Jehovah's feast?

Hos 9:6 For indeed they are gone because of destruction. Egypt will gather them up; Memphis will bury them. Nettles will possess their valuables of silver; thorns will be in their tents.

Hos 9:7 The days of punishment have come; the days of recompense have come. Israel knows! The prophet is a fool, the spiritual man is insane, because of the greatness of your iniquity and great enmity.

Hos 9:8 The watchman of Ephraim is with my God; but the prophet is a fowler's snare in all his ways, and enmity in the house of his God.

Hos 9:9 They are deeply corrupted, as in the days of Gibeah. He will remember their iniquity; He will punish their sins.

Hos 9:10 "I found Israel like grapes in the wilderness; I saw your fathers as the first-fruits on the fig tree in its first season. But they went to Baal Peor, and separated themselves to that shame; they became an abomination like the thing they loved.

Hos 9:11 As for Ephraim, their glory will fly away like a flying creature; no birth, no pregnancy, and no conception!

Hos 9:12 Though they bring up their children, yet I will bereave them to the last man. Yes, woe to them when I depart from them!

Hos 9:13 Just as I saw Ephraim like Tyre, planted in a pleasant place, so Ephraim will bring out his children to the murderer."

Hos 9:14 Give them, O Jehovah; what will You give? Give them a miscarrying womb and dry breasts.

Hos 9:15 "All their wickedness is in Gilgal, for there I hated them. Because of the evil of their deeds I will drive them from My house; I will love them no more. All their princes are rebellious.

Hos 9:16 Ephraim is stricken, their root is dried up; they will bear no fruit. Yes, were they to bear children, I would kill the beloved fruit of their womb."

Hos 9:17 My God will cast them away, because they did not obey Him; and they will be wanderers among the nations.

Hos 10:1 Israel empties his vine; he brings forth fruit for himself. According to the multitude of his fruit he has increased the altars; according to the bounty of his land they have embellished his pillars.

Hos 10:2 Their heart is divided; now they are held guilty. He will break down their altars; he will ruin their pillars.

Hos 10:3 For now they say, "We have no king, because we did not fear Jehovah. And as for a king, what would he do for us?"

Hos 10:4 They have spoken words, swearing falsely in making a covenant. Thus judgement springs up like hemlock in the furrows of the field.

Hos 10:5 The inhabitants of Samaria fear because of the calf of Beth Aven. For its people mourn for it, and its priests shriek for it; because its glory has departed from it.

Hos 10:6 The idol also will be carried to Assyria as a present for King Jareb. Ephraim will receive shame, and Israel will be ashamed of his own counsel.

Hos 10:7 As for Samaria, her king is cut off like a twig on the water.

Hos 10:8 Also the high places of Aven, the sin of Israel, will be destroyed. The thorn and thistle will grow on their altars. They will say to the mountains, "Cover us!" And to the hills, "Fall on us!"¹

Hos 10:9 "O Israel, you have sinned from the days of Gibeah. There they stood. The battle in Gibeah against the children of iniquity did not overtake them.

Hos 10:10 When it is My desire, I will chasten them. Peoples will be gathered against them when I bind them for their two transgressions.

Hos 10:11 Ephraim is a trained heifer that loves to thresh grain; but I harnessed her fair neck, I will make Ephraim pull a plough. Judah will plough; Jacob will break his clods."

Hos 10:12 Sow for yourselves righteousness; reap in merciful mouths; break up your fallow ground, for it is time to seek Jehovah, until He comes and rains righteousness on you.

Hos 10:13 You have ploughed wickedness; you have reaped iniquity. You have eaten the fruit of lies, because you trusted in your own way, in the multitude of your mighty men.

Hos 10:14 Therefore tumult will arise among your people, and all your fortresses will be plundered as Shalman plundered Beth Arbel in the day of battle; a mother dashed in pieces upon her children.

Hos 10:15 Thus it will be done to you, O

Bethel, because of your evil evilness. In a morning the king of Israel will be cut off utterly.

Hos 11:1 "When Israel was a child, I loved him, and from Egypt I called My son.²

Hos 11:2 As they called them; so they went from them. They sacrificed to the LORD, and burned to carved images.

Hos 11:3 "I taught Ephraim to walk, taking them by their arms; but they did not know that I healed them.

Hos 11:4 I drew them with gentle cords, with bands of love, and I was to them as those who take the yoke from their neck. I stooped and fed them.

Hos 11:5 "He will not return to the land of Egypt; but the Assyrian will be his king, because they refused to repent.

Hos 11:6 And the sword will slash in his cities, devour his districts, and consume them, because of their own counsels.

Hos 11:7 My people are bent on backsliding from Me. Though they call to the Most High, none at all exalt Him.

Hos 11:8 "How can I give you up, Ephraim? How can I hand you over, Israel? How can I make you like Admah? How can I set you like Zeboiim? My heart churns within Me; My sympathy is stirred.

Hos 11:9 I will not execute the fierceness of My anger; I will not again destroy Ephraim. For I am God, and not man, the Sacred One in your midst; and I will not come with terror.

Hos 11:10 "They will walk after Jehovah. He will roar like a lion. When He roars, then His sons will come trembling from the west; Hos 11:11 they will come trembling like a bird from Egypt, like a dove from the land of Assyria. And I will let them dwell in their houses," says Jehovah.

Hos 11:12 "Ephraim has encompassed Me with lies, and the house of Israel with deceit; but Judah still walks with God, even with the faithful Sacred One.

Hos 12:1 Ephraim feeds on the wind, and pursues the east wind; He daily increases lies and desolation. Also they make a covenant with the Assyrians, and oil is carried to Egypt.

Hos 12:2 Jehovah also brings a charge against Judah, and will punish Jacob according to his ways; according to his deeds He will recompense him.

Hos 12:3 He took his brother by the heel in the womb, and in his strength he struggled with God.

Hos 12:4 Yes, he struggled with the Envoy and prevailed; he wept, and sought favour from Him. He found Him in Bethel, and there He spoke to us;

Hos 12:5 that is, Jehovah God of hosts. Jehovah is His memorial.

Hos 12:6 So you, by the help of your God, return; observe mercy and justice, and wait on your God continually.

Hos 12:7 A cunning Canaanite! Deceitful scales are in his hand; he loves to oppress.

Hos 12:8 And Ephraim said, "Surely I have become rich, I have found wealth for myself; in all my labours they will find in me no iniquity that is sin."

Hos 12:9 "But I am Jehovah your God, ever since the land of Egypt; I will again make you dwell in tents, as in the days of the appointed times.

Hos 12:10 I have also spoken by the prophets, and have multiplied visions; I have given symbols through the witness of the prophets."

Hos 12:11 Though Gilead has idols; surely they are vanity; though they sacrifice bulls in Gilgal, indeed their altars will be heaps in the furrows of the field.

Hos 12:12 Jacob fled to the country of Syria; Israel served for a spouse, and for a wife he tended sheep.

Hos 12:13 By a prophet Jehovah brought Israel out of Egypt, and by a prophet he was preserved.

Hos 12:14 Ephraim provoked Him to anger most bitterly; therefore his Lord will leave on him his bloodguilt, and return his reproach upon him.

Hos 13:1 When Ephraim spoke, trembling, he exalted himself in Israel; but when he offended in the LORD, he died.

Hos 13:2 Now they sin more and more, and have made for themselves moulded images, idols of their silver, according to their skill; all of it is the work of craftsmen. They say of them, "Let the men who sacrifice kiss the calves!"

Hos 13:3 Therefore they will be like the morning cloud and like the early dew that passes away, like chaff blown off from a threshing floor and like smoke from a chimney.

Hos 13:4 "Yet I am Jehovah your God ever since the land of Egypt, and you will know no God but Me; for there is no saviour besides Me.

Hos 13:5 I knew you in the wilderness, in the land of great drought.

Hos 13:6 When they had pasture, they were filled; they were filled and their heart was exalted; therefore they forgot Me.

Hos 13:7 "So I will be to them like a lion; like a leopard by the road I will observe them;

Hos 13:8 I will meet them like a bear deprived of her cubs; I will tear open their rib cage, and I will devour them there like a lion. The wild animal will split them open.

Hos 13:9 "O Israel, you are destroyed, but your help is from Me.

Hos 13:10 I will be your King. Where is any other, that he may save you in all your cities? And your judges to whom you said, 'Give me a king and princes'?

Hos 13:11 I gave you a king in My anger, and took him away in My wrath.

Hos 13:12 "The iniquity of Ephraim is bound up; his sin is stored up.

Hos 13:13 The sorrows of a woman in childbirth will come upon him. He is an unwise son, for he should not stay long where children are born.

Hos 13:14 "I will ransom them from the hand of Sheol; I will redeem them from death. O Death, I will be your plagues! O Sheol, I will be your destruction!¹ Compassion is hidden from My eyes.

Hos 13:15 Though he is fruitful among his brethren, an east wind will come; the wind of Jehovah will come up from the wilderness. Then his spring will become dry, and his fountain will be dried up. He will plunder the treasury of every desirable prize.

Hos 13:16 Samaria is held guilty, for she has rebelled against her God. They will fall by the sword, their children will be dashed in pieces, and their women with child split open.

Hos 14:1 O Israel, return to Jehovah your God, for you have stumbled because of your iniquity;

Hos 14:2 Take words with you, and return to Jehovah. Say to Him, "Take away all iniquity; receive us graciously, for we will offer the sacrifices of our lips.

Hos 14:3 Assyria will not save us, we will not ride on horses, nor will we say any more to the work of our hands, 'You are our gods.' For in You the fatherless finds mercy."

Hos 14:4 "I will heal their backsliding, I will love them freely, for My anger has turned away from him.

Hos 14:5 I will be like the dew to Israel; He will grow like the lily, and lengthen his roots like Lebanon.

Hos 14:6 His branches will spread; his beauty will be like an olive tree, and his fragrance like Lebanon.

Hos 14:7 Those who dwell under his shadow will return; they will be revived like grain, and grow like the vine. Their scent will be like the wine of Lebanon.

Hos 14:8 "Ephraim will say, 'What have I to do anymore with idols?' I have heard and observed him. I am like a green cypress tree; Your fruit is found in Me."

Hos 14:9 Who is wise? Let him understand these things. Who is prudent? Let him know them. For the ways of Jehovah are right; the righteous walk in them, but transgressors stumble in them.

Joel

Joe 1:1 The word of Jehovah that came to Joel the son of Pethuel.

Joe 1:2 Hear this, you elders, and give ear, all you inhabitants of the land! Has anything like this happened in your days, or even in the days of your fathers?

Joe 1:3 Tell your children about it, let your children tell their children, and their children another generation.

Joe 1:4 What the chewing locust left, the swarming locust has eaten; what the swarming locust left, the crawling locust has eaten; and what the crawling locust left, the consuming locust has eaten.

Joe 1:5 Awake, you drunkards, and weep; and wail, all you drinkers of wine, because of the must,¹ for it has been cut off from your mouth.

Joe 1:6 For a nation has come up against My land, strong, and without number; his teeth are the teeth of a lion, and he has the fangs of a fierce lion.

Joe 1:7 He has made My vine a horror, and ruined My fig tree; he has stripped it bare and thrown it away; its branches are made white.

Joe 1:8 Lament like a virgin girded with sackcloth for the master of her youth.

Joe 1:9 The grain offering and the drink offering have been cut off from the House of Jehovah; the priests mourn, who serve Jehovah.

Joe 1:10 The field is wasted, the land mourns; for the grain is ruined, the new wine is dried up, the oil fails.

Joe 1:11 Be ashamed, you farmers, wail, you vinedressers, for the wheat and the barley; because the harvest of the field has perished.

Joe 1:12 The vine has dried up, and the fig tree has withered; the pomegranate tree, the palm tree also, and the apple tree; all the trees of the field are withered; surely joy has withered away from the sons of men.

Joe 1:13 Gird yourselves and lament; wail, you priests; you who serve before the altar; come, lie all night in sackcloth, you who serve my God; for the grain offering and the drink offering are withheld from the house of your God.

Joe 1:14 Consecrate a fast, call a sacred assembly; gather the elders and all the inhabitants of the land into the House of Jehovah your God, and cry out to Jehovah.

Joe 1:15 Alas for the day! For the day of Jehovah is at hand; it will come as destruction from the Almighty.

Joe 1:16 Is not the food cut off before our eyes, joy and gladness from the house of our God?

Joe 1:17 The seed grain shrivels under the clods, storehouses are in shambles; barns are broken down, for the grain has withered.

Joe 1:18 How the beasts groan! The herds of cattle are restless, because they have no pasture; even the flocks of sheep suffer your punishment.

Joe 1:19 O Jehovah, I cry out to You; for fire has devoured the wilderness pastures, and a flame has burned all the trees of the field.

Joe 1:20 The beasts of the field also cry out to You, for the water brooks are dried up, and fire has devoured the open pastures.

Joe 2:1 Blow the shophar in Zion, and sound an alarm in My sanctified mountain! Let all the inhabitants of the land tremble; for the day of Jehovah is coming, for it is at hand:

Joe 2:2 a day of darkness and gloominess, a day of clouds and thick darkness, like the morning clouds spread over the mountains. A people come, great and strong, the like of whom has never been; nor will there ever be any such after them, even for many successive generations.

¹ Must is the crushed grapes from which wine is fermented.

Joe 2:3 A fire devours before them, and behind them a flame burns; the land is like the Paradise of Eden before them, and behind them a desolate wilderness; surely nothing will escape them.

Joe 2:4 Their appearance is like the appearance of horses; and like swift steeds, so they run.

Joe 2:5 They leap over mountaintops with a noise like chariots, like the noise of a flaming fire that devours the stubble, like a strong people set in battle array.

Joe 2:6 The people writhe in pain before them; all faces are drained of colour.

Joe 2:7 They run like mighty men, they climb the wall like men of war; every one marches in formation, and they do not break ranks.

Joe 2:8 They do not push one another; every one marches in his own column. And when they lunge between the weapons, they are not cut down.

Joe 2:9 They run to and fro in the city, they run on the wall; they climb into the houses, they enter at the windows like a thief.

Joe 2:10 The earth quakes before them, the heavens tremble; the sun and moon grow dark, and the stars diminish their brightness.

Joe 2:11 Jehovah gives voice before His army, for His camp is very great; for strong is the One who executes His word. For the day of Jehovah is great and very terrible; who can endure it?

Joe 2:12 "Now, therefore," says Jehovah, "Turn to me with all your heart, with fasting, with weeping, and with mourning."

Joe 2:13 So rend your heart, and not your garments; return to Jehovah your God, for He is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness; and He relents from doing evil.

Joe 2:14 Who knows if He will turn and relent, and leave a blessing behind Him; a grain offering and a drink offering for Jehovah your God?

Joe 2:15 Blow the shophar in Zion, consecrate a fast, call a sacred assembly;

Joe 2:16 gather the people, sanctify the congregation, assemble the elders, gather the children and those sucking breasts; let the bridegroom go out from his chamber, and the bride from her dressing room.

Joe 2:17 Let the priests, who serve Jehovah, weep between the porch and the altar; let them say, "Spare Your people, O Jehovah, and do not give Your heritage to reproach, that the nations should rule over them. Why should they say among the peoples, 'Where is their God?'"

Joe 2:18 Then Jehovah will be zealous for His land, and pity His people.

Joe 2:19 Jehovah will answer and say to His people, "Behold, I will send you grain and new wine and oil, and you will be satisfied by them; I will no longer make you a reproach among the nations.

Joe 2:20 "For I will remove the northern army far from you, and will drive him away into a barren and desolate land, with his face toward the eastern sea and his back toward the western sea. His stench will come up, and his foul odour will rise, because he has done monstrous things."

Joe 2:21 Fear not, O land; be glad and rejoice, for Jehovah has done marvellous things!

Joe 2:22 Do not be afraid, you beasts of the field; for the wilderness pastures are springing up, and the tree bears its fruit; the fig tree and the vine yield their strength.

Joe 2:23 Be glad then, you children of Zion, and rejoice in Jehovah your God; for He has given you the early rain of righteousness, and He will cause the heavy rain to come down for you; the early rain and the spring rain as at the first.

Joe 2:24 The threshing floors will be full of wheat, and the vats will overflow with new wine and oil.

Joe 2:25 “So I will restore to you the years that the swarming locust has eaten, the crawling locust, the consuming locust, and the chewing locust, my great army which I sent among you.

Joe 2:26 You will eat in plenty and be satisfied, and praise the name of Jehovah your God, who has dealt wondrously with you; and My people will never be put to shame.

Joel 2:27 Then you will know that I am in the midst of Israel, and that I am Jehovah your God and there is no other. My people will never be put to shame.

Joe 2:28 “And it will come to pass afterwards that I will pour out My Spirit on all flesh; your sons and your daughters will prophesy, your old men will dream dreams, your young men will see visions;

Joe 2:29 And also on My menservants and on My maidservants I will pour out My Spirit in those days.

Joe 2:30 “And I will show wonders in the heavens and in the earth: blood and fire and pillars of smoke.

Joe 2:31 The sun will be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the coming of the great and terrible day of Jehovah.

Joe 2:32 And it will come to pass that whoever calls on the Name of Jehovah will be saved.¹ For in Mount Zion and in Jerusalem there will be deliverance, as Jehovah has said, among the remnant whom Jehovah calls.

Joe 3:1 “For behold, in those days and at that time, when I bring back the captives of Judah and Jerusalem,

Joe 3:2 I will also gather all nations, and bring them down to the Valley of Jehoshaphat; and I will enter into judgement with them there on account of My people, My heritage Israel, whom they have scattered among the nations; they have also divided up My land.

Joe 3:3 They have cast lots for My people, have given a boy for a prostitute, and sold a girl for wine, that they may drink.

Joe 3:4 “Indeed, what have you to do with Me, O Tyre and Sidon, and all the coasts of Philistia? Will you retaliate against Me? For if you retaliate against Me, I will swiftly and speedily return your retaliation upon your own head;

Joe 3:5 because you have taken My silver and My gold, and have carried into your palaces My good and pleasant things.

Joe 3:6 You have also sold the people of Judah and the people of Jerusalem to the Greeks, that you may remove them far from their borders.

Joe 3:7 “Behold, I will raise them out of the place to which you have sold them, and will return your retaliation upon your own head.

Joe 3:8 I will sell your sons and your daughters into the hand of the people of Judah, and they will sell them to the Sabeans, to a people far off; for Jehovah has spoken.”

Joe 3:9 Proclaim this among the nations: “Prepare for war! Wake up the mighty men, let all the men of war draw near, let them come up.

Joe 3:10 “Beat your ploughshares into swords and your pruning hooks into spears; let the weak say, ‘I am strong.’”

Joe 3:11 Assemble and come, all you nations, and gather together all around. O Jehovah, bring down Your mighty ones.

Joe 3:12 “Let the nations be wakened, and come up to the Valley of Jehoshaphat; for there I will sit to judge all the surrounding nations.

Joe 3:13 Put in the sickle, for the harvest is ripe.² Come, go down; for the winepress is full, the vats overflow; for their evil is great.”³

Joe 3:14 Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision! For the day of Jehovah is near in the valley of decision.

Joe 3:15 The sun and moon will grow dark, and the stars will diminish their brightness.¹

Joe 3:16 Jehovah also will roar from Zion, and utter His voice from Jerusalem; the heavens and earth will shake; but Jehovah will be a shelter for His people, and the stronghold of the children of Israel.

Joe 3:17 “Then you will know that I am Jehovah your God, dwelling in My sanctified mountain Zion. Then Jerusalem will be sanctified, and no foreigners will ever pass through her again.”²

Joe 3:18 And it will come to pass in that day that the mountains will drip with must, the hills will flow with milk, and all the brooks of Judah will be flooded with water; a fountain will flow from the House of Jehovah and water the Valley of Acacias.

Joe 3:19 “Egypt will be a desolation, and Edom a desolate wilderness, because of violence against the people of Judah, for they have shed innocent blood in their land.

Joe 3:20 But Judah will abide forever, and Jerusalem from generation to generation.

Joe 3:21 “For I will acquit them of bloodguilt, whom I had not acquitted; for Jehovah dwells in Zion.”

² Foreigners here has the flavour of estranged, meaning that no one who does not worship Jehovah will be allowed into the city.

Amos

Amo 1:1 The words of Amos, who was among the herdsmen of Tekoa, which he saw concerning Israel in the days of Uzziah king of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash, king of Israel, two years before the earthquake.

Amo 1:2 And he said: "Jehovah roars from Zion, and utters His voice from Jerusalem; the pastures of the shepherds mourn, and the top of Carmel withers."

Amo 1:3 Thus says Jehovah: "For three transgressions of Damascus, and for four, I will not turn away its punishment, because they have threshed Gilead with implements of iron.

Amo 1:4 For I will send a fire into the house of Hazael, which will devour the palaces of Ben-Hadad.

Amo 1:5 I will also break the gate bar of Damascus, and cut off the inhabitant from the Valley of Aven, and the one who holds the branch from Beth Eden. The people of Syria will go captive to Kir," says Jehovah.

Amo 1:6 Thus says Jehovah: "For three transgressions of Gaza, and for four, I will not turn away its punishment, because they took captive the whole captivity to deliver them up to Edom.

Amo 1:7 But I will send a fire upon the wall of Gaza, which will devour its palaces.

Amo 1:8 I will cut off the inhabitant from Ashdod, and the one who holds the branch from Ashkelon; I will turn My hand against Ekron, and the remnant of the Philistines will perish," says Lord Jehovah.

Amo 1:9 Thus says Jehovah: "For three transgressions of Tyre, and for four, I will not turn away its punishment, because they delivered up the whole captivity to Edom, and did not remember the covenant of brotherhood.

Amo 1:10 But I will send a fire upon the wall of Tyre, which will devour its palaces."

Amo 1:11 Thus says Jehovah: "For three transgressions of Edom, and for four, I will not turn away its punishment, because he pursued his brother with the sword, and cast off all pity; his anger tore perpetually, and he kept his wrath forever.

Amo 1:12 But I will send a fire upon Teman, which will devour the palaces of Bozrah."

Amo 1:13 Thus says Jehovah: "For three transgressions of the people of Ammon, and for four, I will not turn away its punishment, because they split open the women with child in Gilead, that they might enlarge their territory.

Amo 1:14 But I will kindle a fire in the wall of Rabbah, and it will devour its palaces, amid shouting in the day of battle, and a tempest in the day of the whirlwind.

Amo 1:15 Their king will go into captivity, he and his princes together," says Jehovah.

Amo 2:1 Thus says Jehovah: "For three transgressions of Moab, and for four, I will not turn away its punishment, because he burned the bones of the king of Edom to lime.

Amo 2:2 But I will send a fire upon Moab, and it will devour the palaces of Kerioth; Moab will die with tumult, with shouting and the sound of the shophar.

Amo 2:3 And I will cut off the judge from its midst, and slay all its princes with him," says Jehovah.

Amo 2:4 Thus says Jehovah: "For three transgressions of Judah, and for four, I will not turn back, because they have despised the Instructions of Jehovah, and have not kept His statutes. Their lies lead them astray, lies after which their fathers walked.

Amo 2:5 but I will send a fire upon Judah, and it will devour the palaces of Jerusalem."

Amo 2:6 Thus says Jehovah: "For three transgressions of Israel, and for four, I will not turn away its punishment, because they sell the righteous for silver and the poor for a pair of sandals.

Amo 2:7 They pant after the dust of the earth which is on the head of the poor, and pervert the way of the humble. A man and his father go into the same girl, to defile My sanctified name.

Amo 2:8 They lie down by every altar on clothes taken in pledge, and drink the wine of the condemned in the house of their god.

Amo 2:9 “Yet it was I who destroyed the Amorite before them, whose height was like the height of the cedars, and he was as strong as the oaks; yet I destroyed his fruit above and his roots beneath.

Amo 2:10 Also it was I who brought you up from the land of Egypt, and led you forty years through the wilderness, to possess the land of the Amorite.

Amo 2:11 I raised up some of your sons as prophets, and some of your young men as Nazirites. Is it not so, O you children of Israel?” says Jehovah.

Amo 2:12 “But you gave the Nazirites wine to drink, and commanded the prophets saying, ‘Do not prophesy!’

Amo 2:13 “Behold, I am tottering, as a cart that is full of sheaves totters.

Amo 2:14 The place of escape will perish from the swift, the strong will not strengthen his power, nor will the mighty save his soul;

Amo 2:15 He will not stand who handles the bow, the swift of foot will not save himself, nor will he who rides a horse save his soul.

Amo 2:16 The most strong hearted of the mighty will flee naked in that day,” says Jehovah.

Amo 3:1 Hear this word that Jehovah has spoken against you, O children of Israel, against the whole family which I brought up from the land of Egypt, saying:

Amo 3:2 “You only have I known of all the families of the earth; therefore I will punish you for all your iniquities.”

Amo 3:3 Can two walk together, unless they are agreed?

Amo 3:4 Will a lion roar in the forest, when he has no prey? Will a young lion cry out of his den, if he has caught nothing?

Amo 3:5 Will a bird fall into a snare on the earth, where there is no trap? Will a snare spring up from the earth, if it has caught nothing?

Amo 3:6 If a shophar is blown in a city, will the people not be afraid? If there is evil in a city, will not Jehovah have done it?

Amo 3:7 Surely Lord Jehovah does nothing, unless He reveals His counsel to His servants the prophets.

Amo 3:8 A lion has roared! Who will not fear? Lord Jehovah has spoken! Who can but prophesy?

Amo 3:9 “Proclaim in the palaces at Ashdod, and in the palaces in the land of Egypt, and say: ‘Assemble on the mountains of Samaria; see great tumults in her midst, and the oppressed within her.

Amo 3:10 For they do not know to do right,’ says Jehovah, ‘who store up violence and robbery in their palaces.’”

Amo 3:11 Therefore thus says Lord Jehovah: “An adversary will be all around the land; he will sap your strength from you, and your palaces will be plundered.”

Amo 3:12 Thus says Jehovah: “As a shepherd takes from the mouth of a lion two legs or a piece of an ear, so will the children of Israel be taken out who dwell in Samaria; in the corner of a bed and on the edge of a couch!

Amo 3:13 Hear and testify against the house of Jacob,” says Lord Jehovah, the God of hosts, Amo 3:14 “That in the day I punish Israel for their transgressions, I will also visit destruction on the altars of Bethel; and the horns of the altar will be cut off and fall to the ground.

Amo 3:15 I will destroy the winter house along with the summer house; the houses of ivory will perish, and the great houses will have an end." says Jehovah.

Amo 4:1 Hear this word, you cows of Bashan, who are on the mountain of Samaria, who oppress the poor, who crush the needy, who say to your husbands, "Bring wine, let us drink!"

Amo 4:2 Lord Jehovah has sworn by His sanctity: "Behold, the days will come upon you when He will take you away with fishhooks, and your posterity with fishhooks.

Amo 4:3 You will go out through broken walls, each one straight ahead of her, and you will be cast into Harmon," says Jehovah.

Amo 4:4 "Come to Bethel and transgress, at Gilgal multiply transgression; bring your sacrifices every morning, your tithes every three days.

Amo 4:5 Burn a sacrifice of thanksgiving with leaven, proclaim and announce the freewill offerings; for this you love, you children of Israel!" says Lord Jehovah.

Amo 4:6 "Also I gave you cleanness of teeth in all your cities and lack of bread in all your places; yet you have not returned to Me," says Jehovah.

Amo 4:7 "I also withheld heavy rain from you, when there were still three new moons to the harvest. I made it rain on one city, I withheld rain from another city. One part was rained upon, and where it did not rain the part withered.

Amo 4:8 So two or three cities wandered to another city to drink water, but they were not satisfied; yet you have not returned to Me," says Jehovah.

Amo 4:9 "I blasted you with blight and mildew. When your gardens increased, your vineyards, your fig trees, and your olive trees, the locust devoured them; yet you have not returned to Me," says Jehovah.

Amo 4:10 "I sent among you a plague after the manner of Egypt; your young men I killed with a sword, along with your captive horses; I made the stench of your camps come up into your nostrils; yet you have not returned to Me," says Jehovah.

Amo 4:11 "I overthrew some of you, as God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah, and you were like a firebrand plucked from the burning; yet you have not returned to Me," says Jehovah.

Amo 4:12 "Therefore thus will I do to you, O Israel; and because I will do this to you, prepare to meet your God, O Israel!"

Amo 4:13 For behold, He who forms mountains, and creates the wind, who declares to man what his thought is, and makes the morning darkness, who treads the high places of the earth; Jehovah God of hosts is His Name.

Amo 5:1 Hear this word which I take up against you, this lamentation, O house of Israel:

Amo 5:2 The virgin of Israel has fallen; she will rise no more. She lies forsaken on her land; there is no one to raise her up.

Amo 5:3 For thus says Lord Jehovah: "The city that goes out by a thousand will have a hundred left, and that which goes out by a hundred will have ten left to the house of Israel."

Amo 5:4 For thus says Jehovah to the house of Israel: "Seek Me and live;

Amo 5:5 but do not seek Bethel, nor enter Gilgal, nor pass over to Beersheba; for Gilgal will surely go into captivity, and Bethel will come to nothing.

Amo 5:6 Seek Jehovah and live, lest He break out like fire in the house of Joseph, and devour it, with no one to quench it in Bethel;

Amo 5:7 you who turn justice to wormwood, and lay righteousness to rest in the earth!"

Amo 5:8 He made the Pleiades and Orion; he turns the shadow of death into morning and makes the day dark as night;

He calls for the waters of the sea and pours them out on the face of the earth; Jehovah is His Name.

Amo 5:9 He rains ruin upon the strong, so that fury comes upon the fortress.

Amo 5:10 They hate the one who rebukes in the gate, and they abhor the one who speaks uprightly.

Amo 5:11 Therefore, because you tread down the poor and take grain taxes from him, though you have built houses of hewn stone, yet you will not dwell in them; you have planted pleasant vineyards, but you will not drink wine from them.

Amo 5:12 For I know your manifold transgressions and your mighty sins. You afflict the just and take bribes; you divert the poor from justice at the gate.

Amo 5:13 Therefore the prudent keep silent at that time, for it is an evil time.

Amo 5:14 Seek good and not evil, that you may live; so Jehovah God of hosts will be with you, as you have spoken.

Amo 5:15 Hate evil, love good; establish justice in the gate. It may be that Jehovah God of hosts will be gracious to the remnant of Joseph.

Amo 5:16 Therefore Jehovah God of hosts, Jehovah, says this: "There will be wailing in all streets, and they will say in all the highways, 'Alas! Alas!' They will call the farmer to mourning, and skillful lamenters to wailing.

Amo 5:17 In all vineyards there will be wailing, for I will pass through you." says Jehovah.

Amo 5:18 Woe to you who desire the Day of Jehovah! For what good is the Day of Jehovah to you? It will be darkness, and not light.

Amo 5:19 It will be as though a man fled from a lion, and a bear met him; or as though he went into the house, leaned his hand on the wall, and a serpent bit him.

Amo 5:20 Is not the Day of Jehovah darkness, and not light? Is it not very dark, with no brightness in it?

Amo 5:21 "I hate, I despise your feast days, and I do not savour your sacred assemblies.

Amo 5:22 Though you offer Me burnt offerings and your grain offerings, I will not accept them, nor will I regard your fattened peace offerings.¹

Amo 5:23 Take away from Me the noise of your songs, for I will not hear the melody of your stringed instruments.

Amo 5:24 But let justice run down like water, and righteousness like a mighty stream.

Amo 5:25 "Did you offer Me sacrifices and offerings in the wilderness for forty years, O house of Israel?

Amo 5:26 But you carried the booth² of your king and the pillar³ of your idols, the star of your gods, which you made for yourselves.

Amo 5:27 Therefore I will send you into captivity beyond Damascus." says Jehovah, whose name is the God of Hosts.⁴

Amo 6:1 Woe to you who are at ease in Zion, and trust in Mount Samaria, notable persons in the chief nation, to whom the house of Israel comes!

Amo 6:2 Go over to Calneh and see; and from there go to Hamath the great; then go down to Gath of the Philistines. Are you better than these kingdoms? Or is their territory greater than your territory?

Amo 6:3 Woe to you who put far off the day of evil, who cause the seat of violence to come near;

¹ Jehovah does not despise His Feast Days, etc. It is people's perversions of His holy things that He despises. The people continued to walk in sin and glorified themselves; they were not obeying, honouring and glorifying our Lord Jehovah.

Amo 6:4 who lie on beds of ivory, stretch out on your couches, eat lambs from the flock and calves from the midst of the stall;

Amo 6:5 who chant by the mouth of stringed instruments, and invent for yourselves musical instruments like David;

Amo 6:6 who drink wine from bowls, and anoint yourselves with the best ointments, but are not grieved for the affliction of Joseph.

Amo 6:7 Therefore they will now go captive as the first of the captives, and those who recline at banquets will be removed.

Amo 6:8 Lord Jehovah has sworn by His soul, Jehovah God of hosts says: "I abhor the pride of Jacob, and hate his palaces; therefore I will deliver up the city and all that is in it."

Amo 6:9 Then it will come to pass, that if ten men remain in one house, they will die.

Amo 6:10 And when a kinsman of the dead, with one who will burn the bodies, picks up the bodies to take them out of the house, he will say to one inside the house, "Are there any more with you?" Then someone will say, "None." And he will say, "Hold your tongue! For we dare not mention the Name of Jehovah."

Amo 6:11 For behold, Jehovah gives a command: He will break the great house into bits, and the little house into pieces.

Amo 6:12 Do horses run on rocks? Does one plough there with oxen? Yet you have turned justice into gall, and the fruit of righteousness into wormwood,

Amo 6:13 you who rejoice over Lo Debar, who say, "Have we not taken Karnaim for ourselves by our own strength?"

Amo 6:14 "But, behold, I will raise up a nation against you, O house of Israel," says Jehovah God of hosts; "And they will afflict you from the entrance of Hamath to the valley of the desert plain."

Amo 7:1 Thus Lord Jehovah showed me: Behold, He formed locust swarms at the beginning of the late crop; indeed it was the late crop after the king's mowings.

Amo 7:2 And so it was, when they had finished eating the grass of the land, that I said: "O Lord Jehovah, forgive, I pray! Oh, that Jacob may stand, for he is small!"

Amo 7:3 So Jehovah relented concerning this. "It will not be," said Jehovah.

Amo 7:4 Thus Lord Jehovah showed me: Behold, Lord Jehovah called for conflict by fire, and it consumed the great deep and devoured the territory.

Amo 7:5 Then I said: "O Lord Jehovah, cease, I pray! Oh, that Jacob may stand, for he is small!"

Amo 7:6 So Jehovah relented concerning this. "This also will not be," said Lord Jehovah.

Amo 7:7 Thus He showed me: Behold, Jehovah stood on a wall made with a plumb line, with a plumb line in His hand.

Amo 7:8 And Jehovah said to me, "Amos, what do you see?" And I said, "A plumb line." Then Jehovah said: "Behold, I am setting a plumb line in the midst of My people Israel; I will not pass by them anymore.

Amo 7:9 The high places of Isaac will be desolate, and the sanctuary of Israel will be laid waste. I will rise with the sword against the house of Jeroboam."

Amo 7:10 Then Amaziah the priest of Bethel sent to Jeroboam king of Israel, saying, "Amos has conspired against you in the midst of the house of Israel. The land is not able to bear all his words.

Amo 7:11 "For thus Amos has said: 'Jeroboam will die by the sword, and Israel will surely be led away captive from their own land.'"

Amo 7:12 Then Amaziah said to Amos: "Go, you seer! Flee to the land of Judah. There eat bread, and there prophesy.

Amo 7:13 But never again prophesy at Bethel, for it is the king's sanctuary, and it is the royal residence."

Amo 7:14 Then Amos answered, and said to Amaziah: "I was no prophet, nor was I a son of a prophet, but I was a herdsman and a tender of sycamore fruit.

Amo 7:15 Then Jehovah took me as I followed the flock, and Jehovah said to me, 'Go, prophesy to My people Israel.'

Amo 7:16 Now therefore, hear Jehovah's word: You say, 'Do not prophesy against Israel, and do not spout against the house of Isaac.'

Amo 7:17 "Therefore thus says Jehovah: 'Your wife will be a prostitute in the city; your sons and daughters will fall by the sword; your land will be divided by survey line; you will die in an unclean land; and Israel will surely be led away captive from his own land.'"

Amo 8:1 Thus Lord Jehovah showed me: Behold, a basket of summer fruit.

Amo 8:2 And He said, "Amos, what do you see?" So I said, "A basket of summer fruit." Then Jehovah said to me: "The end has come upon my people Israel; I will not pass by them anymore.

Amo 8:3 And the songs of the palace will be wailing in that day." says Lord Jehovah; "Many corpses everywhere, they will throw them out in silence."

Amo 8:4 Hear this, you who swallow up the needy, and make the poor of the land fail,

Amo 8:5 saying: "When will the New Moon be past, that we may sell grain? And the Sabbath, that we may trade our wheat, making the ephah small and the shekel large, falsifying the balances by deceit, Amo 8:6 that we may buy the poor for silver, and the needy for a pair of sandals; and even sell the bad wheat?"

Amo 8:7 Jehovah has sworn by the pride of Jacob: "Surely I will never forget any of their works.

Amo 8:8 Shall the land not tremble for this, and everyone mourn who dwells in it? All of it will swell like the River, heave and subside like the River of Egypt.

Amo 8:9 "And it will come to pass in that day," says Lord Jehovah, "That I will make the sun go dark at noon, and I will darken the earth in broad daylight;¹

Amo 8:10 I will turn your feasts into mourning, and all your songs into lamentation; I will bring sackcloth on every waist, and baldness on every head. I will make it like mourning for a unique son, and its end like a bitter day.

Amo 8:11 "Behold, the days are coming," says Lord Jehovah, "That I will send a famine on the land, not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of Jehovah.

Amo 8:12 They will wander from sea to sea, and from north to sunrise; they will run to and fro, seeking Jehovah's word, but will not find it.

Amo 8:13 "In that day the fair virgins and strong young men will faint from thirst.

Amo 8:14 Those who swear by the sin of Samaria, who say, 'As your god lives, O Dan!' and, 'As the way of Beersheba lives!'; they will fall and never rise again."

Amo 9:1 I saw Jehovah standing by the altar, and He said: "Strike the doorposts, that the thresholds may shake, and break them on the heads of them all. I will slay the last of them with the sword. He who flees from them will not get away, and he who escapes from them will not be delivered.

Amo 9:2 "Though they dig into Sheol, from there my hand will take them; though they climb up to heaven, from there I will bring them down.

Amo 9:3 And though they hide themselves on top of Carmel, from there I will search and take them; though they hide from My sight at the bottom of the sea, from there I will command the serpent, and it will bite them.

Amo 9:4 Though they go into captivity before their enemies, from there I will command the sword, and it will slay them. I will set My eyes on them for evil and not for good.”

Amo 9:5 Lord Jehovah of Hosts, He who touches the earth and it melts, and all who dwell there mourn; all of it will swell like the Nile, and subside like the Nile of Egypt.

Amo 9:6 He who builds His steps in the heavens, and has founded His bands in the earth; who calls for the waters of the sea, and pours them out on the face of the earth; Jehovah is His Name.

Amo 9:7 “Are you not like the people of Cush to Me, O children of Israel?” says Jehovah. “Did I not bring up Israel from the land of Egypt, the Philistines from Caphtor, and the Syrians from Kir?

Amo 9:8 “Behold, the eyes of Lord Jehovah are on the sinful kingdom, and I will destroy it from the face of the earth; yet I will not utterly destroy the house of Jacob,” says Jehovah.

Amo 9:9 “For surely I will command, and will sift the house of Israel among all nations, as grain is sifted in a sieve; yet not the smallest grain will fall to the ground.

Amo 9:10 All the sinners of My people will die by the sword, who say, ‘The evil will not overtake us nor confront us.’

Amo 9:11 “On that day I will raise up the booth of David, which has fallen down, and repair its damages; I will raise up its ruins, and rebuild it as in the days of old;

Amo 9:12 that they may possess the remnant of Edom, and all the gentiles who are called by My Name,” says Jehovah who does this thing.¹

Amo 9:13 “Behold, the days are coming,” says Jehovah, “When the ploughman will overtake the reaper, and the treader of grapes him who sows seed; the mountains will drip with must, and all the hills will flow with it.

Amo 9:14 I will bring back the captives of My people Israel. They will build the waste cities and inhabit them; they will plant vineyards and drink wine from them. They will also make paradises² and eat fruit from them.

Amo 9:15 I will plant them in their land, and no longer will they be pulled up from the land I have given them,” says Jehovah your God.

² The Biblical Paradise is like a combination of a park and an orchard.

Obadiah

Oba 1:1 The vision of Obadiah. Thus says Lord Jehovah concerning Edom: "We have heard a report from Jehovah, and an envoy has been sent among the nations, saying, 'Arise, and let us rise up against her for battle.'"

Oba 1:2 "Behold, I will make you small among the nations; you will be greatly despised.

Oba 1:3 The pride of your heart has deceived you, you who dwell in the clefts of the rock, whose habitation is high; you who say in your heart, 'Who will bring me down to the ground?'

Oba 1:4 Though you exalt yourself as high as the eagle, and though you set your nest among the stars, from there I will bring you down," says Jehovah.

Oba 1:5 "If thieves had come to you, if robbers by night—Oh, how you will be cut off!—would they not have stolen until they had enough? If grape-gatherers had come to you, would they not have left some gleanings?

Oba 1:6 "Oh, how Esau will be searched out! How his hidden treasures will be sought after!

Oba 1:7 All the men in your covenant will force you to the border; the men at peace with you will deceive you and prevail against you. Those who eat your bread will lay a trap for you. No one is aware of it.

Oba 1:8 "Will I not in that day," says Jehovah, "Even destroy the wise men from Edom, and understanding from the mountains of Esau?

Oba 1:9 Then your mighty men, O Teman, will be dismayed, to the end that everyone from the mountains of Esau may be cut off by slaughter.

Oba 1:10 "For your violence against your brother Jacob, shame will cover you, and you will be cut off forever.

Oba 1:11 In the day that you stood on the other side; in the day that strangers carried captive his forces, when foreigners entered his gates and cast lots for Jerusalem; even you were as one of them.

Oba 1:12 But you should not have gazed on the day of your brother in the day of his captivity; nor should you have rejoiced over the children of Judah in the day of their destruction; nor should you have mouthed off proudly in the day of trouble.

Oba 1:13 You should not have entered the gate of My people in the day of their calamity. Indeed, you should not have gazed on their evil in the day of their calamity, nor laid hands on their substance in the day of their calamity.

Oba 1:14 You should not have stood at the crossroads to cut off those among them who escaped; nor should you have delivered up those among them who remained in the day of trouble.

Oba 1:15 "For the day of Jehovah upon all the nations is near; as you have done, it will be done to you; your reprisal will return upon your own head.

Oba 1:16 For as you drank on my sanctified mountain, so will all the nations drink continually; yes, they will drink, and swallow, and they will be as though they had never been.

Oba 1:17 "But on Mount Zion there will be deliverance, and there will be sanctification; the house of Jacob will possess their possessions.

Oba 1:18 The house of Jacob will be a fire, and the house of Joseph a flame; but the house of Esau will be stubble; they will kindle them and devour them, and no survivor will remain of the house of Esau," for Jehovah has spoken.

Oba 1:19 The inhabitants of the South will possess the mountains of Esau, and the inhabitants of the Philistine lowland. They will possess the fields of Ephraim and the fields of Samaria. Benjamin will possess Gilead.

Oba 1:20 And the captives of this host of the children of Israel will possess the land of the Canaanites as far as Zarephath. The captives of Jerusalem who are in Sepharad will possess the cities of the South.

Oba 1:21 Then saviours will come to Mount Zion to judge the mountains of Esau, and the kingdom will be Jehovah's.

Jonah

Jon 1:1 Now Jehovah's word came to Jonah the son of Amittai, saying,

Jon 1:2 "Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and cry out against it; for their evil has come up before Me."

Jon 1:3 But Jonah arose to flee to Tarshish from the presence of Jehovah. He went down to Joppa, and found a ship going to Tarshish; so he paid the fare, and went down into it, to go with them to Tarshish from the presence of Jehovah.

Jon 1:4 But Jehovah sent out a great wind on the sea, and there was a mighty tempest on the sea, so that the ship was about to be broken up.

Jon 1:5 Then the mariners were afraid; and every man cried out to his god, and threw the cargo that was in the ship into the sea, to lighten the load. But Jonah had gone down into the lowest parts of the ship, had lain down, and was fast asleep.

Jon 1:6 So the captain came to him, and said to him, "What do you mean, sleeper? Arise, call on your God; perhaps your God will consider us, so that we may not perish."

Jon 1:7 And they said to one another, "Come, let us cast lots, that we may know for whose cause this evil has come upon us." So they cast lots, and the lot fell on Jonah.

Jon 1:8 Then they said to him, "Please tell us! For whose cause is this evil upon us? What is your occupation? And where do you come from? What is your country? And of what people are you?"

Jon 1:9 And he said to them, "I am a Hebrew; and I fear Jehovah, the God of heaven, who made the sea and the dry land."

Jon 1:10 Then the men were exceedingly afraid, and said to him, "Why have you done this?" For the men knew that he fled from the presence of Jehovah, because he had told them.

Jon 1:11 Then they said to him, "What will we do to you that the sea may be calm for us?"; for the sea was growing more tempestuous.

Jon 1:12 And he said to them, "Pick me up and throw me into the sea; then the sea will become calm for you. For I know that this great tempest is because of me."

Jon 1:13 Nevertheless the men rowed hard to bring the ship to land, but they could not, for the sea continued to grow more tempestuous against them.

Jon 1:14 Therefore they cried out to Jehovah and said, "We pray, O Jehovah, please do not let us perish for this man's soul, and do not charge us with innocent blood; for You, O Jehovah, have done as it pleased You."

Jon 1:15 So they picked up Jonah and threw him into the sea, and the sea ceased from its raging.

Jon 1:16 Then the men feared Jehovah exceedingly, and offered a sacrifice to Jehovah and made vows.

Jon 1:17 Now Jehovah had prepared a great fish to swallow Jonah. And Jonah was in the belly of the fish three days and three nights.¹

Jon 2:1 Then Jonah prayed to Jehovah his God from the fish's belly.

Jon 2:2 And he said: "I cried out to Jehovah because of my trouble, and He answered me. Out of the belly of Sheol I cried, and You heard my voice.

Jon 2:3 For You cast me into the deep, into the heart of the seas, and the floods surrounded me; all Your billows and Your waves passed over me.

Jon 2:4 Then I said, 'I have been cast out of Your sight; yet I will look again toward Your sanctified Palace.'

Jon 2:5 The waters encompassed me, even to my soul; the deep closed around me; the end² bound up my head.

Jon 2:6 I went down to the base of the mountains; the earth closed its bars behind me forever. Yet You have brought up my life from the pit, O Jehovah, my God.

¹ Mat 12:40, Mat 16:4, Luk 11:29

² Soph, meaning end, edge or pool.

Jon 2:7 “When my soul fainted within me, I remembered Jehovah; and my prayer went up to You, into Your sanctified Palace.

Jon 2:8 “Those who regard worthless idols forsake their own Mercy.

Jon 2:9 But I will sacrifice to You with the voice of thanksgiving; I will pay what I have vowed. Salvation is from Jehovah.”

Jon 2:10 So Jehovah spoke to the fish, and it vomited Jonah onto dry land.

Jon 3:1 Now Jehovah’s word came to Jonah the second time, saying,

Jon 3:2 “Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and preach to it the message that I tell you.”

Jon 3:3 So Jonah arose and went to Nineveh, according to Jehovah’s word. Now Nineveh was God’s great city, a three-day journey in extent.¹

Jon 3:4 And Jonah began to enter the city on the first day’s walk. Then he cried out and said, “Yet forty days, and Nineveh will be overthrown!”

Jon 3:5 So the people of Nineveh believed God, proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest to the least of them.

Jon 3:6 Then word came to the king of Nineveh; and he arose from his throne and laid aside his robe, covered himself with sackcloth and sat in ashes.

Jon 3:7 And he caused it to be proclaimed and published throughout Nineveh by the decree of the king and his nobles, saying, “Let neither man nor beast, herd nor flock, taste anything; do not let them eat, or drink water.

Jon 3:8 “But let man and beast be covered with sackcloth, and cry mightily to God; yes, let every one turn from his evil way and from the violence that is in his hands.

Jon 3:9 “Who can tell if God will turn and relent, and turn away from His fierce anger, so that we may not perish?”

Jon 3:10 Then God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God relented from the disaster that He had said He would bring upon them, and He did not do it.

Jon 4:1 But to Jonah that was a great evil, and he became angry.

Jon 4:2 So he prayed to Jehovah, and said, “Ah, Jehovah, was not this what I said when I was still in my country? Therefore I fled previously to Tarshish; for I know that You are a gracious and merciful God, slow to anger and abundant in loving-kindness, One who relents from doing evil.

Jon 4:3 “Therefore now, O Jehovah, please take my soul from me, for it is better for me to die than to live!”

Jon 4:4 Then Jehovah said, “Is it right for you to be angry?”

Jon 4:5 So Jonah went out of the city and sat on the east side of the city. There he made himself a booth and sat under it in the shade, until he might see what would become of the city.

Jon 4:6 And Jehovah God prepared a plant and made it come up over Jonah, that it might be shade for his head to deliver him from his evil thoughts. So Jonah was very grateful for the plant.

Jon 4:7 But as morning dawned the next day God prepared a worm, and it so damaged the plant that it withered.

Jon 4:8 And it happened, when the sun arose, that God prepared a vehement east wind; and the sun beat on Jonah’s head, so that he grew faint. Then he wished death for himself, and said, “It is better for me to die than to live.”

Jon 4:9 Then God said to Jonah, “Is it right for you to be angry about the plant?” And he said, “It is right for me to be angry, even to death!”

¹ This likely means that it would take three days to walk through every street in the city.

Jon 4:10 But Jehovah said, "You have had pity on the plant for which you have not laboured, nor made it grow, which came up in a night and perished in a night.

Jon 4:11 "And should I not pity Nineveh, that great city, in which are more than one hundred and twenty thousand persons who cannot discern between their right hand and their left, and also much livestock?"

Micah

Mic 1:1 The word of Jehovah that came to Micah of Moresheth in the days of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, which he saw concerning Samaria and Jerusalem.

Mic 1:2 Hear, all you peoples! Listen, O earth, and all that is in it! Let Lord Jehovah be a witness against you, Jehovah from His sanctified Palace.

Mic 1:3 For behold, Jehovah is coming out of His place; He will come down and tread on the high places of the earth.

Mic 1:4 The mountains will melt under him, and the valleys will split. Like wax before the fire, like waters poured down a steep place.

Mic 1:5 All this is for the transgression of Jacob and for the sins of the house of Israel. What is the transgression of Jacob? Is it not Samaria? And what are the high places of Judah? Are they not Jerusalem?

Mic 1:6 "Therefore I will make Samaria a heap of ruins in the field, places for planting a vineyard; I will pour down her stones into the valley, and I will uncover her foundations.

Mic 1:7 All her carved images will be beaten to pieces, and all her wages will be burned with the fire; all her idols I will lay desolate, for she gathered from the wages of a prostitute, and they will return to the wages of a prostitute."

Mic 1:8 Therefore I will wail and howl, I will go stripped and naked; I will wail like the dragons and mourn like the daughters of the owl, Mic 1:9 for her wounds are incurable, for it has come to Judah; it has come to the gate of My people, even to Jerusalem.

Mic 1:10 Tell it not in Gath, weep not at all in Beth Aphrah, roll yourself in the dust.

Mic 1:11 Pass by in naked shame, you inhabitant of Shaphir; the inhabitant of Zaanen does not go out. Beth Ezel mourns; its place to stand is taken away from you.

Mic 1:12 For the inhabitant of Maroth pined for good, but evil came down from Jehovah to the gate of Jerusalem.

Mic 1:13 O inhabitant of Lachish, harness the chariot to the swift steeds. She was the beginning of sin to the daughter of Zion, for the transgressions of Israel were found in you.

Mic 1:14 Therefore you will give presents to Moresheth Gath; the houses of Achzib will be a lie to the kings of Israel.

Mic 1:15 I will yet bring an heir to you, O inhabitant of Mareshah; the glory of Israel will come to Adullam.

Mic 1:16 Make yourself bald and cut off your hair, because of your precious children; enlarge your baldness like an eagle, for they will go from you into captivity.

Mic 2:1 Woe to those who devise iniquity and work out evil on their beds! At the light of morning they practice it, because it is in the power of their hand.

Mic 2:2 They covet fields and take them by violence, also houses, and seize them. So they oppress a man and his house, a man and his inheritance.

Mic 2:3 Therefore thus says Jehovah: "Behold, I am devising evil against this family, from which you cannot remove your necks; nor will you walk haughtily, for this is an evil time.

Mic 2:4 In that day one will take up a proverb against you, and lament with a bitter lamentation, and say: 'We are utterly destroyed! He has changed the heritage of my people; how he has removed it from me! To a turncoat he has divided our fields.'"

Mic 2:5 Therefore you will have no one to determine boundaries by lot in the congregation of Jehovah.

Mic 2:6 "Do not prattle," you say to those who prophesy. So they will not prophesy to you; they will not return insult for insult.

Mic 2:7 The house of Jacob says: "Is Jehovah's Spirit restricted? Are these His doings?" Do My words not do good to him who walks uprightly?

Mic 2:8 "Lately My people have risen up as an enemy; you pull off the robe with the garment from those who trust you, as they pass by, like men returned from war.

Mic 2:9 The women of My people you cast out from their pleasant houses; from their children you have taken away My glory forever.

Mic 2:10 "Arise and depart, for this is not your rest; because it is unclean, it will destroy you, even with utter destruction.

Mic 2:11 If a man should walk in a false spirit and speak a lie, saying, 'I will prophesy to you of wine and drink,' even he would be the prattler of this people.

Mic 2:12 "I will surely assemble all of you, O Jacob, I will surely gather the remnant of Israel; I will put them together like sheep of the fold, like a flock in the midst of their pasture; they will make a loud noise because of so many men.

Mic 2:13 The one who breaks open will come up before them; they will break out, pass through the gate, and go out by it; their king will pass before them, with Jehovah at their head."

Mic 3:1 And I said: "Hear now, O heads of Jacob, and you rulers of the house of Israel: Is it not for you to know justice?

Mic 3:2 You who hate good and love evil; who strip the skin from My people, and the flesh from their bones;

Mic 3:3 who also eat the flesh of My people, flay their skin from them, break their bones, and chop them in pieces like meat for the pot, like flesh in the caldron."

Mic 3:4 Then they will cry to Jehovah, but He will not hear them; He will even hide His face from them at that time, because they have been evil in their deeds.

Mic 3:5 Thus says Jehovah concerning the prophets who make my people stray; who chant "Peace" while they chew with their teeth, but prepare war against Him who puts nothing into their mouths:

Mic 3:6 "Therefore you will have night without vision, and you will have darkness without divination; the sun will go down on the prophets, and the day will be dark for them.

Mic 3:7 So the seers will be ashamed, and the diviners abashed; indeed they will all cover their lips; for there is no answer from God."

Mic 3:8 But truly I am full of power by Jehovah's Spirit, and of justice and might, to declare to Jacob his transgression and to Israel his sin.

Mic 3:9 Now hear this, you heads of the house of Jacob and rulers of the house of Israel, who abhor justice and pervert all equity, Mic 3:10 who build up Zion with bloodshed and Jerusalem with iniquity.

Mic 3:11 Her heads judge for a bribe, her priests teach for pay, and her prophets divine for silver, yet they lean on Jehovah and say, "Is not Jehovah among us? No evil can come upon us."

Mic 3:12 Therefore because of you Zion will be ploughed like a field, Jerusalem will become ruins, and the mountain of the House like the high places of the forest.

Mic 4:1 Now it will come to pass in the latter days that the mountain of Jehovah's House will be established on the top of the mountains, and will be exalted above the hills; and peoples will flow to it.

Mic 4:2 Many nations will come and say, "Come, and let us go up to the mountain of Jehovah, to the House of the God of Jacob; He will teach us His ways, and we will walk in His paths." For out of Zion the Instructions will go forth, and Jehovah's word from Jerusalem.

Mic 4:3 He will judge between many peoples, and rebuke strong nations afar off; they will beat their swords into ploughshares, and their spears into pruning hooks. Nation will not lift up sword against nation, neither will they learn war any more.¹

Mic 4:4 Instead, everyone will sit under his vine and under his fig tree, and no one will make them afraid; for the mouth of Jehovah of Hosts has spoken.

Mic 4:5 For all people walk each in the name of his god, but we will walk in the name of Jehovah our God forever and ever.

Mic 4:6 "In that day," says Jehovah, "I will assemble the lame, I will gather the outcast and those whom I have afflicted;

Mic 4:7 I will make the lame a remnant, and the outcast a strong nation; so Jehovah will reign over them in Mount Zion from now on, even forever.

Mic 4:8 And you, O tower of the flock, the stronghold of the daughter of Zion, to you will it come, even the former dominion will come, the kingdom of the daughter of Jerusalem."

Mic 4:9 Now why do you cry aloud? Is there no king in your midst? Has your counsellor perished? For pangs have seized you like a woman in labour.

Mic 4:10 Be in pain, and labour to bring forth, O daughter of Zion, like a woman in birth pangs. For now you will go forth from the city, you will dwell in the field, and you will go even to Babylon. There you will be delivered; there Jehovah will redeem you from the hand of your enemies.

Mic 4:11 Now also many nations have gathered against you, who say, "Let her be profaned, and let our eye look upon Zion."

Mic 4:12 But they do not know the thoughts of Jehovah, nor do they understand His counsel; for He will gather them like sheaves to the threshing floor.

Mic 4:13 "Arise and thresh, O daughter of Zion; for I will make your horn iron, and I will make your hooves bronze; you will beat in pieces many peoples; I will consecrate their gain to Jehovah, and their substance to the Lord of the whole earth."

Mic 5:1 Now gather yourself in troops, O daughter of troops; He has laid siege against us; they will strike the judge of Israel with a branch on the cheek.

Mic 5:2 "But you, Bethlehem Ephrathah, being little among the thousands of Judah, out of you will come forth to Me the one to rule in Israel. His origins have been from of old, from the ancient days."²

Mic 5:3 Therefore He will give them up, until the time that she who is in labour has given birth; then the remnant of His brethren will return to the children of Israel.

Mic 5:4 And He will stand and feed His flock in the strength of Jehovah, in the majesty of the name of Jehovah His God; and they will abide, for now He will be great to the ends of the earth;

Mic 5:5 and this One will be peace. When the Assyrian comes into our land, and when he treads in our Palaces, then we will raise against him seven shepherds and eight princely men.

Mic 5:6 They will waste with the sword the land of Assyria, and the land of Nimrod at its entrances; thus He will deliver us from the Assyrian, when he comes into our land and when he treads within our borders.

Mic 5:7 Then the remnant of Jacob will be in the midst of many peoples, like dew from Jehovah, like showers on the grass, that wait for no man nor await the sons of mankind.

Mic 5:8 And the remnant of Jacob will be among the gentiles, in the midst of many peoples, like a lion among the beasts of the forest, like a young lion among flocks of sheep, who, if he passes through, both treads down and tears in pieces, and none can deliver.

Mic 5:9 Your hand will be lifted against your adversaries, and all your enemies will be cut off.

Mic 5:10 “And it will be in that day,” says Jehovah, “That I will cut off your horses from your midst and destroy your chariots.

Mic 5:11 I will cut off the cities of your land and throw down all your strongholds.

Mic 5:12 I will cut off sorceries from your hand, and you will have no soothsayers.

Mic 5:13 Your carved images I will also cut off, and your pillars from your midst; you will no more worship the work of your hands;

Mic 5:14 I will pluck your groves from your midst; thus I will destroy your cities.

Mic 5:15 And I will execute vengeance in anger and fury on the nations that have not heard.”

Mic 6:1 Hear now what Jehovah says: “Arise, plead your case before the mountains, and let the hills hear your voice.

Mic 6:2 Hear, O you mountains, Jehovah’s complaint, and you strong foundations of the earth; for Jehovah has a complaint against His people, and He will contend with Israel.

Mic 6:3 “O My people, what have I done to you? And how have I wearied you? Testify against Me.

Mic 6:4 For I brought you up from the land of Egypt, I redeemed you from the house of bondage; and I sent before you Moses, Aaron, and Miriam.

Mic 6:5 O My people, remember now what Balak king of Moab counselled, and what Balaam the son of Beor answered him, from Acacia Grove to Gilgal, that you may know the righteousness of Jehovah.”

Mic 6:6 With what will I come before Jehovah, and bow myself before the High God? Shall I come before Him with burnt offerings, with calves a year old?

Mic 6:7 Will Jehovah be pleased with thousands of rams or ten thousand rivers of oil? Shall I give my firstborn for my transgression, the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?

Mic 6:8 He has shown to you, O man, what is good; and what does Jehovah require of you but to do justice, to love mercy, and to walk humbly with your God?

Mic 6:9 Jehovah’s voice cries to the city; wisdom will see Your Name: “Hear the Branch! Who has appointed it?”¹

Mic 6:10 Are there yet the treasures of wickedness in the house of the wicked, and the short measure that is an abomination?

Mic 6:11 Shall I count pure those with the wicked balances, and with the bag of deceitful weights?

Mic 6:12 For her rich men are full of violence, her inhabitants have spoken lies, and their tongue is deceitful in their mouth.

Mic 6:13 “Therefore I will also make you sick by striking you, by making you desolate because of your sins.

Mic 6:14 You will eat, but not be satisfied; hunger will be in your midst. You may carry some away, but will not save them; and what you do rescue I will give over to the sword.

Mic 6:15 “You will sow, but not reap; you will tread the olives, but not anoint yourselves with oil; and make new wine, but not drink wine.

Mic 6:16 For the statutes of Omri are kept; all the works of Ahab’s house are done; and you walk in their counsels, that I may make you a horror and your inhabitants a hissing. Therefore you will bear the reproach of My people.”

Mic 7:1 Woe is me! For I am like those who gather summer fruits, like those who glean vintage grapes; there is no cluster to eat of the first-ripe fruit which my soul desires.

Mic 7:2 The faithful man has perished from the earth, and there is no one upright among men. They all lie in wait for blood; every man hunts his brother with a net.

Mic 7:3 That they may successfully do evil with both hands; the prince asks for gifts, the judge seeks a bribe, and the great man utters the evil of his soul; so they scheme together.

Mic 7:4 The best of them is like a brier; the most upright is sharper than a thorn hedge; the day of your watchman and your punishment comes; now will be their perplexity.

Mic 7:5 Do not trust in a friend; do not put your confidence in a companion. Guard the doors of your mouth from her who lies in your bosom.

Mic 7:6 For son dishonours father, daughter rises against her mother, daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law; a man's enemies are the men of his own house.¹

Mic 7:7 Therefore I will look to Jehovah; I will wait for the God of my salvation; my God will hear me.

Mic 7:8 Do not rejoice over me, my enemy; when I fall, I will arise; when I sit in darkness, Jehovah will be a light to me.

Mic 7:9 I will bear the indignation of Jehovah, because I have sinned against Him, until He pleads my case and executes justice for me; He will bring me forth to the light, and I will see His righteousness.

Mic 7:10 Then she who is my enemy will see, and shame will cover her who said to me, "Where is Jehovah your God?" My eyes will see her; now she will be trampled down like mire in the streets.

Mic 7:11 In the day when your walls are to be built, in that day the decree will go far and wide.

Mic 7:12 In that day they will come to you from Assyria and the fortified cities, from the fortress to the River, from sea to sea, and mountain to mountain.

Mic 7:13 Yet the land will be desolate because of those who dwell in it, and for the fruit of their deeds.

Mic 7:14 Shepherd Your people with Your Branch, the flock of Your heritage, who dwell solitarily in a woodland, in the midst of Carmel; let them feed in Bashan and Gilead, as in days of old.

Mic 7:15 "As in the days when you came out of the land of Egypt, I will show them marvellous things."

Mic 7:16 The nations will see and be ashamed of all their might; they will put their hand over their mouth; their ears will be deaf.

Mic 7:17 They will lick the dust like a serpent; they will crawl from their holes like snakes of the earth. They will be afraid of Jehovah our God, and will fear because of You.

Mic 7:18 Who is a God like You, pardoning iniquity and passing over the transgression of the remnant of His heritage? He does not retain His anger forever, because He delights in mercy.

Mic 7:19 He will again have compassion on us, and will subdue our iniquities. You will cast all our sins into the depths of the sea.

Mic 7:20 You will give truth to Jacob and mercy to Abraham, which You have sworn to our fathers from days of old.

Nahum

Nah 1:1 The burden against Nineveh. The book of the vision of Nahum the Elkoshite.

Nah 1:2 God is jealous, and Jehovah avenges; Jehovah avenges and masters His fury. Jehovah will take vengeance on His adversaries, and He reserves wrath for His enemies;

Nah 1:3 Jehovah¹ is slow to anger and great in power, and will not acquit the wicked at all. Jehovah has His way in the whirlwind and in the storm, and the clouds are the dust of His feet.

Nah 1:4 He rebukes the sea and makes it dry, and dries up all the rivers. Bashan and Carmel wither, and the flower of Lebanon wilts.

Nah 1:5 The mountains quake before Him, the hills melt, and the earth heaves at His presence, yes, the world and all who dwell in it.

Nah 1:6 Who can stand before His indignation? And who can endure the fierceness of His anger? His fury is poured out like fire, and the rocks are thrown down by Him.

Nah 1:7 Jehovah is good, a stronghold in the day of trouble; and He knows those who trust in Him.

Nah 1:8 But like an overflowing flood He will make an utter end of its place, and darkness will pursue His enemies.

Nah 1:9 What do you conspire against Jehovah? He will make an utter end of it. Trouble will not rise up a second time.

Nah 1:10 For while tangled like thorns, and while drunken like drunkards, they will be devoured like stubble fully dried.

Nah 1:11 From you comes forth one who plots evil against Jehovah, a wicked counsellor.

Nah 1:12 Thus says Jehovah: "Though they are safe, and likewise many, yet in this manner they will be cut down when he passes through. Though I have afflicted you, I will afflict you no more;

Nah 1:13 for now I will break off his yoke from you, and burst your bonds apart."

Nah 1:14 Jehovah has given a command concerning you: "Your name will be perpetuated no longer. Out of the house of your gods I will cut off the carved image and the moulded image. I will make your grave, for you are vile."

Nah 1:15 Behold, the feet of him who brings Good News on the mountains, who proclaims peace! O Judah, celebrate your appointed feasts, perform your vows. For the wicked one will no more pass through you; he is utterly cut off.

Nah 2:1 He who scatters has come up before your face. Man the fort! Watch the road! Strengthen your flanks! Fortify your power mightily.

Nah 2:2 For Jehovah will restore the excellence of Jacob like the excellence of Israel, for the devastators have devastated them and ruined their vine branches.

Nah 2:3 The shields of his mighty men are made red, the valiant men are in scarlet. The chariots come with flaming torches in the day of his preparation, and the spears are brandished.

Nah 2:4 The chariots glory in the streets, they jostle one another in the broad roads; they seem like torches, they run like lightning.

Nah 2:5 He remembers his great ones; they stumble in their walk; they make haste to her walls, and the defence is prepared.

Nah 2:6 The gates of the rivers are opened, and the palace melts away.

Nah 2:7 It is decreed: she will be led away captive, she will be brought up; and her maidservants will lead her as with the voice of doves, beating their breasts.

Nah 2:8 Though Nineveh of old was like a pool of water, now they flee away. "Halt! Halt!" they cry; but no one turns back.

Nah 2:9 Take spoil of silver! Take spoil of gold! There is no end of treasure, or wealth of every desirable prize.

Nah 2:10 She is empty, desolate, and waste! The heart melts, and the knees shake; much pain is in every side, and all their faces are drained of colour.

Nah 2:11 Where is the dwelling of the lions, and the feeding place of the young lions, where the lion walked, the lioness and lion's cub, and no one made them afraid?

Nah 2:12 The lion tore in pieces enough for his cubs, killed for his lionesses, filled his caves with prey, and his dens with flesh.

Nah 2:13 "Behold, I am against you," says Jehovah of Hosts, "I will burn your chariots in smoke, and the sword will devour your young lions; I will cut off your prey from the earth, and the voice of your envoys will be heard no more."

Nah 3:1 Woe to the bloody city! It is all full of lies and robbery. Its victim never departs.

Nah 3:2 The noise of a whip and the noise of rattling wheels, of galloping horses, of clattering chariots!

Nah 3:3 Horsemen charge with bright sword and glittering spear. There is a multitude of slain, a great number of corpses, countless bodies; they stumble over the bodies;

Nah 3:4 because of the multitude of prostitutions of the seductive prostitute, the mistress of sorceries, who sells nations through her prostitutions, and families through her sorceries.¹

Nah 3:5 "Behold, I am against you," says Jehovah of Hosts; "I will lift your skirts over your face, I will show the nations your nakedness, and the kingdoms your shame."

Nah 3:6 I will cast abominable filth upon you, make you vile, and make you a spectacle.

Nah 3:7 It will come to pass that all who look upon you will flee from you, and say, 'Nineveh is laid waste! Who will bemoan her?' Where will I seek comforters for you?"

Nah 3:8 Are you better than No Amon that was situated by the River, that had the waters around her, whose rampart was like the sea, whose wall was like the sea?

Nah 3:9 Cush and Egypt were her strength, and it was boundless; Put and Lubim were your helpers.

Nah 3:10 Yet she was carried away, she went into captivity; her children were dashed to pieces at the head of every street; they cast lots for her honourable men, and all her great men were bound in chains.

Nah 3:11 You also will be drunk; you will be hidden; you also will seek strongholds from the enemy.

Nah 3:12 All your fortified cities are fig trees with ripened figs: if they are shaken, they fall into the mouth of the eater.

Nah 3:13 Surely, your people in your midst are women! The gates of your land are wide open for your enemies; fire will devour the bars of your gates.

Nah 3:14 Draw your water for the siege! Strengthen your fortified cities! Go into the clay and tread the mortar! Make strong the brick kiln!

Nah 3:15 There the fire will devour you, the sword will cut you off; it will eat you up like a locust. Make yourself many like the locust! Make yourself many like the swarming locusts!

Nah 3:16 You have multiplied your merchants more than the stars of heaven. The locust plunders and flies away.

Nah 3:17 Your commanders are like swarming locusts, and your captains like great grasshoppers, which camp in the hedges on a cold day; but when the sun risers they flee away, and the place where they are is not known.

Nah 3:18 Your shepherds slumber, O king of Assyria; your nobles rest in the dust. Your people are scattered on the mountains, and no one gathers them.

Nah 3:19 Your injury has no healing, your wound is severe. All who hear news of you will clap their hands over you, for upon whom has your evil not passed continually?

Habakkuk

Hab 1:1 The burden which the prophet Habakkuk saw.

Hab 1:2 O Jehovah, how long will I cry, and You will not hear? Even cry out to You, "Violence!" and You will not save.

Hab 1:3 Why do You show me iniquity, and cause me to see trouble? For plundering and violence are before me; there is strife, and contention arises.

Hab 1:4 Therefore the Instructions are powerless, and justice never goes forth. For the wicked surround the righteous; therefore perverse judgement proceeds.

Hab 1:5 "Look among the nations and watch; be utterly astounded! For I will work a work in your days which you would not believe, though it were told to you.¹

Hab 1:6 "For indeed I am raising up the Chaldeans, a bitter and hasty nation which marches through the breadth of the earth, to possess booths that are not theirs.

Hab 1:7 "They are terrible and dreadful; their judgement and their dignity proceed from themselves.

Hab 1:8 "Their horses also are swifter than leopards, and more fierce than evening wolves. Their chargers charge ahead; their cavalry comes from afar; they fly as the eagle that hastens to eat.

Hab 1:9 "They all come for violence. Their faces are set like the east wind. They gather captives like sand.

Hab 1:10 "They scoff at kings, and princes are scorned by them. They deride every stronghold, for they heap up mounds of earth and seize it.

Hab 1:11 "Then his spirit changes, and he transgresses; he commits offence, imputing this power to his god."

Hab 1:12 Are You not from everlasting, O Jehovah my God, my Sacred One? We will not die. O Jehovah, You have appointed them for judgement; O Rock, You have marked them for correction.²

Hab 1:13 You are of purer eyes than to behold evil, and cannot look on wickedness. Why do You look on those who deal treacherously, and hold Your tongue when the wicked devours one more righteous than he?

Hab 1:14 Why do You make men like fish of the sea, like creeping things that have no ruler over them?

Hab 1:15 They take them all up with a hook, they catch them in their net, and gather them in their dragnet. Therefore they rejoice and are glad.

Hab 1:16 Therefore they sacrifice to their net, and burn to their dragnet; because by them their share is sumptuous and their food is plenteous.

Hab 1:17 Shall they therefore empty their net, and continue to slay nations without pity?

Hab 2:1 I will stand my watch and set myself on the rampart, and watch to see what He will say to me, and what I will answer when I am reproved.

Hab 2:2 Then Jehovah answered me and said: "Write the vision and make it plain on tablets, that he may run who reads it.

Hab 2:3 "For the vision is yet for an appointed time; but at the end it will speak, and it will not lie. Though it lingers, wait for it, because it will surely come, it will not be hindered.

Hab 2:4 "Behold the proud, his soul is not upright in him; but the just will live by his faith.³

Hab 2:5 "Indeed, because he transgresses by wine, he is a proud man, and he does not stay at home. Because he enlarges his soul as Sheol, and he is like death, and cannot be satisfied, he gathers to himself all nations and heaps up for himself all peoples.

Hab 2:6 "Shall not all these take up a proverb against him, and a taunting riddle against him, and say, 'Woe to him who increases what is not his; how long? And to him who loads himself with many pledges'?

Hab 2:7 "Will not your creditors rise up suddenly? Will they not awaken who oppress you? And you will become their booty.

Hab 2:8 "Because you have plundered many nations, all the remnant of the people will plunder you, because of men's blood and the violence of the land and the city, and of all who dwell in it.

Hab 2:9 "Woe to him who covets evil gain for his house, that he may set his nest on high, that he may be delivered from the power of disaster!

Hab 2:10 "You gave shameful counsel to your house, cutting off many peoples, and sinned against your soul.

Hab 2:11 "For the stone will cry out from the wall, and the beam from the timbers will answer it.

Hab 2:12 "Woe to him who builds a town with bloodshed, who establishes a city by iniquity!

Hab 2:13 "Behold, it is not of Jehovah of Hosts that the peoples labour to feed the fire, and nations weary themselves worthlessly.

Hab 2:14 "For the earth will be filled with the knowledge of the glory of Jehovah, as the waters cover the sea.¹

Hab 2:15 "Woe to him who gives drink to his neighbour, attaching them to your bottle, even to make them drunk, that you may look on their nakedness!

Hab 2:16 "You are filled with shame instead of glory. You also; drink and be exposed as uncircumcised! The cup of Jehovah's right hand will be turned against you, and utter shame will be on your glory.

Hab 2:17 "For the violence done to Lebanon will cover you, and the plunder of beasts which made them afraid, because of men's blood and the violence of the land and the city, and of all who dwell in it.

Hab 2:18 "What profit is the image, that its maker should cut it, the moulded image, a teacher of lies, that the maker of its mould should trust in it, to make mute idols?

Hab 2:19 "Woe to him who says to wood, 'Awake!' to silent stone, 'Arise! It will teach!' Behold, it is overlaid with gold and silver, and in it there is no breath at all.

Hab 2:20 "But Jehovah is in His sanctified Palace. Let all the earth keep silent before Him."

Hab 3:1 A prayer of Habakkuk the prophet, on Shigionoth.

Hab 3:2 O Jehovah, I have heard your speech and was afraid; O Jehovah, revive Your work in the midst of the years! In the midst of the years make it known; in wrath remember mercy.

Hab 3:3 God came from Teman, the Sacred One from Mount Paran. Selah. His glory covered the heavens, and the earth was full of His praise.

Hab 3:4 His brightness was like the light; He had rays flashing from His hand, and there His power was hidden.

Hab 3:5 Before Him went pestilence, and fever followed at His feet.

Hab 3:6 He stood and measured the earth; He looked and startled the nations. And the everlasting mountains were scattered, the perpetual hills bowed. His ways are everlasting.

Hab 3:7 I saw the tents of Cushan in affliction; the curtains of the land of Midian trembled.

Hab 3:8 O Jehovah, were You displeased with the rivers, was Your anger against the rivers, was Your wrath against the sea, that You rode on Your horses, Your chariots of salvation?

Selah. You split the earth with rivers.

Hab 3:10 The mountains saw You and trembled; the overflowing of the water passed by. The deep uttered its voice, and lifted its hands on high.

Hab 3:11 The sun and moon stayed in their places; at the light of Your arrows they went, at the shining of Your glittering spear.

Hab 3:12 You marched through the land in indignation; You trampled the nations in anger.

Hab 3:13 You went forth for the salvation of Your people, for salvation with Your Anointed. You struck the head from the house of the wicked, by laying bare from foundation to neck. Selah.

Hab 3:14 You thrust through with his own branches the head of his villages. They came out like a whirlwind to scatter me; their rejoicing was like feasting on the poor in secret.

Hab 3:15 You walked through the sea with Your horses, on the surging great waters.

Hab 3:16 When I heard, my body trembled; my lips quivered at the voice; rottenness entered my bones; and I trembled in myself, that I might rest in the Day of Trouble. When he comes up to the people, He will invade them with his troops.

Hab 3:17 Though the fig tree may not blossom, nor fruit be on the vines; though the labour of the olive may fail, and the fields yield no food; though the flock be cut off from the fold, and there be no herd in the stalls;

Hab 3:18 Yet I will rejoice in Jehovah, I will joy in the God of my Salvation.¹

Zephaniah

Zep 1:1 The word of Jehovah which came to Zephaniah the son of Cushi, the son of Gedaliah, the son of Amariah, the son of Hezekiah, in the days of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah.

Zep 1:2 "I will utterly consume all things from the face of the land," says Jehovah;

Zep 1:3 "I will consume man and beast; I will consume the flying creatures of the heavens, the fish of the sea, and the stumbling blocks along with the wicked. I will cut off man from the face of the land," says Jehovah.

Zep 1:4 "I will stretch out My hand against Judah, and against all the inhabitants of Jerusalem. I will cut off the remnant of the LORD from this place, the names of the idolatrous priests with the pagan priests;

Zep 1:5 those who worship the host of heaven on the housetops; those who worship and swear oaths by Jehovah, but who also swear by Milcom;

Zep 1:6 those who have turned back from following Jehovah, and have not sought Jehovah, nor inquired of Him."¹

Zep 1:7 Be silent in the presence of Lord Jehovah; for the day of Jehovah is at hand, for Jehovah has prepared a sacrifice. He has invited His guests.

Zep 1:8 "And it will be, in the day of Jehovah's sacrifice, that I will punish the princes and the king's children, and all such as are clothed with foreign apparel.

Zep 1:9 In the same day I will punish all those who leap over the threshold, who fill their lords' houses with violence and deceit.

Zep 1:10 "And there will be on that day," says Jehovah, "The sound of a mournful cry from the Fish Gate, a wailing from the Second Quarter, and a loud crashing from the hills.

Zep 1:11 Wail, you inhabitants of Maktesh! For all the merchant people are cut down; all those who handle silver are cut off.

Zep 1:12 "And it will come to pass at that time that I will search Jerusalem with lamps, and punish the men who are settled in complacency, who say in their heart, 'Jehovah will not do good, nor will He do evil.'

Zep 1:13 Therefore their goods will become booty, and their houses a desolation; They will build houses, but not inhabit them; they will plant vineyards, but not drink their wine."

Zep 1:14 The great day of Jehovah is near; it is near and hastens quickly. The noise of the Day of Jehovah is bitter; there the mighty men will cry out.

Zep 1:15 That day is a day of wrath, a day of trouble and distress, a day of devastation and desolation, a day of darkness and gloominess, a day of clouds and thick darkness,²

Zep 1:16 a day of shophar and shouting against the fortified cities and against the high towers.

Zep 1:17 "I will bring distress upon men, and they will walk like blind men, because they have sinned against Jehovah; their blood will be poured out like dust, and their flesh like refuse."

Zep 1:18 Neither their silver nor their gold will be able to deliver them in the day of Jehovah's wrath; but the whole land will be devoured by the fire of His jealousy, for He will make speedy riddance of all those who dwell in the land.

Zep 2:1 Gather yourselves together, yes, gather together, O undesirable nation, Zep 2:2 before the decree is issued, before the day passes like chaff, before Jehovah's fierce anger comes upon you, before the day of Jehovah's anger comes upon you!

Zep 2:3 Seek Jehovah, all you gentle of the earth, who have upheld His justice. Seek righteousness, seek humility. Perhaps you will be hidden in the day of Jehovah's anger.

Zep 2:4 For Gaza will be forsaken, and Ashkelon desolate; they will drive out Ashdod at noonday, and Ekron will be uprooted.

Zep 2:5 Woe to the inhabitants of the seacoast, the nation of the Cherethites! The word of Jehovah is against you, O Canaan, land of the Philistines: "I will destroy you; so there will be no inhabitant."

Zep 2:6 The seacoast will be pastures, with shelters for shepherds and folds for flocks.

Zep 2:7 The coast will be for the remnant of the house of Judah; they will feed their flocks there; in the houses of Ashkelon they will lie down at evening. For Jehovah their God will intervene for them, and return their captives.

Zep 2:8 "I have heard the reproach of Moab, and the revilings of the people of Ammon, with which they have reproached My people, and made arrogant threats against their borders.

Zep 2:9 Therefore, as I live," says Jehovah of Hosts, the God of Israel, "Surely Moab will be like Sodom, and the people of Ammon like Gomorrah; overrun with weeds and saltpits, and a perpetual desolation; the residue of My people will plunder them, and the remnant of My people will possess them."

Zep 2:10 This they will have for their pride, because they have reproached and made arrogant threats against the people of Jehovah of Hosts.

Zep 2:11 Jehovah will be awesome to them, for He will reduce to nothing all the gods of the earth. People will worship Him, each one from his place, indeed all the shores of the nations.

Zep 2:12 "You Cushites also, you will be slain by My sword."

Zep 2:13 And He will stretch out His hand against the north, destroy Assyria, and make Nineveh a desolation, as dry as the wilderness.

Zep 2:14 The herds will lie down in her midst, every animal of the nation. Both the pelican and the bittern will lodge on the capitals of her pillars; their voice will sing in the windows; desolation will be at the threshold; for He will lay bare the cedar work.

Zep 2:15 This is the rejoicing city that dwelt securely, that said in her heart, "I am it, and there is none besides me." How has she become a horror; a place for animals to lie down! Everyone who passes by her will hiss and shake his fist.

Zep 3:1 Woe to her who is rebellious and desecrated, to the oppressing city!

Zep 3:2 She has not obeyed His voice, she has not received correction; she has not trusted in Jehovah, she has not drawn near to her God.

Zep 3:3 Her princes in her midst are roaring lions; her judges are evening wolves that leave not a bone until morning.

Zep 3:4 Her prophets are reckless, treacherous people; her priests have defiled the sanctuary, they have done violence to the Instructions.¹

Zep 3:5 Jehovah is righteous, he is in her midst, he will do no unrighteousness. Every morning He brings His judgements to light. He never fails, but the unjust knows no shame.

Zep 3:6 "I have cut off nations, their fortresses are devastated; I have made their streets desolate, with none passing by. Their cities are destroyed; there is no one, no inhabitant.

Zep 3:7 I said, 'Surely you will fear Me, you will receive correction'; so that her dwelling would not be cut off, despite everything for which I punished her. But they rose early and corrupted all their deeds.

Zep 3:8 "Therefore wait for Me," says Jehovah, "Until the day I rise up for plunder; My judgement is to gather the nations to My assembly of kingdoms, to pour on them My indignation. All my fierce anger; all the earth will be devoured with the fire of My jealousy.

Zep 3:9 "For then I will restore to the peoples a pure language, that they all may call on the name of Jehovah, to serve Him with one accord.¹

Zep 3:10 From beyond the rivers of Cush my worshippers, the daughter of My dispersed ones, will bring My offering.

Zep 3:11 In that day you will not be shamed for any of your deeds in which you transgress against Me; for then I will take away from your midst those who rejoice in your pride, and you will no longer be haughty in My sanctified mountain.

Zep 3:12 I will leave in your midst a gentle and humble people, and they will trust in the Name of Jehovah.

Zep 3:13 The remnant of Israel will do no unrighteousness and speak no lies, nor will a deceitful tongue be found in their mouth; for they will feed their flocks and lie down, and no one will make them afraid."

Zep 3:14 Sing, O daughter of Zion! Shout, O Israel! Be glad and rejoice with all your heart, O daughter of Jerusalem!

Zep 3:15 Jehovah has taken away your judgements, he has cast out your enemy. Jehovah, the King of Israel, is in your midst; you will see evil no more.

Zep 3:16 In that day it will be said to Jerusalem: "Do not fear; Zion, do not let your hands be weak.

Zep 3:17 Jehovah your God in your midst, the Mighty One, will save; He will rejoice over you with gladness, He will quiet you in His love, He will rejoice over you with singing."²

Zep 3:18 "I will gather those who sorrow over the appointed assembly, who are among you, to whom its reproach is a burden.

Zep 3:19 Behold, at that time I will deal with all who afflict you; I will save the lame, and gather those who were driven out; I will appoint them for praise and fame in every land where they were put to shame.

Zep 3:20 At that time I will bring you back, even at the time I gather you; for I will give you fame and praise among all the peoples of the earth, when I return your captives before your eyes," says Jehovah.

Haggai

Hag 1:1 In the second year of King Darius, in the sixth new moon, on the first day of the new moon, Jehovah's word came by Haggai the prophet to Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Jehoshua the son of Jehozadak, the chief priest, saying,

Hag 1:2 "Thus speaks Jehovah of Hosts, saying: 'This people says, "The time has not come, the time that Jehovah's House should be built."'"

Hag 1:3 Then Jehovah's word came by Haggai the prophet, saying,

Hag 1:4 "Is it time for you yourselves to dwell in your panelled houses, and this house to lie in ruins?"

Hag 1:5 Now therefore, thus says Jehovah of Hosts: "Consider your ways!

Hag 1:6 "You have sown much, and bring in little; you eat, but do not have enough; you drink, but you are not filled with drink; you clothe yourselves, but no one is warm; and he who earns wages, earns wages to put into a bag with holes."

Hag 1:7 Thus says Jehovah of Hosts: "Consider your soul's ways!

Hag 1:8 "Go up to the mountains and bring wood and build the house, that I may take pleasure in it and be glorified," says Jehovah.

Hag 1:9 "You looked for much, but indeed it came to little; and when you brought it home, I blew it away. Why?" says Jehovah of Hosts. "Because of My house that is in ruins, while every one of you runs to his own house.

Hag 1:10 "Therefore the heavens above you withhold the dew, and the earth withholds its fruit.

Hag 1:11 "For I called for a drought on the land and the mountains, on the grain and the new wine and the oil, on whatever the ground brings forth, on men and livestock, and on all the labour of your hands."

Hag 1:12 Then Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jehoshua the son of Jehozadak, the chief priest, with all the remnant of the people, obeyed the voice of Jehovah their God, and the words of Haggai the prophet, as Jehovah their God had sent him; and the people feared the presence of Jehovah.

Hag 1:13 Then Haggai, Jehovah's envoy, spoke Jehovah's message to the people, saying, "I am with you, says Jehovah."

Hag 1:14 So Jehovah stirred up the spirit of Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and the spirit of Jehoshua the son of Jehozadak, the chief priest, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people; and they came and worked on the House of Jehovah of Hosts, their God, Hag 1:15 on the twenty-fourth day of the sixth new moon, in the second year of King Darius.

Hag 2:1 On the twenty-first day of the seventh new moon, Jehovah's word came by Haggai the prophet, saying:

Hag 2:2 "Speak now to Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Jehoshua the son of Jehozadak, the chief priest, and to the remnant of the people, saying:

Hag 2:3 'Who is left among you who saw this house in its former glory? And how do you see it now? In comparison with it, is this not in your eyes as nothing?

Hag 2:4 'Yet be strong now, Zerubbabel,' says Jehovah; 'and be strong, Jehoshua, son of Jehozadak, the chief priest; and be strong, all you people of the land,' says Jehovah, 'and work; for I am with you,' says Jehovah of Hosts.

Hag 2:5 'According to the word that I covenanted with you when you came out of Egypt, so My Spirit remains among you. Do not fear!'

Hag 2:6 "For thus says Jehovah of Hosts: "Once more (it is a little while) I will shake heaven and earth, the sea and dry land;

Hag 2:7 ‘and I will shake all nations, and they will come to the Desire of All Nations, and I will fill this house with glory,’ says Jehovah of Hosts.¹

Hag 2:8 ‘The silver is Mine, and the gold is Mine,’ says Jehovah of Hosts.

Hag 2:9 ‘The glory of this latter house will be greater than the former,’ says Jehovah of Hosts. ‘And in this place I will give peace,’ says Jehovah of Hosts.”

Hag 2:10 On the twenty-fourth day of the ninth new moon, in the second year of Darius, Jehovah’s word came by Haggai the prophet, saying,

Hag 2:11 “Thus says Jehovah of Hosts: ‘Now, ask the priests concerning the Instructions, saying, Hag 2:12 “If one carries sanctified meat in the extremity of his garment, and with the extremity he touches bread or stew, wine or oil, or any food, will it become holy?”” Then the priests answered and said, “No.”

Hag 2:13 And Haggai said, “If one who is unclean because of a dead soul touches any of these, will it be unclean?” So the priests answered and said, “It will be unclean.”

Hag 2:14 Then Haggai answered and said, ““So is this people, and so is this nation before Me,’ says Jehovah, ‘and so is every work of their hands; and what they offer there is unclean.

Hag 2:15 ‘And now, carefully consider from this day forward: from before stone was laid upon stone in the Palace of Jehovah;

Hag 2:16 ‘since those days, when one came to a heap of twenty ephahs, there were but ten; when one came to the wine vat to draw out fifty baths from the press, there were but twenty.

Hag 2:17 ‘I struck you with blight and mildew and hail in all the labours of your hands; yet you did not turn to Me,’ says Jehovah.

Hag 2:18 ‘Consider now from this day forward, from the twenty-fourth day of the ninth new moon, from the day that the foundation of Jehovah’s Palace was laid; consider it:

Hag 2:19 ‘Is the seed still in the barn? As yet the vine, the fig tree, the pomegranate, and the olive tree have not yielded fruit. But from this day forward I will bless you.””

Hag 2:20 And a second time Jehovah’s word came to Haggai on the twenty-fourth day of the new moon, saying, Hag 2:21 “Speak to Zerubbabel, governor of Judah, saying: ‘I will shake heaven and earth.

Hag 2:22 I will overthrow the throne of kingdoms; I will destroy the strength of the gentile kingdoms. I will overthrow the chariots and those who ride in them; the horses and their riders will come down, every one by the sword of his brother.

Hag 2:23 ‘In that day,’ says Jehovah of Hosts, ‘I will take you, Zerubbabel My servant, the son of Shealtiel,’ says Jehovah, ‘and will make you as a signet ring; for I have chosen you,’ says Jehovah of Hosts.”

Zechariah

Zec 1:1 In the eighth new moon of the second year of Darius, Jehovah's word came to Zechariah the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo the prophet, saying, Zec 1:2 "Jehovah has been very angry with your fathers.

Zec 1:3 "Therefore say to them, 'Thus says Jehovah of Hosts: "Return to Me," says Jehovah of Hosts, "and I will return to you," says Jehovah of Hosts.

Zec 1:4 "Do not be like your fathers, to whom the former prophets preached, saying, 'Thus says Jehovah of Hosts: "Turn now from your evil ways and your evil deeds."' But they did not hear nor heed Me," says Jehovah.

Zec 1:5 "Your fathers, where are they? And the prophets, do they live forever?

Zec 1:6 Yet surely My words and My statutes, which I commanded My servants the prophets, did they not overtake your fathers? So they returned and said: 'Just as Jehovah of Hosts determined to do to us, according to our ways and according to our deeds, so He has dealt with us.'"

Zec 1:7 On the twenty-fourth day of the eleventh new moon, which is the new moon Shebat, in the second year of Darius, Jehovah's word came to Zechariah the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo the prophet:

Zec 1:8 I saw by night, and behold, a man riding on a red horse, and it stood among the myrtle trees in the hollow; and behind him were horses: red, sorrel, and white.

Zec 1:9 Then I said, "My Lord, what are these?" So the envoy who talked with me said to me, "I will show you what they are."

Zec 1:10 And the man who stood among the myrtle trees answered and said, "These are the ones whom Jehovah has sent to walk to and fro throughout the earth."

Zec 1:11 So they answered Jehovah's Envoy, who stood among the myrtle trees, and said, "We have walked to and fro throughout the earth, and behold, all the earth is resting quietly."

Zec 1:12 Then Jehovah's Envoy answered and said, "O Jehovah of Hosts, how long will You not have mercy on Jerusalem and on the cities of Judah, against which You were angry these seventy years?"

Zec 1:13 And Jehovah answered the envoy who talked to me, with good and comforting words.

Zec 1:14 So the envoy who spoke with me said to me, "Proclaim, saying, 'Thus says Jehovah of Hosts: "I am zealous for Jerusalem and for Zion with great zeal.

Zec 1:15 I am exceedingly angry with the nations at ease; for I was a little angry, and they helped; but with evil intent."

Zec 1:16 "Therefore thus says Jehovah: "I am returning to Jerusalem with mercy; my house will be built in it," says Jehovah of Hosts, "and a surveyor's line will be stretched out over Jerusalem."

Zec 1:17 "Again proclaim, saying, 'Thus says Jehovah of Hosts: "My cities will again spread out through prosperity; Jehovah will again comfort Zion, and will again choose Jerusalem.'"

Zec 1:18 Then I raised my eyes and looked, and there were four horns.

Zec 1:19 And I said to the envoy who talked with me, "What are these?" So he answered me, "These are the horns that have scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem."

Zec 1:20 Then Jehovah showed me four craftsmen.

Zec 1:21 And I said, "What are these coming to do?" So he said, "These are the horns that scattered Judah, so no one could lift up his mouth and head; but these men are coming to terrify them, to cast out the horns of the nations that lifted up their horn against the land of Judah to scatter it."

Zec 2:1 Then I raised my eyes and looked, and behold, a man with a measuring line in his hand.

Zec 2:2 So I said, "Where are you going?" And he said to me, "To measure Jerusalem, to see what is its width and what is its length."

Zec 2:3 And there was the envoy who talked with me, going out; and another envoy was coming out to meet him,

Zec 2:4 who said to him, "Run, speak to this young man, saying: 'Jerusalem will be inhabited as towns without walls, because of the multitude of men and livestock in it. Zec 2:5 'For I,' says Jehovah, 'will be a wall of fire all around her, and I will be the glory in her midst.'"

Zec 2:6 "Up, up! Flee from the land of the north," says Jehovah; "for I have spread you abroad like the four winds of heaven," says Jehovah.

Zec 2:7 "Up, Zion! Escape, you who dwell with the daughter of Babylon."

Zec 2:8 For thus says Jehovah of Hosts: "He sent Me after glory, to the nations which plunder you; for he who touches you touches the apple of His eye.

Zec 2:9 "For surely I will shake My hand against them, and they will become spoil for their servants. Then you will know that Jehovah of Hosts has sent Me.

Zec 2:10 "Sing and rejoice, O daughter of Zion! For behold, I am coming and I will dwell in your midst," says Jehovah.

Zec 2:11 "Many nations will be joined to Jehovah in that day, and they will become My people.¹ And I will dwell in your midst. Then you will know that Jehovah of Hosts has sent Me to you.

Zec 2:12 "And Jehovah will take possession of Judah as His inheritance in the Sanctified Land, and will again choose Jerusalem.

Zec 2:13 "Be silent, all flesh, before Jehovah, for He is aroused from His sanctified habitation!"

Zec 3:1 Then he showed me Jehoshua the chief priest standing before Jehovah's Envoy, and Satan standing at his right hand to oppose him.

Zec 3:2 And Jehovah said to Satan, "Jehovah rebuke you, Satan! Jehovah who has chosen Jerusalem rebuke you! Is this not a brand plucked from the fire?"²

Zec 3:3 Now Jehoshua was clothed with filthy garments, and was standing before the Envoy.

Zec 3:4 Then He answered and spoke to those who stood before Him, saying, "Take away the filthy garments from him." And to him He said, "See, I have removed your iniquity from you, and I will clothe you with rich robes."

Zec 3:5 And I said, "Let them put a clean turban on his head." So they put a clean turban on his head, and they put the clothes on him. And Jehovah's Envoy stood by.

Zec 3:6 Then Jehovah's Envoy admonished Jehoshua, saying,

Zec 3:7 "Thus says Jehovah of Hosts: 'If you will walk in My ways, and if you will keep My command, then you will also judge My house, and likewise have charge of My courts; I will give you places to walk among these who stand here.

Zec 3:8 'Hear, O Jehoshua, the chief priest, you and your companions who sit before you, for they are a wondrous sign; for behold, I am bringing forth My Servant Tsemach.³

Zec 3:9 For behold, the stone that I have laid before Jehoshua: upon the stone are seven eyes. Behold, I will engrave its inscription,' says Jehovah of Hosts, 'And I will remove the iniquity of that land in one day.

Zec 3:10 In that day,' says Jehovah of Hosts, 'Everyone will invite his neighbour under his vine and under his fig tree.'"

Zec 4:1 Now the envoy who talked with me came back and wakened me, as a man who is wakened out of his sleep.

Zec 4:2 And he said to me, "What do you see?" So I said, "I am looking, and there is a menorah of solid gold with a bowl on top of it, and on the stand seven lamps with seven pipes to the seven lamps.

Zec 4:3 "Two olive trees are by it, one at the right of the bowl and the other at its left."

Zec 4:4 So I answered and spoke to the envoy who talked with me, saying, "What are these, my lord?"

Zec 4:5 Then the envoy who talked with me answered and said to me, "Do you not know what these are?" And I said, "No, my lord."

Zec 4:6 So he answered and said to me: "This is Jehovah's word to Zerubbabel: 'Not by might nor by power, but by My Spirit.' says Jehovah of Hosts.

Zec 4:7 'Who are you, O great mountain? Before Zerubbabel you will become a plain! And he will bring forth the capstone with shouts of "Grace, grace to it!"'"

Zec 4:8 Moreover Jehovah's word came to me, saying:

Zec 4:9 "The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundation of this house; his hands will also finish it. Then you will know that Jehovah of Hosts has sent Me to you.

Zec 4:10 For who has despised the day of small things? For these seven rejoice to see the plumb line in the hand of Zerubbabel. They are the eyes of Jehovah, which scan to and fro throughout the whole earth."

Zec 4:11 Then I answered and said to him, "What are these two olive trees, one at the right of the menorah and the other at its left?"

Zec 4:12 And I answered a second time and said to him, "What are these two olive branches that drip into the receptacles of the two gold pipes from which the golden oil drains?"

Zec 4:13 Then he answered me and said, "Do you not know what these are?" And I said, "No, my lord."

Zec 4:14 So he said, "These are the two anointed ones, who stand beside the Lord of the whole earth."

Zec 5:1 Then I turned and raised my eyes, and saw there a flying scroll.

Zec 5:2 And he said to me, "What do you see?" So I answered, "I see a flying scroll. Its length is twenty cubits and its width ten cubits."

Zec 5:3 Then he said to me, "This is the curse that goes out over the face of the whole earth: 'Every thief will be expelled,' according to what is on this side of the scroll; and, 'Every perjurer will be expelled,' according to what is on that side of it."

Zec 5:4 "I will send out the curse," says Jehovah of Hosts; "It will enter the house of the thief and the house of the one who swears falsely by My Name. It will remain in the midst of his house and consume it, with its timber and stones."

Zec 5:5 Then the envoy who talked with me came out and said to me, "Lift your eyes now, and see what this is that goes forth."

Zec 5:6 So I asked, "What is it?" And he said, "It is a basket that is going forth." He also said, "This is their resemblance throughout the earth:

Zec 5:7 "Here is a lead disc lifted up, and this is a woman sitting inside the basket";

Zec 5:8 then he said, "This is Wickedness!" And he thrust her down into the basket, and threw the lead cover over its mouth.

Zec 5:9 Then I raised my eyes and looked, and there were two women, coming with the wind in their wings; for they had wings like the wings of a stork, and they lifted up the basket between earth and heaven.

Zec 5:10 So I said to the envoy who talked with me, “Where are they carrying the basket?”

Zec 5:11 And he said to me, “To build a house for it in the land of Shinar; when it is ready, the basket will be set there on its base.”

Zec 6:1 Then I turned and raised my eyes and looked, and behold, four chariots were coming from between two mountains, and the mountains were mountains of bronze.

Zec 6:2 With the first chariot were red horses, with the second chariot black horses, Zec 6:3 with the third chariot white horses, and with the fourth chariot dappled horses; strong steeds.

Zec 6:4 Then I answered and said to the envoy who talked with me, “What are these, my lord?”

Zec 6:5 And the envoy answered and said to me, “These are four spirits of heaven, who go out from their station before the Lord of all the earth.

Zec 6:6 “The one with the black horses is going to the north country, the white are going after them, and the dappled are going toward the south country.”

Zec 6:7 Then the strong steeds went out, eager to go, that they might walk to and fro throughout the earth. And He said, “Go, walk to and fro throughout the earth.” So they walked to and fro throughout the earth.¹

Zec 6:8 And He called to me, and spoke to me, saying, “See, those who go toward the north country have given rest to My Spirit in the north country.”

Zec 6:9 Then Jehovah’s word came to me, saying:

Zec 6:10 “Receive the gift from the captives; from Heldai, Tobijah, and Jedaiah, who have come from Babylon; and go the same day and enter the house of Josiah the son of Zephaniah.

Zec 6:11 “Take the silver and gold, make an elaborate crown, and set it on the head of Jehoshua the son of Jehozadak, the chief priest.

Zec 6:12 “Then speak to him, saying, ‘Thus says Jehovah of Hosts, saying: “Behold, the Man whose name is Tsemach!² From His place He will branch out, and He will build the Palace of Jehovah;

Zec 6:13 yes, He will build the Palace of Jehovah.³ He will bear the glory, and will sit and rule on His throne; so He will be a priest on His throne, and the counsel of peace will be between them both.”’⁴ Zec 6:14 “Now the elaborate crown will be for a memorial in the Palace of Jehovah for Helem, Tobijah, Jedaiah, and Hen the son of Zephaniah.

Zec 6:15 “Even those who are far away will come and build the Palace of Jehovah. Then you will know that Jehovah of Hosts has sent Me to you. And this will come to pass if you diligently obey the voice of Jehovah your God.”

Zec 7:1 Now in the fourth year of King Darius it came to pass that Jehovah’s word came to Zechariah, on the fourth day of the ninth new moon, which is Chislev,

Zec 7:2 when the people sent Sherezzer, with Regem-Melech and his men, to the House of God, to pray before Jehovah,

Zec 7:3 and to ask the priests who were in the House of Jehovah of Hosts, and the prophets, saying, “Should I weep in the fifth new moon and fast as I have done for so many years?”

Zec 7:4 Then Jehovah’s word of Hosts came to me, saying,

Zec 7:5 “Say to all the people of the land, and to the priests: ‘When you fasted and mourned in the fifth and seventh new moons during those seventy years, did you really fast for Me; for Me?

Zec 7:6 ‘When you eat and when you drink, do you not eat and drink for yourselves?’

Zec 7:7 ‘Should you not have obeyed the words which Jehovah proclaimed through the former prophets when Jerusalem and the cities around it were inhabited and prosperous, and the South and the Lowland were inhabited?’”

Zec 7:8 Then Jehovah’s word came to Zechariah, saying,

Zec 7:9 “Thus says Jehovah of Hosts: ‘Judge true judgement, everyone show mercy and compassion to his brother.

Zec 7:10 Do not oppress the widow or the fatherless, the immigrant or the poor. Let none of you plan evil in his heart against his brother.’

Zec 7:11 “But they refused to heed, shrugged their shoulders, and stopped their ears so that they could not hear.

Zec 7:12 “Yes, they made their hearts like flint, refusing to hear the Instructions and the words which Jehovah of Hosts had sent by His Spirit through the former prophets. Thus great wrath came from Jehovah of Hosts.

Zec 7:13 “Therefore it happened, that just as He proclaimed and they would not hear, so they called out and I would not listen,” says Jehovah of Hosts.

Zec 7:14 “But I scattered them with a whirlwind among all the nations which they had not known. Thus the land became desolate after them, so that no one passed through or returned; for they made the pleasant land a horror.”

Zec 8:1 Again Jehovah’s word of Hosts came, saying,

Zec 8:2 “Thus says Jehovah of Hosts: ‘I am zealous for Zion with great zeal; with great fervour I am zealous for her.’

Zec 8:3 “Thus says Jehovah: ‘I will return to Zion, and dwell in the midst of Jerusalem. Jerusalem will be called the City of Truth, the Mountain of Jehovah of Hosts, the Sanctified Mountain.’”¹

Zec 8:4 “Thus says Jehovah of Hosts: ‘Old men and old women will again sit in the streets of Jerusalem, each one with his walking stick in his hand because of his multitude of days.

Zec 8:5 ‘The streets of the city will be full of boys and girls playing in its streets.’

Zec 8:6 “Thus says Jehovah of Hosts: ‘If it is marvellous in the eyes of the remnant of this people in these days, will it also be marvellous in My eyes?’” says Jehovah of Hosts.

Zec 8:7 “Thus says Jehovah of Hosts: ‘Behold, I will save My people from the land of the sunrise and from the land of the west;

Zec 8:8 I will bring them back, and they will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem. They will be My people and I will be their God, in truth and righteousness.’”²

Zec 8:9 “Thus says Jehovah of Hosts: ‘Let your hands be strong, you who have been hearing in these days these words by the mouth of the prophets, who were in the day that the foundation was laid for the House of Jehovah of Hosts, that the Palace might be built.

Zec 8:10 For before these days there were no wages for man nor any hire for beast; there was no peace from the enemy for whoever went out or came in; for I set all men, everyone, against his neighbour.

Zec 8:11 ‘But now I will not treat the remnant of this people as in the former days,’ says Jehovah of Hosts.

Zec 8:12 ‘For the seed will be prosperous, the vine will give its fruit, the ground will give her increase, and the heavens will give their dew. I will cause the remnant of this people to possess all these things.

Zec 8:13 And it will come to pass that just as you were a curse among the nations, O house of Judah and house of Israel, so I will save you, and you will be a blessing. Do not fear, let your hands be strong.’

Zec 8:14 “For thus says Jehovah of Hosts: ‘Just as I determined to punish you when your fathers provoked Me to wrath,’ says Jehovah of Hosts, ‘And I would not relent, Zec 8:15 so again in these days I am determined to do good to Jerusalem and to the house of Judah. Do not fear.

Zec 8:16 These are the things you will do: speak each man the truth to his neighbour;¹ give judgement in your gates for truth, justice, and peace;

Zec 8:17 let none of you think evil in your heart against your neighbour; and do not love a false oath. For all these are things that I hate,’ says Jehovah.”

Zec 8:18 Then the word of Jehovah of Hosts came to me, saying,

Zec 8:19 “Thus says Jehovah of Hosts: ‘The fast of the fourth month, the fast of the fifth, the fast of the seventh, and the fast of the tenth, will be joy and gladness and cheerful feasts for the house of Judah. Therefore love truth and peace.’

Zec 8:20 “Thus says Jehovah of Hosts: ‘Peoples will yet come, inhabitants of many cities;

Zec 8:21 the inhabitants of one city will go to another, saying, “Let us continue to go and pray before Jehovah, and seek Jehovah of Hosts. I myself will go also.”

Zec 8:22 Yes, many peoples and strong nations will come to seek Jehovah of Hosts in Jerusalem, and to pray before Jehovah.’

Zec 8:23 “Thus says Jehovah of Hosts: ‘In those days ten men from every language of the nations will grasp the extremities of a Judean man, saying, “Let us go with you, for we have heard that God is with you.””’

Zec 9:1 The burden of Jehovah’s word against the land of Hadrach, and Damascus its resting place (for the eyes of men and all the branches of Israel are on Jehovah);

Zec 9:2 also against Hamath, which borders on it, and against Tyre and Sidon, though they are very wise.

Zec 9:3 for Tyre built herself a tower, heaped up silver like the dust, and the mire of the streets sparkled.

Zec 9:4 Behold, Jehovah will cast her out; He will destroy her power in the sea, and she will be devoured by fire.

Zec 9:5 Ashkelon will see it and fear; Gaza also will be very sorrowful; and Ekron, for He dried up her expectation. The king will perish from Gaza, and Ashkelon will not be inhabited.

Zec 9:6 “A mixed race will settle in Ashdod, and I will cut off the pride of the Philistines.

Zec 9:7 I will take away the blood from his mouth, and the abominations from between his teeth. But he who remains, even he will be for our God, and will be like a leader in Judah, and Ekron like a Jebusite.

Zec 9:8 I will camp around My house because of the army, because of him who passes by and him who returns. No more will an oppressor pass through them, for now I have seen with My eyes.

Zec 9:9 “Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout, O daughter of Jerusalem! Behold, your King is coming to you; He is just and having salvation, lowly and riding on a donkey, a colt, the foal of a donkey.²

Zec 9:10 I will cut off the chariot from Ephraim and the horse from Jerusalem; the battle bow will be cut off. He will speak peace to the nations; His dominion will be from sea to sea, and from the River to the ends of the earth.

Zec 9:11 “As for you also, because of the blood of your covenant, I will set your prisoners free from the waterless pit.

Zec 9:12 Return to the stronghold, you prisoners of hope. Even today I declare that I will restore double to you.

Zec 9:13 For I have bent Judah, My bow, fitted the bow with Ephraim, and raised up your sons, O Zion, against your sons, O Greece, and made you like the sword of a mighty man.”

Zec 9:14 Then Jehovah will be seen over them, and His arrow will go forth like lightning. Lord Jehovah will blow the shophar, and go with whirlwinds from the south.

Zec 9:15 Jehovah of Hosts will defend them; they will devour and subdue with sling stones. They will drink and roar as if with wine; they will be filled with blood like basins, like the corners of the altar.

Zec 9:16 Jehovah their God will save them in that day, as the flock of His people. For they will be like the jewels of a crown, lifted like a banner over His land;

Zec 9:17 for how great is their goodness and how great is their beauty! Grain will make the young men thrive, and new wine the virgins.

Zec 10:1 Ask Jehovah for rain in the time of the spring rain. Jehovah will make flashing clouds; he will give them showers of heavy rain, grass in the field for everyone.

Zec 10:2 For the idols speak delusion; the diviners envision lies, and tell false dreams; they comfort in vain. Therefore the people wend their way like sheep; they are in trouble because there is no shepherd.

Zec 10:3 “My anger is kindled against the shepherds, and I will punish the goatherds. For Jehovah of Hosts will visit His flock, the house of Judah, and will make them as His royal horse in the battle.

Zec 10:4 From him comes the cornerstone, from him the tent peg, from him the battle bow, from him every ruler together.

Zec 10:5 They will be like mighty men, who tread down their enemies in the mire of the streets in the battle. They will fight because Jehovah is with them, and the riders on horses will be put to shame.

Zec 10:6 “I will strengthen the house of Judah, and I will save the house of Joseph. I will bring them back, because I have mercy on them. They will be as though I had not cast them aside; for I am Jehovah their God, and I will hear them.

Zec 10:7 Those of Ephraim will be like a mighty man, and their heart will rejoice as if with wine. Yes, their children will see it and be glad; their heart will rejoice in Jehovah.

Zec 10:8 I will whistle for them and gather them, for I will redeem them; and they will increase as they once increased.

Zec 10:9 “I will sow them among the peoples, and they will remember Me in far countries; they will live, together with their children, and they will return.

Zec 10:10 I will also bring them back from the land of Egypt, and gather them from Assyria. I will bring them into the land of Gilead and Lebanon, until no more room is found for them.

Zec 10:11 He will pass through the sea with trouble, and strike the waves of the sea: all the depths of the River will dry up. Then the pride of Assyria will be brought down, and the branch of Egypt will depart.

Zec 10:12 “So I will strengthen them in Jehovah, and they will walk up and down in His Name,” says Jehovah.

Zec 11:1 Open your doors, O Lebanon, that fire may devour your cedars.

Zec 11:2 Wail, O cypress, for the cedar has fallen, because the mighty trees are ruined. Wail, O oaks of Bashan, for the thick forest has come down.

Zec 11:3 There is the sound of wailing shepherds, for their glory is in ruins. There is the sound of roaring lions, for the pride of the Jordan is in ruins.

Zec 11:4 Thus says Jehovah my God, “Feed the flock for slaughter, Zec 11:5 “whose owners slaughter them and feel no guilt; those who sell them say, ‘Blessed be Jehovah, for I am rich’; and their shepherds do not pity them.

Zec 11:6 “For I will no longer pity the inhabitants of the land,” says Jehovah. “But indeed I will give everyone into his neighbour’s hand and into the hand of his king. They will attack the land, and I will not deliver them from their hand.”

Zec 11:7 So I fed the flock for slaughter, in particular the poor of the flock. I took for myself two sticks: the one I called Beauty, and the other I called Bonds; and I fed the flock.

Zec 11:8 I dismissed the three shepherds in one month. My soul loathed them, and their soul also abhorred me.

Zec 11:9 Then I said, “I will not feed you. Let what is dying die, and what is perishing perish. Let those that are left eat each other’s flesh.”

Zec 11:10 And I took my stick, Beauty, and cut it in two, that I might break the covenant which I had made with all the peoples.

Zec 11:11 So it was broken on that day. Thus the poor of the flock, who were watching me, knew that it was Jehovah’s word.

Zec 11:12 Then I said to them, “If it is agreeable to you, give me my wages; and if not, refrain.” So they weighed out thirty pieces of silver for my wages.

Zec 11:13 And Jehovah said to me, “Throw it to the potter”; that princely price they set on me. So I took the thirty pieces of silver and threw them into the House of Jehovah for the potter.¹

Zec 11:14 Then I cut in two my second stick, Bonds, that I might break the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.

Zec 11:15 And Jehovah said to me, “Next, take for yourself the implements of a foolish shepherd.

Zec 11:16 “For indeed I will raise up a shepherd in the land who will not care for those who are cut off, nor seek the young, nor heal those that are broken, nor feed those that still stand. But he will eat the flesh of the fat and tear their hooves in pieces.

Zec 11:17 Woe to the worthless shepherd, who leaves the flock! A sword will be against his arm and against his right eye; his arm will completely wither, and his right eye will be totally blinded.

Zec 12:1 The burden of Jehovah’s word against Israel. Thus says Jehovah, who stretches out the heavens, lays the foundation of the earth, and forms the spirit of man within him:

Zec 12:2 “Behold, I will make Jerusalem a cup of drunkenness to all the surrounding peoples, when they lay siege against Judah and Jerusalem.

Zec 12:3 “And it will happen in that day that I will make Jerusalem a very heavy stone for all peoples; all who would heave it away will surely be cut in pieces, though all nations of the earth are gathered against it.

Zec 12:4 “In that day,” says Jehovah, “I will strike every horse with confusion, and its rider with madness; I will open My eyes on the house of Judah, and will strike every horse of the peoples with blindness.

Zec 12:5 “And the governors of Judah will say in their heart, ‘The inhabitants of Jerusalem are my strength in Jehovah of Hosts, their God.’

Zec 12:6 “In that day I will make the governors of Judah like a firepan in the woodpile, and like a fiery torch in the sheaves; they will devour all the surrounding peoples on the right hand and on the left, but Jerusalem will be inhabited again in her own place; Jerusalem.

Zec 12:7 “Jehovah will save the tents of Judah first, so that the glory of the house of David and the glory of the inhabitants of Jerusalem will not become greater than that of Judah.

Zec 12:8 “In that day Jehovah will defend the inhabitants of Jerusalem; the one who is feeble among them in that day will be like David, and the house of David will be like God, like Jehovah’s Envoy before them.

Zec 12:9 “It will be in that day that I will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem.¹

Zec 12:10 “And I will pour on the house of David and on the inhabitants of Jerusalem the Spirit of grace and supplication; then they will look on Me whom they have pierced; they will mourn for Him as one mourns for a unique son, and grieve for Him as one grieves for a firstborn.²

Zec 12:11 “In that day there will be a great mourning in Jerusalem, like the mourning at Hadad Rimmon in the plain of Megiddo.

Zec 12:12 “And the land will mourn, every family by itself: the family of the house of David by itself, and their wives by themselves; the family of the house of Nathan by itself, and their wives by themselves;

Zec 12:13 “the family of the house of Levi by itself, and their wives by themselves; the family of Shimei by itself, and their wives by themselves;

Zec 12:14 “all the families that remain, every family by itself, and their wives by themselves.

Zec 13:1 “In that day a fountain will be opened for the house of David and for the inhabitants of Jerusalem, for sin and for uncleanness.

Zec 13:2 “It will be in that day,” says Jehovah of Hosts, “that I will cut off the names of the idols from the land, and they will no longer be remembered. I will also cause the prophets and the unclean spirit to depart from the land.

Zec 13:3 “It will come to pass that if anyone still prophesies, then his father and mother who begot him will say to him, ‘You will not live, because you have spoken lies in the name of Jehovah.’ And his father and mother who begot him will thrust him through when he prophesies.

Zec 13:4 “And it will be in that day that every prophet will be ashamed of his vision when he prophesies; they will not wear a robe of coarse hair to deceive.

Zec 13:5 “But he will say, ‘I am no prophet, I am a farmer; for a man taught me to keep cattle from my youth.’

Zec 13:6 “And someone will say to him, ‘What are these wounds in your hands?’ Then he will answer, ‘Those with which I was wounded in the house of my friends.’

Zec 13:7 “Awake, O sword, against My Shepherd, against the Man who is My Companion,” says Jehovah of Hosts. “Strike the Shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered; then I will turn My hand against the little ones.³

Zec 13:8 And it will come to pass in all the land,” says Jehovah, “That two thirds⁴ in it will be cut off and expire, but one third will be left in it:

Zec 13:9 “I will bring the one third through the fire, will refine them as silver is refined, and test them as gold is tested. They will call on My Name, and I will answer them. I will say, ‘This is My people.’; and each one will say, ‘Jehovah is my God.’”⁵

Zec 14:1 Behold, the day of Jehovah is coming, and your spoil will be divided in your midst.

Zec 14:2 For I will gather all the nations to battle against Jerusalem; the city will be taken, the houses robbed, and the women raped. Half of the city will go into captivity, but the remnant of the people will not be cut off from the city.

Zec 14:3 Then Jehovah will go forth and fight against those nations, as He fights in the day of battle.

Zec 14:4 And in that day His feet will stand on the Mount of Olives, which faces Jerusalem towards sunrise. And the Mount of Olives will split in two, from sunrise to the west, making a very large valley; half of the mountain will move toward the north and half of it toward the south.

Zec 14:5 Then you will flee through My mountain valley, for the mountain valley will reach to Azal. Yes, you will flee as you fled from the earthquake in the days of Uzziah king of Judah. Thus Jehovah my God will come, and all the sacred ones with You.

Zec 14:6 It will come to pass in that day that there will be no light; the lights will diminish.

Zec 14:7 It will be one day which is known to Jehovah; neither day nor night. But at evening time it will happen that it will be light.¹

Zec 14:8 And in that day it will be that living waters will flow from Jerusalem, half of them toward the eastern sea and half of them toward the western sea; in both summer and winter it will occur.²

Zec 14:9 And Jehovah will be King over all the earth. In that day it will be; "Jehovah is One," and His Name One.³

Zec 14:10 All the land will be turned into a desert plain from Geba to Rimmon south of Jerusalem. Jerusalem will be raised up and inhabited in her place from Benjamin's Gate to the place of the First Gate and the Corner Gate, and from the Tower of Hananeel to the king's winepresses.⁴

Zec 14:11 The people will dwell in it; and no longer will there be utter destruction, but Jerusalem will be safely inhabited.

Zec 14:12 And this will be the plague with which Jehovah will strike all the people who fought against Jerusalem: Their flesh will dissolve while they stand on their feet, their eyes will dissolve in their sockets, and their tongues will dissolve in their mouths.

Zec 14:13 It will come to pass in that day that a great panic from Jehovah will be among them. Everyone will seize the hand of his neighbour, and raise his hand against his neighbour's hand;⁵

Zec 14:14 Judah also will fight at Jerusalem. And the wealth of all the surrounding nations will be gathered together: gold, silver, and apparel in great abundance.

Zec 14:15 Such also will be the plague on the horse and the mule, on the camel and the donkey, and on all the cattle that will be in those camps. So will this plague be.

Zec 14:16 And it will come to pass that everyone who is left of all the nations which came against Jerusalem will go up from year to year to worship the King, Jehovah of Hosts, and to celebrate the Feast of Booths.⁶

Zec 14:17 And it will be that whichever of the families of the earth do not come up to Jerusalem to worship the King, Jehovah of Hosts, on them there will be no heavy rain.

Zec 14:18 If the family of Egypt will not come up and enter in, they will have no rain; they will receive the plague with which Jehovah strikes the nations who do not come up to celebrate the Feast of Booths.

Zec 14:19 This will be the sin of Egypt and the sin of all the nations that do not Zec 14:20 In that day “Sanctified to Jehovah” will be engraved on the bells of the horses. The pots in Jehovah’s House will be like the bowls before the altar.

Zec 14:21 Yes, every pot in Jerusalem and Judah will be sanctified to Jehovah of Hosts. Everyone who sacrifices will come and take them and cook in them. In that day there will no longer be a Canaanite in the House of Jehovah of Hosts.

Malachi

Mal 1:1 The burden of Jehovah's word to Israel by Malachi.

Mal 1:2 "I have loved you," says Jehovah. "Yet you say, 'In what way have You loved us?' "Was not Esau Jacob's brother?" says Jehovah. "Yet Jacob I have loved;

Mal 1:3 but Esau I have hated, and laid waste his mountains and his heritage for the jackals of the wilderness."¹ Mal 1:4 Even though Edom has said, "We have been impoverished, but we will return and build the ruins," thus says Jehovah of Hosts: "They may build, but I will throw down; they will be called the Territory of Wickedness, and 'the people against whom Jehovah will have indignation forever'.

Mal 1:5 Your eyes will see, and you will say, 'Jehovah is magnified beyond the border of Israel.'

Mal 1:6 "A son honours his father, and a servant his lord. If then I am the Father, where is My honour? And if I am Lord, where is My reverence? says Jehovah of Hosts to you priests who despise My Name. Yet you say, 'In what way have we despised Your Name?'

Mal 1:7 "You offer desecrated food on My altar. But you say, 'In what way have we desecrated You?' By saying, 'The table of Jehovah is contemptible.'

Mal 1:8 And when you offer the blind as a sacrifice, is it not evil? And when you offer the lame and sick, is it not evil? Offer it then to your governor! Would he be pleased with you? Would he accept you favourably?" says Jehovah of Hosts.

Mal 1:9 "But now entreat God's favour, that He may be gracious to us. While this is being done by your hands, will He accept you favourably?" says Jehovah of Hosts.

Mal 1:10 "Who is there even among you who would shut the doors, so that you would not kindle fire on My altar worthlessly? I have no pleasure in you," says Jehovah of Hosts, "Nor will I accept an offering from your hands."²

Mal 1:11 For from the rising of the sun, even to its setting,³ my name will be great among the gentiles. In every place they will draw near to burn to My Name with a pure offering; for My Name will be great among the nations," says Jehovah of Hosts.

Mal 1:12 "But you defile it, in that you say, 'The table of Jehovah is desecrated; and its fruit, its food, is contemptible.'

Mal 1:13 You also say, 'Oh, what a weariness!' and you sneer at it," says Jehovah of Hosts. "And you bring the stolen, the lame, and the sick; thus you bring an offering! Should I accept this from your hand?" says Jehovah.

Mal 1:14 "But cursed be the deceiver who has in his flock a male, and makes a vow, but sacrifices to Jehovah what is blemished; for I am a great King," says Jehovah of Hosts, "And My Name is to be feared among the nations.

Mal 2:1 "And now, O priests, this commandment is for you.

Mal 2:2 If you will not hear, and if you will not take it to heart, to give glory to My Name," says Jehovah of Hosts, "I will send a curse upon you, and I will curse your blessings. Yes, I have cursed them already, because you do not take it to heart.

Mal 2:3 "Behold, I will rebuke your descendants and spread refuse on your faces, the refuse of your solemn feasts; and one will take you away with it.

Mal 2:4 Then you will know that I have sent this commandment to you, that My covenant with Levi may continue." says

² Heb 10:37-38

Jehovah of Hosts.

Mal 2:5 “My covenant was with him, one of life and peace, and I gave them to him that he might fear Me; so he feared Me and was reverent before My Name.

Mal 2:6 “The Instructions of Truth were in his mouth, and injustice was not found on his lips. He walked with Me in peace and equity, and turned many away from iniquity.

Mal 2:7 “For the lips of a priest should keep knowledge, and people should seek the Instruction from his mouth; for he is the envoy of Jehovah of Hosts.

Mal 2:8 “But you have departed from the way; you have caused many to stumble at the Instructions. You have corrupted the covenant of Levi,” says Jehovah of Hosts.

Mal 2:9 “Therefore I also have made you contemptible and lowly before all the people, because you have not kept My ways, but have turned your faces from the Instructions.”

Mal 2:10 Have we not all one Father? Has not one God created us? Why do we deal treacherously with one another by defiling the covenant of the fathers?

Mal 2:11 Judah has dealt treacherously, and an abomination has been committed in Israel and in Jerusalem, for Judah has defiled Jehovah’s sanctuary which He loves: he has married the daughter of a foreign god.

Mal 2:12 May Jehovah cut off from the tents of Jacob the man who does this, being awake and aware, and who brings an offering to Jehovah of Hosts.

Mal 2:13 And this is the second thing you do: you cover the altar of Jehovah with tears, with weeping and crying; so He does not regard the offering anymore, nor receive it with good will from your hands.

Mal 2:14 Yet you say, “For what reason?” because Jehovah has been witness between you and the wife of your youth, with whom you have dealt treacherously; yet she is your companion and your wife by covenant.

Mal 2:15 But did He not make them one, having a remnant of the Spirit? And why one? He seeks godly offspring. Therefore take heed to your spirit, and let none deal treacherously with the wife of his youth.

Mal 2:16 “For Jehovah God of Israel says that He hates divorce, for it covers one’s garment with violence,” says Jehovah of Hosts. “Therefore take heed to your spirit, that you do not deal treacherously.”

Mal 2:17 You have wearied Jehovah with your words; yet you say, “In what way have we wearied Him?” In that you say, “Everyone who does evil is good in the sight of Jehovah, and He delights in them,” or, “Where is the God of justice?”

Mal 3:1 “Behold, I send My envoy, and he will prepare the way before Me.¹ And the Lord, whom you seek, will suddenly come to His Palace, even the Envoy of the covenant, in whom you delight. Behold, He is coming,” says Jehovah of Hosts.

Mal 3:2 “But who can endure the day of His coming? And who can stand when He appears? For He is like a refiner’s fire and like fuller’s soap.

Mal 3:3 He will sit as a refiner and a purifier of silver; He will purify the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver, that they may offer to Jehovah an offering in righteousness.

Mal 3:4 “Then the offering of Judah and Jerusalem will be pleasant to Jehovah, as in the days of old, as in former years.

Mal 3:5 And I will come near you for judgement; I will be a swift witness against sorcerers, against adulterers, against perjurers, against those who exploit hired servants and widows and the fatherless, and against those who turn away an immigrant; because they do not fear Me,” says Jehovah of Hosts.

Mal 3:6 “For I am Jehovah, I do not change; therefore you are not consumed,

¹ Mat 11:10, Mark 9:11-13, Luk 1:76, Luk 7:27

O sons of Jacob.

Mal 3:7 Yet from the days of your fathers you have gone away from My ordinances and have not kept them. Return to Me, and I will return to you,” says Jehovah of Hosts. “But you said, ‘In what way will we return?’

Mal 3:8 “Will a man rob God? Yet you have robbed Me! But you say, ‘In what way have we robbed You?’ In tithes and offerings.

Mal 3:9 You are cursed with a curse, for you have robbed Me, even this whole nation.

Mal 3:10 Bring all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be food in My house, and prove Me now in this,” says Jehovah of Hosts, “If I will not open for you the windows of heaven and pour out for you such blessing that there will not be room enough to receive it.

Mal 3:11 “And I will rebuke the devourer for your sakes, so that he will not destroy the fruit of your ground, nor will the vine fail to bear fruit for you in the field,” says Jehovah of Hosts;

Mal 3:12 “And all nations will call you blessed, for you will be a delightful land,” says Jehovah of Hosts.

Mal 3:13 “Your words have been harsh against Me,” says Jehovah, “Yet you say, ‘What have we spoken against You?’

Mal 3:14 You have said, ‘It is vain to serve God; what profit is it that we have kept His charge, and that we have walked as mourners before Jehovah of Hosts?

Mal 3:15 So now we call the proud blessed, for those who do wickedness are raised up; yes, those who tempt God go free.’”

Mal 3:16 Then those who feared Jehovah spoke to one another, and Jehovah listened and heard them; so a book of remembrance was written before Him for those who fear Jehovah and who meditate on His Name.

Mal 3:17 “They will be Mine,” says

Jehovah of Hosts, “on the day that I make them My jewels. And I will spare them as a man spares his own son who serves him.”

Mal 3:18 Then you will return and discern between the righteous and the wicked, between him who serves God and him who does not serve Him.

Mal 4:1 “For behold, the day is coming, burning like a furnace, and all the arrogant, all who do wickedness will be chaff. And the day which is coming will set them ablaze,” says Jehovah of Hosts, “which will not leave them either root or branch.”¹

Mal 4:2 “But to you who fear My Name the Brilliance of Righteousness will arise, with healing in His wings; and you will go out and frisk like stall-fed calves.”²

Mal 4:3 “And you will trample the wicked, for they will be ashes under the soles of your feet on the day which I am preparing,” says Jehovah of Hosts.³

Mal 4:4 “Remember the Instructions of Moses, My servant, which I commanded him in the Choreb desert⁴ for all Israel, with the statutes and judgements.

Mal 4:5 Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and dreadful day of Jehovah.⁵

Mal 4:6 And he will turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the hearts of the children to their fathers, lest I come and strike the earth with a curse.”⁶

Psalms

Book One—Psalms 1 to 41

Psa 1:1 Blessed is the man who does not walk in the counsel of the ungodly, nor stands in the path of sinners, nor sits in the seat of the scornful;

Psa 1:2 But his delight is in the Instructions of Jehovah, and in His Instructions he meditates day and night.

Psa 1:3 He will be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that brings forth its fruit in its season, whose leaf also will not wither; and whatever he does will prosper.

Psa 1:4 The ungodly are not so, but are like the chaff which the wind drives away.

Psa 1:5 Therefore the ungodly will not stand in the judgement, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous,

Psa 1:6 for Jehovah knows the way of the righteous, but the way of the ungodly will perish.

Psa 2:1 Why are the nations in a tumult, and the people plot uselessly?

Psa 2:2 The kings of the earth present themselves, and the rulers lay foundations together, against Jehovah and against His Messiah, saying,¹

Psa 2:3 “Let us break their bonds apart and cast their cords away from us.”

Psa 2:4 He who dwells in the heavens will laugh; Jehovah will mock them.

Psa 2:5 Then He will speak to them in His wrath, and trouble them in His fierce wrath:

Psa 2:6 “Yet I have anointed My King on My sanctified mountain of Zion.”

Psa 2:7 “I will declare the decree: Jehovah has said to Me, ‘You are My Son. Today I have begotten You.’²

Psa 2:8 ‘Ask of Me, and I will give You the nations for Your inheritance, and to the ends of the earth for Your possession.

Psa 2:9 ‘You will break them with a branch of iron; You will shatter them like a potter’s vessel.’”³

Psa 2:10 Now, be wise, O kings; be instructed, you judges of the earth.

Psa 2:11 Serve Jehovah with fear, and rejoice with trembling.

Psa 2:12 Kiss the Son, lest He be angry, and you perish in the way, when His wrath is kindled even a little. Blessed are all who seek refuge in Him.

A Psalm of David, when he fled from his son Absalom.

Psa 3:1 Lord, how they have increased who trouble me! Many are they who rise up against me.

Psa 3:2 Many say of my soul, “There is no help for him in God.”

Selah.

Psa 3:3 But You, O Jehovah, are a shield for me, my glory and the One who lifts up my head.

Psa 3:4 I cried to Jehovah with my voice, and He heard me from His sanctified hill. Selah.

Psa 3:5 I lay down and slept; I awoke, for Jehovah sustained me.

Psa 3:6 I will not be afraid of ten thousand people who have set themselves against me all around.

Psa 3:7 Arise, O Jehovah; save me, O my God! For You have struck all my enemies on the cheekbone; You have broken the teeth of the ungodly.

Psa 3:8 Salvation belongs to Jehovah.

To the chief musician, for stringed instruments, A Psalm of David.

Psa 4:1 Hear me when I call, O God of my righteousness! You have relieved me when I was in distress. Have mercy on me, and hear my prayer.

Psa 4:2 How long, O you sons of men, will you turn my glory to shame? How long will you love worthlessness and seek falsehood?

Selah.

Psa 4:3 But know that Jehovah has set apart for Himself him who is godly; Jehovah will hear when I call to Him.

Psa 4:4 Tremble, and do not sin.¹ Meditate within your heart on your bed, and be still.

Selah.

Psa 4:5 Offer the sacrifices of righteousness, and put your trust in Jehovah.

Psa 4:6 There are many who say, "Who will show us any good?" Jehovah, lift up the light of Your countenance upon us.

Psa 4:7 You have put gladness in my heart, more than in the season that their grain and new wine increased.

Psa 4:8 I will both lie down in peace and sleep; for You alone, O Jehovah, make me dwell in safety.

To the chief musician, for flutes. A Psalm of David.

Psa 5:1 Give ear to my words, O Jehovah, consider my meditation.

Psa 5:2 Give heed to the voice of my cry, my King and my God, for to You I will pray.

Psa 5:3 My voice You will hear in the morning, O Jehovah; in the morning I will direct it to You, and I will look up.

Psa 5:4 For You are not a God who takes pleasure in wickedness, nor will evil dwell with You.

Psa 5:5 The boastful will not stand in Your sight; You hate all workers of iniquity.

Psa 5:6 You will destroy those who speak falsehood. Jehovah abhors the bloodthirsty and deceitful man.

Psa 5:7 But as for me, I will come into Your House in the abundance of Your mercy. In fear of You I will worship toward Your sanctified Palace.

Psa 5:8 Lead me, O Jehovah, in Your righteousness because of my enemies; make Your way straight before my face.

Psa 5:9 For there is no faithfulness in their mouth; their inward part is destruction. Their throat is an open grave; they flatter with their tongue.²

Psa 5:10 Pronounce them guilty, O God! Let them fall by their own counsels. Cast them out in the abundance of their transgressions, for they have rebelled against You.

Psa 5:11 But let all those rejoice who put their trust in You; let them shout for joy forever, because You defend them. Let those also who love Your Name be joyful in You.

Psa 5:12 For You, O Jehovah, will bless the righteous; with favour You will surround him as with a shield.

To the chief musician, for eight stringed instruments. A Psalm of David.

Psa 6:1 O Jehovah, do not rebuke me in Your anger, nor chasten me in Your hot displeasure.

Psa 6:3 My soul also is greatly troubled; but You, O Jehovah; how long?

Psa 6:4 Return, O Jehovah, deliver my soul! Oh, save me for Your mercy's sake!

Psa 6:5 For in death there is no remembrance of You. In Sheol who will give You thanks?

Psa 6:6 I am weary with my groaning; all night I make my bed swim; I drench my couch with my tears.

Psa 6:7 My eye wastes away because of grief. It grows old because of all my enemies.

Psa 6:8 Depart from me, all you workers of evil; for Jehovah has heard the voice of my weeping.¹

Psa 6:9 Jehovah has heard my supplication; Jehovah will receive my prayer.

Psa 6:10 Let all my enemies be ashamed and greatly troubled. Let them turn back and be suddenly ashamed.

A Song of David, which he sang to Jehovah on the words of Cush the Benjamite.

Psa 7:1 O Jehovah my God, in You I put my trust; save me from all those who persecute me; and deliver me, Psa 7:2 lest they tear my soul like a lion, ripping me into pieces while there is none to deliver.

Psa 7:3 O Jehovah my God, if I have done this: if there is iniquity in my hands,

Psa 7:4 if I have repaid evil to him who was at peace with me, or have plundered my enemy without cause,

Psa 7:5 let the enemy pursue my soul and overtake me. Yes, let him trample my life to the earth, and lay my honour in the dust. Selah.

Psa 7:6 Arise, O Jehovah, in Your anger; lift Yourself up because of the wrath of my enemies, and awake for me to the judgement You have commanded!

Psa 7:7 So the congregation of the peoples will surround You; for their sakes, therefore, return on high.

Psa 7:8 Jehovah will judge the peoples. Judge me, O Jehovah, according to my righteousness, and according to my integrity within me.

Psa 7:9 Oh, let the evil of the wicked come to an end, but establish the just; for the righteous God tests the hearts and minds.

Psa 7:10 My defence is from God, who saves the upright in heart.

Psa 7:11 God is a just judge, and God is angry with the wicked every day.

Psa 7:12 If he does not turn back, He will sharpen His sword; He bends His bow and makes it ready.

Psa 7:13 He also prepares for Himself instruments of death; He makes His arrows into fiery shafts.

Psa 7:14 Behold, the wicked travails with iniquity, conceives trouble and brings forth falsehood.

Psa 7:15 He made a pit and dug it out, and has fallen into the ditch which he made.

Psa 7:16 His trouble will return upon his own head, and his violent dealing will come down on his own crown.

Psa 7:17 I will praise Jehovah according to His righteousness, and will sing praise to the name of Jehovah Most High.

To the chief musician, on the harp. A Psalm of David.

Psa 8:1 O Jehovah, our Lord, how excellent is Your Name in all the earth, You who set Your glory above the heavens!

Psa 8:2 Out of the mouth of children and breastfeeding infants You have ordained strength, because of Your enemies, that You may silence the enemy and the avenger.¹

Psa 8:3 When I consider Your heavens, the work of Your fingers, the moon and the stars, which You have ordained,

Psa 8:4 what is man that You are mindful of him, and the son of man that You visit him?

Psa 8:5 For You have made him a little lower than God,² and You have crowned him with glory and honour.

Psa 8:6 You have made him to have dominion over the works of Your hands; You have put all things under his feet,³

To the chief musician: To die for the Son. A Psalm of David.

Psa 9:1 I will praise You, O Jehovah, with my whole heart; I will tell of all Your marvellous works.

Psa 9:2 I will be glad and rejoice in You; I will sing praise to Your Name, O Most High.

Psa 9:3 When my enemies turn back, they will fall and perish at Your presence.

Psa 9:4 For You have maintained my right and my cause; You sat on the throne judging in righteousness.

Psa 9:5 You have rebuked the nations, You have destroyed the wicked; You have blotted out their name forever and ever.

Psa 9:6 O enemy, ruins are finished forever! And you have destroyed cities; even their memory has perished.

Psa 9:7 But Jehovah will endure forever; He has prepared His throne for judgement.

Psa 9:8 He will judge the world in righteousness, and He will administer judgement for the peoples in uprightness.

Psa 9:9 Jehovah also will be a refuge for the oppressed, a refuge in times of trouble.

Psa 9:10 And those who know Your Name will put their trust in You; for You, Jehovah, have not forsaken those who seek You.

Psa 9:11 Sing praises to Jehovah, who dwells in Zion! Declare His deeds among the people.

Psa 9:12 When He avenges blood, He remembers them; He does not forget the cry of the humble.

Psa 9:13 Have mercy on me, O Jehovah! Consider my trouble from those who hate me, You who lift me up from the gates of death, Psa 9:14 that I may tell of all Your praise in the gates of the daughter of Zion. I will rejoice in Your salvation.

Psa 9:15 The nations have sunk down in the pit which they made; in the net which they hid, their own foot is caught.

Psa 9:16 Jehovah is known by the judgement He executes; the wicked is snared in the work of his own hands. A meditation. Selah.

Psa 9:17 The wicked will be turned into Sheol, and all the nations that forget God, Psa 9:18 for the needy will not always be forgotten; the expectation of the poor will not perish forever.

Psa 9:19 Arise, O Jehovah, do not let man prevail; let the nations be judged in Your sight.

Psa 9:20 Put them in fear, O Jehovah, that the nations may know themselves to be but men. Selah.

Psa 10:2 The wicked in his pride persecutes the poor; let them be caught in the plots which they have devised.

Psa 10:3 For the wicked boasts of his soul's desire; he blesses thieves and despises Jehovah.

Psa 10:4 The wicked in his proud countenance does not seek God; God is in none of his thoughts.

Psa 10:5 His ways are always prospering; Your judgements are far above, out of his sight; as for all his enemies, he sneers at them.

Psa 10:6 He has said in his heart, "I will not slip; I will never see evil."

Psa 10:7 His mouth is full of cursing and deceit and oppression; Under his tongue is trouble and iniquity.¹

Psa 10:8 He sits in the lurking places of the villages; in the secret places he murders the innocent; his eyes are secretly fixed on the helpless.

Psa 10:9 He lies in wait secretly, as a lion in his den. He lies in wait to catch the poor; he catches the poor when he draws him into his net.

Psa 10:10 So he crouches, he lies low, that the helpless may fall by his strength.

Psa 10:11 He has said in his heart, "God has forgotten; He hides His face; He will never see it."

Psa 10:12 Arise, O Jehovah! O God, lift up Your hand! Do not forget the humble.

Psa 10:13 Why do the wicked renounce God? He has said in his heart, "You will not require an account."

Psa 10:14 But You have seen it, for You observe trouble and grief, to repay it by Your hand. The helpless commits himself to You; You are the helper of the fatherless.

Psa 10:15 Break the arm of the wicked and the evil man; seek out his wickedness until You find none.

Psa 10:16 Jehovah is King forever and ever; the nations have perished out of His land.

Psa 10:17 Jehovah, You have heard the desire of the humble; You will prepare their heart. You will cause Your ear to hear, Psa 10:18 to do justice to the fatherless and the oppressed, that the man of the earth may oppress no more.

To the chief musician. A Psalm of David.

Psa 11:1 In Jehovah I put my trust. How can you say to my soul, "Flee as a bird to your mountain"?

Psa 11:2 For look! The wicked bend their bow, they make ready their arrow on the string, that they may shoot secretly at the upright in heart.

Psa 11:3 If the foundations are destroyed, what can the righteous do?

Psa 11:4 Jehovah is in His sanctified Palace, Jehovah's throne is in Heaven; His eyes behold, His eyelids test the sons of men.

Psa 11:5 Jehovah tests the righteous, but the wicked and the one who loves violence His soul hates.

Psa 11:6 Upon the wicked He will rain coals, fire and brimstone and a burning wind; this will be the portion of their cup.

Psa 11:7 For Jehovah is righteous; He loves righteousness, His countenance beholds the upright.

Psa 13:1 How long, O Jehovah? Will You forget me forever? How long will You hide Your face from me?

Psa 13:2 How long will I take counsel in my soul, having sorrow in my heart daily? How long will my enemy be exalted over me?

Psa 13:4 lest my enemy say, "I have prevailed against him"; lest those who trouble me rejoice when I slip.

Psa 13:5 But I have trusted in Your mercy; my heart will rejoice in Your salvation.

Psa 13:6 I will sing to Jehovah, because He has dealt bountifully with me.

To the chief musician. A Psalm of David.

Psa 14:1 The fool has said in his heart, "There is no Jehovah." They are corrupt, they have done abominable works, there is none who does good.

Psa 14:2 Jehovah looks down from heaven upon the children of men, to see if there are any who understand, who seek Jehovah.

Psa 14:3 They have all gone out of the way, they have together become good for nothing. There is none that does good; no, not one. Their throat is an open sepulchre; with their tongues they have used deceit; the poison of asps is under their lips; whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness. Their feet are swift to shed blood; destruction and misery are in their ways, and the way of peace they have not known. There is no fear of God before their eyes.¹

Psa 14:4 Have all the workers of iniquity no knowledge, who eat up my people as they eat bread, and do not call on Jehovah?

Psa 14:5 There they are in great fear, for Jehovah is with the generation of the righteous.

Psa 14:6 You shame the counsel of the poor, but Jehovah is his refuge.

Psa 16:4 Their sorrows will be multiplied who hasten after another god; their drink offerings of blood I will not offer, nor take up their names on my lips.

Psa 16:5 You, O Jehovah, are the portion of my inheritance and my cup; you maintain my lot.

Psa 16:6 The lines have fallen to me in pleasant places; yes, I have a good inheritance.

Psa 16:7 I will bless Jehovah who has given me counsel; my heart also instructs me in the night seasons.

Psa 16:8 I have set Jehovah always before me; because He is at my right hand I will not waver.

Psa 16:9 Therefore my heart is glad, and my glory rejoices; my flesh will also rest in hope.

Psa 16:10 For You will not leave my soul in Sheol, nor will You allow Your Holy One to look upon the pit.¹

Psa 16:11 You will show me the Way of Life; in Your presence is fullness of joy; at

A Prayer of David.

Psa 17:1 O Jehovah, hear a just cause, attend to my cry. Give ear to my prayer that is not from deceitful lips.

Psa 17:2 Let my judgement come from Your presence; let Your eyes look on the things that are upright.

Psa 17:3 You have tested my heart; You have visited me in the night. You have tried me and have found nothing. I am determined that my mouth will not transgress.

Psa 17:4 Concerning the works of men, by the word of Your lips, I have kept myself from the paths of the destroyer.

Psa 17:5 Uphold my steps in Your paths, that my footsteps may not slip.

Psa 17:6 I have called upon You, for You will hear me, O God; incline Your ear to me, and hear my speech.

Psa 17:7 Show Your marvellous loving-kindness by Your right hand, O You who save those who trust in You from those who rise up against them.

Psa 17:8 Keep me as the apple of Your eye; hide me under the shadow of Your wings, Psa 17:9 from the faces of the wicked who stripped me: my enemies—against my soul—who surround me.

Psa 17:10 They have closed up their fat hearts; with their mouths they speak proudly.

Psa 17:11 They have now surrounded us in our steps; they have set their eyes, crouching down to the earth, from the wicked with Your sword,

 Psa 17:14 with Your hand from men, O Jehovah, from men of the world who have their portion in this life, and whose belly You fill with Your hidden treasure. They are satisfied with offspring, and leave the rest of their substance for their children.
 Psa 17:15 As for me, I will see Your face in righteousness; I will be satisfied when I awake in Your likeness.¹

To the chief musician, A Psalm of David, the servant of Jehovah, who spoke the words of this song to Jehovah in the day that Jehovah delivered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Saul. And he said:

Psa 18:1 I love You, O Jehovah, my strength.
 Psa 18:2 Jehovah is my rock and my fortress and my deliverer. My God, my strength, in whom I will trust. My shield and the horn of my salvation, my stronghold.
 Psa 18:3 I will call upon Jehovah, who is worthy to be praised; so I will be saved from my enemies.
 Psa 18:4 The pangs of death encompassed me, and the floods of ungodliness made me afraid.
 Psa 18:5 The sorrows of Sheol surrounded me; the snares of death confronted me.
 Psa 18:6 In my distress I called upon Jehovah, and cried out to my God. He heard my voice from His Palace, and my cry came before Him, even to His ears.
 Psa 18:7 Then the earth shook and trembled; the foundations of the hills also quaked and were shaken, because He was angry.
 Psa 18:8 Smoke went up from His nostrils, and devouring fire from His mouth; coals were kindled by it.

Psa 18:9 He bowed the heavens also, and came down with darkness under His feet.

Psa 18:10 And He rode upon a cherub, and flew; He flew upon the wings of the wind.

Psa 18:11 He made darkness His secret place; His booth around Him was dark waters and thick clouds of the skies.

Psa 18:12 From the brightness before Him, His thick clouds passed with hailstones and coals of fire.

Psa 18:13 Jehovah also thundered in the heavens, and the Most High uttered His voice, with hailstones and coals of fire.²

Psa 18:14 He sent out His arrows and scattered the foe with lightning in abundance, and He vanquished them.

Psa 18:15 Then the channels of waters were seen, and the foundations of the world were uncovered at Your rebuke, O Jehovah, at the breath of the spirit of Your nostrils.

Psa 18:16 He sent from above, He took me; He drew me out of many waters.

Psa 18:17 He delivered me from my strong enemy, from those who hated me, for they were too strong for me.

Psa 18:18 They confronted me in the day of my calamity, but Jehovah was my support.

Psa 18:19 He also brought me out into a broad place; He delivered me because He delighted in me.

Psa 18:20 Jehovah rewarded me according to my righteousness; according to the cleanness of my hands He has recompensed me.

Psa 18:21 For I have kept the ways of Jehovah, and have not wickedly departed from my God.

Psa 18:22 For all His judgements were before me, and I did not put away His statutes from me.

Psa 18:23 I was also blameless before

Him, and I kept myself from my iniquity.

Psa 18:24 Therefore Jehovah has recompensed me according to my righteousness, according to the cleanness of my hands in His sight.

Psa 18:25 With the merciful You will show Yourself merciful; with a blameless man You will show Yourself blameless;

Psa 18:26 With the pure You will show Yourself pure; and with the devious You will show Yourself shrewd.

Psa 18:27 For You will save the humble people, but will bring down haughty looks.

Psa 18:28 For You will light my lamp; Jehovah my God will brighten my darkness.

Psa 18:29 For by You I can run against a troop, and by my God I can leap over a wall.

Psa 18:30 As for God, His way is perfect; Jehovah's word is proven; He is a shield to all who trust in Him.

Psa 18:31 For who is God, except Jehovah? And who is a rock, except our God?

Psa 18:32 It is God who arms me with strength, and makes my way perfect.

Psa 18:33 He makes my feet like the feet of deer, and sets me on my high places.

Psa 18:34 He teaches my hands to make war, so that my arms can bend a bow of bronze.

Psa 18:35 You have also given me the shield of Your salvation; Your right hand has held me up, Your gentleness has made me great.

Psa 18:36 You enlarged my path under me; so that my feet did not slip.

Psa 18:37 I have pursued my enemies and overtaken them; neither did I turn back again until they were destroyed.

Psa 18:38 I have wounded them, so that they were not able to rise; they have fallen under my feet.

Psa 18:39 For You have armed me with strength for the battle; You have subdued under me those who rose up against me.

Psa 18:40 You have also given me the necks of my enemies, so that I destroyed those who hated me.

Psa 18:41 They cried out, but there was none to save them, even to Jehovah, but He did not answer them.

Psa 18:42 Then I beat them as fine as the dust before the wind; I cast them out like dirt in the streets.

Psa 18:43 You have delivered me from the strivings of the people, You have made me the head of the nations; a people I have not known will serve me.

Psa 18:44 As soon as they hear of me they obey me; the foreigners submit to me.

Psa 18:45 The foreigners fade away, and come frightened from their hideouts.

Psa 18:46 Jehovah lives! Blessed be my Rock! Let the God of my salvation be exalted.

Psa 18:47 It is God who avenges me, and subdues the peoples under me;

Psa 18:48 He delivers me from my enemies. You also lift me up above those who rise against me; You have delivered me from the violent man.

Psa 18:49 Therefore I will give thanks to You, O Jehovah, among the gentiles, and sing praises to Your Name.¹

Psa 18:50 Great deliverance He gives to His king, and shows mercy to His anointed, to David and his descendants forevermore.

Psa 20:2 May He send you help from the sanctuary, and strengthen you out of Zion.

Psa 20:3 May He remember all your offerings, and accept your burnt sacrifice. Selah.

Psa 20:4 May He grant you according to your heart's desire, and fulfil all your purpose.

Psa 20:5 We will rejoice in your salvation, and in the name of our God we will set up our banners! May Jehovah fulfil all your petitions.

Psa 20:6 Now I know that Jehovah saves His anointed; He will answer him from His sanctified heaven with the saving strength of His right hand.

Psa 20:7 Some trust in chariots, and some in horses; but we will remember the name of Jehovah our God.

Psa 20:8 They have bowed down and fallen; but we have risen and stand upright.

Psa 20:9 Save, Jehovah! May the King answer us when we call.

To the chief musician. A Psalm of David.

Psa 21:1 The king will have joy in Your strength, O Jehovah; and how greatly he will rejoice in Your salvation!

Psa 21:2 You have given him his heart's desire, and have not withheld the request of his lips. Selah.

Psa 21:3 For You meet him with the blessings of goodness; You set a shining crown upon his head.

Psa 21:4 He asked life from You, and You gave it to him; length of days forever and ever.

Psa 21:5 His glory in Your salvation is great; You have placed honour and majesty upon him.

² This compares with the booth that Jehovah made from a cloud on the mountain in Mat 17:1-5.

Psa 21:6 For You have made him most blessed forever; You have made him exceedingly glad with Your presence.

Psa 21:7 For the king trusts in Jehovah, and through the mercy of the Most High he will not waver.

Psa 21:8 Your hand will find all Your enemies; Your right hand will find those who hate You.

Psa 21:9 You will make them as a fiery oven in the time of Your anger; Jehovah will swallow them up in His wrath, and the fire will devour them.

Psa 21:10 You will destroy their offspring from the earth, and their descendants from among the sons of men.

Psa 21:11 For they intended evil against You; they devised a plot which they are not able to perform.

Psa 21:12 Therefore You will make them turn their back; You will make ready Your arrows on Your string toward their faces.

Psa 21:13 Be exalted, O Jehovah, in Your own strength! We will sing and praise Your power.

To the Chief Musician, on the deer of the dawn. A Psalm of David.

Psa 22:1 My God, My God, why have You forsaken Me?¹ Why are You so far from helping Me, and from the words of My groaning?

Psa 22:2 O My God, I cry in the daytime, but You do not hear; and in the night season, and I am not silent.

Psa 22:3 But You are sacred, dwelling in the praises of Israel.

Psa 22:4 Our fathers trusted in You; they trusted, and You delivered them.

Psa 22:5 They cried to You, and were delivered; they trusted in You, and were not ashamed.

Psa 22:6 But I am a worm, and no man; scorned by men and despised by the people.²

Psa 22:7 All those who see Me laugh Me to scorn; they shoot out the lip, they shake the head, saying,

Psa 22:8 "He trusted in Jehovah, let Him rescue Him; let Him deliver Him, since He delights in Him!"³

Psa 22:9 But You are He who took Me out of the womb; You made Me trust when I was on My mother's breasts.

Psa 22:10 I was cast upon You from birth. From My mother's womb You have been My God.

Psa 22:11 Do not be far from Me, for trouble is near; for there is none to help.

Psa 22:12 Many bulls have surrounded Me; strong bulls of Bashan have encircled Me.

Psa 22:13 They gape at Me with their mouths, as a raging and roaring lion.

Psa 22:14 I am poured out like water, and all My bones are out of joint. My heart is like wax, it has melted within Me.

Psa 22:15 My strength is dried up like a potsherd, and My tongue clings to My jaws. You have brought Me to the dust of death.

Psa 22:16 For dogs have surrounded Me; the congregation of the wicked has enclosed Me. Like a lion, they pierced My hands and My feet;⁴

Psa 22:17 I can count all My bones. They look and stare at Me.

Psa 22:18 They divided My garments among them, and they cast lots for My clothing.⁵

Psa 22:19 But You, O Jehovah, do not be far from Me. O My Strength, hasten eagerly to help Me!

Psa 22:20 Deliver my soul from the sword, My unique one from the power of the dog.

Psa 22:21 Save Me from the lion's mouth and from the horns of the aurochs! You have answered Me.

Psa 22:22 I will declare Your Name to My brethren; in the midst of the congregation I will praise You.¹

Psa 22:23 You who fear Jehovah, praise Him! All you descendants of Jacob, glorify Him, and fear Him, all you offspring of Israel!

Psa 22:24 For He has not despised nor abhorred the affliction of the afflicted; nor has He hidden His face from him; but when he cried to Him, He heard.

Psa 22:25 My praise will be of You in the great congregation; I will pay my vows before those who fear Him.

Psa 22:26 The poor will eat and be satisfied;² those who seek Him will praise Jehovah. Let your heart live forever!

Psa 22:27 All the ends of the world will remember and turn to Jehovah, and all the families of the nations will worship before You.³

Psa 22:28 For the kingdom is Jehovah's, and He rules over the nations.

Psa 22:29 All the prosperous on the earth will eat and worship; all those who go down to the dust will bow before Him, even he who cannot keep his own soul alive.⁴

Psa 22:30 A posterity will serve Him. It will be recounted by Jehovah to the next generation.

Psa 22:31 They will come and declare His righteousness to a people who will be born, that He has done this.

A Psalm of David.

Psa 23:1 Jehovah is my shepherd;⁵ I will not lack.

Psa 23:2 He makes me lie down in pastures of tender grass; He leads me beside quiet waters.

Psa 23:3 He restores my soul; He leads me in the paths of righteousness for His Name's sake.

Psa 23:4 Yes, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for You are with me; Your branch and Your walking stick, they comfort me.

Psa 23:5 You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies; You anoint my head with oil; my cup runs over.

Psa 23:6 Surely goodness and mercy will follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the House of Jehovah as long as there are days.

A Psalm of David.

Psa 24:1 The earth is Jehovah's, and its fullness; the world, and those who dwell in it.

Psa 24:2 For He has founded it upon the seas, and established it upon the waters.

Psa 24:3 Who may ascend into the hill of Jehovah? Or who may stand in His sanctified Place?

Psa 24:4 He who has clean hands and a pure heart, who has not lifted up his soul to an idol, nor sworn deceitfully.

Psa 24:5 He will receive blessing from Jehovah, and righteousness from the God of his salvation.⁶

Psa 24:6 This is Jacob, the generation of those who seek Him, who seek Your face. Selah.

Psa 24:7 Lift up your heads, O you gates! And be lifted up, you everlasting doors! And the King of Glory will come in.

Jehovah strong and mighty, Jehovah mighty in battle.

Psa 24:9 Lift up your heads, O you gates! And lift them up, you everlasting doors! And the King of glory will come in.

Psa 24:10 Who is this King of glory? Jehovah of Hosts, He is the King of glory. Selah.

A Psalm of David.

Psa 25:1 To You, O Jehovah, I lift up my soul.

Psa 25:2 O my God, I trust in You; do not let me be ashamed; do not let my enemies triumph over me.

Psa 25:3 Indeed, let no one who waits on You be ashamed; let those be ashamed who deal treacherously without cause.

Psa 25:4 Show me Your ways, O Jehovah; teach me Your paths.

Psa 25:5 Lead me in Your truth and teach me, for You are the God of my salvation; on You I wait all the day.

Psa 25:6 Remember, O Jehovah, Your tender mercies and Your loving-kindnesses, for they have been from of old.

Psa 25:7 Do not remember the sins of my youth, nor my transgressions; according to Your mercy remember me, for Your goodness' sake, O Jehovah.

Psa 25:8 Good and upright is Jehovah; therefore He teaches sinners the Way.

Psa 25:9 The humble He guides in judgement, and the humble He teaches His Way.

Psa 25:10 All the paths of Jehovah are mercy and truth, to such as keep His covenant and His testimonies.

Psa 25:11 For Your Name's sake, O Jehovah, pardon my iniquity, for it is great.¹

Psa 25:12 Who is the man that fears Jehovah? He will teach him in the way

He chooses.

Psa 25:13 His soul will dwell in goodness, and his seed will inherit the earth.

Psa 25:14 The counsel of Jehovah is with those who fear Him, and He will show them His covenant.

Psa 25:15 My eyes are ever toward Jehovah, for He will pluck my feet out of the net.

Psa 25:16 Turn Yourself to me, and have mercy on me, for I am unique and afflicted.

Psa 25:17 The troubles of my heart have enlarged; oh, bring me out of my distresses!

Psa 25:18 Look on my affliction and my pain, and forgive all my sins.

Psa 25:19 Consider my enemies, for they are many; and they hate me with cruel hatred.

Psa 25:20 Oh, keep my soul, and deliver me; do not let me be ashamed, for I put my trust in You.

Psa 25:21 Let integrity and uprightness preserve me, for I wait for You.

Psa 25:22 Redeem Israel, O God, out of all their troubles!

A Psalm of David.

Psa 26:1 Judge me, O Jehovah, for I have walked in my integrity. I have also trusted in Jehovah; I will not slip.

Psa 26:2 Examine me, O Jehovah, and prove me; try my mind and my heart.

Psa 26:3 For Your loving-kindness is before my eyes, and I have walked in Your truth.

Psa 26:4 I have not sat with idolatrous mortals, nor will I go in with hypocrites.

Psa 26:5 I have hated the congregation of evildoers, and will not sit with the wicked.

Psa 26:6 I will wash my hands in innocence; so I will go about Your altar, O Jehovah,

Psa 26:7 that I may proclaim with the voice of thanksgiving, and tell of all Your wondrous works.

Psa 26:8 Jehovah, I have loved the habitation of Your house, and the place where Your glory booths.

Psa 26:9 Do not gather my soul together with sinners, nor my life with bloodthirsty men, Psa 26:10 in whose hands is a sinister scheme, and whose right hand is full of bribes.

Psa 26:11 But as for me, I will walk in my integrity. Redeem me and be merciful to me.

Psa 26:12 My foot stands in an even place; in the congregations I will bless Jehovah.

A Psalm of David.

Psa 27:1 Jehovah is my light and my salvation; whom will I fear? Jehovah is the stronghold of my life; of whom will I be afraid?¹

Psa 27:2 When the wicked came against me to eat up my flesh, my enemies and foes, they stumbled and fell.

Psa 27:3 Though an army should encamp against me, my heart will not fear; though war should rise against me, in this I will be confident.

Psa 27:4 One thing I have desired of Jehovah, that will I seek: that I may dwell in the House of Jehovah all the days of my life, to behold the beauty of Jehovah, and to inquire in His Palace.

Psa 27:5 For in the time of evil He will hide me in His den; in the secret place of His tent He will hide me; He will set me high upon a rock.

Psa 27:6 And now my head will be lifted up above my enemies all around me; therefore I will offer sacrifices of shouting in His tent; I will sing, yes, I will sing praises to Jehovah.

Psa 27:7 Hear, O Jehovah, when I cry with my voice! Have mercy also upon me, and answer me.

Psa 27:8 When You said, "Seek My face," my heart said to You, "Your face, Jehovah, I will seek."

Psa 27:9 Do not hide Your face from me; do not turn Your servant away in anger; You have been my help; do not leave me nor forsake me, O God of my salvation.

Psa 27:10 When my father and my mother forsake me, then Jehovah will take care of me.

Psa 27:11 Teach me Your path, O Jehovah, and lead me in a smooth way, because of my enemies.

Psa 27:12 Do not deliver me to the soul of my adversaries; for false witnesses have risen against me, and such as breathe out violence.

Psa 27:13 I would have lost heart, unless I had believed that I would see the goodness of Jehovah in the land of the living.

Psa 27:14 Wait on Jehovah; be of good courage, and He will strengthen your heart; I say wait on Jehovah!

A Psalm of David.

Psa 28:1 I will cry to You, O Jehovah my Rock: Do not be silent to me, lest, if You are silent to me, I become like those who go down to the pit.

Psa 28:2 Hear the voice of my supplications when I cry to You, when I lift up my hands toward Your holy Oracle.

Psa 28:3 Do not take me away with the wicked and with the workers of iniquity, who speak peace to their neighbours, but evil is in their hearts.

Psa 28:4 Give to them according to their deeds, and according to the wickedness of their endeavours; give to them according to the work of their hands; render to them what they deserve.

Psa 28:5 Because they do not regard the works of Jehovah, nor the operation of His hands, He will destroy them and not build them up.

Psa 28:6 Blessed be Jehovah, because He has heard the voice of my supplications!

Psa 28:7 Jehovah is my strength and my shield. My heart trusted in Him, and I am helped; therefore my heart greatly rejoices, and with my song I will praise Him.

Psa 28:8 Jehovah is their strength, and He is the stronghold of salvation for His anointed.

Psa 28:9 Save Your people, and bless Your inheritance. Shepherd them also, and bear them up forever.

A Psalm of David.

Psa 29:1 Give unto Jehovah, O you mighty ones, give unto Jehovah glory and strength.

Psa 29:2 Give unto Jehovah the glory due to His Name; worship Jehovah in the beauty of sanctification.

Psa 29:3 The voice of Jehovah is over the waters; the God of glory thunders; Jehovah is over many waters.

Psa 29:4 The voice of Jehovah is powerful; the voice of Jehovah is full of majesty.

Psa 29:5 The voice of Jehovah breaks the cedars, yes, Jehovah splinters the cedars of Lebanon.

Psa 29:6 He makes them also skip like a calf, Lebanon and Sirion like a young auroch.

Psa 29:7 The voice of Jehovah divides the flames of fire.

Psa 29:8 The voice of Jehovah shakes the wilderness; Jehovah shakes the Wilderness of Kadesh.

Psa 29:9 The voice of Jehovah makes the deer give birth, and strips the forests bare; and in His Palace everyone says, "Glory!"

Psa 29:10 Jehovah sat enthroned at the Great Flood, and Jehovah sits as King forever.

Psa 29:11 Jehovah will give strength to His people; Jehovah will bless His people with peace.

A Psalm; a Song of Dedication of the House of David.

Psa 30:1 I will extol You, O Jehovah, for You have lifted me up, and have not let my foes rejoice over me.

Psa 30:2 O Jehovah my God, I cried out to You, and You have healed me.

Psa 30:3 O Jehovah, you have brought my soul up from Sheol. You have kept me alive, that I should not go down to the pit.

Psa 30:4 Sing praise to Jehovah, you saints of His, and give thanks at the remembrance of His sanctification.

Psa 30:5 For His anger is but for a moment, His favour is for life. Weeping may endure for a night, but joy comes in the morning.

Psa 30:6 Now in my prosperity I said, "I will never slip."

Psa 30:7 Jehovah, by Your favour You have made my mountain stand strong; You hid Your face, and I was troubled.

Psa 30:8 I cried out to You, O Jehovah; and to Jehovah I made supplication:

Psa 30:9 "What profit is there in my blood, when I go down to the pit? Will the dust praise You? Will it declare Your truth?"

Psa 30:10 Hear, O Jehovah, and have mercy on me; Jehovah, be my helper!"

Psa 30:11 You have turned for me my mourning into dancing; You have put off my sackcloth and clothed me with gladness, Psa 30:12 to the end that my glory may sing praise to You and not be silent. O Jehovah my God, I will give thanks to You forever.

To the chief musician. A Psalm of David.

Psa 31:1 In You, O Jehovah, I put my trust; never let me be ashamed; deliver me in Your righteousness.

Psa 31:2 Bow down Your ear to me, deliver me speedily; be my stronghold rock, a house of defence to save me.

Psa 31:3 For You are my rock and my fortress; therefore, for Your Name's sake, lead me and guide me.

Psa 31:4 Pull me out of the net which they have secretly laid for me, for You are my stronghold.

Psa 31:5 Into Your hand I commit my spirit; You have redeemed me, O Jehovah God of Truth.¹

Psa 31:6 I have hated those who regard vain idols; but I trust in Jehovah.

Psa 31:7 I will be glad and rejoice in Your mercy, for You have considered my trouble; You have known my soul in adversities, Psa 31:8 and have not shut me up into the hand of the enemy. You have set my feet in a wide place.

Psa 31:9 Have mercy on me, O Jehovah, for I am in trouble; my eye wastes away with grief, yes, my soul and my body!

Psa 31:10 For my life is spent with grief, and my years with sighing; my strength fails because of my iniquity, and my bones waste away.

Psa 31:11 I am a reproach among all my enemies, but especially among my neighbours, and am repulsive to my acquaintances; those who see me outside flee from me.

Psa 31:12 I am forgotten like a dead man, out of mind; I am like a broken vessel, Psa 31:13 for I hear the slander of many. Fear is on every side, while they take counsel together against me, they scheme to take away my soul.

Psa 31:14 But as for me, I trust in You, O Jehovah; I say, "You are my God."

Psa 31:15 My times are in Your hand; deliver me from the hand of my enemies, and from those who persecute me.

Psa 31:16 Make Your face shine upon Your servant; save me in Your mercy.

Psa 31:17 Do not let me be ashamed, O Jehovah, for I have called upon You. Let the wicked be ashamed; let them be silent in Sheol.

Psa 31:18 Let the lying lips be put to silence, which speak insolent things proudly and contemptuously against the righteous.²

Psa 31:19 Oh, how great is Your goodness, which You have laid up for those who fear You, which You have prepared for those who trust in You in the presence of the sons of men!

Psa 31:20 You will hide them in the secret place of Your presence from the plots of man; You will keep them secretly in a booth from the strife of tongues.

Psa 31:21 Blessed be Jehovah, for He has shown me His marvellous kindness in a strong city!

Psa 31:22 For I said in my trembling haste, "I am cut off from before Your eyes." Nevertheless You heard the voice of my supplications when I cried out to You.

Psa 31:23 Oh, love Jehovah, all you His saints! For Jehovah preserves the faithful, and fully repays the proud person.

Psa 31:24 Be of good courage, and He will strengthen your heart, all you who hope in Jehovah.

A Psalm of David. A Contemplation.

Psa 32:1 Blessed is he whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered.

Psa 32:2 Blessed is the man to whom Jehovah does not impute iniquity, and in whose spirit there is no guile.¹

Psa 32:3 When I kept silent, my bones grew old through my groaning all the day long.

Psa 32:4 For day and night Your hand was heavy upon me. My vitality was turned into the drought of summer. Selah.

Psa 32:5 I acknowledged my sin to You, and my iniquity I have not hidden. I said, "I will confess my transgressions to Jehovah," and You forgave the iniquity of my sin. Selah.

Psa 32:6 For this cause everyone who is godly will pray to You in a time when You may be found; surely in a flood of great waters they will not come near him.

Psa 32:7 You are my hiding place; You will preserve me from trouble; You will surround me with songs of deliverance. Selah.

Psa 32:8 I will instruct you and teach you in the way you should go; I will guide you with My eye.

Psa 32:9 Do not be like a horse or a mule which has no understanding, which must be harnessed with bit and bridle, or else they will not come near you.²

Psa 32:10 Many sorrows will be to the wicked; but he who trusts in Jehovah, mercy will surround him.

Psa 32:11 Be glad in Jehovah and rejoice, you righteous; and shout for joy, all you upright in heart!

Psa 33:1 Rejoice in Jehovah, O you righteous! For praise from the upright is beautiful.

Psa 33:2 Praise Jehovah with the harp; make melody to Him with an instrument of ten strings.

¹ Rom 4:7-8

² This verse does not say that ALL animals lack understanding, but is merely acknowledging that there are some horses and mules that are poorly trained and uncooperative.

Psa 33:3 Sing to Him a new song; play skilfully with shouts of joy.

Psa 33:4 For Jehovah's word is right, and all His work is done in truth.

Psa 33:5 He loves righteousness and judgement; the earth is full of the goodness of Jehovah.

Psa 33:6 By Jehovah's word the heavens were made, and all the host of them by the breath of His mouth.

Psa 33:7 He gathered the waters of the sea together as a heap; He laid up the deep in storehouses.

Psa 33:8 Let all the earth fear Jehovah; let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of Him.

Psa 33:9 For He spoke, and it was done; He commanded, and it abides.

Psa 33:10 Jehovah brings the counsel of the nations to nothing; He makes the plans of the peoples of no effect.

Psa 33:11 The counsel of Jehovah abides forever, the plans of His heart to all generations.

Psa 33:12 Blessed is the nation whose God is Jehovah, and the people whom He has chosen as His own inheritance.

Psa 33:13 Jehovah looks from heaven; He sees all the sons of men.

Psa 33:14 From the place of His habitation He looks on all the inhabitants of the earth;

Psa 33:15 He fashions their hearts altogether; He considers all their works.

Psa 33:16 No king is saved by the multitude of an army; a mighty man is not delivered by great strength.

Psa 33:17 A horse is a vain hope for safety; nor will it deliver any by its great strength.

Psa 33:18 Behold, the eye of Jehovah is on those who fear Him, on those who hope in His mercy, Psa 33:19 To deliver their soul from death, and to keep them alive in famine.

Psa 33:20 Our soul waits for Jehovah; He is our help and our shield.

Psa 33:21 For our heart will rejoice in Him, because we have trusted in His sanctified Name.

Psa 33:22 Let Your mercy, O Jehovah, be upon us, just as we hope in You.

A Psalm of David, when he changed his behaviour before Abimelech; and he drove him away, and he went.

Psa 34:1 I will bless Jehovah at all times; His praise will continually be in my mouth.

Psa 34:2 My soul will make its boast in Jehovah; the humble will hear of it and be glad.

Psa 34:3 Oh, magnify Jehovah with me, and let us exalt His Name together.

Psa 34:4 I sought Jehovah, and He heard me, and delivered me from all my fears.

Psa 34:5 They looked to Him and were radiant, and their faces were not ashamed.

Psa 34:6 This poor man cried out, and Jehovah heard him, and saved him out of all his troubles.

Psa 34:7 The envoy of Jehovah encamps all around those who fear Him, and delivers them.

Psa 34:8 Oh, taste and see that Jehovah is good; blessed is the man who trusts in Him!¹

Psa 34:9 Oh, fear Jehovah, you His sacred ones! There is no want to those who fear Him.

Psa 34:10 The young lions lack and suffer hunger; but those who seek Jehovah will not lack any good thing.

Psa 34:11 Come, you children, listen to me; I will teach you the fear of Jehovah.

Psa 34:12 Who is the man who desires life, and loves many days, that he may see good?

Psa 34:13 Keep your tongue from evil, and your lips from speaking guile.

Psa 34:14 Depart from evil, and do good; seek peace, and pursue it.

Psa 34:15 The eyes of Jehovah are on the righteous, and His ears are open to their cry.

Psa 34:16 The face of Jehovah is against those who do evil, to cut off the remembrance of them from the earth.²

Psa 34:17 The righteous cry out, and Jehovah hears, and delivers them out of all their troubles.

Psa 34:18 Jehovah is near to those who have a broken heart, and saves such as have a contrite spirit.

Psa 34:19 Many are the evils on the righteous, but Jehovah delivers him out of them all.

Psa 34:20 He guards all his bones; not one of them is broken.³

Psa 34:21 Evil will slay the wicked, and those who hate the righteous will be condemned.

Psa 34:22 Jehovah redeems the soul of His servants, and none of those who trust in Him will be condemned.

A Psalm of David.

Psa 35:1 Plead my cause, O Jehovah, with those who strive with me. Fight against those who fight against me.

Psa 35:2 Take hold of shield and buckler, and stand up for my help.

Psa 35:3 Also draw out the spear, and stop those who pursue me. Say to my soul, "I am your salvation."

Psa 35:4 Let those be put to shame and brought to dishonour who seek after my soul. Let those be turned back and brought to confusion who plot my evil.

Psa 35:5 Let them be like chaff before the wind, and let Jehovah's envoy chase them.

Psa 35:6 Let their way be dark and slippery, and let Jehovah's envoy pursue them.

Psa 35:7 For without cause they have hidden their net for me in a pit, which they have dug without cause for my soul.

Psa 35:8 Let destruction come upon him unexpectedly, and let his net that he has hidden catch himself; into that very destruction let him fall.

Psa 35:9 And my soul will be joyful in Jehovah; it will rejoice in His salvation.¹

Psa 35:10 All my bones will say, "Jehovah, who is like You, delivering the poor from him who is too strong for him, yes, the poor and the needy from him who plunders him?"

Psa 35:11 Fierce witnesses rise up; they ask me things that I do not know.

Psa 35:12 They reward me evil for good, to the sorrow of my soul.

Psa 35:13 But as for me, when they were sick, my clothing was sackcloth; I humbled myself with fasting; and my prayer would return to my own heart.

Psa 35:14 I paced about as though he were my friend or brother; I bowed down heavily, as one who mourns for his mother.

Psa 35:15 But in my adversity they rejoiced and gathered together; attackers gathered against me, and I did not know it. They tore at me and did not cease.

Psa 35:16 With ungodly mockers at feasts they gnashed at me with their teeth.

Psa 35:17 Jehovah, how long will You look on? Rescue my soul from their destructions, my unique life from the lions.

Psa 35:18 I will give You thanks in the great congregation; I will praise You among many people.

Psa 35:19 Do not let them who are wrongfully my enemies rejoice over me; nor let them who hate me without a cause wink with the eye.²

Psa 35:20 For they do not speak peace, but they devise deceitful matters against those who are quiet in the land.

Psa 35:21 They also opened their mouth wide against me, and said, "Aha, aha! Our eyes have seen it."

Psa 35:22 This You have seen, O Jehovah; do not keep silent. O Jehovah, do not be far from me.

Psa 35:23 Stir up Yourself, and awake to my judgement, to my cause, my God and my Jehovah.

Psa 35:24 Judge me, O Jehovah my God, according to Your righteousness; and do not let them rejoice over me.

Psa 35:25 Do not let them say in their hearts, "Ah, so our souls would have it!" Do not let them say, "We have swallowed him up."

Psa 35:26 Let them be ashamed and brought to mutual confusion who rejoice when my evil comes; let them be clothed with shame and dishonour who magnify themselves against me.

Psa 35:27 Let them shout for joy and be glad, who favour my righteous cause; and let them say continually, "Let Jehovah be magnified, who has pleasure in the peace of His servant."

Psa 35:28 And my tongue will speak of Your righteousness and of Your praise all the day long.

To the chief musician; of the servant of Jehovah; of David.

Psa 36:1 A saying within my heart concerning the transgression of the wicked: There is no fear of God before his eyes.³

Psa 36:2 For he flatters himself in his own eyes, when he finds out his iniquity and when he hates.

Psa 36:3 The words of his mouth are wickedness and deceit; he has ceased to be wise and to do good.

Psa 36:4 He devises wickedness on his bed; he sets himself in a way that is not good; he does not abhor evil.

Psa 36:5 Your mercy, O Jehovah, is in the heavens, and Your faithfulness reaches to the clouds.

Psa 36:6 Your righteousness is like the great mountains; Your judgements are a great deep; O Jehovah. You save man and beast.

Psa 36:7 How precious is Your loving-kindness, O God! Therefore the children of men put their trust under the shadow of Your wings.

Psa 36:8 They are abundantly satisfied with the fullness of Your house, and You give them drink from the river of Your pleasures.

Psa 36:9 For with You is the fountain of life; in Your light we see light.

Psa 36:10 Oh, continue Your loving-kindness to those who know You, and Your righteousness to the upright in heart.

Psa 36:11 Do not let the foot of pride come against me, and do not let the hand of the wicked drive me away.

Psa 36:12 There the workers of iniquity have fallen; they have been cast down and are not able to rise.

A Psalm of David.

Psa 37:1 Do not worry yourself because of evildoers, nor be envious of the workers of iniquity.

Psa 37:2 For they will soon be cut down like the grass, and wither as the green herb.

Psa 37:3 Trust in Jehovah, and do good; dwell in the land, and feed on His faithfulness.

Psa 37:4 Also delight yourself in Jehovah, and He will give you the desires of your heart.

Psa 37:5 Commit your way to Jehovah, also trust in Him, and He will bring it to pass.

Psa 37:6 He will bring forth your righteousness as the light, and your judgement as the noonday.

Psa 37:7 Rest in Jehovah, and wait patiently for Him; do not fret because of him who prospers in his way, because of the man who brings wicked schemes to pass.

Psa 37:8 Cease from anger, and forsake wrath; do not fret; it only causes harm.

Psa 37:9 For evildoers will be cut off; but those who wait on Jehovah will inherit the earth.

Psa 37:10 For yet a little while and the wicked will be no more. Indeed, you will look diligently for his place, but it will be no more.

Psa 37:11 But the gentle will inherit the earth, and will delight themselves in the abundance of peace.¹

Psa 37:12 The wicked plots against the just, and gnashes at him with his teeth.

Psa 37:13 Jehovah laughs at him, for He sees that his day is coming.

Psa 37:14 The wicked have drawn the sword and have bent their bow, to cast down the poor and needy, to slay those who are of upright conduct.

Psa 37:15 Their sword will enter their own heart, and their bows will be broken.

Psa 37:16 The little that a righteous man has is better than the riches of many wicked.

Psa 37:17 For the arms of the wicked will be broken, but Jehovah upholds the righteous.

Psa 37:18 Jehovah knows the days of the upright, and their inheritance will be forever.

Psa 37:19 They will not be ashamed in the evil time, and in the days of famine they will be satisfied.

Psa 37:20 But the wicked will perish; and the enemies of Jehovah, like the splendour of the meadows, will vanish. They will vanish away into smoke.

Psa 37:21 The wicked borrows and does not repay, but the righteous shows mercy and gives.

Psa 37:22 For those who are blessed by Him will inherit the earth, but those who are cursed by Him will be cut off.

Psa 37:23 The steps of a good man are ordered by Jehovah, and he delights in His way.

Psa 37:24 Though he falls, he will not be utterly cast down; for Jehovah upholds him with His hand.

Psa 37:25 I have been young, and now am old; yet I have not seen the righteous forsaken, nor his descendants begging for bread.

Psa 37:26 He is always merciful, and lends; and his descendants are blessed.¹

Psa 37:27 Depart from evil, and do good; and dwell forevermore.

Psa 37:28 For Jehovah loves judgement, and does not forsake His saints; they are preserved forever, but the descendants of the wicked will be cut off.

Psa 37:29 The righteous will inherit the land, and dwell in it forever.

Psa 37:30 The mouth of the righteous speaks wisdom, and his tongue talks of judgement.

Psa 37:31 The Instructions of his God are in his heart; none of his steps will slide.

Psa 37:32 The wicked watches the righteous, and seeks to slay him.

Psa 37:33 Jehovah will not leave him in his hand, nor condemn him when he is judged.

Psa 37:34 Wait on Jehovah, and keep His way, and He will exalt you to inherit the land; when the wicked are cut off, you will see it.

Psa 37:35 I have seen the wicked in great power, raising and spreading himself like a green tree.

Psa 37:36 Yet he passed away, and behold, he was no more. Indeed I sought him, but he could not be found.

Psa 37:37 Mark the blameless man, and observe the upright; for the future of that man is peace.

Psa 37:38 But the transgressors will be destroyed together; the future of the wicked will be cut off.

Psa 37:39 But the salvation of the righteous is from Jehovah; He is their stronghold in the time of trouble.

Psa 37:40 And Jehovah will help them and deliver them; He will deliver them from the wicked, and save them, because they trust in Him.

A Psalm of David, to bring to remembrance.

Psa 38:1 O Lord, do not rebuke me in Your wrath, nor chasten me in Your hot displeasure!

Psa 38:2 For Your arrows pierce me deeply, and Your hand presses me down.

Psa 38:3 There is no soundness in my flesh because of Your indignation, nor is there any health in my bones because of my sin.

Psa 38:4 For my iniquities have gone over my head; like a heavy burden they are too heavy for me.

Psa 38:5 My wounds are foul and festering because of my foolishness.

Psa 38:6 I am troubled, I am bowed down greatly; I go mourning all the day long.

Psa 38:7 For my loins are full of burning, and there is no soundness in my flesh.

Psa 38:8 I am feeble and severely broken; I groan because of the turmoil of my heart.

Psa 38:9 Jehovah, all my desire is before You; and my sighing is not hidden from You.

Psa 38:10 My heart pants, my strength fails me; as for the light of my eyes, it also has gone from me.

Psa 38:11 My loved ones and my friends stand aloof from my plague, and my kinsmen stand afar off.

Psa 38:12 Those also who seek my soul lay snares for me; those who seek to do me evil speak of destruction, and plan deception all the day long.

Psa 38:13 But I, like a deaf man, do not hear; and I am like a mute who does not open his mouth.

Psa 38:14 Thus I am like a man who does not hear, and in whose mouth is no response.

Psa 38:15 For in You, O Jehovah, I hope; You will hear, O Jehovah my God.

Psa 38:16 For I said, "Hear me, lest they rejoice over me, lest, when my foot slips, they magnify themselves against me."

Psa 38:17 For I am ready to fall, and my sorrow is continually before me.

Psa 38:18 For I will declare my iniquity; I will be in anguish over my sin.

Psa 38:19 But my enemies are vigorous, and they are strong; and those who hate me wrongfully have multiplied.

Psa 38:20 Those also who render evil for good, they are my adversaries, because I follow what is good.

Psa 38:21 Do not forsake me, O Jehovah; O my God, do not be far from me!

Psa 38:22 Hasten eagerly to help me, O Jehovah, my salvation!

To the chief musician, to Jeduthun. A Psalm of David.

Psa 39:1 I said, "I will guard my ways, lest I sin with my tongue; I will restrain my mouth with a muzzle, while the wicked are before me."

Psa 39:2 I was mute with silence, I held my peace even from good; and my sorrow was stirred up.

Psa 39:3 My heart was hot within me; while I was musing, the fire burned. Then I spoke with my tongue:

Psa 39:4 "Jehovah, make me to know my end, and what is the measure of my days, that I may know how frail I am.

Psa 39:5 Indeed, You have made my days as handbreadths, and my age is as nothing before You; certainly every man at his best state is but vapour. Selah.

Psa 39:6 Surely every man walks about like a shadow; surely they busy themselves worthlessly. He heaps up riches, and does not know who will gather them.

Psa 39:7 "And now, Jehovah, what do I wait for? My hope is in You.

Psa 39:8 Deliver me from all my transgressions; do not make me the reproach of the foolish.

Psa 39:9 I was mute, I did not open my mouth, because it was You who did it.

Psa 39:10 Remove Your plague from me. I am consumed by the blow of Your hand.

Psa 39:11 When You correct man for iniquity with rebukes, You make his beauty melt away like a moth; surely every man is vapour. Selah.

Psa 39:12 "Hear my prayer, O Jehovah, and give ear to my cry; do not be silent at my tears; for I am an immigrant with You, a sojourner, as all my fathers were.

Psa 39:13 Remove Your gaze from me, that I may regain strength, before I go away and am no more."

To the chief musician. A Psalm of David.

Psa 40:1 I waited patiently for Jehovah; and He turned towards me, and heard my cry.

Psa 40:2 He also brought me up out of a horrible pit, out of the miry clay, and set my feet upon a rock, and established my steps.

Psa 40:3 He has put a new song in my mouth. Praise to our God! Many will see it and fear, and will trust in Jehovah.

Psa 40:4 Blessed is that man who makes Jehovah his trust, and does not respect the proud, nor such as turn aside to lies.

Psa 40:5 Many, O Jehovah¹ my God, are

Your wonderful works which You have done; and Your thoughts which are toward us cannot be recounted to You in order. If I would declare and speak of them, they are more than can be numbered.

Psa 40:6 You did not desire sacrifice and offering; but You prepared a body for me;¹ You did not require burnt offering and sin offering.

Psa 40:7 Then I said, "Behold, I come; in the scroll of the Book it is written of me.

Psa 40:8 I delight to do Your will, O my God, and Your Instructions are within my heart."²

Psa 40:9 I have proclaimed the Good News of righteousness in the great congregation. Indeed, I do not restrain my lips, O Jehovah; You Yourself know.

Psa 40:10 I have not hidden Your righteousness within my heart; I have declared Your faithfulness and Your salvation; I have not concealed Your loving-kindness and Your truth from the great congregation.

Psa 40:11 Do not withhold Your tender mercies from me, O Jehovah; let Your loving-kindness and Your truth continually preserve me.

Psa 40:12 For innumerable evils have surrounded me; my iniquities have overtaken me, so that I am not able to look up; they are more than the hairs of my head; therefore my heart fails me.

Psa 40:13 Be pleased, O Jehovah, to deliver me; O Jehovah, hasten eagerly to help me!

Psa 40:14 Let them be ashamed and brought to mutual confusion who seek to destroy my soul. Let them be driven backward and brought to dishonour who wish me evil.

Psa 40:15 Let them be appalled because of their shame, who say to me, "Aha, Aha!"

Psa 40:16 Let all those who seek You rejoice and be glad in You; let such as love Your salvation say continually, "Jehovah be magnified!"

Psa 40:17 But I am poor and needy; yet Jehovah thinks upon me. You are my help and my deliverer; do not delay, O my God.

To the chief musician. A Psalm of David.

Psa 41:1 Blessed is he who considers the poor. Jehovah will deliver him in evil times.

Psa 41:2 Jehovah will preserve him and keep him alive, and he will be blessed on the earth. You will not deliver him to the souls of his enemies.

Psa 41:3 Jehovah will strengthen him on his bed of illness; You will sustain him on his sickbed.

Psa 41:4 I said, "Jehovah, be merciful to me. Heal my soul, for I have sinned against You."

Psa 41:5 My enemies speak evil of me: "When will he die, and his name perish?"

Psa 41:6 And if he comes to see me, he speaks vain words. His heart gathers iniquity to itself; when he goes out, he tells it.

Psa 41:7 All who hate me whisper together against me; they devise evil against me.

Psa 41:8 "An evil disease," they say, "clings to him. And now that he lies down, he will rise up no more."

Psa 41:9 Even my own familiar friend in whom I trusted, who ate my bread, has lifted up his heel against me.³

Psa 41:10 But You, O Jehovah, be merciful to me, and raise me up, that I may repay them.

Psa 41:11 By this I know that You are well pleased with me, because my enemy

Psa 41:12 As for me, You uphold me in my integrity, and set me before Your face forever.

Psa 41:13 Blessed be Jehovah God of Israel from everlasting to everlasting! Amen and Amen.

Book Two—Psalms 42 to 72

To the chief musician. A Contemplation for the sons of Korah.

Psa 42:1 As the deer pants for the brooks of water, so my soul pants for You, O God.

Psa 42:2 My soul thirsts for God, for the living God. When will I come and appear before God?¹

Psa 42:3 My tears have been my food day and night, while they continually say to me, “Where is your God?”

Psa 42:4 When I remember these things, I pour out my soul within me. For I used to go with the crowd; I went with them to the House of God, with the voice of joy and praise, with a crowd that celebrated.

Psa 42:5 Why are you cast down, O my soul? And why are you disquieted within me? Hope in God, for I will yet praise Him for the help of His countenance.

Psa 42:6 O my God, my soul is cast down within me; therefore I will remember You from the land of the Jordan, and from the heights of Hermon, from the Hill Mizar.

Psa 42:7 Deep calls unto deep at the noise of Your waterfalls; all Your waves and billows have gone over me.

Psa 42:8 Jehovah will command His loving-kindness in the daytime, and in the night His song will be with me; a prayer to the God of my life.

Psa 42:9 I will say to God my Rock, “Why have You forgotten me? Why do I go mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?”

Psa 42:10 As with a breaking of my bones, my enemies reproach me, while they say to me all day long, “Where is your God?”

Psa 42:11 Why are you cast down, O my soul? And why are you disquieted within me? Hope in God; for I will yet praise Him, the help of my countenance and my God.

Psa 43:1 Judge me, O God, and plead my cause against an ungodly nation. Oh, deliver me from the deceitful and unjust man!

Psa 43:2 For You are the God of my stronghold; why do You cast me off? Why do I go mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?

Psa 43:3 Oh, send out Your light and Your truth! Let them lead me; let them bring me to Your sanctified hill and to Your booth.

Psa 43:4 Then I will go to the altar of God, to God, the gladness of my joy; and on the harp I will praise You, O God, my God.

Psa 43:5 Why are you cast down, O my soul? And why are you disquieted within me? Hope in God; for I will yet praise Him, the help of my countenance and my God.

To the chief musician. A Contemplation for the sons of Korah.

Psa 44:1 We have heard with our ears, O God, our fathers have told us what deeds You did in their days, in days of old.

Psa 44:2 How You drove out the nations with Your hand, but them You planted; how You afflicted the peoples, and cast them out.

Psa 44:3 For they did not gain possession of the land by their own sword, nor did their own arm save them; but it was Your right hand, Your arm, and the light of Your countenance, because You favoured them.

Psa 44:4 You are my King, O God; command victories for Jacob.

Psa 44:5 Through You we will push down our enemies; through Your Name we will trample those who rise up against us.

Psa 44:6 For I will not trust in my bow, nor will my sword save me.

Psa 44:7 But You have saved us from our enemies, and have put to shame those who hated us.

Psa 44:8 In God we boast all day long, and praise Your Name forever. Selah.

Psa 44:9 But You have cast us off and put us to shame, and You do not go out with our armies.

Psa 44:10 You make us turn back from the enemy, and those who hate us have taken spoil for themselves.

Psa 44:11 You have given us over like sheep to be eaten, and have scattered us among the nations.

Psa 44:12 You sell Your people for naught, and are not enriched by their price.

Psa 44:13 You make us a reproach to our neighbours, a scorn and a derision to those all around us.

Psa 44:14 You make us a proverb among the nations, a shaking of the head among the peoples.

Psa 44:15 My dishonour is continually before me, and the shame of my face has covered me, Psa 44:16 because of the voice of him who reproaches and reviles, because of the enemy and the avenger.

Psa 44:17 All this has come upon us; but we have not forgotten You, nor have we dealt falsely with Your covenant.

Psa 44:18 Our heart has not turned back, nor have our steps departed from Your way;

Psa 44:19 but You have severely broken us in the place of dragons, and covered us with the shadow of death.

Psa 44:20 If we had forgotten the name of our God, or stretched out our hands to a foreign god,

Psa 44:21 would God not search this out, for He knows the secrets of the heart?

Psa 44:22 Yet for Your sake we are killed all day long; we are counted as sheep for the slaughter.¹

Psa 44:23 Awake! Why do You sleep, O Jehovah? Arise! Do not cast us off forever.

Psa 44:24 Why do You hide Your face, and forget our affliction and our oppression?

Psa 44:25 For our soul is bowed down to the dust; our body clings to the ground.

Psa 44:26 Arise for our help, and redeem us for Your mercy's sake.

To the Chief Musician, Concerning the Lilies. For the sons of Korah. A Poem; a Song of the Beloved.

Psa 45:1 My heart is overflowing with a good theme; I recite my composition concerning the King; my tongue is the pen of a ready writer.

Psa 45:2 You are fairer than the sons of men; grace is poured upon Your lips; therefore God has blessed You forever.

Psa 45:3 Gird Your sword upon Your thigh, O Mighty One, with Your glory and Your majesty.

Psa 45:4 And in Your majesty ride prosperously because of truth, humility, and righteousness; and Your right hand will teach You awesome things.

Psa 45:5 Your arrows are sharp in the heart of the King's enemies; the peoples fall under You.

Psa 45:6 Your throne, O God, is forever and ever; a Branch of righteousness is the Branch of Your kingdom.

Psa 45:7 You love righteousness and hate wickedness; therefore God, Your God, has anointed You with the oil of gladness more than Your companions.¹

Psa 45:8 All Your garments are scented with myrrh and aloes and cassia, out of the ivory palaces, by which they have made You glad.

Psa 45:9 Kings' daughters are among Your honourable women; at Your right hand stands the queen wearing refined gold from Ophir.

Psa 45:10 Listen, O daughter, consider and incline your ear; forget your own people also, and your father's house;

Psa 45:11 so the King will greatly desire your beauty. Because He is your Lord, worship Him.

Psa 45:12 And the daughter of Tyre will be there with a gift. The rich among the people will seek your favour.

Psa 45:13 The royal daughter is all glorious within the palace; her clothing is woven with gold.

Psa 45:14 She will be brought to the King in robes of many colours; the virgins, her companions who follow her, will be brought to You.

Psa 45:15 With gladness and rejoicing they will be brought; they will enter the King's Palace.

Psa 45:16 Instead of Your fathers will be Your sons, whom You will make princes in all the earth.

Psa 45:17 I will make Your Name to be remembered in all generations; therefore the people will praise You forever and ever.

To the chief musician. For the sons of Korah; A song. For the Virgins.

Psa 46:1 God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble.

Psa 46:2 Therefore we will not fear, though the earth be removed, and though the mountains be carried into the midst of the sea;

Psa 46:3 Though its waters roar and be troubled, though the mountains shake with its swelling. Selah.

Psa 46:4 There is a river whose streams will make the City of God glad, the sacred of the Booth of the Most High.

Psa 46:5 God is in the midst of her, she will not waver; God will help her, just at the break of dawn.

Psa 46:6 The nations raged, the kingdoms tottered; He uttered His voice, the earth melted.

Psa 46:7 Jehovah of Hosts² is with us; the God of Jacob is our refuge. Selah.

Psa 46:8 Come, behold the works of Jehovah, who has done astonishing things in the earth:

Psa 46:9 He makes wars cease to the end of the earth; He breaks the bow and cuts the spear in two; He burns the chariot in the fire.³

Psa 46:10 Be still, and know that I am God. I will be exalted among the nations, I will be exalted in the earth!

Psa 46:11 Jehovah of Hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our refuge. Selah.

To the chief musician. A Psalm for the Sons of Korah.

Psa 47:1 Oh, clap your hands, all you peoples! Shout to God with the voice of joy!

Psa 47:2 For Jehovah Most High is awesome; He is a great King over all the earth.

Psa 47:3 He will subdue the peoples under us, and the nations under our feet.

Psa 47:4 He will choose our inheritance for us, the excellence of Jacob whom He loves. Selah.

Psa 47:5 God has gone up with a shout,

Jehovah¹ with the sound of a shophar.

Psa 47:6 Sing praises to God, sing praises! Sing praises to our King, sing praises!

Psa 47:7 For God is the King of all the earth; sing praises with understanding.

Psa 47:8 God reigns over the nations; God sits on His sanctified throne.

Psa 47:9 The princes of the people have gathered together, the people of the God of Abraham. For the shields of the earth belong to God; He is greatly exalted.

A Song, A Psalm for the Sons of Korah.

Psa 48:1 Great is Jehovah, and greatly to be praised in the city of our God, on His sanctified mountain.

Psa 48:2 Beautiful in elevation, the joy of the whole earth, is Mount Zion on the sides of the north, the city of the great King.

Psa 48:3 God is in her Palace; He is known as her refuge.

Psa 48:4 For behold, the kings assembled, they passed by together.

Psa 48:5 They saw it, and so they marvelled; they were troubled, they hastened away.

Psa 48:6 Fear took hold of them there, and pain, as of a woman in travail, Psa 48:7 as when You break the ships of Tarshish with an east wind.

Psa 48:8 As we have heard, so we have seen in the city of Jehovah of Hosts, in the city of our God: God will establish it forever. Selah.

Psa 48:9 We have thought, O God, on Your loving-kindness in the midst of Your Palace.

Psa 48:10 According to Your Name, O God, so is Your praise to the ends of the earth; Your right hand is full of righteousness.

Psa 48:11 Let Mount Zion rejoice, let the daughters of Judah be glad because of Your judgements.

Psa 48:12 Walk about Zion, and go all around her. Count her towers;

Psa 48:13 mark well her bulwarks; consider her palaces; that you may tell it to the generation following.

Psa 48:14 For this is God, our God forever and ever; He will be our guide even to death.

To the chief musician, A Psalm for the Sons of Korah.

Psa 49:1 Hear this, all peoples; give ear, all you inhabitants of the world,

Psa 49:2 both low and high, rich and poor together.

Psa 49:3 My mouth will speak wisdom, and the meditation of my heart will bring understanding.

Psa 49:4 I will incline my ear to a proverb; I will disclose my dark saying on the harp.

Psa 49:5 Why should I fear in the days of evil, when the iniquity at my heels surrounds me?

Psa 49:6 Those who trust in their wealth and boast in the multitude of their riches,

Psa 49:7 none of them can by any means redeem his brother, nor give to God a ransom for him;

Psa 49:8 for the redemption of their souls is costly, and it will cease forever;

Psa 49:9 that he should continue to live always, and not look unto the Pit.

Psa 49:10 For he sees that wise men die; likewise the fool and the senseless person perish, and leave their wealth to others.

Psa 49:11 Their inner thought is that their houses will continue forever, and their booths to all generations; they call their lands after their own names.

Psa 49:12 Nevertheless man, though in honour, does not remain; he is like the beasts that perish.

Psa 49:13 This is the way of those who are foolish, and of their posterity who agree with their mouths. Selah.

Psa 49:14 Like sheep they are laid in Sheol; death will feed on them. The upright will have dominion over them in the morning, and their beauty will be consumed in Sheol, far from their dwelling.

Psa 49:15 But God will redeem my soul from the power of Sheol, for He will receive me. Selah.¹

Psa 49:16 Do not be afraid when one becomes rich, when the glory of his house is increased;

Psa 49:17 for when he dies he will carry nothing away; his glory will not descend after him.

Psa 49:18 Though while he lives he blesses his soul, for men will praise you when you do well for yourself,

Psa 49:19 he will go to the generation of his fathers; they will never see light.

Psa 49:20 Man who is in honour, yet does not understand, is like the beasts that perish.

A Psalm of Asaph.

Psa 50:1 The Mighty One, God Jehovah, has spoken and called the earth from the rising of the sun to its setting.

Psa 50:2 Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty, God will shine forth.

Psa 50:3 Our God will come, and will not keep silent; a fire will devour before Him, and it will be very tempestuous all around Him.

Psa 50:4 He will call to the heavens from above, and to the earth, that He may judge His people:

Psa 50:5 "Gather My saints together to Me, those who have made a covenant with Me by sacrifice."

Psa 50:6 Let the heavens declare His righteousness, for God Himself is Judge. Selah.

Psa 50:7 "Hear, O My people, and I will speak, O Israel, and I will testify against you; I AM! I am God, your God!

Psa 50:8 I do not reprove you for your sacrifices or your burnt offerings, which are continually before Me.

Psa 50:9 But I will not take a bull from your house, nor goats out of your folds.

Psa 50:10 For every animal of the forest is Mine, and the cattle on a thousand hills.

Psa 50:11 I know all the flying creatures of the mountains, and the wild beasts of the field are Mine.

Psa 50:12 "If I were hungry, I would not tell you; for the world is Mine and all its fullness.

Psa 50:13 Will I eat the flesh of bulls or drink the blood of goats?

Psa 50:14 Offer to God thanksgiving and pay your vows to the Most High.

Psa 50:15 Call upon Me in the day of trouble; I will deliver you and you will glorify Me."

Psa 50:16 But God says to the wicked: "What right do you have to declare My statutes, or take My covenant in your mouth, Psa 50:17 seeing that you hate correction and cast My words behind you?

Psa 50:18 When you saw a thief, you consented with him, and have been a partaker with adulterers.

Psa 50:19 You give your mouth to evil and your tongue fastens to deceit.²

Psa 50:20 You sit and speak against your brother; you slander your own mother's son.

Psa 50:21 These things you have done, and I kept silent. You thought that I was altogether like you; but I will reprove you, and set them in order before your eyes.

Psa 50:22 "Now consider this, you who forget God, lest I tear you in pieces, and there be none to deliver:

Psa 50:23 Whoever offers thanksgiving honours Me; and he who directs his way I will show the salvation of God.”

To the chief musician, A Psalm of David when Nathan the prophet came to him, after he had gone into Bathsheba.

Psa 51:1 Have mercy upon me, O God! According to Your loving-kindness; according to the multitude of Your tender mercies, blot out my transgressions.

Psa 51:2 Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity and cleanse me from my sin.

Psa 51:3 For I acknowledge my transgressions and my sin is always before me.

Psa 51:4 Against You, You only, have I sinned, and done this evil in Your sight; that You may be found righteous when You speak and pure when You judge.¹

Psa 51:5 Behold, I was brought forth in iniquity, and my mother conceived me in sin.

Psa 51:6 Behold, You desire truth in the inward parts, and in the hidden part You will make me to know wisdom.

Psa 51:7 Purge me with hyssop, and I will be clean; wash me, and I will be whiter than snow.

Psa 51:8 Make me to hear joy and gladness, that the bones which You have broken may rejoice.

Psa 51:9 Hide Your face from my sins and blot out all my iniquities.

Psa 51:10 Create in me a clean heart, O God, and renew a steadfast spirit within me.

Psa 51:11 Do not cast me away from Your presence and do not take Your sanctifying Spirit from me.

Psa 51:12 Restore to me the joy of Your salvation and uphold me with Your generous Spirit.

Psa 51:13 Then I will teach transgressors Your ways and sinners will be converted to You.

Psa 51:14 Deliver me from blood-guiltiness, O God, the God of my salvation, and my tongue will sing aloud of Your righteousness.

Psa 51:15 O Jehovah, open my lips, and my mouth will show forth Your praise.

Psa 51:16 For You do not delight that I should give sacrifices, You take no pleasure from burnt offering.

Psa 51:17 The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit, a broken and a contrite heart. These, O God, You will not despise.

Psa 51:18 Do good in Your good pleasure to Zion; build the walls of Jerusalem.

Psa 51:19 Then You will be pleased with the sacrifices of righteousness, with burnt offering and whole burnt offering; then they will offer bulls on Your altar.

To the chief musician. A Contemplation. A Psalm of David when Doeg the Edomite came and told Saul, and said to him, David has come to the house of Ahimelech.

Psa 52:1 Why do you boast in evil, O mighty man? The goodness of God endures continually.

Psa 52:2 Your tongue devises destruction, like a sharp razor, working deceitfully.

Psa 52:3 You love evil more than good, and lying rather than speaking righteousness. Selah.

Psa 52:4 You love all devouring words, you deceitful tongue.

Psa 52:5 God will likewise destroy you forever; He will take you away, and pluck you out of your tent, and uproot you from the land of the living. Selah.

Psa 52:6 The righteous also will see and fear, and will laugh at him, saying,

Psa 52:7 “Here is the man who did not make God his stronghold, but trusted in the abundance of his riches, and strengthened himself in his wickedness.”

Psa 52:8 But I am like a green olive tree in the House of God; I trust in the mercy of God forever and ever.

Psa 52:9 I will praise You forever, because You have done it; and in the presence of Your saints I will wait on Your Name, for it is good.

To the Chief musician on Mahalath. A Contemplation; A Psalm of David.

Psa 53:1 The fool has said in his heart, “There is no Jehovah.” They are corrupt, and have done abominable iniquity; there is none who does good.

Psa 53:2 Jehovah looks down from heaven upon the children of men, to see if there are any who understand, who seek Jehovah.

Psa 53:3 Every one of them has turned aside; they have together become corrupt; there is none who does good. No, not one.¹

Psa 53:4 Have the workers of iniquity no knowledge, who eat up my people as they eat bread, and do not call upon Jehovah?

Psa 53:5 There they are in great fear where no fear was, for Jehovah has scattered the bones of him who encamps against you; You have put them to shame, because God has despised them.

Psa 53:6 Oh, that the salvation of Israel would come out of Zion! When Jehovah brings back the captivity of His people, let Jacob rejoice and Israel be glad.

To the Chief Musician on Neginoth. A Contemplation; A Psalm of David, when the Ziphites came and said to Saul, Does David not hide himself among us?

Psa 54:1 Save me, O God, by Your Name, and vindicate me by Your strength.

Psa 54:2 Hear my prayer, O God. Give ear to the words of my mouth.

Psa 54:3 For strangers have risen up against me, and oppressors have sought after my soul. They have not set God before them. Selah.

Psa 54:4 Behold, God is my helper; Jehovah is with those who uphold my life.

Psa 54:5 He will repay my enemies for their evil. Cut them off in Your truth.

Psa 54:6 I will freely sacrifice to You; I will praise Your Name, O Jehovah, for it is good.

Psa 54:7 For He has delivered me out of all trouble; and my eye has seen its desire upon my enemies.

To the Chief Musician on Neginoth. A Contemplation. A Psalm of David.

Psa 55:1 Give ear to my prayer, O God, and do not hide Yourself from my supplication.

Psa 55:2 Attend to me, and hear me; I am restless in my complaint, and moan noisily, Psa 55:3 because of the voice of the enemy, because of the oppression of the wicked; for they bring down trouble upon me, and in wrath they hate me.

Psa 55:4 My heart is severely pained within me, and the terrors of death have fallen upon me.

Psa 55:5 Fearfulness and trembling have come upon me, and horror has overwhelmed me.

Psa 55:6 And I said, “Oh, that I had wings like a dove, for then I would fly away and be at rest.

Psa 55:7 Indeed, I would wander far off, and remain in the wilderness. Selah.

Psa 55:8 I would hasten my escape from the windy storm and tempest.”

Psa 55:9 Destroy, O Jehovah and divide their tongues, for I have seen violence and strife in the city.

Psa 55:10 Day and night they go around it on its walls. Iniquity and trouble are also in the midst of it.

Psa 55:11 Destruction is in its midst; deceit and guile do not depart from its streets.

Psa 55:12 For it is not an enemy who reproaches me; then I could bear it. Nor is it one who hates me who has magnified himself against me; then I could hide from him.

Psa 55:13 But it was you, a man my equal, my companion and my acquaintance.

Psa 55:14 We took sweet counsel together, and walked to the House of God in the throng.

Psa 55:15 Let death seize them; let them go down to Sheol alive, for evil is in their dwellings and among them.

Psa 55:16 As for me, I will call upon God, and Jehovah will save me.

Psa 55:17 Evening and morning and at noon I will pray, and cry aloud, and He will hear my voice.

Psa 55:18 He has redeemed my soul in peace from the battle which was against me, for there were many against me.

Psa 55:19 God will hear and afflict them, even He who abides from of old. Selah. Because they do not change, therefore they do not fear God.

Psa 55:20 He has put forth his hands against those who were at peace with him; he has defiled his covenant.

Psa 55:21 The words of his mouth were smoother than butter, but war was in his heart. His words were softer than oil, yet they were drawn swords.

Psa 55:22 Cast your burden on Jehovah, and He will sustain you; He will never permit the righteous to waver.¹

Psa 55:23 But You, O God, will bring them down to the pit of pits; bloodthirsty and deceitful men will not live out half their days; but I will trust in You.

To the chief musician. Concerning the silent dove, those far off. Of David, a secret treasure when the Philistines seized him in Gath.

Psa 56:1 Be merciful to me, O God, for man would swallow me up; fighting all day he oppresses me.

Psa 56:2 My enemies would hound me all day, for there are many who fight against me, O Most High.

Psa 56:3 Whenever I am afraid, I will trust in You.

Psa 56:4 In God, I will praise His word, in God I have put my trust; I will not fear. What can flesh do to me?

Psa 56:5 All day they twist my words; all their thoughts are against me for evil.

Psa 56:6 They gather together, they hide, they mark my steps, when they lie in wait for my soul.

Psa 56:7 Shall they escape by iniquity? In anger cast down the peoples, O God!

Psa 56:8 You number my wanderings; put my tears into Your bottle; are they not in Your book?

Psa 56:9 When I cry out to You, then my enemies will turn back; this I know, because God is for me.

Psa 56:10 In God, I will praise His word, in Jehovah, I will praise His word.

Psa 56:11 In God I have put my trust; I will not be afraid. What can man do to me?

Psa 56:12 Vows made to You are binding upon me, O God. I will render praises to You, Psa 56:13 for You have delivered my soul from death. Have You not delivered my feet from falling, that I may walk before God in the light of the living?

To the chief musician. Do not destroy. A secret treasure of David, when he fled from Saul in the cave.

Psa 57:1 Be merciful to me, O God, be merciful to me! For my soul trusts in You; and in the shadow of Your wings I will make my refuge, until these calamities have passed by.

Psa 57:2 I will cry out to God Most High, to God who performs all things for me.

Psa 57:3 He will send from heaven and save me; He reproaches the one who would swallow me up. Selah. God will send forth His mercy and His truth.

Psa 57:4 My soul is among lions; I lie among the sons of men who are set on fire, whose teeth are spears and arrows, and their tongue a sharp sword.

Psa 57:5 Be exalted, O God, above the heavens. Let Your glory be above all the earth.

Psa 57:6 They have prepared a net for my steps; my soul is bowed down; they have dug a pit before me. Into the midst of it they have fallen. Selah.

Psa 57:7 My heart is steadfast, O God, my heart is steadfast; I will sing and give praise.

Psa 57:8 Awake, my glory! Awake, lute and harp! I will awaken the dawn.

Psa 57:9 I will praise You, O Jehovah, among the peoples; I will sing to You among the nations.

Psa 57:10 For Your mercy reaches unto the heavens, and Your truth unto the clouds.

Psa 57:11 Be exalted, O God, above the heavens; let Your glory be above all the earth.

To the chief musician. Do not destroy. A secret treasure of David.

Psa 58:1 Do you indeed speak righteousness, you silent ones? Do you judge uprightly, you sons of men?

Psa 58:2 No, in your heart you work wickedness. You weigh out the violence of your hands in the earth.

Psa 58:3 The wicked are estranged from the womb; they go astray as soon as they are born, speaking lies.

Psa 58:4 Their poison is like the poison of a serpent; they are like the deaf cobra that stops its ear, Psa 58:5 which will not heed the voice of charmers, charming ever so skilfully.

Psa 58:6 Break their teeth in their mouth, O God! Break out the fangs of the young lions, O Jehovah!

Psa 58:7 Let them flow away as waters which run continually; when he bends his bow, let his arrows be as if cut in pieces.

Psa 58:8 Let them be like a snail which melts away as it goes, like a woman's stillborn child, that they may not see the sun.

Psa 58:9 Before your pots can feel the burning thorns, He will take them away as with a whirlwind, in His living and burning wrath.

Psa 58:10 The righteous will rejoice when he sees the vengeance; He will wash his feet in the blood of the wicked,

Psa 58:11 So that men will say, "Surely there is a reward for the righteous; surely He is God who judges in the earth."

To the chief musician. Do not destroy. A secret treasure of David, when Saul sent, and they watched the house to kill him.

Psa 59:1 Deliver me from my enemies, O my God; defend me from those who rise up against me.

Psa 59:2 Deliver me from the workers of iniquity, and save me from bloodthirsty men.

Psa 59:3 For look, they lie in wait for my soul. The mighty gather against me, not for my transgression nor for my sin, O Jehovah.

Psa 59:4 They run and prepare themselves through no iniquity of mine. Awake to help me, and behold!

Psa 59:5 You therefore, O Jehovah God of hosts, the God of Israel, awake to punish all the nations; do not be merciful to any wicked transgressors. Selah.

Psa 59:6 At evening they return, they growl like a dog, and go all around the city.

Psa 59:7 Indeed, they gush forth with their mouths; swords are in their lips; for they say, "Who hears?"

Psa 59:8 But You, O Jehovah, will laugh at them; You will mock all the nations.

Psa 59:9 O You, His Strength, I will wait for You, for God is my defence.

Psa 59:10 My merciful God will come to meet me; God will let me see my desire on my enemies.

Psa 59:11 Do not slay them, lest my people forget; scatter them by Your power, and bring them down, O Jehovah our shield.

Psa 59:12 For the sin of their mouth and the words of their lips, let them even be taken in their pride, and for the cursing and lying which they speak.

Psa 59:13 Consume them in wrath, consume them, that they may not be; and let them know that God rules in Jacob to the ends of the earth. Selah.

Psa 59:14 And at evening they return, they growl like a dog, and go all around the city.

Psa 59:15 They wander up and down for food, and howl if they are not satisfied.

Psa 59:16 But I will sing of Your power; yes, I will sing aloud of Your mercy in the morning; for You have been my defence and refuge in the day of my trouble.

Psa 59:17 To You, O my Strength, I will sing praises; for God is my defence, the God of my mercy.

To the chief musician. On the Lily of Testimony. A secret treasure of David, to teach; when he struggled with Aramnaharaim, and with Aram-zobah; when Joab returned, and struck twelve thousand of Edom in the Valley of Salt.

Psa 60:1 O God, You have cast us off; You have broken us down; You have been displeased; oh, restore us again!

Psa 60:2 You have made the earth tremble; You have broken it. Heal its breaches, for it is shaking.

Psa 60:3 You have shown Your people hard things; You have made us drink the wine of confusion.

Psa 60:4 You have given a banner to those who fear You, that it may be displayed because of the truth. Selah.

Psa 60:5 That Your beloved may be delivered, save with Your right hand, and hear me.

Psa 60:6 God has spoken in His sanctuary: "I will rejoice; I will divide Shechem and measure out the Valley of Succoth.

Psa 60:7 Gilead is Mine, and Manasseh is Mine; Ephraim also is the stronghold for My leaders; Judah is My lawgiver.

Psa 60:8 Moab is My washpot; over Edom I will cast My shoe; Philistia, I shout in triumph over you."

Psa 60:9 Who will bring me into the strong city? Who will lead me to Edom?

Psa 60:10 Is it not You, O God, who cast us off? And You, O God, who did not go out with our armies?

Psa 60:11 Give us help from trouble, for the help of man is vain.

Psa 60:12 Through God we will do valiantly, for it is He who will tread down our enemies.

To the chief musician. On stringed instruments. Of David.

Psa 61:1 Hear my cry, O God; attend to my prayer.

Psa 61:2 From the end of the earth I will cry to You, when my heart is overwhelmed; lead me to the rock that is higher than I.

Psa 61:3 For You have been a shelter for me, and a strong tower from the enemy.

Psa 61:4 I will abide in Your tent forever; I will trust in the shelter of Your wings. Selah.

Psa 61:5 For You, O God, have heard my vows; You have given me the heritage of those who fear Your Name.

Psa 61:6 You will prolong the king's life, his years as many generations.

Psa 61:7 He will abide before God forever. Oh, prepare mercy and truth, which may preserve him!

Psa 61:8 So I will sing praise to Your Name forever, that I may daily perform my vows.

To the chief musician. To Jeduthun. A Psalm of David.

Psa 62:1 Truly my soul waits silently for God; my salvation comes from Him.

Psa 62:2 He alone is my rock and my salvation. He is my defence; I will not waver greatly.

Psa 62:3 How long will you attack a man? You will be slain, all of you, like a leaning wall and a tottering fence.

Psa 62:4 They only consult to cast him down from his high position. They delight in lies; they bless with their mouth, but they curse inwardly. Selah.

Psa 62:5 My soul, wait silently for God alone, for my expectation is from Him.

Psa 62:6 He alone is my rock and my salvation. He is my defence; I will not waver.

Psa 62:7 My salvation and my glory is in God; the rock of my strength, and my refuge is in God.

Psa 62:8 Trust in Him at all times, you people; pour out your heart before Him.

God is a refuge for us. Selah.

Psa 62:9 Surely men of low degree are a vapour, men of high degree are a lie. If they are weighed in the balances, they are altogether lighter than vapour.

Psa 62:10 Do not trust in oppression, nor vainly hope in robbery. If riches increase, do not set your heart on them.

Psa 62:11 God has spoken once, twice I have heard this: "That power belongs to God."

Psa 62:12 Also to You, O Jehovah, belongs mercy; for You render to each one according to his work.¹

A Psalm of David, when he was in the wilderness of Judah.

Psa 63:1 O God, You are my God; early will I seek You. My soul thirsts for You; my flesh longs for You as in a dry and thirsty land where there is no water.

Psa 63:2 So I have looked for You in the sanctuary, to see Your power and Your glory.

Psa 63:3 Because Your loving-kindness is better than life, my lips will praise You.

Psa 63:4 Thus I will bless You while I live; I will lift up my hands in Your Name.

Psa 63:5 My soul will be satisfied as with marrow and fatness, and my mouth will praise You with joyful lips.

Psa 63:6 When I remember You on my bed, I meditate on You in the night watches.

Psa 63:7 Because You have been my help, therefore I will rejoice in the shadow of Your wings.

Psa 63:8 My soul follows close behind You; Your right hand upholds me.

Psa 63:9 But those who seek my life, to destroy it, will go into the lower parts of the earth.

Psa 63:10 They will fall by the sword; they will be a portion for jackals.

¹ Mat 16:27, Rom 2:6, 2Ti 4:14

Psa 63:11 But the king will rejoice in God. Everyone who swears by Him will glory; but the mouth of those who speak lies will be stopped.

To the chief musician. A Psalm of David.

Psa 64:1 Hear my voice, O God, in my meditation; preserve my life from fear of the enemy.

Psa 64:2 Hide me from the secret counsel of the wicked, from the insurrection of the workers of iniquity,

Psa 64:3 who sharpen their tongue like a sword, and bend their bows to shoot their arrows: bitter words,

Psa 64:4 that they may shoot in secret at the blameless; suddenly they shoot at him and do not fear.

Psa 64:5 They encourage themselves in an evil matter; they talk of laying snares secretly; they say, "Who will see them?"

Psa 64:6 They devise iniquities: "We have perfected a shrewd scheme." Both the inward thought and the heart of man are deep.

Psa 64:7 But God will shoot at them with an arrow; suddenly they will be wounded.

Psa 64:8 So He will make them stumble over their own tongue; all who see them will flee away.

Psa 64:9 All men will fear, and will declare the work of God; for they will wisely consider His doing.

Psa 64:10 The righteous will be glad in Jehovah, and trust in Him. And all the upright in heart will glory.

To the chief musician. A Psalm and Song of David.

Psa 65:1 Praise is awaiting You, O God, in Zion; and to You the vow will be performed.

Psa 65:2 O You who hear prayer, to You all flesh will come.

Psa 65:3 Iniquities prevail against me; as for our transgressions, You will provide atonement for them.

Psa 65:4 Blessed is the man whom You choose, and cause to approach You, that he may dwell in Your courts. We will be satisfied with the goodness of Your House, of Your sacred Palace.

Psa 65:5 By awesome deeds in righteousness You will answer us, O God of our salvation, You who are the confidence of all the ends of the earth, and of the far-off seas;

Psa 65:6 who established the mountains by His strength, being clothed with power;

Psa 65:7 You who still the noise of the seas, the noise of their waves, and the tumult of the peoples.

Psa 65:8 They also who dwell in the farthest parts are afraid of Your signs; You make the outgoings of the morning and evening rejoice.

Psa 65:9 You visit the earth and water it, You greatly enrich it; the river of God is full of water; You provide their grain, for so You have prepared it.

Psa 65:10 You water its ridges abundantly, You settle its furrows; You make it soft with showers, You bless its growth.

Psa 65:11 You crown the year with Your goodness, and Your paths drip with abundance.

Psa 65:12 They drop on the pastures of the wilderness, and the little hills rejoice on every side.

Psa 65:13 The pastures are clothed with flocks; the valleys also are covered with grain; they shout for joy, they also sing.

To the chief musician. A Song. A Psalm.

Psa 66:1 Make a joyful shout to God, all the earth!

Psa 66:2 Sing out the honour of His Name; make His praise glorious.

Psa 66:3 Say to God, "How awesome are

Your works! Through the greatness of Your power Your enemies will submit themselves to You.

Psa 66:4 All the earth will worship You and sing praises to You; they will sing praises to Your Name.” Selah.

Psa 66:5 Come and see the works of God; He is awesome in His doing toward the sons of men.

Psa 66:6 He turned the sea into dry land; they went through the river on foot. There we will rejoice in Him.¹

Psa 66:7 He rules by His power forever; His eyes observe the nations; do not let the rebellious exalt themselves. Selah.

Psa 66:8 Oh, bless our God, you peoples! And make the voice of His praise to be heard, Psa 66:9 He who keeps our soul among the living, and does not allow our feet to be moved.

Psa 66:10 For You, O God, have proved us; You have refined us as silver is refined.

Psa 66:11 You brought us into the net; You laid affliction on our backs.

Psa 66:12 You have caused men to ride over our heads; we went through fire and through water; but You brought us out to rich fulfilment.

Psa 66:13 I will go into Your house with burnt offerings; I will pay You my vows, Psa 66:14 which my lips have uttered and my mouth has spoken when I was in trouble.

Psa 66:15 I will offer You burnt sacrifices of fat animals. With the soothing aroma of rams I will offer bulls with goats. Selah.

Psa 66:16 Come and hear, all you who fear God, and I will declare what He has done for my soul.

Psa 66:17 I cried to Him with my mouth, and He was extolled with my tongue.

Psa 66:18 If I regard iniquity in my heart, Jehovah will not hear.

Psa 66:19 But certainly God has heard me; He has attended to the voice of my prayer.

Psa 67:5 Let the peoples praise You, O God; let all the peoples praise You.

Psa 67:6 Then the earth will yield her increase; God, our own God, will bless us.

Psa 67:7 God will bless us, and all the ends of the earth will fear Him.

Psa 68:2 As smoke is driven away, so drive them away; as wax melts before the fire, so let the wicked perish at the presence of God.

Psa 68:3 But let the righteous be glad; let them rejoice before God. Yes, let them rejoice exceedingly.

Psa 68:9 You, O God, sent an offering of heavy rain, whereby You established Your inheritance when it was weary.

Psa 68:10 Your congregation dwelt in it; You, O God, provided from Your goodness for the poor.

Psa 68:11 Jehovah gave the word; great was the company of those who proclaimed it:

Psa 68:12 “Kings of armies flee, they flee, and she who remains at home divides the spoil.

Psa 68:13 Though you lie down among the sheepfolds, yet you will be like the wings of a dove covered with silver, and her feathers with green sparkles.”

Psa 68:14 When the Almighty scattered kings in it, it was white as snow in Zalmon.

Psa 68:15 A mountain of God is the mountain of Bashan; a mountain of many peaks is the mountain of Bashan.

Psa 68:16 Why do you fume with envy, you mountains of many peaks? This is the mountain which God desires to dwell in; Yes, Jehovah will dwell in it forever.

Psa 68:17 The chariots of God are twenty thousand, even thousands of thousands. Jehovah is among them in Sinai, in the sanctuary.

Psa 68:18 You have ascended on high, You have led captivity captive; You have received gifts among men, even among the rebellious, that Jah God might dwell there.¹

Psa 68:19 Blessed be Jehovah, who daily loads us with benefits, the God of our salvation! Selah.

Psa 68:20 Our God is the God of salvation; and to Lord Jehovah belong escapes from death.

Psa 68:21 But God will wound the head of His enemies, the hairy scalp of the one who still goes on in His trespasses.

Psa 68:22 Jehovah said, “I will bring back from Bashan, I will bring them back from the depths of the sea, Psa 68:23 that your foot may crush them in blood, and the tongues of your dogs may have their portion from your enemies.”

Psa 68:24 They have seen Your procession, O God, the procession of my God, my King, into the sanctuary.

Psa 68:25 The singers went before, the players on instruments followed after; among them were the maidens playing timbrels.

Psa 68:26 Bless God in the congregations: Jehovah, from the fountain of Israel.

Psa 68:27 There is little Benjamin, their leader, the princes of Judah and their company, the princes of Zebulun and the princes of Naphtali.

Psa 68:28 Your God has commanded your strength; strengthen, O God, what You have done for us.

Psa 68:29 Because of Your Palace at Jerusalem, kings will bring presents to You.

Psa 68:30 Rebuke the animals of the reeds, the congregation of the mighty with the calves of the peoples, until everyone submits himself with pieces of silver. Scatter the peoples who delight in war.

Psa 68:31 Envoys will come out of Egypt; Cush will quickly stretch out her hands to God.

Psa 68:32 Sing to God, you kingdoms of the earth; oh, sing praises to Jehovah. Selah.

¹ Eph 4:8

Psa 68:33 To Him who rides on the heaven of heavens, which were of old! Indeed, He sends out His voice, a mighty voice.

Psa 68:34 Ascribe strength to God; His excellence is over Israel, and His strength is in the clouds.

Psa 68:35 O God, You are more awesome than Your Sanctuary. The God of Israel is He who gives strength and power to His people. Blessed be God!

To the chief musician. Concerning the Lilies. Of David.

Psa 69:1 Save me, O God, for the waters have come up to my soul.

Psa 69:2 I sink in deep mire, where there is no standing; I have come into deep waters, where the floods overflow me.

Psa 69:3 I am weary with my crying; my throat is dry; my eyes fail while I wait for my God.

Psa 69:4 Those who hate me without a cause are more than the hairs of my head.¹ They who would destroy me are mighty, being my enemies wrongfully. Though I have stolen nothing, I still must restore it.

Psa 69:5 O God, You know my foolishness; and my sins are not hidden from You.

Psa 69:6 Do not let those who wait for You, O Lord Jehovah of Hosts, be ashamed because of me. Do not let those who seek You be confounded because of me, O God of Israel.

Psa 69:7 Because for Your sake I have borne reproach; shame has covered my face.

Psa 69:8 I have become a stranger to my brothers, and a foreigner to my mother's children;

Psa 69:9 because zeal for Your House has eaten me up,² and the reproaches of those who reproach You have fallen on me.³

Psa 69:10 When I wept and chastened my soul with fasting, that became my reproach.

Psa 69:11 I also made sackcloth my garment; I became a proverb to them.

Psa 69:12 Those who sit in the gate speak against me, and I am the song of the drunkards.

Psa 69:13 But as for me, my prayer is to You. O Jehovah, in the acceptable time; O God, in the multitude of Your mercy, hear me in the truth of Your salvation.

Psa 69:14 Deliver me out of the mire, and do not let me sink; let me be delivered from those who hate me, and out of the deep waters.

Psa 69:15 Do not let the floodwater overflow me, nor let the deep swallow me up; and do not let the pit shut its mouth on me.

Psa 69:16 Hear me, O Jehovah, for Your loving-kindness is good; turn to me according to the multitude of Your tender mercies.

Psa 69:17 And do not hide Your face from Your servant, for I am in trouble. Hear me speedily.

Psa 69:18 Draw near to my soul, and redeem it; deliver me because of my enemies.

Psa 69:19 You know my reproach, my shame, and my dishonour; my adversaries are all before You.

Psa 69:20 Reproach has broken my heart, and I am full of heaviness; I looked for someone to take pity, but there was none; and for comforters, but I found none.

Psa 69:21 They also gave me gall for my food, and for my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink.⁴

Psa 69:22 Let their table become a snare before them, and their well-being a trap.

Psa 69:23 Let their eyes be darkened, so that they do not see; and make their loins shake continually.¹

Psa 69:24 Pour out Your indignation upon them, and let Your wrathful anger take hold of them.

Psa 69:25 Let their camp be desolate; let no one dwell in their tents.²

Psa 69:26 For they persecute him whom You have struck, and talk of the grief of those You have wounded.

Psa 69:27 Add iniquity to their iniquity, and do not let them come into Your righteousness.

Psa 69:28 Let them be blotted out of the book of the living, and not be written with the righteous.

Psa 69:29 But I am poor and sorrowful; let Your salvation, O God, set me up on high.

Psa 69:30 I will praise the Name of God with a song, and will magnify Him with thanksgiving.

Psa 69:31 This also will please Jehovah better than an ox or bull, which has horns and hooves.

Psa 69:32 The humble will see this and be glad; and you who seek God, your hearts will live.

Psa 69:33 For Jehovah hears the poor, and does not despise His prisoners.

Psa 69:34 Let heaven and earth praise Him, the seas and everything that moves in them.

Psa 69:35 For God will save Zion and build the cities of Judah, that they may dwell there and possess it.

Psa 69:36 Also, the descendants of His servants will inherit it, and those who love His Name will dwell in it.

To the chief musician. A Psalm of David, to bring to remembrance.

Psa 70:1 O God, deliver me! O Jehovah, hasten eagerly to help me!

Psa 70:2 Let them be ashamed and confounded who seek my soul. Let them be turned back and confused who desire evil for me.

Psa 70:3 Let them be turned back because of their shame, who say, "Aha, aha!"

Psa 70:4 Let all those who seek You rejoice and be glad in You; and let those who love Your salvation say continually, "Let God be magnified!"

Psa 70:5 But I am poor and needy; hurry eagerly to me, O God! You are my help and my deliverer; O Jehovah, do not delay.

Psa 71:1 In You, O Jehovah, I put my trust; let me never be put to shame.

Psa 71:2 Deliver me in Your righteousness, and cause me to escape; incline Your ear to me, and save me.

Psa 71:3 Be my strong habitation, to which I may resort continually; You have given the command to save me, for You are my rock and my fortress.

Psa 71:4 Deliver me, O my God, out of the hand of the wicked, out of the hand of the unrighteous and cruel man.

Psa 71:5 For You are my hope, O Lord Jehovah; You are my trust from my youth.

Psa 71:6 I have been upheld by You from my birth; You are He who took me out of my mother's womb. My praise will be continually of You.

Psa 71:7 I have become as a wonder to many, but You are my strong refuge.

Psa 71:8 Let my mouth be filled with Your praise and with Your glory all the day.

Psa 71:9 Do not cast me off in the time of old age; do not forsake me when my strength fails, me. And those who lie in wait for my soul take counsel together,

Psa 71:11 saying, "God has forsaken him. Pursue and take him, for there is none to deliver him."

Psa 71:12 O God, do not be far from me; O my God, hasten eagerly to help me!

Psa 71:13 Let them be confounded and consumed who are adversaries of my soul. Let them be covered with reproach and dishonour who seek evil for me.

Psa 71:14 But I will hope continually, and will praise You yet more and more.

Psa 71:15 My mouth will tell of Your righteousness and Your salvation all the day, for I do not know their limits.

Psa 71:16 I will go in the strength of Lord Jehovah; I will make mention of Your righteousness, of Yours only.

Psa 71:17 O God, You have taught me from my youth; and to this day I declare Your wondrous works.

Psa 71:18 Now also when I am old and grey-headed, O God, do not forsake me, then I will declare Your arm to this generation, Your power to everyone who is to come.

Psa 71:19 Also Your righteousness, O God, is very high, You who have done great things; O God, who is like You?

Psa 71:20 You, who have shown me great and evil troubles, will revive me again, and bring me up again from the depths of the earth.

Psa 71:21 You will increase my greatness, and comfort me on every side.

Psa 71:22 Also with the lute I will praise you and Your faithfulness, O my God! To You I will sing with the harp, O Sacred One of Israel.

Psa 71:23 My lips will greatly rejoice when I sing to You, and my soul, which You have redeemed.

Psa 71:24 My tongue also will talk of Your righteousness all the day long; for they are confounded, for they are brought to shame who seek evil for me.

Psa 72:1 Give the King Your judgements, O God, and Your righteousness to the King's Son.

Psa 72:2 He will judge Your people with righteousness, and Your poor with justice.

Psa 72:3 The mountains will bring peace to the people, and the little hills, by righteousness.

Psa 72:4 He will execute judgements for the poor of the people; He will save the children of the needy, and will crush the oppressor.

Psa 72:5 They will fear You as long as the sun and moon endure, throughout all generations.

Psa 72:6 He will come down like rain upon the mown grass, like showers that water the earth.

Psa 72:7 In His days the righteous will flourish, and abundance of peace, until the moon is no more.

Psa 72:8 He will have dominion also from sea to sea, and from the River to the ends of the earth.

Psa 72:9 Those who dwell in the wilderness will bow before Him, and His enemies will lick the dust.

Book Three—Psalms 73 to 89

A Psalm of Asaph.

Psa 73:1 Truly God is good to Israel, to those who are pure in heart.

Psa 73:2 But as for me, my feet had almost stumbled; my steps had nearly slipped.

Psa 73:3 For I was envious of the boastful, when I saw the prosperity of the wicked.

Psa 73:4 For there are no pangs in their death, but their strength is firm.

Psa 73:5 They are not in trouble as other men, nor are they plagued like other men.

Psa 73:6 Therefore pride serves as their necklace; violence covers them like a garment.

Psa 73:7 Their eyes bulge with abundance; they have more than a heart could wish.

Psa 73:8 They scoff and speak of evil oppression; they speak loftily.

Psa 73:9 They set their mouth against the heavens, and their tongue walks through the earth.

Psa 73:10 Therefore his people return here, and waters of a full cup are drained by them.

Psa 73:11 And they say, "How does God know? And is there knowledge in the Most High?"

Psa 73:12 Behold, these are the ungodly, who are always at ease; they increase in riches.

Psa 73:13 Surely I have cleansed my heart worthlessly, and washed my hands in innocence.

Psa 73:14 For all day long I have been plagued, and chastened every morning.

Psa 73:15 If I had said, "I will speak thus," behold, I would have been untrue to the generation of Your children.

Psa 73:16 When I thought of how to understand this, it was too painful for me;

Psa 73:17 until I went into the sanctuary of God; then I understood their end.

Psa 73:18 Surely You set them in slippery places; You cast them down to destruction.

Psa 73:19 Oh, how they become horrors in a moment! They are utterly consumed with terrors.

Psa 73:20 As a dream when one awakes, so, Jehovah, when You awake, You will despise their image.

Psa 73:21 Thus my heart was grieved, and I was vexed in my mind.

Psa 73:22 I was foolish and ignorant; I was like a beast before You.

Psa 73:23 Nevertheless I am continually with You; You hold me by my right hand.

Psa 73:24 You will guide me with Your counsel, and afterwards receive me to glory.

Psa 73:25 Whom have I in heaven but You? And there is none upon earth that I desire besides You.

Psa 73:26 My flesh and my heart fail; but God is the strength of my heart and my portion forever.

Psa 73:27 For indeed, those who are far from You will perish; You have destroyed all those who desert You for prostitutes.¹

Psa 73:28 But it is good for me to draw near to God; I have put my trust in Lord Jehovah, that I may declare all Your works.

A Lesson of Asaph.

Psa 74:1 O God, why have You cast us off forever? Why does Your anger smoke against the sheep of Your pasture?

Psa 74:2 Remember Your congregation, which You have purchased of old, the branch of Your inheritance, which You have redeemed; this Mount Zion where You have dwelt.

Psa 74:3 Lift up Your feet to the perpetual desolations. The enemy has damaged everything in the sanctuary.

Psa 74:4 Your enemies roar in the midst of Your meeting place; they set up their banners for signs.

Psa 74:5 They seem like men who lift up axes among the thick trees.

Psa 74:6 And now they break down its carved work, all at once, with axes and hammers.

Psa 74:7 They have set fire to Your sanctuary; they have defiled the Booth of Your Name to the ground.

Psa 74:8 They said in their hearts, "Let us destroy them altogether." They have burned up all the meeting places of God in the land.

Psa 74:9 We do not see our signs; there is no longer any prophet; nor is there any among us who knows how long.

Psa 74:10 O God, how long will the adversary reproach? Will the enemy blaspheme Your Name forever?

Psa 74:11 Why do You withdraw Your hand, even Your right hand? Take it out of Your bosom and destroy them.

Psa 74:12 For God is my King from of old, working salvation in the midst of the earth.

Psa 74:13 You divided the sea by Your strength; You broke the heads of the dragons in the waters.

Psa 74:14 You broke the heads of Leviathan in pieces; You gave food to the people inhabiting the wilderness.

Psa 74:15 You split open the fountains of the torrent; You dried up mighty rivers.

Psa 74:16 The day is Yours, the night is Yours also; You have prepared the light and the sun.

Psa 74:17 You have set all the borders of the earth; You have made summer and winter.

Psa 74:18 Remember this, that the enemy has reproached, O Jehovah, and that a foolish people has blasphemed Your Name.

Psa 74:19 Oh, do not deliver the soul of Your turtledove to the animals! Do not forget the life² of Your poor forever.

Psa 74:20 Have respect to the covenant; for the dark places of the earth are full of the habitations of cruelty.

Psa 74:21 Oh, do not let the oppressed return ashamed! Let the poor and needy praise Your Name.

Psa 74:22 Arise, O God, plead Your own cause; remember how the foolish man reproaches You daily.

Psa 74:23 Do not forget the voice of Your enemies; the tumult of those who rise up against You increases continually.

To the chief musician. Do not destroy. A Psalm of Asaph. A Song.

Psa 75:1 We give thanks to You, O God, we give thanks, for Your wondrous works declare that Your Name is near.

Psa 75:2 "When I choose the proper time,

² Or animals.

I will judge uprightly.

Psa 75:3 The earth and all its inhabitants melt away; I ponder its pillars. Selah.

Psa 75:4 "I said to the boastful, 'Do not deal boastfully,' and to the wicked, 'Do not lift up the horn.

Psa 75:5 Do not lift up your horn on high; do not speak with a stiff neck.'"

Psa 75:6 For exaltation comes neither from the east nor from the west nor from the wilderness.

Psa 75:7 But God is the Judge: He puts down one, and exalts another.

Psa 75:8 For in the hand of Jehovah there is a cup, and the wine is red. It is fully mixed, and He pours it out; surely all the wicked of the earth will drain its dregs and drink down.

Psa 75:9 But I will declare forever, I will sing praises to the God of Jacob.

Psa 75:10 "All the horns of the wicked I will also cut off, but the horns of the righteous will be exalted."

To the chief musician. For stringed instruments. A Psalm of Asaph. A Song of Praise.

Psa 76:1 In Judah God is known; His Name is great in Israel.

Psa 76:2 In Salem also is His booth, and His dwelling place in Zion.

Psa 76:3 There He broke the arrows of the bow, the shield and the sword and the battle-axe. Selah.

Psa 76:4 You are more glorious and excellent than the mountains of prey.

Psa 76:5 The stouthearted were plundered; they have sunk into their sleep; and none of the mighty men have found the use of their hands.

Psa 76:6 At Your rebuke, O God of Jacob, both the chariot and horse were cast into a deep sleep.

Psa 76:7 You, Yourself, are to be feared; and who may stand in Your presence once You are angry?

Psa 76:8 You caused judgement to be heard from heaven; the earth feared and was still Psa 76:9 when God arose to judgement, to deliver all the oppressed of the earth. Selah.

Psa 76:10 Surely the wrath of man will praise You; with the remainder of wrath You will gird Yourself.

Psa 76:11 Make vows to Jehovah your God, and pay them; let all who are around Him bring presents to Him who ought to be feared.

Psa 76:12 He will cut off the spirit of princes; He is awesome to the kings of the earth.

To the chief musician. On Jeduthun. A Psalm of Asaph.

Psa 77:1 I cried out to God with my voice; to God with my voice; and He gave ear to me.

Psa 77:2 In the day of my trouble I sought Jehovah; my hand was stretched out in the night without ceasing; my soul refused to be comforted.

Psa 77:3 I remembered God, and was troubled; I complained, and my spirit was overwhelmed. Selah.

Psa 77:4 You hold my eyelids open; I am so troubled that I cannot speak.

Psa 77:5 I have considered the days of old, the years of ancient times.

Psa 77:6 I call to remembrance my song in the night; I meditate within my heart, and my spirit makes diligent search.

Psa 77:7 Will Jehovah cast off forever? And will He be favourable no more?

Psa 77:8 Has His mercy ceased forever? Has His promise failed forevermore?

Psa 77:9 Has God forgotten to be gracious? Has He in anger shut up His tender mercies? Selah.

Psa 77:10 And I said, "This is my anguish; but I will remember the years of the right hand of the Most High."

Psa 77:11 I will remember the works of Jah; surely I will remember Your wonders of old.

Psa 77:12 I will also meditate on all Your work, and talk of Your deeds.

Psa 77:13 Your way, O God, is in the sanctuary; who is so great a God as our God?

Psa 77:14 You are the God who does wonders; You have declared Your strength among the peoples.

Psa 77:15 You have with Your arm redeemed Your people, the sons of Jacob and Joseph. Selah.

Psa 77:16 The waters saw You, O God; the waters saw You, they were afraid; the depths also trembled.

Psa 77:17 The clouds poured out water; the skies sent out a sound; Your hail¹ also went abroad.

Psa 77:18 The voice of Your thunder was in the whirlwind; the lightnings lit up the world; the earth trembled and shook.

Psa 77:19 Your way was in the sea, Your path in the great waters, and Your footsteps were not known.

Psa 77:20 You led Your people like a flock by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

A Lesson of Asaph.

Psa 78:1 Listen, O my people, to my Instructions. Incline your ears to the words of my mouth.

Psa 78:2 I will open my mouth in a parable; I will utter dark sayings of old,²

Psa 78:3 which we have heard and known, and our fathers have told us.

Psa 78:4 We will not hide them from their children, telling to the generation to come the praises of Jehovah, and His strength and His wonderful works that He has done.

Psa 78:5 For He established a testimony in Jacob, and appointed Instructions in Israel, which He commanded our fathers, that they should make them known to their children.

Psa 78:6 That the generation to come might know them, the children who would be born, that they may arise and declare them to their children.

Psa 78:7 That they may set their hope in God, and not forget the works of God, but keep His commandments;

Psa 78:8 and may not be like their fathers, a stubborn and rebellious generation, a generation that did not set its heart right, and whose spirit was not faithful to God.

Psa 78:9 The children of Ephraim, being armed and carrying bows, turned back in the day of battle.

Psa 78:10 They did not keep the covenant of God. They refused to walk in His Instructions, Psa 78:11 and forgot His works and His wonders that He had shown them.

Psa 78:12 Marvellous things He did in the sight of their fathers, in the land of Egypt, in the field of Zoan.

Psa 78:13 He split the sea apart and caused them to pass through; and He made the waters stand up in a heap.

Psa 78:14 In the daytime He led them with the cloud, and also all the night with a light of fire.

Psa 78:15 He split the rock in the wilderness, and gave abundant drink from the depths.

Psa 78:16 He brought streams out of the rock, and caused water to run down like rivers.

Psa 78:17 But they sinned even more against Him by rebelling against the Most High in the wilderness.

Psa 78:18 And they tested God in their hearts by asking for foods for their souls.

Psa 78:19 Yes, they spoke against God. They said, "Can God prepare a table in the wilderness?"

Psa 78:20 Behold, He struck the rock, so that the waters gushed out, and the streams overflowed. "Can He give bread also? Can He provide meat for His people?"

² Mat 13:35

Psa 78:21 Therefore Jehovah heard this and was furious; so a fire was kindled against Jacob, and anger also came up against Israel, Psa 78:22 because they did not believe in God, and did not trust in His salvation.

Psa 78:23 Yet He had commanded the clouds above, and opened the doors of heaven, Psa 78:24 had rained down manna on them to eat, and given them of the bread of heaven.

Psa 78:25 Men ate envoys' food; He sent them food to the full.

Psa 78:26 He caused an east wind to blow in the heavens; and by His power He brought in the south wind.

Psa 78:27 He also rained meat on them like the dust, winged flying creatures like the sand of the seas;

Psa 78:28 And He let them fall in the midst of their camp, all around their booths.

Psa 78:29 So they ate and were well filled, for He gave them their own desire.

Psa 78:30 They were not deprived of their craving; but while their food was still in their mouths,

Psa 78:31 the wrath of God came against them, and slew the stoutest of them, and struck down the choice men of Israel.

Psa 78:32 In spite of this they still sinned, and did not believe in His wondrous works.

Psa 78:33 Therefore He consumed their days in futility, and their years in fear.

Psa 78:34 When He slew them, then they sought Him; and they returned and sought diligently for God.

Psa 78:35 Then they remembered that God was their rock, and the Most High God their Redeemer.

Psa 78:36 Nevertheless they flattered

Him with their mouth, and they lied to Him with their tongue;

Psa 78:37 For their heart was not steadfast with Him, nor were they faithful in His covenant.

Psa 78:38 But He, being full of compassion, forgave their iniquity, and did not destroy them. Yes, many times He turned His anger away, and did not stir up all His wrath;

Psa 78:39 for He remembered that they were but flesh, a breath that passes away and does not come again.

Psa 78:40 How often they provoked Him in the wilderness, and grieved Him in the desert!

Psa 78:41 Yes, again and again they tempted God, and limited the Sacred One of Israel.

Psa 78:42 They did not remember His power: the day when He redeemed them from the enemy,

Psa 78:43 when He worked His signs in Egypt, and His wonders in the field of Zoan;

Psa 78:44 turned their rivers and their streams into blood that they could not drink.

Psa 78:45 He sent swarms of flies among them which devoured them, and frogs which destroyed them.

Psa 78:46 He also gave their crops to the caterpillar, and their labour to the locust.

Psa 78:47 He destroyed their vines with hail, and their sycamore trees with frost.

Psa 78:48 He also gave up their cattle to the hail, and their flocks to fiery lightning.

Psa 78:49 He cast on them the fierceness of His anger, and He sent wrath, indignation and trouble by an evil envoy.

Psa 78:50 He opened the path of evil and did not spare their souls from death, and He delivered their animals to death.

Psa 78:51 He killed all the firstborn in Egypt, the first of all their children in the tents of Ham.¹

Psa 78:52 But He made His own people go forth like sheep, and guided them in the wilderness like a flock;

Psa 78:53 And He led them on safely, so that they did not fear; but the sea overwhelmed their enemies.

Psa 78:54 And He brought them to His sanctified border, this mountain His right hand has acquired.

Psa 78:55 He also drove out the nations before them, allotted them an inheritance by survey, and made the branches of Israel dwell in their tents.

Psa 78:56 Yet they tested and provoked the Most High God, and did not keep His testimonies,

Psa 78:57 but turned back and acted unfaithfully like their fathers. They were turned aside like a deceitful bow, Psa 78:58 for they provoked Him to anger with their high places, and moved Him to jealousy with their carved images.

Psa 78:59 When God heard, He was furious, and greatly abhorred Israel,

Psa 78:60 so He forsook the booth of Shiloh, the tent which He had placed among men, Psa 78:61 and delivered His strength into captivity, and His glory into the enemy's hand.

Psa 78:62 He also gave His people over to the sword, and was furious with His inheritance.

Psa 78:63 The fire consumed their young men, and their virgins were not given in marriage.

Psa 78:64 Their priests fell by the sword, and their widows made no lamentation.

Psa 78:65 Then Jehovah awoke as one out of sleep, and like a mighty man who shouts because of wine.

Psa 78:66 And He beat back His enemies; He put them to a perpetual reproach.

Psa 78:67 Moreover He rejected the tent of Joseph, and did not choose the branch of Ephraim, Peshitta.

Psa 78:68 but chose the branch of Judah, Mount Zion which He loved.

Psa 78:69 And He built His sanctuary like the heights, like the earth which He has established forever.

Psa 78:70 He also chose David His servant, and took him from the sheepfolds;

Psa 78:71 from following the ewes that had young, He brought him to shepherd Jacob His people, and Israel His inheritance.

Psa 78:72 So he shepherded them according to the integrity of his heart, and guided them by the skillfulness of his hands.

A Psalm of Asaph.

Psa 79:1 O God, the nations have come into Your inheritance; Your sanctified Palace they have made unclean; they have laid Jerusalem in heaps.

Psa 79:2 They have given the dead bodies of Your servants as food for the flying creatures of the heavens, the flesh of Your saints to the animals of the earth.

Psa 79:3 They have shed their blood like water all around Jerusalem, and there was no one to bury them.

Psa 79:4 We have become a reproach to our neighbours, a scorn and derision to those who are around us.

Psa 79:5 How long, Jehovah? Will You be angry forever? Will Your jealousy burn like fire?

Psa 79:6 Pour out Your wrath on the nations that do not know You, and on the kingdoms that do not call on Your Name.

Psa 79:7 For they have devoured Jacob, and laid waste his dwelling place.

Psa 79:8 Oh, do not remember former iniquities against us! Let Your tender mercies come speedily to meet us, for we have been brought very low.

Psa 79:9 Help us, O God of our salvation, for the glory of Your Name; and deliver us, and provide atonement for our sins, for Your Name's sake!

Psa 79:10 Why should the nations say, "Where is their God?" Let there be known among the nations in our sight the avenging of the blood of Your servants which has been shed.

Psa 79:11 Let the groaning of the prisoner come before You; according to the greatness of Your power preserve those who are appointed to die;

Psa 79:12 and return to our neighbours sevenfold into their bosom their reproach with which they have reproached You, O Jehovah.

Psa 79:13 So we, Your people and sheep of Your pasture, will give You thanks forever; we will show forth Your praise to all generations.

To the chief musician. A Testimony. Concerning the Lilies. A Psalm of Asaph.

Psa 80:1 Give ear, O Shepherd of Israel, You who lead Joseph like a flock; You who dwell between the cherubim, shine forth!

Psa 80:2 Before Ephraim, Benjamin, and Manasseh, stir up Your strength, and come and save us!

Psa 80:3 Restore us, O God; cause Your face to shine, and we will be saved!

Psa 80:4 O Jehovah God of hosts, how long will You be angry against the prayer of Your people?

Psa 80:5 You have fed them with the bread of tears, and given them tears to drink in great measure.

Psa 80:6 You have made us a strife to our neighbours, and our enemies laugh among themselves.

Psa 80:7 Restore us, O God of hosts; cause Your face to shine, and we will be saved!

Psa 80:8 You have brought a vine out of Egypt; You have cast out the nations, and planted it.

Psa 80:9 You prepared room for it, and caused it to take deep root, and it filled the land.

Psa 80:10 The hills were covered with its shadow, and the mighty cedars with its boughs.

Psa 80:11 She sent out her boughs to the Sea, and her branches to the River.

Psa 80:12 Why have You broken down her hedges, so that all who pass by the way pluck her fruit?

Psa 80:13 The boar out of the woods uproots it, and the wild beast of the field devours it.

Psa 80:14 Return, we beseech You, O God of hosts; look down from heaven and see, and visit this vine

Psa 80:15 and the vineyard which Your right hand has planted, and the branch that You made strong for Yourself.

Psa 80:16 It is burned with fire, it is cut down; they perish at the rebuke of Your countenance.

Psa 80:17 Let Your hand be upon the man of Your right hand, upon the son of man whom You made strong for Yourself.

Psa 80:18 Then we will not turn back from You; revive us, and we will call upon Your Name.

Psa 80:19 Restore us, O Jehovah God of hosts; cause Your face to shine, and we will be saved!

To the chief musician. On Gittith. Of Asaph.

Psa 81:1 Sing aloud to God our strength; make a joyful shout to the God of Jacob.

Psa 81:2 Raise a song and strike the timbrel, the pleasant harp with the lute.

Psa 81:3 In the new moon blow the shophar, at the fulfilled time on our feast day.

Psa 81:4 For this is a statute for Israel, a judgement of the God of Jacob.

Psa 81:5 He established this in Joseph for a testimony, when He went throughout the land of Egypt, where I heard a language that I did not understand.

Psa 81:6 "I removed his shoulder from the burden; his hands were freed from the baskets.

Psa 81:7 You called in trouble, and I delivered you; I answered you in the secret place of thunder; I proved you at the waters of Meribah. Selah.

Psa 81:8 "Hear, O My people, and I will admonish you! O Israel, if you will listen to Me!

Psa 81:9 There will be no foreign god among you; nor will you worship any foreign god.

Psa 81:10 I AM! I am Jehovah your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt; open your mouth, and I will fill it.

Psa 81:11 "But My people would not heed My voice, and Israel would have none of Me.¹

Psa 81:12 So I gave them over to their own stubborn heart, to walk in their own counsels.

Psa 81:13 "Oh, that My people would listen to Me, that Israel would walk in My ways!

Psa 81:14 I would soon subdue their enemies, and turn My hand against their adversaries.

Psa 81:15 The haters of Jehovah would pretend submission to Him, but their fate would endure forever.

Psa 81:16 He would have fed them also with the finest of wheat; and with honey from the rock I would have satisfied you."

A Psalm of Asaph.

Psa 82:1 God stands in the congregation as God; He judges among the gods.

Psa 82:2 How long will you judge unjustly, and show favouritism to the wicked?² Selah.

Psa 82:3 Judge the poor and fatherless; justify the afflicted and needy.

Psa 82:4 Deliver the poor and needy; free them from the hand of the wicked.

Psa 82:5 They do not know, nor do they understand. They walk about in darkness; all the foundations of the earth are unstable.

Psa 82:6 I said, "You are gods, and all of you are children of the Most High."³

Psa 82:7 But you will die like men, and fall like one of the princes."

Psa 82:8 Arise, O God, judge the earth; for You will inherit all nations.

A Song. A Psalm of Asaph.

Psa 83:1 Do not keep silent, O God! Do not hold Your peace, and do not be still, O God!

Psa 83:2 For behold, Your enemies make a tumult; and those who hate You have lifted up their head.

Psa 83:3 They have taken crafty counsel against Your people, and consulted together against Your sheltered ones.

Psa 83:4 They have said, "Come, and let us cut them off from being a nation, that the name of Israel may be remembered no more."

Psa 83:5 For they have consulted together with one consent, they formed a covenant against You:

Psa 83:6 The tents of Edom and the Ishmaelites; Moab and the Hagarites;

Psa 83:7 Gebal, Ammon, and Amalek; Philistia with the inhabitants of Tyre;

Psa 83:8 Assyria also has joined with them. They have helped the children of Lot. Selah.

Psa 83:9 Deal with them as with Midian, as with Sisera, as with Jabin at the Kishon Brook, Psa 83:10 who perished at Endor, who became as manure on the earth.

Psa 83:11 Make their nobles like Oreb and like Zeeb, yes, all their princes like Zebah and Zalmunna,

Psa 83:12 who said, "Let us take for ourselves the pastures of God for a possession."

Psa 83:13 O my God, make them like the whirling dust, like the chaff before the wind!

Psa 83:14 As the fire burns the woods, and as the flame sets the mountains on fire, Psa 83:15 So pursue them with Your tempest, and frighten them with Your storm.

Psa 83:16 Fill their faces with shame, that they may seek Your Name, O Jehovah.

Psa 83:17 Let them be confounded and dismayed forever; yes, let them be put to shame and perish,

Psa 83:18 so men may know that You, whose name alone is Jehovah, are the Most High over all the earth.

To the chief musician. On Gittith. A Psalm for the sons of Korah.

Psa 84:1 How lovely is Your booth, O Jehovah of Hosts!

Psa 84:2 My soul longs, yes, even faints for the courts of Jehovah. My heart and my flesh cry out for the living God.

Psa 84:3 Even the bird has found a home, and the swallow a nest for herself where she may lay her young; even Your altars, O Jehovah of Hosts, my King and my God.

Psa 84:4 Blessed are those who dwell in Your house; they will still be praising You. Selah.

Psa 84:5 Blessed is the man whose strength is in You, in whose heart is the highway to Zion.

Psa 84:6 As they pass through the Valley of Baca,¹ they make it a spring; the teacher also covers it with blessings.

Psa 84:7 They go from strength to strength; every one of them appears before God in Zion.

Psa 84:8 O Jehovah God of hosts, hear my prayer; give ear, O God of Jacob! Selah.

Psa 84:9 O God, behold our shield, and look upon the face of Your anointed.

Psa 84:10 For a day in Your courts is better than a thousand years.² I would rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God than dwell in the tents of wickedness.

Psa 84:11 For Jehovah God is a sun and shield; Jehovah will give grace and glory; He will withhold no good thing from those who walk uprightly.

Psa 84:12 O Jehovah of Hosts, blessed is the man who trusts in You!

To the chief musician. A Psalm for the sons of Korah.

Psa 85:1 Lord, You have been favourable to Your land; You have brought back the captivity of Jacob.

Psa 85:2 You have forgiven the iniquity of Your people; You have covered all their sin. Selah.

Psa 85:3 You have taken away all Your wrath; You have turned from the fierceness of Your anger.

Psa 85:4 Restore us, O God of our salvation, and cause Your anger toward us to cease.

Psa 85:5 Will You be angry with us forever? Will You prolong Your anger to all generations?

Psa 85:6 Will You not revive us again, that Your people may rejoice in You?

Psa 85:7 Show us Your mercy, O Jehovah, and grant us Your salvation.

Psa 85:8 I will hear what God Jehovah will speak, for He will speak peace to His people and to His saints; but let them not turn back to folly.

Psa 85:9 Surely His salvation is near to those who fear Him, that glory may dwell in our land.

Psa 85:10 Mercy and truth have met together. Righteousness and peace have kissed each other.

Psa 85:11 Truth will spring out of the earth, and righteousness will look down from heaven.

Psa 85:12 Yes, Jehovah will give what is good; and our land will yield its increase.

Psa 85:13 Righteousness will go before Him, and will make His footsteps our pathway.

A Prayer of David.

Psa 86:1 Bend down Your ear, O Jehovah, answer me; for I am poor and needy.

Psa 86:2 Preserve my soul, for I am godly; You are my God; save Your servant who trusts in You!

Psa 86:3 Be merciful to me, O Jehovah, for I cry to You all day long.

Psa 86:4 Rejoice the soul of Your servant, for to You, O Jehovah, I lift up my soul.

Psa 86:5 For You, Jehovah, are good, and ready to forgive, and abundant in mercy to all those who call upon You.

Psa 86:6 Give ear, O Jehovah, to my prayer; and attend to the voice of my supplications.

Psa 86:7 In the day of my trouble I will call upon You, for You will answer me.

Psa 86:8 Among the gods there is none like You, O Jehovah; nor are there any works like Your works.

Psa 86:9 All nations whom You have made will come and worship before You, O Jehovah, and will glorify Your Name.

Psa 86:10 For You are great, and do wondrous things; You alone are God.

Psa 86:11 Teach me Your way, O Jehovah; I will walk in Your truth. Unite my heart to fear Your Name.

Psa 86:12 I will praise You, O Jehovah my God, with all my heart, and I will Psa 86:13 For great is Your mercy toward me, and You have delivered my soul from the depths of Sheol.

Psa 86:14 O God, the proud have risen against me, and a congregation of ruthless men have sought my soul, and they have not remembered You.

Psa 86:15 But You, O Jehovah, are a God full of compassion, and gracious, longsuffering and abundant in mercy and truth.

Psa 86:16 Oh, turn to me, and have mercy on me! Give Your strength to Your servant, and save the son of Your maidservant.

Psa 87:1 His foundation is in the sanctified mountains.

Psa 87:2 Jehovah loves the gates of Zion more than all the booths of Jacob.

Psa 87:3 Glorious things are spoken of you, O city of God! Selah.

Psa 87:4 "I will make mention of Rahab and Babylon to those who know Me; behold, O Philistia and Tyre, with Cush: 'This one was born there.'"

Psa 87:5 And of Zion it will be said, "This one and that one were born in her; and the Most High Himself will establish her."

Psa 87:6 Jehovah will record, when He registers the peoples: "This one was born there." Selah.

Psa 87:7 Both the singers and the players on instruments say, "All my springs are in you."

A Song. A Psalm for the Sons of Korah, to the chief musician on Mahalath, to make humble. A Poem of Heman the Ezrahite.

Psa 88:1 O Jehovah, God of my salvation, I have cried out day and night before You.

Psa 88:2 Let my prayer come before You; incline Your ear to my cry.

Psa 88:3 For my soul is full of evil, and my life draws near to Sheol.

Psa 88:4 I am counted with those who go down to the pit; I am like a man who has no strength,

Psa 88:5 adrift among the dead, like the slain who lie in the grave, whom You remember no more, and who are cut off from Your hand.

Psa 88:6 You have laid me in the lowest pit, in darkness, in the depths.

Psa 88:7 Your wrath lies heavy upon me, and You have afflicted me with all Your waves. Selah.

Psa 88:8 You have put away my acquaintances far from me; You have made me an abomination to them; I am shut up, and I cannot get out.

Psa 88:9 My eye wastes away because of affliction. Jehovah, I have called daily upon You; I have stretched out my hands to You.

Psa 88:10 Will You work wonders for the dead? Shall the deceased arise and praise You? Selah.

Psa 88:11 Shall Your loving-kindness be declared in the grave? Or Your faithfulness in the place of destruction?

Psa 88:12 Shall Your wonders be known in the dark? And Your righteousness in the land of forgetfulness?

Psa 88:13 But to You I have cried out, O Jehovah, and in the morning my prayer comes before You.

Psa 88:14 Jehovah, why do You cast off my soul? Why do You hide Your face from me?

Psa 88:15 I have been afflicted and dying from my youth; I suffer Your terrors; I am distraught.

Psa 88:16 Your fierce wrath has gone over me; Your terrors have cut me off.

Psa 88:17 They came around me all day long like water; they engulfed me altogether.

Psa 88:18 Loved one and friend You have put far from me, and my acquaintances into darkness.

A Poem of Ethan the Ezrahite.

Psa 89:1 I will sing of the mercies of Jehovah forever; with my mouth will I make known Your faithfulness to all generations.

Psa 89:2 For I have said, "Mercy will be built up forever; Your faithfulness You will establish in the very heavens."

Psa 89:3 "I have made a covenant with My chosen, I have sworn to My servant David:

Psa 89:4 'Your seed I will establish forever, and build up your throne to all generations.'" Selah.

Psa 89:5 And the heavens will praise Your wonders, O Jehovah; Your faithfulness also in the congregation of the sacred ones.

Psa 89:6 For who in the heavens can be compared to Jehovah? Who among the sons of the mighty can be likened to Jehovah?

Psa 89:7 God is greatly to be feared in the council of the sacred ones, and to be held in reverence by all those who are around Him.

Psa 89:8 O Jehovah God of hosts, who is mighty like You, O Jah? Your faithfulness also surrounds You.

Psa 89:9 You rule the raging of the sea; when its waves rise, You still them.¹

Psa 89:44 You have made his glory cease, and cast his throne down to the ground.

Psa 89:45 The days of his youth You have shortened; You have covered him with shame. Selah.

Psa 89:46 How long, Jehovah? Will You hide Yourself forever? Will Your wrath burn like fire?

Psa 89:47 Please remember how short my time is; or have You created all the children of men for nothing?

Psa 89:48 What man can live and not see death? Can he deliver his soul from the hand of Sheol? Selah.

Psa 89:49 Jehovah, where are Your former loving-kindnesses, which You swore to David in Your truth?

Psa 89:50 Remember, Jehovah, the reproach of Your servants; how I bear in my bosom the reproach of all the many peoples, Psa 89:51 with which Your enemies have reproached, O Jehovah, with which they have reproached the footsteps of Your Anointed.

Book Four—Psalms 90 to 106

A Prayer of Moses, the Man of God.

Psa 90:1 Jehovah, You have been our dwelling place in all generations.

Psa 90:2 Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever You had formed the earth and the world, even from everlasting and to everlasting, You are God.

Psa 90:3 You turn man back to dust, and say, "Return, O children of men."

Psa 90:4 For a thousand years in Your sight are like yesterday when it is past, and like a watch in the night.¹

¹ 2Pe 3:8, Psa 84:10

Psa 90:5 You carry them away with a flood; they are as if asleep. In the morning they are like grass sprouting up.

Psa 90:6 In the morning it flourishes and grows up; in the evening it is cut down and withers.

Psa 90:7 For we have been consumed by Your anger, and we are terrified by Your wrath.

Psa 90:8 You have set our iniquities before You, our secret sins in the light of Your countenance.

Psa 90:9 For all our days have passed away in Your wrath; we finish our years like a sigh.

Psa 90:10 The days of our lives are seventy years; and if by reason of strength they are eighty years, yet their boast is only labour and sorrow; for it is soon cut off, and we fly away.²

Psa 90:11 Who knows the power of Your anger? For as the fear of You, so is Your wrath.

Psa 90:12 So teach us to number our days, that we may gain a heart of wisdom.

Psa 90:13 Return, O Jehovah! How long? And have compassion on Your servants.

Psa 90:14 Oh, satisfy us early with Your mercy, that we may rejoice and be glad all our days!

Psa 90:15 Make us glad according to the days of our affliction, and the years we have seen evil.

Psa 90:16 Let Your work appear to Your servants, and Your glory to their children.

Psa 90:17 And let the beauty of Jehovah our God be upon us, and establish the work of our hands for us. Yes, establish the work of our hands.

Psa 91:2 I will say of Jehovah, "He is my refuge and my fortress; my God, I will trust in Him."¹

Psa 91:3 Surely He will deliver you from the snare of the fowler and from the perilous pestilence.

Psa 91:4 He will cover you with His feathers, and under His wings you will take refuge;² His truth will be your shield and buckler.

Psa 91:5 You will not be afraid of the terror by night, nor of the arrow that flies by day,

Psa 91:6 nor of the pestilence that walks in darkness, nor of the destruction that lays waste at noonday.

Psa 91:7 A thousand may fall at your side, and ten thousand at your right hand; but it will not come near you.

Psa 91:8 Only with your eyes will you look, and see the reward of the wicked.

Psa 91:9 Because you have made Jehovah, who is my refuge, even the Most High, your habitation, Psa 91:10 no evil will befall you, nor will any plague come near your tent.

Psa 91:11 For He will command His envoys over you, to keep you in all your ways.

Psa 91:12 They will bear you up in their hands, lest you strike your foot against a stone.³

Psa 91:13 You will tread upon the lion and the cobra, the young lion and the dragon you will trample under foot.

Psa 91:14 Because he has set his love upon Me, therefore I will deliver him; I will set him on high, because he has known My Name.

Psa 91:15 He will call upon Me, and I will answer him; I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him and honour him.

Psa 91:16 I will satisfy him with long life, and show him My salvation.

A Psalm, A Song for the Sabbath Day.

Psa 92:1 It is good to give thanks to Jehovah, and to sing praises to Your Name, O Most High;

Psa 92:2 to declare Your loving-kindness in the morning, and Your faithfulness every night,

Psa 92:3 on an instrument of ten strings, on the lute, and on the harp, with harmonious sound.

Psa 92:4 For You, Jehovah, have made me glad through Your work; I will triumph in the works of Your hands.

Psa 92:5 O Jehovah, how great are Your works! Your thoughts are very deep.

Psa 92:6 A senseless man does not know, nor does a fool understand this.

Psa 92:7 When the wicked spring up like grass, and when all the workers of iniquity flourish, it is so they may be destroyed forever.

Psa 92:8 But You, Jehovah, are on high forevermore.

Psa 92:9 For behold, Your enemies, O Jehovah, for behold, Your enemies will perish; all the workers of iniquity will be scattered.

Psa 92:10 But my horn You have exalted like an auroch; I have been anointed with fresh oil.

Psa 92:11 My eye also has seen my desire on my enemies; my ears hear my desire on the wicked who rise up against me.

Psa 92:12 The righteous will flourish like a palm tree, he will grow like a cedar in Lebanon.

Psa 92:13 Those who are planted in the House of Jehovah will flourish in the courts of our God.

unrighteousness in Him.

Psa 93:1 Jehovah reigns, He is clothed with majesty; Jehovah is clothed, He has girded Himself with strength. Surely the world is established, so that it cannot waver.

Psa 93:2 Your throne is established from of old; You are from everlasting.

Psa 93:3 The floods have lifted up, O Jehovah, the floods have lifted up their voice; the floods lift up their waves.

Psa 93:4 Jehovah on high is mightier than the noise of many waters, than the mighty waves of the sea.

Psa 93:5 Your testimonies are very sure; sanctity adorns Your house, O Jehovah, forever.

Psa 94:1 O Jehovah, God of vengeance; O God of vengeance, shine forth!

Psa 94:2 Rise up, O Judge of the earth; render punishment to the proud.¹

Psa 94:3 Jehovah, how long will the wicked, how long will the wicked triumph?

Psa 94:4 They utter speech, and speak insolent things; all the workers of iniquity boast in themselves.²

Psa 94:5 They crush Your people, O Jehovah, and afflict Your heritage.

Psa 94:6 They slay the widow and the immigrant, and murder the fatherless.

Psa 94:7 Yet they say, "Jah does not see, nor does the God of Jacob understand."

Psa 94:8 Understand, you senseless among the people; and you fools, when will you be wise?

Psa 94:9 He who planted the ear, will He not hear? He who formed the eye, will He not see?

Psa 94:10 He who instructs the nations, will He not correct, He who teaches man knowledge?

Psa 94:11 Jehovah knows the thoughts of man, that they are futile.

Psa 94:12 Blessed is the man whom You chasten, O Jah, and teach Your Instructions, Psa 94:13 That You may give him rest from the days of evil, until the pit is dug for the wicked.

Psa 94:14 For Jehovah will not cast off His people, nor will He forsake His inheritance.

Psa 94:15 But judgement will return to righteousness, and all the upright in heart will follow it.

Psa 94:16 Who will rise up for me against the evildoers? Who will stand up for me against the workers of iniquity?

Psa 94:17 Unless Jehovah had been my help, my soul would soon have dwelt in silence.

Psa 94:18 If I say, "My foot slips," Your mercy, O Jehovah, will hold me up.

Psa 94:19 In the multitude of my anxieties within me, Your comforts delight my soul.

Psa 94:20 Shall the throne of iniquity, which devises evil by law, have fellowship with You?

Psa 94:21 They gather together against the soul of the righteous, and condemn innocent blood.

Psa 94:22 But Jehovah has been my defence, and my God is the rock of my refuge.

Psa 94:23 He has brought on them their own iniquity, and will cut them off in their own evil; Jehovah our God will cut them off.

Psa 95:1 Oh come, let us sing to Jehovah! Let us shout joyfully to the Rock of our salvation.

Psa 95:2 Let us come before His presence with thanksgiving; let us shout joyfully to Him with psalms.

Psa 95:3 For Jehovah is the great God, and the great King above all gods.

Psa 95:4 In His hand are the deep places of the earth; the heights of the hills are His also.

Psa 95:5 The sea is His, for He made it; and His hands formed the dry land.

Psa 95:6 Oh come, let us worship and bow down; let us kneel before Jehovah our Maker.

Psa 95:7 For He is our God, and we are the people of His pasture, and the sheep of His hand. Today, if you will hear His voice:

Psa 95:8 "Do not harden your hearts, as in the rebellion, and as in the day of trial in the wilderness,¹ Psa 95:9 "When your fathers tested Me; they proved Me, though they saw My work.

Psa 95:10 "For forty years I was grieved with that generation, and said, 'It is a people who go astray in their hearts, and they do not know My ways.'

Psa 95:11 "So I swore in My wrath, 'They will not enter My rest.'"²

Psa 96:1 Oh, sing to Jehovah a new song! Sing to Jehovah, all the earth.

Psa 96:2 Sing to Jehovah, bless His Name; proclaim the Good News of His salvation from day to day.

Psa 96:3 Declare His glory among the nations, His wonders among all peoples.

Psa 96:4 For Jehovah is great and greatly to be praised; He is to be feared above all gods.

Psa 96:5 For all the gods of the peoples are idols, but Jehovah made the heavens.

Psa 96:6 Honour and majesty are before Him; strength and beauty are in His sanctuary.

Psa 96:7 Give to Jehovah, O kindreds of the peoples, give to Jehovah glory and strength.

Psa 96:8 Give to Jehovah the glory due His Name; bring an offering, and come into His courts.

Psa 96:9 Oh, worship Jehovah in the beauty of sanctity! Tremble before Him, all the earth.

Psa 96:10 Say among the nations, "Jehovah reigns; the world also is established, it will not waver. He will judge the peoples righteously."

Psa 96:11 Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad; let the sea roar, and all its fullness;

Psa 96:12 Let the field be joyful, and all that is in it. Then all the trees of the woods will rejoice before Jehovah.

Psa 96:13 For He is coming, for He is coming to judge the earth. He will judge the world with righteousness, and the peoples with His truth.

Psa 97:1 Jehovah reigns; let the earth rejoice; let the multitude of isles be glad!

Psa 97:2 Clouds and darkness surround Him; righteousness and judgement are the foundation of His throne.

Psa 97:3 A fire goes before Him, and burns up His enemies round about.

Psa 97:4 His lightnings light the world; the earth sees and trembles.

Psa 97:5 The mountains melt like wax at the presence of Jehovah, at the presence of the Lord of the whole earth.

Psa 97:6 The heavens declare His righteousness, and all the peoples see His glory.

Psa 97:7 Let all be put to shame who serve carved images, who boast of idols. Worship Him, all you gods.³

Psa 97:8 Zion hears and is glad, and the daughters of Judah rejoice because of Your judgements, O Jehovah.

Psa 97:10 You who love Jehovah, hate evil! He preserves the souls of His saints; He delivers them out of the hand of the wicked.

Psa 97:11 Light is sown for the righteous, and gladness for the upright in heart.

Psa 97:12 Rejoice in Jehovah, you righteous, and give thanks at the remembrance of His sanctification.

A Psalm.

Psa 98:1 Oh, sing to Jehovah a new song! For He has done marvellous things; His right hand and His sanctified arm have gained Him the victory.

Psa 98:2 Jehovah has made known His salvation; His righteousness He has openly shown in the sight of the nations.

Psa 98:3 He has remembered His mercy and His faithfulness to the house of Israel; all the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.

Psa 98:4 Shout joyfully to Jehovah, all the earth; break forth in song, rejoice, and sing praises.

Psa 98:5 Sing to Jehovah with the harp, with the harp and the sound of a psalm, Psa 98:6 with trumpets and the sound of a shophar; shout joyfully before Jehovah, the King.

Psa 98:7 Let the sea roar, and all its fullness, the world and those who dwell in it.

Psa 98:8 Let the rivers clap their hands; let the hills be joyful together before Jehovah, Psa 98:9 for He is coming to judge the earth. He will judge the world with righteousness, and the peoples with equity.

Psa 99:1 Jehovah reigns; let the peoples tremble! He dwells between the cherubim; let the earth be moved!

Psa 99:2 Jehovah is great in Zion, and He is high above all the peoples.

Psa 99:3 Let them praise Your great and awesome Name; He is Sacred.

Psa 99:4 The King's strength also loves judgement; You have established equity; You have executed judgement and righteousness in Jacob.

Psa 99:5 Exalt Jehovah our God and worship at His footstool, for He is Sacred.

Psa 99:6 Moses and Aaron were among His priests, and Samuel was among those who called upon His Name. They called upon Jehovah, and He answered them.

Psa 99:7 He spoke to them in the cloudy pillar; they kept His testimonies and the statutes that He gave them.

Psa 99:8 You answered them, O Jehovah our God; You were to them God who Uplifts,¹ though You punished their deeds.

Psa 99:9 Exalt Jehovah our God, and worship at His sanctified hill; for Jehovah our God is Sacred.

A Psalm of Thanksgiving.

Psa 100:1 Make a joyful shout to Jehovah, all you lands!

Psa 100:2 Serve Jehovah with gladness; come before His presence with singing.

Psa 100:3 Know that Jehovah, He is God. It is He who has made us, and not we ourselves; we are His people and the sheep of His pasture.

Psa 100:4 Enter into His gates with thanksgiving, and into His courts with praise. Be thankful to Him, and bless His Name.

A Psalm of David.

Psa 101:1 I will sing of mercy and judgement. To You, O Jehovah, I will sing praises.

Psa 101:2 I will behave wisely in a perfect way. Oh, when will You come to me? I will walk within my house with a perfect heart.

Psa 101:3 I will set nothing wicked before my eyes; I hate the work of those who fall away; it will not cling to me.

Psa 101:4 A perverse heart will depart from me; I will not know evil.

Psa 101:5 Whoever secretly slanders his neighbour, him I will destroy; the one who has a haughty look and a proud heart, him I will not endure.

Psa 101:6 My eyes will be on the faithful of the land, that they may dwell with me. He who walks in a perfect way, he will serve me.

Psa 101:7 He who works deceit will not dwell within my house. He who tells lies will not continue in my presence.

Psa 101:8 I will destroy all the wicked of the land early, that I may cut off all the evildoers from the city of Jehovah.

A Prayer of the afflicted one, when he is faint and pours out his plea to Jehovah.

Psa 102:1 Hear my prayer, O Jehovah, and let my cry come to You.

Psa 102:2 Do not hide Your face from me in the day of my trouble; incline Your ear to me. In the day that I call, answer me speedily.

Psa 102:3 For my days are consumed like smoke, and my bones are burned like a hearth.

Psa 102:4 My heart is stricken and withered like grass, so that I forget to eat my bread.

Psa 102:5 Because of the sound of my groaning my bones cling to my flesh.

Psa 102:6 I am like a pelican of the wilderness; I am like an owl of the ruins.

Psa 102:7 I lie awake, and am like a bird alone on the housetop.

Psa 102:8 My enemies reproach me all day long, and those who deride me swear an oath against me.

Psa 102:9 For I have eaten ashes like bread, and mingled my drink with weeping, Psa 102:10 because of Your indignation and Your wrath; for You have lifted me up and cast me away.

Psa 102:11 My days are like a shadow that lengthens, and I wither away like grass.

Psa 102:12 But You, O Jehovah, will endure forever, and the remembrance of Your Name to all generations.

Psa 102:13 You will arise and have mercy on Zion; for the time to favour her, yes, the set time has come,

Psa 102:14 for Your servants take pleasure in her stones, and show favour to her dust.

Psa 102:15 So the nations will fear the Name of Jehovah, and all the kings of the earth Your glory.

Psa 102:16 For Jehovah will build up Zion; He will appear in His glory.

Psa 102:17 He will regard the prayer of the destitute, and will not despise their prayer.

Psa 102:18 This will be written for the generation to come, that a people yet to be created may praise Jah.

Psa 102:19 For He looked down from the height of His sanctuary; from heaven Jehovah viewed the earth,

Psa 102:20 to hear the groaning of the prisoner, to loose those appointed to death,

Psa 102:21 to declare the Name of Jehovah in Zion, and His praise in Jerusalem, Psa 102:22 when the peoples are gathered together, and the kingdoms, to serve Jehovah.

Psa 102:23 He weakened my strength in the way; He shortened my days.

Psa 102:24 I said, "O my God, do not take me away in the midst of my days; Your years are throughout all generations.

Psa 102:25 Before time You laid the foundation of the earth, and the heavens are the work of Your hands.

Psa 102:26 They will perish, but You will endure. Yes, they will all grow old like a garment; like a cloak You will change them, and they will be changed.¹

Psa 102:27 But You are the same and Your years will have no end.²

Psa 102:28 The children of Your servants will continue, and their descendants will be established before You."

Of David.

Psa 103:1 Bless Jehovah, O my soul; and all that is within me, bless His sanctified name!

Psa 103:2 Bless Jehovah, O my soul, and do not forget all His benefits.

Psa 103:3 Who forgives all your iniquities? Who heals all your diseases?

Psa 103:4 Who redeems your life from the pit? Who crowns you with loving-kindness and tender mercies?

Psa 103:5 Who satisfies your mouth with good things, so that your youth is renewed like the eagle's?

Psa 103:6 Jehovah executes righteousness and judgement for all who are oppressed.

Psa 103:7 He made known His ways to Moses, His acts to the children of Israel.

Psa 103:8 Jehovah is merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and abounding in mercy.

Psa 103:9 He will not always strive with us, nor will He reserve His anger forever.

Psa 103:10 He has not dealt with us according to our sins, nor punished us according to our iniquities.

Psa 103:11 For as high as the heavens are above the earth, so great is His mercy toward those who fear Him;

Psa 103:12 As far as sunrise is from sunset, so far has He removed our transgressions from us.

Psa 103:13 As a father pities his children, so Jehovah pities those who fear Him.

Psa 103:14 For He knows our form; He remembers that we are dust.

Psa 103:15 As for man, his days are like grass; as a flower of the field, so he flourishes.

Psa 103:16 For the wind passes over it, and it is gone, and its place remembers it no more.

Psa 103:17 But the mercy of Jehovah is from everlasting to everlasting on those who fear Him and His righteousness to their children's children,³

Psa 103:18 to those who keep His covenant, and to those who remember to do His precepts.

Psa 103:19 Jehovah has established His throne in heaven, and His kingdom rules over all.

Psa 103:20 His envoys bless Jehovah, who excel in strength, who do His word, heeding the voice of His word.

Psa 103:21 Bless Jehovah, all you His hosts, You servants of His who do His pleasure.

Psa 103:22 Bless Jehovah, all His works, in all places of His dominion. Bless Jehovah, O my soul!

Psa 104:1 Bless Jehovah, O my soul! O Jehovah my God, You are very great: You are clothed with honour and majesty, Psa 104:2 covering Yourself with light as with a garment, and stretching out the heavens like a curtain.

Psa 104:3 He lays the beams of His upper chambers in the waters, making the clouds His chariot, walking on the wings of the wind.

Psa 104:4 He makes His envoys spirits, His servants flames of fire.¹

Psa 104:5 You laid the foundations of the earth, so that it should not be moved forever,

Psa 104:6 You covered it with the deep as with a garment; the waters stood above the mountains.²

Psa 104:7 At Your rebuke they fled; at the voice of Your thunder they hastened away.

Psa 104:8 The mountains rose; the valleys sank to the place which You established for them.³

Psa 104:9 You have set a boundary that they may not pass over, so they will not return to cover the earth.⁴

Psa 104:10 He sends the springs into the valleys, which flow among the hills.

Psa 104:11 They give drink to every animal of the field; the wild donkeys quench their thirst.

Psa 104:12 By them the flying creatures of the heavens have their habitation; they call aloud among the branches.

Psa 104:13 He waters the hills from His upper chambers; the earth is satisfied with the fruit of Your works.

Psa 104:14 He causes the grass to grow for the cattle, and vegetation for the service of man, that he may bring forth food from the earth,

Psa 104:15 and wine that makes glad the heart of man, oil to make his face shine, and bread which strengthens man's heart.

Psa 104:16 The trees of Jehovah are full, the cedars of Lebanon which He planted, Psa 104:17 where the birds make their nests; the stork has her home in the fir trees.

Psa 104:18 The high hills are for the wild goats; the cliffs are a refuge for the rock badgers.

Psa 104:19 He made the moon for the appointed times; the sun knows its entrance.

Psa 104:20 You make darkness, and it is night in which all the animals of the forest creep about.

Psa 104:21 The young lions roar after their prey, and seek their food from God.

Psa 104:22 When the sun arises, they gather together and lie down in their dens.

Psa 104:23 Man goes out to his work and to his labour until the evening.

Psa 104:24 O Jehovah, how manifold are Your works! In wisdom You have made them all. The earth is full of Your possessions;

Psa 104:25 this great and wide sea, in which are innumerable teeming things, living things both small and great.

Psa 104:26 There the ships sail about; and there is that Leviathan which You have made to play there.

Psa 104:27 These all wait for You, that You may give them their food in due season.

Psa 104:28 What You give them they gather in; You open Your hand, they are filled with good.

Psa 104:29 You hide Your face, they are troubled; You take away their spirit, they

² In this verse, the psalmist's focus shifts from Creation Week to the Great Flood. It can be seen in this: In Creation Week, the land was already covered with water when the Earth was created (Gen 1:1-2). The land only appeared above the water for the first time on Day Three (Gen 1:9). It was only during the Great Flood that there was an existing above-water surface of the land, including its mountains, able to become 'covered', as with a garment (Gen 7:19).

³ In Verse 7, why would God rebuke the waters in Creation Week, when everything was good? The rebuke relates to Genesis 8, when God begins to draw back the water to expose the mountains by deepening the ocean floors (Gen 8:1-13).

⁴ In Gen 9:11, Jehovah makes a covenant that "never again will there be a flood to destroy the earth." This promise was not made in Creation Week. The Great Flood was indeed world-wide.

expire and return to their dust.

Psa 104:30 You send forth Your Spirit, they are created; and You renew the face of the earth.

Psa 104:31 May the glory of Jehovah endure forever; May Jehovah rejoice in His works.

Psa 104:32 He looks on the earth, and it trembles; He touches the hills, and they smoke.

Psa 104:33 I will sing to Jehovah as long as I live; I will sing praise to my God while I have my being.

Psa 104:34 May my meditation be sweet to Him; I will be glad in Jehovah.

Psa 104:35 May sinners be consumed from the earth, and the wicked be no more. Bless Jehovah, O my soul! Praise Jah!

Psa 105:1 Oh, give thanks to Jehovah! Call upon His Name! Make His deeds known among the peoples.

Psa 105:2 Sing to Him, sing psalms to Him; talk of all His wondrous works.

Psa 105:3 Glory in His sanctified name; let the hearts of those who seek Jehovah rejoice.

Psa 105:4 Seek Jehovah and His strength; seek His face without ceasing.

Psa 105:5 Remember His marvellous works which He has done, His wonders, and the judgements of His mouth, Psa 105:6 O seed of Abraham His servant, you children of Jacob, His chosen ones!

Psa 105:7 He is Jehovah our God; His judgements are in all the earth.

Psa 105:8 He has remembered His covenant forever, the word which He commanded for a thousand generations,

Psa 105:9 the agreement which He made with Abraham, and His oath to Isaac,

Psa 105:10 and confirmed it to Jacob for a statute, to Israel for an everlasting covenant,

Psa 105:11 saying, "To you I will give the land of Canaan as the allotment of your inheritance,"

Psa 105:12 when they were but few in number, indeed very few, and strangers in it.

Psa 105:13 When they went from one nation to another, from one kingdom to another people,

Psa 105:14 He permitted no one to do them wrong. Yes, He reproved kings for their sakes,

Psa 105:15 saying, "Do not touch My anointed ones, and do My prophets no harm."

Psa 105:16 Moreover He called for a famine in the land; He destroyed all the branches¹ of bread.

Psa 105:17 He sent a man before them; Joseph, who was sold as a slave.

Psa 105:18 They hurt his feet with fetters, he was laid in irons.

Psa 105:19 Until the time that his word came to pass, Jehovah's word tested him.

Psa 105:20 The king sent and released him. The ruler of the people let him go free.

Psa 105:21 He made him lord of his house, and ruler of all his possessions, Psa 105:22 to bind his princes' souls, and teach his elders wisdom.

Psa 105:23 Israel also came into Egypt, and Jacob sojourned in the land of Ham.

Psa 105:24 And He increased His people greatly, and made them more numerous than their enemies.

Psa 105:25 He turned their heart to hate His people, to deal craftily with His servants.

Psa 105:26 He sent Moses His servant, and Aaron whom He had chosen.

Psa 105:27 They performed His signs among them, and wonders in the land of Ham.

Psa 105:28 He sent darkness, and made it dark; and they did not rebel against His word.

Psa 105:29 He turned their waters into blood, and killed their fish.

Psa 105:30 Their land abounded with frogs, even in the chambers of their kings.

Psa 105:31 He spoke, and there came swarms of flies, and lice in all their territory.

Psa 105:32 He gave them hailstones like heavy rain, and flaming fire in their land.

Psa 105:33 He struck their vines also, and their fig trees, and splintered the trees of their territory.

Psa 105:34 He spoke, and locusts came, young locusts without number,

Psa 105:35 and ate up all the vegetation in their land, and devoured the fruit of their ground.

Psa 105:36 He also destroyed all the firstborn in their land, the first of all their strength.

Psa 105:37 He also brought them out with silver and gold, and there was none who stumbled among His branches.

Psa 105:38 Egypt was glad when they departed, for the fear of them had fallen upon them.

Psa 105:39 He spread a cloud for a covering, and fire to give light in the night.

Psa 105:40 The people asked, and He brought quail, and satisfied them with the bread of heaven.

Psa 105:41 He opened the rock, and water gushed out; it ran in the dry places like a river.

Psa 105:42 For He remembered His sanctified promise, and Abraham His servant.

Psa 105:43 He brought out His people with joy, His chosen ones with gladness.

Psa 105:44 He gave them the lands of the gentiles, and they inherited the labour of the nations, Psa 105:45 that they might observe His statutes and keep His Instructions. Praise Jah!

Psa 106:1 Praise Jah! Oh, give thanks to Jehovah, for He is good! For His mercy endures forever.

Psa 106:2 Who can utter the mighty acts of Jehovah, or can declare all His praise?

Psa 106:3 Blessed are those who keep judgements, and he who does righteousness at all times!

Psa 106:4 Remember me, O Jehovah, with the favour You have toward Your people. Oh, visit me with Your salvation,¹

Psa 106:5 that I may see the benefit of Your chosen ones, that I may rejoice in the gladness of Your nation, that I may glory with Your inheritance.

Psa 106:6 We have sinned with our fathers, we have committed iniquity, we have done wickedly.

Psa 106:7 Our fathers in Egypt did not understand Your wonders; they did not remember the multitude of Your mercies, but rebelled by the sea; the Soph Sea.²

Psa 106:8 Nevertheless He saved them for His Name's sake, that He might make His mighty power known.

Psa 106:9 He rebuked the Soph Sea also, and it dried up; so He led them through the depths, as through the wilderness.

Psa 106:10 He saved them from the hand of him who hated them, and redeemed them from the hand of the enemy.

Psa 106:11 The waters covered their enemies; there was not one of them left.

Psa 106:12 Then they believed His words; they sang His praise.

Psa 106:13 They soon forgot His works; they did not wait for His counsel, Psa 106:14 but lusted exceedingly in the wilderness, and tested God in the desert.

Psa 106:15 And He gave them their request, but sent leanness into their soul.

Psa 106:16 When they envied Moses in the camp and Aaron, the sacred ones of Jehovah,

Psa 106:17 the earth opened up and swallowed Dathan, and covered the congregation of Abiram.

Psa 106:18 A fire was kindled in their congregation; the flame burned up the wicked.

Psa 106:19 They made a calf in Choreb,¹ and worshipped the moulded image.

Psa 106:20 Thus they changed their glory into the pattern of an ox that eats grass.

Psa 106:21 They forgot God their Saviour, who had done great things in Egypt, Psa 106:22 wondrous works in the land of Ham, awesome things by the Soph Sea.

Psa 106:23 Therefore He said that He would destroy them, had not Moses—His chosen one—stood before Him in the breach, to turn away His wrath, lest He destroy them.

Psa 106:24 Then they despised the pleasant land; they did not believe His word, Psa 106:25 but murmured in their tents, and did not heed the voice of Jehovah.

Psa 106:26 Therefore He lifted up His hand in an oath against them, to overthrow them in the wilderness, Psa 106:27 to overthrow their descendants among the nations, and to scatter them in the lands.

Psa 106:28 They joined themselves also to the LORD of the Gap,² and ate sacrifices made to the dead.

Psa 106:29 Thus they provoked Him to anger with their deeds, and the plague broke out among them.

Psa 106:30 Then Phinehas stood up and intervened, and so the plague was stopped.

Psa 106:31 And that was accounted to him for righteousness to all generations forevermore.

Psa 106:32 They angered Him also at the waters of strife, so that it went ill with Moses on account of them;

Psa 106:33 because they rebelled against His Spirit, so that he spoke rashly with his lips.

Psa 106:34 They did not destroy the peoples, concerning whom Jehovah had commanded them, Psa 106:35 but they mingled with the gentiles and learned their works.

Psa 106:36 They served their idols, which became a snare to them.

Psa 106:37 They even sacrificed their sons and their daughters to demons, Psa 106:38 and shed innocent blood, even the blood of their sons and daughters, whom they sacrificed to the idols of Canaan; and the land was profaned with blood.

Psa 106:39 Thus they were made unclean by their own works and prostitutes by their own deeds.

Psa 106:40 Therefore the wrath of Jehovah was kindled against His people, so that He abhorred His own inheritance.

Psa 106:41 And He gave them into the hand of the gentiles, and those who hated them ruled over them.

Psa 106:42 Their enemies also oppressed them, and they were brought into subjection under their hand.

Psa 106:43 Many times He delivered them; but they rebelled against Him by their counsel, and were brought low for their iniquity.

Psa 106:44 Nevertheless He regarded their affliction when He heard their cry;

Psa 106:45 and for their sake He remembered His covenant, and relented according to the multitude of His mercies.

Psa 106:46 He also made them to be pitied by all those who carried them away captive.

Psa 106:47 Save us, O Jehovah our God, and gather us from among the gentiles; to give thanks to Your sanctified name, and to triumph in Your praise.

Psa 106:48 Blessed be Jehovah God of Israel from everlasting to everlasting! And let all the people say, "Amen! Praise Jah!"

Book Five—Psalms 107 to 150

Psa 107:1 Oh, give thanks to Jehovah, for He is good! For His mercy endures forever.

Psa 107:2 Let the redeemed of Jehovah say so, whom He has redeemed from the hand of the enemy, Psa 107:3 and gathered out of the lands, from the sunrise and from the west, from the north and from the south.

Psa 107:4 They wandered in the wilderness in a desolate way; they found no city to dwell in.

Psa 107:5 Hungry and thirsty, their soul fainted in them.

Psa 107:6 Then they cried out to Jehovah in their trouble, and He delivered them out of their distresses.

Psa 107:7 And He led them forth by the right way, that they might go to a city for habitation.

Psa 107:8 Oh, that men would give thanks to Jehovah for His goodness, and for His wonderful works to the children of men!

Psa 107:9 For He satisfies the longing soul, and fills the hungry soul with goodness.

Psa 107:10 Those who sat in darkness and in the shadow of death, bound in affliction and irons;

Psa 107:11 because they rebelled against the words of God, and despised the counsel of the Most High,

Psa 107:12 therefore He brought down their heart with labour; they fell down, and there was none to help.

Psa 107:13 Then they cried out to Jehovah in their trouble, and He saved them out of their distresses.

Psa 107:14 He brought them out of darkness and the shadow of death, and broke their chains in pieces.

Psa 107:15 Oh, that men would give thanks to Jehovah for His goodness, and for His wonderful works to the children of men!

Psa 107:16 For He has broken the gates of bronze, and cut the bars of iron in two.

Psa 107:17 Fools, because of their transgression, and because of their iniquities, were afflicted.

Psa 107:18 Their soul hated all sorts of food, and they drew near to the gates of death.

Psa 107:19 Then they cried out to Jehovah in their trouble, and He saved them out of their distresses.

Psa 107:20 He sent His word and healed them, and delivered them from their destruction.

Psa 107:21 Oh, that men would give thanks to Jehovah for His goodness, and for His wonderful works to the children of men!

Psa 107:22 Let them sacrifice the sacrifices of thanksgiving, and declare His works with rejoicing.

Psa 107:23 Those who go down onto the sea in ships, who work on the great waters, Psa 107:24 they see the works of Jehovah, and His wonders in the deep.

Psa 107:25 For He commands and raises the stormy wind, which lifts up the waves of the sea.

Psa 107:26 They mount up to the heavens, they go down again to the depths. Their soul melts because of evil.

Psa 107:27 They reel and stagger like a drunken man, and are at their wits' end.

Psa 107:28 Then they cry out to Jehovah in their trouble, and He brings them out of their distresses.

Psa 107:29 He calms the storm, so that its waves are still.

Psa 107:30 Then they are glad because they are quiet; so He guides them to their desired haven.

Psa 107:31 Oh, that men would give thanks to Jehovah for His goodness, and for His wonderful works to the children of men!

Psa 107:32 Let them exalt Him also in the congregation of the people, and praise Him in the assembly of the elders.

Psa 107:33 He turns rivers into a wilderness, and the springs of water into dry ground;

Psa 107:34 a fruitful land into barrenness, because of the evil of those who dwell in it.

Psa 107:35 He turns a wilderness into pools of water, and dry land into springs of water.

Psa 107:36 There He makes the hungry dwell, that they may establish a city for habitation, Psa 107:37 and sow fields and plant vineyards, that they may yield a fruitful harvest.

Psa 107:38 He also blesses them, and they multiply greatly; and He does not let their cattle decrease.

Psa 107:39 When they are diminished and brought low through oppression, evil and sorrow,

Psa 107:40 He pours contempt on princes, and causes them to wander in the wilderness where there is no way;

Psa 107:41 yet He sets the poor on high, far from affliction, and makes their families like a flock.

Psa 107:42 The righteous see it and rejoice, and all iniquity shuts its mouth.

Psa 107:43 Whoever is wise will observe these things, and they will understand the loving-kindness of Jehovah.

A Song. A Psalm of David.

Psa 108:1 O God, my heart is steadfast; I will sing and give praise, even with my glory.

Psa 108:2 Awake, lute and harp! I will awaken the dawn.

Psa 108:3 I will praise You, O Jehovah, among the peoples, and I will sing praises to You among the nations.

Psa 108:4 For Your mercy is great above the heavens, and Your truth reaches to the clouds.

Psa 108:5 Be exalted, O God, above the heavens, and Your glory above all the earth;

Psa 108:6 that Your beloved may be delivered. Save with Your right hand, and hear me.

Psa 108:7 God has spoken in His sanctuary: "I will rejoice; I will divide Shechem and measure out the Valley of Succoth.

Psa 108:8 Gilead is Mine; Manasseh is Mine; Ephraim also is the stronghold for My leaders; Judah is My lawgiver.

Psa 108:9 Moab is My washpot; over Edom I will cast My shoe; over Philistia I will triumph."

Psa 108:10 Who will bring me into the strong city? Who will lead me to Edom?

Psa 108:11 Is it not You, O God, who cast us off? And You, O God, who did not go out with our armies?

Psa 108:12 Give us help from trouble, for the help of man is vain.

Psa 108:13 Through God we will do valiantly, for it is He who will tread down our enemies.

To the chief musician, A Psalm of David.

Psa 109:1 Do not keep silent, O God of my praise!

Psa 109:2 For the mouth of the wicked and the mouth of the deceitful have opened against me; they have spoken against me with a lying tongue.

Psa 109:3 They have also surrounded me with words of hatred, and fought against me without a cause.

Psa 109:4 In return for my love they are my accusers, but I give myself to prayer.

Psa 109:5 Thus they have rewarded me evil for good, and hatred for my love.

Psa 109:6 Set a wicked man over him, and let an accuser stand at his right hand.

Psa 109:7 When he is judged, let him be found guilty, and let his prayer become sin.

Psa 109:8 Let his days be few, and let another take his office.¹

Psa 109:9 Let his children be fatherless, and his wife a widow.

Psa 109:10 Let his children continually be wanderers and beg; let them seek their bread from their ruins.

Psa 109:11 Let the creditor seize all that he has, and let strangers plunder his labour.

Psa 109:12 Let there be none to extend mercy to him, nor let there be any to favour his fatherless children.

Psa 109:13 Let his posterity be cut off, and in the generation following let their name be blotted out.

Psa 109:14 Let the iniquity of his fathers be remembered before Jehovah, and do not let the sin of his mother be blotted out.

Psa 109:15 Let them be continually before Jehovah, that He may cut off the memory of them from the earth,

Psa 109:16 because he did not remember to show mercy, but persecuted the poor and needy man, that he might even slay the broken in heart.

Psa 109:17 As he loved cursing, so let it come to him; as he did not delight in blessing, so let it be far from him.

Psa 109:18 As he clothed himself with cursing as with his garment, so let it enter his body like water, and like oil into his bones.

Psa 109:19 Let it be to him like the garment which covers him, and for a belt with which he girds himself continually.

Psa 109:20 Let this be Jehovah's reward to my accusers, and to those who speak evil against my soul.

Psa 109:21 But You, O Lord Jehovah, deal with me for Your Name's sake; because Your mercy is good, deliver me.

Psa 109:22 For I am poor and needy, and my heart is wounded within me.

Psa 109:23 I am gone like a shadow when it lengthens; I am shaken off like a locust.

Psa 109:24 My knees tremble through fasting, and my flesh lacks fatness.

Psa 109:25 I also have become a reproach to them; when they look at me, they shake their heads.

Psa 109:26 Help me, O Jehovah my God! Oh, save me according to Your mercy, Psa 109:27 that they may know that this is Your hand; that You, Jehovah, have done it!

Psa 109:28 Let them curse, but You bless; when they arise, let them be ashamed, but let Your servant rejoice.

Psa 109:29 Let my accusers be clothed with shame, and let them cover themselves with their own disgrace as with a mantle.

Psa 109:30 I will greatly praise Jehovah with my mouth. Yes, I will praise Him among the multitude.

Psa 109:31 For He will stand at the right hand of the poor, to save him from those who judge his soul.

A Psalm of David.

Psa 110:1 Jehovah said to my Lord, "Sit at My right hand, until I make Your enemies Your footstool."²

Psa 110:2 Jehovah will send the branch of Your strength out of Zion. Rule in the midst of Your enemies!

willingly in the day of Your power; in the majesty of sanctity, from the womb of the dawn You have the dew of Your youth.

Psa 110:4 Jehovah has sworn and will not relent, "You are a priest forever in the likeness of Melchizedek."¹

Psa 110:5 Jehovah at Your right hand will shatter kings in the day of His wrath.

Psa 110:6 He will judge among the nations, He will fill the places with dead bodies, He will execute the heads of many countries.

Psa 110:7 He will drink from the brook by the wayside; therefore He will lift up His head.

Psa 111:1 Praise Jah! I will praise Jehovah with my whole heart in the council of the upright and in the congregation.

Psa 111:2 The works of Jehovah are great, studied by all who have pleasure in them.

Psa 111:3 His work is honourable and glorious, and His righteousness endures forever.

Psa 111:4 He has made His wonderful works to be remembered; Jehovah is gracious and full of compassion.

Psa 111:5 He has given food to those who fear Him; He will remember His covenant forever.

Psa 111:6 He has declared to His people the power of His works, in giving them the heritage of the nations.

Psa 111:7 The works of His hands are truth and justice; all His precepts are sure.

Psa 111:8 They stand fast forever and ever, and are done in truth and uprightness.

Psa 111:9 He has sent redemption to His people; He has commanded His covenant forever. Sacred and awesome is His Name.

Psa 111:10 The fear of Jehovah is the beginning of wisdom; all those who practice it have a good understanding. His praise endures forever.

Psa 112:1 Praise Jah! Blessed is the man who fears Jehovah, who delights greatly in His commandments.

Psa 112:2 His descendants will be mighty on earth; the generation of the upright will be blessed.

Psa 112:3 Wealth and riches will be in his house, and his righteousness endures forever.

Psa 112:4 Unto the upright there arises light in the darkness. He is gracious, full of compassion and righteous.

Psa 112:5 A good man deals graciously and lends; he will guide his affairs with judgement.

Psa 112:6 Surely he will never waver; the righteous will be in everlasting remembrance.

Psa 112:7 He will not be afraid of evil news; his heart is steadfast, trusting in Jehovah.

Psa 112:8 His heart is established; he will not be afraid when he looks on his enemies.

Psa 112:9 He has dispersed abroad, he has given to the poor; his righteousness endures forever; his horn will be exalted with honour.²

Psa 112:10 The wicked will see it and be grieved; he will gnash his teeth and melt away; the desire of the wicked will perish.

Psa 113:1 Praise Jah! Praise, O servants of Jehovah, praise the Name of Jehovah!

Psa 113:2 Blessed be the Name of Jehovah from this time forth and forevermore!

Psa 113:3 From the rising of the sun to its setting, the Name of Jehovah is to be praised.

Psa 119:57 You are my portion, O Jehovah; I have said that I would keep Your words.

Psa 119:58 I entreated Your favour with my whole heart; be merciful to me according to Your word.

Psa 119:59 I thought about my ways, and turned my feet to Your testimonies.

Psa 119:60 I hastened eagerly and did not delay to keep Your commandments.

Psa 119:61 The cords of the wicked have bound me, but I have not forgotten Your Instructions.

Psa 119:62 At midnight I will rise to give thanks to You, because of Your righteous judgements.

Psa 119:63 I am a companion of all those who fear You, and of those who keep Your precepts.

Psa 119:64 The earth, O Jehovah, is full of Your mercy; teach me Your statutes.

צ Teth

Psa 119:65 You have dealt well with Your servant, O Jehovah, according to Your word.

Psa 119:66 Teach me good judgement and knowledge, for I believe Your commandments.

Psa 119:67 Before I was afflicted I went astray, but now I keep Your word.

Psa 119:68 You are good, and do good; teach me Your statutes.

Psa 119:69 The proud have forged a lie against me, but I will keep Your precepts with my whole heart.

Psa 119:70 Their heart is as fat as grease, but I delight in Your Instructions.

Psa 119:71 It is good for me that I have been afflicted, that I may learn Your statutes.

Psa 119:72 The Instructions of Your mouth are better to me than thousands of shekels of gold and silver.

כ Yod

Psa 119:73 Your hands have made me and fashioned me; give me understanding, that I may learn Your commandments.

Psa 119:74 Those who fear You will be glad when they see me, because I have hoped in Your word.

Psa 119:75 I know, O Jehovah, that Your judgements are right, and that in faithfulness You have afflicted me.

Psa 119:76 Let, I pray, Your merciful kindness be for my comfort, according to Your word to Your servant.

Psa 119:77 Let Your tender mercies come to me, that I may live; for Your Instructions are my delight.

Psa 119:78 Let the proud be ashamed, for they treated me wrongfully with falsehood; but I will meditate on Your precepts.

Psa 119:79 Let those who fear You turn to me, those who know Your testimonies.

Psa 119:80 Let my heart be blameless regarding Your statutes, that I may not be ashamed.

כ Kaph

Psa 119:81 My soul faints for Your salvation, but I hope in Your word.

Psa 119:82 My eyes fail from seeking Your word, saying, "When will You comfort me?"

Psa 119:83 For I have become like a wineskin in smoke, yet I do not forget Your statutes.

Psa 119:84 How many are the days of Your servant? When will You execute judgement on those who persecute me?

Psa 119:85 The proud have dug pits for me which are not according to Your Instructions.

Psa 119:86 All Your commandments are faithful; they persecute me wrongfully; help me!

Psa 119:87 They almost made an end of me on earth, but I did not forsake Your precepts.

Psa 119:88 Revive me according to Your loving-kindness, so that I may keep the testimony of Your mouth.

ל Lamed

Psa 119:89 O Jehovah, Your word stands forever in heaven.

Psa 119:90 Your faithfulness endures to all generations; You established the earth, and it abides.

Psa 119:91 They continue this day according to Your judgements, for all are Your servants.

Psa 119:92 Unless Your Instructions had been my delight, I would then have perished in my affliction.

Psa 119:93 I will never forget Your precepts, for by them You have given me life.

Psa 119:94 I am Yours, save me; for I have sought Your precepts.

Psa 119:95 The wicked wait for me to destroy me, but I will consider Your testimonies.

Psa 119:96 I have seen the fulfilment of all perfection: Your commandment is exceedingly broad.

מ Mem

Psa 119:97 Oh, how I love Your Instructions! They are my meditation all the day.

Psa 119:98 You, through Your commandments, make me wiser than my enemies, though they are always with me.

Psa 119:99 I have more understanding than all my teachers, for Your testimonies are my meditation.

Psa 119:100 I understand more than the ancients, because I keep Your precepts.

Psa 119:101 I have restrained my feet from every evil way, that I may keep Your Word.

Psa 119:102 I have not departed from Your judgements, for You Yourself have taught me.

Psa 119:103 How sweet are Your words to my taste, sweeter than honey to my mouth!¹

Psa 119:104 Through Your precepts I get understanding; therefore I hate every false way.²

נ Nun

Psa 119:105 Your Word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path.

Psa 119:106 I have sworn and confirmed that I will keep Your righteous judgements.

² 2Ti 3:15-17

Psa 119:107 I am afflicted very much; revive me, O Jehovah, according to Your word.

Psa 119:108 Accept, I pray, the freewill offerings of my mouth, O Jehovah, and teach me Your judgements.

Psa 119:109 My soul is continually in my hand, yet I do not forget Your Instructions.

Psa 119:110 The wicked have laid a snare for me, yet I have not strayed from Your precepts.

Psa 119:111 Your testimonies I have taken as a heritage forever, for they are the rejoicing of my heart.

Psa 119:112 I have extended my heart to perform Your statutes forever, to the very end.

■ Samech

Psa 119:113 I hate the double-minded, but I love Your Instructions.

Psa 119:114 You are my hiding place and my shield; I hope in Your word.

Psa 119:115 Depart from me, you evildoers, for I will keep the commandments of my God!

Psa 119:116 Uphold me according to Your word, that I may live; and do not let me be ashamed of my hope.

Psa 119:117 Hold me up, and I will be safe, and I will observe Your statutes continually.

Psa 119:118 You reject all those who stray from Your statutes, for their deceit is falsehood.

Psa 119:119 You put away all the wicked of the earth like dross; therefore I love Your testimonies.

Psa 119:120 My flesh trembles for fear of You, and I am afraid of Your judgements.

■ Ayin

Psa 119:121 I have practiced judgements and righteousness; do not leave me to my oppressors.

Psa 119:122 Be surety for Your servant for good; do not let the proud oppress me.

Psa 119:123 My eyes fail from seeking Your salvation and Your righteous word.

Psa 119:124 Deal with Your servant according to Your mercy, and teach me Your statutes.

Psa 119:125 I am Your servant; give me understanding, that I may know Your testimonies.

Psa 119:126 It is time for You to act, O Jehovah, for they have regarded Your Instructions as void.

Psa 119:127 Therefore I love Your commandments more than gold, yes, than fine gold!

Psa 119:128 Therefore all Your precepts concerning all things I consider to be right; I hate every false way.

■ Pe

Psa 119:129 Your testimonies are wonderful; therefore my soul keeps them.

Psa 119:130 The entrance of Your words gives light; it gives understanding to the simple.

Psa 119:131 I opened my mouth and panted, for I longed for Your commandments.

Psa 119:132 Look upon me and be merciful to me, as Your judgement is toward those who love Your Name.

Psa 119:133 Direct my steps by Your word, and let no iniquity have dominion over me.

Psa 119:134 Redeem me from the oppression of man, that I may keep Your precepts.

Psa 119:135 Make Your face shine upon Your servant, and teach me Your statutes.

Psa 119:136 Rivers of water run down from my eyes, because men do not keep Your Instructions.

Psa 119:137 Righteous are You, O Jehovah, and upright are Your judgements.

Psa 119:138 Your testimonies, which You have commanded, are righteous and very faithful.

Psa 119:139 My zeal has consumed me, because my enemies have forgotten Your words.

Psa 119:140 Your word is very pure; therefore Your servant loves it.

Psa 119:141 I am small and despised, yet I do not forget Your precepts.

Psa 119:142 Your righteousness is an everlasting righteousness, and Your Instructions are truth.

Psa 119:143 Trouble and anguish have overtaken me, yet Your commandments are my delights.

Psa 119:144 The righteousness of Your testimonies is everlasting; give me understanding, and I will live.

Psa 132:6 Behold, we heard of it in Ephrathah; we found it in the fields of the woods.

Psa 132:7 Let us go into His booth; let us worship at His footstool.

Psa 132:8 Arise, O Jehovah, to Your resting place, You and the ark of Your strength.

Psa 132:9 Let Your priests be clothed with righteousness, and let Your saints shout for joy.

Psa 132:10 For Your servant David’s sake, do not turn away the face of Your Anointed.

Psa 132:11 Jehovah has sworn in truth to David; He will not turn from it: “I will set upon your throne the fruit of your body.¹

Psa 132:12 If your sons will keep My covenant and My testimony which I will teach them, their sons also will sit upon your throne forevermore.”

Psa 132:13 For Jehovah has chosen Zion; He has desired it for His habitation:

Psa 132:14 “This is My resting place forever; here I will dwell, for I have desired it.

Psa 132:15 I will abundantly bless her provision; I will satisfy her poor with bread.

Psa 132:16 I will also clothe her priests with salvation, and her saints will shout aloud for joy.

Psa 132:17 There I will make the horn of David grow; I will prepare a lamp for My Anointed.

Psa 132:18 His enemies I will clothe with shame, but upon Himself His crown will flourish.”

A Song of Ascents, of David.

Psa 133:1 Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity!

Psa 133:2 It is like the precious oil upon the head, running down on the beard, the beard of Aaron, running down the mouth of his garments.

Psa 133:3 It is like the dew of Hermon, descending upon the mountains of Zion; for there Jehovah commanded the blessing; life forevermore.

Psa 137:9 Blessings on he who takes and dashes your children against the rock.¹

¹ As in the Peshitta. This is likely a prophecy against the infamous daughter of Babylon, the Roman Catholic Church, aka the Harlot, Babylon the Great (Rev 17:1-6), who has been persecuting the True Church for 1900 years.

A Psalm of David.

Psa 138:1 I will praise You with my whole heart; before the gods I will sing praises to You.

Psa 138:2 I will worship toward Your sanctified Palace, and praise Your Name for Your loving-kindness and Your truth; for You have magnified above all Your Word and Your Name.

Psa 138:3 In the day when I cried out, You answered me, and made me bold with strength in my soul.

Psa 138:4 All the kings of the earth will praise You, O Jehovah, when they hear the words of Your mouth.

Psa 138:5 Yes, they will sing of the ways of Jehovah, for great is the glory of Jehovah.

Psa 138:6 Though Jehovah is on high, yet He regards the lowly; but the proud He knows from afar.

Psa 138:7 Though I walk in the midst of trouble, You will revive me; You will stretch out Your hand against the wrath of my enemies, and Your right hand will save me.

Psa 138:8 Jehovah will perfect that which concerns me; Your mercy, O Jehovah, endures forever; do not forsake the works of Your hands.

To the chief musician. A Psalm of David.

Psa 139:1 O Jehovah, You have searched me and known me.

Psa 139:2 You know my sitting down and my rising up; You understand my thoughts afar off.

Psa 139:3 You know my way and my lying down, and are acquainted with all my paths.

Psa 139:4 For there is not a word on my tongue, but behold, O Jehovah, You know it altogether.

Psa 139:5 You have hedged me behind and before, and laid Your hand upon me.

Psa 139:6 Such knowledge is too wonderful for me. It is high, I cannot attain it.¹

Psa 139:7 Where can I go from Your Spirit? Or where can I flee from Your presence?

Psa 139:8 If I ascend into heaven, You are there. If I descend into Sheol, behold, You are there.

Psa 139:9 If I lift my wings like an eagle's, or I dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea, Psa 139:10 even there Your hand will hold me, and Your right hand will lead me.

Psa 139:11 If You say to me, "The darkness will shine and the night will shine on your face;

Psa 139:12 Indeed, the darkness from You will not darken, but the night will shine as the day; and the darkness as the light.

Psa 139:13 For You have formed my inward parts; and You have carried me from my mother's womb.

Psa 139:14 I will praise You, for I am fearfully and distinctively made; marvellous are Your works, and my soul knows that very well.

Psa 139:15 My bones were not hidden from You when I was made in secret, and I went down to the lower parts of the earth.

Psa 139:16 In my youth, my eyes saw your writings. Behold, all these were written before there were days, when there was not a man in them.

Psa 139:17 How very precious are Your compassions to me, O God! How greatly they have strengthened their rulers!

Psa 139:18 If I could count them, they would be multiplied more than the sand. When I awake, I am still with You.

Psa 139:19 Truly, O God, You will slay the sinners and bloodthirsty men. They will pass from me,

Psa 139:20 because they speak against You and they take Your City without cause.

Psa 139:21 O Jehovah, I hate those who hate You, and I loathe those who rise up against You.

Psa 139:22 I hate them with complete hatred; and they have been my enemies.²

Psa 139:23 Search me, O God, and know my heart; try me, and know my steps;

Psa 139:24 and see if there is any lying way in me. Lead me in your everlasting way.

To the chief musician. A Psalm of David.

Psa 140:1 Deliver me, O Jehovah, from evil men; preserve me from violent men, Psa 140:2 who plan evil things in their hearts; they continually gather together for war.

Psa 140:3 They sharpen their tongues like a serpent; the venom of asps is under their lips.³ Selah.

Psa 140:4 Keep me, O Jehovah, from the hands of the wicked; preserve me from violent men, who have purposed to make my steps stumble.

Psa 140:5 The proud have hidden a snare for me, and cords; they have spread a net by the wayside; they have set traps for me. Selah.

Psa 140:6 I said to Jehovah: "You are my God; hear the voice of my supplications, O Jehovah.

Psa 140:7 O Lord Jehovah, the strength of my salvation, You have covered my head in the day of battle.

Psa 140:8 Do not grant, O Jehovah, the desires of the wicked; do not further his wicked scheme, lest they be exalted. Selah.

Psa 140:9 "As for the head of those who surround me, let the evil of their lips cover them;

³ Rom 3:13

Psa 140:10 Let burning coals fall upon them; let them be cast into the fire, into deep pits, that they rise not up again.

Psa 140:11 Do not let a slanderer be established in the earth; let evil hunt the violent man to overthrow him.”

Psa 140:12 I know that Jehovah will maintain the cause of the afflicted, and justice for the poor.

Psa 140:13 Surely the righteous will give thanks to Your Name; the upright will dwell in Your presence.

A Psalm of David.

Psa 141:1 Lord, I cry out to You; hasten eagerly to me! Give ear to my voice when I cry out to You.

Psa 141:2 Let my prayer be set before You as incense, the lifting up of my hands as the evening sacrifice.

Psa 141:3 Set a guard, O Jehovah, over my mouth. Keep watch over the door of my lips.

Psa 141:4 Do not incline my heart to any evil thing, to practice wicked works with men who work iniquity; and do not let me eat of their delicacies.

Psa 141:5 Let the righteous strike me; it is a kindness. And let him reprove me; it is as excellent oil; let my head not refuse it. For still my prayer is against the deeds of the evil.

Psa 141:6 Their judges are restrained by the hands of the Rock, and they hear my words, for they are sweet.

Psa 141:7 Our bones are scattered at the mouth of the grave, as when one ploughs and splits open the earth.

Psa 141:8 But my eyes are upon You, O Jehovah, my Lord. I take refuge in You; do not leave my soul destitute.

Psa 141:9 Keep me from the snares which they have laid for me, and from the traps of the workers of iniquity.

Psa 141:10 Let the wicked fall into their own nets, while I escape safely.

A Teaching of David, a Prayer, in his being in the cave.

Psa 142:1 I cry out to Jehovah with my voice; with my voice to Jehovah I make my supplication.

Psa 142:2 I pour out my complaint before Him; I declare before Him my trouble.

Psa 142:3 When my spirit was overwhelmed within me, then You knew my path. In the way in which I walk they have secretly set a snare for me.

Psa 142:4 Look on my right hand and see, for there is no one who acknowledges me. Refuge has failed me; no one cares for my soul.

Psa 142:5 I cried out to You, O Jehovah: I said, “You are my refuge, my portion in the land of the living.

Psa 142:6 Attend to my cry, for I am brought very low; deliver me from my persecutors, for they are stronger than I.

Psa 142:7 Bring my soul out of prison, that I may praise Your Name; the righteous will surround me, for You will deal bountifully with me.”

A Psalm of David.

Psa 143:1 Hear my prayer, O Jehovah. Give ear to my supplications! In Your faithfulness answer me, and in Your righteousness.

Psa 143:2 Do not enter into judgement with Your servant, for in Your sight no one living is righteous.¹

Psa 143:3 For the enemy has persecuted my soul; he has crushed my life to the ground; he has made me dwell in darkness, like those who have long been dead.

Psa 143:4 Therefore my spirit is overwhelmed within me; my heart within me is distressed.

Psa 143:5 I remember the days of old; I meditate on all Your works; I muse on the work of Your hands.

Psa 143:6 I spread out my hands to You; my soul longs for You like a thirsty land. Selah.

Psa 143:7 Answer me speedily, O Jehovah; for my spirit fails! Do not hide Your face from me, lest I be like those who go down into the pit.

Psa 143:8 Cause me to hear Your loving-kindness in the morning, for in You do I trust; cause me to know the way in which I should walk, for I lift up my soul to You.

Psa 143:9 Deliver me, O Jehovah, from my enemies; I take shelter in You.

Psa 143:10 Teach me to do Your will, for You are my God; Your Spirit is good. Lead me in the land of uprightness.

Psa 143:11 Revive me, O Jehovah, for Your Name's sake! For Your righteousness' sake bring my soul out of trouble.

Psa 143:12 In Your mercy cut off my enemies, and destroy all those who afflict my soul; for I am Your servant.

A Psalm of David.

Psa 144:1 Blessed be Jehovah my Rock, who trains my hands for war, and my fingers for battle;

Psa 144:2 my loving-kindness and my fortress, my high tower and my deliverer, my shield and the One in whom I take refuge, who subdues my people under me.

Psa 144:3 Jehovah, what is man, that You take knowledge of him? Or the son of man, that You are mindful of him?

Psa 144:4 Man is like a breath; his days are like a passing shadow.

Psa 144:5 Bow down Your heavens, O Jehovah, and come down; touch the mountains, and they will smoke.

Psa 144:6 Flash forth lightning and scatter them; shoot out Your arrows and destroy them.

Psa 144:7 Stretch out Your hand from above; rescue me and deliver me out of great waters, from the hand of the sons of foreigners, Psa 144:8 whose mouth speaks vain words, and whose right hand is a right hand of falsehood.

Psa 144:9 I will sing a new song to You, O God; on a harp of ten strings I will sing praises to You, Psa 144:10 the One who gives salvation to kings, who delivers David His servant from the evil sword.

Psa 144:11 Rescue me and deliver me from the hand of foreigners, whose mouth speaks vain words, and whose right hand is a right hand of falsehood;

Psa 144:12 that our sons may be as plants grown up in their youth; that our daughters may be as pillars, sculptured in the likeness of a palace;

Psa 144:13 that our barns may be full, supplying all kinds of produce; that our sheep may bring forth thousands and ten thousands in our fields;

Psa 144:14 that our oxen may be well-laden; that there be no breaking in or going out; that there be no outcry in our streets.

Psa 144:15 Happy are the people who are in such a state. Happy are the people whose God is Jehovah!

A Psalm of Praise, of David.

Psa 145:1 I will extol You, my God, O King; and I will bless Your Name forever and ever.

Psa 145:2 Every day I will bless You, and I will praise Your Name forever and ever.

Psa 145:3 Great is Jehovah, and greatly to be praised; and His greatness is unsearchable.

Psa 145:4 One generation will praise Your works to another, and will declare

Your mighty acts.

Psa 145:5 I will meditate on the glorious splendour of Your majesty, and on Your wondrous works.

Psa 145:6 Men will speak of the might of Your awesome acts, and I will declare Your greatness.

Psa 145:7 They will utter the memory of Your great goodness, and will sing of Your righteousness.

Psa 145:8 Jehovah is gracious and full of compassion, slow to anger and great in mercy.

Psa 145:9 Jehovah is good to all, and His tender mercies are over all His works.

Psa 145:10 All Your works will praise You, O Jehovah, and Your saints will bless You.

Psa 145:11 They will speak of the glory of Your kingdom, and talk of Your power, Psa 145:12 to make known to the sons of men His mighty acts, and the glorious majesty of His kingdom.

Psa 145:13 Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and Your dominion endures throughout generations of generations. Jehovah is faithful in His Words, and holy in all His works.¹

Psa 145:14 Jehovah upholds all who fall, and raises up all those who are bowed down.

Psa 145:15 The eyes of all look expectantly to You, and You give them their food in due season.

Psa 145:16 You open Your hand and satisfy the desire of every animal.

Psa 145:17 Jehovah is righteous in all His ways, gracious in all His works.

Psa 145:18 Jehovah is near to all who call upon Him, to all who call upon Him in truth.

Psa 145:19 He will fulfil the desire of those who fear Him; He also will hear their cry and save them.

Psa 145:20 Jehovah preserves all who love Him, but all the wicked He will destroy.

Psa 145:21 My mouth will speak the praise of Jehovah, and all flesh will bless His sanctified name forever and ever.

Psa 146:1 Praise Jah! Praise Jehovah, O my soul!

Psa 146:2 While I live I will praise Jehovah; I will sing praises to my God while I have my being.

Psa 146:3 Do not put your trust in princes, nor in a son of man, in whom there is no salvation.

Psa 146:4 His spirit goes out, he returns to the earth; in that day his thoughts perish.

Psa 146:5 Happy is he who has the God of Jacob for his help, whose hope is in Jehovah his God,

Psa 146:6 who made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that is in them; who keeps truth forever,

Psa 146:7 who makes judgements for the oppressed, who gives food to the hungry. Jehovah gives freedom to the prisoners.

Psa 146:8 Jehovah opens the eyes of the blind; Jehovah raises those who are bowed down; Jehovah loves the righteous.

Psa 146:9 Jehovah watches over the immigrants; He relieves the fatherless and widow; but the way of the wicked He turns upside down.

Psa 146:10 Jehovah will reign forever; Your God, O Zion, to all generations. Praise Jah!

Psa 147:1 Praise Jah! For it is good to sing praises to our God; for it is pleasant, and praise is beautiful.

¹ Joh 14:10 & 1Co 1:9 This last sentence is in the Hebrew Dead Sea Scrolls, Septuagint and Peshitta. It is missing from the Masoretic. Psalm 145 is an acrostic poem in which each line begins with the next letter of the Hebrew alphabet. This is the 'missing' line beginning with nun.

Psa 147:2 Jehovah builds up Jerusalem; He gathers together the outcasts of Israel.
 Psa 147:3 He heals the broken-hearted and binds up their wounds.
 Psa 147:4 He counts the number of the stars; He calls them all by name.
 Psa 147:5 Great is our Lord, and mighty in power; His understanding is infinite.
 Psa 147:6 Jehovah lifts up the humble; He casts the wicked down to the ground.
 Psa 147:7 Sing to Jehovah with thanksgiving; sing praises on the harp to our God,
 Psa 147:8 who covers the heavens with clouds, who prepares rain for the earth, who makes grass to grow on the mountains.
 Psa 147:9 He gives to the beast its food, and to the young ravens that cry.
 Psa 147:10 He does not delight in the strength of the horse; He takes no pleasure in the legs of a man.
 Psa 147:11 Jehovah takes pleasure in those who fear Him, in those who hope in His mercy.
 Psa 147:12 Praise Jehovah, O Jerusalem! Praise your God, O Zion!
 Psa 147:13 For He has strengthened the bars of your gates; He has blessed your children within you.
 Psa 147:14 He makes peace in your borders, and fills you with the finest wheat.
 Psa 147:15 He sends out His command to the earth; His word runs very swiftly.
 Psa 147:16 He gives snow like wool; He scatters the hoarfrost like ashes;
 Psa 147:17 He casts out His hail like morsels; who can stand before His cold?
 Psa 147:18 He sends out His word and melts them; He causes His wind to blow, and the waters flow.
 Psa 147:19 He declares His word to Jacob, His statutes and His judgements to Israel.
 Psa 147:20 He has not dealt thus with any nation; and as for His judgements, they have not known them. Praise Jah!

Psa 148:1 Praise Jah! Praise Jehovah from the heavens; praise Him in the heights!
 Psa 148:2 Praise Him, all His envoys; praise Him, all His hosts!
 Psa 148:3 Praise Him, sun and moon; praise Him, all you stars of light!
 Psa 148:4 Praise Him, you heavens of heavens, and you waters above the heavens!
 Psa 148:5 Let them praise the name of Jehovah, for He commanded and they were created.
 Psa 148:6 He has also established them forever and ever; He has made a decree which will not pass away.
 Psa 148:7 Praise Jehovah from the earth, you great dragons and all the depths;
 Psa 148:8 fire and hail, snow and clouds; stormy wind, fulfilling His word;
 Psa 148:9 mountains and all hills; fruitful trees and all cedars;
 Psa 148:10 animals and all cattle; creeping things and winged birds;
 Psa 148:11 kings of the earth and all peoples; princes and all judges of the earth;
 Psa 148:12 both young men and virgins; old men and children.
 Psa 148:13 Let them praise the Name of Jehovah, for His Name alone is exalted; His glory is above the earth and heaven.
 Psa 148:14 And He has exalted the horn of His people, the praise of all His saints; of the children of Israel, a people near to Him. Praise Jah!

Psa 149:1 Praise Jah! Sing to Jehovah a new song, and His praise in the congregation of saints.
 Psa 149:2 Let Israel rejoice in their Maker; let the children of Zion be joyful in their King.

Psa 149:3 Let them praise His Name with the dance; let them sing praises to Him with the timbrel and harp.

Psa 149:4 For Jehovah takes pleasure in His people; He will beautify the humble with salvation.

Psa 149:5 Let the saints be joyful in glory; let them sing aloud on their beds.

Psa 149:6 Let the high praises of God be in their mouth, and a two-edged sword in their hand,

Psa 149:7 to execute vengeance on the nations, and punishments on the peoples;

Psa 149:8 to bind their kings with chains, and their nobles with fetters of iron;

Psa 149:9 to execute on them the written judgement; this honour have all His saints.

Praise Jah!

Psa 150:1 Praise Jah! Praise God in His sanctuary; praise Him in His mighty firmament!

Psa 150:2 Praise Him for His mighty acts; praise Him according to His excellent greatness!

Psa 150:3 Praise Him with the sound of the shophar; praise Him with the lute and harp!

Psa 150:4 Praise Him with the timbrel and dance; praise Him with stringed instruments and flutes!

Psa 150:5 Praise Him with loud cymbals; praise Him with shouting cymbals!

Psa 150:6 Let everything that has breath praise Jah. Praise Jah!

Proverbs

Pro 1:1 The proverbs of Solomon the son of David, king of Israel:

Pro 1:2 To know wisdom and chastening, to perceive the words of understanding,

Pro 1:3 to receive the chastening of understanding, justice, judgement, and equity;

Pro 1:4 to give prudence to the simple, to the young man knowledge and discretion.

Pro 1:5 A wise man will hear and increase learning, and a man of understanding will attain wise counsel,

Pro 1:6 to understand a proverb and an enigma, the words of the wise and their riddles.

Pro 1:7 The fear of Jehovah is the beginning of knowledge, but fools despise wisdom and instruction.

Pro 1:8 My son, hear the chastening of your father, and do not forsake the instructions of your mother;

Pro 1:9 for they will be graceful ornaments on your head, and chains about your neck.

Pro 1:10 My son, if sinners entice you, do not consent.

Pro 1:11 If they say, "Come with us, let us lie in wait to shed blood; let us lurk secretly for the innocent without cause;

Pro 1:12 let us swallow them alive like Sheol, and whole, like those who go down to the Pit;

Pro 1:13 we will find all kinds of precious possessions, we will fill our houses with spoil.

Pro 1:14 Cast in your lot among us, let us all have one purse."

Pro 1:15 My son, do not walk in the way with them, keep your foot from their path;

Pro 1:16 for their feet run to evil, and they make haste to shed blood.¹

Pro 1:17 Surely, in vain the net is spread before the eyes of a bird² on its wings;

Pro 1:18 for they lie in wait for their own blood. They lurk secretly for their own soul.

Pro 1:19 So are the ways of everyone who is greedy for gain; it takes away the soul of its masters.

Pro 1:20 Wisdom calls aloud outside; she raises her voice in the open squares.

Pro 1:21 She cries out in the chief concourses, at the openings of the gates in the city she speaks her words:

Pro 1:22 "How long, you simple ones, will you love simplicity? For scorners delight in their scorning, and fools hate knowledge.

Pro 1:23 Turn at my reproof. Surely I will pour out my spirit on you; I will make my words known to you.

Pro 1:24 Because I have called and you refused, I have stretched out my hand and no one regarded,

Pro 1:25 because you disdained all my counsel, and would have none of my reproof,

Pro 1:26 I also will laugh at your calamity; I will mock when your terror comes,

Pro 1:27 when your terror comes like a storm, and your calamity comes like a whirlwind, when trouble and anguish come upon you.

Pro 1:28 "Then they will call on me, but I will not answer; they will seek me diligently, but they will not find me.

Pro 1:29 Because they hated knowledge and did not choose the fear of Jehovah,³

Pro 1:30 they would have none of my counsel and despised all my reproof,

Pro 1:31 therefore they will eat the fruit of their own way, and be filled to the full with their own fancies.

Pro 1:32 For the turning away of the simple will slay them, and the complacency of fools will destroy them;

Pro 1:33 but whoever listens to me will dwell safely, and will be secure, without fear of evil.”

Pro 2:1 My son, if you receive my words, and treasure my commandments within you,

Pro 2:2 so that you incline your ear to wisdom, and apply your heart to understanding;

Pro 2:3 yes, if you cry out for discernment, and lift up your voice for understanding,

Pro 2:4 If you seek her as silver, and search for her as for hidden treasures;

Pro 2:5 then you will understand the fear of Jehovah, and find the knowledge of God.

Pro 2:6 For Jehovah gives wisdom; from His mouth come knowledge and understanding;

Pro 2:7 He stores up sound wisdom for the upright; He is a shield to those who walk uprightly;

Pro 2:8 He guards the paths of judgement, and preserves the way of His saints.

Pro 2:9 Then you will understand righteousness and judgement, equity and every good path.

Pro 2:10 When wisdom enters your heart, and knowledge is pleasant to your soul,

Pro 2:11 discretion will preserve you; understanding will keep you,

Pro 2:12 to deliver you from the way of evil, from the man who speaks perverse things,

Pro 2:13 from those who leave the paths of uprightness to walk in the ways of darkness;

Pro 2:14 who rejoice in doing evil, and delight in the perversity of the wicked;

Pro 2:15 whose ways are crooked, and who are devious in their paths;

Pro 2:16 to deliver you from the immoral woman, from the seductress who flatters with her words,

Pro 2:17 who forsakes the companion of her youth, and forgets the covenant of her God.

Pro 2:18 For her house leads down to death, and her paths to the deceased;

Pro 2:19 none who go to her return, nor do they regain the paths of life.

Pro 2:20 So may you walk in the way of goodness, and keep to the paths of righteousness,

Pro 2:21 for the upright will dwell in the land, and the blameless will remain in it;

Pro 2:22 but the wicked will be cut off from the earth, and the unfaithful will be uprooted from it.

Pro 3:1 My son, do not forget my Instructions, but let your heart keep my commandments;

Pro 3:2 for they will add length of days and long life and peace to you.

Pro 3:3 Let not mercy and truth forsake you; bind them around your neck, write them on the tablet of your heart,

Pro 3:4 and so find favour and high esteem in the sight of God and man.

Pro 3:5 Trust in Jehovah with all your heart, and lean not on your own understanding;

Pro 3:6 in all your ways acknowledge Him, and He will direct your paths.

Pro 3:7 Do not be wise in your own eyes; fear Jehovah and depart from evil.

Pro 3:8 It will be health to your flesh, and strength to your bones.

Pro 3:9 Honour Jehovah with your possessions, and with the first of all your increase;

Pro 3:10 so your barns will be filled with plenty, and your vats will overflow with new wine.

Pro 3:11 My son, do not despise the chastening of Jehovah, nor detest His correction;

Pro 3:12 for whom Jehovah loves He corrects, just as a father the son in whom he delights.¹

Pro 3:13 Happy is the man who finds wisdom, and the man who gains understanding;

Pro 3:14 for her proceeds are better than the profits of silver, and her gain than sparkles.

Pro 3:15 She is more precious than rubies, and all the things you may desire cannot compare with her.

Pro 3:16 Length of days is in her right hand, in her left hand riches and honour.

Pro 3:17 Her ways are ways of pleasantness, and all her paths are peace.

Pro 3:18 She is a tree of life to those who take hold of her, and happy are all who retain her.

Pro 3:19 Jehovah by wisdom founded the earth; by understanding He established the heavens;

Pro 3:20 by His knowledge the depths were split open, and clouds drop down the dew.

Pro 3:21 My son, let them not depart from your eyes; keep sound wisdom and discretion;

Pro 3:22 so they will be life to your soul and grace to your neck.

Pro 3:23 Then you will walk safely in your way, and your foot will not stumble.

Pro 3:24 When you lie down, you will not be afraid; yes, you will lie down and your sleep will be sweet.

Pro 3:25 Do not be afraid of sudden terror, nor of trouble from the wicked when it comes;

Pro 3:26 for Jehovah will be your confidence, and will keep your foot from being caught.

Pro 3:27 Do not withhold good from its masters, when it is in the power of your hand to do so.

Pro 3:28 Do not say to your neighbour, "Go, and come back tomorrow and I will give it," when you have it with you.

Pro 3:29 Do not devise evil against your neighbour, for he dwells by you for safety's sake.

Pro 3:30 Do not strive with a man without cause, if he has done you no evil.

Pro 3:31 Do not envy the oppressor, and choose none of his ways;¹

Pro 3:32 for the perverse person is an abomination to Jehovah, but His counsel is with the upright.

Pro 3:33 The curse of Jehovah is on the house of the wicked, but He blesses the habitation of the just.

Pro 3:34 Surely He scorns the scornful, but gives grace to the humble.²

Pro 3:35 The wise will inherit glory, but shame will be the legacy of fools.

Pro 4:1 Listen, my children, to the chastening of a father, and give attention to know understanding;

Pro 4:2 for I give you good teaching: do not forsake my instructions.

Pro 4:3 When I was my father's son, tender and unique in the sight of my mother, Pro 4:4 he also taught me, and said to me: "Let your heart retain my words; keep my commandments, and live.

Pro 4:5 Get wisdom! Get understanding! Do not forget, nor turn away from the words of my mouth.

Pro 4:6 Do not forsake her, and she will preserve you; love her, and she will keep you.

Pro 4:7 Wisdom is the principal thing; therefore get wisdom. And in all your getting, get understanding.

Pro 4:8 Exalt her, and she will promote you; she will bring you honour, when you embrace her.

Pro 4:9 She will place on your head an ornament of grace; a crown of glory she will deliver to you."

Pro 4:11 I have taught you in the way of wisdom; I have led you in right paths.

² Jac 4:6, 1Pe 5:5

Pro 4:12 When you walk, your steps will not be hindered, and when you run, you will not stumble.

Pro 4:13 Be strengthened by discipline, do not let go; keep her, for she is your life.

Pro 4:14 Do not enter the way of the wicked, and do not walk in the path of evil.

Pro 4:15 Avoid it, do not travel on it; turn away from it and pass on.

Pro 4:16 For they do not sleep unless they have done evil; and their sleep is stolen unless they make someone fall.

Pro 4:17 For they eat the bread of wickedness, and drink the wine of violence.

Pro 4:18 But the way of the just is like shining light, that shines ever brighter unto the perfect day.

Pro 4:19 The way of the wicked is like darkness; they do not know what makes them stumble.

Pro 4:20 My son, give attention to my words; incline your ear to my sayings.

Pro 4:21 Do not let them depart from your eyes; keep them in the midst of your heart;

Pro 4:22 for they are life to those who find them, and health to all their flesh.

Pro 4:23 Keep watch over your heart, for your life springs out of it.

Pro 4:24 Put away from you a deceitful mouth, and put perverse lips far from you.

Pro 4:25 Let your eyes look straight ahead, and your eyelids look right before you.

Pro 4:26 Ponder the path of your feet, and let all your ways be established.

Pro 4:27 Do not turn to the right or the left; remove your foot from evil.

Pro 5:1 My son, pay attention to my wisdom; lend your ear to my understanding,

Pro 5:2 that you may preserve discretion, and that your lips may keep knowledge.

Pro 5:3 For the lips of an immoral woman drip honey, and her mouth is smoother than oil;

Pro 5:4 but in the end she is bitter as wormwood, sharp as a sword with two mouths.

Pro 5:5 Her feet go down to death, her steps take hold of Sheol.

Pro 5:6 Lest you ponder her way of life; her tracks are unstable; you do not know them.

Pro 5:7 Therefore hear me now, my children, and do not depart from the words of my mouth.

Pro 5:8 Remove your way far from her, and do not go near the door of her house,

Pro 5:9 lest you give your honour to others, and your years to the cruel one;

Pro 5:10 lest foreigners be filled with your wealth, and your labours go to the house of a foreigner;

Pro 5:11 and you mourn at last, when your flesh and your body are consumed, Pro 5:12 and say: "How I have hated chastening, and my heart despised reproof!

Pro 5:13 I have not obeyed the voice of my teachers, nor inclined my ear to those who instructed me!

Pro 5:14 I was on the verge of evil, in the midst of the assembly and congregation."

Pro 5:15 Drink water from your own cistern, and running water from your own well.

Pro 5:16 Should your fountains be dispersed abroad, streams of water in the streets?

Pro 5:17 Let them be only your own, and not for strangers with you.

Pro 5:18 Let your fountain be blessed, and rejoice with the wife of your youth.

Pro 5:19 As a loving deer and a graceful doe, let her nipples satisfy you at all times; and always be enraptured with her love.

Pro 5:20 For why should you, my son, be enraptured by an immoral woman, and be embraced in the arms of a seductress?

Pro 5:21 For the ways of man are before the eyes of Jehovah, and He ponders all his paths.

Pro 5:22 His own iniquities entrap the wicked man, and he is caught in the cords of his sin.

Pro 5:23 He will die for lack of chastening, and in the greatness of his folly he will go astray.

Pro 6:1 My son, if you become surety for your friend, if you have shaken hands in pledge for a stranger,

Pro 6:2 you are snared by the words of your own mouth; you are taken by the words of your mouth.

Pro 6:3 So do this, my son, and deliver yourself; for you have come into the hand of your friend: go and humble yourself; plead with your friend.

Pro 6:4 Give no sleep to your eyes, nor slumber to your eyelids.

Pro 6:5 Deliver yourself like a gazelle from the hand of the hunter, and like a bird from the hand of the fowler.

Pro 6:6 Go to the ant, you sluggard! Consider her ways and be wise,

Pro 6:7 which, having no captain, overseer or ruler,

Pro 6:8 provides her supplies in the summer, and gathers her food in the harvest.

Pro 6:9 How long will you slumber, O sluggard? When will you rise from your sleep?

Pro 6:10 A little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep;

Pro 6:11 so will your poverty come on you like a robber, and your need like an armed man.

Pro 6:12 A worthless person, a wicked man, walks with a perverse mouth;

Pro 6:13 he winks with his eyes, he shuffles his feet, he points with his fingers;

Pro 6:14 perversity is in his heart, he devises evil continually, he sows discord.

Pro 6:15 Therefore his calamity will come suddenly; suddenly he will be broken without remedy.

Pro 6:16 These six things Jehovah hates, yes, seven are an abomination to Him:

Pro 6:17 A proud look, a lying tongue, hands that shed innocent blood,

Pro 6:18 a heart that devises wicked plans, feet that are swift in running to evil,

Pro 6:19 a false witness who speaks lies, and one who sows discord among brethren.

Pro 6:20 My son, keep your father's commandment, and do not forsake the instructions of your mother.

Pro 6:21 Bind them continually upon your heart; tie them around your neck.

Pro 6:22 When you roam, they will lead you; when you sleep, they will keep you; and when you awake, they will speak with you.

Pro 6:23 For the commandment is a lamp, and the Instructions are light; rebukes and chastening are the way to life,

Pro 6:24 to keep you from the evil woman, from the flattering tongue of a seductress.

Pro 6:25 Do not lust after her beauty in your heart, nor let her allure you with her eyelids.

Pro 6:26 For by means of a prostituting woman a man is reduced to a loaf of bread; and a man's wife will prey upon his precious soul.

Pro 6:27 Can a man take fire to his bosom, and his clothes not be burned?

Pro 6:28 Can one walk on hot coals, and his feet not be seared?

Pro 6:29 So is he who goes into his neighbour's wife; whoever touches her will not be innocent.

Pro 6:30 Men do not despise a thief if he steals to satisfy his soul when he is starving.

Pro 6:31 Yet when he is found, he must restore sevenfold; he may have to give up all the substance of his house.

Pro 6:32 Whoever commits adultery with a woman lacks understanding; he who does so destroys his own soul.

Pro 6:33 He will get wounds and dishonour, and his reproach will not be wiped away.

Pro 6:34 For jealousy is a husband's fury; therefore he will not spare in the day of vengeance.

Pro 6:35 He will accept no recompense, nor will he be appeased though you give many gifts.

Pro 7:1 My son, keep my words, and treasure my commandments within you.

Pro 7:2 Keep my commandments and live, and my Instructions as the apple of your eye.

Pro 7:3 Bind them on your fingers; write them on the tablet of your heart.

Pro 7:4 Say to wisdom, "You are my sister," and call understanding your nearest kin,

Pro 7:5 that they may keep you from the immoral woman, from the seductress who flatters with her words.

Pro 7:6 For at the window of my house I looked through my lattice,

Pro 7:7 and saw among the simple, I perceived among the youths, a young man devoid of understanding,

Pro 7:8 passing along the street near her corner; and he took the path to her house

Pro 7:9 in the twilight, in the evening of day, in the obscurity and darkness of night.

Pro 7:10 And there a woman met him, dressed like a prostitute, and with a crafty heart.

Pro 7:11 She was loud and rebellious, her feet would not stay at home.

Pro 7:12 At times she was outside, at times in the open square, lurking at every corner.

Pro 7:13 So she caught him and kissed him; with an impudent face she said to him:

Pro 7:14 "I have peace offerings with me; today I have paid my vows.

Pro 7:15 So I came out to meet you, to diligently seek your face, and I have found you.

Pro 7:16 I have spread my bed with tapestry, coloured coverings of Egyptian linen.

Pro 7:17 I have perfumed my bed with myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon.

Pro 7:18 Come, let us take our fill of love until morning; let us delight ourselves with love.

Pro 7:19 For my husband is not at home; he has gone on a long journey;

Pro 7:20 He has taken a bag of silver with him, and will come home on the fulfilled day."

Pro 7:21 With her enticing speech she caused him to yield, with her flattering lips she seduced him.

Pro 7:22 Immediately he went after her, as an ox goes to the slaughter, or as a fool to the correction of the stocks,

Pro 7:23 until an arrow struck his liver. As a bird hastens to the snare, he did not know it would take his soul.

Pro 7:24 Now therefore, listen to me, my children; pay attention to the words of my mouth:

Pro 7:25 Do not let your heart turn aside to her ways, do not stray into her paths;

Pro 7:26 for she has cast down many wounded, and all who were slain by her were strong men.

Pro 7:27 Her house is the way to Sheol, descending to the chambers of death.

Pro 8:1 Does not wisdom cry out, and understanding lift up her voice?

Pro 8:2 She takes her stand on the top of the high hill, beside the way, where the paths meet.

Pro 8:3 She cries out by the gates, at the mouth of the city, at the entrance of the doors:

Pro 8:4 "To you, O men, I call, and my voice is to the sons of men.

Pro 8:5 O you simple ones, understand prudence, and you fools, be of an understanding heart.

Pro 8:6 Listen, for I will speak of excellent things, and from the opening of my lips will come right things;

Pro 8:7 for my mouth will speak truth; wickedness is an abomination to my lips.

Pro 8:8 All the words of my mouth are with righteousness; nothing crooked or perverse is in them.

Pro 8:9 They are all plain to him who understands, and right to those who find knowledge.

Pro 8:10 Receive my chastening and not silver, and knowledge rather than choice sparkles;

Pro 8:11 for wisdom is good, better than refined gold and better than precious stones, and there is nothing that compares with it.

Pro 8:12 "I, wisdom, create cleverness, and I own knowledge and reason.

Pro 8:13 The fear of Jehovah is to hate evil;¹ pride and arrogance and the evil way and the perverse mouth I hate.

Pro 8:14 Counsel is mine, and sound wisdom; I am understanding, I have strength.

Pro 8:15 By me kings reign, and rulers decree justice.

Pro 8:16 By me princes rule, and nobles, all the judges of the earth.

Pro 8:17 I love those who love me, and those who seek me diligently will find me.

Pro 8:18 Riches and honour are with me, enduring riches and righteousness.

Pro 8:19 My fruit is better than sparkles, yes, than shining, and my revenue than choice silver.

Pro 8:20 I traverse the way of righteousness, in the midst of the paths of judgement,

Pro 8:21 that I may cause those who love me to inherit wealth, that I may fill their treasuries.

Pro 8:22 "Jehovah created² me as the first-fruit³ of His journey, before His works of old.

Pro 8:23 I was to be poured out from everlasting, from the beginning, before there was ever an earth.

Pro 8:24 There were no depths when I was brought forth, there were no fountains abounding with water.

Pro 8:25 I was brought forth before the mountains were settled, before the hills;

Pro 8:26 while He had not made the earth or the fields, or begun making the dust of the world.

Pro 8:27 I was there when He prepared the heavens, when He placed a curve⁴ on the face of the deep,

Pro 8:28 when He established the clouds from above, when He strengthened the eyes of the depths,⁵

Pro 8:29 when He assigned to the sea its limit, so that the waters would not pass over His word,⁶ when He cut out the foundations of the earth.⁷

Pro 8:30 Then I was beside Him as a master's apprentice; and I was His delight every day, always rejoicing before Him,⁸

Pro 8:31 rejoicing in His inhabited world, and My delight was with the sons of men.⁹

Pro 8:32 "Now therefore, listen to Me, My children, for blessed are those who possess. The Peshitta uses branee and Septuagint has ektisen, which both mean 'create'.

³ This is Jeshua: 1Co 15:20-23

⁴ From chuwg חוּג , meaning circle, circuit, vault or curve. This means the surface of the oceans are curved, and thus are on a sphere.

⁵ From ayin עַיִן , which in this case likely refers to the fountains or springs of water. Compare Pro 8:12-28 with 1Co 1:24.

⁶ Literally 'mouth', as in the source of the word.

⁷ Note that God did not say the waters could never cover the mountains later, as they did in the Great Flood, obeying His new word to them at that time.

¹ Examples are given in Lev 19:14, 19:32 & 25:17, Psa 97:10 and Amo 5:15.

² From the Hebrew יְהוָה קָנָה? Jehovah qanah, which can also sometimes mean acquire or keep My Ways.

Pro 8:33 Listen to chastening and be wise, and do not let go of it.¹

Pro 8:34 Blessed is the man who listens to Me, watching day by day at My gates, waiting at the posts of My doors.

Pro 8:35 For whoever finds Me finds life, and obtains pleasure from Jehovah;²

Pro 8:36 but he who sins against Me does violence to his own soul; all those who hate Me love death.”

Pro 9:1 Wisdom has built her house, she has hewn out her seven pillars;

Pro 9:2 she has slaughtered her meat, she has mixed her wine, she has also furnished her table.

Pro 9:3 She has sent out her maidens, she cries out from the highest places of the city,

Pro 9:4 “Whoever is simple, let him turn in here!” As for him who lacks understanding, she says to him, Pro 9:5 “Come, eat of my bread and drink of the wine which I have mixed.

Pro 9:6 Forsake foolishness and live, and go in the way of understanding.

Pro 9:7 “He who reproves a scoffer gets shame for himself, and he who rebukes a wicked man gets himself a blemish.

Pro 9:8 Do not reprove a scoffer, lest he hate you; rebuke a wise man, and he will love you.

Pro 9:9 Give to a wise man, and he will be still wiser; teach a just man, and he will increase in learning.

Pro 9:10 “The fear of Jehovah is the beginning of wisdom, and the knowledge of the Sacred One is understanding.

Pro 9:11 For by me your days will be multiplied, and years of life will be added to you.

Pro 9:12 If you are wise, you are wise for yourself, and if you scoff, you alone will bear it.”

Pro 9:13 A foolish woman is clamorous;

she is simple, and knows nothing.

Pro 9:14 For she sits at the door of her house, on a seat by the highest places of the city,

Pro 9:15 to call to those who pass by, who go straight on their way:

Pro 9:16 “Whoever is simple, let him turn in here”; and as for him who lacks understanding, she says to him,

Pro 9:17 “Stolen water is sweet, and bread eaten in secret is pleasant.”

Pro 9:18 But he does not know that the deceased are there, that her guests are in the depths of Sheol.

Pro 10:1 The Proverbs of Solomon: A wise son makes a father glad, but a foolish son is the grief of his mother.

Pro 10:2 Treasures of wickedness profit nothing, but righteousness delivers from death.

Pro 10:3 Jehovah will not allow the righteous soul to famish, but He casts away the desire of the wicked.

Pro 10:4 He who deals with a deceitful hand becomes poor, but the hand of the diligent makes one rich.

Pro 10:5 He who gathers in summer is a wise son, but he who sleeps in harvest is a son who causes shame.

Pro 10:6 Blessings are on the head of the righteous, but violence covers the mouth of the wicked.

Pro 10:7 The memory of the righteous is blessed, but the name of the wicked will rot.

Pro 10:8 The wise in heart will receive commandments, but a prattling fool will be cast down.

Pro 10:9 He who walks with integrity walks securely, but he who perverts his ways will become known.

Pro 10:10 He who winks with the eye causes trouble, but a prattling fool will be cast down.

Pro 10:11 The mouth of the righteous is a well of life, but violence covers the mouth of the wicked.

² Joh 3:36 & 5:24-26

Pro 10:12 Hatred stirs up strife, but love covers all transgressions.³

Pro 10:13 Wisdom is found on the lips of him who has understanding, but a branch is for the back of him who is devoid of understanding.

Pro 10:14 Wise people store up knowledge, but the mouth of the foolish is near destruction.

Pro 10:15 The rich man's wealth is his strong city; the destruction of the poor is their poverty.

Pro 10:16 The labour of the righteous leads to life, the wages of the wicked to sin.

Pro 10:17 He who observes chastening is in the way of life, but he who refuses reproof goes astray.

Pro 10:18 Whoever hides hatred has lying lips, and whoever spreads slander is a fool.

Pro 10:19 In the multitude of words transgression is not lacking, but he who restrains his lips is wise.

Pro 10:20 The tongue of the righteous is choice silver; the heart of the wicked is worth little.

Pro 10:21 The lips of the righteous feed many, but fools die for lack of wisdom.

Pro 10:22 The blessing of Jehovah makes one rich, and He adds no sorrow with it.

Pro 10:23 To do evil is like sport to a fool, but a man of understanding has wisdom.

Pro 10:24 The fear of the wicked will come upon him, and the desire of the righteous will be granted.

Pro 10:25 When the whirlwind passes by, the wicked is no more, but the righteous has an everlasting foundation.

Pro 10:26 As vinegar to the teeth and smoke to the eyes, so is the sluggard to those who send him.

Pro 10:27 The fear of Jehovah prolongs days, but the years of the wicked will be shortened.

Pro 10:28 The hope of the righteous will be gladness, but the expectation of the wicked will perish.

Pro 10:29 The way of Jehovah is a stronghold for the upright, but destruction will come to the workers of iniquity.

Pro 10:30 The righteous will never be removed, but the wicked will not inhabit the earth.

Pro 10:31 The mouth of the righteous brings forth wisdom, but the perverse tongue will be cut out.

Pro 10:32 The lips of the righteous know what is acceptable, but the mouth of the wicked what is perverse.

Pro 11:1 A false balance is an abomination to Jehovah, but a just weight is His delight.

Pro 11:2 When pride comes, then comes shame; but with the humble is wisdom.

Pro 11:3 The integrity of the upright will guide them, but the perversity of the unfaithful will destroy them.

Pro 11:4 Riches do not profit in the day of wrath, but righteousness delivers from death.

Pro 11:5 The righteousness of the blameless will direct his way, but the wicked will fall by his own wickedness.

Pro 11:6 The righteousness of the upright will deliver them, but the unfaithful will be taken by their own lust.

Pro 11:7 When a wicked man dies, his expectation will perish, and the hope of the unjust perishes.

Pro 11:8 The righteous is delivered from trouble, and it comes to the wicked instead.

Pro 11:9 The hypocrite with his mouth destroys his neighbour, but through knowledge the righteous will be delivered.

Pro 11:10 When it goes well with the righteous, the city rejoices; and when the wicked perish, there is shouting.

Pro 11:11 By the blessing of the upright the city is exalted, but it is overthrown by the mouth of the wicked.

³ 1Pe 4:8

Pro 11:12 He who is devoid of wisdom despises his neighbour, but a man of understanding holds his peace.

Pro 11:13 A talebearer reveals secret counsel, but he who is of a faithful spirit conceals a matter.

Pro 11:14 Where there is no counsel, the people fall; but in the crowd of counsellors there is safety.

Pro 11:15 He who is surety for a stranger will suffer evil, but one who hates being surety is secure.

Pro 11:16 A gracious woman retains honour, but ruthless men retain riches.

Pro 11:17 The merciful man does good for his own soul, but he who is cruel troubles his own flesh.

Pro 11:18 The wicked man does deceptive work, but to him who sows righteousness will be a sure reward.

Pro 11:19 As righteousness leads to life, so he who pursues evil pursues it to his own death.

Pro 11:20 Those who are of a perverse heart are an abomination to Jehovah, but such as are blameless in their ways are His delight.

Pro 11:21 Though they join forces, the evil will not go unpunished; but the posterity of the righteous will be delivered.

Pro 11:22 As a ring of gold in a swine's snout, so is a lovely woman who lacks discretion.

Pro 11:23 The desire of the righteous is only good, but the expectation of the wicked is wrath.

Pro 11:24 There is one who scatters, yet increases more; and there is one who withholds more than is right, but it leads to poverty.

Pro 11:25 The generous soul will be made rich, and he who waters will also be watered himself.

Pro 11:26 The people will curse him who withholds grain, but blessing will be on the head of him who sells it.

Pro 11:27 He who diligently seeks good finds favour, but trouble will come to him who seeks evil.

Pro 11:28 He who trusts in his riches will fall, but the righteous will flourish like foliage.

Pro 11:29 He who troubles his own house will inherit the wind, and the fool will be servant to the wise of heart.

Pro 11:30 The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life, and he who wins souls is wise.

Pro 11:31 If the righteous will be recompensed on the earth, how much more the wicked and the sinner.¹

Pro 12:1 Whoever loves chastening loves knowledge, but he who hates reproof is stupid.

Pro 12:2 A good man obtains favour from Jehovah, but a man of wicked devices He will condemn.

Pro 12:3 A man is not established by wickedness, but the root of the righteous cannot waver.

Pro 12:4 An excellent wife is the crown of her master, but she who causes shame is like rottenness in his bones.

Pro 12:5 The thoughts of the righteous are justice, but the counsels of the wicked are deceitful.

Pro 12:6 The words of the wicked are, "Lie in wait for blood," but the mouth of the upright will deliver them.

Pro 12:7 The wicked are overthrown and are no more, but the house of the righteous will stand.

Pro 12:8 A man will be commended according to his wisdom, but he who is of a perverse heart will be despised.

Pro 12:9 Better is the one who is slighted but has a servant, than he who honours himself but lacks bread.

Pro 12:10 A righteous man regards the soul of his animal, but the tender mercies of the wicked are cruel.

Pro 12:11 He who works his land will be satisfied with bread, but he who follows frivolity is devoid of understanding.

Pro 12:12 The wicked covet the catch of evil men, but the root of the righteous yields fruit.

Pro 12:13 The evil is ensnared by the transgression of his lips, but the righteous will come through trouble.

Pro 12:14 A man will be satisfied with good by the fruit of his mouth, and the recompense of a man's hands will be rendered to him.

Pro 12:15 The way of a fool is right in his own eyes, but he who heeds counsel is wise.

Pro 12:16 A fool's wrath is known at once, but a prudent man covers shame.

Pro 12:17 He who speaks truth declares righteousness, but a false witness, deceit.

Pro 12:18 There is one who speaks like the piercing of a sword, but the tongue of the wise promotes health.

Pro 12:19 The truthful lip will be established forever, but a lying tongue is but for a moment.

Pro 12:20 Deceit is in the heart of those who devise evil, but counsellors of peace have joy.

Pro 12:21 No grave trouble will overtake the righteous, but the wicked will be filled with evil.

Pro 12:22 Lying lips are an abomination to Jehovah, but those who deal truthfully are His delight.

Pro 12:23 A prudent man conceals knowledge, but the heart of fools proclaims foolishness.

Pro 12:24 The hand of the diligent will rule, but the deceitful will be put to forced labour.

Pro 12:25 Anxiety in the heart of man causes depression, but a good word makes it glad.

Pro 12:26 The righteous should choose his friends carefully, for the way of the wicked leads them astray.

Pro 12:27 The deceitful man does not roast what he took in hunting, but diligence is man's precious possession.

Pro 12:28 In the way of righteousness is life, and in its pathway there is no death.

Pro 13:1 A wise son heeds his father's chastening, but a scoffer does not listen to rebuke.

Pro 13:2 A man will eat well by the fruit of his mouth, but the soul of the unfaithful feeds on violence.

Pro 13:3 He who guards his mouth preserves his soul, but he who opens wide his lips will have destruction.

Pro 13:4 The soul of a sluggard desires, and has nothing; but the soul of the diligent will be made rich.

Pro 13:5 A righteous man hates lying, but a wicked man is loathsome and comes to shame.

Pro 13:6 Righteousness keeps him whose way is blameless, but wickedness overthrows the sinner.

Pro 13:7 There is one who makes himself rich, yet has nothing; and one who makes himself poor, yet has great riches.

Pro 13:8 The ransom of a man's soul is his riches, but the poor does not hear rebuke.

Pro 13:9 The light of the righteous rejoices, but the lamp of the wicked will be put out.

Pro 13:10 By pride comes only contention, but with the well-advised is wisdom.

Pro 13:11 Wealth gained by dishonesty will be diminished, but he who gathers by labour will increase.

Pro 13:12 Hope deferred makes the heart sick, but when the desire comes, it is a tree of life.

Pro 13:13 He who despises the word will be destroyed, but he who fears the commandment will be rewarded.

Pro 13:14 The instructions of the wise are a fountain of life, to turn one away from the snares of death.

Pro 13:15 Good understanding gains favour, but the way of the unfaithful is hard.

Pro 13:16 Every prudent man acts with knowledge, but a fool lays open his folly.

Pro 13:17 A wicked envoy falls into evil, but a faithful ambassador brings health.

Pro 13:18 Poverty and shame will come to him who disdains correction, but he who regards reproof will be honoured.

Pro 13:19 A desire accomplished is sweet to the soul, but it is an abomination to fools to depart from evil.

Pro 13:20 He who walks with wise men will be wise, but the companion of fools will be destroyed.

Pro 13:21 Evil pursues sinners, but to the righteous, good will be repaid.

Pro 13:22 A good man leaves an inheritance to his children's children, but the wealth of the sinner is stored up for the righteous.

Pro 13:23 Much food is in the fallow ground of the poor, and for lack of judgement there is waste.

Pro 13:24 He who spares his branch hates his son, but he who loves him disciplines him promptly.

Pro 13:25 The righteous eats to the satisfying of his soul, but the stomach of the wicked will be in want.

Pro 14:1 Every wise woman builds her house, but the foolish pulls it down with her hands.

Pro 14:2 He who walks in his uprightness fears Jehovah, but he who is perverse in his ways despises Him.

Pro 14:3 In the mouth of a fool is a branch of pride, but the lips of the wise will preserve them.

Pro 14:4 Where no oxen are, the trough is clean; but much increase comes by the strength of an ox.

Pro 14:5 A faithful witness does not lie, but a false witness will utter lies.

Pro 14:6 A scoffer seeks wisdom and does not find it, but knowledge is easy to him who understands.

Pro 14:7 Go from the presence of a foolish man, when you do not perceive in him the lips of knowledge.

Pro 14:8 The wisdom of the prudent is to understand his way, but the folly of fools is deceit.

Pro 14:9 Fools mock at sin, but among the upright there is favour.

Pro 14:10 The heart knows its bitterness of soul, and a stranger does not share its joy.

Pro 14:11 The house of the wicked will be overthrown, but the tent of the upright will flourish.

Pro 14:12 There is a way which seems right to a man, but its end is the way of death.

Pro 14:13 Even in laughter the heart may sorrow, and the end of mirth may be grief.

Pro 14:14 The backslider in heart will be filled with his own ways, but a good man will be satisfied from above.

Pro 14:15 The simple believes every word, but the prudent man considers well his steps.

Pro 14:16 A wise man fears and departs from evil, but a fool rages and is self-confident.

Pro 14:17 He who is quick-tempered acts foolishly, and a man of wicked intentions is hated.

Pro 14:18 The simple inherit folly, but the prudent are crowned with knowledge.

Pro 14:19 The evil will bow before the good, and the wicked at the gates of the righteous.

Pro 14:20 The poor man is hated even by his own neighbour, but the rich has many friends.

Pro 14:21 He who despises his neighbour sins; but he who has mercy on the poor, happy is he.

Pro 14:22 Do they not go astray who devise evil? But mercy and truth belong to those who devise good.

Pro 14:23 In all labour there is profit, but idle chatter leads only to poverty.

Pro 14:24 The crown of the wise is their riches, but the foolishness of fools is folly.

Pro 14:25 A true witness delivers souls, but a deceitful witness speaks lies.

Pro 14:26 In the fear of Jehovah there is strong confidence, and His children will have a place of refuge.

Pro 14:27 The fear of Jehovah is a fountain of life, to avoid the snares of death.

Pro 14:28 In a multitude of people is a king's honour, but in the lack of people is the downfall of a prince.

Pro 14:29 He who is slow to wrath has great understanding, but he who is impulsive exalts folly.

Pro 14:30 A sound heart is life to the body, but jealousy is rottenness to the bones.¹

Pro 14:31 He who oppresses the poor reproaches his Maker, but he who honours Him has mercy on the needy.

Pro 14:32 The wicked is banished in his evil, but the righteous has a refuge in his death.

Pro 14:33 Wisdom rests quietly in the heart of him who has understanding, but what is in the heart of fools is made known.

Pro 14:34 Righteousness exalts a nation, but sin is a reproach to any people.

Pro 14:35 The king's favour is toward a wise servant, but his wrath is against him who causes shame.

Pro 15:1 A soft answer turns away wrath, but a harsh word stirs up anger.

Pro 15:2 The tongue of the wise uses knowledge rightly, but the mouth of fools pours forth foolishness.

Pro 15:3 The eyes of Jehovah are in every place, keeping watch on the evil and the good.

Pro 15:4 A healing tongue is a tree of life, but perverseness in it breaks the spirit.

Pro 15:5 A fool despises his father's chastening, but he who keeps his reproof is prudent.

Pro 15:6 In the house of the righteous there is much treasure, but in the revenue of the wicked is trouble.

Pro 15:7 The lips of the wise scatters knowledge, but the heart of the fool does not do so.

Pro 15:8 The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination to Jehovah, but the prayer of the upright is His delight.

Pro 15:9 The way of the wicked is an abomination to Jehovah, but He loves him who follows righteousness.

Pro 15:10 Evil chastisement is for him who forsakes the way, and he who hates reproof will die.

Pro 15:11 Sheol and Abaddon (The Grave and Destruction) are before Jehovah; so how much more the hearts of the sons of men.

Pro 15:12 A scoffer does not love one who reproves him, nor will he go to the wise.

Pro 15:13 A merry heart makes a cheerful countenance, but by sorrow of the heart the spirit is broken.

Pro 15:14 The heart of him who has understanding seeks knowledge, but the mouth of fools feeds on foolishness.

Pro 15:15 All the days of the afflicted are evil, but he who is of a merry heart has a continual feast.

Pro 15:16 Better is a little with the fear of Jehovah, than great treasure with trouble.

Pro 15:17 Better is a dinner of vegetables where love is, than a fatted calf with hatred.

Pro 15:18 A wrathful man stirs up strife, but he who is slow to anger allays contention.

Pro 15:19 The way of the lazy is like a hedge of thorns, but the way of the upright is a highway.

Pro 15:20 A wise son makes a father glad, but a foolish man despises his mother.

Pro 15:21 Folly is joy to him lacking heart, but a man of understanding walks uprightly.

Pro 15:22 Without counsel, plans go awry, but in the crowd of counsellors they are established.

Pro 15:23 A man has joy by the answer of his mouth, and a word spoken in due season, how good it is!

Pro 15:24 The way of life leads upward for the wise, that he may turn away from Sheol below.

Pro 15:25 Jehovah will destroy the house of the proud, but He will establish the boundary of the widow.

Pro 15:26 The thoughts of the wicked are an abomination to Jehovah, but the words of the pure are pleasant.

Pro 15:27 He who is greedy for gain troubles his own house, but he who hates bribes will live.

Pro 15:28 The heart of the righteous studies how to answer, but the mouth of the wicked pours forth evil.

Pro 15:29 Jehovah is far from the wicked, but He hears the prayer of the righteous.

Pro 15:30 The light of the eyes rejoices the heart, and a good report makes the bones fatten.

Pro 15:31 The ear that hears the reproof of life will abide among the wise.

Pro 15:32 He who disdains chastening despises his own soul, but he who heeds reproof gets understanding.

Pro 15:33 The fear of Jehovah is the chastening of wisdom, and before honour is humility.

Pro 16:1 The preparations of the heart belong to man, but the answer of the tongue is from Jehovah.

Pro 16:2 All the ways of a man are pure in his own eyes, but Jehovah weighs the spirits.

Pro 16:3 Turn your works to Jehovah, and your thoughts will be established.

Pro 16:4 Jehovah has made all things for Himself, yes, even the wicked for the day of evil.

Pro 16:5 Everyone who is proud in heart is an abomination to Jehovah; though they stand hand to hand, none will go unpunished.

Pro 16:6 In mercy and truth atonement is provided for iniquity; and by the fear of Jehovah one departs from evil.

Pro 16:7 When a man's ways please Jehovah, he makes even his enemies to be at peace with him.

Pro 16:8 Better is a little with righteousness, than vast revenues without judgement.

Pro 16:9 A man's heart plans his way, but Jehovah directs his steps.

Pro 16:10 A revelation is on the lips of the king, his mouth must not transgress in judgement.

Pro 16:11 Justice in weight and balance are Jehovah's; all the weights in the bag are His work.

Pro 16:12 It is an abomination for kings to commit wickedness, for a throne is established by righteousness.

Pro 16:13 Righteous lips are the delight of kings, and they love him who speaks what is right.

Pro 16:14 As envoys of death is the king's wrath, but a wise man will appease it.

Pro 16:15 In the light of the king's face is life, and his favour is like a cloud of the spring rain.

Pro 16:16 How much better to get wisdom than sparkles! And to get understanding is to be chosen rather than silver.

Pro 16:17 The highway of the upright is to depart from evil; he who keeps his way preserves his soul.

Pro 16:18 Pride goes before destruction, and a haughty spirit before stumbling.

Pro 16:19 Better to be of a humble spirit with the lowly, than to divide the spoil with the proud.

Pro 16:20 He who heeds the word wisely will find good, and whoever trusts in Jehovah, happy is he.

Pro 16:21 The wise in heart will be called prudent, and sweetness of the lips increases learning.

Pro 16:22 Understanding is a wellspring of life to him who masters it, but the correction of fools is folly.

Pro 16:23 The heart of the wise teaches his mouth, and adds learning to his lips.

Pro 16:24 Pleasant words are like a honeycomb, sweetness to the soul and health to the bones.

Pro 16:25 There is a way that seems right to a man, but its end is the way of death.

Pro 16:26 The person who labours, labours for himself, for his hungry mouth drives him on.

Pro 16:27 A worthless man digs up evil, and it is on his lips like a burning fire.

Pro 16:28 A perverse man sows strife, and a whisperer separates the best of friends.

Pro 16:29 A violent man entices his neighbour, and leads him in a way that is not good.

Pro 16:30 He shuts his eye to devise perverse things; he purses his lips and brings about evil.

Pro 16:31 The silver-haired head is a crown of glory, if it is found in the way of righteousness.

Pro 16:32 He who is slow to anger is better than the mighty, and he who rules his spirit than he who takes a city.¹

Pro 16:33 The lot is cast into the lap, but every judgement is from Jehovah.

Pro 17:1 Better is a dry morsel with quietness, than a house full of feasting with strife.

Pro 17:2 A wise servant will rule over a son who causes shame, and will share an inheritance among the brothers.

Pro 17:3 The refining pot is for silver and the furnace for gold, but Jehovah tests the hearts.

Pro 17:4 An evildoer gives heed to false lips; a liar listens eagerly to a destructive tongue.

Pro 17:5 He who mocks the poor reproaches his Maker; he who is glad at calamity will not go unpunished.

Pro 17:6 Children's children are the crown of old men, and the glory of children is their father.

Pro 17:7 Excellent speech is not becoming to a fool, much less lying lips to a prince.

Pro 17:8 A present is a precious stone in the eyes of its master; wherever he turns, he prospers.

Pro 17:9 He who covers a transgression seeks love, but he who repeats a matter separates the best of friends.

Pro 17:10 Reproof is more effective for a wise man than a hundred blows on a fool.

Pro 17:11 An evil man seeks only rebellion; therefore a cruel envoy will be sent against him.

Pro 17:12 Let a man meet a bear robbed of her cubs, rather than a fool in his folly.

Pro 17:13 Whoever rewards evil for good, evil will not depart from his house.

Pro 17:14 The beginning of strife is like releasing water; therefore stop contention before a quarrel starts.²

Pro 17:15 He who justifies the wicked, and he who condemns the just, both of them alike are an abomination to Jehovah.

Pro 17:16 Why is there in the hand of a fool the purchase price of wisdom, since he has no heart for it?

Pro 17:17 A friend loves at all times, and a brother is born for trouble.

Pro 17:18 A man devoid of understanding shakes hands in a pledge, and becomes surety for his friend.

Pro 17:19 He who loves transgression loves strife, and he who exalts his gate seeks destruction.

Pro 17:20 He who has a deceitful heart finds no good, and he who has a perverse tongue falls into evil.

Pro 17:21 He who begets a scoffer does so to his sorrow, and the father of a fool has no joy.

Pro 17:22 A merry heart does good, like medicine, but a broken spirit dries the bones.

² Gal 5:20

Pro 17:23 A wicked man accepts a bribe behind the back to pervert the way of judgement.

Pro 17:24 Wisdom is in the sight of him who has understanding, but the eyes of a fool are on the ends of the earth.

Pro 17:25 A foolish son is a grief to his father, and bitterness to her who bore him.

Pro 17:26 Also, to punish the righteous is not good, nor to strike princes for their uprightness.

Pro 17:27 He who has knowledge spares his words, and a man of understanding is of a calm spirit.

Pro 17:28 Even a fool is counted wise when he holds his peace; when he shuts his lips, he is considered perceptive.

Pro 18:1 A man who isolates himself seeks his own desire; he rages against all wise judgement.

Pro 18:2 A fool has no delight in understanding, but in expressing his own heart.

Pro 18:3 When the wicked comes, contempt comes also; and with dishonour comes reproach.

Pro 18:4 The words of a man's mouth are deep waters; the wellspring of wisdom is a flowing brook.

Pro 18:5 It is not good to show favouritism to the wicked, or to overthrow the righteous in judgement.

Pro 18:6 A fool's lips enter into contention, and his mouth calls for blows.

Pro 18:7 A fool's mouth is his destruction, and his lips are the snare of his soul.

Pro 18:8 The words of a talebearer are like tasty trifles, and they go down into the innermost body.

Pro 18:9 He who is slack in his work is a brother to him who has mastered destruction.

Pro 18:10 the Name of Jehovah is a strong tower; the righteous run to it and are safe.

Pro 18:11 The rich man's wealth is his strong city, and like a high wall in his own esteem.

Pro 18:12 Before destruction the heart of a man is haughty, and humility is before honour.

Pro 18:13 He who answers a matter before he hears it, it is folly and shame to him.

Pro 18:14 The spirit of a man will sustain him in sickness, but who can bear a broken spirit?

Pro 18:15 The heart of the prudent acquires knowledge, and the ear of the wise seeks knowledge.

Pro 18:16 A man's gift makes room for him, and brings him before great men.

Pro 18:17 The first one to plead his cause seems right, until his neighbour comes and examines him.

Pro 18:18 Casting lots causes contentions to cease, and keeps the mighty apart.

Pro 18:19 A brother offended is harder to win than a strong city, and contentions are like the bars of a castle.

Pro 18:20 A man's stomach will be satisfied from the fruit of his mouth, and from the produce of his lips he will be filled.

Pro 18:21 Death and life are in the power of the tongue, and those who love it will eat its fruit.

Pro 18:22 He who finds a wife finds a good thing, and obtains favour from Jehovah.

Pro 18:23 The poor man uses entreaties, but the rich answers roughly.

Pro 18:24 A man who has friends must himself be friendly, but there is a friend who sticks closer than a brother.

Pro 19:1 Better is the poor who walks in his integrity than one who is perverse in his lips, and is a fool.

Pro 19:2 Also it is not good for a soul to be without knowledge, and he sins who hastens with his feet.

Pro 19:3 The foolishness of a man twists his way, and his heart frets against Jehovah.

Pro 19:4 Wealth makes many friends, but the poor is separated from his friend.

Pro 19:5 A false witness will not go unpunished, and he who speaks lies will not escape.

Pro 19:6 Many entreat the favour of the nobility, and every man is a friend to one who gives gifts.

Pro 19:7 All the brothers of the poor hate him; how much more do his friends go far from him! He may pursue them with words, yet they abandon him.

Pro 19:8 He who gets wisdom loves his own soul; he who keeps understanding will find good.

Pro 19:9 A false witness will not go unpunished, and he who speaks lies will perish.

Pro 19:10 Luxury is not fitting for a fool, much less for a servant to rule over princes.

Pro 19:11 The discretion of a man makes him slow to anger, and it is to his glory to overlook a transgression.

Pro 19:12 The king's wrath is like the roaring of a lion, but his favour is like dew on the grass.

Pro 19:13 A foolish son is the ruin of his father, and the contentions of a wife are a continual dripping.

Pro 19:14 Houses and riches are an inheritance from fathers, but a prudent wife is from Jehovah.

Pro 19:15 Laziness casts one into a deep sleep, and a deceitful soul will suffer hunger.

Pro 19:16 He who keeps the commandment keeps his soul, but he who is careless of his ways will die.

Pro 19:17 He who has pity on the poor lends to Jehovah, and He will pay back what he has given.

Pro 19:18 Chasten your son, for there is hope, and do not set your soul on making him die.

Pro 19:19 A man of great wrath will suffer punishment; for if you deliver him, you will have to do it again.

Pro 19:20 Listen to counsel and receive chastening, that you may be wise in your latter days.

Pro 19:21 There are many plans in a man's heart, nevertheless Jehovah's counsel will stand.

Pro 19:22 What is desired in a man is kindness, and a poor man is better than a liar.

Pro 19:23 The fear of Jehovah leads to life, and he who has it will abide in satisfaction; he will not be visited with evil.

Pro 19:24 A lazy man buries his hand in the bowl, and will not so much as bring it to his mouth again.

Pro 19:25 Strike a scoffer, and the simple will become wary; reprove one who has understanding, and he will discern knowledge.

Pro 19:26 He who mistreats his father and chases away his mother is a son who causes shame and brings reproach.

Pro 19:27 Cease listening to chastening, my son, and you will stray from the words of knowledge.

Pro 19:28 A worthless witness scorns justice, and the mouth of the wicked swallows iniquity.

Pro 19:29 Judgements are prepared for scoffers, and beatings for the backs of fools.

Pro 20:1 Wine is a mocker, intoxicating drink arouses brawling, and whoever is led astray by it is not wise.

Pro 20:2 The wrath of a king is like the roaring of a lion; whoever provokes him to anger sins against his own soul.

Pro 20:3 It is honourable for a man to stop striving, since any fool can start a quarrel.

Pro 20:4 The sluggard will not plough because of winter; therefore he will beg during the harvest and have nothing.

Pro 20:5 Counsel in the heart of man is like deep water, but a man of understanding will draw it out.

Pro 20:6 Most men will proclaim each his own goodness, but who can find a faithful man?

Pro 20:7 The righteous man walks in his integrity; his children are blessed after him.

Pro 20:8 A king who sits on the throne of judgement scatters all evil with his eyes.

Pro 20:9 Who can say, "I have made my heart clean, I am pure from my sin"?

Pro 20:10 Diverse weights and diverse measures, they are both alike, an abomination to Jehovah.

Pro 20:11 Even a child is known by his deeds, by whether what he does is pure and right.

Pro 20:12 The hearing ear and the seeing eye, Jehovah has made both of them.

Pro 20:13 Do not love sleep, lest you come to poverty; open your eyes, and you will be satisfied with bread.

Pro 20:14 "It is evil, evil," cries the buyer; but when he has gone his way, then he boasts.

Pro 20:15 There is gold and a multitude of rubies, but the lips of knowledge are a precious jewel.

Pro 20:16 Take the garment of one who is surety for a stranger, and hold it as a pledge when it is for a seductress.

Pro 20:17 Bread gained by deceit is sweet to a man, but afterwards his mouth will be filled with gravel.

Pro 20:18 Every purpose is established by counsel; by wise counsel wage war.

Pro 20:19 He who goes about as a talebearer reveals secret counsel; therefore do not associate with one who flatters with his lips.

Pro 20:20 Whoever curses his father or his mother, his lamp will be put out in deep darkness.

Pro 20:21 An inheritance gained hastily at the beginning will not be blessed at the end.

Pro 20:22 Do not say, "I will recompense evil"; wait for Jehovah, and He will save you.¹

Pro 20:23 Diverse weights are an abomination to Jehovah, and a false balance is not good.

Pro 20:24 A man's steps are of Jehovah; how then can a man understand his own way?

Pro 20:25 It is a snare for a man to talk rashly of sanctification, and afterwards to reconsider his vows.

Pro 20:26 A wise king sifts out the wicked, and brings the threshing wheel over them.

Pro 20:27 The spirit of a man is the lamp of Jehovah, searching all the inner depths of his belly.

Pro 20:28 Mercy and truth preserve the king, and by loving-kindness he upholds his throne.

Pro 20:29 The glory of young men is their strength, and the splendour of old men is their grey head.

Pro 20:30 Blows that hurt cleanse away evil, as do stripes the inner depths of the heart.

Pro 21:1 The king's heart is in the hand of Jehovah, like the rivers of water. He turns it wherever He wishes.

Pro 21:2 Every way of a man is right in his own eyes, but Jehovah weighs the hearts.²

Pro 21:3 To do righteousness and justice is more acceptable to Jehovah than sacrifice.

Pro 21:4 A haughty look, a proud heart, and the ploughing of the wicked are sin.

Pro 21:5 The plans of the diligent lead surely to plenty, but those of everyone who is hasty, surely to poverty.

Pro 21:6 Getting treasures by a lying tongue is the fleeting fantasy of those who seek death.

¹ Deu 32:35-56, Rom 12:19, Heb 10:30

² 1Co 4:4

Pro 21:7 The violence of the wicked will destroy them, because they refuse to do justice.

Pro 21:8 The way of a guilty man is perverse; but as for the pure, his work is right.

Pro 21:9 It is better to dwell in a corner of a housetop, than in a house shared with a contentious woman.

Pro 21:10 The soul of the wicked desires evil; his neighbour finds no favour in his eyes.

Pro 21:11 When the scoffer is punished, the simple is made wise; but when the wise is instructed, he receives knowledge.

Pro 21:12 The righteous God wisely considers the house of the wicked, overthrowing the wicked for their evil.

Pro 21:13 Whoever shuts his ears to the cry of the poor will also cry himself and not be heard.

Pro 21:14 A gift in secret pacifies anger, and a present behind the back, strong wrath.

Pro 21:15 It is a joy for the just to make judgements, but destruction will come to the workers of iniquity.

Pro 21:16 A man who wanders from the way of understanding will rest in the congregation of the deceased.

Pro 21:17 He who loves pleasure will be a poor man; he who loves wine and oil will not be rich.

Pro 21:18 The wicked will be a ransom for the righteous, and the unfaithful for the upright.

Pro 21:19 It is better to dwell in the wilderness, than with a contentious and angry woman.

Pro 21:20 There is desirable treasure and oil in the dwelling of the wise, but a foolish man squanders it.

Pro 21:21 He who follows righteousness and mercy finds life, righteousness and honour.

Pro 21:22 A wise man scales the city of the mighty, and brings down the trusted stronghold.

Pro 21:23 Whoever guards his mouth and tongue keeps his soul from troubles.

Pro 21:24 A proud and haughty man; "Scoffer" is his name; he acts with arrogant wrath.

Pro 21:25 The desire of the lazy man kills him, for his hands refuse to labour.

Pro 21:26 He covets greedily all day long, but the righteous gives and does not spare.

Pro 21:27 The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination; how much more when he brings it with wicked intent!

Pro 21:28 A false witness will perish, but the man who hears him will speak endlessly.

Pro 21:29 A wicked man hardens his face, but as for the upright, he establishes his way.

Pro 21:30 There is no wisdom or understanding or counsel against Jehovah.

Pro 21:31 The horse is prepared for the day of battle, but deliverance is from Jehovah.

Pro 22:1 A good name is to be chosen rather than great riches, loving favour rather than silver and gold.

Pro 22:2 The rich and the poor have this in common, Jehovah is the maker of them all.

Pro 22:3 A prudent man foresees evil and hides himself, but the simple pass on and are punished.

Pro 22:4 By humility and the fear of Jehovah are riches and honour and life.

Pro 22:5 Thorns and snares are in the way of the perverse; he who guards his soul will be far from them.

Pro 22:6 Train a child with the path for his mouth,¹ when he is old he will not turn aside.

Pro 22:7 The rich rules over the poor, and the borrower is servant to the lender.

Pro 22:8 He who sows iniquity will reap sorrow, and the branch of his wrath will fail.

¹ Thus teaching him how to conduct himself.

Pro 22:9 He who has a bountiful eye will be blessed, for he gives from his bread to the poor.

Pro 22:10 Destroy the evil one and cast out the scoffer, and contention will leave; yes, strife and reproach will cease.

Pro 22:11 He who loves purity of heart and has grace on his lips, the king will be his friend.

Pro 22:12 The eyes of Jehovah preserve knowledge, but He overthrows the words of the faithless.

Pro 22:13 The lazy man says, "There is a lion outside! I will be slain in the streets!"

Pro 22:14 The mouth of an immoral woman is a deep pit; he who is abhorred of Jehovah will fall there.

Pro 22:15 Foolishness is bound up in the heart of a child, but the branch of correction will drive it far from him.

Pro 22:16 He who oppresses the poor to increase his riches, and he who gives to the rich, will surely come to poverty.

Pro 22:17 Incline your ear and hear the words of the wise, and apply your heart to my knowledge;

Pro 22:18 for it is a pleasant thing if you keep them within you; let them all be fixed upon your lips,

Pro 22:19 so that your trust may be in Jehovah; I have instructed you today, even you.

Pro 22:20 Have I not written to you excellent things of counsels and knowledge,

Pro 22:21 that I may make you know the certainty of the words of truth, that you may answer words of truth to those who send to you?

Pro 22:22 Do not rob the poor because he is poor, nor crush the afflicted at the gate;

Pro 22:23 for Jehovah will plead their cause, and plunder the soul of those who plunder them.

Pro 22:24 Make no friendship with an angry master, and do not go with a furious man,

Pro 22:25 lest you learn his ways and set a snare for your soul.

Pro 22:26 Do not be one of those who shakes hands in a pledge, one of those who is surety for debts;

Pro 22:27 for if you have nothing with which to pay, why should he take away your bed from under you?

Pro 22:28 Do not remove the ancient landmark which your fathers have set.

Pro 22:29 Do you see a man who excels in his work? He will stand before kings; he will not stand before unknown men.

Pro 23:1 When you sit down to eat with a ruler, consider carefully what is before you;

Pro 23:2 and put a knife to your throat if you are the master of your soul.

Pro 23:3 Do not desire his delicacies, for they are deceptive food.

Pro 23:4 Do not overwork to be rich; because of your own understanding, cease!

Pro 23:5 Will you set your eyes on that which is not? For riches certainly make themselves wings; they fly away, fly away like an eagle toward heaven.

Pro 23:6 Do not eat the bread of an evil eye, nor desire his delicacies;

Pro 23:7 for as he thinks in his soul, so is he. "Eat and drink!" he says to you, but his heart is not with you.

Pro 23:8 The morsel you have eaten, you will vomit up, and waste your pleasant words.

Pro 23:9 Do not speak in the hearing of a fool, for he will despise the wisdom of your words.

Pro 23:10 Do not remove the ancient landmark, nor enter the fields of the fatherless;

Pro 23:11 for their Redeemer is mighty; he will plead their cause against you.

Pro 23:12 Apply chastening to your heart and words of knowledge to your ears.

Pro 23:13 Do not withhold correction from a child, for if you strike him with a cane, he will not die.

Pro 23:14 You will strike him with a cane, and deliver his soul from Sheol.¹

Pro 23:15 My son, if your heart is wise, my heart will rejoice; indeed, I myself;

Pro 23:16 yes, my innermost being will rejoice when your lips speak right things.

Pro 23:17 Do not let your heart envy sinners, but continue all day long in the fear of Jehovah;²

Pro 23:18 for surely there is a hereafter,³ and your hope will not be cut off.

Pro 23:19 Hear, my son, and be wise; and guide your heart in the way.

Pro 23:20 Do not mix with those drunk with wine, or with gluttonous eaters of meat;

Pro 23:21 for the drunkard and the glutton will come to poverty, and drowsiness will clothe a man with rags.

Pro 23:22 Listen to your father who begot you, and do not despise your mother when she is old.

Pro 23:23 Buy the truth, and do not sell it, also wisdom and discipline and understanding.

Pro 23:24 The father of the righteous will greatly rejoice, and he who begets a wise child will delight in him.

Pro 23:25 Let your father and your mother be glad, and let her who bore you rejoice.

Pro 23:26 My son, give me your heart, and let your eyes watch my ways.

Pro 23:27 For a prostitute is a deep pit, and a strange woman is a dangerous well.

Pro 23:28 She surely lies in wait for a victim, and she increases the unfaithful among men.

Pro 23:29 Who has woe? Who has sorrow? Who has contentions? Who has complaints? Who has wounds without cause? Who has redness of eyes?

Pro 23:30 Those who linger long at the wine, those who go in search of mixed wine.

Pro 23:31 Do not look on the wine when it is red, when it sparkles in the cup, when it swirls around smoothly;

Pro 23:32 at the last it bites like a serpent, and stings like a viper.⁴

Pro 23:33 Your eyes will see strange things, and your heart will utter perverse things.

Pro 23:34 Yes, you will be like one who lies down in the midst of the sea, or like one who lies at the head of the mast, saying:

Pro 23:35 "They have struck me, but I was not hurt. They have beaten me, but I did not feel it. When will I awake, that I may seek another drink?"⁵

Pro 24:1 Do not be envious of evil men, nor desire to be with them;

Pro 24:2 for their heart devises violence, and their lips talk of trouble-making.

Pro 24:3 Through wisdom a house is built, and by understanding it is established;

Pro 24:4 by knowledge the rooms are filled with all precious and pleasant riches.

Pro 24:5 A wise man is strong, yes, a man of knowledge increases strength;

Pro 24:6 for by wise counsel you will wage your own war, and in a crowd of counsellors there is safety.

Pro 24:7 Wisdom is too lofty for a fool; he does not open his mouth in the gate.

Pro 24:8 He who plots to do evil will be called a master of evil schemes.

Pro 24:9 The devising of foolishness is sin, and the scoffer is an abomination to

¹ You are not to correct a child like this while angry, only when calm, with restraint and only with a flexible cane. And such correction is only used when required to reinforce loving teaching and is to be softened with forgiveness. (Eph 6:4, Luk 15:11-32) men.

Pro 24:10 If you faint in the day of trouble, your strength is small.

Pro 24:11 Deliver those who are drawn toward death, and hold back those stumbling to the slaughter.

Pro 24:12 If you say, "Surely we did not know this," does not He who weighs the hearts consider it? He who keeps your soul, does He not know it? And will He not render to each man according to his deeds?¹

Pro 24:13 My son, eat honey because it is good, and the honeycomb which is sweet to your taste;

Pro 24:14 so will the knowledge of wisdom be to your soul; if you have found it, there is a prospect, and your hope will not be cut off.

Pro 24:15 Do not lie in wait, O wicked man, against the dwelling of the righteous; do not plunder his resting place;

Pro 24:16 for a righteous man may fall seven times and rise again, but the wicked will fall by evil.

Pro 24:17 Do not rejoice when your enemy falls, and do not let your heart be glad when he stumbles;

Pro 24:18 lest Jehovah see it, and it displease Him, and He turn away His wrath from him.

Pro 24:19 Do not fret because of evil doers, nor be envious of the wicked;

Pro 24:20 for there will be no prospect for the evil man; the lamp of the wicked will be put out.

Pro 24:21 My son, fear Jehovah and the king; do not associate with those given to change;

Pro 24:22 for their calamity will rise suddenly, and who knows the ruin those two can bring?

Pro 24:23 These things also belong to the wise. It is not good to show favouritism in judgement.

Pro 24:24 He who says to the wicked,

"You are righteous," him the people will curse; nations will abhor him.

Pro 24:25 But those who rebuke the wicked will have delight, and a good blessing will come upon them.

Pro 24:26 He who gives a right answer kisses the lips.

Pro 24:27 Prepare your outside work, make it fit for yourself in the field; and afterwards build your house.

Pro 24:28 Do not be a witness against your neighbour without cause, for would you deceive with your lips?

Pro 24:29 Do not say, "I will do to him just as he has done to me; I will render to the man according to his work."

Pro 24:30 I went by the field of the lazy man, and by the vineyard of the man lacking heart;

Pro 24:31 and there it was, all overgrown with thorns; its surface was covered with nettles; its stone wall was broken down.

Pro 24:32 When I saw it, I considered it well; I looked on it and was chastened:

Pro 24:33 a little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to rest;

Pro 24:34 so your poverty will come like a prowler, and your want like an armed man.

Pro 25:1 These also are proverbs of Solomon which the men of Hezekiah king of Judah copied:

Pro 25:2 It is the glory of God to conceal a matter, but the glory of kings is to search out a matter.

Pro 25:3 As the heavens for height and the earth for depth, so the heart of kings is unsearchable.

Pro 25:4 Take away the dross from silver, and it will go to the silversmith for jewellery.

Pro 25:5 Take away the wicked from before the king, and his throne will be established in righteousness.

Pro 25:6 Do not exalt yourself in the presence of the king, and do not stand in the place of great men;

¹ Mat 16:27, Rom 2:6, 2Ti 4:14

Pro 25:7 for it is better that he say to you, "Come up here," than that you should be put lower in the presence of the prince, whom your eyes have seen.¹

Pro 25:8 Do not go hastily to court; for what will you do in the end, when your neighbour has put you to shame?

Pro 25:9 Plead your case with your neighbour, and do not disclose your counsel to another;

Pro 25:10 lest he who hears it expose your shame, and your reputation be ruined.

Pro 25:11 A word fitly spoken is like apples of gold in settings of silver.

Pro 25:12 Like an earring of gold and an ornament of fine gold is a wise reprovener to an obedient ear.

Pro 25:13 Like the cold of snow in time of harvest is a faithful envoy to those who send him, for he refreshes the soul of his lords.

Pro 25:14 Whoever falsely boasts of giving is like clouds and wind without heavy rain.

Pro 25:15 By long forbearance a ruler is persuaded, and a gentle tongue breaks a bone.

Pro 25:16 Have you found honey? Eat only as much as you need, lest you be filled with it and vomit.

Pro 25:17 Seldom set foot in your neighbour's house, lest he become weary of you and hate you.

Pro 25:18 A man who bears false witness against his neighbour is like a club, a sword, and a sharp arrow.

Pro 25:19 Confidence in an unfaithful man in time of trouble is like a bad tooth and a foot out of joint.

Pro 25:20 Like one who takes away a garment in cold weather, and like vinegar on soda, is one who sings songs to an evil heart.

Pro 25:21 If your enemy is hungry, give him bread to eat; and if he is thirsty, give him water to drink;

Pro 25:22 for so you will heap coals of fire on his head, and Jehovah will reward you.²

Pro 25:23 The north wind brings forth heavy rain, and a backbiting tongue an angry countenance.

Pro 25:24 It is better to dwell in a corner of a housetop, than in a house shared with a contentious woman.

Pro 25:25 As cold water to a weary soul, so is good news from a far country.

Pro 25:26 A righteous man who falters before the wicked is like a murky spring and a polluted well.

Pro 25:27 It is not good to eat much honey; so to seek one's own glory is not glory.

Pro 25:28 Whoever has no rule over his own spirit is like a city broken down, without walls.

Pro 26:1 As snow in summer and rain in harvest, so honour is not fitting for a fool.

Pro 26:2 Like a flitting bird, like a flying swallow, so a curse without cause will not alight.

Pro 26:3 A whip for the horse, a bridle for the donkey, and a branch for the fool's back.

Pro 26:4 Do not answer a fool according to his folly, lest you also be like him, even you.

Pro 26:5 Answer a fool according to his folly, lest he be wise in his own eyes.

Pro 26:6 He who sends a message by the hand of a fool cuts off his own feet and drinks violence.

Pro 26:7 Like the legs of the lame that hang limp is a proverb in the mouth of fools.

Pro 26:8 Like one who binds a stone in a sling is he who gives honour to a fool.

Pro 26:9 Like a thorn that goes into the hand of a drunkard is a proverb in the mouth of fools.

Pro 26:10 The great God who formed all things gives the fool his hire and the transgressor his wages.

Pro 26:11 As the dog returns to its vomit, so the fool repeats his folly.¹

Pro 26:12 Do you see a man wise in his own eyes? There is more hope for a fool than for him.

Pro 26:13 The lazy man says, "There is a lion in the road! A fierce lion is in the streets!"

Pro 26:14 As a door turns on its hinges, so does the lazy man turn on his bed.

Pro 26:15 The sluggard buries his hand in the bowl; it wearies him to bring it back to his mouth.

Pro 26:16 The lazy man is wiser in his own eyes than seven men who can answer sensibly.

Pro 26:17 He who passes by and meddles in a quarrel not his own is like one who takes a dog by the ears.

Pro 26:18 Like a madman who throws firebrands, arrows, and death,

Pro 26:19 is the man who deceives his neighbour, and says, "I was only joking!"

Pro 26:20 Where there is no wood, the fire goes out; and where there is no talebearer, strife ceases.

Pro 26:21 As charcoal is to burning coals, and wood to fire, so is a contentious man to kindle strife.

Pro 26:22 The words of a talebearer are like tasty trifles, and they go down into the innermost body.

Pro 26:23 Fervent lips with an evil heart are like earthenware covered with silver dross.

Pro 26:24 He who hates, disguises it with his lips, and lays up deceit within himself;

Pro 26:25 when he speaks kindly, do not believe him, for there are seven abominations in his heart;

Pro 26:26 though his hatred is covered by deceit, his evil will be revealed before the whole congregation.

Pro 26:27 Whoever digs a pit will fall into it, and he who rolls a stone will have it roll back on him.

Pro 26:28 A lying tongue hates those who are crushed by it, and a flattering mouth works ruin.

Pro 27:1 Do not boast about tomorrow, for you do not know what a day may bring forth.²

Pro 27:2 Let another man praise you, and not your own mouth; a stranger, and not your own lips.

Pro 27:3 A stone is heavy and sand is weighty, but a fool's wrath is heavier than both of them.

Pro 27:4 Wrath is cruel and anger a torrent, but who is able to stand before jealousy?

Pro 27:5 Open rebuke is better than love carefully concealed.

Pro 27:6 Faithful are the wounds of a friend, but the kisses of an enemy are deceitful.

Pro 27:7 A satisfied soul loathes the honeycomb, but to a hungry soul every bitter thing is sweet.

Pro 27:8 Like a bird that wanders from its nest is a man who wanders from his place.

Pro 27:9 Ointment and incense delight the heart, and the sweetness of a friend does so by soulful counsel.

Pro 27:10 Do not forsake your own friend or your father's friend, nor go to your brother's house in the day of your calamity; for better is a neighbour nearby than a brother far away.

Pro 27:11 My son, be wise, and make my heart glad, that I may answer him who reproaches me.

Pro 27:12 A prudent man foresees evil and hides himself; the simple pass on and are punished.

Pro 27:13 Take the garment of him who is surety for a stranger, and hold it in pledge when he is surety for a seductress.

Pro 27:14 He who blesses his friend with a loud voice, rising early in the morning, it will be counted a curse to him.

Pro 27:15 A continual dripping on a very rainy day and a contentious woman are alike;

Pro 27:16 whoever restrains her restrains the wind, and grasps oil with his right hand.

Pro 27:17 As iron sharpens iron, so a man sharpens the countenance of his friend.

Pro 27:18 Whoever keeps the fig tree will eat its fruit; so he who waits on his lord will be honoured.

Pro 27:19 As in water face reveals face, so a man's heart reveals the man.

Pro 27:20 Sheol and Destruction are never full; so the eyes of man are never satisfied.

Pro 27:21 The refining pot is for silver and the furnace for gold, and a man is valued by what mouths praise.

Pro 27:22 Though you grind a fool in a mortar with a pestle along with crushed grain, yet his foolishness will not depart from him.

Pro 27:23 Be diligent to know the state of your flocks, and attend to your herds;

Pro 27:24 for riches are not forever, nor does a crown endure to all generations.

Pro 27:25 When the hay is removed, and the tender grass shows itself, and the herbs of the mountains are gathered in,

Pro 27:26 the lambs will provide your clothing, and the goats the price of a field;

Pro 27:27 you will have enough goats' milk for your food, for the food of your household, and the nourishment of your maidservants.

Pro 28:1 The wicked flee when no one pursues, but the righteous are bold as a lion.

Pro 28:2 Because of the transgression of a land, many are its princes; but by a man of understanding and knowledge right will be prolonged.

Pro 28:3 A poor man who oppresses the poor is like a driving rain which leaves no food.

Pro 28:4 Those who forsake the Instructions praise the wicked, but such as keep the Instructions contend with them.

Pro 28:5 Evil men do not understand justice, but those who seek Jehovah understand all.

Pro 28:6 Better is the poor who walks in his integrity than one perverse in his ways, though he be rich.

Pro 28:7 Whoever keeps the Instructions is a discerning son, but a companion of gluttons shames his father.

Pro 28:8 One who increases his possessions by usury and extortion gathers it for him who will pity the poor.

Pro 28:9 One who turns away his ear from listening to the Instructions, even his prayer is an abomination.

Pro 28:10 Whoever causes the upright to go astray in an evil way, he himself will fall into his own pit; but the blameless will inherit good things.

Pro 28:11 The rich man is wise in his own eyes, but the poor who has understanding searches him out.

Pro 28:12 When the righteous rejoice, there is great glory; but when the wicked arise, men hide themselves.

Pro 28:13 He who covers his transgressions will not prosper, but whoever confesses and forsakes them will have mercy.

Pro 28:14 Blessed is the man who always trembles, but he who hardens his heart will fall into evil.

Pro 28:15 Like a roaring lion and a charging bear is a wicked ruler over poor people.

Pro 28:16 A ruler who lacks understanding is a great oppressor, but he who hates covetousness will prolong his days.

Pro 28:17 A violent man burdened with the blood of any soul will flee into a pit; let no one help him.

Pro 28:18 Whoever walks blamelessly will be saved, but he who is perverse in his ways will fall at once.

Pro 28:19 He who works his land will have plenty of bread, but he who follows frivolity will have poverty enough!

Pro 28:20 A faithful man will abound with blessings, but he who pushes ahead to be rich will not go unpunished.

Pro 28:21 To show favouritism is not good, because for a piece of bread a man will transgress.

Pro 28:22 A man with an evil eye hastens after riches, and does not consider that poverty will come upon him.

Pro 28:23 He who rebukes a man will find more favour afterwards than he who flatters with the tongue.

Pro 28:24 Whoever robs his father or his mother, and says, "It is no transgression," the same is companion to a destroyer.

Pro 28:25 He who is of a proud soul stirs up strife, but he who trusts in Jehovah will be prospered.

Pro 28:26 He who trusts in his own heart is a fool, but whoever walks wisely will be delivered.

Pro 28:27 He who gives to the poor will not lack, but he who hides his eyes will have many curses.

Pro 28:28 When the wicked arise, men hide themselves; but when they perish, the righteous increase.

Pro 29:1 He who is often reprov'd, and hardens his neck, will suddenly be destroyed, and that without remedy.

Pro 29:2 When the righteous are in authority, the people rejoice; but when a wicked man rules, the people groan.

Pro 29:3 Whoever loves wisdom makes his father rejoice, but a companion of prostitutes wastes his wealth.

Pro 29:4 The king establishes the land by justice, but he who receives bribes overthrows it.

Pro 29:5 A man who flatters his neighbour spreads a net for his feet.

Pro 29:6 By transgression an evil man is snared, but the righteous sings and rejoices.

Pro 29:7 The righteous considers the cause of the poor, but the wicked does not understand such knowledge.

Pro 29:8 Scoffers ensnare a city, but wise men turn away wrath.

Pro 29:9 A wise man judges a foolish man: whether the fool trembles or laughs, there is no peace.

Pro 29:10 The bloodthirsty hate the blameless, but the just seek his soul.

Pro 29:11 A fool vents all his feelings, but a wise man holds them back.

Pro 29:12 If a ruler pays attention to lies, all his servants become wicked.

Pro 29:13 The poor man and the oppressor have this in common: Jehovah gives light to the eyes of both.

Pro 29:14 The king who judges the poor with truth, his throne will be established forever.

Pro 29:15 The branch and reproof give wisdom, but a child left to himself brings shame to his mother.

Pro 29:16 When the wicked are multiplied, transgression increases; but the righteous will see their fall.

Pro 29:17 Correct your son, and he will give you rest; yes, he will give delight to your soul.

Pro 29:18 Where there is no revelation, the people cast off restraint; but happy is he who keeps the Instructions.

Pro 29:19 A servant will not be corrected by mere words; for though he understands, he will not respond.

Pro 29:20 Do you see a man hasty in his words? There is more hope for a fool than for him.

Pro 29:21 He who pampers his servant from childhood will have him as a son in the end.

Pro 29:22 An angry man stirs up strife, and a furious master abounds in transgression.

Pro 29:23 A man's pride will bring him low, but the humble in spirit will retain honour.

Pro 29:24 Whoever is a partner with a thief hates his own soul; he swears to tell the truth, but reveals nothing.

Pro 29:25 The fear of man brings a snare, but whoever trusts in Jehovah will be safe.

Pro 29:26 Many seek the ruler's favour, but judgement for man comes from Jehovah.

Pro 29:27 An unjust man is an abomination to the righteous, and he who is upright in the way is an abomination to the wicked.

Pro 30:1 The words of Agur the son of Jakeh, his utterance. This man declared to Ithiel; to Ithiel and Ucal:

Pro 30:2 Surely I am more stupid than any man, and do not have the understanding of a man.

Pro 30:3 I neither learned wisdom nor have knowledge of the Sacred One.

Pro 30:4 Who has ascended into heaven, or descended? Who has gathered the wind in His fists? Who has bound the waters in a garment? Who has established all the ends of the earth? What is His Name, and what is His Son's name, if you know?¹

Pro 30:5 Every word of God is pure; He is a shield to those who put their trust in Him.

Pro 30:6 Do not add to His words, lest He reprove you, and you be found a liar.

Pro 30:7 Two things I request of You (Deprive me not before I die):

Pro 30:8 remove falsehood and lies far from me; give me neither poverty nor riches; feed me with the food You prescribe for me;

Pro 30:9 Lest I be full and deny You, and say, "Who is Jehovah?" Or lest I be poor and steal, and profane the name of my God.

Pro 30:10 Do not malign a servant to his lord, lest he curse you, and you be found guilty.

Pro 30:11 There is a generation that curses its father, and does not bless its mother.

Pro 30:12 There is a generation that is pure in its own eyes, yet is not washed from its filthiness.

Pro 30:13 There is a generation; oh, how lofty are their eyes! And their eyelids are lifted up.

Pro 30:14 There is a generation whose teeth are like swords, and whose fangs are like knives, to devour the poor from off the earth, and the needy from among men.

Pro 30:15 The leech has two daughters, crying, "Give! Give!" There are three things that are never satisfied, four things never say, "It is enough":

Pro 30:16 Sheol, the barren womb, the earth that is not satisfied with water, and the fire that never says, "It is enough."

Pro 30:17 The eye that mocks his father, and scorns obedience to his mother, the ravens of the valley will pick it out, and the young eagles will eat it.

Pro 30:18 There are three things which are too wonderful for me, yes, four which I do not understand:

Pro 30:19 the way of an eagle in the heaven, the way of a serpent on a rock, the way of a ship in the midst of the sea, and the way of a man with a maiden.

Pro 30:20 This is the way of an adulterous woman: she eats and wipes her mouth, and says, "I have done no wickedness."

Pro 30:21 For three things the earth is perturbed, yes, for four it cannot bear up:

Pro 30:22 for a servant when he reigns, a fool when he is filled with food,

Pro 30:23 a hateful woman when she is married, and a maidservant who succeeds her mistress.

Pro 30:24 There are four things which are little on the earth, but they are exceedingly wise:

Pro 30:25 the ants are a people not strong, yet they prepare their food in the summer;

Pro 30:26 the rock badgers are a feeble folk, yet they make their homes in the crags;

Pro 30:27 the locusts have no king, yet they all advance in ranks;

Pro 30:28 the spider skilfully grasps with its hands,¹ and it is in kings' palaces.

Pro 30:29 There are three things which are majestic in pace, yes, four which are stately in walk:

Pro 30:30 a lion, which is mighty among beasts and does not turn away from any;

Pro 30:31 a greyhound, a male goat also, and a king whose troops are with him.

Pro 30:32 If you have been foolish in exalting yourself, or if you have devised evil, put your hand on your mouth.

Pro 30:33 For as the churning of milk produces butter, and as wringing the nose produces blood, so the forcing of wrath produces strife.

Pro 31:1 The words of King Lemuel, the utterance which his mother taught him:

Pro 31:2 What, my son? And what, son of my womb? And what, son of my vows?

Pro 31:3 Do not give your strength to women, nor your ways to that which destroys kings.

Pro 31:4 It is not for kings, O Lemuel, it is not for kings to drink wine, nor for princes intoxicating drink;

Pro 31:5 lest they drink and forget the law, and pervert the justice of all the afflicted.

Pro 31:6 Give strong drink to him who is perishing, and wine to those who are bitter in their soul.

Pro 31:7 Let him drink and forget his poverty, and remember his misery no more.

Pro 31:8 Open your mouth for the speechless, in the cause of all who are appointed to die.

Pro 31:9 Open your mouth, judge righteously, and plead the cause of the poor and needy.

Pro 31:10 Who can find a virtuous wife? For her worth is far above rubies.

Pro 31:11 The heart of her master safely trusts her; so he will have no lack of gain.

Pro 31:12 She does him good and not evil all the days of her life.

Pro 31:13 She seeks wool and flax, and willingly works with her hands.

Pro 31:14 She is like the merchant ships, she brings her food from afar.

Pro 31:15 She also rises while it is yet night, and provides food for her household, and a portion for her maidservants.

Pro 31:16 She considers a field and buys it; from her profits she plants a vineyard.

Pro 31:17 She girds herself with strength, and strengthens her arms.

Pro 31:18 She perceives that her merchandise is good, and her lamp does not go out by night.

Pro 31:19 She stretches out her hands to the distaff, and her hand holds the spindle.

Pro 31:20 She extends her hand to the poor, yes, she reaches out her hands to the needy.

Pro 31:21 She is not afraid of snow for her household, for all her household is clothed with scarlet.

Pro 31:22 She makes tapestry for herself; her clothing is fine linen and purple.

Pro 31:23 Her master is known in the gates, when he sits among the elders of the land.

Pro 31:24 She makes linen garments and sells them, and supplies sashes for the merchants.

Pro 31:25 Strength and honour are her clothing; she will rejoice in time to come.

Pro 31:26 She opens her mouth with wisdom, and on her tongue is the instruction of kindness.

Pro 31:27 She watches over the ways of her household, and does not eat the bread of idleness.

Pro 31:28 Her children rise up and call

Pro 31:29 “Many daughters have done well, but you excel them all.”

Pro 31:30 Charm is deceitful and beauty is vain, but a woman who fears Jehovah, she will be praised.

Pro 31:31 Give her of the fruit of her hands, and let her own works praise her in the gates.

Job

Job 1:1 There was a man in the land of Uz, whose name was Job; and that man was blameless and upright, and one who feared God and shunned evil.

Job 1:2 And seven sons and three daughters were born to him.

Job 1:3 Also, his possessions were seven thousand sheep, three thousand camels, five hundred yoke of oxen, five hundred female donkeys, and a very large household, so that this man was the greatest of all the people of the East.

Job 1:4 Now his sons would go and feast in their houses, each on his appointed day, and would send and invite their three sisters to eat and drink with them.

Job 1:5 So it was, when the days of feasting had run their course, that Job would send and sanctify them, and he would rise early in the morning and offer burnt offerings according to the number of them all. For Job said, "It may be that my sons have sinned and cursed¹ God in their hearts." Thus Job did regularly.

Job 1:6 Now there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before Jehovah, and Satan also came among them.

Job 1:7 And Jehovah said to Satan, "Where do you come from?" So Satan answered Jehovah and said, "From going to and fro on the earth, and from walking back and forth on it."

Job 1:8 Then Jehovah said to Satan, "Have you considered My servant Job, that there is none like him on the earth, a blameless and upright man, one who fears

God and shuns evil?"

Job 1:9 So Satan answered Jehovah and said, "Does Job fear God for nothing?"

Job 1:10 "Have You not made a hedge around him, around his household, and around all that he has on every side? You have blessed the work of his hands, and his possessions have increased in the land.

Job 1:11 "But now, stretch out Your hand and touch all that he has, and he will surely curse You to Your face!"

Job 1:12 So Jehovah said to Satan, "Behold, all that he has is in your power; only do not lay a hand on his person." Then Satan went out from the presence of Jehovah.

Job 1:13 Now there was a day when his sons and daughters were eating and drinking wine in their oldest brother's house;

Job 1:14 and an envoy came to Job and said, "The oxen were ploughing and the donkeys feeding beside them,

Job 1:15 "when the Sabeans raided them and took them away; indeed they have killed the servants with the mouth of the sword; and I alone have escaped to tell you!"

Job 1:16 While he was still speaking, another also came and said, "The fire of God fell from heaven and burned up the sheep and the servants, and consumed them; and I alone have escaped to tell you!"²

Job 1:17 While he was still speaking, another also came and said, "The Chaldeans formed three bands, raided the camels and took them away, yes, and killed the servants with the mouth of the sword; and I alone have escaped to tell you!"

Job 1:18 While he was still speaking, another also came and said, "Your sons and daughters were eating and drinking ¹ The Hebrew word here is based on Barak: בָּרַךְ , meaning "and blessed", which is clearly a substitution for the original word of "cursed" made by Bible copiers who could not bring themselves to record that someone might curse God. This was also done in Job 1:11, 2:5 and 2:9.

² Clearly this fire was brought down by Satan, not God, though Jehovah allowed him to do it. This will be repeated in Rev 13:13.

wine in their oldest brother's house,

Job 1:19 "and suddenly a great wind came from across the wilderness and struck the four corners of the house, and it fell on the young people, and they are dead; and I alone have escaped to tell you!"

Job 1:20 Then Job arose and tore his robe and shaved his head, and he fell to the ground and worshipped.

Job 1:21 And he said: "I came naked from my mother's womb, and I will return naked. Jehovah gave, and Jehovah has taken away; blessed be the name of Jehovah."

Job 1:22 In all this Job did not sin nor charge God with wrong.

Job 2:1 Again there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before Jehovah, and Satan came also among them to present himself before Jehovah.

Job 2:2 And Jehovah said to Satan, "Where do you come from?" So Satan answered Jehovah and said, "From going to and fro on the earth, and from walking back and forth on it."

Job 2:3 Then Jehovah said to Satan, "Have you considered My servant Job, that there is none like him on the earth, a blameless and upright man, one who fears God and shuns evil? And still he holds fast to his integrity, although you incited Me against him, to destroy him without cause."

Job 2:4 So Satan answered Jehovah and said, "Skin for skin! Yes, all that a man has he will give for his soul.

Job 2:5 "But stretch out Your hand now, and touch his bone and his flesh, and he will surely curse You to Your face!"

Job 2:6 So Jehovah said to Satan, "Behold, he is in your hand, but keep his soul alive."

Job 2:7 Then Satan went out from the presence of Jehovah, and struck Job with evil boils from the sole of his foot to the crown of his head.

Job 2:8 And he took for himself a potsherd with which to scrape himself while he sat in the midst of the ashes.

Job 2:9 Then his wife said to him, "Do you still hold to your integrity? Curse God and die!"

Job 2:10 But he said to her, "You speak as one of the foolish women speaks. Shall we indeed accept good from God, and will we not accept evil?" In all this Job did not sin with his lips.

Job 2:11 Now when Job's three friends heard of all this evil that had come upon him, each one came from his own place; Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite. For they had made an appointment together to come and mourn with him, and to comfort him.

Job 2:12 And when they raised their eyes from afar, and did not recognize him, they lifted their voices and wept; and each one tore his robe and sprinkled dust on his head toward heaven.

Job 2:13 So they sat down with him on the ground seven days and seven nights, and no one spoke a word to him, for they saw that his grief was very great.

Job 3:1 After this Job opened his mouth and cursed the day.

Job 3:2 And Job spoke, and said:

Job 3:3 "May the day perish on which I was begotten, and the night of which it was said, 'A male child was conceived.'

Job 3:4 May that day be darkness; may God above not seek it, nor the light shine upon it.

Job 3:5 May darkness and the shadow of death claim it; may a cloud settle on it; may the blackness of the day terrify it.

Job 3:6 As for that night, may darkness seize it; may it not be included among the days of the year, may it not come into the number of the months.

Job 3:7 Oh, may that night be barren! May no joyful shout come into it!

Job 3:8 May those curse it who curse the day, those who are ready to arouse Leviathan.

Job 3:9 May the stars of its twilight be darkened; may it look for light, but have none, and not see the dawning of the day;

Job 3:10 because it did not shut up the doors of my mother's womb, nor hide sorrow from my eyes.

Job 3:11 "Why did I not die at birth? Why did I not expire when I came from the womb?

Job 3:12 Why did the knees receive me? Or why the breasts, that I should suckle?

Job 3:13 For now I would have lain still and been quiet, I would have been asleep; then I would have been at rest

Job 3:14 with kings and counsellors of the earth, who built ruins for themselves,

Job 3:15 or with princes who had gold, who filled their houses with silver;

Job 3:16 or why was I not hidden like a stillborn infant, like children who never saw light?

Job 3:17 There the wicked cease from troubling, and there the weary are at rest.

Job 3:18 There the prisoners rest together; they do not hear the voice of the oppressor.

Job 3:19 The small and great are there, and the servant is free from his master.

Job 3:20 "Why is light given to him who is in misery, and life to the bitter of soul,

Job 3:21 who long for death, but it does not come, and search for it more than hidden treasures;

Job 3:22 who rejoice exceedingly, and are glad when they can find the grave?

Job 3:23 Why is light given to a man whose way is hidden, and whom God has hedged in?

Job 3:24 For my sighing comes before I eat, and my groanings pour out like water.

Job 3:25 For the thing I greatly feared has come upon me, and what I dreaded has happened to me.

Job 3:26 I am not at ease, nor am I quiet; I have no rest, for trouble comes."

Job 4:1 Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said:

Job 4:2 "If one attempts a word with you, will you become weary? But who can withhold himself from speaking?

Job 4:3 Surely you have instructed many, and you have strengthened weak hands.

Job 4:4 Your words have upheld him who was stumbling, and you have strengthened the feeble knees;

Job 4:5 but now it comes upon you, and you are weary; it touches you, and you are troubled.

Job 4:6 Is not your reverence your confidence? And the integrity of your ways your hope?

Job 4:7 "Remember now, who ever expired being innocent? Or where were the upright ever cut off?

Job 4:8 Even as I have seen, those who plough iniquity and sow trouble reap the same.

Job 4:9 By the breath of God they perish, and by the spirit of His anger they are consumed.

Job 4:10 The roaring of the lion, the voice of the fierce lion, and the teeth of the young lions are broken.

Job 4:11 The old lion perishes for lack of prey, and the cubs of the lioness are scattered.

Job 4:12 "Now a word was secretly brought to me, and my ear received a whisper of it.

Job 4:13 In disquieting thoughts from the visions of the night, when deep sleep falls on men,

Job 4:14 fear came upon me, and trembling, which made all my bones shake.

Job 4:15 Then a spirit passed before my face; the hair on my body stood up.

Job 4:16 It stood still, but I could not discern its appearance. A form was before my eyes; there was silence; then I heard a voice saying:

Job 4:17 'Can a mortal be more righteous than God? Can a man be more pure than his Maker?

Job 4:18 If He puts no trust in His servants, if He charges His envoys with error,

Job 4:19 how much more those who dwell in houses of clay, whose foundation is in the dust, who are crushed before a moth?

Job 4:20 They are broken in pieces from morning until evening; they perish forever, with no one regarding.

Job 4:21 Does not their own excellence go away? They die, even without wisdom.'

Job 5:1 "Call out now; is there anyone who will answer you? And to which of the sacred ones will you turn?

Job 5:2 For wrath kills a foolish man, and jealousy slays a simple one.¹

Job 5:3 I have seen the foolish taking root, and I marked his habitation straightaway.

Job 5:4 His sons are far from safety, they are crushed in the gate, and there is no deliverer,

Job 5:5 because the hungry eat up his harvest, taking it even from the thorns, and a snare snatches their substance.

Job 5:6 For affliction does not come from the dust, nor does trouble spring from the ground;

Job 5:7 yet man is born to trouble, just as the sparks fly upward.

Job 5:8 "But as for me, I would seek God, and to God I would commit my cause;

Job 5:9 who does great things, and unsearchable, marvellous things without number.

Job 5:10 He gives rain on the earth, and sends waters on the fields.

Job 5:11 He sets on high those who are lowly, and those who mourn are lifted to safety.

Job 5:12 He frustrates the devices of the crafty, so that their hands cannot carry out their plans.

Job 5:13 He catches the wise in their own craftiness,² and the counsel of the cunning comes quickly upon them.

Job 5:14 They meet with darkness in the daytime, and grope at noontime as in the night.

Job 5:15 But He saves the needy from the sword, from the mouth of the mighty, and from their hand.

Job 5:16 So the poor have hope, and injustice shuts her mouth.

Job 5:17 "Behold, happy is the man whom God corrects; therefore do not despise the chastening of the Almighty.³

Job 5:18 For He bruises, but He binds up; He wounds, but His hands make whole.

Job 5:19 He will deliver you in six troubles, yes, in seven no evil will touch you.

Job 5:20 In famine He will redeem you from death, and in war from the power of the sword.

Job 5:21 You will be hidden from the branch of the tongue, and you will not be afraid of destruction when it comes.

Job 5:22 You will laugh at destruction and famine, and you will not be afraid of the animals of the earth.

Job 5:23 For you will have a covenant with the stones of the field, and the wild animals will be at peace with you.

Job 5:24 You will know that your tent is in peace; you will visit your habitation and find nothing amiss.

Job 5:25 You will also know that your descendants will be many, and your offspring like the grass of the earth.

Job 5:26 You will come to the grave at a full age, as a sheaf of grain ripens in its season.

Job 5:27 Behold, we have searched this out; it is true. Hear it, and know for yourself."

Job 6:1 Then Job answered and said:

² 1Co 3:19

³ Heb 12:6-8

Job 6:2 “Oh, that my grief were fully weighed, and my calamity laid with it in the balances!

Job 6:3 For then it would be heavier than the sand of the sea; therefore my words have been rash.

Job 6:4 For the arrows of the Almighty are within me; my spirit drinks in their poison; the terrors of God are arrayed against me.

Job 6:5 Does the wild donkey bray when it has grass, or does the ox low over its fodder?

Job 6:6 Can flavourless food be eaten without salt? Or is there any taste in the juice of purslane?

Job 6:7 The things my soul refused to touch are as loathsome food to me.

Job 6:8 “Oh, that I might have my request, that God would grant me the thing that I long for!

Job 6:9 That it would please God to crush me, that He would loose his hand and cut me off!

Job 6:10 Then I would still have comfort; though in anguish, I would exult. Let Him not spare, for I have not concealed the words of the Sacred One.

Job 6:11 “What strength do I have, that I should hope? And what is my end, that I should prolong my soul?

Job 6:12 Is my strength the strength of stones? Or is my flesh bronze?

Job 6:13 Is my help not within me? And is success driven from me?

Job 6:14 “To him who is afflicted, kindness should be shown by his friend, even though he forsakes the fear of the Almighty.

Job 6:15 My brothers have dealt deceitfully like a brook, like the streams of the brooks that pass away,

Job 6:16 which are dark because of the ice, and into which the snow vanishes.

Job 6:17 When it is warm, they cease to flow; when it is hot, they vanish from their place.

Job 6:18 The paths of their way turn aside, they go nowhere and perish.

Job 6:19 The caravans of Tema look, the travellers of Sheba hope for them.

Job 6:20 They are disappointed because they were confident; they come there and are confused.

Job 6:21 For now you are nothing, you see terror and are afraid.

Job 6:22 Did I ever say, ‘Bring something to me’? or, ‘Offer a bribe for me from your wealth’?

Job 6:23 or, ‘Deliver me from the enemy’s hand’? or, ‘Redeem me from the hand of oppressors’?

Job 6:24 “Teach me, and I will hold my tongue; cause me to understand wherein I have erred.

Job 6:25 How forceful are right words! But what does your arguing prove?

Job 6:26 Do you intend to reprove my words, and the speeches of a desperate one, which are like wind?

Job 6:27 Yes, you overwhelm the fatherless, and you undermine your friend.

Job 6:28 Now therefore, be pleased to look at me; for I would never lie to your face.

Job 6:29 Turn now, let there be no injustice; yes, turn again, my righteousness still stands.

Job 6:30 Is there injustice on my tongue? Cannot my taste discern the unsavoury?

Job 7:1 “Is there not a time of hard service for man on earth? Are not his days also like the days of a hired servant?

Job 7:2 Like a servant who earnestly desires the shade, and like a hired servant who eagerly looks for his wages,

Job 7:3 so I have been allotted months of futility, and wearisome nights have been appointed to me.

Job 7:4 When I lie down, I say, ‘When will I arise, and yet the evening continues?’ For I have had my fill of tossing until twilight.

Job 7:5 My flesh is caked with worms and dust, my skin is cracked and breaks out afresh.

Job 7:6 “My days are swifter than a weaver’s shuttle, and are spent without hope.

Job 7:7 Oh, remember that my life is a breath! My eye will never again see good.

Job 7:8 The eye of him who sees me will see me no more; while your eyes are upon me, I will no longer be.

Job 7:9 As the cloud disappears and vanishes away, so he who goes down to Sheol rises no more.

Job 7:10 He will never return to his house, nor will his place know him anymore.

Job 7:11 “Therefore I will not restrain my mouth; I will speak in the anguish of my spirit; I will complain in the bitterness of my soul.

Job 7:12 Am I a sea, or a dragon, that You set a guard over me?

Job 7:13 When I say, ‘My bed will comfort me, my couch will ease my complaint,’

Job 7:14 then You scare me with dreams and terrify me with visions,

Job 7:15 so that my soul chooses strangling and death rather than my body.

Job 7:16 I loathe my life; I would not live forever. Let me alone, for my days are but a breath.

Job 7:17 “What is man, that You should magnify him, that You should set Your heart on him, Job 7:18 that You should visit him every morning, and test him every moment?

Job 7:19 How long? Will You not look away from me, and let me alone until I swallow my saliva?

Job 7:20 Have I sinned? What have I done to You, O watcher of men? Why have You set me as Your target, so that I am a burden to myself?

Job 7:21 Why then do You not pardon my transgression, and take away my iniquity? For now I will lie down in the dust, and

You will seek me diligently, but I will no longer be.”

Job 8:1 Then Bildad the Shuhite answered and said:

Job 8:2 “How long will you speak these things, and the words of your mouth be like strong wind?

Job 8:3 Does God subvert judgement? Or does the Almighty pervert justice?

Job 8:4 If your sons have sinned against Him, He has cast them away for their transgression.

Job 8:5 If you would earnestly seek God and make your supplication to the Almighty, Job 8:6 if you were pure and upright, surely now He would awake for you, and prosper your rightful habitation.

Job 8:7 Though your beginning was small, yet your latter end would increase abundantly.

Job 8:8 “For inquire, please, of the former age, and consider the things discovered by their fathers;

Job 8:9 for we are but of yesterday, and know nothing, because our days on earth are a shadow.

Job 8:10 Will they not teach you and tell you, and utter words from their heart?

Job 8:11 “Can the papyrus grow up without a marsh? Can the reeds flourish without water?

Job 8:12 While it is yet green and not cut down, it withers before any other plant.

Job 8:13 So are the paths of all who forget God; and the hope of the hypocrite will perish,

Job 8:14 whose confidence will be cut off, and whose trust is a spider’s web.

Job 8:15 He leans on his house, but it does not stand. He holds it fast, but it does not endure.

Job 8:16 He grows green in the sun, and his branches spread out in his garden.

Job 8:17 His roots wrap around the rock heap, and look for a place in the stones.

Job 8:18 If he is destroyed from his place, then it will deny him, saying, 'I have not seen you.'

Job 8:19 "Behold, this is the joy of His way, and out of the earth others will grow.

Job 8:20 Behold, God will not cast away the blameless, nor will He uphold the evildoers.

Job 8:21 He will yet fill your mouth with laughing, and your lips with shouting.

Job 8:22 Those who hate you will be clothed with shame, and the tent of the wicked will come to nothing."

Job 9:1 Then Job answered and said:

Job 9:2 "Truly I know it is so, but how can a man be righteous before God?

Job 9:3 If one wished to contend with Him, he could not answer Him one time out of a thousand.

Job 9:4 God is wise in heart and mighty in strength. Who has hardened himself against Him and prospered?

Job 9:5 He removes the mountains, and they do not know when He overturns them in His anger;

Job 9:6 He shakes the earth out of its place, and its pillars tremble;

Job 9:7 He commands the sun, and it does not rise; He seals off the stars;

Job 9:8 He alone spreads out the heavens, and treads on the high places of the sea;

Job 9:9 He made the Bear, Orion, and the Pleiades, and the chambers of the south;

Job 9:10 He does great things past finding out, yes, wonders without number.

Job 9:11 If He goes by me, I do not see Him; If He moves past, I do not perceive Him;

Job 9:12 If He takes away, who can hinder Him? Who can say to Him, 'What are You doing?'

Job 9:13 God will not withdraw His anger, the allies of the proud lie prostrate beneath Him.

Job 9:14 "How then can I answer Him, and choose my words to reason with Him?

Job 9:15 For though I were righteous, I could not answer Him; I would beg mercy of my Judge.

Job 9:16 If I called and He answered me, I would not believe that He was listening to my voice.

Job 9:17 For He crushes me with a tempest, and multiplies my wounds without cause.

Job 9:18 He will not allow me to catch my breath, but fills me with bitterness.

Job 9:19 If it is a matter of strength, indeed He is strong; and if of judgement, who will appoint my day in court?

Job 9:20 Though I were righteous, my own mouth would condemn me; though I were blameless, it would prove me perverse.

Job 9:21 "I am blameless, yet I do not know my soul; I despise my life.

Job 9:22 It is all one thing; therefore I say, 'He destroys the blameless and the wicked.'

Job 9:23 If His branch slays silently, He mocks at the senselessness of the innocent.

Job 9:24 He has given the earth into the hand of the wicked. He covers the faces of its judges. But who can endure His anger?

Job 9:25 "Now my days are swifter than a runner; they flee away, they see no good.

Job 9:26 They pass by like swift ships, like an eagle swooping on its prey.

Job 9:27 If I say, 'I will forget my complaint, I will put off my sad face and wear a smile,'

Job 9:28 I am afraid of all my sufferings; I know that You will not hold me innocent.

Job 9:29 If I am condemned, then why do I labour worthlessly?

Job 9:30 If I wash myself with snow water, and cleanse my hands with soap,

Job 9:31 yet You will immerse me in the pit, and my own clothes will abhor me.

Job 9:32 "For He is not a man, as I am, that I may answer Him, and that we should make judgements together.

Job 9:33 Nor is there any mediator between us, who may lay his hand on us both.

Job 9:34 Let Him take His branch away from me, and do not let dread of Him terrify me.

Job 9:35 Then I would speak and not fear Him, but it is not so with me.

Job 10:1 "My soul loathes life; I will give free course to my complaint, I will speak in the bitterness of my soul.

Job 10:2 I will say to God, 'Do not condemn me; show me why You contend with me.

Job 10:3 Does it seem good to You that You should oppress, that You should despise the work of Your hands, and shine on the counsel of the wicked?

Job 10:4 Do You have eyes of flesh? Or do You see as man sees?

Job 10:5 Are Your days like the days of a mortal man? Are Your years like the days of a mighty man,

Job 10:6 that You should seek for my iniquity and search out my sin,

Job 10:7 although You know that I am not wicked, and there is no one who can deliver from Your hand?

Job 10:8 'Your hands have made me and fashioned me, an intricate unity; yet You would destroy me.

Job 10:9 Remember, I pray, that You have made me like clay. And will You turn me into dust again?

Job 10:10 Did you not pour me out like milk, and curdle me like cheese,

Job 10:11 clothe me with skin and flesh, and knit me together with bones and sinews?

Job 10:12 You have granted me life and favour, and Your care has preserved my spirit.

Job 10:13 'And these things You have hidden in Your heart; I know that this was with You:

Job 10:14 If I sin, then You mark me, and will not acquit me of my iniquity.

Job 10:15 If I am wicked, woe to me; even if I am righteous, I cannot lift up my head. I am full of disgrace; see my misery!

Job 10:16 If my head is exalted, you hunt me like a fierce lion, and again You show Yourself awesome against me.

Job 10:17 You renew Your witnesses against me, and increase Your indignation toward me; changes and war are ever with me.

Job 10:18 'Why then have You brought me out of the womb? Oh, that I had expired and no eye had seen me!

Job 10:19 I would have been as though I had not been. I would have been carried from the womb to the grave.

Job 10:20 Are not my days few? Cease! Leave me alone, that I may take a little comfort,

Job 10:21 Before I go to the place from which I will not return, to the land of darkness and the shadow of death,

Job 10:22 a land as dark as darkness itself, as the shadow of death, without any order, where even the light is like darkness.'"

Job 11:1 Then Zophar the Naamathite answered and said:

Job 11:2 "Should not the multitude of words be answered? And should a man full of talk be vindicated?

Job 11:3 Should your empty talk make men hold their peace? And when you mock, should no one rebuke you?

Job 11:4 For you have said, 'My learning¹ is pure, and I am clean in your eyes.'

Job 11:5 But oh, that God would speak, and open His lips against you,

Job 11:6 that He would show you the secrets of wisdom! For they would double your prudence. Know therefore that God exacts from you less than your iniquity deserves.

Job 11:7 "Can you search out the deep things of God? Can you find out the limits of the Almighty?

¹ I.e. doctrine or knowledge

Job 11:8 They are higher than heaven; what can you do? Deeper than Sheol; what can you know?

Job 11:9 Their measure is longer than the earth and broader than the sea.

Job 11:10 "If He passes by, imprisons, and assembles for judgement, then who can hinder Him?

Job 11:11 For He knows deceitful men; He sees wickedness also. Will He not then consider it?

Job 11:12 For an empty-headed man will be wise when a wild donkey's colt is born a man.

Job 11:13 "If you would prepare your heart, and stretch out your hands toward Him;

Job 11:14 if iniquity were in your hand, and you put it far away, and would not let wickedness dwell in your tents;

Job 11:15 then surely you could lift up your face without spot; yes, you could be steadfast, and not fear;

Job 11:16 because you would forget your misery, and remember it as waters that have passed away,

Job 11:17 and your life would be brighter than noonday. Though you were dark, you would be like the morning.

Job 11:18 And you would be secure, because there is hope; yes, you would dig about you, and take your rest in safety.

Job 11:19 You would also lie down, and no one would make you afraid; yes, many would court your favour.

Job 11:20 But the eyes of the wicked will fail, and they will not escape, and their expectation is loss of soul!"

Job 12:1 Then Job answered and said:

Job 12:2 "No doubt you are the people, and wisdom will die with you!

Job 12:3 But I have understanding as well as you; I am not inferior to you. Indeed, who does not know such things as these?

Job 12:4 "I am one mocked by his friends, who called on God, and He answered him, the just and blameless who is laughed to scorn.

Job 12:5 A lamp is despised in the thought of one who is at ease; it is made ready for those whose feet slip.

Job 12:6 The tents of robbers prosper and those who provoke God are secure in what God provides by His hand.

Job 12:7 "But now ask the beasts, and they will teach you; and the flying creatures of the heaven, and they will tell you;

Job 12:8 or speak to the earth, and it will teach you; and the fish of the sea will explain to you.

Job 12:9 Who among all these does not know that the hand of Jehovah has done this,

Job 12:10 in whose hand is the soul of every animal, and the breath of all the flesh of man?

Job 12:11 Does not the ear test words and the mouth taste its food?

Job 12:12 Wisdom is with aged men, and with length of days, understanding.

Job 12:13 With Him are wisdom and strength, He has counsel and understanding.

Job 12:14 If He breaks a thing down, it cannot be rebuilt; if He imprisons a man, there can be no release.

Job 12:15 If He withholds the waters, they dry up; if He sends them out, they overwhelm the earth.

Job 12:16 With Him are strength and prudence. The deceived and the deceiver are His.

Job 12:17 He leads counsellors away plundered, and makes fools of the judges.

Job 12:18 He loosens the bonds of kings, and binds their waist with a belt.

Job 12:19 He leads princes away plundered, and overthrows the mighty.

Job 12:20 He deprives the trusted ones of speech, and takes away the discernment of the elders.

Job 12:21 He pours contempt on princes, and disarms the mighty.

Job 12:22 He uncovers deep things out of darkness, and brings the shadow of death to light.

Job 12:23 He makes nations great, and destroys them; He enlarges nations, and guides them.

Job 12:24 He takes away the understanding of the chiefs of the people of the earth, and makes them wander in a pathless wilderness.

Job 12:25 They grope in the dark without light, and He makes them wander like a drunken man.

Job 13:1 "Behold, my eye has seen all this, my ear has heard and understood it.

Job 13:2 What you know, I also know; I am not inferior to you.

Job 13:3 But I would speak to the Almighty, and I desire to reason with God.

Job 13:4 But you forgers of lies, you are all worthless physicians.

Job 13:5 Oh, that you would be silent, and it would be your wisdom!

Job 13:6 Now hear my reasoning, and heed the pleadings of my lips.

Job 13:7 Will you speak wickedly for God, and talk deceitfully for Him?

Job 13:8 Will you show favouritism for Him? Will you contend for God?

Job 13:9 Will it be well when He searches you out? Or can you mock Him as one mocks a man?

Job 13:10 He will surely reprove you if you secretly show favouritism.

Job 13:11 Will not His excellence make you afraid, and the dread of Him fall upon you?

Job 13:12 Your platitudes are proverbs of ashes, your defences are defences of clay.

Job 13:13 "Hold your peace with me, and let me speak, then let come on me what may!

Job 13:14 Why do I take my flesh in my teeth, and put my soul in my hands?

Job 13:15 Though He slays me, I will still trust Him. Even so, I will defend my own ways before Him.

Job 13:16 He also will be my salvation, for a hypocrite could not come before Him.

Job 13:17 Listen diligently to my speech, and to my declaration with your ears.

Job 13:18 See now, I have prepared my judgements, I know that I will be justified.

Job 13:19 Who is he who will contend with me? If now I hold my tongue, I expire.

Job 13:20 "Only two things do not do to me, then I will not hide myself from You:

Job 13:21 Withdraw Your hand far from me, and do not let the dread of You make me afraid.

Job 13:22 Then call, and I will answer; or let me speak, then You respond to me.

Job 13:23 How many are my iniquities and sins? Make me know my transgression and my sin.

Job 13:24 Why do You hide Your face, and regard me as Your enemy?

Job 13:25 Will You frighten a leaf driven to and fro? And will You pursue dry stubble?

Job 13:26 For You write bitter things against me, and make me inherit the iniquities of my youth.

Job 13:27 You put my feet in the stocks, and watch closely all my paths. You set a limit for the soles of my feet.

Job 13:28 "Man decays like a rotten thing, like a garment that is moth-eaten.

Job 14:1 "Man who is born of woman is of few days and full of trouble.

Job 14:2 He comes forth like a flower and fades away; He flees like a shadow and does not continue.

Job 14:3 And do You open Your eyes on such a one, and bring me to judgement with Yourself?

Job 14:4 Who can bring a clean thing out of an unclean? No one!

Job 14:5 Since his days are determined, the number of his new moons is with You; You have appointed his limits, so that he cannot pass.

Job 14:6 Look away from him that he may rest, until like a hired servant he finishes his day.

Job 14:7 “For there is hope for a tree, if it is cut down, that it will sprout again, and that its tender shoots will not cease.

Job 14:8 Though its root may grow old in the earth, and its stump may die in the ground,

Job 14:9 yet at the scent of water it will bud and bring forth branches like a plant.

Job 14:10 But man dies and is laid away; indeed he expires. And where is he?

Job 14:11 As water disappears from the sea, and a river shrinks and dries up, Job 14:12 so man lies down and does not rise. Until the heavens are no more, they will not awake nor be roused from their sleep.

Job 14:13 “Who will grant that You would hide me in Sheol, that You would conceal me until Your wrath turns back, that You would appoint a limit for me, and remember me!

Job 14:14 If a man dies, will he live again? All the days of my battles I will wait, until my change comes.

Job 14:15 You will call, and I will answer You; You will long for the work of Your hands.¹

Job 14:16 For now You number my steps, but do not watch over my sin.

Job 14:17 My transgression is sealed up in a bag, and You cover my iniquity.

Job 14:18 “But as a mountain falls and crumbles away, and as a rock is moved from its place;

Job 14:19 as water wears away stones, and as torrents wash away the soil of the earth; so You destroy the hope of man.

Job 14:20 You prevail forever against him, and he passes on; You change his countenance and send him away.

Job 14:21 His sons come to honour, and he does not know it; they are brought low, and he does not perceive it.

Job 14:22 But his flesh will be in pain over it, and his soul will mourn within.”

Job 15:1 Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said:

Job 15:2 “Should a wise man answer knowledge with wind, and fill his belly with the east wind?

Job 15:3 Should he reason with unprofitable talk, or by speeches with which he can do no good?

Job 15:4 Yes, you cast off fear, and restrain prayer before God.

Job 15:5 For your iniquity teaches your mouth, and you choose the tongue of the crafty.

Job 15:6 Your own mouth condemns you, and not I; yes, your own lips testify against you.

Job 15:7 “Are you the first man who was born? Or were you made before the hills?

Job 15:8 Have you heard the counsel of God? Do you limit wisdom to yourself?

Job 15:9 What do you know that we do not know? What do you understand that is not in us?

Job 15:10 Both the grey-haired and the aged are among us, much older than your father.

Job 15:11 Are the consolations of God too small for you, and the word spoken gently with you?

Job 15:12 Why does your heart carry you away, and what do your eyes wink at,

Job 15:13 that you turn your spirit against God, and let such words go out of your mouth?

Job 15:14 “What is man, that he could be pure? And he who is born of a woman, that he could be righteous?

Job 15:15 If God puts no trust in His sacred ones, and the heavens are not pure in His sight,

Job 15:16 how much less man, who is abominable and filthy, who drinks iniquity like water!

Job 15:17 “I will tell you, hear me; what I have seen I will declare,

Job 15:18 what wise men have told, not hiding anything received from their fathers,

Job 15:19 to whom alone the land was given, and no foreigner passed among them:

Job 15:20 the wicked man writhes with pain all his days, and the number of years is hidden from the oppressor.

Job 15:21 Dreadful sounds are in his ears; in prosperity the destroyer comes upon him.

Job 15:22 He does not believe that he will return from darkness, and he watches for the sword.

Job 15:23 He wanders about for bread, saying, 'Where is it?' He knows that a day of darkness is ready at his hand.

Job 15:24 Trouble and anguish make him afraid; they overpower him, like a king ready for battle.

Job 15:25 For he stretches out his hand against God, and acts defiantly against the Almighty, Job 15:26 running stubbornly against Him with his strong, embossed shield.

Job 15:27 "Though he has covered his face with his fatness, and made his waist heavy with fat,

Job 15:28 he dwells in desolate cities, in houses which no one inhabits, which are destined to become ruins.

Job 15:29 He will not be rich, nor will his wealth continue, nor will his possessions overspread the earth.

Job 15:30 He will not depart from darkness; the flame will dry out his branches, and by the breath of His mouth he will go away.

Job 15:31 Let him not trust in futile things, deceiving himself, for futility will be his reward.

Job 15:32 It will be accomplished before his time, and his branch will not be green.

Job 15:33 He will shake off his unripe grape like a vine, and cast off his blossom like an olive tree.

Job 15:34 For the congregation of hypocrites will be barren, and fire will consume the tents of bribery.

Job 15:35 They conceive trouble and bring forth futility; their womb prepares deceit."

Job 16:1 Then Job answered and said:

Job 16:2 "I have heard many such things; miserable comforters are you all!

Job 16:3 Shall words of wind have an end? Or what provokes you that you answer?

Job 16:4 I also could speak as you do, if your soul were in my soul's place. I could join up words against you, and shake my head at you;

Job 16:5 but I would strengthen you with my mouth, and the comfort of my lips would relieve your grief.

Job 16:6 "Though I speak, my grief is not relieved; and though I remain silent, how am I eased?

Job 16:7 But now he has worn me out; you have made all my company desolate.

Job 16:8 You have shrivelled me up, and it is a witness against me; my leanness rises up against me and bears witness to my face.

Job 16:9 He tears me in his wrath, and hates me; he gnashes at me with his teeth; my adversary sharpens his gaze on me.

Job 16:10 They gape at me with their mouth, they strike me reproachfully on the cheek, they gather together against me.

Job 16:11 God has delivered me to the ungodly, and turned me over to the hands of the wicked.

Job 16:12 I was at ease, but He has shattered me; He also has taken me by my neck, and shaken me to pieces; He has set me up for His target, Job 16:13 His archers surround me. He pierces my heart and does not pity; He pours out my gall on the ground.

Job 16:14 He breaks me with wound upon wound; He runs at me like a mighty man.

Job 16:15 I have sewn sackcloth over my skin, and laid my head in the dust.

Job 16:16 My face is flushed from weeping, and on my eyelids is the shadow of death;

Job 16:17 although no violence is in my hands, and my prayer is pure.

Job 16:18 "O earth, do not cover my blood, and let my cry have no resting place!

Job 16:19 Surely even now my witness is in heaven, and my evidence is on high.

Job 16:20 My friends scorn me; my eyes pour out tears to God.

Job 16:21 Oh, that one might plead for a man with God, as a man pleads for his neighbour!

Job 16:22 For when a few years are finished, I will go the way of no return.

Job 17:1 "My spirit is broken, my days are extinguished, the grave is ready for me.

Job 17:2 Are not mockers with me? And does not my eye dwell on their provocation?

Job 17:3 "Now put down a pledge for me with Yourself. Who is he who will shake hands with me?

Job 17:4 For You have hidden their heart from understanding; therefore You will not exalt them.

Job 17:5 He who speaks flattery to his friends, even the eyes of his children will fail.

Job 17:6 "But He has made me a byword of the people, and I have become one in whose face men spit.

Job 17:7 My eye has also grown dim because of sorrow, and all my members are like shadows.

Job 17:8 Upright men are astonished at this, and the innocent stirs himself up against the hypocrite.

Job 17:9 Yet the righteous will hold to his way, and he who has clean hands will be stronger and stronger.

Job 17:10 "But please, come back again, all of you, for I will not find one wise man among you.

Job 17:11 My days are past, my purposes are broken off, even the thoughts of my heart.

Job 17:12 They change the night into day; 'The light is near,' they say, in the face of darkness.

Job 17:13 If I wait for Sheol as my house, if I make my bed in the darkness,

Job 17:14 if I say to the Pit, 'You are my father,' and to the worm, 'You are my mother and my sister,'

Job 17:15 where then is my hope? As for my hope, who can see it?

Job 17:16 Will they go down to the gates of Sheol? Shall we have rest together in the dust?"

Job 18:1 Then Bildad the Shuhite answered and said:

Job 18:2 "How long until you put an end to words? Gain understanding, and afterwards we will speak.

Job 18:3 Why are we counted as beasts, and regarded as unclean in your sight?

Job 18:4 You who tear your soul in anger, will the earth be forsaken for you? Or will the rock be removed from its place?

Job 18:5 "The light of the wicked indeed goes out, and the flame of his fire does not shine.

Job 18:6 The light is dark in his tent, and his lamp beside him is put out.

Job 18:7 The steps of his strength are shortened, and his own counsel casts him down.

Job 18:8 For he is cast into a net by his own feet, and he walks into a snare.

Job 18:9 The net takes him by the heel, and a snare lays hold of him.

Job 18:10 A noose is hidden for him on the ground, and a trap for him in the road.

Job 18:11 Terrors frighten him on every side, and drive him to his feet.

Job 18:12 His strength is starved, and calamity is ready at his side.

Job 18:13 It devours patches of his skin; the firstborn of death devours his limbs.

Job 18:14 He is uprooted from the shelter of his tent, and they parade him before the king of terrors.

Job 18:15 They dwell in his tent who are none of his; brimstone is scattered on his habitation.

Job 18:16 His roots are dried out below, and his branch withers above.

Job 18:17 The memory of him perishes from the earth, and he has no name among the renowned.

Job 18:18 He is driven from light into darkness, and chased out of the world.

Job 18:19 He has neither son nor posterity among his people, nor any remaining in his dwellings.

Job 18:20 Those in the west are astonished at his day, as those in the east are frightened.

Job 18:21 Surely such are the booths of the wicked, and this is the place of him who does not know God."

Job 19:1 Then Job answered and said:

Job 19:2 "How long will you torment my soul, and crush me with words?

Job 19:3 These ten times you have reproached me; you are not ashamed that you have wronged me.

Job 19:4 And if indeed I have erred, my error remains with me.

Job 19:5 If indeed you magnify yourselves against me, and plead my disgrace against me,

Job 19:6 know then that God has wronged me, and has surrounded me with His net.

Job 19:7 "If I cry out concerning wrong, I am not heard. If I cry aloud, there is no judgement.

Job 19:8 He has fenced up my way, so that I cannot pass; and He has set darkness in my paths.

Job 19:9 He has stripped me of my glory, and taken the crown from my head.

Job 19:10 He breaks me down on every side, and I am gone; my hope He has uprooted like a tree.

Job 19:11 He has also kindled His wrath against me, and He counts me as one of His enemies.

Job 19:12 His troops come together and build up their road against me; they encamp all around my tent.

Job 19:13 "He has removed my brothers far from me, and my acquaintances are completely estranged from me.

Job 19:14 my relatives have failed, and my close friends have forgotten me.

Job 19:15 Those who dwell in my house, and my maidservants, count me as a stranger; I am a foreigner in their sight.

Job 19:16 I call my servant, but he gives no answer; I beg him with my mouth.

Job 19:17 My breath is offensive to my wife, and I am repulsive to the children of my own body.

Job 19:18 Even young children despise me; I arise, and they speak against me.

Job 19:19 All my male councillors abhor me, and those whom I love have turned against me.

Job 19:20 My bone clings to my skin and to my flesh, and I have escaped by the skin of my teeth.

Job 19:21 "Have pity on me, have pity on me, O you my friends, for the hand of God has struck me!

Job 19:22 Why do you persecute me as God does, and are not satisfied with my flesh?

Job 19:23 "Oh, that my words were written! Oh, that they were inscribed in a book!

Job 19:24 that they were engraved on a rock with an iron pen and lead, forever!

Job 19:25 For I know that my Redeemer lives, and at last He will rise on the earth;

Job 19:26 even after they destroy my skin, yet this remains,—in my flesh I will see God,

Job 19:27 whom I will see for myself, and my eyes will behold, and not another.

How my heart yearns within me!¹

Job 19:28 If you should say, 'How will we persecute him?', since the root of the matter is found in me,

Job 19:29 be afraid of the sword for yourselves; for fury is the iniquity of the sword, that you may know there is a judgement."

Job 20:1 Then Zophar the Naamathite answered and said:

Job 20:2 "Therefore my anxious thoughts make me answer, because of the eager haste within me.

Job 20:3 I have heard the reproof that reproaches me, and the spirit of my understanding causes me to answer.

Job 20:4 "Do you not know this of old, since man was placed on earth,

Job 20:5 that the triumphing of the wicked is short, and the joy of the hypocrite is but for a moment?

Job 20:6 Though his haughtiness mounts up to the heavens, and his head reaches to the clouds,

Job 20:7 yet he will perish forever like his own refuse; those who have seen him will say, 'Where is he?'

Job 20:8 He will fly away like a dream, and not be found. Yes, he will be chased away like a vision of the night.

Job 20:9 The eye that saw him will see him no more, nor will his place behold him anymore.

Job 20:10 His children will seek the favour of the poor, and his hands will return his wealth.

Job 20:11 His bones are full of his youthful vigour, but they will lie down with him in the dust.

Job 20:12 "Though evil is sweet in his mouth, and he hides it under his tongue,

Job 20:13 though he spares it and does not forsake it, but still keeps it in his mouth,

Job 20:14 yet his food in his stomach turns sour; it becomes cobra venom within him.

Job 20:15 He swallows down riches and vomits them up again; God casts them out of his belly.

Job 20:16 He will suck the poison of cobras; the viper's tongue will slay him.

Job 20:17 He will not see the streams, the rivers flowing with honey and cream.

Job 20:18 He will restore that for which he laboured, and will not swallow it down; from the proceeds of his business he will get no enjoyment,

Job 20:19 for he has oppressed and forsaken the poor, he has violently seized a house which he did not build.

Job 20:20 "Because he knows no quietness in his heart, he will not save anything he desires.

Job 20:21 Nothing is left for him to eat; therefore his well-being will not last.

Job 20:22 In his self-sufficiency he will be in distress; every hand of misery will come against him.

Job 20:23 When he is about to fill his stomach, God will cast on him the fury of His wrath, and will rain it on him while he is eating.

Job 20:24 He will flee from the iron weapon; a bronze bow will pierce him through.

Job 20:25 It is drawn, and comes out of the body; yes, the glittering point comes out of his gall. Terrors come upon him,

Job 20:26 total darkness is reserved for his treasures. An unfanned fire will consume him; it will go ill with him who is left in his tent.

Job 20:27 The heavens will reveal his iniquity, and the earth will rise up against him.

Job 20:28 The increase of his house will depart, and his goods will flow away in the day of His wrath.

Job 20:29 This is the portion from God for a wicked man, the heritage appointed to him by God."

Job 21:1 Then Job answered and said:

Job 21:2 “Listen carefully to my speech, and let this be your consolation.

Job 21:3 Bear with me that I may speak, and after I have spoken, keep mocking.

Job 21:4 “As for me, is my complaint against man? And if it were, why should I not be impatient?

Job 21:5 Look at me and be astonished; put your hand over your mouth.

Job 21:6 Even when I remember I am terrified, and trembling takes hold of my flesh.

Job 21:7 Why do the wicked live and become old, yes, become mighty in power?

Job 21:8 Their descendants are established with them in their sight, and their offspring before their eyes.

Job 21:9 Their houses are safe from fear, neither is the branch of God upon them.

Job 21:10 Their bull breeds without failure; their cow calves without miscarriage.

Job 21:11 They send forth their little ones like a flock, and their children dance.

Job 21:12 They sing to the tambourine and harp, and rejoice to the sound of the flute.

Job 21:13 They spend their days in wealth, and in a moment go down to Sheol.

Job 21:14 Yet they say to God, ‘Depart from us, for we do not desire the knowledge of Your ways.

Job 21:15 Who is the Almighty, that we should serve Him? And what profit do we have if we pray to Him?’

Job 21:16 Indeed their prosperity is not in their hand; the counsel of the wicked is far from me.

Job 21:17 “How often is the lamp of the wicked put out? How often does their calamity come upon them, the sorrows God distributes in His anger?

Job 21:18 They are like straw before the wind, and like chaff that a storm carries away.

Job 21:19 They say, ‘God lays up one’s iniquity for his children’; let Him recompense him, that he may know it.¹

Job 21:20 Let his eyes see his destruction, and let him drink of the wrath of the Almighty.

Job 21:21 For what does he care about his household after him, when the number of his new moons is cut in half?

Job 21:22 “Can anyone teach God knowledge, since He judges those who are on high?

Job 21:23 One dies in his full strength, being wholly at ease and secure;

Job 21:24 His pails are full of milk, and the marrow of his bones is moist.

Job 21:25 Another man dies in the bitterness of his soul, never having eaten with pleasure.

Job 21:26 They lie down alike in the dust, and worms cover them.

Job 21:27 “Look, I know your thoughts, and the schemes with which you would wrong me.

Job 21:28 For you say, ‘Where is the house of the prince? And where is the booth, the tent of the wicked?’

Job 21:29 Have you not asked those who travel the road? And do you not know their signs?

Job 21:30 For the evil are reserved for the day of calamity; they will be brought out on the day of wrath.

Job 21:31 Who condemns his way to his face? And who repays him for what he has done?

Job 21:32 Yet he will be brought to the grave, and a watch kept over the mound.

Job 21:33 The clods of the valley will be sweet to him; everyone will follow him, as countless have gone before him.

Job 21:34 How then can you comfort me with empty words, since falsehood remains in your answers?”

Job 22:1 Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said:

¹ God does not do this: Jer 31:30, Eze 18:17.

Job 22:2 “Can a man be profitable to God, though he who is wise may be profitable to himself?

Job 22:3 Is it any pleasure to the Almighty that you are righteous? Or is it gain to Him that you make your ways blameless?

Job 22:4 “Is it because of your fear of Him that He reproves you, and enters into judgement with you?

Job 22:5 Is not your evil great, and your iniquity without end?

Job 22:6 For you have taken pledges from your brother for no reason, and stripped the naked of their clothing.

Job 22:7 You have not given the weary water to drink, and you have withheld bread from the hungry.

Job 22:8 But the mighty man possessed the land, and the honourable man dwelt in it.

Job 22:9 You have sent widows away empty, and the strength of the fatherless was crushed.

Job 22:10 Therefore snares are all around you, and sudden fear troubles you,

Job 22:11 or darkness so that you cannot see; and an abundance of water covers you.

Job 22:12 “Is not God in the height of heaven? And see the highest stars, how lofty they are!

Job 22:13 And you say, ‘What does God know? Can He judge through the deep darkness?

Job 22:14 Thick clouds cover Him, so that He cannot see, and He walks above the curve of heaven.’

Job 22:15 Will you keep to the old way which wicked men have trod,

Job 22:16 who were cut down before their time, whose foundations were swept away by rivers?¹

Job 22:17 They said to God, ‘Depart from us!’ What can the Almighty do to them?

Job 22:18 Yet He filled their houses with good things; but the counsel of the wicked is far from me.

Job 22:19 “The righteous see it and are glad, and the innocent laugh them to scorn:

Job 22:20 ‘Surely our adversaries are cut down, and the fire consumes their remnant.’

Job 22:21 “Now acquaint yourself with Him, and be at peace; thereby good will come to you.

Job 22:22 Now receive the Instructions from His mouth, and lay up His words in your heart.

Job 22:23 If you return to the Almighty, you will be built up; you will remove iniquity far from your tents.

Job 22:24 Then you will lay your defences in the dust, and their ashes among the stones of the brooks.

Job 22:25 Yes, the Almighty will be your gold and your precious silver;

Job 22:26 for then you will have your delight in the Almighty, and lift up your face to God.

Job 22:27 You will make your prayer to Him, He will hear you, and you will pay your vows.

Job 22:28 You will also declare a thing, and it will be established for you; so light will shine on your ways.

Job 22:29 When they cast you down, and you say, ‘Exaltation will come!’, then He will save the humble person.

Job 22:30 He will even deliver one who is not innocent; yes, he will be delivered by the purity of your hands.”

Job 23:1 Then Job answered and said:

Job 23:2 “Even today my complaint is bitter; my hand is listless because of my groaning.

Job 23:3 Oh, that I knew where I might find Him, that I might come to His seat!

Job 23:4 I would present my judgement before Him, and fill my mouth with arguments.

Job 23:5 I would know the words which

¹ Mat 7:26-27

He would answer me, and understand what He would say to me.

Job 23:6 Would He contend with me in His great power? No! But He would take note of me.

Job 23:7 There the upright could reason with Him, and I would be delivered forever from my Judge.

Job 23:8 "Look, I go forward, but He is not there, and backward, but I cannot perceive Him;

Job 23:9 when He works on the left hand, I cannot behold Him; when He turns to the right hand, I cannot see Him.

Job 23:10 But He knows the way that I take; when He has tested me, I will come forth as gold.

Job 23:11 My foot has held fast to His steps; I have kept His way and not turned aside.

Job 23:12 I have not departed from the commandment of His lips; I have treasured the words of His mouth more than my necessary food.¹

Job 23:13 "But He is unique, and who can make Him change? And whatever His soul desires, that He does.

Job 23:14 For He performs what is appointed for me, and many such things are with Him.

Job 23:15 Therefore I am terrified at His presence; when I consider this, I am afraid of Him.

Job 23:16 For God made my heart weak, and the Almighty terrifies me;

Job 23:17 because I was not cut off from the presence of darkness, and He did not hide deep darkness from my face.

Job 24:1 "Since times are not hidden from the Almighty, why do those who know Him not see His days?

Job 24:2 "Some remove landmarks; they seize flocks violently and feed on them;

Job 24:3 they drive away the donkey of the fatherless; they take the widow's ox as a pledge.

Job 24:4 They push the needy off the road, so that the poor of the land are forced to hide.

Job 24:5 Indeed, like wild donkeys in the wilderness, they go out to their work, seeking diligently for food. The desert plain yields food for them and for their children.

Job 24:6 They gather their fodder in the field and glean in the vineyard of the wicked.

Job 24:7 They spend the night naked, without clothing, and have no covering in the cold.

Job 24:8 They are wet with the showers of the mountains, and huddle around the rock for want of shelter.

Job 24:9 "Some snatch the fatherless from the breast, and take a pledge from the poor.

Job 24:10 They cause the poor to go naked, without clothing; and they take away the sheaves from the hungry.

Job 24:11 They press out oil within their walls, and tread winepresses, yet suffer thirst.

Job 24:12 The dying groan in the city, and the souls of the wounded cry out; yet God does not charge them with wrong.

Job 24:13 "There are those who rebel against the light; they do not know its ways nor abide in its paths.

Job 24:14 The murderer rises with the light; he kills the poor and needy; and in the night he is like a thief.

Job 24:15 The eye of the adulterer waits for the twilight, saying, 'No eye will see me'; and he disguises his face.

Job 24:16 In the dark they break into houses which they marked for themselves in the daytime; they do not know the light.

Job 24:17 For the morning is the same to them as the shadow of death; if someone recognizes them, they are in the terrors of the shadow of death.

Job 24:18 "They should be swift on the face of the waters, their portion should be cursed in the earth, so that no one would turn into the way of their vineyards.

Job 24:19 As drought and heat consume the snow waters, so does Sheol those who have sinned.

Job 24:20 The womb should forget him, the worm should feed sweetly on him; he should be remembered no more, and wickedness should be broken like a tree.

Job 24:21 For he preys on the barren who do not bear, and does no good for the widow.

Job 24:22 “But God draws the mighty away with His power; He rises up, but no man is sure of life.

Job 24:23 He gives them security, and they rely on it; yet His eyes are on their ways.

Job 24:24 They are exalted for a little while, then they are gone. They are brought low; they are taken out of the way like all others; they dry out like the heads of grain.

Job 24:25 “Now if it is not so, who will prove me a liar, and make my speech worth nothing?”

Job 25:1 Then Bildad the Shuhite answered and said:

Job 25:2 “Dominion and fear belong to Him; He makes peace in His high places.

Job 25:3 Is there any number to His armies? Upon whom does His light not rise?

Job 25:4 How then can man be righteous before God? Or how can he be pure who is born of a woman?

Job 25:5 If even the moon does not shine, and the stars are not pure in His sight,

Job 25:6 how much less man, who is a maggot, and a son of man, who is a worm?”

Job 26:1 But Job answered and said:

Job 26:2 “How have you helped him who is without power? How have you saved the arm that has no strength?

Job 26:3 How have you counselled one who has no wisdom? And how have you declared sound advice to many?

Job 26:4 To whom have you uttered words? And whose breath came from you?

Job 26:5 “The deceased tremble, those under the waters and those inhabiting them.

Job 26:6 Sheol is naked before Him, and destruction has no covering.

Job 26:7 He stretches out Zaphon¹ over emptiness; he hangs the Earth on nothing.

Job 26:8 He binds up the water in His thick clouds, yet the clouds are not split under it.

Job 26:9 He covers the face of His full moon, and spreads His cloud over it.

Job 26:10 He has put curves over the waters and the boundary of light and darkness.

Job 26:11 The pillars of heaven tremble, and are astonished at His reproof.

Job 26:12 He stirs up the sea with His power, and by His understanding He breaks up the storm.

Job 26:13 By His Spirit He adorned the heavens; His hand pierced the fleeing serpent.

Job 26:14 Indeed, these are the mere edges of His ways, and how small a whisper we hear of Him! But who can understand the thunder of His power?”

Job 27:1 Moreover, Job continued his discourse and said:

Job 27:2 “As God lives, who has taken away my judgement, and the Almighty, who has made my soul bitter,

Job 27:3 as long as my breath is in me, and the spirit of God in my nostrils,

Job 27:4 my lips will not speak wickedness, nor my tongue utter deceit.

Job 27:5 Far be it from me that I should say you are right; until I expire I will not put away my integrity from me.

Job 27:6 My righteousness I hold fast, and will not let it go; my heart will not reproach me as long as I live.

Job 27:7 “May my enemy be like the wicked, and he who rises up against me like the unrighteous.

Job 27:8 For what is the hope of the hypocrite, though he may gain much, if God takes away his life?

Job 27:9 Will God hear his cry when trouble comes upon him?

Job 27:10 Will he delight himself in the Almighty? Will he always call on God?

Job 27:11 “I will teach you about the hand of God; what is with the Almighty I will not conceal.

Job 27:12 Surely all of you have seen it; why then do you behave with complete nonsense?

Job 27:13 “This is the portion of a wicked man with God, and the heritage of oppressors, received from the Almighty:

Job 27:14 If his children are multiplied, it is for the sword; and his offspring will not be satisfied with bread.

Job 27:15 Those who survive him will be buried at death, and their widows will not weep,

Job 27:16 though he heaps up silver like dust, and piles up clothing like clay;

Job 27:17 he may pile it up, but the just will wear it, and the innocent will divide the silver.

Job 27:18 He builds his house like a moth, like a booth which a watchman makes.

Job 27:19 The rich man will lie down, but not be gathered up; he opens his eyes, and he is no more.

Job 27:20 Terrors overtake him like a flood; a tempest steals him away in the night.

Job 27:21 The east wind carries him away, and he is gone; it sweeps him out of his place.

Job 27:22 It hurls against him and does not spare; he flees desperately from its power.

Job 27:23 Men will clap their hands at him, and will hiss him out of his place.

Job 28:1 “Surely there is a mine for silver, and a place where gold is refined.

Job 28:2 Iron is taken from the earth, and copper is smelted from ore.

Job 28:3 Man puts an end to darkness, and searches every recess for ore in the darkness and the shadow of death.

Job 28:4 He opens a torrent far from the sojourners; in places forgotten by feet they hang far away from men; they swing to and fro.

Job 28:5 As for the earth, from it comes bread, but underneath it is turned up as by fire;

Job 28:6 its stones are the source of sapphires, and it contains gold dust.

Job 28:7 That path no bird of prey knows, nor has the falcon’s eye seen it.

Job 28:8 The proud lions have not trodden it, nor has the fierce lion passed over it.

Job 28:9 He puts his hand on the flint; he overturns the mountains at the roots.

Job 28:10 He splits channels in the rocks, and his eye sees every precious thing.

Job 28:11 He dams up the streams from trickling; what is hidden he brings forth to light.

Job 28:12 “But where can wisdom be found? And where is the place of understanding?

Job 28:13 Man does not know its value, nor is it found in the land of the living.

Job 28:14 The deep says, ‘It is not in me’; and the sea says, ‘It is not with me.’

Job 28:15 It cannot be purchased with valuables, nor can silver be weighed for its price.

Job 28:16 It cannot be valued in the refined gold of Ophir, in precious onyx or sapphire.

Job 28:17 Neither gold nor crystal can equal it, nor can it be exchanged for jewellery of fine gold.

Job 28:18 No mention will be made of coral or quartz, for the price of wisdom is above rubies.

Job 28:19 The topaz of Cush cannot equal it, nor can it be valued in pure refined gold.

Job 28:20 "From where then does wisdom come? And where is the place of understanding?

Job 28:21 It is hidden from the eyes of all living, and concealed from the flying creatures of the heaven.

Job 28:22 Destruction and Death say, 'We have heard a report about it with our ears.'

Job 28:23 God understands its way, and He knows its place.

Job 28:24 For He looks to the ends of the earth, and sees under the whole heavens,

Job 28:25 to establish a weight for the wind, and mete out the waters by measure.

Job 28:26 When He made a law for the rain, and a path for the thunderbolt, Job 28:27 then He saw wisdom and declared it; He prepared it, indeed, He searched it out.

Job 28:28 And to man He said, 'Behold, the fear of Jehovah, that is wisdom, and to depart from evil is understanding.'"

Job 29:1 Job further continued his discourse, and said:

Job 29:2 "Oh, that I were as in months past, as in the days when God watched over me;

Job 29:3 when His lamp shone upon my head, and when by His light I walked through darkness;

Job 29:4 just as I was in the days of my prime, when the friendly counsel of God was over my tent;

Job 29:5 when the Almighty was yet with me, when my children were around me;

Job 29:6 when my steps were bathed with cream, and the rock poured out rivers of oil for me!

Job 29:7 "When I went out to the gate by the city, when I took my seat in the open square,

Job 29:8 the young men saw me and hid, and the aged arose and stood;

Job 29:9 the princes refrained from talking, and put their hand on their mouth; Job 29:10 the voice of nobles was hushed, and their tongue stuck to the roof of their mouth.

Job 29:11 When the ear heard, then it blessed me, and when the eye saw, then it approved me;

Job 29:12 because I delivered the poor who cried out, and the fatherless and he who had no helper.

Job 29:13 The blessing of a perishing man came upon me, and I caused the widow's heart to sing for joy.

Job 29:14 I put on righteousness, and it clothed me; my judgement was like a robe and a turban.

Job 29:15 I was eyes to the blind, and I was feet to the lame.

Job 29:16 I was a father to the poor, and I searched out the case that I did not know.

Job 29:17 I broke the fangs of the wicked, and plucked the victim from his teeth.

Job 29:18 "Then I said, 'I will expire in my nest, and multiply my days as the sand.

Job 29:19 My root is spread out to the waters, and the dew lies all night on my branch.

Job 29:20 My glory is fresh within me, and my bow is renewed in my hand.'

Job 29:21 "Men listened to me and waited, and kept silence for my counsel.

Job 29:22 After my words they did not speak again, and my speech settled on them as dew.

Job 29:23 They waited for me as for the rain, and they opened their mouth wide as for the spring rain.

Job 29:24 If I mocked at them, they did not believe it, and the light of my countenance they did not cast down.

Job 29:25 I chose the way for them, and sat as chief; so I dwelt as a king in the army, as one who comforts mourners.

Job 30:1 "But now, behold! They laugh at me, men inferior to me.

Job 30:2 In those days I despised their fathers, and valued them less than the dogs of my flocks.

Job 30:3 And the strength of their hands; why did it go to me?

Job 30:4 For all of their strength was lost to them.

Job 30:5 And He will seek for them forcefully, like a thief with the strength of a torrent,

Job 30:6 dwelling in caves full of dust and stones,

Job 30:7 and under cliffs and under thorn bushes.

Job 30:8 The children of fools will be overthrown with the children of evil men; they will be separated from the land.

Job 30:9 "And now I am their meditation, and I am a horror to them.

Job 30:10 They despise me and keep far from me; they are not restrained from spitting in my face.

Job 30:11 Because they started after me and humiliated me, and they put a bridle in my mouth.

Job 30:12 At my right hand the youths stood up, and they tripped up my feet, and they cast against me the path of their calamity.

Job 30:13 And they tangle up my steps for no reason, and they rejoice at whatever happens to me; but they will not have a helper.

Job 30:14 They come as broad breakers; under the ruinous storm they roll along.

Job 30:15 Terrors are turned upon me; they pursue my honour as the wind, and my prosperity has passed like a cloud.

Job 30:16 "And now my soul is poured out because of my plight; the days of affliction take hold of me.

Job 30:17 My bones are pierced in me at night, and my gnawing pains take no rest.

Job 30:18 By great force my garment is disfigured; it binds me about as the mouth of my coat.

Job 30:19 He has cast me into the mire, and I have become like dust and ashes.

Job 30:20 "I cry out to You, but You do not answer me; I stand up, and You regard me, Job 30:21 but You have become cruel to me; with the strength of Your hand You oppose me.

Job 30:22 You lift me up to the wind and cause me to ride on it; You cause my place of wisdom to melt away.

Job 30:23 For I know that You will bring me to death, and to the house appointed for all living.

Job 30:24 "Surely He would not stretch out His hand against a heap of ruins, if they cry out when He destroys it.

Job 30:25 Have I not wept for him who was in trouble? Has not my soul grieved for the poor?

Job 30:26 But when I looked for good, evil came to me; and when I waited for light, then came darkness.

Job 30:27 My heart is in turmoil and cannot rest; days of affliction confront me.

Job 30:28 I go about mourning, but not in the sun; I stand up in the congregation and cry out for help.

Job 30:29 I am a brother of dragons, and a companion of ostriches.

Job 30:30 My skin grows black and falls from me; my bones burn with fever.

Job 30:31 My harp is turned to mourning, and my flute to the voice of those who weep.

Job 31:1 "I have made a covenant with my eyes; why then should I look upon a virgin?

Job 31:2 For what is the allotment of God from above, and the inheritance of the Almighty from on high?

Job 31:3 Is it not calamity for the wicked, and disaster for the workers of iniquity?

Job 31:4 Does He not see my ways, and count all my steps?

Job 31:5 "If I have walked with falsehood, or if my foot has hastened to deceit,

Job 31:6 Let me be weighed in a just balance, that God may know my integrity.

Job 31:7 If my step has turned from the way, or my heart walked after my eyes, or if any spot adheres to my hands,

Job 31:8 Then let me sow, and another eat; yes, let my harvest be rooted out.

Job 31:9 "If my heart has been enticed by a woman, or if I have lurked at my neighbour's door,

Job 31:10 Then let my wife grind for another, and let others bow down over her.

Job 31:11 For that would be wickedness; yes, it would be iniquity worthy of judgement.

Job 31:12 For that would be a fire that consumes to destruction, and would root out all my increase.

Job 31:13 "If I have despised the judgement of my manservant or my maidservant when they complained against me,

Job 31:14 what then will I do when God rises up? When He punishes, how will I answer Him?

Job 31:15 Did not He who made me in the womb make them? Did not the same One fashion us in the womb?

Job 31:16 "If I have kept the poor from their desire, or caused the eyes of the widow to fail,

Job 31:17 or eaten my morsel by myself, so that the fatherless may not eat of it,

Job 31:18 though from my youth I reared him as a father, and from my mother's womb I guided the widow;

Job 31:19 if I have seen anyone perish for lack of clothing, or any poor man without covering;

Job 31:20 if his heart has not blessed me, and if he was not warmed with the fleece of my sheep;

Job 31:21 if I have raised my hand against the fatherless, when I saw I had help in the gate;

Job 31:22 then let my arm fall from my shoulder, let my arm be torn from the socket.

Job 31:23 For calamity from God is a terror to me, and because of His magnificence I could not endure.

Job 31:24 "If I have made gold my hope, or said to fine gold, 'You are my confidence';

Job 31:25 If I have rejoiced because my wealth was great, and because my hand had gained much;

Job 31:26 If I have observed the sun when it shines, or the moon moving in brightness,

Job 31:27 so that my heart has been secretly enticed, and my mouth has kissed my hand;

Job 31:28 this also would be an iniquity worthy of judgement, for I would have denied God who is above.

Job 31:29 "If I have rejoiced at the destruction of him who hated me, or lifted myself up when evil found him,

Job 31:30 indeed I have not allowed my mouth to sin by asking for a curse on his soul;

Job 31:31 if the men of my tent have not said, 'Who is there that has not been satisfied with his meat?'

Job 31:32 And no immigrant had to lodge in the street, for I have opened my doors to the traveller.

Job 31:33 If I have covered my transgressions as Adam, by hiding my iniquity in my bosom, Job 31:34 because I feared the great multitude, and dreaded the contempt of families, so that I kept silence and did not go out of the door.

Job 31:35 Oh, that I had one to hear me! Here is my mark. Oh, that the Almighty would answer me, that my Prosecutor had written a book!

Job 31:36 Surely I would carry it on my shoulder, and bind it on me like a crown;

Job 31:37 I would declare to Him the number of my steps; like a prince I would approach Him.

Job 31:38 "If my land cries out against me, and its furrows weep together;

Job 31:39 if I have eaten its fruit without silver, or caused its masters to lose their souls;

Job 31:40 then let thistles grow instead of wheat, and weeds instead of barley.” The words of Job are ended.

Job 32:1 So these three men ceased answering Job, because he was righteous in his own eyes.

Job 32:2 Then the wrath of Elihu, the son of Barachel the Buzite, of the family of Ram, was aroused against Job; his wrath was aroused because he justified his soul rather than God.

Job 32:3 Also against his three friends his wrath was aroused, because they had found no answer, and yet had condemned Job.

Job 32:4 Now because they were years older than he, Elihu had waited to speak to Job.

Job 32:5 When Elihu saw that there was no answer in the mouth of these three men, his wrath was aroused.

Job 32:6 So Elihu, the son of Barachel the Buzite, answered and said: “I am young in years, and you are very old; therefore I was afraid, and dared not declare my opinion to you.

Job 32:7 I said, ‘Many days should speak, and multitude of years should teach wisdom.’

Job 32:8 But there is a spirit in man, and the breath of the Almighty gives him understanding.

Job 32:9 Great men are not always wise, nor do the aged always understand judgement.

Job 32:10 “Therefore I say, ‘Listen to me, I also will declare my opinion.’

Job 32:11 Indeed I waited for your words, I listened to your reasonings, while you searched out what to say.

Job 32:12 I paid close attention to you; and surely not one of you convinced Job, or answered his words;

Job 32:13 lest you say, ‘We have found wisdom’; God will vanquish him, not man.

Job 32:14 Now he has not directed his words against me; so I will not answer him with your words.

Job 32:15 “They are dismayed and answer no more; words escape them.

Job 32:16 And I have waited, because they did not speak, because they stood still and answered no more.

Job 32:17 I also will answer my part, I too will declare my opinion.

Job 32:18 For I am full of words; the spirit within me compels me.

Job 32:19 Indeed my belly is like wine that has no vent; it is ready to split like new wineskins.¹

Job 32:20 I will speak, that I may find relief; I must open my lips and answer.

Job 32:21 Let me not, I pray, show favouritism to anyone; nor let me flatter any man.

Job 32:22 For I do not know how to flatter, else my Maker would soon take me away.

Job 33:1 “But please, Job, hear my speech, and listen to all my words.

Job 33:2 Now, I open my mouth; my tongue speaks in my mouth.

Job 33:3 My words come from my upright heart; my lips utter pure knowledge.

Job 33:4 The Spirit of God has made me, and the breath of the Almighty gives me life.

Job 33:5 If you can answer me, set your words in order before me; take your stand.

Job 33:6 Truly I am as your mouth before God; I also have been formed out of clay.

Job 33:7 Surely no fear of me will terrify you, nor will my hand be heavy on you.

Job 33:8 “Surely you have spoken in my hearing, and I have heard the sound of your words, saying,

Job 33:9 ‘I am pure, without transgression; I am innocent, and there is no iniquity in me.

Job 33:10 Yet He finds occasions against me, He counts me as His enemy;

Job 33:11 He puts my feet in the stocks, He watches all my paths.'

Job 33:12 "Look, in this you are not righteous. I will answer you, for God is greater than man.

Job 33:13 Why do you contend with Him? For He does not give an accounting of any of His words.

Job 33:14 For God may speak in one way, or in another, yet man does not perceive it.

Job 33:15 In a dream, in a vision of the night, when deep sleep falls upon men, while slumbering on their beds,

Job 33:16 then He opens the ears of men, and seals their chastisement.

Job 33:17 In order to turn man from his deed, and conceal pride from man,

Job 33:18 He keeps back his soul from the Pit, and his life from perishing by the sword.

Job 33:19 "Man is also chastened with pain on his bed, and with strong pain in many of his bones,

Job 33:20 so that his life abhors bread, and his soul succulent food.

Job 33:21 His flesh wastes away from sight, and his bones stick out which once were not seen.

Job 33:22 Yes, his soul draws near the Pit, and his life to the executioners.

Job 33:23 "If there is an envoy for him, a mediator, one among a thousand, to show man His uprightness,

Job 33:24 then He is gracious to him, and says, 'Deliver him from going down to the Pit; I have found a ransom.'

Job 33:25 His flesh will be young like a child's, he will return to the days of his youth.

Job 33:26 He will pray to God, and He will delight in him, he will see His face with shouting, for He restores to man his righteousness.

Job 33:27 And he looks at men and says, 'I have sinned and perverted what was right, and it did not profit me.'

Job 33:28 He will redeem his soul from going down to the Pit, and his life will see the light.

Job 33:29 "Behold, God works all these things, twice, in fact, three times with a man,

Job 33:30 to bring back his soul from the Pit, that he may be enlightened with the light of life.

Job 33:31 "Give ear, Job, listen to me; hold your peace, and I will speak.

Job 33:32 If you have anything to say, answer me; speak, for I desire to justify you.

Job 33:33 If not, listen to me; hold your peace, and I will teach you wisdom."

Job 34:1 Elihu further answered and said:

Job 34:2 "Hear my words, you wise men; give ear to me, you who have knowledge.

Job 34:3 For the ear tests words as the palate tastes food.

Job 34:4 Let us choose judgement for ourselves; let us know among ourselves what is good.

Job 34:5 "For Job has said, 'I am righteous, but God has taken away my judgement.

Job 34:6 Should I lie concerning my judgement? My wound is incurable, though I am without transgression.'

Job 34:7 What man is like Job, who drinks scorn like water,

Job 34:8 who wanders in company with the workers of iniquity, and walks with wicked men?

Job 34:9 For he has said, 'It profits a man nothing that he should delight in God.'

Job 34:10 "Therefore listen to me, you men of understanding: far be it from God to do wickedness, and from the Almighty to commit iniquity, Job 34:11 for He repays man according to his work, and makes man to find a reward according to his way.

Job 34:12 Surely God will never do wickedly, nor will the Almighty pervert judgement.

Job 34:13 Who gave Him charge over the earth? Or who appointed Him over the whole world?

Job 34:14 If He should set His heart on it, if He should gather to Himself His Spirit and His breath, Job 34:15 all flesh would expire together, and man would return to dust.

Job 34:16 "If you have understanding, hear this; listen to the sound of my words:

Job 34:17 Should one who hates judgement govern? Will you condemn Him who is most just?

Job 34:18 Is it fitting to say to a king, 'You are worthless,' and to nobles, 'You are wicked'?

Job 34:19 Yet He is not partial to princes, nor does He regard the rich more than the poor; for they are all the work of His hands.

Job 34:20 In a moment they die, in the middle of the night; the people are shaken and pass away; the mighty are taken away without a hand.

Job 34:21 "For His eyes are on the ways of man, and He sees all his steps.

Job 34:22 There is no darkness nor shadow of death where the workers of iniquity may hide themselves.

Job 34:23 For He need not further consider a man, that he should go before God in judgement.

Job 34:24 He breaks in pieces mighty men without inquiry, and sets others in their place.

Job 34:25 Therefore he knows their works; He overthrows them in the night, and they are crushed.

Job 34:26 He strikes them as wicked men in the open sight of others,

Job 34:27 because they turned back from Him, and would not consider any of His ways,

Job 34:28 so that they caused the cry of the poor to come to Him; for He hears the cry of the afflicted.

Job 34:29 When He gives quietness, who then can make trouble? And when He hides His face, who then can see Him, whether it is against a nation or a man alone?;

Job 34:30 that the hypocrite should not reign, lest the people be ensnared.

Job 34:31 "For has anyone said to God, 'I have borne chastening; I will offend no more;

Job 34:32 teach me what I do not see; if I have done iniquity, I will do no more'?

Job 34:33 Should He repay it according to your terms, just because you disavow it? You must choose, and not I; therefore speak what you know.

Job 34:34 "Men of understanding say to me, wise men who listen to me:

Job 34:35 'Job speaks without knowledge, his words are without wisdom.'

Job 34:36 Oh, that Job were tried to the utmost, because his answers are like those of wicked men!

Job 34:37 For he adds transgression to his sin; he claps his hands among us, and multiplies his words against God."

Job 35:1 Moreover Elihu answered and said:

Job 35:2 "Do you think this is judgement? Do you say, 'My righteousness is more than God's'?

Job 35:3 For you say, 'What advantage will it be to You? What profit will I have, more than if I had sinned?'

Job 35:4 "I will answer you, and your companions with you.

Job 35:5 Look to the heavens, and see; and behold the clouds which are higher than you.

Job 35:6 If you sin, what do you accomplish against Him? Or, if your transgressions are multiplied, what do you do to Him?

Job 35:7 If you are righteous, what do you give Him? Or what does He receive from your hand?¹

Job 35:8 Your wickedness affects a man such as you, and your righteousness a son of man.

Job 35:9 “Because of the multitude of oppressions they cry out; they cry out for help because of the arm of the mighty.

Job 35:10 But no one says, ‘Where is God my Maker, who gives songs in the night,

Job 35:11 who teaches us more than the beasts of the earth, and makes us wiser than the flying creatures of heaven?’

Job 35:12 There they cry out, but He does not answer, because of the pride of evil men.

Job 35:13 Surely God will not listen to empty talk, nor will the Almighty regard it.

Job 35:14 Although you say you do not see Him, yet justice is before Him, and you must wait for Him.

Job 35:15 And now, because He has not punished in His anger, nor taken much notice of folly,

Job 35:16 therefore Job opens his mouth worthlessly; he multiplies words without knowledge.”

Job 36:1 Elihu also proceeded and said:

Job 36:2 “Bear with me a little, and I will show you that there are yet words to speak on God’s behalf.

Job 36:3 I will fetch my knowledge from afar; I will ascribe righteousness to my Maker.

Job 36:4 For truly my words are not false; one who is perfect in knowledge is with you.

Job 36:5 “Behold, God is mighty, but despises no one; He is mighty in strength of understanding.

Job 36:6 He does not preserve the life of the wicked, but gives judgement to the oppressed.

Job 36:7 He does not withdraw His eyes from the righteous; but they are on the throne with kings, for He has seated them forever, and they are exalted.

Job 36:8 And if they are bound in fetters, held in the cords of affliction,

Job 36:9 then He tells them their work and their transgressions; that they have acted defiantly.

Job 36:10 He also opens their ear to chastening, and commands that they turn from iniquity.

Job 36:11 If they obey and serve Him, they will spend their days in prosperity, and their years in pleasures.

Job 36:12 But if they do not obey, they will perish by the sword, and they will expire without knowledge.

Job 36:13 “But the hypocrites in heart store up wrath; they do not cry for help when He binds them.

Job 36:14 They die in youth, and their life ends among the male temple prostitutes.

Job 36:15 He delivers the poor in their affliction, and opens their ears in oppression.

Job 36:16 “Indeed He would have brought you out of the mouth, into a broad place where there is no restraint; and what is set on your table would be full of richness.

Job 36:17 But you are filled with the judgement due the wicked; judgement and justice take hold of you.

Job 36:18 Because there is wrath, beware lest He take you away with one blow; for a large ransom would not help you avoid it.

Job 36:19 Will your riches, defences or all the mighty forces keep you from distress?

Job 36:20 Do not desire the night, when people are cut off in their place.

Job 36:21 Take heed, do not turn to iniquity, for you have chosen this rather than affliction.

Job 36:22 “Behold, God is exalted by His power. Who teaches like Him?

Job 36:23 Who has assigned Him His way, or who has said, 'You have done wrong'?

Job 36:24 "Remember to magnify His work, of which men have sung.

Job 36:25 Everyone has seen it; man looks on it from afar.

Job 36:26 "Behold, God is great, and we do not know Him; nor can the number of His years be discovered.

Job 36:27 For He draws up drops of water, which distill as rain from the mist, Job 36:28 which the clouds drop down and pour abundantly on man.

Job 36:29 Indeed, can anyone understand the spreading of clouds, the thunder from His booth?

Job 36:30 Look, He scatters his light upon it, and covers the depths of the sea.

Job 36:31 For by these He judges the peoples; He gives food in abundance.

Job 36:32 He covers His hands with lightning, and commands it to strike.

Job 36:33 His thunder declares it, the cattle also, concerning the rising storm.

Job 37:1 "At this also my heart trembles, and leaps from its place.

Job 37:2 Hear attentively the thunder of His voice, and the rumbling that comes from His mouth.

Job 37:3 He sends it forth under the whole heaven, His lightning to the extremities of the earth.

Job 37:4 After it a voice roars; He thunders with His majestic voice, and He does not restrain them when His voice is heard.

Job 37:5 God thunders marvellously with His voice; He does great things which we cannot comprehend.

Job 37:6 For He says to the snow, 'Be on the earth'; likewise to the shower of rain and the showers of heavy rains of His strength.

Job 37:7 He seals the hand of every man, that all men may know His work.

Job 37:8 The animals enter dens, and remain in their lairs.

Job 37:9 From the chamber of the south comes the whirlwind, and cold from the scattering winds of the north.

Job 37:10 By the breath of God ice is given, and the broad waters are frozen.

Job 37:11 Also with moisture He saturates the thick clouds; He scatters His bright clouds.

Job 37:12 and they swirl about, being turned by His guidance, that they may do whatever He commands them on the face of the whole earth.

Job 37:13 He causes it to come, whether for a branch, or for His land, or for mercy.

Job 37:14 "Listen to this, O Job; stand still and consider the wondrous works of God.

Job 37:15 Do you know when God dispatches them, and causes the light of His cloud to shine?

Job 37:16 Do you know the balance of clouds, those wondrous works of Him who is perfect in knowledge?

Job 37:17 Why are your garments hot, when He quiets the earth by the south wind?

Job 37:18 With Him, have you spread out the skies, strong as a cast metal mirror?

Job 37:19 "Teach us what we should say to Him, for we can prepare nothing because of the darkness.

Job 37:20 Should He be told that I wish to speak? If a man were to speak, surely he would be swallowed up.

Job 37:21 Even now people cannot look at the light when it is bright in the skies, when the wind has passed and cleared them.

Job 37:22 He comes from the north as golden splendour; with God is awesome majesty.

Job 37:23 As for the Almighty, we cannot find Him; He is excellent in power, in judgement and abundant justice; He does not oppress.

Job 37:24 Therefore men fear Him; He shows no favouritism to any who are wise of heart.”

Job 38:1 Then Jehovah answered Job out of the whirlwind, and said:

Job 38:2 “Who is this who darkens counsel by words without knowledge?

Job 38:3 Now prepare yourself like a man; I will question you, and you will answer Me.

Job 38:4 “Where were you when I laid the foundations of the earth? Tell Me, if you have understanding.

Job 38:5 Who determined its measurements? Surely you know! Or who stretched the line upon it?

Job 38:6 To what were its foundations fastened? Or who laid its cornerstone,

Job 38:7 when the morning stars sang together, and all the sons of God shouted for joy?¹

Job 38:8 “And who shut in the sea with doors, when it burst forth and issued from the womb;

Job 38:9 when I made the clouds its garment, and thick darkness its swaddling band;

Job 38:10 when I fixed My limit for it, and set bars and doors;

Job 38:11 when I said, ‘This far you may come, but no farther, and here your proud waves must stop!’²

Job 38:12 “Have you commanded the morning since your days began, and caused the dawn to know its place,

Job 38:13 that it might take hold of the extremities of the earth, and the wicked be shaken out of it?

¹ These Sons of God may be the elders referred to in Rev 4:4, 4:10, 19:4, etc.

² Verses 8 to 11 must refer to the Great Flood, as that is when the Fountains of the Deep ‘burst forth’ from under the ground and obscured the earth with dense clouds and torrential rain. By the end of the Flood, Jehovah had deepened our oceans and pushed up our continents to limit the area the water could then cover (Gen 7:19-9:11).

Job 38:14 It takes on form like clay under a seal, and stands out like a garment.

Job 38:15 From the wicked their light is withheld, and the upraised arm is broken.

Job 38:16 “Have you entered the springs of the sea? Or have you walked in search of the depths?

Job 38:17 Have the gates of death been revealed to you? Or have you seen the doors of the shadow of death?

Job 38:18 Have you comprehended the breadth of the earth? Tell Me, if you know all this.

Job 38:19 “Where is the way to the dwelling of light? And darkness, where is its place,

Job 38:20 that you may take it to its territory, that you may know the paths to its home?

Job 38:21 Do you know it because you were born then, or because the number of your days is great?

Job 38:22 “Have you entered the treasury of snow, or have you seen the treasury of hail,

Job 38:23 which I have reserved for the time of trouble, for the day of battle and war?

Job 38:24 By what way is light diffused, or the east wind scattered over the earth?

Job 38:25 “Who has divided a channel for the overflowing water, or a path for the thunderbolt,

Job 38:26 to cause it to rain on a land where there is no one, a wilderness in which there is no man,

Job 38:27 to satisfy the desolate waste, and cause the growth of tender grass to spring forth?

Job 38:28 Has the rain a father, or who has begotten the drops of dew?

Job 38:29 From whose womb comes the ice and the hoarfrost of heaven? Who gives it birth?

Job 38:30 The waters harden like stone, and the surface of the deep is frozen.

Job 38:31 “Can you bind the cluster of the Pleiades, or loose the belt of Orion?

Job 38:32 Can you bring out Mazzaroth¹ in its season or can you guide the Great Bear with its cubs?

Job 38:33 Do you know the statutes of the heavens? Can you set their dominion over the earth?

Job 38:34 "Can you lift up your voice to the clouds, that an abundance of water may cover you?

Job 38:35 Can you send out lightnings, that they may go, and say to you, 'Here we are!'

Job 38:36 Who has put wisdom in the mind? Or who has given understanding to the heart?

Job 38:37 Who can number the clouds by wisdom? Or who can pour out the bottles of heaven,

Job 38:38 when the dust hardens in clumps, and the clods cling together?

Job 38:39 "Can you hunt the prey for the lion, or satisfy the appetite of the young lions,

Job 38:40 when they crouch in their dens, or lurk in their booths to lie in wait?

Job 38:41 Who provides food for the raven, when its young ones cry to God, and wander about for lack of food?

Job 39:1 "Do you know the time when the wild mountain goats bear young? Or can you mark when the deer gives birth?

Job 39:2 Can you number the months that they fulfil? Or do you know the time when they bear young?

Job 39:3 They bow down, they bring forth their young, they deliver their offspring.

Job 39:4 Their young ones are healthy, they grow strong with grain; they depart and do not return to them.

Job 39:5 "Who set the wild donkey free? Who loosed the bonds of the onager,

Job 39:6 whose house I have made the desert plain, and the barren land his booth?

Job 39:7 He scorns the tumult of the city; he does not heed the shouts of the driver.

Job 39:8 The range of the mountains is his pasture, and he searches after every green thing.

Job 39:9 "Will the aurochs be willing to serve you? Will he bed by your manger?

Job 39:10 Can you bind the aurochs in the furrow with ropes? Or will he plough the valleys behind you?

Job 39:11 Will you trust him because his strength is great? Or will you leave your labour to him?

Job 39:12 Will you trust him to bring home your grain, and gather it to your threshing floor?

Job 39:13 "The wings of the ostrich wave proudly, but are her wings and pinions like the kindly stork's?

Job 39:14 For she leaves her eggs on the ground, and warms them in the dust;

Job 39:15 she forgets that a foot may crush them, or that a wild animal may break them.

Job 39:16 She treats her young harshly, as though they were not hers; her labour is worthless, without concern,

Job 39:17 because God deprived her of wisdom, and did not endow her with understanding.

Job 39:18 When she lifts herself on high, she scorns the horse and its rider.

Job 39:19 "Have you given the horse strength? Have you clothed his neck with thunder?

Job 39:20 Can you make him spring like a locust? His majestic snorting strikes terror.

Job 39:21 He paws in the valley, and rejoices in his strength; he gallops into the clash of arms.

Job 39:22 He mocks at fear, and is not frightened; nor does he turn back from the sword.

Job 39:23 The quiver rattles against him, the glittering spear and javelin.

Job 39:24 He devours the distance with fierceness and rage; nor does he stand firm, because the shophar has sounded.

Job 39:25 At the blast of the shophar he says, 'Aha!' He smells the battle from afar, the thunder of captains and shouting.

Job 39:26 "Does the hawk fly by your wisdom, and spread its wings toward the south?

Job 39:27 Does the eagle mount up at your mouth, and make its nest on high?

Job 39:28 It dwells on the rock, and resides on the crag of the rock and the stronghold.

Job 39:29 From there it spies out the prey; its eyes observe from afar.

Job 39:30 Its young ones suck up blood; and where the slain are, there it is."

Job 40:1 Moreover Jehovah answered Job, and said:

Job 40:2 "Shall the one who contends with the Almighty correct Him? He who rebukes God, let him answer it."

Job 40:3 Then Job answered Jehovah and said:

Job 40:4 "Behold, I am vile; what will I answer You? I lay my hand over my mouth.

Job 40:5 Once I have spoken, but I will not answer; yes, twice, but I will proceed no further."

Job 40:6 Then Jehovah answered Job out of the whirlwind, and said:

Job 40:7 "Now prepare yourself like a man; I will question you, and you will answer Me:

Job 40:8 "Would you indeed annul My judgement? Would you condemn Me that you may be justified?

Job 40:9 Have you an arm like God? Or can you thunder with a voice like His?

Job 40:10 Then adorn yourself with majesty and splendour, and array yourself with glory and beauty.

Job 40:11 Disperse the rage of your wrath; look on everyone who is proud, and humble him.

Job 40:12 Look on everyone who is proud, and bring him low; tread down the wicked in their place.

Job 40:13 Hide them in the dust together, bind their faces in hidden darkness.

Job 40:14 Then I will also confess to you that your own right hand can save you.

Job 40:15 "Now look at the behemoth,¹ which I made along with you; he eats grass like an ox.

Job 40:16 See now, his strength is in his loins, and his power is in the muscles of his abdomen.

Job 40:17 He moves his tail like a cedar; the sinews of his thighs are knit together.

Job 40:18 His bones are like channels of bronze, his ribs like bars of iron.

Job 40:19 He is the first of the ways of God; his Maker brings near His sword.

Job 40:20 Surely the mountains yield food for him, and all the wild animals play there.

Job 40:21 He lies under the shady trees, in a covering of reeds. And the marsh

Job 40:22 covers him, and the shady trees with their shadows; the willows by the river surround him.

Job 40:23 Indeed the flood may oppress, yet he does not run away; he is confident, even if the Jordan gushes into his mouth.

Job 40:24 Shall anyone take him in his eyes, or pierce his nose with a snare?

Job 41:1 "Can you draw out Leviathan² with a hook, or snare his tongue with a line which you lower?

Job 41:2 Can you put a reed rope through his nose, or pierce his jaw with a thorn?

Job 41:3 Will he make many supplications to you? Will he speak soft words to you?

² The Hebrew is לֵוִיָּאָן Leviathan fits the description of a pliosaur.

Job 41:4 Will he cut a covenant with you?
Will you take him as a slave forever?

Job 41:5 Will you play with him as with a bird, or will you tether him for your maidens?

Job 41:6 Will your companions bargain over him? Will they divide him among the merchants?

Job 41:7 Can you fill his skin with harpoons, or his head with fishing spears?

Job 41:8 Put your hand on him; remember the battle; you will not do it again!

Job 41:9 Indeed, his hope of overcoming him is false; will he not be overwhelmed at the sight of him?

Job 41:10 No one is so fierce that he stirs him up. Who then is able to stand against Me?

Job 41:11 Who has preceded Me, that I should repay him? Everything under the whole heavens is Mine.¹

Job 41:12 "I will not keep silent about his limbs, or the matter of his mighty power, or of his graceful frame.

Job 41:13 Who can take off the surface of his skin? Who can enter with his double bridle?

Job 41:14 Who can open the doors of his face? All around his teeth is terror!

Job 41:15 His interlocked scales² are his pride, shut up tightly with a seal;

Job 41:16 One with one is so close that no wind can come between them;

Job 41:17 They are joined one to another, they clasp each other and cannot be parted.

Job 41:18 His sneezings flash forth light, and his eyes are like the eyelids of dawn.

Job 41:19 Out of his mouth go burning torches; sparks of fire shoot out.

Job 41:20 Out of his nostrils smoke goes forth, as from a boiling pot heated by reeds.

Job 41:21 His soul kindles coals, and a flame goes out of his mouth.

Job 41:22 Strength abides in his neck, and dancing before him are those frozen from fear.

Job 41:23 The folds of his flesh cleave together firmly on him. He cannot be shaken.

Job 41:24 His heart is cast as hard as stone, cast even as hard as the lower millstone.

Job 41:25 When he arises, the mighty are afraid; because of the crashings they miss their way.

Job 41:26 Though the sword overtakes him, it will not hold firm; nor does spear, dart, or javelin.

Job 41:27 He counts iron as straw, and bronze as rotten wood.

Job 41:28 A son of a bow (an arrow) cannot make him flee; stones from a sling are turned into stubble by him.

Job 41:29 Clubs are counted as straw; he laughs at those shaking javelins.

Job 41:30 His undersides are like sharp potsherds; he spreads sharp-pointed marks in the mire.

Job 41:31 He makes the deep boil like a pot; he makes the sea like a pot of ointment.

Job 41:32 He leaves a shining wake behind him; one would think the deep was grey-headed.

Job 41:33 There is nothing on earth like him; one made without fear.

Job 41:34 He beholds every high thing; he is king over all the children of pride."

Job 42:1 Then Job answered Jehovah and said:

Job 42:2 "I know that You can do everything, and that no purpose of Yours can be withheld from You.

Job 42:3 You asked, 'Who is this who hides counsel without knowledge?' Therefore I have uttered what I did not understand, things too wonderful for me, which I did not know.

Job 42:4 Listen, please, and let me speak;

² Literally channelled shields, likely meaning interlocked scales.

You said, 'I will question you, and you will answer Me.'

Job 42:5 "I have heard about You by the hearing of the ear, but now my eye sees You.

Job 42:6 Therefore I abhor myself, and repent in dust and ashes."

Job 42:7 And so it was, after Jehovah had spoken these words to Job, that Jehovah said to Eliphaz the Temanite, "My wrath is aroused against you and your two friends, for you have not spoken of Me what is right, as My servant Job has.

Job 42:8 "Now therefore, take for yourselves seven bulls and seven rams, go to My servant Job, and offer up for yourselves a burnt offering; and My servant Job will pray for you. For I will accept him, lest I deal with you according to your folly; because you have not spoken of Me what is right, as My servant Job has."

Job 42:9 So Eliphaz the Temanite and Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite went and did as Jehovah commanded them; for Jehovah had accepted Job.

Job 42:10 And Jehovah restored Job's losses when he prayed for his friends. Indeed Jehovah gave Job twice as much as he had before.

Job 42:11 Then all his brothers, all his sisters, and all those who had been his acquaintances before, came to him and ate food with him in his house; and they consoled him and comforted him for all the evil that Jehovah had brought upon him. Each one gave him a piece of silver and each a ring of gold.

Job 42:12 Now Jehovah blessed the latter days of Job more than his beginning; for he had fourteen thousand sheep, six thousand camels, one thousand yoke of oxen, and one thousand female donkeys.

Job 42:13 He also had seven sons and three daughters.

Job 42:14 And he called the name of the first Jemimah, the name of the second Keziah, and the name of the third Keren-Happuch.

Job 42:15 In all the land were found no women so beautiful as the daughters of Job; and their father gave them an inheritance among their brothers.

Job 42:16 After this Job lived one hundred and forty years, and saw his children and grandchildren for four generations.¹

Job 42:17 So Job died, old and full of days.

¹ This suggests his lifespan was at least 190 years, indicating he was one of the first two or three generations born after Babel. Also see Jac 5:11.

Song of Solomon

Son 1:1 The song of songs, which is Solomon's.

THE SHULAMITE

Son 1:2 Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth; for your love is better than wine.

Son 1:3 Because of the fragrance of your good ointments, your name is ointment poured forth; therefore the maidens love you.

Son 1:4 Lead me away!

THE DAUGHTERS OF JERUSALEM

We will run after you.

THE SHULAMITE

The king has brought me into his chambers.

THE DAUGHTERS OF JERUSALEM

We will be glad and rejoice in you. We will remember your love more than wine.

THE SHULAMITE

Rightly do they love you.

Son 1:5 I am dark, but lovely, O daughters of Jerusalem, like the tents of Kedar, like the curtains of Solomon.

Son 1:6 Do not look upon me, because I am dark, because the sun has tanned me. My mother's sons were angry with me; they made me the keeper of the vineyards, but my own vineyard I have not kept.

(TO HER BELOVED)

Son 1:7 Tell me, O you whom my soul loves, where you feed your flock, where you make it rest at noon. For why should I be as one who veils herself by the flocks of your companions?

THE BELOVED

Son 1:8 If you do not know, O fairest among women, follow in the footsteps of the flock, and feed your little goats beside the shepherds' booths.

Son 1:9 I have compared you, my love, to my filly among Pharaoh's chariots.

Son 1:10 Your cheeks are lovely with circlets, your neck with a string of beads.

THE DAUGHTERS OF JERUSALEM

Son 1:11 We will make you ornaments of gold with studs of silver.

THE SHULAMITE

Son 1:12 While the king is at his table, my spikenard sends forth its fragrance.

Son 1:13 A bundle of myrrh is my beloved to me, that lies all night between my breasts.

Son 1:14 My beloved is to me a cluster of henna blooms in the vineyards of En Gedi.

THE BELOVED

Son 1:15 Behold, you are fair, my love! Behold, you are fair! You have dove's eyes.

THE SHULAMITE

Son 1:16 Behold, you are handsome, my beloved! Yes, pleasant! Also our bed is green.

Son 1:17 The beams of our houses are cedar, and our rafters of fir.

Son 2:1 I am the rose of Sharon, and the lily of the valleys.

THE BELOVED

Son 2:2 Like a lily among thorns, so is my love among the daughters.

THE SHULAMITE

Son 2:3 Like an apple tree among the trees of the woods, so is my beloved among the sons. I sat down in his shade with great delight, and his fruit was sweet to my taste.

THE SHULAMITE TO THE DAUGHTERS OF JERUSALEM

Son 2:4 He brought me to the house of wine, and his banner over me was love.

Son 2:5 Sustain me with raisin-cakes, refresh me with apples, for I am lovesick.

Son 2:6 His left hand is under my head, and his right hand embraces me.

Son 2:7 I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem, by the gazelles or by the does of the field, do not stir up nor awaken love until it pleases.

THE SHULAMITE

Son 2:8 The voice of my beloved! Behold, he comes leaping upon the mountains, skipping upon the hills.

Son 2:9 My beloved is like a gazelle or a young stag. Behold, he stands behind our wall; he is looking through the windows, gazing through the lattice.

Son 2:10 My beloved spoke, and said to me: "Rise up, my love, my fair one, and come away.

Son 2:11 For lo, the winter is past, the heavy rain is over and gone.

Son 2:12 The flowers appear on the earth; the time of singing has come, and the voice of the turtledove is heard in our land.

Son 2:13 The fig tree puts forth her green figs, and the vines with the tender grapes give a good smell. Rise up, my love, my fair one, and come away!

Son 2:14 "O my dove, in the clefts of the rock, in the secret places of the cliff, let me see your countenance, let me hear your voice; for your voice is sweet, and your countenance is lovely."

HER BROTHERS

Son 2:15 Catch us the foxes, the little foxes that spoil the vines, for our vines have tender grapes.

THE SHULAMITE

Son 2:16 My beloved is mine, and I am his. He feeds his flock among the lilies.

(TO HER BELOVED)

Son 2:17 Until the day breaks and the shadows flee away, turn, my beloved, and be like a gazelle or a young stag upon the mountains of Bether.

THE SHULAMITE

Son 3:1 By night on my bed I sought the one my soul loves; I sought him, but I did not find him.

Son 3:2 "I will rise now," I said, "And go about the city; in the streets and in the squares I will seek the one my soul loves." I sought him, but I did not find him.

Son 3:3 The watchmen who go about the city found me, to whom I said, "Have you seen the one my soul loves?"

Son 3:4 Scarcely had I passed by them, when I found the one my soul loves. I held him and would not let him go, until I had brought him to the house of my mother, and into the chamber of her who conceived me.

Son 3:5 I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem, by the gazelles or by the does of the field, do not stir up nor awaken love until it pleases.

THE SHULAMITE

Son 3:6 Who is this coming out of the wilderness like pillars of smoke, burned with myrrh and frankincense, with all the merchant's fragrant powders?

Son 3:7 Behold, it is Solomon's couch, with sixty valiant men around it, of the valiant of Israel.

Son 3:8 They all hold swords, being expert in war. Every man has his sword on his thigh because of fear in the night.

Son 3:9 Of the wood of Lebanon Solomon the King made himself a palanquin:

Son 3:10 He made its pillars of silver, its support of gold, its seat of purple, its interior paved with love by the daughters of Jerusalem.

Son 3:11 Go forth, O daughters of Zion, and see King Solomon with the crown with which his mother crowned him on the day of his espousals, the day of the gladness of his heart.

THE BELOVED

Son 4:1 Behold, you are fair, my love! Behold, you are fair! You have dove's eyes behind your veil. Your hair is like a flock of goats, going down from Mount Gilead.

Son 4:2 Your teeth are like a flock of shorn sheep which have come up from the washing, every one of which bears twins, and none is barren among them.

Son 4:3 Your lips are like a strand of scarlet, and your wilderness is lovely. Your temples behind your veil are like a piece of pomegranate.

Son 4:4 Your neck is like the tower of David, built for an armoury, on which hang a thousand bucklers, all shields of mighty men.

Son 4:5 Your two breasts are like two fawns, twins of a gazelle, which feed among the lilies.

Son 4:6 Until the day breaks and the shadows flee away, I will go my way to the mountain of myrrh and to the hill of frankincense.

Son 4:7 You are all fair, my love, and there is no spot in you.

Son 4:8 Come with me from Lebanon, my spouse, with me from Lebanon. Look from the top of Amana, from the top of Senir and Hermon, from the lions' dens, from the mountains of the leopards.

Son 4:9 You have ravished my heart, my sister, my spouse; you have ravished my heart with one look of your eyes, with one link of your necklace.

Son 4:10 How fair is your love, my sister, my spouse! How much better than wine is your love, and the scent of your perfumes than all spices!

Son 4:11 Your lips, O my spouse, drip as the honeycomb; honey and milk are under your tongue; and the fragrance of your garments is like the fragrance of Lebanon.

Son 4:12 A garden enclosed is my sister, my spouse, a spring shut up, a fountain sealed.

Son 4:13 Your nakedness is a paradise of pomegranates with pleasant fruits, fragrant henna with spikenard,

Son 4:14 spikenard and saffron, calamus and cinnamon, with all trees of frankincense, myrrh and aloes, with all the chief spices;

Son 4:15 a garden spring, a well of living waters, and streams from Lebanon.

THE SHULAMITE

Son 4:16 Awake, O north wind, and come, O south! Blow upon my garden, that its spices may flow out. Let my beloved come to his garden and eat its pleasant fruits.

THE BELOVED

Son 5:1 I have come to my garden, my sister, my spouse; I have gathered my myrrh with my spice; I have eaten my honeycomb with my honey; I have drunk my wine with my milk.

(TO HIS FRIENDS)

Eat, O friends! Drink, yes, drink deeply, O beloved ones!

THE SHULAMITE

Son 5:2 I sleep, but my heart is awake; it is the voice of my beloved! He knocks, saying, "Open for me, my sister, my love, my dove, my perfect one; for my head is covered with dew, my locks with the drops of the night."

Son 5:3 I have taken off my robe; how can I put it on again? I have washed my feet; how can I defile them?

Son 5:4 My beloved put his hand by the latch of the door, and my heart yearned for him.

Son 5:5 I arose to open for my beloved, and my hands dripped with myrrh, my fingers with liquid myrrh, on the handles of the lock.

Son 5:6 I opened for my beloved, but my beloved had turned away and was gone, though my soul went out when he spoke. I sought him, but I could not find him; I called him, but he gave me no answer.

Son 5:7 The watchmen who went about the city found me. They struck me, they wounded me; the keepers of the walls took my veil away from me.

Son 5:8 I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem, if you find my beloved, that you tell him I am lovesick!

THE DAUGHTERS OF JERUSALEM

Son 5:9 What is your beloved more than another beloved, O fairest among women? What is your beloved more than another beloved, that you so charge us?

THE SHULAMITE

Son 5:10 My beloved is white and ruddy, chief among ten thousand.

Son 5:11 His head is like shining gold; his locks are wavy, and black as a raven.

Son 5:12 His eyes are like doves by the rivers of waters, washed with milk, and fitly set.

Son 5:13 His cheeks are like a bed of spices, like banks of scented herbs. His lips are lilies, dripping liquid myrrh.

Son 5:14 His hands are branches of gold set with beryl. His body is carved ivory inlaid with sapphires.

Son 5:15 His legs are pillars of marble set on shining bases. His countenance is like Lebanon, excellent as the cedars.

Son 5:16 His mouth is most sweet, yes, he is altogether lovely. This is my beloved, and this is my friend, O daughters of Jerusalem!

THE DAUGHTERS OF JERUSALEM

Son 6:1 Where has your beloved gone, O fairest among women? Where has your beloved turned aside, that we may seek him with you?

THE SHULAMITE

Son 6:2 My beloved has gone to his garden, to the beds of spices, to feed his flock in the gardens, and to gather lilies.

Son 6:3 I am my beloved's, and my beloved is mine. He feeds his flock among the lilies.

THE BELOVED

Son 6:4 O my love, you are as beautiful as Tirzah, lovely as Jerusalem, awesome as an army with banners!

Son 6:5 Turn your eyes away from me, for they have overcome me. Your hair is like a flock of goats going down from Gilead.

Son 6:6 Your teeth are like a flock of sheep which have come up from the washing; every one bears twins, and none is barren among them.

Son 6:7 Like a piece of pomegranate are your temples behind your veil.

Son 6:8 There are sixty queens and eighty concubines, and maidens without number.

Son 6:9 My dove, my perfect one, is the only one, the only one of her mother, the favourite of the one who bore her. The daughters saw her and called her blessed, the queens and the concubines, and they praised her.

Son 6:10 Who is she who looks forth as the morning, fair as the moon, clear as the sun, awesome as an army with banners?

THE SHULAMITE

Son 6:11 I went down to the garden of nuts to see the verdure of the valley, to see whether the vine had budded and the pomegranates had bloomed.

Son 6:12 Before I was even aware, my soul had made me as the chariots of my noble people.

THE BELOVED AND HIS FRIENDS

Son 6:13 Return, return, O Shulamite. Return, return, that we may look upon you!

THE SHULAMITE

What would you see in the Shulamite, as it were, the dance of the encampments?

THE BELOVED

Son 7:1 How beautiful are your feet in sandals, O prince's daughter! The curves of your thighs are like jewels, the work of the hands of a skilful workman.

Son 7:2 Your navel is a rounded goblet which lacks no blended beverage. Your waist is a heap of wheat set about with lilies.

Son 7:3 Your two breasts are like two fawns, twins of a gazelle.

Son 7:4 Your neck is like an ivory tower, your eyes like the pools in Heshbon by the gate of Bath Rabbim. Your nose is like the tower of Lebanon which looks toward Damascus.

Son 7:5 Your head crowns you like Mount Carmel, and the hair of your head is like purple; the king is held captive by its tresses.

Son 7:6 How fair and how pleasant you are, O love, with your delights!

Son 7:7 This stature of yours is like a palm tree, and your breasts like its clusters.

Son 7:8 I said, "I will go up to the palm tree, I will take hold of its branches." Let now your breasts be like clusters of the vine, the fragrance of your breath like apples, Son 7:9 and the roof of your mouth like the best wine. The wine goes down smoothly for my beloved, moving gently the lips of sleepers.

THE SHULAMITE

Son 7:10 I am my beloved's, and his desire is toward me.

Son 7:11 Come, my beloved, let us go forth to the field; let us lodge in the villages.

Son 7:12 Let us get up early to the vineyards; let us see if the vine has budded, whether the grape blossoms are open, and the pomegranates are in bloom. There I will give you my love.

Son 7:13 The mandrakes give off a fragrance, and at our gates are pleasant fruits, all manner, new and old, which I have laid up for you, my beloved.

Son 8:1 Oh, that you were like my brother, who suckled at my mother's breasts! If I should find you outside, I would kiss you; I would not be despised.

Son 8:2 I would lead you and bring you into the house of my mother, she who used to instruct me. I would cause you to drink of spiced wine, of the must of my pomegranate.

(TO THE DAUGHTERS OF JERUSALEM)

Son 8:3 His left hand is under my head, and his right hand embraces me.

Son 8:4 I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem, do not stir up nor awaken love until it pleases.

A RELATIVE

Son 8:5 Who is this coming up from the wilderness, leaning upon her beloved? I awakened you under the apple tree. There your mother brought you forth; there she who bore you brought you forth.

THE SHULAMITE TO HER BELOVED

Son 8:6 Set me as a seal upon your heart, as a seal upon your arm; for love is as strong as death, jealousy as cruel as the grave; its flames are flames of fire, a flame of Jah.

Son 8:7 Many waters cannot quench love, nor can the floods drown it. If a man would give for love all the wealth of his house, it would be utterly despised.

THE SHULAMITE'S BROTHERS

Son 8:8 We have a little sister, and she has no breasts. What will we do for our sister in the day when she is spoken for?

Son 8:9 If she is a wall, we will build upon her a battlement of silver; and if she is a door, we will enclose her with boards of cedar.

THE SHULAMITE

Son 8:10 I am a wall, and my breasts like towers; then I became in his eyes as one who found peace.

Son 8:11 Solomon had a vineyard at Baal Hamon; he leased the vineyard to keepers; everyone was to bring for its fruit a thousand pieces of silver.

(TO SOLOMON)

Son 8:12 My own vineyard is before me. You, O Solomon, may have a thousand, and those who keep its fruit two hundred.

THE BELOVED

Son 8:13 You who dwell in the gardens, the companions listen for your voice; let me hear it!

THE SHULAMITE

Son 8:14 Rush to me, my beloved, and be like a gazelle or a young stag on the mountains of spices.

Ruth

Rut 1:1 Now it came to pass, in the days when the judges ruled, that there was a famine in the land. And a certain man of Bethlehem, Judah, went to sojourn in the country of Moab, he and his wife and his two sons.

Rut 1:2 The name of the man was Elimelech, the name of his wife was Naomi, and the names of his two sons were Mahlon and Chilion; Ephrathites of Bethlehem, Judah. And they went to the country of Moab and remained there.

Rut 1:3 Then Elimelech, Naomi's husband, died; and she was left, and her two sons.

Rut 1:4 Now they took wives of the women of Moab: the name of the one was Orpah, and the name of the second Ruth. And they dwelt there about ten years.

Rut 1:5 Then both Mahlon and Chilion also died; so the woman survived her two sons and her husband.

Rut 1:6 Then she arose with her daughters-in-law that she might return from the country of Moab, for she had heard in the country of Moab that Jehovah had visited His people in giving them bread.

Rut 1:7 Therefore she went out from the place where she was, and her two daughters-in-law with her; and they went on the way to return to the land of Judah.

Rut 1:8 And Naomi said to her two daughters-in-law, "Go, return each to your mother's house. Jehovah deal kindly with you, as you have dealt with the dead and with me.

Rut 1:9 "Jehovah grant that you may find rest, each in the house of her husband." Then she kissed them, and they lifted up their voices and wept.

Rut 1:10 And they said to her, "Surely we will return with you to your people."

Rut 1:11 But Naomi said, "Turn back, my daughters; why will you go with me? Are there still sons in my womb, that they may be your husbands?"

Rut 1:12 "Turn back, my daughters, go your way; for I am too old to have a husband. If I should say I have hope, even if I should have a husband tonight and should also bear sons,

Rut 1:13 "would you wait for them until they were grown? Would you restrain yourselves from having husbands? No, my daughters; for it grieves me very much for your sakes that the hand of Jehovah has gone out against me!"

Rut 1:14 Then they lifted up their voices and wept again; and Orpah kissed her mother-in-law, but Ruth clung to her.

Rut 1:15 And she said, "Look, your sister-in-law has gone back to her people and to her gods; return after your sister-in-law."

Rut 1:16 But Ruth said: "Do not entreat me to leave you, or to turn back from following after you; for wherever you go, I will go; and wherever you lodge, I will lodge; your people will be my people, and your God, my God.

Rut 1:17 Where you die, I will die, and there I will be buried. Jehovah do so to me, and more also, if anything but death parts you and me."

Rut 1:18 When she saw that she was determined to go with her, she stopped speaking to her.

Rut 1:19 Now the two of them went until they came to Bethlehem. And it happened, when they had come to Bethlehem, that all the city was excited because of them; and the women said, "Is this Naomi?"

Rut 1:20 So she said to them, "Do not call me Naomi; call me Mara, for the Almighty has dealt very bitterly with me.

Rut 1:21 "I went out full, and Jehovah has brought me home again empty. Why do you call me Naomi, since Jehovah has testified against me, and the Almighty has afflicted me?"

Rut 1:22 So Naomi returned, and Ruth the Moabitess her daughter-in-law with her, who turned from the country of Moab. Now they came to Bethlehem at the beginning of the barley harvest.

Rut 2:1 And Naomi had a kinsman of her husband's, a man of great wealth, of the family of Elimelech; his name was Boaz.

Rut 2:2 So Ruth the Moabitess said to Naomi, "Please let me go to the field, and glean heads of grain after him in whose sight I may find favour." And she said to her, "Go, my daughter."

Rut 2:3 Then she left, and went and gleaned in the field after the reapers. And she happened to come to the part of the field belonging to Boaz, who was of the family of Elimelech.

Rut 2:4 Now behold, Boaz came from Bethlehem, and said to the reapers, "Jehovah be with you!" And they answered him, "Jehovah bless you!"

Rut 2:5 Then Boaz said to his servant who was in charge of the reapers, "Whose young woman is this?"

Rut 2:6 So the servant who was in charge of the reapers answered and said, "It is the young Moabite woman who came back with Naomi from the country of Moab.

Rut 2:7 "And she said, 'Please let me glean and gather after the reapers among the sheaves.' So she came and has continued from morning until now, though she rested a little in the house."

Rut 2:8 Then Boaz said to Ruth, "You will listen, my daughter, will you not? Do not go to glean in another field, nor go from here, but stay close by my young women.

Rut 2:9 "Let your eyes be on the field which they reap, and go after them. Have I not commanded the young men not to touch you? And when you are thirsty, go to the vessels and drink from what the young men have drawn."

Rut 2:10 Then she fell on her face, bowed down to the ground, and said to him,

"Why have I found favour in your eyes, that you should take notice of me, since I am a foreigner?"

Rut 2:11 And Boaz answered and said to her, "It has been fully reported to me, all that you have done for your mother-in-law since the death of your husband, and how you have left your father and your mother and the land of your birth, and have come to a people whom you did not know before.

Rut 2:12 "Jehovah repay your work, and a full reward be given to you by Jehovah God of Israel, under whose wings you have come for refuge."

Rut 2:13 Then she said, "Let me find favour in your sight, my lord; for you have comforted me, and have spoken kindly to your maidservant, though I am not like one of your maidservants."

Rut 2:14 Now Boaz said to her at mealtime, "Come here, and eat of the bread, and immerse your piece of bread in the vinegar." So she sat beside the reapers, and he passed roasted grain to her; and she ate and was satisfied, and kept some back.

Rut 2:15 And when she rose up to glean, Boaz commanded his young men, saying, "Let her glean even among the sheaves, and do not reproach her.

Rut 2:16 "Also let some grain from the bundles fall purposely for her; leave it that she may glean, and do not rebuke her."

Rut 2:17 So she gleaned in the field until evening, and beat out what she had gleaned, and it was about an ephah of barley.

Rut 2:18 Then she took it up and went into the city, and her mother-in-law saw what she had gleaned. And she brought out and gave to her what she had kept back after she had been satisfied.

Rut 2:19 And her mother-in-law said to her, "Where have you gleaned today? And where did you work? Blessed be the one who took notice of you." So she told her mother-in-law with whom she had worked, and said, "The man's name with whom I worked today is Boaz."

Rut 2:20 Then Naomi said to her daughter-in-law, "Blessed be he by Jehovah, who has not forsaken His kindness to the living and the dead!" And Naomi said to her, "The man is a relative of ours, one of our near kinsmen."

Rut 2:21 Then Ruth the Moabitess said, "He also said to me, 'You will stay close by my young men until they have finished all my harvest.'"

Rut 2:22 And Naomi said to Ruth her daughter-in-law, "It is good, my daughter, that you go out with his young women, and that people do not meet you in any other field."

Rut 2:23 So she stayed close by the young women of Boaz, to glean until the end of the barley harvest and the wheat harvest; and she dwelt with her mother-in-law.

Rut 3:1 Then Naomi her mother-in-law said to her, "My daughter, will I not seek security for you, that it may be well with you?"

Rut 3:2 "Now Boaz, whose young women you were with, is he not our kinsman? In fact, he is winnowing barley tonight at the threshing floor.

Rut 3:3 "Therefore wash yourself and anoint yourself, put on your best garment and go down to the threshing floor; but do not make yourself known to the man until he has finished eating and drinking.

Rut 3:4 "Then it will be, when he lies down, that you will notice the place where he lies; and you will go in, uncover his feet, and lie down; and he will tell you what you should do."

Rut 3:5 And she said to her, "All that you say to me I will do."

Rut 3:6 So she went down to the threshing floor and did according to all that her mother-in-law instructed her.

Rut 3:7 And after Boaz had eaten and drunk, and his heart was cheerful, he went to lie down at the end of the heap of grain; and she came softly, uncovered his feet, and lay down.

Rut 3:8 Now it happened at midnight that the man was startled, and turned himself; and there, a woman was lying at his feet.

Rut 3:9 And he said, "Who are you?" So she answered, "I am Ruth, your maidservant. Take your maidservant under your wing, for you are a near kinsman."

Rut 3:10 Then he said, "Blessed are you of Jehovah, my daughter! For you have shown more kindness at the end than at the beginning, in that you did not go after young men, whether poor or rich.

Rut 3:11 "And now, my daughter, do not fear. I will do for you all that you request, for all the people of my town know that you are a virtuous woman.

Rut 3:12 "Now it is true that I am your near kinsman; however, there is a kinsman nearer than I.

Rut 3:13 "Stay this night, and in the morning it will be that if he will perform the duty of a near kinsman for you; good; let him do it. But if he does not want to perform the duty for you, then I will perform the duty for you, as Jehovah lives! Lie down until morning."

Rut 3:14 So she lay at his feet until morning, and she arose before one could recognize another. Then he said, "Do not let it be known that the woman came to the threshing floor."

Rut 3:15 Also he said, "Bring the shawl that is on you and hold it." And when she held it, he measured six ephahs of barley, and laid it on her. Then she went into the city.

Rut 3:16 So when she came to her mother-in-law, she said, "Is that you, my daughter?" Then she told her all that the man had done for her.

Rut 3:17 And she said, "These six ephahs of barley he gave me; for he said to me,

‘Do not go empty-handed to your mother-in-law.’”

Rut 3:18 Then she said, “Sit still, my daughter, until you know how the matter will turn out; for the man will not rest until he has concluded the matter this day.”

Rut 4:1 Now Boaz went up to the gate and sat down there; and behold, the near kinsman of whom Boaz had spoken came by. So Boaz said, “Come aside, friend, sit down here.” So he came aside and sat down.

Rut 4:2 And he took ten men of the elders of the city, and said, “Sit down here.” So they sat down.

Rut 4:3 Then he said to the near kinsman, “Naomi, who has come back from the country of Moab, sold the piece of land which belonged to our brother Elimelech.

Rut 4:4 “And I thought to inform you, saying, ‘Buy it back in the presence of the inhabitants and the elders of my people. If you will redeem it, redeem it; but if you will not redeem it, then tell me, that I may know; for there is no one but you to redeem it, and I am next after you.’” And he said, “I will redeem it.”

Rut 4:5 Then Boaz said, “On the day you buy the field from the hand of Naomi, you must also buy it from Ruth the Moabitess, the wife of the dead, to raise up the name of the dead on his inheritance.”

Rut 4:6 And the near kinsman said, “I cannot redeem it for myself, lest I ruin my own inheritance. You redeem my right of redemption for yourself, for I cannot redeem it.”

Rut 4:7 Now this was the custom in former times in Israel concerning redeeming and exchanging, to confirm anything: one man took off his sandal and gave it to the other, and this was an attestation in Israel.

Rut 4:8 Therefore the near kinsman said to Boaz, “Buy it for yourself.” So he took off his sandal.

Rut 4:9 And Boaz said to the elders and to all the people, “You are witnesses this day that I have bought all that was Elimelech’s, and all that was Chilion’s and Mahlon’s, from the hand of Naomi.

Rut 4:10 “Moreover, Ruth the Moabitess, the wife of Mahlon, I have acquired as my wife, to raise up the name of the dead on his inheritance, that the name of the dead may not be cut off from among his brethren and from the gate of his place. You are witnesses this day.”

Rut 4:11 And all the people who were at the gate, and the elders, said, “We are witnesses. Jehovah make the woman who is coming to your house like Rachel and Leah, the two who built the house of Israel; and may you prosper in Ephrathah and be famous in Bethlehem.

Rut 4:12 “May your house be like the house of Perez, whom Tamar bore to Judah, because of the offspring which Jehovah will give you from this young woman.”

Rut 4:13 So Boaz took Ruth and she became his wife; and when he went into her, Jehovah gave her conception, and she bore a son.

Rut 4:14 Then the women said to Naomi, “Blessed be Jehovah, who has not left you this day without a near kinsman; and may his name be famous in Israel!

Rut 4:15 “And may he be to you a restorer of your soul and a nourisher of your old age; for your daughter-in-law, who loves you, who is better to you than seven sons, has borne him.”

Rut 4:16 Then Naomi took the child and laid him on her bosom, and became a nurse to him.

Rut 4:17 Also the neighbour women gave him a name, saying, “There is a son born to Naomi.” And they called his name Obed. He is the father of Jesse, the father of David.

Rut 4:18 Now this is the genealogy of Perez: Perez begot Hezron;

Rut 4:19 Hezron begot Ram, and Ram begot Amminadab;

Rut 4:20 Amminadab begot Nahshon, and Nahshon begot Salmon;

Rut 4:21 Salmon begot Boaz, and Boaz begot Obed;

Rut 4:22 Obed begot Jesse, and Jesse begot David.

Lamentations

Lam 1:1 How lonely sits the city that was full of people! How like a widow is she who was great among the nations! The princess among the provinces has become a slave!

Lam 1:2 She weeps bitterly in the night, her tears are on her cheeks; among all her lovers she has none to comfort her. All her friends have dealt treacherously with her; they have become her enemies.

Lam 1:3 Judah has gone into captivity, under affliction and hard servitude; she dwells among the nations, she finds no rest; all her persecutors overtake her in dire straits.

Lam 1:4 The roads to Zion mourn because no one comes to the set feasts. All her gates are desolate; her priests sigh, her virgins are afflicted, and she is in bitterness.

Lam 1:5 Her adversaries have become the head, her enemies prosper; for Jehovah has afflicted her because of the multitude of her transgressions. Her children have gone into captivity before the enemy.

Lam 1:6 And from the daughter of Zion all her splendour has departed. Her princes have become like deer that find no pasture, that flee without strength before the pursuer.

Lam 1:7 In the days of her affliction and roaming, Jerusalem remembers all her pleasant things that she had in the days of old. When her people fell into the hand of the enemy, with no one to help her, the adversaries saw her and mocked at her downfall.

Lam 1:8 Jerusalem has sinned grievously, therefore she has become vile. All who honoured her despise her because they have seen her nakedness; yes, she sighs and turns away.

Lam 1:9 Her uncleanness is in her skirts; she did not consider her destiny; therefore her collapse was awesome; she had no comforter. "O Jehovah, behold my affliction, for the enemy has magnified himself!"

Lam 1:10 The adversary has spread his hand over all her pleasant things; for she has seen the nations enter her sanctuary, those whom You commanded not to enter Your congregation.

Lam 1:11 All her people sigh, they seek bread; they have given their valuables for food to restore the soul. "See, O Jehovah, and consider, for I am scorned.

Lam 1:12 "Is it nothing to you, all you who pass by? Behold and see if there is any sorrow like my sorrow, which has been brought on me, which Jehovah has inflicted on me in the day of His fierce anger.

Lam 1:13 "From above He has sent fire into my bones, and it overpowered them; He has spread a net for my feet and turned me back; He has made me desolate and faint all the day.

Lam 1:14 "The yoke of my transgressions was bound; they were woven together by His hands, and thrust upon my neck. He made my strength fail; Jehovah delivered me into the hands of those whom I am not able to withstand.

Lam 1:15 "Jehovah has trampled underfoot all my mighty men in my midst; He has called an assembly against me to crush my young men; Jehovah trampled as in a winepress the virgin daughter of Judah.

Lam 1:16 "For these things I weep; my eye, my eye overflows with water; because the comforter, who should restore my soul, is far from me. My children are desolate because the enemy prevailed."

Lam 1:17 Zion spreads out her hands, but there is no one to comfort her; Jehovah has commanded concerning Jacob that those around him become his adversaries; Jerusalem has become an unclean thing among them.

Lam 1:18 "Jehovah is righteous, for I rebelled against His mouth. Hear now, all peoples, and behold my sorrow; my virgins and my young men have gone into captivity.

Lam 1:19 "I called for my lovers, but they deceived me; my priests and my elders expired in the city, while they sought food to restore their souls.

Lam 1:20 "See, O Jehovah, that I am in distress; my insides are troubled; my heart is overturned within me, for I have been very rebellious. Outside the sword bereaves, at home it is like death.

Lam 1:21 "They have heard that I sigh, with no one to comfort me. All my enemies have heard of my evil; they are glad that You have done it. Bring on the day that You have announced, that they may become like me.

Lam 1:22 "Let all their evil come before You, and do to them as You have done to me for all my transgressions; for my sighs are many, and my heart is faint."

Lam 2:1 How Jehovah has covered the daughter of Zion with a cloud in His anger! He cast down from heaven to the earth the beauty of Israel, and did not remember His footstool in the day of His anger.

Lam 2:2 Jehovah has swallowed up and has not pitied all the habitations of Jacob. He has thrown down in His wrath the strongholds of the daughter of Judah; He has brought them down to the ground; He has profaned the kingdom and its princes.

Lam 2:3 He has cut off in fierce anger every horn of Israel; He has drawn back His right hand from before the enemy. He has blazed against Jacob like a flaming fire which devours all around.

Lam 2:4 Standing like an enemy, He has bent His bow; with His right hand, like an adversary, He has slain all who were pleasing to His eye; on the tent of the daughter of Zion, he has poured out His fury like fire.

Lam 2:5 Jehovah was like an enemy. He has swallowed up Israel, He has swallowed up all her palaces; He has destroyed her strongholds, and has increased mourning and lamentation in the daughter of Judah.

Lam 2:6 He has done violence to His booth, as if it were a garden, He has destroyed His place of assembly. Jehovah has caused the appointed feasts and Sabbaths to be forgotten in Zion. In His burning indignation He has spurned the king and the priest.

Lam 2:7 Jehovah has spurned His altar, He has abandoned His sanctuary; He has given up the walls of her Palace into the hand of the enemy. They have made a noise in the House of Jehovah as on the day of a set feast.

Lam 2:8 Jehovah has purposed to destroy the wall of the daughter of Zion. He has stretched out a line; He has not withdrawn His hand from destroying; therefore He has caused the rampart and wall to lament; they languished together.

Lam 2:9 Her gates have sunk into the ground; He has destroyed and broken her bars. Her king and her princes are among the nations; there are no Instructions, and her prophets find no vision from Jehovah.

Lam 2:10 The elders of the daughter of Zion sit on the ground and keep silent; they throw dust on their heads and gird themselves with sackcloth. The virgins of Jerusalem bow their heads to the ground.

Lam 2:11 My eyes fail with tears, my heart is troubled; my bile is poured on the ground because of the destruction of the daughter of my people, because the children and the breastfeeding infants faint in the streets of the city.

Lam 2:12 They say to their mothers, "Where is grain and wine?" as they swoon like the wounded in the streets of the city, as their soul is poured out in their mother's bosom.

Lam 2:13 How will I console you? To what will I liken you, O daughter of Jerusalem? What will I compare with you, that I may comfort you, O virgin daughter of Zion? For your ruin is spread as wide as the sea; who can heal you?

Lam 2:14 Your prophets have seen for you false and deceptive visions; they have not uncovered your iniquity, to bring back your captives, but have envisioned for you false prophecies and delusions.

Lam 2:15 All who pass by this way clap their hands at you; they hiss and shake their heads at the daughter of Jerusalem: "Is this the city that is called 'the perfection of beauty, the joy of the whole earth'?"

Lam 2:16 All your enemies have opened their mouth against you; they hiss and gnash their teeth. They say, "We have swallowed her up! Surely this is the day we have waited for; we have found it, we have seen it."

Lam 2:17 Jehovah has done what He purposed; He has fulfilled His word which He commanded in days of old. He has thrown down and has not pitied, and He has caused your enemy to rejoice over you; He has exalted the horn of your adversaries.

Lam 2:18 Their heart cried out to Jehovah, "O wall of the daughter of Zion, let tears run down like a river day and night; give yourself no relief; give the daughter of your eye no rest.

Lam 2:19 "Arise, cry out in the night, at the beginning of the watches; pour out your heart like water before Jehovah's face. Lift your hands toward Him for the souls of your children, who faint from hunger at the head of every street."

Lam 2:20 "See, O Jehovah, and consider! To whom have You done this? Should the women eat their offspring, the children they have cuddled? Should the priest and prophet be slain in Jehovah's sanctuary?

Lam 2:21 "Young and old lie on the ground in the streets; my virgins and my young men have fallen by the sword; You have slain them in the day of Your anger, you have slaughtered and not pitied.

Lam 2:22 "You have invited as to a feast day the terrors that surround me. In the day of Jehovah's anger there was no refugee or survivor. Those whom I have borne and brought up my enemies have destroyed."

Lam 3:1 I am the man who has seen affliction by the branch of His wrath.

Lam 3:2 He has led me and made me walk in darkness and not in light.

Lam 3:3 Surely He has turned His hand against me time and time again throughout the day.

Lam 3:4 He has aged my flesh and my skin, and broken my bones.

Lam 3:5 He has besieged me and surrounded me with bitterness and hardship.

Lam 3:6 He has set me in dark places like the dead of long ago.

Lam 3:7 He has hedged me in so that I cannot get out; he has made my chain heavy.

Lam 3:8 Even when I cry and shout, He shuts out my prayer.

Lam 3:9 He has blocked my ways with hewn stone; He has made my paths crooked.

Lam 3:10 He has been to me like a bear lying in wait, like a lion in a secret place.

Lam 3:11 He has turned aside my ways and torn me in pieces; He has made me desolate.

Lam 3:12 He has bent His bow and set me up as a target for the arrow.

Lam 3:13 He has caused the sons of His quiver to pierce my kidneys.

Lam 3:14 I have become the ridicule of all my people, and their taunting song all the day.

Lam 3:15 He has filled me with bitterness, He has made me drink wormwood.

Lam 3:16 He has also broken my teeth with gravel, and bent me down with ashes.

Lam 3:17 You have moved my soul far from peace; I have forgotten good.

Lam 3:18 And I said, "My strength and my hope have perished from Jehovah."

Lam 3:19 Remember my affliction and roaming, the wormwood and the gall.

Lam 3:20 My soul still remembers and bows down within me.

Lam 3:21 This I recall to my mind, therefore I have hope.

Lam 3:22 Through Jehovah's mercies we are not consumed, because His compassions fail not.

Lam 3:23 They are new every morning; great is Your faithfulness.

Lam 3:24 "Jehovah is my portion," says my soul, "Therefore I hope in Him!"

Lam 3:25 Jehovah is good to those who wait for Him, to the soul who seeks Him.

Lam 3:26 It is good that one should hope and wait quietly for the salvation of Jehovah.

Lam 3:27 It is good for a man to bear the yoke in his youth.

Lam 3:28 Let him sit alone and keep silent, because God has laid it on him;

Lam 3:29 Let him put his mouth in the dust; there may yet be hope.

Lam 3:30 Let him give his cheek to the one who strikes him, and be full of reproach.¹

Lam 3:31 For Jehovah will not cast off forever.

Lam 3:32 Though He causes grief, yet He will show compassion according to the multitude of His mercies.

Lam 3:33 For He does not afflict nor grieve the children of men willingly.

Lam 3:34 To crush under his feet all the prisoners of the earth,

Lam 3:35 to turn aside the justice due a man before the face of the Most High,

Lam 3:36 or subvert a man in his cause; Jehovah does not approve.

Lam 3:37 Who is he who speaks and it comes to pass, when Jehovah has not commanded it?

Lam 3:38 Is it not from the mouth of the Most High that evil and well-being proceed?

Lam 3:39 Why should a living man complain, a man for the punishment of his sins?

Lam 3:40 Let us search out and examine our ways, and turn back to Jehovah;

Lam 3:41 let us lift our hearts and hands to God in heaven.

Lam 3:42 We have transgressed and rebelled; You have not pardoned.

Lam 3:43 You have covered Yourself with anger and pursued us; You have slain and not pitied.

Lam 3:44 You have covered Yourself with a cloud, that prayer should not pass through.

Lam 3:45 You have made us an offscouring and refuse in the midst of the peoples.

Lam 3:46 All our enemies have opened their mouths against us.

Lam 3:47 Fear and a snare have come upon us, desolation and destruction.

Lam 3:48 My eyes overflow with rivers of water for the destruction of the daughter of my people.

Lam 3:49 My eyes flow and do not cease, without interruption,

Lam 3:50 until Jehovah from heaven looks down and sees.

Lam 3:51 My eyes bring suffering to my soul because of all the daughters of my city.

Lam 3:52 My enemies, without cause, hunted me down like a bird.

Lam 3:53 They silenced my life in the pit and threw stones at me.

Lam 3:54 The waters flowed over my head; I said, "I am cut off!"

Lam 3:55 I called on Your Name, O Jehovah, from the lowest pit.

Lam 3:56 You have heard my voice: "Do not hide Your ear from my sighing, from my cry for help."

¹ Mat 5:39, Luk 6:29

Lam 3:57 You drew near on the day I called on You, and said, "Do not fear!"

Lam 3:58 O Jehovah, You have pleaded the case for my soul; You have redeemed my life.

Lam 3:59 O Jehovah, You have seen how I am wronged; judge my case.

Lam 3:60 You have seen all their vengeance, all their schemes against me.

Lam 3:61 You have heard their reproach, O Jehovah, all their schemes against me, Lam 3:62 the lips of my enemies and their whispering against me all the day.

Lam 3:63 Look at their sitting down and their rising up; I am their taunting song.

Lam 3:64 Repay them, O Jehovah, according to the work of their hands.

Lam 3:65 Give them a veiled heart; Your curse be upon them!

Lam 3:66 In Your anger, pursue and destroy them from under the heavens of Jehovah.

Lam 4:1 How the gold has become dim! How changed the fine gold! The stones of the sanctuary are scattered at the head of every street.

Lam 4:2 The precious sons of Zion, valuable as shining metals, how they are regarded as clay pots, the work of the hands of the potter!

Lam 4:3 Even the dragons¹ present their breasts to suckle their young; but the daughter of my people has become cruel, like ostriches in the wilderness.

Lam 4:4 The tongue of the breastfeeding infant clings to the roof of its mouth for thirst; the children ask for bread, but no one breaks it for them.

Lam 4:5 Those who ate delicacies are desolate in the streets; those who were brought up in scarlet embrace ash heaps.

Lam 4:6 The punishment of the iniquity of the daughter of my people is greater than the punishment of the sin of Sodom, which was overthrown in a moment, with no hand to help her!

Lam 4:7 Her Nazirites were brighter than snow and whiter than milk; they were more ruddy in body than rubies, like sapphire in their appearance.

Lam 4:8 Now their appearance is blacker than soot; they go unrecognized in the streets; their skin clings to their bones, it has become as dry as wood.

Lam 4:9 Those slain by the sword are better off than those who die of hunger; for these pine away, stricken for lack of the fruits of the field.

Lam 4:10 The hands of the compassionate women have cooked their own children; they became food for them in the destruction of the daughter of my people.

Lam 4:11 Jehovah has fulfilled His fury, He has poured out His fierce anger. He kindled a fire in Zion, and it has devoured its foundations.

Lam 4:12 The kings of the earth, and all inhabitants of the world, would not have believed that the adversary and the enemy could enter the gates of Jerusalem;

Lam 4:13 because of the sins of her prophets and the iniquities of her priests, who shed in her midst the blood of the just.

Lam 4:14 They wandered blind in the streets; they have desecrated themselves with blood, so that no one would touch their garments.

Lam 4:15 They cried out to them, "Go away, unclean! Go away, go away, do not touch us!" When they fled and wandered, those among the nations said, "They will no longer dwell here."

Lam 4:16 The face of Jehovah scattered them; He no longer regards them. The people do not respect the priests nor show favour to the elders.

Lam 4:17 Still our eyes failed us, watching vainly for our help; in our watching we watched for a nation that could not save us.

Lam 4:18 They tracked our steps so that we could not walk in our streets. Our end was near; our days were over, for our end had come.

Lam 4:19 Our pursuers were swifter than the eagles of the heavens. They pursued us on the mountains and lay in wait for us in the wilderness.

Lam 4:20 The breath of our nostrils, the anointed of Jehovah, was caught in their pits, of whom we said, "Under his shadow we will live among the nations."

Lam 4:21 Rejoice and be glad, O daughter of Edom, you who dwell in the land of Uz! The cup will also pass over to you and you will become drunk and make yourself naked.

Lam 4:22 The punishment of your iniquity is accomplished, O daughter of Zion; He will no longer send you into captivity. He will punish your iniquity, O daughter of Edom; He will uncover your sins!

Lam 5:1 Remember, O Jehovah, what has come upon us; look, and behold our reproach!

Lam 5:2 Our inheritance has been turned over to foreigners, and our houses to foreigners.

Lam 5:3 We have become orphans and waifs, our mothers are like widows.

Lam 5:4 We pay silver for the water we drink, and our wood comes at a price.

Lam 5:5 They pursue at our heels; we labour and have no rest.

Lam 5:6 We have given our hand to the Egyptians and the Assyrians, to be satisfied with bread.

Lam 5:7 Our fathers sinned and are no more, but we bear their iniquities.

Lam 5:8 Servants rule over us; there is none to deliver us from their hand.

Lam 5:9 We get our bread at the risk of our souls, because of the sword in the wilderness.

Lam 5:10 Our skin is hot as an oven, because of the fever of famine.

Lam 5:11 They afflicted the women in Zion, the virgins in the cities of Judah.

Lam 5:12 Princes were hung up by their hands, and elders were not respected.

Lam 5:13 Young men ground at the millstones; boys staggered under loads of wood.

Lam 5:14 The elders have ceased gathering at the gate, and the young men from their music.

Lam 5:15 The joy of our heart has ceased; our dance has turned into mourning.

Lam 5:16 The crown has fallen from our head. Woe to us, for we have sinned!

Lam 5:17 Because of this our heart is faint; because of these things our eyes grow dim;

Lam 5:18 because of Mount Zion which is desolate, with foxes walking about on it.

Lam 5:19 You, O Jehovah, remain forever; Your throne from generation to generation.

Lam 5:20 Why do You forget us forever, and forsake us for so long a time?

Lam 5:21 Turn us back to You, O Jehovah, and we will be restored; renew our days as of old, Lam 5:22 unless You have utterly rejected us, and are very angry with us!

Ecclesiastes

Ecc 1:1 The words of the Preacher, the son of David, king in Jerusalem.

Ecc 1:2 "Vanity of vanities," says the Preacher; "Vanity of vanities, all is vanity."

Ecc 1:3 What profit has a man from all his labour in which he toils under the sun?

Ecc 1:4 One generation passes away, and another generation comes; but the earth abides forever.

Ecc 1:5 The sun also rises, and the sun goes down, and hastens to the place where it arose.

Ecc 1:6 The wind goes toward the south, and turns around to the north; the wind whirls about continually, and comes again on its circuit.

Ecc 1:7 All the rivers run into the sea, yet the sea is not full; to the place from which the rivers come, there they return again.

Ecc 1:8 All things are full of labour; man cannot express it. The eye is not satisfied with seeing, nor the ear filled with hearing.

Ecc 1:9 That which has been is what will be, that which is done is what will be done, and there is nothing new under the sun.

Ecc 1:10 Is there anything of which it may be said, "See, this is new"? It has already been in ancient times before us.

Ecc 1:11 There is no remembrance of former things, nor will there be any remembrance of things that are to come by those who will come after.

Ecc 1:12 I, the Preacher, was king over Israel in Jerusalem.

Ecc 1:13 And I set my heart to seek and search out by wisdom concerning all that is done under heaven; this unpleasant work God has given to the sons of man, by which they may be afflicted.

Ecc 1:14 I have seen all the works that are done under the sun; and indeed, all is vanity and grasping for the wind.

Ecc 1:15 What is crooked cannot be made straight, and what is lacking cannot be numbered.

Ecc 1:16 I communed with my heart, saying, "Look, I have attained greatness, and have gained more wisdom than all who were before me in Jerusalem. My heart has understood great wisdom and knowledge."

Ecc 1:17 And I set my heart to know wisdom and to know madness and folly. I perceived that this also is grasping for the wind.

Ecc 1:18 For in much wisdom is much grief, and he who increases knowledge increases sorrow.

Ecc 2:1 I said in my heart, "Come now, I will test you with mirth; therefore enjoy pleasure"; but surely, this also was vanity.

Ecc 2:2 I said of laughter, "It is madness"; and of mirth, "What does it accomplish?"

Ecc 2:3 I searched in my heart how to gratify my flesh with wine, while guiding my heart with wisdom, and how to lay hold on folly, until I might see what was good for the sons of men to do under heaven all the days of their lives.

Ecc 2:4 I made my works great, I built myself houses, and planted myself vineyards.

Ecc 2:5 I made myself gardens and paradises, and I planted all kinds of fruit trees in them.

Ecc 2:6 I made myself water pools from which to water the growing trees of the grove.

Ecc 2:7 I acquired male and female servants, and had servants born in my house. Yes, I had greater possessions of herds and flocks than all who were in Jerusalem before me.

Ecc 2:8 I also gathered for myself silver and gold and the special treasures of kings and of the provinces. I acquired male and female singers, the delights of the sons of men, and musical instruments of all kinds.

Ecc 2:9 So I became great and excelled more than all who were before me in Jerusalem. Also my wisdom remained with me.

Ecc 2:10 Whatever my eyes desired I did not keep from them. I did not withhold my heart from any pleasure, for my heart rejoiced in all my labour; and this was my reward from all my labour.

Ecc 2:11 Then I looked on all the works that my hands had done and on the labour in which I had toiled; and indeed all was vanity and grasping for the wind. There was no profit under the sun.

Ecc 2:12 Then I turned myself to consider wisdom and madness and folly; for what can the man do who succeeds the king? Only what he has already done.

Ecc 2:13 Then I saw that wisdom excels folly as light excels darkness.

Ecc 2:14 The wise man's eyes are in his head, but the fool walks in darkness. Yet I myself perceived that the same event happens to them all.

Ecc 2:15 So I said in my heart, "As it happens to the fool, it also happens to me, and why was I then more wise?" Then I said in my heart, "This also is vanity."

Ecc 2:16 For there is no more remembrance of the wise than of the fool forever, since all that now is will be forgotten in the days to come. And how does a wise man die? As the fool!

Ecc 2:17 Therefore I hated life because the work that was done under the sun was evil to me, for all is vanity and grasping for the wind.

Ecc 2:18 Then I hated all my labour in which I had toiled under the sun, because I must leave it to the man who will come after me.

Ecc 2:19 And who knows whether he will be a wise man or a fool? Yet he will rule over all my labour in which I toiled and in which I have shown myself wise under the sun. This also is vanity.

Ecc 2:20 Therefore I turned my heart and despaired of all the labour in which I had toiled under the sun.

Ecc 2:21 For there is a man whose labour is with wisdom, knowledge, and skill; yet he must leave his heritage to a man who has not laboured for it. This also is vanity and a great evil.

Ecc 2:22 For what has man for all his labour, and for the striving of his heart with which he has toiled under the sun?

Ecc 2:23 For all his days are sorrowful, and his work grievous; even in the night his heart takes no rest. This also is vanity.

Ecc 2:24 There is nothing better for a man than that he should eat and drink, and that his soul should enjoy good in his labour. This also, I saw, was from the hand of God.

Ecc 2:25 For who can eat, or who can have enjoyment more than I?

Ecc 2:26 For God gives wisdom and knowledge and joy to a man who is good in His sight; but to the sinner He gives the work of gathering and collecting, that he may give to him who is good before God. This also is vanity and grasping for the wind.

Ecc 3:1 To everything there is a season, a time for every purpose under heaven:

Ecc 3:2 A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to uproot what is planted;

Ecc 3:3 a time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up;

Ecc 3:4 a time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance;

Ecc 3:5 a time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;

Ecc 3:6 a time to gain, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to throw away;

Ecc 3:7 a time to tear, and a time to sew; a time to keep silent, and a time to speak;

Ecc 3:8 a time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace.

Ecc 3:9 What profit has the worker from that in which he labours?

Ecc 3:10 I have seen the God-given task with which the sons of men are to be occupied.

Ecc 3:11 He has made everything beautiful in its time. Also He has put eternity in their hearts, except that no one can find out the work that God does from beginning to end.

Ecc 3:12 I know that there is nothing better for them than to rejoice, and to do good in their lives,

Ecc 3:13 and also that every man should eat and drink and enjoy the good of all his labour; it is the gift of God.

Ecc 3:14 I know that whatever God does, it will be forever. Nothing can be added to it, and nothing taken from it. God does it, that men should fear before Him.

Ecc 3:15 That which is has already been, and what is to be has already been; and God requires an account of what is past.

Ecc 3:16 Moreover I saw under the sun: In the place of judgement, wickedness was there; and in the place of righteousness, iniquity was there.

Ecc 3:17 I said in my heart, "God will judge the righteous and the wicked, for there will be a time there for every purpose and for every work."

Ecc 3:18 I said in my heart, "Concerning the estate of the sons of men, God tests them, that they may see that they themselves are like beasts."

Ecc 3:19 For what happens to the sons of men also happens to beasts; one thing befalls them: as one dies, so the other dies. Surely, they all have one breath; man has no advantage over beasts, for all is vanity.

Ecc 3:20 All go to one place: all are from the dust, and all return to dust.

Ecc 3:21 Who knows the spirit of the sons of men, which goes upward, and the spirit of the beast, which goes down to the earth?

Ecc 3:22 So I perceived that there is nothing better than that a man should rejoice in his own works, for that is his heritage. For who can bring him to see what will happen after him?

Ecc 4:1 Then I returned and considered all the oppression that is done under the sun: And look! The tears of the oppressed, but they have no comforter; on the side of their oppressors there was power, but they have no comforter.

Ecc 4:2 Therefore I praised the dead who were already dead, more than the living who are still alive.

Ecc 4:3 Yet, better than both is he who has never existed, who has not seen the evil work that is done under the sun.

Ecc 4:4 Again, I saw that for all toil and every skillful work a man is envied by his neighbour. This also is vanity and grasping for the wind.

Ecc 4:5 The fool folds his hands and consumes his own flesh.

Ecc 4:6 Better is a handful with quietness than both hands full, together with toil and grasping for the wind.

Ecc 4:7 Then I returned, and I saw vanity under the sun:

Ecc 4:8 There is one alone, without a second one: he has neither son nor brother. Yet there is no end to all his labours, nor is his eye satisfied with riches. Does he ask, "For whom do I toil and deprive my soul of good?" This also is vanity and an evil misfortune.

Ecc 4:9 Two are better than one, because they have a good reward for their labour.

Ecc 4:10 For if they fall, one will lift up his second. But woe to him who is alone when he falls, for he has no one to help him up.

Ecc 4:11 Again, if two lie down together, they will keep warm; but how can one be warm alone?

Ecc 4:12 Though one may be overpowered by another, two can withstand him, and a three-strand rope is not quickly broken.

Ecc 4:13 Better is a poor and wise youth than an old and foolish king who will be admonished no more.

Ecc 4:14 For he comes out of prison to be king, although he was born poor in his kingdom.

Ecc 4:15 I saw all the living who walk under the sun; they were with the second youth who stands in his place.

Ecc 4:16 There was no end of all the people over whom he was made king; yet those who come afterwards will not rejoice in him. Surely this also is vanity and grasping for the wind.

Ecc 5:1 Walk prudently when you go to the House of God; and draw near to hear rather than to give the sacrifice of fools, for they do not know that they do evil.

Ecc 5:2 Do not be rash with your mouth, and do not let your heart utter anything hastily before God. For God is in heaven, and you on earth; therefore let your words be few.

Ecc 5:3 For a dream comes through much activity, and a fool's voice is known by his many words.

Ecc 5:4 When you make a vow to God, do not delay to pay it; for He has no pleasure in fools. Pay what you have vowed.

Ecc 5:5 It is better not to vow than to vow and not pay.

Ecc 5:6 Do not let your mouth cause your flesh to sin, nor say before the envoy of God that it was an error. Why should God be angry at your excuse and destroy the work of your hands?

Ecc 5:7 For in the multitude of dreams and many words there is also vanity, so fear God.

Ecc 5:8 If you see the oppression of the poor, and the violent perversion of justice and righteousness in a province, do not marvel at the matter; for high official watches over high official, and higher officials are over them.

Ecc 5:9 Moreover the profit of the land is for all; the king himself is served from the field.

Ecc 5:10 He who loves silver will not be satisfied with silver; nor he who loves abundance, with increase. This also is vanity.

Ecc 5:11 When goods increase, they increase who eat them; so what profit have the masters except to see them with their eyes?

Ecc 5:12 The sleep of a labouring man is sweet, whether he eats little or much; but the abundance of the rich will not permit him to sleep.

Ecc 5:13 There is a severe evil which I have seen under the sun: riches kept for their owner to his hurt.

Ecc 5:14 But those riches perish through evil; when he begets a son, there is nothing in his hand.

Ecc 5:15 As he came from his mother's womb, naked will he return, to go as he came; and he will take nothing from his labour which he may carry away in his hand.

Ecc 5:16 And this also is a severe evil, that just exactly as he came, so will he go, and what profit has he who has laboured for the wind?

Ecc 5:17 All his days he also eats in darkness, and he has much sorrow and sickness and anger.

Ecc 5:18 Here is what I have seen: It is good and fitting for one to eat and drink, and to enjoy the good of all his labour in which he toils under the sun all the days of his life which God gives him; for it is his heritage.

Ecc 5:19 As for every man to whom God has given riches and wealth, and given him power to eat of it, to receive his heritage and rejoice in his labour; this is the gift of God,

Ecc 5:20 for he will not dwell unduly on the days of his life, because God keeps him busy with the joy of his heart.

Ecc 6:1 There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, and it is common among men:

Ecc 6:2 A man to whom God has given riches and wealth and honour, so that he lacks nothing for his soul of all he desires; yet God does not give him power to eat of it, but a foreigner consumes it. This is vanity, and it is an evil affliction.

Ecc 6:3 If a man begets a hundred children and lives many years, so that the days of his years are many, but his soul is not satisfied with goodness, or indeed he has no tomb, I say that a stillborn child is better than he;

Ecc 6:4 for it comes in vanity and departs in darkness, and its name is covered with darkness.

Ecc 6:5 Though it has not seen the sun or known anything, this child has more rest than that man,

Ecc 6:6 even if he lives a thousand years twice over; but has not seen goodness. Do not all go to one place?

Ecc 6:7 All the labour of man is for his mouth, and yet the soul is not satisfied.

Ecc 6:8 For what more has the wise man than the fool? What does the poor man have, who knows how to walk before the living?

Ecc 6:9 Better is the sight of the eyes than the wandering of the soul. This also is vanity and grasping for the wind.

Ecc 6:10 Whatever one is, he has been named already, for it is known that he is man; and he cannot contend with Him who is mightier than he.

Ecc 6:11 Since there are many things that increase vanity, how is man the better?

Ecc 6:12 For who knows what is good for man in life, all the days of his vain life which he passes like a shadow? Who can tell a man what will happen after him under the sun?

Ecc 7:1 A good name is better than precious ointment, and the day of death than the day of one's birth.

Ecc 7:2 It is better to go to the house of mourning than to go to the house of feasting, for that is the end of all men; and the living will take it to heart.

Ecc 7:3 Sorrow is better than laughter, for by a sad countenance the heart is made better.

Ecc 7:4 The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning, but the heart of fools is in the house of mirth.

Ecc 7:5 It is better to hear the rebuke of the wise than for a man to hear the song of fools.

Ecc 7:6 For like the crackling of thorns under a pot, so is the laughter of the fool. This also is vanity.

Ecc 7:7 Surely oppression destroys a wise man's reason, and a bribe debases the heart.

Ecc 7:8 The end of a thing is better than its beginning, and the patient in spirit is better than the proud in spirit.

Ecc 7:9 Do not hasten in your spirit to be angry, for anger rests in the bosom of fools.¹

Ecc 7:10 Do not say, "Why were the former days better than these?" for you do not inquire wisely concerning this.

Ecc 7:11 Wisdom is good with an inheritance, and profitable to those who see the sun.

Ecc 7:12 For wisdom is a defence as silver is a defence, but the excellence of knowledge is that wisdom gives life to those who master it.

Ecc 7:13 Consider the work of God; for who can make straight what He has made crooked?

Ecc 7:14 In the day of prosperity be joyful, but in the day of evil consider: surely God has appointed the one as well as the other, so that man can find nothing that will happen after him.

Ecc 7:15 I have seen all things in my days of vanity: There is a just man who perishes in his righteousness, and there is a wicked man who prolongs his life in his evil.

Ecc 7:16 Do not be overly righteous, nor be overly wise: why should you desolate yourself?

Ecc 7:17 Do not be overly wicked, nor be foolish: why should you die before your time?

Ecc 7:18 It is good that you grasp this, and also not remove your hand from the other; for he who fears God will escape them all.

Ecc 7:19 Wisdom strengthens the wise more than ten rulers of the city.

Ecc 7:20 For there is not a just man on earth who does good and does not sin.¹

Ecc 7:21 Also do not take to heart everything people say, lest you hear your servant cursing you.

Ecc 7:22 For many times, also, your own heart has known that even you have cursed others.

Ecc 7:23 All this I have proved by wisdom. I said, "I will be wise"; but it was far from me.

Ecc 7:24 As for that which is far off and exceedingly deep, who can find it out?

Ecc 7:25 I applied my heart to know, to search and seek out wisdom and the reason of things, to know the wickedness of folly, even of foolishness and madness.

Ecc 7:26 And I find more bitter than death the woman whose heart is snares and nets, whose hands are fetters. He who pleases God will escape from her, but the sinner will be taken by her.

Ecc 7:27 "Here is what I have found," says the Preacher, "Adding one thing to the other to find out the reason, Ecc 7:28 which my soul still seeks but I cannot find: one man among a thousand I have found, but a woman among all these I have not found.

Ecc 7:29 Truly, this only I have found: that God made man upright, but they have sought out many schemes."

Ecc 8:1 Who is like a wise man? And who knows the interpretation of a thing? A man's wisdom makes his face shine, and the sternness of his face is changed.

Ecc 8:2 I counsel you, "Obey the king's mouth for the sake of your oath to God.

Ecc 8:3 "Do not be hasty to go from his presence. Do not take your stand for an evil thing, for he does whatever pleases him."

Ecc 8:4 Where the word of a king is, there is power; and who may say to him, "What are you doing?"

Ecc 8:5 He who keeps his commandment will experience nothing evil; and a wise man's heart discerns both time and judgement,

Ecc 8:6 because for every matter there is a time and judgement, though the evil of man increases greatly,

Ecc 8:7 for he does not know what will happen; so who can tell him when it will occur?

Ecc 8:8 No one has power over the spirit to retain the spirit, and no one has power in the day of death. There is no release from that battle, and wickedness will not deliver those who have mastered it.

Ecc 8:9 All this I have seen, and applied my heart to every work that is done under the sun. There is a time in which one man rules over another to his own evil.

Ecc 8:10 Then I saw the wicked buried, who had come and gone from the sacred place, and they were forgotten in the city where they had so done. This also is vanity.

Ecc 8:11 Because the sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil.

Ecc 8:12 Though a sinner does evil a hundred times, and his days are prolonged, yet I surely know that it will be well with those who fear God, who fear before Him.

Ecc 8:13 But it will not be well with the wicked; nor will he prolong his days, which are as a shadow, because he does not fear before God.

Ecc 8:14 There is a vanity which occurs on earth, that there are just men to whom it happens according to the work of the wicked; again, there are wicked men to whom it happens according to the work of the righteous. I said that this also is vanity.

Ecc 8:15 So I commended enjoyment, because a man has nothing better under the sun than to eat, drink, and be merry; for this will remain with him in his labour for the days of his life which God gives him under the sun.

Ecc 8:16 When I applied my heart to know wisdom and to see the business that is done on earth, even though one sees no sleep day or night,

Ecc 8:17 then I saw all the work of God, that a man cannot find out the work that is done under the sun. For though a man labours to discover it, yet he will not find it; moreover, though a wise man attempts to know it, he will not be able to find it.

Ecc 9:1 For I considered all this in my heart, so that I could declare it all: that the righteous and the wise and their works are in the hand of God. People know neither love nor hatred by anything that is before them.

Ecc 9:2 Everything occurs alike to all. One event happens to the righteous and the wicked; to the good, the clean, and the unclean; to him who sacrifices and him who does not sacrifice. As is the good, so is the sinner; and he who takes an oath as he who fears an oath.

Ecc 9:3 This is an evil in all that is done under the sun: that one thing happens to all. Truly the hearts of the sons of men are full of evil; madness is in their hearts while they live, and after that they go to the dead.

Ecc 9:4 But for him who is joined to all the living there is hope, for a living dog is better than a dead lion.

Ecc 9:5 For the living know that they will die; but the dead, they do not know anything, and there is not a reward for them anymore, for the memory of them is forgotten.

Ecc 9:6 Also their love, their hatred, and their jealousy have now perished; nevermore will they have a share in anything done under the sun.

Ecc 9:7 Go, eat your bread with joy, and drink your wine with a merry heart; for God has already accepted your works.

Ecc 9:8 Let your garments always be white, and let your head lack no oil.

Ecc 9:9 Live joyfully with the wife whom you love all the days of your vain life which He has given you under the sun, all your days of vanity; for that is your portion in life, and in the labour which you perform under the sun.

Ecc 9:10 Whatever your hand finds to do, do it with your might; for there is no work or device or knowledge or wisdom in Sheol, where you are going.

Ecc 9:11 I returned and saw under the sun that the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, nor bread to the wise, nor riches to men of understanding, nor favour to men of skill; but time and chance happen to them all.

Ecc 9:12 For man also does not know his time: Like fish taken in a cruel net, like birds caught in a snare, so the sons of men are snared in an evil time, when it falls suddenly upon them.

Ecc 9:13 This wisdom I have also seen under the sun, and it seemed great to me:

Ecc 9:14 There was a little city with few men in it; and a great king came against it, besieged it, and built great siege-works around it.

Ecc 9:15 Now there was found in it a poor wise man, and he by his wisdom delivered the city. Yet no one remembered that same poor man.

Ecc 9:16 Then I said: "Wisdom is better than strength. Nevertheless the poor man's wisdom is despised, and his words are not heard.

Ecc 9:17 Words of the wise, spoken quietly, should be heard rather than the shout of a ruler of fools.

Ecc 9:18 Wisdom is better than weapons of war; but one sinner destroys much good."

Ecc 10:1 Dead flies putrefy the perfumer's ointment, and cause it to give off a foul odour; so does a little folly to one respected for wisdom and honour.

Ecc 10:2 A wise man's heart is at his right hand, but a fool's heart at his left.

Ecc 10:3 Even when a fool walks along the way, he lacks wisdom, and he shows everyone that he is a fool.

Ecc 10:4 If the spirit of the ruler rises against you, do not leave your post; for conciliation pacifies great offences.

Ecc 10:5 There is an evil I have seen under the sun, as an error proceeding from the ruler:

Ecc 10:6 folly is set in great dignity, while the rich sit in a lowly place.

Ecc 10:7 I have seen servants on horses, while princes walk on the ground like servants.

Ecc 10:8 He who digs a pit will fall into it, and whoever breaks through a wall will be bitten by a serpent.

Ecc 10:9 He who quarries stones may be hurt by them, and he who splits wood may be endangered by it.

Ecc 10:10 If the axe is dull, and one does not sharpen the edge, then he must use more strength; but wisdom brings success.

Ecc 10:11 A serpent may bite when it is not charmed; the master of language is no better.

Ecc 10:12 The words of a wise man's mouth are gracious, but the lips of a fool will swallow him up;

Ecc 10:13 the words of his mouth begin with foolishness, and the end of his talk is evil madness.

Ecc 10:14 A fool also multiplies words.

No man knows what is to be; who can tell him what will be after him?

Ecc 10:15 The labour of fools wearies them, for they do not even know how to go to the city!

Ecc 10:16 Woe to you, O land, when your king is a child, and your princes feast in the morning!

Ecc 10:17 Blessed are you, O land, when your king is the son of nobles, and your princes feast at the proper time; for strength and not for drunkenness!

Ecc 10:18 Because of laziness the building decays, and through idle hands the house leaks.

Ecc 10:19 A feast is made for laughter, and wine makes merry; but silver answers all.

Ecc 10:20 Do not curse the king, even in your thought. Do not curse the rich, even in your bedroom; for a flying creature of the heaven may carry your voice, and a master with wings may tell the matter.

Ecc 11:1 Cast your bread upon the waters, for you will find it after many days.

Ecc 11:2 Give a serving to seven, and also to eight, for you do not know what evil will be on the earth.

Ecc 11:3 If the clouds are full of heavy rain, they empty themselves upon the earth; and if a tree falls to the south or the north, in the place where the tree falls, there it will lie.

Ecc 11:4 He who observes the wind will not sow, and he who regards the clouds will not reap.

Ecc 11:5 As you do not know what is the way of the wind, or how the bones grow in the womb of her who is with child, so you do not know the works of God who makes all things.

Ecc 11:6 In the morning sow your seed, and in the evening do not withhold your hand; for you do not know which will prosper, either this or that, or whether both alike will be good.

Ecc 11:7 Truly the light is sweet, and it is pleasant for the eyes to behold the sun;

Ecc 11:8 but if a man lives many years and rejoices in them all, yet let him remember the days of darkness, for they will be many. All that is coming is vanity.

Ecc 11:9 Rejoice, O young man, in your youth, and let your heart cheer you in the days of your youth; walk in the ways of your heart, and in the sight of your eyes; but know that for all these God will bring you into judgement.

Ecc 11:10 Therefore remove sorrow from your heart, and put away evil from your flesh, for childhood and youth are vanity.

Ecc 12:1 Remember now your Creator in the days of your youth, before the evil days come, and the years draw near when you say, "I have no pleasure in them":

Ecc 12:2 while the sun and the light, the moon and the stars are not darkened, and the clouds do not return after the heavy rain;

Ecc 12:3 in the day when the keepers of the house tremble, and the strong men bow down; when the grinders cease because they are few, and those that look through the windows grow dim;

Ecc 12:4 when the doors are shut in the streets, and the sound of grinding is low; when one rises up at the sound of a bird, and all the musical daughters are brought low;

Ecc 12:5 also when they are afraid of height, and of terrors in the way; when the almond tree blossoms, the grasshopper is a burden, and desire fails. For man goes to his everlasting home, and the mourners go about the streets.

Ecc 12:6 Remember your Creator before the silver cord is loosed, or the golden bowl is broken, or the pitcher shattered at the fountain, or the wheel broken at the well.

Ecc 12:7 Then the dust will return to the earth as it was, and the spirit will return to God who gave it.

Ecc 12:8 "Vanity of vanities," says the Preacher, "All is vanity."

Ecc 12:9 And moreover, because the Preacher was wise, he still taught the people knowledge; yes, he pondered and sought out and set in order many proverbs.

Ecc 12:10 The Preacher sought to find acceptable words; and what was written was upright; words of truth.

Ecc 12:11 The words of the wise are like goads, and the words of masters of the assembly are like well-driven nails, given by one Shepherd.

Ecc 12:12 And further, my son, be admonished by these. Of making many books there is no end, and much study is wearisome to the flesh.

Ecc 12:13 Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God and keep His commandments, for this is the whole duty of man.¹

Ecc 12:14 For God will bring every work into judgement, including every secret thing, whether it is good or whether it is evil.

Esther

Est 1:1 Now it came to pass in the days of Ahasuerus (this was the Ahasuerus who reigned from India to Cush, over one hundred and twenty-seven provinces),

Est 1:2 in those days when King Ahasuerus sat on the throne of his kingdom, which was in Shushan the citadel,

Est 1:3 that in the third year of his reign he made a feast for all his officials and servants; the powers of Persia and Media, the nobles, and the princes of the provinces being before him;

Est 1:4 when he showed the riches of his glorious kingdom and the splendour of his excellent majesty for many days, one hundred and eighty days in all.

Est 1:5 And when these days were completed, the king made a feast lasting seven days for all the people who were present in Shushan the citadel, from great to small, in the court of the garden of the king's palace.

Est 1:6 There were white and blue linen curtains fastened with cords of fine linen and purple on silver branches and marble pillars; and the couches were of gold and silver on a mosaic pavement of alabaster, turquoise, and white and black marble.

Est 1:7 And they served drinks in golden vessels, each vessel being different from the other, with royal wine in abundance, according to the generosity of the king.

Est 1:8 In accordance with the law, the drinking was not compulsory; for the king had ordered all the officers of his household that they should do according to each man's pleasure.

Est 1:9 Queen Vashti also made a feast for the women in the royal palace which belonged to King Ahasuerus.

Est 1:10 On the seventh day, when the heart of the king was merry with wine, he commanded Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha, Abagtha, Zethar, and Carcas, seven eunuchs who served in the presence of King Ahasuerus,

Est 1:11 to bring Queen Vashti before the king, wearing her royal crown, in order to show her beauty to the people and the officials, for she was beautiful to behold.

Est 1:12 But Queen Vashti refused to come at the king's command brought by his eunuchs; therefore the king was furious, and his anger burned within him.

Est 1:13 Then the king said to the wise men who understood the times (for this was the king's manner toward all who knew law and justice, Est 1:14 those closest to him being Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, and Memucan, the seven princes of Persia and Media, who had access to the king's presence, and who ranked highest in the kingdom):

Est 1:15 "What will we do to Queen Vashti, according to law, because she did not obey the command of King Ahasuerus brought to her by the eunuchs?"

Est 1:16 And Memucan answered before the king and the princes: "Queen Vashti has not only wronged the king, but also all the princes, and all the people who are in all the provinces of King Ahasuerus.

Est 1:17 "For the queen's behaviour will become known to all women, so that they will despise their masters in their eyes, when they report, 'King Ahasuerus commanded Queen Vashti to be brought in before him, but she did not come.'

Est 1:18 "This very day the noble ladies of Persia and Media will say to all the king's officials that they have heard of the behaviour of the queen. Thus there will be excessive contempt and wrath.

Est 1:19 "If it pleases the king, let a royal decree go out from him, and let it be recorded in the laws of the Persians and the Medes, so that it will not be altered, that Vashti will come no more before King Ahasuerus; and let the king give her royal position to another who is better than she.

Est 1:20 “When the king’s decree which he will make is proclaimed throughout all his empire (for it is great), all wives will honour their masters, both great and small.”

Est 1:21 And the reply pleased the king and the princes, and the king did according to the word of Memucan.

Est 1:22 Then he sent letters to all the king’s provinces, to each province in its own script, and to every people in their own language, that each man should be master in his own house, and speak in the language of his own people.

Est 2:1 After these things, when the wrath of King Ahasuerus subsided, he remembered Vashti, what she had done, and what had been decreed against her.

Est 2:2 Then the king’s servants who attended him said: “Let beautiful young virgins be sought for the king;

Est 2:3 “and let the king appoint officers in all the provinces of his kingdom, that they may gather all the beautiful young virgins to Shushan the citadel, into the women’s quarters, under the custody of Hegai the king’s eunuch, custodian of the women. And let beauty preparations be given them.

Est 2:4 “Then let the young woman who pleases the king be queen instead of Vashti.” This thing pleased the king, and he did so.

Est 2:5 Now in Shushan the citadel there was a certain Judean whose name was Mordecai the son of Jair, the son of Shimei, the son of Kish, a Benjamite.

Est 2:6 Kish had been carried away from Jerusalem with the captives who had been captured with Jeconiah king of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away.¹

Est 2:7 And Mordecai had brought up Hadassah, that is, Esther, his uncle’s daughter, for she had neither father nor mother. The young woman was lovely and beautiful. When her father and mother died, Mordecai took her as his own daughter.

Est 2:8 So it was, when the king’s command and decree were heard, and when many young women were gathered at Shushan the citadel, under the custody of Hegai, that Esther also was taken to the king’s palace, into the care of Hegai the custodian of the women.

Est 2:9 Now the young woman pleased him, and she obtained his favour; so he readily gave beauty preparations to her, besides her allowance. Then seven choice maidservants were provided for her from the king’s palace, and he moved her and her maidservants to the best place in the house of the women.

Est 2:10 Esther had not revealed her people or kindred, for Mordecai had charged her not to reveal it.

Est 2:11 And every day Mordecai paced in front of the court of the women’s quarters, to learn of Esther’s welfare and what was happening to her.

Est 2:12 Each young woman’s turn came to go in to King Ahasuerus after she had completed twelve new moons’ preparation, according to the regulations for the women, for thus were the days of their preparation apportioned: six new moons with oil of myrrh, and six new moons with perfumes and preparations for beautifying women.

Est 2:13 Thus prepared, each young woman went to the king, and she was given whatever she desired to take with her from the women’s quarters to the king’s palace.

Est 2:14 In the evening she went, and in the morning she returned to the second house of the women, to the custody of Shaashgaz, the king’s eunuch who kept the concubines. She would not go in to the king again unless the king delighted in her and called for her by name.

Est 2:15 Now when the turn came for

Esther the daughter of Abihail the uncle of Mordecai, who had taken her as his daughter, to go in to the king, she requested nothing but what Hegai the king's eunuch, the custodian of the women, advised. And Esther obtained favour in the sight of all who saw her.

Est 2:16 So Esther was taken to King Ahasuerus, into his royal palace, in the tenth new moon, which is the new moon of Tebeth, in the seventh year of his reign.

Est 2:17 The king loved Esther more than all the other women, and she obtained grace and favour in his sight more than all the virgins; so he set the royal crown upon her head and made her queen instead of Vashti.

Est 2:18 Then the king made a great feast, the Feast of Esther, for all his officials and servants; and he proclaimed a holiday in the provinces and gave gifts according to the generosity of a king.

Est 2:19 When the virgins were gathered together a second time, Mordecai sat within the king's gate.

Est 2:20 Now Esther had not yet revealed her kindred and her people, just as Mordecai had charged her, for Esther obeyed the command of Mordecai as when she was brought up by him.

Est 2:21 In those days, while Mordecai sat within the king's gate, two of the king's eunuchs, Bigthan and Teresh, doorkeepers, became furious and sought to lay hands on King Ahasuerus.

Est 2:22 So the matter became known to Mordecai, who told Queen Esther, and Esther informed the king in Mordecai's name.

Est 2:23 And when an inquiry was made into the matter, it was confirmed, and they were both hung on a post; and it was written in the book of the chronicles in the presence of the king.

Est 3:1 After these things King Ahasuerus promoted Haman, the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, and advanced him and set his seat above all the princes who were with him.

Est 3:2 And all the king's servants who were within the king's gate bowed and paid homage to Haman, for so the king had commanded concerning him. But Mordecai would not bow or pay homage.

Est 3:3 Then the king's servants who were within the king's gate said to Mordecai, "Why do you transgress the king's commandment?"

Est 3:4 Now it happened, when they spoke to him daily and he would not listen to them, that they told it to Haman, to see whether Mordecai's words would stand; for Mordecai had told them that he was a Judean.

Est 3:5 When Haman saw that Mordecai did not bow or pay him homage, Haman was filled with wrath.

Est 3:6 But he disdained to lay hands on Mordecai alone, for they had told him of the people of Mordecai. Instead, Haman sought to destroy all the Judeans who were throughout the whole kingdom of Ahasuerus; the people of Mordecai.

Est 3:7 In the first new moon, which is the new moon of Nisan, in the twelfth year of King Ahasuerus, they cast Pur (that is, the lot), before Haman from day to day and new moon to new moon, until the twelfth new moon, which is the new moon of Adar.

Est 3:8 Then Haman said to King Ahasuerus, "There is a certain people scattered and dispersed among the people in all the provinces of your kingdom; their laws are different from all other people's, and they do not keep the king's laws. Therefore it is not fitting for the king to let them remain.

Est 3:9 "If it pleases the king, let a decree be written that they be destroyed, and I will weight out ten thousand talents of silver into the hands of those who do the work, coming into the king's treasuries."

Est 3:10 So the king took his signet ring from his hand and gave it to Haman, the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the enemy of the Judeans.

Est 3:11 And the king said to Haman, "The silver and the people are given to you, to do with them as seems good to you."

Est 3:12 Then the king's scribes were called on the thirteenth day of the first new moon, and a decree was written according to all that Haman commanded; to the king's satraps, to the governors who were over each province, to the officials of all people, to every province according to its script, and to every people in their language. In the name of King Ahasuerus it was written, and sealed with the king's signet ring.

Est 3:13 And the letters were sent by couriers into all the king's provinces, to destroy, to kill, and to annihilate all the Judeans, both young and old, little children and women, in one day, on the thirteenth day of the twelfth new moon, which is the new moon of Adar, and to plunder their possessions.

Est 3:14 A copy of the document was to be issued as law in every province, being published for all people, that they should be ready for that day.

Est 3:15 The couriers went out, hastened by the king's command; and the decree was proclaimed in Shushan the citadel. So the king and Haman sat down to drink, but the city of Shushan was perplexed.

Est 4:1 When Mordecai learned all that had happened, he tore his clothes and put on sackcloth and ashes, and went out into the midst of the city. He cried out with a loud and bitter cry.

Est 4:2 He went as far as the square in front of the king's gate, for no one might enter the king's gate clothed with sackcloth.

Est 4:3 And in every province where the king's command and decree arrived, there was great mourning among the Judeans, with fasting, weeping, and wailing; and many lay in sackcloth and ashes.

Est 4:4 So Esther's maids and eunuchs came and told her, and the queen was deeply distressed. Then she sent garments to clothe Mordecai and take his sackcloth away from him, but he would not accept them.

Est 4:5 Then Esther called Hathach, one of the king's eunuchs whom he had appointed to attend her, and she gave him a command concerning Mordecai, to learn what and why this was.

Est 4:6 So Hathach went out to Mordecai in the city square that was in front of the king's gate.

Est 4:7 And Mordecai told him all that had happened to him, and the sum of silver that Haman had been promised he could weigh out of the king's treasuries to destroy the Judeans.

Est 4:8 He also gave him a copy of the written decree for their destruction, which was given at Shushan, that he might show it to Esther and explain it to her, and that he might command her to go in to the king to make supplication to him and plead before him for her people.

Est 4:9 So Hathach returned and told Esther the words of Mordecai.

Est 4:10 Then Esther spoke to Hathach, and gave him a command for Mordecai:

Est 4:11 "All the king's servants and the people of the king's provinces know that any man or woman who goes into the inner court to the king, who has not been called, he has but one law: put all to death, except the one to whom the king holds out the golden branch, that he may live. Yet I myself have not been called to go in to the king these thirty days."

Est 4:12 So they told Mordecai Esther's words.

Est 4:13 Then Mordecai told them to answer Esther: "Do not think in your soul that you will escape in the king's palace any more than all the other Judeans.

Est 4:14 “For if you remain completely silent at this time, relief and deliverance will arise for the Judeans from another place, but you and your father’s house will perish. Yet who knows whether you have come to the kingdom for such a time as this?”

Est 4:15 Then Esther told them to return this answer to Mordecai:

Est 4:16 “Go, gather all the Judeans who are present in Shushan, and fast for me; neither eat nor drink for three days, night or day. My maids and I will fast likewise.¹ And so I will go to the king, which is against the law; and if I perish, I perish!”

Est 4:17 Then Mordecai went his way and did according to all that Esther commanded him.

Est 5:1 Now it happened on the third day that Esther put on her royal robes and stood in the inner court of the king’s palace, across from the king’s house, while the king sat on his royal throne in the royal house, facing the entrance of the house.

Est 5:2 So it was, when the king saw Queen Esther standing in the court, that she found favour in his sight, and the king held out to Esther the golden branch that was in his hand. Then Esther went near and touched the top of the branch.

Est 5:3 And the king said to her, “What do you wish, Queen Esther? What is your request? It will be given to you; up to half my kingdom!”

Est 5:4 So Esther answered, “If it pleases the king, let the king and Haman come today to the banquet that I have prepared for him.”

Est 5:5 Then the king said, “Bring Haman quickly, that he may do as Esther has said.” So the king and Haman went to the banquet that Esther had prepared.

Est 5:6 At the banquet of wine the king said to Esther, “What is your petition? It will be granted you. What is your request, up to half my kingdom? It will be done!”

Est 5:7 Then Esther answered and said, “My petition and request is this:

Est 5:8 “If I have found favour in the sight of the king, and if it pleases the king to grant my petition and fulfil my request, then let the king and Haman come to the banquet which I will prepare for them, and tomorrow I will do as the king has said.”

Est 5:9 So Haman went out that day joyful and with a glad heart; but when Haman saw Mordecai in the king’s gate, and that he did not stand or tremble before him, he was filled with indignation against Mordecai.

Est 5:10 Nevertheless Haman restrained himself and went home, and he sent and called for his friends and his wife Zeresh.

Est 5:11 Then Haman told them of his great riches, the multitude of his children, all the ways in which the king had promoted him, and how he had advanced him above the officials and servants of the king.

Est 5:12 Moreover Haman said, “Besides, Queen Esther invited no one but me to come in with the king to the banquet that she prepared; and tomorrow I am again invited by her, along with the king.

Est 5:13 “Yet all this avails me nothing, so long as I see Mordecai the Judean sitting at the king’s gate.”

Est 5:14 Then his wife Zeresh and all his friends said to him, "Let a post be made, fifty cubits high, and in the morning suggest to the king that Mordecai be hung¹ on it; then go merrily with the king to the banquet." And the thing pleased Haman; so he had the post made.

¹ The Book of Esther is unusual in the Bible: God’s Name Jehovah is not used in this book, nor in Ecclesiastes and Song of Solomon. All the other books of the Old Covenant contain Jehovah, and the Peshitta manuscripts for the New Covenant use Jehovah’s nickname of Lord Jah frequently. But Ecclesiastes 12:13 does remind us that it is our duty to fear God and keep His Instructions and Song of Solomon can be seen as the love between Jeshua and His Church. In contrast, even in this passage where Esther and the Judeans presumably are fasting to humble themselves before our God, they make no reference to Jehovah. More on this in Est 9:23.

Est 6:1 That night the king could not sleep. So one was commanded to bring the book of the records of the chronicles; and they were read before the king.

Est 6:2 And it was found written that Mordecai had told of Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king's eunuchs, the doorkeepers who had sought to lay hands on King Ahasuerus.

Est 6:3 Then the king said, "What honour or dignity has been bestowed on Mordecai for this?" And the king's servants who attended him said, "Nothing has been done for him."

Est 6:4 And the king said, "Who is in the court?" Now Haman had just entered the outer court of the king's palace to suggest that the king hang Mordecai on the post that he had prepared for him.

Est 6:5 The king's servants said to him, "Haman is there, standing in the court." And the king said, "Let him come in."

Est 6:6 So Haman came in, and the king asked him, "What will be done for the man whom the king delights to honour?" Now Haman thought in his heart, "Whom would the king delight to honour more than me?"

Est 6:7 And Haman answered the king, "For the man whom the king delights to honour, Est 6:8 "let a royal robe be brought which the king has worn, and a horse on which the king has ridden, which has a royal crest placed on its head.

Est 6:9 "Then let this robe and horse be delivered to the hand of one of the king's most noble princes, that he may array the man whom the king delights to honour. Then parade him on horseback through the city square, and proclaim before him: 'Thus will it be done to the man whom the king delights to honour!'"

Est 6:10 Then the king said to Haman, "Hasten, take the robe and the horse, as you have suggested, and do so for Mordecai the Judean who sits within the king's gate. Leave nothing undone of all that you have spoken."

Est 6:11 So Haman took the robe and the horse, arrayed Mordecai and led him on horseback through the city square, and proclaimed before him, "Thus will it be done to the man the king delights to honour."

Est 6:12 Afterwards Mordecai went back to the king's gate. But Haman hastened to his house, mourning and with his head covered.

Est 6:13 When Haman told his wife Zeresh and all his friends everything that had happened to him, his wise men and his wife Zeresh said to him, "If Mordecai, before whom you have begun to fall, is of Judean descent, you will not prevail against him but will surely fall before him."

Est 6:14 While they were still talking with him, the king's eunuchs came, and hastened to bring Haman to the banquet which Esther had prepared.

Est 7:1 So the king and Haman went to dine with Queen Esther.

Est 7:2 And on the second day, at the banquet of wine, the king again said to Esther, "What is your petition, Queen Esther? It will be granted you. And what is your request, up to half my kingdom? It will be done!"

Est 7:3 Then Queen Esther answered and said, "If I have found favour in your sight, O king, and if it pleases the king, let my soul be given to me at my petition, and my people at my request.

Est 7:4 "For we have been sold, my people and I, to be destroyed, to be killed, and to be annihilated. Had we been sold as male and female slaves, I would have held my tongue, although the enemy could never compensate for the king's loss."

Est 7:5 Then King Ahasuerus answered and said to Queen Esther, "Who is he, and where is he, who would dare presume in his heart to do such a thing?"

Est 7:6 And Esther said, "The adversary and enemy is this evil Haman!" So Haman was terrified before the king and queen.

Est 7:7 Then the king arose in his wrath from the banquet of wine and went into the palace garden; but Haman stood before Queen Esther, pleading for his soul, for he saw that evil was determined against him by the king.

Est 7:8 When the king returned from the palace garden to the place of the banquet of wine, Haman had fallen across the couch where Esther was. Then the king said, "Will he also subdue the queen while I am in the house?" As the word left the king's mouth, they covered Haman's face.

Est 7:9 Now Harbonah, one of the eunuchs, said to the king, "Look! The post, fifty cubits high, which Haman made for Mordecai, who spoke good on the king's behalf, is standing at the house of Haman." Then the king said, "Hang him on it!"

Est 7:10 So they hung Haman on the post that he had prepared for Mordecai. Then the king's wrath subsided.

Est 8:1 On that day King Ahasuerus gave Queen Esther the house of Haman, the enemy of the Judeans. And Mordecai came before the king, for Esther had told how he was related to her.

Est 8:2 So the king took off his signet ring, which he had taken from Haman, and gave it to Mordecai; and Esther appointed Mordecai over the house of Haman.

Est 8:3 Now Esther spoke again to the king, fell down at his feet, and implored him with tears to counteract the evil plot of Haman the Agagite, and the scheme which he had devised against the Judeans.

Est 8:4 And the king held out the golden branch toward Esther. So Esther arose and stood before the king, Est 8:5 and said, "If it pleases the king, and if I have found favour in his sight and the thing seems right to the king and I am pleasing in his eyes, let it be written to revoke the letters devised by Haman, the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, which he wrote to annihilate the Judeans who are in all the king's provinces.

Est 8:6 "For how can I endure to see the evil that will come to my people? Or how can I endure to see the destruction of my kindred?"

Est 8:7 Then King Ahasuerus said to Queen Esther and Mordecai the Judean, "Indeed, I have given Esther the house of Haman, and they hung him on the post because he tried to lay his hand on the Judeans.

Est 8:8 "You yourselves write a decree for the Judeans, as you please, in the king's name, and seal it with the king's signet ring; for a letter which is written in the king's name and sealed with the king's signet ring no one can revoke."

Est 8:9 So the king's scribes were called at that time, in the third new moon, which is the new moon of Sivan, on the twenty-third day; and it was written, according to all that Mordecai commanded, to the Judeans, the satraps, the governors, and the princes of the provinces from India to Cush, one hundred and twenty-seven provinces in all, to every province in its own script, to every people in their own language, and to the Judeans in their own script and language.

Est 8:10 And he wrote in the name of King Ahasuerus, sealed it with the king's signet ring, and sent letters by couriers on horseback, riding on royal horses bred from swift steeds.

Est 8:11 By these letters the king permitted the Judeans who were in every city to assemble and protect their souls; to destroy, kill, and annihilate all the forces of any people or province that would assault them, both little children and women, and to plunder their possessions,

Est 8:12 on one day in all the provinces of King Ahasuerus, on the thirteenth day of the twelfth new moon, which is the new moon of Adar.

Est 8:13 A copy of the document was to be issued as a decree in every province and published to all people, so that the Judeans would be ready on that day to avenge themselves on their enemies.

Est 8:14 Then the couriers who rode on royal horses went out, hastened and pressed on by the king's command. And the decree was issued in Shushan the citadel.

Est 8:15 Now Mordecai went out from the presence of the king in royal apparel of blue and white, with a great crown of gold and a garment of fine linen and purple; and the city of Shushan rejoiced and was glad.

Est 8:16 The Judeans had light and gladness, joy and honour.

Est 8:17 And in every province and city, wherever the king's command and decree came, the Judeans had joy and gladness, a feast and a holiday. Then many of the people of the land became Judeans, because fear of the Judeans fell upon them.

Est 9:1 Now in the twelfth new moon, that is, the new moon of Adar, on the thirteenth day, the time came for the king's command and his decree to be executed. On the day that the enemies of the Judeans had hoped to overpower them, the opposite occurred, in that the Judeans themselves overpowered those who hated them.

Est 9:2 The Judeans assembled in their cities throughout all the provinces of King Ahasuerus to lay hands on those who sought to do evil to them. And no one could withstand them, because fear of them fell upon all people.

Est 9:3 And all the officials of the provinces, the satraps, the governors, and all those doing the king's work, helped the Judeans, because the fear of Mordecai fell upon them.

Est 9:4 For Mordecai was great in the king's palace, and his fame spread throughout all the provinces; for this man Mordecai became increasingly prominent.

Est 9:5 Thus the Judeans defeated all their enemies with the stroke of the sword, with slaughter and destruction, and did what they pleased with those who hated them.

Est 9:6 And in Shushan the citadel the Judeans killed and destroyed five hundred men.

Est 9:7 Also Parshandatha, Dalphon, Aspatha,

Est 9:8 Poratha, Adalia, Aridatha,

Est 9:9 Parmashta, Arisai, Aridai, and Vajezatha;

Est 9:10 the ten sons of Haman the son of Hammedatha, the enemy of the Judeans, they killed; but they did not lay a hand on the plunder.

Est 9:11 On that day the number of those who were killed in Shushan the citadel was brought to the king.

Est 9:12 And the king said to Queen Esther, "The Judeans have killed and destroyed five hundred men in Shushan the citadel, and the ten sons of Haman. What have they done in the rest of the king's provinces? Now what is your petition? It will be granted to you. Or what is your further request? It will be done."

Est 9:13 Then Esther said, "If it pleases the king, let it be granted to the Judeans who are in Shushan to do again tomorrow according to today's decree, and let Haman's ten sons be hung on the post."

Est 9:14 So the king commanded this to be done; the decree was issued in Shushan, and they hung Haman's ten sons.

Est 9:15 And the Judeans who were in Shushan assembled again on the fourteenth day of the new moon of Adar and killed three hundred men at Shushan; but they did not lay a hand on the plunder.

Est 9:16 The remainder of the Judeans in the king's provinces assembled and protected their souls, had rest from their enemies, and killed seventy-five thousand of their enemies; but they did not lay a hand on the plunder.

Est 9:17 This was on the thirteenth day of the new moon of Adar. And on the fourteenth day of the new moon they rested and made it a day of feasting and gladness.

Est 9:18 But the Judeans who were at Shushan assembled on the thirteenth day, as well as on the fourteenth; and on the fifteenth day they rested, and made it a day of feasting and gladness.

Est 9:19 Therefore the Judeans of the villages who dwelt in the unwall'd towns celebrated the fourteenth day of the new moon of Adar as a day of gladness and feasting, as a holiday, and for sending presents to one another.

Est 9:20 And Mordecai wrote these things and sent letters to all the Judeans who were in all the provinces of King Ahasuerus, both near and far,

Est 9:21 to establish among them that they should celebrate yearly the fourteenth and fifteenth days of the new moon of Adar,

Est 9:22 as the days on which the Judeans had rest from their enemies, as the new moon which was turned from sorrow to joy for them, and from mourning to a holiday; that they should make them days of feasting and joy, of sending presents to one another and gifts to the poor.

Est 9:23 So the Judeans accepted the custom which they had begun, as Mordecai had written to them,¹

Est 9:24 because Haman, the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the enemy of all the Judeans, had plotted against the Judeans to annihilate them, and had cast Pur (that is, the lot), to consume them and destroy them;

Est 9:25 but when Esther came before the king, he commanded by letter that this evil plot which Haman had devised against the Judeans should return on his own head, and that he and his sons should be hung on the post.

Est 9:26 So they called these days Purim, after the name Pur. Therefore, because of all the words of this letter, what they had seen concerning this matter, and what had happened to them,

Est 9:27 the Judeans established and imposed it upon themselves and their descendants and all who should join them, that without fail they should celebrate these two days every year, according to the writing and according to the set time,

Est 9:28 that these days should be remembered and kept throughout every generation, every family, every province, and every city, that these days of Purim should not fail to be observed among the Judeans, and that the memory of them should not perish among their descendants.

¹ Despite being saved from certain destruction, this book does not record these Judeans giving any glory or praise to Jehovah God for sparing them. And instead of mercy, they use the situation to slaughter gentiles. Only Esther and Mordecai are praised. They then institute their annual holiday of Purim to celebrate their blood-soaked victory over the gentiles. Jehovah God has not commanded anyone to observe their secular holiday.

Est 9:29 Then Queen Esther, the daughter of Abihail, with Mordecai the Judean, wrote with full authority to confirm this second letter about Purim.

Est 9:30 And Mordecai sent letters to all the Judeans, to the one hundred and twenty-seven provinces of the kingdom of Ahasuerus, with words of peace and truth,
Est 9:31 to confirm these days of Purim at their appointed time, as Mordecai the Judean and Queen Esther had prescribed for them, and as they had decreed for their souls and their seed concerning matters of their fasting and lamenting.

Est 9:32 So the decree of Esther confirmed these matters of Purim, and it was written in the book.

Est 10:1 And King Ahasuerus imposed taxes on the land and on the islands of the sea.

Est 10:2 Now all the acts of his power and his might, and the account of the greatness of Mordecai, to which the king advanced him, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Media and Persia?

Est 10:3 For Mordecai the Judean was second to King Ahasuerus, and was great among the Judeans and well-received by the multitude of his brethren, seeking the good of his people and speaking peace to all his seed.

Daniel

Dan 1:1 In the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came to Jerusalem and besieged it.

Dan 1:2 And Jehovah gave Jehoiakim king of Judah into his hand, with some of the articles of the House of God, which he carried into the land of Shinar to the house of his god; and he brought the articles into the treasure house of his god.

Dan 1:3 Then the king instructed Ashpenaz, the chief of his eunuchs, to bring some of the children of Israel and some of the king's descendants and some of the nobles,

Dan 1:4 young men in whom there was no blemish, but good-looking, gifted in all wisdom, possessing knowledge and quick to understand, who had ability to serve in the king's palace, and whom they might teach the language and literature of the Chaldeans.

Dan 1:5 And the king appointed for them a daily provision of the king's delicacies and of the wine which he drank, and three years of training for them, so that at the end of that time they might serve before the king.

Dan 1:6 Now from among those of the sons of Judah were Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah.

Dan 1:7 To them the chief of the eunuchs gave names: he gave Daniel the name Belteshazzar; to Hananiah, Shadrach; to Mishael, Meshach; and to Azariah, Abed-Nego.

Dan 1:8 But Daniel purposed in his heart that he would not desecrate himself with the portion of the king's delicacies, nor with the wine which he drank; therefore he requested of the chief of the eunuchs that he might not desecrate himself.

Dan 1:9 Now God had brought Daniel into the favour and good will of the chief of the eunuchs.

Dan 1:10 And the chief of the eunuchs said to Daniel, "I fear my lord the king, who has appointed your food and drink. For why should he see your faces looking worse than the young men who are your age? Then you would endanger my head before the king."

Dan 1:11 So Daniel said to the steward whom the chief of the eunuchs had set over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, Dan 1:12 "Please test your servants for ten days, and let them give us vegetables to eat and water to drink.

Dan 1:13 "Then let our countenances be examined before you, and the countenances of the young men who eat the portion of the king's delicacies; and as you see fit, so deal with your servants."

Dan 1:14 So he consented with them in this matter, and tested them ten days.

Dan 1:15 And at the end of ten days their countenance appeared better and fatter in flesh than all the young men who ate the portion of the king's delicacies.

Dan 1:16 Thus the steward took away their portion of delicacies and the wine that they were to drink, and gave them vegetables.

Dan 1:17 As for these four young men, God gave them knowledge and skill in all literature and wisdom; and Daniel had understanding in all visions and dreams.¹

Dan 1:18 Now at the end of the days, when the king had said that they should be brought in, the chief of the eunuchs brought them in before Nebuchadnezzar.

Dan 1:19 Then the king interviewed them, and among them all none was found like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah; therefore they served before the king.

Dan 1:20 And in all matters of wisdom and understanding about which the king examined them, he found them ten times better than all the wizards and mediums who were in all his realm.

Dan 1:21 Thus Daniel continued until the first year of King Cyrus.

Dan 2:1 Now in the second year of Nebuchadnezzar's reign, Nebuchadnezzar had dreams; and his spirit was so troubled that his sleep left him.

Dan 2:2 Then the king gave the command to call the wizards, the mediums, the sorcerers, and the Chaldeans to tell the king his dreams. So they came and stood before the king.

Dan 2:3 And the king said to them, "I have had a dream, and my spirit is anxious to know the dream."

Dan 2:4 Then the Chaldeans spoke to the king in Aramaic, "O king, live forever! Tell your servants the dream, and we will give the interpretation."

Dan 2:5 But the king answered and said to the Chaldeans, "My decision is firm: if you do not make known the dream to me, and its interpretation, you will be cut in pieces, and your houses will be made an ash heap.

Dan 2:6 "However, if you tell the dream and its interpretation, you will receive from me gifts, rewards, and great honour. Therefore tell me the dream and its interpretation."

Dan 2:7 They answered again and said, "Let the king tell his servants the dream, and we will give its interpretation."

Dan 2:8 The king answered and said, "I know for certain that you would gain time, because you see that my decision is firm:

Dan 2:9 "if you do not make known the dream to me, there is only one decree for you! For you have agreed to speak lying and corrupt words before me until the time has changed. Therefore tell me the dream, and I will know that you can give me its interpretation."

Dan 2:10 The Chaldeans answered the king, and said, "There is not a man on earth who can tell the king's matter; therefore no king, lord, or ruler has ever asked such things of any wizard, medium, or Chaldean.

Dan 2:11 "It is a difficult thing that the king requires, and there is no other who can tell it to the king except the gods, whose dwelling is not with flesh."

Dan 2:12 For this reason the king was angry and very furious, and gave a command to destroy all the wise men of Babylon.

Dan 2:13 So the decree went out, and they began killing the wise men; and they sought Daniel and his companions, to kill them.

Dan 2:14 Then with counsel and wisdom Daniel answered Arioch, the captain of the king's guard, who had gone out to kill the wise men of Babylon;

Dan 2:15 he answered and said to Arioch, the king's captain, "Why is the decree from the king so urgent?" Then Arioch made the decision known to Daniel.

Dan 2:16 So Daniel went in and asked the king to give him time, that he might tell the king the interpretation.

Dan 2:17 Then Daniel went to his house, and made the decision known to Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, his companions,

Dan 2:18 that they might seek mercies from the God of heaven concerning this secret, so that Daniel and his companions might not perish with the rest of the wise men of Babylon.

Dan 2:19 Then the secret was revealed to Daniel in a night vision. So Daniel blessed the God of heaven.

Dan 2:20 Daniel answered and said: "Blessed be the name of God forever and ever, for wisdom and might are His.

Dan 2:21 And He changes the times and the seasons;¹ He removes kings and raises up kings; He gives wisdom to the wise and knowledge to those who have understanding.

Dan 2:22 He reveals deep and secret things; He knows what is in the darkness, and light dwells with Him.

Dan 2:23 "I thank You and praise You, O God of my fathers; you have given me wisdom and might, and have now made known to me what we asked of You, for You have made known to us the king's demand."

Dan 2:24 Therefore Daniel went to Arioch, whom the king had appointed to destroy the wise men of Babylon. He went and said thus to him: "Do not destroy the wise men of Babylon; take me before the king, and I will tell the king the interpretation."

Dan 2:25 Then Arioch, in trembling haste, brought Daniel before the king and said thus to him, "I have found a man of the captives of Judah who will make known to the king the interpretation."

Dan 2:26 The king answered and said to Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, "Are you able to make known to me the dream which I have seen, and its interpretation?"

Dan 2:27 Daniel answered in the presence of the king, and said, "The secret which the king has demanded, the wise men, the mediums, the wizards, and the astrologers cannot declare to the king.

Dan 2:28 "But there is a God in heaven who reveals secrets, and He has made known to King Nebuchadnezzar what will be in the latter days. Your dream, and the visions of your head upon your bed, were these:

Dan 2:29 "As for you, O king, thoughts came to your mind while on your bed, about what would come to pass after this; and He who reveals secrets has made known to you what will be.

Dan 2:30 "But as for me, this secret has not been revealed to me because I have more wisdom than anyone living, but for our sakes who make known the interpretation to the king, and that you may know the thoughts of your heart.

Dan 2:31 "You, O king, were watching; and behold, a great image! This great image, whose splendour was excellent, stood before you; and its form was awesome.

Dan 2:32 "This image's head was of fine gold, its chest and arms of silver, its belly and hips of bronze, Dan 2:33 "its legs of iron, its feet partly of iron and partly of clay.

Dan 2:34 "You watched while a stone was cut out without hands, which struck the image on its feet of iron and clay, and broke them in pieces.

Dan 2:35 "Then the iron, the clay, the bronze, the silver, and the gold were crushed together, and became like chaff from the summer threshing floors; the wind carried them away so that no trace of them was found. And the stone that struck the image became a great mountain and filled the whole earth.

Dan 2:36 "This is the dream. Now we will tell the interpretation of it before the king.

Dan 2:37 "You, O king, are a king of kings. For the God of heaven has given you a kingdom, power, strength, and glory;

Dan 2:38 "and wherever the children of men dwell, or the beasts of the field and the birds of the heaven, He has given them into your hand, and has made you ruler over them all; you are this head of gold.

Dan 2:39 "But after you will arise another kingdom inferior to yours; then another, a third kingdom of bronze, which will rule over all the earth.

Dan 2:40 "And the fourth kingdom will be as strong as iron, inasmuch as iron breaks in pieces and shatters all things; and like iron that crushes, that kingdom will break in pieces and crush all the others.

Dan 2:41 "Whereas you saw the feet and toes, partly of potter's clay and partly of iron, the kingdom will be divided; yet the strength of the iron will be in it, just as you saw the iron mixed with ceramic clay.

Dan 2:42 "And as the toes of the feet were partly of iron and partly of clay, so the kingdom will be partly strong and partly fragile.

Dan 2:43 "As you saw iron mixed with ceramic clay, they will mingle with the seed of men; but they will not adhere to one another, just as iron does not mix with clay.

Dan 2:44 "And in the days of these kings the God of heaven will set up a kingdom which can never be destroyed; and the kingdom will not be left to other people; it will break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it will stand forever.¹

Dan 2:45 "Inasmuch as you saw that the stone was cut out of the mountain without hands, and that it broke in pieces the iron, the bronze, the clay, the silver, and the gold; the great God has made known to the king what will come to pass after this. The dream is certain, and its interpretation is sure."²

Dan 2:46 Then King Nebuchadnezzar fell on his face, prostrate before Daniel, and commanded that they should present a soothing offering to him.

Dan 2:47 The king answered Daniel, and said, "Truly your God is the God of gods, the Lord of kings, and a revealer of secrets, since you could reveal this secret."

Dan 2:48 Then the king promoted Daniel and gave him many great gifts; and he made him ruler over the whole province of Babylon, and chief administrator over all the wise men of Babylon.

Dan 2:49 Also Daniel petitioned the king, and he set Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego over the affairs of the province of Babylon; but Daniel sat in the gate of the king.

Dan 3:1 Nebuchadnezzar the king made an image of gold, whose height was sixty cubits and its width six cubits. He set it up in the plain of Dura, in the province of Babylon.

Dan 3:2 And King Nebuchadnezzar sent word to gather together the satraps, the administrators, the governors, the counsellors, the treasurers, the judges, the magistrates, and all the officials of the provinces, to come to the dedication of the image which King Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

Dan 3:3 So the satraps, the administrators, the governors, the counsellors, the treasurers, the judges, the magistrates, and all the officials of the provinces gathered together for the dedication of the image that King Nebuchadnezzar had set up; and they stood before the image that Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

Dan 3:4 Then a herald cried aloud: "To you it is commanded, O peoples, nations, and languages, Dan 3:5 "that at the time you hear the sound of the horn, flute, harp, lyre, and psaltery, in symphony with all kinds of music, you will fall down and worship the gold image that King Nebuchadnezzar has set up;

Dan 3:6 "and whoever does not fall down and worship will be cast immediately into the midst of a burning fiery furnace."

Dan 3:7 So at that time, when all the people heard the sound of the horn, flute, harp, and lyre, in symphony with all kinds of music, all the people, nations, and languages fell down and worshipped the gold image which King Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

Dan 3:8 Therefore at that time certain Chaldeans came forward and accused the Judeans.

Dan 3:9 They spoke and said to King

¹ Luk 1:32-33

² Luk 20:18

Nebuchadnezzar, "O king, live forever!

Dan 3:10 "You, O king, have made a decree that everyone who hears the sound of the horn, flute, harp, lyre, and psaltery, in symphony with all kinds of music, will fall down and worship the gold image;

Dan 3:11 "and whoever does not fall down and worship will be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace.

Dan 3:12 "There are certain Judeans whom you have set over the affairs of the province of Babylon: Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego; these men, O king, have not paid due regard to you. They do not serve your gods or worship the gold image which you have set up."

Dan 3:13 Then Nebuchadnezzar, in rage and fury, gave the command to bring Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego. So they brought these men before the king.

Dan 3:14 Nebuchadnezzar spoke, saying to them, "Is it true, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego, that you do not serve my gods or worship the gold image which I have set up?

Dan 3:15 "Now if you are ready at the time you hear the sound of the horn, flute, harp, lyre, and psaltery, in symphony with all kinds of music, and you fall down and worship the image which I have made, good! But if you do not worship, you will be cast immediately into the midst of a burning fiery furnace. And who is the god who will deliver you from my hands?"

Dan 3:16 Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego answered and said to the king, "O Nebuchadnezzar, we have no need to answer you in this matter.

Dan 3:17 "If that is the case, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace, and He will deliver us from your hand, O king.

Dan 3:18 "But if not, let it be known to you, O king, that we do not serve your gods, nor will we worship the gold image which you have set up."

Dan 3:19 Then Nebuchadnezzar was full of fury, and the expression on his face changed toward Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego. Therefore he spoke and commanded that they heat the furnace seven times more than it was usually heated.

Dan 3:20 And he commanded certain mighty men of valour who were in his army to bind Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego, and cast them into the burning fiery furnace.

Dan 3:21 Then these men were bound in their coats, their trousers, their turbans, and their other garments, and were cast into the midst of the burning fiery furnace.

Dan 3:22 Therefore, because the king's command was urgent, and the furnace exceedingly hot, the flame of the fire killed those men who took up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego.

Dan 3:23 And these three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego, fell down bound into the midst of the burning fiery furnace.

Dan 3:24 Then King Nebuchadnezzar was astonished; and he rose in trembling haste and spoke, saying to his counsellors, "Did we not cast three men bound into the midst of the fire?" They answered and said to the king, "True, O king."

Dan 3:25 "Look!" he answered, "I see four men loose, walking in the midst of the fire; and they are not hurt, and the form of the fourth is like the Son of God."

Dan 3:26 Then Nebuchadnezzar went near the mouth of the burning fiery furnace and spoke, saying, "Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego, servants of the Most High God, come out, and come here." Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego came from the midst of the fire.

Dan 3:27 And the satraps, administrators, governors, and the king's counsellors gathered together, and they saw these men on whose bodies the fire had no power; the hair of their head was not singed nor were their garments affected, and the smell of fire was not on them.

Dan 3:28 Nebuchadnezzar spoke, saying, "Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego, who sent His Envoy and delivered His servants who trusted in Him, and they have frustrated the king's word, and yielded their bodies, that they should not serve nor worship any god except their own God!

Dan 3:29 "Therefore I make a decree that any people, nation, or language which speaks anything amiss against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego will be cut in pieces, and their houses will be made an ash heap; because there is no other God who can deliver like this."

Dan 3:30 Then the king promoted Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego in the province of Babylon.

Dan 4:1 Nebuchadnezzar the king: To all peoples, nations and languages that dwell in all the earth: Peace be multiplied to you.

Dan 4:2 I thought it good to declare the signs and wonders that the Most High God has worked for me.

Dan 4:3 How great are His signs, and how mighty His wonders! His kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and His dominion is from generation to generation.

Dan 4:4 I, Nebuchadnezzar, was at rest in my house, and flourishing in my palace.

Dan 4:5 I saw a dream which made me afraid, and the thoughts on my bed and the visions of my head troubled me.

Dan 4:6 Therefore I issued a decree to bring in all the wise men of Babylon before me, that they might make known to me the interpretation of the dream.

Dan 4:7 Then the wizards, the mediums, the Chaldeans, and the astrologers came in, and I told them the dream; but they did not make known to me its interpretation.

Dan 4:8 But at last Daniel came before me (his name is Belteshazzar, according to the name of my god; in him is the Spirit of the Holy Gods), and I told the dream before him, saying:

Dan 4:9 "Belteshazzar, chief of the magicians, because I know that the Spirit of the Holy Gods is in you, and no secret troubles you, explain to me the visions of my dream that I have seen, and its interpretation.

Dan 4:10 "These were the visions of my head while on my bed: I was looking, and behold, a tree in the midst of the earth, and its height was great.

Dan 4:11 The tree grew and became strong; its height reached to the heavens, and it could be seen to the ends of all the earth.

Dan 4:12 Its leaves were lovely, its fruit abundant, and in it was food for all. The beasts of the field found shade under it, the birds of the heavens dwelt in its branches, and all flesh was fed from it.

Dan 4:13 "I saw in the visions of my head while on my bed, and there was a watcher, a holy one, coming down from heaven.

Dan 4:14 He cried aloud and said thus: 'Chop down the tree and cut off its branches, strip off its leaves and scatter its fruit. Let the beasts get out from under it, and the birds from its branches.

Dan 4:15 Nevertheless leave the stump and roots in the earth, bound with a band of iron and bronze, in the tender grass of the field. Let it be wet with the dew of heaven, and let him graze with the beasts on the grass of the earth.

Dan 4:16 Let his heart be changed from that of a man, let him be given the heart of an animal, and let seven times pass over him.

Dan 4:17 'This decision is by the decree of the watchers, and the sentence by the word of the holy ones, in order that the living may know that the Most High rules in the kingdom of men, gives it to whomever He will, and sets over it the lowest of men.'

Dan 4:18 "This dream I, King

Nebuchadnezzar, have seen. Now you, Belteshazzar, declare its interpretation, since all the wise men of my kingdom are not able to make known to me the interpretation; but you are able, for the Spirit of the Holy God is in you.”

Dan 4:19 Then Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, was astonished for a time, and his thoughts troubled him. So the king spoke, and said, “Belteshazzar, do not let the dream or its interpretation trouble you.” Belteshazzar answered and said, “My lord, may the dream concern those who hate you, and its interpretation concern your enemies!

Dan 4:20 The tree that you saw, which grew and became strong, whose height reached to the heavens and which could be seen by all the earth,

Dan 4:21 whose leaves were lovely and its fruit abundant, in which was food for all, under which the beasts of the field dwelt, and on whose branches the birds of the heaven resided;

Dan 4:22 it is you, O king, who have grown and become strong; for your greatness has grown and reaches to the heavens, and your dominion to the end of the earth.

Dan 4:23 And inasmuch as the king saw a watcher, a holy one, coming down from heaven and saying, ‘Chop down the tree and destroy it, but leave its stump and roots in the earth, bound with a band of iron and bronze in the tender grass of the field; let it be wet with the dew of heaven, and let him graze with the beasts of the field, until seven times pass over him’;

Dan 4:24 this is the interpretation, O king, and this is the decree of the Most High, which has come upon my lord the king:

Dan 4:25 They will drive you from men, your dwelling will be with the beasts of the field, and they will make you eat grass like oxen. They will wet you with the dew of heaven, and seven times will pass over you, until you know that the Most High rules in the kingdom of men, and gives it to whomever He chooses.

Dan 4:26 And inasmuch as they gave the command to leave the stump and roots of the tree, your kingdom will be assured to you, after you come to know that Heaven rules.

Dan 4:27 Therefore, O king, let my counsel be acceptable to you; break off your sins by being righteous, and your iniquities by showing mercy to the poor. Perhaps there may be a lengthening of your prosperity.”

Dan 4:28 All this came upon King Nebuchadnezzar.

Dan 4:29 At the end of the twelve months he was walking about the royal palace of Babylon.

Dan 4:30 The king spoke, saying, “Is not this great Babylon, that I have built for a house for the kingdom by my mighty power and for the honour of my majesty?”

Dan 4:31 While the word was still in the king’s mouth, a voice fell from heaven: “King Nebuchadnezzar, to you it is spoken: the kingdom has departed from you!

Dan 4:32 And they will drive you from men, and your dwelling will be with the beasts of the field. They will make you eat grass like oxen; and seven times will pass over you, until you know that the Most High rules in the kingdom of men, and gives it to whomever He chooses.”

Dan 4:33 That very hour the word was fulfilled concerning Nebuchadnezzar; he was driven from men and ate grass like oxen; his body was wet with the dew of heaven until his hair had grown like eagles’ feathers and his nails like birds’ claws.

Dan 4:34 And at the end of the time I, Nebuchadnezzar, lifted my eyes to heaven, and my understanding returned to me; and I blessed the Most High and praised and honoured Him who lives forever, for His dominion is an everlasting dominion, and His kingdom is from generation to generation.

Dan 4:35 All the inhabitants of the earth are reputed as nothing; He does according to His will in the army of heaven and among the inhabitants of the earth. No one can restrain His hand or say to Him, "What have You done?"

Dan 4:36 At the same time my reason returned to me, and for the glory of my kingdom, my honour and splendour returned to me. My counsellors and nobles resorted to me, I was restored to my kingdom, and excellent majesty was added to me.

Dan 4:37 Now I, Nebuchadnezzar, praise and extol and honour the King of heaven, all of whose works are truth, and His ways justice. And those who walk in pride He is able to abase.

Dan 5:1 Belshazzar the king made a great feast for a thousand of his lords, and drank wine in the presence of the thousand.

Dan 5:2 While he tasted the wine, Belshazzar gave the command to bring the gold and silver vessels which his father Nebuchadnezzar had taken from the Palace which had been in Jerusalem, that the king and his lords, his wives, and his concubines might drink from them.

Dan 5:3 Then they brought the gold vessels that had been taken from the Palace of the House of God which had been in Jerusalem; and the king and his lords, his wives, and his concubines drank from them.

Dan 5:4 They drank wine, and praised the gods of gold and silver, bronze and iron, wood and stone.

Dan 5:5 In the same hour the fingers of a man's hand appeared and wrote opposite the lampstand on the plaster of the wall of the king's palace; and the king saw the part of the hand that wrote.

Dan 5:6 Then the king's countenance changed, and his thoughts troubled him, so that the joints of his hips were loosened and his knees knocked against each other.

Dan 5:7 The king cried aloud to bring in the mediums, the Chaldeans, and the astrologers. And the king spoke, saying to the wise men of Babylon, "Whoever reads this writing, and tells me its interpretation, will be clothed with purple and have a chain of gold around his neck; and he will be the third ruler in the kingdom."

Dan 5:8 Now all the king's wise men came, but they could not read the writing, or make known to the king its interpretation.

Dan 5:9 Then King Belshazzar was greatly troubled, his countenance was changed, and his lords were astonished.

Dan 5:10 The queen, because of the words of the king and his lords, came to the banquet house. And the queen spoke, saying, "O king, live forever! Do not let your thoughts trouble you, nor let your countenance change.

Dan 5:11 "There is a man in your kingdom in whom is the Spirit of the Holy God. And in the days of your father, light and understanding and wisdom, like the wisdom of the gods, were found in him; and King Nebuchadnezzar your father; your father the king; made him chief of the wizards, mediums, Chaldeans, and astrologers.

Dan 5:12 "Inasmuch as an excellent spirit, knowledge, understanding, interpreting dreams, solving riddles, and explaining enigmas were found in this Daniel, whom the king named Belteshazzar, now let Daniel be called, and he will give the interpretation."

Dan 5:13 Then Daniel was brought in before the king. And the king spoke, and said to Daniel, "Are you that Daniel who is one of the captives from Judah, whom my father the king brought from Judah?

Dan 5:14 "I have heard of you, that the Spirit of God is in you, and that light and understanding and excellent wisdom are found in you.

Dan 5:15 Now the wise men, the mediums, have been brought in before me, that they should read this writing and make known to me its interpretation, but they could not give the interpretation of the thing.

Dan 5:16 “And I have heard of you, that you can give interpretations and explain enigmas. Now if you can read the writing and make known to me its interpretation, you will be clothed with purple and have a chain of gold around your neck, and will be the third ruler in the kingdom.”

Dan 5:17 Then Daniel answered, and said before the king, “Let your gifts be for yourself, and give your rewards to another; yet I will read the writing to the king, and make known to him the interpretation.

Dan 5:18 “O king, the Most High God gave Nebuchadnezzar your father a kingdom and majesty, glory and honour.

Dan 5:19 “And because of the majesty that He gave him, all peoples, nations, and languages trembled and feared before him. Whomever he wished, he executed; whomever he wished, he kept alive; whomever he wished, he set up; and whomever he wished, he put down.

Dan 5:20 “But when his heart was lifted up, and his spirit was hardened in pride, he was deposed from his kingly throne, and they took his glory from him.

Dan 5:21 “Then he was driven from the sons of men, his heart was made like the beasts, and his dwelling was with the wild donkeys. They fed him with grass like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven, until he knew that the Most High God rules in the kingdom of men, and appoints over it whomever He chooses.

Dan 5:22 “But you his son, Belshazzar, have not humbled your heart, although you knew all this.

Dan 5:23 “And you have lifted yourself up against the Lord of heaven. They have brought the vessels of His house before you, and you and your lords, your wives and your concubines, have drunk wine from them. And you have praised the gods of silver and gold, bronze and iron, wood and stone, which do not see or hear or know; and the God who holds your breath in His hand and owns all your ways, you have not glorified.

Dan 5:24 “Then the fingers of the hand were sent from Him, and this writing was written.

Dan 5:25 “And this is the inscription that was written: MENE, MENE, TEKEL, UPHARSIN.

Dan 5:26 “This is the interpretation of each word. MENE: God has numbered your kingdom, and finished it;

Dan 5:27 “TEKEL: You have been weighed in the balances, and found wanting;

Dan 5:28 “PERES: Your kingdom has been divided, and given to the Medes and Persians.”

Dan 5:29 Then Belshazzar gave the command, and they clothed Daniel with purple and put a chain of gold around his neck, and made a proclamation concerning him that he should be the third ruler in the kingdom.

Dan 5:30 That very night Belshazzar, king of the Chaldeans, was slain.¹

Dan 5:31 And Darius the Mede received the kingdom, being about sixty-two years old.

Dan 6:1 It pleased Darius to set over the kingdom one hundred and twenty satraps, to be over the whole kingdom;

Dan 6:2 and over these, three governors, of whom Daniel was one, that the satraps might give account to them, so that the king would suffer no loss.

Dan 6:3 Then this Daniel distinguished himself above the governors and satraps, because an excellent spirit was in him; and the king gave thought to setting him over the whole realm.

Dan 6:4 So the governors and satraps sought to find some charge against Daniel concerning the kingdom; but they could find no charge or fault, because he was faithful; nor was there any error or fault found in him.

Dan 6:5 Then these men said, "We will not find any charge against this Daniel unless we find it against him concerning the law of his God."

Dan 6:6 So these governors and satraps thronged before the king, and said thus to him: "King Darius, live forever!

Dan 6:7 "All the governors of the kingdom, the administrators and satraps, the counsellors and advisors, have consulted together to establish a royal statute and to make a firm decree, that whoever petitions any god or man for thirty days, except you, O king, will be cast into the den of lions.

Dan 6:8 "Now, O king, establish the decree and sign the writing, so that it cannot be changed, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which does not alter."

Dan 6:9 Therefore King Darius signed the written decree.

Dan 6:10 Now when Daniel knew that the writing was signed, he went to his house. And in his upper room, with his windows open toward Jerusalem, he knelt down on his knees three times that day, and prayed and gave thanks before his God, as was his custom since early days.

Dan 6:11 Then these men assembled and found Daniel praying and making supplication before his God.

Dan 6:12 And they went before the king, and spoke concerning the king's decree: "Have you not signed a decree that every man who petitions any god or man within thirty days, except you, O king, will be cast into the den of lions?" The king answered and said, "The thing is true, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which does not alter."

Dan 6:13 So they answered and said before the king, "That Daniel, who is one of the captives from Judah, does not show due regard for you, O king, or for the decree that you have signed, but makes his petition three times a day."

Dan 6:14 And the king, when he heard these words, was greatly displeased with himself, and set his heart on Daniel to deliver him; and he laboured until the going in of the sun to deliver him.

Dan 6:15 Then these men approached the king, and said to the king, "Know, O king, that it is the law of the Medes and Persians that no decree or statute which the king establishes may be changed."

Dan 6:16 So the king gave the command, and they brought Daniel and cast him into the den of lions. But the king spoke, saying to Daniel, "Your God, whom you serve continually, He will deliver you."

Dan 6:17 Then a stone was brought and laid on the mouth of the den, and the king sealed it with his own signet ring and with the signets of his lords, that the purpose concerning Daniel might not be changed.

Dan 6:18 Now the king went to his palace and spent the night fasting; and no musicians were brought before him. Also his sleep went from him.

Dan 6:19 Then the king arose very early in the morning and went in trembling haste to the den of lions.

Dan 6:20 And when he came to the den, he cried out with a lamenting voice to Daniel. The king spoke, saying to Daniel, "Daniel, servant of the living God, has your God, whom you serve continually, been able to deliver you from the lions?"

Dan 6:21 Then Daniel said to the king, "O king, live forever!

Dan 6:22 "My God sent His envoy and shut the lions' mouths, so that they have not hurt me, because I was found innocent before Him; and also, O king, I have done no wrong before you.”

Dan 6:23 Then the king was exceedingly glad for him, and commanded that they should take Daniel up out of the den. So Daniel was taken up out of the den, and no injury whatever was found on him, because he believed in his God.

Dan 6:24 And the king gave the command, and they brought those men who had accused Daniel, and they cast them into the den of lions; them, their children, and their wives; and the lions overpowered them, and broke all their bones in pieces before they ever came to the bottom of the den.

Dan 6:25 Then King Darius wrote: “To all peoples, nations, and languages that dwell in all the earth: Peace be multiplied to you.

Dan 6:26 “I make a decree that in every dominion of my kingdom men must tremble and fear before the God of Daniel. For He is the living God, and steadfast forever; His kingdom is the one which will not be destroyed, and His dominion will endure to the end.

Dan 6:27 “He delivers and rescues, and He works signs and wonders in heaven and on earth, who has delivered Daniel from the power of the lions.”

Dan 6:28 So this Daniel prospered in the reign of Darius and in the reign of Cyrus the Persian.

Dan 7:1 In the first year of Belshazzar king of Babylon, Daniel had a dream and visions in his head while on his bed. Then he wrote down the dream, telling the main facts.

Dan 7:2 Daniel spoke, saying, “I saw in my vision by night, and behold, the four winds of heaven were stirring up the Great Sea.

Dan 7:3 “And four great beasts came up from the sea, each different from the other.

Dan 7:4 “The first was like a lion, and had eagle’s wings. I watched until its wings were plucked off; and it was lifted up from the earth and made to stand on two feet like a man, and a man’s heart was given to it.

Dan 7:5 “And suddenly another beast, a second, like a bear. It was raised up on one side, and had three ribs in its mouth between its teeth. And they said thus to it: ‘Arise, devour much flesh!’

Dan 7:6 “After this I looked, and there was another, like a leopard, which had on its back four wings of a bird. The beast also had four heads, and dominion was given to it.

Dan 7:7 “After this I saw in the night visions, and behold, a fourth beast, dreadful and terrible, exceedingly strong. It had huge iron teeth; it was devouring, breaking in pieces, and trampling the residue with its feet. It was different from all the beasts that were before it, and it had ten horns.¹

Dan 7:8 “I was considering the horns, and behold, another little horn came up among them, and three of the first horns were uprooted before it. And behold, there were eyes like the eyes of a man in this horn, and a mouth speaking great words.²

Dan 7:9 “I watched until thrones were set up, and the Ancient of Days³ was seated, whose garment was white as snow, and the hair of His head was like pure wool. His throne was a fiery flame, its wheels a burning fire;

Dan 7:10 a river of fire flowed and came forth before Him. A thousand thousands served Him; ten thousand times ten thousand stood before Him. The court was seated, and the books were opened.

² This little horn is likely the Roman pope, who arose within the Roman empire and today pretends to be the infallible envoy of Jeshua on earth and persecutes God’s servants, calling them heretics.

Dan 7:11 “I watched then because of the sound of the great words which the horn was speaking; I watched until the beast was slain, and its body destroyed and given to the burning flame.

Dan 7:12 “And the rest of the beasts had their dominion taken away, yet their lives were lengthened for a season and a time.

Dan 7:13 “I was watching visions in the night, and behold, One like the Son of Man was coming with the clouds of heaven! And He came to the Ancient of Days, and they brought Him near before Him.

Dan 7:14 Then dominion was given to Him, and glory and a kingdom, that all peoples, nations, and languages should serve Him. His dominion is an everlasting dominion, which will not pass away, and His kingdom is that which will not be destroyed.¹

Dan 7:15 “I, Daniel, was distressed in my spirit within my sheath,² and the visions of my head alarmed me.

Dan 7:16 “I came near to one of those who stood by, and asked the truth from him of all this. And he told me and made known to me the meaning of these things:

Dan 7:17 ‘These great beasts, which are four, are four kings; they will arise out of the earth.

Dan 7:18 ‘But the holy ones of the Most High will receive the kingdom, and possess the kingdom forever, even forever and ever.’³

Dan 7:19 “Then I wished to know the truth of the fourth beast, which was different from all of them, exceedingly frightening. Its teeth were of iron and its nails of bronze, who devoured, crushed, and trampled the residue with its feet;

Dan 7:20 “and of the ten horns that were on its head, and about the other horn which came up, and before which three fell, even that horn which had eyes and a mouth which spoke great words, which looked greater than its fellows.

Dan 7:21 “I was watching; and that horn made war with the holy ones, and prevailed against them⁴ Dan 7:22 “until the Ancient of Days came. And the judgement was made for the holy ones of the Most High, and the time came for the holy ones to possess the kingdom.

Dan 7:23 “Thus he said: ‘The fourth beast will be the fourth kingdom on earth, which will be different from all the kingdoms, and will devour all the earth, and trample it and crush it.

Dan 7:24 The ten horns are ten kings who will arise from this kingdom. And another will rise after them; he will be different from the first ones, and will subdue three kings.

Dan 7:25 He will speak words against the Most High, will wear out the holy ones of the Most High, and intend to change the appointed times and law. And they will be given into his hand for a time and times and half a time.⁵

Dan 7:26 ‘But the court will be seated, and they will take away his dominion, to consume and destroy it until the end.

Dan 7:27 Then the kingdom and the dominion, and the greatness of the kingdoms under all the heavens, will be given to the people of the holy ones of the Most High. His kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all the dominions will serve and obey Him.’

Dan 7:28 “This is the end of the matter. As for me, Daniel, my thoughts greatly alarmed me, and my colour changed; but I kept the matter in my heart.”

Dan 8:1 In the third year of the reign of King Belshazzar a vision appeared to me, Daniel, after the one that appeared to me the first time.

Dan 8:2 I saw in the vision, and it so happened while I was looking, that I was in Shushan, the citadel, which is in the province of Elam; and I saw in the vision that I was by the River Ulai.

Dan 8:3 Then I lifted my eyes and saw, and there, standing beside the river, was a ram which had two horns, and the two horns were high; but one was higher than the second one, and the higher one came up last.

Dan 8:4 I saw the ram pushing westward, northward, and southward, so that no beast could withstand him; nor was there any that could deliver from his hand, but he did according to his will and became great.

Dan 8:5 And as I was considering, suddenly a male goat came from the west, across the surface of the whole earth, without touching the ground; and the goat had a notable horn between his eyes.

Dan 8:6 Then he came to the ram, master of two horns, which I had seen standing beside the river, and ran at him with furious power.

Dan 8:7 And I saw him confronting the ram; he was moved with rage against him, attacked the ram, and broke his two horns. There was no power in the ram to withstand him, but he cast him down to the ground and trampled him; and there was no one that could deliver the ram from his hand.

Dan 8:8 Therefore the male goat grew very great; but when he became strong, the large horn was broken, and in its place four notable ones came up toward the four winds of heaven.¹

Dan 8:9 And out of one of them came a little horn which grew exceedingly great toward the south, toward the sunrise, and toward the Glorious Land.

Dan 8:10 And it grew up to the host of heaven; and it cast down some of the host and some of the stars to the ground, and trampled them.

Dan 8:11 He even exalted himself as high as the Prince of the host; and by him the daily sacrifices were taken away, and the place of His sanctuary was cast down.

Dan 8:12 Because of transgression, an army was given over to the horn to oppose the daily sacrifices; and he cast truth down to the ground. He did all this and prospered.

Dan 8:13 Then I heard a sacred one speaking; and another sacred one said to that certain one who was speaking, "How long will the vision be, about the continuity and the transgression of desolation, the giving of both the sanctuary and the host to be trampled down?"

Dan 8:14 And he said to me, "For two thousand three hundred evenings and mornings; then the sanctuary will be justified."

Dan 8:15 Now it happened, when I, Daniel, had seen the vision and was seeking the meaning, that suddenly there stood before me one having the appearance of a man.

Dan 8:16 And I heard a man's voice between the banks of the Ulai, who called, and said, "Gabriel, make this man understand the vision."

Dan 8:17 So he came near where I stood, and when he came I was afraid and fell on my face; but he said to me, "Understand, son of man, that the vision refers to the time of the end."

Dan 8:18 Now, as he was speaking with me, I was in a deep sleep with my face to the ground; but he touched me, and stood me upright.

Dan 8:19 And he said, "Look, I am making known to you what will happen in the latter time of the indignation; for the end will be at the appointed time.

Dan 8:20 "The ram which you saw, the master of two horns are the kings of Media and Persia.

Dan 8:21 "And the male goat is the kingdom of Greece. The large horn that is between its eyes is the first king.

Dan 8:22 "As for the broken horn and the four that stood up in its place, four kingdoms will arise out of that nation, but not with its power.

Dan 8:23 "And in the latter time of their kingdom, when the transgressors have reached their fullness, a king will arise, having fierce features, who understands sinister schemes.

Dan 8:24 His power will be mighty, but not by his own power; he will destroy fearfully, and will prosper and thrive; he will destroy the mighty, and also the sacred people.

Dan 8:25 "Through his cunning he will cause deceit to prosper under his hand; and he will magnify himself in his heart. He will destroy many in their prosperity. He will even rise against the Prince of princes; but he will be broken without human hand.

Dan 8:26 "And the vision of the evenings and mornings which was told is true; therefore seal up the vision, for it refers to many days in the future."

Dan 8:27 And I, Daniel, fainted and was sick for days; afterwards I arose and went about the king's business. I was astonished by the vision, but no one understood it.

Dan 9:1 In the first year of Darius the son of Ahasuerus, of the lineage of the Medes, who was made king over the realm of the Chaldeans;

Dan 9:2 in the first year of his reign I, Daniel, understood by the books the number of the years specified by the word of Jehovah, given through Jeremiah the prophet, that He would fulfil seventy years in the ruins of Jerusalem.¹

Dan 9:3 Then I set my face toward Jehovah God to make request by prayer and supplications, with fasting, sackcloth, and ashes.

Dan 9:4 And I prayed to Jehovah my God, and made confession, and said, "O Jehovah, great and awesome God, who keeps His covenant and mercy with those who love Him, and with those who keep His commandments;

Dan 9:5 "we have sinned and committed iniquity, we have done evil and rebelled, and turned from Your commandments and Your judgements.

Dan 9:6 "Nor have we heeded Your servants the prophets, who spoke in Your Name to our kings and our princes, to our fathers and all the people of the land.

Dan 9:7 "O Jehovah, righteousness belongs to You, but shame of face to us, as it is this day; to the men of Judah, to the inhabitants of Jerusalem and all Israel, those near and those far off in all the countries to which You have driven them, because of the unfaithfulness which they have committed against You.

Dan 9:8 "O Jehovah, shame of face belongs to us, to our kings, our princes, and our fathers, because we have sinned against You.

Dan 9:9 "To Jehovah our God belongs mercy and forgiveness, though we have rebelled against Him.

Dan 9:10 "We have not obeyed the voice of Jehovah our God, to walk in His Instructions, which He set before us by His servants—the prophets.

Dan 9:11 "Yes, all Israel has transgressed Your Instructions, and has departed so as to not obey Your voice; therefore the curse and the oath written in the Instructions of Moses, God's servant, have been poured out on us, because we have sinned against

Dan 9:12 “And He has confirmed His words, which He spoke against us and against our judges who judged us, by bringing upon us a great evil; for under the whole heaven such never has been done as what has been done to Jerusalem.

Dan 9:13 “As it is written in the Instructions of Moses, all this evil has come upon us; yet we have not made our prayer before Jehovah our God, that we might turn from our iniquities and understand Your truth.

Dan 9:14 “Therefore Jehovah has kept the evil in mind, and brought it upon us; for Jehovah our God is righteous in all the works which He does, though we have not obeyed His voice.

Dan 9:15 “And now, O Jehovah our God, who brought Your people out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and made Yourself a Name, as it is this day; we have sinned, we have done wickedly!

Dan 9:16 “O Jehovah, according to all Your righteousness, I pray, let Your anger and Your fury be turned away from Your city Jerusalem, Your sanctified mountain; because for our sins, and for the iniquities of our fathers, Jerusalem and Your people have become a reproach to all who are around us.

Dan 9:17 “Now therefore, our God, hear the prayer of Your servant, and his supplications, and cause Your face to shine on Your sanctuary, which is desolate, for Your Name, Jehovah.

Dan 9:18 “O my God, incline Your ear and hear; open Your eyes and see our desolations, and the city which is called by Your Name; for we do not present our supplications before You because of our righteous deeds, but because of Your great mercies.

Dan 9:19 “O Jehovah, hear! O Jehovah, forgive! O Jehovah, listen and act! Do not delay for Your own sake, my God, for Your city and Your people are called by Your Name.”

Dan 9:20 Now while I was speaking, praying, and confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel, and presenting my supplication before Jehovah my God for the sanctified mountain of my God,

Dan 9:21 yes, while I was speaking in prayer, the man Gabriel, whom I had seen in the vision at the beginning, being caused to fly swiftly, reached me about the time of the evening offering.

Dan 9:22 And he talked with me, and said, “O Daniel, I have now come forth so I can teach you so you will understand.

Dan 9:23 “At the beginning of your supplications the command went out, and I have come to tell you, for you are greatly beloved; therefore consider the matter, and understand the vision:

Dan 9:24 “Seventy weeks are decreed for your people and for your sanctified city, to finish the transgression, to make an end of sins, to atone for iniquity, to bring in everlasting righteousness, to seal² vision and prophecy, and to anoint the sanctified sanctuary.

Dan 9:25 “Therefore know and understand, that from the going forth of the word to restore and rebuild Jerusalem to Messiah the Prince, will be seven weeks and sixty-two weeks. The streets will be built again, and the defences, even in times of affliction.

Dan 9:26 “And after the sixty-two weeks Messiah will be cut off, but not for Himself. And the city and the sanctuary will be destroyed by the people of a prince to come. And its end will come with an overflow, and until the end will be war, for desolations are determined.

Dan 9:27 “And He will confirm a covenant with many for one week; but in the middle of the week He will make the sacrifice and offering to cease.³ And on the wing of abominations will be a desolator,¹ even until the end. And that which is decreed will be poured out on the desolator.”

Dan 10:1 In the third year of Cyrus king of Persia a message was revealed to Daniel, whose name was called Belteshazzar. The message was true, but the appointed time was long; and he understood the message, and had understanding of the vision.

Dan 10:2 In those days I, Daniel, was mourning three full weeks.

Dan 10:3 I ate no pleasant food, no meat or wine came into my mouth, nor did I anoint myself at all, until three whole weeks were fulfilled.

Dan 10:4 Now on the twenty-fourth day of the first new moon, as I was by the side of the great river, that is, the Tigris, Dan 10:5 I lifted my eyes and looked, and behold, a certain man clothed in linen, whose waist was girded with the gold of Uphaz!

Dan 10:6 His body was like beryl, his face like the appearance of lightning, his eyes like torches of fire, his arms and feet like burnished bronze in colour, and the sound of his words like the voice of a multitude.²

Dan 10:7 And I, Daniel, alone saw the vision, for the men who were with me did not see the vision; but a great terror fell upon them, so that they fled to hide themselves.

Jeshua, our Messiah, who died precisely after three and a half weeks (years) into the 70th week (490 years) of this prophecy (31 CE), on a Wednesday (on the Passover preparation day that year) in the middle of week. See God's Calendar and the Sign of Jonah for details.

² Rev 1:10-18

Dan 10:8 Therefore I was left alone when I saw this great vision, and no strength remained in me; for my vigour was turned to frailty in me, and I retained no strength.

Dan 10:9 Yet I heard the sound of his words; and while I heard the sound of his words I was in a deep sleep on my face, with my face to the ground.

Dan 10:10 Then, suddenly, a hand touched me, which made me tremble on my knees and on the palms of my hands.

Dan 10:11 And he said to me, “O Daniel, man greatly beloved, understand the words that I speak to you, and stand upright, for I have now been sent to you.” While he was speaking this word to me, I stood trembling.

Dan 10:12 Then he said to me, “Do not fear, Daniel, for from the first day that you set your heart to understand, and to humble yourself before your God, your words were heard; and I have come because of your words.

Dan 10:13 “But the prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me twenty-one days; and behold, Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me, for I had been left alone there with the kings of Persia.

Dan 10:14 “Now I have come to make you understand what will happen to your people in the latter days, for the vision refers to many days yet to come.”

Dan 10:15 When he had spoken such words to me, I turned my face toward the ground and became speechless.

Dan 10:16 And suddenly, one having the likeness of the sons of men touched my lips; then I opened my mouth and spoke, saying to him who stood before me, “My lord, because of the vision my sorrows have overwhelmed me, and I have retained no strength.

Dan 10:17 “For how can this servant of my lord talk with you, my lord? As for me, no strength remains in me now, nor is any breath left in me.”

Dan 10:18 Then again, the one having the likeness of a man touched me and strengthened me.

Dan 10:19 And he said, "O man greatly beloved, fear not! Peace be to you; be strong, yes, be strong!" So when he spoke to me I was strengthened, and said, "Let my lord speak, for you have strengthened me."

Dan 10:20 Then he said, "Do you know why I have come to you? And now I must return to fight with the prince of Persia; and when I have gone forth, indeed the prince of Greece will come.

Dan 10:21 "But I will tell you what is noted in the Writings of Truth. No one upholds me against these, except Michael your prince.

Dan 11:1 "Also in the first year of Darius the Mede, I, even I, stood up to strengthen his stronghold.

Dan 11:2 "And now I will tell you the truth: Behold, three more kings will arise in Persia, and the fourth will be far richer than them all; by his strength, through his riches, he will stir up all against the realm of Greece.

Dan 11:3 "Then a mighty king will arise, who will rule with great dominion, and do according to his will.

Dan 11:4 "And when he has arisen, his kingdom will be broken up and divided toward the four winds of heaven, but not among his posterity nor according to his dominion with which he ruled; for his kingdom will be uprooted, even for others besides these.

Dan 11:5 "Then the king of the South will become strong, as well as one of his princes; and he will gain power over him and have dominion. His dominion will be a great dominion.

Dan 11:6 "And at the end of some years they will join forces, for the daughter of the king of the South will go to the king of the North to make an agreement; but she will not retain the power of her authority, and neither he nor his authority will stand; but she will be given up, with those who brought her, and with him who begot her, and with him who strengthened her in those times.

Dan 11:7 "But from a branch of her roots one will arise in his place, who will come with an army, enter the stronghold of the king of the North, and deal with them and prevail.

Dan 11:8 "And he will also carry their gods captive to Egypt, with their princes and their precious articles of silver and gold; and he will continue more years than the king of the North.

Dan 11:9 "Then the king of the North will come to the kingdom of the king of the South, but will return to his own land.

Dan 11:10 "However his sons will stir up strife, and assemble a multitude of great forces; and one will certainly come and overwhelm and pass through; then he will return to his stronghold and stir up strife.

Dan 11:11 "And the king of the South will be moved with rage, and go out and fight with him, with the king of the North, who will muster a great multitude; but the multitude will be given into the hand of his enemy.

Dan 11:12 "When he has taken away the multitude, his heart will be lifted up; and he will cast down tens of thousands, but he will not prevail.

Dan 11:13 "For the king of the North will return and muster a multitude greater than the former, and will certainly come at the end of some years with a great army and much equipment.

Dan 11:14 "And in those times many will rise up against the king of the South; also certain violent men of your people will exalt themselves in fulfilment of the vision, but they will fall.

Dan 11:15 "So the king of the North will come and build a siege mound, and take a fortified city; and the forces of the South will not withstand him. Even his choice troops will have no strength to resist.

Dan 11:16 “But he who comes against him will do according to his own will, and no one will stand against him. He will stand in the Glorious Land with destruction in his power.

Dan 11:17 “He will also set his face to enter with the strength of his whole kingdom, and upright ones with him; thus will he do. And he will give him the daughter of women to destroy it; but she will not stand with him, or be for him.

Dan 11:18 “After this he will turn his face to the coastlands, and will take many. But a ruler will bring the reproach against them to an end; and with the reproach removed, he will turn back on him.

Dan 11:19 “Then he will turn his face toward the stronghold of his own land; but he will stumble and fall, and not be found.

Dan 11:20 “There will arise in his place one who imposes taxes on the glorious kingdom; but within a few days he will be destroyed, but not in anger or in battle.

Dan 11:21 “And in his place will arise a vile person, to whom they will not give the honour of royalty; but he will come in peaceably, and seize the kingdom by intrigue.

Dan 11:22 “With the arms of an overflow they will be swept away from before him and be broken, and also the prince of the covenant.

Dan 11:23 “And after the league is made with him he will act deceitfully, for he will come up and become strong with a small number of people.

Dan 11:24 “He will enter peaceably, even into the richest places of the province; and he will do what his fathers have not done, nor his forefathers: he will disperse among them the plunder, spoil, and riches; and he will devise his plans against the strongholds, but only for a time.

Dan 11:25 “He will stir up his power and his courage against the king of the South with a great army. And the king of the South will be stirred up to battle with a very great and mighty army; but he will not stand, for they will devise plans against him.

Dan 11:26 “Yes, those who eat of the portion of his delicacies will destroy him; his army will be swept away, and many will fall down slain.

Dan 11:27 “Both these kings’ hearts will be bent on evil, and they will speak lies at the same table; but it will not prosper, for the end will still be at the appointed time.

Dan 11:28 “While returning to his land with great riches, his heart will be moved against the sanctified covenant; so he will do damage and return to his own land.

Dan 11:29 “At the appointed time he will return and go toward the south; but it will not be like the former or the latter.

Dan 11:30 “For ships from Cyprus will come against him; therefore he will be grieved, and return in rage against the sanctified covenant, and do damage. So he will return and heed those who forsake the holy covenant.

Dan 11:31 “And forces will be mustered by him, and they will defile the sanctuary stronghold; then they will take away the continual sacrifices, and they will set up the abomination of desolation.¹

Dan 11:32 “Those who do evil against the covenant he will defile with flattery; but the people who know their God will be strong and carry out great exploits.

Dan 11:33 “And those of the people who understand will instruct many; yet for many days they will fall by sword and flame, by exile and plundering.

Dan 11:34 “Now when they fall, they will be aided with a little help; but many will join them with intrigue.

Dan 11:35 “And some of those of understanding will fall, to refine them, purge them, and make them white, until the time of the end; because it is still for the appointed time.

Dan 11:36 “Then the king will do according to his own will: he will exalt and magnify himself above every god, will speak blasphemies against the God of gods, and will prosper until the indignation has been accomplished; for what has been determined will be done.

Dan 11:37 “He will regard neither the God of his fathers nor the desire of women, nor regard any god; for he will magnify himself above them all.¹

Dan 11:38 “But in their place he will honour a god of strongholds; and a god which his fathers did not know he will honour with gold and silver, with precious stones and pleasant things.

Dan 11:39 “Thus he will act against the stronghold cities with a foreign god, which he will acknowledge, and advance its glory; and he will cause them to rule over many, and divide the land for gain.

Dan 11:40 “At the time of the end the king of the South will attack him; and the king of the North will come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, horsemen, and with many ships; and he will enter the countries, overwhelm them, and pass through.

Dan 11:41 “He will also enter the Glorious Land, and many countries will be overthrown; but these will escape from his hand: Edom, Moab, and the prominent people of Ammon.

Dan 11:42 “He will stretch out his hand against the countries, and the land of Egypt will not escape.

Dan 11:43 “He will have power over the treasures of gold and silver, and over all the precious things of Egypt; also the Libyans and Cushites will follow at his heels.

Dan 11:44 “But news from the sunrise and the north will trouble him; therefore he will go out with great fury to destroy and annihilate many.

Dan 11:45 “And he will plant the tents of his palace between the seas and the glorious sanctified mountain; yet he will come to his end, and no one will help him.

Dan 12:1 “At that time Michael will stand up, the great prince who stands watch over the sons of your people; and there will be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation, even to that time. And at that time your people will be delivered, every one who is found written in the book.

Dan 12:2 And many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth will awake, some to everlasting life, some to shame and everlasting contempt.

Dan 12:3 Those who are wise will shine like the brightness of the firmament, and those who turn many to righteousness like the stars forever and ever.²

Dan 12:4 “But you, Daniel, shut up the words, and seal the book until the time of the end; many will run to and fro, and knowledge will increase.”

Dan 12:5 Then I, Daniel, looked; and there stood two others, one on this riverbank and the other on that riverbank.

Dan 12:6 And one said to the man clothed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, “How long will the fulfilment of these wonders be?”

Dan 12:7 Then I heard the man clothed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, when he held up his right hand and his left hand to heaven, and swore by Him who lives forever, that it will be for a time, times, and half a time; and when the power of the sanctified people has been completely shattered, all these things will be finished.³

Dan 12:8 Although I heard, I did not understand. Then I said, “My lord, what will be the end of these things?”

Dan 12:9 And he said, “Go your way, Daniel, for the words are closed up and sealed until the time of the end.

Ezra

Ezr 1:1 Now in the first year of Cyrus, king of Persia, that Jehovah's word spoken by the mouth of Jeremiah might be fulfilled, Jehovah stirred up the spirit of Cyrus, king of Persia, so that he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and also put it in writing, saying,

Ezr 1:2 Thus says Cyrus, king of Persia: All the kingdoms of the earth Jehovah God of heaven has given to me. And He has commanded me to build Him a house at Jerusalem which is in Judah.

Ezr 1:3 Who is there among you of all His people? May his God be with him! Now let him go up to Jerusalem, which is in Judah, and build the House of Jehovah God of Israel (He is God), which is in Jerusalem.

Ezr 1:4 And whoever remains in any place where he sojourns, let the men of his place help him with silver and gold, with goods and livestock, besides the freewill offerings for the House of God which is in Jerusalem.

Ezr 1:5 Then the heads of the fathers' houses of Judah and Benjamin, and the priests and the Levites, with all those whose spirits God had moved, arose to go up and build the House of Jehovah which is in Jerusalem.

Ezr 1:6 And all those who were around them encouraged them with articles of silver and gold, with goods and livestock, and with precious things, besides all that was willingly offered.

Ezr 1:7 King Cyrus also brought out the articles of the House of Jehovah, which Nebuchadnezzar had taken from Jerusalem and put in the house of his gods;

Ezr 1:8 and Cyrus king of Persia brought them out by the hand of Mithredath the treasurer, and counted them out to Sheshbazzar the prince of Judah.

Ezr 1:9 This is the number of them: thirty gold platters, one thousand silver platters, twenty-nine knives,

Ezr 1:10 thirty gold basins, four hundred and ten silver basins of a similar kind, and one thousand other articles.

Ezr 1:11 All the articles of gold and silver were five thousand four hundred. All these Sheshbazzar took with the captives who were brought from Babylon to Jerusalem.

Ezr 2:1 Now these are the people of the province who came back from the captivity, of those who had been carried away, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away to Babylon, and who returned to Jerusalem and Judah, everyone to his own city.

Ezr 2:2 Those who came with Zerubbabel were Jayshua,¹ Nehemiah, Seraiah, Reelaiah, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispar, Bigvai, Rehum, and Baanah. The number of the men of the people of Israel:

Ezr 2:3 the people of Parosh, two thousand one hundred and seventy-two;

Ezr 2:4 the people of Shephatiah, three hundred and seventy-two;

Ezr 2:5 the people of Arah, seven hundred and seventy-five;

Ezr 2:6 the people of Pahath-Moab, of the people of Jayshua and Joab, two thousand eight hundred and twelve;

Ezr 2:7 the people of Elam, one thousand two hundred and fifty-four;

Ezr 2:8 the people of Zattu, nine hundred and forty-five;

Ezr 2:9 the people of Zaccai, seven hundred and sixty;

Ezr 2:10 the people of Bani, six hundred and forty-two;

Ezr 2:11 the people of Bebai, six hundred and twenty-three;

Ezr 2:12 the people of Azgad, one thousand two hundred and twenty-two;

¹ Jayshua יֵשׁוּעַ is the shortened Hebrew form of Jehoshua. The Aramaic form is Jeshua, the name of God's Anointed Son in the Peshitta New Covenant.

Ezr 2:13 the people of Adonikam, six hundred and sixty-six;
 Ezr 2:14 the people of Bigvai, two thousand and fifty-six;
 Ezr 2:15 the people of Adin, four hundred and fifty-four;
 Ezr 2:16 the people of Ater of Hezekiah, ninety-eight;
 Ezr 2:17 the people of Bezai, three hundred and twenty-three;
 Ezr 2:18 the people of Jorah, one hundred and twelve;
 Ezr 2:19 the people of Hashum, two hundred and twenty-three;
 Ezr 2:20 the people of Gibbar, ninety-five;
 Ezr 2:21 the people of Bethlehem, one hundred and twenty-three;
 Ezr 2:22 the men of Netophah, fifty-six;
 Ezr 2:23 the men of Anathoth, one hundred and twenty-eight;
 Ezr 2:24 the people of Azmaveth, forty-two;
 Ezr 2:25 the people of Kirjath Arim, Chephirah, and Beeroth, seven hundred and forty-three;
 Ezr 2:26 the people of Ramah and Geba, six hundred and twenty-one;
 Ezr 2:27 the men of Michmas, one hundred and twenty-two;
 Ezr 2:28 the men of Bethel and Ai, two hundred and twenty-three;
 Ezr 2:29 the people of Nebo, fifty-two;
 Ezr 2:30 the people of Magbish, one hundred and fifty-six;
 Ezr 2:31 the people of the other Elam, one thousand two hundred and fifty-four;
 Ezr 2:32 the people of Harim, three hundred and twenty;
 Ezr 2:33 the people of Lod, Hadid, and Ono, seven hundred and twenty-five;
 Ezr 2:34 the people of Jericho, three hundred and forty-five;
 Ezr 2:35 the people of Senaah, three thousand six hundred and thirty.
 Ezr 2:36 The priests: the sons of Jedaiah, of the house of Jayshua, nine hundred and seventy-three;

 Ezr 2:37 the sons of Immer, one thousand and fifty-two;
 Ezr 2:38 the sons of Pashhur, one thousand two hundred and forty-seven;
 Ezr 2:39 the sons of Harim, one thousand and seventeen.
 Ezr 2:40 The Levites: the sons of Jayshua and Kadmiel, of the sons of Hodaviah, seventy-four.
 Ezr 2:41 The singers: the sons of Asaph, one hundred and twenty-eight.
 Ezr 2:42 The sons of the gatekeepers: the sons of Shallum, the sons of Ater, the sons of Talmon, the sons of Akkub, the sons of Hatita, and the sons of Shobai, one hundred and thirty-nine in all.
 Ezr 2:43 The Nethinim:¹ the sons of Ziha, the sons of Hasupha, the sons of Tabbaoth, Ezr 2:44 the sons of Keros, the sons of Siaha, the sons of Padon, Ezr 2:45 the sons of Lebanah, the sons of Hagabah, the sons of Akkub,
 Ezr 2:46 the sons of Hagab, the sons of Shalmal, the sons of Hanan,
 Ezr 2:47 the sons of Giddel, the sons of Gahar, the sons of Reaiah,
 Ezr 2:48 the sons of Rezin, the sons of Nekoda, the sons of Gazzam, Ezr 2:49 the sons of Uzza, the sons of Paseah, the sons of Besai,
 Ezr 2:50 the sons of Asnah, the sons of Meunim, the sons of Nephusim,
 Ezr 2:51 the sons of Bakbuk, the sons of Hakupha, the sons of Harhur, Ezr 2:52 the sons of Bazluth, the sons of Mehida, the sons of Harsha,
 Ezr 2:53 the sons of Barkos, the sons of Sisera, the sons of Tamah, Ezr 2:54 the sons of Neziaha, and the sons of Hatipha.
 Ezr 2:55 The sons of Solomon's servants: the sons of Sotai, the sons of Sophereth, the sons of Peruda, Ezr 2:56 the sons of Jaala, the sons of ¹ Servants, perhaps slaves, assigned to serve the priests and Levites in the Sanctuary.

Darkon, the sons of Giddel,

Ezr 2:57 the sons of Shephatiah, the sons of Hattil, the sons of Pochereth of Zebaim, and the sons of Ami.

Ezr 2:58 All the Nethinim and the children of Solomon's servants were three hundred and ninety-two.

Ezr 2:59 And these were the ones who came up from Tel Melah, Tel Harsha, Cherub, Addan, and Immer; but they could not identify their father's house or their genealogy, whether they were of Israel:

Ezr 2:60 the sons of Delaiah, the sons of Tobiah, and the sons of Nekoda, six hundred and fifty-two;

Ezr 2:61 and of the sons of the priests: the sons of Habaiah, the sons of Koz, and the sons of Barzillai, who took a wife of the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite, and was called by their name.

Ezr 2:62 These sought their listing among those who were registered by genealogy, but they were not found; therefore they were excluded from the priesthood as desecrated.

Ezr 2:63 And the governor said to them that they should not eat the sanctuary sanctified things until a priest could consult with the Urim and Thummim.

Ezr 2:64 The whole congregation together was forty-two thousand three hundred and sixty,

Ezr 2:65 besides their male and female servants, of whom there were seven thousand three hundred and thirty-seven; and they had two hundred men and women singers.

Ezr 2:66 Their horses were seven hundred and thirty-six, their mules two hundred and forty-five,

Ezr 2:67 their camels four hundred and thirty-five, and their donkeys six thousand seven hundred and twenty.

Ezr 2:68 Some of the heads of the fathers' houses, when they came to the House of Jehovah which is in Jerusalem, offered freely for the House of God, to erect it in its place:

Ezr 2:69 According to their ability, they gave to the treasury for the work sixty-one thousand gold drachmas, five thousand minas of silver, and one hundred priestly garments.

Ezr 2:70 So the priests and the Levites, some of the people, the singers, the gatekeepers, and the Nethinim, dwelt in their cities, and all Israel in their cities.

Ezr 3:1 And when the seventh new moon had come, and the children of Israel were in the cities, the people gathered together as one man to Jerusalem.

Ezr 3:2 Then Jayshua the son of Jozadak and his brethren the priests, and Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel and his brethren, arose and built the altar of the God of Israel, to offer burnt offerings on it, as it is written in the Instructions of Moses, the man of God.

Ezr 3:3 Though fear had come upon them because of the people of those countries, they set the altar on its bases; and they offered burnt offerings on it to Jehovah, both the morning and evening burnt offerings.

Ezr 3:4 They also kept the Feast of Booths, as it is written, and offered the daily burnt offerings in the number given in judgements by the word for each day;

Ezr 3:5 and afterwards they offered the regular burnt offering, and those for New Moons and for all the appointed feasts of Jehovah that were consecrated, and those of everyone who willingly offered a freewill offering to Jehovah.

Ezr 3:6 From the first day of the seventh new moon they began to offer burnt offerings to Jehovah. But the foundation of the Palace of Jehovah had not yet been laid.

Ezr 3:7 They also gave silver to the masons and the carpenters, and food, drink, and oil to the people of Sidon and Tyre to bring cedar logs from Lebanon by sea to Joppa, according to the permission which they had from Cyrus king of Persia. Ezr 3:8 Now in the second new moon of the second year of their coming to the House of God at Jerusalem, Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, Jayshua the son of Jozadak, and the rest of their brethren the priests and the Levites, and all those who had come out of the captivity to Jerusalem, began work and appointed the Levites from twenty years old and above to oversee the work of the House of Jehovah.

Ezr 3:9 Then Jayshua with his sons and brothers, Kadmiel with his sons, and the sons of Judah, arose as one to oversee those working on the House of God: the sons of Henadad with their sons and their brethren the Levites.

Ezr 3:10 When the builders laid the foundation of the Palace of Jehovah, the priests stood in their apparel with trumpets, and the Levites, the sons of Asaph, with cymbals, to praise Jehovah, by the hand of David, king of Israel.

Ezr 3:11 And they sang responsively, praising and giving thanks to Jehovah: "For He is good, for His mercy endures forever toward Israel." Then all the people shouted with a great shout, when they praised Jehovah, because the foundation of the House of Jehovah was laid.

Ezr 3:12 But many of the priests and Levites and heads of the fathers' houses, who were old men, who had seen the first house, wept with a loud voice when the foundation of this house was laid before their eyes; yet many shouted aloud for joy, Ezr 3:13 so that the people could not discern the noise of the shout of joy from the noise of the weeping of the people, for the people shouted with a loud shout, and the sound was heard afar off.

Ezr 4:1 Now when the adversaries of Judah and Benjamin heard that the descendants of the captivity were building the Palace of Jehovah God of Israel, Ezr 4:2 they came to Zerubbabel and the heads of the fathers' houses, and said to them, "Let us build with you, for we seek your God as you do; and we have sacrificed to Him since the days of Esarhaddon king of Assyria, who brought us here."

Ezr 4:3 But Zerubbabel and Jayshua and the rest of the heads of the fathers' houses of Israel said to them, "You may do nothing with us to build a house for our God; but we alone will build to Jehovah God of Israel, as King Cyrus the king of Persia has commanded us."

Ezr 4:4 Then the people of the land tried to discourage the people of Judah. They troubled them in building, Ezr 4:5 and hired counsellors against them to frustrate their purpose all the days of Cyrus king of Persia, even until the reign of Darius king of Persia.

Ezr 4:6 Now in the reign of Ahasuerus, in the beginning of his reign, they wrote an accusation against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem.

Ezr 4:7 In the days of Artaxerxes also, Bishlam, Mithredath, Tabeel, and the rest of their companions wrote to Artaxerxes king of Persia; and the letter was written in Aramaic script, and interpreted in the Aramaic language.

Ezr 4:8 Rehum the commander and Shimshai the scribe wrote a letter against Jerusalem to King Artaxerxes in this fashion:

Ezr 4:9 From Rehum the commander, Shimshai the scribe, and the rest of their companions; envoys of the Dinaites, the Apharsathchites, the Tarpelites, the people of Persia and Erech and Babylon and Shushan, the Dehavites, the Elamites, Ezr 4:10 and the rest of the nations whom the great and noble Osnapper took captive and settled in the cities of Samaria and the rest of the region beyond the River; and so forth.

Ezr 4:11 This is a copy of the letter that they sent him; To King Artaxerxes from your servants, the men of the region beyond the River, and so forth:

Ezr 4:12 Let it be known to the king that the Judeans who came up from you have come to us at Jerusalem, and are building the rebellious and evil city, and are finishing its walls and repairing the foundations.

Ezr 4:13 Let it now be known to the king that if this city is built and the walls completed, they will not pay tax, tribute, or custom, and the king's treasury will be diminished.

Ezr 4:14 Now because we receive support from the palace, it was not proper for us to see the king's dishonour; therefore we have sent and informed the king,

Ezr 4:15 that search may be made in the book of the records of your fathers. And you will find in the book of the records and know that this city is a rebellious city, harmful to kings and provinces, and that they have incited sedition within the city in former times, for which cause this city was destroyed.

Ezr 4:16 We inform the king that if this city is rebuilt and its walls are completed, the result will be that you will have no dominion over the region beyond the River.

Ezr 4:17 Then the king sent an answer: To Rehum the commander, to Shimshai the scribe, to the rest of their companions who dwell in Samaria, and to the rest in the region beyond the River: Peace, and so forth.

Ezr 4:18 The letter which you sent to us has been clearly read before me.

Ezr 4:19 And I gave the command, and a search has been made, and it was found that this city in former times has made insurrection against kings, and that rebellion and sedition have been fostered in it.

Ezr 4:20 There have also been mighty kings over Jerusalem, who have ruled over all the provinces beyond the River; and tax, tribute, and custom were paid to them.

Ezr 4:21 Now give the command to make these men cease, that this city may not be built until the command is given by me.

Ezr 4:22 Take heed now that you do not fail to do this. Why should damage increase to the hurt of the kings?

Ezr 4:23 Now when the copy of King Artaxerxes' letter was read before Rehum, Shimshai the scribe, and their companions, they, trembling, went up to Jerusalem against the Judeans, and by force of arms made them cease.

Ezr 4:24 Thus the work of the House of God which is at Jerusalem ceased, and it was discontinued until the second year of the reign of Darius king of Persia.

Ezr 5:1 Then the prophet Haggai and Zechariah the son of Iddo, prophets, prophesied to the Judeans who were in Judah and Jerusalem, in the name of the God of Israel, who was over them.

Ezr 5:2 So Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel and Jayshua the son of Jozadak rose up and began to build the House of God which is in Jerusalem; and the prophets of God were with them, helping them.

Ezr 5:3 At the same time Tattenai the governor of the region beyond the River and Shethar-Bozenai and their companions came to them and spoke thus to them: "Who has commanded you to build this house and finish this wall?"

Ezr 5:4 Then, accordingly, we told them the names of the men who were constructing this building.

Ezr 5:5 But the eye of their God was upon the elders of the Judeans, so that they could not make them cease until a report could go to Darius. Then a written answer was returned concerning this matter.

Ezr 5:6 This is a copy of the letter that Tattenai sent: The governor of the region beyond the River, and Shethar-Baznai, and his companions, the Persians who were in the region beyond the River, to Darius the king.

Ezr 5:7 They sent a letter to him, in which was written thus; To Darius the king: All peace.

Ezr 5:8 Let it be known to the king that we went into the province of Judea, to the house of the great God, which is being built with heavy stones, and timber is being laid in the walls; and this work goes on diligently and prospers in their hands.

Ezr 5:9 Then we asked those elders, and spoke thus to them: "Who commanded you to build this house and to finish these walls?"

Ezr 5:10 We also asked them their names to inform you, that we might write the names of the men who were chief among them.

Ezr 5:11 And thus they returned us an answer, saying: "We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth, and we are rebuilding the house that was built many years ago, which a great king of Israel built and completed.

Ezr 5:12 "But because our fathers provoked the God of heaven to wrath, He gave them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, the Chaldean, who destroyed this house and carried the people away to Babylon.

Ezr 5:13 "However, in the first year of Cyrus king of Babylon, King Cyrus issued a decree to build this House of God.

Ezr 5:14 "Also, the gold and silver articles of the House of God, which Nebuchadnezzar had taken from the Palace that was in Jerusalem and carried into the palace of Babylon; those King Cyrus took from the palace of Babylon, and they were given to one named Sheshbazzar, whom he had made governor.

Ezr 5:15 "And he said to him, 'Take these articles; go, carry them to the Palace that is in Jerusalem, and let the House of God be rebuilt on its former site.'

Ezr 5:16 "Then the same Sheshbazzar came and laid the foundation of the House of God which is in Jerusalem; and from that time even until now it has been under construction, and it is not yet finished."

Ezr 5:17 Now therefore, if it seems good to the king, let a search be made in the king's treasure house, which is there in Babylon, whether it is so that a decree was issued by King Cyrus to build this House of God at Jerusalem, and let the king send us his pleasure concerning this matter.

Ezr 6:1 Then King Darius issued a decree, and a search was made in the house of books, where the treasures were stored in Babylon.

Ezr 6:2 And at Achmetha, in the palace that is in the province of Media, a scroll was found, and in it a record was written thus:

Ezr 6:3 In the first year of King Cyrus, King Cyrus issued a decree concerning the House of God at Jerusalem: "Let the house be rebuilt, the place where they offered sacrifices; and let the foundations of it be firmly laid, its height sixty cubits and its width sixty cubits, Ezr 6:4 with three rows of heavy stones and one row of new timber. Let the expenses be paid from the king's treasure house.

Ezr 6:5 Also let the gold and silver articles of the House of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took from the Palace which is in Jerusalem and brought to Babylon, be restored and taken back to the Palace which is in Jerusalem, each to its place; and deposit them in the House of God."

Ezr 6:6 Now therefore, Tattenai, governor of the region beyond the River, and Shethar-Boznai, and your companions the Persians who are beyond the River, keep yourselves far from there.

Ezr 6:7 Let the work of this House of God alone; let the governor of the Judeans and the elders of the Judeans build this House of God on its site.

Ezr 6:8 Moreover by me a decree is made as to what you will do for the elders of these Judeans, for the building of this House of God: Let the cost be paid at the king's expense from taxes on the region beyond the River; this is to be given immediately to these men, so that they are not made to cease.

Ezr 6:9 And whatever they need; young bulls, rams, and lambs for the burnt offerings of the God of heaven, wheat, salt, wine, and oil, according to the request of the priests who are in Jerusalem; let it be given to them day by day without fail, Ezr 6:10 that they may offer sacrifices of sweet aroma to the God of heaven, and pray for the life of the king and his sons.

Ezr 6:11 Also I issue a decree that whoever alters this edict, let a timber be pulled from his house and erected, and let him be stricken on it; and let his house be made a refuse heap because of this.

Ezr 6:12 And may the God who causes His name to dwell there destroy any king or people who put their hand to alter it, or to destroy this House of God which is in Jerusalem. I, Darius, issue the decree; let it be done diligently."

Ezr 6:13 Then Tattenai, governor of the region beyond the River, Shethar-Boznai, and their companions diligently did according to what King Darius had sent.

Ezr 6:14 So the elders of the Judeans built, and they prospered through the prophesying of Haggai the prophet and Zechariah the son of Iddo. And they built and finished it, according to the command of the God of Israel, and the commands of Cyrus, Darius, and Artaxerxes king of Persia.

Ezr 6:15 Now the house was finished on the third day of the month of Adar, which was in the sixth year of the reign of King

Darius.

Ezr 6:16 Then the children of Israel, the priests and the Levites and the rest of the sons of the captivity, celebrated the dedication of this House of God with joy.

Ezr 6:17 And they offered sacrifices at the dedication of this House of God, one hundred bulls, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs, and as a sin offering for all Israel twelve male goats, according to the number of the branches of Israel.

Ezr 6:18 They assigned the priests to their divisions and the Levites to their divisions, over the service of God in Jerusalem, as it is written in the Book of Moses.

Ezr 6:19 And the descendants of the captivity dealt with the Passover on the fourteenth day of the first new moon.

Ezr 6:20 For the priests and the Levites had purified themselves; all of them were ritually clean. And the Passover was slaughtered for all the descendants of the captivity, for their brethren the priests, and for themselves.

Ezr 6:21 Then the children of Israel who had returned from the captivity ate together with all who had separated themselves from the uncleanness of the nations of the land in order to seek Jehovah God of Israel.

Ezr 6:22 And they kept the Feast of Unleavened Bread seven days with joy; for Jehovah made them joyful, and turned the heart of the king of Assyria toward them, to strengthen their hands in the work of the House of God, the God of Israel.

Ezr 7:1 Now after these things, in the reign of Artaxerxes king of Persia, Ezra the son of Seraiah, the son of Azariah, the son of Hilkiah,

Ezr 7:2 the son of Shallum, the son of Zadok, the son of Ahitub,

Ezr 7:3 the son of Amariah, the son of Azariah, the son of Meraioth,

Ezr 7:4 the son of Zerariah, the son of

Uzzi, the son of Bukki,

Ezr 7:5 the son of Abishua, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the chief priest;

Ezr 7:6 this Ezra came up from Babylon; and he was a skilled scribe in the Instructions of Moses, which Jehovah God of Israel had given. The king granted him all his request, according to the hand of Jehovah his God upon him.

Ezr 7:7 Some of the children of Israel, the priests, the Levites, the singers, the gatekeepers, and the Nethinim came up to Jerusalem in the seventh year of King Artaxerxes.

Ezr 7:8 And Ezra came to Jerusalem in the fifth new moon, which was in the seventh year of the king.

Ezr 7:9 On the first day of the first new moon he laid the foundation for his journey from Babylon, and on the first day of the fifth new moon he came to Jerusalem, due to the hand of his good God upon him.

Ezr 7:10 For Ezra had prepared his heart to seek the Instructions of Jehovah, and to do them, and to teach statutes and judgements in Israel.

Ezr 7:11 Now this is the copy of the letter that King Artaxerxes gave Ezra the priest, the scribe, expert in the words of the commandments of Jehovah, and of His statutes to Israel:

Ezr 7:12 Artaxerxes, king of kings: To Ezra the priest, a scribe of the Law of the God of heaven: Perfect peace, and so forth.

Ezr 7:13 I issue a decree that all those of the people of Israel and the priests and Levites in my realm, who volunteer to go up to Jerusalem, may go with you.

Ezr 7:14 And whereas you are being sent by the king and his seven counsellors to inquire concerning Judah and Jerusalem, with regard to the Law of your God which is in your hand;

Ezr 7:15 and whereas you are to carry the silver and gold which the king and his counsellors have freely offered to the God of Israel, whose dwelling is in Jerusalem;

Ezr 7:16 and whereas all the silver and gold that you may find in all the province of Babylon, along with the freewill offering of the people and the priests, are to be freely offered for the house of their God in Jerusalem;

Ezr 7:17 now therefore, be careful to buy with this money bulls, rams, and lambs, with their grain offerings and their drink offerings, and offer them on the altar of the house of your God in Jerusalem.

Ezr 7:18 And whatever seems good to you and your brethren to do with the rest of the silver and the gold, do it according to the will of your God.

Ezr 7:19 Also the articles that are given to you for the service of the house of your God, deliver in full before the God of Jerusalem.

Ezr 7:20 And whatever more may be needed for the house of your God, which you may have occasion to provide, pay for it from the king's treasure house.

Ezr 7:21 And I, even I, Artaxerxes the king, do issue a decree to all the treasurers who are in the region beyond the River, that whatever Ezra the priest, the scribe of the Law of the God of heaven, may require of you, let it be done diligently, Ezr 7:22 up to one hundred talents of silver, one hundred kors of wheat, one hundred baths of wine, one hundred baths of oil, and salt without prescribed limit.

Ezr 7:23 Everything commanded by the God of heaven, let it diligently be done for the house of the God of heaven. For why should there be wrath against the realm of the king and his sons?

Ezr 7:24 Also we inform you that it will not be lawful to impose tax, tribute, or custom on any of the priests, Levites, singers, gatekeepers, Nethinim, or servants of this House of God.

Ezr 7:25 And you, Ezra, according to your God-given wisdom, set magistrates and judges who may judge all the people who are in the region beyond the River, all such as know the laws of your God; and teach those who do not know them.

Ezr 7:26 Whoever will not observe the law of your God and the law of the king, let judgement be executed speedily on him, whether it be death, or banishment, or confiscation of goods, or imprisonment.

Ezr 7:27 Blessed be Jehovah God of our fathers, who has put such a thing as this in the king's heart, to beautify the House of Jehovah which is in Jerusalem, Ezr 7:28 and has extended mercy to me before the king and his counsellors, and before all the king's mighty princes. So I was encouraged, as the hand of Jehovah my God was upon me; and I gathered chief men of Israel to go up with me.

Ezr 8:1 These are the heads of their fathers' houses, and this is the genealogy of those who went up with me from Babylon, in the reign of King Artaxerxes:

Ezr 8:2 of the sons of Phinehas, Gershom; of the sons of Ithamar, Daniel; of the sons of David, Hattush;

Ezr 8:3 of the sons of Shecaniah, of the sons of Parosh, Zechariah; and registered with him were one hundred and fifty males;

Ezr 8:4 of the sons of Pahath-Moab, Elihoenai the son of Zerahiah, and with him two hundred males;

Ezr 8:5 of the sons of Shechaniah, Ben-Jahaziel, and with him three hundred males;

Ezr 8:6 of the sons of Adin, Ebed the son of Jonathan, and with him fifty males;

Ezr 8:7 of the sons of Elam, Jeshaiiah the son of Athaliah, and with him seventy males;

Ezr 8:8 of the sons of Shephatiah, Zebadiah the son of Michael, and with him eighty males;

Ezr 8:9 of the sons of Joab, Obadiah the son of Jehiel, and with him two hundred and eighteen males;

Ezr 8:10 of the sons of Shelomith, Ben-Josiphiah, and with him one hundred and sixty males;

Ezr 8:11 of the sons of Bebai, Zechariah the son of Bebai, and with him twenty-eight males;

Ezr 8:12 of the sons of Azgad, Johanan the son of Hakkatan, and with him one hundred and ten males;

Ezr 8:13 of the last sons of Adonikam, whose names are these; Eliphelet, Jeiel, and Shemaiah; and with them sixty males;

Ezr 8:14 also of the sons of Bigvai, Uthai and Zabbud, and with them seventy males.

Ezr 8:15 Now I gathered them by the river that flows to Ahava, and we camped there three days. And I looked among the people and the priests, and found none of the sons of Levi there.

Ezr 8:16 Then I sent for Eliezer, Ariel, Shemaiah, Elnathan, Jarib, Elnathan, Nathan, Zechariah, and Meshullam, leaders; also for Joiarib and Elnathan, men of understanding.

Ezr 8:17 And I gave them directions for Iddo the chief man at the place Casiphia, and my mouth told them what they should say to Iddo and his brethren the Nethinim at the place Casiphia; that they should bring us servants for the house of our God.

Ezr 8:18 Then, by the good hand of our God upon us, they brought us a man of understanding, of the sons of Mahli the son of Levi, the son of Israel, namely Sherebiah, with his sons and brothers, eighteen men;

Ezr 8:19 and Hashabiah, and with him Jeshaiiah of the sons of Merari, his brothers and their sons, twenty men;

Ezr 8:20 also of the Nethinim, whom David and the leaders had appointed for the service of the Levites, two hundred and twenty Nethinim. All of them were designated by name.

Ezr 8:21 Then I proclaimed a fast there at the river of Ahava, that we might humble ourselves before our God, to seek from Him the right way for us and our little ones and all our possessions.

Ezr 8:22 For I was ashamed to request of the king an escort of soldiers and horsemen to help us against the enemy on the road, because we had spoken to the king, saying, "The hand of our God is upon all those for good who seek Him, but His power and His wrath are against all those who forsake Him."

Ezr 8:23 So we fasted and entreated our God for this, and He answered our prayer.

Ezr 8:24 Then I separated twelve of the leaders of the priests; Sherebiah, Hashabiah, and ten of their brethren with them;

Ezr 8:25 and weighed out to them the silver, the gold, and the articles, the offering for the house of our God which the king and his counsellors and his princes, and all Israel who were present, had offered.

Ezr 8:26 I even weighed into their hand six hundred and fifty talents of silver, silver articles weighing one hundred talents, one hundred talents of gold,

Ezr 8:27 twenty gold basins worth a thousand drachmas, and two vessels of fine polished bronze, precious as gold.

Ezr 8:28 And I said to them, "You are sanctified to Jehovah; the articles are sanctified also; and the silver and the gold are a freewill offering to Jehovah, God of your fathers.

Ezr 8:29 "Watch and keep them until you weigh them before the leaders of the priests and the Levites and heads of the fathers' houses of Israel in Jerusalem, in the chambers of the House of Jehovah."

Ezr 8:30 So the priests and the Levites received the silver and the gold and the articles by weight, to bring them to Jerusalem to the house of our God.

Ezr 8:31 Then we departed from the river of Ahava on the twelfth day of the first new moon, to go to Jerusalem. And the hand of our God was upon us, and He delivered us from the hand of the enemy and from ambush along the road.

Ezr 8:32 So we came to Jerusalem, and stayed there three days.

Ezr 8:33 Now on the fourth day the silver and the gold and the articles were weighed in the house of our God by the hand of Meremoth the son of Uriah the priest, and with him was Eleazar the son of Phinehas; with them were the Levites, Jozabad the son of Jayshua and Noadiah the son of Binnui, Ezr 8:34 with the number and weight of everything. All the weight was written down at that time.

Ezr 8:35 The children of those who had been carried away captive, who had come from the captivity, offered burnt offerings to the God of Israel: twelve bulls for all Israel, ninety-six rams, seventy-seven lambs, and twelve male goats as a sin offering. All this was a burnt offering to Jehovah.

Ezr 8:36 And they delivered the king's orders to the king's satraps and the governors in the region beyond the River. So they gave support to the people and the House of God.

Ezr 9:1 When these things were done, the leaders came to me, saying, "The people of Israel and the priests and the Levites have not separated themselves from the peoples of the lands, with respect to the abominations of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites, the Ammonites, the Moabites, the Egyptians, and the Amorites.

Ezr 9:2 "For they have taken some of their daughters as wives for themselves and their sons,¹ so that the sanctified seed is intermingled with the peoples of those lands. Indeed, the hand of the leaders and rulers has been foremost in this trespass."

¹ The main issue here was that these women had remained dedicated to their pagan abominations, as the previous verse explains.

Ezr 9:3 So when I heard this thing, I tore my garment and my robe, and removed some of the hair of my head and beard, and sat down astonished.

Ezr 9:4 Then everyone who trembled at the words of the God of Israel assembled to me, because of the transgression of those who had been carried away captive, and I sat astonished until the evening sacrifice.

Ezr 9:5 At the evening sacrifice I arose from my fasting; and having torn my garment and my robe, I fell on my knees and spread out my hands to Jehovah my God, Ezr 9:6 and said, "O my God: I am too ashamed and humiliated to lift up my face to You, my God; for our iniquities have risen higher than our heads, and our guilt has grown up to the heavens.

Ezr 9:7 "Since the days of our fathers to this day we have been very guilty, and for our iniquities we, our kings, and our priests have been delivered into the hand of the kings of the lands, to the sword, to captivity, to plunder, and to humiliation, as it is this day.

Ezr 9:8 "And now for a little while grace has come from Jehovah our God, to leave us a remnant to escape, and to give us a peg in His sanctified place, that our God may enlighten our eyes and give us a measure of revival in our bondage, Ezr 9:9 "for we were slaves. Yet our God did not forsake us in our bondage; but He extended mercy to us in the sight of the kings of Persia, to revive us, to repair the house of our God, to rebuild its ruins, and to give us a wall in Judah and Jerusalem.

Ezr 9:10 "And now, O our God, what will we say after this? For we have forsaken Your commandments, Ezr 9:11 "which You have commanded by Your servants the prophets, saying, 'The land which you are entering to possess is an unclean land, with the filthiness of the peoples of the lands, with their abominations which have filled it from one end to another¹ with their uncleanness.

Ezr 9:12 'Now therefore, do not give your daughters as wives for their sons, nor take their daughters to your sons; and never seek their peace or prosperity, that you may be strong and eat the good of the land, and leave it as an inheritance to your children forever.'

Ezr 9:13 "And after all that has come upon us for our evil deeds and for our great guilt, since You our God have punished us less than our iniquities deserve, and have given us such deliverance as this, Ezr 9:14 "should we again break Your commandments, and join in marriage with the people of these abominations? Would You not be angry with us until You had consumed us, so that there would be no remnant or survivor?

Ezr 9:15 "O Jehovah God of Israel, You are righteous, for we are left as a remnant, as it is this day. Here we are before You, in our guilt, though no one can stand before You because of this!"

Ezr 10:1 Now while Ezra was praying, and while he was confessing, weeping, and bowing down before the House of God, a very large congregation of men, women, and children assembled to him from Israel; for the people wept very bitterly.

Ezr 10:2 And Shechaniah the son of Jehiel, one of the sons of Elam, spoke up and said to Ezra, "We have trespassed against our God, and have taken pagan wives from the peoples of the land; yet now there is hope in Israel in spite of this.

Ezr 10:3 "Now therefore, let us make a covenant with our God to put away all these wives and those who have been born to them, according to the counsel of Jehovah and of those who tremble at the commandment of our God; and let it be done according to the Instructions.

Ezr 10:4 “Arise, for this matter is your responsibility. We also will be with you. Be of good courage, and do it.”

Ezr 10:5 Then Ezra arose, and made the leaders of the priests, the Levites, and all Israel swear an oath that they would do according to this word. So they swore an oath.

Ezr 10:6 Then Ezra rose up from before the House of God, and went into the chamber of Jehohanan the son of Eliashib; and when he came there, he ate no bread and drank no water, for he mourned because of the guilt of those from the captivity.

Ezr 10:7 And they issued a proclamation throughout Judah and Jerusalem to all the descendants of the captivity, that they must gather at Jerusalem, Ezr 10:8 and that whoever would not come within three days, according to the counsel of the leaders and elders, all his property would be confiscated, and he himself would be separated from the congregation of those from the captivity.

Ezr 10:9 So all the men of Judah and Benjamin gathered at Jerusalem within three days. It was the ninth new moon, on the twentieth day of the new moon; and all the people sat in the open square of the House of God, trembling because of this matter and because of heavy rain.

Ezr 10:10 Then Ezra the priest stood up and said to them, “You have transgressed and have taken pagan wives, adding to the guilt of Israel.

Ezr 10:11 “Now therefore, make confession to Jehovah God of your fathers, and do His will; separate yourselves from the peoples of the land, and from the pagan wives.”

Ezr 10:12 Then all the congregation answered and said with a loud voice, “Yes! As you have said, so we must do.

Ezr 10:13 “But there are many people; it is the season for heavy rain, and we are not able to stand outside. Nor is this the work of one or two days, for there are many of us who have transgressed in this matter.

Ezr 10:14 “Please, let the leaders of our entire congregation stand; and let all those in our cities who have taken pagan wives come at appointed times, together with the elders and judges of their cities, until the fierce wrath of our God is turned away from us in this matter.”

Ezr 10:15 Only Jonathan the son of Asahel and Jahaziah the son of Tikvah opposed this, and Meshullam and Shabbethai the Levite gave them support.

Ezr 10:16 Then the descendants of the captivity did so. And Ezra the priest, with certain heads of the fathers’ households, were set apart by the fathers’ households, each of them by name; and they sat down on the first day of the tenth new moon to examine the matter.

Ezr 10:17 By the first day of the first new moon they finished questioning all the men who had taken pagan wives.

Ezr 10:18 And among the sons of the priests who had taken pagan wives the following were found of the sons of Jayshua the son of Jozadak, and his brothers: Maaseiah, Eliezer, Jarib, and Gedaliah.

Ezr 10:19 And they gave their promise that they would put away their wives; and being guilty, they presented a ram of the flock as their trespass offering.

Ezr 10:20 Also of the sons of Immer: Hanani and Zebadiah;

Ezr 10:21 of the sons of Harim: Maaseiah, Elijah, Shemaiah, Jehiel, and Uziah; Ezr 10:22 of the sons of Pashhur: Elioenai, Maaseiah, Ishmael, Nethaneel, Jozabad, and Elasah.

Ezr 10:23 Also of the Levites: Jozabad, Shimei, Kelaiah (the same is Kelita), Pethahiah, Judah, and Eliezer.

Ezr 10:24 Also of the singers: Eliashib; and of the gatekeepers: Shallum, Telem, and Uri.

Ezr 10:25 And others of Israel: of the sons of Parosh: Ramiah, Jeziah, Malchiah, Mijamin, Eleazar, Malchijah, and Benaiah;

Ezr 10:26 of the sons of Elam: Mattaniah, Zechariah, Jehiel, Abdi, Jeremoth, and Eliah;

Ezr 10:27 of the sons of Zattu: Elioenai, Eliashib, Mattaniah, Jeremoth, Zabad, and Aziza;

Ezr 10:28 of the sons of Bebai: Jehohanan, Hananiah, Zabbai, and Athlai;

Ezr 10:29 of the sons of Bani: Meshullam, Malluch, Adaiah, Jashub, Sheal, and Ramoth;

Ezr 10:30 of the sons of Pahath-Moab: Adna, Chelal, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattaniah, Bezaleel, Binnui, and Manasseh;

Ezr 10:31 of the sons of Harim: Eliezer, IshiJah, Malchijah, Shemaiah, Shimeon, Ezr 10:32 Benjamin, Malluch, and Shemariah;

Ezr 10:33 of the sons of Hashum: Mattenai, Mattattah, Zabad, Eliphelet, Jeremai, Manasseh, and Shimei;

Ezr 10:34 of the sons of Bani: Maadai, Amram, Uel,

Ezr 10:35 Benaiah, Bedeiah, Cheluh,

Ezr 10:36 Vaniah, Meremoth, Eliashib,

Ezr 10:37 Mattaniah, Mattenai, Jaasai,

Ezr 10:38 Bani, Binnui, Shimei,

Ezr 10:39 Shelemiah, Nathan, Adaiah,

Ezr 10:40 Machnadebai, Shashai, Sharai,

Ezr 10:41 Azareel, Shelemiah, Shemariah,

Ezr 10:42 Shallum, Amariah, and Joseph;

Ezr 10:43 of the sons of Nebo: Jeiel, Mattithiah, Zabad, Zebina, Jaddai, Joel, and Benaiah.

Ezr 10:44 All these had taken pagan wives, and some of them had wives by whom they had children.

Nehemiah

Neh 1:1 The words of Nehemiah the son of Hachaliah. It came to pass in the new moon of Chisleu, in the twentieth year, as I was in Shushan the citadel, Neh 1:2 that Hanani one of my brethren came with men from Judah; and I asked them concerning the Judeans who had escaped, who had survived the captivity, and concerning Jerusalem.

Neh 1:3 And they said to me, "The survivors who are left from the captivity in the province are there in great evil and reproach. The wall of Jerusalem is also broken down, and its gates are burned with fire."

Neh 1:4 So it was, when I heard these words, that I sat down and wept, and mourned for many days; I was fasting and praying before the God of heaven.

Neh 1:5 And I said: "I pray, Jehovah God of heaven, O great and awesome God, You who keep Your covenant and mercy with those who love You and observe Your commandments, Neh 1:6 "please let Your ear be attentive and Your eyes open, that You may hear the prayer of Your servant which I pray before You now, day and night, for the children of Israel Your servants, and confess the sins of the children of Israel which we have sinned against You. Both my father's house and I have sinned.

Neh 1:7 "We have acted very corruptly against You, and have not kept the commandments, the statutes, nor the judgements which You commanded through Your servant Moses.

Neh 1:8 "Remember, I pray, the word that You commanded Your servant Moses, saying, 'If you are unfaithful, I will scatter you among the nations,

Neh 1:9 'but if you return to Me, and keep My commandments and do them, though some of you were cast out to the farthest part of the heavens, yet I will gather them from there, and bring them to the place which I have chosen as a dwelling for My Name.'¹

Neh 1:10 "Now these are Your servants and Your people, whom You have redeemed by Your great power, and by Your strong hand.

Neh 1:11 "O Jehovah, I pray, please let Your ear be attentive to the prayer of Your servant, and to the prayer of Your servants who desire to fear Your Name; and let Your servant prosper this day, I pray, and grant him mercy in the sight of this man." For I was the king's cupbearer.

Neh 2:1 And it came to pass in the new moon of Nisan, in the twentieth year of King Artaxerxes, when wine was before him, that I took the wine and gave it to the king. Now I had never been evil² in his presence before.

Neh 2:2 Therefore the king said to me, "Why is your face evil, since you are not sick? This is nothing but an evil heart." Then I became dreadfully afraid,

Neh 2:3 and said to the king, "May the king live forever! Why should my face not be grieved, when the city, the place of my fathers' tombs, lies waste, and its gates are consumed with fire?"

Neh 2:4 Then the king said to me, "What do you request?" So I prayed to the God of heaven.

Neh 2:5 And I said to the king, "If it pleases the king, and if your servant has found favour in your sight, I ask that you send me to Judah, to the city of my fathers' tombs, that I may build it."

Neh 2:6 So the king said to me (the queen also sitting beside him), "How long will your journey be? And when will you return?" So it pleased the king to send me; and I set him a time.

Neh 2:7 Furthermore I said to the king, "If it pleases the king, let letters be given to me for the governors of the region beyond the River, that they must permit me to pass through until I come to Judah, Neh 2:8 “and a letter to Asaph the keeper of the king’s forest, that he must give me timber to make beams for the gates of the citadel which pertains to the house, for the city wall, and for the house that I will occupy.” And the king granted them to me according to the good hand of my God upon me.

Neh 2:9 Then I went to the governors in the region beyond the River, and gave them the king’s letters. Now the king had sent captains of the army and horsemen with me.

Neh 2:10 When Sanballat the Horonite and Tobiah the Ammonite official heard of it, they were deeply grieved by evil that a man had come to seek the well-being of the children of Israel.

Neh 2:11 So I came to Jerusalem and was there three days.

Neh 2:12 Then I arose in the night, I and a few men with me; I told no one what my God had put in my heart to do at Jerusalem; nor was there any animal with me, except the one on which I rode.

Neh 2:13 And I went out by night through the Valley Gate before the Dragon Well and the Refuse Gate, and viewed the walls of Jerusalem which were broken down and its gates which were burned with fire.

Neh 2:14 Then I went on to the Fountain Gate and to the King’s Pool, but there was no room for the animal that was under me to pass.

Neh 2:15 So I went up in the night by the valley, and viewed the wall; then I turned back and entered by the Valley Gate, and so returned.

Neh 2:16 And the officials did not know where I had gone or what I had done; I had not yet told the Judeans, the priests, the nobles, the officials, or the others who did the work.

Neh 2:17 Then I said to them, “You see the evil that we are in, how Jerusalem lies waste, and its gates are burned with fire. Come and let us build the wall of Jerusalem, that we may no longer be a reproach.”

Neh 2:18 And I told them of the hand of my God which had been good upon me, and also of the king’s words that he had spoken to me. So they said, “Let us rise up and build.” Then they set their hands to do this good work.

Neh 2:19 But when Sanballat the Horonite, Tobiah the Ammonite official, and Geshem the Arab heard of it, they laughed us to scorn and despised us, and said, “What is this thing that you are doing? Will you rebel against the king?”

Neh 2:20 So I answered them, and said to them, “The God of heaven Himself will prosper us; therefore we His servants will arise and build, but you have no heritage or right or memorial in Jerusalem.”

Neh 3:1 Then Eliashib the chief priest rose up with his brethren the priests and built the Sheep Gate; they consecrated it and hung its doors. They built as far as the Tower of the Hundred, and consecrated it, then as far as the Tower of Hananeel.

Neh 3:2 Next to Eliashib the men of Jericho built. And next to them Zaccur the son of Imri built.

Neh 3:3 Also the sons of Hassenaah built the Fish Gate; they laid its beams and hung its doors with its bolts and bars.

Neh 3:4 And next to them Meremoth the son of Urijah, the son of Koz, made repairs. Next to them Meshullam the son of Berechiah, the son of Meshezabeel, made repairs. Next to them Zadok the son of Baana made repairs.

Neh 3:5 Next to them the Tekoites made repairs; but their nobles did not put their shoulders to the work of their Lord.

Neh 3:6 Moreover Jehoiada the son of Paseah and Meshullam the son of Besodeiah repaired the Old Gate; they laid its beams and hung its doors, with its bolts and bars.

Neh 3:7 And next to them Melatiah the Gibeonite, Jadon the Meronothite, the men of Gibeon and Mizpah, repaired the residence of the governor of the region beyond the River.

Neh 3:8 Next to him Uzziel the son of Harhaiah, one of the goldsmiths, made repairs. Also next to him Hananiah, one of the perfumers, made repairs; and they fortified Jerusalem as far as the Broad Wall.

Neh 3:9 And next to them Rephaiah the son of Hur, leader of half the district of Jerusalem, made repairs.

Neh 3:10 Next to them Jedaiah the son of Harumaph made repairs in front of his house. And next to him Hattush the son of Hashabniah made repairs.

Neh 3:11 Malchijah the son of Harim and Hashub the son of Pahath-Moab repaired a second section, as well as the Tower of the Ovens.

Neh 3:12 And next to him was Shallum the son of Hallohesh, leader of half the district of Jerusalem; he and his daughters made repairs.

Neh 3:13 Hanun and the inhabitants of Zanoah repaired the Valley Gate. They built it, hung its doors with its bolts and bars, and repaired a thousand cubits of the wall as far as the Refuse Gate.

Neh 3:14 Malchijah the son of Rechab, leader of the district of Beth Hacerem, repaired the Refuse Gate; he built it and hung its doors with its bolts and bars.

Neh 3:15 Shallun the son of Col-Hozeh, leader of the district of Mizpah, repaired the Fountain Gate. He built it, covered it, hung its doors with its bolts and bars, and repaired the wall of the Pool of Shelah by the King's Garden, as far as the stairs that go down from the City of David.

Neh 3:16 After him Nehemiah the son of Azbuk, leader of half the district of Beth Zur, made repairs as far as the place in front of the tombs of David, to the pool that was made, and as far as the house of the mighty.

Neh 3:17 After him the Levites, under Rehum the son of Bani, made repairs. Next to him Hashabiah, leader of half the district of Keilah, made repairs for his district.

Neh 3:18 After him their brethren, under Bavai the son of Henadad, leader of the other half of the district of Keilah, made repairs.

Neh 3:19 And next to him Ezer the son of Jayshua, the leader of Mizpah, repaired a second section in front of the Ascent to the Armoury at the buttress.

Neh 3:20 After him Baruch the son of Zabbai diligently repaired the other¹ section, from the buttress to the door of the house of Eliashib the chief priest.

Neh 3:21 After him Meremoth the son of Urijah, the son of Koz, repaired another section, from the door of the house of Eliashib to the end of the house of Eliashib.

Neh 3:22 And after him the priests, the men of the plain, made repairs.

Neh 3:23 After him Benjamin and Hasshub made repairs opposite their house. After them Azariah the son of Maaseiah, the son of Ananiah, made repairs by his house.

Neh 3:24 After him Binnui the son of Henadad repaired another section, from the house of Azariah to the buttress, even as far as the corner.

Neh 3:25 Palal the son of Uzai made repairs opposite the buttress, and on the tower which projects from the king's upper house that was by the court of the prison. After him Pedaiah the son of Parosh made repairs.

Neh 3:26 Moreover the Nethinim who dwelt in Ophel made repairs as far as the place in front of the Water Gate toward sunrise, and on the projecting tower.

Neh 3:27 After them the Tekoites repaired another section, next to the great projecting tower, and as far as the wall of Ophel.

Neh 3:28 Beyond the Horse Gate the priests made repairs, each in front of his own house.

Neh 3:29 After them Zadok the son of Immer made repairs in front of his own house. After him Shemaiah the son of Shechaniah, the keeper of Sunrise Gate, made repairs.

Neh 3:30 After him Hananiah the son of Shelemiah, and Hanun, the sixth son of Zalaph, repaired another section. After him Meshullam the son of Berechiah made repairs in front of his dwelling.

Neh 3:31 After him Malchijah, one of the goldsmiths, made repairs as far as the house of the Nethinim and of the merchants, in front of the Miphkad Gate, and as far as the upper room at the corner.

Neh 3:32 And between the upper room at the corner, as far as the Sheep Gate, the goldsmiths and the merchants made repairs.

Neh 4:1 But it so happened, when Sanballat heard that we were rebuilding the wall, that he was furious and very indignant, and mocked the Judeans.

Neh 4:2 And he spoke before his brethren and the army of Samaria, and said, "What are these feeble Judeans doing? Will they fortify themselves? Will they offer sacrifices? Will they complete it in a day? Will they revive the stones from the heaps of rubbish; stones that are burned?"

Neh 4:3 Now Tobiah the Ammonite was beside him, and he said, "Whatever they build, if even a fox goes up on it, he will break down their stone wall."

Neh 4:4 Hear, O our God, for we are despised; turn their reproach on their own heads, and give them as plunder to a land of captivity!

Neh 4:5 Do not cover their iniquity, and do not let their sin be blotted out from before You; for they have provoked You to anger before the builders.

Neh 4:6 So we built the wall, and the entire wall was joined together up to half its height, for the people had a mind to work.

Neh 4:7 Now it happened, when Sanballat, Tobiah, the Arabs, the Ammonites, and the Ashdodites heard that the walls of Jerusalem were being restored and the gaps were beginning to be closed, that they became very angry,

Neh 4:8 and they all conspired together to come and attack Jerusalem and create confusion.

Neh 4:9 Nevertheless we made our prayer to our God, and because of them we set a watch against them day and night.

Neh 4:10 Then Judah said, "The strength of the labourers is failing, and there is so much rubbish that we are not able to build the wall."

Neh 4:11 And our adversaries said, "They will neither know nor see anything, until we come into their midst and kill them and cause the work to cease."

Neh 4:12 So it was, when the Judeans who dwelt near them came, that they told us ten times, "From whatever place you turn, they will be upon us."

Neh 4:13 Therefore I positioned men behind the lower parts of the wall, at the openings; and I set the people according to their families, with their swords, their spears, and their bows.

Neh 4:14 And I looked and arose and said to the nobles, to the leaders, and to the rest of the people, "Do not be afraid of them. Remember Jehovah, for He is great and awesome, and fight for your brethren, your sons, your daughters, your wives, and your houses."

Neh 4:15 And it happened, when our enemies heard that it was known to us, and that God had brought their counsel to nothing, that all of us returned to the wall, everyone to his work.

Neh 4:16 So it was, from that time on, that half of my servants worked at construction, while the other half held the spears, the shields, the bows, and wore armour; and the leaders were behind all the house of Judah.

Neh 4:17 Those who built on the wall, and those who carried burdens, loaded themselves so that with one hand they worked at construction, and with the other held a weapon.

Neh 4:18 Every one of the builders had his sword girded at his side as he built. And the one who sounded the shophar was beside me.

Neh 4:19 Then I said to the nobles, the rulers, and the rest of the people, "The work is great and extensive, and we are separated far from one another on the wall.

Neh 4:20 "Therefore, wherever you hear the sound of the shophar, rally to us there. Our God will fight for us."

Neh 4:21 So we laboured in the work, and half of the men held the spears from daybreak until the stars appeared.

Neh 4:22 At the same time I also said to the people, "Let each man and his servant stay at night in Jerusalem, that they may be our guard by night and a working party by day."

Neh 4:23 So neither I, my brethren, my servants, nor the men of the guard who followed me took off our clothes, except that everyone took them off for washing.

Neh 5:1 And there was a great outcry of the people and their wives against their Judean brethren.

Neh 5:2 For there were those who said, "We, our sons, and our daughters are many; therefore let us get grain for them, that we may eat and live."

Neh 5:3 There were also some who said, "We have mortgaged our lands and vineyards and houses, that we might buy grain because of the famine."

Neh 5:4 There were also those who said,

"We have borrowed silver for the king's tax on our lands and vineyards.

Neh 5:5 "Yet now our flesh is as the flesh of our brethren, our children as their children; and indeed we are forcing our sons and our daughters to be slaves, and some of our daughters are brought into subjection. It is not in our power to redeem them, for other men have our lands and vineyards."

Neh 5:6 And I became very angry when I heard their outcry and these words.

Neh 5:7 After serious thought, I rebuked the nobles and rulers, and said to them, "Each of you is exacting usury from his brother." So I called a great assembly against them.

Neh 5:8 And I said to them, "According to our ability we have redeemed our Judean brethren who were sold to the nations. Now indeed, will you even sell your brethren? Or should they be sold to us?" Then they were silenced and found nothing to say.

Neh 5:9 Then I said, "What you are doing is not good. Should you not walk in the fear of our God because of the reproach of the nations, our enemies?"

Neh 5:10 "I also, with my brethren and my servants, am lending them silver and grain. Please, let us stop this usury!

Neh 5:11 "Restore to them now, even this day, their lands, their vineyards, their olive groves, and their houses, also the hundredth part of the silver and the grain, the new wine and the oil, that you have charged them."

Neh 5:12 So they said, "We will restore it, and will require nothing from them; we will do as you say." Then I called the priests, and required an oath from them that they would do according to this promise.

Neh 5:13 Then I shook out the fold of my garment and said, "So may God shake out each man from his house, and from his property, who does not perform this promise. Even thus may he be shaken out and emptied.” And all the congregation said, “Amen!” and praised Jehovah. Then the people did according to this promise.

Neh 5:14 Moreover, from the time that I was appointed to be their governor in the land of Judah, from the twentieth year until the thirty-second year of King Artaxerxes, twelve years, neither I nor my brothers ate the governor’s provisions.

Neh 5:15 But the former governors who had been before me laid burdens on the people, and took from them bread and wine, besides forty shekels of silver; yes, even their servants bore rule over the people, but I did not do so, because of the fear of God.

Neh 5:16 Indeed, I also continued the work on this wall, and we did not buy any land. All my servants were gathered there for the work.

Neh 5:17 Moreover there were at my table one hundred and fifty Judeans and rulers, besides those who came to us from the nations around us.

Neh 5:18 Now that which was prepared for me daily was one ox and six choice sheep; also birds were prepared for me, and once every ten days an abundance of all kinds of wine; yet in spite of this I did not demand the governor’s provisions, because the bondage was heavy on this people.

Neh 5:19 Remember me, my God, for good, according to all that I have done for this people.

Neh 6:1 Now it happened when Sanballat, Tobiah, Geshem the Arab, and the rest of our enemies heard that I had rebuilt the wall, and that there were no breaks left in it (though at that time I had not hung the doors in the gates), Neh 6:2 that Sanballat and Geshem sent to me, saying, “Come, let us meet together in one of the villages in the plain of Ono.” But they thought to do me evil.

Neh 6:3 So I sent envoys to them, saying,

“I am doing a great work, so that I cannot come down. Why should the work cease while I leave it and go down to you?”

Neh 6:4 But they sent me this message four times, and I answered them in the same manner.

Neh 6:5 Then Sanballat sent his servant to me as before, the fifth time, with an open letter in his hand.

Neh 6:6 In it was written: It is reported among the nations, and Geshem says, that you and the Judeans plan to rebel; therefore, according to these rumours, you are rebuilding the wall, that you may be their king.

Neh 6:7 And you have also appointed prophets to proclaim concerning you at Jerusalem, saying, ‘There is a king in Judah!’ Now these matters will be reported to the king. So come, therefore, and let us take counsel together.

Neh 6:8 Then I sent to him, saying, “No such things as you say are being done, but you invent them in your own heart.”

Neh 6:9 For they were all trying to make us afraid, saying, “Their hands will be weakened in the work, and it will not be done.” Now therefore, O God, strengthen my hands.

Neh 6:10 Afterwards I came to the house of Shemaiah the son of Delaiah, the son of Mehetabeel, who was a secret informer; and he said, “Let us meet together in the House of God, within the Palace, and let us close the doors of the Palace, for they are coming to kill you; indeed, at night they will come to kill you.”

Neh 6:11 And I said, “Should a man like me flee? And who would go into the Palace to save his life? I will not go in!”

Neh 6:12 Then I perceived that God had not sent him at all, but that he pronounced this prophecy against me because Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him.

Neh 6:13 For this reason he was hired, that I should be afraid and act that way and sin, so that they might have occasion for an evil report, that they might reproach me.

Neh 6:14 My God, remember Tobiah and Sanballat, according to these their works, and the prophetess Noadiah and the rest of the prophets who would have made me afraid.

Neh 6:15 So the wall was finished on the twenty-fifth day of the month of Elul, in fifty-two days.

Neh 6:16 And it happened, when all our enemies heard of it, and all the nations around us saw these things, that they were very disheartened in their own eyes; for they perceived that this work was done by our God.

Neh 6:17 Moreover in those days the nobles of Judah sent many letters to Tobiah, and the letters of Tobiah came to them.

Neh 6:18 For many masters in Judah were pledged to him, because he was the son-in-law of Shechaniah the son of Arah, and his son Jehohanan had married the daughter of Meshullam the son of Berechiah.

Neh 6:19 Also they reported his good deeds before me, and reported my words to him. And Tobiah sent letters to frighten me.

Neh 7:1 Then it was, when the wall was built and I had hung the doors, when the gatekeepers, the singers, and the Levites had been appointed, Neh 7:2 that I gave the charge of Jerusalem to my brother Hanani, and Hananiah the leader of the citadel, for he was a faithful man and feared God more than many.

Neh 7:3 And I said to them, "Do not let the gates of Jerusalem be opened until the sun is hot; and while they stand guard, let them shut the doors and bar them; and appoint guards from among the inhabitants of Jerusalem, one at his watch station and another in front of his own house."

Neh 7:4 Now the city was large and spacious, but the people in it were few, and the houses were not rebuilt.

Neh 7:5 Then my God put it into my heart to gather the nobles, the rulers, and the people, that they might be registered by genealogy. And I found a register of the genealogy of those who had come up in the first return, and found written in it:

Neh 7:6 These are the people of the province who came back from the captivity, of those who had been carried away, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away captive, and who returned to Jerusalem and Judah, everyone to his own city.

Neh 7:7 Those who came with Zerubbabel were Jayshua, Nehemiah, Azariah, Raamiah, Nahamani, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispereth, Bigvai, Nehum, and Baanah. The number of the men of the people of Israel:

Neh 7:8 the children of Parosh, two thousand one hundred and seventy-two;

Neh 7:9 the children of Shephatiah, three hundred and seventy-two;

Neh 7:10 the children of Arah, six hundred and fifty-two;

Neh 7:11 the children of Pahath-Moab, of the children of Jayshua and Joab, two thousand eight hundred and eighteen;

Neh 7:12 the children of Elam, one thousand two hundred and fifty-four;

Neh 7:13 the children of Zattu, eight hundred and forty-five;

Neh 7:14 the children of Zaccai, seven hundred and sixty;

Neh 7:15 the children of Binnui, six hundred and forty-eight;

Neh 7:16 the children of Bebai, six hundred and twenty-eight;

Neh 7:17 the children of Azgad, two thousand three hundred and twenty-two;

Neh 7:18 the children of Adonikam, six hundred and sixty-seven;

Neh 7:19 the children of Bigvai, two thousand and sixty-seven;

Neh 7:20 the children of Adin, six hundred and fifty-five;
 Neh 7:21 the children of Ater of Hezekiah, ninety-eight;
 Neh 7:22 the children of Hashum, three hundred and twenty-eight;
 Neh 7:23 the children of Bezai, three hundred and twenty-four;
 Neh 7:24 the children of Hariph, one hundred and twelve;
 Neh 7:25 the children of Gibeon, ninety-five;
 Neh 7:26 the men of Bethlehem and Netophah, one hundred and eighty-eight;
 Neh 7:27 the men of Anathoth, one hundred and twenty-eight;
 Neh 7:28 the men of Beth Azmaveth, forty-two;
 Neh 7:29 the men of Kirjath Jearim, Chephirah, and Beeroth, seven hundred and forty-three;
 Neh 7:30 the men of Ramah and Geba, six hundred and twenty-one;
 Neh 7:31 the men of Michmas, one hundred and twenty-two;
 Neh 7:32 the men of Bethel and Ai, one hundred and twenty-three;
 Neh 7:33 the men of the other Nebo, fifty-two;
 Neh 7:34 the children of the other Elam, one thousand two hundred and fifty-four;
 Neh 7:35 the children of Harim, three hundred and twenty;
 Neh 7:36 the children of Jericho, three hundred and forty-five;
 Neh 7:37 the children of Lod, Hadid, and Ono, seven hundred and twenty-one;
 Neh 7:38 the children of Senaah, three thousand nine hundred and thirty.
 Neh 7:39 The priests: the children of Jedaiah, of the house of Jayshua, nine hundred and seventy-three;
 Neh 7:40 the children of Immer, one thousand and fifty-two;
 Neh 7:41 the children of Pashhur, one thousand two hundred and forty-seven;
 Neh 7:42 the children of Harim, one thousand and seventeen.

 Neh 7:43 The Levites: the children of Jayshua, of Kadmiel, and of the children of Hodevah, seventy-four.
 Neh 7:44 The singers: the children of Asaph, one hundred and forty-eight.
 Neh 7:45 The gatekeepers: the children of Shallum, the children of Ater, the children of Talmon, the children of Akkub, the children of Hatita, the children of Shobai, one hundred and thirty-eight.
 Neh 7:46 The Nethinim: the children of Zihah, the children of Hasupha, the children of Tabbaoth, Neh 7:47 the children of Keros, the children of Sia, the children of Padon,
 Neh 7:48 the children of Lebana, the children of Hagaba, the children of Salmai,
 Neh 7:49 the children of Hanan, the children of Giddel, the children of Gahar,
 Neh 7:50 the children of Reaiah, the children of Rezin, the children of Nekoda,
 Neh 7:51 the children of Gazzam, the children of Uzza, the children of Paseah,
 Neh 7:52 the children of Besai, the children of Meunim, the children of Nephishesim, Neh 7:53 the children of Bakbuk, the children of Hakupha, the children of Harhur,
 Neh 7:54 the children of Bazlith, the children of Mehida, the children of Harsha,
 Neh 7:55 the children of Barkos, the children of Sisera, the children of Tamah, Neh 7:56 the children of Nezhiah, and the children of Hatipha.
 Neh 7:57 The children of Solomon's servants: the children of Sotai, the children of Sophereth, the children of Perida, Neh 7:58 the children of Jaala, the children of Darkon, the children of Giddel, Neh 7:59 the children of Shephatiah, the children of Hattil, the children of Pochereth of Zebaim, and the children of Amon.

Neh 7:60 All the Nethinim, and the children of Solomon's servants, were three hundred and ninety-two.

Neh 7:61 And these were the ones who came up from Tel Melah, Tel Harsha, Cherub, Addon, and Immer, but they could not identify their father's house nor their lineage, whether they were of Israel:

Neh 7:62 the children of Delaiah, the children of Tobiah, the children of Nekoda, six hundred and forty-two;

Neh 7:63 and of the priests: the children of Habaiah, the children of Koz, the children of Barzillai, who took a wife of the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite, and was called by their name.

Neh 7:64 These sought their listing among those who were registered by genealogy, but it was not found; therefore they were excluded from the priesthood as desecrated.

Neh 7:65 And the governor said to them that they should not eat the sanctuary sanctified things until a priest could consult with the Urim and Thummim.

Neh 7:66 Altogether the whole congregation was forty-two thousand three hundred and sixty,

Neh 7:67 besides their male and female servants, of whom there were seven thousand three hundred and thirty-seven; and they had two hundred and forty-five men and women singers.

Neh 7:68 Their horses were seven hundred and thirty-six, their mules two hundred and forty-five,

Neh 7:69 their camels four hundred and thirty-five, and donkeys six thousand seven hundred and twenty.

Neh 7:70 And some of the heads of the fathers' houses gave to the work. The governor gave to the treasury one thousand gold drachmas, fifty basins, and five hundred and thirty priestly garments.

Neh 7:71 Some of the heads of the fathers' houses gave to the treasury of the work twenty thousand gold drachmas, and two thousand two hundred silver minas.

Neh 7:72 And that which the rest of the people gave was twenty thousand gold drachmas, two thousand silver minas, and sixty-seven priestly garments.

Neh 7:73 So the priests, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the singers, some of the people, the Nethinim, and all Israel dwelt in their cities. When the seventh new moon came, the children of Israel were in their cities.

Neh 8:1 Now all the people gathered together as one man in the open square that was in front of the Water Gate; and they told Ezra the scribe to bring the Book of the Instructions of Moses, which Jehovah had commanded Israel.

Neh 8:2 So Ezra the priest brought the Instructions before the congregation of men and women and all who could hear with understanding, on the first day of the seventh new moon.

Neh 8:3 Then he read from it in the open square that was in front of the Water Gate from morning until midday, before the men and women and those who could understand; and the ears of all the people heard the Book of the Instructions.

Neh 8:4 So Ezra the scribe stood on a platform of wood which they had made for the purpose; and beside him, at his right hand, stood Mattithiah, Shema, Anaiah, Urijah, Hilkiah, and Maaseiah; and at his left hand Pedaiah, Mishael, Malchijah, Hashum, Hashbadana, Zechariah, and Meshullam.

Neh 8:5 And Ezra opened the book in the sight of all the people, for he was standing above all the people; and when he opened it, all the people stood up.

Neh 8:6 And Ezra blessed Jehovah, the great God. Then all the people answered, "Amen, Amen!" while lifting up their hands. And they bowed their heads and worshipped Jehovah with their faces to the ground.

Neh 8:7 Also Jayshua, Bani, Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodijah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, Pelaiah, and the Levites, helped the people to understand the Instructions; and the people stood in their place.

Neh 8:8 So they read distinctly from the book, in the Instructions of God; and they gave the sense, and helped them to understand the reading.

Neh 8:9 And Nehemiah, who was the governor, Ezra the priest and scribe, and the Levites who taught the people said to all the people, "This day is sacred to Jehovah your God; do not mourn nor weep." For all the people wept when they heard the words of the Instructions.

Neh 8:10 Then he said to them, "Go your way, eat the fat, drink the sweet, and send portions to those for whom nothing is prepared; for this day is sacred to our Jehovah. Do not sorrow, for the joy of Jehovah is your stronghold."

Neh 8:11 So the Levites quieted all the people, saying, "Be still, for the day is sacred; do not be grieved."

Neh 8:12 And all the people went their way to eat and drink, to send portions and rejoice greatly, because they understood the words that were declared to them.

Neh 8:13 Now on the second day the heads of the fathers' houses of all the people, with the priests and Levites, were gathered to Ezra the scribe, in order to understand the words of the Instructions.

Neh 8:14 And they found written in the Instructions, which Jehovah had commanded by Moses, that the children of Israel should dwell in booths during the feast of the seventh new moon,

Neh 8:15 and that they should announce and proclaim in all their cities and in Jerusalem, saying, "Go out to the mountain, and bring olive branches, branches of oil trees, myrtle branches, palm branches, and branches of leafy trees, to make booths, as it is written."¹

Neh 8:16 Then the people went out and brought them and made themselves booths, each one on the roof of his house, or in their courtyards or the courts of the House of God, and in the open square of the Water Gate and in the open square of the Gate of Ephraim.

Neh 8:17 So the whole congregation of those who had returned from the captivity made booths and sat under the booths; for since the days of Jayshua the son of Nun² until that day the children of Israel had not done so. And there was very great gladness.

Neh 8:18 Also day by day, from the first day until the last day, he read from the Book of the Instructions of God. And they kept the feast seven days; and on the eighth day there was a sacred assembly, according to the judgements.³

Neh 9:1 Now on the twenty-fourth day of this new moon the children of Israel were assembled with fasting, in sackcloth, and with dust on their heads.

Neh 9:2 Then those of Israelite lineage separated themselves from all the sons of the foreigners;⁴ and they stood and confessed their sins and the iniquities of their fathers.

Neh 9:3 And they stood up in their place and read from the Book of the Instructions of Jehovah their God for one-fourth of the day; and for another fourth they confessed and worshipped Jehovah their God.

Neh 9:4 Then Jayshua, Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani, and Chenani stood on the stairs of the Levites and cried out with a loud voice to Jehovah their God.

⁴ The Hebrew is ben-naker. This means they were joining themselves to foreigners who were not willing to become fully part of Israel and accept Jehovah as their God.

Neh 9:5 Then the Levites, Jayshua, Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabniah, Sherebiah, Hodijah, Shebaniah, and Pethahiah, said: "Stand up and bless Jehovah your God forever and ever! "Blessed be Your glorious name, which is exalted above all blessing and praise!

Neh 9:6 You alone are Jehovah; You have made heaven, the heaven of heavens, with all their host, the earth and all things on it, the seas and all that is in them, and You preserve them all. The host of heaven worships You.

Neh 9:7 "You are Jehovah God, who chose Abram, and brought him out of Ur of the Chaldees, and gave him the name Abraham;

Neh 9:8 You found his heart faithful before You, and made a covenant with him to give the land of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites, and the Girgashites; to give it to his descendants. You have performed Your words, for You are righteous.

Neh 9:9 "You saw the affliction of our fathers in Egypt, and heard their cry by the Soph Sea.

Neh 9:10 You showed signs and wonders against Pharaoh, against all his servants, and against all the people of his land. For You knew that they acted proudly against them. So You made a name for Yourself, as it is this day.

Neh 9:11 And You split open the sea before them, so they went through the midst of the sea on dry land; and You threw their pursuers into the deep, as a stone into the mighty waters.¹

Neh 9:12 Moreover You led them by day with a cloudy pillar, and by night with a pillar of fire, to give them light on the road which they should travel.

Neh 9:13 "You came down also on Mount Sinai, and spoke with them from heaven, and gave them righteous judgements and true Instructions, good statutes and commandments.

Neh 9:14 You made known to them Your sanctified Sabbath, your commandments, statutes and Instructions, which You commanded to them by the hand of Moses Your servant.

Neh 9:15 You gave them bread from heaven for their hunger,² and brought them water out of the rock for their thirst, and told them to go in to possess the land which You had sworn to give them.

Neh 9:16 "But they and our fathers acted proudly, hardened their necks, and did not heed Your commandments.

Neh 9:17 They refused to obey, and they were not mindful of Your wonders that You did among them. But they hardened their necks, and in their rebellion they appointed a leader to return to their bondage. But You are God, ready to pardon, gracious and merciful, slow to anger, abundant in kindness, and did not forsake them.

Neh 9:18 "Even when they made a moulded calf for themselves, and said, 'This is your god that brought you up out of Egypt,' and worked great provocations, Neh 9:19 yet in Your manifold mercies You did not forsake them in the wilderness. The pillar of the cloud did not depart from them by day, to lead them on the road; nor the pillar of fire by night, to show them light, and the way they should go.

Neh 9:20 You also gave Your good Spirit to instruct them, and did not withhold Your manna from their mouth, and gave them water for their thirst.

Neh 9:21 Forty years You sustained them in the wilderness, so that they lacked nothing; their clothes did not wear out and their feet did not swell.

Neh 9:22 "Moreover You gave them kingdoms and nations, and divided them into districts. So they took possession of the land of Sihon, the land of the king of Heshbon, and the land of Og king of Bashan.

² Exo 16, John 6:31

Neh 9:23 You also multiplied their children as the stars of heaven, and brought them into the land which You had told their fathers to go in and possess.

Neh 9:24 So the people went in and possessed the land; you subdued before them the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, and gave them into their hands, with their kings and the people of the land, that they might do with them as they would.

Neh 9:25 And they took strong cities and a rich land, and possessed houses full of all goods, cisterns already dug, vineyards, olive groves, and fruit trees in abundance. So they ate and were filled and grew fat, and delighted themselves in Your great goodness.

Neh 9:26 “Nevertheless they were disobedient and rebelled against You, cast Your Instructions behind their backs and killed Your prophets, who testified against them to turn them to Yourself; and they worked great provocations.

Neh 9:27 Therefore You delivered them into the hand of their enemies, who oppressed them; and in the time of their trouble, when they cried to You, You heard from heaven; and according to Your abundant mercies You gave them deliverers who saved them from the hand of their enemies.

Neh 9:28 “But after they had rest, they again did evil before You. Therefore You left them in the hand of their enemies, so that they had dominion over them; yet when they returned and cried out to You, You heard from heaven; and many times You delivered them according to Your mercies,

Neh 9:29 and testified against them, that You might bring them back to Your Instructions. Yet they acted proudly, and did not heed Your commandments, but sinned against Your judgements, ‘which if a man does, he will live by them.’ And they shrugged their shoulders, stiffened their necks, and would not hear.

Neh 9:30 Yet for many years You had patience with them, and testified against them by Your Spirit in Your prophets. Yet they would not listen; therefore You gave them into the hand of the peoples of the lands.

Neh 9:31 Nevertheless in Your great mercy You did not utterly consume them nor forsake them; for You are God, gracious and merciful.

Neh 9:32 “Now therefore, our God, the great, the mighty, and awesome God, who keeps covenant and mercy: do not let all the trouble seem small before You that has come upon us, our kings and our princes, our priests and our prophets, our fathers and on all Your people, from the days of the kings of Assyria until this day.

Neh 9:33 However You are just in all that has befallen us; for You have dealt faithfully, but we have done wickedly.

Neh 9:34 Neither our kings nor our princes, our priests nor our fathers, have kept Your Instructions, nor heeded Your commandments and Your testimonies, with which You testified against them.

Neh 9:35 For they have not served You in their kingdom, or in the many good things that You gave them, or in the large and rich land which You set before them; nor did they turn from their evil works.

Neh 9:36 “Here we are, servants today! And the land that You gave to our fathers, to eat its fruit and its good things, here we are, servants in it!

Neh 9:37 And it yields much increase to the kings You have set over us, because of our sins; also they have dominion over our bodies and our cattle at their pleasure; and we are in great trouble.

Neh 9:38 “And because of all this, we make a sure agreement, and write it; and our leaders and our Levites and our priests seal it.”

Neh 10:1 Now those who placed their seal on the document were: Nehemiah the governor, the son of Hacaliah, and Zedekiah,

Neh 10:2 Seraiah, Azariah, Jeremiah,

Neh 10:3 Pashhur, Amariah, Malchijah,

Neh 10:4 Hattush, Shebaniah, Malluch,

Neh 10:5 Harim, Meremoth, Obadiah,

Neh 10:6 Daniel, Ginnethon, Baruch,

Neh 10:7 Meshullam, Abijah, Mijamin,

Neh 10:8 Maaziah, Bilgai, and Shemaiah.

These were the priests.

Neh 10:9 The Levites: Jayshua the son of Azaniah, Binnui of the sons of Henadad, and Kadmiel.

Neh 10:10 Their brethren: Shebaniah, Hodijah, Kelita, Pelaiah, Hanan, Neh 10:11 Micha, Rehob, Hashabiah,

Neh 10:12 Zaccur, Sherebiah, Shebaniah,

Neh 10:13 Hodijah, Bani, and Beninu.

Neh 10:14 The leaders of the people: Parosh, Pahath-Moab, Elam, Zattu, Bani, Neh 10:15 Bunni, Azgad, Bebai,

Neh 10:16 Adonijah, Bigvai, Adin,

Neh 10:17 Ater, Hezekiah, Azzur,

Neh 10:18 Hodijah, Hashum, Bezai,

Neh 10:19 Hariph, Anathoth, Nebai,

Neh 10:20 Magpiash, Meshullam, Hezir,

Neh 10:21 Meshezabeel, Zadok, Jaddua,

Neh 10:22 Pelatiah, Hanan, Anaiah,

Neh 10:23 Hoshea, Hananiah, Hasshub,

Neh 10:24 Hallohesh, Pilha, Shobek,

Neh 10:25 Rehum, Hashabnah, Maaseiah,

Neh 10:26 Ahijah, Hanan, Anan,

Neh 10:27 Malluch, Harim, and Baanah.

Neh 10:28 Now the rest of the people (the priests, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the singers, the Nethinim, and all those who had separated themselves from the peoples of the lands to the Instructions of God, their wives, their sons, and their daughters, everyone who had knowledge and understanding),

Neh 10:29 they joined with their brethren, their nobles, and entered into a curse and an oath to walk in God’s Instructions, which was given by Moses, God’s servant, and to observe and do all the commandments of Jehovah our Lord, and His judgements and His statutes;

Neh 10:30 that we would not give our daughters as wives to the peoples of the land, nor take their daughters for our sons; Neh 10:31 that if the peoples of the land bring wares or any grain to sell on the Sabbath day, we would not buy it from them on the Sabbath, or on a sanctified day; and that we would forego the seventh year’s produce and the exaction of every debt.

Neh 10:32 Also we made commandments for ourselves, to exact from ourselves yearly one-third of a shekel for the service of the house of our God:

Neh 10:33 for the arranged bread, for the regular grain offering, for the regular burnt offering of the Sabbaths, the New Moons, and the set feasts; for the sanctified things, for the sin offerings to make atonement for Israel, and all the work of the house of our God.

Neh 10:34 We cast lots among the priests, the Levites, and the people, for bringing the wood offering into the house of our God, according to our fathers’ houses, at the appointed times year by year, to burn on the altar of Jehovah our God as it is written in the Instructions.

Neh 10:35 And we made ordinances to bring the first-fruits of our ground and the first-fruits of all fruit of all trees, year by year, to the House of Jehovah;

Neh 10:36 to bring the firstborn of our sons and our cattle, as it is written in the Instructions, and the firstlings of our herds and our flocks, to the house of our God, to the priests who serve in the house of our God;

Neh 10:37 to bring the first of our dough, our offerings, the fruit from all kinds of trees, the new wine and oil, to the priests, to the storerooms of the house of our God; and to bring the tithes of our land to the Levites, for the Levites should receive the tithes in all our farming communities.

Neh 10:38 And the priest, the descendant of Aaron, will be with the Levites when the Levites receive tithes; and the Levites will bring up a tenth of the tithes to the house of our God, to the rooms of the storehouse.

Neh 10:39 For the children of Israel and the children of Levi will bring the offering of the grain, of the new wine and the oil, to the storerooms where the articles of the sanctuary and the priests who serve and the gatekeepers and the singers are; and we will not neglect the house of our God.

Neh 11:1 Now the leaders of the people dwelt at Jerusalem; the rest of the people cast lots to bring one out of ten to dwell in Jerusalem, the sanctified city, and nine-tenths to dwell in other cities.

Neh 11:2 And the people blessed all the men who willingly offered themselves to dwell at Jerusalem.

Neh 11:3 Now these are the heads of the province who dwelt in Jerusalem. (But in the cities of Judah everyone dwelt in his own possession in their cities; Israelites, priests, Levites, Nethinim, and descendants of Solomon's servants.)

Neh 11:4 Also in Jerusalem dwelt certain of the children of Judah and of the children of Benjamin. The children of Judah: Athaiah the son of Uzziah, the son of Zechariah, the son of Amariah, the son of Shephatiah, the son of Mahalaleel, of the children of Perez;

Neh 11:5 and Maaseiah the son of Baruch, the son of Col-Hozeh, the son of Hazaiah, the son of Adaiah, the son of Joiarib, the son of Zechariah, the son of Shiloni.

Neh 11:6 All the sons of Perez who dwelt at Jerusalem were four hundred and sixty-eight valiant men.

Neh 11:7 And these are the sons of Benjamin: Sallu the son of Meshullam, the son of Joed, the son of Pedaiah, the son of Kolaiah, the son of Maaseiah, the son of Ithiel, the son of Jeshaiiah;

Neh 11:8 and after him Gabbai and Sallai, nine hundred and twenty-eight.

Neh 11:9 Joel the son of Zichri was their overseer, and Judah the son of Senuah was second over the city.

Neh 11:10 Of the priests: Jedaiah the son of Joiarib, and Jachin;

Neh 11:11 Seraiah the son of Hilkiyah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, was the leader of the House of God.

Neh 11:12 Their brethren who did the work of the house were eight hundred and twenty-two; and Adaiah the son of Jeroham, the son of Pelaliah, the son of Amzi, the son of Zechariah, the son of Pashhur, the son of Malchijah,

Neh 11:13 and his brethren, heads of the fathers' houses, were two hundred and forty-two; and Amashai the son of Azareel, the son of Ahzai, the son of Meshillemoth, the son of Immer, Neh 11:14 and their brethren, mighty men of valour, were one hundred and twenty-eight. Their overseer was Zabdiel the son of one of the great men.

Neh 11:15 Also of the Levites: Shemaiah the son of Hasshub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Bunni;

Neh 11:16 Shabbethai and Jozabad, of the heads of the Levites, had the oversight of the business outside of the House of God;

Neh 11:17 and Mattaniah the son of Micha, the son of Zabdi, the son of Asaph, who was the leader who began the thanksgiving with prayer, and Bakbukiah the second among his brethren, and Abda the son of Shammua, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun.

Neh 11:18 All the Levites in the sanctified city were two hundred and eighty-four.

Neh 11:19 Moreover the gatekeepers, Akkub, Talmon, and their brethren who kept the gates, were one hundred and seventy-two.

Neh 11:20 And the rest of Israel, of the priests and Levites, were in all the cities of Judah, everyone in his own inheritance.

Neh 11:21 But the Nethinim dwelt in Ophel. And Ziha and Gishpa were over the Nethinim.

Neh 11:22 Also the overseer of the Levites at Jerusalem was Uzzi the son of Bani, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Micha, of the sons of Asaph, the singers in charge of the service of the House of God.

Neh 11:23 For it was the king's commandment concerning them that a certain portion should be for the singers, a quota day by day.

Neh 11:24 Pethahiah the son of Meshezabeel, of the children of Zerah the son of Judah, was the king's deputy in all matters concerning the people.

Neh 11:25 And as for the villages with their fields, some of the children of Judah dwelt in Kirjath Arba and its villages, Dibon and its villages, Jekabzeel and its villages;

Neh 11:26 in Jayshua, Moladah, Beth Pelet,

Neh 11:27 Hazar Shual, and Beersheba and its villages;

Neh 11:28 in Ziklag and Meconah and its villages;

Neh 11:29 in En Rimmon, Zorah, Jarmuth,

Neh 11:30 Zanoah, Adullam, and their villages; in Lachish and its fields; in Azekah and its villages. They dwelt from Beersheba to the Valley of Hinnom.

Neh 11:31 Also the children of Benjamin from Geba dwelt in Michmash, Aija, and Bethel, and their villages;

Neh 11:32 in Anathoth, Nob, Ananiah;

Neh 11:33 in Hazor, Ramah, Gittaim;

Neh 11:34 in Hadid, Zeboim, Neballat;

Neh 11:35 in Lod, Ono, and the Valley of Craftsmen.

Neh 11:36 Some of the Judean divisions of Levites were in Benjamin.

Neh 12:1 Now these are the priests and the Levites who came up with Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel and Jayshua: Seraiah, Jeremiah, Ezra,

Neh 12:2 Amariah, Malluch, Hattush,

Neh 12:3 Shechaniah, Rehum, Meremoth,

Neh 12:4 Iddo, Ginnethoi, Abijah,

Neh 12:5 Mijamin, Maadiah, Bilgah,

Neh 12:6 Shemaiah, Joiarib, Jedaiah,

Neh 12:7 Sallu, Amok, Hilkiyah, and Jedaiah. These were the heads of the priests and their brethren in the days of Jayshua.

Neh 12:8 Moreover the Levites were Jayshua, Binnui, Kadmiel, Sherebiah, Judah, and Mattaniah who led the thanksgiving psalms, he and his brethren.

Neh 12:9 Also Bakbukiah and Unni, their brethren, stood across from them in their duties.

Neh 12:10 Jayshua begot Joiakim, Joiakim begot Eliashib, Eliashib begot Joiada, Neh 12:11 Joiada begot Jonathan, and Jonathan begot Jaddua.

Neh 12:12 Now in the days of Joiakim, the priests, the heads of the fathers' houses were: of Seraiah, Meraiah; of Jeremiah, Hananiah;

Neh 12:13 of Ezra, Meshullam; of Amariah, Jehohanan;

Neh 12:14 of Melichu, Jonathan; of Shebaniah, Joseph;

Neh 12:15 of Harim, Adna; of Meraioth, Helkai;

Neh 12:16 of Iddo, Zechariah; of Ginnethon, Meshullam;

Neh 12:17 of Abijah, Zichri; the son of Minjamin; of Moadiah, Piltai;

Neh 12:18 of Bilgah, Shammua; of Shemaiah, Jehonathan;

Neh 12:19 of Joiarib, Mattenai; of Jedaiah, Uzzi;

Neh 12:20 of Sallai, Kallai; of Amok, Eber;

Neh 12:21 of Hilkiah, Hashabiah; and of Jedaiah, Nethaneal.

Neh 12:22 During the reign of Darius the Persian, a record was also kept of the Levites and priests who had been heads of their fathers' houses in the days of Eliashib, Joiada, Johanan, and Jaddua.

Neh 12:23 The sons of Levi, the heads of the fathers' houses until the days of Johanan the son of Eliashib, were written in the book of the chronicles.

Neh 12:24 And the heads of the Levites were Hashabiah, Sherebiah, and Jayshua the son of Kadmiel, with their brothers across from them, to praise and give thanks, watch alternating with watch, according to the commandment of David the man of God.

Neh 12:25 Mattaniah, Bakbukiah, Obadiah, Meshullam, Talmon, and Akkub were gatekeepers keeping the watch at the storerooms of the gates.

Neh 12:26 These lived in the days of Joiakim the son of Jayshua, the son of Jozadak, and in the days of Nehemiah the governor, and of Ezra the priest, the scribe.

Neh 12:27 Now at the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem they sought out the Levites in all their places, to bring them to Jerusalem to celebrate the dedication with gladness, both with thanksgivings and singing, with cymbals and stringed instruments and harps.

Neh 12:28 And the sons of the singers gathered together from the countryside around Jerusalem, from the villages of the Netophathites, Neh 12:29 from the house of Gilgal, and from the fields of Geba and Azmaveth; for the singers had built themselves villages all around Jerusalem.

Neh 12:30 Then the priests and Levites purified themselves, and purified the people, the gates, and the wall.

Neh 12:31 So I brought the leaders of Judah up on the wall, and appointed two large thanksgiving choirs, one of which went to the right hand on the wall toward the Refuse Gate;

Neh 12:32 after them went Hoshai and half of the leaders of Judah,

Neh 12:33 and Azariah, Ezra, Meshullam,

Neh 12:34 Judah, Benjamin, Shemaiah, Jeremiah,

Neh 12:35 and certain of the priests' sons with trumpets, namely, Zechariah the son of Jonathan, the son of Shemaiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Michaiah, the son of Zaccur, the son of Asaph, Neh 12:36 and his brethren, Shemaiah, Azarel, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nethaneal, Judah, and Hanani, with the musical instruments of David the man of God; and Ezra the scribe went before them.

Neh 12:37 By the Fountain Gate, in front of them, they went up the stairs of the City of David, on the stairway of the wall, beyond the house of David, as far as the Water Gate eastward.

Neh 12:38 The second thanksgiving choir went the opposite way, and I was behind them with half of the people on the wall, going past the Tower of the Ovens as far as the Broad Wall, Neh 12:39 and above the Gate of Ephraim, above the Old Gate, above the Fish Gate, the Tower of Hananeal, the Tower of the Hundred, as far as the Sheep Gate; and they stopped by the Gate of the Prison.

Neh 12:40 So the two thanksgiving choirs stood in the House of God, likewise I and the half of the rulers with me;

Neh 12:41 and the priests, Eliakim, Maaseiah, Minjamin, Michaiah, Elieoenai, Zechariah, and Hananiah, with trumpets;

Neh 12:42 also Maaseiah, Shemaiah, Eleazar, Uzzi, Jehohanan, Malchijah, Elam, and Ezer. The singers sang loudly with Jezrahiah as their director.

Neh 12:43 Also that day they offered great sacrifices, and rejoiced, for God had made them rejoice with great joy; the women and the children also rejoiced, so that the joy of Jerusalem was heard afar off.

Neh 12:44 And at the same time some were appointed over the rooms of the storehouse for the offerings, the firsts, and the tithes, to gather into them the portions specified by the Instructions for the priests and Levites from the fields of the cities; for Judah rejoiced over the priests and Levites who served.

Neh 12:45 Both the singers and the gatekeepers kept the charge of their God and the charge of the purification, according to the commandment of David and Solomon his son.

Neh 12:46 For in the days of David and Asaph of old there were chiefs of the singers, and songs of praise and thanksgiving to God.

Neh 12:47 In the days of Zerubbabel and in the days of Nehemiah all Israel gave the portions for the singers and the gatekeepers, a portion for each day. They also consecrated holy things for the Levites, and the Levites consecrated them for the children of Aaron.

Neh 13:1 On that day they read from the Book of Moses in the hearing of the people, and in it was found written that no Ammonite or Moabite should ever come into the congregation of God, Neh 13:2 because they had not met the children of Israel with bread and water, but hired Balaam against them to curse them. However, our God turned the curse into a blessing.

Neh 13:3 So it was, when they had heard the Instructions, that they separated all the mixed multitude from Israel.

Neh 13:4 Now before this, Eliashib the priest, having authority over the storerooms of the house of our God, was allied with Tobiah.

Neh 13:5 And he had prepared for him a large room where previously they had stored the grain offerings, the frankincense, the articles, the tithes of grain, the new wine and oil. The commandment was for them to be given to the Levites and singers and gatekeepers, and the offerings for the priests.

Neh 13:6 But during all this I was not in Jerusalem, for in the thirty-second year of Artaxerxes king of Babylon I had returned to the king. Then after certain days I obtained leave from the king, Neh 13:7 and I came to Jerusalem and discovered the evil that Eliashib had done for Tobiah, in preparing a room for him in the courts of the House of God.

Neh 13:8 And it grieved me bitterly; therefore I threw all the household goods of Tobiah out of the room.

Neh 13:9 Then I commanded them to cleanse the rooms; and I brought back into them the articles of the House of God, with the grain offering and the frankincense.

Neh 13:10 I also realized that the portions for the Levites had not been given to them; so each of the Levites and the singers who did the work had gone back to his field.

Neh 13:11 So I contended with the rulers, and said, "Why is the House of God forsaken?" And I gathered them together and set them in their place.

Neh 13:12 Then all Judah brought the tithe of the grain and the new wine and the oil to the storehouse.

Neh 13:13 And I appointed as treasurers over the storehouse Shelemiah the priest and Zadok the scribe, and of the Levites, Pedaiah; and next to them was Hanan the son of Zaccur, the son of Mattaniah; for they were considered faithful, and their task was to distribute to their brethren.

Neh 13:14 Remember me, O my God, concerning this, and do not wipe out my good deeds that I have done for the house of my God, and for its watches!

Neh 13:15 In those days I saw in Judah some people treading wine presses on the Sabbath, and bringing in sheaves, and loading donkeys with wine, grapes, figs, and all kinds of burdens, which they brought into Jerusalem on the Sabbath day. And I warned them about the day on which they were selling provisions.

Neh 13:16 Men of Tyre dwelt there also, who brought in fish and all kinds of goods, and sold them on the Sabbath to the children of Judah, and in Jerusalem.

Neh 13:17 Then I contended with the nobles of Judah, and said to them, "What evil thing is this that you do, by which you profane the Sabbath day?"

Neh 13:18 "Did your fathers not do thus, and did our God not bring all this evil on us and on this city? Yet you bring added wrath on Israel by defiling the Sabbath."

Neh 13:19 So it was, at the gates of Jerusalem, as it began to be dark before the Sabbath, that I commanded the gates to be shut, and charged that they must not be opened until after the Sabbath. Then I posted some of my servants at the gates, so that no burdens would be brought in on the Sabbath day.

Neh 13:20 Now the merchants and sellers of all kinds of wares lodged outside Jerusalem once or twice.

Neh 13:21 So I warned them, and said to them, "Why do you spend the night around the wall? If you do so again, I will lay hands on you!" From that time on they came on the Sabbath no more.

Neh 13:22 And I commanded the Levites that they should cleanse themselves, and that they should go and guard the gates, to sanctify the Sabbath day. Remember me, O my God, concerning this also, and spare me according to the greatness of Your mercy!

Neh 13:23 In those days I also saw Judeans who had married women of Ashdod, Ammon, and Moab.

Neh 13:24 And half of their children spoke the language of Ashdod, and could not speak the language of Judah, but spoke according to the language of one or the other people.

Neh 13:25 So I contended with them and cursed them, struck some of them and pulled out their hair, and made them swear by God, saying, "You will not give your daughters as wives to their sons, nor take their daughters for your sons or yourselves."

Neh 13:26 "Did not Solomon king of Israel sin by these things? Yet among many nations there was no king like him, who was beloved by his God; and God made him king over all Israel. Nevertheless pagan women caused even him to sin."

Neh 13:27 "Should we then hear of your doing all this great evil, transgressing against our God by marrying pagan women?"

Neh 13:28 And one of the sons of Joiada, the son of Eliashib the chief priest, was a son-in-law of Sanballat the Horonite; therefore I drove him from me.

Neh 13:29 Remember them, O my God, because they have desecrated the priesthood and the covenant of the priesthood and the Levites.

Neh 13:30 Thus I cleansed them of everything foreign. I also assigned duties to the priests and the Levites, each to his service, Neh 13:31 and to bringing the wood offering and the first-fruits at appointed times. Remember me, O my God, for good!

First Chronicles

 1Ch 1:18 Arphaxad begot Shelah, and Shelah begot Eber.
 1Ch 1:19 To Eber were born two sons: the name of one was Peleg, for in his days the earth was divided; and his brother's name was Joktan.
 1Ch 1:20 Joktan begot Almodad, Sheleph, Hazarmaveth, Jerah, 1Ch 1:21 Hadoram, Uzal, Diklah,
 1Ch 1:22 Ebal, Abimael, Sheba,

1Ch 1:23 Ophir, Havilah, and Jobab. All these were the sons of Joktan.
 1Ch 1:24 Shem, Arphaxad, Shelah,
 1Ch 1:25 Eber, Peleg, Reu,
 1Ch 1:26 Serug, Nahor, Terah,
 1Ch 1:27 and Abram, that is Abraham.
 1Ch 1:28 The sons of Abraham were Isaac and Ishmael.
 1Ch 1:29 These are their genealogies: The firstborn of Ishmael was Nabajoth; then Kedar, Adbeel, Mibsam, 1Ch 1:30 Mishma, Dumah, Massa, Hadad, Tema,
 1Ch 1:31 Jetur, Naphish, and Kedemah. These were the sons of Ishmael.
 1Ch 1:32 Now the sons born to Keturah, Abraham's concubine, were Zimran, Jokshan, Medan, Midian, Ishbak, and Shuah. The sons of Jokshan were Sheba and Dedan.
 1Ch 1:33 The sons of Midian were Ephah, Ephher, Hanoch, Abida, and Eldaah. All these were the children of Keturah.
 1Ch 1:34 And Abraham begot Isaac. The sons of Isaac were Esau and Israel.
 1Ch 1:35 The sons of Esau were Eliphaz, Reuel, Jeush, Jaalam, and Korah.
 1Ch 1:36 And the sons of Eliphaz were Teman, Omar, Zephi, Gatam, and Kenaz; and by Timna, Amalek.
 1Ch 1:37 The sons of Reuel were Nahath, Zerah, Shammah, and Mizzah.
 1Ch 1:38 The sons of Seir were Lotan, Shobal, Zibeon, Anah, Dishon, Ezer, and Dishan.
 1Ch 1:39 And the sons of Lotan were Hori and Homam; Lotan's sister was Timna.
 1Ch 1:40 The sons of Shobal were Alian, Manahath, Ebal, Shephi, and Onam. The sons of Zibeon were Ajah and Anah.
 1Ch 1:41 The son of Anah was Dishon. The sons of Dishon were Hamran, Eshban, Ithran, and Cheran.
 1Ch 1:42 The sons of Ezer were Bilhan, Zaavan, and Jaakan. The sons of Dishan were Uz and Aran.

1Ch 1:43 Now these were the kings who reigned in the land of Edom before any king reigned over the children of Israel: Bela the son of Beor, and the name of his city was Dinhabah.

1Ch 1:44 And when Bela died, Jobab the son of Zerah of Bozrah reigned in his place.

1Ch 1:45 When Jobab died, Husham of the land of the Temanites reigned in his place.

1Ch 1:46 And when Husham died, Hadad the son of Bedad, who attacked Midian in the field of Moab, reigned in his place. The name of his city was Avith.

1Ch 1:47 When Hadad died, Samlah of Masrekah reigned in his place.

1Ch 1:48 And when Samlah died, Saul of Rehoboth-by-the-River reigned in his place.

1Ch 1:49 When Saul died, Baal-Hanan the son of Achbor reigned in his place.

1Ch 1:50 And when Baal-Hanan died, Hadad reigned in his place; and the name of his city was Pai. His wife's name was Mehetabel the daughter of Matred, the daughter of Mezahab.

1Ch 1:51 Hadad died also. And the chiefs of Edom were Chief Timnah, Chief Aliah, Chief Jetheth, 1Ch 1:52 Chief Aholibamah, Chief Elah, Chief Pinon,

1Ch 1:53 Chief Kenaz, Chief Teman, Chief Mibzar,

1Ch 1:54 Chief Magdiel, and Chief Iram. These were the chiefs of Edom.

1Ch 2:1 These were the sons of Israel: Reuben, Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, Zebulun, 1Ch 2:2 Dan, Joseph, Benjamin, Naphtali, Gad, and Asher.

1Ch 2:3 The sons of Judah were Er, Onan, and Shelah. These three were born to him by the daughter of Shua, the Canaanitess. Er, the firstborn of Judah, was evil in the sight of Jehovah; and He killed him.

1Ch 2:4 And Tamar, his daughter-in-law, bore him Perez and Zerah. All the sons of Judah were five.

1Ch 2:5 The sons of Perez were Hezron and Hamul.

1Ch 2:6 The sons of Zerah were Zimri, Ethan, Heman, Calcol, and Dara; five of them in all.

1Ch 2:7 The son of Carmi was Achar, the troubler of Israel, who transgressed in the accursed thing.

1Ch 2:8 The son of Ethan was Azariah.

1Ch 2:9 Also the sons of Hezron who were born to him were Jerahmeel, Ram, and Chelubai.

1Ch 2:10 Ram begot Amminadab, and Amminadab begot Nahshon, leader of the children of Judah;

1Ch 2:11 Nahshon begot Salma, and Salma begot Boaz;

1Ch 2:12 Boaz begot Obed, and Obed begot Jesse;

1Ch 2:13 Jesse begot Eliab his firstborn, Abinadab the second, Shimea the third,

1Ch 2:14 Nethanel the fourth, Raddai the fifth,

1Ch 2:15 Ozem the sixth, and David the seventh.

1Ch 2:16 Now their sisters were Zeruiah and Abigail. And the sons of Zeruiah were Abishai, Joab, and Asahel; three.

1Ch 2:17 Abigail bore Amasa; and the father of Amasa was Jether the Ishmaelite.

1Ch 2:18 Caleb the son of Hezron begot children by Azubah, his wife, and by Jerioth. Now these were her sons: Jeshur, Shobab, and Ardon.

1Ch 2:19 When Azubah died, Caleb took Ephrath as his wife, who bore him Hur.

1Ch 2:20 And Hur begot Uri, and Uri begot Bezaleel.

1Ch 2:21 Now afterwards Hezron went into the daughter of Machir the father of Gilead, whom he married when he was sixty years old; and she bore him Segub.

1Ch 2:22 Segub begot Jair, who had twenty-three cities in the land of Gilead.

1Ch 2:23 (Geshur and Syria took from them the towns of Jair, with Kenath and its towns; sixty towns.) All these belonged to the sons of Machir the father of Gilead.

1Ch 2:24 After Hezron died in Caleb Ephrathah, Hezron's wife Abijah bore him Ashhur the father of Tekoa.

1Ch 2:25 The sons of Jerahmeel, the firstborn of Hezron, were Ram, the firstborn, and Bunah, Oren, Ozem, and Ahijah.

1Ch 2:26 Jerahmeel had another wife, whose name was Atarah; she was the mother of Onam.

1Ch 2:27 The sons of Ram, the firstborn of Jerahmeel, were Maaz, Jamin, and Eker.

1Ch 2:28 The sons of Onam were Shammai and Jada. The sons of Shammai were Nadab and Abishur.

1Ch 2:29 And the name of the wife of Abishur was Abihail, and she bore him Ahban and Molid.

1Ch 2:30 The sons of Nadab were Seled and Appaim; Seled died without children.

1Ch 2:31 The son of Appaim was Ishi, the son of Ishi was Sheshan, and Sheshan's child was Ahlai.

1Ch 2:32 The sons of Jada, the brother of Shammai, were Jether and Jonathan; Jether died without children.

1Ch 2:33 The sons of Jonathan were Peleth and Zaza. These were the sons of Jerahmeel.

1Ch 2:34 Now Sheshan had no sons, only daughters. And Sheshan had an Egyptian servant whose name was Jarha.

1Ch 2:35 Sheshan gave his daughter to Jarha his servant as wife, and she bore him Attai.

1Ch 2:36 Attai begot Nathan, and Nathan begot Zabad;

1Ch 2:37 Zabad begot Ephlal, and Ephlal begot Obed;

1Ch 2:38 Obed begot Jehu, and Jehu begot Azariah;

1Ch 2:39 Azariah begot Helez, and Helez begot Eleasah;

1Ch 2:40 Eleasah begot Sismai, and Sismai begot Shallum;

1Ch 2:41 Shallum begot Jekamiah, and Jekamiah begot Elishama.

1Ch 2:42 The descendants of Caleb the brother of Jerahmeel were Mesha, his firstborn, who was the father of Ziph, and the sons of Mareshah the father of Hebron.

1Ch 2:43 The sons of Hebron were Korah, Tappuah, Rekem, and Shema.

1Ch 2:44 Shema begot Raham the father of Jorkoam, and Rekem begot Shammai, 1Ch 2:45 and the son of Shammai was Maon, and Maon was the father of Beth Zur.

1Ch 2:46 Ephah, Caleb's concubine, bore Haran, Moza, and Gazez; and Haran begot Gazez.

1Ch 2:47 And the sons of Jahdai were Regem, Jotham, Geshan, Pelet, Ephah, and Shaaph.

1Ch 2:48 Maachah, Caleb's concubine, bore Sheber and Tirhanah.

1Ch 2:49 She also bore Shaaph the father of Madmannah, Sheva the father of Machbenah and the father of Gibeaz; and the daughter of Caleb was Achsah.

1Ch 2:50 These were the descendants of Caleb: The sons of Hur, the firstborn of Ephrathah, were Shobal the father of Kirjath Jearim, 1Ch 2:51 Salma the father of Bethlehem, and Hareph the father of Beth Gader.

1Ch 2:52 And Shobal the father of Kirjath Jearim had descendants: Haroeh, and half of the families of Manuhoth.

1Ch 2:53 The families of Kirjath Jearim were the Ithrites, the Puthites, the Shumathites, and the Mishraites. From these came the Zorathites and the Eshtaulites.

1Ch 2:54 The sons of Salma were Bethlehem, the Netophathites, Atroth Beth Joab, half of the Manahethites, and the Zorites.

1Ch 2:55 And the families of the scribes who dwelt at Jabez were the Tirathites, the Shimeathites, and the Suchathites. These were the Kenites who came from Hammath, the father of the house of Rechab.

1Ch 3:1 Now these were the sons of David who were born to him in Hebron: The firstborn was Amnon, by Ahinoam the Jezreelitess; the second, Daniel, by Abigail the Carmelitess;

1Ch 3:2 the third, Absalom the son of Maacah, the daughter of Talmai, king of Geshur; the fourth, Adonijah the son of Haggith; 1Ch 3:3 the fifth, Shephatiah, by Abital; the sixth, Ithream, by his wife Eglah.

1Ch 3:4 These six were born to him in Hebron. He reigned there seven years and six new moons, and he reigned in Jerusalem for thirty-three years.

1Ch 3:5 And these were born to him in Jerusalem: Shimea, Shobab, Nathan, and Solomon; four by Bathshua the daughter of Ammiel.

1Ch 3:6 Also there were Ibhar, Elishama, Eliphelet,

1Ch 3:7 Nogah, Nepheg, Japhia,

1Ch 3:8 Elishama, Eliada, and Eliphelet; nine in all.

1Ch 3:9 These were all the sons of David, besides the sons of the concubines, and Tamar their sister.

1Ch 3:10 Solomon's son was Rehoboam; Abijah was his son, Asa his son, Jehoshaphat his son,

1Ch 3:11 Joram his son, Ahaziah his son, Joash his son,

1Ch 3:12 Amaziah his son, Azariah his son, Jotham his son,

1Ch 3:13 Ahaz his son, Hezekiah his son, Manasseh his son,

1Ch 3:14 Amon his son, and Josiah his son.¹

1Ch 3:15 The sons of Josiah were

Johanan the firstborn, the second Jehoiakim, the third Zedekiah, and the fourth Shallum.

1Ch 3:16 The sons of Jehoiakim were Jeconiah his son and Zedekiah his son.

1Ch 3:17 And the sons of Jeconiah were Assir, Shealtiel his son, 1Ch 3:18 and Malchiram, Pedaiah, Shenazzar, Jecamiah, Hoshama, and Nedabiah.

1Ch 3:19 The sons of Pedaiah were Zerubbabel and Shimei. The sons of Zerubbabel were Meshullam, Hananiah, Shelomith their sister, 1Ch 3:20 and Hashubah, Ohel, Berechiah, Hasadiah, and Jushab-Hesed; five in all.

1Ch 3:21 The sons of Hananiah were Pelatiah and Jeshaiah, the sons of Rephaiah, the sons of Arnan, the sons of Obadiah, and the sons of Shechaniah.

1Ch 3:22 The son of Shechaniah was Shemaiah. The sons of Shemaiah were Hattush, Igal, Bariah, Neariah, and Shaphat; six in all.

1Ch 3:23 The sons of Neariah were Elioenai, Hezekiah, and Azrikam; three in all.

1Ch 3:24 The sons of Elioenai were Hodaviah, Eliashib, Pelaiah, Akkub, Johanan, Delaiah, and Anani; seven in all.

1Ch 4:1 The sons of Judah were Perez, Hezron, Carmi, Hur, and Shobal.

1Ch 4:2 And Reaiah the son of Shobal begot Jahath, and Jahath begot Ahumai and Lahad. These were the families of the Zorathites.

1Ch 4:3 These were the sons of the father of Etam: Jezreel, Ishma, and Idbash; and the name of their sister was Hazelelponi; 1Ch 4:4 and Penuel was the father of Gedor, and Ezer was the father of Hushah. These were the sons of Hur, the firstborn of Ephrathah the father of Bethlehem.

1Ch 4:5 And Ashhur the father of Tekoa had two wives, Helah and Naarah.

1Ch 4:6 Naarah bore him Ahuzzam, Hepher, Temeni, and Haahashtari. These were the sons of Naarah.

1Ch 4:7 The sons of Helah were Zereth, Zohar, and Ethnan;

1Ch 4:8 and Koz begot Anub, Zobebah, and the families of Aharhel the son of Harum.

1Ch 4:9 Now Jabez was more honourable than his brothers, and his mother called his name Jabez, saying, "Because I bore him in pain."

1Ch 4:10 And Jabez called on the God of Israel saying, "Oh, that You would bless me indeed, and enlarge my territory, that Your hand would be with me, and that You would keep me from evil, that I may not cause pain!" So God granted him what he requested.

1Ch 4:11 Chelub the brother of Shuhah begot Mehir, who was the father of Eshton.

1Ch 4:12 And Eshton begot Beth-Rapha, Paseah, and Tehinnah the father of Ir-Nahash. These were the men of Rechah.

1Ch 4:13 The sons of Kenaz were Othniel and Seraiah. The sons of Othniel were Hathath, 1Ch 4:14 and Meonothai who begot Ophrah. Seraiah begot Joab the father of Ge-Harashim, for they were craftsmen.

1Ch 4:15 The sons of Caleb the son of Jephunneh were Iru, Elah, and Naam. The son of Elah was Kenaz.

1Ch 4:16 The sons of Jahaleleel were Ziph, Ziphah, Tiria, and Asarel.

1Ch 4:17 The sons of Ezrah were Jether, Mered, Ephraim, and Jalon. And Mered's wife bore Miriam, Shammai, and Ishbah the father of Eshtemoa.

1Ch 4:18 (His wife Jehudijah bore Jered the father of Gedor, Heber the father of Sochoh, and Jekuthiel the father of Zanoah.) And these were the sons of Bithiah the daughter of Pharaoh, whom Mered took.

1Ch 4:19 The sons of Hodiah's wife, the sister of Naham, were the fathers of Keilah the Garmite and of Eshtemoa the Maachathite.

1Ch 4:20 And the sons of Shimon were Amnon, Rinnah, Ben-Hanan, and Tilon. And the sons of Ishi were Zoheth and Ben-Zoheth.

1Ch 4:21 The sons of Shelah the son of Judah were Er the father of Lecah, Laadah the father of Mareshah, and the families of the house of the linen workers of the house of Ashbea; 1Ch 4:22 also Jokim, the men of Chozeba, and Joash; Saraph, who ruled in Moab, and Jashubi-Lehem. Now the records are ancient.

1Ch 4:23 These were the potters and those who dwell at Netaim and Gederah; there they dwelt with the king for his work.

1Ch 4:24 The sons of Simeon were Nemuel, Jamin, Jarib, Zerah, and Shaul, 1Ch 4:25 Shallum his son, Mibsam his son, and Mishma his son.

1Ch 4:26 And the sons of Mishma were Hamuel his son, Zacchur his son, and Shimei his son.

1Ch 4:27 Shimei had sixteen sons and six daughters; but his brothers did not have many children, nor did any of their families multiply as much as the children of Judah.

1Ch 4:28 They dwelt at Beersheba, Moladah, Hazar Shual, 1Ch 4:29 Bilhah, Ezem, Tolad,

1Ch 4:30 Bethuel, Hormah, Ziklag,

1Ch 4:31 Beth Marcaboth, Hazar Susim, Beth Biri, and at Shaaraim. These were their cities until the reign of David.

1Ch 4:32 And their villages were Etam, Ain, Rimmon, Tochen, and Ashan; five cities;

1Ch 4:33 and all the villages that were around these cities as far as Baal. These were their habitations, and they maintained their genealogy:

1Ch 4:34 Meshobab, Jamlech, and Joshah the son of Amaziah;

1Ch 4:35 Joel, and Jehu the son of Joshibiah, the son of Seraiah, the son of Asiel;

1Ch 4:36 Elioenai, Jaakobah, Jeshohaiah, Asaiah, Adiel, Jesimiel, and Benaiah;

1Ch 4:37 Ziza the son of Shiphi, the son of Allon, the son of Jedaiah, the son of Shimri, the son of Shemaiah;

1Ch 4:38 these mentioned by name were leaders in their families, and their father's house increased greatly.

1Ch 4:39 So they went to the entrance of Gedor, as far as the sunrise side of the valley, to seek pasture for their flocks.

1Ch 4:40 And they found rich, good pasture, and the land was broad, quiet, and peaceful; for some Hamites formerly lived there.

1Ch 4:41 These recorded by name came in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah; and they attacked their tents and the Meunites who were found there, and utterly destroyed them, as it is to this day. So they dwelt in their place, because there was pasture for their flocks there.

1Ch 4:42 Now some of them, five hundred men of the sons of Simeon, went to Mount Seir, having as their captains Pelatiah, Neariah, Rephaiah, and Uzziel, the sons of Ishi.

1Ch 4:43 And they defeated the rest of the Amalekites who had escaped. They have dwelt there to this day.

1Ch 5:1 Now the sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel; he was indeed the firstborn, but because he defiled his father's bed, his birthright was given to the sons of Joseph, the son of Israel, so that the genealogy is not listed according to the birthright;

1Ch 5:2 yet Judah prevailed over his brothers, and from him came a ruler, although the birthright was Joseph's;

1Ch 5:3 the sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel were Hanoah, Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi.

1Ch 5:4 The sons of Joel were Shemaiah his son, Gog his son, Shimei his son,

1Ch 5:5 Micah his son, Reaiah his son, Baal his son, 1Ch 5:6 and Beerah his son, whom Tiglath-Pileser king of Assyria carried into captivity. He was leader of the Reubenites.

1Ch 5:7 And his brethren by their families, when the genealogy of their generations was registered: the chief, Jeiel, and Zechariah, 1Ch 5:8 and Bela the son of Azaz, the son of Shema, the son of Joel, who dwelt in Aroer, as far as Nebo and Baal Meon.

1Ch 5:9 They settled eastward as far as the entrance of the wilderness this side of the River Euphrates, because their cattle had multiplied in the land of Gilead.

1Ch 5:10 Now in the days of Saul they made war with the Hagrites, who fell by their hand; and they dwelt in their tents throughout the entire area toward sunrise from Gilead.

1Ch 5:11 And the children of Gad dwelt next to them in the land of Bashan as far as Salcah:

1Ch 5:12 Joel was the chief, Shapham the next, then Jaanai and Shaphat in Bashan, 1Ch 5:13 and their brethren of their father's house: Michael, Meshullam, Sheba, Jorai, Jachan, Zia, and Heber; seven in all.

1Ch 5:14 These were the children of Abihail the son of Huri, the son of Jaroah, the son of Gilead, the son of Michael, the son of Jeshishai, the son of Jahdo, the son of Buz; 1Ch 5:15 Ahi the son of Abdiel, the son of Guni, was chief of their father's house.

1Ch 5:16 And the Gadites dwelt in Gilead, in Bashan and in its villages, and in all the common-lands of Sharon within their borders.

1Ch 5:17 All these were registered by genealogies in the days of Jotham king of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam king of Israel.

1Ch 5:18 The sons of Reuben, the Gadites, and half the branch of Manasseh had forty-four thousand seven hundred and sixty valiant men, men able to bear shield and sword, to shoot with the bow, and skillful in war, who went to war.

1Ch 5:19 They made war with the Hagarites, Jetur, Naphish, and Nodab.

1Ch 5:20 And they were helped against them, and the Hagarites were delivered into their hand, and all who were with them, for they cried out to God in the battle. He heeded their prayer, because they put their trust in Him.

1Ch 5:21 Then they took away their livestock; fifty thousand of their camels, two hundred and fifty thousand of their sheep, and two thousand of their donkeys; also one hundred thousand of their men;

1Ch 5:22 for many fell dead, because the war was God's. And they dwelt in their place until the captivity.

1Ch 5:23 So the children of the half-branch of Manasseh dwelt in the land. Their numbers increased from Bashan to Baal Hermon, that is, to Senir, or Mount Hermon.

1Ch 5:24 These were the heads of their fathers' houses: Ephraim, Ishi, Eliel, Azriel, Jeremiah, Hodaviah, and Jahdiel. They were mighty men of valour, famous men, and heads of their fathers' houses.

1Ch 5:25 And they were unfaithful to the God of their fathers, and prostituted themselves after the gods of the peoples of the land, whom God had destroyed before them.

1Ch 5:26 So the God of Israel stirred up the spirit of Pul, king of Assyria, that is, Tiglath-Pileser, king of Assyria. He carried the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-branch of Manasseh into captivity. He took them to Halah, Habor, Hara, and the river of Gozan to this day.

1Ch 6:1 The sons of Levi were Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

1Ch 6:2 The sons of Kohath were Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel.

1Ch 6:3 The children of Amram were Aaron, Moses, and Miriam. And the sons of Aaron were Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.

1Ch 6:4 Eleazar begot Phinehas, and Phinehas begot Abishua;

1Ch 6:5 Abishua begot Bukki, and Bukki begot Uzzi;

1Ch 6:6 Uzzi begot Zerahiah, and Zerahiah begot Meraioth;

1Ch 6:7 Meraioth begot Amariah, and Amariah begot Ahitub;

1Ch 6:8 Ahitub begot Zadok, and Zadok begot Ahimaaz;

1Ch 6:9 Ahimaaz begot Azariah, and Azariah begot Johanan;

1Ch 6:10 Johanan begot Azariah (it was he who served as priest in the house that Solomon built in Jerusalem);

1Ch 6:11 Azariah begot Amariah, and Amariah begot Ahitub;

1Ch 6:12 Ahitub begot Zadok, and Zadok begot Shallum;

1Ch 6:13 Shallum begot Hilkiah, and Hilkiah begot Azariah;

1Ch 6:14 Azariah begot Seraiah, and Seraiah begot Jehozadak.

1Ch 6:15 Jehozadak went into captivity when Jehovah carried Judah and Jerusalem into captivity by the hand of Nebuchadnezzar.

1Ch 6:16 The sons of Levi were Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

1Ch 6:17 These are the names of the sons of Gershon: Libni and Shimei.

1Ch 6:18 The sons of Kohath were Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel.

1Ch 6:19 The sons of Merari were Mahli and Mushi. Now these are the families of the Levites according to their fathers:

1Ch 6:20 Of Gershon were Libni his son, Jahath his son, Zimmah his son, 1Ch 6:21 Joah his son, Iddo his son, Zerah his son, and Jeatherai his son.

1Ch 6:22 The sons of Kohath were Amminadab his son, Korah his son, Assir his son, 1Ch 6:23 Elkanah his son, Ebiasaph his son, Assir his son, 1Ch 6:24 Tahath his son, Uriel his son, Uzziah his son, and Shaul his son.

1Ch 6:25 The sons of Elkanah were Amasai and Ahimoth.

1Ch 6:26 As for Elkanah, the sons of Elkanah were Zophai his son, Nahath his son, 1Ch 6:27 Eliab his son, Jeroham his son, and Elkanah his son.

1Ch 6:28 The sons of Samuel were Joel the firstborn, and Abijah the second.

1Ch 6:29 The sons of Merari were Mahli, Libni his son, Shimei his son, Uzzah his son, 1Ch 6:30 Shimea his son, Haggiah his son, and Asaiah his son.

1Ch 6:31 Now these are the men whom David appointed over the service of song in the House of Jehovah, after the ark came to rest.

1Ch 6:32 They were serving with music before the booth of the tent of the appointed times, until Solomon had built the House of Jehovah in Jerusalem, and they served in their office according to their judgements.

1Ch 6:33 And these are the ones who served with their sons: Of the sons of the Kohathites were Heman the singer, the son of Joel, the son of Samuel,

1Ch 6:34 the son of Elkanah, the son of Jeroham, the son of Eliel, the son of Toah, 1Ch 6:35 the son of Zuph, the son of Elkanah, the son of Mahath, the son of Amasai, 1Ch 6:36 the son of Elkanah, the son of Joel, the son of Azariah, the son of Zephaniah, 1Ch 6:37 the son of Tahath, the son of Assir, the son of Ebiasaph, the son of Korah, 1Ch 6:38 the son of Izhar, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi, the son of Israel.

1Ch 6:39 And his brother Asaph, who stood at his right hand, was Asaph the son of Berachiah, the son of Shimea,

1Ch 6:40 the son of Michael, the son of Baaseiah, the son of Malchijah, 1Ch 6:41 the son of Ethni, the son of Zerah, the son of Adaiah,

1Ch 6:42 the son of Ethan, the son of Zimmah, the son of Shimei, 1Ch 6:43 the son of Jahath, the son of Gershon, the son of Levi.

1Ch 6:44 And their brethren, the sons of Merari, on the left hand, were Ethan the son of Kishi, the son of Abdi, the son of Malluch,

1Ch 6:45 the son of Hashabiah, the son of Amaziah, the son of Hilkiah, 1Ch 6:46 the son of Amzi, the son of Bani, the son of Shamer, 1Ch 6:47 the son of Mahli, the son of Mushi, the son of Merari, the son of Levi.

1Ch 6:48 And their brethren, the Levites, were appointed to every kind of service of the booth of the House of God.

1Ch 6:49 But Aaron and his sons offered sacrifices on the altar of burnt offering and on the altar of incense, for all the work of the sanctified sanctuary, and to make atonement for Israel, according to all that Moses, God's servant, had commanded.

1Ch 6:50 Now these are the sons of Aaron: Eleazar his son, Phinehas his son, Abishua his son,

1Ch 6:51 Bukki his son, Uzzi his son, Zerahiah his son,

1Ch 6:52 Meraioth his son, Amariah his son, Ahitub his son, 1Ch 6:53 Zadok his son, and Ahimaaz his son.

1Ch 6:54 Now these are their dwelling places throughout their settlements in their territory, for they were assigned by lot to the sons of Aaron, of the family of the Kohathites:

1Ch 6:55 They gave them Hebron in the land of Judah, with its surrounding common-lands.

1Ch 6:56 But the fields of the city and its villages they gave to Caleb the son of Jephunneh.

1Ch 6:57 And to the sons of Aaron they gave one of the cities of refuge, Hebron; also Libnah with its common-lands, Jattir, Eshtemoa with its common-lands,

1Ch 6:58 Hilan with its common-lands, Debir with its common-lands, 1Ch 6:59 Ashan with its common-lands, and Beth Shemesh with its common-lands.

1Ch 6:60 And from the branch of Benjamin: Geba with its common-lands, Alemeth with its common-lands, and Anathoth with its common-lands. All their cities among their families were thirteen.

1Ch 6:61 To the rest of the family of the branch of the Kohathites they gave by lot ten cities from half the branch of Manasseh.

1Ch 6:62 And to the sons of Gershon, throughout their families, they gave thirteen cities from the branch of Issachar, from the branch of Asher, from the branch of Naphtali, and from the branch of Manasseh in Bashan.

1Ch 6:63 To the sons of Merari, throughout their families, they gave twelve cities from the branch of Reuben, from the branch of Gad, and from the branch of Zebulun.

1Ch 6:64 So the children of Israel gave these cities with their common-lands to the Levites.

1Ch 6:65 And they gave by lot from the branch of the children of Judah, from the branch of the children of Simeon, and from the branch of the children of Benjamin these cities which are called by their names.

1Ch 6:66 Now some of the families of the sons of Kohath were given cities as their territory from the branch of Ephraim.

1Ch 6:67 And they gave them one of the cities of refuge, Shechem with its common-lands, in the mountains of Ephraim, also Gezer with its common-lands,

1Ch 6:68 Jokmeam with its common-lands, Beth Horon with its common-lands, 1Ch 6:69 Aijalon with its common-lands, and Gath Rimmon with its common-lands.

1Ch 6:70 And from the half-branch of Manasseh: Aner with its common-lands and Bileam with its common-lands, for the rest of the family of the sons of Kohath.

1Ch 6:71 From the family of the half-branch of Manasseh the sons of Gershon were given Golan in Bashan with its common-lands and Ashtaroth with its common-lands.

1Ch 6:72 And from the branch of Issachar: Kedesh with its common-lands, Daberath with its common-lands, 1Ch 6:73 Ramoth with its common-lands, and Anem with its common-lands.

1Ch 6:74 And from the branch of Asher: Mashal with its common-lands, Abdon with its common-lands, 1Ch 6:75 Hukok with its common-lands, and Rehob with its common-lands.

1Ch 6:76 And from the branch of Naphtali: Kedesh in Galilee with its common-lands, Hammon with its common-lands, and Kirjathaim with its common-lands.

1Ch 6:77 From the branch of Zebulun the rest of the children of Merari were given Rimmon with its common-lands and Tabor with its common-lands.

1Ch 6:78 And on the other side of the Jordan, across from Jericho, on the sunrise side of the Jordan, they were given from the branch of Reuben: Bezer in the wilderness with its common-lands, Jahzah with its common-lands, 1Ch 6:79 Kedemoth with its common-lands, and Mephaath with its common-lands.

1Ch 6:80 And from the branch of Gad: Ramoth in Gilead with its common-lands, Mahanaim with its common-lands, 1Ch 6:81 Heshbon with its common-lands, and Jazer with its common-lands.

1Ch 7:1 The sons of Issachar were Tola,

Puah, Jashub, and Shimron; four in all.

1Ch 7:2 The sons of Tola were Uzzi, Rephaiah, Jeriel, Jahmai, Jibsam, and Shemuel, heads of their father's house. The sons of Tola were mighty men of valour in their generations; their number in the days of David was twenty-two thousand six hundred.

1Ch 7:3 The son of Uzzi was Izrahiah, and the sons of Izrahiah were Michael, Obadiah, Joel, and Ishiah. All five of them were chief men.

1Ch 7:4 And with them, by their generations, according to their fathers' houses, were thirty-six thousand troops of the army ready for war; for they had many wives and sons.

1Ch 7:5 Now their brethren among all the families of Issachar were mighty men of valour, listed by their genealogies, eighty-seven thousand in all.

1Ch 7:6 The sons of Benjamin were Bela, Becher, and Jediah; three in all.

1Ch 7:7 The sons of Bela were Ezbon, Uzzi, Uzziel, Jerimoth, and Iri; five in all. They were heads of their fathers' houses, and they were listed by their genealogies, twenty-two thousand and thirty-four mighty men of valour.

1Ch 7:8 The sons of Becher were Zemirah, Joash, Eliezer, Elioenai, Omri, Jerimoth, Abijah, Anathoth, and Alemeth. All these are the sons of Becher.

1Ch 7:9 And they were recorded by genealogy according to their generations, heads of their fathers' houses, twenty thousand two hundred mighty men of valour.

1Ch 7:10 The son of Jediah was Bilhan, and the sons of Bilhan were Jeush, Benjamin, Ehud, Chenaanah, Zethan, Tharshish, and Ahishahar.

1Ch 7:11 All these sons of Jediah were heads of their fathers' houses; there were seventeen thousand two hundred mighty men of valour fit to go out for war and battle.

1Ch 7:12 Shuppim and Huppim were the sons of Ir, and Hushim was the son of Aher.

1Ch 7:13 The sons of Naphtali were Jahziel, Guni, Jezer, and Shallum, the sons of Bilhah.

1Ch 7:14 The descendants of Manasseh: his Syrian concubine bore him Machir the father of Gilead, the father of Asriel.

1Ch 7:15 Machir took as his wife the sister of Huppim and Shuppim, whose name was Maachah. The name of Gilead's second son was Zelophehad, but Zelophehad begot only daughters.

1Ch 7:16 Maachah the wife of Machir bore a son, and she called his name Peresh. The name of his brother was Sheresh, and his sons were Ulam and Rakem.

1Ch 7:17 The son of Ulam was Bedan. These were the descendants of Gilead the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh.

1Ch 7:18 His sister Hammoleketh bore Ishhod, Abiezer, and Mahlah.

1Ch 7:19 And the sons of Shemida were Ahian, Shechem, Likhi, and Aniam.

1Ch 7:20 The sons of Ephraim were Shuthelah, Bered his son, Tahath his son, Eladah his son, Tahath his son, 1Ch 7:21 Zabad his son, Shuthelah his son, and Ezer and Elead. The men of Gath who were born in that land killed them because they came down to take away their cattle.

1Ch 7:22 Then Ephraim their father mourned many days, and his brethren came to comfort him.

1Ch 7:23 And when he went into his wife, she conceived and bore a son; and he called his name Beriah,¹ because evil had come upon his house.

1Ch 7:24 Now his daughter was Sheerah, who built Lower and Upper Beth Horon and Uzen Sheerah;

1Ch 7:25 and Rephah was his son, as well as Resheph, and Telah his son, Tahan his son,

1Ch 7:26 Laadan his son, Ammihud his son, Elishama his son, 1Ch 7:27 Nun his son, and Jehoshua his son.

1Ch 7:28 Now their possessions and habitations were Bethel and its towns: toward sunrise Naaran, to the west Gezer and its towns, and Shechem and its towns, as far as Ayyah and its towns;

1Ch 7:29 and by the borders of the children of Manasseh were Beth Shean and its towns, Taanach and its towns, Megiddo and its towns, Dor and its towns. In these dwelt the children of Joseph, the son of Israel.

1Ch 7:30 The sons of Asher were Imnah, Ishvah, Ishvi, Beriah, and their sister Serah.

1Ch 7:31 The sons of Beriah were Heber and Malchiel, who was the father of Birzaith.

1Ch 7:32 And Heber begot Japhlet, Shomer, Hotham, and their sister Shua.

1Ch 7:33 The sons of Japhlet were Pasach, Bimhal, and Ashvath. These were the children of Japhlet.

1Ch 7:34 The sons of Shemer were Ahi, Rohgah, Jehubbah, and Aram.

1Ch 7:35 And the sons of his brother Helem were Zophah, Imna, Shelesh, and Amal.

1Ch 7:36 The sons of Zophah were Suah, Harnepher, Shual, Beri, Imrah, 1Ch 7:37 Bezer, Hod, Shamma, Shilshah, Jithran, and Beera.

1Ch 7:38 The sons of Jether were Jephunneh, Pispah, and Ara.

1Ch 7:39 The sons of Ulla were Arah, Haniel, and Rizia.

1Ch 7:40 All these were the children of Asher, heads of their fathers' houses, choice men, mighty men of valour, chief leaders. And they were recorded by genealogies among the army fit for battle; their number was twenty-six thousand.

1Ch 8:1 Now Benjamin begot Bela his firstborn, Ashbel the second, Aharah the third,

1Ch 8:2 Nohah the fourth, and Rapha the fifth.

1Ch 8:3 The sons of Bela were Addar, Gera, Abihud,

1Ch 8:4 Abishua, Naaman, Ahoah,

1Ch 8:5 Gera, Shephuphan, and Huram.

1Ch 8:6 And these are the sons of Ehud, who were the heads of the fathers' houses of the inhabitants of Geba, and who forced them to move to Manahath:

1Ch 8:7 Naaman, Ahijah, and Gera who forced them to move. He begot Uzza and Ahihud.

1Ch 8:8 And Shaharaim begot children in the country of Moab, after he had sent away Hushim and Baara his wives.

1Ch 8:9 By Hodesh his wife he begot Jobab, Zibia, Mesha, Malcam, 1Ch 8:10 Jeuz, Sachiah, and Mirmah. These were his sons, heads of their fathers' houses.

1Ch 8:11 And by Hushim he begot Abitub and Elpaal.

1Ch 8:12 The sons of Elpaal were Eber, Misham, and Shemed, who built Ono and Lod with its towns;

1Ch 8:13 and Beriah and Shema, who were heads of their fathers' houses of the inhabitants of Aijalon, who drove out the inhabitants of Gath.

1Ch 8:14 Ahio, Shashak, Jeremoth,

1Ch 8:15 Zebadiah, Arad, Eder,

1Ch 8:16 Michael, Ispah, and Joha were the sons of Beriah.

1Ch 8:17 Zebadiah, Meshullam, Hizki, Heber,

1Ch 8:18 Ishmerai, Jizliah, and Jobab were the sons of Elpaal.

1Ch 8:19 Jakim, Zichri, Zabdi,

1Ch 8:20 Elienai, Zillethai, Eliel,

1Ch 8:21 Adaiah, Beraiah, and Shimrath were the sons of Shimei.

1Ch 8:22 Ishpan, Eber, Eliel,

1Ch 8:23 Abdon, Zichri, Hanan,

1Ch 8:24 Hananiah, Elam, Antothijah,

1Ch 8:25 Iphdeiah, and Penuel were the sons of Shashak.

1Ch 8:26 Shamsheraï, Shehariah, Athaliah,

1Ch 8:27 Jaareshiah, Elijah, and Zichri were the sons of Jeroham.

1Ch 8:28 These were heads of the fathers' houses by their generations, chief men. These dwelt in Jerusalem.

1Ch 8:29 Now the father of Gibeon, whose wife's name was Maacah, dwelt at Gibeon.

1Ch 8:30 And his firstborn son was Abdon, then Zur, Kish, Baal, Nadab, 1Ch 8:31 Gedor, Ahio, Zecher,

1Ch 8:32 and Mikloth, who begot Shimeah. They also dwelt alongside their relatives in Jerusalem, with their brethren.

1Ch 8:33 Ner begot Kish, Kish begot Saul, and Saul begot Jonathan, Malchishua, Abinadab, and Esh-Baal.¹

1Ch 8:34 The son of Jonathan was Merib-Baal,² and Merib-Baal begot Micah.

1Ch 8:35 The sons of Micah were Pithon, Melech, Tarea, and Ahaz.

1Ch 8:36 And Ahaz begot Jehoaddah; Jehoaddah begot Alemeth, Azmaveth, and Zimri; and Zimri begot Moza.

1Ch 8:37 Moza begot Binea, Raphah his son, Eleasah his son, and Azel his son.

1Ch 8:38 Azel had six sons whose names were these: Azrikam, Bocheru, Ishmael, Sheariah, Obadiah, and Hanan. All these were the sons of Azel.

1Ch 8:39 And the sons of Eshek his brother were Ulam his firstborn, Jeush the second, and Eliphelet the third.

1Ch 8:40 The sons of Ulam were mighty men of valour; archers. They had many sons and grandsons, one hundred and fifty in all. These were all sons of Benjamin.

1Ch 9:1 So all Israel was recorded by genealogies, and indeed, they were inscribed in the book of the kings of Israel. But Judah was carried away captive to Babylon because of their unfaithfulness.

1Ch 9:2 And the first inhabitants who dwelt in their possessions in their cities were Israelites, priests, Levites, and the Nethinim.

1Ch 9:3 Now in Jerusalem the children of Judah dwelt, and some of the children of Benjamin, and of the children of Ephraim and Manasseh:

1Ch 9:4 Uthai the son of Ammihud, the son of Omri, the son of Imri, the son of Bani, of the descendants of Perez, the son of Judah.

1Ch 9:5 Of the Shilonites: Asaiah the firstborn and his sons.

1Ch 9:6 Of the sons of Zerah: Jeuel, and their brethren; six hundred and ninety.

1Ch 9:7 Of the sons of Benjamin: Sallu the son of Meshullam, the son of Hodaviah, the son of Hassenuah;

1Ch 9:8 Ibneiah the son of Jeroham; Elah the son of Uzzi, the son of Michri; Meshullam the son of Shephatiah, the son of Reuel, the son of Ibnijah;

1Ch 9:9 and their brethren, according to their generations; nine hundred and fifty-six. All these men were heads of a father's house in their fathers' houses.

1Ch 9:10 Of the priests: Jedaiah, Jehoiarib, and Jachin;

1Ch 9:11 Azariah the son of Hilkiah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, the officer over the House of God;

1Ch 9:12 Adaiah the son of Jeroham, the son of Pashur, the son of Malchijah; Maasai the son of Adiel, the son of Jahzerah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Meshillemith, the son of Immer;

1Ch 9:13 and their brethren, heads of their fathers' houses; one thousand seven hundred and sixty. They were very able men for the work of the service of the House of God.

1Ch 9:14 Of the Levites: Shemaiah the son of Hasshub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, of the sons of Merari;

² Hebrew meaning "The Lord is my advocate".

1Ch 9:15 Bakbakkar, Heresh, Galal, and Mattaniah the son of Micah, the son of Zichri, the son of Asaph;

1Ch 9:16 Obadiah the son of Shemaiah, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun; and Berechiah the son of Asa, the son of Elkanah, who lived in the villages of the Netophathites.

1Ch 9:17 And the gatekeepers were Shallum, Akkub, Talmon, Ahiman, and their brethren. Shallum was the chief.

1Ch 9:18 Until then they had been gatekeepers for the camps of the children of Levi at the King's Gate toward sunrise.

1Ch 9:19 Shallum the son of Kore, the son of Ebiasaph, the son of Korah, and his brethren, from his father's house, the Korahites, were in charge of the work of the service, gatekeepers of the tent. Their fathers had been keepers of the entrance to the camp of Jehovah.

1Ch 9:20 And Phinehas the son of Eleazar had been the officer over them in time past; Jehovah was with him.

1Ch 9:21 Zechariah the son of Meshelemiah was keeper of the door of the tent of the appointed times.

1Ch 9:22 All those chosen as gatekeepers were two hundred and twelve. They were recorded by their genealogy, in their villages. David and Samuel the seer had appointed them to their trusted office.

1Ch 9:23 So they and their children were in charge of the gates of the House of Jehovah, the house of the tent, by assignment.

1Ch 9:24 The gatekeepers were assigned to the four directions: toward sunrise, west, north, and south.

1Ch 9:25 And their brethren in their villages had to come with them from time to time for seven days.

1Ch 9:26 For in this trusted office were four chief gatekeepers; they were Levites. And they had charge over the chambers and treasuries of the House of God.

1Ch 9:27 And they lodged all around the House of God because they had the responsibility, and they were in charge of opening it every morning.

1Ch 9:28 Now some of them were in charge of the serving vessels, for they brought them in and took them out by count.

1Ch 9:29 Some of them were appointed over the furnishings and over all the implements of the sanctuary, and over the fine flour and the wine and the oil and the frankincense and the spices.

1Ch 9:30 And some of the sons of the priests made the ointment of the spices.

1Ch 9:31 Mattithiah of the Levites, the firstborn of Shallum the Korahite, had the trusted office over the things that were baked in the pans.

1Ch 9:32 And some of their brethren of the sons of the Kohathites were in charge of preparing the arranged bread for every Sabbath.

1Ch 9:33 These are the singers, heads of the fathers' houses of the Levites, who lodged in the chambers, and were free from other duties; for they were employed in that work day and night.

1Ch 9:34 These heads of the fathers' houses of the Levites were heads throughout their generations. They dwelt at Jerusalem.

1Ch 9:35 Jeiel the father of Gibeon, whose wife's name was Maacah, dwelt at Gibeon.

1Ch 9:36 His firstborn son was Abdon, then Zur, Kish, Baal, Ner, Nadab, 1Ch 9:37 Gedor, Ahio, Zechariah, and Mikloth.

1Ch 9:38 And Mikloth begot Shimeam. They also dwelt alongside their relatives in Jerusalem, with their brethren.

1Ch 9:39 Ner begot Kish, Kish begot Saul, and Saul begot Jonathan, Malchishua, Abinadab, and Esh-Baal.

1Ch 9:40 The son of Jonathan was Merib-Baal, and Merib-Baal begot Micah.

1Ch 9:41 The sons of Micah were Pithon, Melech, Tahrea, and Ahaz.

1Ch 9:42 And Ahaz begot Jarah; Jarah begot Alemeth, Azmaveth, and Zimri; and Zimri begot Moza; 1Ch 9:43 Moza begot Binea, Rephaiah his son, Eleasah his son, and Azel his son.

1Ch 9:44 And Azel had six sons whose names were these: Azrikam, Bocheru, Ishmael, Sheariah, Obadiah, and Hanan; these were the sons of Azel.

1Ch 10:1 Now the Philistines fought against Israel; and the men of Israel fled from before the Philistines, and fell slain on Mount Gilboa.

1Ch 10:2 Then the Philistines followed hard after Saul and his sons. And the Philistines killed Jonathan, Abinadab, and Malchishua, Saul's sons.

1Ch 10:3 The battle became intense against Saul; and the archers hit him, and he was wounded by the archers.

1Ch 10:4 Then Saul said to his armourbearer, "Draw your sword, and thrust me through with it, lest these uncircumcised men come and abuse me." But his armourbearer would not, for he was greatly afraid. Therefore Saul took a sword and fell on it.

1Ch 10:5 And when his armourbearer saw that Saul was dead, he also fell on his sword and died.

1Ch 10:6 So Saul and his three sons died, and all his house died together.

1Ch 10:7 And when all the men of Israel who were in the valley saw that they had fled and that Saul and his sons were dead, they forsook their cities and fled; then the Philistines came and dwelt in them.

1Ch 10:8 So it happened the next day, when the Philistines came to strip the slain, that they found Saul and his sons fallen on Mount Gilboa.

1Ch 10:9 And they stripped him and took his head and his armour, and sent word throughout the land of the Philistines to proclaim the news to their idols and the people.

1Ch 10:10 Then they put his armour in the house of their gods, and fastened his head in the house of Dagon.

1Ch 10:11 And when all Jabesh Gilead heard all that the Philistines had done to Saul, 1Ch 10:12 all the valiant men arose and took the body of Saul and the bodies of his sons; and they brought them to Jabesh, and buried their bones under the tamarisk tree at Jabesh, and fasted seven days.

1Ch 10:13 So Saul died for his unfaithfulness which he had committed against Jehovah, because he did not keep Jehovah's word, and also because he asked a necromancer for guidance.¹

1Ch 10:14 And he did not seek Jehovah; therefore He killed him, and turned the kingdom over to David the son of Jesse.

1Ch 11:1 Then all Israel came together to David at Hebron, saying, "Indeed we are your bone and your flesh.

1Ch 11:2 "Also, in time past, even when Saul was king, you were the one who led Israel out and brought them in; and Jehovah your God said to you, 'You will shepherd My people Israel, and be ruler over My people Israel.'"

1Ch 11:3 Therefore all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron, and David made a covenant with them at Hebron before Jehovah. Then they anointed David king over Israel, according to Jehovah's word by Samuel.

1Ch 11:4 And David and all Israel went to Jerusalem, which is Jebus, where the Jebusites were, the inhabitants of the land.

1Ch 11:5 Then the inhabitants of Jebus said to David, "You will not come in here." Nevertheless David took the stronghold of Zion (that is, the City of David).

1Ch 11:6 Now David said, "Whoever attacks the Jebusites first will be chief and captain." And Joab the son of Zeruiah went up first, and became chief.

1Ch 11:7 Then David dwelt in the stronghold; therefore they called it the City of David.

1Ch 11:8 And he built the city around it, from the Millo to the surrounding area. Joab repaired the rest of the city.

1Ch 11:9 Then David went on and became great, and Jehovah of Hosts was with him.

1Ch 11:10 Now these were the heads of the mighty men whom David had, who strengthened themselves with him in his kingdom, with all Israel, to make him king, according to Jehovah's word concerning Israel.

1Ch 11:11 And this is the number of the mighty men whom David had: Jashobeam the son of a Hachmonite, chief of the captains; he had lifted up his spear against three hundred, killed by him at one time.

1Ch 11:12 After him was Eleazar the son of Dodo, the Ahohite, who was one of the three mighty men.

1Ch 11:13 He was with David at Pasdammim. Now there the Philistines were gathered for battle, and there was a piece of ground full of barley. And the people fled from the Philistines.

1Ch 11:14 But they stationed themselves in the midst of that field, defended it, and killed the Philistines. And Jehovah saved them by a great deliverance.

1Ch 11:15 Now three of the thirty chief men went down to the rock to David, into the cave of Adullam; and the army of the Philistines encamped in the Valley of Rephaim.

1Ch 11:16 David was then in the stronghold, and the garrison of the Philistines was then in Bethlehem.

1Ch 11:17 And David said with longing, "Oh, that someone would give me a drink of water from the well of Bethlehem, which is by the gate!"

1Ch 11:18 So the three split into the camp of the Philistines, drew water from the well of Bethlehem that was by the gate, and took it and brought it to David. Nevertheless David would not drink it, but poured it out to Jehovah.

1Ch 11:19 And he said, "Far be it from me, O my God, that I should do this! Shall I drink the blood of these men who have put their souls in jeopardy? For at the risk of their souls they brought it." Therefore he would not drink it. These things were done by the three mighty men.

1Ch 11:20 Now Abishai the brother of Joab was chief of another three. He had lifted up his spear against three hundred men and killed them, and won a name among these three.

1Ch 11:21 Of the three he was more honoured than the other two men. Therefore he became their captain. However he did not attain to the first three.

1Ch 11:22 Benaiah was the son of Jehoiada, the son of a valiant man from Kabzeel, who had done many deeds. He had killed two lion-like heroes of Moab. He also had gone down and killed a lion in the midst of a pit on a snowy day.

1Ch 11:23 And he killed an Egyptian, a man of great height, five cubits tall. In the Egyptian's hand there was a spear like a weaver's beam; and he went down to him with a branch, wrested the spear out of the Egyptian's hand, and killed him with his own spear.

1Ch 11:24 These things Benaiah the son of Jehoiada had done, and won a name among three mighty men.

1Ch 11:25 Indeed he was more honoured than the thirty, but he did not attain to the first three. And David appointed him over his guard.

1Ch 11:26 Also the mighty warriors were Asahel the brother of Joab, Elhanan the son of Dodo of Bethlehem,

1Ch 11:27 Shammoth the Harorite, Helez the Pelonite,

1Ch 11:28 Ira the son of Ikkesh the Tekoite, Abiezer the Anathothite,

 1Ch 11:29 Sibbechai the Hushathite, Ilai the Ahohite,
 1Ch 11:30 Maharai the Netophathite, Heled the son of Baanah the Netophathite, 1Ch 11:31 Ithai the son of Ribai of Gibeah, of the children of Benjamin, Benaiah the Pirathonite, 1Ch 11:32 Hurai of the brooks of Gaash, Abiel the Arbathite,
 1Ch 11:33 Azmaveth the Baharumite, Eliahba the Shaalbonite, 1Ch 11:34 the sons of Hashem the Gizonite, Jonathan the son of Shageh the Hararite, 1Ch 11:35 Ahiam the son of Sacar the Hararite, Eliphai the son of Ur, 1Ch 11:36 Hephher the Mecherathite, Ahijah the Pelonite,
 1Ch 11:37 Hezro the Carmelite, Naarai the son of Ezbai,
 1Ch 11:38 Joel the brother of Nathan, Mibhar the son of Hagri, 1Ch 11:39 Zelek the Ammonite, Naharai the Berothite (the armourbearer of Joab the son of Zeruiah), 1Ch 11:40 Ira the Ithrite, Gareb the Ithrite,
 1Ch 11:41 Uriah the Hittite, Zabad the son of Ahlai,
 1Ch 11:42 Adina the son of Shiza the Reubenite (a chief of the Reubenites) and thirty with him,
 1Ch 11:43 Hanan the son of Maachah, Joshaphat the Mithnite, 1Ch 11:44 Uzzia the Ashterathite, Shama and Jeiel the sons of Hotham the Aroerite, 1Ch 11:45 Jediael the son of Shimri, and Joha his brother, the Tizite, 1Ch 11:46 Eliel the Mahavite, Jeribai and Joshaviah the sons of Elnaam, Ithmah the Moabite, 1Ch 11:47 Eliel, Obed, and Jaasiel the Mezobaite.
 1Ch 12:1 Now these were the men who came to David at Ziklag while he was still a fugitive from Saul the son of Kish; and they were among the mighty men, helpers in the war,

1Ch 12:2 armed with bows, using both the right hand and the left in hurling stones and shooting arrows with the bow. They were of Benjamin, Saul's brethren.

1Ch 12:3 The chief was Ahiezer, then Joash, the sons of Shemaah the Gibeathite; Jeziel and Pelet the sons of Azmaveth; Berachah, and Jehu the Anathothite;

1Ch 12:4 Ishmaiah the Gibeonite, a mighty man among the thirty, and over the thirty; Jeremiah, Jahaziel, Johanan, and Jozabad the Gederathite;

1Ch 12:5 Eluzai, Jerimoth, Bealiah, Shemariah, and Shephatiah the Haruphite;

1Ch 12:6 Elkanah, Jisshiah, Azareel, Joezer, and Jashobeam, the Korahites; 1Ch 12:7 and Joelah and Zebadiah the sons of Jeroham of Gedor.

1Ch 12:8 Some Gadites joined David at the stronghold in the wilderness, mighty men of valour, men trained for battle, who could handle shield and spear, whose faces were like the faces of lions, and were as swift as gazelles on the mountains:

1Ch 12:9 Ezer the first, Obadiah the second, Eliab the third,

1Ch 12:10 Mishmannah the fourth, Jeremiah the fifth,

1Ch 12:11 Attai the sixth, Eliel the seventh,

1Ch 12:12 Johanan the eighth, Elzabad the ninth,

1Ch 12:13 Jeremiah the tenth, and Machbanai the eleventh.

1Ch 12:14 These were from the sons of Gad, captains of the army; the least was over a hundred, and the greatest was over a thousand.

1Ch 12:15 These are the ones who crossed the Jordan in the first new moon, when it had overflowed all its banks; and they put to flight all those in the valleys, toward sunrise and to the west.

1Ch 12:16 Then some of the children of Benjamin and Judah came to David at the stronghold.

1Ch 12:17 And David went out to meet them, and answered and said to them, "If you have come peaceably to me to help me, my heart will be united with you; but if to betray me to my enemies, since there is no wrong in my hands, may the God of our fathers look and bring judgement."

1Ch 12:18 Then the Spirit came upon Amasai, chief of the captains, and he said: "We are yours, O David; we are on your side, O son of Jesse! Peace, peace to you, and peace to your helpers! For your God helps you." So David received them, and made them captains of the troop.

1Ch 12:19 And some from Manasseh defected to David when he was going with the Philistines to battle against Saul; but they did not help them, for the lords of the Philistines sent him away by counsel, saying, "He may defect to his lord Saul and endanger our heads."

1Ch 12:20 When he went to Ziklag, those of Manasseh who defected to him were Adnah, Jozabad, Jediael, Michael, Jozabad, Elihu, and Zillethai, captains of the thousands who were from Manasseh.

1Ch 12:21 And they helped David against the bands of raiders, for they were all mighty men of valour, and they were captains in the army.

1Ch 12:22 For at that time they came to David day by day to help him, until it was a great army, like the army of God.

1Ch 12:23 Now these were the numbers of the divisions that were equipped for the war, and came to David at Hebron to turn over the kingdom of Saul to him, by the mouth of Jehovah:

1Ch 12:24 of the children of Judah bearing shield and spear, six thousand eight hundred armed for war;

1Ch 12:25 of the children of Simeon, mighty men of valour fit for war, seven thousand one hundred;

1Ch 12:26 of the children of Levi four thousand six hundred;

1Ch 12:27 Jehoiada, the leader of the Aaronites, and with him three thousand seven hundred;

1Ch 12:28 Zadok, a young man, a valiant warrior, and from his father's house twenty-two captains;

1Ch 12:29 of the children of Benjamin, kinsmen of Saul, three thousand (until then the greatest part of them had remained loyal to the house of Saul);

1Ch 12:30 of the children of Ephraim twenty thousand eight hundred, mighty men of valour, famous men throughout their father's house;

1Ch 12:31 of the half-branch of Manasseh eighteen thousand, who were designated by name to come and make David king;

1Ch 12:32 of the children of Issachar who had understanding of the times, to know what Israel ought to do, their chiefs were two hundred; and all their brethren were at their mouths;

1Ch 12:33 of Zebulun there were fifty thousand who went out to battle, expert in war with all weapons of war, stouthearted men who could keep ranks;

1Ch 12:34 of Naphtali one thousand captains, and with them thirty-seven thousand with shield and spear;

1Ch 12:35 of the Danites who could keep battle formation, twenty-eight thousand six hundred;

1Ch 12:36 of Asher, those who could go out to war, able to keep battle formation, forty thousand;

1Ch 12:37 of the Reubenites and the Gadites and the half-branch of Manasseh, from the other side of the Jordan, one hundred and twenty thousand armed for battle with every kind of weapon of war.

1Ch 12:38 All these men of war, who could keep ranks, came to Hebron with a loyal heart, to make David king over all Israel; and all the rest of Israel were of one mind to make David king.

1Ch 12:39 And they were there with David three days, eating and drinking, for their brethren had prepared for them.

1Ch 12:40 Moreover those who were near to them, from as far away as Issachar and Zebulun and Naphtali, were bringing food on donkeys and camels, on mules and oxen; provisions of flour and cakes of figs and cakes of raisins, wine and oil and oxen and sheep abundantly, for there was joy in Israel.

1Ch 13:1 Then David consulted with the captains of thousands and hundreds, and with every leader.

1Ch 13:2 And David said to all the congregation of Israel, "If it seems good to you, and if it is from Jehovah our God, let us send out to our brethren everywhere who are left in all the land of Israel, and with them to the priests and Levites who are in their cities and their common-lands, that they may gather together to us;

1Ch 13:3 "and let us bring the ark of our God back to us, for we have not inquired of it since the days of Saul."

1Ch 13:4 Then all the congregation said that they would do so, for the thing was right in the eyes of all the people.

1Ch 13:5 So David assembled all Israel, from Shihor in Egypt to as far as the entrance of Hamath, to bring the ark of God from Kirjath Jearim.

1Ch 13:6 And David and all Israel went up to Baalah, to Kirjath Jearim, which belonged to Judah, to bring up from there the ark of God Jehovah, who dwells between the cherubim, where His Name is proclaimed.

1Ch 13:7 So they carried the ark of God on a new cart from the house of Abinadab, and Uzza and Ahio drove the cart.

1Ch 13:8 Then David and all Israel played music before God with all their might, with singing, on harps, on stringed instruments, on tambourines, on cymbals, and with trumpets.

1Ch 13:9 And when they came to Chidon's threshing floor, Uzza put out his hand to hold the ark, for the oxen stumbled.

1Ch 13:10 Then the anger of Jehovah was aroused against Uzza, and He struck him because he put his hand to the ark; and he died there before God.

1Ch 13:11 And David became angry because of Jehovah's outbreak against Uzza; therefore that place is called Perez Uzza to this day.

1Ch 13:12 David was afraid of Jehovah¹ that day, saying, "How can I bring the ark of Jehovah² to me?"

1Ch 13:13 And David would not move the ark with him into the City of David, but took it aside into the house of Obed-Edom the Gittite.

1Ch 13:14 The ark of Jehovah³ remained with the family of Obed-Edom in his house three new moons. And Jehovah blessed the house of Obed-Edom and all that he had.

1Ch 14:1 Now Hiram king of Tyre sent envoys to David, and cedar trees, with masons and carpenters, to build him a house.

1Ch 14:2 And David perceived that Jehovah had established him as king over Israel, for his kingdom was highly exalted because of His people Israel.

1Ch 14:3 Then David took more wives in Jerusalem, and David begot more sons and daughters.

1Ch 14:4 And these are the names of his children whom he had in Jerusalem: Shammua, Shobab, Nathan, Solomon,

1Ch 14:5 Ibhar, Elishua, Elpelet,

1Ch 14:6 Nogah, Nepheg, Japhia,

1Ch 14:7 Elishama, Beeliada, and Eliphelet.

1Ch 14:8 Now when the Philistines heard that David had been anointed king over all Israel, all the Philistines went up to search for David. And David heard of it and went out against them.

² As in 2Sa 6:9

³ As in 2Sa 6:11

1Ch 14:9 Then the Philistines went and made a raid on the Valley of Rephaim.

1Ch 14:10 And David inquired of Jehovah,¹ saying, "Shall I go up against the Philistines? Will You deliver them into my hand?" And Jehovah said to him, "Go up, for I will deliver them into your hand."

1Ch 14:11 So they went up to Baal Perazim, and David defeated them there. Then David said, "Jehovah² has broken through my enemies by my hand like a breakthrough of water." Therefore they called the name of that place Baal Perazim.

1Ch 14:12 And when they left their gods there, David spoke, and they were burned with fire.

1Ch 14:13 Then the Philistines once again made a raid on the valley.

1Ch 14:14 Therefore David again inquired of Jehovah,³ and God said to him, "You will not go up after them; circle around them, and come upon them in front of the mulberry trees.

1Ch 14:15 "And it will be, when you hear a sound of marching in the tops of the mulberry trees, then you will go out to battle, for Jehovah⁴ has gone out before you to strike the camp of the Philistines."

1Ch 14:16 So David did as Jehovah⁵ commanded him, and they drove back the army of the Philistines from Gibeon as far as Gezer.

1Ch 14:17 Then the fame of David went out into all lands, and Jehovah brought the fear of him upon all nations.

1Ch 15:1 David built houses for himself in the City of David; and he prepared a place for the ark of God, and pitched a tent for it.

1Ch 15:2 Then David said, "No one may carry the ark of God but the Levites, for Jehovah has chosen them to carry the ark of God and to serve before Him forever."

1Ch 15:3 And David assembled all Israel at Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of Jehovah to its place, which he had prepared for it.

1Ch 15:4 Then David assembled the children of Aaron and the Levites:

1Ch 15:5 of the sons of Kohath, Uriel the chief, and one hundred and twenty of his brethren;

1Ch 15:6 of the sons of Merari, Asaiah the chief, and two hundred and twenty of his brethren;

1Ch 15:7 of the sons of Gershon, Joel the chief, and one hundred and thirty of his brethren;

1Ch 15:8 of the sons of Elizaphan, Shemaiah the chief, and two hundred of his brethren;

1Ch 15:9 of the sons of Hebron, Eliel the chief, and eighty of his brethren;

1Ch 15:10 of the sons of Uzziel, Amminadab the chief, and one hundred and twelve of his brethren.

1Ch 15:11 And David called for Zadok and Abiathar the priests, and for the Levites: for Uriel, Asaiah, Joel, Shemaiah, Eliel, and Amminadab.

1Ch 15:12 Then he said to them, "You are the heads of the fathers' houses of the Levites; sanctify yourselves, you and your brethren, that you may bring up the ark of Jehovah God of Israel to the place I have prepared for it.

1Ch 15:13 "For because you did not do it the first time, Jehovah our God broke out against us, because we did not consult Him about the proper judgement."

1Ch 15:14 So the priests and the Levites sanctified themselves to bring up the ark of Jehovah God of Israel.

1Ch 15:15 And the children of the Levites bore the ark of God on their shoulders, by its poles, as Moses had commanded according to Jehovah's word.

1Ch 15:16 Then David spoke to the leaders of the Levites to appoint their brethren to be the singers accompanied by instruments of music, stringed instruments, harps, and cymbals, by raising the voice with resounding joy.

1Ch 15:17 So the Levites appointed Heman the son of Joel; and of his brethren, Asaph the son of Berechiah; and of their brethren, the sons of Merari, Ethan the son of Kushaiah;

1Ch 15:18 and with them their brethren of the second rank: Zechariah, Ben, Jaaziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattithiah, Elipheleh, Mikneiah, Obed-Edom, and Jeiel, the gatekeepers;

1Ch 15:19 the singers, Heman, Asaph, and Ethan, were to sound the cymbals of bronze;

1Ch 15:20 Zechariah, Aziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Maaseiah, and Benaiah, with strings according to Alamoth;

1Ch 15:21 Mattithiah, Elipheleh, Mikneiah, Obed-Edom, Jeiel, and Azaziah, to direct with harps on the Sheminith;

1Ch 15:22 Chenaniah, leader of the Levites, was instructor in charge of the music, because he was skillful;

1Ch 15:23 Berechiah and Elkanah were doorkeepers for the ark;

1Ch 15:24 Shebaniah, Joshaphat, Nethaneel, Amasai, Zechariah, Benaiah, and Eliezer, the priests, were to blow the trumpets before the ark of God; and Obed-Edom and Jehiah, doorkeepers for the ark.

1Ch 15:25 So David, the elders of Israel, and the captains over thousands went to bring up the ark of the covenant of Jehovah from the house of Obed-Edom with joy.

1Ch 15:26 And so it was, when God helped the Levites who bore the ark of the covenant of Jehovah, that they offered seven bulls and seven rams.

1Ch 15:27 David was clothed with a robe of fine linen, as were all the Levites who bore the ark, the singers, and Chenaniah the music master with the singers. David also wore a linen ephod.

1Ch 15:28 Thus all Israel brought up the ark of the covenant of Jehovah with shouting and with the sound of the shophar, with trumpets and with cymbals, making music with stringed instruments and harps.

1Ch 15:29 And it happened, as the ark of the covenant of Jehovah came to the City of David, that Michal the daughter of Saul, looking through a window, saw King David whirling and playing music; and she despised him in her heart.

1Ch 16:1 So they brought the ark of Jehovah,¹ and set it in the midst of the tent that David had erected for it. Then they offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before Jehovah.²

1Ch 16:2 And when David had finished offering the burnt offerings and the peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of Jehovah.

1Ch 16:3 Then he distributed to everyone of Israel, both man and woman, to everyone a round of bread, a piece of meat, and a raisin-cake.

1Ch 16:4 And he appointed some of the Levites to serve before the ark of Jehovah, to commemorate, to thank, and to praise Jehovah God of Israel:

1Ch 16:5 Asaph the chief, and next to him Zechariah, then Jeiel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Mattithiah, Eliab, Benaiah, and Obed-Edom: Jeiel with stringed instruments and harps, but Asaph made music with cymbals;

1Ch 16:6 Benaiah and Jahaziel the priests regularly blew the trumpets before the ark of the covenant of God.

² As in 2Sa 6:17

1Ch 16:7 And on that day David first delivered this psalm into the hand of Asaph and his brethren, to thank Jehovah:

1Ch 16:8 Oh, give thanks to Jehovah! Call upon His Name; make known His deeds among the peoples!

1Ch 16:9 Sing to Him, sing psalms to Him; talk of all His wondrous works!

1Ch 16:10 Glory in His sanctified name; let the hearts of those rejoice who seek Jehovah!

1Ch 16:11 Seek Jehovah and His strength; seek His face evermore!

1Ch 16:12 Remember His marvellous works which He has done, His wonders and the judgements of His mouth, 1Ch 16:13 O seed of Israel His servant, you children of Jacob, His chosen ones!

1Ch 16:14 He is Jehovah our God; His judgements are in all the earth.

1Ch 16:15 Remember His covenant always, the word which He commanded for a thousand generations,

1Ch 16:16 the agreement which He made with Abraham, and His oath to Isaac,

1Ch 16:17 and confirmed it to Jacob for a statute, to Israel for an everlasting covenant,

1Ch 16:18 saying, "To you I will give the land of Canaan as the allotment of your inheritance," 1Ch 16:19 When you were but few in number, indeed very few, and strangers in it.

1Ch 16:20 When they went from one nation to another, and from one kingdom to another people,

1Ch 16:21 He permitted no man to do them wrong; yes, He reprov'd kings for their sakes, 1Ch 16:22 saying, "Do not touch My anointed ones, and do My prophets no harm."

1Ch 16:23 Sing to Jehovah, all the earth; proclaim the Good News of His salvation from day to day.

1Ch 16:24 Declare His glory among the nations, His wonders among all peoples.

1Ch 16:25 For Jehovah is great and greatly to be praised; He is also to be feared above all gods.

1Ch 16:26 For all the gods of the peoples are idols, but Jehovah made the heavens.

1Ch 16:27 Honour and majesty are before Him; strength and gladness are in His place.

1Ch 16:28 Give to Jehovah, O kindreds of the peoples, give to Jehovah glory and strength.

1Ch 16:29 Give to Jehovah the glory due to His Name; bring an offering, and come before Him. Oh, worship Jehovah in the beauty of sanctity!

1Ch 16:30 Tremble before Him, all the earth. The world also is firmly established, it will not waver.

1Ch 16:31 Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad; and let them say among the nations, "Jehovah reigns."

1Ch 16:32 Let the sea roar, and all its fullness; let the field rejoice, and all that is in it.

1Ch 16:33 Then the trees of the woods will rejoice before Jehovah, for He is coming to judge the earth.

1Ch 16:34 Oh, give thanks to Jehovah, for He is good! For His mercy endures forever.

1Ch 16:35 And say, "Save us, O God of our salvation; gather us together, and deliver us from the gentiles, to give thanks to Your sanctified name, to triumph in Your praise."

1Ch 16:36 Blessed be Jehovah God of Israel from everlasting to everlasting! And all the people said, "Amen!" and praised Jehovah.

1Ch 16:37 So he left Asaph and his brothers there before the ark of the covenant of Jehovah to serve before the ark regularly, as every day's work required;

1Ch 16:38 and Obed-Edom with his sixty-eight brethren, including Obed-

Edom the son of Jeduthun, and Hosah, to be gatekeepers;

1Ch 16:39 and Zadok the priest and his brethren the priests, before the booth of Jehovah at the high place that was at Gibeon,

1Ch 16:40 to offer burnt offerings to Jehovah on the altar of burnt offering regularly, each morning and evening, and to do according to all that is written in the Instructions of Jehovah which He commanded Israel;

1Ch 16:41 and with them Heman and Jeduthun and the rest who were chosen, who were designated by name, to give thanks to Jehovah, because His mercy endures forever;

1Ch 16:42 and with them Heman and Jeduthun, to sound aloud with trumpets and cymbals and the musical instruments of God. Now the sons of Jeduthun were gatekeepers.

1Ch 16:43 Then all the people departed, every man to his house; and David returned to bless his house.

1Ch 17:1 Now it came to pass, when David was dwelling in his house, that David said to Nathan the prophet, "See now, I dwell in a house of cedar, but the ark of the covenant of Jehovah is under tent curtains."

1Ch 17:2 Then Nathan said to David, "Do all that is in your heart, for God is with you."

1Ch 17:3 But it happened that night that the word of God came to Nathan, saying, 1Ch 17:4 "Go and tell My servant David, 'Thus says Jehovah: "You will not build Me a house to dwell in.

1Ch 17:5 "For I have not dwelt in a house since the time that I brought up Israel, even to this day, but have gone from tent to tent, and the booth.

1Ch 17:6 "Wherever I have moved about with all Israel, have I ever spoken a word to any of the judges of Israel, whom I commanded to shepherd My people, saying, 'Why have you not built Me a house of cedar?'"

1Ch 17:7 "Now therefore, thus will you say to My servant David, 'Thus says Jehovah of Hosts: "I took you from the sheepfold, from following the sheep, that you should be ruler over My people Israel.

1Ch 17:8 "And I have been with you wherever you have gone, and have cut off all your enemies from before you, and have made you a name like the name of the great men who are on the earth.

1Ch 17:9 "Moreover I will appoint a place for My people Israel, and will plant them, that they may dwell in a place of their own and move no more; nor will the sons of wickedness oppress them anymore, as previously, 1Ch 17:10 "since the time that I commanded judges to be over My people Israel. Also I will subdue all your enemies. Furthermore I tell you that Jehovah will build you a house.

1Ch 17:11 "And it will be, when your days are fulfilled, when you must go to be with your fathers, that I will set up your seed after you, who will be of your sons; and I will establish his kingdom.

1Ch 17:12 "He will build Me a house, and I will establish his throne forever.

1Ch 17:13 "I will be his Father, and he will be My son; and I will not take My mercy away from him, as I took it from him who was before you.

1Ch 17:14 "And I will establish him in My house and in My kingdom forever; and his throne will be established forever.""¹

1Ch 17:15 According to all these words and according to all this vision, so did Nathan speak to David.

1Ch 17:16 Then King David went in and sat before Jehovah; and he said: "Who am I, O Jehovah God? And what is my house, that You have brought me this far?

1Ch 17:17 "And yet this was a small thing in Your sight, O God; and You have also spoken of Your servant's house for a great while to come, and have regarded me according to the estate of a man of high degree, O Jehovah God.

1Ch 17:18 "What more can David say to You for the honour of Your servant? For You know Your servant.

1Ch 17:19 "O Jehovah, for Your servant's sake, and according to Your own heart, You have done all this greatness, in making known all these great things.

1Ch 17:20 "O Jehovah, there is none like You, nor is there any God besides You, according to all that we have heard with our ears.

1Ch 17:21 "And who is like Your people Israel, the one nation on the earth whom God went to redeem for Himself as a people; to make for Yourself a name by great and awesome deeds, by driving out nations from before Your people whom You redeemed from Egypt?

1Ch 17:22 "For You have made Your people Israel Your very own people forever; and You, Jehovah, have become their God.

1Ch 17:23 "And now, O Jehovah, the word which You have spoken concerning Your servant and concerning his house, let it be established forever, and do as You have said.

1Ch 17:24 "So let it be established, that Your Name may be magnified forever, saying, 'Jehovah of Hosts, the God of Israel, is Israel's God; and let the house of Your servant David be established before You.'

1Ch 17:25 "For You, O my God, have told Your servant that You will build him a house. Therefore Your servant has found it in his heart to pray before You.

1Ch 17:26 "And now, Jehovah, You are God, and have promised this goodness to Your servant.

1Ch 17:27 "Now You have been pleased to bless the house of Your servant, that it may continue before You forever; for You have blessed it, O Jehovah, and it will be blessed forever."

1Ch 18:1 After this it came to pass that David attacked the Philistines, subdued them, and took Gath and its towns from the hand of the Philistines.

1Ch 18:2 Then he defeated Moab, and the Moabites became David's servants, and brought tribute.

1Ch 18:3 And David defeated Hadadezer king of Zobah as far as Hamath, as he went to establish his power by the River Euphrates.

1Ch 18:4 David took from him one thousand chariots, seven thousand horsemen, and twenty thousand foot soldiers. And David also cut up the chariots, except for one hundred chariots.

1Ch 18:5 When the Syrians of Damascus came to help Hadadezer king of Zobah, David killed twenty-two thousand of the Syrians.

1Ch 18:6 Then David put garrisons in Syria and Damascus; and the Syrians became David's servants, and brought tribute. Thus Jehovah preserved David wherever he went.

1Ch 18:7 And David took the shields of gold that were on the servants of Hadadezer, and brought them to Jerusalem.

1Ch 18:8 Also from Tibhath and from Chun, cities of Hadadezer, David brought a large amount of bronze, with which Solomon made the bronze Sea, the pillars, and the articles of bronze.

1Ch 18:9 When Tou, king of Hamath, heard that David had defeated all the army of Hadadezer, king of Zobah, 1Ch 18:10 he sent his son Hadoram to King David, to greet him and bless him, because he had fought against Hadadezer and defeated him (for Hadadezer had been at war with Tou); and Hadoram brought with him all kinds of articles of gold, silver, and bronze.

1Ch 18:11 King David also dedicated these to Jehovah, along with the silver and gold that he had brought from all these nations; from Edom, from Moab, from the people of Ammon, from the Philistines, and from Amalek.

1Ch 18:12 Moreover Abishai the son of Zeruiah killed eighteen thousand Edomites in the Valley of Salt.

1Ch 18:13 He also put garrisons in Edom, and all the Edomites became David's servants. And Jehovah preserved David wherever he went.

1Ch 18:14 So David reigned over all Israel, and administered judgement and justice to all his people.

1Ch 18:15 Joab the son of Zeruiah was over the army; Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was recorder;

1Ch 18:16 Zadok the son of Ahitub and Abimelech the son of Abiathar were the priests; Shavsha was the scribe;

1Ch 18:17 Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and the Pelethites; and David's sons were chief ministers at the king's side.

1Ch 19:1 Now it happened after this that Nahash, the king of the people of Ammon died, and his son reigned in his place.

1Ch 19:2 Then David said, "I will show kindness to Hanun the son of Nahash, because his father showed kindness to me." So David sent envoys to comfort him concerning his father. And the servants of David came to Hanun in the land of the people of Ammon to comfort him.

1Ch 19:3 And the princes of the people of Ammon said to Hanun, "Do you think that David really honours your father because he has sent comforters to you? Did his servants not come to you to search and to overthrow and to spy out the land?"

1Ch 19:4 Therefore Hanun took David's servants, shaved them, and cut off their garments in the middle, at their buttocks, and sent them away.

1Ch 19:5 Then some went and told David about the men and he went to meet them, because the men were greatly ashamed. And the king said, "Wait at Jericho until your beards have grown, and then return."

1Ch 19:6 When the people of Ammon saw that they had made themselves repulsive to David, Hanun and the people of Ammon sent a thousand talents of silver to hire for themselves chariots and horsemen from Mesopotamia, from Syrian Maachah, and from Zobah.

1Ch 19:7 So they hired for themselves thirty-two thousand chariots, with the king of Maachah and his people, who came and encamped before Medeba. Also the people of Ammon gathered together from their cities, and came to battle.

1Ch 19:8 And when David heard of it, he sent Joab and all the army of the mighty men.

1Ch 19:9 Then the people of Ammon came out and put themselves in battle array before the gate of the city, and the kings who had come were by themselves in the field.

1Ch 19:10 When Joab saw that the battle line was set against him before and behind, he chose some of the choice men of Israel, and put them in battle array against the Syrians.

1Ch 19:11 And the rest of the people he put under the command of Abishai his brother, and they set themselves in battle array against the people of Ammon.

1Ch 19:12 Then he said, "If the Syrians are too strong for me, then you will help me; but if the people of Ammon are too strong for you, then I will help you."

1Ch 19:13 "Be of good courage, and let us be strong for our people and for the cities of our God. And may Jehovah do what is good in His sight."

1Ch 19:14 So Joab and the people who were with him drew near for the battle against the Syrians, and they fled before him.

1Ch 19:15 When the people of Ammon saw that the Syrians were fleeing, they also fled before Abishai his brother, and entered the city. So Joab went to Jerusalem.

1Ch 19:16 Now when the Syrians saw that they had been defeated by Israel, they sent envoys and brought the Syrians who were beyond the River, and Shophach the commander of Hadadezer's army went before them.

1Ch 19:17 When it was told to David, he gathered all Israel, crossed over the Jordan and came upon them, and set up in battle array against them. So when David had set up in battle array against the Syrians, they fought with him.

1Ch 19:18 Then the Syrians fled before Israel; and David destroyed seven thousand chariots and forty thousand foot soldiers of the Syrians, and killed Shophach the commander of the army.

1Ch 19:19 And when the servants of Hadadezer saw that they were defeated by Israel, they made peace with David and became his servants. So the Syrians were not willing to help the people of Ammon anymore.

1Ch 20:1 And it happened, in the spring of the year, at the time kings go out to battle, that Joab led out the armed forces and ravaged the country of the people of Ammon, and came and besieged Rabbah. But David stayed at Jerusalem. And Joab defeated Rabbah and overthrew it.

1Ch 20:2 Then David took their king's crown from his head, and found it to weigh a talent of gold, and there were precious stones in it. And it was set on David's head. Also he brought out the spoil of the city in great abundance.

1Ch 20:3 And he brought out the people who were in it, and put them to work with saws, with iron picks, and with axes. So David did to all the cities of the people of Ammon. Then David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

1Ch 20:4 Now it happened afterwards that war broke out at Gezer with the Philistines, at which time Sibbechai the Hushathite killed Sippai, who was one of the sons of Raphah. And they were subdued.

1Ch 20:5 Again there was war with the Philistines, and Elhanan the son of Jair killed Lahmi the brother of Goliath the Gittite, the shaft of whose spear was like a weaver's beam.

1Ch 20:6 Yet again there was war at Gath, where there was a man of stature, with twenty-four fingers and toes, six per hand and six per foot; and he also was born to Raphah.

1Ch 20:7 So when he defied Israel, Jonathan the son of Shimea, David's brother, killed him.

1Ch 20:8 These were born to Raphah in Gath, and they fell by the hand of David and by the hand of his servants.

1Ch 21:1 Now Satan stood up against Israel, and moved David to number Israel.

1Ch 21:2 So David said to Joab and to the leaders of the people, "Go, number Israel from Beersheba to Dan, and bring the number of them to me that I may know it."

1Ch 21:3 And Joab answered, "May Jehovah make His people a hundred times more than they are. But, my lord the king, are they not all my lord's servants? Why then does my lord require this thing? Why should he be a cause of guilt in Israel?"

1Ch 21:4 Nevertheless the king's word prevailed against Joab. Therefore Joab departed and went throughout all Israel and came to Jerusalem.

1Ch 21:5 Then Joab gave the sum of the number of the people to David. All Israel had one million one hundred thousand men who drew the sword, and Judah had four hundred and seventy thousand men who drew the sword.

1Ch 21:6 But he did not count Levi and Benjamin among them, for the king's word was abominable to Joab.

1Ch 21:7 And God was displeased with this thing; therefore He struck Israel.

1Ch 21:8 So David said to God, "I have sinned greatly, because I have done this thing; but now, I pray, take away the iniquity of Your servant, for I have done very foolishly."

1Ch 21:9 And Jehovah spoke to Gad, David's seer, saying,

1Ch 21:10 "Go and tell David, saying, 'Thus says Jehovah: "I offer you three things; choose one of them for yourself, that I may do it to you."'"

1Ch 21:11 So Gad came to David and said to him, "Thus says Jehovah: 'Choose for yourself, 1Ch 21:12 'either three years of famine, or three new moons to be defeated by your foes with the sword of your enemies overtaking you, or else for three days the sword of Jehovah; the plague in the land, with Jehovah's envoy destroying throughout all the territory of Israel.' Now consider what answer I should take back to Him who sent me."

1Ch 21:13 And David said to Gad, "I am in great distress. Please let me fall into the hand of Jehovah, for His mercies are very great; but do not let me fall into the hand of man."

1Ch 21:14 So Jehovah sent a plague upon Israel, and seventy thousand men of Israel fell.

1Ch 21:15 And God sent an envoy to Jerusalem to destroy it. As he was destroying, Jehovah looked and relented of the evil, and said to the envoy who was destroying, "It is enough; now restrain your hand." And Jehovah's envoy stood by the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite.

1Ch 21:16 Then David lifted his eyes and saw Jehovah's envoy standing between earth and heaven, having in his hand a drawn sword stretched out over Jerusalem.

So David and the elders, clothed in sackcloth, fell on their faces.

1Ch 21:17 And David said to God, "Was it not I who commanded the people to be numbered? I am the one who has sinned and done evil indeed; but these sheep, what have they done? Let Your hand, I pray, O Jehovah my God, be against me and my father's house, but not against Your people that they should be plagued."

1Ch 21:18 Then Jehovah's envoy commanded Gad to say to David that David should go and erect an altar to Jehovah on the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite.

1Ch 21:19 So David went up at the word of Gad, which he had spoken in the name of Jehovah.

1Ch 21:20 Now Ornan turned and saw the envoy; and his four sons who were with him hid themselves, but Ornan continued threshing wheat.

1Ch 21:21 Then David came to Ornan, and Ornan looked and saw David. And he went out from the threshing floor, and bowed down to David with his face to the ground.

1Ch 21:22 Then David said to Ornan, "Give me the place of the threshing floor, that I may build an altar on it to Jehovah. You will give it to me at the full amount of silver, that the plague may be withdrawn from the people."

1Ch 21:23 And Ornan said to David, "Take it to yourself, and let my lord the king do what is good in his eyes. Look, I also give you the oxen for burnt offerings, the threshing implements for wood, and the wheat for the grain offering; I give it all."

1Ch 21:24 Then King David said to Ornan, "No, but I will surely buy it for the full amount of silver, for I will not take what is yours for Jehovah, nor offer burnt offerings with that which costs me nothing."

1Ch 21:25 So David gave Ornan six hundred shekels of gold by weight for the place.

1Ch 21:26 And David built there an altar to Jehovah, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings, and called on Jehovah; and He answered him from heaven by fire on the altar of burnt offering.

1Ch 21:27 Then Jehovah commanded the envoy, and he returned his sword to its sheath.

1Ch 21:28 At that time, when David saw that Jehovah had answered him on the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite, he sacrificed there.

1Ch 21:29 For the booth of Jehovah and the altar of the burnt offering, which Moses had made in the wilderness, were at that time at the high place in Gibeon.

1Ch 21:30 But David could not go before it to inquire of God, for he was afraid of the sword of Jehovah's envoy.

1Ch 22:1 Then David said, "This is the House of Jehovah God, and this is the altar of burnt offering for Israel."

1Ch 22:2 So David commanded to gather the immigrants who were in the land of Israel; and he appointed masons to cut hewn stones to build the House of God.

1Ch 22:3 And David prepared iron in abundance for the nails of the doors of the gates and for the joints, and bronze in abundance beyond measure, 1Ch 22:4 and cedar trees in abundance; for the Sidonians and those from Tyre brought much cedar wood to David.

1Ch 22:5 Now David said, "Solomon my son is young and inexperienced, and the house that is to be built for Jehovah must be exceedingly magnificent, famous and glorious throughout all countries. I will now make preparation for it." So David made abundant preparations before his death.

1Ch 22:6 Then he called for his son Solomon, and charged him to build a house for Jehovah God of Israel.

1Ch 22:7 And David said to Solomon: "My son, as for me, it was in my mind to build a house to the name of Jehovah my God;

1Ch 22:8 "but Jehovah's word came to me, saying, 'You have shed much blood and have made great wars; you will not build a house for My Name, because you have shed much blood on the earth in My sight.'¹

1Ch 22:9 'Behold, a son will be born to you, who will be a man of rest; and I will give him rest from all his enemies all around. His name will be Solomon,² for I will give peace and quietness to Israel in his days.

1Ch 22:10 'He will build a house for My Name, and he will be My son, and I will be his Father; and I will establish the throne of his kingdom over Israel forever.'³

1Ch 22:11 "Now, my son, may Jehovah be with you; and may you prosper, and build the House of Jehovah your God, as He has said to you.

1Ch 22:12 "Only may Jehovah give you wisdom and understanding, and give you orders concerning Israel, that you may keep the Instructions of Jehovah your God.

1Ch 22:13 "Then you will prosper, if you take care to fulfil the statutes and judgements with which Jehovah charged Moses concerning Israel. Be strong and of good courage; do not fear nor be dismayed.

1Ch 22:14 "Indeed I have taken much trouble to prepare for the House of Jehovah one hundred thousand talents of gold and one million talents of silver, and bronze and iron beyond measure, for it is so abundant. I have prepared timber and stone also, and you may add to them.

1Ch 22:15 “Moreover there are workmen with you in abundance: hewers and workers of stone and timber, and all types of skillful men for every kind of work.

1Ch 22:16 “Of gold and silver and bronze and iron there is no limit. Arise and begin working, and Jehovah be with you.”

1Ch 22:17 David also commanded all the leaders of Israel to help Solomon his son, saying, 1Ch 22:18 “Is not Jehovah your God with you? And has He not given you rest on every side? For He has given the inhabitants of the land into my hand, and the land is subdued before Jehovah and before His people.

1Ch 22:19 “Now set your heart and your soul to seek Jehovah your God. Therefore arise and build the sanctuary of Jehovah God, to bring the ark of the covenant of Jehovah and the holy articles of God into the house that is to be built for the name of Jehovah.”

1Ch 23:1 So when David was old and full of days, he made his son Solomon king over Israel.

1Ch 23:2 And he gathered together all the leaders of Israel, with the priests and the Levites.

1Ch 23:3 Now the Levites were numbered from the age of thirty years and above; and the number of individual males was thirty-eight thousand.

1Ch 23:4 Of these, twenty-four thousand were to look after the work of the House of Jehovah, six thousand were officers and judges,

1Ch 23:5 four thousand were gatekeepers, and four thousand praised Jehovah with musical instruments, “which I made,” said David, “for giving praise.”

1Ch 23:6 And David divided them into divisions among the sons of Levi:

Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

1Ch 23:7 Of the Gershonites: Laadan and Shimei.

1Ch 23:8 The sons of Laadan: the first Jehiel, then Zetham and Joel; three in all.

1Ch 23:9 The sons of Shimei: Shelomith, Haziël, and Haran; three in all. These were the heads of the fathers’ houses of Laadan.

1Ch 23:10 And the sons of Shimei: Jahath, Zina, Jeush, and Beriah. These were the four sons of Shimei.

1Ch 23:11 Jahath was the first and Zizah the second. But Jeush and Beriah did not have many sons; therefore they were assigned as one father’s house.

1Ch 23:12 The sons of Kohath: Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel; four in all.

1Ch 23:13 The sons of Amram: Aaron and Moses; and Aaron was set apart, he and his sons forever, that he should sanctify the sanctified sanctuary, to burn before Jehovah, to serve Him, and to give the blessing in His Name forever.

1Ch 23:14 Now the sons of Moses the man of God were reckoned to the branch of Levi.

1Ch 23:15 The sons of Moses were Gershon and Eliezer.

1Ch 23:16 Of the sons of Gershon, Shebuel was the first.

1Ch 23:17 Of the descendants of Eliezer, Rehabiah was the first. And Eliezer had no other sons, but the sons of Rehabiah were very many.

1Ch 23:18 Of the sons of Izhar, Shelomith was the first.

1Ch 23:19 Of the sons of Hebron, Jeriah was the first, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, and Jekameam the fourth.

1Ch 23:20 Of the sons of Uzziel, Michah was the first and Jesshiah the second.

1Ch 23:21 The sons of Merari were Mahli and Mushi. The sons of Mahli were Eleazar and Kish.

1Ch 23:22 And Eleazar died, and had no sons, but only daughters; and their brethren, the sons of Kish, took them as wives.

1Ch 23:23 The sons of Mushi were Mahli, Eder, and Jeremoth; three in all.

1Ch 23:24 These were the sons of Levi by their fathers' houses; the heads of the fathers' houses as they were counted individually by the number of their names, who did the work for the service of the House of Jehovah, from the age of twenty years and above.¹

1Ch 23:25 For David said, "Jehovah God of Israel has given rest to His people, that they may dwell in Jerusalem forever";

1Ch 23:26 and also to the Levites, "They will no longer carry the booth, or any of the articles for its service."

1Ch 23:27 For by the last words of David the Levites were numbered from twenty years old and above;

1Ch 23:28 because their duty was to help the sons of Aaron in the service of the House of Jehovah, in the courts and in the chambers, in the purifying of all sanctified things and the work of the service of the House of God,

1Ch 23:29 both with the arranged bread and the fine flour for the grain offering, with the unleavened cakes and what is baked in the pan, with what is mixed and with all kinds of measures and sizes;

1Ch 23:30 to stand every morning to thank and praise Jehovah, and likewise at evening;

1Ch 23:31 and at every presentation of a burnt offering to Jehovah on the Sabbaths and on the New Moons and on the set feasts, by number according to the judgement governing them, regularly before Jehovah;

1Ch 23:32 and that they should attend to the needs of the tent of the appointed times, the needs of the sanctuary, and the needs of the sons of Aaron and their brethren in the work of the House of Jehovah.

1Ch 24:1 Now these are the divisions of the sons of Aaron. The sons of Aaron were Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.

1Ch 24:2 And Nadab and Abihu died before their father, and had no children; therefore Eleazar and Ithamar served as priests.

1Ch 24:3 Then David with Zadok of the sons of Eleazar, and Ahimelech of the sons of Ithamar, divided them according to the schedule of their service.

1Ch 24:4 Now there were more leaders found of the sons of Eleazar than of the sons of Ithamar, and thus they were divided. Among the sons of Eleazar there were sixteen heads of their fathers' houses, and eight heads of their fathers' houses among the sons of Ithamar.

1Ch 24:5 Thus they were divided by lot, one group as another, for there were officials of the sanctuary and officials of the House of God, from the sons of Eleazar and from the sons of Ithamar.

1Ch 24:6 And the scribe, Shemaiah the son of Nethaneel, one of the Levites, wrote them down before the king, the leaders, Zadok the priest, Ahimelech the son of Abiathar, and the heads of the fathers' houses of the priests and Levites, one father's house taken for Eleazar and one for Ithamar.

1Ch 24:7 Now the first lot fell to Jehoiarib, the second to Jedaiah, 1Ch 24:8 the third to Harim, the fourth to Seorim,

1Ch 24:9 the fifth to Malchijah, the sixth to Mijamin,

1Ch 24:10 the seventh to Hakkoz, the eighth to Abijah,

1Ch 24:11 the ninth to Jayshua, the tenth to Shecaniah,

1Ch 24:12 the eleventh to Eliashib, the twelfth to Jakim,

1Ch 24:13 the thirteenth to Huppah, the

¹ In 23:3, only those above 30 are counted, here those above 20. As the following verses show, those above 30 did the more senior tasks, while the younger Levites assisted them.

fourteenth to Jeshebeab,
1Ch 24:14 the fifteenth to Bilgah, the sixteenth to Immer, 1Ch 24:15 the seventeenth to Hezir, the eighteenth to Happizzez,
1Ch 24:16 the nineteenth to Pethahiah, the twentieth to Jehezkekel, 1Ch 24:17 the twenty-first to Jachin, the twenty-second to Gamul, 1Ch 24:18 the twenty-third to Delaiah, the twenty-fourth to Maaziah.
1Ch 24:19 This was the schedule of their service for coming into the House of Jehovah according to the judgement by the hand of Aaron their father, as Jehovah God of Israel had commanded him.
1Ch 24:20 Now the rest of the sons of Levi: of the sons of Amram, Shubael; of the sons of Shubael, Jehdeiah.
1Ch 24:21 Concerning Rehabiah, of the sons of Rehabiah, the first was Isshiah.
1Ch 24:22 Of the Izharites, Shelomoth; of the sons of Shelomoth, Jahath.
1Ch 24:23 Of the sons of Hebron, Jeriah was the first, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, and Jekameam the fourth.
1Ch 24:24 Of the sons of Uzziel, Michah; of the sons of Michah, Shamir.
1Ch 24:25 The brother of Michah, Isshiah; of the sons of Isshiah, Zechariah.
1Ch 24:26 The sons of Merari were Mahli and Mushi; the son of Jaaziah, Beno.
1Ch 24:27 The sons of Merari by Jaaziah were Beno, Shoham, Zaccur, and Ibri.
1Ch 24:28 Of Mahli: Eleazar, who had no sons.
1Ch 24:29 Of Kish: the son of Kish, Jerahmeel.
1Ch 24:30 Also the sons of Mushi were Mahli, Eder, and Jerimoth. These were the sons of the Levites according to their fathers' houses.
1Ch 24:31 These also cast lots just as their brothers the sons of Aaron did, in the presence of King David, Zadok, Ahimelech, and the heads of the fathers' houses of the priests and Levites. The chief fathers did just as their younger brethren.

1Ch 25:1 Moreover David and the captains of the army separated for the service some of the sons of Asaph, of Heman, and of Jeduthun, who should prophesy with harps, stringed instruments, and cymbals. And the number of the workmen according to their service was:

1Ch 25:2 Of the sons of Asaph: Zaccur, Joseph, Nethaniah, and Asharelah; the sons of Asaph were under the direction of Asaph, who prophesied according to the order of the king.

1Ch 25:3 Of Jeduthun, the sons of Jeduthun: Gedaliah, Zeri, Jeshaiiah, Shimei, Hashabiah, and Mattithiah, six, under the direction of their father Jeduthun, who prophesied with a harp to give thanks and to praise Jehovah.

1Ch 25:4 Of Heman, the sons of Heman: Bukkiah, Mattaniah, Uzziel, Shebuel, Jerimoth, Hananiah, Hanani, Eliathah, Giddalti, Romamti-Ezer, Joshbekashah, Mallothi, Hothir, and Mahazioth.

1Ch 25:5 All these were the sons of Heman the king's seer in the words of God, to exalt his horn. For God gave Heman fourteen sons and three daughters.

1Ch 25:6 All these were under the direction of their father for the music in the House of Jehovah, with cymbals, stringed instruments, and harps, for the service of the House of God. Asaph, Jeduthun, and Heman were under the authority of the king.

1Ch 25:7 So the number of them, with their brethren who were instructed in the songs of Jehovah, all who were skillful, was two hundred and eighty-eight.

1Ch 25:8 And they cast lots for their duty, the small as well as the great, the teacher with the student.

1Ch 25:9 Now the first lot for Asaph came out for Joseph; the second for Gedaliah, him with his brethren and sons, twelve;

1Ch 25:10 the third for Zaccur, his sons and his brethren, twelve;

1Ch 25:11 the fourth for Jizri, his sons and his brethren, twelve;

1Ch 25:12 the fifth for Nethaniah, his sons and his brethren, twelve;

1Ch 25:13 the sixth for Bukkiah, his sons and his brethren, twelve;

1Ch 25:14 the seventh for Jesharelah, his sons and his brethren, twelve;

1Ch 25:15 the eighth for Jeshaiiah, his sons and his brethren, twelve;

1Ch 25:16 the ninth for Mattaniah, his sons and his brethren, twelve;

1Ch 25:17 the tenth for Shimei, his sons and his brethren, twelve;

1Ch 25:18 the eleventh for Azarel, his sons and his brethren, twelve;

1Ch 25:19 the twelfth for Hashabiah, his sons and his brethren, twelve;

1Ch 25:20 the thirteenth for Shubael, his sons and his brethren, twelve;

1Ch 25:21 the fourteenth for Mattithiah, his sons and his brethren, twelve;

1Ch 25:22 the fifteenth for Jeremoth, his sons and his brethren, twelve;

1Ch 25:23 the sixteenth for Hananiah, his sons and his brethren, twelve;

1Ch 25:24 the seventeenth for Joshbekashah, his sons and his brethren, twelve;

1Ch 25:25 the eighteenth for Hanani, his sons and his brethren, twelve;

1Ch 25:26 the nineteenth for Mallothi, his sons and his brethren, twelve;

1Ch 25:27 the twentieth for Eliathah, his sons and his brethren, twelve;

1Ch 25:28 the twenty-first for Hothir, his sons and his brethren, twelve;

1Ch 25:29 the twenty-second for Giddalti, his sons and his brethren, twelve;

1Ch 25:30 the twenty-third for Mahazioth, his sons and his brethren, twelve;

1Ch 25:31 the twenty-fourth for Romamti-Ezer, his sons and his brethren, twelve.

1Ch 26:1 Concerning the divisions of the gatekeepers: of the Korahites, Meshelemiah the son of Kore, of the sons of Asaph.

1Ch 26:2 And the sons of Meshelemiah were Zechariah the firstborn, Jediahel the second, Zebadiah the third, Jathniel the fourth, 1Ch 26:3 Elam the fifth, Jehohanan the sixth, Eljehoenai the seventh.

1Ch 26:4 Moreover the sons of Obed-Edom were Shemaiah the firstborn, Jehozabad the second, Joah the third, Sacar the fourth, Nethanel the fifth, 1Ch 26:5 Ammiel the sixth, Issachar the seventh, Peulthai the eighth; for God blessed him.

1Ch 26:6 Also to Shemaiah his son were sons born who governed their fathers' houses, because they were men of great ability.

1Ch 26:7 The sons of Shemaiah were Othni, Rephael, Obed, and Elzabad, whose brothers Elihu and Semachiah were able men.

1Ch 26:8 All these were of the sons of Obed-Edom, they and their sons and their brethren, able men with strength for the work: sixty-two of Obed-Edom.

1Ch 26:9 And Meshelemiah had sons and brethren, eighteen able men.

1Ch 26:10 Also Hosah, of the children of Merari, had sons: Shimri the first (for though he was not the firstborn, his father made him the first),

1Ch 26:11 Hilkiah the second, Tebaliah the third, Zechariah the fourth; all the sons and brethren of Hosah were thirteen.

1Ch 26:12 Among these were the divisions of the gatekeepers, among the chief men, having duties just like their brethren, to serve in the House of Jehovah.

1Ch 26:13 And they cast lots for each gate, the small as well as the great, according to their father's house.

1Ch 26:14 The lot for the Sunrise Gate fell to Shelemiah. Then they cast lots for his son Zechariah, a wise counsellor, and his lot came out for the North Gate; 1Ch 26:15 to Obed-Edom the South Gate, and to his sons the storehouse.

1Ch 26:16 To Shupphim and Hosah the lot came out for the West Gate, with the Shallecheth Gate on the ascending highway; watchman opposite watchman.

1Ch 26:17 Facing sunrise were six Levites, on the north four each day, on the south four each day, and for the storehouse two by two.

1Ch 26:18 As for the Parbar on the west, there were four on the highway and two at the Parbar.

1Ch 26:19 These were the divisions of the gatekeepers among the sons of Korah and among the sons of Merari.

1Ch 26:20 Of the Levites, Ahijah was over the treasuries of the House of God and over the treasuries of the sanctified things.

1Ch 26:21 The sons of Laadan, the descendants of the Gershonites of Laadan, heads of their fathers' houses, of Laadan the Gershonite: Jehieli.

1Ch 26:22 The sons of Jehieli, Zetham and Joel his brother, were over the treasuries of the House of Jehovah.

1Ch 26:23 Of the Amramites, the Izharites, the Hebronites, and the Uzzielites:

1Ch 26:24 Shebuel the son of Gershom, the son of Moses, was overseer of the treasuries.

1Ch 26:25 And his brethren by Eliezer were Rehabiah his son, Jeshaiiah his son, Joram his son, Zichri his son, and Shelomith his son.

1Ch 26:26 This Shelomith and his brethren were over all the treasuries of the sanctified things which King David and the heads of fathers' houses, the captains over thousands and hundreds, and the captains of the army, had sanctified.

1Ch 26:27 Some of the spoils won in battles they dedicated to maintain the House of Jehovah.

1Ch 26:28 And all that Samuel the seer, Saul the son of Kish, Abner the son of Ner, and Joab the son of Zeruiah had dedicated, every dedicated thing, was under the hand of Shelomith and his brethren.

1Ch 26:29 Of the Izharites, Chenaniah and his sons performed duties as officials and judges over Israel outside Jerusalem.

1Ch 26:30 Of the Hebronites, Hashabiah and his brethren, one thousand seven hundred able men, had the oversight of Israel on the west side of the Jordan for all the business of Jehovah, and in the service of the king.

1Ch 26:31 Among the Hebronites, Jerijah was head of the Hebronites according to his genealogy of the fathers. In the fortieth year of the reign of David they were sought, and there were found among them capable men at Jazer of Gilead.

1Ch 26:32 And his brethren were two thousand seven hundred able men, heads of fathers' houses, whom King David made officials over the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-branch of Manasseh, for every matter pertaining to God and the affairs of the king.

1Ch 27:1 And the children of Israel, according to their number, the heads of fathers' houses, the captains of thousands and hundreds and their officers, served the king in every matter of the military divisions. These divisions came in and went out new moon by new moon throughout all the new moons of the year, each division having twenty-four thousand.

1Ch 27:2 Over the first division for the first new moon was Jashobeam the son of Zabdiel, and in his division were twenty-four thousand;

1Ch 27:3 he was of the children of Perez, and the chief of all the captains of the army for the first new moon.

1Ch 27:4 Over the division of the second new moon was Dodai an Ahohite, and of his division Mikloth also was the leader; in his division were twenty-four thousand.

1Ch 27:5 The third captain of the army for the third new moon was Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada the priest, who was chief; in his division were twenty-four thousand.

1Ch 27:6 This was the Benaiah who was mighty among the thirty, and was over the thirty; in his division was Ammizabad his son.

1Ch 27:7 The fourth captain for the fourth new moon was Asahel the brother of Joab, and Zebadiah his son after him; in his division were twenty-four thousand.

1Ch 27:8 The fifth captain for the fifth new moon was Shamhuth the Izrahite; in his division were twenty-four thousand.

1Ch 27:9 The sixth captain for the sixth new moon was Ira the son of Ikkesh the Tekoite; in his division were twenty-four thousand.

1Ch 27:10 The seventh captain for the seventh new moon was Helez the Pelonite, of the children of Ephraim; in his division were twenty-four thousand.

1Ch 27:11 The eighth captain for the eighth new moon was Sibbechai the Hushathite, of the Zarhites; in his division were twenty-four thousand.

1Ch 27:12 The ninth captain for the ninth new moon was Abiezer the Anathothite, of the Benjamites; in his division were twenty-four thousand.

1Ch 27:13 The tenth captain for the tenth new moon was Maharai the Netophathite, of the Zarhites; in his division were twenty-four thousand.

1Ch 27:14 The eleventh captain for the eleventh new moon was Benaiah the Pirathonite, of the children of Ephraim; in his division were twenty-four thousand.

1Ch 27:15 The twelfth captain for the twelfth new moon was Heldai the Netophathite, of Othniel; in his division were twenty-four thousand.

1Ch 27:16 Furthermore, over the branches of Israel: the officer over the Reubenites was Eliezer the son of Zichri; over the Simeonites, Shephatiah the son of Maachah;

1Ch 27:17 over the Levites, Hashabiah the son of Kemuel; over the Aaronites, Zadok;

1Ch 27:18 over Judah, Elihu, one of David's brothers; over Issachar, Omri the son of Michael;

1Ch 27:19 over Zebulun, Ishmaiah the son of Obadiah; over Naphtali, Jerimoth the son of Azriel;

1Ch 27:20 over the children of Ephraim, Hoshea the son of Azaziah; over the half-branch of Manasseh, Joel the son of Pedaiiah;

1Ch 27:21 over the half-branch of Manasseh in Gilead, Iddo the son of Zechariah; over Benjamin, Jaasiel the son of Abner;

1Ch 27:22 over Dan, Azarel the son of Jeroham. These were the leaders of the branches of Israel.

1Ch 27:23 But David did not take the number of those twenty years old and under, because Jehovah had said He would multiply Israel like the stars of the heavens.

1Ch 27:24 Joab the son of Zeruiah began a census, but he did not finish, for wrath came upon Israel because of this census; nor was the number recorded in the account of the chronicles of King David.

1Ch 27:25 And Azmaveth the son of Adiel was over the king's treasures; and Jehonathan the son of Uzziah was over the storehouses in the field, in the cities, in the villages, and in the fortresses.

1Ch 27:26 Ezri the son of Chelub was over those who did the work of the field for tilling the ground.

1Ch 27:27 And Shimei the Ramathite was over the vineyards, and Zabdi the Shiphmite was over the produce of the vineyards for the supply of wine.

1Ch 27:28 Baal-Hanan the Gederite was over the olive trees and the sycamore trees that were in the lowlands, and Joash was over the store of oil.

1Ch 27:29 And Shitrai the Sharonite was over the herds that fed in Sharon, and Shaphat the son of Adlai was over the herds that were in the valleys.

1Ch 27:30 Obil the Ishmaelite was over the camels, Jehdeiah the Meronothite was over the donkeys, 1Ch 27:31 and Jaziz the Hagerite was over the flocks. All these were the officials over King David's property.

1Ch 27:32 Also Jehonathan, David's uncle, was a counsellor, a wise man, and a scribe; and Jehiel the son of Hachmoni was with the king's sons.

1Ch 27:33 Ahithophel was the king's counsellor, and Hushai the Archite was the king's companion.

1Ch 27:34 After Ahithophel was Jehoiada the son of Benaiah, then Abiathar. And the general of the king's army was Joab.

1Ch 28:1 Now David assembled at Jerusalem all the leaders of Israel: the officers of the branches and the captains of the divisions who served the king, the captains over thousands and captains over hundreds, and the stewards over all the substance and possessions of the king and of his sons, with the officials, the valiant men, and all the mighty men of valour.

1Ch 28:2 Then King David rose to his feet and said, "Hear me, my brethren and my people: I had it in my heart to build a house of rest for the ark of the covenant of Jehovah, and for the footstool of our God, and had made preparations to build it.

1Ch 28:3 "But God said to me, 'You will not build a house for My Name, because you have been a man of war and have shed blood.'

1Ch 28:4 "However Jehovah God of Israel chose me above all the house of my father to be king over Israel forever, for He has chosen Judah to be the ruler; and of the house of Judah, the house of my father, and among the sons of my father, He was pleased with me to make me king over all Israel.

1Ch 28:5 "And of all my sons (for Jehovah has given me many sons) He has chosen my son Solomon to sit on the throne of the kingdom of Jehovah over Israel.

1Ch 28:6 "Now He said to me, 'It is your son Solomon who will build My house and My courts; for I have chosen him to be My son, and I will be his Father.

1Ch 28:7 'Moreover I will establish his kingdom forever, if he is steadfast to observe My commandments and My judgements, as it is this day.'

1Ch 28:8 "Now therefore, in the sight of all Israel, the congregation of Jehovah, and in the hearing of our God, be careful to seek out all the commandments of Jehovah your God, that you may possess this good land, and leave it as an inheritance for your children after you forever.

1Ch 28:9 "As for you, my son Solomon, know the God of your father, and serve Him with a loyal heart and with a willing soul; for Jehovah searches all hearts and understands all the intent of the schemes. If you seek Him, He will be found by you; but if you forsake Him, He will cast you off forever.

1Ch 28:10 "Consider now, for Jehovah has chosen you to build a house for the sanctuary; be strong, and do it."

1Ch 28:11 Then David gave his son Solomon the pattern for the porch, its houses, its treasuries, its upper chambers, its inner chambers, and the place of the mercy seat;

1Ch 28:12 and the pattern for all that he had by the Spirit, of the courts of the House of Jehovah, of all the chambers all around, of the treasuries of the House of God, and of the treasuries for the sanctified things;

1Ch 28:13 also for the division of the priests and the Levites, for all the work of the service of the House of Jehovah, and for all the articles of service in the House of Jehovah.

1Ch 28:14 He gave gold by weight for things of gold, for all articles used in every kind of service; also silver for all articles of silver by weight, for all articles used in every kind of service;

1Ch 28:15 the weight for the menorahs of gold, and their lamps of gold, by weight for each menorah and its lamps; for the menorahs of silver by weight, for the menorah and its lamps, according to the use of each menorah.

1Ch 28:16 And by weight he gave gold for the tables of the arrangement, for each table, and silver for the tables of silver;

1Ch 28:17 also pure gold for the forks, the basins, the pitchers of pure gold, and the golden bowls; he gave gold by weight for every bowl; and for the silver bowls, silver by weight for every bowl;

1Ch 28:18 and refined gold by weight for the altar of incense, and for the pattern of the chariot of the gold cherubim that spread and covered the ark of the covenant of Jehovah.

1Ch 28:19 “All this Jehovah made me understand in writing, by His hand upon me, all the workings of these patterns.”

1Ch 28:20 And David said to his son Solomon, “Be strong and of good courage, and do it; do not fear nor be dismayed, for Jehovah God; my God; will be with you. He will not leave you nor forsake you, until you have finished all the work for the service of the House of Jehovah.

1Ch 28:21 “Here are the divisions of the priests and the Levites for all the service of the House of God; and every willing craftsman will be with you for all manner of workmanship, for every kind of service; also the leaders and all the people will be completely at your command.”

1Ch 29:1 Furthermore King David said to all the congregation: “My son Solomon, whom alone God has chosen, is young and inexperienced; and the work is great, because the Palace is not for man but for Jehovah God.

1Ch 29:2 “Now for the house of my God I have prepared with all my might: gold for things to be made of gold, silver for things of silver, bronze for things of bronze, iron for things of iron, wood for things of wood, onyx stones, stones to be set, glistening stones of various colours, all kinds of precious stones, and marble slabs in abundance.

1Ch 29:3 “Moreover, because I have set my affection on the house of my God, I have given to the house of my God, over and above all that I have prepared for the sanctified house, my own special treasure of gold and silver:

1Ch 29:4 “three thousand talents of gold, of the gold of Ophir, and seven thousand talents of refined silver, to overlay the walls of the houses;

1Ch 29:5 “the gold for things of gold and the silver for things of silver, and for all kinds of work to be done by the hands of craftsmen. Who then is willing to consecrate himself this day to Jehovah?”

1Ch 29:6 Then the leaders of the fathers’ houses, leaders of the branches of Israel, the captains of thousands and of hundreds, with the officers over the king’s work, offered willingly.

1Ch 29:7 They gave for the work of the House of God five thousand talents and ten thousand darics of gold, ten thousand talents of silver, eighteen thousand talents of bronze, and one hundred thousand talents of iron.

1Ch 29:8 And whoever had precious stones gave them to the treasury of the House of Jehovah, into the hand of Jehiel the Gershonite.

1Ch 29:9 Then the people rejoiced, for they had offered willingly, because with a loyal heart they had offered willingly to Jehovah; and King David also rejoiced greatly.

1Ch 29:10 Therefore David blessed Jehovah before all the congregation; and David said: "Blessed are You, Jehovah God of Israel, our Father, forever and ever.

1Ch 29:11 Yours, O Jehovah, is the greatness, the power and the glory, the victory and the majesty; for all that is in heaven and in earth is Yours; Yours is the kingdom, O Jehovah, and You are exalted as head over all.

1Ch 29:12 Both riches and honour come from You, and You reign over all. In Your hand is power and might; it is in Your hand to make great and to give strength to all.

1Ch 29:13 "Now therefore, our God, we thank You and praise Your glorious name.

1Ch 29:14 But who am I, and who are my people, that we should be able to offer so willingly as this? For all things come from You, and of Your own we have given to you.

1Ch 29:15 For we are immigrants and sojourners before You, as were all our fathers; our days on earth are as a shadow, and without hope.

1Ch 29:16 "O Jehovah our God, all this abundance that we have prepared to build You a house for Your sanctified name is from Your hand, and is all Your own.

1Ch 29:17 "I know also, my God, that You test the heart and have pleasure in uprightness. As for me, in the uprightness of my heart I have willingly offered all these things; and now with joy I have seen Your people, who are present here to offer willingly to You.

1Ch 29:18 "O Jehovah God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, our fathers, keep this forever in the intent of the thoughts of the heart of Your people, and fix their heart toward You.

1Ch 29:19 "And give my son Solomon a loyal heart to keep Your commandments and Your testimonies and Your statutes, to do all these things, and to build the Palace for which I have made provision."

1Ch 29:20 Then David said to all the congregation, "Now bless Jehovah your God." So all the congregation blessed Jehovah God of their fathers, and bowed their heads and prostrated themselves before Jehovah and the king.

1Ch 29:21 And they made sacrifices to Jehovah and offered burnt offerings to Jehovah on the next day: a thousand bulls, a thousand rams, a thousand lambs, with their drink offerings, and sacrifices in abundance for all Israel.

1Ch 29:22 So they ate and drank before Jehovah with great gladness on that day. And they made Solomon the son of David king the second time, and anointed him before Jehovah to be the leader, and Zadok to be priest.

1Ch 29:23 Then Solomon sat on the throne of Jehovah as king instead of David his father, and prospered; and all Israel obeyed him.

1Ch 29:24 All the leaders and the mighty men, and also all the sons of King David, submitted themselves to King Solomon.

1Ch 29:25 So Jehovah exalted Solomon exceedingly in the sight of all Israel, and bestowed on him such royal majesty as had not been on any king before him in Israel.

1Ch 29:26 Thus David the son of Jesse reigned over all Israel.

1Ch 29:27 And the period that he reigned over Israel was forty years; seven years he reigned in Hebron, and thirty-three years he reigned in Jerusalem.

1Ch 29:28 So he died in a good old age, full of days and riches and honour; and Solomon his son reigned in his place.

1Ch 29:29 Now the acts of King David, first and last, indeed they are written in the book of Samuel the seer, in the book of Nathan the prophet, and in the book of Gad the seer,

1Ch 29:30 with all his reign and his might, and the events that happened to him, to Israel, and to all the kingdoms of the lands.

Second Chronicles

2Ch 1:1 Now Solomon the son of David was strengthened in his kingdom, and Jehovah his God was with him and exalted him exceedingly.

2Ch 1:2 And Solomon spoke to all Israel, to the captains of thousands and of hundreds, to the judges, and to every leader in all Israel, the heads of the fathers' houses.

2Ch 1:3 Then Solomon, and all the congregation with him, went to the high place that was at Gibeon; for God's tent of the appointed times was there, which Jehovah's servant Moses had made in the wilderness.

2Ch 1:4 But David had brought up the ark of God from Kirjath Jearim to the place David had prepared for it, for he had pitched a tent for it at Jerusalem.

2Ch 1:5 Now the bronze altar that Bezaleel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, had made, he put before the booth of Jehovah; Solomon and the congregation sought Him there.

2Ch 1:6 And Solomon went up there to the bronze altar before Jehovah, which was at the tent of the appointed times, and offered a thousand burnt offerings on it.

2Ch 1:7 On that night God appeared to Solomon, and said to him, "Ask! What will I give you?"

2Ch 1:8 And Solomon said to God: "You have shown great mercy to David my father, and have made me king in his place.

2Ch 1:9 "Now, O Jehovah God, let Your promise to David my father be established, for You have made me king over a people like the dust of the earth in multitude.

2Ch 1:10 "Now give me wisdom and knowledge, that I may go out and come in before this people; for who can judge this great people of Yours?"

2Ch 1:11 And God said to Solomon:

"Because this was in your heart, and you have not asked riches or wealth or honour or the soul of your enemies, nor have you asked long life; but have asked wisdom and knowledge for yourself, that you may judge My people over whom I have made you king;

2Ch 1:12 "wisdom and knowledge are granted to you; and I will give you riches and wealth and honour, such as none of the kings have had who have been before you, nor will any after you have the like."

2Ch 1:13 So Solomon came to Jerusalem from the high place that was at Gibeon, from before the tent of the appointed times, and reigned over Israel.

2Ch 1:14 And Solomon gathered chariots and horsemen; he had one thousand four hundred chariots and twelve thousand horsemen, whom he stationed in the chariot cities and with the king in Jerusalem.

2Ch 1:15 Also the king made silver and gold as common in Jerusalem as stones, and he made cedars as abundant as the sycamores which are in the lowland.

2Ch 1:16 And Solomon had horses imported from Egypt and Keveh; the king's merchants bought them in Keveh at the current price.

2Ch 1:17 They also acquired and imported from Egypt a chariot for six hundred shekels of silver, and a horse for one hundred and fifty; thus, through their agents, they exported them to all the kings of the Hittites and the kings of Syria.

2Ch 2:1 Then Solomon determined to build a house for the name of Jehovah, and a royal house for himself.

2Ch 2:2 Solomon selected seventy thousand men to bear burdens, eighty thousand to quarry stone in the mountains, and three thousand six hundred to oversee them.

2Ch 2:3 Then Solomon sent to Hiram king of Tyre, saying: As you have dealt with David my father, and sent him cedars to build himself a house to dwell in, so deal with me.

2Ch 2:4 Behold, I am building a house for the name of Jehovah my God, to dedicate it to Him, to burn before Him sweet incense, for the continual arrangement, for the burnt offerings morning and evening, on the Sabbaths, on the New Moons, and on the set feasts of Jehovah our God. This is to Israel forever.

2Ch 2:5 And the house which I build will be great, for our God is greater than all gods.

2Ch 2:6 But who is able to build Him a house, since heaven and the heaven of heavens cannot contain Him? Who am I then, that I should build Him a house, except to burn sacrifice before Him?

2Ch 2:7 Therefore send me at once a man skillful to work in gold and silver, in bronze and iron, in purple and crimson and blue, who has skill to engrave with the skillful men who are with me in Judah and Jerusalem, whom David my father provided.

2Ch 2:8 Also send me cedar and cypress and algum logs from Lebanon, for I know that your servants have skill to cut timber in Lebanon; and indeed my servants will be with your servants, 2Ch 2:9 to prepare timber for me in abundance, for the house which I am about to build will be great and wonderful.

2Ch 2:10 And indeed I will give to your servants, the hewers who cut timber, twenty thousand kors of ground wheat, twenty thousand kors of barley, twenty thousand baths of wine, and twenty thousand baths of oil.

2Ch 2:11 Then Hiram king of Tyre answered in writing, which he sent to Solomon: Because Jehovah loves His people, He has made you king over them.

2Ch 2:12 Hiram also said: Blessed be Jehovah God of Israel, who made heaven and earth, for He has given King David a wise son, endowed with prudence and understanding, who will build a house for Jehovah and a royal house for himself!

2Ch 2:13 And now I have sent a skillful man, endowed with understanding, Hiram my master craftsman, 2Ch 2:14 the son of a woman of the daughters of Dan, and his father was a man of Tyre, skilled to work in gold and silver, bronze and iron, stone and wood, purple and blue, fine linen and crimson, and to make any engraving and to accomplish any plan which may be given to him, with your skillful men and with the skillful men of my lord David your father.

2Ch 2:15 Now therefore, the wheat, the barley, the oil, and the wine which my lord has spoken of, let him send to his servants.

2Ch 2:16 And we will cut wood from Lebanon, as much as you need; we will bring it to you in rafts by sea to Joppa, and you will carry it up to Jerusalem.

2Ch 2:17 Then Solomon numbered all the immigrant men who were in the land of Israel, after the census in which David his father had numbered them; and there were found to be one hundred and fifty-three thousand six hundred.

2Ch 2:18 And he made seventy thousand of them bearers of burdens, eighty thousand hewers of stone in the mountain, and three thousand six hundred overseers to make the people work.

2Ch 3:1 Now Solomon began to build the House of Jehovah at Jerusalem on Mount Moriah, where the Lord had appeared to his father David, at the place that David had prepared on the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite.

2Ch 3:2 And he began to build on the second day of the second new moon in the fourth year of his reign.

2Ch 3:3 This is the foundation which Solomon laid for building the House of God: The length was sixty cubits (by cubits according to the former measure) and the width twenty cubits.

2Ch 3:4 And the porch that was in front of the sanctuary was twenty cubits long across the width of the house, and the height was one hundred and twenty. He overlaid the inside with pure gold.

2Ch 3:5 The larger room he panelled with cypress which he overlaid with fine gold, and he carved palm trees and chainwork on it.

2Ch 3:6 And he decorated the House with precious stones for beauty, and the gold was gold from Parvaim.

2Ch 3:7 He also overlaid the House; the beams and doorposts, its walls and doors; with gold; and he carved cherubim on the walls.

2Ch 3:8 And he made the House of the sanctified sanctuary. Its length was according to the width of the house, twenty cubits, and its width twenty cubits. He overlaid it with six hundred talents of fine gold.

2Ch 3:9 The weight of the nails was fifty shekels of gold; and he overlaid the upper area with gold.

2Ch 3:10 In the House of the sanctified sanctuary he made two cherubim, fashioned by carving, and overlaid them with gold.

2Ch 3:11 The wings of the cherubim were twenty cubits in overall length: one wing of the one cherub was five cubits, touching the wall of the room, and the other wing was five cubits, touching the wing of the other cherub;

2Ch 3:12 one wing of the other cherub was five cubits, touching the wall of the room, and the other wing also was five cubits, touching the wing of the other cherub.

2Ch 3:13 The wings of these cherubim spanned twenty cubits overall. They stood on their feet, and they faced inward.

2Ch 3:14 And he made the veil of blue and purple and crimson and fine linen, and wove cherubim into it.

2Ch 3:15 Also he made in front of the House two pillars thirty-five cubits high, and the capital that was on the top of each of them was five cubits.

2Ch 3:16 He made wreaths of chainwork, as in the Oracle, and put them on top of the pillars; and he made one hundred pomegranates, and put them on the wreaths of chainwork.

2Ch 3:17 Then he set up the pillars before the Palace, one on the right hand and the other on the left; he called the name of the one on the right hand Jachin, and the name of the one on the left Boaz.

2Ch 4:1 Moreover he made a bronze altar: twenty cubits was its length, twenty cubits its width, and ten cubits its height.

2Ch 4:2 Then he made the Sea of cast bronze, ten cubits from one brim to the other; it was completely round. Its height was five cubits, and a line of thirty cubits measured its circumference.¹

2Ch 4:3 And under it was the likeness of oxen encircling it all around, ten to a cubit, all the way around the Sea. The oxen were cast in two rows, when it was cast.

2Ch 4:4 It stood on twelve oxen: three looking toward the north, three looking toward the west, three looking toward the south, and three looking toward sunrise; the Sea was set upon them, and all their back parts were inward.

2Ch 4:5 It was a hand-breadth thick; and its brim was shaped like the brim of a cup, like a lily blossom. It contained three thousand baths.

2Ch 4:6 He also made ten lavers, and put five on the right side and five on the left, to wash in them; such things as they offered for the burnt offering they would wash in them, but the Sea was for the priests to wash in.¹

2Ch 4:7 And he made ten menorahs of gold according to their judgement, and set them in the Palace, five on the right side and five on the left.

2Ch 4:8 He also made ten tables, and placed them in the Palace, five on the right side and five on the left. And he made one hundred bowls of gold.

2Ch 4:9 Furthermore he made the court of the priests, and the great court and doors for the court; and he overlaid these doors with bronze.

2Ch 4:10 He set the Sea on the right side, to the southeast.

2Ch 4:11 Then Hiram made the pots and the shovels and the bowls. So Hiram finished doing the work that he was to do for King Solomon for the House of God:

2Ch 4:12 the two pillars and the bowl-shaped capitals that were on top of the two pillars; the two networks covering the two bowl-shaped capitals which were on top of the pillars;

2Ch 4:13 four hundred pomegranates for the two networks (two rows of pomegranates for each network, to cover the two bowl-shaped capitals that were on the pillars);

2Ch 4:14 he also made carts and the lavers on the carts;

2Ch 4:15 one Sea and twelve oxen under it;

2Ch 4:16 also the pots, the shovels, the forks; and all their articles Hiram his master craftsman made of burnished bronze for King Solomon for the House of Jehovah.

2Ch 4:17 In the plain of Jordan the king had them cast in clay moulds, between Succoth and Zeredah.

2Ch 4:18 And Solomon had all these articles made in such great abundance that the weight of the bronze was not determined.

2Ch 4:19 Thus Solomon had all the furnishings made for the House of God: the altar of gold and the tables on which was the presentation bread;

2Ch 4:20 the menorahs with their lamps of pure gold, to burn according to the judgement in front of the Oracle,

2Ch 4:21 with the flowers and the lamps and the wick-trimmers of gold, of purest gold;

2Ch 4:22 the trimmers, the bowls, the ladles, and the censers of pure gold. As for the entry to the House, its inner doors to the sanctified sanctuary, and the doors of the main House of the Palace, were of gold.

2Ch 5:1 So all the work that Solomon had done for the House of Jehovah was finished; and Solomon brought in all the sanctified things which his father David had sanctified: the silver and the gold and all the furnishings. And he put them in the treasuries of the House of God.

2Ch 5:2 Now Solomon assembled the elders of Israel and all the heads of the branches, the chief fathers of the children of Israel, in Jerusalem, that they might bring the ark of the covenant of Jehovah up from the City of David, which is Zion.

2Ch 5:3 Therefore all the men of Israel were assembled with the king at the feast, which was in the seventh new moon.

2Ch 5:4 So all the elders of Israel came, and the Levites took up the ark.

2Ch 5:5 Then they brought up the ark, the tent of the appointed times, and all the sanctified furnishings that were in the tent. The priests and the Levites brought them up.

2Ch 5:6 Also King Solomon, and all the congregation of Israel who were assembled with him before the ark, were sacrificing sheep and oxen that could not be counted or numbered for multitude.

2Ch 5:7 Then the priests brought in the ark of the covenant of Jehovah to its place, into the Oracle of the House, to the sanctified Sanctuary, under the wings of the cherubim.

¹ See Rev 21:1—There will no longer be a need for such a Sea for cleansing of the priests, as there will no longer be sin.

2Ch 5:8 For the cherubim spread their wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubim covered the top of the ark and its poles.

2Ch 5:9 And the poles extended so that the ends of the poles of the ark could be seen in front of the Oracle; but they could not be seen from outside. And they are there to this day.

2Ch 5:10 There was nothing in the ark except the two tablets which Moses put there in the Choreb desert,¹ when Jehovah made an agreement with the children of Israel, when they had come out of Egypt.

2Ch 5:11 And it came to pass when the priests came out of the sanctified sanctuary (for all the priests who were present had sanctified themselves, without keeping to their divisions),

2Ch 5:12 and the Levites who were the singers, all those of Asaph and Heman and Jeduthun, with their sons and their brethren, stood at the sunrise end of the altar, clothed in white linen, having cymbals, stringed instruments and harps, and with them one hundred and twenty priests sounding with trumpets;

2Ch 5:13 indeed it came to pass, when the trumpeters and singers were as one, to make one sound to be heard in praising and thanking Jehovah, and when they lifted up their voice with the trumpets and cymbals and instruments of music, and praised Jehovah, saying: "For He is good, for His mercy endures forever," that the house, the House of Jehovah, was filled with a cloud, 2Ch 5:14 so that the priests could not continue serving because of the cloud; for the glory of Jehovah filled the House of God.

2Ch 6:1 Then Solomon said: "Jehovah said He would dwell in the dark cloud.

2Ch 6:2 But I have built You an exalted house, and a place for You to dwell in forever."

2Ch 6:3 Then the king turned around and blessed the whole congregation of Israel, while all the congregation of Israel stood.

2Ch 6:4 And he said: "Blessed be Jehovah God of Israel, who has fulfilled with His hands what He spoke with His mouth to my father David, saying,

2Ch 6:5 'Since the day that I brought My people out of the land of Egypt, I have chosen no city from any branch of Israel in which to build a house, that My Name might be there, nor did I choose any man to be a ruler over My people Israel;

2Ch 6:6 'but I have chosen Jerusalem, that My Name may be there; and I have chosen David to be over My people Israel.'

2Ch 6:7 "Now it was in the heart of my father David to build a house for the name of Jehovah God of Israel.

2Ch 6:8 "But Jehovah said to my father David, 'Whereas it was in your heart to build a house for My Name, you did well in that it was in your heart.

2Ch 6:9 'Nevertheless you will not build the house, but your son who will come forth from your own loins, he will build the house for My Name.'

2Ch 6:10 "So Jehovah has fulfilled His word which He spoke, and I have filled the position of my father David, and sit on the throne of Israel, as Jehovah promised; and I have built the house for the name of Jehovah God of Israel.

2Ch 6:11 "And there I have put the ark, in which is the covenant of Jehovah which ¹ Compare with Heb 9:4, which says that there was also manna (Exo 16:33-34) and Aaron's branch (Num 17:1-11) in the Ark. Those passages state that they were placed before the Testimony, where they could be seen. It is quite possible that they were later placed inside the Ark for safe-keeping. Hebrew Choreb literally means desert.

He made with the children of Israel.”

2Ch 6:12 Then Solomon stood before the altar of Jehovah in the presence of all the congregation of Israel, and spread out his hands,

2Ch 6:13 for Solomon had made a bronze platform five cubits long, five cubits broad, and three cubits high, and had set it in the midst of the court; and he stood on it, knelt down on his knees before all the congregation of Israel, and spread out his hands toward heaven,

2Ch 6:14 and said: “Jehovah God of Israel, there is no God in heaven or on earth like You, who keep Your covenant and mercy with Your servants who walk before You with all their hearts.

2Ch 6:15 “You have kept what You promised Your servant David my father; You have both spoken with Your mouth and fulfilled it with Your hand, as it is this day.

2Ch 6:16 “Therefore, Jehovah God of Israel, now keep what You promised Your servant David my father, saying, ‘You will not fail to have a man sit before Me on the throne of Israel, if only your sons take heed to their way, to walk in My Instructions as you have walked before Me.’

2Ch 6:17 “Now then, O Jehovah God of Israel, let Your word come true, which You have spoken to Your servant David.

2Ch 6:18 “But will God indeed dwell with men on the earth? Behold, heaven and the heaven of heavens cannot contain You; how much less this house which I have built!

2Ch 6:19 “Yet regard the prayer of Your servant and his supplication, O Jehovah my God, and listen to the cry and to the prayer which Your servant is praying before You:

2Ch 6:20 “that Your eyes may be open toward this house day and night, toward the place where You said You would put Your Name, that You may hear the prayer which Your servant prays toward this place.

2Ch 6:21 “And may You hear the supplications of Your servant and of Your people Israel, when they pray toward this place; hear from Your dwelling place, in heaven; and when You hear, forgive.

2Ch 6:22 “If anyone sins against his neighbour, and is forced to take an oath, and comes and takes an oath before Your altar in this house, 2Ch 6:23 “then hear from heaven, and act, and judge Your servants, bringing retribution on the wicked by bringing his way on his own head, and justifying the righteous by giving him according to his righteousness.

2Ch 6:24 “Or if Your people Israel are defeated before an enemy because they have sinned against You, and return and confess Your Name, and pray and make supplication before You in this house, 2Ch 6:25 “then hear from heaven and forgive the sin of Your people Israel, and bring them back to the land which You gave to them and their fathers.

2Ch 6:26 “When heaven is shut up and there is no rain because they have sinned against You, when they pray toward this place and confess Your Name, and turn from their sin because You afflict them, 2Ch 6:27 “then hear in heaven, and forgive the sin of Your servants, Your people Israel, that You may teach them the good way in which they should walk; and send rain on Your land which You have given to Your people as an inheritance.

2Ch 6:28 “When there is famine in the land, pestilence or blight or mildew, locusts or grasshoppers; when their enemies besiege them in the land of their cities; whatever plague or whatever sickness there is;

2Ch 6:29 “whatever prayer, whatever supplication is made by anyone, or by all Your people Israel, when each one knows his own burden and his own grief, and spreads out his hands to this house:

2Ch 6:30 “then hear from heaven Your dwelling place, and forgive, and give to everyone according to all his ways, whose heart You know, for You alone know the hearts of the sons of men, 2Ch 6:31 “that they may fear You, to walk in Your ways as long as they live in the land which You gave to our fathers.

2Ch 6:32 “Moreover, concerning a foreigner, who is not of Your people Israel, but who comes from a far country for the sake of Your great name and Your mighty hand and Your outstretched arm, when they come and pray in this house;

2Ch 6:33 “then hear from heaven Your dwelling place, and do according to all for which the foreigner calls to You, that all people of the earth may know Your Name and fear You, as do Your people Israel, and that they may know that this house which I have built is called by Your Name.

2Ch 6:34 “When Your people go out to battle against their enemies, wherever You send them, and when they pray to You toward this city which You have chosen and toward the house which I have built for Your Name, 2Ch 6:35 “then hear from heaven their prayer and their supplication, and make their judgement.

2Ch 6:36 “When they sin against You, for there is no one who does not sin, and You become angry with them and deliver them to the enemy, and they take them captive to a land far or near,

2Ch 6:37 “yet when they come to themselves in the land where they were carried captive, and repent, and make supplication to You in the land of their captivity, saying, ‘We have sinned, we have done wrong, and have acted wickedly’;

2Ch 6:38 “and when they return to You with all their heart and with all their soul in the land of their captivity, where they have been carried captive, and pray toward their land which You gave to their fathers, toward the city which You have chosen, and toward the house which I have built for Your Name:

2Ch 6:39 “then hear from heaven Your dwelling place their prayer and their supplications, and make their judgement, and forgive Your people who have sinned against You.

2Ch 6:40 “Now, my God, I pray, let Your eyes be open and let Your ears be attentive to the prayer made in this place.

2Ch 6:41 “Now therefore, arise, O Jehovah God, to Your resting place, You and the ark of Your strength. Let Your priests, O Jehovah God, be clothed with salvation, and let Your saints rejoice in goodness.

2Ch 6:42 “O Jehovah God, do not turn away the face of Your anointed; remember the mercies of Your servant David.”

2Ch 7:1 Now when Solomon had finished praying, fire came down from heaven and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices; and the glory of Jehovah filled the house.

2Ch 7:2 And the priests could not enter the House of Jehovah, because the glory of Jehovah had filled Jehovah’s House.

2Ch 7:3 When all the children of Israel saw how the fire came down, and the glory of Jehovah on the house, they bowed their faces to the ground on the pavement, and worshipped and praised Jehovah, saying: “For He is good, for His mercy endures forever.”

2Ch 7:4 Then the king and all the people offered sacrifices before Jehovah.

2Ch 7:5 King Solomon offered a sacrifice of twenty-two thousand bulls and one hundred and twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the people dedicated the House of God.

2Ch 7:6 And the priests attended to their services; the Levites also with instruments of the music of Jehovah, which King David had made to praise Jehovah, saying,

“For His mercy endures forever,” whenever David offered praise by their service. The priests sounded trumpets opposite them, while all Israel stood.

2Ch 7:7 Furthermore Solomon consecrated the middle of the court that was in front of the House of Jehovah; for there he offered burnt offerings and the fat of the peace offerings, because the bronze altar which Solomon had made was not able to receive the burnt offerings, the grain offerings, and the fat.

2Ch 7:8 At that time Solomon kept the feast seven days, and all Israel with him, a very great congregation from the entrance of Hamath to the Brook of Egypt.

2Ch 7:9 And on the eighth day they held a sacred assembly, for they observed the dedication of the altar seven days, and the feast seven days.

2Ch 7:10 On the twenty-third day of the seventh new moon he sent the people away to their tents, joyful and glad of heart for the goodness that Jehovah had done for David, for Solomon, and for His people Israel.¹

2Ch 7:11 Thus Solomon finished the House of Jehovah and the king’s house; and Solomon successfully accomplished all that came into his heart to make in the House of Jehovah and in his own house.

2Ch 7:12 Then Jehovah appeared to Solomon by night, and said to him: “I have heard your prayer, and have chosen this place for Myself as a house of sacrifice.

2Ch 7:13 “When I shut up heaven and there is no rain, or command the locusts to devour the land, or send pestilence among My people, 2Ch 7:14 “if My people who are called by My Name will humble themselves, and pray and seek My face, and turn from their evil ways, then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin and heal their land.

2Ch 7:15 “Now My eyes will be open and My ears attentive to prayer made in this place.

2Ch 7:16 “For now I have chosen and sanctified this house, that My Name may be there forever; and My eyes and My heart will be there perpetually.

2Ch 7:17 “As for you, if you walk before Me as your father David walked, and do according to all that I have commanded you, and if you keep My statutes and My judgements, 2Ch 7:18 “then I will establish the throne of your kingdom, as I covenanted with David your father, saying, ‘You will never fail to have a man as ruler in Israel.’

2Ch 7:19 “But if you turn away and forsake My statutes and My commandments which I have set before you, and go and serve other gods, and worship them, 2Ch 7:20 “then I will uproot them from My land which I have given to them; and this house which I have sanctified for My Name I will cast out of My sight, and will make it to be a proverb and a byword among all nations.

2Ch 7:21 “And as for this house, which is exalted, everyone who passes by it will be astonished and say, ‘Why has Jehovah done thus to this land and this house?’

2Ch 7:22 “Then they will answer, ‘Because they forsook Jehovah God of their fathers, who brought them out of the land of Egypt, and embraced other gods, and worshipped them and served them; therefore He has brought all this evil on them.’”

2Ch 8:1 It came to pass at the end of twenty years, in which Solomon had built the House of Jehovah and his own house, 2Ch 8:2 that the cities which Hiram had given to Solomon, Solomon built them; and he settled the children of Israel there.

2Ch 8:3 And Solomon went to Hamath Zobah and seized it.

2Ch 8:4 He also built Tadmor in the wilderness, and all the storage cities which he built in Hamath.

2Ch 8:5 He built Upper Beth Horon and Lower Beth Horon, fortified cities with walls, gates, and bars, 2Ch 8:6 also Baalath and all the storage cities that Solomon had, and all the chariot cities and the cities of the cavalry, and all that Solomon desired to build in Jerusalem, in Lebanon, and throughout all the land of his dominion.

2Ch 8:7 All the people who were left of the Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites, who were not of Israel

2Ch 8:8 (that is, their descendants who were left in the land after them, whom the children of Israel did not destroy), from these Solomon raised forced labour, as it is to this day.

2Ch 8:9 But Solomon did not make the children of Israel servants for his work. Some were men of war, captains of his officers, captains of his chariots, and his cavalry.

2Ch 8:10 And others were two hundred and fifty chiefs of the officials of King Solomon, who ruled over the people.

2Ch 8:11 Now Solomon brought the daughter of Pharaoh up from the City of David to the house he had built for her, for he said, "My wife will not dwell in the house of David king of Israel, because the places to which the ark of Jehovah has come are sanctified."

2Ch 8:12 Then Solomon offered burnt offerings to Jehovah on the altar of Jehovah which he had built before the porch,

2Ch 8:13 according to the daily word, offering according to the commandment of Moses, for the Sabbaths, the New Moons, and the three appointed annual feasts; the Feast of Unleavened Bread, the Feast of Weeks, and the Feast of Booths.¹

2Ch 8:14 And, according to the judgement of David his father, he appointed the divisions of the priests for their service, the Levites for their duties—to praise and serve before the priests—as the duty of each day required, and the gatekeepers by their divisions at each gate; for such was the commandment of David the man of God.

2Ch 8:15 They did not depart from the commandment of the king to the priests and Levites concerning any matter or concerning the treasures.

2Ch 8:16 Now all the work of Solomon was well-ordered from the day of the foundation of the House of Jehovah until it was finished. So the House of Jehovah was completed.

2Ch 8:17 Then Solomon went to Ezion Geber and Elath on the seacoast, in the land of Edom.

2Ch 8:18 And Hiram sent him ships by the hand of his servants, and servants who knew the sea. They went with the servants of Solomon to Ophir, and acquired four hundred and fifty talents of gold from there, and brought it to King Solomon.

2Ch 9:1 Now when the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon, she came to Jerusalem to test Solomon with hard questions, having a very great retinue, camels that bore spices, gold in abundance, and precious stones; and when she came to Solomon, she spoke with him about all that was in her heart.

2Ch 9:2 So Solomon answered all her questions; there was nothing so difficult for Solomon that he could not explain it to her.

2Ch 9:3 And when the queen of Sheba had seen the wisdom of Solomon, the house that he had built,

2Ch 9:4 the food on his table, the seating of his servants, the service of his waiters and their apparel, his cupbearers and their apparel, and his entryway by which he went up to the House of Jehovah, there was no more spirit in her.

2Ch 9:5 Then she said to the king: "It was a true report which I heard in my own land about your words and your wisdom.

2Ch 9:6 "However I did not believe their words until I came and saw with my own eyes; and indeed, the half of the greatness of your wisdom was not told me. You exceed the fame of which I heard.

2Ch 9:7 "Happy are your men and happy are these your servants, who stand continually before you and hear your wisdom!

2Ch 9:8 "Blessed be Jehovah your God, who delighted in you, setting you on His throne to be king for Jehovah your God! Because your God has loved Israel, to establish them forever, therefore He made you king over them, to make judgements and do righteousness."

2Ch 9:9 Then she gave the king one hundred and twenty talents of gold, spices in great abundance, and precious stones; there never were any spices such as those the queen of Sheba gave to King Solomon.

2Ch 9:10 Also, the servants of Hiram and the servants of Solomon, who brought gold from Ophir, brought algum wood and precious stones.

2Ch 9:11 And the king made walkways of the algum wood for the House of Jehovah and for the king's house, also harps and stringed instruments for singers; and there were none such as these seen before in the land of Judah.

2Ch 9:12 Now King Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba all she desired, whatever she asked, much more than she had brought to the king. So she turned and went to her own country, she and her servants.

2Ch 9:13 The weight of gold that came to Solomon yearly was six hundred and sixty-six talents of gold,

2Ch 9:14 besides what the travelling merchants and traders brought. And all the kings of Arabia and governors of the country brought gold and silver to Solomon.

2Ch 9:15 And King Solomon made two hundred large shields of hammered gold; six hundred shekels of hammered gold went into each shield.

2Ch 9:16 He also made three hundred shields of hammered gold; three hundred shekels of gold went into each shield. The king put them in the House of the Forest of Lebanon.

2Ch 9:17 Moreover the king made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with pure gold.

2Ch 9:18 The throne had six steps, with a footstool of gold, which were fastened to the throne; there were armrests on either side of the place of the seat, and two lions stood beside the armrests.

2Ch 9:19 Twelve lions stood there, one on each side of the six steps; nothing like this had been made for any other kingdom.

2Ch 9:20 All King Solomon's drinking vessels were of gold, and all the vessels of the House of the Forest of Lebanon were of pure gold. Not one was of silver, for this was accounted as nothing in the days of Solomon.

2Ch 9:21 For the king's ships went to Tarshish with the servants of Hiram.¹ Once every three years the merchant ships came, bringing gold, silver, ivory, apes, and monkeys.

2Ch 9:22 So King Solomon surpassed all the kings of the earth in riches and wisdom.

2Ch 9:23 And all the kings of the earth sought the presence of Solomon to hear his wisdom, which God had put in his heart.

2Ch 9:24 Each man brought his present:

articles of silver and gold, garments, armour, spices, horses, and mules, at a set rate year by year.

2Ch 9:25 Solomon had four thousand stalls for horses and chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen whom he stationed in the chariot cities and with the king at Jerusalem.

2Ch 9:26 So he reigned over all the kings from the River to the land of the Philistines, as far as the border of Egypt.

2Ch 9:27 The king made silver as common in Jerusalem as stones, and he made cedar trees as abundant as the sycamores which are in the lowland.

2Ch 9:28 And they brought horses to Solomon from Egypt and from all lands.

2Ch 9:29 Now the rest of the acts of Solomon, first and last, are they not written in the book of Nathan the prophet, in the prophecy of Ahijah the Shilonite, and in the visions of Iddo the seer concerning Jeroboam the son of Nebat?

2Ch 9:30 Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel forty years.

2Ch 9:31 Then Solomon slept with his fathers, and was buried in the City of David his father. And Rehoboam his son reigned in his place.

2Ch 10:1 And Rehoboam went to Shechem, for all Israel had gone to Shechem to make him king.

2Ch 10:2 So it happened when Jeroboam the son of Nebat heard it, for he was in Egypt, where he had fled from the presence of Solomon the king, that Jeroboam returned from Egypt.

2Ch 10:3 Then they sent for him and called him. And Jeroboam and all Israel came and spoke to Rehoboam, saying,

2Ch 10:4 “Your father made our yoke heavy; now therefore, lighten the burdensome service of your father and his heavy yoke which he put on us, and we will serve you.”

2Ch 10:5 So he said to them, “Come back to me in three days.”¹ And the people departed.

2Ch 10:6 Then King Rehoboam consulted the elders who stood before his father Solomon while he still lived, saying, “How do you advise me to answer these people?”

2Ch 10:7 And they spoke to him, saying, “If you are kind to these people, and please them, and speak good words to them, they will be your servants forever.”

2Ch 10:8 But he rejected the counsel which the elders had given him, and consulted the young men who had grown up with him, who stood before him.

2Ch 10:9 And he said to them, “What advice do you give? How should we answer this people who have spoken to me, saying, ‘Lighten the yoke which your father put on us’?”

2Ch 10:10 Then the young men who had grown up with him spoke to him, saying, “Thus you should speak to the people who have spoken to you, saying, ‘Your father made our yoke heavy, but you make it lighter on us’; thus you will say to them: ‘My little finger will be thicker than my father’s waist!’

2Ch 10:11 ‘And now, whereas my father put a heavy yoke on you, I will add to your yoke; my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions!’”

2Ch 10:12 So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam on the third day, as the king had appointed, saying, “Come back to me the third day.”

2Ch 10:13 Then the king answered them

¹ The NKJV substitutes “in three days” with “after three days”. If you compare this phrase with Jehoshua (Joshua) 3:2, you will find that “after” in Jehoshua comes from the Hebrew qatseh קָטֵשׁ (Strongs 7097). Qatseh, and thus the word “after” does not exist in 2Ch 10:5. This passage does not support either the Thursday or Friday Impaling of Jeshua scenarios.

roughly. King Rehoboam rejected the counsel of the elders,

2Ch 10:14 and he spoke to them according to the counsel of the young men, saying, "My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add to it; my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions!"

2Ch 10:15 So the king did not listen to the people; for the turn of affairs was from God, that Jehovah might fulfil His word, which He had spoken by the hand of Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

2Ch 10:16 Now when all Israel saw that the king did not listen to them, the people answered the king, saying: "What portion have we in David? We have no inheritance in the son of Jesse. Every man to your tents, O Israel! Now see to your own house, O David!" So all Israel departed to their tents.

2Ch 10:17 But Rehoboam reigned over the children of Israel who dwelt in the cities of Judah.

2Ch 10:18 Then King Rehoboam sent Hadoram, who was in charge of revenue; but the children of Israel stoned him with stones, and he died. Therefore King Rehoboam mounted his chariot in haste to flee to Jerusalem.

2Ch 10:19 So Israel has been in rebellion against the house of David to this day.

2Ch 11:1 Now when Rehoboam came to Jerusalem, he assembled from the house of Judah and Benjamin one hundred and eighty thousand chosen men who were warriors, to fight against Israel, that he might restore the kingdom to Rehoboam.

2Ch 11:2 But Jehovah's word came to Shemaiah the man of God, saying, 2Ch 11:3 "Speak to Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all Israel in Judah and Benjamin, saying, 2Ch 11:4 'Thus says Jehovah: "You will not go up or fight against your brethren! Let every man return to his house, for this thing is from Me.'"" Therefore they obeyed the words of Jehovah, and turned back from attacking Jeroboam.

2Ch 11:5 So Rehoboam dwelt in Jerusalem, and built cities for defence in Judah.

2Ch 11:6 And he built Bethlehem, Etam, Tekoa,

2Ch 11:7 Beth Zur, Sochoh, Adullam,

2Ch 11:8 Gath, Mareshah, Ziph,

2Ch 11:9 Adoraim, Lachish, Azekah,

2Ch 11:10 Zorah, Aijalon, and Hebron, which are in Judah and Benjamin, fortified cities.

2Ch 11:11 And he fortified the strongholds, and put captains in them, and stores of food, oil, and wine.

2Ch 11:12 Also in every city he put shields and spears, and made them very strong, having Judah and Benjamin on his side.

2Ch 11:13 And from all their territories the priests and the Levites who were in all Israel took their stand with him.

2Ch 11:14 For the Levites left their common-lands and their possessions and came to Judah and Jerusalem, for Jeroboam and his sons had rejected them from serving as priests to Jehovah.

2Ch 11:15 Then he appointed for himself priests for the high places, for the goat and calf idols which he had made.

2Ch 11:16 And after the Levites left, those from all the branches of Israel, such as set their heart to seek Jehovah God of Israel, came to Jerusalem to sacrifice to Jehovah God of their fathers.

2Ch 11:17 So they strengthened the kingdom of Judah, and made Rehoboam the son of Solomon strong for three years, because they walked in the way of David and Solomon for three years.

2Ch 11:18 Then Rehoboam took for himself as wife Mahalath the daughter of Jerimoth the son of David, and of Abihail the daughter of Eliah the son of Jesse.

2Ch 11:19 And she bore him children:

Jeush, Shamariah, and Zaham.

2Ch 11:20 After her he took Maacah the granddaughter of Absalom; and she bore him Abijah, Attai, Ziza, and Shelomith.

2Ch 11:21 Now Rehoboam loved Maacah the granddaughter of Absalom more than all his wives and his concubines; for he took eighteen wives and sixty concubines, and begot twenty-eight sons and sixty daughters.

2Ch 11:22 And Rehoboam appointed Abijah the son of Maacah as chief, to be leader among his brothers; for he intended to make him king.

2Ch 11:23 He dealt wisely, and dispersed some of his sons throughout all the territories of Judah and Benjamin, to every fortified city; and he gave them provisions in abundance. He also sought many wives for them.

2Ch 12:1 Now it came to pass, when Rehoboam had established the kingdom and had strengthened himself, that he departed from the Instructions of Jehovah, and all Israel along with him.

2Ch 12:2 And it happened, in the fifth year of King Rehoboam, that Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, because they had transgressed against Jehovah, 2Ch 12:3 with twelve hundred chariots, sixty thousand horsemen, and people without number who came with him out of Egypt; the Lubim and the Sukkiim and the Cushites.

2Ch 12:4 And he took the fortified cities of Judah and came to Jerusalem.

2Ch 12:5 Then Shemaiah the prophet came to Rehoboam and the leaders of Judah, who were gathered together in Jerusalem because of Shishak, and said to them, "Thus says Jehovah: 'You have forsaken Me, and therefore I also have left you in the hand of Shishak.'"

2Ch 12:6 So the leaders of Israel and the king humbled themselves; and they said, "Jehovah is righteous."

2Ch 12:7 Now when Jehovah saw that they humbled themselves, Jehovah's word came to Shemaiah, saying, "They have humbled themselves; therefore I will not destroy them, but I will grant them some deliverance. My wrath will not be poured out on Jerusalem by the hand of Shishak.

2Ch 12:8 "Nevertheless they will be his servants, that they may distinguish My service from the service of the kingdoms of the nations."

2Ch 12:9 So Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, and took away the treasures of the House of Jehovah and the treasures of the king's house; he took everything. He also carried away the gold shields which Solomon had made.

2Ch 12:10 In their place King Rehoboam made bronze shields and committed them to the hands of the captains of the guard, who guarded the entrance of the king's house.

2Ch 12:11 And whenever the king entered the House of Jehovah, the guard would go and bring them out; then they would take them back into the guardroom.

2Ch 12:12 When he humbled himself, the wrath of Jehovah turned from him, so as not to destroy him completely; and things also went well in Judah.

2Ch 12:13 So King Rehoboam strengthened himself in Jerusalem and reigned. Now Rehoboam was forty-one years old when he became king; and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which Jehovah had chosen out of all the branches of Israel, to put His Name there. His mother's name was Naamah, an Ammonitess.

2Ch 12:14 And he did evil, because he did not prepare his heart to seek Jehovah.

2Ch 12:15 The acts of Rehoboam, first and last, are they not written in the book of Shemaiah the prophet, and of Iddo the seer concerning genealogies? And there were wars between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all their days.

2Ch 12:16 So Rehoboam slept with his fathers, and was buried in the City of David. Then Abijah his son reigned in his place.

2Ch 13:1 In the eighteenth year of King Jeroboam, Abijah became king over Judah.

2Ch 13:2 He reigned three years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Michaiah the daughter of Uriel of Gibeah. And there was war between Abijah and Jeroboam.

2Ch 13:3 Abijah set the battle in order with an army of valiant warriors, four hundred thousand choice men. Jeroboam also drew up in battle formation against him with eight hundred thousand choice men, mighty men of valour.

2Ch 13:4 Then Abijah stood on Mount Zemaraim, which is in the mountains of Ephraim, and said, "Hear me, Jeroboam and all Israel:

2Ch 13:5 "Should you not know that Jehovah God of Israel gave the dominion over Israel to David forever, to him and his sons, by a covenant of salt?

2Ch 13:6 "Yet Jeroboam the son of Nebat, the servant of Solomon the son of David, rose up and rebelled against his lord.

2Ch 13:7 "Then worthless rogues gathered to him, and strengthened themselves against Rehoboam the son of Solomon, when Rehoboam was young and inexperienced and could not withstand them.

2Ch 13:8 "And now you think to withstand the kingdom of Jehovah, which is in the hand of the sons of David; and you are a great multitude, and with you are the gold calves which Jeroboam made for you as gods.

2Ch 13:9 "Have you not cast out the priests of Jehovah, the sons of Aaron, and the Levites, and made for yourselves priests, like the peoples of other lands, so that whoever comes to consecrate himself with a young bull and seven rams may be a priest of things that are not gods?

2Ch 13:10 "But as for us, Jehovah is our God, and we have not forsaken Him; and the priests who serve Jehovah are the sons of Aaron, and the Levites attend to their duties.

2Ch 13:11 "And they burn to Jehovah every morning and every evening burnt sacrifices and sweet incense; they also set the arranged bread in order on the pure table, and the menorah of gold with its lamps to burn every evening; for we keep the command of Jehovah our God, but you have forsaken Him.

2Ch 13:12 "Now look, God Himself is with us as our head, and His priests with shouting trumpets to cry out against you. O children of Israel, do not fight against Jehovah God of your fathers, for you will not prosper!"

2Ch 13:13 But Jeroboam caused an ambush to go around behind them; so they were in front of Judah, and the ambush was behind them.

2Ch 13:14 And when Judah looked around, to their surprise the battle line was at both front and rear; and they cried out to Jehovah, and the priests sounded the trumpets.

2Ch 13:15 Then the men of Judah gave a shout; and as the men of Judah shouted, it happened that God struck Jeroboam and all Israel before Abijah and Judah.

2Ch 13:16 And the children of Israel fled before Judah, and God delivered them into their hand.

2Ch 13:17 Then Abijah and his people struck them with a great slaughter; so five hundred thousand choice men of Israel fell slain.

2Ch 13:18 Thus the children of Israel were subdued at that time; and the children of Judah prevailed, because they relied on Jehovah, God of their fathers.

2Ch 13:19 And Abijah pursued Jeroboam and took cities from him: Bethel with its villages, Jeshanah with its villages, and Ephraim with its villages.

2Ch 13:20 So Jeroboam did not recover strength again in the days of Abijah; and Jehovah struck him, and he died.

2Ch 13:21 But Abijah grew mighty, married fourteen wives, and begot twenty-two sons and sixteen daughters.

2Ch 13:22 Now the rest of the acts of Abijah, his ways, and his sayings are written in the annals of the prophet Iddo.

2Ch 14:1 So Abijah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the City of David. Then Asa his son reigned in his place. In his days the land was quiet for ten years.

2Ch 14:2 Asa did what was good and right in the eyes of Jehovah his God, 2Ch 14:3 for he removed the altars of the foreign gods and the high places, and broke down the pillars and cut down the groves.

2Ch 14:4 He commanded Judah to seek Jehovah God of their fathers, and to observe the Instructions and the commandments.

2Ch 14:5 He also removed the high places and the altars from all the cities of Judah, and the kingdom was quiet under him.

2Ch 14:6 And he built fortified cities in Judah, for the land had rest; he had no war in those years, because Jehovah had given him rest.

2Ch 14:7 Therefore he said to Judah, "Let us build these cities and make walls around them, and towers, gates, and bars, while the land is yet before us, because we have sought Jehovah our God; we have sought Him, and He has given us rest on every side." So they built and prospered.

2Ch 14:8 And Asa had an army of three hundred thousand men from Judah who carried shields and spears, and from Benjamin two hundred and eighty thousand men who carried shields and drew bows; all these were mighty men of valour.

2Ch 14:9 Then Zerah the Cushite came out against them with an army of a million men and three hundred chariots, and he came to Mareshah.

2Ch 14:10 So Asa went out against him, and they set the troops in battle array in the Valley of Zephathah at Mareshah.

2Ch 14:11 And Asa cried out to Jehovah his God, and said, "Jehovah, it is nothing for You to help, whether with many or with those who have no power; help us, O Jehovah our God, for we rest on You, and in Your Name we go against this multitude. O Jehovah, You are our God; do not let man prevail against You!"

2Ch 14:12 So Jehovah struck the Cushites before Asa and Judah, and the Cushites fled.

2Ch 14:13 And Asa and the people who were with him pursued them to Gerar. So the Cushites were overthrown, and they could not recover, for they were broken before Jehovah and His army. And they carried away very much spoil.

2Ch 14:14 Then they defeated all the cities around Gerar, for the fear of Jehovah came upon them; and they plundered all the cities, for there was exceedingly much spoil in them.

2Ch 14:15 They also attacked the livestock tents, and carried off sheep and camels in abundance, and returned to Jerusalem.

2Ch 15:1 Now the Spirit of God came upon Azariah the son of Oded.

2Ch 15:2 And he went out to meet Asa, and said to him: "Hear me, Asa, and all Judah and Benjamin. Jehovah is with you while you are with Him. If you seek Him, He will be found by you; but if you forsake Him, He will forsake you.

2Ch 15:3 "For a long time Israel has been without the true God, without a teaching priest, and without Instructions; 2Ch 15:4 "but when in their trouble they turned to Jehovah God of Israel, and sought Him, He was found by them.

2Ch 15:5 “And in those times there was no peace to the one who went out, nor to the one who came in, but great turmoil was on all the inhabitants of the lands.

2Ch 15:6 “So nation was destroyed by nation, and city by city, for God troubled them with every adversity.

2Ch 15:7 “But you, be strong and do not let your hands be weak, for your work will be rewarded!”

2Ch 15:8 And when Asa heard these words and the prophecy of Oded the prophet, he took courage, and removed the abominable idols from all the land of Judah and Benjamin and from the cities which he had taken in the mountains of Ephraim; and he restored the altar of Jehovah that was before the porch of Jehovah.

2Ch 15:9 Then he gathered all Judah and Benjamin, and those who sojourned with them from Ephraim, Manasseh, and Simeon, for they came over to him in great numbers from Israel when they saw that Jehovah his God was with him.

2Ch 15:10 So they gathered together at Jerusalem in the third new moon, in the fifteenth year of the reign of Asa.

2Ch 15:11 And they offered to Jehovah at that time seven hundred bulls and seven thousand sheep from the spoil which they had brought.

2Ch 15:12 Then they entered into a covenant to seek Jehovah God of their fathers with all their heart and with all their soul;

2Ch 15:13 and whoever would not seek Jehovah God of Israel was to be put to death, whether small or great, whether man or woman.

2Ch 15:14 Then they took an oath before Jehovah with a loud voice, with shouting and trumpets and shopphars.

2Ch 15:15 And all Judah rejoiced at the oath, for they had sworn with all their heart and sought Him with all their soul; and He was found by them, and Jehovah gave them rest all around.

2Ch 15:16 Also he removed Maacah, the mother of Asa the king, from being queen mother, because she had made an obscene image of Asherah; and Asa cut down her obscene image, crushed it, and burned it by the Kidron Brook.

2Ch 15:17 But the high places were not removed from Israel. Nevertheless the heart of Asa was loyal all his days.

2Ch 15:18 He also brought into the House of God the things that his father had sanctified and that he himself had sanctified: silver and gold and utensils.

2Ch 15:19 And there was no more war until the thirty-fifth year of the reign of Asa.

2Ch 16:1 In the thirty-sixth year of the reign of Asa, Baasha king of Israel came up against Judah and built Ramah, that he might let none go out or come in to Asa king of Judah.

2Ch 16:2 Then Asa brought silver and gold from the treasuries of the House of Jehovah and of the king's house, and sent to Ben-Hadad king of Syria, who dwelt in Damascus, saying,

2Ch 16:3 “Let there be a covenant between you and me, as there was between my father and your father. Here, I have sent you silver and gold; come, break your covenant with Baasha king of Israel, so that he will withdraw from me.”

2Ch 16:4 So Ben-Hadad heeded King Asa, and sent the captains of his armies against the cities of Israel. They attacked Ijon, Dan, Abel Maim, and all the storage cities of Naphtali.

2Ch 16:5 Now it happened, when Baasha heard it, that he stopped building Ramah and ceased his work.

2Ch 16:6 Then King Asa took all Judah, and they carried away the stones and timber of Ramah, which Baasha had used for building; and with them he built Geba and Mizpah.

2Ch 16:7 And at that time Hanani the seer came to Asa king of Judah, and said to him: "Because you have relied on the king of Syria, and have not relied on Jehovah your God, therefore the army of the king of Syria has escaped from your hand.

2Ch 16:8 "Were the Cushites and the Lubim not a huge army with very many chariots and horsemen? Yet, because you relied on Jehovah, He delivered them into your hand.

2Ch 16:9 "For the eyes of Jehovah run to and fro throughout the whole earth, to show Himself strong on behalf of those whose heart is loyal to Him. In this you have done foolishly; therefore from now on you will have wars."

2Ch 16:10 Then Asa was angry with the seer, and put him in prison, for he was enraged at him because of this. And Asa oppressed some of the people at that time.

2Ch 16:11 Note that the acts of Asa, first and last, are indeed written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.

2Ch 16:12 And in the thirty-ninth year of his reign, Asa became diseased in his feet, and his malady was very severe; yet in his disease he did not seek Jehovah, but the physicians.

2Ch 16:13 So Asa rested with his fathers; he died in the forty-first year of his reign.

2Ch 16:14 They buried him in his own tomb, which he had made for himself in the City of David; and they laid him in the bed which was filled with spices and various ingredients prepared into ointments. They made a very great burning for him.

2Ch 17:1 Then Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his place, and strengthened himself against Israel.

2Ch 17:2 And he placed troops in all the fortified cities of Judah, and set garrisons in the land of Judah and in the cities of Ephraim which Asa his father had taken.

2Ch 17:3 Now Jehovah was with Jehoshaphat, because he walked in the first ways of his father David; he did not seek the LORD,¹

2Ch 17:4 but sought the God of his father, and walked in His commandments and not according to the acts of Israel.

2Ch 17:5 Therefore Jehovah established the kingdom in his hand; and all Judah gave presents to Jehoshaphat, and he had riches and honour in abundance.

2Ch 17:6 And his heart took delight in the ways of Jehovah; moreover he removed the high places and groves from Judah.

2Ch 17:7 Also in the third year of his reign he sent his leaders, Ben-Hail, Obadiah, Zechariah, Nethaneel, and Michaiah, to teach in the cities of Judah.

2Ch 17:8 And with them he sent Levites: Shemaiah, Nethaniah, Zebadiah, Asahel, Shemiramoth, Jehonathan, Adonijah, Tobijah, and Tobadonijah; the Levites; and with them Elishama and Jehoram, the priests.

2Ch 17:9 So they taught in Judah, and had the Book of the Instructions of Jehovah with them; they went throughout all the cities of Judah and taught the people.

2Ch 17:10 And the fear of Jehovah fell on all the kingdoms of the lands that were around Judah, so that they did not make war against Jehoshaphat.

2Ch 17:11 Also some of the Philistines brought Jehoshaphat presents and silver as tribute; and the Arabians brought him flocks, seven thousand seven hundred rams and seven thousand seven hundred male goats.

2Ch 17:12 So Jehoshaphat became increasingly powerful, and he built fortresses and storage cities in Judah.

2Ch 17:13 He had much property in the cities of Judah; and the men of war, mighty men of valour, were in Jerusalem.

2Ch 17:14 These are their numbers, according to their fathers' houses. Of Judah, the captains of thousands: Adnah the captain, and with him three hundred thousand mighty men of valour;

¹ Hebrew is Baal, meaning the LORD, a pagan god.

2Ch 17:15 and next to him was Jehohanan the captain, and with him two hundred and eighty thousand;

2Ch 17:16 and next to him was Amasiah the son of Zichri, who willingly offered himself to Jehovah, and with him two hundred thousand mighty men of valour.

2Ch 17:17 Of Benjamin: Eliada a mighty man of valour, and with him two hundred thousand men armed with bow and shield;

2Ch 17:18 and next to him was Jehozabad, and with him one hundred and eighty thousand prepared for war.

2Ch 17:19 These served the king, besides those whom the king put in the fortified cities throughout all Judah.

2Ch 18:1 Jehoshaphat had riches and honour in abundance; and by marriage he allied himself with Ahab.

2Ch 18:2 After some years he went down to visit Ahab in Samaria; and Ahab killed sheep and oxen in abundance for him and the people who were with him, and persuaded him to go up with him to Ramoth Gilead.

2Ch 18:3 So Ahab king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat king of Judah, "Will you go with me against Ramoth Gilead?" And he answered him, "I am as you are, and my people as your people; we will be with you in the war."

2Ch 18:4 And Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, "Please inquire for the word of Jehovah today."

2Ch 18:5 Then the king of Israel gathered the prophets together, four hundred men, and said to them, "Shall we go to war against Ramoth Gilead, or will I refrain?" And they said, "Go up, for God will deliver it into the king's hand."

2Ch 18:6 But Jehoshaphat said, "Is there not still a prophet of Jehovah here, that we may inquire of Him?"

2Ch 18:7 So the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "There is still one man by whom we may inquire of Jehovah; but I hate him, because he never prophesies good concerning me, but always evil. He is Micaiah the son of Imla." And Jehoshaphat said, "Do not let the king say such things!"

2Ch 18:8 Then the king of Israel called one of his officers and said, "Bring Micaiah the son of Imla quickly!"

2Ch 18:9 And the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah, clothed in their robes, sat each on his throne; and they sat at a threshing floor at the entrance of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets prophesied before them.

2Ch 18:10 Now Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah had made horns of iron for himself; and he said, "Thus says Jehovah: 'With these you will gore the Syrians until they are destroyed.'"

2Ch 18:11 And all the prophets prophesied so, saying, "Go up to Ramoth Gilead and prosper, for Jehovah will deliver it into the king's hand."

2Ch 18:12 Then the envoy who had gone to call Micaiah spoke to him, saying, "Now listen, the words of the prophets with one mouth encourage the king. Therefore please let your word be like one of them, and speak encouragement."

2Ch 18:13 And Micaiah said, "As Jehovah lives, whatever my God says, that I will speak."

2Ch 18:14 Then he came to the king; and the king said to him, "Micaiah, will we go to war against Ramoth Gilead, or will I refrain?" And he said, "Go and prosper, and they will be delivered into your hand!"

2Ch 18:15 So the king said to him, "How many times will I make you swear that you tell me nothing but the truth in the name of Jehovah?"

2Ch 18:16 Then he said, "I saw all Israel scattered on the mountains, as sheep that have no shepherd. And Jehovah said, 'These have no lord. Let each return to his house in peace.”

2Ch 18:17 And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “Did I not tell you that he would not prophesy good concerning me, but evil?”

2Ch 18:18 Then Micaiah said, “Therefore hear the word of Jehovah: I saw Jehovah sitting on His throne, and all the host of heaven standing on His right hand and on His left.

2Ch 18:19 “And Jehovah said, ‘Who will persuade Ahab king of Israel to go up, that he may fall at Ramoth Gilead?’ And one spoke in this manner, and another spoke in that manner.

2Ch 18:20 “Then a spirit came forward and stood before Jehovah, and said, ‘I will persuade him.’ Jehovah said to him, ‘In what way?’

2Ch 18:21 “So he said, ‘I will go out and be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets.’ And the Lord said, ‘You will persuade him and also prevail; go out and do so.’

2Ch 18:22 “Now therefore, look! Jehovah has put a lying spirit in the mouth of these prophets of yours, and Jehovah has declared evil against you.”

2Ch 18:23 Then Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah went near and struck Micaiah on the cheek, and said, “Which way did the spirit from Jehovah go from me to speak to you?”

2Ch 18:24 And Micaiah said, “Indeed you will see on that day when you go into an inner chamber to hide!”

2Ch 18:25 Then the king of Israel said, “Take Micaiah, and return him to Amon the governor of the city and to Joash the king’s son;

2Ch 18:26 “and say, ‘Thus says the king: “Put this fellow in prison, and feed him with bread of affliction and water of affliction until I return in peace.”’”

2Ch 18:27 Then Micaiah said, “If you ever return in peace, Jehovah has not spoken by me.” And he said, “Take heed, all you people!”

2Ch 18:28 So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went up to Ramoth Gilead.

2Ch 18:29 And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “I will disguise myself and go into battle; but you put on your robes.” So the king of Israel disguised himself, and they went into battle.

2Ch 18:30 Now the king of Syria had commanded the captains of the chariots who were with him, saying, “Fight with no one small or great, but only with the king of Israel.”

2Ch 18:31 So it was, when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, that they said, “It is the king of Israel!” Therefore they surrounded him to attack; but Jehoshaphat cried out, and Jehovah helped him, and God moved them to turn away from him.

2Ch 18:32 For so it was, when the captains of the chariots saw that it was not the king of Israel, that they turned back from pursuing him.

2Ch 18:33 Now a certain man drew a bow at random, and struck the king of Israel between the joints of his armour. So he said to the driver of his chariot, “Turn around and take me out of the battle, for I am wounded.”

2Ch 18:34 The battle increased that day, and the king of Israel propped himself up in his chariot facing the Syrians until evening; and while the sun was setting he died.

2Ch 19:1 Then Jehoshaphat the king of Judah returned safely to his house in Jerusalem.

2Ch 19:2 And Jehu the son of Hanani the seer went out to meet him, and said to King Jehoshaphat, “Should you help the wicked and love those who hate Jehovah? Therefore the wrath of Jehovah is upon you.

2Ch 19:3 “Nevertheless good things are found in you, in that you have removed the groves from the land, and have prepared your heart to seek God.”

2Ch 19:4 So Jehoshaphat dwelt at Jerusalem; and he went out again among the people from Beersheba to the mountains of Ephraim, and brought them back to Jehovah God of their fathers.

2Ch 19:5 Then he set judges in the land throughout all the fortified cities of Judah, city by city, 2Ch 19:6 and said to the judges, “Take heed to what you are doing, for you do not judge for man but for Jehovah, who is with you in the judgement.

2Ch 19:7 “Now therefore, let the fear of Jehovah be upon you; take care and do it, for there is no iniquity with Jehovah our God, no favouritism, nor taking of bribes.”

2Ch 19:8 Moreover in Jerusalem, for the judgement of Jehovah and for controversies, Jehoshaphat appointed some of the Levites and priests, and some of the chief fathers of Israel, when they returned to Jerusalem.

2Ch 19:9 And he commanded them, saying, “Thus you will act in the fear of Jehovah, faithfully and with a loyal heart:

2Ch 19:10 “Whatever case comes to you from your brethren who dwell in their cities, whether of bloodshed or offences against Instructions or commandments, against statutes or judgements, you will warn them, lest they trespass against Jehovah and wrath come upon you and your brethren. Do this, and you will not be guilty.

2Ch 19:11 “And take notice: Amariah the chief priest is over you in all matters of Jehovah; and Zebadiah the son of Ishmael, the ruler of the house of Judah, for all the king’s matters; also the Levites will be officials before you. Behave courageously, and Jehovah will be with the good.”

2Ch 20:1 It happened after this that the people of Moab with the people of Ammon, and others with them besides the Ammonites, came to battle against Jehoshaphat.

2Ch 20:2 Then some came and told Jehoshaphat, saying, “A great multitude is coming against you from beyond the sea, from Syria; and they are in Hazazon Tamar” (which is En Gedi).

2Ch 20:3 And Jehoshaphat feared, and set himself to seek Jehovah, and proclaimed a fast throughout all Judah.

2Ch 20:4 So Judah gathered together to ask help from Jehovah; and from all the cities of Judah they came to seek Jehovah.

2Ch 20:5 Then Jehoshaphat stood in the congregation of Judah and Jerusalem, in the House of Jehovah, before the new court, 2Ch 20:6 and said: “O Jehovah God of our fathers, are You not God in heaven, and do You not rule over all the kingdoms of the nations, and in Your hand is there not power and might, so that no one is able to withstand You?

2Ch 20:7 “Are You not our God, who drove out the inhabitants of this land before Your people Israel, and gave it to the descendants of Abraham Your friend forever?

2Ch 20:8 “And they dwell in it, and have built You a sanctuary in it for Your Name, saying,

2Ch 20:9 ‘If evil comes upon us, such as the sword, judgement, pestilence, or famine, we will stand before this house and in Your presence, for Your Name is in this house, and cry out to You in our trouble, and You will hear and save.’

2Ch 20:10 “And now, here are the people of Ammon, Moab, and Mount Seir; whom You would not let Israel invade when they came out of the land of Egypt, but they turned from them and did not destroy them; 2Ch 20:11 “here they are, rewarding us by coming to throw us out of Your possession which You have given us to inherit.

2Ch 20:12 “O our God, will You not judge them? For we have no power against this great multitude that is coming against us; nor do we know what to do, but our eyes are upon You.”

2Ch 20:13 Now all Judah, with their little ones, their wives, and their children, stood before Jehovah.

2Ch 20:14 Then Jehovah’s Spirit came upon Jahaziel the son of Zechariah, the son of Benaiah, the son of Jeiel, the son of Mattaniah, a Levite of the sons of Asaph, in the midst of the congregation;

2Ch 20:15 and he said, “Listen, all you of Judah and you inhabitants of Jerusalem, and you, King Jehoshaphat! Thus says Jehovah to you: ‘Do not be afraid nor dismayed because of this great multitude, for the battle is not yours, but God’s.

2Ch 20:16 ‘Tomorrow go down against them. They will surely come up by the ascent of Ziz, and you will find them at the end of the brook before the Wilderness of Jeruel.

2Ch 20:17 ‘You will not need to fight in this battle. Position yourselves, stand still and see the salvation of Jehovah, who is with you, O Judah and Jerusalem!’ Do not fear or be dismayed; tomorrow go out against them, for Jehovah is with you.”

2Ch 20:18 And Jehoshaphat bowed his head with his face to the ground, and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem bowed before Jehovah, worshipping Jehovah.

2Ch 20:19 Then the Levites of the children of the Kohathites and of the children of the Korahites stood up to praise Jehovah God of Israel with voices loud and high.

2Ch 20:20 And they rose early in the morning and went out into the Wilderness of Tekoa; and as they went out, Jehoshaphat stood and said, “Hear me, O Judah and you inhabitants of Jerusalem: Believe in Jehovah your God, and you will be established; believe His prophets, and you will prosper.”

2Ch 20:21 And when he had consulted with the people, he appointed those who should sing to Jehovah, and who should praise the sanctified beauty as they went out before the army and were saying: “Praise Jehovah, for His mercy endures forever.”

2Ch 20:22 Now when they began to sing and to praise, Jehovah set ambushes against the people of Ammon, Moab, and Mount Seir, who had come against Judah; and they were defeated.

2Ch 20:23 For the people of Ammon and Moab stood up against the inhabitants of Mount Seir to utterly kill and destroy them. And when they had made an end of the inhabitants of Seir, they helped to destroy one another.

2Ch 20:24 So when Judah came to a place overlooking the wilderness, they looked toward the multitude; and there were their corpses, fallen on the earth. No one had escaped.

2Ch 20:25 When Jehoshaphat and his people came to take away their spoil, they found among them an abundance of valuables on the corpses, and precious jewellery, which they stripped off for themselves, more than they could carry away; and they were three days gathering the spoil because there was so much.

2Ch 20:26 And on the fourth day they assembled in the Valley of Berachah,¹ for there they blessed Jehovah; therefore the name of that place was called The Valley of Berachah until this day.

2Ch 20:27 Then they returned, every man of Judah and Jerusalem, with Jehoshaphat in front of them, to go back to Jerusalem with joy, for Jehovah had made them rejoice over their enemies.

2Ch 20:28 So they came to Jerusalem, with stringed instruments and harps and trumpets, to the House of Jehovah.

2Ch 20:29 And the fear of God was on all the kingdoms of those countries when they heard that Jehovah had fought against the enemies of Israel.

2Ch 20:30 Then the realm of Jehoshaphat was quiet, for his God gave him rest all around.

2Ch 20:31 So Jehoshaphat was king over Judah. He was thirty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned twenty-five years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi.

2Ch 20:32 And he walked in the way of his father Asa, and did not turn aside from it, doing what was right in the sight of Jehovah.

2Ch 20:33 Nevertheless the high places were not taken away, for as yet the people had not directed their hearts to the God of their fathers.

2Ch 20:34 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, first and last, indeed they are written in the book of Jehu the son of Hanani, which is mentioned in the book of the kings of Israel.

2Ch 20:35 After this Jehoshaphat king of Judah allied himself with Ahaziah king of Israel, who acted very wickedly.

2Ch 20:36 And he allied himself with him to make ships to go to Tarshish, and they made the ships in Ezion Geber.

2Ch 20:37 But Eliezer the son of Dodavah of Mareshah prophesied against Jehoshaphat, saying, "Because you have allied yourself with Ahaziah, Jehovah has destroyed your works." Then the ships were wrecked, so that they were not able to go to Tarshish.

2Ch 21:1 And Jehoshaphat slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the City of David. Then Jehoram his son reigned in his place.

2Ch 21:2 He had brothers, the sons of Jehoshaphat: Azariah, Jehiel, Zechariah, Azaryahu, Michael, and Shephatiah; all these were the sons of Jehoshaphat king of Israel.

2Ch 21:3 Their father gave them great gifts of silver and gold and precious things, with fortified cities in Judah; but he gave the kingdom to Jehoram, because he was the firstborn.

2Ch 21:4 Now when Jehoram was established over the kingdom of his father, he strengthened himself and killed all his brothers with the sword, and also others of the princes of Israel.

2Ch 21:5 Jehoram was thirty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem.

2Ch 21:6 And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, just as the house of Ahab had done, for he had the daughter of Ahab as a wife; and he did evil in the sight of Jehovah.

2Ch 21:7 Yet Jehovah would not destroy the house of David, because of the covenant that He had made with David, and since He had promised to give a lamp to him and to his sons forever.

2Ch 21:8 In his days the Edomites revolted against Judah's authority, and made a king over themselves.

2Ch 21:9 So Jehoram went out with his officers, and all his chariots with him. And he rose by night and attacked the Edomites who had surrounded him and the captains of the chariots.

2Ch 21:10 Thus the Edomites have been in revolt against Judah's authority to this day. At that time Libnah revolted against his rule, because he had forsaken Jehovah God of his fathers.

2Ch 21:11 Moreover he made high places in the mountains of Judah, and caused the inhabitants of Jerusalem to prostitute themselves, and led Judah astray.

2Ch 21:12 And a letter came to him from Elijah the prophet, saying, 'Thus says Jehovah God of your father David: "Because you have not walked in the ways of Jehoshaphat your father, or in the ways of Asa king of Judah, 2Ch 21:13 "but have walked in the way of the kings of Israel, and have made Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to prostitute themselves like the prostitution of the house of Ahab, and also have killed your brothers, those of your father's household, who were better than yourself, 2Ch 21:14 "behold, Jehovah will strike your people with a serious affliction; your children, your wives, and all your possessions;

2Ch 21:15 "and you will become very sick with a disease of your intestines, until your intestines come out by reason of the sickness, day by day."

2Ch 21:16 Moreover Jehovah stirred up against Jehoram the spirit of the Philistines and the Arabians who were near the Cushites.

2Ch 21:17 And they came up into Judah and split it open, and carried away all the possessions that were found in the king's house, and also his sons and his wives, so that there was not a son left to him except Jehoahaz, the youngest of his sons.

2Ch 21:18 After all this Jehovah struck him in his intestines with an incurable disease.

2Ch 21:19 Then it happened in the course of time, after the end of two years, that his intestines came out because of his sickness; so he died from the evil disease. And his people made no burning for him, like the burning for his fathers.

2Ch 21:20 He was thirty-two years old when he became king. He reigned in Jerusalem eight years and departed without being missed. However, they buried him in the City of David, but not in the tombs of the kings.

2Ch 22:1 Then the inhabitants of Jerusalem made Ahaziah his youngest son king in his place, for the raiders who came with the Arabians into the camp had killed all the older sons. So Ahaziah the son of Jehoram, king of Judah, reigned.

2Ch 22:2 Ahaziah was twenty-two years old when he became king,¹ and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Athaliah, the granddaughter of Omri.

2Ch 22:3 He also walked in the ways of the house of Ahab, for his mother counselled him to do wickedly.

2Ch 22:4 Therefore he did evil in the sight of Jehovah, like the house of Ahab; for they were his counsellors after the death of his father, to his destruction.

2Ch 22:5 He also walked in their counsel, and went with Jehoram the son of Ahab king of Israel to make war against Hazael king of Syria at Ramoth Gilead; and the Syrians struck Joram.

2Ch 22:6 Then he returned to Jezreel to recover from the wounds which he had received at Ramah, when he fought against Hazael king of Syria. And Azariah the son of Jehoram, king of Judah, went down to see Jehoram the son of Ahab in Jezreel, because he was sick.

2Ch 22:7 His going to Joram was God's occasion for Ahaziah's downfall; for when he arrived, he went out with Jehoram against Jehu the son of Nimshi, whom Jehovah had anointed to cut off the house of Ahab.

2Ch 22:8 And it happened, when Jehu was executing judgement on the house of Ahab, and found the princes of Judah and the sons of Ahaziah's brothers who served Ahaziah, that he killed them.

2Ch 22:9 Then he searched for Ahaziah; and they caught him (he was hiding in Samaria), and brought him to Jehu. When they had killed him, they buried him, "because," they said, "he is the son of Jehoshaphat, who sought Jehovah with all his heart." So the house of Ahaziah had no one to assume power over the kingdom.

2Ch 22:10 Now when Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the royal heirs of the house of Judah.

2Ch 22:11 But Jehoshabeath, the daughter of the king, took Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stole him away from among the king's sons who were being murdered, and put him and his nurse in a bedroom. So Jehoshabeath, the daughter of King Jehoram, the wife of Jehoiada the priest (for she was the sister of Ahaziah), hid him from Athaliah so that she did not kill him.

2Ch 22:12 And he was hidden with them in the House of God for six years, while Athaliah reigned over the land.

2Ch 23:1 In the seventh year Jehoiada strengthened himself, and made a covenant with the captains of hundreds: Azariah the son of Jeroham, Ishmael the son of Jehohanan, Azariah the son of Obed, Maaseiah the son of Adaiah, and Elishaphat the son of Zichri.

2Ch 23:2 And they went throughout Judah and gathered the Levites from all the cities of Judah, and the chief fathers of Israel, and they came to Jerusalem.

2Ch 23:3 Then all the congregation made a covenant with the king in the House of God. And he said to them, "Behold, the king's son will reign, as Jehovah has said of the sons of David.

2Ch 23:4 "This is what you will do: One-third of you entering on the Sabbath, of the priests and the Levites, will be keeping watch over the doors; 2Ch 23:5 "one-third will be at the king's house; and one-third at the Gate of the Foundation. All the people will be in the courts of the House of Jehovah.

2Ch 23:6 "But let no one come into the House of Jehovah except the priests and those of the Levites who serve. They may go in, for they are sanctified; but all the people will keep the charge of Jehovah.

2Ch 23:7 "And the Levites will surround the king on all sides, every man with his weapons in his hand; and whoever comes into the house, let him be put to death.

You are to be with the king when he comes in and when he goes out."

2Ch 23:8 So the Levites and all Judah did according to all that Jehoiada the priest commanded. And each man took his men who were to be on duty on the Sabbath, with those who were going off duty on the Sabbath; for Jehoiada the priest had not dismissed the divisions.

2Ch 23:9 And Jehoiada the priest gave to the captains of hundreds the spears and the large and small shields which had been King David's, that were in the House of God.

2Ch 23:10 Then he set all the people, every man with his weapon in his hand, from the right side of the house to the left side of the house, along by the altar and by the house, all around the king.

2Ch 23:11 And they brought out the king's son, put the crown on him, gave him the Testimony, and made him king. Then Jehoiada and his sons anointed him, and said, "Long live the king!"

2Ch 23:12 Now when Athaliah heard the noise of the people running and praising the king, she came to the people in the House of Jehovah.

2Ch 23:13 And when she looked, there was the king standing by his pillar at the entrance; and the leaders and the trumpeters were by the king. There were all the people of the land, rejoicing and blowing trumpets, also the singers with instruments of music, and those who led in praise. So Athaliah tore her clothes and said, "Treason! Treason!"

2Ch 23:14 Then Jehoiada the priest brought out the captains of hundreds who were set over the army, and said to them, "Take her outside under guard, and slay with the sword whoever follows her." For the priest said, "Do not kill her in the House of Jehovah."

2Ch 23:15 So they seized her; and she went by way of the entrance of the Horse Gate into the king's house, and they killed her there.

2Ch 23:16 Then Jehoiada made a covenant between himself, the people, and the king, that they should be Jehovah's people.

2Ch 23:17 And all the people went to the house of the LORD, and tore it down. They broke in pieces its altars and images, and killed Mattan the priest of the LORD before the altars.

2Ch 23:18 Also Jehoiada appointed the oversight of the House of Jehovah to the hand of the priests, the Levites, whom David had assigned in the House of Jehovah, to offer the burnt offerings of Jehovah, as it is written in the Instructions of Moses, with rejoicing and with singing, as it was established by David.

2Ch 23:19 And he set the gatekeepers at the gates of the House of Jehovah, so that no one who was in any way unclean should enter.

2Ch 23:20 Then he took the captains of hundreds, the nobles, the governors of the people, and all the people of the land, and brought the king down from the House of Jehovah; and they went through the Upper Gate to the king's house, and set the king on the throne of the kingdom.

2Ch 23:21 So all the people of the land rejoiced; and the city was quiet, for they had slain Athaliah with the sword.

2Ch 24:1 Joash was seven years old when he became king, and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Zibiah of Beersheba.

2Ch 24:2 Joash did what was right in the sight of Jehovah all the days of Jehoiada the priest.

2Ch 24:3 And Jehoiada took for him two wives, and he had sons and daughters.

2Ch 24:4 Now it happened after this that Joash set his heart on repairing the House of Jehovah.

2Ch 24:5 Then he gathered the priests and the Levites, and said to them, "Go out to the cities of Judah, and gather from all Israel silver to repair the House of your God from year to year, and see that you do it quickly." However the Levites did not do it quickly.

2Ch 24:6 So the king called Jehoiada the chief priest, and said to him, "Why have you not required the Levites to bring in from Judah and from Jerusalem the collection of Moses, Jehovah's servant, and of the congregation of Israel, for the tent of Testimony?"

2Ch 24:7 For the sons of Athaliah, that wicked woman, had broken into the House of God, and had also offered all the sanctified things of the House of Jehovah to the LORD.¹

2Ch 24:8 Then at the king's commandment they made a chest, and set it outside at the gate of the House of Jehovah.

2Ch 24:9 And they made a proclamation throughout Judah and Jerusalem to bring to Jehovah the collection that Moses, God's servant, had imposed on Israel in the wilderness.

2Ch 24:10 Then all the leaders and all the people rejoiced, brought their contributions, and put them into the chest until all had given.

2Ch 24:11 So it was, at that time, when the chest was brought to the king's official by the hand of the Levites, and when they saw that there was much silver, that the king's scribe and the chief priest's officer came and emptied the chest, and took it and returned it to its place. Thus they did day by day, and gathered silver in abundance.

2Ch 24:12 Then the king and Jehoiada gave it to those who did the work of the service of the House of Jehovah; and they hired masons and carpenters to repair the House of Jehovah, and also those who worked in iron and bronze to restore the House of Jehovah.

2Ch 24:13 So the workmen laboured, and the work was completed by them; they restored the House of God to its original condition and reinforced it.

2Ch 24:14 When they had finished, they brought the rest of the money before the king and Jehoiada; they made from it articles for the House of Jehovah, articles for serving and offering, spoons and vessels of gold and silver. And they offered burnt offerings in the House of Jehovah continually all the days of Jehoiada.

2Ch 24:15 But Jehoiada grew old and was full of days, and he died; he was one hundred and thirty years old when he died.

2Ch 24:16 And they buried him in the City of David among the kings, because he had done good in Israel, toward both God and His house.

2Ch 24:17 Now after the death of Jehoiada the leaders of Judah came and bowed down to the king. And the king listened to them.

2Ch 24:18 Therefore they left the House of Jehovah God of their fathers, and served groves and idols; and wrath came upon Judah and Jerusalem because of their trespass.

2Ch 24:19 Yet He sent prophets to them, to bring them back to Jehovah; and they testified against them, but they would not listen.

2Ch 24:20 Then the Spirit of God came upon Zechariah the son of Jehoiada the priest, who stood above the people, and said to them, "Thus says God: 'Why do you transgress the commandments of Jehovah, so that you cannot prosper? Because you have forsaken Jehovah, He also has forsaken you.'"

2Ch 24:21 So they conspired against him, and at the commandment of the king they stoned him with stones in the court of the House of Jehovah.¹

2Ch 24:22 Thus Joash the king did not remember the kindness which Jehoiada his father had done to him, but killed his son; and as he died, he said, "Jehovah look on it, and repay!"

2Ch 24:23 So it happened in the spring of the year that the army of Syria came up against him; and they came to Judah and Jerusalem, and destroyed all the leaders of the people from among the people, and sent all their spoil to the king of Damascus.

2Ch 24:24 For the army of the Syrians came with a small company of men; but Jehovah delivered a very great army into their hand, because they had forsaken Jehovah God of their fathers. So they executed judgement against Joash.

2Ch 24:25 And when they had withdrawn from him (for they left him severely wounded), his own servants conspired against him because of the blood of the sons of Jehoiada the priest, and killed him on his bed, and he died. And they buried him in the City of David, but they did not bury him in the tombs of the kings.

2Ch 24:26 These are the ones who conspired against him: Zabad the son of Shimeath the Ammonitess, and Jehozabad the son of Shimrith the Moabitess.

2Ch 24:27 Now concerning his sons, and the very many utterances about him, and the repairing of the House of God, indeed they are written in the annals of the book of the kings. Then Amaziah his son reigned in his place.

2Ch 25:1 Amaziah was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jehoaddan of Jerusalem.

2Ch 25:2 And he did what was right in the sight of Jehovah, but not with a loyal heart.

2Ch 25:3 Now it was so, when the kingdom was established for him, that he executed his servants who had murdered his father the king.

2Ch 25:4 However he did not execute

their children, but did as it is written in the Instructions in the Book of Moses, where Jehovah commanded, saying, "The fathers will not be put to death for their children, nor will the children be put to death for their fathers; but a person will die for his own sin."¹

2Ch 25:5 Moreover Amaziah gathered Judah together and set over them captains of thousands and captains of hundreds, according to their fathers' houses, throughout all Judah and Benjamin; and he numbered them from twenty years old and above, and found them to be three hundred thousand choice men, able to go to war, who could handle spear and shield.

2Ch 25:6 He also hired one hundred thousand mighty men of valour from Israel for one hundred talents of silver.

2Ch 25:7 But a man of God came to him, saying, "O king, do not let the army of Israel go with you, for Jehovah is not with Israel; not with any of the children of Ephraim.

2Ch 25:8 "But if you go, be gone! Be strong in battle! Even so, God will make you fall before the enemy; for God has power to help and to overthrow."

2Ch 25:9 Then Amaziah said to the man of God, "But what will we do about the hundred talents which I have given to the troops of Israel?" And the man of God answered, "Jehovah is able to give you much more than this."

2Ch 25:10 So Amaziah discharged the troops that had come to him from Ephraim, to go back home. Therefore their anger was greatly aroused against Judah, and they returned home in great anger.

2Ch 25:11 Then Amaziah strengthened himself, and leading his people, he went to the Valley of Salt and killed ten thousand of the people of Seir.

2Ch 25:12 And the children of Judah took captive another ten thousand alive, brought them to the top of the rock, and cast them down from the top of the rock, so that they were split open.

2Ch 25:13 But as for the soldiers of the army which Amaziah had discharged, so that they would not go with him to battle, they raided the cities of Judah from Samaria to Beth Horon, killed three thousand in them, and took much spoil.

2Ch 25:14 Now it was so, after Amaziah came from the slaughter of the Edomites, that he brought the gods of the people of Seir, set them up to be his gods, and bowed down before them and burned to them.

2Ch 25:15 Therefore the anger of Jehovah was aroused against Amaziah, and He sent him a prophet who said to him, "Why have you sought the gods of the people which could not rescue their own people from your hand?"

2Ch 25:16 So it was, as he talked with him, that the king said to him, "Have we made you the king's counsel? Cease! Why should you be killed?" Then the prophet ceased, and said, "I know that God has determined to destroy you, because you have done this and have not heeded my counsel."

2Ch 25:17 Then Amaziah king of Judah took counsel and sent to Joash the son of Jehoahaz, the son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, "Come, let us face one another in battle."

2Ch 25:18 And Joash king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, "The thistle that was in Lebanon sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, 'Give your daughter to my son as wife'; and a wild beast that was in Lebanon passed by and trampled the thistle.

2Ch 25:19 "Indeed you say that you have defeated the Edomites, and your heart is lifted up to boast. Stay at home now; why should you meddle with evil, that you should fall; you and Judah with you?"

¹ Deu 24:16, 2Ki 14:6, Eze 18:1-32, Jer 31:29-30, Eze 14:14-20

2Ch 25:20 But Amaziah would not heed, for it came from God, that He might give them into the hand of their enemies, because they sought the gods of Edom.

2Ch 25:21 So Joash king of Israel went out; and he and Amaziah king of Judah faced one another at Beth Shemesh, which belongs to Judah.

2Ch 25:22 And Judah was defeated by Israel, and every man fled to his tent.

2Ch 25:23 Then Joash the king of Israel captured Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Joash, the son of Jehoahaz, at Beth Shemesh; and he brought him to Jerusalem, and broke down the wall of Jerusalem from the Gate of Ephraim to the Corner Gate; four hundred cubits.

2Ch 25:24 And he took all the gold and silver, all the articles that were found in the House of God with Obed-Edom, the treasures of the king's house, and hostages, and returned to Samaria.

2Ch 25:25 Amaziah the son of Joash, king of Judah, lived fifteen years after the death of Joash the son of Jehoahaz, king of Israel.

2Ch 25:26 Now the rest of the acts of Amaziah, from first to last, indeed are they not written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel?

2Ch 25:27 After the time that Amaziah turned away from following Jehovah, they made a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem, and he fled to Lachish; but they sent after him to Lachish and killed him there.

2Ch 25:28 Then they brought him on horses and buried him with his fathers in the City of Judah.

2Ch 26:1 Now all the people of Judah took Uzziah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king instead of his father Amaziah.

2Ch 26:2 He built Elath and restored it to Judah, after the king rested with his fathers.

2Ch 26:3 Uzziah was sixteen years old when he became king, and he reigned fifty-two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jecholiah of Jerusalem.

2Ch 26:4 And he did what was right in the sight of Jehovah, according to all that his father Amaziah had done.

2Ch 26:5 He sought God in the days of Zechariah, who had understanding in the visions of God; and as long as he sought Jehovah, God made him prosper.

2Ch 26:6 Now he went out and made war against the Philistines, and broke down the wall of Gath, the wall of Jabneh, and the wall of Ashdod; and he built cities around Ashdod and among the Philistines.

2Ch 26:7 God helped him against the Philistines, against the Arabians who lived in Gur Baal, and against the Meunites.

2Ch 26:8 Also the Ammonites brought tribute to Uzziah. His fame spread as far as the entrance of Egypt, for he strengthened himself exceedingly.

2Ch 26:9 And Uzziah built towers in Jerusalem at the Corner Gate, at the Valley Gate, and at the corner buttress of the wall; then he fortified them.

2Ch 26:10 Also he built towers in the wilderness. He dug many wells, for he had much livestock, both in the valleys and in the plains; he also had farmers and vinedressers in the mountains and in Carmel, for he loved the soil.

2Ch 26:11 Moreover Uzziah had an army of fighting men who went out to war by companies, according to the number on their roll as prepared by Jeiel the scribe and Maaseiah the officer, under the hand of Hananiah, one of the king's captains.

2Ch 26:12 The total number of chief officers of the mighty men of valour was two thousand six hundred.

2Ch 26:13 And under their hand was an army of three hundred and seven thousand five hundred, that made war with mighty power, to help the king against the enemy.

2Ch 26:14 Then Uzziah prepared for them, for the entire army, shields, spears, helmets, body armour, bows, and slings to cast stones.

2Ch 26:15 And he made devices in Jerusalem, invented by skillful men, to be on the towers and the corners, to shoot arrows and large stones. So his fame spread far and wide, for he was marvellously helped until he became strong.

2Ch 26:16 But when he was strong his heart was lifted up, to his destruction, for he transgressed against Jehovah his God by entering the Palace of Jehovah to burn incense on the altar of incense.

2Ch 26:17 So Azariah the priest went in after him, and with him were eighty priests of Jehovah, who were valiant men.

2Ch 26:18 And they withstood King Uzziah, and said to him, "It is not for you, Uzziah, to burn to Jehovah, but for the priests, the sons of Aaron, who are consecrated to burn. Get out of the sanctuary, for you have trespassed! You show no honour to Jehovah God."

2Ch 26:19 Then Uzziah became furious; and he had a censer in his hand to burn. And while he was angry with the priests, leprosy broke out on his forehead, before the priests in the House of Jehovah, beside the incense altar.

2Ch 26:20 And Azariah the chief priest and all the priests looked at him, and there, on his forehead, he was leprous; so they thrust him out of that place. Indeed he also hurried to get out, because Jehovah had struck him.

2Ch 26:21 King Uzziah was a leper until the day of his death. He dwelt in an isolated house, because he was a leper; for he was cut off from the House of Jehovah. Then Jotham his son was over the king's house, judging the people of the land.

2Ch 26:22 Now the rest of the acts of Uzziah, from first to last, the prophet Isaiah the son of Amoz wrote.

2Ch 26:23 So Uzziah slept with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers in the field of burial which belonged to the kings, for they said, "He is a leper." Then Jotham his son reigned in his place.

2Ch 27:1 Jotham was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jerushah the daughter of Zadok. 2Ch 27:2 And he did what was right in the sight of Jehovah, according to all that his father Uzziah had done, although he did not enter the Palace of Jehovah. And the people still acted corruptly.

2Ch 27:3 He built the Upper Gate of the House of Jehovah, and he built extensively on the wall of Ophel.

2Ch 27:4 Moreover he built cities in the mountains of Judah, and in the forests he built fortresses and towers.

2Ch 27:5 He also fought with the king of the Ammonites and defeated them. And the people of Ammon gave him in that year one hundred talents of silver, ten thousand kors of wheat, and ten thousand of barley. The people of Ammon paid him this amount in the second and third years also.

2Ch 27:6 So Jotham became mighty, because he prepared his ways before Jehovah his God.

2Ch 27:7 Now the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all his wars and his ways, indeed they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.

2Ch 27:8 He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem.

2Ch 27:9 So Jotham slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the City of David. Then Ahaz his son reigned in his place.

2Ch 28:1 Ahaz was twenty years old when he became king, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem; and he did not do what was right in the sight of Jehovah, as his father David had done.

2Ch 28:2 For he walked in the ways of the kings of Israel, and made moulded images for the LORD.

2Ch 28:3 He burned in the Valley of the Son of Hinnom, and burned up his children in the fire, according to the abominations of the nations whom Jehovah had cast out before the children of Israel.

2Ch 28:4 And he burnt sacrifices on the high places, on the hills, and under every green tree.

2Ch 28:5 Therefore Jehovah his God delivered him into the hand of the king of Syria. They defeated him, and carried away a great multitude of them as captives, and brought them to Damascus. Then he was also delivered into the hand of the king of Israel, who defeated him with a great slaughter.

2Ch 28:6 For Pekah the son of Remaliah killed one hundred and twenty thousand in Judah in one day, all valiant men, because they had forsaken Jehovah God of their fathers.

2Ch 28:7 Zichri, a mighty man of Ephraim, killed Maaseiah the king's son, Azrikam the officer over the house, and Elkanah who was second to the king.

2Ch 28:8 And the children of Israel carried away captive of their brethren two hundred thousand women, sons, and daughters; and they also took away much spoil from them, and brought the spoil to Samaria.

2Ch 28:9 But a prophet of Jehovah was there, whose name was Oded; and he went out before the army that came to Samaria, and said to them: "Look, because Jehovah God of your fathers was angry with Judah, He has delivered them into your hand; but you have killed them in a rage that reaches up to heaven.

2Ch 28:10 "And now you propose to force the children of Judah and Jerusalem to be your male and female slaves; but are you not also guilty before Jehovah your God?

2Ch 28:11 "Now hear me, therefore, and return the captives, whom you have taken captive from your brethren, for the fierce wrath of Jehovah is upon you."

2Ch 28:12 Then some of the heads of the children of Ephraim, Azariah the son of Johanan, Berechiah the son of Meshillemoth, Jehizkiah the son of Shallum, and Amasa the son of Hadlai, stood up against those who came from the war,

2Ch 28:13 and said to them, "You will not bring the captives here, for we already have offended Jehovah. You intend to add to our sins and to our guilt; for our guilt is great, and there is fierce wrath against Israel."

2Ch 28:14 So the armed men left the captives and the spoil before the leaders and all the congregation.

2Ch 28:15 Then the men who were designated by name rose up and took the captives, and from the spoil they clothed all who were naked among them, dressed them and gave them sandals, gave them food and drink, and anointed them; and they let all the feeble ones ride on donkeys. So they brought them to their brethren at Jericho, the city of palm trees. Then they returned to Samaria.

2Ch 28:16 At the same time King Ahaz sent to the kings of Assyria to help him.

2Ch 28:17 For again the Edomites had come, attacked Judah, and carried away captives.

2Ch 28:18 The Philistines also had invaded the cities of the lowland and of the South of Judah, and had taken Beth Shemesh, Aijalon, Gederot, Sochoh with its villages, Timnah with its villages, and Gimzo with its villages; and they dwelt there.

2Ch 28:19 For Jehovah brought Judah low because of Ahaz king of Israel, for he had encouraged moral decline in Judah and had been continually unfaithful to Jehovah.

2Ch 28:20 Also Tiglath-Pileser king of Assyria came to him and distressed him, and did not assist him.

2Ch 28:21 For Ahaz took part of the treasures from the House of Jehovah, from the house of the king, and from the leaders, and he gave it to the king of Assyria; but he did not help him.

2Ch 28:22 Now in the time of his distress, this King Ahaz became increasingly unfaithful to Jehovah.

2Ch 28:23 For he sacrificed to the gods of Damascus which had defeated him, saying, "Because the gods of the kings of Syria help them, I will sacrifice to them that they may help me." But they were the ruin of him and of all Israel.

2Ch 28:24 So Ahaz gathered the articles of the House of God, cut in pieces the articles of the House of God, shut up the doors of the House of Jehovah, and made for himself altars in every corner of Jerusalem.

2Ch 28:25 And in every single city of Judah he made high places to burn to other gods, and provoked to anger Jehovah God of his fathers.

2Ch 28:26 Now the rest of his acts and all his ways, from first to last, indeed they are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.

2Ch 28:27 So Ahaz slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city, in Jerusalem; but they did not bring him into the tombs of the kings of Israel. Then Hezekiah his son reigned in his place.

2Ch 29:1 Hezekiah became king when he was twenty-five years old, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Abijah the daughter of Zechariah.

2Ch 29:2 And he did what was right in the sight of Jehovah, according to all that his father David had done.

2Ch 29:3 In the first year of his reign, in the first new moon, he opened the doors of the House of Jehovah and repaired them.

2Ch 29:4 Then he brought in the priests and the Levites, and gathered them in Sunrise Square, 2Ch 29:5 and said to them: "Hear me, Levites! Now sanctify yourselves, sanctify the House of Jehovah God of your fathers, and carry out the rubbish from the sanctuary.

2Ch 29:6 "For our fathers have trespassed and done evil in the eyes of Jehovah our God; they have forsaken Him, have turned their faces away from the booth of Jehovah, and turned their backs on Him.

2Ch 29:7 "They have also shut up the doors of the porch, put out the lamps, and have not burned incense or offered burnt offerings in the sanctuary to the God of Israel.

2Ch 29:8 "Therefore the wrath of Jehovah fell upon Judah and Jerusalem, and He has given them up to trouble, to horror, and to jeering, as you see with your eyes.

2Ch 29:9 "For indeed, because of this our fathers have fallen by the sword; and our sons, our daughters, and our wives are in captivity.

2Ch 29:10 "Now it is in my heart to make a covenant with Jehovah God of Israel, that His fierce wrath may turn away from us.

2Ch 29:11 "My sons, do not be negligent now, for Jehovah has chosen you to stand before Him, to serve Him, and you should serve and burn to Him."

2Ch 29:12 Then these Levites arose: Mahath the son of Amasai and Joel the son of Azariah, of the sons of the Kohathites; of the sons of Merari, Kish the son of Abdi and Azariah the son of Jehalelel; of the Gershonites, Joah the son of Zimmah and Eden the son of Joah;

2Ch 29:13 of the sons of Elizaphan, Shimri and Jeiel; of the sons of Asaph, Zechariah and Mattaniah;

2Ch 29:14 of the sons of Heman, Jehiel and Shimei; and of the sons of Jeduthun, Shemaiah and Uzziel.

2Ch 29:15 And they gathered their brethren, sanctified themselves, and went according to the commandment of the king, at the words of Jehovah, to cleanse the House of Jehovah.

2Ch 29:16 Then the priests went inside the House of Jehovah to cleanse it, and brought out all the uncleanness that they found in the Palace of Jehovah to the court of the House of Jehovah. And the Levites took it out and carried it to the Kidron Brook.

2Ch 29:17 Now they began to sanctify on the first day of the first new moon, and on the eighth day of the new moon they came to the porch of Jehovah. Then they sanctified the House of Jehovah in eight days, and on the sixteenth day of the first new moon they finished.

2Ch 29:18 Then they went in to King Hezekiah and said, "We have cleansed all the House of Jehovah, the altar of burnt offerings with all its articles, and the table of the arrangement with all its articles.

2Ch 29:19 "Moreover all the articles which King Ahaz in his reign had cast aside in his transgression we have prepared and sanctified; and there they are, before the altar of Jehovah."

2Ch 29:20 Then King Hezekiah rose early, gathered the rulers of the city, and went up to the House of Jehovah.

2Ch 29:21 And they brought seven bulls, seven rams, seven lambs, and seven male goats for a sin offering for the kingdom, for the sanctuary, and for Judah. Then he commanded the priests, the sons of Aaron, to offer them on the altar of Jehovah.

2Ch 29:22 So they killed the bulls, and the priests received the blood and sprinkled it on the altar. Likewise they killed the rams and sprinkled the blood on the altar. They also killed the lambs and sprinkled the blood on the altar.

2Ch 29:23 Then they brought out the male goats for the sin offering before the king and the congregation, and they laid their hands on them.

2Ch 29:24 And the priests killed them; and they presented their blood on the altar as a sin offering to make an atonement for all Israel, for the king commanded that the burnt offering and the sin offering be made for all Israel.

2Ch 29:25 Then he stationed the Levites in the House of Jehovah with cymbals, with stringed instruments, and with harps, according to the commandment of David, of Gad the king's seer, and of Nathan the prophet; for thus was the commandment of Jehovah by his prophets.

2Ch 29:26 The Levites stood with the instruments of David, and the priests with the trumpets.

2Ch 29:27 Then Hezekiah commanded them to offer the burnt offering on the altar. And when the burnt offering began, the song of Jehovah also began, with the trumpets and with the instruments of David king of Israel.

2Ch 29:28 So all the congregation worshipped, the singers sang, and the trumpeters sounded; all this continued until the burnt offering was finished.

2Ch 29:29 And when they had finished offering, the king and all who were present with him bowed and worshipped.

2Ch 29:30 Moreover King Hezekiah and the leaders commanded the Levites to sing praise to Jehovah with the words of David and of Asaph the seer. So they sang praises with gladness, and they bowed their heads and worshipped.

2Ch 29:31 Then Hezekiah answered and said, "Now that you have consecrated yourselves to Jehovah, come near, and bring sacrifices and thank offerings into the House of Jehovah." So the congregation brought in sacrifices and thank offerings, and as many as were of a willing heart brought burnt offerings.

2Ch 29:32 And the number of the burnt offerings which the congregation brought was seventy bulls, one hundred rams, and two hundred lambs; all these were for a burnt offering to Jehovah.

2Ch 29:33 The sanctified things were six hundred bulls and three thousand sheep.

2Ch 29:34 But the priests were too few, so that they could not skin all the burnt offerings; therefore their brethren the Levites helped them until the work was ended and until the other priests had sanctified themselves, for the Levites were more diligent in sanctifying themselves than the priests.

2Ch 29:35 Also the burnt offerings were in abundance, with the fat of the peace offerings and with the drink offerings for every burnt offering. So the service of the House of Jehovah was set in order.

2Ch 29:36 Then Hezekiah and all the people rejoiced that God had prepared the people, since the events took place so suddenly.

2Ch 30:1 And Hezekiah sent to all Israel and Judah, and also wrote letters to Ephraim and Manasseh, that they should come to the House of Jehovah at Jerusalem, to keep the Passover to Jehovah God of Israel.

2Ch 30:2 For the king and his leaders and all the congregation in Jerusalem had agreed to keep the Passover in the second new moon.

2Ch 30:3 For they could not keep it at that time, because a sufficient number of priests had not sanctified themselves, nor had the people gathered together at Jerusalem.

2Ch 30:4 And the matter pleased the king and all the congregation.

2Ch 30:5 So they resolved to make a proclamation throughout all Israel, from Beersheba to Dan, that they should come to keep the Passover to Jehovah God of Israel at Jerusalem, since they had not done it for a long time in the prescribed manner.

2Ch 30:6 Then the runners went throughout all Israel and Judah with the letters from the king and his leaders, and spoke according to the commandment of the king: "Children of Israel, return to Jehovah God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel; then He will return to the remnant of you who have escaped from the hand of the kings of Assyria.

2Ch 30:7 "And do not be like your fathers and your brethren, who trespassed against Jehovah God of their fathers, so that He gave them up to horror, as you see.

2Ch 30:8 "Now do not be stiff-necked, as your fathers were, but yield yourselves to Jehovah; and enter His sanctuary, which He has sanctified forever, and serve Jehovah your God, that the fierceness of His wrath may turn away from you.

2Ch 30:9 "For if you return to Jehovah, your brethren and your children will be treated with compassion by those who lead them captive, so that they may come back to this land; for Jehovah your God is gracious and merciful, and will not turn His face from you if you return to Him."

2Ch 30:10 So the runners passed from city to city through the country of Ephraim and Manasseh, as far as Zebulun; but they laughed them to scorn and mocked them.

2Ch 30:11 Nevertheless some from Asher, Manasseh, and Zebulun humbled themselves and came to Jerusalem.

2Ch 30:12 Also the hand of God was on Judah to give them one heart to do the commandment of the king and the leaders, at Jehovah's word.

2Ch 30:13 Now many people, a very great congregation, assembled at Jerusalem to keep the Feast of Unleavened Bread in the second new moon.

2Ch 30:14 They arose and took away the altars that were in Jerusalem, and they took away all the burners and cast them into the Kidron Brook.

2Ch 30:15 Then they slaughtered the Passover on the fourteenth day of the second new moon. The priests and the Levites were ashamed, and sanctified themselves, and brought the burnt offerings to the House of Jehovah.

2Ch 30:16 They stood in their place according to their judgement, according to the Instructions of Moses the man of God; the priests sprinkled the blood received from the hand of the Levites.

2Ch 30:17 For there were many in the congregation who had not sanctified themselves; therefore the Levites had charge of the slaughter of the Passover for everyone who was not clean, to sanctify them to Jehovah.¹

2Ch 30:18 For a multitude of the people, many from Ephraim, Manasseh, Issachar, and Zebulun, had not cleansed themselves, yet they ate the Passover contrary to what was written. But Hezekiah prayed for them, saying, "May the good Jehovah provide atonement for everyone

2Ch 30:19 who prepares his heart to seek God, Jehovah God of his fathers, though he is not cleansed according to the purification of the sanctuary."

2Ch 30:20 And Jehovah listened to Hezekiah and healed the people.

2Ch 30:21 So the children of Israel who were present at Jerusalem kept the Feast of Unleavened Bread seven days with great gladness; and the Levites and the priests praised Jehovah day by day, singing to Jehovah, accompanied by loud instruments.

2Ch 30:22 And Hezekiah gave encouragement to all the Levites who taught the good knowledge of Jehovah; and they ate throughout the feast seven days, offering peace offerings and making confession to Jehovah God of their fathers.

¹ Normally, each person had to kill their Passover lamb themselves (Exo 12:21), symbolising how each of us, because of our sins, are responsible for the death of Jeshua the Messiah (Joh 1:29, 1Co 15:3).

2Ch 30:23 Then the whole assembly agreed to keep the feast another seven days, and they kept it another seven days with gladness.

2Ch 30:24 For Hezekiah king of Judah gave to the congregation a thousand bulls and seven thousand sheep, and the leaders gave to the congregation a thousand bulls and ten thousand sheep; and a great number of priests sanctified themselves.

2Ch 30:25 The whole congregation of Judah rejoiced, also the priests and Levites, all the congregation that came from Israel, the immigrants who came from the land of Israel, and those who dwelt in Judah.

2Ch 30:26 So there was great joy in Jerusalem, for since the time of Solomon the son of David, king of Israel, there had been nothing like this in Jerusalem.

2Ch 30:27 Then the priests, the Levites, arose and blessed the people, and their voice was heard; and their prayer came up to His sanctified dwelling place, to heaven.

2Ch 31:1 Now when all this was finished, all Israel who were present went out to the cities of Judah and broke the pillars in pieces, cut down the groves, and threw down the high places and the altars; from all Judah, Benjamin, Ephraim, and Manasseh; until they had utterly destroyed them all. Then all the children of Israel returned to their own cities, every man to his possession.

2Ch 31:2 And Hezekiah appointed the divisions of the priests and the Levites according to their divisions, each man according to his service, the priests and Levites for burnt offerings and peace offerings, to serve, to give thanks, and to praise in the gates of the camp of Jehovah.

2Ch 31:3 The king also appointed a portion of his possessions for the burnt offerings: for the morning and evening burnt offerings, the burnt offerings for the Sabbaths and the New Moons and the set feasts, as it is written in the Instructions of Jehovah.

2Ch 31:4 Moreover he commanded the people who dwelt in Jerusalem to contribute support for the priests and the Levites, that they might devote themselves to the Instructions of Jehovah.

2Ch 31:5 As soon as the word was circulated, the children of Israel brought in abundance the first of the grain and new wine, oil and honey, and of all the produce of the field; and they brought in abundantly the tithe of everything.

2Ch 31:6 And the children of Israel and Judah, who dwelt in the cities of Judah, brought the tithe of oxen and sheep; also the tithe of sanctified things which were sanctified to Jehovah their God they laid in heaps.

2Ch 31:7 In the third new moon they began laying them in heaps, and they finished in the seventh new moon.

2Ch 31:8 And when Hezekiah and the leaders came and saw the heaps, they blessed Jehovah and His people Israel.

2Ch 31:9 Then Hezekiah questioned the priests and the Levites concerning the heaps.

2Ch 31:10 And Azariah the chief priest, from the house of Zadok, answered him and said, "Since the people began to bring the offerings into the House of Jehovah, we have had enough to eat and have plenty left, for Jehovah has blessed His people; and what is left is this great abundance."

2Ch 31:11 Now Hezekiah commanded them to prepare rooms in the House of Jehovah, and they prepared them.

2Ch 31:12 Then they faithfully brought in the offerings, the tithes, and the sanctified things; Cononiah the Levite was ruler over them, and Shimei his brother was the next.

2Ch 31:13 Jehiel, Azaziah, Nahath, Asahel, Jerimoth, Jozabad, Eliel, Ismachiah, Mahath, and Benaiah were overseers under the hand of Cononiah and Shimei his brother, appointed by Hezekiah the king and Azariah the ruler of the House of God.

2Ch 31:14 Kore the son of Imnah the Levite, the keeper of Sunrise Gate, was over the freewill offerings to God, to distribute the offerings of Jehovah and those sanctuary sanctified.

2Ch 31:15 And under him were Eden, Miniamin, Jayshua, Shemaiah, Amariah, and Shecaniah, his faithful assistants in the cities of the priests, to distribute allotments to their brethren by divisions, to the great as well as the small.

2Ch 31:16 Besides those males from thirty years old¹ and up who were written in the genealogy, they distributed to everyone who entered the House of Jehovah his daily portion for the work of his service, by his division,

2Ch 31:17 and to the priests who were written in the genealogy according to their father's house, and to the Levites from twenty years old and up according to their work, by their divisions,

2Ch 31:18 and to all who were written in the genealogy; their little ones and their wives, their sons and daughters, the whole company of them; for in their faithfulness they sanctify themselves in sanctity.

2Ch 31:19 Also for the sons of Aaron the priests, who were in the fields of the common-lands of their cities, in every single city, there were men who were designated by name to distribute portions to all the males among the priests and to all who were listed by genealogies among the Levites.

2Ch 31:20 Thus Hezekiah did throughout all Judah, and he did what was good and right and true before Jehovah his God.

2Ch 31:21 And in every work that he began in the service of the House of God, in the Instructions and in the commandment, to seek his God, he did it with all his heart. So he prospered.

2Ch 32:1 After these deeds of faithfulness, Sennacherib king of Assyria came and entered Judah. He camped before the fortified cities, thinking to split them open for himself.

2Ch 32:2 And when Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib had come, and that his purpose was to make war against Jerusalem, 2Ch 32:3 he took counsel with his leaders and commanders to stop the water from the springs which were outside the city; and they helped him.

2Ch 32:4 Thus many people gathered together who stopped all the springs and the brook that ran through the land, saying, "Why should the kings of Assyria come and find much water?"

2Ch 32:5 And he strengthened himself, built up all the wall that was broken, raised it up to the towers, and built another wall outside; also he repaired the Millo in the City of David, and made weapons and shields in abundance.

2Ch 32:6 Then he set military captains over the people, gathered them together to him in the open square of the city gate, and gave them encouragement, saying,

2Ch 32:7 "Be strong and courageous; do not be afraid nor dismayed before the king of Assyria, nor before all the multitude that is with him; for there are more with us than with him.

2Ch 32:8 "With him is an arm of flesh; but with us is Jehovah our God, to help us and to fight our battles." And the people were strengthened by the words of Hezekiah king of Judah.

2Ch 32:9 After this Sennacherib king of Assyria sent his servants to Jerusalem (but he himself, and all the forces with him, laid siege against Lachish), to Hezekiah king of Judah, and to all Judah who were in Jerusalem, saying,

2Ch 32:10 "Thus says Sennacherib king of Assyria: 'In what do you trust, that you remain under siege in Jerusalem?"

2Ch 32:11 'Does not Hezekiah persuade you to give yourselves over to die by famine and by thirst, saying, "Jehovah our God will deliver us from the hand of the king of Assyria"?'

2Ch 32:12 'Has not the same Hezekiah taken away His high places and His altars, and commanded Judah and Jerusalem, saying, "You will worship before one altar and burn on it"?'

2Ch 32:13 'Do you not know what I and my fathers have done to all the peoples of other lands? Were the gods of the nations of those lands in any way able to deliver their lands out of my hand?'

2Ch 32:14 'Who was there among all the gods of those nations that my fathers utterly destroyed that could deliver his people from my hand, that your God should be able to deliver you from my hand?'

2Ch 32:15 'Now therefore, do not let Hezekiah deceive you or persuade you like this, and do not believe him; for no god of any nation or kingdom was able to deliver his people from my hand or the hand of my fathers. How much less will your God deliver you from my hand?'"

2Ch 32:16 And his servants spoke even more against Jehovah God and against His servant Hezekiah.

2Ch 32:17 He also wrote letters to revile Jehovah God of Israel, and to speak against Him, saying, "As the gods of the nations of other lands have not delivered their people from my hand, so the God of Hezekiah will not deliver His people from my hand."

2Ch 32:18 Then they called out with a loud voice in Hebrew to the people of Jerusalem who were on the wall, to frighten them and trouble them, that they might take the city.

2Ch 32:19 And they spoke against the God of Jerusalem, as against the gods of the people of the earth; the work of men's hands.

2Ch 32:20 Now for this cause King Hezekiah and the prophet Isaiah, the son of Amoz, prayed and cried out to heaven.

2Ch 32:21 Then Jehovah sent an envoy who cut down every mighty man of valour, leader, and captain in the camp of the king of Assyria. So he returned shamefaced to his own land. And when he had gone into the house of his god, some of his own offspring struck him down with the sword there.

2Ch 32:22 Thus Jehovah saved Hezekiah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib the king of Assyria, and from the hand of all others, and guided them on every side.

2Ch 32:23 And many brought gifts to Jehovah at Jerusalem, and presents to Hezekiah king of Judah, so that he was exalted in the sight of all nations thereafter.

2Ch 32:24 In those days Hezekiah was sick and near death, and he prayed to Jehovah; and He spoke to him and gave him a sign.

2Ch 32:25 But Hezekiah did not repay according to the favour shown him, for his heart was lifted up; therefore wrath was looming over him and over Judah and Jerusalem.

2Ch 32:26 Then Hezekiah humbled himself for the pride of his heart, he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that the wrath of Jehovah did not come upon them in the days of Hezekiah.

2Ch 32:27 Hezekiah had very great riches and honour. And he made himself treasuries for silver, for gold, for precious stones, for spices, for shields, and for all kinds of desirable items;

2Ch 32:28 storehouses for the harvest of grain, new wine, and oil; and stalls for all kinds of livestock, and folds for flocks.

2Ch 32:29 Moreover he provided cities for himself, and possessions of flocks and herds in abundance; for God had given him very much property.

2Ch 32:30 This same Hezekiah also stopped the water outlet of Upper Gihon, and brought the water by tunnel to the west side of the City of David. Hezekiah prospered in all his works.

2Ch 32:31 However, regarding the ambassadors of the princes of Babylon, whom they sent to him to inquire about the wonder that was done in the land, God withdrew from him, in order to test him, that He might know all that was in his heart.

2Ch 32:32 Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and his goodness, indeed they are written in the vision of Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, and in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.

2Ch 32:33 So Hezekiah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the best tombs of the sons of David; and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem honoured him at his death. Then Manasseh his son reigned in his place.

2Ch 33:1 Manasseh was twelve years old when he became king, and he reigned fifty-five years in Jerusalem.

2Ch 33:2 But he did evil in the sight of Jehovah, according to the abominations of the nations whom Jehovah had cast out before the children of Israel.

2Ch 33:3 For he built the high places again, which Hezekiah his father had broken down; he raised up altars for the LORD, and made groves; and he worshipped all the host of heaven and served them.

2Ch 33:4 He also built altars in the House of Jehovah, of which Jehovah had said, "In Jerusalem will My Name be forever."¹

2Ch 33:5 And he built altars for all the host of heaven in the two courts of the House of Jehovah.

2Ch 33:6 And he made his sons pass through the fire in the valley of the son of Hinnon, and He did magic and observed omens, and used sorcery, and consulted with necromancers and wizards. He did great evil before the eyes of Jehovah to anger Him.

2Ch 33:7 He even set a carved image, the idol which he had made, in the House of God, of which God had said to David and to his son Solomon, "In this House and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the branches of Israel, I will put My Name forever;

2Ch 33:8 "and I will not again remove the foot of Israel from the land which I have appointed for your fathers; only if they are careful to do all that I have commanded them, according to all of the Instructions and the statutes and the judgements by the hand of Moses."¹

2Ch 33:9 So Manasseh seduced Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to do more evil than the nations whom Jehovah had destroyed before the children of Israel.

2Ch 33:10 And Jehovah spoke to Manasseh and his people, but they would not listen.

2Ch 33:11 Therefore Jehovah brought upon them the captains of the army of the king of Assyria, who took Manasseh with hooks, bound him with bronze fetters, and carried him off to Babylon.

2Ch 33:12 Now when he was in affliction, he implored Jehovah his God, and humbled himself greatly before the God of his fathers, 2Ch 33:13 and prayed to Him; and He received his entreaty, heard his supplication, and brought him back to Jerusalem into his kingdom. Then Manasseh knew that Jehovah was God.

2Ch 33:14 After this he built a wall outside the City of David on the west side of Gihon, in the valley, as far as the entrance of the Fish Gate; and it enclosed Ophel, and he raised it to a very great height. Then he put military captains in all the fortified cities of Judah.

2Ch 33:15 He took away the foreign gods and the idol from the House of Jehovah, and all the altars that he had built in the mount of the House of Jehovah and in Jerusalem; and he cast them out of the city.

2Ch 33:16 He also repaired the altar of Jehovah, sacrificed peace offerings and thank offerings on it, and commanded Judah to serve Jehovah God of Israel.

2Ch 33:17 Nevertheless the people still sacrificed on the high places, but only to Jehovah their God.

2Ch 33:18 Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh, his prayer to his God, and the words of the seers who spoke to him in the name of Jehovah God of Israel, indeed they are written in the book of the kings of Israel.

2Ch 33:19 Also his prayer and how God received his entreaty, and all his sin and trespass, and the sites where he built high places and set up groves and carved images, before he was humbled, indeed they are written among the sayings of Hozai.

2Ch 33:20 So Manasseh rested with his fathers, and they buried him in his own house. Then his son Amon reigned in his place.

2Ch 33:21 Amon was twenty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned two years in Jerusalem.

2Ch 33:22 But he did evil in the sight of Jehovah, as his father Manasseh had done; for Amon sacrificed to all the carved images which his father Manasseh had made, and served them.

2Ch 33:23 And he did not humble himself before Jehovah, as his father Manasseh had humbled himself; but Amon trespassed more and more.

2Ch 33:24 Then his servants conspired against him, and killed him in his own house.

2Ch 33:25 But the people of the land executed all those who had conspired against King Amon. Then the people of the land made his son Josiah king in his place.

2Ch 34:1 Josiah was eight years old when he became king, and he reigned thirty-one years in Jerusalem.

2Ch 34:2 And he did what was right in the sight of Jehovah, and walked in the ways of his father David; he did not turn aside to the right hand or to the left.

2Ch 34:3 For in the eighth year of his reign, while he was still young, he began to seek the God of his father David; and in the twelfth year he began to purge Judah and Jerusalem of the high places, the groves, the carved images, and the moulded images.

2Ch 34:4 They broke down the altars of the LORD in his presence, and the pillars which were above them he cut down; and the groves, the carved images, and the moulded images he broke in pieces, and made dust of them and scattered it on the tombs of those who had sacrificed to them.

2Ch 34:5 He also burned the bones of the priests on their altars, and cleansed Judah and Jerusalem.

2Ch 34:6 And so he did in the cities of Manasseh, Ephraim, and Simeon, as far as Naphtali and all around, with axes.

2Ch 34:7 When he had broken down the altars and the groves, had beaten the carved images into powder, and cut down all the pillars throughout all the land of Israel, he returned to Jerusalem.

2Ch 34:8 Now in the eighteenth year of his reign, when he had purged the land and the house, he sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah, Maaseiah the governor of the city, and Joah the son of Joahaz the recorder, to repair the House of Jehovah his God.

2Ch 34:9 When they came to Hilkiyah the chief priest, they delivered the silver that was brought into the House of God, which the Levites who kept the doors had gathered from the hand of Manasseh and Ephraim, from all the remnant of Israel, from all Judah and Benjamin, and which they had brought back to Jerusalem.

2Ch 34:10 Then they put it in the hand of the workmen who had the oversight of the House of Jehovah; and they gave it to the workmen who worked in the House of Jehovah, to repair and restore the House.

2Ch 34:11 They gave it to the craftsmen and builders to buy hewn stone and timber for beams, and to floor the House which the kings of Judah had destroyed.

2Ch 34:12 And the men did the work faithfully. Their overseers were Jahath and Obadiah the Levites, of the sons of Merari, and Zechariah and Meshullam, of the sons of the Kohathites, to supervise.

Others of the Levites, all of whom were skillful with instruments of music, 2Ch 34:13 were over the burden bearers and were overseers of all who did work in any kind of service. And some of the Levites were scribes, officers, and gatekeepers.

2Ch 34:14 Now when they brought out the silver that was brought into the House of Jehovah, Hilkiyah the priest found the Book of the Instructions of Jehovah written by Moses.

2Ch 34:15 Then Hilkiyah answered and said to Shaphan the scribe, "I have found the Book of the Instructions in the House of Jehovah." And Hilkiyah gave the book to Shaphan.

2Ch 34:16 So Shaphan carried the book to the king, bringing the king word, saying, "All that was committed to your servants they are doing.

2Ch 34:17 "And they have gathered the silver that was offered in the House of Jehovah, and have delivered it into the hand of the overseers and the workmen."

2Ch 34:18 Then Shaphan the scribe told the king, saying, "Hilkiyah the priest has given me a book." And Shaphan read it before the king.

2Ch 34:19 Now it happened, when the king heard the words of the Instructions, that he tore his clothes.

2Ch 34:20 Then the king commanded Hilkiah, Ahikam the son of Shaphan, Abdon the son of Micah, Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah a servant of the king, saying,

2Ch 34:21 “Go, inquire of Jehovah for me, and for those who are left in Israel and Judah, concerning the words of the book that is found; for great is the wrath of Jehovah that is poured out on us, because our fathers have not kept Jehovah’s word, to do according to all that is written in this book.”

2Ch 34:22 So Hilkiah and those whom the king had appointed went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tokhath, the son of Hasrah, keeper of the wardrobe. (She dwelt in Jerusalem in the Second Quarter.) And they spoke to her to that effect.

2Ch 34:23 Then she answered them, “Thus says Jehovah God of Israel, ‘Tell the man who sent you to Me, 2Ch 34:24 “Thus says Jehovah: ‘Behold, I will bring evil on this place and on its inhabitants, all the curses that are written in the book which they have read before the king of Judah, 2Ch 34:25 ‘because they have forsaken Me and burned to other gods, that they might provoke Me to anger with all the works of their hands. Therefore My wrath will be poured out on this place, and not be quenched.’”

2Ch 34:26 “And as for the king of Judah, who sent you to inquire of Jehovah, in this manner you will speak to him, ‘Thus says Jehovah God of Israel: “Concerning the words which you have heard;

2Ch 34:27 “because your heart was tender, and you humbled yourself before God when you heard His words against this place and against its inhabitants, and you humbled yourself before Me, and you tore your clothes and wept before Me, I also have heard you,” says Jehovah.

2Ch 34:28 “Surely I will gather you to your fathers, and you will be gathered to your tomb in peace; and your eyes will not see all the evil which I will bring on this place and its inhabitants.”” So they brought back word to the king.¹

2Ch 34:29 Then the king sent and gathered all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem.

2Ch 34:30 And the king went up to the House of Jehovah, with all the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem: the priests and the Levites, and all the people, great and small; and he read in their hearing all the words of the book of the covenant which had been found in the House of Jehovah.

2Ch 34:31 Then the king stood in his place and made a covenant before Jehovah, to follow Jehovah, and to keep His commandments and His testimonies and His statutes with all his heart and all his soul, to perform the words of the covenant that were written in this book.

2Ch 34:32 And he made all who were present in Jerusalem and Benjamin take their stand for it. So the inhabitants of Jerusalem did according to the covenant of God, the God of their fathers.

2Ch 34:33 Thus Josiah removed all the abominations from all the country that belonged to the children of Israel, and made all who were present in Israel diligently serve Jehovah their God. All his days they did not depart from following Jehovah God of their fathers.

2Ch 35:1 Now Josiah kept a Passover to Jehovah in Jerusalem, and they slaughtered the Passover on the fourteenth day of the first new moon.

2Ch 35:2 And he set the priests in their duties and encouraged them for the service of the House of Jehovah.

2Ch 35:3 Then he said to the Levites who taught all Israel, who were sacred to Jehovah: "Put the sanctified ark in the House which Solomon the son of David, king of Israel, built. It will no longer be a burden on your shoulders. Now serve Jehovah your God and His people Israel.

2Ch 35:4 "Prepare yourselves according to your fathers' houses, according to your divisions, following the document of David king of Israel and the writing of Solomon his son.

2Ch 35:5 "And stand in the sanctuary according to the divisions of the fathers' houses of your brethren, the sons of the people, and according to the division of the father's house of the Levites.

2Ch 35:6 "So slaughter the Passover, sanctify yourselves, and prepare them for your brethren, that they may do according to Jehovah's word by the hand of Moses."

2Ch 35:7 Then Josiah gave the sons of the people lambs and young goats from the flock, all for Passover for all who were present, to the number of thirty thousand, as well as three thousand cattle; these were from the king's possessions.

2Ch 35:8 And his leaders gave willingly to the people, to the priests, and to the Levites. Hilkiyah, Zechariah, and Jehiel, rulers of the House of God, gave to the priests for the Passover two thousand six hundred from the flock, and three hundred cattle;

2Ch 35:9 also Conaniah, his brothers Shemaiah and Nethaneel, and Hashabiah and Jeiel and Jozabad, chief of the Levites, gave to the Levites for Passover five thousand from the flock and five hundred cattle.

2Ch 35:10 So the service was prepared, and the priests stood in their places, and the Levites in their divisions, according to the king's commandment.

2Ch 35:11 And they slaughtered the Passover; and the priests sprinkled the blood with their hands, while the Levites skinned the animals.

2Ch 35:12 Then they removed the burnt offerings that they might give them to the divisions of the fathers' houses of the sons of the people, to offer to Jehovah, as it is written in the Book of Moses. And so they did with the cattle.

2Ch 35:13 Also they cooked the Passover with fire according to the judgement; but the other sanctified offerings they cooked in pots, in caldrons, and in pans, and divided them quickly among all the sons of the people.

2Ch 35:14 Then afterwards they prepared portions for themselves and for the priests, because the priests, the sons of Aaron, were busy in offering burnt offerings and fat until night; therefore the Levites prepared portions for themselves and for the priests, the sons of Aaron.

2Ch 35:15 And the singers, the sons of Asaph, were in their places, according to the commandment of David, Asaph, Heman, and Jeduthun the king's seer. Also the gatekeepers were at each gate; they did not have to leave their position, because their brethren the Levites prepared portions for them.

2Ch 35:16 So all the service of Jehovah was prepared the same day, to keep the Passover and to offer burnt offerings on the altar of Jehovah, according to the commandment of King Josiah.

2Ch 35:17 And the children of Israel who were present kept the Passover at that time, and the Feast of Unleavened Bread for seven days.

2Ch 35:18 There had been no Passover kept in Israel like that since the days of Samuel the prophet; and none of the kings of Israel had kept such a Passover as Josiah kept, with the priests and the Levites, all Judah and Israel who were present, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

2Ch 35:19 In the eighteenth year of the reign of Josiah this Passover was kept.

2Ch 35:20 After all this, when Josiah had prepared the house, Necho king of Egypt came up to fight against Carchemish by the Euphrates; and Josiah went out against him.

2Ch 35:21 But he sent envoys to him, saying, "What have I to do with you, king of Judah? I have not come against you this day, but against the house with which I have war; for God commanded me to tremble. Refrain from meddling with God, who is with me, lest He destroy you."

2Ch 35:22 Nevertheless Josiah would not turn his face from him, but disguised himself so that he might fight with him, and did not heed the words of Necho from the mouth of God. So he came to fight in the Valley of Megiddo.

2Ch 35:23 And the archers shot King Josiah; and the king said to his servants, "Take me away, for I am severely wounded."

2Ch 35:24 Therefore his servants took him out of that chariot and put him in his second chariot, and they brought him to Jerusalem. And he died, and was buried in one of the tombs of his fathers. And all Judah and Jerusalem mourned for Josiah.

2Ch 35:25 Jeremiah also lamented for Josiah. And to this day all the singing men and the singing women speak of Josiah in their lamentations. They made it a custom in Israel; and indeed they are written in the Laments.

2Ch 35:26 Now the rest of the acts of Josiah and his goodness, according to what was written in the Instructions of Jehovah, 2Ch 35:27 and his deeds from first to last, indeed they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.

2Ch 36:1 Then the people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah, and made him king in his father's place in Jerusalem.

2Ch 36:2 Jehoahaz was twenty-three years old when he became king, and he reigned three new moons in Jerusalem.

2Ch 36:3 Now the king of Egypt deposed him at Jerusalem; and he imposed on the land a tribute of one hundred talents of silver and a talent of gold.

2Ch 36:4 Then the king of Egypt made his brother Eliakim king over Judah and Jerusalem, and changed his name to Jehoiakim. And Necho took Jehoahaz his brother and carried him off to Egypt.

2Ch 36:5 Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And he did evil in the sight of Jehovah his God.

2Ch 36:6 Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up against him, and bound him in bronze fetters to carry him off to Babylon.

2Ch 36:7 Nebuchadnezzar also carried off some of the articles from the House of Jehovah to Babylon, and put them in his palace at Babylon.

2Ch 36:8 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, the abominations which he did, and what was found against him, indeed they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah. Then Jehoiachin his son reigned in his place.

2Ch 36:9 Jehoiachin was eight years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem three new moons and ten days. And he did evil in the sight of Jehovah.

2Ch 36:10 At the end of the year King Nebuchadnezzar summoned him and took him to Babylon, with the valuable articles from the House of Jehovah, and made Zedekiah, Jehoiakim's brother, king over Judah and Jerusalem.

2Ch 36:11 Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem.

2Ch 36:12 He also did evil in the sight of Jehovah his God, and did not humble himself before Jeremiah the prophet, who spoke from the mouth of Jehovah.

2Ch 36:13 And he also rebelled against King Nebuchadnezzar, who had made him swear an oath by God; but he stiffened his neck and hardened his heart against turning to Jehovah God of Israel.

2Ch 36:14 Moreover all the leaders of the priests and the people transgressed more and more, according to all the abominations of the nations, and made the House of Jehovah unclean which He had consecrated in Jerusalem.

2Ch 36:15 And Jehovah God of their fathers sent warnings to them by His envoys, rising up early and sending them, because He had compassion on His people and on His dwelling place.

2Ch 36:16 But they mocked the envoys of God, despised His words, and scoffed at His prophets, until the wrath of Jehovah arose against His people, until there was no remedy.

2Ch 36:17 Therefore He brought against them the king of the Chaldeans, who killed their young men with the sword in the house of their sanctuary, and had no compassion on young man or virgin, on the aged or the weak; He gave them all into his hand.

2Ch 36:18 And all the articles from the House of God, great and small, the treasures of the House of Jehovah, and the treasures of the king and of his leaders, all these he took to Babylon.

2Ch 36:19 Then they burned the House of God, broke down the wall of Jerusalem, burned all its palaces with fire, and destroyed all its precious possessions.

2Ch 36:20 And those who escaped from the sword he carried away to Babylon, where they became servants to him and his sons until the reign of the kingdom of Persia,

2Ch 36:21 to fulfil Jehovah's word by the mouth of Jeremiah, until the land had enjoyed her Sabbaths. As long as she lay desolate she kept the Sabbath, to fulfil seventy years.¹

2Ch 36:22 Now in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, that Jehovah's word spoken by the mouth of Jeremiah might be fulfilled, Jehovah stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, so that he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and also put it in writing, saying,

2Ch 36:23 "Thus says Cyrus king of Persia: 'All the kingdoms of the earth Jehovah God of heaven has given to me. And He has commanded me to build Him a house at Jerusalem which is in Judah. Who is there among you of all His people? May Jehovah his God be with him, and let him go up!'"

¹ Jeshua יֵשׁוּעַ is the actual Aramaic name of Jesus, which means “Jehovah Saves”. It is written as Jeshua throughout the Aramaic Peshitta, which forms the basis for the New Covenant in this translation. The Greek translation of Jeshua is Iesous Ἰησοῦς, which is commonly translated into English as Jesus.

In a similar manner, Messiah (מָשִׁיחַ msheecha) is the Aramaic title of Jeshua. Christos Χριστός is the Greek translation of Messiah, all of which mean “The Anointed” in English. Christos is commonly transliterated into English as Christ. In this translation Jeshua’s real Aramaic name is used, as is typical for proper names. The title used tends to vary with the probable audience; for Judeans: Messiah; for everyone: Anointed or Christ.

¹² The Aramaic Peshitta here uses gowra גִּבְרָה a word which most closely translates as guardian. It can refer to a husband, father, god-father, etc. The context, including the need for fourteen generations in this sequence (vs 17), makes it clear that the correct relationship in this case is that of father, so this is Mary’s ancestry through her father’s line and Mary is herself the ‘missing’ generation. Thus Mary’s father and her future husband both had the common Jewish name of Joseph. The person translating the Peshitta into Greek incorrectly used husband for this word, rather than leaving it as guardian or using father. This also explains why there is a different begotten Jeshua, who is called the Anointed.¹

Mat 1:17 So all the generations from Abraham to David are fourteen generations, from David until the captivity in Babylon are fourteen generations, and from the captivity in Babylon until the Anointed are fourteen generations.²

Mat 1:18 Now the birth of Jeshua the Anointed was this: While His mother Mary was betrothed to Joseph, before they became united, she was found to be pregnant by the Holy Spirit.

Mat 1:19 But Joseph, her lord,³ was merciful, and he did not want to expose her, but he was thinking that he would put her away secretly.

Mat 1:20 Now while he was thinking these things, an envoy⁴ of Lord Jah⁵ appeared to him in a dream, and said to genealogy going back to David given in Luke 3, which is actually the genealogy of Mary's husband.

¹ Isa 11:1 confirms that Jeshua is God's promised Saviour.

³ That is, her fiancé, about to become her husband.

⁴ In Hebrew and Aramaic this is מַלְאָךְ mal'ak, meaning envoy or representative, but is often mistranslated as angel from the Greek aggelos. On special occasions, it may be that Jehovah sends His Son Jeshua as His envoy.

⁵ Lord Jah is the closest English translation of the Aramaic Peshitta word MarJah מַרְיָה . Mar is derived from Mara, meaning Lord. Jah is a shortened and more intimate 'nickname' for Jehovah, our God. Jah is also used fifty times in the Hebrew Old Covenants. Some translations from the Aramaic use "The Lord Jehovah" (eg Bauscher) or Master YHWH (Roth) for MarJah. Where MarJah appears in the Peshitta in a quotation from the Hebrew Writings, we use the original Hebrew name of Jehovah to emphasise the links between the Hebrew OC and the Aramaic NC. Jehovah allows His Son Jeshua (Jesus) to share this name and thus can be addressed as Lord Jah too.

him, "Joseph, son of David, do not fear to take Mary as your wife, for He that is conceived in her is from the Holy Spirit.⁶

Mat 1:21 "And she will bear a Son, and she will call His name Jeshua, for He will save His people from their sins."

Mat 1:22 Now all this was done so that which was spoken by Lord Jah⁷ through the prophet would be fulfilled, saying:

Mat 1:23 "Behold, a virgin will conceive and give birth to a Son, and they will call

⁶ The Bible and genetics confirm that Jeshua is unique. Mary is said to have conceived, meaning that one of her eggs was impregnated. But that she remained a virgin indicates that her egg, with its DNA, was directly activated by male DNA that was uniquely created for Jeshua, who had been truly begotten by Jehovah, his Father (Isa 7:14, Heb 10:5). In this way Jeshua was a new and independent Adam (1Cor 15:45). But the part of his body that came from Mary made him also a true descendant of Adam, Abraham and David (Luke 3:38, Gal 3:16, Mat 1:1, 1Chr 17:11-14) and thus the prophesied seed of the woman (Gen 3:15). Jeshua's own soul and spirit were joined to this physical body, retaining his previous character and memories, but shedding his glory (Luk 2:45-49, Joh 8:58, 17:5&24). This is how Jeshua is both David's Lord and his son (Luk 20:41-44, Mat 1:17 & 21:9), and became and remained both the Son of God and the Son of Man, even after being resurrected into his transformed body (1Co 15:44-50, Rev 2:18, 1Jo 5:10, 1Ti 2:5, Act 7:56, etc).

⁷ Lord Jah is used as in the Western Peshitta. Jehovah is indicated in Shem-Tob's Hebrew version of Matthew. Shem-Tob followed the unscriptural Rabbinical ban on using God's true name, but still indicated where Jehovah had been in the original manuscript by substituting the letter "Hey" for Jehovah. As we believe that the New Covenant was originally written in Aramaic, which was the language spoken by Jeshua and his disciples, we follow the Aramaic rather than Shem-Tob, regarding both the Hebrew and Greek manuscripts of Matthew as translations from the Aramaic.

His name Emmanuel,”¹ which is interpreted, “Our God is with us.”

Mat 1:24 Then Joseph, now aroused from his sleep, did as the envoy of Lord Jah² commanded him and he took his wife,

Mat 1:25 and he did not know her³ until after she had given birth to her firstborn Son. And she called His name Jeshua.⁴

Mat 2:1 Now once Jeshua was born in Bethlehem of Judea, in the days of King Herod, magosi⁵ came from the East to Jerusalem,

Mat 2:2 and they said, “Where is the King of the Judeans who has been born? For we have seen His star in the East and we have come to worship Him.”

Mat 2:3 And King Herod heard these things and was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him.

Mat 2:4 And he gathered all the chief priests and scribes of the people, and asked them where the Anointed would be born.

Mat 2:5 So they answered, “In Bethlehem of Judea, for thus it is written by the prophet:

Mat 2:6 ‘But you, Bethlehem of Judea,

¹ From Isa 7:14, and confirmed in Luk 1:27-35. The Peshitta has the virgin: Bethoolta ܒܬܘܠܬܐ. The Aramaic Peshitta Old Covenant and Septuagint both use virgin to describe this woman in Isa 7:14, while most extant Hebrew manuscripts have substituted “young maiden”, which usually refers to a virgin.

² As in the Peshitta. Jehovah is indicated Shem-Tob’s Hebrew Matthew.

³ Similar to the Old Covenant, this means that he did not have sexual intercourse with her until after Jeshua was born.

⁴ As noted above, Jeshua means “Jehovah Saves”. This reminds us that the plan of salvation is indeed the plan of Jeshua’s Father, Jehovah God.

⁵ The magosi were devout worshippers of Jehovah, likely from the Israelite branches in Parthia or Media (Act 2:9), and were not pagan magicians. Some historians suggest the original magosi were trained by Daniel.

you will not be the least in Judea; for out of you will go a King who will be shepherd of the kings of My people Israel.”⁶

Mat 2:7 Then Herod secretly called the magosi, and learned from them at what time the star appeared to them.

Mat 2:8 And he sent them to Bethlehem and said to them, “Go and inquire carefully for the boy, and when you have found him, come and inform me, so that I also can go and worship him.”

Mat 2:9 When they heard from the king, they departed; and behold, the star which they had seen in the East went before them, until it came and stood over where the Boy was.

Mat 2:10 When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceedingly great joy.

Mat 2:11 Then they entered the house and they saw the Boy with His mother Mary, and they fell and worshipped Him. And they opened their treasures and presented gifts to Him: gold, myrrh and frankincense.

Mat 2:12 Then it was shown to them in a dream that they should not return to Herod, so they went to their own country by a different road.

Mat 2:13 Now when they had left, an envoy of Lord Jah⁷ appeared to Joseph in a dream, and said to him, “Arise, take the Boy and His mother and flee to Egypt, and remain there until I call you; for Herod is going to seek the Boy to destroy Him.”

Mat 2:14 Then Joseph rose, took the Boy and His mother by night and fled to Egypt, Mat 2:15 and remained there until the death of Herod, that the thing might be fulfilled which was spoken by Lord Jah⁸ through the prophet, saying, “From Egypt I called My Son.”⁹

⁶ Mic 5:2-5, Joh 7:42

⁷ As in the Aramaic Peshitta. Jehovah is indicated in Shem-Tob’s Hebrew Matthew.

⁸ As in the Aramaic Peshitta.

⁹ Hos 11:1

Mat 2:16 Then Herod, when he saw that he was mocked by the magosi, was very angry; and he sent out and killed all the boys who were in Bethlehem and in all its region, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had learned from the magosi.

Mat 2:17 Then the thing was fulfilled that was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet, who said:

Mat 2:18 “A voice was heard in Ramah, crying and great wailing, Rachel crying for her sons, refusing to be comforted, because they are not.”¹

Mat 2:19 And when King Herod had died, the envoy of Lord Jah² appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt,

Mat 2:20 and said to him, “Arise, take the Boy and His mother, and go to the land of Israel, for those who sought the Boy’s soul are dead.”

Mat 2:21 Then Joseph arose, took the Boy and His mother, and came to the land of Israel.

Mat 2:22 But when he heard that Archelaus was king in Judea instead of his father Herod, he was afraid to go there. And it was revealed to him in a dream that he should go to the land of Galilee.

Mat 2:23 Then he came and dwelt in a city called Nazareth, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophets; “He will be called a Nazarene.”³

Mat 3:1 In those days John the Immerser⁴ came and preached in the wilderness of Judea, Mat 3:2 and said, “Repent, for the Kingdom of Heaven is near!”

Mat 3:3 For this is he who was spoken of by the prophet Isaiah: “The voice of one crying in the wilderness: ‘Prepare the way of Jehovah, make His path straight.’”⁵

Mat 3:4 And John himself was clothed in camel’s hair, with a leather girdle around his loins; and his food was locusts and wild honey.

Mat 3:5 Then all Jerusalem, all Judea, and the land surrounding the Jordan went out to him

Mat 3:6 and were immersed by him in the Jordan River when they confessed their sins.

Mat 3:7 But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees coming to be immersed, he said to them, “Product of vipers! Who has told you to flee from the wrath to come?

Mat 3:8 “Therefore do the fruits that are worthy of repentance, Mat 3:9 “and do not suppose and say within yourselves, ‘We have Abraham as our father.’ for I say to you that God is able to raise up children to Abraham from these rocks.

Mat 3:10 “And behold! The axe is placed on the root of all the trees. Therefore the trees which do not bring forth good fruit will be cut down and thrown into the fire.

Mat 3:11 “I immerse you with water unto repentance, but He who will come after me is stronger than I. I am not worthy to remove His sandals. He will immerse you with the Holy Spirit and with fire.

⁵ From Isa 40:3. Note that God’s Name Jehovah is used as that was in the original Old Covenant Hebrew and Septuagint translation of this quote used by the writers of the New Covenant. Throughout this version God’s Name is used in each quote from the Old Covenants where it was used in the originals. Later copies removed Jehovah from both the Septuagint and the Greek New Covenant translations due to unBiblical Pharisaical (Judaism) and Catholic traditions. Also indicated in the Shem-Tob Hebrew Matthew.

² As in the Peshitta, Jehovah is indicated in Shem-Tob’s Hebrew Matthew.

³ There is no currently known prophecy in the OC. This may be a play on words, using the letters NZR from Nazareth to indicate ‘netzer’, meaning ‘branch’ as in Isa 11:1.

⁴ Commonly ‘translated’ as baptizer from the Greek, though immerser is the correct translation from both the Aramaic and Greek.

Mat 3:12 "His winnowing fan is in His hand, and He will cleanse His threshing floor, and gather the wheat into His granary; but He will burn the chaff in the fire that cannot be extinguished."¹

Mat 3:13 Then Jeshua came from Galilee to John at the Jordan to be immersed by him.

Mat 3:14 But John refused Him, and said, "I should be immersed by You, and You are coming to me?"

Mat 3:15 Then Jeshua answered and said to him, "Allow it now, for such is proper for us to fulfil all righteousness." Then he allowed it.

Mat 3:16 And when Jeshua was immersed, He arose from the water at once; and heaven was opened to Him, and *they*² saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and it came upon Him.

Mat 3:17 And behold! A voice came from heaven that said, "This is My beloved Son, in whom I am pleased."

Mat 4:1 Then Jeshua was taken by the Holy Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil.³

Mat 4:2 And He fasted forty days and forty nights, after which He was hungry.⁴

Mat 4:3 Then he who was tempting approached and said to Him, "If you are the Son of God, say to these stones 'Become bread.'"

Mat 4:4 But He replied and said, "It is written, 'The Son of Man does not live by bread alone, but by all the words that proceed from the mouth of Jehovah.'"⁵

³ Devil means Accuser.

⁴ For other significant periods of forty days, see Gen 7:4, Exo 24:18, Num 13:25, 1Ki 19:8, Mar 1:13, Luk 4:2 & Act 1:3. Also, Jeshua's 40 days in the wilderness remind us of Israel wandering in the wilderness for forty years (Num 14:33-34).

⁵ As in Deu 8:3: Jehovah is not indicated in the Peshitta or Shem-Tob's Hebrew Matthew.

Mat 4:5 Then the devil took Him into the holy city and set Him on the edge of the Palace,⁶

Mat 4:6 and said to Him, "If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down. For it is written: 'He commands His envoys concerning you,'⁷ and, 'Upon their hands they will bear you up, so you will not strike your foot against a stone.'"⁸

Mat 4:7 Jeshua said to him, "Again, it is written, 'You will not tempt Jehovah your God.'"⁹

Mat 4:8 Again, the devil took Him up on a very high mountain, and showed Him all the kingdoms of the world and their glory.

Mat 4:9 And said to Him, "I will give you all these if you will fall and worship me."

Mat 4:10 Then Jeshua said to him, "Leave, Satan!¹⁰ For it is written, 'You will worship Jehovah your God, and you will serve only Him.'"¹¹

Mat 4:11 Then the devil left Him, and behold, envoys came and served Him.

Mat 4:12 Now when Jeshua heard that John was arrested, He departed to Galilee.

Mat 4:13 And He left Nazareth, and came and dwelt in Capernaum, on the edge of the sea, bordering Zebulun and Naphtali,

Mat 4:14 that the thing might be fulfilled which was spoken through Isaiah the prophet, saying:

Mat 4:15 "The land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, the way of the sea, over the Jordan, Galilee of the gentiles:

Mat 4:16 "the people who sat in darkness saw a great light, and upon those who sat in the land and shadow of death, a light has dawned for them.”¹

Mat 4:17 From then Jeshua began to preach and to say, “Repent, for the Kingdom of Heaven is near.”

Mat 4:18 Now Jeshua, walking by the edge of the Sea of Galilee, saw two brothers, Simon called Peter, and Andrew his brother, who were casting a net into the sea; for they were fishermen.

Mat 4:19 And Jeshua said to them, “Follow Me, and I will make you fishers of the descendants of men.”

Mat 4:20 Then they left their nets at once and followed Him.

Mat 4:21 And when He went on from there, He saw two other brothers, Jacob² the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, in the boat with Zebedee their father, who were mending their nets. And Jeshua called them, Mat 4:22 and they left the boat and their father at once, and followed Him.

Mat 4:23 Now Jeshua would preach in all Galilee, and would teach in their synagogues, and He preached the Good News of the kingdom, and he healed every sickness and disease among the people.

Mat 4:24 Then His fame was heard in all Syria; and they brought to Him all those who were very sick with various diseases, and those who were oppressed by pain and demon possessed and paralytics; and He healed them.

Mat 4:25 And a great crowd followed Him; from Galilee, and from Decapolis, Jerusalem, Judea, and beyond the Jordan.

Mat 5:1 And when Jeshua saw the crowd,

² Both the Aramaic (Jaḳob יַעֲקֹב) and Greek (Jacobus Ἰάκωβος) manuscripts consistently show this name as Jacob, not James, throughout the New Covenant. This error goes all the way back to Wycliffe. We follow the original manuscripts in this, so even the Book of James becomes the Book of Jacob, as it was originally named.

He went up the mountain, and when He was seated His disciples came near to Him.

Mat 5:2 Then He opened His mouth and taught them, saying:

Mat 5:3 “Blessed are they who are poor in Spirit, for theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven.³

Mat 5:4 “Blessed are they who mourn, for they will be comforted.⁴

Mat 5:5 “Blessed are they who are gentle, for they will inherit the earth.⁵

Mat 5:6 “Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be satisfied.⁶

Mat 5:7 “Blessed are they who are merciful, for on them will be mercy.⁷

Mat 5:8 “Blessed are those who are pure in their hearts, for they will see God.⁸

Mat 5:9 “Blessed are they who make peace, for they will be called the children of God.⁹

Mat 5:10 “Blessed are those who are persecuted because of righteousness, for the Kingdom of Heaven is theirs.¹⁰

Mat 5:11 “Blessed are you when they revile you and persecute you, and they falsely say every evil word against you because of Me,¹¹

Mat 5:12 “then rejoice and be glad, for your reward in heaven is great, for so they persecuted the prophets who were before you.¹²

Mat 5:17 “Do not think that I have come to remove the Instructions² or the Prophets. I did not come to remove but to fulfil.

Mat 5:18 “Truly, I say to you, that until heaven and earth pass away, not even one Yohd or one stroke will pass from the Instructions until everything has happened.³

Mat 5:19 “Therefore everyone who removes even the smallest of these commandments, and teaches this to the children of men, will be called the least in the Kingdom of Heaven. But everyone who will do and will teach them, that one will be called great in the Kingdom of Heaven.

² Torah תּוֹרָה in Hebrew, and Namoosa נְמוּסָא in Aramaic. Torah/namoosa means all of God’s Instructions, not just His Laws.

³ As in Jer 33:20-21. The Yohd (י) is the smallest Hebrew/Aramaic letter. A stroke סְרָטָא (serta) is even smaller, one of the points indicating a vowel, such as the Patah (.), a small line under a consonant representing an “a”. This indicates that ‘pointed’ Hebrew and Aramaic writing was well known in Jeshua’s time, and was likely taught to Moses by God. Revelation shows that not ‘everything’ has happened yet, nor have heaven and earth passed away, so God’s Instructions (Laws) are certainly still in force. Also see Luk 16:17.

Mat 5:20 “For I say to you, that unless your righteousness becomes greater than that of the scribes and the Pharisees, you will not enter into the Kingdom of Heaven.

Mat 5:21 “You have heard that it was said to the ancients, ‘You will not murder,’⁴ and whoever murders will be condemned to judgement.

Mat 5:22 “But I say to you that anyone who provokes his brother to anger without a cause will be condemned to judgement. And anyone who says to his brother, ‘I spit on you!’ will be condemned to the assembly. And anyone who says, ‘You are a coward!’⁵ will be condemned to Gehenna fire.

Mat 5:23 “Therefore if you bring your offering to the altar, and there you remember that your brother holds a certain grudge against you, Mat 5:24 “leave your offering there before the altar, and first go and reconcile with your brother, and then come and offer your offering.

Mat 5:30 “And if your right hand causes you to stumble, cut it off and cast it from you; for it is better for you that one of your members perish, than for your whole body to be cast into Gehenna.²

Mat 5:31 “It has been said that he who puts away his wife will give her a writing of repudiation.’

Mat 5:32 “But I say to you that anyone who divorces his wife apart from a case of fornication causes her to commit adultery; and whoever takes her that is divorced commits adultery.

Mat 5:33 “Again you have heard that it was said to the ancients, ‘You will not lie in an oath, but you will complete your oaths to Jehovah.’³

Mat 5:34 “But I say to you, you should not swear oaths at all: not by heaven, for it is God’s throne;

Mat 5:35 “and not by the earth, for it is the footstool beneath His feet; and not by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King.

Mat 5:36 “And you should not swear by your head, because you cannot make one part of a hair white or black.

Mat 5:37 “But your word should be ‘Yes’ for ‘Yes,’ and ‘No,’ for ‘No.’ Anything that is more than these is evil.

Mat 5:40 “And he that wants to take you to court and take away your coat, let him have your tunic also.

Mat 5:41 “He who compels you to go one mile, go with him two.

Mat 5:42 “He who asks you, give to him, and he who wants to borrow from you, do not deny him.

Mat 5:43 “You have heard that it was said, ‘You will love your neighbour and hate your enemy.’⁶ you as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the marketplaces, that they may be praised by the descendants of men. Truly, I say to you, they have received their reward.

Mat 6:3 “But whenever you do your charity, you should not let your left hand know what your right hand does,

Mat 6:4 “that your charity may be in secret; and your Father who sees in secret will Himself reward you with revelation.¹

Mat 6:5 “And whenever you pray, you should not be like the hypocrites that love to stand in the synagogues and on the corners of the marketplaces to pray, that they may be seen by the descendants of men. Truly, I say to you, they have received their reward.

Mat 6:6 “But you, when you pray, enter your inner room and close your door and pray to your Father who is in the secret place; and your Father who sees in secret will reward you with revelation.

Mat 6:7 “And when you pray, you should not chatter on as the pagans do, for they hope that by their many words they will be heard.

Mat 6:8 “Therefore do not imitate them, for your Father knows what you need before you ask Him.

Mat 6:9 “Therefore, pray like this: Our Father in heaven, Your Name be sanctified.

Mat 6:10 Your kingdom come. Your will be done; as in heaven, also on earth.

Mat 6:11 Give us the bread we need this day.

Mat 6:12 And forgive us our offences, as we also forgive those who have offended us.

Mat 6:13 And do not bring us into trials, but deliver us from evil. For Yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever and ever.

Mat 6:14 “For if you forgive people their transgressions, your Father who is in heaven will also forgive you.

Mat 6:15 “But if you do not forgive people, your Father will also not forgive your transgressions.

Mat 6:16 “And when you fast, you should not look sad like the hypocrites, for they disfigure their expressions so they are seen to be fasting by people. Truly, I say to you, they have received their reward.

Mat 6:17 “But you, whenever you fast, wash your face and anoint your head, Mat 6:18 “so that you do not appear to people to be fasting, but to your Father who is in the secret place; and your Father who sees in secret will reward you.

Mat 6:19 “Do not gather treasure for yourself on earth, where moth and rust corrupt and where thieves break in and steal;

Mat 6:20 “but place your treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust corrupts and where thieves do not break in and steal.

Mat 6:21 “For where your treasure is, there your heart is also.

Mat 6:22 “The lamp of the body is the eye. Therefore, if your eye is pure, then your whole body will be full of light.

Mat 6:23 “But if your eye is evil, your whole body will be in darkness. Therefore, if the light that is in you is dark, how great is your darkness!

Mat 6:24 “No one can serve two masters; for either he will hate one and love the other, or else he will honour one and despise the other. You are not able to serve God and Mammon.²

Mat 6:25 “Because of this I say to you, you should not worry about your soul, what you will eat and what you will drink;

² Mammon is the god of greed. Perhaps is it where the word money came from.

nor about what you will wear on your body. Is not the soul more than food and the body more than clothing?

Mat 6:26 “Behold the birds in heaven; they do not sow nor reap and they do not gather into barns; yet your Father who is in heaven feeds them. Are you not greater than they?”

Mat 6:27 “Who among you can add one cubit to his stature by worrying?”

Mat 6:28 “So why are you worrying about clothing? Consider the lilies in the wild, how they grow without toil and without spinning;

Mat 6:29 “and yet I say to you that not even Solomon in all his glory was clothed like one of these.

Mat 6:30 “But if the grass that is in the field today, and tomorrow is thrown into the oven are clothed by God like this, will He not clothe you much more, ones of little faith?”

Mat 6:31 “Therefore do not worry or say, ‘What will we eat?’ or ‘What will we drink?’ or ‘What will we wear?’

Mat 6:32 “For after all these things the peoples of the world¹ seek. But your Father who is in heaven knows that you need all these things.

Mat 6:33 “So seek first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things will be added to you.

Mat 6:34 “Therefore do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about itself. For sufficient for the day is its evil.

Mat 7:1 “You should not judge, that you not be judged.

Mat 7:2 “For by the judgement that you judge, you will be judged; and by the measure that you measure, it will be measured to you.

Mat 7:3 “And why do you see the splinter in your brother’s eye, but you do not notice the plank in your eye?”

Mat 7:4 “Or how can you say to your brother, ‘Let me remove the splinter from your eye’; when behold, a plank is in your eye?”

Mat 7:5 “Hypocrite! First remove the plank from your eye, and then you can choose to remove the splinter from your brother’s eye.

Mat 7:6 “You should not give your earrings to dogs; nor offer your pearls before wild boars, lest they trample them with their feet, and they pursue and wound you.

Mat 7:7 “Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you.

Mat 7:8 “For everyone who asks will receive, and he who seeks will find, and to the one who knocks it will be opened.

Mat 7:9 “And what person is there among you who, if their son asks for bread, will hand him a stone?”

Mat 7:10 “Or if he asks for a fish, will they hand him a snake?”

Mat 7:11 “Therefore, if you who are imperfect know to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father who is in heaven give good gifts to those who ask Him!

Mat 7:12 “Whatever you want people to do to you, you also do this to them, for this is the Instructions and the Prophets.

Mat 7:13 “Enter by the narrow gate; for wide is the gate and broad is the way that leads to destruction, and there are many who go in it.

Mat 7:14 “How narrow is the gate and strict is the way which leads to life, and there are few who find it.²

Mat 7:15 “Beware of false prophets, who come among you clothed as lambs, but within they are ravenous wolves.

Mat 7:16 “You will know them by their fruits. Do men pick grapes from thornbushes or figs from thistles?”

Mat 7:17 “Even so, every good tree produces excellent fruit, but an evil tree produces evil fruit.

² Psa 118:19-20, Luk 13:24-25

Mat 7:18 "A good tree is unable to produce evil fruit, nor can an evil tree produce excellent fruit.

Mat 7:19 "Every tree that does not produce excellent fruit will be cut down and thrown into the fire.¹

Mat 7:20 "Therefore by their fruits you will know them.

Mat 7:21 "Not everyone who says to Me, 'My Lord, My Lord,' will enter into the Kingdom of Heaven, but whoever does the will of My Father who is in heaven.

Mat 7:22 "Many will say to Me in that day, 'My Lord, My Lord, did we not prophesy in Your name? And we have cast out demons in Your name, and we have performed many miracles in Your name.'

Mat 7:23 "And then I will declare to them, 'I have not known you from the beginning of time; remove yourselves far from Me, you workers of iniquity!'²

Mat 7:24 "Therefore whoever hears My words and does them will be like a wise man who built his house on the rock:

Mat 7:25 "and the rain descended, the floods came, and the winds blew and beat on that house; and it did not fall, for its foundation was laid on the rock.

Mat 7:26 "Now anyone who hears My words and does not do them will be like a foolish man who built his house on the sand:

Mat 7:27 "and the rain descended, the floods came, and the winds blew and beat on that house; and it fell. And its fall was great."³

Mat 7:28 And it happened, when Jeshua had finished these words, that the crowds were marvelling at His teaching,

Mat 7:29 for He taught them as an authority, and not as their scribes and the Pharisees.

Mat 8:1 When He came down from the mountain, great crowds followed Him.

Mat 8:2 And behold, a certain leper came and worshipped Him, saying, "My Lord, if You want to, You can make me clean."

Mat 8:3 Then Jeshua stretched out His hand and touched him, saying, "I want to; be clean." And immediately his leprosy was cleansed.

Mat 8:4 And Jeshua said to him, "Why would you tell this to any man? Instead, go and show yourself to the priests, and offer the offering that Moses commanded, for them to witness."

Mat 8:5 Now when Jeshua entered Capernaum, a certain centurion approached Him, pleading with Him,

Mat 8:6 and he said, "My Lord, my boy is lying in the house paralysed, and in terrible pain."

Mat 8:7 Jeshua said to him, "I will come and heal him."

Mat 8:8 The centurion replied and said, "My Lord, I am not worthy that You should come under my roof. But only speak the word, and my child will be healed.

Mat 8:9 "For I also am a person under authority, and there are soldiers under my hand. And I say to this one, 'Go,' and he goes; and to another, 'Come,' and he comes; and to my servant, 'Do this,' and he does it."

Mat 8:10 When Jeshua heard it, He marvelled, and said to those who had come with Him, "Truly, I say to you, not even in Israel have I found faith like this!

Mat 8:11 "And I say to you that many will come from the east and the west, and sit down with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob in the Kingdom of Heaven.

Mat 8:12 "But the children of the kingdom will be cast into the outer darkness. There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth."

Mat 8:13 Then Jeshua said to the centurion, “Go; as you have believed, so it will be done for you.” And his son was healed at that moment.

Mat 8:14 Now Jeshua came to Simon’s house, and He saw his mother-in-law lying down, for a fever had taken her.

Mat 8:15 Then He touched her hand, and the fever left her. And she arose and served Him.

Mat 8:16 When evening had come, they brought many to Him who were demonised. And He cast out their demons with a word, and He healed all of them who were badly afflicted,

Mat 8:17 so that which was spoken by Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled, who said: “He took away our infirmities and He bore away our sicknesses.”¹

Mat 8:18 Now when Jeshua saw the great crowds that were surrounding Him, He commanded them to depart to the other side.

Mat 8:19 Then a certain scribe came up and said to Him, “Master,² I will follow You wherever You go.”

Mat 8:20 Jeshua said to him, “Foxes have holes and the birds of heaven have nests, but the Son of Mankind has nowhere to lay His head.”

Mat 8:21 Then another of His disciples said to Him, “My Lord, first allow me to go and bury my father.”

Mat 8:22 But Jeshua said to him, “Come, follow Me, and leave the dead to bury their dead.”

Mat 8:23 Now when Jeshua went up into a boat, His disciples went up with Him.

Mat 8:24 And behold, a great tempest arose on the sea, so that the boat was covered with the waves. But Jeshua was asleep.

Mat 8:25 Then His disciples came to Him and woke Him, saying, “Our Lord, save us! We are perishing!”

² Aramaic and Hebrew is רַבִּי Rabbi, meaning a Master of the Torah (a Teacher).

Mat 8:26 Jeshua said to them, “Why are you fearful, O you of little faith?” Then He got up and rebuked the winds and the sea and there was a great calm.

Mat 8:27 And the men marvelled, saying, “Who is this, that the winds and the sea obey Him?”³

Mat 8:28 When Jeshua came to the other side, to the country of the Gaderenes, two demonised men met Him, coming out of the burial houses, so extremely evil that no one was able to cross that way.

Mat 8:29 And they cried out, saying, “What do we have to do with each other, Jeshua, Son of God? Have You come here to torment us before the time?”

Mat 8:30 Now a distance from them there was a large herd of pigs feeding.

Mat 8:31 So these demons begged Him, saying, “If You cast us out, allow us to go into the herd of pigs.”

Mat 8:32 Jeshua said to them, “Go.” And they came out at once, and they went into the pigs. And the whole herd ran straight over a cliff and fell into the sea, and they died in the sea.

Mat 8:33 Then those who were herding them fled; and they went to the town and revealed everything that had happened, even about those demonised men.

Mat 8:34 And the whole town came out to meet with Jeshua. And when they saw Him, they begged Him to depart from their region.

Mat 9:1 So He got up into a boat and crossed over, and came to His city.

Mat 9:2 And they brought a paralytic lying on a pallet to Him. And Jeshua saw their faith, and said to the paralytic, “Take heart, My son; your sins are forgiven to you.”

Mat 9:3 But some of the scribes said to themselves, “This one blasphemes!”

Mat 9:4 But Jeshua knew their thoughts, and said to them, “Why do you think evil in your hearts?”

³ Psa 89:8-9 & Mat 14:22-33

Mat 9:5 “For which is easier: saying, ‘Your sins are forgiven to you,’ or saying, ‘Arise and walk’?”

Mat 9:6 “But that you may know that the Son of Mankind has authority on earth to forgive sins;” He said to the paralytic, “Arise, take up your pallet, and go to your house.”

Mat 9:7 And he arose and went to his house.

Mat 9:8 And when the crowds saw it, they were frightened and gave glory to God who had given such authority to the children of men.

Mat 9:9 Then as Jeshua passed on from there, He saw a person named Matthew sitting at the tax office. And He said to him, “Come, follow Me.” And he arose and followed Him.

Mat 9:10 And when they reclined in the house, many tax collectors and sinners came and reclined with Jeshua and His disciples.

Mat 9:11 And when the Pharisees saw it, they said to His disciples, “Why does your Teacher eat with tax collectors and sinners?”

Mat 9:12 But when Jeshua heard that, He said to them, “Those who are healthy do not need a physician, rather those who are badly afflicted.

Mat 9:13 “Go and learn what this means: ‘I require mercy and not sacrifice.’¹ For I did not come to call the righteous, but the sinners.”²

Mat 9:14 Then the disciples of John approached Him, and said, “Why do we and the Pharisees often fast, but Your disciples do not fast?”

Mat 9:15 Jeshua said to them, “Why would the sons at the wedding feast fast as long as the bridegroom is with them? But the days are coming when the bridegroom will be taken away from them, and then they will fast.

Mat 9:16 “No one puts a new patch on a worn-out garment, lest the patch tears away the seam, and the hole in the garment is made larger.

Mat 9:17 “Nor do people put new wine into worn-out wineskins, lest the wineskins tear, the wine is spilled, and the wineskins are ruined.³ Instead, they put new wine into new wineskins, and both are preserved.”

Mat 9:18 While He spoke these things to them, a certain ruler approached and worshipped Him, and said, “My daughter is dead now. Just come and place Your hand on her and she will live.”

Mat 9:19 So Jeshua and His disciples arose and followed him.

Mat 9:20 And behold, a woman who had a flow of her blood for twelve years came from behind him and touched the edge of His garment;

Mat 9:21 for she said to herself, “Even if I only touch His garment, I will be healed.”

Mat 9:22 And Jeshua turned around, saw her and said to her, “Be comforted, My daughter; your faith has made you alive.” And the woman was healed from that moment.

Mat 9:23 And when Jeshua came to the ruler’s house, and saw the wailers and the crowds in an uproar, Mat 9:24 He said to them, “Go away, for the girl is not dead, but is sleeping.” And they were laughing at Him.

Mat 9:25 And when He had dismissed the crowds, He went in and took her by the hand, and the girl arose.

Mat 9:26 And the news of this went out into all this land.

Mat 9:27 When Jeshua departed from there, two blind men followed Him, crying out and saying, “Son of David, have mercy on us!”

Mat 9:28 And when He had come to the house, those blind men approached Him.

Jeshua said to them, "Do you believe that I am able to do this?" They said to Him, "Yes, our Lord."

Mat 9:29 Then He touched their eyes and said, "As you have believed, let it be to you."

Mat 9:30 And at once their eyes were opened. And Jeshua admonished them, saying, "See that no one knows."

Mat 9:31 But they went out and spread His fame in all that country.

Mat 9:32 And when Jeshua went out, they brought to Him a mute that had a demon in him.

Mat 9:33 And after the demon was cast out, that mute spoke. And the crowds marvelled, and they said, "Such as this has never been seen in Israel!"

Mat 9:34 But the Pharisees said, "By the ruler of the demons He casts out demons."

Mat 9:35 And Jeshua was going into all the cities and the villages, and would teach in their assemblies, preaching the Good News of the kingdom, and healing all of their diseases and all of their afflictions.

Mat 9:36 And when Jeshua saw the crowds, He had compassion on them, for they were weary and scattered, like sheep that have no shepherd.

Mat 9:37 Then He said to His disciples, "The harvest is great, but the labourers are few.

Mat 9:38 "Therefore pray to the Lord of the harvest to send labourers into His harvest."

Mat 10:1 Then He called His twelve disciples, and He gave them authority over unclean spirits, that they could cast them out, and to heal all afflictions and diseases.

Mat 10:2 Now the names of the twelve apostles are these: first, Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother, Jacob the son of Zebedee, and John his brother,

Mat 10:3 Philip and Bartholomew,

Thomas and Matthew the tax collector, Jacob the son of Alphaeus, and Lebai, who was called Thadi, Mat 10:4 Simon the Zealot, and Judas Iscariot who betrayed Him.

Mat 10:5 These twelve Jeshua sent out and commanded them, saying: "Do not go into the way of the gentiles, and do not enter into the cities of the Samaritans.

Mat 10:6 "But go instead to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.

Mat 10:7 "And as you go, preach and say that the Kingdom of Heaven is near."

Mat 10:8 "Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers¹ and cast out demons. Freely you have received, freely give.²

Mat 10:9 "Do not take gold nor silver nor copper in your purses, Mat 10:11 "And in whatever city or town you enter, inquire who is worthy in it, and stay there until you depart.³

Mat 10:12 "And when you go into a household, ask for that house's peace.

Mat 10:13 "If the household is worthy, then your peace will come upon it. But if it is not worthy, your peace will return to you.

Mat 10:14 "And whoever does not receive you and does not listen to your words, when you depart from that house or town, shake off the dust from your feet.

Mat 10:15 "Truly, I say to you that it will be more tranquil for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah in the day of judgement than for that city!

Mat 10:16 "Behold, I send you out as lambs among wolves. Therefore be wise as serpents and harmless as doves.

scourge you in their synagogues.

Mat 10:18 “And they will take you before governors and kings for My sake, as a witness to them and to the gentiles.

Mat 10:19 “But when they deliver you up, do not worry about how or what you will say, for it will be given to you in that hour what you should say;

Mat 10:20 “for it will not be you speaking, but the Spirit of your Father speaking through you.

Mat 10:21 “And brother will deliver up brother to death, and a father his child; and children will rise up against their parents and kill them.

Mat 10:22 “And you will be hated by all men because of My Name. But whoever endures to the end will Live.

Mat 10:23 “But when they persecute you in this city, flee to another. For truly, I say to you, you will not have completed all the cities of the house of Israel before the Son of Mankind comes.

Mat 10:24 “There is no disciple that is greater than his master, nor a servant than his lord.

Mat 10:25 “It is sufficient for a disciple to be like his master, and a servant like his lord. If they call the lord of the house Beelzebub, how much more those of his household!

Mat 10:26 “Therefore you will not be afraid of them. For there is nothing covered that will not be revealed, and hidden that will not be known.

Mat 10:27 “Whatever I tell you in the darkness, you say it in the light; and whatever you hear with your ears, you preach it on the housetops.

Mat 10:28 “And you should not be afraid of those who kill the body but are not able to kill the soul. But rather be afraid of Him who is able to destroy both body and soul in Gehenna.¹

Mat 10:32 “Therefore everyone who confesses Me before the children of men, I will also confess them before My Father who is in heaven.

Mat 10:34 “Do not think that I came to bring peace on earth. I did not come to bring peace but a sword.

Mat 10:35 “For I have come to divide a man against his father, and a daughter against her mother, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law.

the Righteous One.

Mat 10:42 “And everyone who gives a drink to one of these little ones, even a cup of cold water, in the name of a disciple, truly, I say to you, that he will not lose his reward.”

Mat 11:1 Now it happened, when Jeshua finished commanding His twelve disciples, that He departed from there to teach and to preach in their cities.

Mat 11:2 And when John heard in prison about the works of the Anointed, he sent word through his disciples

Mat 11:3 and said to Him, “Are You He who will come, or are we to expect another?”

Mat 11:4 Jeshua answered and said to them, “Go and tell John that which you hear and see:

Mat 11:5 “The blind can see and the lame are walking; the lepers are cleansed and the deaf are hearing; the dead are raised up and the poor have been given hope.¹

Mat 11:6 “And blessed is he who is not offended in Me.”

Mat 11:7 And when they left, Jeshua began saying to the crowds concerning John: “What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken by the wind?

Mat 11:8 “And if not, what did you go out to see? A man clothed in soft garments? Behold, those who wear soft clothing are in the house of a king.

Mat 11:9 “And if not, what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I say to you, and more than a prophet.

Mat 11:10 “For this is he about whom it is written: ‘Behold, I send My envoy before Your face, so he will prepare the way before You.’²

Mat 11:11 “Truly, I say to you, never before among those born of women has there been one greater than John the Immerser; but he who is least in the Kingdom of Heaven is greater than he.

Mat 11:12 “And from the days of John the Immerser until now the Kingdom of Heaven suffers violence, and the violent are robbing it.³

Mat 11:13 “For all the prophets and the Instructions prophesied until John.

Mat 11:14 “And if you are willing to accept it, this is Elijah who was to come.

Mat 11:15 “He who has ears to hear, let him hear!

Mat 11:16 “But to what will I liken this generation? It is like children sitting in the street and calling to their friends, Mat 11:17 “and saying: ‘We sang for you, and you did not dance; we mourned to you, and you did not lament.’

Mat 11:18 “For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, ‘There is a demon in him.’

Mat 11:19 “The Son of Mankind came eating and drinking, and they say, ‘Behold, a gluttonous person and he drinks wine, and is a friend of tax collectors and sinners!’ But wisdom is justified by its works.”

Mat 11:20 Then He began to reproach those cities where most of His miracles had been done, and they did not repent:

Mat 11:21 And He said, “Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the miracles had been done in Tyre and Sidon which were done in you, perhaps they would have repented in sackcloth and ashes.

Mat 11:22 “But I say to you, it will be easier for Tyre and Sidon in the day of judgement than for you.

Mat 11:23 “And you, Capernaum, were you exalted into heaven? You will be brought down to Sheol; for if the miracles had been done in Sodom which were done in you, she would still be standing until this day.¹

Mat 11:24 “But I say to you that it will be easier for the land of Sodom in the day of judgement than for you.”

Mat 11:25 At that time Jeshua replied and said, “I give thanks to You, My Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and the intellectuals and You have revealed them to children.”²

Mat 11:26 “Yes, My Father, for so it was desirable before You.

Mat 11:27 “Everything has been delivered to Me from My Father, and no one knows the Son except the Father. Nor does anyone know the Father except the Son, and he to whom the Son wills to reveal Him.

Mat 11:28 “Come to Me, all you who labour and carry burdens, and I will give you rest.

Mat 11:29 “Take on My yoke and learn from Me, because I am peaceful and humble in My heart, and you will find peace for your souls,

Mat 11:30 “for My yoke is pleasant and My burden is light.”

Mat 12:1 At that time Jeshua was walking through the fields on the Sabbath. And His disciples became hungry, and began to pick grain and to eat.

Mat 12:2 But when the Pharisees saw them, they said to Him, “Behold, your disciples are doing something not lawful to do on the Sabbath!”³

Mat 12:3 Then He said to them, “Have you not read what David did when he was hungry, and those with him?

Mat 12:4 “How he went into the House of God and he ate the bread from Lord Jah’s table,⁴ which was not lawful for him to eat, nor for those who were with him, but only for the priests?”⁵

Mat 12:5 “Or have you not read in the Instructions that the priests in the Palace disregard the Sabbath, and they are blameless?”⁶

Mat 12:6 “But I say to you that there is One greater than the Palace here.

Mat 12:7 “But if you had only known what this means, ‘I desire mercy and not sacrifice,’ you would not have condemned those who are blameless.”⁷

Mat 12:8 “For the Lord of the Sabbath is the Son of Mankind.”⁸

Mat 12:9 Now departing from there, Jeshua came into their synagogue.

Mat 12:10 And behold, there was a certain man there whose hand was withered. And they asked Him, saying, “Do the Instructions allow healing on the Sabbath?”; that they might accuse Him.

Mat 12:11 Then He said to them, “Who is there among you who has a certain sheep, and if it falls into a pit on the Sabbath day, will not grab it and lift it out?

Mat 12:12 “Now, how much more important is a person than a sheep? Therefore the Instructions are to do good on the Sabbath.”

Mat 12:13 Then He said to that man, “Stretch out your hand.” And he stretched it out, and it was restored like the other.

Mat 12:14 Then the Pharisees went out and took counsel against Him, so they might destroy Him.

Mat 12:15 But Jeshua knew and withdrew

Himself from there; and great crowds followed Him, and He healed them all.

Mat 12:16 And He told them not to make Him known,

Mat 12:17 that the thing might be fulfilled which was spoken by Isaiah the prophet, saying:

Mat 12:18 "Behold, My Servant with whom I am well pleased, my Beloved in whom My soul rejoices; I will place My Spirit upon Him, and He will preach justice to the gentiles.

Mat 12:19 "He will not quarrel nor cry out, nor will anyone hear His voice in the streets.

Mat 12:20 "A bruised reed He will not break, and a smoldering wick He will not quench, until He brings forth justice to victory.

Mat 12:21 "And the gentiles will trust in His Name."¹

Mat 12:22 Then they brought a certain demonised man to Him who was mute and blind; and He healed him, so that the mute and blind man could speak and see.

Mat 12:23 And all the crowds were amazed and said, "Is this not the Son of David?"

Mat 12:24 But when the Pharisees heard it they said, "This man does not cast out demons except by Beelzebub, the ruler of the demons."

Mat 12:25 But Jeshua knew their thoughts, and said to them: "Every kingdom that is divided against itself will be destroyed, and every house or city divided against itself will not stand.

Mat 12:26 "And if Satan casts out Satan, he is divided against himself. Then how will his kingdom stand?

Mat 12:27 "And if I cast out demons by Beelzebub, by whom do your sons cast them out? Because of this, they will be your judges.

Mat 12:28 "And if I cast out demons by the Spirit of God, surely the Kingdom of God has come near to you.

Mat 12:29 "Or else how can a man enter a strong man's house and plunder his goods, unless he first binds the strong man and then plunders his house?

Mat 12:30 "Whoever is not with Me is against Me, and whoever does not gather with Me scatters abroad.

Mat 12:31 "Therefore I say to you, that all sins and blasphemies will be forgiven to the children of men, but blasphemy against the Spirit will not be forgiven to the children of men.

Mat 12:32 "Anyone who speaks a word against the Son of Mankind, he will be forgiven; but whoever speaks against the Holy Spirit, he will not be forgiven, not in this world nor in the world to come.

Mat 12:33 "Either make the tree good and its fruit good, or else make the tree bad and its fruit bad; for a tree is known by its fruit.

Mat 12:34 "Product of vipers! How could you who are evil be able to speak good things? For from the fullness of the heart the mouth speaks.

Mat 12:35 "A good person out of good treasure brings out good things, and an evil person out of evil treasure brings out evil things.

Mat 12:36 "I say to you that for every idle word the children of men will say, they will give account for it in the day of judgement.

Mat 12:37 "For by your words you will be justified, and by your words you will be condemned."

Mat 12:38 Then some of the scribes and Pharisees responded, and they said to Him, "Teacher, we wish to see a sign from you."

Mat 12:39 So He answered, saying to them, "An evil and adulterous generation seeks a sign, and no sign will be given to it except the sign of the prophet Jonah.

Mat 12:40 "For just as Jonah was in the belly of the fish for three days and three nights, so will the Son of Mankind be in the heart of the earth for three days and three nights.¹

Mat 12:41 “The men of Nineveh will rise up in the judgement of this generation and will condemn it, because they repented at the preaching of Jonah; and behold, One greater than Jonah is here.

Mat 12:42 “The queen of the South will rise up in the judgement of this generation and will condemn it, for she came from the ends of the earth that she might hear the wisdom of Solomon; and behold, One greater than Solomon is here.

Mat 12:43 “When an unclean spirit goes out of a person, it wanders through waterless places, seeking rest, but does not find it.

Mat 12:44 “Then it says, ‘I will return to my house from which I came.’ And it comes, and finds it empty, swept, and orderly.

Mat 12:45 “So it goes and leads with it seven other spirits who are worse than itself, and they enter and dwell there; and the end of that person is worse than his beginning. So it will be done to this evil generation.”

Mat 12:46 While He was still talking to the crowds, His mother and brothers came and stood outside, wanting to speak with Him.

Mat 12:47 Then a man said to Him, “Behold, Your mother and Your brothers are standing outside, wanting to speak with You.”

Mat 12:48 But He replied and said to him who spoke to Him, “Who is My mother and who are My brothers?”

¹ Jeshua literally fulfilled this Sign (See Jon 1:17, Mat 16:4 and Luk 11:29), being impaled as the Passover Lamb on the Preparation Day to Unleavened Bread, which fell on Wednesday that year (31 CE). He was sealed in the tomb at dusk that day and rose from the dead at dusk at the end of the seventh-day Sabbath, passing exactly 72 hours in the earth.

Mat 12:49 And He stretched out His hand toward His disciples and said, “Behold My mother and behold My brothers!

Mat 12:50 “For anyone who does the will of My Father in heaven is My brother and My sister and My mother.”

Mat 13:1 On that day Jeshua went out of the house and sat by the sea-side.

Mat 13:2 And great crowds gathered around Him, so He went into a boat to sit Himself; and the whole crowd stood on the seashore.

Mat 13:3 Then He spoke many things to them and said in parables: “Behold, a sower went out to sow.

Mat 13:4 “And while he sowed, some seed fell on the side of the road; and the birds came and ate them.

Mat 13:5 “Some others fell on stony ground, where there was not much earth; and they quickly sprouted because there was no depth of earth.

Mat 13:6 “But when the sun came up, it became hot, and because they had no root they withered away.

Mat 13:7 “And some others fell among thorns, and the thistles grew up and choked them.

Mat 13:8 “But others fell on good ground and bore fruit: some a hundredfold, some sixty, and some thirty.

Mat 13:9 “He who has ears to hear, let him hear!”

Mat 13:10 And the disciples came and said to Him, “Why do You speak to them in parables?”

Mat 13:11 He replied and said to them, “It has been given to you to know the mysteries of the Kingdom of Heaven, but to them it has not been given.

Mat 13:12 “For whoever has, to him it will be given, and it will increase; but whoever does not have, even that which he has will be taken from him.

Mat 13:13 “Therefore I speak to them in parables, because they see, but they do not see, and they hear, but they do not hear, nor do they understand.¹

Mat 13:14 “And in them the prophecy of Isaiah is fulfilled, which says: ‘Hearing you will hear and you will not understand, and seeing you will see and you will not know;

Mat 13:15 ‘for the heart of this people has grown dull. Their ears are hard of hearing, and their eyes are blinded, that they should not see with their eyes and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart and return that I should heal them.’²

Mat 13:16 “But blessed are your eyes that see, and your ears that hear;

Mat 13:17 “for truly, I say to you that many prophets and righteous men desired to see what you see, and they did not see it, and to hear what you hear, and they did not hear it.

Mat 13:18 “Therefore you hear the parable of the seeds:

Mat 13:19 “Everyone who hears the word of the kingdom, and does not understand it, then the evil one comes and snatches away the word which was sown in his heart. This is that which was sown on the side of the road.

Mat 13:20 “And that which was sown on stony ground, this is he who hears the word and immediately receives it with joy;

Mat 13:21 “but he has no root in himself, so it is temporary. For when trouble or persecution arises because of the word, he is quickly offended.

Mat 13:22 “Now that which was sown among thorns is he who hears the word, and the cares of this world and the deceitfulness of riches choke the word, and it becomes fruitless.

Mat 13:23 “But that which was sown on the good ground is he who hears My word and understands it, and produces fruit:

some bear a hundredfold, some sixty, and some thirty.”

Mat 13:24 He set out another parable for them, saying: “The Kingdom of Heaven is like a person who sowed good seed in his field;

Mat 13:25 “but when the people slept, his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat and left.

Mat 13:26 “And when the blades sprang up and bore fruit, then the tares also appeared.

Mat 13:27 “So the servants came to the lord of the house and said to him, ‘Our lord, behold, did you not sow good seed in your field? Where did the tares in it come from?’

Mat 13:28 “He said to them, ‘A man, an enemy, has done this.’ His servants said to him, ‘Do you want us to go and pull them up?’

Mat 13:29 “But he said to them, ‘No, lest while you pull up the tares you also uproot the wheat with them.

Mat 13:30 ‘Let both grow together until the harvest, and at the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, “First pluck out the tares and bind them in bundles to be burned, but gather the wheat into my barn.”’”

Mat 13:31 He set out another parable for them, saying: “The Kingdom of Heaven is like a grain, like a mustard seed, which a man took and sowed in his field,

Mat 13:32 “which was the smallest of all the seeds; but when it had grown it was greater than all the herbs and became like a tree, so that the birds of heaven came and nested in its branches.”³

Mat 13:33 He spoke another parable to them: “The Kingdom of Heaven is like leaven, which a woman took and buried in three measures of flour until it was all leavened.”

Mat 13:34 All these things Jeshua spoke to the crowd in parables; and without a parable He did not speak to them,

Mat 13:35 that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying: "I will open My mouth in parables and will bring out secrets from before the creating of the world."¹

Mat 13:36 Then Jeshua left the crowds and went into the house. And His disciples drew near to Him, saying, "Explain to us the parable of the tares and of the field."

Mat 13:37 Then He replied and said to them: "He who sowed the good seed is the Son of Mankind, Mat 13:38 "and the field is the world, and the good seed are the children of the Kingdom, but the tares are the children of the evil one.

Mat 13:39 "And the enemy who sowed them is Satan, and the harvest is the end of the age, and the reapers are the envoys.

Mat 13:40 "Therefore as the tares are plucked and consumed in the fire, so it will be at the end of this age."²

Mat 13:41 "The Son of Mankind will send His envoys, and they will pluck out of His Kingdom all the stumbling blocks, and all the workers of iniquity, Mat 13:42 "and they will cast them into the intense furnace of fire."³ There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth."⁴

⁴ Eze 20:33-44. Their wailing and gnashing of teeth lasts from the moment they realise they will be cast into the Lake of Fire until they actually die in it. The earth will be cleansed of evil before the Thousand Years of Peace

Mat 13:43 "Then the righteous will shine like the sun in the Kingdom of their Father. He who has ears to hear, let him hear!

Mat 13:44 "Again, the Kingdom of Heaven is like treasure hidden in a field, which a man found and hides; and from his joy, goes and sells everything he owns and buys that field.

Mat 13:45 "Again, the Kingdom of Heaven is like a man, a merchant, seeking beautiful pearls, Mat 13:46 "and when he had looked and found a certain precious pearl, he went and sold all that he owned and bought it.

Mat 13:47 "Again, the Kingdom of Heaven is like a net that was cast into the sea and it gathered some of every kind, Mat 13:48 "and when it was full, they drew it to the seashore; and they sat down and gathered the good into bags, but they threw the bad away.

Mat 13:49 "So it will be at the end of the age. The envoys will go out and separate the evil from among the righteous,

Mat 13:50 "and they will cast them into the intense furnace of fire. There will be wailing and gnashing of teeth."

Mat 13:51 Jeshua said to them, "Do you understand all these things?" They said to Him, "Yes, our Lord."

Mat 13:52 He said to them, "Because of this, every scribe who is instructed about the Kingdom of Heaven is like a man who is the master of a house who brings out of his treasures the new and the old."

Mat 13:53 And so it was, when Jeshua had finished these parables, that He departed from there.

Mat 13:54 And He came to His own city and taught them in their synagogues, such that they were astonished and said, "Where did this man get this wisdom and these miracles?

his brothers Jacob, Joses, Simon, and Judas?

Mat 13:56 “And his sisters, behold, are they not all with us? Then where did this man get all these things?”

Mat 13:57 So they were offended by Him. But Jeshua said to them, “A prophet is not mocked except in his own city and in his own home.”

Mat 13:58 And He did not do many miracles there because of their unbelief.

Mat 14:1 At that time Herod the tetrarch heard the report about Jeshua

Mat 14:2 and he said to his servants, “This is John the Immerser; he has risen from the house of the dead, and therefore these miracles are worked by him.”

Mat 14:3 For Herod had seized John and bound him, and cast him into prison because of Herodia, his brother Philip’s wife.

Mat 14:4 For John had said to him, “It is against the Instructions for her to be your wife.”¹

Mat 14:5 And he wanted to kill him, but he feared the people, for they recognised him as a prophet.

Mat 14:6 But it occurred on Herod’s birthday that the daughter of Herodia danced before the guests and she pleased Herod.

Mat 14:7 Therefore he promised with an oath that he would give her anything she requested.

Mat 14:8 So she, because she was taught by her mother, said, “Give me the head of John the Immerser, here on a platter.”

Mat 14:9 And the king was saddened; but because of the oath and the guests, he commanded that it be given to her.

Mat 14:10 So he sent and had John’s head cut off in prison.

Mat 14:11 And he brought his head on a platter and it was given to the girl, and she gave it to her mother.

Mat 14:12 Then his disciples came and took his corpse and buried it, and went and told Jeshua.

Mat 14:13 When Jeshua heard it, He departed from there by ship to be alone in a deserted place. But when the crowds heard it, they followed Him on dry land from the cities.

Mat 14:14 And when Jeshua went out He saw great crowds; and He had compassion for them, and He healed their diseases.

Mat 14:15 When evening approached, His disciples came to Him, saying, “This is a deserted place, and the time is late. Send the crowds of people away, that they may go into the villages and buy food for themselves.”

Mat 14:16 But He said to them, “It is not necessary for them to go. You give them something to eat.”

Mat 14:17 And they said to Him, “But we have nothing here except five loaves and two fish.”

Mat 14:18 Jeshua said to them, “Bring them here to Me.”

Mat 14:19 Then He commanded the crowds to sit down on the ground. And He took those five loaves and two fish, and looking up to heaven, He blessed and broke and gave them to His disciples; and the disciples placed them before the crowds.

Mat 14:20 So they all ate and were satisfied, and they took up twelve baskets full of the fragments that remained.²

Mat 14:21 Now those who had eaten were five thousand men, as well as women and children.

Mat 14:22 Immediately He urged His disciples to get into the boat and go before Him to the other side, while He sent the crowds away.

Mat 14:23 And when He had sent the crowds away, He went up on a mountain to pray alone. And when it became dark, He was alone there.

Mat 14:24 And the boat was now a long distance from the land, being tossed greatly by the waves, for the wind was against it.

Mat 14:25 Now in the fourth watch of the night Jeshua came to them, walking on the water.

Mat 14:26 And when His disciples saw Him walking on the water, they were frightened, saying, "It is a false vision!" And they cried out from their fear.

Mat 14:27 But immediately Jeshua spoke to them and said, "Have courage! I AM! I am!¹ Do not be afraid."

Mat 14:28 And Peter replied and said to Him, "My Lord, if it is You, command me to come to You on the water."

Mat 14:29 And Jeshua said to him, "Come." And Peter came down out of the boat, and he walked on the water to come to Jeshua.

Mat 14:30 But when he saw that the wind was strong, he was afraid; and began to sink. He raised his voice, saying, "My Lord, save me!"

Mat 14:31 And immediately our Lord stretched out His hand and grasped him, and said to him, "O you of little faith, why did you doubt?"

Mat 14:32 And when they got into the boat, the wind quieted down.

Mat 14:33 Then they who were in the boat came and worshipped Him, saying, "Truly You are the Son of God."²

Mat 14:34 Then they sailed on and came to the land of Gennesaret.

Mat 14:35 And when the men of that place recognized Him, they sent out into all the surrounding villages, and brought close to Him all who were very sick, Mat 14:36 and begged Him that they might touch only the hem of His garment. And those who touched it were healed.

Mat 15:1 Then the Pharisees and scribes who were from Jerusalem came to Jeshua, saying,

Mat 15:2 "Why do Your disciples transgress the tradition of the elders? For they do not wash their hands when they eat bread."

Mat 15:3 Jeshua replied and said to them, "Also, why do you transgress the commandments of God because of your traditions?"

Mat 15:4 "For God said, 'Honour your father and your mother';³ and, 'Anyone who curses his father and his mother, let him be put to death.'⁴

Mat 15:5 "But you say, 'Anyone who says to his father or his mother, "My offering is whatever you might have received from me." then he no longer needs to honour his father or his mother.

Mat 15:6 "Thus you nullify the word of God because of your tradition.

Mat 15:7 "Hypocrites! Well did Isaiah prophesy about you, saying:

Mat 15:8 'These people honour Me with their lips, but their heart is very far from Me.

Mat 15:9 'And their reverence of Me is worthless, while they teach as teachings the commandments of the descendants of men.'"⁵

Mat 15:10 Then He cried out to the crowds and said to them, "Hear and understand:

Mat 15:11 "It is not what enters the mouth that defiles a person; but that which comes out of the mouth, that is what defiles a person."

¹ I AM! I am! is our way of showing the Aramiac is ܐܢܐ ܢܐܢܐ (Ena na). This combination means I am, I am and signifies that the speaker is claiming to be divine in Aramaic usage, similar to the Hebrew in Exodus 3:14.

Mat 15:12 Then His disciples came and said to Him, "Do You know that the Pharisees who heard this word were offended?"

Mat 15:13 And He answered and said, "Every plant which My Father in Heaven has not planted will be uprooted.

Mat 15:14 "Let them be. They are blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind lead the blind, both will fall into a pit."

Mat 15:15 Then Simon Peter answered and said to Him, "My Lord, explain this parable to us."

Mat 15:16 So He said to them, "Even now, you do not understand?

Mat 15:17 "Do you not know that whatever enters the mouth goes into the stomach and from there is expelled as excrement?

Mat 15:18 "But whatever proceeds out of the mouth proceeds from the heart, and becomes defilement for a person.

Mat 15:19 "For from the heart proceeds evil thoughts, adultery, murder, fornication, theft, false witness, and blasphemy.

Mat 15:20 "These are what defile a person, but if a person eats with unwashed hands, he is not defiled."¹

Mat 15:21 Jeshua went out from there and came to the borders of Tyre and Sidon.

Mat 15:22 And behold, a woman of Canaan came to those borders, crying and saying, "Have mercy on me, my Lord, Son of David! My daughter is seriously traumatised by a devil."

Mat 15:23 But He did not answer her a word. And His disciples came and urged Him, saying, "Send her away, for she cries out after us."

Mat 15:24 Then He replied and said to them, "I was not sent except to the sheep who have strayed from the house of Israel."

Mat 15:25 Then she came and worshipped Him, saying, "My Lord, help me!"

Mat 15:26 He said to her, "It is not good to take the children's bread and cast it to the dogs."

Mat 15:27 And she said, "Yes, my Lord, yet even the dogs eat the crumbs which fall from their masters' table and live."

Mat 15:28 Then Jeshua said to her, "O woman, great is your faith! Let it be to you as you desire." And her daughter was healed from that moment.

Mat 15:29 And Jeshua departed from there and came to the shore of the Sea of Galilee, and He went up the mountain and sat there.

Mat 15:30 Then great crowds came to Him, having with them the lame, the blind, the mute, the maimed, and many others; and they laid them at Jeshua's feet, and He healed them.

Mat 15:31 So the crowds marvelled when they saw the mute speaking, the maimed made whole, the lame walking, and the blind seeing; and they glorified the God of Israel.

Mat 15:32 Then Jeshua called to His disciples and said to them, "I have compassion on this crowd, for behold, they have remained with Me for three days and they do not have anything to eat. And I do not want to send them away while they are fasting, lest they faint on the way."

Mat 15:33 His disciples said to Him, "Where could we get enough bread in the wilderness to satisfy all of this crowd?"

Mat 15:34 Jeshua said to them, "How many loaves do you have?" And they said, "Seven, and a few small fish."

Mat 15:35 And He commanded the crowd

to sit on the ground.

Mat 15:36 And He took the seven loaves and the fish and gave thanks, broke them and gave them to His disciples; and the disciples gave them to the crowd.

Mat 15:37 So they all ate and were satisfied, and they took up seven large baskets full of the fragments that remained.

Mat 15:38 Now those who ate numbered four thousand men, besides the women and children.¹

Mat 15:39 And He sent away the crowds, got into a boat and came to the region of Magdala.

Mat 16:1 Then the Pharisees and Sadducees came, testing Him, and asked Him to show them a sign from heaven.

Mat 16:2 But He replied and said to them, "When it is evening you say, 'It will be clear, for the sky is red';

Mat 16:3 "and in the morning, 'It will be wintery today, for the sky is red and gloomy.' Hypocrites! You know how to discern the face of the sky, but you do not know how to discern the signs of this time.

Mat 16:4 "An evil and adulterous generation asks for a sign, and no sign will be given to it except the sign of the prophet Jonah."² And He left them and departed.

Mat 16:5 And when His disciples had come to the other side, they had forgotten to take bread with them.

Mat 16:6 Then He said to them, "Beware, watch for the leaven of the Pharisees and the Sadducees."

Mat 16:7 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, "We have taken no bread."

Mat 16:8 But Jeshua knew, and said to them, "O you of little faith, why do you reason among yourselves that you have brought no bread?

Mat 16:11 "How do you not understand that I did not speak to you about bread, but that you must beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and the Sadducees?"

Mat 16:12 Then they understood that He did not tell them to beware of the leaven of bread, but of the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees.

Mat 16:13 When Jeshua came into the region of Caesarea Philippi, He asked His disciples, saying, "What do people say about me? That I am just a son of man?"

Mat 16:14 So they said, "Some say John the Immerser, but others Elijah, and others Jeremiah or one of the prophets."

Mat 16:15 He said to them, "But who do you say that I am?"

Mat 16:16 Simon Peter answered and said, "You are the Anointed, the Son of the Living God."

Mat 16:17 Jeshua answered and said to him, "Blessed are you, Simon Bar-Jonah, for flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but My Father who is in heaven.

The Greek uses different words for stone πέτρος petros and rock πέτρα petra to show the difference. Peter is derived from petros. Contrary to papal claims, the Bible teaches that the Rock on which the Church of Christ is founded is our Messiah himself, as shown in Deu 32:3-4, 15 & 18, 1Sa 2:2, 2Sa 22:47, Psa 18:46, Act 4:11, 1Pe 2:6-7. Mat 16:20 Then He commanded His disciples that they should not say to anyone that He was the Anointed.

Mat 16:21 From that time Jeshua began to make known to His disciples that He must go to Jerusalem, and suffer many things from the elders and chief priests and scribes, and He would be killed, and would rise again the third day.

Mat 16:22 Then Peter took Him and began to rebuke Him, saying, “Far be it from You, my Lord; that this should happen to You!”

Mat 16:23 But He turned and said to Peter, “Get behind Me, Satan! You are a stumbling block to Me, for you do not think of God, but instead of people.”

Mat 16:24 Then Jeshua said to His disciples, “They who desire to follow after Me, let them deny themselves, and take up their stake, and follow Me.

Mat 16:25 “For whoever desires to save their soul will lose it, and whoever loses their soul for My sake will find it.

Mat 17:1 Now after six days Jeshua got Peter, Jacob, and John his brother, and took them high up a mountain alone, Mat 17:2 and Jeshua was transformed before them. His face shone like the sun, and His clothes became as white as the light.

Mat 17:3 And Moses and Elijah appeared to them, talking with Him.

Mat 17:4 Then Peter answered and said to Jeshua, “My Lord, it is good for us that we are here. If You wish, let us make three booths here: one for You, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.”

Mat 17:5 While he was speaking, behold, a bright cloud formed a booth around them; and a voice came from the cloud, saying, “This is My beloved Son, in whom I am pleased. Listen to Him!”⁴

Mat 17:6 And when the disciples heard, they fell on their faces and were very afraid.

Mat 17:7 But Jeshua came and touched them and said to them, “Arise, do not be afraid.”

Mat 17:12 “But I say to you that behold, Elijah has come, and they did not know him, but did to him whatever they wished. Likewise the Son of Mankind must also suffer from them.”

Mat 17:13 Then the disciples understood that He spoke to them of John the Immerser.

Mat 17:14 And when they came toward the crowds, a person came to Him and bowed down on his knees, Mat 17:15 and said to Him, “My Lord, have mercy on me. My son has a demon and is badly afflicted; for he has fallen into the fire many times and into the water many times.

Mat 17:16 “So I brought him to Your disciples, but they were not able to heal him.”

Mat 17:17 Jeshua answered and said, “O faithless and perverse generation, how long must I be with you? And until then I must endure you. Bring him here to Me.”

Mat 17:18 And Jeshua rebuked it, and the devil came out of him; and the child was cured from that moment.

Mat 17:19 Then the disciples came to Jeshua privately and said to Him, “Why were we not able to heal him?”

Mat 17:20 Jeshua said to them, “Because of your lack of faith; for truly, I say to you, if you have faith like a grain of mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here,’ and it will

Mat 17:23 “and they will kill Him, and the third day He will rise.” And they were very sorrowful.

Mat 17:24 And when they came near Capernaum, those who collected the head tax, two coins each, went to Peter and said, “Does your master not pay his two coins?”

Mat 17:25 He said, “Yes.” to them. And when Peter came into the house, Jeshua anticipated him, saying, “What do you think, Simon? From whom do the kings of the earth take tribute and head taxes, from their own children or from foreigners?”

Mat 17:26 Peter said to Him, “From strangers.” Jeshua said to him, “Then the children are free.

Mat 18:34 “And his lord was angry, and delivered him to the jailers² until he repaid everything that he owed him.

Mat 18:35 “So My Father in Heaven will do to you unless you, each one, forgive his brother for his transgressions from his heart.”

Mat 19:1 Now it happened, when Jeshua had finished these words, that He departed from Galilee and He came to the region of Judea beyond the Jordan.

Mat 19:2 And great crowds followed Him, and He healed them there.

Mat 19:3 The Pharisees approached Him, testing and saying to Him, “Do the Instructions allow a man to divorce his wife for any cause?”

Mat 19:4 So He replied and said to them, “Have you not read that He who created at the beginning ‘created them male and female,’³

Mat 19:5 “and He said, ‘Because of this, a man will leave his father and his mother and be joined to his wife, and both of them will become one flesh’?⁴

Mat 19:6 “Thereafter they are not two but rather one flesh. Therefore what God has joined together, a person should not separate.”

Mat 19:7 They said to Him, “Then why did Moses command to give a writing of release, and to put her away?”

Mat 19:8 He said to them, “Moses, because of the hardness of your hearts, allowed you to divorce your wives, but from the beginning it was not so.

Mat 19:9 “And I say to you, whoever divorces his wife, except for adultery, and takes another commits adultery; and whoever takes a divorced woman commits adultery.”

Mat 19:10 His disciples said to Him, “If such is the arrangement between husband and wife, it is not worthwhile to marry a wife.”

Mat 19:11 But He said to them, “This word does not apply to all men, just he to whom it is given.

Mat 19:12 “For there are eunuchs who were born thus from their mother’s womb, and there are eunuchs who were made eunuchs by men, and there are eunuchs who have made themselves eunuchs for the sake of the Kingdom of Heaven. He who is able to understand, let him understand.”

Mat 19:13 Then children came to Him, that He might lay His hands on them and pray, but His disciples rebuked them.

¹ The silver in 100 denarius (about 3.24 grams each) would be worth about $172 US. So this man owed him one millionth of what he had owed his lord.

² Literally ‘torturers’.

³ Gen 1:27. Jeshua was there at the beginning, so He knows the origins of humanity.

⁴ Gen 2:24. Jeshua is teaching that marriage is a sacred union between a man and a woman.

Mat 19:14 Then Jeshua said to them, "Let the children come to Me, and do not hinder them; for the Kingdom of Heaven is for those like them."

Mat 19:15 And He laid His hands on them and departed from there.

Mat 19:16 Then a certain man came and said to Him, "Good Teacher, what good should I do that I may have everlasting life?"

Mat 19:17 So He said to him, "Why do you call Me good? There is none good except One, God. Now, if you want to enter into life, keep the commandments."

Mat 19:18 He said to Him, "Which ones?" Then Jeshua said to him, "'You will not murder,' 'You will not commit adultery,' 'You will not steal,' 'You will not give false witness,' Mat 19:19 'Honour your father and your mother,' and, 'You will love your neighbour as yourself.'"¹

Mat 19:20 That young man said to Him, "All these things I have obeyed from my youth. What do I lack?"

Mat 19:21 Jeshua said to him, "If you want to be perfect, go, sell your possessions and give it to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow Me."

Mat 19:22 But when the young man heard this word, he went away sorrowful, for he had many possessions.

Mat 19:23 Then Jeshua said to His disciples, "Truly, I say to you that it is difficult for a rich man to enter into the Kingdom of Heaven.

Mat 19:24 "And again I say to you, it is easier for a thick rope² to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter into the Kingdom of God."

Mat 19:25 When His disciples heard it, they were greatly amazed, saying, "Indeed! Who is able to gain Life?"

Mat 19:26 Jeshua looked at them and said to them, "With people this is impossible, but with God all things are possible."

Mat 19:27 Then Peter answered and said to Him, "Behold, we have left everything and have come to follow You. Therefore, what will we have?"

Mat 19:28 So Jeshua said to them, "Truly I say to you that have come to follow Me: In the New World, when the Son of Mankind sits on the throne of His glory, you will also sit on twelve chairs, and you will judge the twelve branches of Israel.

Mat 19:29 "And everyone who leaves a home or brothers or sisters or father or mother or wife or children or a town for the sake of My Name, will receive a hundredfold, and will inherit everlasting life.

Mat 19:30 "But many who are first will be last, and the last first.

Mat 20:1 "For the Kingdom of Heaven is like a man, the lord of a house who went out in the morning to hire labourers for his vineyard.

Mat 20:2 "And he bargained with the labourers for a denarius per day, and he sent them into his vineyard.

Mat 20:3 "Then he went out about the third hour and saw others standing idle in the marketplace, Mat 20:4 "and said to them, 'You also go to the vineyard, and whatever is right I will give to you.'

Mat 20:5 "And they went. Again he went out about the sixth and the ninth hour, and ¹ Exo 20:12-16, Lev 19:18, Deu 5:16-21. Note that these are all examples taken from both within and outside of the Ten Commandments. Jeshua does not mean that he did not need to keep the others, as He had already stated that was required in verse 17.

² Roth, in his AENT translation, points out that thick rope and camel are both spelt with the same consonants in Aramaic. He reasonably suggests the correct choice is the rope, which can be unravelled and then passed through the eye the needle. Likewise a rich man can 'unravel' his wealth and then enter God's Kingdom.

did the same.

Mat 20:6 “And near the eleventh hour he went out and found others standing idle, and said to them, ‘Why have you been standing here idle all day?’

Mat 20:7 “They said to him, ‘Because no one hired us.’ He said to them, ‘You also go to the vineyard, and whatever is right you will receive.’

Mat 20:8 “So when evening came, the lord of the vineyard said to his steward, ‘Call the labourers and give them their wages. Begin with the last and proceed to the first.’

Mat 20:9 “And those from the eleventh hour came and each received a denarius.

Mat 20:10 “And when the first came, they hoped that they would receive more; but they also received a denarius each.

Mat 20:11 “And when they received it, they murmured against the lord of the house, Mat 20:12 “and they said, ‘These last ones have worked one hour, and you made them equal with us who have borne the burden of the day and its heat.’

Mat 20:13 “Then he replied and said to one of them, ‘My friend, I have done no iniquity to you. Was it not you who bargained with me for a denarius?’

Mat 20:14 ‘Take yours and go. But if I wish to give to this last man the same as I give to you,

Mat 20:15 ‘is it against the Instructions for me to do what I wish with my own things? Or is your eye evil because I am good?’

Mat 20:16 “So the last will be first, and the first last. For many are called, but few are chosen.”

Mat 20:17 When Jeshua was about to go up to Jerusalem, He took His twelve disciples aside on the road and said to them,

Mat 20:18 “Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Mankind will be delivered to the chief priests and to the scribes; and they will condemn Him to death.

Mat 20:19 “Then they will deliver Him to the gentiles, and they will mock Him and they will beat Him and they will impale¹ Him. And the third day He will rise.”

Mat 20:20 Then the mother of Zebedee’s sons came to Him. She and her sons worshipped Him and asked something from Him.

Mat 20:21 And He said to her, “What do you wish?” She said to Him, “Say that these two sons of mine will sit, one at Your right and the other at Your left, in Your Kingdom.”

Mat 20:22 Jeshua replied and said, “You do not know what you ask. Are you able to drink the cup that I am about to drink, or be immersed with the immersion that I will be immersed with?” They said to Him, “We are able.”

Mat 20:23 He said to them, “You will drink My cup, and be immersed with the immersion that I will be immersed with; but that you should sit at My right and at My left is not Mine to give, except to those for whom it is prepared by My Father.”

Mat 20:24 And when the ten heard it, they were angry at the two brothers.

Mat 20:25 But Jeshua called them and said to them, “You know that the rulers of the gentiles are their lords, and their great ones have authority over them.

Mat 20:26 “But it will not be so among you; whoever among you desires to be great, let him be your servant.

Mat 20:27 “And whoever among you desires to be first, let him be your slave;

Mat 20:28 “just as the Son of Mankind did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His soul as a ransom instead of the many.”

Mat 20:29 Now when Jeshua departed from Jericho, a great crowd came after Him.

Mat 20:30 And behold, two blind men were sitting on the side of the road, and when they heard that Jeshua was passing by, they cried out, and they were saying, “Have mercy on us, my Lord, Son of David!”

Mat 20:31 But the crowd rebuked them, saying that they should be silent; but they raised their voices all the more, saying, “Our Lord, have mercy on us, Son of David!”

Mat 20:32 So Jeshua stopped and He called them, and He said, “What do you want Me to do for you?”

Mat 20:33 They said to Him, “Our Lord, that our eyes may be opened.”

Mat 20:34 So Jeshua had compassion for them and touched their eyes. And immediately¹ their eyes were opened, and they followed Him.

Mat 21:1 Now as He drew near to Jerusalem, and came to Bethphage, by the side of the Mount of Olives, Jeshua sent two disciples, Mat 21:2 saying to them, “Go into the village opposite you, and at once you will find a donkey that is tied, and a colt with her. Loose them and bring them to Me.

Mat 21:3 “And if a man speaks to you, say this to him, ‘They are needed for our Lord.’ and at once he will send them here.”

Mat 21:4 For this happened to fulfil that which was spoken by the prophet, saying:

Mat 21:5 “Say to the daughter of Zion, ‘Behold, your King is coming to you, lowly and riding on a donkey; upon a colt, the foal of a female donkey.’”²

Mat 21:6 So the disciples went and did just as Jeshua had commanded them.

Mat 21:7 They brought the donkey and the colt and they laid their garments on the colt, and Jeshua rode on him.

Mat 21:8 And a crowd of crowds spread their clothes on the road; but others cut down branches from the trees and spread them on the road.³

Mat 21:9 Then the crowds who went before Him and those who followed behind Him cried out, and they were saying: “Hosanna! The Son of David!”⁴ ‘Blessed is He who comes in the Name of Jehovah!’⁵ Hosanna in the highest!”

Mat 21:10 And when He entered Jerusalem, the whole city was troubled, and they were saying, “Who is this?”

Mat 21:11 But the crowds said, “This is Jeshua, the prophet who is from Nazareth of Galilee.”

Mat 21:12 Then Jeshua went into the Palace of God⁶ and drove out all those who sold and bought in the Palace, and overturned the tables of the money-changers and the seats of those who sold doves.

Mat 21:13 And He said to them, “It is written, ‘My House will be called the House of Prayer,’⁷ but you have made it a ‘den of thieves.’”⁸

Mat 21:14 Then they brought the blind and the lame to Him in the Palace, and He healed them.

Mat 21:15 But when the chief priests and the pharisees saw the wonders that He did, and the children crying out in the Palace and saying, "Hosanna to the Son of David!" it seemed evil to them.

Mat 21:16 And they said to Him, "Do You hear what these are saying?" Jeshua said to them, "Yes. Have you not read from antiquity, 'Out of the mouth of babes and infants You have perfected praise'?"¹

Mat 21:17 Then He left them and went out, to outside the city of Bethany, and He lodged there.

Mat 21:18 But at dawn, as He returned to the city, He was hungry.

Mat 21:19 And He saw one fig tree by the road, and came to it and He found nothing on it but leaves alone, and He said to it, "There will not be fruit on you ever again." And at once that fig tree withered up.

Mat 21:20 Now the disciples saw it, and they marvelled. They were saying, "How did the fig tree wither up immediately?"²

Mat 21:21 Jeshua answered and said to them, "Truly, I say to you, if you have faith and do not doubt, you will not only do this to the fig tree, but also if you say to this mountain, 'Rise up and fall into the sea.', it will be done.

Mat 21:22 "And everything you ask in prayer and you believe, you will receive."

Mat 21:23 Now when Jeshua came into the Palace, the chief priests and the elders of the people approached Him as He was teaching, and they said to Him, "By what authority do You do these things? And who gave You this authority?"

Mat 21:24 But Jeshua replied and said to them, "I also will ask you one thing, and if you will tell Me, I will also tell you by what authority I do these things:

Mat 21:25 "The immersion of John, where was it from? Is it from heaven or from the children of men?" And they discussed it among themselves, and they were saying, "If we say, 'From heaven,'

He will say to us, 'Then why did you not believe him?'

Mat 21:26 "And if we say, 'From the children of men,' we are afraid of the crowds, for they all uphold John as a prophet."

Mat 21:27 So they replied and said to Him, "We do not know." And Jeshua said to them, "I also will not tell you by what authority I do these things.

Mat 21:28 "But how does it seem to you? A certain man had two sons, and he called to the first and said to him, 'My son, go work today in the vineyard.'

Mat 21:29 "But he answered and said, 'I don't want to.' but afterwards he was moved with regret and he went.

Mat 21:30 "Then he came to the other and said likewise to him. And he answered and he said, 'I will, my lord,' but did not go.

Mat 21:31 "Which of these two did the will of their father?" They said to Him, "The first." Jeshua said to them, "Truly, I say to you that tax collectors and prostitutes will precede you into the Kingdom of God.

Mat 21:32 "For John came to you in the way of righteousness, and you did not believe him; but tax collectors and prostitutes believed him; and you, even when you saw that, were not afterwards moved with remorse to believe him.

Mat 21:33 "Hear another parable: There was a certain person who owned a house, and he had planted a vineyard and enclosed it with a fence and he dug a winepress in it and built a tower in it. And he put it in the care of labourers and went abroad.

Mat 21:34 "Now when the fruit was in season, he sent his servants to the labourers, that they would send to him some of the fruit from the vineyard.

Mat 21:35 "And the labourers seized his servants, and they beat one, and they stoned another, and another one they killed.

Mat 21:36 “Again he sent other servants, more than the first, and they did likewise to them.

Mat 21:37 “Then finally he sent his son to them, as he said, ‘Undoubtedly, they will be in awe of my son.’

Mat 21:38 “But when the labourers saw the son, they said among themselves, ‘This is the heir. Come, let us kill him and seize his inheritance.’

Mat 21:39 “And they seized him, and led him outside the vineyard, and killed him.

Mat 21:40 “Therefore, when the lord of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those labourers?”

Mat 21:41 They said to Him, “He will destroy them mercilessly, and put his vineyard in the care of other labourers who will give him the fruit in its season.”

Mat 21:42 Jeshua said to them, “Have you never read in the Writings: ‘The stone which the builders rejected has become the chief cornerstone. This has come from Jehovah, and it is marvellous in our eyes.’?”¹

Mat 21:43 “Because of this, I say to you that the Kingdom of God will be taken from you and will be given to a people who will produce fruit.

Mat 21:44 “And whoever falls on this stone will be shattered; and everyone on whom it falls, it will grind him like dust.”²

Mat 21:45 Now when the chief priests and Pharisees heard His parables, they knew that He had spoken against them.

Mat 21:46 And they sought to seize Him, but they were afraid of the crowds, because they upheld Him as a prophet.

Mat 22:1 And Jeshua answered again in a parable and He said:

Mat 22:2 “The Kingdom of Heaven is like a man, a king, who made a wedding feast for his son,

Mat 22:3 “and he sent out his servants to call those invited to the wedding feast; and they chose to not come.

Mat 22:4 “Again, he sent out other servants, and he said, ‘Tell those invited, “Behold, my banquet is ready, and my oxen and fatted cattle are sacrificed, and everything is ready. Come to the wedding feast.”’

Mat 22:5 “But they showed contempt and they went, one to his field and one to his business.

Mat 22:6 “And the rest seized his servants and abused and killed them.

Mat 22:7 “But when the king heard, he was angry. And sending his armies, he destroyed those murderers, and he burned their city.

Mat 22:8 “Then he said to his servants, ‘The wedding feast is ready, and those who were invited were not worthy.

Mat 22:9 ‘Therefore go to the ends of the roads, and everyone who you find, call them to the wedding feast.’

Mat 22:10 “And those servants went out into the roads and gathered everyone whom they found, evil and good. And the wedding feast house was filled with guests.

Mat 22:11 “Then the king came in to see the guests, and he saw a person there who was not wearing a wedding garment.

Mat 22:12 “So he said to him, ‘My friend, how did you come in here when you do not have a wedding garment?’ But he was speechless.

Mat 22:13 “Then the king said to the servants, ‘Bind his hands and his feet, and cast him into outer darkness; there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.’

Mat 22:14 “For many are called, and few are chosen.”³

Mat 22:15 Then the Pharisees went and plotted how they might entangle Him in talk.

Mat 22:16 And they sent to Him their disciples with those of the house of Herodus, and they were saying, "Teacher, we know that you are true, and you teach the way of God with justice; and you do not favour any man, for you do not fear the faces of people.¹

Mat 22:17 "Therefore tell us, what do you think? Is it lawful to pay the head tax to Caesar, or not?"

Mat 22:18 But Jeshua knew their wickedness, and He said, "Why do you test Me, you hypocrites?

Mat 22:19 "Show Me the head tax denarius." So they brought a denarius to Him.

Mat 22:20 And Jeshua said to them, "Whose image and inscription is this?"

Mat 22:21 They said, "Caesar's." He said to them, "Therefore give that which is Caesar's to Caesar, and that which is God's to God."

Mat 22:22 When they heard this, they marvelled, left Him and departed.

Mat 22:23 The same day the Sadducees approached and said to Him, "There is no life for the dead." And they asked Him,

Mat 22:24 and said to Him: "Teacher, Moses told us that if a man dies, having no children, his brother should take his wife and raise up offspring for his brother.²

Mat 22:25 "Now there were seven brothers among us. The first took a wife and died, and because he had no offspring, he left his wife to his brother.

Mat 22:26 "Likewise also the second, and also the third, up to the seventh.

Mat 22:27 "And after all of them, the woman also died.

Mat 22:28 "Therefore, in the resurrection, to which of those seven will she be wife, for they all married her?"

Mat 22:29 Jeshua answered and said to them, "You err, because you do not know the Writings nor the power of God.³

Mat 22:30 "For in the resurrection, men do not marry women nor are women given to husbands. Instead, they are like the envoys of God in heaven.

Mat 22:31 "But concerning the resurrection of the dead, have you not read what was spoken to you by God,⁴ who said, Mat 22:32 'I AM! I am the God⁵ of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob'?⁶ And He is not the God of the dead, but of the living."

Mat 22:33 And when the crowds heard this, they were astonished by His teaching.

Mat 22:34 But when the Pharisees heard that He had silenced the Sadducees, they assembled together.

Mat 22:35 Then one of them who knew the Instructions asked, testing Him,

Mat 22:36 "Teacher, which is the great commandment in the Instructions?"

Mat 22:37 Jeshua said to him, "'You will love Jehovah your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength, and with all your mind.'⁷ Mat 22:38 "This is the first and greatest commandment.

Mat 22:39 "And the second is like it: 'You will love your neighbour as yourself.'⁸

Mat 22:40 “On these two commandments hang the Instructions and the Prophets.”

Mat 22:41 While the Pharisees were assembled, Jeshua asked them,

Mat 22:42 saying, “What do you say about the Messiah? Whose son is He?” They said to Him, “The son of David.”

Mat 22:43 He said to them, “How then does David in the Spirit call Him ‘Lord Jah’,¹ for he says:

Mat 22:44 ‘Jehovah said to my Lord Jah,² “Sit at My right, until I place Your enemies under Your feet”’?³

Mat 22:45 “If David then calls Him ‘Lord Jah’,⁴ how is He his son?”

Mat 22:46 And no one was able to give Him an answer, and from that day on no one dared to question Him again.

Mat 23:1 Then Jeshua spoke with the crowds and with His disciples, Mat 23:2 and He said to them: “The scribes and the Pharisees sit on Moses’ seat.

Mat 23:3 “Therefore, everything that they tell you to keep, that you should keep and do, but you should not do according to their deeds; for they talk, but do not do.⁵

Mat 23:29 “Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you build the tombs of the prophets and you beautify the burial houses of the righteous, Mat 23:30 “and you say, ‘If we had lived in the days of our forefathers, we would not have been participators with them in the blood of the prophets.’

Mat 23:31 “Therefore you witness against yourselves that you are descendants of those who murdered the prophets.

Mat 23:32 “And you also fill up the measure of your forefathers.

Mat 23:33 “Serpents, product of vipers! How will you flee from the judgement of Gehenna?

Mat 23:34 “Therefore, Behold! I will send to you prophets, wise men, and scribes: some of them you will kill and impale, and some of them you will scourge in your synagogues and you will pursue them from city to city,

Mat 23:35 “So on you will come all the blood of the righteous that has been shed on the earth, from the blood of righteous Abel to the blood of Zechariah, son of Berechiah, whom you murdered between the Palace and the altar.²

Mat 23:36 “Truly, I say to you that all of these things will come upon this generation.

Mat 23:37 “Jerusalem, Jerusalem,

Mat 24:1 Then Jeshua went out to depart from the Palace, and His disciples came to Him and were showing Him the buildings of the Palace.

Mat 24:2 But He said to them, “Behold, do you not see all these things? Truly, I say to you, this will not be spared. Not one stone will be upon another that will not be torn down.”³

Mat 24:3 And while Jeshua sat on the Mount of Olives, His disciples came and said to Him, among themselves, “Tell us, when will these things be? And what is the sign of Your coming, and of the end of the world?”

Mat 24:4 Jeshua replied and said to them: “Beware! Let no one deceive you.

Mat 24:40 “Then two will be in the field: one will be taken and one will be left.

⁴ Based on Paul Younan’s ‘this branch’ in his Peshitta translation. It probably refers to the branch of Judah, which is still with us today. Alternatively, it is ‘this generation’ and then refers to the generation which will see all of these end-time things happening and then see Jeshua return as King of Kings, not to the generation that was alive when He spoke to the Apostles. Jeshua is pointing out how rapidly all these things will happen once they begin.

⁵ As in the Peshitta. The Greek inserts “nor the Son,” here. The Peshitta includes “nor the son” in Mar 13:32.

⁶ From the Aramaic tawphana ܡܘֿܦְּܢܐ, meaning the Great Flood, and used exclusively throughout the Peshitta Old and New Covenants to refer to the world-wide Flood of Noah’s day.

⁷ As in the Peshitta: it is unclear, but probably means the women were being given in marriage.

Mat 24:43 “But know this, that if the lord of the house had known in which watch the thief would come, he would have watched and not have allowed his house to be plundered.

Mat 24:44 “Therefore you also be ready, for at an hour which you do not expect, the Son of Mankind will come.¹

Mat 24:45 “Who then is the faithful and wise servant, whom his lord has appointed over his household, to give them food at the right time?

Mat 24:46 “Blessed is that servant who, when his lord comes, finds him doing so.

Mat 25:1 “Then let the Kingdom of Heaven be likened to ten virgins who took their lamps and went out to meet the bridegroom and the bride.

Mat 25:2 “Now five of them were wise, and five were foolish.

Mat 25:3 “Those who were foolish took their lamps but did not take oil with them, Mat 25:4 “but the wise took oil in vessels with their lamps.

Mat 25:5 “But when the bridegroom was delayed, they slumbered and all of them slept.

Mat 25:6 “And in the middle of the night there was a cry: ‘Behold, the bridegroom is coming; go out to meet him!’

Mat 25:7 “Then all those virgins arose and prepared their lamps.

Mat 25:8 “And the foolish said to the wise, ‘Give us some of your oil, for behold; our lamps have gone out.’

Mat 25:9 “But the wise replied and said, ‘Why? There is not enough for us and for you. Instead, go to those who sell and buy for yourselves.’

Mat 25:10 “And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came, and those who were ready entered into the banquet hall with him; and the door was locked.

Mat 25:11 “Later on those other virgins came also, and said, ‘Our Lord, our Lord, open for us!’

Mat 25:12 “But he replied and said to them, ‘Truly, I say to you that I do not know you.’

Mat 25:13 “Therefore, be alert, for you do not know that day or that hour.²

Mat 25:14 “For it is like a person going abroad, who called his servants and delivered his property to them.

Mat 25:15 “To one, he gave him five talents, and to another two, and to another one, to each man according to his strengths; and he went abroad immediately.

Mat 25:16 “Then he who had received five talents went and traded them, and gained five others.

Mat 25:17 “And he who had received two also gained two more.

Mat 25:18 “But he who had received one went and dug in the earth, and buried his lord’s money.

Mat 25:19 “And after a long time the lord of those servants came and took an account of them.

Mat 25:20 “So he called him who had received five talents. And he brought in five other talents, and he said, ‘My Lord, you gave me five talents. Look, I have gained five others on top of them.’

Mat 25:21 “His lord said to him, ‘Well done, good and faithful servant; you have been faithful over a little, I will set you over much. Enter the joy of your lord.’

Mat 25:22 “And he who had two of his talents came and he said, ‘My Lord, you gave me two talents. Look, I have gained two others on top of them.’

Mat 25:23 “His lord said to him, ‘Well done, good and faithful servant; you have been faithful over a little, I will set you over much. Enter the joy of your lord.’

Mat 25:24 “Then he who had received the one talent also came and he said, ‘My Lord, I knew you, that you are a hard man, and you reap where you have not sown, and you gather from where you have not threshed.

Mat 25:25 ‘And I was afraid, so I went and I buried your talent in the ground. Look, it is yours for you.’

Mat 25:26 “His lord answered and said to him, ‘Evil and lazy servant, you knew that I reap where I have not sown, and I gather from where I have not threshed.

Mat 25:27 ‘Therefore it was necessary for you to cast my money on the exchange, and it would have been when I came and required it, I would have mine with its interest.

Mat 25:28 ‘Therefore take the talent from him, and give it to him who has ten talents.

Mat 25:29 ‘For to everyone who has it, it will be given to him, and it will be increased for him; but he who does not have it, even that which he has will be taken from him.

Mat 25:30 ‘And he cast the worthless servant into the outer darkness. There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.’

Mat 25:31 “When the Son of Mankind comes in His glory, and all His holy envoys with Him, then He will sit on the throne of His glory.

Mat 25:32 “And all the nations will be gathered before Him, and He will separate them one from another, like a shepherd who separates the sheep from the goats.

Mat 25:33 “And He will set the sheep to His right, and the goats to His left.¹

Mat 25:34 “Then the King will say to those who are to His right, ‘Come, you blessed of My Father, inherit the kingdom which has been prepared for you from the foundation of the world.’²

Mat 25:35 ‘for I was hungry and you gave Me food to eat; and I was thirsty and you gave Me drink; and I was a stranger and you took Me in;

Mat 25:36 ‘I was naked and you clothed Me; I was sick and you visited Me; and I was in prison and you came to Me.’

Mat 25:37 “Then those righteous ones will say to Him, ‘Our Lord, when did we see that You were hungry and feed You, or that you were thirsty and gave drink to You?

Mat 25:38 ‘And when did we see that You were a stranger and take You in, or that You were naked and clothed You?

Mat 25:39 ‘And when did we see You sick or in prison and come to You?’

Mat 25:40 “And the King will answer and say to them, ‘Truly, I say to you, inasmuch as you did it to one of the least of these My brethren, you did it to Me.’³

Mat 25:44 “Then they will also answer and say, ‘Our Lord, when did we see You hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or sick or in prison, and did not serve You?’

Mat 25:45 “Then He will answer and say to them, ‘Truly, I say to you, inasmuch as you did not do it to one of these little ones, you also did not do it to Me.’

Mat 25:46 “And these will go to everlasting torment,¹ but the righteous into everlasting life.”²

Mat 26:1 Now it came to pass, when Jeshua had finished all these sayings, that He said to His disciples,

Mat 26:2 “You know that after two days is the Passover, and the Son of Mankind will be delivered up to be impaled.”

Mat 26:3 Then the chief priests, the scribes, and the elders of the people assembled at the palace of the chief of the priests,³ who was called Caiapha, Mat 26:4 and plotted to take Jeshua by trickery and kill Him.

Mat 26:5 But they said, “Not during the feast, lest there be a tumult among the people.”

Mat 26:6 And when Jeshua was in Bethany at the house of Simon the potter,⁴

Mat 26:7 a woman came to Him having an alabaster flask of very costly fragrant oil, and she poured it on His head as He sat at the table.

Mat 26:8 But when His disciples saw it,

¹ The Aramaic says lthashneeqa dal’alam לְתַשְׁנֵיקָא דְלְעָלָם ‘into torment everlasting’, not ‘into everlasting tormenting’. This indicates that the torment is everlasting for them, in that it lasts until they are totally destroyed. The Greek says ‘to be cut off forever.’—both mean eternal death.

² Eze 20:34-44, Mal 3:18 to 4:2, Mat 3:12

³ The Hebrew translates as chief priest, while the Aramaic translates as chief of the priests.

⁴ As in the Aramaic. It was mistranslated into Greek as leper.

they were indignant, saying, “To what end is this destroyed?

Mat 26:9 “For this fragrant oil might have been sold for much and given to the poor.”

Mat 26:10 But when Jeshua was aware of it, He said to them, “Why do you trouble the woman? For she has done a good work for Me.

Mat 26:11 “For you have the poor with you always, but Me you do not have always.

Mat 26:12 “For in pouring this fragrant oil on My body, she did it for My burial.

Mat 26:13 “Truly, I say to you, wherever this Good News is preached in the whole world, what this woman has done will also be told as a memorial to her.”

Mat 26:14 Then one of the twelve, called Judas Iscariot, went to the chief priests

Mat 26:15 and said, “What are you willing to give me if I deliver Him to you?” And they counted out to him thirty pieces of silver.

Mat 26:16 So from then he sought an opportunity to betray Him.

Mat 26:17 Near the first day of Unleavened Bread, the disciples approached Jeshua and said to Him, “Where do You want us to prepare the Passover for You that You may eat?”⁵

Mat 26:18 And He said to them, “Go into the city to a certain man, and say to him, ‘Our Master says, “My time has come; I will perform the Passover with My disciples, in your presence.”’”

Mat 26:19 So His disciples did just as Jeshua had directed them; and they prepared for the Passover.

Mat 26:20 And when it was evening, He reclined with His twelve disciples.

Mat 26:21 And while they were eating, He said, “Truly, I say to you, one from among you will betray Me.”

Mat 26:22 And it grieved them greatly, and each one of them began saying to Him, “My Lord, is it I?”

⁵ Exo 12:1-13:10, Lev 23:4-8

Mat 26:23 Then He answered and said, "Whoever dips his hand with Me in the dish, he will betray Me."¹

Mat 26:24 "And the Son of Mankind goes just as it is written about Him, but woe to that person by whose hand the Son of Mankind is betrayed! It would have been better for that man if he had not been born."

Mat 26:25 Judas, the traitor, replied, and he said, "Master, is it I?" Jeshua said to him, "You have said it."

Mat 26:26 And as they were eating, Jeshua took bread, and blessed and broke it, and He gave it to His disciples and said, "Take, eat; this is My body."

Mat 26:27 And He took a cup, and He gave thanks, and He gave it to them, and He said, "Take, drink from it, all of you."

Mat 26:28 "This is My blood of the New Covenant, which is shed in exchange for the many for their release from sins."²

Mat 26:29 "And I say to you, I will not drink of this product of the vine from this hour until that day when I will drink it with you anew in the Kingdom of My Father."

Mat 26:30 And they sang praises and went out to the Mount of Olives.

Mat 26:31 Then Jeshua said to them, "All of you will be offended at Me this night, for it is written: 'I will strike the Shepherd, and the sheep of His flock will be scattered.'³

Mat 26:32 "But after I have risen, I will go before you to Galilee."

Mat 26:33 Peter answered and said to Him, "Even if everyone is offended by You, I will never be offended by You."

Mat 26:34 Jeshua said to him, "Truly, I say to you that in this night, before the rooster crows, you will deny Me three times."

Mat 26:35 Peter said to Him, "Even if it's required for me to die with You, I will not deny You!" And all the disciples also said so.

Mat 26:36 Then Jeshua came with them to a place called Gethsemane, and He said to His disciples, "Sit here while I go and pray."

Mat 26:37 And He took Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, and began to be sorrowful and discouraged.

Mat 26:38 Then He said to them, "There is sadness in My soul, even onto death. Remain here with Me and watch with Me."

Mat 26:39 And He went a little way and fell on His face, and prayed, saying, "My Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass from Me. However, not as I will, but as You will."

Mat 26:40 Then He came to His disciples and found that they were sleeping, and said to Peter, "So you were not able to watch with Me for one hour?"

Mat 26:41 "Take heed and pray, lest you enter into temptation. The spirit is ready, but the body is weak."

Mat 26:42 He went away again a second time and prayed, saying, "My Father, if this cup cannot pass away from Me unless I drink it, Your will be done."

Mat 26:43 And He came and found them while they were sleeping again, for their eyes were heavy.

Mat 26:44 So He left them, went away again, and prayed for the third time, and He said the same words.

Mat 26:45 Then He came to His disciples and said to them, "Therefore sleep now and get your rest. Behold, the hour has arrived, and the Son of Mankind will be delivered into the hands of sinners."

Mat 26:46 "Rise, let us be going. Behold, he who has betrayed Me has arrived."

Mat 26:47 And while He was speaking, behold, Judas the traitor, one of the twelve, arrived with a great crowd with him, with swords and clubs, coming from the chief priests and elders of the people.

Mat 26:48 Judas the traitor had given them a sign, saying, "Him who I kiss is He; seize Him."

Mat 26:49 And immediately he came up to Jeshua and said, "Peace, Master!" and he kissed Him.

Mat 26:50 And Jeshua said to him, "My friend, you have come here for this?" Then they came near and laid their hands on Jeshua and seized Him.

Mat 26:51 And behold, one of those who were with Jeshua stretched out his hand and drew the sword, and attacked a servant of the chief of the priests, and cut off his ear.

Mat 26:52 Then Jeshua said to him, "Return the sword to its place, for all those who take up swords will perish by swords.

Mat 26:53 "Or do you think that I can't ask My Father, and He will immediately raise up more than twelve legions of envoys for Me?

Mat 26:54 "How then could the Writings be fulfilled that say it must happen thus?"

Mat 26:55 In that hour Jeshua said to the crowds, "Have you come out, as against a bandit, with swords and clubs to arrest Me? Every day I sat among you in the Palace, teaching, and you did not arrest Me.

Mat 26:56 "But this happened so the Writings of the prophets might be fulfilled."¹ Then all the disciples left Him and fled.

Mat 26:57 And those who had seized Jeshua led Him to Caiapha the chief of the priests, where the scribes and elders were assembling.

Mat 26:58 But Simon Peter followed after Him at a distance to the chief of the priests's courtyard. And he went inside and sat among the guards so he could see the end.

Mat 26:59 Now the chief priests, the elders, and the whole council were seeking witnesses against Jeshua so they could kill Him,²

Mat 26:60 but they did not find any, even though many false witnesses came. But at last two came

Mat 26:61 and said, "This man said, 'I am able to tear down the Palace of God and rebuild it in three days.'"

Mat 26:62 And the chief of the priests arose and said to Him, "Do you answer nothing to this matter that these men testify against you?"

Mat 26:63 But Jeshua was silent.³ And the chief of the priests replied, saying to Him, "I charge you by the Living God that you tell us if you are the Messiah, the Son of God."

Mat 26:64 Jeshua said to him, "You have said it. But I say to you that later on you will see the Son of Mankind sitting at the right hand of the Power, and coming on the clouds of heaven."

Mat 26:65 Then the chief of the priests tore his clothes and said, "Behold, he blasphemes! Therefore, why do we need witnesses? Behold, now you have heard his blasphemy!

Mat 26:66 "What do you want to do?" They answered and said, "He is deserving of death."

Mat 26:67 Then they spat in His face and they struck Him on His head; and others were beating him,

Mat 26:68 and they said, "Prophecy to us, Messiah! Who is the one who beat you?"

Mat 26:69 Now Peter sat outside in the courtyard. And a certain maid came close to him, and said to him, "You were also with Jeshua the Nazarene."

Mat 26:70 But he denied it before all of them, and said, "I do not know what you are saying."

Mat 26:71 And when he had gone out to the porch, another maid saw him and said to those there, "This man was also with Jeshua the Nazarene."

Mat 26:72 And again he denied it with oaths; "I do not know the Man!"

Mat 26:73 And after a little while, those who stood by came near to him and said to Peter, "Surely you also are one of them, because your speech makes you known."

Mat 26:74 Then he began to curse and say, "I do not know the Man!" And in that hour the rooster crowed.

Mat 26:75 And Peter remembered the word which Jeshua had said to him, "Before the rooster crows, you will deny Me three times." Then he went out and wept bitterly.

Mat 27:1 When it was morning, all the chief priests and elders of the people took counsel against Jeshua, that they would put Him to death.

Mat 27:2 And they bound Him, took Him and delivered Him to Pilate the governor.

Mat 27:3 Then Judas, the traitor, when he saw that Jeshua had been condemned, he repented and returned the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and the elders.

Mat 27:4 And he said, "I have sinned, for I have betrayed innocent blood." But they said to him, "What is that to us? That is your problem!"

Mat 27:5 Then he threw the silver into the palace and departed, and went and hung himself.

Mat 27:6 But the chief priests picked up the silver and said, "It is against the Instructions to put them into the treasury, because it is the price of blood."¹

Mat 27:7 And they took counsel and bought with it the potter's field for burial houses for strangers.

Mat 27:8 Therefore that field is called the Field of Blood to this day.

Mat 27:9 Thus what was spoken by the prophet was fulfilled, who said, "I took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of the precious one, which was agreed upon by the children of Israel,

Mat 27:10 "and I gave them for the potter's field, as Jehovah commanded me."²

Mat 27:11 Now Jeshua stood before the governor. And the governor asked Him, saying to Him, "Are you the King of the Judeans?" Jeshua said to him, "You have said it."

Mat 27:12 And while the chief priests and elders were accusing Him, He did not answer.

Mat 27:13 Then Pilate said to Him, "Do you not hear how much they testify against you?"

Mat 27:14 And He did not give him an answer, not even one word, and the governor marvelled greatly at this.³

Mat 27:15 Now at every feast the governor was accustomed to releasing one prisoner to the crowd, whoever they wanted.

Mat 27:16 Now they had imprisoned a notorious prisoner called Barabbas.

Mat 27:17 And when they had gathered, Pilate said to them, "Who do you want me to release to you? Barabbas, or Jeshua who is called the Anointed?"

Mat 27:18 For Pilate realised that because of envy they had delivered Him.

Mat 27:19 And while the governor was sitting on the judgement seat, his wife sent to him, and said, "Do nothing to that righteous man, for I have suffered greatly in my dream today because of Him."

Mat 27:20 But the chief priests and elders persuaded the crowd to ask for Barabbas and to destroy Jeshua.

Mat 27:21 Then the governor replied and said to them, "Who do you want me to release to you of these two?" And they said, "Barabbas!"

¹ Based on the principles in 1Ch 22:7-8, Deu 23:18 and Lev 17:11

² Based on Zec 11:12-13. The Peshitta has Lord Jah, Shem-Tob's Hebrew Matthew has Jehovah in verse 9 rather than 10. In vs 9, the Greek RT claims, incorrectly, that the quote is from Jeremiah.

³ Isa 53:7

Mat 27:22 Pilate said to them, "And Jeshua who is called the Messiah, what should I do to Him?" They all said to him, "Let him be impaled!"

Mat 27:23 The governor said to them, "Indeed? What evil has He done?" But they cried out all the more, and said, "Let him be impaled!"¹

Mat 27:24 When Pilate saw that nothing helped, but instead the tumult was increasing, he took water and washed his hands before the crowd, and said, "I am innocent of the blood of this righteous man. You do it."

Mat 27:25 And all the people answered and said, "His blood be on us and on our children."

Mat 27:26 Then he released Barabbas to them and scourged Jeshua with whips, and delivered Him to be impaled.²

Mat 27:27 Then the governor's soldiers took Jeshua into the Praetorium and assembled the whole garrison around Him.

Mat 27:28 And they stripped Him and clothed Him in a purple robe.³

Mat 27:29 Then they wove a crown of thorns and put it on His head, and a reed in His right hand. And they bowed down on their knees before Him and mocked Him, saying, "Peace, King of the Judeans!"

Mat 27:30 Then they spat in His face, and took the reed and struck Him on His head.

Mat 27:31 Then when they had mocked Him, they took off the robe and put His own clothes on Him, and led Him away to be impaled.

Mat 27:32 Now while they were going there, they found a man of Cyrene, whose name was Simon. They compelled this man to carry His stake.

Mat 27:33 And they came to the place which is called Golgotha, which is interpreted as 'The Skull'.

Mat 27:34 Then they gave Him sour wine mixed with gall to drink.⁴ But when He had tasted it, He did not want to drink it.

Mat 27:35 And when they had impaled Him, they divided His garments, casting lots.⁵

Mat 27:36 Then they sat down and watched Him there.

Mat 27:37 And they placed over His head the reason for His death in writing: "This is Jeshua, the King of the Judeans.

Mat 27:38 And there were two robbers impaled with Him, one on his right and one on His left.

Mat 27:39 And those who passed by blasphemed against Him, nodding their heads

Mat 27:40 and saying, "You who tear down the Palace and rebuild it in three days, save yourself if you are the Son of God and come down from the stake."

Mat 27:41 Likewise the chief priests were mocking, together with the scribes and the elders and the Pharisees.

Mat 27:42 And they were saying, "He saved others; he is not able to save himself. If he is the King of Israel, let him come down from the stake now so we will believe in him.

Mat 27:43 "He put his trust in God; let Him save him now if He is pleased with him; for he said, 'I am the Son of God.'"⁶

Mat 27:44 Then even the robbers who

³ The Greek RT says the robe was scarlet. The Peshitta says purple, which was the colour reserved for royalty.

⁴ Psa 69:21. Gall indicates the drug was bitter, and may have been opiates extracted from poppy heads or myrrh.

⁵ The Greek Received Text adds: "that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet: 'They divided My garments among them, and for My clothing they cast lots.'" This action is prophesied in Psa 22:18.

⁶ Psa 22:7-8

were impaled with Him reviled Him.

Mat 27:45 Now from the sixth hour, there was darkness over all the land until the ninth hour.¹

Mat 27:46 And about the ninth hour Jeshua cried out with a loud voice and said,² “My God, My God, why have You forsaken Me?”³

Mat 27:47 Some of the men who stood there, when they heard it, said, “This man is calling for Elijah!”

Mat 27:48 Immediately, one of them ran and took a sponge, filled it with sour wine and put it on a reed, and offered it to Him.

Mat 27:49 But the rest said, “Let him be; let us see if Elijah will come to save him.”

Mat 27:50 Then Jeshua cried out again with a loud voice and gave up His spirit.⁴

Mat 27:51 And immediately, the curtains at the entrance to the Palace were torn in two from the top to the bottom;⁵ and the earth shook, and the rocks were split,

Mat 27:52 and the burial houses were opened; and after His resurrection⁶ many bodies of the saints who were asleep were raised;

Mat 27:53 and came out and they went into the holy city and were seen by many.⁷

Mat 27:54 Now when the centurion and those watching Jeshua with him saw the earthquake and the things that had occurred, they were very afraid and said, “Truly, this was the Son of God!”

Mat 27:55 And there was also many women there who were looking on from afar. They had followed Jeshua from Galilee and had served Him.

Mat 27:56 One of them was Mary Magdalene, and also Mary the mother of Jacob and Joses, and the mother of Zebedee’s sons.

Mat 27:57 Now when evening was coming, there came a rich man from Arimathea, whose name was Joseph, who had also been taught by Jeshua.

Mat 27:58 This man went up to Pilate and asked for the body of Jeshua and Pilate commanded that the body be given to him.

Mat 27:59 And Joseph took the body and wrapped it in a cloth of fine linen,

Mat 27:60 and he laid it in his new burial house which was hewn in the rock; and they rolled a large stone over the entrance to the burial house, and they departed.⁸

Mat 27:61 And Mary Magdalene was there, and the other Mary, sitting opposite the tomb.

Mat 27:62 On the next day,⁹ after that

² At this point the Greek inserts “Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani?” thereby showing that Jeshua spoke in Aramaic (literally eel, eel, Imana shvaqtany אֵיל לָמָנָא שְׁבַקְתָּנִי) so the Greek manuscript gives the Greek transliteration and then the Greek translation.

³ See Psa 22:1. Lamsa, Younan and Roth’s Aramaic translations change forsaken to spared. Roth claims that the Father never forsook Jeshua, but instead delayed killing him until this point. It is more likely that the Father did not prolong the Impaling nor did He forsake Jeshua at any time, as shown by Joh 16:32; but at that moment Jeshua was so overwhelmed that He felt like He had been forsaken.

⁵ This symbolically showed how the veil separating humans from God had been opened when Jeshua died. This access was given to Christ’s disciples from then onwards, and it will be given to all people when He returns as King of Kings (2Co 3:11-17 & Isa 25:1-12).

⁷ These resurrected saints, likely prophets, may be the 24 elders in heaven in Revelation.

⁸ Isa 53:3-9

⁹ The Greek RT says “which followed the Day of Preparation” instead of “after that sunset”. The Peshitta text means the following sunset which marked the end of the First Day of sunset, the chief priests and Pharisees gathered together with Pilate,

Mat 27:63 and said to him, "Our lord, we remember that when that deceiver was alive, he said, 'After three days I will rise.'

Mat 27:64 "Therefore command that they guard the tomb for three days,¹ lest His disciples come and steal him in the night, and say to the people that he has risen from the house of the dead. And then the last deception will be worse than the first."

Mat 27:65 Pilate said to them, "You have guards; go and take precautions as you know how."

Mat 27:66 So they left and took precautions at the grave, and set a seal on the stone together with the guards.

Mat 28:1 Now the Sabbath had drawn to a close,² and as dawn was beginning on the first day of the weeks,³ Mary Unleavened Bread – an annual Holy Day Sabbath, and thus the beginning of the next non-holy day.

¹ Probably meaning three full days from the time the guard was set. This would mean that Jeshua would by then have been dead for a day more than the three days He had promised His disciples.

² In the Greek, Sabbaths is in the plural, and indeed two Sabbaths (one Annual Sabbath – Thursday that year, and one weekly Sabbath – Saturday) passed before they went to the tomb very early Sunday morning. The Aramaic Peshitta differentiates between singular and plural Sabbath(s) with two Syame dots placed above the last letter to identify the plural Sabbaths. In this case, it is singular, as it is only referring to the end of the weekly Sabbath. Very few English translations follow either the Greek or Aramaic distinctions of Sabbath or Sabbaths.

³ This weeks is literally Sabbaths in the Greek, and sevens in the Aramaic. In this way the Aramaic differentiates between Sabbaths and weeks, but both are likely referring to the Wave Sheaf Offering day, which begins the seven weeks and a day count to the Feast of Magdalene and the other Mary came to see the tomb.

Mat 28:2 And behold, there was a great earthquake; for an envoy of Lord Jah⁴ descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat on it.

Mat 28:3 His countenance was like bright light, and his clothing as white as snow.

Mat 28:4 And the guards shook for fear of him, and became like the dead.

Mat 28:5 But the envoy answered and said to the women, "Do not be afraid, for I know that you seek Jeshua who was impaled.

Mat 28:6 "He is not here; for He has risen, as He said. Come, see the place where our Lord lay.⁵

Mat 28:7 "And go quickly and tell His disciples that He has risen from the house of the dead, and indeed He is going before you into Galilee; there you will see Him. Behold, I have told you."

Mat 28:8 So they departed quickly from the grave with fear and great joy, and ran so they could tell His disciples.

Mat 28:9 And behold, Jeshua met up with them and said to them, "Peace to you!"⁶ And they drew near and embraced His feet and worshipped Him.

Mat 28:10 Then Jeshua said to them, "Do not be afraid. Now go, tell My brothers to go to Galilee, and they will see Me there."

Mat 28:11 Now as they were going, the Weeks (Pentecost). See Lev 23:4-15 and Mar 16:9, Luk 24:1 & Joh 20:1.

⁴ As in the Aramaic Peshitta. Jehovah is indicated in Shem-Tob's Hebrew Matthew.

⁵ Note that Jeshua was not in the tomb when the stone was rolled away. He had previously risen and left, passing through the stone in his new transformed body. The envoy rolled away the stone so his disciples could see that Jeshua's body was not there. The Bible does not support a Sunday morning resurrection.

⁶ As in the Aramaic and Greek manuscripts. Shem-Tob's Hebrew Matthew renders this as "Jehovah bless you!"

men from the guard came into the city and they reported to the chief priests everything that had happened.

Mat 28:12 And they gave silver shekels to the guards, not a few, and they assembled with the elders and held a counsel,

Mat 28:13 and they said to them, “Say that His disciples came at night and stole it while we slept.’

Mat 28:14 “And if this is reported before the governor, we will appease him and you can be without anxiety.”

Mat 28:15 So they took the silver coins and they did as they had instructed them; and this story is among the Judeans until this day.

Mat 28:16 Then the eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain which Jeshua had appointed for them.

Mat 28:17 And when they saw Him, though some of them had doubted, they worshipped Him.

Mat 28:18 Then Jeshua spoke with them, and He said to them, “All authority has been given to Me in heaven and in the earth. Just as My Father sent Me, so I send you.

Mat 28:19 “Therefore go and make disciples of all the nations, immersing them in the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit,¹

Mat 28:20 “and teach them to keep everything that I have commanded you. Behold, I am with you every day until the end of the world.” Amen.

¹ These three are all intimately involved in our creation and salvation. But this passage does not even suggest that these three beings are one being (ie. a Trinity). In Shem-Tob’s Hebrew Matthew, this verse consists only of one word: “Go”.

Mark

Mar 1:1 The beginning of the Good News of Jeshua the Messiah,¹ the Son of God.

Mar 1:2 As it is written by the Prophet Isaiah: “Behold, I send My envoy before Your face, so he will prepare Your way.”²

Mar 1:3 “The voice which cries in the wilderness: ‘Prepare the way of Jehovah, make His paths straight.’”³

Mar 1:4 John came immersing in the wilderness and preaching an immersion of repentance for the forgiveness of sins.

Mar 1:5 And coming out to him was all the region of Judea, and all of the children from Jerusalem, and he would immerse them in the Jordan River, while they confessed their sins.

Mar 1:6 Now John was clothed with camel hair cloth and with leather around his loins, and his food was locusts and wild honey.

Mar 1:7 And he preached, saying, “Behold, there comes after me One who is more powerful than I, He who I am not worthy to stoop down and loosen the straps of His sandals.

Mar 1:8 “I immerse you with water, but He will immerse you with the Holy Spirit.”

Mar 1:9 And it was in those days that Jeshua came from Nazareth of Galilee, and was immersed in the Jordan by John.

Mar 1:10 And immediately, when He rose from the water, He saw the heavens split and the Spirit descending upon Him like a dove.

Mar 1:11 Then a voice came from heaven, “You are My beloved Son; I am pleased with You.”

Mar 1:12 And immediately the Spirit drove Him into the wilderness.

Mar 1:13 And He was there in the wilderness forty days while being tempted by Satan, and He was among the wild animals; and the envoys served Him.

Mar 1:14 But after John was arrested, Jeshua came to Galilee, and was preaching the Good News of the Kingdom of God,

Mar 1:15 and He said, “The time is complete for the Kingdom of God to arrive. Repent, and believe in the Good News.”

Mar 1:16 And as He walked beside the Sea of Galilee, He saw Simon and Andrew his brother, who were casting nets into the sea; for they were fishermen.

Mar 1:17 Then Jeshua said to them, “Come, follow Me, and I will make you fishers of the children of men.”

Mar 1:18 And immediately they left their nets and followed Him.

Mar 1:19 As He went farther, He saw Jacob the son of Zebedee, and also John his brother, and they were in the boat mending their nets.

Mar 1:20 And He called them, and they immediately left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired servants, and followed Him.

Mar 1:21 And when they went into Capernaum, He entered their synagogues on the Sabbaths and He taught immediately.

Mar 1:22 And they were astonished by His teaching, for He taught them as an authority, and not like the scribes.

Mar 1:23 Now there was a man in their synagogue with an unclean spirit in him. And he cried out,

Mar 1:24 saying, “What have we to do with You, Jeshua of Nazareth? Have You come to destroy us? I know who You are; You are the Holy One of God!”

Mar 1:25 But Jeshua rebuked him,

² Mal 3:1, Mat 11:10, Luk 7:27

saying, "Close your mouth, and come out of him!"

Mar 1:26 And the unclean spirit threw him down, cried out with a loud voice and came out of him.

Mar 1:27 Then they were all astonished, so they were asking each other and saying, "What is this? And what is this new teaching? For He commands even the unclean spirits with authority, and they obey Him."

Mar 1:28 And immediately His fame spread into all the region of Galilee.

Mar 1:29 Now they left the synagogue, and came to the house of Simon and Andrew, with Jacob and John.

Mar 1:30 And Simon's mother-in-law was sick with a fever, and they told Him about her.

Mar 1:31 So He came and took her by her hand and lifted her up, and immediately her fever left her. And she served them.

Mar 1:32 Now in the evening, when the sun was setting, they brought to Him all those who were severely sick and demonised.

Mar 1:33 And the whole city was assembled at the door.

Mar 1:34 Then He healed many who were seriously diseased with various illnesses, and He cast out many demons; and He did not allow the demons to speak, because they knew Him.

Mar 1:35 Then He arose very early in the morning, and He went to a secluded place and He prayed there.

Mar 1:36 And Simon and those who were with Him went looking for Him.

Mar 1:37 When they found Him, they said to Him, "All the people are looking for You."

Mar 1:38 He said to them, "Walk into the villages and into the cities nearby, for I will also preach there, because I have come for this purpose."

Mar 1:39 And He preached in their synagogues throughout all Galilee, and cast out demons.

Mar 1:40 Then a leper came to Him, and fell on His feet, begging Him and saying to Him, "If You are willing, You are able to make me clean."

Mar 1:41 And Jeshua had compassion on him, and stretched out His hand and touched him, and said to him, "I am willing; be clean."

Mar 1:42 And at that moment, his leprosy left him, and he was made clean.

Mar 1:43 Then He warned him and he went out.

Mar 1:44 And He said to him, "See that you tell no man; instead, go and show yourself to the priests, and offer an offering for your purification as Moses commanded, as a witness."

Mar 1:45 But when he left, he began proclaiming about it greatly, and made the event so well known that Jeshua was no longer able to enter the city openly, but was outside in a deserted place; and they came to Him from everywhere.

Mar 2:1 And Jeshua entered Capernaum again after some days, and when they heard that He was in the house, Mar 2:2 so many gathered there that the house was not able to hold them, not even in front of the door. And He preached the word to them.

Mar 2:3 Then they came to Him, bringing a paralytic to Him who was carried between four men.

Mar 2:4 And when they could not come near Him because of the crowd, they climbed up onto the roof and removed the covering above where Jeshua was. And they lowered the stretcher on which the paralytic was lying.

Mar 2:5 When Jeshua saw their faith, He said to the paralytic, "My son, your sins are forgiven you."

Mar 2:6 But there were some scribes and Pharisees sitting there and thinking in their hearts, Mar 2:7 "Why, this man speaks blasphemy! Who is able to forgive sins except the One God?"

Mar 2:8 But Jeshua knew in His spirit that they were thinking these things within themselves, and He said to them, "Why do you think these things in your hearts?"

Mar 2:9 "Which is easier; saying to the paralytic, 'Your sins are forgiven to you,' or saying, 'Arise, take up your stretcher and walk'?"

Mar 2:10 "But that you may know that it is lawful for the Son of Mankind to forgive sins on earth," He said to the paralytic,

Mar 2:11 "I say to you, arise, take up your stretcher, and go to your house."

Mar 2:12 And he arose immediately, took up his stretcher, and went out in the sight of everyone, so they were all amazed and they glorified God, saying they had never, ever seen such things.

Mar 2:13 Then He went out again to the sea; and all the crowds came to Him, and He would teach them.

Mar 2:14 And as He passed by, He saw Lebai the son of Alphaeus sitting at the tax office, and said to him, "Follow Me." And he arose, left and followed Him.

Mar 2:15 Now it happened when He was seated in Lebai's house, that many tax collectors and sinners sat with Jeshua and His disciples; for there were many and they followed Him.

Mar 2:16 And when the scribes and Pharisees saw that He was eating with the tax collectors and the sinners, they said to His disciples, "Who eats and drinks with tax collectors and sinners?"

Mar 2:17 But when Jeshua heard it, He said to them, "The healthy have no need for a physician, but rather those who are very sick. I have not come to call the righteous, but rather the sinners."

Mar 2:18 Now the disciples of John and the Pharisees would fast. And they came and said to Him, "Why do the disciples of John and the Pharisees fast, but your disciples do not fast?"

Mar 2:19 Jeshua said to them, "Are the friends at the wedding feast able to fast while the bridegroom is with them? No.

Mar 2:20 "But the days will come when the bridegroom will be taken away from them, and then they will fast in those days.

Mar 2:21 "No one takes a piece of new cloth and sews it onto an old garment; lest the new piece pulls away from the old, and the tear becomes larger.

Mar 2:22 "And no one puts new wine into old wineskins; lest the wine bursts the wineskins, and the wineskins are destroyed and the wine is poured out. Instead, they put new wine into new wineskins."

Mar 2:23 Now it happened that Jeshua went through a grainfield on the Sabbath; and His disciples were walking and plucking grain.

Mar 2:24 And the Pharisees said to Him, "Do you see that they are doing what is against the Instructions¹ on the Sabbath?"²

Mar 2:25 Jeshua said to them, "Have you never read what David did when he was in need and hungry, he and those with him:

Mar 2:26 "how he went into the House of God during the days when Abiathar was the chief of the priests, and ate the bread from the table of Lord Jah,³ which is against the Instructions to eat, except for the priests, and he also gave some to those who were with him?"⁴

Mar 2:27 And He said to them, "The Sabbath was created for people, and not ¹ Like Torah in the Hebrew. Refers to all of God's Instructions, not just His Laws.

² Deu 23:24-25 gives them permission to pluck the grain. The Pharisees have their own laws, forbidding them from doing even this on the Sabbath.

³ As in the Peshitta.

⁴ From 1Sa 21:1-6. Note that the bread David was given was the Presence Bread of the previous day which had been replaced earlier that day with hot, fresh Presence Bread.

people for the Sabbath.

Mar 2:28 “Therefore the Lord of the Sabbath is also the Son of Mankind.”¹

Mar 3:1 And Jeshua entered the synagogue again, and a certain man was there whose hand was withered.

Mar 3:2 And they watched Him, so if He healed him on the Sabbath, they might accuse Him.

Mar 3:3 Then He said to the man whose hand was withered, “Arise in their midst.”

Mar 3:4 And He also said to them, “Is it in the Instructions on the Sabbath to do that which is good or to do that which is evil, to save souls or to destroy?” But they were silent.

Mar 3:5 And He gazed at them with anger, being grieved by the hardness of their hearts, and He said to the man, “Stretch out your hand.” And he stretched it out, and his hand was restored.

Mar 3:6 Then the Pharisees left and immediately consulted with some of the house of Herod against Him, how they might destroy Him.

Mar 3:7 But Jeshua went to the sea with His disciples. And a great crowd from Galilee joined Him, and also from Judea

Mar 3:8 and Jerusalem and Idumea and beyond the Jordan; and those from Tyre and Sidon, great crowds who had heard everything He was doing, came to Him.

Mar 3:9 And He asked His disciples to bring a boat because of the crowds, lest they pressed in on Him.

Mar 3:10 For He healed many, so many that they were falling on Him in order to touch Him.

Mar 3:11 And those who were sick with unclean spirits, when they saw Him, were falling and crying out, saying, “You are the Son of God.”

Mar 3:12 But He sternly rebuked them, that they should not reveal Him.

Mar 3:13 And He went up on the mountain and called to those whom He wanted. And they came to Him.

Mar 3:14 Then He chose twelve to be with Him and to send them out to preach,

Mar 3:15 and to have authority to heal the sick and to cast out demons:

Mar 3:16 and He gave Simon the name Peter;

Mar 3:17 and Jacob the son of Zebedee and John the brother of Jacob, and He gave them the name Boanerges, that is, “Sons of Thunder”;

Mar 3:18 and Andrew, Philip, Bartholomew, Matthew, Thomas, Jacob the son of Alphaeus, Thaddaeus, Simon the Canaanite;

Mar 3:19 and Judas Iscariot who betrayed Him. And they came to a house.

Mar 3:20 And the crowds gathered again, so that they were not even able to eat bread.

Mar 3:21 But when His family heard, they went out to seize Him, for they said that he was crazy.

Mar 3:22 And those scribes who came down from Jerusalem said, “Beelzebub is in him,” and, “By the ruler of demons He casts out demons.”

Mar 3:23 So Jeshua called them and said to them in parables: “How is Satan able to cast out Satan?”

Mar 3:24 “For if a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom will not be able to stand.

Mar 3:25 “And if a house is divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand.

Mar 3:26 “And if Satan rises up against himself, and is divided, he is not able to stand, but he is at his end.

Mar 3:27 “No one is able to enter a strong man’s house and plunder his goods, unless he first binds the strong man, and then plunders his house.

Mar 3:28 “Truly, I say to you, that all sins and blasphemies that the descendants of men blaspheme will be forgiven to them;

¹ Gen 2:1-3, Exo 20:8-11, Lev 24:5-9, 1Sa 21:1-6, Mat 12:8 & Luk 6:5

Mar 3:29 “but he who blasphemes against the Holy Spirit has no forgiveness, not ever, and instead is guilty before the everlasting judgement”;¹

Mar 3:30 because they were saying that an unclean spirit was in Him.

Mar 3:31 Then His mother and His brothers came and stood outside. They sent someone to call Him to them.

Mar 3:32 Now a crowd was sitting around Him; and they said to Him, “Behold, Your mother and Your brothers are outside seeking You.”

Mar 3:33 But He answered and said to them, “Who is My mother and who are My brothers?”

Mar 3:34 And He gazed at those who sat around Him, and said, “Behold My mother and behold My brothers!

Mar 3:35 “For whoever does the will of God is My brother and My sister and My mother.”

Mar 4:1 And again He began to teach by the seaside. And a great crowd was gathered around Him, so that He got into a boat and sat in it on the sea; and the whole crowd was on the land by the seaside.

Mar 4:2 Then He taught them by many parables, and said to them in His teaching:

Mar 4:3 “Listen! Behold, a sower went out to sow.

Mar 4:4 “And while he sowed, some fell by the side of the road; and the birds came and devoured it.

Mar 4:5 “And others fell on stony ground, where there was not much earth; and immediately it sprouted because there was no depth of earth.

Mar 4:6 “But when the sun was up it was burned, and because it did not have roots it dried up.

Mar 4:7 “And others fell into a thorny place; and the thorns rose up and choked it, and it did not bear fruit.

Mar 4:8 “But others fell on good ground and rose up, matured and bore fruit: some thirty, some sixty, and some one hundred times.”

Mar 4:9 And He said, “He who has ears to hear, let him hear!”

Mar 4:10 But when they were alone, His twelve who were with Him asked Him about that parable.

Mar 4:11 And Jeshua said to them, “It has been given to you to know the mystery of the Kingdom of God; but to those outside, everything is in parables,

Mar 4:12 “so that ‘seeing they may see and yet they will not see, and hearing they may hear and yet not understand; lest they return, and their sins be forgiven them.’”²

Mar 4:13 And He said to them, “You do not understand this parable? Then how will you understand all the parables?

Mar 4:14 “The sower who sowed, he sowed the word.

Mar 4:15 “And those that fell on the side of the road are those in whom the word is sown. And when they hear, Satan comes immediately and takes away the word that was sown in their hearts.

Mar 4:16 “And those that were sown on stony ground are those who, when they hear the word, immediately receive it with gladness;

Mar 4:17 “but they have no root in themselves, and endure only for a time. And when afflictions or persecutions arise because of the word, they are quickly offended.

Mar 4:18 “Now those which were sown into a thorny place; they are those who hear the word, Mar 4:19 “and the cares of this world, the deceptions of riches, and the many other lusts enter in and choke the word, and it becomes fruitless.

Mar 4:20 “And those sown on good ground are those who hear the word, accept it, and bear fruit: thirty times, and sixty times, and one hundred times.”

¹ The judging is not everlasting, but once the judgement is made it lasts forever.

² Isa 6:9-10 & 42:20

Mar 4:21 And He said to them, "Is a lamp brought to be put under a basket or under a bed? Should it not be set on a lampstand?"

Mar 4:22 "For there is nothing hidden which will not be revealed, nor does anything exist in secret that will not be revealed.

Mar 4:23 "If anyone has ears to hear, let him hear."

Mar 4:24 And He said to them, "Watch what you hear. With the same measure you use, it will be measured to you; and to you who hear, it will be increased.

Mar 4:25 "For whoever has, it will be given to him; but whoever does not have, even what he has will be taken from him."

Mar 4:26 And He said, "The Kingdom of God is like a person who scatters seed on the ground, Mar 4:27 "and he will sleep by night and rise by day, and the seed will sprout and grow, though he is not aware of it.

Mar 4:28 "For the earth brings forth the fruit: first the leaves, then the head, and finally the full grain in the head.

Mar 4:29 "But when the fruit ripens, immediately the sickle comes, because the harvest has arrived."¹

Mar 4:30 And He said, "What is like the Kingdom of God? And with what parable can we compare it?

Mar 4:31 "It is like a grain of mustard which, when it is planted in the ground, is the least of all the grain seeds on earth;

Mar 4:32 "but when it is planted, it grows up and becomes greater than all the herbs, and produces large branches, so that the birds can nest in its shade."

Mar 4:33 And with parables like these Jeshua spoke with them, such parables as they were able to hear.

Mar 4:34 And He did not speak to them without parables. But with His disciples, He would privately explain everything to them.

Mar 4:35 On the same day, at evening, He said to them, "Let us cross over to the other side."

Mar 4:36 Now they left the crowd and took Him away in the boat as He was. And there were other boats with them.

Mar 4:37 And there was a great storm, and the wind and waves beat into the boat, and it was about to fill.

Mar 4:38 But Jeshua was sleeping on a blanket in the stern of the boat. And they came and woke Him and said to Him, "Master, do You not care that we are perishing?"

Mar 4:39 Then He arose and rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Stop, be quiet!" And the wind ceased and there was a great calm.

Mar 4:40 And He said to them, "Why are you fearful like this? Why is there no faith in you?"

Mar 4:41 And they feared with great fear, and said to one another, "Indeed, who can this be, that the winds and the sea obey Him!"

Mar 5:1 Then they came to the other side of the sea, to the region of the Gadarenes.

Mar 5:2 And when He had come out of the boat, immediately a man met Him from the burial houses, who had an unclean spirit in him,

Mar 5:3 and he was dwelling in the burial houses; and no one was able to bind him with chains,

Mar 5:4 because whenever he was bound with shackles and chains he would break the chains and cut the shackles, and no one was able to subdue him.

Mar 5:5 And always, during the night and during the day, he was in the burial houses and in the mountains, and he would cry out and cut himself with stones.

Mar 5:6 But when he saw Jeshua from afar, he ran and worshipped Him.

Mar 5:7 And he cried out with a loud voice and said, "What do I have to do with You, Jeshua, Son of the Most High God?

I implore You by God that You do not torment me.”

Mar 5:8 For He said to him, “Unclean spirit, come out of the man!”

Mar 5:9 Then He asked him, “What is your name?” And he said to Him, “Our name is Legion; for we are many.”

Mar 5:10 And he begged Him earnestly to not send them out of the country.

Mar 5:11 Now a large herd of pigs were feeding there near the mountain.

Mar 5:12 And all those demons begged Him, saying, “Send us to the pigs, that we may attack them.”

Mar 5:13 And He permitted them. Then those unclean spirits went out and attacked the pigs (about two thousand); and the herd ran down a steep place and fell into the sea, and were drowned in the water.

Mar 5:14 Now those who were tending them fled, and they reported it in the city and also in the villages. And they came out to see what had happened.

Mar 5:15 Then they came to Jeshua, and saw the one who had been demonised, in whom the legion had been, clothed, sitting and sane. And they were afraid.

Mar 5:16 And those who saw it told them what had happened to him who had been demonised, and also about those pigs.

Mar 5:17 Then they began to plead with Him to depart from their region.

Mar 5:18 And when He got into the boat, he who had been demonised begged Him that he might stay with Him.

Mar 5:19 However, He did not permit him; instead He said to him, “Go to your home and to your people, and tell them what great things Lord Jah¹ has done for you, and how He had mercy on you.”

Mar 5:20 And he departed and began to proclaim in the Ten Cities what Jeshua had done for him; and they all marvelled.

Mar 5:21 Now when Jeshua had crossed over again by boat to the other side, a great crowd gathered to Him while He was by the seaside.

Mar 5:22 And a certain man whose name was Jairus came from the rulers of the synagogue. And when he saw Him, he fell upon His feet

Mar 5:23 and begged Him earnestly, saying to him, “My daughter is very sick. Come and lay Your hands on her, that she will be made whole, and live.”

Mar 5:24 So Jeshua went with him, and a great crowd followed Him and pressed in on Him.

Mar 5:25 Now a certain woman had a flow of blood for twelve years,

Mar 5:26 and had suffered many things from many doctors. She had spent everything that she had and was not helped at all, but instead was more afflicted.

Mar 5:27 When she heard about Jeshua, she came through the crush of the crowd and touched His garment from behind Him;

Mar 5:28 for she said, “If I only touch His clothes, I will live.”

Mar 5:29 Immediately the flow of her blood dried up, and she felt in her body that she was healed of her affliction.

Mar 5:30 And Jeshua immediately knew in Himself that power had gone out from Him, and He turned to the crowd and said, “Who touched My clothes?”

Mar 5:31 And His disciples said to Him, “You see the crowd pressing in on You, and You say, ‘Who touched Me?’”

Mar 5:32 But He looked to see who had done this thing.

Mar 5:33 Then that woman, afraid and trembling, because she knew what had happened to her, came and fell before Him and told Him the whole truth.

Mar 5:34 And He said to her, “My daughter, your faith has given you life. Go in peace, and be healed from your affliction.”

Mar 5:35 While He was speaking, they came from the ruler of the synagogue's house and said, "Your daughter is dead. Therefore, why trouble the Teacher?"

Mar 5:36 But Jeshua heard the words they spoke and said to the ruler of the synagogue, "Do not be afraid; only believe."

Mar 5:37 And He permitted no one to come with Him except Simon Peter, Jacob, and John the brother of Jacob.

Mar 5:38 Then they came to the house of the ruler of the synagogue, and saw they were troubled and were weeping and wailing.

Mar 5:39 And He came in and said to them, "Why are you troubled and weeping? The child is not dead, instead she is sleeping."

Mar 5:40 And they laughed at Him. But He sent them all out, and He took the father and the mother of the girl, and those who were with Him, and entered where the child was laid.

Mar 5:41 Then He took the girl's hand, and said to her, "Arise, young girl."

Mar 5:42 Immediately the girl arose and walked, for the daughter was twelve years old. And they were overcome with great amazement.

Mar 5:43 But He commanded them strictly that no one should make this known, and He said that they should give her something to eat.

Mar 6:1 Then He departed from there and came to His own city, and His disciples followed Him.

Mar 6:2 And when the Sabbath came, He began to teach in the synagogue. And many who heard were astonished, saying, "Where did this man get these things? And what is this wisdom which is given to him, that miracles such as these are performed by his hands!

Mar 6:3 "Is this not the carpenter, the son of Mary, and brother of Jacob, Joses, Judas, and Simon? And behold: are his sisters not here with us?" And they were offended at Him.

Mar 6:4 But Jeshua said to them, "A prophet is not without honour except in his own city, among his own relatives, and in his own house."

Mar 6:5 Now He was not able to do even one miracle there, except that He laid His hands on a few sick people and healed them.

Mar 6:6 And He was amazed by their lack of faith. Then He went around the villages, teaching.

Mar 6:7 And He called His twelve, and sent them out two by two, and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out.

Mar 6:8 He commanded them to take nothing for the journey except a staff alone; no bag, no bread, no brass in their purses;

Mar 6:9 but to wear sandals, and not to wear two tunics.

Mar 6:10 Also He said to them, "In whatever house you enter, stay there until you depart from there.

Mar 6:11 "And whoever will not receive you nor hear you, when you depart from there, shake off the dust from under your feet as their witness. Truly, I say to you, it will be easier for Sodom and Gomorrah in the day of judgement than for that city!"

Mar 6:12 So they went out and preached that people should repent.

Mar 6:13 And many demons were cast out, and they anointed many who were sick with oil, and they healed them.

Mar 6:14 Now King Herod heard about Jeshua, for His name was made known to him. And he said, "John the Immerser has risen from the dead, and therefore these miracles are done by him."

Mar 6:15 Others said, "He is Elijah." And others said, "He is the Prophet, or He is like one of the prophets."

Mar 6:16 But when Herod heard, he said, "This is John, whose head I cut off; he has risen from the house of the dead!"

Mar 6:17 For Herod himself had sent and seized John, and bound him in prison because of Herodia, his brother Philip's wife; whom he had taken.

Mar 6:18 For John had said to Herod, "It is against the Instructions for you to take your brother's wife."¹

Mar 6:19 Therefore Herodia threatened him and wanted to kill him, but she could not;

Mar 6:20 for Herod feared John, for he knew that he was a just and holy man, and he protected him. And when he heard him, he did many things, and heard him gladly.

Mar 6:21 Then a notable day came when Herod gave a feast on his birthday for his nobles, the high officers, and the chief men of Galilee.

Mar 6:22 And when Herodia's daughter herself came in and danced, and pleased Herod and those who sat with him, the king said to the girl, "Ask me whatever you want, and I will give it to you."

Mar 6:23 And he swore to her, "Whatever you ask me, I will give you, up to half of my kingdom."

Mar 6:24 So she went out and said to her mother, "What will I ask of him?" And she said, "The head of John the Immerser!"

Mar 6:25 Immediately she came in with haste to the king and asked, saying, "I want you to give me the head of John the Immerser at once; on a platter."

Mar 6:26 And the king was exceedingly sorry; but because of the oaths and because of the guests, he did not want to refuse her.

Mar 6:27 So the king immediately sent an executioner and commanded that he should bring the head of John the Immerser. And he went and cut off John's head in prison,

Mar 6:28 and he brought it on a platter, and gave it to the girl; and that girl gave it to her mother.²

Mar 6:29 And when his disciples heard, they came and took away his corpse and laid it in a burial house.

Mar 6:30 Then the apostles gathered around Jeshua and told Him everything that they had done and everything that they had taught.

Mar 6:31 And He said to them, "Come, let us go into the desert alone and rest a while." For there were many coming and going, and they did not even have a place to eat.

Mar 6:32 So they departed to a deserted place in a boat by themselves.

Mar 6:33 But many saw them departing, and they recognised them and ran there on land from all the cities to that place before Him.

Mar 6:34 And Jeshua got out and saw the great crowds and He had compassion on them, for they were like sheep who had no shepherd. So He began to teach them many things.

Mar 6:35 And when the time grew late, His disciples came to Him and said, "This is a deserted place, and the time is late.

Mar 6:36 "Send them away, that they may go into the fields surrounding the villages and let them buy themselves bread, for they do not have anything to eat."

Mar 6:37 But He said to them, "You give them something to eat." And they said to Him, "Should we go and buy two hundred denarii of bread and give it to them to eat?"

Mar 6:38 So He said to them, "Go and see how much bread you have here." And when they saw, they said to Him, "Five loaves of bread, and two fish."

Mar 6:39 Then He commanded them to seat everyone in groups on the grass.

¹ Luk 3:1 shows that Philip was still alive, so Herodia was either still married to Philip or divorced, so she was not permitted to remarry or be Herod's concubine (Exo 20:14, Mat 5:31-32).

² Gal 5:21

Mar 6:40 So they sat in groups of hundreds and fifties.

Mar 6:41 And He took the five loaves of bread and the two fish, He looked into heaven, and He blessed and broke the bread, and gave it to His disciples to set before them; and they also divided the two fish among them all.

Mar 6:42 So they all ate and were filled.

Mar 6:43 And they took up twelve baskets full of fragments and of the fish.

Mar 6:44 There were five thousand men who had eaten the bread.¹

Mar 6:45 He immediately urged His disciples to get into the boat and go before Him to the other side, to Bethsaida, while He dismissed the crowds.

Mar 6:46 And when He had dismissed them, He went up a mountain to pray.

Mar 6:47 Now when evening came, the boat was in the middle of the sea; and He was alone on the land.

Mar 6:48 And He saw them straining at rowing, for the wind was against them. And in the fourth watch of the night Jeshua came to them, walking on the water, and He was willing to pass by them.

Mar 6:49 But they saw Him walking on the water and they thought to themselves that they were seeing a false vision and they cried out;

Mar 6:50 for they all saw Him and were afraid. And immediately He spoke to them and said, "Have courage! I AM! I am!² Do not be afraid."

Mar 6:51 Then He climbed up into the boat with them, and the wind ceased. And they marvelled greatly and were astonished among themselves.

Mar 6:52 Nor had they understood about the bread, because their hearts were confused.

Mar 6:53 When they had crossed over to the other side, they came to the land of Gennesaret.

Mar 6:54 And when they came out of the boat, the people of that place immediately recognized Him,

Mar 6:55 and they ran into all that region, and began to carry those who were very sick on pallets to wherever they heard He was.

Mar 6:56 Wherever He entered, into the villages or cities, the sick were laid in the streets, and they begged Him that they might just touch the border of His garment. And all of those who touched Him were healed.

Mar 7:1 Then the Pharisees and scribes who came from Jerusalem gathered around Him, Mar 7:2 and they saw some of His disciples eating bread and their hands were not washed, and they complained.

Mar 7:3 For all the Judeans and the Pharisees do not eat unless they have carefully washed their hands, for they hold to the traditions of the elders.

Mar 7:4 And they do not eat food from the marketplace unless it is washed, and there are many other traditions which they have received and hold, like the washing of cups, pots, brass vessels, and beds.

Mar 7:5 Then the scribes and Pharisees asked Him, "Why do Your disciples not walk according to the traditions of the elders, for they eat bread while their hands are not washed?"

Mar 7:6 And He said to them, "Isaiah the prophet prophesied about you hypocrites, as it is written: 'These people honour Me with their lips, but their hearts are very far from Me.

Mar 7:7 'And their fear of Me is worthless, while they teach as teachings

² I AM! I am! is our way of showing the Aramiac is ܐܢܝܢܐ ܐܢܝܢܐ (Ena na). This combination means I am, I am and signifies that the speaker is claiming to be divine in Aramaic usage, similar to the Hebrew in Exodus 3:14.

the commandments of the children of men.’¹

Mar 7:8 “For you have left the commandment of God and you have embraced the tradition of the children of men; the washing of cups and pots, and many other things like these.”

Mar 7:9 He said to them, “So you reject the commandment of God, that you may establish your tradition.

Mar 7:10 “For Moses said, ‘Honour your father and your mother’;² and, ‘Anyone who curses his father and his mother, let them be put to death.’³

Mar 7:11 “But you say, ‘If a person says to his father or to his mother, “My offering is whatever you might have received from me.”;

Mar 7:12 “then you do not allow him to do anything for his father or his mother.

Mar 7:13 “So you despise the word of God because of the tradition which you have handed down. And you do many similar things like these.”

Mar 7:14 And Jeshua called all the crowd and said to them, “Hear Me, everyone, and understand:

Mar 7:15 “There is nothing that enters into a person from outside which can defile him; but the things which come out of him, those are the things that defile a person.

Mar 7:16 “He who has ears to hear, let him hear!”

Mar 7:17 And when Jeshua entered a house away from the crowd, His disciples asked Him about that saying.

Mar 7:18 He said to them, “You are also slow to understand. Do you not know that whatever enters into a person from outside cannot defile them, Mar 7:19 “because it does not enter into his heart but enters his belly, and is cast out by excretion, cleansing all the food?”⁴

Mar 7:20 But whatever comes out of a person, that is what defiles a person.

Mar 7:21 “For from inside, from the heart of the children of men, proceed evil thoughts, adultery, fornication, theft, murder, Mar 7:22 “extortion, wickedness, deceit, lust, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride and foolishness.

Mar 7:23 “All these evils, they come from within and defile a person.”⁵

Mar 7:24 And Jeshua arose from there and went to the region of Tyre and Sidon and entered a certain house and wanted no one to know about Him, but He was not able to hide Himself.

Mar 7:25 For a certain woman immediately heard about Him, whose daughter had an unclean spirit, and she came and fell before His feet.

Mar 7:26 Now that woman was a pagan from Phoenicia in Syria, and was begging Him to cast the devil out of her daughter.

Mar 7:27 But Jeshua said to her, “First let the children be filled, for it is not right to take the children’s bread and throw it to the dogs.”

Mar 7:28 And she replied and said to Him, “Yes, My Lord, yet even the dogs under the table eat the children’s crumbs.”

Mar 7:29 Jeshua said to her, “Because of ⁴ As in the Aramaic. The Greek manuscripts say much the same, yet some English translations attempt to convert Jeshua’s statement about eating with unwashed hands into permission to eat prohibited food, as done in the ESV, which adds, with no manuscriptural basis: “(Thus he declared all foods clean.)”

⁵ Some claim that Jeshua here declared all foods clean, yet Peter was still only eating Biblically clean meats many years later (Act 10:14). As Mat 15:7-20 shows, Jeshua was referring only to clean meat eaten with unwashed hands, emphasising that it is what we do that truly defiles us. Jeshua did not declare unclean foods clean.

this word, go; the devil has gone from your daughter.”

Mar 7:30 And she went to her house, and found her daughter lying on the bed and the devil was gone from her.

Mar 7:31 And again, Jeshua departed from the region of Tyre and Sidon, and He came to the Sea of Galilee in the region of the Ten Cities.

Mar 7:32 Then they brought to Him a certain deaf man who stammered, and were asking Him to place a hand upon him.

Mar 7:33 And He led him away from the crowd, and when they were alone, put His fingers in his ears, and spat and touched his tongue.

Mar 7:34 Then He looked up into heaven and sighed, and said to him, “Be opened.”

Mar 7:35 And at that moment his ears were opened, and the blockage of his speech was released, and he spoke clearly.

Mar 7:36 Then He told them that they were to tell no one; but the more He told them, the more they proclaimed it.

Mar 7:37 And they were greatly amazed and saying, “He does everything well. He makes the deaf to hear and the mute to speak.”

Mar 8:1 Now in those days, there was a large crowd and there was nothing to eat. He called His disciples and said to them, Mar 8:2 “I have compassion on this crowd, for behold, they have stayed with Me for three days and they have nothing to eat.

Mar 8:3 “And if I should send them away while they are fasting, they will faint on the way to their homes; for some of them have come from far away.”

Mar 8:4 His disciples said to Him, “Where can a man find bread to satisfy all these people here in the wilderness?”

Mar 8:5 And He asked them, “How many loaves do you have?” And they said to Him, “Seven.”

Mar 8:6 And He commanded the crowds to sit on the ground and He took those seven loaves and blessed them, broke them and gave them to His disciples to set before them; and they set them before the crowds.

Mar 8:7 And there were also a few fish; and He blessed them and said to set them before them.

Mar 8:8 So they ate and were satisfied, and they took up seven large baskets of leftover fragments.¹

Mar 8:9 Now those who ate them were about four thousand.

Mar 8:10 Then He sent them away and immediately got into a boat with His disciples and came to the region of Dalmanutha.

Mar 8:11 And the Pharisees came out and began to dispute with Him, and asking Him for a sign from heaven, testing Him.

Mar 8:12 But He sighed in His spirit and said, “Why does this generation seek a sign? Truly, I say to you that no sign will be given to this generation.”

Mar 8:13 And He left them, went into the boat, and they departed to the other side.

Mar 8:14 Now they forgot to take bread, and except for one loaf, there was nothing with them in the boat.

Mar 8:15 Then He commanded them, saying to them, “Watch out! Beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and of the leaven of Herod.”

Mar 8:16 So they reasoned with one another, saying, “It is because we have no bread.”

Mar 8:17 And Jeshua knew this and said to them, “Why are you thinking that you have no bread? Even now you do not perceive nor do you understand. How long will you have a hard heart?

Mar 8:18 “You have eyes, yet you do not see. And you have ears, yet you do not hear. And do you not remember?

Mar 8:19 “When I broke those five loaves for the five thousand, how many baskets full of fragments did you gather?" They said to Him, "Twelve."¹

¹ Also in Mat 15:32-38

Mar 8:20 He said to them, "And when I broke the seven for the four thousand, how many large baskets full of fragments did you gather?" They said, "Seven."²

Mar 8:21 He said to them, "How is it that even now you do not understand?"

Mar 8:22 Then He came to Bethsaida and they brought a blind man to Him, and begged Him to touch him.

Mar 8:23 So He took the blind man's hand and led him out of the village. And He spat on his eyes and put His hand on his eyes, and asked him what he saw.

Mar 8:24 He looked and said, "I see the children of men, looking like walking trees."

Mar 8:25 Then He put His hand on his eyes again and he was restored and could see everything clearly.

Mar 8:26 And He sent him to his house, saying, "Neither go into the village, nor tell anyone in the village."

Mar 8:27 Now Jeshua and His disciples went out to the villages of Caesarea Philippi; and on the road He asked His disciples, saying to them, "What do people say about Me, who I am?"

Mar 8:28 And they said, "John the Immerser; and others say Elijah; and others, one of the prophets."

Mar 8:29 Jeshua said to them, "But you, what do you say about Me, who I am?" Simon answered and said to Him, "You are the Messiah, the Son of the Living God."

Mar 8:30 Then He charged them to not tell anyone about Him.

Mar 8:31 And He began to teach them that He, the Son of Mankind, must suffer greatly, and be rejected by the elders and by the chief priests and the scribes, and be killed, and in three days arise.

Mar 8:32 He spoke this word openly.

And Peter took Him aside and began to rebuke Him.

Mar 8:33 But He turned and looked at His disciples and rebuked Simon, saying, "Get behind Me, Satan! For you are not thinking about the things of God, but those of the children of men."

Mar 8:34 And Jeshua called the crowds with His disciples and said to them, "He who desires to come after Me should deny their self, and take up their stake, and follow Me.

Mar 8:35 "Everyone who desires to save their soul will lose it, but whoever loses their soul for My sake and because of my Good News will save it.

Mar 8:36 "For what is a person profited if they gain the whole world, and they lose their own soul?

Mar 8:37 "Or what will a person give in exchange for their soul?

Mar 8:38 "For whoever is ashamed of Me and My words in this sinful and adulterous generation, the Son of Mankind also will be ashamed of them when He comes in the glory of His Father with His holy envoys."

Mar 9:1 Then He said to them, "Truly, I say to you that there are some standing here who will not taste death until they see the Kingdom of God coming with power."³

Mar 9:2 Now after six days Jeshua took Peter, Jacob, and John, and led them alone up onto a high mountain; and He was transfigured before their eyes.

Mar 9:3 His clothes became bright, extremely white, like snow, much more than any son of man on earth is able to whiten them.

Mar 9:4 And Elijah and Moses were seen by them, speaking with Jeshua.

Mar 9:5 Then Peter said to Him, "Master, it is good for us to stay here; let us make three booths: one for You, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.”

Mar 9:6 For he did not know what he was saying, as they were greatly afraid.

Mar 9:7 Then a cloud came and formed a booth around them; and a voice came out of the cloud, saying to them, “This is My beloved Son. Hear Him!”¹

Mar 9:8 Suddenly, when the disciples looked up, they did not see anyone except only Jeshua with them.

Mar 9:9 Now as they came down from the mountain, He commanded them that they should not tell anyone the thing they had seen until after the Son of Mankind rises from the dead.

Mar 9:10 So they kept this word to themselves, and they wondered what this saying was; when He rises from the house of the dead.

Mar 9:11 And they asked Him, saying, “Therefore, why do the scribes say that Elijah must come first?”

Mar 9:12 He said to them, “Elijah has come first, in order to prepare everything.² And as is it written concerning the Son of Mankind, He will suffer greatly and be rejected.³

Mar 9:13 “But I say to you that Elijah has indeed come, and they did to him whatever they wished, as it is written about him.”⁴

Mar 9:14 And when He came to His disciples, He saw a great crowd around them, and the scribes were disputing with them.

Mar 9:15 Immediately, all the crowds saw Him and were amazed, and they ran to greet Him.

Mar 9:16 Then He asked the scribes, “Why are you disputing with them?”

⁴ It appears that Jeshua may also be applying Isa 53:1-12 to John.

Mar 9:17 Then one from the crowd replied and said, “Teacher, I brought my son to You, because he has a spirit that will not speak.

Mar 9:18 “And whenever it overpowers him, it throws him down and he foams at the mouth, gnashes his teeth, and becomes rigid. So I asked Your disciples to cast him out, but they were not able.”

Mar 9:19 Jeshua answered and said to him, “O faithless generation, how long must I remain with you? How long must I endure you? Bring him to Me.”

Mar 9:20 Then they brought him to Him. And when the spirit saw Him, it immediately threw him down, and he fell on the ground and convulsed, and he foamed at the mouth.

Mar 9:21 So Jeshua asked his father, “How long has it been since he became this way?” He said to Him, “Since he was young.

Mar 9:22 “And many times it has thrown him into the fire and into the water to destroy him. But whatever You can do, help me! Have compassion on me.”

Mar 9:23 Jeshua said to him, “If you can believe, anything is possible for him who believes.”

Mar 9:24 Immediately the father of the child cried out, mourning, and said, “I believe, My Lord. Help the lack in my faith!”

Mar 9:25 When Jeshua saw that the people ran and gathered around Him, He rebuked the unclean spirit, and said to him, “Dumb and mute spirit, I command you, come out of him, and never enter him again!”

Mar 9:26 Then that devil cried out greatly, and he bruised him, and came out. And he was like a dead man, so that many said, “He is dead.”

Mar 9:27 But Jeshua took him by his hand and raised him up.

Mar 9:28 Now when He had entered the house, His disciples asked Him privately,

“Why weren’t we able to cast him out?”

Mar 9:29 He said to them, “This kind cannot be cast out by anything except by fasting and prayer.”

Mar 9:30 And He departed from there and they were passing through Galilee, and He did not want anyone to know about Him.

Mar 9:31 Then He taught His disciples and said to them, “The Son of Mankind will be delivered into the hands of men, and they will kill Him. And after He has been killed, on the third day He will rise.”

Mar 9:32 But they did not understand what it meant, and were afraid to ask Him.

Mar 9:33 Then they came to Capernaum. And when they entered the house He asked them, “What were you discussing among yourselves on the road?”

Mar 9:34 But they were silent, for on the road they were arguing with each other about who was the greatest among them.

Mar 9:35 And Jeshua sat down, called the twelve, and said to them, “He who desires to be first, let him be the last of all men and be a servant to all men.”

Mar 9:36 Then He took a certain child and set him in their midst. And He took him into His arms, and said to them,

Mar 9:37 “Whoever receives a child like this in My Name receives Me; and whoever receives Me, receives not just Me but Him who sent Me.”

Mar 9:38 John said to Him, “Master, we saw someone who was casting out devils in Your Name, and we stopped him because he does not follow us.”

Mar 9:39 Jeshua said to them, “Do not stop him, for there is no one who works miracles in My Name who can easily speak wickedly about Me.

Mar 9:40 “Therefore, he who is not against you is for you.

Mar 9:41 “For anyone who gives you just a cup of water to drink because you come in the name the Messiah, truly, I say to you that he will not lose his reward.

Mar 9:42 “And anyone who causes one of these little ones who believe in Me to stumble, it would be better for him if a donkey’s millstone was attached to his neck, and he was cast into the sea.

Mar 9:43 “And if your hand offends you, cut it off. It is better for you to enter into life maimed, than to go into Gehenna with your two hands,¹

Mar 9:44 “where ‘their worm is not dead and their fire is not quenched.’²

Mar 9:45 “And if your foot offends you, cut it off. It is better for you to enter life lame, than to fall into Gehenna with your two feet, Mar 9:46 “where ‘their worm is not dead and their fire is not quenched.’

Mar 9:47 “And if your eye offends you, pluck it out. It is better for you to enter the Kingdom of God with one eye, than to fall into the fire of Gehenna with your two eyes, Mar 9:48 “where ‘their worm is not dead and their fire is not quenched.’³

¹ The Greek manuscripts add “into the unquenchable fire”. It is the fire that is unquenchable, and it will burn until they are completely consumed, as shown in vs 49. It does not say the sinner will be tormented forever.

³ Though expressed in physical terms, Jeshua clearly intends us to apply this advice spiritually. We are, with the Holy Spirit’s help, to cut off the thoughts, and thereby the actions that lead us into sin. Likewise, their worm is alive when the wicked are cast into the fire, and the fire is not quenched, for it continues to burn until they are fully consumed, as the next verse states. Which means they are not kept alive and burning forever, but are rapidly burnt to ashes, with no possibility of further life as even their souls are destroyed (Mal 4:1-3, Mat 5:27-30, Mat 10:28 & Rev 20:14-15).

Mar 9:49 “For the fire will vapourise everything, and every sacrifice will be seasoned with salt.¹

Mar 9:50 “Salt is good, but if the salt becomes bland, what will you season it with? Let there be salt in you, and be in harmony with each other.”

Mar 10:1 Then He arose from there and came to the region of Judea by the Jordan crossing. And great crowds gathered to Him there, and then He taught them again as He was accustomed.

Mar 10:2 The Pharisees came near, testing Him and asking, “Do the Instructions allow a man to divorce his wife?”

Mar 10:3 He said to them, “What did Moses command you?”

Mar 10:4 And they said, “Moses allowed us to write a certificate of divorce, and to send her away.”

Mar 10:5 Jeshua answered and said to them, “Because of the hardness of your heart he wrote this commandment for you.

Mar 10:6 “But from the beginning,² God ‘made them male and female.’³

Mar 10:7 ‘Because of this, a man will leave his father and his mother and be joined to his wife,

Mar 10:8 ‘and the two of them will become one flesh’;⁴ thus they are not two, but one flesh.

Mar 10:9 “Therefore what God has joined, man should not separate.”

Mar 10:10 And in the house His disciples asked Him again about this teaching.

Mar 10:11 So He said to them, “Anyone who divorces his wife and takes another commits adultery.

Mar 10:12 “And if a woman divorces her husband and becomes wife to another, she commits adultery.”⁵

Mar 10:13 Then children were approaching Him, so that He might touch them; but His disciples were rebuking those who brought them.

Mar 10:14 Jeshua saw it and was offended. He said to them, “Let the little children come to Me, and do not hinder them; for the Kingdom of God exists for those like them.

Mar 10:15 “Truly, I say to you, anyone who does not receive the Kingdom of God like a little child will not enter it.”

Mar 10:16 And He took them into His arms, placed His hand on them, and He blessed them.

Mar 10:17 Now as He was travelling on the road, a certain man ran up, fell on his knees and asked Him, saying, “Good Teacher, what should I do to inherit everlasting life?”

Mar 10:18 Jeshua said to him, “Why do you call Me good? There is no one good except One: God!

Mar 10:19 “You know the commandments: ‘Do not commit adultery,’ ‘Do not steal,’ ‘Do not murder,’ ‘Do not bear false witness,’ ‘Do not defraud,’ ‘Honour your father and your mother.’”⁶

Mar 10:20 And he answered and said to ¹ Mal 4:1 Paul Younan points out that this is an Aramaic word play, using a root word which means either vapourise or salt.

² The Greek adds “of the creation”.

³ Gen 1:27 & 5:2. There can be no doubt that Jeshua knew the Creation account in Genesis was true.

⁴ Gen 2:24. Jeshua goes on to stress that marriage is a sacred union.

⁵ These two verses show that remarriage is not usually an option for Christians. Mat 5:32 indicates that if your spouse is or has been engaged in prostitution, you have grounds for divorce, while Mat 19:9 says that adultery by your spouse is grounds for divorce. But note that Jeshua prefers you to NOT have a hard heart and to forgive them if they truly repent. But if you decide you must divorce your spouse, Mar 10:11-12, Rom 7:2-3 and 1Co 7:39 explain that you do not have permission to remarry as long as they are alive. You are choosing a life of celibacy.

Him, "Teacher, I have kept all of these from my youth."

Mar 10:21 Then Jeshua looked at him, loved him, and said to him, "One thing is lacking in you: Go and sell everything that you have and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then take up your stake and come and follow Me."

Mar 10:22 But he was sad at this word, and went away grieved, for he had great wealth.

Mar 10:23 Then Jeshua looked at His disciples and said to them, "How hard it is for those who have wealth to enter the Kingdom of God!"

Mar 10:24 And the disciples were astonished at His words. But Jeshua replied again and said to them, "My children, how hard it is for those who rely on their wealth to enter the Kingdom of God!

Mar 10:25 "It is easier for a thick rope¹ to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the Kingdom of God."

Mar 10:26 And they were astonished all the more, saying among themselves, "Who is able to gain life?"

Mar 10:27 But Jeshua looked at them and said to them, "For the children of men this is impossible, but it is for God; for everything is possible for God."

Mar 10:28 Then Peter began saying, "Behold, we have left everything and followed You."

Mar 10:29 Jeshua answered and said, "Truly, I say to you, there is no one who has left their home or brothers or sisters or father or mother or wife or children or town for My sake and for My Good News, Mar 10:30 "who will not receive a hundredfold now in this time; homes and brothers and sisters and mothers and children and towns with persecution; and in the world to come, everlasting life.

Mar 10:31 "But many who are first will be last, and the last first."²

Mar 10:32 Now while they were on the road, going up to Jerusalem, Jeshua went ahead of them; and they were astonished. Though they were afraid, they kept following Him. Then He took His twelve and began to tell them the things that certainly would happen to Him:

Mar 10:33 "Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Mankind will be delivered to the chief priests and to the scribes, and they will condemn Him to death and deliver Him to the gentiles;

Mar 10:34 "and they will mock Him, and scourge Him, and spit in His face, and they will kill Him. And the third day He will rise."

Mar 10:35 Then Jacob and John, the sons of Zebedee, came close to Him and said, "Teacher, we want You to do for us whatever we ask."

Mar 10:36 He said to them, "What do you want Me to do for you?"

Mar 10:37 They said to Him, "Grant to us that one of us may sit on Your right and one on Your left, in Your glory."

Mar 10:38 But He said to them, "You do not understand what you are asking. Can you drink the cup that I drink, and be immersed with the immersion that I am immersed with?"

Mar 10:39 And they said to Him, "We can." Jeshua said to them, "You will drink the cup that I drink, and you will be immersed with the immersion I am immersed with;

Mar 10:40 "but for you to sit on My right and on My left is not Mine to give, except to those for whom it is prepared."

Mar 10:41 And when the ten heard it, they began to murmur against Jacob and John.

Mar 10:42 But Jeshua called them and said to them, "You know that those who are considered rulers over the gentiles are their lords, and their great men are in authority over them.

Mar 10:43 "But do not let it be so among you; but whoever desires to become great among you must be your servant.

Mar 10:44 "And whoever of you desires to be first must be slave of all.

Mar 10:45 "For even the Son of Mankind has not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His soul as a ransom for the sake of many."

Mar 10:46 Then they came to Jericho. And when Jeshua went out of Jericho with His disciples and a great crowd, Timi, the son of Timi, a blind man, sat by the side of the road begging.

Mar 10:47 And when he heard that it was Jeshua the Nazarine, he began to cry out and say, "Son of David, have mercy on me!"

Mar 10:48 Then many warned him to be quiet; but he cried out all the more, saying, "Son of David, have mercy on me!"

Mar 10:49 And Jeshua stopped and commanded them to call him. Then they called the blind man, and said to him, "Have courage! Rise, He is calling you."

Mar 10:50 And the blind man threw off his covering, rose and came towards Jeshua.

Mar 10:51 Jeshua said to him, "What do you want Me to do for you?" The blind man said to Him, "Master, that I may see."

Mar 10:52 Then Jeshua said to him, "See! Your faith has made you whole." And immediately he saw and went off down the road.

Mar 11:1 Now when He came near Jerusalem, to Bethphage and Bethany on the side of the Mount of Olives, He sent two of His disciples;

Mar 11:2 and He said to them, "Go into that village opposite us; and as soon as you enter it you will find a colt which is tied up, which no person has ridden. Release it and bring it.

Mar 11:3 "And if anyone says to you,

'Why are you doing this?' say to him, 'Our Lord requires it,' and he will immediately send him here."

Mar 11:4 So they went and found the colt tied by the door, outside on the street, and they released him.

Mar 11:5 And some of those who stood there said to them, "What are you doing, releasing the colt?"

Mar 11:6 So they spoke to them just as Jeshua had commanded. And they let them go.

Mar 11:7 Then they brought the colt to Jeshua and placed their garments on it, and Jeshua rode on it.

Mar 11:8 And many spread their garments on the road, and others cut branches from the trees and spread them on the road.

Mar 11:9 Then those who were in front of Him and those who followed Him cried out, saying: "Hosanna!¹ 'Blessed is He who comes in the Name of Jehovah!'²

Mar 11:10 "Blessed is the kingdom of our father David that is coming!³ Hosanna in the highest!"

Mar 11:11 And Jeshua went into Jerusalem and into the Palace and saw everything. But when it was evening time, He went out to Bethany with the twelve.

Mar 11:12 Now the next day, when they had come out from Bethany, He was hungry.

Mar 11:13 And He saw a certain fig tree in the distance which had leaves on it, and He went to it to see if He could find anything on it. And when He came to it, He did not find anything but leaves, for it was not the season for figs.

Mar 11:14 And He said to it, "Now and forever, no man will eat fruit from you.” And His disciples heard it. So they came to Jerusalem.

Mar 11:15 And Jeshua went into the Palace of God and began to drive out those who bought and sold in the Palace, and overturned the tables of the money-changers and the seats of those who sold doves.

Mar 11:16 And He would not allow anyone to carry merchandise¹ inside the Palace.

Mar 11:17 Then He taught, saying to them, “Is it not written, ‘My house will be called a house of prayer for all nations’?² But you have made it a ‘den of thieves.’”³

Mar 11:18 And the chief priests and the scribes heard it and sought how they might destroy Him; for they were afraid of Him, because all the people were astonished at His teaching.

Mar 11:19 And when evening came, they went outside the city.

Mar 11:20 Now in the morning, when they passed by, they saw the fig tree dried up from its roots.

Mar 11:21 And Simon remembered and said to Him, “Master, Behold! That fig tree which You cursed has dried up.”

Mar 11:22 So Jeshua answered and said to them, “Let the faith of God be in you.

Mar 11:23 “For truly, I say to you that he who says to this mountain, ‘Be lifted up and fall into the sea,’ and is not divided in his heart, but believes that the thing which he said will happen, he will have the thing which he said.

Mar 11:24 “Therefore I say to you that everything which you pray for and ask for, believe that you will receive it, and it will be given to you.

Mar 11:25 “And whenever you stand to pray, forgive anything that you have against anyone, that your Father who is in heaven may also forgive you your trespasses.

Mar 11:26 “But if you do not forgive, neither will your Father who is in heaven forgive your trespasses.”

Mar 11:27 Then they came to Jerusalem again. And while He was walking in the Palace, the chief priests, the scribes, and the elders came to Him.

Mar 11:28 And they said to Him, “By what authority do you do these things? And who gave you this authority for you to do these things?”

Mar 11:29 But Jeshua said to them, “I will also ask you a certain question; if you answer Me, then I will tell you by what authority I do these things:

Mar 11:30 “The immersion of John; where is it from? From heaven or from the descendants of men? Tell Me.”

Mar 11:31 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, “If we say to him ‘From heaven,’ he will say to us, ‘Then why did you not believe him?’

Mar 11:32 “And if we say, ‘From the descendants of men’”; there is the people to fear.”, for they all considered that John was truly a prophet.

Mar 11:33 So they answered and said to Jeshua, “We do not know.” So He said to them, “Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things.”

Mar 12:1 Then He began to speak with them in parables: “A certain person planted a vineyard and surrounded it with a hedge, and he dug in a winepress and built a tower in it. And he leased it to workers and left.”⁴

Mar 12:2 “In time, he sent his servant to the workers, that he might take some of the fruit of the vineyard.

Mar 12:3 “But they beat him and sent him away empty-handed.

Mar 12:4 “Again he sent another servant to them, but that one they threw stones at, wounded him, and sent him away in shame.

Mar 12:5 “And again he sent another, and that one they killed; and he sent many other servants, and some they beat, but some they killed.

Mar 12:6 “Therefore, having one son, his beloved, he sent him to them last, for he said, ‘Perhaps they will be ashamed before my son.’

Mar 12:7 “But those workers said among themselves, ‘This is the heir. Come, let us kill him, and the inheritance will be ours.’

Mar 12:8 “And they took him and killed him and threw him out of the vineyard.

Mar 12:9 “Therefore what will the lord of the vineyard do? He will come and destroy those workers, and give the vineyard to others.

Mar 12:10 “Have you not read this Writing: ‘The stone which the builders rejected, that has become the chief cornerstone.

Mar 12:11 ‘This came from the presence of Jehovah, and it is marvellous in our eyes’?”¹

Mar 12:12 And they sought to seize Him, for they realised that He spoke this parable about them. But they were afraid of the crowd, so they left Him and went away.

Mar 12:13 Then they sent men to Him from the scribes and Herod’s house, to snare Him in His words.

Mar 12:14 And they came and asked Him, “Teacher, we know that you are true, and you do not show favouritism to men; for you do not look at the faces of the descendants of men, but instead teach the way of God in truth. Is it lawful to pay the head tax to Caesar? Should we pay, or should we not pay?”

Mar 12:15 But He knew their hypocrisy and said to them, “Why do you tempt Me? Bring a denarius to Me to see.”

Mar 12:16 So they brought it to him. He said to them, “Whose image and inscriptions are these?” And they said, “Caesar’s.”

Mar 12:17 Jeshua said to them, “Give to Caesar that which is Caesar’s, and to God that which is God’s.” And they marvelled at Him.

Mar 12:18 Then the Sadducees came to Him, those who say there is no resurrection, and asked Him, saying:

Mar 12:19 “Teacher, Moses wrote to us that if a man’s brother dies, and leaves his wife, but no sons behind, his brother should take his wife and raise up offspring for his brother.

Mar 12:20 “There were seven brothers. The first took a wife and died, but he left no offspring.

Mar 12:21 “And the second took her and died; but he also did not leave any offspring. And the third likewise.

Mar 12:22 “So all of the seven took her and left no offspring. Last of all the woman also died.

Mar 12:23 “Therefore, in the resurrection, to which of them will she be a wife, for all seven of them took her?”

Mar 12:24 Jeshua said to them, “Is it not because of this that you err: that you do not know the Writings nor the mighty works of God?

Mar 12:25 “For when they rise from the dead, they do not marry women nor are women given in marriage to men; instead they are like the envoys who are in heaven.

Mar 12:26 “Now concerning the dead who will rise, have you not read in the Writings of Moses, how God said to him from the bush, ‘I AM! I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob’?”²

Mar 12:27 “He is not the God of the dead, but of the living. You are therefore greatly in error.”

Mar 12:28 And one of the scribes drew near, heard them disputing, and seeing that He had answered their question well, asked Him, "Which is the greatest of all the commandments?"

Mar 12:29 Jeshua said to him, "The greatest of all the commandments is: 'Hear, O Israel, Jehovah our God, Jehovah is one.

Mar 12:30 'And you will love Jehovah your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength.'¹ This is the greatest commandment.

Mar 12:31 "And the second, which is like it, is this: 'You will love your neighbour as yourself.'² There is no other commandment that is greater than these."

Mar 12:32 So the scribe said to Him, "Well said, Master. You have spoken the truth, for He is One, and there is no other apart from Him.

Mar 12:33 "And that a man should love Him with all the heart, with all the mind, with all the soul, and with all the strength, and that he should love his neighbour as oneself, this is greater than all the burnt offerings and sacrifices."³

Mar 12:34 When Jeshua saw that he responded wisely, He replied and said to him, "You are not far from the Kingdom of God." And no one dared question Him again.

Mar 12:35 Then Jeshua asked and said, while He taught in the Palace, "How can the scribes say that the Messiah is the Son of David?

Mar 12:36 "For David himself said by the Holy Spirit: 'Jehovah said to my Lord, 'Sit to My right, until I put Your enemies under Your feet as a footstool.'⁴ Mar 12:37 "Therefore David himself calls Him 'My Lord'; then how is He his Son? And the whole crowd heard Him gladly.

Mar 12:38 Then He said to them in His teaching, "Beware of the scribes who like to walk around in long robes and love greetings in the marketplaces, Mar 12:39 "And the best seats in the synagogues, and the best places at feasts,

Mar 12:40 "who devour widows' homes as offerings for making long prayers. They will receive greater condemnation."

Mar 12:41 When Jeshua sat near the treasury, He saw how the crowd cast money into the treasury. And many of the rich men cast in much.

Mar 12:42 Then a certain poor widow came and cast in two minas, which are small coins.

Mar 12:43 And Jeshua called His disciples and said to them, "Truly, I say to you that this poor widow has cast more into the treasury than all these men;

Mar 12:44 "for they all cast in from their abundance, but she cast in from her poverty everything that she had, all she possessed."

Mar 13:1 When Jeshua left the Palace, one of His disciples said to Him, "Teacher, Behold! Look at those stones and buildings!"

Mar 13:2 And Jeshua said to him, "Do you see these great buildings? Not one stone will be left upon another, that will not be pulled down."

Mar 13:3 Now as Jeshua sat on the Mount of Olives opposite the Palace, Peter, Jacob, John, and Andrew asked Him privately, Mar 13:4 "Tell us, when will these things happen? And what will be the sign when all these things are about to be fulfilled?"

Mar 13:5 And Jeshua began saying to them: "Beware, lest someone deceives you.

Mar 13:6 "For many will come in My Name and say, 'I AM! I am!'¹ and will deceive many.

Mar 13:7 "And when you hear of wars and rumours of revolutions, do not be afraid; for this is certain to happen, but the end is not yet.

Mar 13:8 "For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. And there will be earthquakes in various places, and there will be famines and uprisings. These are the beginning of sorrows.

Mar 13:9 "But watch out for yourselves, for they will deliver you to the judges, and you will be beaten in the synagogues. And you will stand before kings and governors because of Me, as a testimony to them.

Mar 13:10 "But first it is necessary that My Good News be preached to all the nations.

Mar 13:11 "When they take you and deliver you up, do not worry beforehand about what to say or think. But whatever is given to you in that moment, that you should speak; for it is not you speaking, but the Holy Spirit.

Mar 13:12 "For a brother will deliver his brother to death, and a father his child; and children will rise up against their parents and put them to death.

Mar 13:13 "And you will be hated by all men because of My Name. But he who endures to the end will be saved.

Mar 13:14 "But when you see the sign of the 'abomination of desolation,' spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing where it should not be" (let the reader understand), "then those who are in Judea should flee Mar 13:15 "And he who is on the roof should not come down to enter or take anything from his house.

Mar 13:16 "And he who is in the field should not go back to get his clothes.

Mar 13:17 "And woe to those who are pregnant and to those breastfeeding in those days!

Mar 13:18 "But pray that your flight may not be in winter.

Mar 13:19 "For in those days there will be tribulation, such as has not been from the beginning of creation which God created³ until this time, nor will ever be again.

Mar 13:20 "And if Lord Jah⁴ did not shorten those days, no flesh would survive; but because of those whom He chose, those days are shortened.

Mar 13:21 "At that time, if anyone says to you, 'Behold, the Anointed is here!' or, 'Behold, there!' do not believe it.

Mar 13:22 "For false messiahs and lying prophets will rise and give signs and wonders and will deceive, if it is possible, even the chosen.

Mar 13:23 "But you must take heed. Behold, I have told you everything beforehand.

Mar 13:24 "And in those days, after that tribulation, the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light;

part¹ of earth and the farthest part of heaven.²

Mar 13:28 “Now learn the parable from the fig tree. When its branches are tender and its leaves sprout, you know that summer is arriving.

Mar 13:29 “So you also, when you see these things happening, know that it is near, at the door.

Mar 13:30 “Truly, I say to you, this generation will not pass away until all these things occur.³

Mar 13:31 “Heaven and earth will pass away, but My words will not pass away.

Mar 13:32 “But concerning that day and concerning that hour no man knows, not even the envoys of heaven, nor the Son. Only the Father knows.

Mar 13:33 “Watch, stay alert and pray; for you do not know when it is time.

Mar 13:34 “It is like a person who went on a journey, and left his house and gave authority to his servants, and to each man his work, and he commanded the doorkeeper to be vigilant.

Mar 13:35 “Therefore, be vigilant, for you do not know when the lord of the house will come; in the evening, or at midnight, or at the crow of the rooster, or in the morning;

Mar 13:36 “lest he comes suddenly, and finds you while you sleep.

Mar 13:37 “Now what I say to you, I say to all of you: I say ‘Be vigilant!’”

Mar 14:1 And two days later it would be the Passover of Unleavened Bread. And the chief priests and the scribes sought how they might seize Him with deception and how they would kill Him.

Mar 14:2 But they were saying, “Not during the feast, lest there be a riot among the people.”

Mar 14:3 And while He was reclining in Bethany in the home of Simon the potter,⁴ a woman came having an alabaster flask of expensive spikenard perfume, the very best. And she opened it and poured it on the head of Jeshua.

Mar 14:4 But there were some of the disciples who were displeased among themselves, and they said, “Why was this ointment wasted?

Mar 14:5 “For it would have been possible to sell it for more than three hundred denarii and then be given to the poor.” And they were indignant about her.

Mar 14:6 But Jeshua said, “Leave her alone. Why do you trouble her? She has done a beautiful deed for Me.

Mar 14:7 “For you always have the poor with you, and whenever you wish you are able to do good to them; but I will not always be with you.

Mar 14:8 “That which she has done is this: She has come in advance to anoint⁵ My body for burial.

Mar 14:9 “Truly, I say to you, that wherever My Good News is preached throughout the whole world, what this woman has done will also be spoken of in her memory.”

Mar 14:10 Then Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve, went to the chief priests to betray Jeshua to them.

Mar 14:11 And when they heard it, they rejoiced, and they promised they would give him money. So he sought an opportunity to betray Him.

Mar 14:12 And it is on the first day of ¹ Part is literally beginning both times.

² Isa 11:12, Rev 14:15-16

³ “This generation” will be the one that sees all of these things happening that Jeshua says will precede His return as King of Kings, not the generation that was alive when He spoke to the Apostles.

⁴ As in the Aramaic. This is mistranslated as leper in the Greek manuscripts.

⁵ In this instance, the Greek version of Mark translates Jeshua’s ‘anoint’ as μυρίζω murizo, a hybrid Greek-Hebrew word essentially meaning “myrrhise”, referring to one of the spices then used by the Judeans to anoint the corpses of their people.

Unleavened Bread when the Judeans sacrifice the Passover. His disciples said to Him, "Where do You desire for us to go to prepare for You to eat the Passover?"¹

Mar 14:13 So He sent two of His disciples and said to them, "Go into the city, and behold, you will meet up with a man carrying a vessel of water; go follow him.

Mar 14:14 "And where he goes in, say to the lord of the house, 'Our Master says, "Where is the guest house where I may eat the Passover with My disciples?"'"

Mar 14:15 "And behold: he will show you a large upper room that is furnished and prepared; make that place ready for us."

Mar 14:16 And His disciples went out, and came to the city, and found it just as He had said to them; and they prepared for the Passover.

Mar 14:17 And as it became evening, He came with His twelve.

Mar 14:18 Now as they reclined and ate, Jeshua said, "Truly, I say to you that one of you who eats with Me will betray Me."

Mar 14:19 And they began to be grieved, and were saying to Him, one at a time, "Is it I?"

Mar 14:20 Then He said to them, "It is one of the twelve, who dips with Me in the dish."²

Mar 14:21 "And the Son of Mankind will go as it is written about Him, but woe to that person by whose hand the Son of Mankind is betrayed! It would have been better for that man if he had not been born."

Mar 14:22 And while they were eating, Jeshua took bread, and blessed it and broke it, and gave it to them and said to them, "Take it; this is My body."

Mar 14:23 Then He took a cup, and gave thanks and blessed it and gave it to them, and they drank from it, all of them.

Mar 14:24 And He said to them, "This is My blood of the New Covenant, that is shed for the sake of many.

Mar 14:25 "Truly, I say to you, I will not drink the product of the vine again until that day when I drink it anew in the Kingdom of God."

Mar 14:26 And they sang praises and they went out to the Mount of Olives.

Mar 14:27 Then Jeshua said to them, "All of you will be ashamed of Me during this night, for it is written: 'I will strike the Shepherd, and His lambs will be scattered.'³

Mar 14:28 "But when I have risen, I will go before you to Galilee."

Mar 14:29 Peter said to Him, "If they will all be ashamed, yet I will not be."

Mar 14:30 Jeshua said to him, "Truly, I say to you that today, in this night, before the rooster crows twice, you will deny Me three times."

Mar 14:31 But he spoke all the more; "If it happens that I will be put to death with You, I will not deny You, my Lord!" And they all spoke like him.⁴

Mar 14:32 Then they came to the place which is called Gethsemane; and He said to His disciples, "Sit here while I pray."

Mar 14:33 And He took Peter, Jacob, and John with Him, and He began to be troubled and distressed.

Mar 14:34 Then He said to them, "My soul is sorrowful unto death. Stay here and watch."

Mar 14:35 He went a little way, and He fell on the ground and prayed that if it were possible, the hour would pass from Him.

Mar 14:36 And He said, "Aba, My Father, You can do everything. Let this cup pass from Me; but not My will, but Your's."

Mar 14:37 Then He came and He found them sleeping, and said to Peter, "Simon, are you sleeping? Were you not able to watch one hour?"

³ Zec 13:7, Mat 26:31

Mar 14:38 "Watch and pray, lest you enter into temptation. The spirit is ready and willing, but the body is weak."

Mar 14:39 Again He went on and He prayed, and He spoke the same words.

Mar 14:40 And when He returned, He found them sleeping again, for their eyes were heavy; and they did not know what they should say to Him.

Mar 14:41 Then He came the third time and said to them, "Now sleep and rest! The hour of the end has come; and behold, the Son of Mankind is being betrayed into the hands of sinners.

Mar 14:42 "Arise, we will go. Behold, he who betrays Me approaches."

Mar 14:43 And while He was speaking, Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve, came with many people with swords and clubs from the presence of the chief priests and the scribes and the elders.

Mar 14:44 Now the traitor, His betrayer, had given them a sign, saying, "He whom I kiss, it is He; seize Him and bring Him securely."

Mar 14:45 And he immediately approached and he said to Him, "Master, Master!" and he kissed Him.

Mar 14:46 Then they laid their hands on Him and seized Him.

Mar 14:47 And one of those standing there drew a sword and struck the servant of the chief of the priests, and cut off his ear.

Mar 14:48 Then Jeshua answered and said to them, "Have you come out, as against a band of robbers, with swords and clubs that you might seize Me?"

Mar 14:49 "I was with you every day when I taught in the Palace, and you did not seize Me. But this has happened that the Writings may be fulfilled."¹

Mar 14:50 Then His disciples forsook

Him and they fled.

Mar 14:51 And one young man was following Him, and his clothes were a cloth over his naked body. Then they seized him, Mar 14:52 and he left the cloth and ran away naked.

Mar 14:53 And they took Jeshua to Caiapha, the chief of the priests; and all the chief priests, the elders, and the scribes were gathered with him.

Mar 14:54 Simon came after Him, but at a distance, until he was in the chief of the priests's courtyard. And he sat with the servants and warmed himself near the fire.

Mar 14:55 And the chief priests and all their assembly sought testimony against Jeshua so they could have Him put to death, but they were not able to,

Mar 14:56 for while many testified against Him, their testimony was worthless.

Mar 14:57 And some liars rose up, testifying against Him, and they said,

Mar 14:58 "We heard him say, 'I will destroy this Palace that is made with hands, and in three days I will build another that is not made with hands.'"

Mar 14:59 But even their testimony was also worthless.

Mar 14:60 And the chief of the priests stood up in their midst and questioned Jeshua, saying, "Why do you not respond and answer these testimonies against you?"

Mar 14:61 But He was silent and answered nothing. Again the chief of the priests asked Him, saying, "Are you the Messiah, the Son of the Blessed One?"

Mar 14:62 And Jeshua said to him, "I AM! I am, and you will see the Son of Mankind sitting to the right of the Power, and coming on the clouds of heaven."

Mar 14:63 Then the chief of the priests ripped his robe in two and he said, "Now, why are we seeking witnesses?"

Mar 14:64 "Behold, you have heard the blasphemy from His mouth! How does it appear to you?" And they all decided that He deserved death.

Mar 14:65 Then the people began spitting in His face, and covered His face and hit Him. Then they said to Him, "Prophecy!", and the guards were hitting Him on His jaw.

Mar 14:66 Now while Peter was below in the courtyard, a certain maid of the chief of the priests came.

Mar 14:67 She saw him warming himself, and she looked at him and said to him, "You also were with Jeshua of Nazareth."

Mar 14:68 But he denied it and said, "I do not know what you are talking about." And he went outside to the porch, and a rooster crowed.

Mar 14:69 And that maid saw him again, and she began telling those who stood there, "This is one of them."

Mar 14:70 But he denied it again. And after a little while, those who stood there said to Peter again, "Truly, you are one of them; for you are from Galilee, and even your speech is like theirs."

Mar 14:71 Then he began to curse and swear, "I do not know this Man that you are speaking about!"

Mar 14:72 And at that moment the rooster crowed the second time. And Simon remembered the saying of Jeshua, who had said to him, "Before the rooster crows two times, you will deny Me three times." And he began to weep.

Mar 15:1 Immediately, in the morning, the chief priests consulted with the elders and scribes and the whole assembly; and they bound Jeshua and led Him away and delivered Him to Pilate.

Mar 15:2 Then Pilate asked Him, "Are You the King of the Judeans?" And He answered and said to him, "You have said it."

Mar 15:3 And the chief priests accused Him of many things.¹

¹ The Greek RT adds "but He answered

Mar 15:4 Then Pilate asked Him again, and said to Him, "You do not answer? See how many accusations they testify against You!"

Mar 15:5 But Jeshua did not reply to an accusation, so that Pilate marvelled.

Mar 15:6 Now during every feast he was accustomed to releasing one prisoner to them, whomever they wanted.

Mar 15:7 And there was one who was called Barabbas, a prisoner who was with the ones who made an insurrection and had committed murder in the insurrection.

Mar 15:8 Then the people cried out and began asking him to do as he was accustomed to do for them.

Mar 15:9 And Pilate answered and said, "Do you want me to release the King of the Judeans to you?"

Mar 15:10 For Pilate realised that the chief priests had delivered Him up from envy.

Mar 15:11 And the chief priests incited the crowd all the more, that he would release Barabbas to them.

Mar 15:12 And Pilate said to them, "Then what do you want me to do to this one who you call the King of the Judeans?"

Mar 15:13 So they cried out again, "Impale him!"²

Mar 15:14 Then Pilate said to them, "Why, what evil has He done?" And they cried out even more, "Impale him!"

Mar 15:15 So Pilate, wanting to do the will of the crowd, released Barabbas to them and he delivered Jeshua to them, after scourging Him, to be impaled.³

Mar 15:16 Then the soldiers led Him away into the courtyard called the nothing."

² Impaling Jeshua means to nail Him to a post which is then fastened upright. It was the Roman government's most horrific way to kill someone. The lack of a capital H in him in these verses emphasizes their disrespect of Jeshua.

³ Psa 22:6

Praetorium, and they called the whole company of soldiers.

Mar 15:17 And they clothed Him with a purple robe; and they wove a crown of thorns and placed it on Him,

Mar 15:18 and they began to salute Him, "Hail, King of the Judeans!"

Mar 15:19 Then they struck Him on His head with a reed and they spat in His face; and kneeling on their knees, they worshipped Him.¹

Mar 15:20 And while they mocked Him, they stripped the purple robe off and dressed Him with His own clothes, and led Him out to impale Him.

Mar 15:21 Then they compelled one who was passing by, Simon a Cyrenian, who was coming from the field, the father of Alexander and Rufus, to carry His stake.

Mar 15:22 And they brought Him to Golgotha, the place which is translated, 'The Skull'.²

Mar 15:23 Then they gave Him wine mixed with myrrh to drink, but He did not take it.

Mar 15:24 And while they impaled Him, they divided His garments, casting lots for who should take what.

Mar 15:25 Now it was the third hour³ when they impaled Him.

Mar 15:26 And the reason for His death was written in the inscription: 'This is the King of the Judeans.'

Mar 15:27 They impaled two robbers with Him, one at His right and one at His left.

Mar 15:28 So the Writing was fulfilled which says, "And He was counted with the iniquitous."⁴

Mar 15:29 And those who passed by also blasphemed against Him, nodding their heads and saying, "Indeed! He will tear down the Palace and build it in three days.

Mar 15:30 "Save yourself, and come down from the stake!"

Mar 15:31 Likewise, even the chief priests and the scribes were laughing among each other and saying, "He gave life to others; he is not able to give life to himself.

Mar 15:32 "Messiah, the King of Israel, let him come down from the stake now, that we may see and believe in him." And even those who were impaled with Him reviled Him.

Mar 15:33 Now when the sixth hour arrived, there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour.

Mar 15:34 And in the ninth hour Jeshua cried out in a loud voice and said, "Eil, Eil, lemana shabachthani?" which is, "My God, My God, why have You forsaken me?"⁵

Mar 15:35 Some of those who stood there who heard said, "He is calling to Elijah!"

Mar 15:36 Then one ran and filled a sponge with sour wine and fastened it on a reed, to give to Him to drink, but they said, "Leave Him alone; let us see if Elijah will come to take him down."

Mar 15:37 And Jeshua cried out in a loud voice, and He expired.

Mar 15:38 Then the curtain at the entrance to the Palace was torn in two from the top to the bottom.⁶

Mar 15:39 Now when the centurion, who was standing near Him, saw that He cried out like this and died; he said, "Truly, this ² Heb 13:12. Golgotha is outside the city of Jerusalem.

³ In John 19:14 we are told that Pilate was still trying to set Jeshua free until near the sixth hour. It is likely that Pilate was reckoning time in hours from the Roman midnight, while the other gospels are using the Judean method of hours of daytime since sunrise. This makes Mark's third hour equivalent to a Roman's (and our) ninth hour.

⁶ The rending of the curtain signified that from then on, we all have access to the sanctified Sanctuary through Jeshua our Messiah.

Man was the Son of God!”

Mar 15:40 There were also women watching from afar: Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of Jacob the Less and of Joses, and Salome, Mar 15:41 those who followed Him when He was in Galilee and served Him; and many others who came up with Him to Jerusalem.

Mar 15:42 Now when evening was coming on the Preparation Day, which is before the Sabbath,¹

Mar 15:43 Joseph of Arimathea, an honourable councillor, who was also waiting for the Kingdom of God, took courage, approached Pilate and asked for the body of Jeshua.

Mar 15:44 Pilate marvelled that He was already dead; and he called the centurion and asked him if He had already died.

Mar 15:45 And when he learned that, he gave His body to Joseph.

Mar 15:46 Then Joseph bought linen cloth, took Him down, and wrapped Him in it, and placed Him in a grave that was hewn into the rock, and he rolled a stone over the door of the grave.

Mar 15:47 And Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joses saw where He was laid.

Mar 16:1 Now when the Sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of Jacob, and Salome bought spices, that they might come to anoint Him.

Mar 16:2 And in the early morning, on the first day of the week,² they came to the burial house as the sun was rising.³

Mar 16:3 And they said among themselves, “Who will roll the stone from the door of the burial house for us?”

Mar 16:4 Then they looked and saw the stone rolled away; and it was very large.

Mar 16:5 And they entered the burial house, and saw a young man sitting on the right side and clothed in a white robe; and they were astonished.

Mar 16:6 Then he said to them, “Do not fear. Jeshua of Nazareth whom you seek; He who was impaled has risen! He is not here. Behold the place where He was laid.

Mar 16:7 “But now, go and say to His disciples and to Peter that, ‘Behold, He is going before you into Galilee; you will see Him there, as He said to you.’”

Mar 16:8 When they heard, they fled away from the tomb, for shock and trembling seized them. And they did not say anything to anyone, for they were afraid.⁴

Mar 16:9 He had risen,⁵ and at dawn on the first day of the week, appeared first to ³ As the other accounts make clear, they arrived as the eastern sky was beginning to brighten from the earliest stages of the sun rise. They arrived before the sun would actually become visible on the horizon. Jeshua did not rise then, but was already risen and out of the burial house (tomb).

⁴ Luke and John indicate that Mary Magdalene actually spoke to the disciples when they arrived where they were living, even though they apparently still believed that Jeshua’s body had been taken rather than resurrected. It seems the other women were still too stunned to say anything even then.

¹ This meant the Preparation Day on which the Passover lambs were sacrificed was almost over and the First Day of Unleavened Bread, an annual Sabbath, would soon begin. (Lev 23:1-7)

² During the Feast of Unleavened Bread, this first day of the week is also the Wave Sheaf Offering day, which celebrates Jeshua’s resurrection and begins the count to the Feast of Weeks (Pentecost). See Lev 23:4-16 and Mat 28:1, Luk 24:1 & Jon 20:1.

Mary Magdalene, from whom He had cast out seven demons.

Mar 16:10 She went and brought the Good News to those who had been with Him, who were mourning and weeping.

Mar 16:11 And when they heard what they were saying, that He was alive and had appeared to them, they did not believe them.

Mar 16:12 After that, He appeared to two of them in another form as they walked, and they were going to a village.

Mar 16:13 And they went and told it to the rest, but they did not believe even them.

Mar 16:14 And finally He appeared to the eleven while they were sitting; and He rebuked their lack of belief and the hardness of their hearts, because they did not believe those who had seen Him after He had risen.

Mar 16:15 And He said to them, "Go into all the world and preach My Good News to all creation.

Mar 16:16 "Whoever believes and is immersed will live; and whoever does not believe will be condemned.

Mar 16:17 "And these signs will follow those who believe: In My Name they will cast out devils and they will speak with new languages.

Mar 16:18 "And if they handle serpents or they drink a deadly poison, it will not harm them; and they will place their hands on the sick, and they will be healed."

Mar 16:19 Then Jeshua our Lord, after speaking with them, went up into heaven, and sat at the right hand of God.

Mar 16:20 And they went out and preached everywhere, and our Lord helped them and confirmed their words through the signs that they were doing.

Luke

Luk 1:1 Many have undertaken to write an account of those things about which we are convinced,

Luk 1:2 like those which they delivered to us who from the beginning were eyewitnesses and servants of the Word.

Luk 1:3 He also appeared to me because I had carefully examined all things, so I would write to you an orderly account, noble Lover of God,¹ Luk 1:4 that you may know the truth of the words that you are taught.

Luk 1:5 There was in the days of Herod, the king of Judea, a certain priest named Zachariah,² of the division of the house of Abiyah. His wife was from the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elizabeth.³

Luk 1:6 And both of them were righteous before God, walking in all the commandments and blameless in the righteousness of Lord Jah.⁴

Luk 1:7 But they had no child, because Elizabeth was barren, and both of them had seen many days.

Luk 1:8 Then it came to pass, while he was serving as priest in the order of his division before God,⁵

Luk 1:9 according to the custom of the priesthood, it was his turn to place the incense, and he went into the Palace of Lord Jah.⁶

Luk 1:10 And all the crowds of people would pray outside at the time of the incense.

Luk 1:11 Then an envoy⁷ of Lord Jah⁸ appeared to him, standing to the right of the incense altar to Zachariah.

Luk 1:12 And when he saw him, Zachariah was astounded, and fear fell upon him.

Luk 1:13 But the envoy said to him, “Do not be afraid, Zachariah, for your prayer has been heard; and your wife Elizabeth will bear you a son, and you will call his name John.⁹

Luk 1:14 “And you will have joy and gladness, and many will rejoice at his birth, Luk 1:15 “for he will be great before Lord Jah,¹⁰ and he will not drink wine or strong drink. And he will be filled with the Holy Spirit, even while he is in his mother’s womb.

Luk 1:16 “And he will turn many of the children of Israel to Lord Jah their God.¹¹

Luk 1:17 “He will go before Him in the spirit and the strength of Elijah the prophet, and ‘he will turn the hearts of the fathers to the children,’¹² and turn those who are disobedient to the wisdom of the just, and he will prepare a people perfected for Lord Jah.”¹³

Luk 1:18 And Zachariah said to the envoy, “How will I know this, for I am an old man, and my wife has seen many days?”

Luk 1:19 And the envoy answered and said to him, “I am Gabriel,¹ who stands before God,² and I was sent to speak with you and declare these things to you.

Luk 1:20 “Now, you will be mute and you will not be able to speak until the day these things take place, because you did not believe my words which will be fulfilled in their time.”

Luk 1:21 And the people were standing and waiting for Zachariah, and were wondering about his delay in the Palace.

Luk 1:22 But when he came out, Zachariah was unable to speak to them; and they realised that he had seen a vision in the Palace, for he kept signalling to them, but remained speechless.

Luk 1:23 And when the days of his service were completed, he departed to his house.

Luk 1:24 Now it happened after those days that his wife Elizabeth conceived, and she hid herself five months³ and she said,

Luk 1:25 “Lord Jah⁴ has done this for me, in the days when He looked on me, to take away my reproach among the children of men.”

Luk 1:26 Now in the sixth month, the envoy Gabriel was sent from God’s⁵ presence to the city of Galilee named Nazareth,

Luk 1:27 to a virgin who was betrothed to a man whose name was Joseph,⁶ of the house of David. The virgin’s name was Mary.⁷

Luk 1:28 And the envoy came to her and said to her, “Peace to you, full of grace, our Lord⁸ is with you; blessed among women!”

Luk 1:29 But she, when she saw him, was disturbed by his saying, and was wondering what this greeting was.

Luk 1:30 Then the envoy said to her, “Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found grace with God.⁹

Luk 1:31 “And behold, you will conceive and bear a Son, and you will call His name Jeshua.¹⁰

Luk 1:33 “And He will reign over the house of Jacob forever, and of His kingdom there will be no end.”¹³

Luk 1:34 Mary said to the envoy, “How can this be, for no man has known me?”

Luk 1:35 The envoy answered and said to her, “The Holy Spirit will come, and the power of the Highest will rest on you.¹⁴ Because of this, He who is to be born ⁹ The Hebrew Luke fragment has Jehovah.

¹⁰ As explained in the Mat 1:1 footnote, Jeshua יֵשׁוּעַ is the actual Aramaic name of Jesus, which means “Jehovah Saves”. In a similar manner, Messiah (מְשִׁיחָא msheecha) is the Aramaic title of Jeshua. It means Anointed, and both titles are used. The Hebrew Luke fragment also names the child as Jeshua.

¹¹ Literally MarJah (Lord Jah) in the Peshitta. The Hebrew Luke fragment has Jehovah, as does Isaiah 9:7.

¹⁴ So the Bible confirms that Mary, though a virgin, will be impregnated by the Holy Spirit with Jeshua, which means the father’s half of Jeshua’s DNA has come directly from God, while the rest is from one of Mary’s eggs. Thus even Jeshua’s body is both divine and human. This fulfils Isa 7:14, Mat 1:21-23, Heb 10:5 and Gal 3:16. As in Matthew, virgin in this passage is Bethoolta בֵּתּוּלְתָא the Aramaic word for virgin.

Luk 1:36 “And behold, Elizabeth your relative has also conceived a son in her old age; and this is now the sixth month for her who was called barren.

Luk 1:37 “For with God nothing is impossible.”

Luk 1:38 Mary said, “Behold! I am the maidservant of Lord Jah!² Let it be to me according to your word.” And the envoy departed from her presence.

Luk 1:39 Now Mary rose in those days and went quickly to a mountain city of Judah, Luk 1:40 and she entered the house of Zachariah and greeted Elizabeth.

Luk 1:41 And it happened that when Elizabeth heard Mary’s greeting, the baby leapt in her womb and Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit.

Luk 1:42 And she cried out with a loud voice and said to Mary, “Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb!

Luk 1:43 “How did this happen to me, that the mother of my Lord has come to me?

Luk 1:44 “For behold, when the sound of your greeting fell upon my ears, the baby leaped with great joy in my womb.

Luk 1:45 “Blessings to she who believed, for there will be fulfilment of those things which were spoken to her from the presence of Lord Jah.”³

Luk 1:46 And Mary said: “My soul magnifies Jehovah,⁴

Luk 1:47 “and my spirit rejoices in God my Saviour.”⁵

Luk 1:48 “For He has looked upon His humble maidservant. Behold, from now on all generations will call me blessed.

Luk 1:49 “For He has done great things for me, He who is mighty and His Name is Holy.

Luk 1:50 “And His mercy is for ages, upon those generations who fear Him.”⁶

Luk 1:51 “He has achieved victory with His Arm and has scattered the proud in the thoughts of their hearts.

Luk 1:52 “He has cast down the mighty from the thrones, and exalted the meek.

Luk 1:53 “He has satisfied the hungry with good things, and the rich He has sent away with empty hands.

Luk 1:54 ‘He has helped Israel His servant, and He has remembered His mercy,

Luk 1:55 “As He spoke with our fathers, with Abraham and with his seed forever.”

Luk 1:56 And Mary remained with Elizabeth about three months, and then she returned to her home.

Luk 1:57 Now Elizabeth came to her time to bear, and she brought forth a son.

Luk 1:58 And her neighbours and her relatives heard how God had increased His mercy to her, and they rejoiced with her.

Luk 1:59 Now it happened on the eighth day, that they came to circumcise the boy; and they were calling him by the name of his father, Zachariah.

Luk 1:60 And his mother answered and said to them, “Not so! Instead, he will be called John.”⁷

Luk 1:61 But they said to her, “There is no man among your relatives who is called by this name.”

Luk 1:62 So they made signs to his father as to what he wanted to name him.

Luk 1:63 And he asked for a writing tablet, and wrote, saying, “John is his name.” And everyone marvelled.

Luk 1:64 Immediately his mouth and his tongue were opened and he spoke, blessing God.

Luk 1:65 Then fear came on all their neighbours and in all the mountains of Judea these things were spoken about.

Luk 1:66 And all those who heard were thinking in their hearts and saying, "What will this boy be?" And the hand of Lord Jah¹ was with him.

Luk 1:67 Now Zachariah his father was filled with the Holy Spirit, and he prophesied, saying:

Luk 1:68 "Blessed is Lord Jah,² God of Israel, who has visited His people and brought salvation to them, Luk 1:69 "and He has raised up a horn of salvation for us in the house of His servant David,

Luk 1:70 "as He spoke by the mouth of His holy prophets, who were from old, Luk 1:71 "that He would save us from our enemies and from the hand of all who hate us.

Luk 1:72 "And He has shown His mercy to our fathers and has remembered His holy covenant, Luk 1:73 "and the oaths that He swore to our father Abraham that He would give to us:

Luk 1:74 "that we would be delivered from the hand of our enemies, and that we might serve before Him without fear, Luk 1:75 "all of our days in godliness and righteousness.

Luk 1:76 "And you, child, will be called the prophet of the Most High; for you will go before the face of Jehovah to prepare His ways,³ Luk 1:77 "that He might give the knowledge of life to His people by the forgiveness of their sins, Luk 1:78 "through the kindness of the mercy of our God, by which a ray of light will visit us from above;

Luk 1:79 "to give light to those who are in darkness and sit in the shadow of death, so He may guide our feet in the way of peace."⁴

Luk 1:80 So the boy grew and became strong in spirit, and was in the desert until the day of his appearance to Israel.

Luk 2:1 And it came to pass in those days that a decree went out from Caesar Augustus that all the people in his empire should be registered.

Luk 2:2 This first registration was made when Quirinius was governing Syria.

Luk 2:3 So everyone went to his own city to be registered.

Luk 2:4 And Joseph also went up from Nazareth, a city of Galilee, into Judea, to the city of David, which is called Bethlehem, because he was of the house and lineage of David,

Luk 2:5 with Mary, his pregnant bride, so they would be registered there.

Luk 2:6 So it was, that while they were there, the days of her pregnancy were completed.

Luk 2:7 And she brought forth a firstborn Son, and wrapped Him in swaddling cloths, and laid Him in a manger, because there was no room where they could lodge.

Luk 2:8 Now there were shepherds in the region where they were lodging, keeping watch over their flocks at night.

Luk 2:9 And behold, an envoy of God came to them, and the glory of Lord Jah⁵ shone upon them, and they were greatly afraid.

Luk 2:10 Then the envoy said to them, "Do not be afraid, for behold, I bring to you Good News of great joy which will be to the whole world.

the city of David.

Luk 2:12 “And this will be the sign to you: You will find an infant wrapped in swaddling cloths and lying in a manger.”

Luk 2:13 And suddenly there was with the envoy the great hosts from heaven, glorifying God and saying:

Luk 2:14 “Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace and Good News to the descendants of men!”

Luk 2:15 So it was, when the envoys had left them and gone to heaven, that the shepherds said to one another, “Let us go to Bethlehem and see this thing that has happened, which Lord Jah¹ has made known to us.”

Luk 2:16 And they came with haste and found Mary and Joseph, and the infant who was lying in a manger.

Luk 2:17 Now after they had seen Him, they made the matter known which had been told to them concerning this Boy.

Luk 2:18 And all those who heard it marvelled at those things which were told to them by the shepherds.

Luk 2:19 But Mary kept all these words and pondered them in her heart.

Luk 2:20 Then those shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, for it was just as it had been told to them.

Luk 2:21 And when the eighth day had come so the boy could be circumcised, they named him Jeshua, as He had been called by the envoy before He was conceived in the womb.²

Luk 2:22 Now when the days of their purification according to the Instructions³ of Moses were completed, they brought Him up to Jerusalem to present Him to Luk 2:25 Now there was a certain man in Jerusalem, Simeon was his name, and this man was just and devout, waiting for the Consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit was upon him.

Luk 2:26 And the Holy Spirit had said to him that he would not see death until he had seen Lord Jah’s Anointed.⁸

Luk 2:27 So he had come by the Spirit into the Palace. And when the parents brought in Jeshua, the child, to do what is commanded in the Instructions for Him,

Luk 2:28 he took Him up in his arms and blessed God and said:

Luk 2:29 “My Lord, now let Your servant depart in peace, according to Your word;

Luk 2:30 “for behold, my eyes have seen Your salvation

Luk 2:31 “which You have prepared before the face of all peoples,

Luk 2:32 “a light for revelation to the gentiles, and a glory to Your people Israel.”

Luk 2:33 And Joseph and His mother marvelled at these things which were spoken about Him.

Luk 2:34 Then Simeon blessed them, and said to Mary His mother, “Behold, this one is destined for the fall and rise of many in Israel, and for a sign of dispute,

Luk 2:36 Now Anna, a prophetess and the daughter of Phanuel, of the branch of Asher, was advanced in her days. She had lived with her husband seven years from her virginity;

Luk 2:37 and she was a widow of about eighty-four years, and she did not depart from the Palace, but served with fastings and prayers by day and night.

Luk 2:38 And she stood up in that hour and gave thanks to Lord Jah,¹ and spoke about Him to everyone who was waiting for the redemption of Jerusalem.

Luk 2:39 So when they had completed everything according to the Instructions of Lord Jah,² they returned to Galilee, to their city of Nazareth.

Luk 2:40 And the Child grew and became strong in spirit, filled with wisdom; and the grace of God was upon Him.

Luk 2:41 Every year His people went to Jerusalem for the Feast of the Passover.

Luk 2:42 And when He was twelve years old, they went up to the feast as they were accustomed.

Luk 2:43 Then after the days were completed, they returned, but the boy Jeshua remained in Jerusalem. And Joseph and His mother did not know;

Luk 2:44 for they hoped He was with the people in their group. And after they had gone one day's journey, they searched for Him among their relatives and anyone who knew Him.

Luk 2:45 So when they did not find Him, they returned to Jerusalem, and were seeking Him.

Luk 2:46 After three days they found Him in the Palace, sitting in the midst of the teachers. He was listening to them and questioning them.

Luk 2:47 And all who listened to Him were astonished by His wisdom and His answers.

Luk 2:48 So when they saw Him, they were amazed; and His mother said to Him, “My son, why have you acted in this way toward us? Behold, your father and I have been searching for you anxiously.”

Luk 2:49 He said to them, “Why were you searching for me? Did you not realise that it was necessary for me to be in My Father's House?”³

Luk 2:50 But they did not understand the saying which He spoke to them.

Luk 2:51 Then He went down with them and came to Nazareth, and was subject to them, but His mother kept all these words in her heart.

Luk 2:52 And Jeshua grew in stature and wisdom, and in favour with God and men.

Luk 3:1 Now in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Caesar, Pontius Pilate being governor of Judea, Herod being tetrarch of Galilee, his brother Philip tetrarch of Iturea and the region of Trachona, and Lusanias tetrarch of Abilene, Luk 3:2 Annas and Caiaphas being high priests, the word of God came upon John the son of Zachariah in the wilderness.

Luk 3:3 And he went into all the regions surrounding the Jordan, preaching an immersion of repentance for the forgiveness of sins, Luk 3:4 as it is written in the book of the words of Isaiah the prophet, saying: “The voice crying in the wilderness: ‘Prepare the way of Jehovah, make the paths in the plains straight for our God.

Luk 3:5 ‘All the valleys will be filled and all the mountains and hills will be levelled; and the rough ways will become smooth and the difficult land a plain;

Luk 3:6 ‘and all flesh will see the salvation of Jehovah.’”⁴

Luk 3:7 Then he said to those in the crowds that came out to be immersed by him, “Product of vipers! Who warned you Luk 3:8 “Therefore produce fruit that is worthy of repentance, and do not begin saying to yourselves, ‘We have Abraham as our father.’ For I say to you that God is able to raise up children to Abraham from these stones.

Luk 3:9 “Behold! The axe is laid to the root of the tree. Therefore every tree which does not produce good fruit will be cut down and thrown into the fire.”

Luk 3:10 So the crowds would ask him, saying, “Then what should we do?”

Luk 3:11 He answered and said to them, “He who has two coats, let him give to him who has none; and he who has food, let him do likewise.”

Luk 3:12 Then tax collectors also came to be immersed, and said to him, “Teacher, what should we do?”

Luk 3:13 And he said to them, “Do not require any more than what you are commanded to require.”

Luk 3:14 And the soldiers asked him, saying, “And what should we do?” So he said to them, “Do not be violent to anyone and do not accuse falsely, and be content with your wages.”

Luk 3:15 Now the people were thinking about John and all were wondering in their hearts whether he was the Anointed.

Luk 3:16 John answered, saying to them, “Behold! I immerse you with water; but He will come after me, He who is mightier than I. I am not worthy to loosen His sandal straps. He will immerse you with the Holy Spirit and with fire.

Luk 3:17 “He holds a winnowing fan in His hand, and will cleanse His threshing floor. He will gather the wheat into His barn; but He will burn the chaff in the unquenchable fire.”

Luk 3:18 And many other things he taught and preached to the people.

Luk 3:19 But Herod the tetrarch, because he was rebuked by John concerning Herodia, his brother Philip’s wife, and concerning all the evils that he had done, Luk 3:20 also added this, above all these; that he locked John away in prison.

Luk 3:21 Now while he immersed all the people, he also immersed Jeshua; and while He prayed, the heaven was opened.

Luk 3:22 And the Holy Spirit descended upon Him in the likeness and form of a dove, and a voice came from heaven which said, “You are My beloved Son in whom I am pleased.”¹

Luk 4:15 And He taught in their synagogues, and was praised by everyone.

Luk 4:16 So He came to Nazareth, where He had been brought up. And as His custom was, He went into the synagogue on the Sabbath day, and stood up to read.

Luk 4:17 And the scroll of the prophet Isaiah was given to Him. And Jeshua opened the scroll and found the place where it was written:

Luk 4:18 “Jehovah’s Spirit is upon Me, because He has anointed Me to preach the Good News to the poor. He has sent Me to heal the brokenhearted, to preach deliverance to the captives and sight to the blind, to set those who are oppressed free with forgiveness,

Luk 4:19 “and to preach the acceptable year of Jehovah.”¹

Luk 4:20 Then He rolled up the scroll and gave it back to the attendant, went and sat down. And the eyes of all who were in the synagogue were fixed on Him.

Luk 4:21 And He began saying to them, “Today this Writing is fulfilled in your ears.”

Luk 4:22 So they all bore witness about Him, and marvelled at the words of blessing which proceeded from His mouth. And they said, “Is this not Joseph’s son?”

Luk 4:23 Jeshua said to them, “You may say this parable to Me, ‘Physician, heal yourself! And all that we have heard that You did in Capernaum, do also here in Your city.’”

Luk 4:24 Then He said, “Truly, I say to you, there is no prophet who is accepted in his own city.

Luk 4:25 “For truly I say to you, there were many widows in Israel during the days of the prophet Elijah, when the heavens were shut up three years and six months, and there was a great famine in all the land;

Luk 4:26 “but to none of them was Elijah sent except to Zarephath of Sidon, to a woman who was a widow.”²

Luk 4:27 “And there were many lepers in the house of Israel in the days of the prophet Elisha, and none of them were cleansed except Naaman the Aramean.”³

Luk 4:28 And when they heard these things, those in the synagogue were all filled with wrath,

Luk 4:29 and they rose up and thrust Him out of the city; and they took Him to the ridge of the mountain on which their city was built, to throw Him down from the cliff.

Luk 4:30 But he passed between them and departed.

Luk 4:31 Then He went down to Capernaum, a city of Galilee, and He taught them on the Sabbaths.

Luk 4:32 And they were astonished at His teaching, for His words had authority.

Luk 4:33 Now there was a man in the synagogue who had the spirit of an unclean demon in him. And he cried out with a loud voice,

Luk 4:34 saying, “Let me alone! What have we to do with each other, Jeshua of Nazareth? Have You come to destroy us? I know who You are; You are the Holy One of God!”

Luk 4:35 But Jeshua rebuked him, saying, “Close your mouth, and come out of him!” And the demon threw him down in their midst, and departed from him, though he did not hurt him at all.

Luk 4:36 Great amazement seized everyone and they spoke among themselves, saying, “Indeed, what a word this is! For with authority and power He commands the unclean spirits, and they depart.”

Luk 4:37 And the news about Him went out into all the surrounding region.

Luk 4:38 Then Jeshua departed from the synagogue and entered Simon's house. But Simon's mother-in-law was afflicted with a high fever, and they made a request to Him for her sake.

Luk 4:39 So He stood over her and rebuked her fever, and it left her. And immediately she arose and served them.

Luk 4:40 Now when the sun was setting, all those who had anyone sick or ill with various diseases brought them to Him; and He laid His hands on them one at a time and He healed them.

Luk 4:41 And demons also departed from many, while crying out and saying, "You are the Messiah, the Son of God!" And He rebuked them and would not allow them to say that they knew He was the Anointed.

Luk 4:42 Now when it was day, He departed in the morning and went to a deserted place. And the crowds sought Him and came to Him, and clung onto Him to stop Him from leaving them;

Luk 4:43 but Jeshua said to them, "I must preach the Kingdom of God to the other cities also, because this is why I have been sent."

Luk 4:44 And He preached in the synagogues of Galilee.

Luk 5:1 Now so it was, as the crowds gathered around Him to hear the word of God, that He stood beside the Lake of Gennesaret, Luk 5:2 and he saw two boats docked near the edge of the lake; but the fishermen had gotten out of them and they were washing their nets.

Luk 5:3 One of them belonged to Simon Peter, so Jeshua got in it and asked him to put out on the water a little way from the land. And He sat down and taught the crowds from the boat.

Luk 5:4 After He had stopped speaking, He said to Simon, "Row out to deep water and cast in your nets to fish."

Luk 5:5 Simon answered and said to Him, "Master, we have toiled all night and we caught nothing; but at Your word I will cast in the nets."

Luk 5:6 And after they did this, they caught very many fish, and their net was breaking.

Luk 5:7 So they signalled to their friends who were in another boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both the boats with so much that they nearly sank.

Luk 5:8 When Simon Peter saw it, he fell before Jeshua's feet, and said to Him, "My Lord, depart from me, for I am a sinful man!"

Luk 5:9 For he and all who were with him were astonished at the catch of fish which they had taken;

Luk 5:10 and so also were Jacob and John, the sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. And Jeshua said to Simon, "Do not fear. From now on you will catch the descendants of men unto life."

Luk 5:11 So when they had brought their boats to land, they left everything and followed Him.

Luk 5:12 And when Jeshua was in one of the cities, behold, a man who was covered with leprosy saw Jeshua; and he fell on his face and implored Him, saying to Him, "My Lord, if You desire to, You are able to make me clean."

Luk 5:13 Then Jeshua stretched out His hand and touched him, saying to him, "I desire it; be cleansed." And immediately the leprosy left him.

Luk 5:14 And He told him, "Tell no one, but go and show yourself to the priests, and offer an offering for your purification as Moses commanded and for their testimony."¹

Luk 5:15 Then the news about Him went around all the more; and a great crowd came together to hear Him, and to be healed from their diseases.

Luk 5:16 But He had departed into the wilderness and was praying.

Luk 5:17 Now it happened one day, as Jeshua was teaching, that Pharisees and teachers of the Instructions were sitting there, who had come from every town of Galilee and Judea, and from Jerusalem. And the power of Lord Jah¹ was present to heal them.

Luk 5:18 And men brought on a bed a certain man who was paralysed. And they were asking that they could bring him in and place him before Him.

Luk 5:19 And when they could not find how they might bring him in, because of the crowd of people, they went up on the roof and let him down on his bed through the ceiling into the midst before Jeshua.

Luk 5:20 So when Jeshua saw their faith, He said to the paralysed man, "Man, your sins are forgiven."

Luk 5:21 And the scribes and the Pharisees began reasoning, saying, "Who is this who speaks blasphemy? Who is able to forgive sins except God alone?"

Luk 5:22 But Jeshua knew their thoughts and replied, saying to them, "Why are you reasoning in your hearts?"

Luk 5:23 "Which is easier: saying, 'Your sins are forgiven,' or saying, 'Rise up and walk'?"

Luk 5:24 "But that you may know that it is lawful for the Son of Mankind to forgive sins on earth"; He said to the paralysed man, "I say to you, arise, take up your bed, and go to your house."

Luk 5:25 Immediately he rose up before their eyes, took his bed, and went to his house, while glorifying God.

Luk 5:26 And everyone was seized with amazement, and they glorified God and they were filled with fear, saying, "We have seen wonders today!"

Luk 5:27 After these things Jeshua went out and saw a tax collector named Levi, sitting at the tax office, and said to him, "Come, follow Me."

Luk 5:28 And he left everything, rose up, and went after Him.

Luk 5:29 Then Levi made a great feast for Him in his house. And there were a great number of tax collectors and others who sat with them.

Luk 5:30 But the scribes and Pharisees murmured, and said to His disciples, "Why are you eating and drinking with tax collectors and sinners?"

Luk 5:31 And Jeshua answered and said to them, "The physician is not needed by the healthy, but by those who are very sick.

Luk 5:32 "I have not come to call the righteous, but the sinners to repentance."

Luk 5:33 Then they said to Him, "Why do the disciples of John fast and pray continually, and even those of the Pharisees, but yours are eating and drinking?"

Luk 5:34 And He said to them, "You cannot make the friends of the bridegroom fast at the wedding feast while the bridegroom is with them.

Luk 5:35 "But the days will come when the bridegroom will be taken from them; then they will fast in those days."

Luk 5:36 Then He told them a parable: "No one tears a piece from a new garment and puts it on a worn one; for then he has torn the new one, and the piece taken from the new does not make the old one look whole.

Luk 5:37 "And no one puts new wine into used wineskins lest the new wine bursts the wineskins, and the wine is spilled and the wineskins destroyed.

Luk 5:38 "Instead, they put new wine into new wineskins, and both are preserved.

Luk 5:39 "And no one drinks old wine and immediately desires new; for he says, 'The old is delicious.'"

Luk 6:1 Now it happened on the Sabbath while Jeshua was walking among the grain, that His disciples plucked the heads of grain, rubbed them in their hands and ate them.

Luk 6:2 And some of the Pharisees said to them, "Why are you doing what is against the Instructions to do on the Sabbath?"¹

Luk 6:3 Jeshua answered and said to them, "Have you not read this, the thing that David did when he was hungry, he and those who were with him:

Luk 6:4 "how he went into the House of God, and he took and ate the bread of Lord Jah's table,² and he gave some to those who were with him, which is against the Instructions for any but the priests to eat?"

Luk 6:5 And He said to them, "The Lord of the Sabbath is the Son of Mankind."³

Luk 6:6 Now it happened on another Sabbath that He entered the synagogue and taught. And a man was there whose right hand was withered.

Luk 6:7 And the scribes and Pharisees were watching Him, whether He would heal on the Sabbath, so they could accuse Him.

Luk 6:8 But He knew their thoughts, and He said to the man whose hand was withered, "Arise, stand here in the midst of the assembly." And he arose and came there.

Luk 6:9 Jeshua said to them, "I ask you: Is it in the Instructions to do good or to do evil on the Sabbath, to make a soul live or to destroy it?"⁴

Luk 6:10 And He looked at all of them and said to him, "Stretch out your hand." And he stretched it out, and his hand was restored like his other.

Luk 6:11 But they were filled with bitterness, and they discussed with each other what they should do to Jeshua.

Luk 6:12 Now it came to pass in those days that Jeshua went out to a mountain to pray, and He spent all night in prayers to God.

Luk 6:13 And when day broke, He called His disciples to Him; and He chose twelve from them whom He named apostles:

Luk 6:14 Simon, whom He named Peter, and Andrew his brother; Jacob and John; Philip and Bartholomew;

Luk 6:15 Matthew and Thomas; Jacob the son of Alphaeus, and Simon who was called the Zealot;

Luk 6:16 Judas the son of Jacob, and Judas Iscariot who was the traitor.

Luk 6:17 And Jeshua came down among them and stood on a plain with a multitude of His disciples and crowds of people from all Judea and Jerusalem, and from the seacoast of Tyre and Sidon, Luk 6:18 who came to hear His words and He healed them from their diseases; and those who were afflicted with unclean spirits, they were healed.

Luk 6:19 And the whole crowd sought to touch Him, for power went out from Him and He was healing them all.

Luk 6:20 Then He lifted up His eyes toward His disciples, and said: "Blessed are you who are poor, for the Kingdom of God is yours.⁵

Luk 6:21 Blessed are you who hunger now, for you will be satisfied.⁶ Blessed are you who weep now, for you will laugh.

Luk 6:22 Blessed are you when men hate you, and exclude you, and revile you, and cast out your name as evil because of the Son of Man.⁷

Luk 6:24 “But woe to you who are rich, for you have received your comfort.

Luk 6:25 Woe to you who are satisfied, for you will hunger. Woe to you who laugh now, for you will weep and mourn.²

Luk 6:26 Woe to you when men speak well of you, for their fathers did the same to the false prophets.

Luk 6:27 “But I say to you who hear: Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you;

Luk 6:28 “bless those who curse you, and pray for those who take you with violence.³

Luk 6:29 “To him who strikes you on your cheek, offer the other to him. And from him who takes away your coat, do not withhold your tunic either.⁴

Luk 6:32 “For if you love those who love you, what is your blessing? For even sinners love those who love them.

Luk 6:33 “And if you do good to those who do good to you, what is your blessing? For even sinners do the same.

Luk 6:34 “And if you lend to him who you expect to repay you, what is your blessing? For even sinners lend to sinners so they can be repaid.

Luk 6:35 “But love your enemies, do good and lend to them, and do not cut off a man’s hope; and your reward will be great, and you will be descendants of the Highest, for He is kind to the evil and the cruel.

Luk 6:36 “Therefore be merciful, just as your Father is also merciful.

Luk 6:37 “Do not judge, and you will not be judged. Do not condemn, and you will not be condemned. Forgive, and you will be forgiven.

Luk 6:38 “Give, and it will be given to you in good measure, pressed down and abundant, and it will pour over your robe. For with the measure that you use, measure for measure, it will be measured back to you.”

Luk 6:39 And He spoke a parable to them: “Are the blind able to lead the blind? Will they not both fall into the ditch?

Luk 6:40 “There is no disciple who is greater than his master, but everyone who is perfect will be like his master.

Luk 6:41 “And why do you look at the straw in your brother’s eye, but you do not perceive the plank in your own eye?

Luk 6:42 “Or how can you say to your brother, ‘My brother, allow me to remove the straw that is in your eye,’ when behold, you do not perceive the plank that is in your own eye? Hypocrite! First remove the plank from your own eye, and then you will be able to see to remove the straw that is in your brother’s eye.

Luk 6:44 “For every tree is known by its fruit. For they do not gather figs from thorns, nor do they gather grapes from a bramble bush.

Luk 6:45 “A good man out of the good treasures of his heart brings forth good; and an evil man out of the evil treasures of his heart brings forth evil. For out of the abundance of the heart the lips speak.

Luk 6:46 “Why do you call Me ‘My Lord, my Lord,’ and whatever I say, you do not do?

I will show you who he is like:

Luk 6:48 “He is like a man building a house, and he dug deep and laid the foundation on the rock. And when there was a flood, the flood beat against that house, and could not shake it, for its foundations were built on the rock.

Luk 6:49 “But he who heard and did not do is like a man who built a house on soil without a foundation, and when the river beat on it, it fell immediately. And great was the fall of that house.”

Luk 7:1 Now when He completed all His sayings for the hearing of the people, Jeshua entered Capernaum.

Luk 7:2 And a certain centurion’s servant, who was dear to him, was very sick and he was close to death.

Luk 7:3 So when he heard about Jeshua, he sent Judean elders to Him, pleading with Him to come and give life to his servant.

Luk 7:4 And when they came to Jeshua, they pleaded with Him earnestly, saying that him for whom He should do this was worthy,

Luk 7:5 “for he loves our people, and has built a synagogue for us.”

Luk 7:6 Then Jeshua went with them. And when He was not very far from the house, the centurion sent his friends to Him, saying to Him, “My Lord, do not trouble Yourself, for I am not worthy that You should enter under my roof, Luk 7:7 “because I am not even worthy to come to You. But say the word, and my boy will be healed.

Luk 7:8 “For I also am a man who is a servant under authority, and there are soldiers under my hand. And I say to one, ‘Go,’ and he goes; and to another, ‘Come,’ and he comes; and to my servant, ‘Do this,’ and he does it.”

Luk 7:9 When Jeshua heard these things, He marvelled at him, and He turned and said to the crowd that followed Him, “I say to you that not even in Israel have I found faith like this!”

Luk 7:10 And those who were sent returned to the house and found the servant who had been sick was made whole.

Luk 7:11 Now it happened, on the following day, that He went into the city called Nain; and His disciples were with Him, and a large crowd.

Luk 7:12 And when He approached the gate of the city, behold, a dead man was being carried out, the only son of his mother; and she was a widow. And a large crowd from the city was with her.

Luk 7:13 And Jeshua saw her, had compassion on her and said to her, “Stop weeping.”

Luk 7:14 Then He came and touched the bier, and those who carried it stood still. And He said, “Young man, I say to you, arise.”

Luk 7:15 And that dead man sat up and began to speak. And He presented him to his mother.

Luk 7:16 Then fear seized them all, and they glorified God, saying, “A great prophet has risen up among us.” and “God has visited His people.”¹

Luk 7:17 And this news about Him went throughout all Judea and all the surrounding regions.

Luk 7:18 Then the disciples of John reported all these things to him.

Luk 7:19 And John called two of his disciples and sent them to Jeshua, saying, “Are You the Coming One, or should we wait for another?”

Luk 7:20 Then the men came to Jeshua, and said to Him, “John the Immerser has sent us to You, saying, ‘Are You the Coming One, or should we wait for another?’”²

Luk 7:21 And in that very hour He healed many people of their sickness, plagues and evil spirits; and He gave sight to many who were blind.

Luk 7:22 Then Jeshua answered and said to them, "Go! Tell John everything you have seen and heard: that the blind see, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, and the poor are given hope.¹

Luk 7:23 "And blessed is he who does not take offence at Me."

Luk 7:24 When John's disciples had left, Jeshua began saying to the crowds about John: "What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken by the wind?

Luk 7:25 "And if not, what did you go out to see? A man clothed in soft garments? Behold, those who are in expensive clothes and live in luxury are in the king's house.

Luk 7:26 "And if not, what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I say to you, and greater than a prophet.

Luk 7:27 "This is he of whom it is written: 'Behold, I send My envoy before Your face, so he can prepare the way before You.'²

Luk 7:28 "For I say to you, among those born of women, there is no prophet who is greater than John the Immerser; but the least in the Kingdom of God is greater than he."

Luk 7:29 And all the people who heard Him, even the tax collectors, declared that God was just, for they had been immersed with the immersion of John.

Luk 7:30 But the Pharisees and scribes rejected the will of God for themselves, because they were not immersed by him.

Luk 7:31 "Therefore, to what will I liken the men of this generation, and what are they like?

Luk 7:32 "They are like boys sitting in the marketplace and calling to their friends, saying: 'We have sung to you, and you did not dance; we mourned for you, and you did not weep.'

Luk 7:33 "For John the Immerser came neither eating bread nor drinking wine, and you say, 'There is a demon in him.'

Luk 7:34 "The Son of Mankind has come eating and drinking, and you say, 'Behold, a gluttonous man and a wine drinker, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!'

Luk 7:35 "But wisdom is justified by all its works."

Luk 7:36 Then one of the Pharisees asked Him to eat with him. And He entered the Pharisee's house, and sat down.

Luk 7:37 And there was a sinful woman in the city, and when she learned that Jeshua sat in the Pharisee's house, she brought an alabaster flask of fragrant oil,

Luk 7:38 and stood at His feet behind Him and she was crying; and she began to wash His feet with her tears, and wiped them with the hair of her head; and she kissed His feet and anointed them with the fragrant oil.

Luk 7:39 Now when the Pharisee who had invited Him saw this, he reasoned within himself, saying, "This man, if he was a prophet, he would know who she is and what her reputation is. This woman who is touching Him is a sinner."

Luk 7:40 And Jeshua answered and said to him, "Simon, I have something to say to you." And he said to Him, "Master, speak." Jeshua said to him, Luk 7:41 "There were two debtors to a certain creditor. One owed him five hundred denarii, and the other fifty denarii.

Luk 7:42 "And because they had no way to repay, he forgave both of them. Therefore, which of them will love him more?"

Luk 7:43 Simon answered and said, "I suppose he who was forgiven the most." Jeshua said to him, "You have judged correctly."

Luk 7:44 Then He turned to the woman and said to Simon, "Do you see this woman? I entered your house; you gave Me no water for My feet, but this woman has washed My feet with her tears and dried them with her hair.

Luk 7:45 "You did not kiss Me, but behold, this woman has not ceased to kiss My feet since the time I came in.

Luk 7:46 "You did not anoint My head with oil, but this woman has anointed My feet with incense oil.

Luk 7:47 "Therefore I say to you, her many sins are forgiven, for she loved much. But he who is forgiven little, loves little."

Luk 7:48 And He said to that woman, "Your sins are forgiven."

Luk 7:49 And those who sat there began to say among themselves, "Who is this who even forgives sins?"

Luk 7:50 But Jeshua said to the woman, "Your faith has given you life. Go in peace."

Luk 8:1 Now it came to pass, after these things, that Jeshua went through the cities and villages, preaching and declaring the Kingdom of God. And His twelve were with Him,

Luk 8:2 and those women who had been healed of diseases and evil spirits; Mary called Magdalene, she from whom seven demons had gone out, Luk 8:3 and Joanna the wife of Chuza, Herod's steward, and Susanna, and many others. They were serving them from their possessions.

Luk 8:4 And when a large crowd had gathered, and they were coming to Him from all the cities, He spoke by a parable:

Luk 8:5 "A sower went out to sow his seed. And as he sowed, some fell on the side of the road and was trampled, and the birds ate it.

Luk 8:6 "Other seed fell on rock; and it immediately sprang up, but because it lacked moisture it withered.

Luk 8:7 "And others fell into a thorny place, and the thorns sprang up with it and choked it.

Luk 8:8 "But others fell on good and fertile ground, sprang up, and yielded a harvest a hundredfold." When He had said these things He cried out, "He who has ears to hear, let him hear!"

Luk 8:9 Then His disciples asked Him, "What does this parable mean?"

Luk 8:10 And He said to them, "To you it is given to know the mystery of the Kingdom of God, but to the rest of them it is spoken in allegories, that 'Though they see, they do not see, and though they hear, they do not understand.'¹ Luk 8:11 "Now this is the parable: The seed is the word of God.

Luk 8:12 "Those that fell on the side of the road are those who hear the Word; then the enemy comes and takes the word from their heart, so they will not believe and live.

Luk 8:13 "But they that fell on the rock are those who, when they hear, receive the Word with joy; but they have no root; their faith lasts for a while, but in the time of trial they are offended.

Luk 8:14 "And that which fell into a thorny place are those who hear the Word, but are choked with the cares, riches, and lusts of the world, and they do not produce fruit.

Luk 8:15 "But that seed which fell on the good ground are those who, with an honest and good heart, hear the word, keep it and bear fruit with patience.

Luk 8:16 "No one lights a lamp and covers it with a vessel or puts it under a bed; instead, he sets it on a lampstand, so all who enter will see its light.

Luk 8:17 "For there is nothing hidden that will not be revealed, nor anything concealed that will not be known and come out openly.

Luk 8:18 "Therefore take heed how you hear. For he who has, it will be given to him; and he who does not have, even that which he thinks he has will be taken from him.”

Luk 8:19 Then His mother and brothers came to Him, but they were not able to speak with Him because of the crowds.

Luk 8:20 And they said to Him, “Your mother and your brothers are standing outside and desire to see You.”

Luk 8:21 But He answered and said to them, “These are My mother and My brothers; those who hear the Word of God and do it.”

Luk 8:22 Now it happened one day, that Jeshua went and sat in a boat with His disciples. And He said to them, “Let us go over to the other side of the lake.”

Luk 8:23 But while they sailed He fell asleep. And there was a windstorm on the lake, and it was about to sink the boat.

Luk 8:24 And they came and woke Him, saying to Him, “Our Master, Our Master, we are perishing!” Then He rose and rebuked the wind and the waves of the sea. And they ceased, and it became calm.

Luk 8:25 And He said to them, “Where is your faith?” And they were afraid, and marvelled, and they said to one another, “Indeed, who can this be? Who commands even the wind, the waves and the sea, and they obey Him?”

Luk 8:26 Then they sailed to the country of the Gadarenes, which is on the opposite side to Galilee.

Luk 8:27 And when He stepped out onto land, a certain man from the city came to Him who had demons in him for a long time. And he would not wear clothes, nor would he live in a house, but in the cemetery.

Luk 8:28 When he saw Jeshua, he cried out, fell down before Him, and in a loud voice said, “What do we have to do with each other, Jeshua, the Son of the Most High God? I beg You, do not torment me!”

Luk 8:29 For Jeshua was commanding the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For much time has passed since he was taken captive by him, and he was bound with chains and restrained with shackles; but he would break the bonds and be driven into the wilderness by the demon.

Luk 8:30 Jeshua asked him, “What is your name?” He said to Him, “Legion,” because many demons had entered him.

Luk 8:31 And they begged Him that He would not command them to go into the abyss.

Luk 8:32 Now there was a herd of many swine feeding on the mountain. And they begged Him to permit them to enter into the swine. And He permitted them.

Luk 8:33 Then the demons went out of the man and entered the swine, and the entire herd rushed over a cliff, fell into the lake and drowned.

Luk 8:34 When the swine herders saw what happened, they fled and told it in the city and in the villages.

Luk 8:35 Then they came out to see what had happened, and came to Jeshua, and found the man whose demons had departed, clothed, sane and sitting at Jeshua’s feet. And they were afraid.

Luk 8:36 And they who had seen it told them how He had healed the demonised man.

Luk 8:37 Then the whole crowd of Gadarenes begged Him to depart from them, for great fear had seized them. And Jeshua got into the boat and turned away from them.

Luk 8:38 Now the man from whom the demons had departed begged Him that he might stay with Him. But Jeshua sent him away, saying to him, Luk 8:39 “Return to your own house, and report what God has done for you.” And he went and proclaimed throughout the whole city this thing that Jeshua had done for him.

Luk 8:40 And when Jeshua returned, a large crowd welcomed Him, for they were all looking for Him.

Luk 8:41 And a certain man named Jorash, who was a ruler of the synagogue fell before Jeshua's feet and begged Him to come to his house, Luk 8:42 for he had an only daughter about twelve years old, and she was dying. But as Jeshua went with him, the large crowd pressed against Him.

Luk 8:43 Now a certain woman who had a flow of her blood for twelve years, who had spent all her money on doctors, but was not healed by any man, Luk 8:44 came from behind Him and touched the border of His coat. And immediately her flow of blood stopped.

Luk 8:45 And Jeshua said, "Who touched Me?" When all denied it, Simon Peter and those with him said to Him, "Our Master, the crowds press in and throng You, and You say, 'Who touched Me?'"

Luk 8:46 But He said, "Somebody touched Me, for I know that power went out of Me."

Luk 8:47 Now when that woman saw that she had not escaped His notice, she came trembling and fell down and worshipped Him, and said to Him before all the people the reason she had touched Him and how she was healed immediately.

Luk 8:48 And Jeshua said to her, "My daughter, have courage; your faith has given you life. Go in peace."

Luk 8:49 While He was speaking, a man came from the house of the ruler of the synagogue, and said to him, "Your daughter has died. Do not trouble the Teacher."

Luk 8:50 But Jeshua heard it, and said to the young girl's father, "Do not be afraid; only believe, and she will live."

Luk 8:51 And Jeshua came to the house, and He did not allow anyone to enter with Him except Simon, Jacob, John, and the father and mother of the young girl.

Luk 8:52 Now all were weeping and mourning over her, but Jeshua said, "Do not cry, for she is not dead, but she sleeps."

Luk 8:53 And they laughed at Him, for they knew that she had died.

Luk 8:54 But He put everyone out, took her by her hand and called her, saying, "Young girl, arise."

Luk 8:55 Then her spirit returned, and she arose immediately. And He commanded that they give her something to eat.

Luk 8:56 And her parents were astonished, but He warned them to tell no one what had happened.

Luk 9:1 And Jeshua called His twelve and gave them power and authority over all demons, and to heal diseases.

Luk 9:2 He sent them to preach the Kingdom of God and to heal the sick.

Luk 9:3 And He said to them, "Do not take anything for the journey, neither a staff nor purse nor bread nor money, nor should you have two coats.

Luk 9:4 "And whatever house you enter into, remain there, and from there depart.

Luk 9:5 "And whoever will not receive you, when you go out of that city, shake off even the dust from your feet as a witness against them."

Luk 9:6 So the apostles departed and went through the villages and cities, preaching the Good News and healing in every place.

Luk 9:7 And Herod the tetrarch heard of all the things that were done by their hands; and he was puzzled, because some were saying that John had risen from the house of the dead,

Luk 9:8 and others were saying that Elijah had appeared, and others that a prophet from the early prophets had risen.

Luk 9:9 And Herod said, "I have cut off the head of John, but who is this of whom I hear such things?" And he wanted to see Him.

Luk 9:10 And when the apostles returned, they told Jeshua everything that they had done. And He took them aside to a deserted place at Bethsaida.

Luk 9:11 But when the crowds realised, they followed Him; and He received them and spoke to them about the Kingdom of God, and those who needed healing, He healed.

Luk 9:12 When the day began to wane, His disciples approached and said to Him, "Send the crowd away, that they may go into the surrounding villages and country, and find somewhere to stay and get food for themselves; for we are in a deserted place."

Luk 9:13 Jeshua said to them, "You give them something to eat." But they said, "We have no more than five loaves of bread and two fish, unless we go and buy food for all these people."

Luk 9:14 For there were about five thousand men. And Jeshua said to them, "Make them sit down in groups of fifty people."

Luk 9:15 And so the disciples did, and made them all sit down.

Luk 9:16 Then Jeshua took those five loaves of bread and the two fish, and gazed into heaven, and blessed and broke them, and gave them to His disciples to set before the crowds.

Luk 9:17 So they all ate and were satisfied, and they took up twelve baskets of leftover fragments.¹

Luk 9:18 And it happened, as He was alone praying, and His disciples were with Him, He asked them, saying, "Who do the crowds say that I am?"

Luk 9:19 So they answered and said to Him, "John the Immerser, and others Elijah; and yet others say that a certain prophet from the earlier prophets has risen."

Luk 9:20 He said to them, "But who do you say that I am?" Simon answered and said, "The Messiah of God."

¹ Psa 22:26, also in Mat 14:14-21, Mar 6:34-44 & Joh 6:5-14

Luk 9:21 And He told them and warned them to not tell this to anyone,

Luk 9:22 and He said to them that He, the Son of Mankind, would suffer many things, and He would be rejected by the elders and chief priests and scribes, and they would kill Him, and He would rise on the third day.

Luk 9:23 Then He said before everyone, "He who desires to follow Me should deny himself, and take up his stake every day, and follow Me.

Luk 9:24 "For whoever desires to make his soul live will destroy it, but whoever destroys his soul for My sake will make it live.

Luk 9:25 "For what does it benefit a man who gains the whole world, but destroys or loses his soul?

Luk 9:26 "Whoever is ashamed of Me and My words, the Son of Mankind will be ashamed of him when He comes in His Father's glory, with His holy envoys.

Luk 9:27 "Truly, I say to you, there are some standing here who will not taste death until they see the Kingdom of God."²

Luk 9:28 And it happened, about eight days after these words, that Jeshua took Simon, Jacob, and John and went up on the mountain to pray.

Luk 9:29 And while He prayed, the appearance of His face was altered, and His clothes became white and shining.

Luk 9:30 And behold, two men talked with Him, who were Moses and Elijah, Luk 9:31 who appeared in glory and they talked about His departure which was to be accomplished in Jerusalem.

Luk 9:32 Simon and those with him were heavy with sleep; and as they awakened, they saw His glory and the two men who stood with Him.

² This refers to Simon, Jacob and John seeing the Kingdom of God in vision in the next few verses, and also John, who in the visions shown to him in Revelation, saw many details of the coming of the Kingdom of God before he died.

Luk 9:33 And when they began to leave, Simon said to Jeshua, "Master, it is good for us that we stay here; and we will make three booths: one for You, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." for he did not know what he was saying.

Luk 9:34 And when he had said this, a cloud came and formed a booth around them; and they were afraid when they saw Moses and Elijah enter into the cloud.¹

Luk 9:35 Then a voice came from the cloud, saying, "This is My beloved Son. Hear Him!"

Luk 9:36 And when the voice came, Jeshua was found alone. But they kept quiet, and told no one in those days of the things they saw.

Luk 9:37 Now it happened on the next day, when they had descended from the mountain, that large crowds met them.

Luk 9:38 And a certain man from the crowd cried out, saying, "Teacher, I beg You, take notice of me, for he is my only son, Luk 9:39 "and a spirit seizes him, and he suddenly cries out and gnashes his teeth and foams, and it departs from him with difficulty when it has tormented him.

Luk 9:40 "So I begged Your disciples to cast it out, but they could not."

Luk 9:41 Then Jeshua replied and said, "O faithless and perverse generation, how long must I be among you and endure you? Bring your son here."

Luk 9:42 And while he was bringing him, that demon threw him down and bruised him. And Jeshua rebuked that unclean spirit, healed the boy, and gave him to his father.

Luk 9:43 And they were all amazed by the greatness of God. But while everyone marvelled at all that Jeshua had done, He said to His disciples,

Luk 9:44 "Put these words in your ears, for the Son of Mankind will be delivered into the hands of men."

Luk 9:45 But they did not understand these words, because it was hidden from them so that they would not understand it; and they were afraid to ask Him about this word.

Luk 9:46 Then the thought entered into them as to who was the greatest among them.

Luk 9:47 But Jeshua knew the thought of their heart, and took a child and set him by Him,

Luk 9:48 and said to them, "Whoever receives a child like this one in My Name receives Me; and whoever receives Me receives Him who sent Me. For whoever is least among all of you will be great."

Luk 9:49 John replied and said, "Our Master, we saw a man casting out demons in Your Name, and we forbade him because he does not follow You with us."

Luk 9:50 Jeshua said to them, "Do not forbid him, for he that is not against you is for you."

Luk 9:51 Now it happened, when the days of His journey were fulfilled, that He hardened His face to go to Jerusalem, Luk 9:52 and He sent envoys before His face. And they came to a village of the Samaritans, and entered it in order to prepare for Him.

Luk 9:53 But they did not receive Him, because His face was set to go to Jerusalem.

Luk 9:54 And when His disciples Jacob and John saw this, they said to Him, "Our Lord, do You want us to speak and have fire descend from heaven and consume them, as Elijah also did?"

Luk 9:55 But He turned and rebuked them, and said, "You do not understand of which spirit you are.

Luk 9:56 "For the Son of Mankind did not come to destroy souls but to make them live." And they went to another village.

¹ Mat 17:5, Mar 9:7

Luk 9:57 Now while they journeyed on the road, a man said to Him, "I will follow You wherever You go, My Lord."

Luk 9:58 Jeshua said to him, "Foxes have holes and birds of heaven nests, but the Son of Mankind has nowhere to lay His head."

Luk 9:59 Then He said to another, "Follow Me." But he said to Him, "My Lord, first allow me to go and bury my father."

Luk 9:60 Jeshua said to him, "Let the dead bury their dead, and you go and preach the Kingdom of God."

Luk 9:61 And another said to Him, "I will follow You, My Lord, but first allow me to go and farewell my household and I will follow."

Luk 9:62 Jeshua said to him, "No one who puts his hand on the handle of the plough and looks back is useful to the Kingdom of God."

Luk 10:1 After these things Jeshua appointed seventy of His other disciples, and sent them two by two before His face into every region and city where He was about to go.

Luk 10:2 And He said to them, "The harvest is great, but the workers are few; therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out workers into His harvest.

Luk 10:3 "Go! Behold, I send you as sheep among wolves.

Luk 10:4 "Do not take purses, nor bags, nor sandals with you; and do not ask a greeting of anyone along the road.

Luk 10:5 "And into whatever house that you enter, first say, 'Peace to this house.'

Luk 10:6 "And if there is a man of peace there, let your peace rest upon him; but if not, let your peace return to you.

Luk 10:7 "And remain in the same house, while you are eating and drinking from their provisions, for the worker is worthy of his wages.¹ And do not move around from house to house.

¹ Lev 19:13, 1Ti 5:18

Luk 10:8 "And into whatever city you enter, and they receive you, eat whatever they set before you.

Luk 10:9 "And heal those who are sick there, and say to them, 'The Kingdom of God is coming near to you.'

Luk 10:10 "But that city you enter, and they do not receive you, go out into the streets and say,

Luk 10:11 'Even the dust of your city which clings to our feet we shake off before you. But know this, that the Kingdom of God has come near you.'

Luk 10:12 "I say to you that it will be more tolerable for Sodom on that Day than for that city.²

Luk 10:13 "Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the miracles had been done in Tyre and Sidon which were done in you, perhaps they would have repented in sackcloth and ashes.

Luk 10:14 "But it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the judgement than for you.³

Luk 10:15 "And you, Capernaum, who are exalted to heaven, you will be taken down to Sheol.⁴

Luk 10:16 "Whoever hears you hears Me, whoever rejects you rejects Me, and whoever rejects Me rejects Him who sent Me."

Luk 10:17 Then the seventy He had sent returned with great joy, and said to Him, "Our Lord, even the demons are subject to us by Your Name."

Luk 10:18 And He said to them, "I saw Satan falling like lightning from heaven.

Luk 10:19 "Behold, I give authority to you to trample on serpents and scorpions and all the power of the enemy, and nothing will harm you.

Luk 10:20 "Nevertheless do not rejoice in this; that the demons are subject to you, but rather rejoice that your names are written in heaven.”

Luk 10:21 In that hour Jeshua rejoiced greatly in the Holy Spirit and said, “I thank You, My Father, the Lord of heaven and earth, that You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and revealed them to children. Yes, My Father, for this was the will before You.

Luk 10:22 And He turned to His disciples and said to them, “All things have been delivered to Me from My Father, and no one knows who the Son is but the Father, and who the Father is but the Son, and to him whom the Son desires to reveal Him.”

Luk 10:23 And He turned to His disciples and said privately, “Blessed are the eyes which see the things you see;

Luk 10:24 “for I tell you that many prophets and kings have desired to see what you see, and did not see it, and to hear what you hear, and did not hear it.”

Luk 10:25 And behold, a certain scribe rose to tempt Him, and said, “Teacher, what must I do to inherit everlasting life?”

Luk 10:26 And Jeshua said to him, “How is it written in the Instructions? How do you read them?”

Luk 10:27 He answered and said to Him, ““To love Jehovah your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength, and with all your mind,’ and ‘your neighbour as yourself.’”¹

Luk 10:28 Jeshua said to him, “You have answered correctly; do this and you will live.”

Luk 10:29 But he, wanting to justify himself, said to Him, “And who is my neighbour?”

Luk 10:30 Jeshua said to him: “A certain man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and robbers fell upon him, stripped him, beat him, and they departed, leaving him with barely any life in him.

Luk 10:31 “Now it happened that a certain priest came down that road, saw him, and passed by.

Luk 10:32 “Likewise a Levite came and arrived at the place, and he saw him and passed by.

Luk 10:33 “But a Samaritan man, as he journeyed, came to where he was, saw him, and had compassion on him, Luk 10:34 “and he came to him and bandaged his wounds and poured wine and oil on them; and he put him on his donkey, brought him to an inn, and took care of him.

Luk 10:35 “And when he departed at dawn the next day, he gave two denarii to the innkeeper, and said to him, ‘Take care of him; and if he requires anything more, when I return, I will give it to you.’

Luk 10:36 “So which of these three seems to you to be a neighbour to him who fell into the hands of the bandits?”

Luk 10:37 And he said, “He who had compassion on him.” Then Jeshua said to him, “Go and you also do likewise.”

Luk 10:38 Now it happened as they were journeying that He entered a certain village; and a woman named Martha received Him into her house.

Luk 10:39 And she had a sister whose name was Mary, and she came and sat herself at our Lord’s feet and listened to His words.

Luk 10:40 But Martha was occupied with many chores, and she approached and said to Him, “My Lord, You do not seem to care that my sister has left me to do the chores alone. Tell her to help me.”

Luk 10:41 And Jeshua replied and said to her, “Martha, Martha, you are worried and troubled by many things.

Luk 10:42 “But there is one thing that is important, and Mary has chosen that good part for herself, and that will not be taken from her.”

Luk 11:1 And it happened while He was praying in a certain place, when He finished, that one of His disciples said to ¹ Deu 6:5 & 10:12 and Lev 19:18, Peshitta has “Lord Jah”.

Him, "Our Lord, teach us to pray, as John also taught his disciples."

Luk 11:2 Jeshua said to them, "When you pray, speak like this: Our Father in heaven, Your Name be sanctified. Your Kingdom come. Your will be done, as in heaven also on earth."

Luk 11:3 "Give us the bread we need every day."

Luk 11:4 "And forgive us our sins, for we also forgive everyone who has offended us. And do not lead us into trials, but save us from the evil one."

Luk 11:5 And He said to them, "Who among you has a friend, and would go to him in the middle of the night and say to him, 'My friend, lend me three loaves;

Luk 11:6 'for a friend has come to me on a journey, and I have nothing to set before him.'

Luk 11:7 "And his friend would answer from within and say to him, 'Do not bother me; for behold, the door is shut, and my children are with me in bed. I cannot rise and give to you.'

Luk 11:8 "I say to you that if he will not give to him because of their friendship, because of his persistence he will rise and give him as much as he needs."

Luk 11:9 "I also say to you; ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you."

Luk 11:10 "For everyone who asks will receive, and he who seeks will find, and he who knocks, it will be opened to him."

Luk 11:11 "For who among you is a father, and if his son asks for bread, would he hand him a stone? Or if he asks him for a fish, would he hand him a snake instead of a fish?

Luk 11:12 "Or if he asks him for an egg, would he hand him a scorpion?

Luk 11:13 "And if you, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father from Heaven give the Holy Spirit to those who ask Him!"

Luk 11:14 And He was casting out a mute demon, and when the demon had gone out, the mute man spoke; and the crowds marvelled.

Luk 11:15 But some of them said, "This man casts out demons by Beelzebub, the ruler of the demons."

Luk 11:16 While others, testing Him, were asking Him for a sign from heaven.

Luk 11:17 But Jeshua, who was aware of their thoughts, said to them: "Every kingdom that is divided against itself becomes desolate, and a house divided against its own nature falls."

Luk 11:18 "So if Satan is divided against himself, how will his kingdom stand, for you say I cast out demons by Beelzebub?

Luk 11:19 "And if I cast out demons by Beelzebub, by whom do your sons cast them out? Therefore they will be your judges."

Luk 11:20 "But if I cast out demons by the finger of God, the Kingdom of God has come near to you."

Luk 11:21 "While an armed strong man guards his courtyard, his property is peaceful."

Luk 11:22 "But if one who is stronger than he comes and overcomes him, he will take all his armour in which he trusted, and he will divide his spoil."

Luk 11:23 "He who is not with Me is against Me, and he who does not gather with Me scatters."

Luk 11:24 "When an unclean spirit goes out of a man, it wanders around in waterless places, seeking rest for itself; and when it finds none, it says, 'I will return to my house from where I came.'

Luk 11:25 "And if it comes, and finds it swept and organised,

Luk 11:26 "then it goes and takes seven other spirits worse than itself, and they enter and dwell there; and the end of that man becomes worse than at the beginning."¹

Luk 11:29 And when the crowds were gathered, He began saying, “This evil generation seeks a sign, and no sign will be given to it except the sign of Jonah the prophet.”²

Luk 13:1 Now at that time men came who told Him about the Galileans whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices.

Luk 13:3 “I tell you, no; but all of you, if you do not repent, will likewise be destroyed.

Luk 13:4 “Or those eighteen on whom the tower in Siloam fell and killed them, do you think that they were worse sinners than all the people who live in Jerusalem?

Luk 13:5 “I tell you, no; but all of you, if you do not repent, you will be destroyed like them.”

Luk 13:6 And He spoke this parable: “A certain man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard, and he came seeking fruit on it and did not find any.

Luk 13:7 “Then he said to the workers, ‘Behold, for three years I have come seeking fruit on this fig tree and I have not found any. Cut it down; why should the ground be wasted?’

Luk 13:8 “A worker said to him, ‘My lord, leave it this year also, until I work with it and fertilise it.

Luk 13:9 ‘Perhaps it will bear fruit. And if not, you can cut it down next year.’”

Luk 13:10 Now Jeshua was teaching in one of the synagogues on the Sabbath.

Luk 13:11 There was a woman there who had a spirit of infirmity for eighteen years, and she was bent down and not able to straighten herself up at all.

Luk 13:12 And Jeshua saw her, called her and said to her, “Woman, you are freed from your infirmity.”

Luk 13:13 And He placed His hand on her, and immediately she straightened herself and glorified God.

Luk 13:14 But the leader of the synagogue responded with anger, because Jeshua had healed on the Sabbath; and he said to the assembly, “There are six days on which it is right to work; you should come and be healed on them, but not on the Sabbath day.”

Luk 13:15 But Jeshua replied and said to him, “Hypocrite! Does each one of you on the Sabbath not loose his ox or his donkey from the stall, and goes and gives it water?

Luk 13:16 “And this woman, because she is a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan has bound; behold, for eighteen years, is it not right to free her from this bondage on the Sabbath day?”

Luk 13:17 And when He said these things, all of those who opposed Him were ashamed; and all the people rejoiced at all the wonders that were done by His hand.

Luk 13:18 And Jeshua would say, “What is the Kingdom of God like? And to what can I compare it?

Luk 13:19 “It is like a grain of mustard seed, which a man took and cast into his garden; and it grew and became like a large tree, and a bird of heaven nested in its branches.”

Luk 13:20 Jeshua said again, “To what can I compare the Kingdom of God?

Luk 13:21 “It is like leaven that a woman

Luk 13:22 And He travelled through the villages and cities while teaching, and he went to Jerusalem.

Luk 13:23 Then a man asked Him if there are few who will live.

Luk 13:24 Jeshua said to them, “Strive to enter through the narrow door, for I say to you that many will seek to enter and will not be able.¹

Luk 13:25 “From the hour that the lord of the house rises up and locks the door, then you will be standing outside knocking at the door, and begin saying, ‘Our Lord, our Lord, open for us!’ And He will answer and say, ‘I do not know you. Where are you from?’

Luk 13:26 “Then they will begin saying, ‘We ate and we drank before You, and You taught in our streets.’

Luk 13:27 “And He will say, ‘I do not know you or where you are from. Depart from Me, workers of falsehoods.’

Luk 13:28 “Then there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when you see Abraham and Isaac and Jacob and all the prophets in the Kingdom of God, and you are cast outside.²

Luk 13:29 “They will come from the east and the west, from the south and the north, and they will sit down in the Kingdom of God.

Luk 13:30 “And behold, there are the last who will be first, and there are the first who will be last.”

Luk 13:31 On that same day some Pharisee men came and said to Him, “Leave, get out of here, for Herod wants to have You killed.”

Luk 13:32 Jeshua said to them, “Go, tell that fox, 'Behold, I will cast out demons and perform cures today and tomorrow, and on the third day I will be completed.'

Luk 13:33 "Nevertheless it is necessary that I work today and tomorrow, and on another day I will go; for it is not possible that a prophet perish outside of Jerusalem.

Luk 13:34 "O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, you have killed the prophets and stoned those who were sent to you! How many times I wanted to gather your children, as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, but you did not want it!¹

Luk 13:35 "Behold! Your house is left to you desolate. I say to you that you will not see Me again until you say, 'Blessed is He who comes in the Name of Jehovah!'"²

Luk 14:1 Now it happened, as He went into the house of one of the rulers of the Pharisees to eat bread on the Sabbath day, that they were watching Him.

Luk 14:2 And behold, a certain man who had dropsy was there before Him.

Luk 14:3 And Jeshua answered and said to the scribes and Pharisees, "Is it in the Instructions to heal on the Sabbath?"

Luk 14:4 But they kept silent. And He took him and healed him, and let him go.

Luk 14:5 And He said to them, "Who among you, if his son or his ox falls into a well on the Sabbath day, does not immediately pull him out?"

Luk 14:6 And they were not able to answer Him regarding this.

Luk 14:7 Then He told a parable to those who were invited, when He saw those who chose the best places:

Luk 14:8 "When you are invited by anyone to a banquet, do not go and seat yourself in the best place, lest there is one invited who is more honourable than you;

Luk 14:9 "and he who invited both of you comes and says to you, 'Give your place to this man.' Then you will be ashamed as you get up and take a lesser place.

Luk 14:10 "Instead, when you are invited, go and sit down at the back, so that when he who invited you comes he may say to you, 'My friend, move up higher and seat yourself.' Then you will have glory in front of those who sit with you.³

Luk 14:11 "For anyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and anyone who humbles himself will be exalted."

Luk 14:12 Then He also said to him who invited Him, "When you give a banquet or a dinner, do not invite your friends, or even your brothers or your relatives, nor your rich neighbours, lest they also invite you back, and you are repaid.

Luk 14:13 "Instead, when you give a feast, invite the poor, the maimed, the lame, the blind.

Luk 14:14 "And you will be blessed, because they have nothing to repay you with; then you will be repaid in the resurrection of the righteous."

Luk 14:15 Now when one of those who sat with Him heard these things, he said to Him, "Blessed is he who will eat bread in the Kingdom of God!"

Luk 14:16 Jeshua said to him, "A certain man made a great dinner and invited many, Luk 14:17 "and sent his servant at dinner time to say to those who were invited, 'Behold, everything is prepared for you. Come!'

Luk 14:18 "But from the first to the last, they began to make excuses. The first said to him, 'I have bought a field, and I need to go and see it. I ask you to let me be excused.'

Luk 14:19 "Another said, 'I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I am going to test them. I ask you to let me be excused.'

Luk 14:20 "And another said, 'I have taken a wife, and because of this I am unable to come.'

Luk 14:21 "And that servant came and told his lord these things. Then the lord of the house was angry, and said to his servant, 'Go out quickly into the markets and streets of the city, and bring in here the poor and the afflicted and the maimed and the blind.'

Luk 14:22 "And the servant said, 'My lord, it is done as you commanded, and still there is room.'

Luk 14:23 "Then the lord said to his servant, 'Go out into the roads and among the hedges, and urge them to come in, that my house may be filled.

Luk 14:24 'For I say to you that not one of those men who were invited will taste my dinner.'"

Luk 14:25 And great crowds were travelling with Him. He turned and said to them, Luk 14:26 "He who comes to Me and does not hate his father and his mother and his brothers and his sisters and his wife and his children, and even his own soul, is not able to be My disciple.

Luk 14:27 "And he who does not take up his stake and come after Me is not able to be My disciple.

Luk 14:28 "For who among you, desiring to build a tower, does not first sit down and think about the cost, whether he has enough to complete it;

Luk 14:29 "lest he lays the foundation and is not able to finish it, and all who see it will be mocking him,

Luk 14:30 "and they will say, 'This man began to build and is not able to finish it.'

Luk 14:31 "Or what king, going to fight a war with a neighbouring king, does not first consider whether he is able with ten thousand to meet those who come against him with twenty thousand?

Luk 14:32 "And if not, while the other is far away from him, he sends a delegation and asks for peace.

Luk 14:33 "Thus, every one of you who does not leave all his possessions is not able to be My disciple.

Luk 14:34 "Salt is good; but if even the salt becomes bland, how will it be seasoned?

Luk 14:35 "It is not fit for the soil nor for making compost, but they throw it out. He who has ears to hear, let him hear!"

Luk 15:1 Then all the tax collectors and the sinners drew near to Him to hear Him.

Luk 15:2 And the scribes and Pharisees murmured, saying, "This man receives sinners and he eats with them."

Luk 15:3 And Jeshua told them this parable:

Luk 15:4 "Men, who among you, having one hundred sheep, if he loses one of them, does not leave the ninety-nine in the open, and goes seeking the one which is lost until he finds it?

Luk 15:5 "And when he has found it, he rejoices and takes it up on his shoulders.

Luk 15:6 "And when he comes home, he calls on his friends and his neighbours, saying to them, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep which was lost!'

Luk 15:7 "I say to you that likewise the joy in heaven will be over the one sinner who repents than over the ninety-nine righteous persons who do not need repentance.

Luk 15:8 "Or what woman, who has ten coins and loses one of them, does not light a lamp, sweep the house, and search for it carefully until she finds it?

Luk 15:9 "And when she has found it, she calls her friends and her neighbours together, saying to them, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found my coin which was lost!'

Luk 15:10 "Likewise, I say to you, there is joy before the envoys of God over one sinner who repents."

Luk 15:11 Then again, Jeshua said to them: "A certain man had two sons.

Luk 15:12 "And his younger son said to him, 'My father, give me the portion of your estate that will come to me.’ So he divided his possessions to them.

Luk 15:13 “And after a few days, his younger son gathered all his share together, and he went to a distant country, and there he wasted his wealth with extravagant living.

Luk 15:14 “And when he had used up everything he had, there was a severe famine in that country, and he began to be in need.

Luk 15:15 “Then he went and got to know a man of a city in that country, and he sent him into the fields to tend swine.

Luk 15:16 “And he craved to fill his stomach with the husks that the swine ate, but no one would give anything to him.

Luk 15:17 “But when he came to himself, he said, ‘Now, how many servants are there at my father’s house, who have plenty of bread, and here I am, perishing with my hunger!

Luk 15:18 ‘I will arise and go to my father, and say to him, “My father, I have sinned against heaven and before you, Luk 15:19 ‘and therefore I am not worthy to be called your son. Make me like one of your servants.”’

Luk 15:20 “And he arose and came to his father. But while he was still far away, his father saw him and had compassion on him, and ran and fell on his neck and kissed him.

Luk 15:21 “And his son said to him, ‘My father, I have sinned against heaven and before you, and I am not worthy to be called your son.’

Luk 15:22 “But his father said to his servants, ‘Bring out the best robe and clothe him, and put a ring on his hand and put sandals on him.

Luk 15:23 ‘And bring the fattened calf and kill it, and let us eat and be merry;

Luk 15:24 ‘for my son was dead and yet he lives; and was lost and yet is found.’ And they began to be merry.

Luk 15:25 “Now his older son was in the field. And as he came and drew near to the house, he heard the sound of many singing.

Luk 15:26 “So he called one of the children and asked him, ‘What is this?’

Luk 15:27 “He said to him, ‘Your brother has come, and your father has killed the fattened calf because he has received him back whole.’

Luk 15:28 “And he was angry and did not want to go in. So his father came out and pleaded with him.

Luk 15:29 “But he said to his father, ‘Behold, how many years I have been working for you, serving you; I have never transgressed your commandments, and in all this time you did not even give me a goat, that I might make merry with my friends.

Luk 15:30 ‘But when your son who has wasted your wealth among prostitutes comes home, you slay the fattened calf for him.’

Luk 15:31 “And his father said to him, ‘My son, you are always with me, and everything that I have is yours.

Luk 15:32 ‘But it was right that we should make merry and be glad, for your brother was dead and yet he lives, and lost and yet he is found.”’¹

Luk 16:1 And He spoke a parable to His disciples: “There was a certain rich man who had a steward, and they accused him of squandering his wealth.

Luk 16:2 “So his lord called him and said to him, ‘What is this I hear about you? Give me an account of your stewardship, for you cannot be my steward any longer.’

Luk 16:3 “Then that steward said within himself, ‘What should I do? For my lord has taken the stewardship from me. I cannot dig and I am ashamed to beg.

Luk 16:4 ‘I know what I will do, so when I am dismissed from the stewardship, they will receive me into their homes.’

Luk 16:5 “So he called all of his lord’s debtors to him, one by one, and said to the first, ‘How much do you owe my lord?’

Luk 16:6 “And he said to him, ‘One hundred measures of oil.’ He said to him, ‘Take your book, and sit down quickly and write fifty measures.’

Luk 16:7 “Then he said to another, ‘And what do you owe to my lord?’ He said to him, ‘One hundred bushels of wheat.’ He said to him, ‘Take your book, and sit down and write eighty bushels.’

Luk 16:8 “So their lord¹ praised the iniquitous steward, for he had dealt shrewdly. For the descendants of this world are more shrewd than the descendants of light in this generation.

Luk 16:9 “And I also say to you, make friends for yourselves by this iniquitous Mammon, that when it is consumed, they may receive you into their everlasting habitations.²

Luk 16:10 “He who is faithful in little is also faithful in much; and he who is iniquitous in little is also iniquitous in much.

Luk 16:11 “Therefore if you are not faithful with the iniquity of Mammon; truly, who will believe in you?

Luk 16:12 “And if you have not been found faithful in that which is not yours, who will give you your own?

Luk 16:13 “There is no servant who can serve two lords; for either he will hate one and he will love the other, or he will honour one and he will despise the other. You cannot serve God and Mammon.”³

² Jeshua is mocking them in this passage, as Mammon, the god of greed, is not able to give them everlasting life, nor do they have everlasting habitations to share. Verses 10 to 13 make His intent clear.

³ Mammon includes greed for money, power, fame, etc.

Luk 16:14 Now the Pharisees, when they heard these things, because they all loved money, were mocking Him.

Luk 16:15 And Jeshua said to them, “You are those who justify yourselves before men, but God knows your hearts. For what is esteemed among men is an abomination before God.

Luk 16:16 “The Instructions and the prophets were unto John. Since then the Kingdom of God is being preached, and everyone is pressing to enter it.

Luk 16:17 “And it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away than for one letter of the Instructions to pass away.⁴

Luk 16:18 “Everyone who divorces his wife and takes another commits adultery; and everyone who takes a divorced person commits adultery.⁵

Luk 16:19 “Now there was a certain rich man who wore a purple robe and fine linen, and he would rejoice in luxury every day.

Luk 16:20 “And there was a certain poor man named Lazar,⁶ and he would lay at the gate of the rich man, afflicted with sores, Luk 16:21 “and he would long to fill his belly with the crumbs that fell from that rich man’s table. But just the dogs came and would lick his sores.

Luk 16:22 “So it happened that the poor man died, and he was carried by the envoys to Abraham’s bosom. And that rich man also died and was buried.

Luk 16:23 “And while he was in torment in Sheol, he lifted up his eyes and saw Abraham far off, and Lazar on his bosom.

Luk 16:24 “Then he cried out in a loud voice and said, ‘My father Abraham, have compassion on me, and send Lazar that he may dip the tip of his finger in water and moisten my tongue; for behold, I am tormented in this flame.'

Luk 16:25 "Abraham said to him, 'My son, remember that you received your good things during your lifetime, and Lazar his bad things. Behold, now he is comforted here and you are tormented.'¹

Luk 16:26 'Beside all these things, there is a great chasm placed between us and you, so that those who want to pass from here to you cannot, nor can those over there pass over to us.'²

Luk 16:27 "He said to him, 'If so, I ask you, my father, that you send him to my father's house,

Luk 16:28 'for I have five brothers. Let him testify to them, that they do not also come to this place of torment.'

Luk 16:29 "Abraham said to him, 'They have Moses and the prophets; let them hear them.'

Luk 16:30 "But he said, 'No, my father Abraham; but if a man from the dead goes to them, they will repent.'

Luk 16:31 "Abraham said to him, 'If they will not listen to Moses and the prophets, why would they believe a man who rises from the dead?'"³

Luk 17:1 Then Jeshua said to His disciples, "It is impossible that offences will not come, but woe to him by whose hands they come!

Luk 17:2 "It would be better for him if a donkey's millstone were hung from his neck, and he were thrown into the sea, than he cause one of these little ones to stumble.

Luk 17:3 "Beware of yourselves. If your brother sins, rebuke him; and if he repents, forgive him.

Luk 17:4 "And if he sins against you seven times in a day, and seven times in a day he returns to you, saying, 'I repent,' forgive him."

Luk 17:5 And the apostles said to our Lord, "Increase our faith."

Luk 17:6 He said to them, "If you had faith like a mustard seed, you would say to this tree, 'Be uprooted and be planted in the sea,' and it would obey you.

Luk 17:7 "And who among you who has a servant ploughing or tending sheep, when he comes in from the field, will say to him 'Come through at once and sit down.'?"

Luk 17:8 "Instead, he says to him, 'Prepare something for me to eat, and gird your loins and serve me until I have eaten and drunk, and afterwards you also may eat and drink'?"

Luk 17:9 "Does that servant receive his thanks because he did the things that were commanded to him? I do not think so.

Luk 17:10 "Likewise, even you, when you have done all those things which are commanded to you, say, 'We are idle servants, for we have done what we ought to do.'"

Luk 17:11 Now it happened as Jeshua went to Jerusalem that He passed through the Samaritans in Galilee.

Luk 17:12 And as He was about to enter a certain village, ten men who were lepers met Him, and they stood at a distance.

Luk 17:13 And they raised up their voices and said, "Our Master Jeshua, have mercy on us!"

Luk 17:14 So when He saw them, He said to them, "Go, show yourselves to the priests." And while they were going, they were cleansed.

² In this parable, Jeshua modifies a story based on the pagan concept of Sheol that the Pharisees had incorporated into their "oral traditions" and turns it against them. He is not teaching that the rich man will be tormented forever, nor that this is actually what happens when we die.

³ This last line is the main point of this parable: Jeshua did indeed raise a man called Lazar from the dead (Joh 11:1-53), but even then the 'religious leaders', symbolized by the rich man, did NOT repent.

Luk 17:15 Now one of them, when he saw that he was cleansed, returned, and with a loud voice gave praise to God, Luk 17:16 and he fell on his face at Jeshua's feet while he thanked Him. He was a Samaritan.

Luk 17:17 So Jeshua answered and said, "Were there not ten who were cleansed? Where are the nine?

Luk 17:18 "Why did they separate themselves and not return to give praise to God? Only this man from a foreign people did."

Luk 17:19 And He said to him, "Arise, go! Your faith has given you life."

Luk 17:20 Now when Jeshua was asked by the Pharisees when the Kingdom of God would come, He answered and said to them, "The Kingdom of God does not come from observation;

Luk 17:21 "nor will they say, 'Behold, here it is!' or 'Behold, there it is!' for the Kingdom of God is in your midst."

Luk 17:22 Then He said to His disciples, "The days will come when you will desire to see one of the days of the Son of Mankind, and you will not see it.

Luk 17:23 "And if they say to you, 'Behold, here it is!' or 'Behold, there it is!', do not go.

Luk 17:24 "For as lightning flashes from heaven and everything under heaven is lit, so will the Son of Mankind be in His day.

Luk 17:25 "But first, it is necessary that He suffer many things and be rejected by this generation.

Luk 17:26 "And as it was in the days of Noah, so it will be in the days of the Son of Mankind:

Luk 17:27 "For they ate and drank and took wives and gave them to husbands, until the day that Noah entered the ark, and the Great Flood came and destroyed them all.¹

Luk 17:28 "And again, as it was in the days of Lot: they were eating and drinking and buying and selling and planting and building;

Luk 17:29 "but on the day that Lot went out of Sodom, Lord Jah² rained fire and brimstone from heaven and destroyed them all.³

Luk 17:30 "So will it be in the day when the Son of Mankind is revealed.

Luk 17:31 "In that day, he who is on the housetop, and his possessions are in the house, let him not come in⁴ to take them. And he who is in the field, let him not turn back.

Luk 17:32 "Remember Lot's wife.

Luk 17:33 "He who wants to save his soul will lose it, and he who loses his soul will make it live.

Luk 17:34 "I tell you, in that night there will be two in one bed: one will be taken and the other will be left.

Luk 17:35 "Two will be grinding together: one will be taken and the other will be left.

Luk 17:36 "Two will be in the field: one will be taken and the other will be left."

Luk 17:37 They answered and said to Him, "Where, our Lord?" He said to them, "Wherever the carcass is, there the eagles will be gathered."⁵

Luk 18:1 Then He spoke a parable to them, that they must always pray and not become weary:

Luk 18:2 "There was in a certain city a certain judge who did not fear God nor regard the descendants of men.

Luk 18:3 "Now there was a certain widow in that city; and she came to him, saying, 'Avenge me of my adversary.'

Luk 18:4 "And he did not want to for a long time; but afterwards he said within himself, 'I do not fear God nor regard the descendants of men, Luk 18:5 'yet because this widow troubles me I will avenge for her, so she will not keep coming all the time and annoying me.'"

Luk 18:6 And our Lord said, "Hear what the iniquitous judge said.

Luk 18:7 "And will God not even more avenge for His chosen who call on Him day and night, and He suffers along with them?

Luk 18:8 "I tell you that He will avenge them speedily. Nevertheless, when the Son of Mankind comes, will He indeed find faith on earth?"

Luk 18:9 And He spoke this parable against those men who rely on themselves and their righteousness, and despise everyone else:

Luk 18:10 "Two men went up to the Palace to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector.

Luk 18:11 "And that Pharisee stood by himself and he prayed like this, 'God, I thank You that I am not like the rest of the people; extortioners, covetous and adulterers, nor like this tax collector.

Luk 18:12 'Instead, I fast twice a week and I tithe everything that I earn.'

Luk 18:13 "But the tax collector was standing well back, and did not want to even raise his eyes to heaven. Instead, he beat his breast and said, 'God, have compassion on me, a sinner!'

Luk 18:14 "I tell you, this man went down to his house justified more than that Pharisee, for everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and everyone who humbles himself will be exalted."

Luk 18:15 Then they also brought infants to Him that He might touch them; but His disciples saw them and rebuked them.

Luk 18:16 But Jeshua called them and said to them, "Let the children come to Me, and do not hinder them; for these are such that the Kingdom of God is theirs.

Luk 18:17 "Truly, I say to you, whoever does not receive the Kingdom of God like a child will not enter it."

Luk 18:18 Now one of the rulers asked Him, saying to Him, "Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit everlasting life?"

Luk 18:19 Jeshua said to him, "Why do you call Me good? No one is good except One; God.

Luk 18:20 "You know the commandments: 'Do not murder,' 'Do not commit adultery,' 'Do not steal,' 'Do not bear false witness,' 'Honour your father and your mother.'"¹

Luk 18:21 And he said to Him, "I have kept all of these from my youth."

Luk 18:22 So when Jeshua heard these things, He said to him, "You still lack one thing. Go, sell everything that you have and give it to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow Me."

Luk 18:23 But when he heard this, he was sad, for he was very rich.

Luk 18:24 And when Jeshua saw that he felt sad, He said, "How hard it is for those who have riches to enter the Kingdom of God!

Luk 18:25 "For it is easier for a thick rope² to go through a needle's eye than for a rich man to enter into the Kingdom of God."

Luk 18:26 And those who heard this said to Him, "Then who is able to live?"

Luk 18:27 But Jeshua said, "The things which the descendants of men cannot do, God is able to do."

Luk 18:28 Then Simon Peter said to Him, "Behold, we have left everything and have followed You."

Luk 18:29 So Jeshua said to him, "Truly,

¹ Exo 20:12-16, Deu 5:16-21

I say to you, there is no one who has left home or parents or brothers or wife or children, because of the Kingdom of God, Luk 18:30 “who will not receive many times more in this present age, and everlasting life in the world to come.”

Luk 18:31 Then He took His twelve and said to them, “Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem, and all things that are written by the prophets concerning the Son of Mankind will be fulfilled.

Luk 18:32 “For He will be delivered to the gentiles and they will mock Him and they will spit in His face.

Luk 18:33 “Then they will scourge Him and curse Him and will kill Him. And the third day He will rise.”

Luk 18:34 But they did not comprehend even one of these things; instead, this saying was hidden from them, and they did not understand the things which were spoken to them.

Luk 18:35 And when they came near Jericho, a certain blind man was sitting on the side of the road and begging.

Luk 18:36 Then he heard the sound of the crowd passing by, and he asked “Who is this?”

Luk 18:37 So they said to him, “Jeshua of Nazareth is passing by.”

Luk 18:38 And he cried out, saying, “Jeshua, Son of David, have mercy on me!”

Luk 18:39 Then those who went before Jeshua, they rebuked him and they said that he should be quiet; but he cried out even more, “Son of David, have mercy on me!”

Luk 18:40 So Jeshua stood still and commanded he be brought to Him. And when he came near to Him, He asked him, Luk 18:41 saying to him, “What do you want Me to do for you?” And he said, “My Lord, that I may see.”

Luk 18:42 Then Jeshua said to him, “See! Your faith has saved you.”

Luk 18:43 And after a moment¹ he saw, and he came after Him, and he was glorifying God. Then all the people who saw it gave glory to God.

Luk 19:1 Then Jeshua entered and passed through into Jericho.

Luk 19:2 There was a certain man named Zacchaeus, who was a wealthy man and one of the chief tax collectors, Luk 19:3 And he sought to see who Jeshua was, but he was not able to due to the crowds, because he was of short stature.

Luk 19:4 So he ran before Jeshua and he climbed up into a barren tree so he might see Him, for He was about to pass that way.

Luk 19:5 And when Jeshua came to that place, He saw him, and said to him, “Zacchaeus, come down quickly, for today it is right that I stay in your house.”

Luk 19:6 So he came down quickly, and received Him joyfully.

Luk 19:7 But when they saw it, they all murmured, and were saying, “He has entered in and lodged with a sinful man.”

Luk 19:8 Then Zacchaeus stood and said to Jeshua, “Behold, my Lord, I give half of my wealth to the poor; and to anyone who I have defrauded of anything, I will restore fourfold.”

Luk 19:9 Jeshua said to him, “Today life has come to this house, because this man is also a son of Abraham;

Luk 19:10 “for the Son of Mankind has come to seek and to give life to that which was lost.”

Luk 19:11 Now as they heard these things, He continued saying another parable, because He was near Jerusalem and they thought it was necessary that the Kingdom of God would be revealed immediately.

Luk 19:12 Therefore He said: “A certain man, son of a great noble, went to a distant country to receive a kingdom for himself and to return.

Luk 19:13 “So he called ten of his servants, and he gave ten minas to them, and said to them, ‘Trade until I return.’

Luk 19:14 “But the citizens of his city hated him, and sent a delegation after him, saying, ‘We do not want this one to reign over us.’

Luk 19:15 “And when he received the kingdom and returned, he said that they should call these servants to whom he had given the money to him, that he could know what every last one of them had gained.

Luk 19:16 “And the first came, and said, ‘My Lord, your mina has gained ten minas.’

Luk 19:17 “He said to him, ‘Well done, good servant; because you have been found faithful with little, you will be given authority over ten talents.’

Luk 19:18 “And the second came, and said, ‘My Lord, your mina has made five minas.’

Luk 19:19 “And he also said to that one, ‘You will also be an authority over five talents.’

Luk 19:20 “And another came, and said, ‘My Lord, Behold your mina, which has been with me since I placed it in a purse.

Luk 19:21 ‘For I feared you, as you are a harsh man, collecting what you did not lay down, and reaping what you did not sow.’

Luk 19:22 “He said to him, ‘From your own mouth I will judge you, wicked servant! You knew that I was a harsh man, collecting what I did not lay down and reaping what I did not sow.

Luk 19:23 ‘Why didn’t you give my money to the exchangers, that when I come and demand it, I could collect it with its interest?’

Luk 19:24 “And to those standing before him, he said, ‘Take the mina from him, and give it to him who has ten minas with him.’

Luk 19:25 They said to him, ‘Our Lord,

he has ten minas with him.’

Luk 19:26 He said to them, ‘I say to you, that to everyone who has, it will be given to him; and whoever does not have, even what he has will be taken from him.

Luk 19:27 ‘Now bring my enemies, those who did not want me to reign over them, and slay them before me.’”

Luk 19:28 And when Jeshua had said these things, He went on ahead, to go to Jerusalem.

Luk 19:29 And when He came to Bethphage and Bethany, on the side of the mountain called the House of Olives,¹ that He sent two of His disciples, Luk 19:30 and He said to them, “Go into the village which is opposite us, and when you enter in, behold, you will find a colt tied, which no one has ever ridden on. Release it and bring it here.

Luk 19:31 “And if anyone asks you, ‘Why are you releasing it?’ say this to him, ‘Our Lord needs it.’”

Luk 19:32 So those who were sent departed and found it as He had said to them.

Luk 19:33 And while they were releasing the colt, its owners said to them, “Why are you releasing that colt?”

Luk 19:34 And they said to them, “Our Lord needs it.”

Luk 19:35 Then they brought it to Jeshua. And they threw their garments on the colt, and they mounted Jeshua on it.

Luk 19:36 And as He came, they spread their garments on the road.

Luk 19:37 Then, as He drew near the descent of the mount of the House of Olives, the whole crowd of disciples began rejoicing and praising God with a loud voice over all the miracles they had seen,

Luk 19:38 and they were saying: “Blessed is the King who comes in the name of Lord Jah!¹ Peace in heaven and glory in the highest!”

Luk 19:39 But some of the Pharisees in the crowds said to Him, “Teacher, rebuke Your disciples.”

Luk 19:40 He said to them, “I tell you that if these should keep silent, the stones would cry out.”

Luk 19:41 And when He drew near, He saw the city and He wept over her, Luk 19:42 and He said, “Perhaps, if you had known those things that were for your peace, if even in this your day, but now they are hidden from your eyes.

Luk 19:43 “For the days will come upon you when your enemies will surround you and will oppress you from all sides,

Luk 19:44 “and will overthrow you, and your children within you, and they will not leave in you one stone upon a stone, because you did not know the time of your visitation.”

Luk 19:45 And when He entered into the Palace, He began casting out those who were buying and selling in it,

Luk 19:46 and He said to them, “It is written, ‘My house is a house of prayer,’ but you have made it a ‘den of thieves.’”²

Luk 19:47 And He taught in the Palace every day. But the chief priests, the scribes, and the elders of the people sought to destroy Him, Luk 19:48 but they were not able to decide what to do to Him; for all the people were clinging to Him to hear Him.

Luk 20:1 Now it happened on one of those days, while He taught the people in the Palace and preached, that the chief priests and the scribes, with the elders, rose against Him

Luk 20:2 and they spoke to Him, saying, “Tell us, by what authority are You doing these things, and who is he who gave You this authority?”

Luk 20:3 Jeshua answered and said to them, “I will also ask you a question, and you tell Me:

Luk 20:4 “The immersion of John; was it from heaven or from the descendants of men?”

Luk 20:5 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, “If we say, ‘From heaven,’ He will say to us, ‘Then why did you not believe him?’

Luk 20:6 “But if we say, ‘From the descendants of men,’ all the people will stone us, for they believe that John is a prophet.”

Luk 20:7 So they said to Him “We do not know where it was from.”

Luk 20:8 Jeshua said to them, “Nor will I tell you by what authority I do these things.”

Luk 20:9 Then He began to tell the people this parable: “A certain man planted a vineyard, leased it to the workers, and went away for a long time.

Luk 20:10 “And in time he sent his servant to the workers, that they might give him some of the fruit of the vineyard. But the workers beat him and sent him away empty-handed.

Luk 20:11 “And then he sent another of his servants; and they also beat him and cursed him, and sent him away empty-handed.

Luk 20:12 “And again he sent a third; and they wounded even him and cast him out.

Luk 20:13 “The lord of the vineyard said, ‘What will I do? I will send my beloved son. Perhaps they will see him and be ashamed.’

Luk 20:14 “But when the workers saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, ‘This is the heir. Come, let us kill him, that the inheritance will be ours.’

Luk 20:15 “So they cast him out of the vineyard and they killed him. Therefore what will the lord of the vineyard do to them?

Luk 20:16 “He will come and destroy those workers and he will give the vineyard to others.” And when they heard it they said, “This will not happen!”

Luk 20:17 And He looked at them and said, “And what is this that is written: ‘The stone which the builders rejected has become the chief cornerstone’?”¹

Luk 20:18 “Whoever falls on that stone will be broken; and whoever it falls upon, it will destroy.”²

Luk 20:19 And the chief priests and the scribes wanted to lay hands on Him in that hour, but they were afraid of the people; for they knew that He had spoken this parable against them.

Luk 20:20 So they sent spies to Him who appeared to be righteous, to catch Him in His speech, and deliver Him to the judge and the authority of the governor.

Luk 20:21 And they asked Him, saying to Him, “Teacher, we know that you speak and teach rightly, and you are not a hypocrite, but instead teach the way of God truly.

Luk 20:22 “Is it the Instructions for us to pay taxes to Caesar or not?”

Luk 20:23 But He perceived their craftiness, and said, “Why do you test Me?

Luk 20:24 “Show Me a denarius. Whose image and inscription are on it?” And they said, “Caesar’s.”

Luk 20:25 Jeshua said to them, “Therefore give that which is Caesar’s to Caesar, and that which is God’s to God.”

Luk 20:26 And they could not catch Him in one word before the people. And they marvelled at His answer and they kept silent.

Luk 20:27 Then some of the Sadducees drew near, who say there is no resurrection, and they asked Him,

Luk 20:28 saying to Him: “Teacher, Moses wrote to us that if a man’s brother dies, having a wife, but without children, his brother should take his wife and raise up offspring for his brother.

Luk 20:29 “Now there were seven brothers. And the first took a wife, and died without children.

Luk 20:30 “And the second took her for his wife, and this one died without children.

Luk 20:31 “Then the third took her, and likewise the seven of them also; and they died and left no children.

Luk 20:32 “And in the end the woman also died.

Luk 20:33 “Therefore, in the resurrection, whose wife will she be, for the seven of them married her.”

Luk 20:34 Jeshua said to them, “The sons of this world marry women and women are given in marriage.

Luk 20:35 “But those who are worthy of that world and of the resurrection from the house of the dead do not marry women nor are women given in marriage;

Luk 20:36 “nor can they die again, for they are like the envoys and are descendants of God, because they are descendants of the resurrection.

Luk 20:37 “But even Moses showed that the dead are raised, for he referred to it at the burning bush, when he said ‘Lord Jah³ is the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.’

Luk 20:38 “For He is not the God of the dead but of the living, for all of them are alive to Him.”

Luk 20:39 Then some of the scribes answered and said to Him, “Teacher, You have spoken well.”

Luk 20:40 And they dared not question Him about anything again.

Luk 20:41 Then He said to them, “How can the scribes say of the Messiah, that He is David’s Son,

Luk 20:42 “when he, David, said in the Book of Psalms, ‘Jehovah said to my Lord, “sit to My right,

Luk 20:44 “Therefore, if David calls Him ‘my Lord’; how is He his Son?”

Luk 20:45 Then, while all the people were listening, He said to His disciples, Luk 20:46 “Beware of the scribes, who desire to walk in long robes and love greetings in the marketplaces, and the best seats in the synagogues, and the best places at feasts.

Luk 20:47 “Those who consume widows’ houses with their fees² for their long prayers will receive greater condemnation.”

Luk 21:1 Then Jeshua watched the rich who were casting their offerings into the treasury,

Luk 21:2 and He also saw a certain poor widow who cast in two mites.³

Luk 21:3 So He said, “Truly, I say to you that this poor widow has cast in more than everyone;

Luk 21:4 “for they have all cast in offerings for the House of God out of their excess, but this one, out of her poverty, she has cast in all that she owned.”

Luk 21:5 And while some spoke of the Palace, that it was adorned with beautiful stones and offerings, Jeshua said to them,

Luk 21:6 “These things which you see, the days will come in which not one stone will be spared from being pulled down from another stone.”

Luk 21:7 And they asked Him, saying, “Teacher, when will these things be? And what will be the sign when these things are about to happen?”

them far away from the crowds.

Luk 22:7 Then the Days of Unleavened Bread arrived, during which there was the tradition that the Passover must be sacrificed.¹

Luk 22:8 And Jeshua sent Peter and John, saying to them, "Go and prepare for the Passover for us, that we may eat."

Luk 22:9 So they said to Him, "Where do You want us to prepare?"

Luk 22:10 He said to them, "Behold, when you enter into the city, you will meet a man carrying a skin of water; follow him to where he enters.

Luk 22:11 "Then say to the lord of the house, 'Our Master says, "Where is the guest house where I may eat the Passover with My disciples?"'"

Luk 22:12 "Behold, he will show you a certain upper room that is large and furnished; prepare there."

Luk 22:13 So they went and found it as He had said to them, and they prepared for the Passover.

Luk 22:14 And when the time arrived, Jeshua came and sat down, and the twelve apostles with Him.

Luk 22:15 And He said to them, "I have greatly desired that I eat Passover with you before I suffer;

Luk 22:16 "but I say to you now, I will not eat of it from now until it is fulfilled in the Kingdom of God."

Luk 22:17 Then He took a cup and He gave thanks and He said "Take this and divide it among yourselves,

Luk 22:18 "for I say to you that I will not drink the product of the vine until the coming of the Kingdom of God."²

Luk 22:19 And He took bread, and He gave thanks and He broke it and He gave it to them. And He said "This is My body which will be given for your sakes; you will do this for My memorial."

Luk 22:20 Then He also took the cup after they had dined. He said "This cup is the New Covenant in My blood, which will be shed for your sakes."³

Luk 22:21 "However, behold! The hand of him who will betray Me is on the table."⁴

Luk 22:22 "And the Son of Mankind goes as it has been appointed, but woe to that man by whose hand He will be betrayed!"

Luk 22:23 Then they began to inquire among themselves, who indeed was he that would commit this sin?

Luk 22:24 But there was also a dispute among them, about who was the greatest of them.

Luk 22:25 And Jeshua said to them, "The kings of the nations are their lords, and those ruling over them are called doers of good.

Luk 22:26 "But you will not be so; whoever is great among you will be as the least, and he who is chief will be as a waiter.

Luk 22:27 "For who is greater, he who is sitting, or he who serves dinner? Is it not he who is sitting? Yet I am among you as He who serves dinner.

Luk 22:28 "But you are those who have continued with Me in My trials.

Luk 22:29 "And I promise you a kingdom, just as My Father promised Me,

Luk 22:30 "And you will eat and you will drink at My table in the Kingdom, and you will sit on thrones and judge the twelve branches of Israel."

Luk 22:31 And Jeshua said to Simon, "Simon! Behold, Satan wants to sift all of you like wheat.

Luk 22:32 "But I have prayed over you, that your faith may not weaken; and also in time you will turn and strengthen your brethren."⁵

Luk 22:33 And Simon said to Him, "My Lord, I am prepared to go with You, even to prison and to death."

Luk 22:34 Jeshua said to him, "I say to you, Simon, that the rooster will not crow this day until you deny that you know Me three times."

Luk 22:35 And He said to them, "When I sent you without purses, bags, and sandals, did you lack anything?" They said to Him, "No, nothing."

Luk 22:36 He said to them, "From now on, he who has a purse, let him take it, and likewise also a bag; and he who has no sword, let him sell his garments and buy a sword for himself."

Luk 22:37 "For I say to you that this which is written must still be fulfilled in Me: 'And He was counted with the iniquitous.'¹ For all things concerning Me will be fulfilled."

Luk 22:38 Then they said to Him, "Our Lord, behold, here are two swords."² He said to them, "They are sufficient."

Luk 22:39 And as He was accustomed, He departed and went to the mountain of the House of Olives, and His disciples also followed after Him.

Luk 22:40 When He reached the place, He said to them, "Pray that you may not enter into temptation."

Luk 22:41 And He withdrew from them about a stone's throw, and He knelt and prayed,

Luk 22:42 and He said, "Father, if You want to, let this cup pass from Me; and in this, not My will, but let Yours be done."

Luk 22:43 Then an envoy appeared to Him from heaven to strengthen Him.

Luk 22:44 And while filled with fear, He prayed more earnestly. And His sweat became like drops of blood and He fell to the ground.

Luk 22:45 Then He rose up from His prayer, came to His disciples and found them sleeping from sorrow.

Luk 22:46 And He said to them, "Why are you sleeping? Rise and pray, lest you enter into temptation."

Luk 22:47 And as He spoke, behold, a crowd with the one who was called Judas, one of the twelve, came before them and he drew near to Jeshua and kissed Him, for this was the sign that he had given them: 'Whoever I kiss, this is He.'³

Luk 22:48 Jeshua said to him, "Judas, you betray the Son of Mankind with a kiss?"

Luk 22:49 When those who were with Him saw what was happening, they said to Him, "Our Lord, will we strike them with the swords?"

Luk 22:50 And one of them struck a servant of the chief of the priests and cut off his right ear.

Luk 22:51 But Jeshua answered and said, "That is enough." And He touched the ear of the wounded man and healed it.

Luk 22:52 And Jeshua said to the chief priests, the chief scribes and the palace guards who had come against Him, "You have come out against me as against a robber, with swords and clubs to seize me.

Luk 22:53 "I was with you every day in the Palace and you did not lay hands on Me. But this is your hour, and the power of darkness."

Luk 22:54 Then they seized Him, and brought Him into the chief of the priests's house. And Simon followed Him from a distance.

Luk 22:55 And they kindled a fire in the midst of the courtyard and they sat around it, and Simon also sat.

Luk 22:56 And a certain young woman saw him while he sat by the fire, and she stared at him and said, "This man was also with him."

Luk 22:57 But he denied it and said, "Woman, I do not know Him."

Luk 22:58 And after a little while another saw him and said to him, "You are also with them." But Peter said, "I am not!"

Luk 22:59 Then after an hour had passed, another confirmed it and said, "Truly, this man also was with him, for he is even a Galilean."

Luk 22:60 Peter said, "Man, I do not know what you say!" And immediately, while he spoke, the rooster crowed.

Luk 22:61 And Jeshua turned and stared at Peter. And Simon remembered the word of our Lord, that He had said to him, "Before the rooster crows, you will deny Me three times."

Luk 22:62 Then Simon went outside and wept bitterly.

Luk 22:63 Now the men who held Jeshua mocked Him and they covered Him.

Luk 22:64 Then they struck Him on His face and they said to Him, "Prophecy! Who struck you?"

Luk 22:65 And many other things and blasphemies they spoke against Him.

Luk 22:66 And when day had dawned, the elders, the chief priests and the scribes came together and they brought Him to their assembly place.

Luk 22:67 Then they said to Him, "If you are the Messiah, tell us." He said to them, "If I tell you, you will not believe Me.

Luk 22:68 "And if I ask you, you will not respond with an answer to Me nor will you release Me.

Luk 22:69 "After this hour the Son of Mankind will sit on the right hand of the power of God."

Luk 22:70 Then they all said, "Are you therefore the Son of God?" And He said to them, "You say that I AM! I AM!"

Luk 22:71 And they said, "Why do we need witnesses again, for we have heard it from his mouth."

Luk 23:1 Then the whole crowd arose and brought Him to Pilate.

Luk 23:2 And they became consumed with slandering Him, and they said, "We found this one seducing our people, and he forbids paying the head taxes, to not give them to Caesar, and he says about himself that he is the Messiah, the King."

Luk 23:3 So Pilate asked Him, and said to Him, "You are the King of the Judeans?" He said to him, "You have said it."

Luk 23:4 Then Pilate said to the chief priests and to the crowd, "I do not find any fault in this man."

Luk 23:5 But they were shouting and they said, "He stirs up our people, he taught through all Judea, beginning from Galilee and then to here."

Luk 23:6 And when Pilate heard the name of Galilee, he asked if the man was a Galilean.

Luk 23:7 And when he knew that He was under the authority of Herod, he sent Him to be before Herod, because he was in Jerusalem during those days.

Luk 23:8 Now when Herod saw Jeshua, he was very glad; for he had wanted to see Him for a long time, because of what he had heard about Him, and he hoped that he would see some sign from Him.

Luk 23:9 Then he questioned Him about many matters, but He, Jeshua, gave him no answers.

Luk 23:10 And the chief priests and the scribes stood and they were consumed with vehemently accusing Him.

Luk 23:11 Then Herod mocked Him, he and his servants, and when he had insulted Him, he clothed Him in a purple robe, and he sent Him to Pilate.

Luk 23:12 And on that day Pilate and Herod became friends with each other, for there had been enmity between them before that.

Luk 23:13 Then Pilate called the chief priests, the rulers, and the people, Luk 23:14 and he said to them, "You have brought this man to me as one who subverts your people, but behold, I have examined him in your sight. I have not found any fault in this man concerning everything of which you are accusing him; Luk 23:15 "and neither did Herod, for I sent him to him; and behold, nothing worthy of death has been committed by him.

Luk 23:16 "Therefore I will chastise him and I will release him."

Luk 23:17 For it was the custom for him to release one to them at the Feast.

Luk 23:18 But the whole mob shouted, and they said, "Take this one away, and release Barabbas to us."

Luk 23:19 Because of sedition which had occurred in the city and murder, he had been thrown into the prisoner house.

Luk 23:20 Then Pilate spoke with them again, as he wanted to release Jeshua.

Luk 23:21 But they were shouting, and they said, "Impale him!¹ Impale him!"

Luk 23:22 And he said to them the third time, "Why, what evil has this One done? I have not found any fault that deserves death in Him. Therefore I will chastise Him and I will release Him."

Luk 23:23 But they were urging him with loud voices and they were demanding that they should impale him. And their voices and those of the chief priests prevailed.

Luk 23:24 So Pilate commanded that it should be done as they demanded.²

Luk 23:25 And he released to them the one³ that they demanded, who for sedition and murder had been thrown into the prisoner house; but he delivered Jeshua to their will.

Luk 23:26 Now as they took Him away, they seized Simon, a Cyrenian, who came in from a village, and they laid the stake on him, that he might carry it behind Jeshua.

Luk 23:27 And a crowd of the people followed Him, and women who mourned and lamented over Him.

Luk 23:28 But Jeshua turned to them, and He said, "Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for Me, but weep for yourselves and for your children.

Luk 23:29 "Behold, the days are coming in which they will say, 'Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that not given birth, and the breasts which have not been suckled!'

Luk 23:30 "Then they will begin saying to the mountains, 'Fall on us!' and to the hills, 'Cover us!'⁴

Luk 23:31 "For if they do these things with green wood, what will happen with the dry?"

Luk 23:32 Two others were being taken with Him, evil-doers to be killed.

Luk 23:33 And when they came to a certain place called the Skull,⁵ there they impaled Him and the evil-doers, one on His right and one on His left.⁶

Luk 23:34 Then Jeshua said, "Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they are doing."⁷ And they divided His garments and they cast lots for them.⁸

Him and they were saying, "He gave life to others; let him save himself if he is the Messiah, the Chosen One of God."¹

Luk 23:36 And the soldiers also scoffed at Him as they came near and offered sour wine to Him,

Luk 23:37 and they said to Him, "If you are the King of the Judeans, save yourself."

Luk 23:38 And there was also an inscription written over Him in Greek, in Latin, and in Hebrew: 'This is the King of the Judeans.'

Luk 23:39 Then one of the evil-doers who was impaled with Him blasphemed Him and he said, "If you are the Messiah, save yourself and also save us."

Luk 23:40 But his companion rebuked him, and he said to him, "Are you not also afraid of God, for you are also condemned with Him?"

Luk 23:41 "And we justly, because we are deserving to be repaid according to what we have done; but this One, nothing bad was done by Him."

Luk 23:42 Then he said to Jeshua, "My Lord, remember me when You come into Your kingdom."

Luk 23:43 Jeshua said to him, "Truly, I say to you, that day you will be with Me in Paradise."²

Luk 23:44 And it was about the sixth hour, and there was darkness on all the earth until the ninth hour.

Luk 23:45 And the sun was darkened, and the veil of the Palace was torn apart from its middle.

Luk 23:46 Then Jeshua called out in a loud voice, and He said, "My Father, I place My spirit into Your hands."³ He said this, and He expired.

Luk 23:47 Now when the centurion saw what had happened, he glorified God, and he said, "Truly, this Man was the Righteous One!"

Luk 23:48 And the whole crowd which had gathered for this spectacle, when they saw what had happened, returned while they beat on their breasts.

Luk 23:49 But all of Jeshua's acquaintances, and the women who followed Him from Galilee, they all stood well back, and they watched these things.

Luk 23:50 And a certain man named Joseph, a member of the Sanhedrin from the Judean city of Arimathea, was a good and just man.

Luk 23:51 This one had not consented to their decision nor to their act. And he was waiting for the Kingdom of God.

Luk 23:52 This man came to Pilate and he asked for the body of Jeshua.

Luk 23:53 Then he took it down and wrapped it in a winding sheet of linen, and laid it in an excavated burial house in which no one had yet been placed.⁴

Luk 23:54 That was the day of Preparation, and the Sabbath was beginning.

Luk 23:55 And the women who had come with Him from Galilee approached, and they saw the tomb and the way in which His body was laid.

Luk 23:56 Then they returned and prepared spices and fragrant oils. And they rested on the Sabbath according to the commandment.

Luk 24:1 Now on the first day of the week,⁵ early in the morning while it was still dark, they came to the burial house. They brought the spices which they had prepared and there were other women with them.

Luk 24:2 And they found the stone rolled away from the burial house.

Luk 24:3 Then they went in and they did not find the body of the Lord Jeshua.

Luk 24:4 And it happened, as they wondered about this, behold, two men stood by them, and their clothing shone.

Luk 24:5 Then they were afraid and bowed their faces to the earth. And they said to them, "Why are you seeking the Life among the dead?"

Luk 24:6 "He is not here, He has risen! Remember when He spoke with you when He was in Galilee,

Luk 24:7 "And He said, 'The Son of Mankind will be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and He will be impaled, and He will rise again in three days.'"

Luk 24:8 And these women remembered His words.

Luk 24:9 Then they returned from the tomb and they told all these things to the eleven and to the rest.

Luk 24:10 Now it was Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of Jacob, and the rest who were with them, who told these things to the apostles.

Luk 24:11 And these words seemed in their eyes to be insane, and they did not believe them.

Luk 24:12 But Simon arose and ran to the tomb; and behold: he saw the linen placed by itself; and he departed, wondering in his soul about what had happened.

Luk 24:13 Now behold, two of them were travelling on that day to a village named Emmaus, which was about sixty furlongs¹ from Jerusalem.

Luk 24:14 And they talked with each other about all these things which had happened.

Luk 24:15 And while they talked and speculated with each other, Jeshua Himself came and He met up and walked with them.

Luk 24:16 But their eyes were closed, so they could not recognize Him.

Luk 24:17 And He said to them, "What are these matters of which you are speaking that are making you sad as you walk?"

Luk 24:18 Then one of them, whose name was Cleopas answered and he said to Him, "Are You indeed a foreigner in Jerusalem, that You do not know the things which happened there in these days?"

Luk 24:19 He said to them, "What things?" And they said to Him, "Things concerning the man Jeshua from Nazareth, who was the Prophet and He was mighty in word and in deed before God and before all of the people, Luk 24:20 "and the chief priests and the elders delivered Him to be condemned to death, and they impaled Him.

Luk 24:21 "But we were hoping that He was going to redeem Israel. And behold, three days have passed since all these things happened.²

Luk 24:22 "Yes, and some of our women astonished us when they went to the burial house early,

Luk 24:23 "and when they did not find His body, they came to us saying, 'We saw envoys there and they said about Him, 'He is alive!''"

Luk 24:24 "And some of us also went to the burial house and found it just as the women had said; but they did not see Him."

Luk 24:25 Then Jeshua said to them,

¹ About 10.5 kilometers or 7.5 miles.

² As translated from the Aramaic by Paul Younan. The Greek translations make it appear that this is the third day, while the Peshitta shows that this conversation is after the third day.

“Oh, weak minds and dull hearts; so slow to believe in all those things that the prophets have spoken!

Luk 24:26 “Was it not necessary for the Messiah to endure these things and to enter into His glory?”

Luk 24:27 And He began from Moses¹ and from all the Prophets to expound to them about Himself from all the Writings.²

Luk 24:28 Then they drew near to the village to which they were going, and He indicated to them that He was going to a distant place.

Luk 24:29 But they urged Him, saying to Him, “Remain with us, for now the day is ending and it is becoming dark.” And He went in to stay with them.

Luk 24:30 Now it happened, as He reclined with them, that He took bread, and blessed and broke it, and gave it to them.

Luk 24:31 And immediately their eyes were opened and they recognized Him; and He was taken from them.

Luk 24:32 And they said to one another, “Our hearts were not dull³ within us while He talked with us on the road, and expounded the Writings to us!”

Luk 24:33 So they arose in that hour and returned to Jerusalem, and found the eleven and those who were gathered together with them,

Luk 24:34 saying, “Truly, our Lord is risen, and has appeared to Simon!”

Luk 24:35 And they also related the things that had happened on the road, and how He was made known to them while breaking bread.

Luk 24:36 Now while they were speaking these things, Jeshua stood among them and said to them, “Peace be with you. I AM! I AM! Do not be afraid.”

Luk 24:37 But they were confused and frightened, for they thought they were seeing a spirit.

Luk 24:38 And Jeshua said to them, “Why are you troubled? And why do these thoughts arise in your hearts?

Luk 24:39 “Behold My hands and My feet, for I AM! I AM! Touch Me and understand, for a spirit does not have flesh and bones as you see I have.”

Luk 24:40 And as He said this, He showed them His hands and His feet.⁴

Luk 24:41 But even then they did not believe because of their joy, and they were astonished. He said to them, “Have you anything to eat here?”

Luk 24:42 So they gave a piece of broiled fish and some honeycomb to Him.

Luk 24:43 And He took it and ate it before their eyes.

Luk 24:44 Then He said to them, “These are the words which I spoke to you while I was with you, that it was necessary to fulfil all things written in the Instructions of Moses and in the Prophets and in the Psalms concerning Me.”⁵

Luk 24:45 And He opened their minds to understand the Writings.

Luk 24:46 Then He said to them, “Thus it is written, and thus it was right that the Messiah would suffer and rise from the house of the dead in three days,⁶ fulfilled His three days in the tomb.

¹ As Jeshua had commanded the Apostles to meet with him in Galilee, and Mat 28:16-17 shows that they did so, this command to remain in Jerusalem was given after that. As this last instruction is almost immediately followed by Jeshua’s ascension to Heaven, it must have been given at the end of the forty days after His resurrection (Act 1:3), and thus only about ten days before Pentecost.

John

Joh 1:1 In the beginning the Word existed, and that Word existed with God, and that Word was Himself God.

Joh 1:2 This One existed in the beginning with God.

Joh 1:3 Everything was in His hand, and not even one of the things that exist would exist without Him.¹

Joh 1:4 The Life was in Him, and the Light is the lives of the children of men.

Joh 1:5 And that Light was shining in the darkness, and the darkness could not overwhelm it.²

Joh 1:6 There was a son of man who was sent from God; his name was John.

Joh 1:7 This man came for a witness, that he should testify about the Light, that everyone should believe through Him.

Joh 1:8 He was not the Light, but he testified about the Light.

Joh 1:9 For He was the Light of Truth which enlightens everyone who comes into the world.

Joh 1:10 He was in the world, and the world was in His hand, and the world did not know Him.

Joh 1:11 He came to His own, and His own did not receive Him.

Joh 1:12 But those who received Him, He gave to them authority that they will be the children of God, to those who believe in His Name:

Joh 1:13 those who, neither from blood, nor from the will of the flesh, nor from the will of man, but instead were begotten by God.

Joh 1:14 And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we beheld His glory, as the glory of the Only Begotten of the Father, who is full of grace and truth.

Joh 1:15 John bore witness of Him and cried out, saying, "This is He of whom I said, 'He will come after me, and yet is before me, for He was earlier than me.'"³

Joh 1:16 And from His fullness we have all received grace, and that on account of grace.

Joh 1:17 For the Instructions⁴ were given through Moses; but truth and grace came through Jeshua the Messiah.⁵

Joh 1:18 No one has ever seen God.⁶ The Only Begotten God is He who is in the bosom of His Father. He has declared Him.

Joh 1:19 Now this is the witness of John, when the Judeans from Jerusalem sent priests and Levites to ask him, "Who are you?"

Joh 1:20 He declared, and did not deny, but declared, "I am not the Messiah."

Joh 1:21 And they asked him again, "Then who are you? Elijah?" He said, "I am not." "Are you the Prophet?" And he said, "No."

Joh 1:22 Then they said to him, "Then who are you, that we may give an answer to those who sent us? What do you say about yourself?"

Joh 1:23 He said: "I am 'The voice of ³ In this, John was indicating that though Jeshua was physically younger than him and began His earthly ministry after his, in truth Jeshua was older than our universe, as indicated in Joh 1:1-4 and Pro 8:4-36.

⁵ As explained in the Mat 1:1 footnote, Jeshua יֵשׁוּעַ is the actual Aramaic name of Jesus, which means "Jehovah Saves". In a similar manner, Messiah (מָשִׁיחַ msheecha) is the Aramaic title of Jeshua. It means Anointed, and both these titles are used.

⁶ This verse, 1Ti 6:16 & Exo 33:20 appear to contradict with Exo 24:11, where the elders of Israel saw God and Gen 12:7, where God appeared to Abraham. They saw God revealing Himself in a very limited form which would not harm them (Heb 1:1). No human has seen God in His full Glory.

one crying in the wilderness: "Make straight the way of Jehovah,"¹ as the prophet Isaiah said."

Joh 1:24 Now those who were sent were from the Pharisees.

Joh 1:25 And they asked him, saying to him, "Then why do you immerse if you are not the Messiah, nor Elijah, nor the Prophet?"

Joh 1:26 John answered and said to them, "I immerse in water, but He stands among you and you do not know Him.

Joh 1:27 "This is He who will come after me, yet is before me, and I am not worthy to loosen the straps of His sandals."

Joh 1:28 These things happened in Bethanya, at the Jordan crossing where John was immersing.

Joh 1:29 The following day John saw Jeshua coming towards him, and said, "Behold! He is the Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world!²

Joh 1:30 "This is He about whom I said, 'After me will come a Man, yet He was before me, because He is earlier than me.'

Joh 1:31 "And I did not know Him; but because He must be revealed to Israel, therefore I came here immersing in water."

Joh 1:32 And John testified and said, "I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it rested upon Him.

Joh 1:33 "And I did not know Him, but He who sent me to immerse in water, He said to me, 'The One upon whom you see the Spirit descending, and resting upon Him, He will immerse with the Holy Spirit.'

Joh 1:34 "And I have seen and I testify that this One is the Son of God."

Joh 1:35 Again, on another day, John and two of his disciples were standing,

Joh 1:36 and he gazed at Jeshua as He walked, and he said, "Behold the Lamb of God!"

Joh 1:37 And both of his disciples heard him speak, and they followed Jeshua.

Joh 1:38 Then Jeshua turned, and saw them following Him, and He said to them, "What do you seek?" They said to Him, "Our Master, where are You staying?"

Joh 1:39 He said to them, "Come and you will see." So they came and saw where He was staying, and remained with Him that day until about the tenth hour.

Joh 1:40 One of them who had heard John and followed Jeshua was Andrew, Simon's brother.

Joh 1:41 This one found his brother Simon first, and said to him, "I have found the Messiah."

Joh 1:42 And he brought him to Jeshua. Then Jeshua looked at him and said, "You are Simon, the son of Jonah. You will be called Peter.³

Joh 1:43 The following day Jeshua wanted to go to Galilee, and He found Philip and said to him, "Come, follow Me."

Joh 1:44 Now Philip was from Bethsaida,⁴ the city of Andrew and Simon.

Joh 1:45 Philip found Nathaniel and he said to him, "We have found Him of whom Moses in the Instructions and the prophets wrote; He is Jeshua, the son of Joseph of Nazareth."

Joh 1:46 And Nathaniel said to him, "Is it possible for anything good to come from Nazareth?" And Philip said to him, "Come and you will see."

Joh 1:47 Jeshua saw Nathaniel while he was coming toward Him, and said of him, "Behold! Truly this is a son of Israel in whom there is no guile!"

Joh 1:48 Nathaniel said to Him, "Where do You know me from?" Jeshua said to him, "Before Philip called you, when you were under the fig tree, I saw you.”

Joh 1:49 Nathaniel replied and said to Him, “Master, You are the Son of God! You are the King of Israel!”

Joh 1:50 Jeshua said to him, “Because I said to you that I saw you under the fig tree, you have believed? You will see even greater things than these.”

Joh 1:51 And He said to him, “Truly, truly I say to you; later on you will see the heavens opened, and the envoys of God ascending and descending to the Son of Mankind.”

Joh 2:1 On the third day there was a wedding feast in Cana, a city of Galilee, and Jeshua’s mother was there.

Joh 2:2 And Jeshua and His disciples were invited to the wedding feast.

Joh 2:3 And when the wine was running out, Jeshua’s mother said to Him, “They have no wine.”

Joh 2:4 Jeshua said to her, “Woman, what is this to you and Me? My hour has not yet come.”

Joh 2:5 His mother said to the servants, “Whatever He says to you, do it.”

Joh 2:6 Now there were six stone waterpots set there for the purification of the Judeans, each holding two or three measures.¹

Joh 2:7 Jeshua said to them, “Fill them with water.” And they filled the waterpots up to the brim.

Joh 2:8 And He said to them, “Draw some out now, and take it to the master of the feast.” And they took it.

Joh 2:9 When the master of the feast had tasted the water that had become wine, and did not know where it came from (but the servants who had filled them with water knew), the master of the feast called to the bridegroom.

Joh 2:10 And he said to him, “Everyone brings out the good wine first, and when they have been drunk, then that which is inferior; but you have kept the good wine until now.”

Joh 2:11 This was the first sign that Jeshua did in Cana of Galilee, and He made His glory known; and His disciples believed in Him.

Joh 2:12 After this He went down to Capernaum; He, His mother, His brothers, and His disciples, and they stayed there a few days.

Joh 2:13 And the Judean Passover² was approaching, and Jeshua went up to Jerusalem.

Joh 2:14 And He found in the Palace those who were selling oxen and sheep and doves, and the money-changers were sitting there.

Joh 2:15 Then He made a whip of cords for Himself, and He drove all of them out of the Palace, even the sheep and the oxen, and He poured out the money-changers’ money and He turned over their tables.

Joh 2:16 And He said to those who were selling doves, “Take these away from here! Do not make My Father’s House a house of business!”

Joh 2:17 Then His disciples remembered that it is written, “Zeal for Your House has eaten Me up.”³

Joh 2:18 But the Judeans answered and said to Him, “What sign do you show to us, since you do these things?”

Joh 2:19 Jeshua answered and said to them, “Tear down this Palace, and in three days I will raise it up.”

Joh 2:20 The Judeans said to him, “It has taken forty-six years to build this Palace, and will you raise it up in three days?”

Joh 2:21 But He was speaking of the Palace of His body.⁴

Joh 2:22 And when He had risen from the house of the dead, His disciples remembered that He had said this; and they believed the Writings¹ and the word which Jeshua had said.

Joh 2:23 And while Jeshua was in Jerusalem during the Feast of Passover,² many believed in Him when they saw the signs which He did.

Joh 2:24 But Jeshua did not commit Himself to them, because He understood everyone, Joh 2:25 and He did not rely on any men to testify about Him, for He knew what was in people.

Joh 3:1 There was a particular man of the Pharisees named Nicodemus, a Judean leader.

Joh 3:2 This man came to Jeshua at night and said to Him, "Master, we know that You are a teacher come from God; for no man is able to do these miracles that You do unless God is with him."

Joh 3:3 Jeshua answered and said to him, "Truly, truly I say to you that if a man is not born once again, he is not able to see the Kingdom of God."

Joh 3:4 Nicodemus said to Him, "How is an old man able to be born? How is it possible to enter into his mother's womb and be born a second time?"

Joh 3:5 Jeshua answered and said to him, "Truly, truly I say to you that if one is not born of water and the Spirit, he is not able to enter the Kingdom of God.

Joh 3:6 "That which is born of the flesh is flesh, and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit.

Joh 3:7 "Do not marvel that I said to you that it is necessary for you to be born once again.'

Joh 3:8 "The wind blows where it wishes, and you hear its voice, but you do not know where it comes from nor where it goes. So is everyone who is born of the Spirit."

Joh 3:9 Nicodemus replied and said to Him, "How is it possible for these things to be?"

Joh 3:10 Jeshua answered and said to him, "You are a teacher of Israel, and you do not know these things?

Joh 3:11 "Truly, truly I say to you; We speak what We know and that which We have seen We testify to you, and you do not receive Our testimony.³

Joh 3:12 "If I have told you earthly things and you do not believe, how will you believe if I tell you heavenly things?

Joh 3:13 "No one has ascended to Heaven except He who came down from heaven, He who is the Son of Mankind in Heaven.

Joh 3:14 "And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so the Son of Mankind is to be lifted up,

Joh 3:15 "that everyone who believes in Him will not be destroyed but have everlasting life.⁴

Joh 3:16 "For God so loved the world that He gave His Only Begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him will not be destroyed, but have everlasting life.⁵

Joh 3:17 "For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world could be given life by His hand.

Joh 3:18 "He who believes in Him is not judged; but he who does not believe is judged already, because he has not believed in the name of the Only Begotten Son of God.

Joh 3:19 "And this is the judgement, that the light has come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil.

Joh 3:21 "But he who does the truth comes to the light, that his deeds may be known, that they have been done in God."

Joh 3:22 After these things Jeshua and His disciples came into the land of Judea, and there He remained with them and immersed.

Joh 3:23 Now John also was immersing in Aenon, which is near the edge of Salim, because there was plentiful water and they were coming and being immersed.

Joh 3:24 For John had not yet fallen into prison.

Joh 3:25 Then a question arose between one of John's disciples and a particular Judean about purification.

Joh 3:26 And they came to John and said to him, "Our master, He who was with you at the Jordan crossing, to whom you have testified; behold, He is also immersing, and many are coming to Him!"

Joh 3:27 John answered and said to them, "A man cannot receive anything of his own will unless it has been given to him from heaven.

Joh 3:28 "You are my witnesses that I said, 'I am not the Messiah,' but, 'I am an envoy before Him.'

Joh 3:29 "He who has the bride is the bridegroom; but the friend of the bridegroom, who stands and listens to him, rejoices greatly because of the bridegroom's voice. Therefore behold! My joy is full.

Joh 3:30 "For it is necessary that He must increase, and I must decrease.

Joh 3:31 "He who comes from above is higher than all; and he who is from the earth is earthly and speaks of the earth. He who comes from Heaven is higher than all.

Joh 3:32 "And what He has seen and heard He testifies to, and no one receives

His testimony.

Joh 3:33 "But he who receives His testimony, God verifies that it is true.

Joh 3:34 "For whoever God sends, he speaks the words of God, for God does not give the Spirit by measure.

Joh 3:35 "The Father loves the Son, and all things have been given into His hand.

Joh 3:36 "He who believes in the Son has everlasting life; and he who does not obey the Son will not see Life, but the wrath of God will rise up against him."

Joh 4:1 But Jeshua knew that the Pharisees had heard that He made and immersed more disciples than John,

Joh 4:2 though it was not Jeshua Himself who was immersing, but His disciples were.

Joh 4:3 And so He left Judea and He went to Galilee again.

Joh 4:4 But it was necessary for Him to come to, pass through and go beyond the house of the Samaritans.

Joh 4:5 So He came to a Samaritan city called Sychar, beside the village that Jacob had given to his son Joseph.

Joh 4:6 Now there was a spring of water there which was Jacob's. Jeshua was weary from the labour of the road, and He sat Himself down by the spring. It was the sixth hour.

Joh 4:7 And a woman of Samaria came to draw water. Jeshua said to her, "Give Me water to drink."

Joh 4:8 For His disciples had gone into the city to buy food for themselves.

Joh 4:9 Then the Samaritan woman said to Him, "How is it that you, being a Judean, ask for a drink from one who is a Samaritan woman?" For the Judeans do not associate with the Samaritans.

Joh 4:10 Jeshua answered and said to her, "If you only knew what the gift of God is, and who this one is who says to you, 'Give Me a drink,' you would have asked for what is His, and He would have given you living waters."

Joh 4:11 This woman said to Him, “My Lord, there is no bucket for you, and the well is deep. Where are your living waters coming from?”

Joh 4:12 “Are you greater than our father Jacob who gave this well to us, and he drank from it, and his children and his livestock?”

Joh 4:13 Jeshua answered and said to her, “Whoever drinks from these waters will thirst again,

Joh 4:14 “but whoever drinks from the waters that I will give him will not thirst forever, for those waters that I give him will be in him springs of water springing up into everlasting life.”¹

Joh 4:15 And the woman said to Him, “My Lord, give me these waters, that I will not thirst again, and I will not come here to draw.”

Joh 4:16 Jeshua said to her, “Go, call your husband, and come here.”

Joh 4:17 She said to Him, “I have no husband.” Jeshua said to her, “You have truly said, ‘I have no husband,’

Joh 4:18 “for you have had five husbands, and the one who is with you now is not your husband. What you have spoken is true.”

Joh 4:19 The woman said to Him, “My Lord, I see that You are a prophet.

Joh 4:20 “Our fathers worshipped on this mountain, and you say that Jerusalem is the place where it is necessary to worship.”

Joh 4:21 Jeshua said to her, “Woman, believe Me, the hour is coming when they will not worship the Father on this mountain nor in Jerusalem.

Joh 4:22 “You worship something you do not know; but we worship what we know, for Life is from the Judeans.

Joh 4:23 “But the hour is coming, and now is, when the true worshippers will worship the Father in spirit and in truth; for behold, the Father is seeking these to worship Him.

Joh 4:24 “For God is Spirit, and those who worship Him must worship in spirit and in truth.”

Joh 4:25 This woman said to Him, “I know that the Messiah is coming, and when He comes, He will teach us everything.”

Joh 4:26 Jeshua said to her, “I AM! I am² the One talking with you.”

Joh 4:27 And while He spoke His disciples came and were amazed that He talked with the woman; yet no one said, “What do You seek?” or, “Why do You talk with her?”

Joh 4:28 The woman then left her water jar, went to the city, and said to the people,

Joh 4:29 “Come, see the Man who told me everything that I have done. Is He the Anointed?”

Joh 4:30 Then the people came out of the city and came to Him.

Joh 4:31 In the midst of all this His disciples urged Him, saying to Him, “Master, eat.”

Joh 4:32 But He said to them, “I have food to eat of which you do not know.”

Joh 4:33 Therefore the disciples said to one another, “What person has brought Him something to eat?”

Joh 4:34 Jeshua said to them, “My food is to do the will of Him who sent Me, and that I finish His work.”³

Joh 4:35 “Do you not say, ‘After four months the harvest will come.’? Behold, I say to you, lift up your eyes and see the fields, for they are white and have already ripened for the harvest!

Joh 4:36 “And he who reaps receives wages, and gathers fruit for everlasting life, that both the sower and the reaper will rejoice together.¹

Joh 4:37 "For in this is a statement of truth: 'One sows and another reaps.'

Joh 4:38 "I sent you to reap that for which you have not laboured; for others have tired, and you have entered into their labours."

Joh 4:39 And many of the Samaritans of that city believed in Him because of the word of that woman who testified, "He told me everything that I have done."

Joh 4:40 So when those Samaritans came to Him, they urged Him to stay with them; and He stayed with them for two days.

Joh 4:41 And many believed in Him because of His word.

Joh 4:42 Then they said to that woman, "From now on, it is not because of your word that we believe in Him, for we have heard Him and know that this is truly the Anointed, the Giver of Life to the world."

Joh 4:43 Now after two days Jeshua departed from there and went to Galilee.

Joh 4:44 For Jeshua Himself testified that a prophet is not honoured in his own country.

Joh 4:45 So when He came to Galilee, the Galileans who received Him had seen all the miracles He did in Jerusalem during the feast; for they also had gone to the feast.

Joh 4:46 And Jeshua came again to Cana of Galilee where He had made the water into wine. And there was the servant of a certain king whose son was sick in Capernaum.

Joh 4:47 When this man heard that Jeshua had come from Judea into Galilee, he went to Him and begged Him to come down and heal his son, for he was close to dying.

Joh 4:48 Jeshua said to him, "If you do not see signs and wonders, you will not believe."

Joh 4:49 The king's servant said to Him, "My Lord, come down before my boy dies!"

Joh 4:50 Jeshua said to him, "Go; your son is alive." And that man believed the word that Jeshua spoke to him, and he left.

Joh 4:51 And while he was going down, his servants met him and brought him hope, saying to him, "Your child lives!"

Joh 4:52 Then he asked them the hour when he was made whole. They said to him, "Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him."

Joh 4:53 So the father knew that it was at the same hour in which Jeshua said to him, "Your son is alive." And he believed, and his whole household.

Joh 4:54 This again is the second miracle that Jeshua did when He came from Judea into Galilee.

Joh 5:1 After this there was a Judean feast and Jeshua went up to Jerusalem.

Joh 5:2 Now there is in Jerusalem a certain place for immersions, which is called Bethesda in Aramaic,² and there were five porches in it.

Joh 5:3 In these porches lay many sick people who were blind, lame and paralysed, and they were waiting for the stirring of the water.

Joh 5:4 For an envoy went down from time to time to the place for immersions and would stir the water; and whoever went down first, after the water moved, would be made whole from whatever disease he had.

Joh 5:5 Now a certain man was there who had been sick for thirty-eight years.

Joh 5:6 Jeshua saw him lying there, and knew that he had, for a long time, had this disease. He said to him, "Do you want to be made whole?"

Joh 5:7 That sick man answered and said, "Yes, my Lord, but I have no one to put me into the immersion pool when the water is stirred up. Instead, while I am coming, another goes down before me.”

Joh 5:8 Jeshua said to him, “Rise, take your bed and walk.”

Joh 5:9 And immediately the man was healed, arose and took his bed, and walked. And that day was the Sabbath.

Joh 5:10 Then the Judeans said to him who was healed, “It is the Sabbath; it is against the Instructions for you to carry your bed.”

Joh 5:11 He answered and said to them, “He who made me whole said to me, ‘Take your bed and walk.’”

Joh 5:12 And they asked him, “Who is this man who said to you, ‘Take your bed and walk’?”

Joh 5:13 But he who was healed did not know who Jeshua was, for he was caught up in the large crowd which was in that place.

Joh 5:14 Afterwards, Jeshua found him in the Palace, and said to him, “Behold, you are whole again. Do not sin again, lest something worse than before should happen to you.”

Joh 5:15 That man left and told the Judeans that it was Jeshua who had made him whole.

Joh 5:16 Because of this the Judeans persecuted Jeshua, and sought to kill Him, for He did these things on the Sabbath.

Joh 5:17 But Jeshua said to them, “My Father has been working until now, and I am also working.”

Joh 5:18 Therefore the Judeans sought all the more to kill Him, because He not only broke the Sabbath, but He was also saying that God was His Father, making Himself equal with God.¹

¹ Jeshua did not ‘break the Sabbath’, He was actually teaching them that the Sabbath is a day of redemption and healing. In doing so, He was exposing how the legalistic regulations made up by the Jewish authorities had stifled the real purpose of the Sabbath. As to their claim that Jeshua made ‘Himself equal with God’, in the next few verses Jeshua shows that

Joh 5:19 Then Jeshua answered and said to them, “Truly, truly I say to you; the Son is not able to do anything from His own will, except what He sees the Father do; for the things that the Father does, these things the Son also does in like manner.

Joh 5:20 “For the Father loves His Son, and everything that He does He shows to Him; and He will show greater works than these to Him, that you may marvel.

Joh 5:21 “For as the Father raises the dead and gives life to them, even so the Son gives life to whom He will.

Joh 5:22 “For it is not the Father who judges man, instead He has transferred all judgement to the Son, Joh 5:23 “So that everyone will honour the Son just as they honour the Father. He who does not honour the Son does not honour the Father who sent Him.

Joh 5:24 “Truly, truly I say to you that whoever hears My word and believes in Him who sent Me has everlasting life and will not come into judgement. He has passed from death into life.²

Joh 5:25 “Truly, truly I say to you that the hour is coming, and now is, when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God; and those who hear will live.

Joh 5:26 “For as the Father has life in Himself, so He has granted the Son to also have life in Himself, Joh 5:27 “and He has given Him authority to execute judgement also, because He is the Son of Mankind.

Joh 5:28 “Do not marvel at this; for the hour is coming when all those who are in the grave will hear His voice,

Joh 5:29 “and come forth; those who have done good, to the resurrection of life, and those who have done evil, to the resurrection of judgement.³

from My own will. But as I hear, I judge; and My judgement is just, because I do not seek My own will but the will of Him who sent Me.

Joh 5:31 “If I bear witness concerning Myself, My testimony is not true.

Joh 5:32 “There is another who bears witness concerning Me, and I know that His testimony which He testifies concerning Me is true.

Joh 5:33 “You have sent to John, and he has testified concerning the truth.

Joh 5:34 “Yet I do not receive testimony from man, rather I say these things that you may live.

Joh 5:35 “That man was a shining lamp that brought light, and you desired to rejoice in his light for an hour.

Joh 5:36 “But I have a greater testimony than John’s, for the works which My Father has given to Me to finish, those works that I do testify concerning Me, that the Father has sent Me.

Joh 5:37 “And the Father who sent Me, He testifies concerning Me. You have never heard His voice at any time, nor have you seen His form.

Joh 5:38 “And His Word does not dwell in you, because you do not believe in Him whom He sent.

Joh 5:39 “You search the Writings, for you think you have everlasting life in them; and they testify concerning Me.

Joh 5:40 “But you are not willing to come to Me that you may have everlasting life.

Joh 5:41 “I do not receive praise from the descendants of men.

Joh 5:42 “But I know you, that there is not the love of God in you.

Joh 5:43 “I have come in My Father’s Name, and you have not received Me; yet if another comes in his own name, you will receive him.

Joh 5:44 “How are you able to believe those who receive praise from one another, and yet you do not seek the praise which comes from the One God?

Joh 5:45 “Why do you think that I will accuse you before the Father? There is one who accuses you; Moses, he in whom you hope.

Joh 5:46 “For if you had only believed in Moses, you would also believe in Me; for Moses wrote about Me.¹

Joh 5:47 “But if you do not believe his writings, how will you believe My words?”

Joh 6:1 After these things Jeshua went to the other side of the Sea of Galilee, to Tiberias.²

Joh 6:2 Then a large crowd followed Him, because they saw the miracles which He did with the sick.

Joh 6:3 And Jeshua went up a mountain, and He sat there with His disciples.

Joh 6:4 But the Judean Feast of Passover was approaching.

Joh 6:5 Then Jeshua lifted up His eyes and saw a large crowd coming toward Him. He said to Philip, “Where will we buy bread, that these may eat?”

Joh 6:6 But He said this to test him, for He knew what He would do.

Joh 6:7 Philip said to Him, “Two hundred denarii of bread would not be sufficient for them, even if each of them took a small amount.”

Joh 6:8 One of His disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter’s brother, said to Him,

Joh 6:9 “There is a certain boy here who has five barley loaves and two small fish with him, but what are these for all of them?”

Joh 6:10 Jeshua said to them, “Make all the people sit down.” Now there was much grass in the place where they sat down, and the number of men was five thousand.

Joh 6:11 And Jeshua took the loaves, blessed it and distributed it to those who were seated, and did the same with the fish, as much as they wanted.¹

Joh 6:12 So when they were satisfied, He said to His disciples, "Gather up the left over fragments, lest something is lost."

Joh 6:13 And they gathered them up, and they counted twelve baskets of fragments which were left over by those who had eaten the five barley loaves.

Joh 6:14 Then those who saw the miracle that Jeshua did, said, "Truly, this is the Prophet who has come into the world."

Joh 6:15 But Jeshua knew that they were about to come and seize Him to make Him king, so He slipped away to a mountain by Himself.

Joh 6:16 And when evening came, His disciples went down to the sea,

Joh 6:17 and they got into the boat, and were going across the sea toward Capernaum. And it became dark, and Jeshua had not come to them.

Joh 6:18 Then the sea arose because a great wind was blowing against them.

Joh 6:19 So when they had gone about twenty-five or thirty stadios,² they saw Jeshua walking on the lake, and when He drew near their boat, they were afraid.

Joh 6:20 But Jeshua Himself said to them, "I AM! I am! Do not be afraid."

Joh 6:21 Then they willingly received Him into the boat, and within that hour the boat reached the land to which they were going.

Joh 6:22 On the following day, the crowd which was standing on the other side of the sea saw that there was no other boat there, except that one which His disciples had gone into, and that Jeshua had not entered the boat with His disciples.

Joh 6:23 However, other boats came from Tiberias, near the place where they ate bread when Jeshua had blessed it;

Joh 6:24 and when the crowd saw that Jeshua was not there, nor His disciples, they also got into boats and they came to Capernaum, seeking Jeshua.

Joh 6:25 And when they found Him on the other side of the sea, they said to Him, "Our Lord, when did You come here?"

Joh 6:26 Jeshua answered and said to them, "Truly, truly I say to you; you seek Me, not because you saw the miracles, but because you ate the loaves and were satisfied.

Joh 6:27 "Do not labour for food which perishes, but for food which endures to everlasting life, which the Son of Mankind will give you, because God the Father has sealed Him."

Joh 6:28 They said to Him, "What should we do, to work the works of God?"

Joh 6:29 Jeshua answered and said to them, "This is the work of God, that you believe in Him whom He sent."

Joh 6:30 They said to Him, "What miracle will You perform, that we may see it and believe in You? What will You show us?

Joh 6:31 "Our fathers ate manna in the desert; as it is written, 'He gave them bread from heaven to eat.'"³

Joh 6:32 Jeshua said to them, "Truly, truly I say to you; Moses did not give you the bread from heaven, but My Father gives you the true bread from heaven.

Joh 6:33 "For His bread, God's bread, is He who comes down from heaven and gives Life to the world."

Joh 6:34 They said to Him, "Our Lord, give this bread to us always."

Joh 6:35 Jeshua said to them, "I AM! I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to Me will not hunger, and whoever believes in Me will not thirst forever.

Joh 6:36 "But I said to you that you have seen Me and do not believe.

Joh 6:37 "All who My Father gives Me

¹ The parallel accounts in Mat 14:14-21, Mar 6:34-44 & Luk 9:12-17 make it clear that Jeshua distributed the bread and fish to the people via his disciples. Also see Psa 22:26 & Mat 15:32-38.

will come to Me, and whoever comes to Me I will not cast out.

Joh 6:38 "For I have come down from Heaven, not to do My will, but the will of Him who sent Me.

Joh 6:39 "And this is the will of Him who sent Me, that of all He has given Me I should not lose one, but raise him up in the last day.¹

Joh 6:40 "For this is the will of My Father, that everyone who sees the Son and believes in Him may have everlasting life; and I will raise him up in the last day."

Joh 6:41 But the Judeans murmured against Him because He said, "I AM! I am the bread that has come down from Heaven."

Joh 6:42 And they said, "Is this not Jeshua, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? So how can this man say, 'I have come down from Heaven'?"

Joh 6:43 Jeshua answered and said to them, "Do not murmur to each other.

Joh 6:44 "No one is able to come to Me unless the Father who sent Me draws him; and I will raise him up in the last day.

Joh 6:45 "For it is written in the prophets, 'And they will all be taught by Jehovah.'² Therefore everyone who has heard the Father and learns from Him comes to Me.

Joh 6:46 "No man has seen the Father, except He who is from God; He Himself has seen the Father.

Joh 6:47 "Truly, truly I say to you; that whoever trusts in Me, there is everlasting life for him.

Joh 6:48 "I AM! I am the bread of life.

Joh 6:49 "Your fathers ate the manna in the wilderness, and they died.

Joh 6:50 "But this is the bread which comes down from heaven, that a man may eat of it and will not die.

Joh 6:51 "I AM! I am the living bread, I who have descended from heaven. And if anyone eats from this bread, he will live forever; and the bread that I will give is My body, which I will give for the sake of the Life of the world."³

Joh 6:52 The Judeans themselves were arguing with one another, and they were saying, "How can this one give His body to us to eat?"

Joh 6:53 And Jeshua said to them, "Truly, truly I say to you that unless you eat the body of the Son of Mankind and you drink His blood, there is no life for you in yourselves.

Joh 6:54 "But whoever eats from My body and drinks from My blood, there is everlasting life for him, and I will raise him up at the last day.

Joh 6:55 "For My body is truly food, and My blood is truly drink.

Joh 6:56 "Whoever eats My body and drinks My blood abides in Me, and I in him.

Joh 6:57 "As the Father, the Living One, sent Me, and I am living because of the Father, whoever eats Me will live because of Me.

Joh 6:58 "This is the bread which came down from heaven; it is not like the manna your forefathers ate and died. He who eats this bread will live forever."

Joh 6:59 He said these things in the synagogue while He taught in Capernaum.

Joh 6:60 And many of His disciples who heard this said, "This is a hard saying; who is able to understand it?"

Joh 6:61 But Jeshua knew in Himself that His disciples murmured about this, and He said to them, "Does this offend you?

Joh 6:62 “What then if you see the Son of Mankind ascend to the place He was before?”

Joh 6:63 “It is the Spirit who gives life; the body does not profit anything. The words that I speak to you are spirit, and are life.

Joh 6:64 “But there are some of you who do not believe.” For Jeshua knew from the beginning who they were who did not believe, and he who would betray Him.

Joh 6:65 And He said to them, “Because of this, I said to you that no one can come to Me unless it has been granted to him by My Father.”

Joh 6:66 Because of this saying, many of His disciples turned their backs and did not walk with Him.

Joh 6:67 Then Jeshua said to His twelve, “Do you also want to go away?”

Joh 6:68 Then Simon Peter answered and said, “My Lord, to whom will we go? You have the words of everlasting life.

Joh 6:69 “Also we believe and know that You are the Anointed, the Son of the Living God.”

Joh 6:70 Jeshua said to them, “Did I not choose you, the twelve, and one of you is a devil?”¹

Joh 6:71 He spoke of Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon, for it was he who was going to betray Him, being one of the twelve.

Joh 7:1 After these things Jeshua walked in Galilee; for He did not want to walk in Judea, because the Judeans sought to kill Him.

Joh 7:2 Now the Judean Feast of Booths was drawing near.²

Joh 7:3 Therefore His brothers said to Jeshua, “Depart from here and go into Judea, that Your disciples also may see the works that You are doing.

Joh 7:4 “For no one does anything secretly while he seeks to be known openly. If You do these things, show Yourself to the people.”

Joh 7:5 For not even His brothers believed in Jeshua.

Joh 7:6 Jeshua said to them, “My time has not come yet, but your time is always ready.

Joh 7:7 “The world is not able to hate you, but it hates Me because I testify against it that its works are evil.

Joh 7:8 “You go up to this feast. I will not go up to this feast yet, for My time is not finished yet.”

Joh 7:9 He said these things, and He remained in Galilee.

Joh 7:10 But when His brothers had gone up to the feast, then even He went up to the feast, not openly, but as in secret.

Joh 7:11 Then the Judeans were looking for Him at the feast, and saying, “Where is He?”

Joh 7:12 And there was much murmuring among the crowds because of Him. For there were those who said that He is good; and others said, “No, He only deceives the people.”

Joh 7:13 But no one spoke about Him openly for fear of the Judeans.

Joh 7:14 Now about the middle of the days of the feast Jeshua went up to the Palace and He taught.

Joh 7:15 And the Judeans marvelled and said, “How does this one know the scrolls,³ since he has never studied?”

Joh 7:16 Jeshua answered and said, “My teaching is not Mine, but it is His who sent Me.

Joh 7:17 “He who wants to do His will can determine if My teaching is from God or if I speak from My own will.

Joh 7:18 “He who speaks from his own mind seeks glory for himself; but He who seeks the glory of He who sent Him is true, and there is no iniquity in His heart.

Joh 7:20 “Why do you want to kill me?” The crowd answered and said, “You have a devil. Who wants to kill You?”

Joh 7:21 Jeshua replied and said to them, “I did one work, and all of you marvel.

Joh 7:22 “Because of this, Moses gave you circumcision (not that it is from Moses, but from the patriarchs), and you circumcise a man on the Sabbath.

Joh 7:23 “If a man receives circumcision on the day of the Sabbath, so that the Instructions of Moses should not be broken, why do all of you murmur against me because I made a man whole on the day of the Sabbath?

Joh 7:24 “Do not judge with hypocrisy, but judge with righteous judgement.”

Joh 7:25 And men from Jerusalem said, “Is it not this man who they want to kill?

Joh 7:26 “But behold! He speaks openly, and they do not say anything to him. Do the elders know that this is truly the Messiah?

Joh 7:27 “However, we know where this man is from; but when the Anointed comes, no one knows where He is from.”¹

Joh 7:28 Then Jeshua raised His voice as He taught in the Palace and said, “You both know me, and you know where I am from; but I have not come of my own will. He who sent me is true, and you do not know Him.

Joh 7:29 “But I know Him, for He sent me from His presence.”

Joh 7:30 And they wanted to seize Him; yet no one laid their hands on Him, because His time had not yet come.

Joh 7:31 And many in the crowds believed in Him, and said, “When the Messiah comes, will He do more miracles than these which this Man does?”

Joh 7:32 The Pharisees heard the crowds saying these things about Him, and they and the chief priests sent guards to seize Him.

Joh 7:33 And Jeshua said, “I will be with you a little time yet, and then I will go to Him who sent me.

Joh 7:34 “You will seek Me and you will not find Me, and where I am going you cannot come.”

Joh 7:35 The Judeans said among themselves, “Where is this Man going to go that we cannot find Him? Indeed! Is He going to the countries of the gentiles to teach the pagans?

Joh 7:36 “What is this teaching that He said, ‘You will seek Me and you will not find Me, and where I am going you cannot come?’”

Joh 7:37 Now on the Great Day, which is the last of the feast, Jeshua stood and He cried out and said, “If anyone thirsts, let him come to Me and drink.”²

Joh 7:38 “Everyone who believes in Me, just as the Writings say, rivers of living water will flow from his belly.”³

Joh 7:39 But this He spoke about the Spirit, which they who believed in Him were about to receive; for the Spirit had not yet been given, because Jeshua was not yet glorified.⁴

Joh 7:40 Therefore many from the crowds who heard His words were saying, “Truly this is the Prophet.”

Joh 7:41 Others were saying, “This is the Messiah.” And others said, “How could the Anointed come from Galilee?

Joh 7:42 “Do the Writings not say that the Messiah comes from the seed of David and from David’s village of Bethlehem?”⁵

Joh 7:43 So there was division in the crowd because of Him.

¹ But they were wrong. The Writings prophesied that the Messiah would come from Bethlehem (Mic 5:2). This was how Herod’s advisers could send the Magiosi there (Mat 2:1-8).

² Neh 8:14-18. This is also where we derive the name for the Last Great Day, which immediately follows the Feast of Booths.

⁵ Mic 5:2-5, Mat 2:6

Joh 7:44 And some of them wanted to seize Him, but no one laid hands on Him.

Joh 7:45 Then the guards returned to the chief priests and Pharisees, and the priests said to them, "Why did you not bring Him?"

Joh 7:46 The guards said to them, "No man has ever spoken like this Man!"

Joh 7:47 The Pharisees said to them, "Are you also deceived?"

Joh 7:48 "Have any from the elders or from the Pharisees believed in Him,

Joh 7:49 "except for this crowd who do not know the Instructions and are accursed?"

Joh 7:50 Nicodemus (he being one of those who came to Jeshua by night) said to them,

Joh 7:51 "Do our Instructions judge a man unless it hears him first and knows what he has done?"

Joh 7:52 They answered and said to him, "Are you also from Galilee? Search and you will see that the Prophet will not rise from Galilee."

Joh 7:53 Then everyone went to his house.

Joh 8:1 But Jeshua went to the Mount of Olives, and in the morning came into the Palace again.

Joh 8:2 And all the people came to Him; and when He sat down, He taught them.

Joh 8:3 Then the scribes and Pharisees brought a woman who had been caught in adultery. And when they stood her in the midst, Joh 8:4 they said to Him, "Teacher, this woman was caught openly in the act of adultery.

Joh 8:5 "Now, in the Instructions of Moses, he commanded that we should stone such as these.

Joh 8:6 "Therefore, what do you say?" This they said, while they were tempting Him so that they might have something to accuse Him of. But Jeshua stooped down and He wrote on the ground.¹

Joh 8:7 And when they continued asking Him, He stood up and He said to them, "Who among you is without sin? Let him throw the first stone onto her."

Joh 8:8 And again, stooping down, He wrote on the ground.

Joh 8:9 But when they heard this, they left, one by one, and they began from the elders. And the woman, who had been in the midst, was left alone.

Joh 8:10 When He stood up, Jeshua said to the woman, "Where are they? Has no man condemned you?"

Joh 8:11 Then she said, "Not even one man, Lord Jah."² And Jeshua said, "Nor do I condemn you. Go, and from now on, do not sin again."³

Joh 8:12 Then Jeshua spoke with them again, and said, "I AM! I am the light of the world. Whoever follows Me will not walk in darkness, but he will find the light of life for himself."

Joh 8:13 The Pharisees said to Him, "You testify about Yourself; Your testimony is not true."

Joh 8:14 Jeshua answered and said to them, "Even if I testify about Myself, My testimony is true, for I know where I came from and where I am going; but you do not know where I have come from nor where I am going.

Joh 8:15 "You judge according to the flesh; I do not judge anyone.

² As in the Aramaic. The Old Covenant teaches that both partners in adultery were to be stoned, yet they brought only the woman, thus violating the law (Lev 20:10 & Deu 22:22-25).

Joh 8:16 “And yet, if I do judge, My judgement is true; because it is not I alone, instead it is I and My Father who sent Me.

Joh 8:17 “Now, it is also written in your Instructions that the witness of two men is true.

Joh 8:18 “I AM! I am I who testifies about Myself, and My Father who sent Me has testified about Me.”

Joh 8:19 They said to Him, “Where is Your Father?” Jeshua answered and said to them, “You know neither Me nor My Father. If you had only known Me, you would also have known My Father.”

Joh 8:20 These words He spoke in the treasury, while He taught in the Palace; and no one seized Him, for His hour had not yet come.

Joh 8:21 Jeshua said to them again, “I AM! I am going away, and you will seek Me, and you will die in your sins. Where I AM¹ going, you cannot come.”

Joh 8:22 So the Judeans said, “Will he indeed kill himself, because he says, ‘Where I AM going, you cannot come’?”

Joh 8:23 And He said to them, “You are from beneath and I am from above. You are from this world and I am not from this world.

Joh 8:24 “I told you that you will die in your sins; for unless you believe that I AM! I am, you will die in your sins.”

Joh 8:25 The Judeans said, “Who are You?” Jeshua said to them, “Just as I said to you from the beginning.

Joh 8:26 “There is much for Me to say about you and to judge, but He who sent Me is true; and I speak to the world those things which I heard from Him.”

Joh 8:27 And they did not understand that He spoke to them about the Father.

Joh 8:28 Jeshua spoke to them again, “When you lift up the Son of Mankind, then you will know that I AM! I am and I do not do anything from My own will; but I speak just as My Father taught Me.

Joh 8:29 “And He who sent Me is with Me. My Father has not left Me alone, for I always do those things that please Him.”

Joh 8:30 While He spoke these things, many believed in Him.

Joh 8:31 Then Jeshua said to those Judeans who believed in Him, “If you abide in My words, truly you are My disciples.

Joh 8:32 “And you will know the Truth, and that Truth will set you free.”

Joh 8:33 They said to Him, “We are Abraham’s descendants, and we have never served or been in bondage to anyone. How can you say, ‘You will be free men’?”

Joh 8:34 Jeshua said to them, “Truly, truly I say to you that anyone who commits a sin is a slave of sin.

Joh 8:35 “And a slave does not abide in the house forever, but the son abides forever.

Joh 8:36 “Therefore, if the Son sets you free, you will truly be free men.

Joh 8:37 “I know that you are Abraham’s descendants, but you seek to kill Me, because you do not empty yourselves for My word.

Joh 8:38 “I speak what I have seen with My Father, and you do what you have seen with your father.”

Joh 8:39 They replied and said to Him, “Abraham is our father.” Jeshua said to them, “If you were Abraham’s children, you would do the works of Abraham.

Joh 8:40 “But now, behold! You seek to kill Me, a Man who spoke to you truthfully that which I heard from God. Abraham did not do this.

Joh 8:41 “But you do the deeds of your father.” They said to Him, “We did not come to be from fornication; we have one Father; God.”

Joh 8:42 Jeshua said to them, “If God were your Father, you would love Me, for I have come out from God; and I have not come from My own will. I have come because He sent Me.

Joh 8:43 “Why is it that do you not understand My word? It is because you are not able to listen to My word.

Joh 8:44 “You are from your father the devil, and the lusts of your father you want to do. He was a murderer of men from the beginning, and he does not stand in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaks a lie, he speaks from himself, for he is a liar and he is even its father.¹

Joh 8:45 “But because I am speaking the truth, you do not believe Me.

Joh 8:46 “Who among you convicts Me of sin? And if I speak the truth to you, why do you not believe Me?

Joh 8:47 “He who is from God hears God’s words; therefore you do not hear, because you are not from God.”²

Joh 8:48 The Judeans answered and said to Him, “Did we not rightly say that you are a Samaritan and you have a devil?”

Joh 8:49 Jeshua said to them, “There is no devil in me; but I do honour My Father, and you curse Me.

Joh 8:50 “And I do not seek My glory; it is He who seeks and judges.

Joh 8:51 “Truly, truly, I say to you that he who keeps My word will not see death forever.”³

Joh 8:52 Then the Judeans said to Him, “Now we know that you have a devil! Abraham died, and the prophets; and you say that ‘he who keeps My word will not taste death forever.’

Joh 8:53 “Why are you greater than our father Abraham, who died? And than the prophets who died? Who do you make yourself to be?”

Joh 8:54 Jeshua said to them, “If I glorify Myself, My praise is nothing. It is My Father who glorifies Me, of whom you say

“That is our God.”

Joh 8:55 “Yet you do not know Him, but I know Him. And if I said that I do not know Him, I would be a liar like you; but I know Him and I keep His word.

Joh 8:56 “Abraham, your father, longed to see My day, and he saw it and rejoiced.”⁴

Joh 8:57 The Judeans said to Him, “You are not fifty years old yet, but You have seen Abraham?”

Joh 8:58 Jeshua said to them, “Truly, truly I say to you that before Abraham came to be, I existed.”

Joh 8:59 Then they took up rocks to stone Him; but Jeshua was hidden and went out of the Palace, passing through their midst, and left.

Joh 9:1 And when Jeshua crossed over, He saw a man who was blind from his mother’s womb.

Joh 9:2 And His disciples asked Him, saying, “Master, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he would be born blind?”

Joh 9:3 Jeshua said to them, “He did not sin, nor did his parents, but that the work of God should be seen in him.

Joh 9:4 “It is necessary for me to do the works of Him who sent Me while it is day; the night is coming when no one will be able to work.

Joh 9:5 “As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world.”

Joh 9:6 When He had said these things, He spat on the ground and mixed clay with His saliva; and He anointed the eyes of the blind man with it.

Joh 9:7 And He said to him, “Go, wash in the immersion pool of Siloam.” So he went and washed, and he came back seeing.

Joh 9:8 Then his neighbours and those who had seen that he was blind from the beginning of his begging said, “Is this not he who sat and begged?”

Joh 9:9 Some said, “This is he.” And some said, "No, but he is just like him." But he said, "I am he."

Joh 9:10 They said to him, "How were your eyes opened?"

Joh 9:11 He answered and said to them, "A man called Jeshua made mud and anointed my eyes and He said to me, 'Go, wash in the waters of Siloam.' So I went and I washed, and I began to see."

Joh 9:12 They said to him, "Where is He?" He said to them, "I do not know."

Joh 9:13 And they brought him who was born¹ blind to the Pharisees.

Joh 9:14 Now it was a Sabbath when Jeshua made the mud and opened his eyes.

Joh 9:15 The Pharisees asked him again "How is it that you see?" And he said to them, "He put mud on my eyes, and I washed, and I see."

Joh 9:16 And some of the Pharisees said, "This man is not from God, he does not keep the Sabbath." But others said, "How is a sinful man able to do these miracles?" And there was division among them.

Joh 9:17 They said to that blind man again, "What do you say about him who opened your eyes?" He said to them, "I say that He is the Prophet."

Joh 9:18 But the Judeans did not believe concerning him, that he was blind and yet he saw, until they called the parents of him who now saw.

Joh 9:19 And they asked them, "Is this your son who you say was born blind? How then does he now see?"

Joh 9:20 His parents answered and said, "We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind;

Joh 9:21 "but how he now sees, or who opened his eyes we do not know. Indeed, he is of age; ask him. He will speak for himself."

Joh 9:22 His parents said these things because they were afraid of the Judeans, for the Judeans had decided that if anyone confessed that He was the Messiah, they would cast him out of the synagogue.

Joh 9:23 Because of this, his parents said, "He is of age; ask him."

Joh 9:24 So they called the man who was blind a second time, and they said to him, "Give God the glory, for we know that this man is a sinner."

Joh 9:25 And he answered and said to them, "Whether He is a sinner I do not know. One thing I know: that I was blind, and Behold! Now I see."

Joh 9:26 They said to him again, "What did He do to you? How did He open your eyes?"

Joh 9:27 He said to them, "I told you, yet you did not listen. Why do you want to hear it again? Do you also want to become His disciples?"

Joh 9:28 Then they reviled him and said to him, "You are His disciple, but we are Moses' disciples.

Joh 9:29 "We know that God spoke with Moses; but this man, we do not know where He is from."

Joh 9:30 That man replied and said to them, "Therefore this is marvellous! You do not know where He is from, and yet He has opened my eyes!

Joh 9:31 "Now we know that God does not hear the voice of sinners; but he who fears Him and does His will, He hears him.

Joh 9:32 "Never before has it been heard that someone opened the eyes of one who was born blind.

Joh 9:33 "If this Man were not from God, He would not be able to do this."

Joh 9:34 They answered and said to him, "You were completely born in sins, and you are teaching us?" And they cast him out.

Joh 9:35 And Jeshua heard that they had cast him out; so He found him, and said to him, "Do you believe in the Son of God?"

Joh 9:36 He who had been healed replied and said, "Who is He, my Lord, that I may believe in Him?"

Joh 9:37 Jeshua said to him, "You have seen Him and it is He who is talking with you."

Joh 9:38 And he said, "I believe, My Lord!" And he fell down and worshipped Him.

Joh 9:39 And Jeshua said, "I have come into this world for the judgement, that those who do not see may see, and that those who see may be made blind."

Joh 9:40 And some of the Pharisees who were with Him heard these things, and said to Him, "Why, are even we blind?"

Joh 9:41 Jeshua said to them, "If you were only blind, you would have no sin; but now you say, 'We see.' Therefore your sin is established.

Joh 10:1 "Truly, truly I say to you; he who does not enter the sheepfold by the door of the flock, but climbs up some other way, he is a thief and a robber.

Joh 10:2 "But he who enters by the door is the shepherd of the flock.

Joh 10:3 "The doorkeeper opens to this man, and the flock hear his voice; and he calls his sheep by their names and he leads them out.

Joh 10:4 "And when he leads his flock out, he goes before them; and his sheep follow him, because they know his voice.

Joh 10:5 "However, the flock will not follow after a foreigner; instead it will flee from him, because it does not know the voice of the foreigner."

Joh 10:6 Jeshua told them this parable, but they did not understand what He spoke to them.

Joh 10:7 Then Jeshua said to them again, "Truly, truly I say to you; I AM! I am the door of the flocks.

Joh 10:8 "All those who came before Me are thieves and robbers, if the flock did not hear them.

Joh 10:9 "I AM! I am the door, and if anyone enters by Me, he will live,¹ and will go in and go out and he will find pasture.

Joh 10:10 "The thief does not come except to steal, and to slay, and to destroy. I have come that they may have life, and that they may have everything abundantly.

Joh 10:11 "I AM! I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down His soul for His flock.

Joh 10:12 "But a hireling, who is not the shepherd, nor are the sheep his, when he sees the wolf coming, leaves the sheep and flees; and the wolf comes, plunders and scatters the flock.

Joh 10:13 "Now the hireling flees because he is hired and he does not care about the flock.

Joh 10:14 "I AM! I am the good shepherd. I know those who are mine, and I am known by those who are mine,² Joh 10:15 "just as My Father knows Me and I know My Father; and I lay down My soul for the flock.

Joh 10:16 "And I have other sheep which are not of this sheepfold; it is necessary for me to also bring them, and they will hear My voice; and all the flocks will become one flock and there is one shepherd.

Joh 10:17 "Therefore My Father loves Me, because I lay down My soul that I may receive it again.

Joh 10:18 "No one takes it from Me, but I lay it down by My own will, for I have authority to lay it down, and I have authority to receive it again. This commandment I have received from My Father."

Joh 10:19 And there was division again among the Judeans because of these words.

Joh 10:20 And many of them said, "He has a devil and is insane. Why do you listen to Him?"

Joh 10:21 But others said, "These are not the words of one who is demonised. Can a devil open the eyes of the blind?"

Joh 10:22 Now it was the Feast of Dedication in Jerusalem, and it was winter.

Joh 10:23 And Jeshua walked in the Palace, in Solomon's porch.

Joh 10:24 Then the Judeans surrounded Him and they said to Him, "How long are you stretching our souls? If you are the Messiah, tell us openly."

Joh 10:25 Jeshua answered and said to them, "I told you, and you do not believe. The works which I do in My Father's name, they testify to Me.

Joh 10:26 "But you do not believe, because you are not of My sheep, just as I said to you.

Joh 10:27 "My sheep hear My voice, and I know them, and they follow after Me.

Joh 10:28 "And I give everlasting life to them, and they will not perish forever; and no one will pluck them out of My hand.

Joh 10:29 "For My Father, who gives them to Me, is greater than all; and no one is able to pluck anything from My Father's hand.

Joh 10:30 "I and My Father are one."¹

Joh 10:31 Then the Judeans picked up stones again, to stone Him.

Joh 10:32 Jeshua said to them, "I have shown to you many excellent works from My Father. For which of these works do you stone Me?"

Joh 10:33 The Judeans said to Him, "It is not for the excellent works that we stone you, but because you blaspheme when you, a son of man, make yourself God."

Joh 10:34 Jeshua said to them, "Is it not written in your Instructions, 'I said, "You are gods."'"²

Joh 10:35 "If He called them gods because the Word of God was with them, and the Writing cannot be removed,³

Joh 10:36 "how can you say to the One whom the Father sanctified and sent into the world, 'You blaspheme!' because I said to you that I am the Son of God?"

Joh 10:37 "If I do not do the works of My Father, you should not believe Me;

Joh 10:38 "but if I do, even if you do not believe Me, believe the works, that you may know and believe that My Father is in Me, and I in My Father."

Joh 10:39 Then they sought to seize Him again, but He escaped from their hands.

Joh 10:40 And He went and crossed the Jordan to the place where John had been immersing at first, and He stayed there.

Joh 10:41 Then many people came to Him and said, "John did not do even one miracle, but everything that John spoke about this Man is true."

Joh 10:42 And many believed in Him.

Joh 11:1 Now a certain man was sick, Lazar⁴ from the village of Bethany, the brother of Mary and Martha.

Joh 11:2 Now this was the Mary who would anoint Jeshua's feet with fragrant oil and wipe them with her hair; Lazar, who was sick, was this one's brother.

Joh 11:3 So both of the sisters sent to Jeshua, saying, "Our Lord, behold, he whom You love is sick."

Joh 11:4 But Jeshua said, "This sickness is not deadly, but is for the glory of God, that the Son of God may be glorified through him."

Joh 11:5 Now Jeshua loved Martha and Mary and Lazar.

Joh 11:6 And when He heard that he was sick, He stayed in the place where He was for two more days.

Joh 11:7 Then after this He said to His disciples, "Come, let us go to Judea again."

Joh 11:8 His disciples said to Him, “Master, the Judeans are seeking to stone You, and You are going there again?”

Joh 11:9 Jeshua said to them, “Are there not twelve hours in the day? If anyone walks in the daylight, he does not stumble, because he sees the light of this world.

Joh 11:10 “But if one walks in the night, he stumbles, because there is no flame¹ in him.”

Joh 11:11 Jeshua said these things, and after that said to them, “Lazar, our friend, is sleeping, but I am going to wake him.”

Joh 11:12 Then His disciples said to Him, “Our Lord, if he sleeps, he will become whole.”

Joh 11:13 However, Jeshua spoke about his death, but they thought that He was speaking about the sleep of tiredness.

Joh 11:14 Then Jeshua said to them openly, “Lazar has died.

Joh 11:15 “And I rejoice that I was not there, because of you, that you may believe. But let us walk there.”

Joh 11:16 Then Thomas, who is called Didymus, said to his fellow disciples, “Let us also go, and die with Him.”

Joh 11:17 And Jeshua came to Bethany, and found that he had been in the burial house for four days.

Joh 11:18 Now Bethany was beside Jerusalem, separated from it by about fifteen stadios.²

Joh 11:19 And many of the Judeans had come to Martha and Mary, to comfort their hearts about their brother.

Joh 11:20 And when Martha heard that Jeshua was coming, she went out to meet Him, but Mary sat in the house.

Joh 11:21 Then Martha said to Jeshua, “My Lord, if only You had been here, my brother would not have died.

Joh 11:22 “But even now I know that whatever You ask of God, He will give to

You.”

Joh 11:23 Jeshua said to her, “Your brother will arise.”

Joh 11:24 Martha said to Him, “I know that he will rise in the resurrection at the last day.”

Joh 11:25 Jeshua said to her, “I AM! I am the Resurrection and the Life. Whoever believes in Me, even if he dies, he will live.

Joh 11:26 “And whoever lives and believes in Me will not die forever.³ Do you believe this?”

Joh 11:27 She said to Him, “Yes, my Lord, I believe that You are the Messiah, the Son of God, who has come into the world.”

Joh 11:28 And when she had said these things, she went her way and secretly called Mary her sister, and said to her, “Our Teacher has come and is calling for you.”

Joh 11:29 And when Mary heard that, she arose quickly and came to Him.

Joh 11:30 Now Jeshua had not yet come into the village, but He was in the place where Martha met Him.

Joh 11:31 Then the Judeans who were with her in the house and comforting her, when they saw that Mary rose up quickly and went out, they followed her, for they thought that she was going to the grave to weep.”

Joh 11:32 But when Mary came to where Jeshua was and saw Him, she fell down at His feet and said to Him, “My Lord, if only You had been here my brother would not have died.”

Joh 11:33 And when Jeshua saw her weeping, and the Judeans who came with her weeping, He groaned in His spirit and His soul was moved.

Joh 11:34 Then He said, “Where have you laid him?” They said to Him, “Our Lord, come and see.”

² Almost three kilometers.

³ That is, though they may die, they will not remain dead forever—they will be resurrected.

Joh 11:35 And Jeshua's tears were falling.

Joh 11:36 Then the Judeans said, "See how much He loved him!"

Joh 11:37 And some of them said, "Was this man, who opened the eyes of that blind man, also able to do something that this man would not have died?"

Joh 11:38 And Jeshua, while He groaned in Himself and at them, came to the burial house. This burial house was a cave, and a stone lay over its opening.

Joh 11:39 Jeshua said, "Take away this stone." Martha, the sister of that dead man, said to Him, "My Lord, he already stinks. It is his fourth day."

Joh 11:40 Jeshua said to her, "Did I not say to you that if you believe you will see the glory of God?"

Joh 11:41 So they took away that stone, and Jeshua lifted up His eyes and said, "Father, I thank You that You have heard Me.

Joh 11:42 "And I know that You always hear Me, but because of this crowd who are standing here I said this, that they may believe that You sent Me."

Joh 11:43 Now when He had said these things, He cried with a loud voice, "Lazar, come forth!"

Joh 11:44 And that dead man came out, his hands and his feet still bound with bandages, and his face was bound in a headcloth. Jeshua said to them, "Untie him, and let him go."

Joh 11:45 Then many of the Judeans who had come to Mary, when they saw this thing that Jeshua did, they believed in Him.

Joh 11:46 And some of them went to the Pharisees and told them the thing that Jeshua did.

Joh 11:47 Then the chief priests and the Pharisees gathered together and said, "What will we do? For this man works many miracles.

Joh 11:48 "If we allow him to do this, everyone will believe in Him, and the Romans will come and take away our land and our nation."

Joh 11:49 And one of them, whose name was Caiapha, the chief of the priests that year, said to them, "You do not know anything,

Joh 11:50 "for you do not realise that it is better for us that one man should die for the nation, than that the whole nation should perish."

Joh 11:51 Now he did not say this from his own will; but because he was the chief of the priests that year, he prophesied that Jeshua would die for the nation,

Joh 11:52 and not only for that nation, but also that He would gather together in one kingdom all the children of God who were scattered abroad.

Joh 11:53 And from that day, they decided that they would kill Him.

Joh 11:54 Therefore Jeshua could not walk openly among the Judeans, but He went from there into the wilderness in the country, near a city called Ephraim, and He remained there with His disciples.

Joh 11:55 But the Judean Passover was near, and many came up from the villages to Jerusalem before the Feast to purify their souls.

Joh 11:56 And they sought for Jeshua, and were saying to one another in the Palace, "What do you think; that He will not come to the Feast?"

Joh 11:57 Now the chief priests and the Pharisees had commanded that if anyone knew where He was, he must report it to them, so they could seize Him.

Joh 12:1 Then, six days before the Passover, Jeshua came to Bethany where Lazar was, whom Jeshua had raised from the dead.

Joh 12:2 There they made a banquet for Him and Martha served. Lazar was one of the guests who was with Him.

Joh 12:3 Then Mary took an alabaster vase of the finest nard perfume, very expensive, and anointed the feet of Jeshua, and wiped His feet with her hair. And the house was filled with the fragrance of the perfume.

Joh 12:4 Then one of His disciples, Judas Iscariot, who was about to betray Him, said,

Joh 12:5 “Why was this oil not sold for three hundred denarii and given to the poor?”

Joh 12:6 But he said this, not because he cared for the poor, but because he was a thief, and the money bag was with him; and whatever fell into it he would carry off.

Joh 12:7 Then Jeshua said, “Leave her alone; she has kept this for the day of My burial.

Joh 12:8 “For the poor you have with you always, but Me you do not have always.”

Joh 12:9 Then a great Judean crowd heard that Jeshua was there; and they came, not because of Jeshua alone, but also that they might see Lazar, whom He had raised from the dead.

Joh 12:10 And the chief priests were thinking that they would also kill Lazar, Joh 12:11 because many of the Judeans were leaving them because of him and believing in Jeshua.

Joh 12:12 The next day, great crowds that had come to the Feast, when they heard that Jeshua was coming to Jerusalem,

Joh 12:13 took branches of palm trees and went out to meet Him, and cried out: “Hosanna! ‘Blessed is He who comes in the Name of Jehovah!’¹ The King of Israel!”

Joh 12:14 Then Jeshua found a donkey and sat on it, as it is written:

Joh 12:15 “Fear not, daughter of Zion! Behold, your King is coming, mounted on a colt, the foal of a donkey.”²

Joh 12:16 But his disciples did not understand these things at that time; but when Jeshua was glorified, then His disciples remembered that these things were written about Him and that they had done these things to Him.

Joh 12:17 And the crowd who were with Him bore witness that He had called Lazar from the grave and He had raised him from the house of the dead.

Joh 12:18 Because of this great crowds went out to meet Him, for they heard that He had done this miracle.

Joh 12:19 But the Pharisees said to each other, “Do you see that you are accomplishing nothing? Behold, the whole world follows Him!”

Joh 12:20 Now there were also some gentiles among those who came up to worship during the Feast.

Joh 12:21 These came near to Philip, who was from Bethsaida of Galilee, and asked him, saying to him, “My lord, we wish to see Jeshua.”

Joh 12:22 Philip came and told Andrew, and Andrew and Philip told Jeshua.

Joh 12:23 And Jeshua answered and said to them, “The hour has come that the Son of Mankind will be glorified.

Joh 12:24 “Truly, truly I say to you; unless a grain of wheat falls on the ground and dies, it remains alone; but if it dies, it produces much fruit.

Joh 12:25 “Whoever loves his soul will destroy it, and he who hates his soul in this world will keep it for everlasting life.

Joh 12:26 “If anyone serves Me, let him come and follow Me; and where I am, there My servant will be also. Whoever serves Me, the Father will honour him.

Joh 12:27 “Behold, now My soul is troubled, and what will I say? ‘My Father, deliver Me from this hour’? Instead, for this, I came for this hour.

Joh 12:28 “Father, glorify Your Name.” Then a voice was heard from heaven; “I have glorified it and I will glorify it again.”

Joh 12:29 And the crowd standing there heard it and said that it was thunder. But others said, "an envoy spoke with Him."

Joh 12:30 Jeshua said to them, "This voice did not come for Me, but for you.

Joh 12:31 "Now is the judgement of this world; now the ruler of this world is cast out.

Joh 12:32 "And when I am lifted up from the earth, I will draw all people to Me."¹

Joh 12:33 He said this to show by what death He would die.

Joh 12:34 The crowd said to Him, "We have heard from the Instructions that the Messiah remains forever. "How can You say this about yourself; 'The Son of Mankind is ready to be lifted up.'? Who is this Son of Mankind?"² Joh 12:35 Jeshua said to them, "A little time yet the light is among you. Walk while you have the light, lest the darkness overcomes you; he who walks in the darkness does not know where he is going.

Joh 12:36 "While you have the light, believe in the light, that you may become the descendants of light." Jeshua spoke these things and departed, and was hidden from them.

Joh 12:37 Even though He did all these miracles before them, they did not believe in Him,

Joh 12:38 that the word of Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled, who said: "My Lord, who has believed our report? And to whom has the arm of Jehovah been revealed?"³

Joh 12:39 Therefore they could not believe, because Isaiah said again:

Joh 12:40 "They have blinded their eyes and darkened their hearts, so they would not see with their eyes and understand with their hearts and repent, and I heal them."⁴

Joh 12:42 Nevertheless, even among the rulers many believed in Him, but because of the Pharisees they would not confess Him, lest they be thrown out of the synagogue;

Joh 12:43 for they loved the praise of men more than the glory of God.

Joh 12:44 Then Jeshua cried out and said, "He who believes in Me, it is not in Me he believes but in Him who sent Me.

Joh 12:45 "And he who sees Me sees Him who sent Me.

Joh 12:46 "I have come as the light into the world, that all who believe in Me will not abide in darkness.

Joh 12:47 "And anyone who hears My words but does not keep them, I do not judge him; for I did not come to judge the world but to give life to the world.

Joh 12:48 "He who rejects Me, and does not receive My words, has something which judges him; the word that I have spoken will judge him in the last day.

Joh 12:49 "For I have not spoken from My soul; but the Father who sent Me commanded Me, what I say and what I speak.

Joh 12:50 "And I know that His commands are everlasting life. Therefore, the things I speak are just as the Father has told Me. Thus I speak."

Joh 13:1 But before the Feast of the Passover, Jeshua knew that the time had come that He would depart from this world to His Father, and He loved His own who were in this world, and He loved them to the end.

Joh 13:2 And during supper, He cast Satan into the heart of Judas, Simon Iscariot's son, so that he would betray Him.

Joh 13:3 Then Jeshua, because He knew that the Father had given all things into His hands, and that He had come from

God and He was going to God,

Joh 13:4 He rose from supper and laid aside His garments, took a towel and girded His loins.

Joh 13:5 And He poured water into a basin and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel which girded His loins.

Joh 13:6 But when He came to Simon Peter, Simon said to Him, "My Lord, are You washing my feet for me?"

Joh 13:7 Jeshua answered and said to him, "This thing I am doing you do not understand now, but afterwards you will know."

Joh 13:8 Simon Peter said to Him, "You will never wash my feet for me!" Jeshua said to him, "Unless I wash you, you have no portion with Me."

Joh 13:9 Simon Peter said to Him, "In that case, my Lord, not only wash my feet for me, but also my hands and even my head!"

Joh 13:10 Jeshua said to him, "But he who has been immersed¹ only needs to wash his feet and then all of him is clean; and all of you are clean, but not all of you."

Joh 13:11 For Jeshua knew who would betray Him; because of this He said that not all of you are clean.

Joh 13:12 And when He had washed their feet, He took His garments, reclined and said to them, "Do you know what I have done for you?"

Joh 13:13 "You call me 'our Master' and 'our Lord', and you speak well, for so I am.

Joh 13:14 "Therefore if I, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet for you, how much more should you wash one another's feet?"

Joh 13:15 "For I have given you this example, that as I have done to you, you should also do.

Joh 13:16 "Truly, truly I say to you; there is no servant who is greater than his lord; nor an envoy who is greater than he who sent him.

Joh 13:17 "If you know these things, happy are you if you do them.

Joh 13:18 "I do not speak concerning all of you for I know those whom I have chosen; but that the Writings may be fulfilled, 'He who eats bread with Me has lifted up his heel against Me.'² Joh 13:19 "I am telling you this hour, before it happens, that when it does happen and has occurred, you will believe that I AM! I am.

Joh 13:20 "Truly, truly I say to you; whoever receives him who I send receives Me; and whoever receives Me receives Him who sent Me."

Joh 13:21 Jeshua said these things and He groaned in His spirit, and testified and said, "Truly, truly, I say to you, one of you will betray Me."

Joh 13:22 Then the disciples stared at each other because they did not know whom He spoke about.

Joh 13:23 Now there was one of His disciples reclining on Jeshua's chest, him who Jeshua loved.

Joh 13:24 Simon Peter therefore motioned to this one to ask Him who it was He spoke about.

Joh 13:25 And that disciple fell onto Jeshua's breast and said to Him, "My Lord, who is that person?"

Joh 13:26 Jeshua answered and said, "He is the one for whom I will dip and give a piece of bread to him." And Jeshua dipped the bread and gave it to Judas, the son of Simon Iscariot.

Joh 13:27 And after the piece of bread, Satan entered into him. Then Jeshua said to him, "That which you do, do quickly."

Joh 13:28 But none of those reclining there understood concerning what He said to him.

Judas carried the purse, that Jeshua had commanded him to buy what was needed for the feast or that he should give something to the poor.

Joh 13:30 Judas, having now taken the piece of bread, went at once. And when he departed it was night outside.

Joh 13:31 And Jeshua said, "Now the Son of Mankind is glorified, and God is glorified in Him.

Joh 13:32 "And if God is glorified in Him, God will also glorify Him in Himself, and glorify Him immediately.

Joh 13:33 "My children, I am with you a little while longer. And you will seek Me; and as I said to the Judeans, 'Where I am going, you are unable to come.' and even now I say this to you.¹

Joh 13:34 "A new commandment I give to you, that you are to love one another; just as I have loved you, you also are to love one another.

Joh 13:35 "By this all people will know that you are My disciples, if among you, you have love for one another."

Joh 13:36 Simon Peter said to Him, "Our Lord, where are You going?" Jeshua answered and said to him, "Where I am going you cannot come now, but you will come after Me at the end."

Joh 13:37 Simon Peter said to Him, "My Lord, why can I not come after You now? I will lay down my soul for Your sake."

Joh 13:38 Jeshua said to him, "Will you lay down your soul for Me? Truly, truly, I say to you, the rooster will not crow until you have denied Me three times.

Joh 14:1 "Do not let your heart be troubled; believe in God, and believe in Me.

Joh 14:2 "There are many dwellings in My Father's House. If it were not so, I would have told you, for I go to prepare a place for you.

Joh 14:3 "And if I go to prepare a place for you, I will come again and take you with Me; that where I am, you may be also.²

Joh 14:4 "And where I go you know, and the way you know."

Joh 14:5 Thomas said to Him, "Our Lord, we do not know where You are going, and how are we able to know the way?"

Joh 14:6 Jeshua said to him, "I AM! I am the Way, and the Truth, and the Life. No one comes to My Father except through Me.

Joh 14:7 "If only you had known Me, you would also have known My Father; and from now on you know Him and have seen Him."

Joh 14:8 Philip said to Him, "Our Lord, show us the Father, and that will satisfy us."

Joh 14:9 Jeshua said to him, "Have I been with you all this time, and you do not know Me, Philip? Whoever sees Me sees the Father; so how can you say, 'Show us the Father'?"

Joh 14:10 "Do you not believe that I am in My Father, and My Father is in Me? These words that I speak I do not speak from Myself; and My Father who dwells in Me, He does these works.³

Joh 14:11 "Believe that I am in My Father and My Father is in Me; and if not, believe because of the works.

Joh 14:12 "Truly, truly I say to you that whoever believes in Me, these works that I do, he will do also; and more than these he will do, because I go to the Father.

Joh 14:13 "And whatever you ask in My Name, I will do for you, that the Father may be glorified by His Son.

Joh 14:21 “He who has My commandments with him and keeps them, it is he who loves Me. And he who loves Me will be loved by My Father, and I will love him and reveal Myself to him.”

Joh 14:22 Judas (not Iscariot) said to Him, “My Lord, why is it that You will reveal Yourself to us, and not to the world?”

Joh 14:23 Jeshua answered and said to him, “He who loves Me keeps My word; and My Father will love him, and We will come to him and make Our dwelling with him.²

Joh 14:24 “But he who does not love Me will not keep My words; and this word which you hear is not Mine but the Father’s who sent Me.

Joh 15:4 “Remain in Me, and I in you. Just as the branch cannot yield fruit from itself, unless it remains in the vine, neither can you, unless you remain in Me.

Joh 15:5 “I AM! I am the vine and you are the branches. Whoever remains in Me, and I in him, this one brings forth much fruit; because without Me you are not able to do anything.³

Joh 16:17 Then His disciples were saying one to another, "What is this that He says to us, 'A little while, and you will not see Me; and again a little while, and you will see Me.' and that 'I go to My Father.'?"

Joh 16:18 And they were saying, "What is this that He says, 'A little while'? We do not understand what He says."

Joh 16:19 Now Jeshua knew that they desired to ask Him, and He said to them, "Are you inquiring among yourselves about what I said, 'A little while, and you will not see Me; and again a little while, and you will see Me'?"

Joh 16:20 "Truly, truly I say to you; you will weep and mourn, and the world will rejoice; and there will be sorrow for you, but your sorrow will be turned into joy.

Joh 17:21 “that they will all be one, just as You, My Father, are in Me, and I am in You; so that they also will be one in Us.

Joh 17:22 “And the glory which You gave Me, I have given to them, so that they will be one as We are one, so that the world will believe that You sent Me.

Joh 17:23 “I in them, and You in Me; that they will be perfected as one, and that the world will know that You sent Me, and that You have loved them just as You have also loved Me.

Joh 17:24 “Father, these who You gave Me; I want it to be that where I am, they will also be there with Me, that they will see My glory which You have given Me because You loved Me before the creating of the world.¹

Joh 17:25 “My Righteous Father! Though the world has not known You, I have known You; and these have known that You sent Me.

Joh 17:26 “And I have made Your Name known to them, and I am proclaiming it,² that the love with which You loved Me will be in them, and I will be in them.”

Joh 18:1 Jeshua said these things, and went out with His disciples to a crossing over the Kidron Brook, to the place where there was a garden, and He and His disciples entered.

Joh 18:2 And Judas, the traitor, also knew that place; for Jeshua had met there with His disciples many times.

Joh 18:3 Therefore Judas led troops from the presence of the chief priests and Pharisees. He led and the guards came there with torches, lanterns and weapons.

Joh 18:4 Then Jeshua, because He knew all things that would come upon Him, went out and said to them, “Who are you seeking?”

Joh 18:5 They said to Him, “Jeshua the Nazarene.” Jeshua said to them, “I AM! I am!” And Judas, the traitor, also stood with them.

Joh 18:6 And when Jeshua said to them, “I AM! I am!”; they went backwards and fell to the ground.

Joh 18:7 Jeshua asked them again, “Whom are you seeking?” And they said, “Jeshua the Nazarene.”

Joh 18:8 Jeshua said to them, “I have told you; I AM! I am. Therefore, if you seek Me, you can let these men go.”

Joh 18:9 that the saying might be fulfilled which He spoke, “Of those whom You gave Me I have not lost any of them, not even one.”³

Joh 18:10 But Simon Peter had a sword on him, and he drew it and struck the chief of the priests’s servant, and cut off his right ear. Now the servant’s name was Malek.

Joh 18:11 Then Jeshua said to Peter, “Put your sword into its sheath. Shall I not drink the cup which My Father has given to Me?”

Joh 18:12 Then the troop of soldiers and captains and guards of the Judeans seized Jeshua and bound Him.

Joh 18:13 And they brought Him to Annas first, for he was the father-in-law of Caiapha, who was the chief of the priests that year.

Joh 18:14 Now it was Caiapha who advised the Judeans that it was better that one man should die for the sake of the people.

Joh 18:15 And Simon Peter and one of the other disciples came after Jeshua. Now that disciple was known to the chief of the priests, and went with Jeshua into the courtyard.

Joh 18:16 But Simon stood outside by the gate. Then the other disciple, who was known to the chief of the priests, went out and spoke to the gatekeeper, and brought Simon in.

Joh 18:17 Then the young woman, who was the gatekeeper, said to Simon, "Are you also one of this man's disciples?" He said, "No."

Joh 18:18 The servants and guards had made a fire to warm themselves and stood there, for it was cold. Now Simon also stood with them and warmed himself.

Joh 18:19 Now the chief of the priests questioned Jeshua about His disciples and about His teaching.

Joh 18:20 And Jeshua said to him, "I have spoken openly among the people, and I have always taught in synagogues and in the Palace, where all the Judeans meet, and I have not said anything in secret.¹

Joh 18:21 "Why do you ask Me? Ask those who have heard what I said among them. Behold, they know everything which I have spoken."

Joh 18:22 And when He had said these things, one of the guards who stood by struck Jeshua on his cheek and said to Him, "Do You answer the chief of the priests thus?"

Joh 18:23 Jeshua answered and said to him, "If I have spoken evil, testify against the evil; but if I spoke well, why did you strike Me?"

Joh 18:24 Then Annas sent Jeshua bound to Caiapha the chief of the priests.

Joh 18:25 Now Simon Peter stood and warmed himself. And they said to him, "Are you also one of his disciples?" And he denied it and said, "I am not!"

¹ Isa 45:19 & 48:16

Joh 18:26 One of the servants of the chief of the priests, a relative of him whose ear Simon cut off, said to him, "Did I see you in the garden with him?"

Joh 18:27 Simon denied it again; and at that moment the rooster crowed.

Joh 18:28 Then they brought Jeshua from the presence of Caiapha to the Praetorium, and it was dawn. But they did not go into the Praetorium, so they would not be defiled before they had eaten the Passover.²

Joh 18:29 Then Pilate went outside into their presence and said to them, "What is your accusation against this man?"

Joh 18:30 They answered and said to him, "If he were not an evil-doer, we would not have delivered him to you."

Joh 18:31 Pilate said to them, "You take him and judge him according to your Instructions." The Judeans said to him, "It is not lawful for us to kill anyone."

Joh 18:32 that the saying of Jeshua might be fulfilled when He revealed by which death He would die.

Joh 18:33 But Pilate entered the Praetorium and he called for Jeshua, and said to Him, "Are you their Judean King?"

Joh 18:34 Jeshua said to him, "Are you asking about this for yourself, or have others spoken to you about Me?"

Joh 18:35 Pilate said to Him, "Am I Judean? The children of your own nation

² Literally "while", meaning they would become defiled for the entire day, until after dusk that evening, when it was time to eat the Passover. They would therefore be unable to participate in other religious activities, including preparing their Passover Lamb. This confirms that the Last Supper taken by Jeshua and his disciples had been on the evening that began the Passover Preparation Day, not the following evening after the Passover lamb had been slain and was to be eaten, on what then became the First Sabbath Day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread. This also means that Jeshua died when the Passover Lambs were to be slain.

and the chief priests themselves have delivered you to me. What have you done?"

Joh 18:36 Jeshua said to him, "My kingdom is not of this world. If My kingdom were of this world, My servants would have fought, so that I would not have been delivered to the Judeans; but now My kingdom is not from here."

Joh 18:37 Pilate said to Him, "Therefore you are a king." Jeshua replied to him, "You say that I am a king. For this cause I was born, and for this cause I have come into the world: that I should testify concerning the Truth. Everyone who is of the Truth hears My voice."

Joh 18:38 Pilate said to Him, "What is truth?" And when he had said this, he went out again to the Judeans, and said to them, "I do not find even one fault against him."

Joh 18:39 "But you have a custom that I should release one person to you at Passover. Therefore, do you want me to release to you this King of the Judeans?"

Joh 18:40 And they all cried out and said, "Not this man, but Barabbas!" Now this Barabbas was a robber.

Joh 19:1 Then Pilate scourged Jeshua,

Joh 19:2 and the soldiers wove a crown of thorns and put it on His head, and they put purple garments on Him.

Joh 19:3 Then they said, "Peace to you, King of the Judeans!" And they struck Him on his cheeks.

Joh 19:4 Pilate went outside again, and said to them, "Behold, I am bringing him outside to you, that you may know that I find not even one fault against him."

Joh 19:5 Then Jeshua went outside, while wearing the crown of thorns and the purple garments. And Pilate said to them, "Behold the man!"

Joh 19:6 And when the chief priests and guards saw Him, they cried out, saying, "Impale him!¹ Impale him!" Pilate said to them, "You take and impale him, for I am not able to find a fault in him."

Joh 19:7 The Judeans said to him, "We have our Instructions, and according to our Instructions he deserves death, because he made himself the Son of God."

Joh 19:8 And when Pilate heard this word, he was all the more afraid, Joh 19:9 and he went into the Praetorium again and said to Jeshua, "Where are You from?" But Jeshua did not give him a reply.

Joh 19:10 Pilate said to Him, "You do not speak with me? Do you realise that I have authority to release You, and authority to impale You?"

Joh 19:11 Jeshua said to him, "You would have no authority over Me whatsoever if it had not been given to you from above. Because of this, the sin of the one who delivered Me to you is greater than yours."

Joh 19:12 From then on Pilate sought to release Him, but the Judeans cried out, saying, "If you let this man go, you are not Caesar's friend. Whoever makes himself a king speaks against Caesar."

Joh 19:13 Therefore when Pilate heard that saying, he brought Jeshua out and sat down in the judgement seat in a place that is called The Pavement of Stones, but in Hebrew, Gpitha.

Joh 19:14 But the evening of the Passover had turned, and it was about the sixth hour.² And he said to the Judeans, which is then fastened upright. It was the Roman government's most horrific way to kill someone. The lack of a capital H in him is to emphasize their disrespect of Jeshua.

² Two notes here: First, John is saying that the night portion of the Passover, which is the preparation day leading into the Feast of Unleavened Bread, had finished. It was now dawn of the preparation day and the Passover Lambs would be sacrificed before the day ended. Secondly, the sixth hour clearly refers to the Roman timekeeping system being used by Pilate, which had two twelve hour cycles

¹ Impaling Jeshua means to nail Him to a post

“Behold your King!”

Joh 19:15 But they cried out, “Take him away! Take him away! Impale him! Impale him!” Pilate said to them, “Should I impale your King?” The chief priests said to him, “We have no king but Caesar!”

Joh 19:16 So he delivered Him to them so they could impale Him. So they took Jeshua and led Him away.¹

Joh 19:17 And He, carrying His stake, went out to a place called The Skull, which is called in Hebrew, Gogoltha,

Joh 19:18 where they impaled Him,² and two others with Him, one on one side and one on the other side, and Jeshua in between.³

Joh 19:19 Now Pilate wrote a title and put it on His stake. And the writing was: This is Jeshua of Nazareth, The King of the Judeans.

Joh 19:20 Then many of the Judeans read this title, for the place where Jeshua was impaled was near the city; and it was written in Aramaic, Greek, and Latin.

Joh 19:21 Then the chief priests said to Pilate, “Do not write, ‘He is the King of the Judeans,’ instead, ‘He said, “I am the King of the Judeans.””

Joh 19:22 Pilate answered, “What I have written, I have written.”

Joh 19:23 Then the soldiers, when they had impaled Jeshua, took His garments and made four parts, to each soldier a part, and also the tunic. Now the tunic was without a seam, woven from the top in one piece.

Joh 19:24 Therefore they said one to another, “Let us not tear it, but let us cast lots for it, to find whose it will be,” that the Writing might be fulfilled which says: “They divided My garments among them, beginning at midnight and noon. The Hebrew system began at dusk and dawn.

² Num 21:7-9

and for My clothing they cast lots.”⁴ So the soldiers did these things.

Joh 19:25 And there near the stake of Jeshua stood His mother, and His mother’s sister, and Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene.

Joh 19:26 Jeshua and the disciple whom He loved saw His mother standing there. He said to His mother, “Woman, behold your son!”

Joh 19:27 And He said to that disciple, “Behold your mother!” And from that hour that disciple took her with him.

Joh 19:28 After this, Jeshua, knowing that all things were now completed, that the Writing might be fulfilled, said, “I thirst!”

Joh 19:29 Now a vessel full of vinegar was placed there; and they filled a sponge with vinegar, put it on hyssop, and brought it to His mouth.⁵

Joh 19:30 So when Jeshua had taken the vinegar, He said, “Behold! It is finished!” And bowing His head, He gave up His spirit.

Joh 19:31 And the Judeans, because it was late afternoon, said, “These bodies should not remain on the stakes because the Sabbath will soon begin.”⁶ For that Sabbath would be a Great Day,⁷ so they asked Pilate that the legs of those who were impaled might be broken, and that they might take them down.

Joh 19:32 Then the soldiers came and broke the legs of the first man and then those of the other man who were impaled with Him.

⁶ As in Deu 21:22-3. Literally “the Sabbath was dawning” in the Greek.

⁷ The coming Great Day was the First Day of Unleavened Bread, one of the Annual Sabbaths (Holy Days) as confirmed in Lev 23:5-7 and verse 18:28 above. It occurs on different days of the week from year to year, as the Biblical month begins on the evening when the new moon crescent is sighted.

Joh 19:33 But when they came to Jeshua they saw that He was already dead and they did not break His legs.

Joh 19:34 But one of the soldiers stabbed His side with a spear, and immediately blood and water came out.¹

Joh 19:35 And the one who saw it has testified, and his witness is true; and he knows that he spoke the truth, that you may believe.

Joh 19:36 For these things happened so the Writing would be fulfilled which said, "Not one of His bones will be broken."²

Joh 19:37 And again another Writing says, "They will look at Him whom they pierced."³

Joh 19:38 After this, Joseph from Arimathea, because he was a disciple of Jeshua, but secretly, for fear of the Judeans, begged Pilate that he might take the body of Jeshua; and Pilate gave permission. So he came and took Jeshua's body.

Joh 19:39 And Nicodemus, who had previously come to Jeshua by night, also came, and he brought with him spices, myrrh and aloes, about one hundred pounds.⁴

Joh 19:40 Then they took Jeshua's body and the spices and bound them with linen, as is the Judean custom when they bury.

Joh 19:41 Now there was a garden in the place where Jeshua was impaled, and in the garden was a new burial house in which no one had yet been laid.

Joh 19:42 So they laid Jeshua there, because the Sabbath was approaching and because the tomb was nearby.⁵

Joh 20:1 Now on the first day of the week,⁶ Mary Magdalene came to the burial house in the early morning while it was dark, and she saw the stone removed from the tomb.

Joh 20:2 Then she ran and came to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple whom Jeshua loved, and she told them, "They have taken our Lord from the burial house, and I do not know where they put Him."

Joh 20:3 Therefore, Simon and the other disciple went out, and came to the tomb.

Joh 20:4 So they both ran together, and the other disciple ran in front of Simon and arrived at the burial house first.

Joh 20:5 And he looked in and saw the linen lying there, but he did not enter.

Joh 20:6 Simon came after him, entered into the burial house and he saw the linen lying there,

Joh 20:7 and the burial cloth that had been wrapped around His head, not with the linen, but folded and put aside in a certain place.

Joh 20:8 Then the other disciple who had arrived at the burial house first also went in and saw and he believed.

Joh 20:9 Then the disciples went away to their place again,

Joh 20:10 for they did not yet understand from the Writings that He was to rise from the dead.

Joh 20:11 But Mary stood at the tomb weeping, and while she wept she looked into the grave.

Joh 20:12 And she saw two envoys in white, one who was sitting at His pillow and the other where the feet of Jeshua's body had lain.

Joh 20:13 And they said to her, "Woman, why do you weep?" She said to them, "Because they have taken my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid Him.”

Unleavened Bread is the Wave Sheaf Offering day, which celebrates Jeshua's resurrection and ascent to Heaven and also begins the seven weeks and a day count to the Feast of Weeks (Pentecost) See Lev 23:4-16, also Mat 28:1, Mar 16:9 & Luk 24:1.

Joh 20:14 She said this and she turned around and saw Jeshua standing there, but did not know it was Jeshua.

Joh 20:15 Jeshua said to her, “Woman, why do you weep, and whom do you seek?” But she thought He was the gardener and she said to Him, “My lord, if You have taken Him, tell me where You have laid Him, and I will go and take Him.”

Joh 20:16 Jeshua said to her, “Mary!” She turned and said to Him in Hebrew, “Rabbuli!”, which means Teacher.

Joh 20:17 Jeshua said to her, “Do not touch Me, for I have not ascended to My Father yet; but go to My brethren and tell them I am ascending to My Father and your Father and My God and your God.”

Joh 20:18 Mary Magdalene came and declared to the disciples “I have seen our Lord!”, and that He had said these things to her.

Joh 20:19 Then, during the evening of the first day of that week,¹ when the doors were barred where the disciples were assembled, for fear of the Judeans, Jeshua came and stood in their midst, and said to them, “Peace be with you.”

Joh 20:20 He said this, and He showed them His hands and His side. And the disciples rejoiced because they saw our Lord.

Joh 20:21 Then Jeshua said to them again, “Peace be with you! Just as My Father has sent Me, I also send you.”

Joh 20:22 And when He had said these things, He breathed onto them, and said to them, “Receive the Holy Spirit.

Joh 20:23 “If you forgive anyone’s sins, they will be forgiven to them; if you retain anyone’s, they will be retained.”

¹ As in Joh 20:1, the first day of that week refers to the Wave Sheaf Offering day, which begins the count to the Feast of Weeks (Pentecost). This occurred as the day was coming to an end.

Joh 20:24 Now Thomas, one of the twelve, who was called the Twin, was not with them when Jeshua came.

Joh 20:25 And the disciples said to him, “We have seen our Lord.” But he said to them, “Unless I see in His hands the marks from the nails, and I place my finger into them, and I reach out and place my hand into His side, I will not believe.”

Joh 20:26 And after eight days His disciples were again inside, and Thomas was with them. And Jeshua came while the doors were locked, and stood in the midst, and said to them, “Peace be with you!”

Joh 20:27 Then He said to Thomas, “Place your finger here, and see My hands; and reach your hand here, and place it in My side.² Do not be an unbeliever, but a believer.”³

Joh 20:28 And Thomas answered and said to Him, “My Lord and my God!”

Joh 20:29 Jeshua said to him, “Because you have seen Me, you have believed. Blessed are those who do not see Me and yet believe.”

Joh 20:30 And Jeshua did many other miracles in the presence of His disciples that are not written in this book.

Joh 20:31 But these are written that you may believe that Jeshua is indeed the Anointed, the Son of God, and when you believe you may have everlasting life in His Name.

Joh 21:1 After these things Jeshua Himself appeared again to His disciples by the Sea of Tiberias, and He appeared in this way:

Joh 21:2 These were together; Simon Peter, and Thomas, called the Twin, and Nathaniel of Cana in Galilee, and the sons of Zebedee, and two of the other disciples.

² As prophesied in Psa 22:16, Jeshua’s hands had been pierced when he was nailed (impaled) to the stake. Luk 24:36-40 confirms His feet had also been pierced with nails.

³ 1Co 15:15

Joh 21:3 Simon Peter said to them, "I am going fishing." They said to him, "We are also going with you." They went out and got into the boat, but that night they did not catch anything.

Joh 21:4 But when the morning came, Jeshua stood on the shore of the sea; and the disciples did not realise that it was Jeshua.

Joh 21:5 Then Jeshua said to them, "Children, have you anything to eat?" They said to Him, "No."

Joh 21:6 He said to them, "Cast your net from the right side of the boat, and you will find some." So they cast it, and now they were not able to drag it in because of the multitude of fish it had caught.

Joh 21:7 Therefore that disciple whom Jeshua loved said to Peter, "This is our Lord!" Now when Simon heard that it was our Lord, he put on his garment, because his loins were naked, and plunged into the sea so he could come to Jeshua.

Joh 21:8 But the other disciples came by boat for they were not far from land, only about two hundred cubits, and they were dragging in that net of fish.

Joh 21:9 And when they had come up onto land, they saw burning coals there, and fish and bread were placed on them.

Joh 21:10 Then Jeshua said to them, "Bring some of those fish that you have caught now."

Joh 21:11 Simon Peter went in and dragged the net to land. It was full, with one hundred and fifty-three large fish; yet with all this weight, the net was not torn.

Joh 21:12 Jeshua said to them, "Come and eat." But not one of the disciples dared to ask Him who He was, for they knew that He was our Lord.

Joh 21:13 Jeshua then came near and took the bread and fish and gave it to them.

Joh 21:14 This was the third time Jeshua had appeared to His disciples after He had risen from the house of the dead.

Joh 21:15 But after they had eaten, Jeshua said to Simon Peter, "Simon, son of Jonah, do you love Me more than these?" He said to Him, "Yes, my Lord; You know that I love You." He said to him, "Shepherd My lambs for Me."

Joh 21:16 He said to him again a second time, "Simon, son of Jonah, do you love Me?" He said to Him, "Yes, my Lord; You know that I love You." Jeshua said to him, "Shepherd My sheep for Me."

Joh 21:17 He said to him the third time, "Simon, son of Jonah, do you love Me?" Peter was saddened because He said to him three times, "Do you love Me?" And he said to Him, "My Lord, You know all things; You know that I love You." Jeshua said to him, "Shepherd My ewes for Me.

Joh 21:18 "Truly, truly, I say to you, that when you were young, you girded your loins and you walked where you wanted; but when you are old, you will stretch out your hands, and others will gird you and take you where you do not want."

Joh 21:19 And this He spoke, that He could show by what death he would glorify God. And after He spoke these things, He said to him, "Follow Me."

Joh 21:20 Then Simon Peter turned around and saw the disciple whom Jeshua loved following, who had leaned on Jeshua's breast at the supper, and said, "My Lord, who is he that will betray You?"

Joh 21:21 When Peter saw this one, he said to Jeshua, "My Lord, what about this one?"

Joh 21:22 Jeshua said to him, "If I will that this one remain until I come, what is that to you? You follow Me."

Joh 21:23 Then this saying went out among the brethren; that this disciple would not die. But Jeshua did not say to him that he would not die, but said, "If I will that this one remain until I come, what is that to you?"

Joh 21:24 This is the disciple who testifies about all these things, and he also wrote them; and we know that his testimony is true.

Joh 21:25 And there are also many other things that Jeshua did, which if every one was to be written, I suppose that not even the world would be sufficient for the books that would be written.

Acts

Act 1:1 The first Writing I wrote, O Lover of God,¹ was about all those things that our Lord Jeshua the Messiah began to do and to teach,

Act 1:2 until that day during which He was taken up, after He had instructed the apostles whom He had chosen through the Holy Spirit.

Act 1:3 He also revealed Himself to be alive to them after His suffering with many signs: He was seen by them during forty days and He spoke concerning the Kingdom of God.

Act 1:4 And while He ate bread with them He commanded them that they should not depart from Jerusalem, for they should wait for the Promise of the Father: "He whom you have heard about from Me;

Act 1:5 "for John immersed with water, but you will be immersed by the Holy Spirit in a few days."

Act 1:6 Then, while they were assembled, they asked Him, saying to Him, "Our Lord, will You restore the kingdom to Israel at this time?"

Act 1:7 He said to them, "It is not yours to know this time or the other times which the Father has placed in His own authority.

Act 1:8 "But when the Holy Spirit has come upon you, you will receive power; and you will be My witnesses in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and also among the Samaritans, and to the end of the earth."

Act 1:9 And after He spoke these things, while they watched Him, He was taken up and a cloud received Him and He was hidden from their eyes.

Act 1:10 And while they were staring into heaven as He departed, two men were found standing near them in white apparel, Act 1:11 and they said to them, "Men of Galilee, why are you standing there staring into heaven? This Jeshua, who was taken up from you into heaven, He will come just as you saw Him ascend into heaven."

Act 1:12 After that they returned to Jerusalem from the mountain called Bayth Zaytha,² which is on the side of Jerusalem and seven furlongs distant from it.

Act 1:13 And after they entered, they went up into an upper room that they were staying in: Peter, John, Jacob, Andrew, Philip and Thomas, Matthew, Bartholomew, Jacob the son of Alphaeus, Simon the Zealot and Judas the son of Jacob.

Act 1:14 They were all steadfast, like one in prayer with one soul; with the women and Jeshua's mother Mary, and with His brothers.

Act 1:15 And during those days Simon Peter stood up in the midst of the disciples, there were about a hundred and twenty men gathered there, and he said,

Act 1:16 "Men, our brethren, it was right that this Writing had to be fulfilled, which the Holy Spirit spoke before this time by the mouth of David concerning Judas, who became a guide to those who arrested Jeshua;³

Act 1:17 "for he was numbered with us and he obtained a part in this service.

Act 1:18 "This is he who purchased a field for himself from the rewards of sin, and he fell on his face and his middle burst open and all his entrails gushed out.

Act 1:19 "And this has become known to all who dwell in Jerusalem; so that field is called in the local language, Khaqel Dema,⁴ which is translated as Field of Blood.

Act 1:22 “going from the immersion of John to the day when He was taken up in our presence, that he will be a witness of His resurrection with us.”

Act 1:23 And they asked two to stand: Joseph called Barsabas, who was surnamed Justus, and Matthias.

Act 1:24 And after they prayed, they said, “You, Lord Jah,³ know what is in the hearts of all. Reveal which one of these two that You have chosen,

Act 1:25 “that he might receive a part in this service and apostleship from which Judas departed, that he might go to his place.”

Act 1:26 And they cast lots, and it fell on Matthias. And he was numbered with the eleven apostles.

Known as the Feast of Weeks (Exo 34:22, Deu 16:10, 2Ch 8:13), Feast of Harvest (Exo 23:16) and Day of First-Fruits (Lev 23:15-22, Num 28:26) in the Old Covenant. As the count of days leading to Pentecost has been fulfilled, this day is Pentecost. The Peshitta uses Pentegawste ܦܢܬܝܓܐܘܫܬܐ, an Aramaic transliteration of Pentecost in this verse, Acts 20:16 and 1Cor 16:8, thus acknowledging the spread of Christianity into Greek speaking regions by the time Acts was written.

Act 2:2 And suddenly there was a sound from heaven, like a mighty wind, and the whole house in which they were sitting was filled by it.

Act 2:3 And there appeared to them tongues like fire that divided, and they sat on each one of them.

Act 2:4 And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and they proceeded to speak in languages, whatever language the Spirit gave them to speak.

Act 2:5 There were men dwelling in Jerusalem then who feared God, Judeans from all nations under heaven.

Act 2:6 And when that noise occurred, the entire populace gathered and was agitated, because everyone heard them speaking in their own languages.

Act 2:7 Then they were all astonished and marvelled, and they were saying, each to the other, “Behold, are not all these who are speaking Galileans?”

Act 2:8 “So how are we hearing, everyone in his language in which we were born?”

Act 2:9 “Parthians, Medes and Elamites, and those dwelling between the Rivers,⁵ Judeans and Cappadocians, and those who are from the regions of Pontus and Asia, Act 2:10 “and from the regions of the Phrygians and Pamphylia, and of Egypt and of the regions of Libya which are near Cyrene, and those who came from Rome; Judeans and proselytes,

Act 2:11 “and those from Crete and Arabia. Behold, we are hearing some of them speaking in our own languages of the wonders of God.”

Act 2:12 So they were all astonished and bewildered as they were saying one to another, “What is occurring?”

Act 2:13 But others were mocking them and they were saying, “They have drunk new wine and have become drunk.”

⁵ The Aramaic is Bayth-Nahrayn ܒܝܬ-ܢܗܪܝܢ, meaning the area between the Tigris and Euphrates rivers.

Act 2:14 Then Simon Peter arose with the eleven apostles, and he lifted up his voice and said to them, “Men, Judeans and all who dwell in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and pay attention to my words.

Act 2:15 “For these are not drunk, as you are thinking, for behold, it is only the third hour now.¹

Act 2:16 “Instead, this is what was spoken by Joel the prophet:

Act 2:17 ‘It will be done in the last days,’ says God. ‘I will pour out My Spirit on everyone. Your sons and your daughters will prophesy, and your young men will see visions and your elders will dream dreams.

Act 2:18 ‘And upon My menservants and upon My maidservants I will pour My Spirit in those days; and they will prophesy.

Act 2:19 ‘And I will give signs in the heavens and mighty deeds on the earth: blood and fire and columns of smoke.

Act 2:20 ‘The sun will be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, until the great and awesome day of Jehovah comes.²

Act 2:21 ‘And it will be that everyone who calls on the Name of Jehovah will receive life.’³

Act 2:22 “Men, descendants of Israel, hear these words: Jeshua the Nazarene, the Man from God who appeared to you with miracles and signs and mighty deeds, which God did among you by his hand, as you know.

Act 2:23 “This One, who was separated to Him for this, by the prior knowledge and will of God, you have betrayed into the hands of the wicked and you have impaled and murdered Him.

Act 2:24 “But God raised Him up, and He released the cords of Sheol, because it was not possible for Him to be held captive in Sheol.

Act 2:25 “For David said about Him: ‘I see Jehovah⁴ always before me, who is at my right hand, that I should not be shaken;

Act 2:26 ‘therefore my heart rejoices, and my glory celebrates; and my body will also rest in hope,

Act 2:27 ‘because You will not leave my soul in Sheol, and You will not allow Your Holy One to look on destruction.’⁵

Act 2:28 ‘You have shown the ways of life to me; you will fill me with joy with Your presence.’⁶

Act 2:29 “Men and brethren, it is permitted to say boldly⁷ to you that the patriarch David died and was also buried, and his tomb is with us to this day.

Act 2:30 “He was a prophet and he knew that God had sworn with an oath to him that “One from the fruit of your body I will seat on your throne.”⁸

Act 2:31 “And foreseeing this, He spoke about the resurrection of the Messiah, that He would not be left in Sheol, nor would His body see corruption.⁹

Act 2:32 “God has raised up this Jeshua, and all of us are His witnesses.

Act 2:33 “And He is the One exalted at ⁴ As in Psa 16:8; the Peshitta uses “My Lord”.

⁵ Unlike the Greek underworld, from the Biblical viewpoint Sheol is simply where all of the dead sleep in death awaiting resurrection (ie- their grave). It also appears from this passage, and vs 31, that Jehovah divinely prevented Jeshua’s body from deteriorating (being destroyed) while he was in the grave for the three days and nights, as a sign of respect for His Son who did not deserve to die.

the right hand of God, and He has received from the Father a promise about the Holy Spirit, and He has poured out this gift, which behold, you are seeing and you are hearing.

Act 2:34 “For David has not ascended into heaven, but he says: ‘Jehovah said to my Lord, “You sit at My right,

Act 2:35 until I make your enemies a footstool for your feet.”¹

Act 2:36 “Therefore let the whole house of Israel know truly that Lord Jah² has made this Jeshua, whom you impaled, God and the Messiah.”³

Act 2:37 And when they heard these things, they were stricken in their hearts, and they said to Simon and the rest of the apostles, “Brethren, what should we do?”

Act 2:38 And Simon said to them, “Repent, and every one of you be immersed in the Name of Lord Jah,⁴ Jeshua, for the release from sins so you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit.

Act 2:39 “For the promise is to you and to your children, and to all those who are far off, to those who God calls.”

Act 2:40 And with many other words he testified to them and he beseeched them, as he said, “Be saved from this perverse generation.”

Act 2:41 And among the people were those who readily received his word, and they believed and were immersed; and in that day about three thousand souls were added.

Act 2:42 And they continued in the apostles’ teaching, and they were partakers in prayer and in the breaking of the Eucharist.⁵

¹ Psalm 110:1, the Peshitta renders this as ‘Lord Jah’.

² As in the Peshitta.

³ Num 21:7-9

⁴ As in the Peshitta. Here Peter joins the names of Jah and Jeshua together, showing that Jeshua can also be referred to as Lord Jah.

⁵ The Peshitta has Eukharestyā אֲכָרִסְטְיָא

Act 2:43 Then fear came upon every soul, and many signs and miracles occurred by the hands of the apostles in Jerusalem.

Act 2:44 Now all those who believed were as one, and everything they had was held in common,

Act 2:45 and those who had a possession would sell it, and would divide it according to what each one needed.

Act 2:46 So every day they were in the Palace, with one soul, and at home they were breaking bread, and they received their food with rejoicing and simplicity of heart,

Act 2:47 while they were praising God and finding favour with all the people. And every day our Lord added to those who lived with the assembly.

Act 3:1 And while Simon Peter and John went to the Palace together, at the time of the ninth hour prayer, Act 3:2 behold, men were carrying a certain man, lame from his mother’s womb, who they regularly placed at the gate of the Palace which was called Beautiful, so he could ask for alms from those who were entering the Palace.

Act 3:3 This man, seeing Simon and John about to enter the Palace, asked them to give him alms.

Act 3:4 So Simon and John looked at him, and they said, “Look at us.”

Act 3:5 So he looked at them, expecting to receive something from them.

Act 3:6 Simon said to him, “Gold and silver I do not have, but I will give to you what I have: In the Name of Jeshua, the Messiah of Nazareth, stand up and walk.”

Act 3:7 And he took him by his right hand and lifted him up, and immediately his feet and ankle bones were strengthened.

Act 3:8 So he leapt up, stood and walked, and entered into the Palace with them; all the while walking, leaping, and praising God.

Act 3:9 And all the people saw him walking and praising God.

Act 3:10 Then they recognised him as the beggar who would sit at the Beautiful Gate of the Palace all day asking for alms; and they were filled with wonder and amazement at what had happened.

Act 3:11 And while he held on to Simon and John, all the people ran to them in the porch which was called Solomon's, greatly amazed.

Act 3:12 So when Simon saw it, he responded and said to them: "Descendants of men of Israel, why do you marvel at this? Or why do you stare at us, as though by our own strength or authority we made this man walk?

Act 3:13 "The God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, the God of our forefathers, He has glorified His Son Jeshua, whom you delivered up and denied before Pilate's face, after he was determined to let Him go.

Act 3:14 "But you denied the Holy and Just One, and you asked for a murderer to be given to you, Act 3:15 "and you killed the Prince of Life, whom God raised from the house of the dead, and we are all His witnesses.

Act 3:16 "And through faith in His Name, this man whom you see and know, He has strengthened and healed. And the faith that is in Him has given him this wholeness before all of you.

Act 3:17 "Yet now, our brethren, I know that you did this through deception, as did your leaders.

Act 3:18 "But according to those things which God foretold and preached by the mouths of all the prophets, that His Messiah would suffer, has been fulfilled through this.

Act 3:19 "Therefore repent and be converted, that your sins will be blotted out, and times of refreshing will come from the face of Lord Jah,¹ Act 3:20 "and that He will send that which was prepared for you, Jeshua the Messiah, Act 3:21 "whom heaven must receive until the time of all the things which God has spoken by the mouth of all His holy prophets of old is fulfilled.

Act 3:22 "For Moses said: 'Jehovah will raise up for you a Prophet like me from your brethren. Listen to Him in everything that He speaks to you.

Act 3:23 'And it will come to pass that every soul who will not hear that Prophet will perish from among the people.'²

Act 3:24 "And all the prophets, from Samuel and those who were after him, spoke and preached about those days.

Act 3:25 "You are the descendants of the prophets, and of the covenant which God placed on our forefathers when He said to Abraham, 'In your seed all the families of the earth will be blessed.'³

Act 3:26 "To you first, God sent His Son Jeshua, appointed as a blessing to you, if you turn and repent from your iniquities."

Act 4:1 Now while they spoke these words to the people, the priests, the Sadducees, and the leaders of the palace rose against them,

Act 4:2 as they were furious about them, for they taught the people and preached that the Messiah was resurrected from the house of the dead.

Act 4:3 And they laid hands on them, and kept watch over them until the next day, for evening was drawing near.

Act 4:4 But many of those who heard the words believed; and they numbered about five thousand men.

² Deu 18:15, 18-19, the Peshitta uses 'Lord Jah'.

Act 4:5 And the next day the leaders, elders, and scribes assembled,

Act 4:6 and also Annas, the chief of the priests Caiapha, John, and Alexander, and those from the family of the chief of the priests.

Act 4:7 And when they had put them in the midst, they asked them, "By what power or by what name have you done this?"

Act 4:8 Then Simon Peter was filled with the Holy Spirit and he said to them, "Leaders of the people and elders of the house of Israel, listen:

Act 4:9 "If we are judged by you today for the good deed which happened to the sick man, by what means this man has been healed, Act 4:10 "let this be known to you, and to all the people of Israel, that by the Name of Jeshua the Anointed of Nazareth, whom you impaled, and whom God raised from the house of the dead; behold, by this same One this man stands before you whole.

Act 4:11 "This is the 'stone which these builders rejected, and He has become the chief cornerstone.'¹

Act 4:12 "Nor is there salvation in any other man, for there is no other name under heaven which is given to men by which we can receive life."

Act 4:13 Now when they heard the words which Simon and John spoke boldly, and perceived that they were uneducated men who did not know the scrolls, they marvelled at them. And they recognized that they were associates of Jeshua.

Act 4:14 And they saw the lame man who had been healed standing with them, and they were not able to say anything against them.

Act 4:15 When they had commanded them to be removed from their council, they were saying to one another, Act 4:16 "What should we do to these men? For behold, a visible miracle has been done by their hands and is known to all who dwell in Jerusalem, and we cannot deny it.

Act 4:17 "But so this news spreads no further among the people, let us threaten them, that from now on they will not speak in this name to anyone among the descendants of men."

Act 4:18 And they called them and commanded them that they should absolutely not speak nor teach in the name of Jeshua.

Act 4:19 But Simon Peter and John replied and said to them, "If it is right before God that we obey you more than God, you judge.

Act 4:20 "For we are not able to not speak about the things which we have seen and heard."

Act 4:21 So they threatened them and released them, for they could not place a charge on their heads, because of the people, for everyone glorified God for what had happened.

Act 4:22 For the man on whom this sign of healing had happened was more than forty years old.

Act 4:23 And when they were released, they went to their brethren and reported to them everything that the chief priests and elders had said.

Act 4:24 So when they heard, they raised their voice to God with one accord and said: "Lord Jah,² You are God, who made heaven and earth and the seas, and all that is in them.

Act 4:25 "And you are He who through the Holy Spirit spoke by the mouth of Your servant David: 'Why were the nations in tumult, and the people plot vain things?

against Jehovah and against His Messiah.¹

Act 4:27 "For truly against Your holy Son Jeshua, the one whom You have anointed; Herod and Pilate, with the gentiles and the assembly of Israel, gathered Act 4:28 "to do everything that Your hand and Your will decided would be.

Act 4:29 "Even now, Lord Jah,² look and see their threats, and grant to Your servants that they will boldly speak Your Word,

Act 4:30 "while You extend Your hand for healings and miracles and signs to be done in the Name of Your holy Son Jeshua."

Act 4:31 And after they had asked and prayed, the place where they were assembled was shaken; and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and they spoke the word of God boldly.

Act 4:32 Now the assembly of those who believed had one soul and one mind; nor did anyone among them say that anything he possessed was his, instead they had all things in common.

Act 4:33 And with great power the apostles were testifying about the resurrection of Jeshua the Messiah. And great grace was with them all.

Act 4:34 And there was no one among them who lacked; for those who had possessed fields and houses would sell them, and bring the proceeds of whatever was sold,

Act 4:35 and place them at the apostles' feet; and they distributed it to each man according to whatever they would need.

Act 4:36 And Joses, who was also named Barnabas by the apostles (which is translated Son of Encouragement), a Levite of the country of Cyprus, Act 4:37 had a field, and he sold it and brought the money and laid it before the apostles' feet.

² As in the Peshitta.

Act 5:1 But a certain man named Khananjah,³ with his wife named Shapeera,⁴ sold his field.

Act 5:2 And he took part of the sale price and hid it, and his wife knew it, and he brought some of the silver and laid it at the apostles' feet.

Act 5:3 But Simon said to him, "Khananjah, why has Satan filled your heart, that you lie to the Holy Spirit and hide some of the silver from the land?

Act 5:4 "Was it not yours before you sold it? And after it was sold, were you not in control of the proceeds? Why have you decided in your heart to do this thing? You have not lied to men but to God."⁵

Act 5:5 When Khananjah heard these words, he fell down and died. So great fear was among all those who heard these things.

Act 5:6 And the young men among them rose and gathered him up, took him out, and buried him.

Act 5:7 Now after about three hours had passed, his wife came in, not knowing what had happened.

Act 5:8 And Simon said to her, "Tell me, are these the proceeds you sold the land for?" And she said, "Yes, these are the proceeds."

Act 5:9 Simon said to her, "Because you have decided to test the Spirit of Lord Jah,⁶ behold, the feet of those who dug your husband's grave are at the door, and they will carry you out."

Act 5:10 Then she immediately fell before their feet and died. And the young men came in and found her dead, and they gathered her up and buried her beside her husband.

Act 5:11 So there was great fear upon all the assembly and upon all who heard these things.

Act 5:12 And through the hands of the apostles many signs and mighty deeds occurred among the people. And they were all assembled together in Solomon's Porch.

Act 5:13 And not one of the others dared to touch¹ them, for the people magnified them highly.

Act 5:14 And more were added to those who believe in Lord Jah,² an assembly of men and women.

Act 5:15 Then they brought the sick out into the streets, while laying them on pallets, so when Simon came, at least his shadow might fall on them.

Act 5:16 Now many came to them from other cities around Jerusalem, bringing the sick and those who had unclean spirits, and all of them were healed.

Act 5:17 Then the chief of the priests and all those with him who were of the teachings of the Sadducees were filled with envy, Act 5:18 and they put hands on the apostles, seized and bound them in prison.

Act 5:19 Then, during the night an envoy of Lord Jah³ opened the prison door and brought them out, and said to them,

Act 5:20 "Go, stand at the Palace and speak to the people all these Words of Life."

Act 5:21 And they went out at dawn, entered the Palace and taught. Now the chief of the priests and those with him called for their companions and the elders of Israel, and sent to the prison to bring the apostles.

² As in the Peshitta.

³ As in the Peshitta.

Act 5:22 But when those who they sent went, they did not find them in prison, and they returned,

Act 5:23 saying, "We found that the prison was locked securely, and also the guards stood at the doors; but when we opened the door, we did not find a man there!"

Act 5:24 Now when the chief priests and the palace leaders heard these words, they were astonished and were thinking "What is this?"

Act 5:25 Then a man came and informed them that, "Those men that you confined in prison, behold, they are standing in the Palace and teaching the people!"

Act 5:26 Then the leaders departed with the guards to bring them, but not with violence, for they were afraid that the people would stone them.

Act 5:27 And when they had brought them, they stood them before all the council. And the chief of the priests began saying to them,

Act 5:28 "Indeed, did we not command you that you are not to teach anyone in this name? Now behold, you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching, and you desire to bring this man's blood on us!"

Act 5:29 Simon answered with the apostles and said to them: "It is proper to be persuaded towards God more than towards men.

Act 5:30 "The God of our forefathers raised up Jeshua, who you murdered when you hung Him on a tree.

Act 5:31 "God has appointed this One to be Prince and Saviour and He has exalted Him at His right hand, so that He can give repentance and forgiveness of sins to Israel.⁴

Act 5:32 "And we are witnesses of these words and the Holy Spirit whom God gives to those who believe in Him."

Act 5:33 When they heard these words, they were consumed with anger and they talked of killing them.

⁴ Jeh 5:13-15 & Rev 19:10-16

Act 5:34 Then a certain man rose up, a Pharisee named Gamaliel, a teacher of the Instructions honoured by all the people, and he commanded them to take the apostles outside for a little while.

Act 5:35 And he said to them: "Sons of Israel, take heed to yourselves and make sure what you intend to do regarding these men is right.

Act 5:36 "For some time ago Theudas rose up, and said about himself that he was somebody great, and about four hundred men followed him. But he was killed, and those who followed him were scattered and came to nothing.

Act 5:37 "After him Judas the Galilean rose up in the days that men were registered for the tax, and many people turned away after him. Then he died, and all those who followed him were scattered.

Act 5:38 "And now I say to you, keep yourselves away from these men and leave them alone; for if this plan and this work is of men, they will disintegrate and pass away;

Act 5:39 "but if it is of God, it is not possible for you to stop it with your hands; and you may find yourselves standing against God."

Act 5:40 And they listened to him, and they called the apostles in and scourged them, and they commanded them that they were not to speak in the name of Jeshua, and they released them.

Act 5:41 So they departed from before them, rejoicing that they were worthy to be despised because of the Name.

Act 5:42 And they did not cease teaching and preaching all day in the Palace and in houses about our Lord Jeshua the Anointed.

Act 6:1 Now in those days, as the disciples were increasing, the Hellenists were murmuring against the Hebrew disciples that their widows were neglected during the daily distribution.

Act 6:2 Then the twelve apostles called an assembly of all the disciples and they said to them, "It is not good that we should neglect the Word of God and serve tables.

Act 6:3 "Therefore, my brethren, seek out from among you seven men of good reputation, full of the Spirit of Lord Jah¹ and wisdom, and we will appoint them over this issue;

Act 6:4 "and we will be steadfast in prayer and in serving the Word."

Act 6:5 And this saying pleased all the people. And they chose Stephen, a man who was full of faith and the Holy Spirit, and Philip, Prochorus, Nicanor, Timon, Parmenas, and Nicolas, a proselyte from Antioch, Act 6:6 and stood them before the apostles; and after they had prayed, they laid hands on them.

Act 6:7 And the word of God spread, and the number of disciples in Jerusalem increased greatly, and many Judean people were obedient to the faith.

Act 6:8 Now Stephen was full of grace and power, and performed signs and wonders among the people.

Act 6:9 Then some men arose from the assembly called the Freedmen, and Cyrenians, Alexandrians, and those from Cilicia and Asia, disputing with Stephen.

Act 6:10 But they were not able to stand against the wisdom and the Spirit which spoke through him.

Act 6:11 Then they sent men and instructed them to say, "We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses and against God."

Act 6:12 And they stirred up the people, the elders, and the scribes; and they came and stood against him, seized him, and brought him into the midst of the council.

Act 6:13 They set up false witnesses who said, "This man does not cease to speak words against the Instructions and this holy place;

Act 6:14 “for we have heard him say that this Jeshua, the Nazarene, will destroy this place and change the customs which Moses delivered to you.”

Act 6:15 And all who sat in the assembly stared at him, and they saw his face as the face of an envoy.

Act 7:1 Then the chief of the priests asked him if these things were so.

Act 7:2 And he said, “Men, our brethren and our fathers, listen: The God of glory appeared to our father Abraham when he was in Beth-Nahrain,¹ before he dwelt in Haran, Act 7:3 “and He said to him, ‘Get out from your country and from among your relatives, and come to a land that I will show you.’² Act 7:4 “Then Abraham departed from the land of the Chaldeans and came and dwelt in Haran. And from there, when his father had died, God moved him to this land in which you dwell today.

Act 7:5 “And He did not give him an inheritance in it, not even enough to set a foot on. But He promised He would give it to him as an heirloom, and to his descendants after him, even while he had no son.³

Act 7:6 “But God spoke with him, saying to him, ‘Your seed will be a sojourner in a foreign land, and he will be subjected to them and they will oppress him for four hundred years.

Act 7:7 ‘And the people who they will serve in bondage I will judge,’ said God, ‘and after that they will come out and serve Me in this land.’⁴

Act 7:8 “And He gave him the covenant of circumcision; and then he begot Isaac and circumcised him on the eighth day; and Isaac begot Jacob, and Jacob begot our twelve patriarchs.

Act 7:9 “And our patriarchs were envious of Joseph and sold him into Egypt. But God was with him Act 7:10 “and He delivered him from all his troubles, and He gave him grace and wisdom in the presence of Pharaoh, king of Egypt; and made him a ruler over Egypt and all his house.

Act 7:11 “Now a famine and great trouble came over all Egypt and the land of Canaan, and our fathers had nothing to sustain them.

Act 7:12 “But when Jacob heard that there was sustenance in Egypt, he sent our fathers first.

Act 7:13 “And when they went the second time, Joseph made himself known to his brothers, and Joseph’s nationality was made known to the Pharaoh.

Act 7:14 “Then Joseph sent and brought his father Jacob and all his relatives, and they were seventy-five souls.⁵

Act 7:15 “So Jacob went down to Egypt; and he died there, he and our fathers.

Act 7:16 “And he was moved to Shechem and placed in the tomb that Abraham bought with money from the sons of Hamor.

Act 7:17 “But when the time of the promised things which God had sworn to Abraham arrived, the people increased and grew strong in Egypt Act 7:18 “until another king arose over Egypt who did not know Joseph.

Act 7:19 “He plotted against our kinsmen, and oppressed our forefathers, and commanded that they cast out their male infants, so that they would not live.⁶

Act 7:21 "But when he was cast out by his mother, Pharaoh's daughter found him and brought him up as her own son.

Act 7:22 "And Moses was trained in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and he was prepared in his words and his deeds.

Act 7:23 "But when he was forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brethren, the descendants of Israel.

Act 7:24 "And he saw one of the sons of his branch persecuted, and he avenged him and he passed judgement for him, and he killed the Egyptian.

Act 7:25 "And he hoped that his brethren, the descendants of Israel, would understand that God would give them salvation by his hand, but they did not understand.

Act 7:26 "And the next day he was seen by two of them as they fought with each other, and he tried to reconcile them, saying, 'Men, you are brethren; why do you do wrong to one another?'

Act 7:54 When they heard these things they were filled with anger inside, and they gnashed their teeth against him.

Act 7:60 And after he knelt down he cried out in a loud voice and said, “Our Lord, do not allow this sin to stand against them.” And after he had said this, he lay down.¹⁰

Act 8:1 Now Saul consented and participated in his murder. And there was in that day a great persecution of the congregation that was in Jerusalem; and they were all scattered into the villages of Judea and also among the Samaritans, except the apostles alone.

Act 8:2 And they gathered up Stephen and buried him, and the believing men mourned greatly over him.

Act 8:3 Now Saul persecuted the congregation of God. He entered homes and dragged away men and women, and he delivered them to prison.

Act 8:4 And they who were scattered travelled and preached the Word of God.

Act 8:5 Then Philip went down to a city of the Samaritans and preached about the Anointed to them.

Act 8:6 And when they heard his word, the men there heeded him and were persuaded by all he said, because they saw the miracles that he did.

Act 8:7 For many unclean spirits, crying with a loud voice, came out of those who they had seized; and others who were paralysed and lame were healed.

Act 8:8 And there was great joy in that city.

Act 8:9 But there was certain man called Simon there, who had lived in that city for a long time, and by his sorceries he had deceived the Samaritan people, magnifying himself and saying "I AM! I am Great."

Act 8:10 And they all prostrated themselves before him, the great and the small, and they said, "This is the great power of God."

Act 8:11 And they were all persuaded by him, for he had astonished them with his sorceries for a long time.

Act 8:12 But when they believed Philip, who had preached the Kingdom of God in the name of our Lord Jeshua the Anointed, both men and women were immersed.

Act 8:13 Even Simon believed and he was immersed. Then he stuck close to Philip, and when he saw the signs and great miracles which were done by his hands, he was amazed and marvelled.

Act 8:14 Now when the apostles who were in Jerusalem heard that the people of Samaria had received the Word of God, they sent Simon Peter and John to them.

Act 8:15 So they went down and prayed over them, that they might receive the Holy Spirit.

Act 8:16 For as yet it was not upon even one of them. They had only been immersed in the name of our Lord Jeshua.

Act 8:17 Then they placed a hand on them, and they received the Holy Spirit.¹

Act 8:18 Now when Simon saw that through the placing of the apostles' hand the Holy Spirit was given, he offered silver to them,

Act 8:19 saying, "Give this authority to me also, that whoever I put a hand on may receive the Holy Spirit."

Act 8:20 Simon Peter said to him, "Your silver will go to destruction with you, because you thought that the gift of God could be obtained with the goods of the world!

Act 8:21 "You have no part nor portion in this faith, for your heart is not right in God's sight.

Act 8:22 "Therefore repent of your wickedness in this and seek God. Perhaps you may be forgiven for the guile of your heart.

Act 8:23 "For I see that you are bound by bitter anger and iniquity."

Act 8:24 Simon answered and said, "I beg you, pray to God for my sake, that none of these things which you have spoken come upon me."

Act 8:25 So when Simon and John had testified and taught the Word of God, they returned to Jerusalem, preaching in many villages of the Samaritans.

Act 8:26 Now an envoy of Lord Jah² spoke to Philip, saying to him, "Arise and go to the south on the desert road which goes from Jerusalem down to Gaza.”

Act 8:27 So he arose, went and met one eunuch who had come from Cush.¹ He was an official under Queen Candace of the Cushites, who had authority over of all her treasury, and had come to worship in Jerusalem.

Act 8:28 And when he had turned to go, he sat down on his chariot, and he was reading in Isaiah the prophet.

Act 8:29 Then the Spirit said to Philip, “Approach and join this chariot.”

Act 8:30 And as he approached, he heard what he was reading in Isaiah the prophet, and he said to him, “What do you understand of your reading?”

Act 8:31 And he said, “How can I understand, unless someone instructs me?” And he asked Philip to come up and sit with him.

Act 8:32 But the place in the Writings which he read had this in it: “He was led as a lamb to the sacrifice; and as a ewe is silent before the shearer, so He also did not open His mouth.

Act 8:33 He was led, in His humility, from imprisonment and from judgement, and who will declare His time? For His life is taken from the earth.”²

Act 8:34 So that eunuch said to Philip, “I beg of you, about whom does the prophet say this, about himself or about another man?”

Act 8:35 Then Philip opened his mouth, and beginning from this Writing, he preached to him about our Lord Jeshua.

Act 8:36 Now as they went down the road, they arrived at one place that had water. And that eunuch said, “Behold, water! What is preventing me from being immersed?”

Act 8:38 So he commanded the chariot to stop. And the two of them both went down into the water and Philip immersed that eunuch.

Act 8:39 Now when they came up from the water, the Spirit of Lord Jah⁴ took Philip up, and the eunuch did not see him again; but as he went down the road, he rejoiced.

Act 8:40 And Philip was found in Azotus. And he travelled from there, preaching in all the cities until he came to Caesarea.

Act 9:1 But Saul was still full of menace and murderous rage against our Lord’s disciples, Act 9:2 and he asked for letters from the chief of the priests for himself to give to the synagogues of Damascus, that if he found any who were following this Way, men or women, he could bind and bring them to Jerusalem.

Act 9:3 And as he journeyed and came near to Damascus, from beneath the stillness a light shone upon him from heaven.

Act 9:4 Then he fell on the ground, and heard a voice which said to him, “Saul! Saul, why are you persecuting Me? It is hard for you to kick the goads.”

Act 9:5 And he answered and said, “Who are You, my Lord?” And our Lord said, “I AM! I am Jeshua the Nazarene whom you are persecuting.”

Act 9:6 “Arise and go into the city, and there you will be told what you must do.”⁵

Act 9:7 And the men who journeyed with him were standing on the road and they were amazed, for they could only hear the sound of the man, but he was not visible to them.

Act 9:8 Then Saul got up from the ground, and he could not see anything when he opened his eyes. But they held his hands and brought him to Damascus.

Act 9:9 And nothing was visible to him for three days, and he neither ate nor drank.

Act 9:10 Now there was one disciple at Damascus named Khananjah; and Lord Jah¹ said to him in a vision, "Khananjah." And he said, "Here I am, my Lord."

Act 9:11 So our Lord said to him, "Arise and go to the street called Straight, and inquire at the house of Judas for Saul, who is from the city of Tarsus, for behold, while he is praying,

Act 9:12 "he sees in a vision a man named Khananjah, who comes in and lays a hand on him, so that his eyes will be opened."

Act 9:13 Then Khananjah said, "My Lord, I have heard from many about this man, how much evil he has inflicted on the saints in Jerusalem.

Act 9:14 "And behold, here he also has authority from the chief priests to imprison everyone who calls on Your Name."

Act 9:15 Lord Jah² said to him, "Arise and go, for he is a chosen vessel of Mine to take My Name to the gentiles, and to kings, and among the children of Israel.

Act 9:16 "For I will show him how much he is going to suffer for My Name."

Act 9:17 And Khananjah went to him in the house; and laid a hand on him and said to him, "My brother Saul, our Lord Jeshua, who appeared to you on the road as you came, He has sent me so your eyes will be opened and you will be filled with the Holy Spirit."

Act 9:18 Immediately there fell from his eyes things like scales, and his eyes were opened; and he arose and he was immersed.

Act 9:19 Then he received food and he was strengthened. And Saul was with the disciples at Damascus for days.

Act 9:20 Within hours he preached in the Judeans' assembly about Jeshua; that He is the Son of God.

Act 9:21 Then all who heard him were amazed, and they said, "Is this not he who was persecuting all those who called on this name in Jerusalem, and was even sent here for the same reason, to bind them and take them to the chief priests?"

Act 9:22 But Saul was strengthened all the more, and confounded the Judeans who dwelt in Damascus, proving that this is the Messiah.

Act 9:23 Now after many days were given to him, the Judeans plotted treachery against him; to kill him.

Act 9:24 But their plot was made known to Saul; what they were seeking to do to him. And they watched the city gates day and night, to kill him.

Act 9:25 Then the disciples put him in a basket and let him down from the wall during the night.

Act 9:26 And he went to Jerusalem and wanted to join the disciples; but they were all afraid of him, and they did not believe that he was a disciple.

Act 9:27 But Barnabas took him and brought him to the apostles and explained to them how he had seen Lord Jah³ on the road, and that He had spoken with them, and how he had spoken boldly at Damascus in the name of Jeshua.

Act 9:28 So he went in and out with them at Jerusalem.

Act 9:29 And he spoke boldly in the name of Jeshua and disputed with those Judeans who knew Greek, but they wanted to kill him.

Act 9:30 When the brethren knew, they brought him to Caesarea by night and from there they sent him to Tarsus.

Act 9:31 And then all the assemblies throughout Judea, Galilee, and Samaria had peace and were being built up, instructed in the fear of God and in the comfort of the Holy Spirit, and they grew.

Act 9:32 Now it happened while Simon was travelling through the cities, that he also came down to the saints who dwelt in the city of Lydda.

Act 9:33 There he found a certain man named Anis, who had been laying on a pallet and was paralysed for eight years.

Act 9:34 And Simon said to him, "Anja,¹ Jeshua the Anointed heals you. Arise and make your bed." Then he rose immediately.

Act 9:35 So all who dwelt in Lydda and Sharon saw him and turned to God.

Act 9:36 There was a certain disciple in the city of Joppa named Tabitha,² who was rich in good works and charitable deeds which she did.

Act 9:37 But it happened in those days that she became sick and died. They washed her and laid her in an upper room.

Act 9:38 And the disciples heard that Simon was in Lydda, and that city was beside Joppa, so they sent two men to him, asking him not to delay coming with them.

Act 9:39 Then Simon rose and went with them. When he came, they brought him up to the upper room. And all the widows gathered and stood around him weeping, showing him the tunics and garments which Tabitha had given to them while she lived.

Act 9:40 But Simon put all the people out, and knelt down and prayed. And he turned to the corpse and said, "Tabitha, get up." And she opened her eyes, and when she saw Simon she sat up.

Act 9:41 Then he stretched out his hand to her and raised her up; and called the saints and the widows, and presented her to them alive.

Act 9:42 And this became known throughout the whole city, and many believed in our Lord.

Act 9:43 And he stayed in Joppa for not a few days, lodging in the house of Simon, a tanner.

Act 10:1 Now in Caesarea there was one man called Cornelius, a centurion of the regiment which is called the Italian.

Act 10:2 He was a worshipper of God and he was righteous, he and his whole household, and he did great charity among the people, and he was always inquiring about God.

Act 10:3 This man saw a vision of an envoy of God, clearly before his face, who came before his presence in the ninth hour of the day and he said to him, "Cornelius!"

Act 10:4 And he gazed at him, and was afraid, and he said, "What, my lord?" And the envoy said to him, "Your prayers and your charity have come up for remembrance before God.

Act 10:5 "Now send a man to the city of Joppa, and fetch Simon, who is called Peter.

Act 10:6 "Behold, he is dwelling in the house of Simon, a tanner, which is on the seaside."³

Act 10:7 And when the envoy who spoke to him had left, he called two men of his household and one servant who worshipped God who was respectful to him.

Act 10:8 So he explained everything that he had seen to them and he sent them to Joppa.

Act 10:9 And the next day, while they were travelling on the road and came near the city, Simon went up on the roof to pray, at the sixth hour.

² Means 'gazelle'.

³ Some Greek manuscripts add "He will tell you what you must do."

Act 10:10 And he was hungry and he wanted to eat; but while they were purchasing food for him, a trance fell upon him.

Act 10:11 And he saw the heavens, as if they were opened and a garment like a great linen sheet tied at the four corners, and it was descending from heaven to the earth.

Act 10:12 In it there were all kinds of four-footed animals and creeping things of the earth, and birds of the heavens.

Act 10:13 A voice came to him, saying "Simon. Arise, slay and eat."

Act 10:14 But Simon said, "Never, my Lord! For I have not ever eaten anything that is defiled or unclean."¹

Act 10:15 And again, the second time, a voice came to him, "Those which God has purified you are not to defile."

Act 10:16 And this occurred three times. Then the garment was taken up into heaven.

Act 10:17 Now while Simon wondered within himself what this vision he had seen was, the men who Cornelius had sent arrived and they asked for the house where Simon dwelt, and they came and stood at the gate to the courtyard.

Act 10:18 And they called and asked "Is Simon, who is called Peter, lodging here?"

Act 10:19 And while Simon pondered about the vision, the Spirit said to him, "Behold, three men are seeking you.

Act 10:20 "Get up! Go down and go with them. Do not doubt in your mind, for I am he who sent them."

Act 10:21 Then Simon went down to those men and said to them "I am he whom you seek. For what reason have you come?"

Act 10:22 And they said to him, "A certain man whose name is Cornelius, a good centurion and a worshipper of God, who all the Judean people vouch for, was told in a vision by a holy envoy to send and bring you to his house, and he will hear the word from you."

Act 10:23 So Simon invited them in and made them welcome where he was lodging. On the next day Simon arose and went away with them, and some brethren from Joppa went away with him.

Act 10:24 And the next day he entered Caesarea. Now Cornelius was waiting for them, and he had gathered together all of his relatives and his beloved friends.

Act 10:25 And when Simon entered, Cornelius met him and fell at his feet, worshipping.

Act 10:26 But Simon raised him up, and said to him, "You stand; I also am a man."

Act 10:27 And as he talked with him, he went in and found that many had come together there.

Act 10:28 Then he said to them, "You know that a Judean man is not allowed to associate with a foreign person who is not a child of his race. But God has shown me that I should not say about a man that he is unclean or defiled.

Act 10:29 "Because of this, I came readily when you asked for me. However, I ask you, why have you sent for me?"

Act 10:30 And Cornelius said to him, "Behold, I have been fasting for four days until now. At the ninth hour, while I prayed in my house, a certain man, clothed in white, stood before me, Act 10:31 "and he said to me, 'Cornelius, your prayer has been heard, and your charity is remembered before God.

Act 10:32 'Therefore, send to the city of Joppa and bring Simon, who is called Peter, here. Behold, he is lodging in the house of Simon, a tanner, on the seaside. And he will come and speak to you.'

¹ This occurred years after some claim that Jeshua declared all foods clean, yet Peter was still only eating Biblically clean meats (Mat 15:7-20, Mar 7:14-23). As Jeshua said, he only meant that it is what we do that truly defiles us. Jeshua did not declare unclean foods clean.

Act 10:33 “So within an hour I sent for you, and you have done well to come. Behold, we are all present before you, and we wish to hear everything whatsoever which is commanded to you from the presence of God.”

Act 10:34 Then Simon opened his mouth and said: “In truth I perceive that God does not show favouritism.

Act 10:35 “But in every nation, whoever worships Him and works righteousness is acceptable to Him.

Act 10:36 “For the word which He sent to the children of Israel announced peace and tranquillity to them through Jeshua the Anointed. This One is Lord Jah¹ of all.

Act 10:37 “You also are aware of the word which has been proclaimed throughout Judea, which went out from Galilee after the immersion which John preached:

Act 10:38 “About Jeshua from Nazareth, whom God anointed with the Holy Spirit and with power, who travelled about and He healed those injured by the evil one, for God was with Him.

Act 10:39 “And we are His witnesses of all the things which He did in all the land of Judea and in Jerusalem. This One is He whom the Judeans hung on a tree and they murdered Him.

Act 10:40 “And in three days, God raised Him up, and allowed Him to be seen in the public’s eye, Act 10:41 “but not to all the people, but to those of us chosen as witnesses by God; we who ate and drank with Him after His resurrection from the house of the dead.

Act 10:42 “And He commanded us to preach to the people, and to testify that this is He who is appointed by God as the Judge of the living and of the dead.

Act 10:43 “And about Him all the prophets witness that everyone who believes in His Name will receive forgiveness of sins.”²

Act 10:44 While Peter was speaking these words, the Holy Spirit rested upon all of those who were hearing the word.

Act 10:45 And the circumcised brethren who came with him; they were stunned and they were astonished, because the gift of the Holy Spirit rushed upon the gentiles also.

Act 10:46 For they heard them while they spoke from language to language and they were magnifying God. Then Peter said,

Act 10:47 “How can anyone forbid water, that these should not be immersed? For behold, they have received the Holy Spirit just as we did.”

Act 10:48 And he commanded them to be immersed in the name of our Lord Jeshua the Anointed. Then they begged him to stay some days with them.

Act 11:1 Now it was heard by the apostles and brethren who were in Judea that even the gentiles received the Word of God.

Act 11:2 And when Simon went up to Jerusalem, those of the circumcision contended with him,

Act 11:3 and they were saying, “He went in to uncircumcised men and ate with them!”

Act 11:4 But Simon interrupted so he could say to them:

Act 11:5 “While I was praying in Joppa, I saw a vision of a certain garment, resembling a linen cloth, descending and it was fastened by its four corners; and it was drawn down from heaven and came all the way to me.

Act 11:6 “And I looked at it and I saw that there were four-footed animals in it, and creeping things of the earth, and even birds of heaven.

Act 11:7 “And I heard a voice saying to me, ‘Simon, rise; sacrifice and eat.’

Act 11:8 “But I said, ‘Never, my Lord! For what is unclean or defiled has never entered my mouth.’

Act 11:9 “And again the voice said to me from heaven, ‘What God has cleansed, you must not call defiled.’

Act 11:10 “Now this occurred three times, and then everything was drawn up into heaven.

Act 11:11 “And at that moment, three men who were sent to me by Cornelius from Caesarea came and stood before the gate of the courtyard where I was lodged.

Act 11:12 “Then the Spirit said to me, ‘Go with them, without doubts.’ And these six brethren came with me, and we entered the man’s house.

Act 11:13 “And he told us how he had seen an envoy standing in his house, who said to him, ‘Send men to the city of Joppa, and bring Simon who is called Peter,

Act 11:14 ‘And he will tell you words by which you and all your household will live.’

Act 11:15 “And as I began to speak, the Holy Spirit rested upon them, as upon us at the beginning.

Act 11:16 “And I remembered the word of our Lord, when He said, ‘John immersed with water, but you will be immersed with the Holy Spirit.’

Act 11:17 “If therefore God gave to these gentiles the same gift when they believed in our Lord Jeshua the Messiah as He gave us, who was I that I could hinder God?”

Act 11:18 When they heard these words they became silent; and then they glorified God, saying, “Perhaps God has also given to the gentiles repentance to life.”

Act 11:19 Now those who were scattered by the persecution that arose over Stephen reached all the way to Phoenicia, and the countries of Cyprus and Antioch, though they were not speaking the word to anyone except the Judeans.

Act 11:20 But there were men among them from Cyprus and Cyrene, who were entering Antioch and speaking to the Greeks, and preaching about our Lord Jeshua.

Act 11:21 And the hand of Lord Jah was with them, and many believed and turned towards Lord Jah.¹

Act 11:22 Then this was heard by the ears of the descendants of the assembly in Jerusalem, and they sent Barnabas to Antioch.

Act 11:23 And when he arrived there and saw the grace of God, he rejoiced, and encouraged them that with all their heart they should be followers of our Lord.

Act 11:24 For he was a good man, and he was filled with the Holy Spirit and with faith. And many people were added to our Lord.

Act 11:25 Then he departed for Tarsus to seek Saul.

Act 11:26 And when he found him, he brought him to Antioch with himself. So it was that for a whole year the assembly gathered as one and they taught many people. And the disciples were called Christians in Antioch for the first time.²

Act 11:27 And in those days prophets came there from Jerusalem.

Act 11:28 Then one of them, named Agabus, stood up and told them by the Spirit that there would be a great famine throughout all that area, and the famine happened in the days of Claudius Caesar.

Act 11:29 Then the disciples, each one according to what he had, determined to send some of it to the brethren dwelling in Judea.

Act 11:30 And they sent it to the elders there by way of Barnabas and Saul.

¹ Both Lord Jah, as in the Peshitta.

² From the Aramaic Kristianay כְּרִיסְטִיָּנַי , which is transliterated from the Greek to refer to the anointed ones. Though the Aramaic followers of the Way tended to refer to themselves as Nazarenes (eg Acts 24:5), this shows God’s willingness to encourage Greek speaking brethren.

Act 12:1 Now about that time King Herod stretched out his hand to harass some from the congregation.

Act 12:2 Then he murdered John's brother Jacob with the sword.

Act 12:3 And when he saw that this pleased the Judeans, he proceeded to seize Simon Peter also. And these were during the Days of Unleavened Bread.¹

Act 12:4 So when he had arrested him, he threw him into prison, and delivered him to sixteen soldiers to guard him, so that after Passover² he could deliver him to the Judean people.

Act 12:5 And while Simon was being guarded in prison, constant prayer was offered to God for him by the congregation.

Act 12:6 And in the night, near dawn, when he was about to hand him over, while Simon was sleeping, and he was bound with two chains between two soldiers; and the others were guarding the gate of the prison,

Act 12:7 an envoy of Lord Jah³ stood over him, and the light lit up the entire place. He poked Simon on his side and raised him up, saying, "Arise quickly!" And the chains fell from his hands.

Act 12:8 Then the envoy said to him, "Wrap your garment around your waist and put on your sandals." And so he did. And again he spoke to him, "Put on your tunic and follow me."

Act 12:9 So he went out and followed him, but he did not know if what was happening by the hand of the envoy was real, for he thought he was seeing a vision.

² From the Aramaic petscha נִפְּשָׁא and the Greek has pascha πάσχα. The KJV replaces Passover with Easter, which is derived from Eastre, the pagan goddess of fertility. Easter is not in any manuscript, and Lord Jah does not want us to observe pagan "holy days" (Deu 12:30-32).

³ As in the Peshitta.

Act 12:10 When they were past the first and the second watch, they came to the iron gate which opened to them of its own accord; and when they went out and went past one street, the envoy departed from him.

Act 12:11 And then Simon realised and said, "Now I know that Lord Jah⁴ has truly sent His envoy, and has delivered me from the hand of King Herod and from the thing the Judeans have plotted against me."

Act 12:12 And as he considered this, he came to the house of Mary, the mother of John whose surname was Mark, because many brethren were gathered there praying.

Act 12:13 And he knocked at the courtyard door, and a girl named Rhoda came to answer it.

Act 12:14 When she recognised Simon's voice, in her joy she did not open the door to him, but ran back in and said to them, "Behold Simon, he stands at the courtyard door!"

Act 12:15 But they said to her, "You are unhinged!" And she kept protesting that it was so. So they said to her, "Perhaps it is his envoy."

Act 12:16 Now Simon kept knocking at the door; and when they went out, they saw him and they marvelled among themselves.

Act 12:17 But motioning to them with his hand to keep them silent, he entered and related to them how Lord Jah⁵ had brought him out of the prison. And he said to them, "Tell these things to Jacob and to the brethren." Then he left and went to another place.

Act 12:18 And when it was morning, there was a great uproar in the barracks about what had happened to Simon.

Act 12:19 But when Herod searched for him and did not find him, he judged the guards and ordered that they should be executed. And he went out from Judea to Caesarea, and remained there.

Act 12:20 Because he was angry with the Tyrians and the Sidonians, they gathered together and came to him. They convinced Blastus, the king's chamberlain, to ask for them if they could have a peace treaty, because their countries' food came from Herod's kingdom.

Act 12:21 So on an arranged day Herod, wearing kingly clothing, sat on his judgement seat and he spoke with the crowd.

Act 12:22 And all the people were calling out, and their daughter said "This is the voice of god and not of a child of man!"

Act 12:23 And because he did not give glory to God, in that hour an envoy of Lord Jah¹ struck him. And he was infested with worms and he died.

Act 12:24 But the Good News of God was proclaimed and grew.

Act 12:25 And Barnabas and Saul returned from Jerusalem to Antioch when they had fulfilled their service, and they took with them John whose surname was Mark.

Act 13:1 Now in the congregation at Antioch there were prophets and teachers: Barnabas, Simeon who was called Niger, Lucius from the city of Cyrene, Manaen, a son of those who had brought up Herod the tetrarch, and Saul.

Act 13:2 And while they were fasting and praying to God, the Holy Spirit said to them, "Now set apart Barnabas and Saul to Me, to do that to which I have called them."

Act 13:3 And after they had fasted and prayed, they laid hands on them, and sent them away.

Act 13:4 And as they were being sent out by the Holy Spirit, they went down to Seleucia, and from there they travelled by sea to Cyprus.

Act 13:5 And after they went into the city of Salamis, they preached the Word of our Lord in the Judean synagogues, and John was serving them.

Act 13:6 And after they had travelled through the entire island to the city of Paphos, they found a certain sorcerer, a Judean who was a false prophet named Bar-Shuma.²

Act 13:7 This man was with the proconsul, called Sergius Paulus, who was an intelligent man. And the proconsul called for Saul and Barnabas and sought to hear the Word of God from them.

Act 13:8 But Bar-Shuma the sorcerer, whose name is translated as Elymas,³ stood against them, as he desired to turn the proconsul away from the faith.

Act 13:9 Then Saul, who is also called Paul, was filled with the Holy Spirit and stared at him,

Act 13:10 and he said, "Oh, full of all deceits and all evils, son of the devil and enemy of all righteousness, will you not cease perverting the straight ways of Lord Jah?⁴

Act 13:11 "And now, the hand of Lord Jah⁵ is upon you, and you will be blind, and you will not see the sun for a time." And immediately obscuring darkness fell on him, and he wandered about, seeking someone who would take him by his hand.

Act 13:12 And when the proconsul saw this thing that had been done, he marvelled and he believed in the teaching of Lord Jah.⁶

Act 13:13 Next Paul and Barnabas journeyed by sea from the city of Paphos, they came to Perga, a city in Pamphylia; and John separated from them and went to Jerusalem.

Act 13:14 But they departed from Perga and came to Antioch, a city in Pisidia, and went into the congregation on the Sabbath day and sat down.

Act 13:15 And after the reading of the Instructions and the Prophets, the elders of the congregation sent for them, and they said, "Men, our brethren, if you have a word of comfort, speak with the people."

Act 13:16 Then Paul stood up, waved with his hand and said, "Men, descendants of Israel, and those who fear God, listen:

Act 13:23 "From this man's seed, as was promised, God raised up for Israel the Saviour Jeshua;⁶

Act 13:24 "and He sent John to preach the immersion of repentance to all the people of Israel before His coming.

Act 13:41 “that you despisers see, marvel and perish; for I work a work in your days which you will not believe, even if someone tells it to you.”²

Act 13:42 And while they were departing from their midst, they begged them that they might preach these words to them on another Sabbath.

Act 13:43 And after the congregation had been dismissed, many Judeans and also proselytes who feared God followed them, and they spoke to them, persuading them to become adherents to the Grace of God.

Act 13:44 And on the next Sabbath the whole city came together to hear the Word of God.

Act 13:45 But when the Judeans saw the large gathering, they were filled with envy; and they stood against the words spoken by Paul and were blaspheming.

Act 13:46 Then Paul and Barnabas spoke boldly, “It was necessary that the word of God should be spoken to you first; but since you push it away from yourselves and have decided among yourselves that you are not worthy of everlasting life, behold, we turn ourselves to the gentiles.

Act 13:47 “For so our Lord has commanded us, as it is written; ‘I have prepared you to be a light to the gentiles, that you should bring life to the ends of the earth.’”³

Act 13:48 Now when the gentiles heard this, they rejoiced and glorified God and believed them; that they were appointed to everlasting life.

Act 13:49 And the word of Lord Jah⁴ was spoken throughout all that region.

Act 13:50 But the Judeans stirred up the chief men of the city and the wealthy women who feared God with them, and they raised a persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and they drove them from their region.⁵

Act 13:51 But when they went out, they shook off the dust from their feet against them, and came to the city of Iconium.

Act 13:52 And the disciples were filled with joy and the Holy Spirit.

Act 14:1 Now they came and entered into the Judean congregation, and so they spoke to them and many of the Judeans and the Greeks believed.

Act 14:2 But the Judeans who were not convinced incited the gentiles to treat the brethren badly.

Act 14:3 They stayed there for many days, preaching boldly about Lord Jah,⁶ and He bore witness to the Word of His Grace with miracles and wonders that He accomplished by their hands.

Act 14:6 After they found out, they left and found refuge in Lystra and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia, and in the surrounding villages.

Act 14:7 And they were preaching there.

Act 14:8 And in the city of Lystra a certain man was sitting, afflicted in his legs, lame from his mother's womb, who had never walked.

Act 14:9 This man listened to Paul speaking. And afterwards, Paul saw him and realised that he had faith that he would live.

Act 14:10 He said to him in a loud voice, "I say to you in the name of our Lord Jeshua the Anointed, stand up on your legs!" And leaping up, he rose and walked.

Act 14:11 After the crowd of people saw what Paul had done, they raised their voices, saying in the language of the land, "The gods have come down to us in the likeness of men!"

Act 14:12 And they named Barnabas the Lord of the Gods,¹ and Paul as Hermes, because he was the chief speaker.

Act 14:13 Then the priest of the LORD god, who was in front of their city, brought oxen and garlands to the gate of the courtyard where they were staying, and wanted to offer a sacrifice to them.

Act 14:14 But when Barnabas and Paul heard this, they tore their clothes, leaped up and went out among the crowd, crying out,

Act 14:15 and they said, "Men, what are you doing? We are also sons of men and are passionate like yourselves. We are preaching to you that you should turn from these useless things to the Living God who made the heavens, the earth, the sea, and all that is in them,²

Act 14:16 "He who in previous times allowed all the nations to go in their own ways.

Act 14:17 "Yet He did not allow Himself to be without witness, in that He did much for them, and He caused rain to descend from heaven and He caused fruit to grow in season, and He filled their hearts with joy and gladness."

Act 14:18 And though they had spoken these things, they barely restrained the crowds from sacrificing to them—to a man.

Act 14:19 Then Judeans from Iconium and Antioch came there; and they incited the crowds against them, and they stoned Paul and dragged him out of the city, because they thought he was dead.

Act 14:20 And when the disciples gathered around him, he rose up and went into the city. And the next day he departed from there with Barnabas and came to the city of Derbe.

Act 14:21 And when they preached to the people of that city, they made many disciples, and they returned and came to the city of Lystra, and to Iconium, and Antioch,

Act 14:22 after strengthening the souls of the disciples, exhorting them to continue in the faith, and saying to them, "It is right that through many tribulations we enter the Kingdom of God."

Act 14:23 So they raised up elders for them in every congregation after they fasted and prayed with them, and they committed them to our Lord; He in whom they believed.

Act 14:24 And while they travelled through the country of Pisidia, they came to Pamphylia.

Act 14:25 And after they spoke the Word of Lord Jah³ in the city of Perga, they went down to Attalia.

Act 14:26 From there they journeyed by sea and came to Antioch, because that is where they had been committed to the grace of Lord Jah¹ for the work which they had completed.

Act 14:27 And after they had gathered all the congregation, they reported everything that God had done among them, and that He had opened the door of faith to the gentiles.

Act 14:28 And they remained there for much time with the disciples.

Act 15:1 And some men came down from Judea, teaching the brethren, "Unless you are circumcised according to the Instructions, you will not live forever."

Act 15:2 Then there was a great commotion between Paul, Barnabas and them. So it was that Paul and Barnabas went up to Jerusalem with them, to the apostles and elders because of this debate.

Act 15:3 And being commissioned and sent by the congregation, they passed through all of Phoenicia and also Samaria, and they spoke about the conversion of the gentiles; and they caused great joy to all the brethren.

Act 15:4 And when they came to Jerusalem, they were received by the congregation, the apostles and the elders; and they reported everything that God had done among them.

Act 15:5 Then some who believed the teaching of the Pharisees stood up and said, "It is necessary for you to circumcise them, and you should command them to guard the Instructions of Moses."²

² Phi 3:2-3 To "guard" the Instructions means to keep all of the thousands of man-made rules the Pharisees added to God's Laws (creating what is now called Judaism), that supposedly place a 'fence' around the Instructions, but in reality are a heavy yoke (burden) which God NEVER placed on us. Jeshua ignored their additions, and the apostles taught that we should only observe God's Instructions.

Act 15:6 The apostles and elders came together to look into this matter.

Act 15:7 And after there was a great debate, Simon arose and said to them: "Men and brethren, you know that in earlier days God chose that by my mouth the gentiles would hear the words of the Good News and they would believe.

Act 15:8 "And God, who knows what is in hearts, testified about them, and gave them the Holy Spirit just as He did to us, Act 15:9 "and He made no distinctions between us and them, for He cleansed their hearts by faith.

Act 15:10 "And now, why do you test God by putting a yoke on the neck of the disciples which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear?

Act 15:11 "But we believe that by the grace of our Anointed Lord Jeshua we are saved just as they are."

Act 15:12 Then all the crowd became silent and they listened to Barnabas and Paul as they declared the miracles, wonders and everything that God did through their hands among the gentiles.

Act 15:13 And after they had quietened, Jacob arose and said, "Men and brethren, listen to me:

Act 15:14 "Simon declared to you how God began to choose a people from the gentiles for His Name.

Act 15:15 "And to this end the words of the prophets are fulfilled, as it is written:

Act 15:19 “Therefore I say that you should not oppress those from the gentiles who are turning to God, Act 15:20 “but we will send word to them that they must be separate from defiling sacrifices,¹ from fornication, from what is strangled, and from blood.²

Act 15:21 “For Moses has had since the ancient generations those who preach him in every city, being read to the congregations on all Sabbaths.”³

Act 15:22 Then the apostles and elders, with the whole congregation, chose men from among them and sent them to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas; Judah who is called Barsabas, and Silas, leading men among their brethren.

Act 15:23 They wrote this letter by their hands: ‘The apostles, the elders, and the brethren, To the brethren who are of the gentiles in Antioch, Syria, and Cilicia: Peace.

Act 15:24 ‘We have heard that some men who went out from us have confused you with words, and have agitated your souls, saying that you should be circumcised and guard the instructions; things that we did not command them.

Act 15:25 ‘Because of this, we all gathered together, deliberated and chose men to send to you with our beloved Paul and Barnabas, Act 15:26 ‘men who have committed their souls to the name of our Lord Jeshua the Anointed.

Act 15:27 ‘We have sent Judah and Silas with them, and they will also report these things to you by word of mouth.

Act 15:28 ‘For it was the will of the Holy Spirit, and also us, to place upon you no greater burden apart from these necessary things:

Act 15:29 ‘that you stay away from sacrifices to idols, from blood, from what is strangled, and from fornication. If you keep your souls from these things, you will do well.⁴ Be true to our Lord.’

Act 15:30 Then those who were sent came to Antioch; gathered all the people, and they delivered the letter.

Act 15:31 And after they had read it, they rejoiced and were encouraged.

Act 15:32 Now Judas and Silas, for they were also prophets, exhorted the brethren with many words and strengthened them, establishing those of the household.

Act 15:33 And after they had stayed for a time, the brethren sent them back in peace to the apostles.

¹ A defiling sacrifice is a sacrifice to an idol or pagan god.

² From Exo 34:15 & 1Co 10:18-21; Exo 20:14, Num 25:1-18 & 1Co 6:18; Gen 9:3-6 & Lev 17:10-17. See Note, vs 21.

⁴ This does not mean that we are not expected to keep God’s other Instructions, which are a lesser burden than these four rules (1Jo 5:3). If that was so, it would be OK for us to blaspheme God, lie, cheat, steal, murder and defile God’s Holy Days. One application of the four rules was to make sure the gentile Christians immediately ceased worshipping their former pagan gods, with the order of the rules in this verse more closely resembling the sequence of these rites in pagan temples.

remain there.¹

Act 15:35 Now Paul and Barnabas remained in Antioch, teaching and preaching the word of the Lord with many others.

Act 15:36 Then after a few days Paul said to Barnabas, "Let us return and visit the brethren in every city where we have preached the word of the Lord, and let us see what they are doing."

Act 15:37 Now Barnabas wanted to take John called Mark with them.

Act 15:38 But Paul did not want to take him with them, because he had left them in Pamphylia, and had not gone on with them.

Act 15:39 Because of this dispute, they parted from one another. And Barnabas took Mark and travelled by sea and they went to Cyprus;

Act 15:40 Then Paul chose Silas and departed, being entrusted by the brethren to the grace of God.

Act 15:41 And he travelled in Syria and Cilicia, establishing the congregations.

Act 16:1 Then he arrived at the cities of Derbe and Lystra. And a certain disciple was there, named Timothy, the son of a certain Judean woman who believed, and his father was Aramean.²

Act 16:2 And all the brethren who were at Lystra and Iconium testified about him.

Act 16:3 Because of this, Paul wanted to take him with him. And he received his circumcision, because of the Judeans who were in that region, for they all knew that his father was Aramean.

Act 16:4 And while they travelled through the cities, they were preaching and teaching them to keep the commandments which the apostles and elders had written in Jerusalem.

Act 16:5 And so the congregations were established in the faith, and were increasing in number every day.

Act 16:6 They walked through Phrygia and the region of Galatia, but the Holy Spirit impeded them, that they should not speak the Word of God in Asia.

Act 16:7 And when they came to the country of Mysia, they wanted to go from there to Bithynia, but the Spirit of Jeshua did not allow them.

Act 16:8 So when they left Mysia, they went down to the country of Troas.

Act 16:9 And a vision appeared to Paul in the night. Something like a certain Macedonian man arose and pleaded with him, saying, "Come to Macedonia and help me."

Act 16:10 Now after Paul saw this vision, we immediately wanted to go to Macedonia, for we understood that our Lord had called us to preach the Good News to them.

Act 16:11 So we journeyed from Troas, and rushed to Samothrace, and the next day came to the city of Neapolis, Act 16:12 and from there to Philippi, which is the foremost city of Macedonia, and a colony. And we stayed in that city for many notable days.

Act 16:13 And on the Sabbath days we went out of the city gate, for there was a place on the river bank where a house of prayer had been seen; and we sat down and spoke with the women who gathered there.

Act 16:14 Now a certain woman, a seller of purple, who feared God was there. Her name was Lydia, from the city of Thyatira. Our Lord opened her heart and she listened to what Paul was saying.

Act 16:15 And she and the descendants of her household were immersed, and she begged us, saying, "If you truly trust that I believe in our Lord, come and stay in my house." And she compelled us greatly.

Act 16:16 Now it happened, as we were going to the house of prayer, that a certain maiden met up with us, who had a spirit of divination, and she made her masters much profit by her divinations.

Act 16:17 She followed after Paul and us, and she cried out, saying, "These men are the servants of the Most High God, and they preach to us the path to life."

Act 16:18 And so she did for many days. But Paul became angry, turned and said to her spirit, "I command you in the name of Jeshua the Anointed to come out of her." And it came out at that moment.

Act 16:19 But when her masters saw that it had departed from her, with their expectation of profit, they seized Paul and Silas and brought them to the public square.

Act 16:20 And they brought them to the magistrates and the heads of the city, and they said, "These men are confusing our city, because they are Judeans,

Act 16:21 "and they preach customs which are not legal for us to receive or observe, because we are Romans."

Act 16:22 Then a large crowd gathered against them; and the magistrates tore their clothes and they commanded that they be scourged.

Act 16:23 And when they had flogged them severely, they threw them into prison, commanding the prison keeper to guard them securely.

Act 16:24 Now when he received this command, he entered and forced them into the inner prison and bound their feet with shackles.

Act 16:25 And in the middle of the night Paul and Silas were praying and offering up glory to God, and the prisoners were listening to them.

Act 16:26 Suddenly there was a great earthquake, and the foundations of the prison were shaken; and immediately all the doors were opened and everyone's chains were loosened.

Act 16:27 And when the prison keeper woke up and saw the prison doors open, he picked up his sword and was going to kill himself, for he thought that the prisoners had fled.

Act 16:28 But Paul called out with a loud voice, saying to him, "Do no evil to your soul, for we are all here."

Act 16:29 Then he lit a lamp for himself, and he came forward, entered and fell trembling at the feet of Paul and Silas.

Act 16:30 And he led them out and said to them, "My lords, what must I do to be given life?"

Act 16:31 So they said to him, "Believe in our Lord Jeshua the Anointed, and you will have life, you and your household."

Act 16:32 Then they spoke of the Word of Lord Jah¹ with him and with all the children in his household.

Act 16:33 And at that time in that night he took them and washed their stripes. And immediately he and everyone in his household were immersed.

Act 16:34 Then he took them and led them into his home and prepared a banquet for them; and he and all his household rejoiced in the faith of God.

Act 16:35 And when morning came, the officers sent the soldiers to tell the prison keeper to set these men free.

Act 16:36 So the prison keeper entered and reported these words to Paul, saying, "The officers have sent to let you go free. Now be released, and go in peace."

Act 16:37 But Paul said to him, "For no offence they have flogged us before the eyes of the world, all Roman men, and have thrown us into prison. And now they release us secretly? No indeed! Instead, let them come themselves and release us."

Act 16:38 And the soldiers left and told these words to the officers, and when they heard that they were Romans they were afraid.

Act 16:39 Then they came and pleaded with them to come out, and to depart from the city.

Act 16:40 And after they left the prison they went to Lydia's; and they saw the brethren there, and they comforted them and departed.

Act 17:1 Then they passed through the cities of Amphipolis and Apollonia, and they came to Thessalonica, where there was a Judean synagogue.

Act 17:2 And Paul entered in to them, as his custom was, and for three Sabbaths he spoke with them from the Writings,

Act 17:3 as he was explaining and demonstrating that the Messiah had to suffer and rise from the house of the dead, and saying, "This Jeshua whom I preach to you, He is the Messiah."

Act 17:4 And some of the people believed and joined Paul and Silas; and also many of the Greeks who worshipped God, and not a few of the notable women.

Act 17:5 But other Judeans were envious, drew some of the evil men from the streets of the city to themselves, and formed a large mob, and they were terrorizing the city. They brought them against the house of Jason, seeking to bring them out of there and hand them over to the mob.

Act 17:6 But when they did not find them there, they dragged out Jason and the brethren who were there, and brought them to the Governor of the city, crying out, "These have terrified all the land, and behold, they have come here again.

Act 17:7 "This Jason is their host, and these all stay here, opposing the commands of Caesar while they say, 'There is another king; Jeshua.'"

Act 17:8 And they alarmed the Governor of the city and all the people when they heard these things.

Act 17:9 So they took security from Jason and the brethren, and then they let them go.

Act 17:10 Then the brethren quickly sent Paul and Silas away by night to the city of Berea. When they arrived there, they went into the Judean synagogue.

Act 17:11 Now these Judeans were more noble than those Judeans who were in Thessalonica, for they gladly heard the Word from them every day, while they examined the Writings to prove if these things were so.

Act 17:12 And many of them believed, and so also many Greek men and notable women.

Act 17:13 But when the Judeans from Thessalonica knew that the Word of God was preached by Paul in the city of Berea, they came there also and did not cease stirring up and alarming the people.

Act 17:14 Then the brethren sent Paul away, to go down to the sea; but Silas and Timothy remained in that city.

Act 17:15 And they who accompanied Paul came to the city of Athens with him; and when they were leaving, they received a letter from him asking Silas and Timothy to come to him quickly.

Act 17:16 Now while Paul remained in Athens, his spirit was provoked within him when he saw that the whole city was full of idols.

Act 17:17 And he spoke in the synagogue with the Judeans and with those who worshipped God, and with those who gathered in the marketplace every day.

Act 17:18 Then certain philosophers from the school of Epicurus and others called Stoics were debating with him. And some of them said, "What does this collector of words want?" Others said, "He is preaching foreign gods." because he was preaching Jeshua and His resurrection to them.

Act 17:19 And they took him and brought him to the house of judgement which is called Areopagus, saying to him, "Can we know what this new teaching is which you preach?"

Act 17:20 "For you have sown strange words in our hearing and we want to know what these things mean."

Act 17:21 For all the Athenians and the foreigners who come there were concerned about nothing else except to say or to hear something new.

Act 17:22 Then Paul stood in the Areopagus and said, "Men, Athenians, I see that you excel in all things in the worship of demons;

Act 17:23 "for as I was going around and looking at your houses of worship, I found one altar where it was written: "The Unknown God." Therefore, this One whom you do not know and yet worship Him, Him I proclaim to you:

Act 17:24 "For God made the world and everything in it and He is the Lord of the heavens and the earth¹ and does not dwell in palaces made with hands.

Act 17:25 "Nor is He served by the hands of the children of men for He has no need for anything, since He gives life and a soul to everyone.

Act 17:26 "And He has made from one blood the whole world of humanity which dwells on the whole surface of the earth, and has determined the times of His decrees and set the boundaries of the dwelling places of humanity, Act 17:27 "so that they should seek and inquire of God, and through His Creation they might find Him, because He is not far from everyone of us;

Act 17:28 "for it is by Him that we live and we move and we exist, as some of your wise men among you have said, 'For we are from His lineage.'

Act 17:29 "Therefore men, because our lineage is from God,² we should not think that the Divine Nature is like gold or silver or stone, to be carved by the skill and knowledge of a child of man.

Act 17:30 "For God has terminated those times of deception, and in these times He commands all the children of men, everyone in every place, to repent;

Act 17:31 "because He has appointed a day on which He will judge the whole world in righteousness by the Man whom He has designated. He has assured everyone of His faithfulness by raising Him from the house of the dead."

Act 17:32 And when they heard of the resurrection from the house of the dead, some of them mocked, while others said, "Some other time we will listen to you about this."

Act 17:33 So Paul departed from among them.

Act 17:34 However, some men joined him and believed; one of them was Dionysius, from the judges of the Areopagos, one was a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

Act 18:1 Then Paul departed from Athens and came to Corinth.

Act 18:2 And he found a Judean man named Aquila there, who was from the country of Pontus, who had recently come from the country of Italy with his wife Priscilla because Claudius Caesar had commanded all the Judeans to depart from Rome; and he came to them.

Act 18:3 And because he was one of their trade, he stayed and worked with them; for by their trade they were tentmakers.

Act 18:4 And he spoke in the synagogues every week, and he persuaded both Judeans and pagans.

Act 18:5 When Silas and Timothy had come from Macedonia, Paul was constrained in the word, for the Judeans were standing against him and blaspheming when he testified that Jeshua is the Messiah to them.

Act 18:6 So he shook his garments and said to them,³ "From now on I am clean. I will go to the gentiles."

Act 18:7 And he departed from there and entered the house of a man named Titus, one who worshipped God, and his house was next door to the synagogue.

Act 18:8 Then Crispus, the leader of the synagogue, trusted in our Lord, he and all the children of his household. And many Corinthians were listening, trusting in God and being immersed.

Act 18:9 Now Lord Jah¹ spoke to Paul in a vision, "Do not be afraid, but speak, and do not be silent;

Act 18:10 "for I am with you, and no man can hurt you; and many people in this city are for me."

Act 18:11 And he stayed a year and six months in Corinth, teaching them the Word of God.

Act 18:12 Now when Gallion was proconsul of Achaia,² the Judeans gathered as one against Paul and they brought him to the judgement seat,

Act 18:13 saying, "This one persuades the descendants of men to worship God contrary to the law."

Act 18:14 And when Paul had asked to open his mouth and speak, Gallion said to the Judeans, "If it were a matter of wrongdoing or fraud or hateful accusations, O Judeans, I would receive you on its merits.

Act 18:15 "But the charges are about words or names or your law. You know what to do yourselves; for I do not want to be a judge of these matters."

Act 18:16 And he expelled them all from his judgement seat.

Act 18:17 Then all the pagans seized Sosthenes, an elder of the synagogue, and beat him before the judgement seat. And Gallion ignored these things.

Act 18:18 When Paul had remained there for many days, he bid farewell to the brethren and journeyed by sea for Syria, and Priscilla and Aquila came with him. He had his hair shaved off at Cenchrea, for he had vowed a vow.

² Gallion is Lucius Junius Gallio Annaeanus, who was Proconsul from 51 to 52 CE.

Act 18:19 And he came to Ephesus, and Paul entered the synagogue and spoke with the Judeans.

Act 18:20 When they asked him to stay with them, he did not consent,

Act 18:21 saying, "It is always necessary for me to observe this coming feast in Jerusalem; and if God is willing, I will return to you again." He left Aquila and Priscilla with them.

Act 18:22 And he journeyed by sea and came to Caesarea, and came up and invoked peace on the congregation. Then he went on to Antioch.

Act 18:23 After he had spent some remarkable days there, he departed and went through one region after another in Galatia and Phrygia, where he strengthened all the disciples.

Act 18:24 Now one man, a Judean named Apollos, who was a native from Alexandria and was instructed in the Word and familiar with the Writings, came to Ephesus.

Act 18:25 This man had been taught the Way of Lord Jah;³ and he was fervent in spirit, speaking and teaching about Jeshua thoroughly, but the only immersion he knew was that of John.

Act 18:26 So he began to speak boldly in the synagogue. When Aquila and Priscilla heard him, they took him with them and showed him the Way of Lord Jah⁴ more fully.

Act 18:27 And when he wanted to go to Achaia, the brethren wrote to the disciples, exhorting them to receive him; and when he went, through grace he helped many of the believers;

Act 18:28 for he vigorously instructed, refuting the Judeans before the crowds when he showed from the Writings that Jeshua is the Messiah.

Act 19:1 And while Apollos was at Corinth, Paul went through the upper regions and came to Ephesus. And he asked those disciples he found there, Act 19:2 "Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed?" And they answered, saying to him, "We have not even heard if there is a Holy Spirit."

⁴ As in the Peshitta

Act 19:3 He said to them, "What were you immersed into?" They said, "Into John's immersion."

Act 19:4 Paul said to them, "John immersed with the immersion of repentance, while he was telling the people to believe on the one who would come after him; who is Jeshua the Anointed."

Act 19:5 When they heard these things, they were immersed in the Name of our Lord Jeshua the Anointed.

Act 19:6 And when Paul laid a hand on them, the Holy Spirit came upon them, and they spoke in different tongues and prophesied.

Act 19:7 Now there were about twelve men in all.

Act 19:8 And Paul went into the synagogues and he spoke boldly for three months, reasoning and persuading them concerning the Kingdom of God.

Act 19:9 But some were hardened and were disputing and reviling the Way of God before the assembly. Paul and the disciples separated from them and every day he spoke with them in the school of a man named Tyrannus.

Act 19:10 And this continued for two years, until everyone who dwelt in Asia heard the word of Lord Jah,¹ both Judeans and Aramaeans.

Act 19:11 Now God worked great miracles by the hands of Paul,

Act 19:12 so that even clothes, handkerchiefs or rags placed on his body were brought to the sick and placed on them, and the diseases left them and demons also went out of them.

Act 19:13 Then some of the Judean men who went around exorcising demons began exorcising in the name of our Lord Jeshua over those who had evil spirits in them, saying, "We exorcise you by the name of Jeshua whom Paul preaches."

Act 19:14 And there were seven sons of a man named Sceva, a Judean chief priest, who were doing this.

Act 19:15 And the demon replied and said to them, "Jeshua I know, and Paul I know; but who are you?"

Act 19:16 Then the man who had that evil spirit in him leaped on them, overpowered them, and threw them down, and when they were naked and wounded, they fled from that house.

Act 19:17 This became known to all the Judeans and Aramaeans dwelling in Ephesus; and fear fell on them all, and the name of our Lord Jeshua the Messiah was exalted.

Act 19:18 And many of those who believed came and told of their wrongdoings and they confessed the things they were doing.

Act 19:19 Also, many ex-sorcerers gathered their books and brought and burned them before everyone. And they calculated their value, and it totalled fifty thousand pieces of silver.

Act 19:20 So the faith of God, great with power, grew increasingly powerful.

Act 19:21 When these things were accomplished, Paul purposed in his mind to journey through Macedonia and Achaia and go to Jerusalem, and he said, "After I have been there, it is necessary that I also see Rome."

Act 19:22 So he sent two of those who served with him into Macedonia, Timothy and Erastus, but he stayed in Asia for a time.

Act 19:23 And about that time there arose a great commotion about the Way of God.

Act 19:24 For there was one, a silversmith named Demetrius, who made silver shrines for Artemis, and he enriched his fellow craftsmen with great profit.

Act 19:25 This one gathered together all his fellow craftsmen and those who worked with them and said to them: "Men, you know that all our prosperity is from this work.

Act 19:26 "And you are hearing and seeing that the descendants of Ephesus are not alone, but the multitudes of all Asia this Paul has persuaded and turned away, saying that those which are made by the hands of men are not gods.

Act 19:27 "Nor is this exposed matter even finished, for the palace of the great goddess Artemis is going to be counted as nothing and this goddess whom all Asia and the world worship will be despised."

Act 19:28 And when they heard this, they were filled with rage and cried out, saying, "Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!"

Act 19:29 So the whole city was stirred up, and rushed into the theatre as one, seizing Gaius and Aristarchus, Macedonians and Paul's companions, and brought them with them.

Act 19:30 And Paul wanted to go into the theatre, but the disciples restrained him.

Act 19:31 Also some of the officials of Asia, because they loved him, sent to him and pleaded to him to not allow himself to enter the theatre.

Act 19:32 But the crowds in the theatre were very chaotic and shouting at each other, for many of them did not know why they had assembled.

Act 19:33 And the Judean people there put a man named Alexander, a Judean forward. And Alexander rose and beckoned with his hand, and wanted to make a defence to the people.

Act 19:34 But when the people knew that he was a Judean, they all cried out with one voice for about two hours, "Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!"

Act 19:35 And when the governor of the city had quietened them, he said: "Men of Ephesus, which of the descendants of man does not know that the city of the Ephesians is the palace of worship of the great Artemis, and of the image which descended from heaven?

Act 19:36 "Therefore, because there is not a man who can say anything against this, it is necessary for you to be quiet and not do anything hastily.

Act 19:37 "For you have brought these men here even though they are neither robbers of palaces nor blasphemers of our goddess.

Act 19:38 "But if Demetrius and his fellow tradesmen have a case against anyone, behold, the proconsuls in the city are skilled. Let them approach them and dispute with one another.

Act 19:39 "And if there is anything else you seek which is not granted in the law, this assembly must be dismissed.

Act 19:40 "For we now stand in danger of being accused of sedition, as we will not be able to offer any defence for the crowd this day, as we have assembled pointlessly and have caused an uproar without a reason."

Act 19:41 And when he had said these things, he dismissed the crowds.

Act 20:1 After the uproar had ceased, Paul called the disciples and kissed them, and he departed to Macedonia.

Act 20:2 Now when he had travelled through these regions and encouraged them with many words, he came to the country of Greece

Act 20:3 and he stayed there for three months. But when the Judeans plotted against him as he was about to leave for Syria, he planned to return to Macedonia.

Act 20:4 And Sopater, from the city of Berea, went with him to Asia; and Aristarchus and Secundus of the Thessalonians, and Gaius from the city of Derbe, and Timothy from Lystra, and Tychicus and Trophimus from Asia.

Act 20:5 These men went ahead, and waited for us at Troas.

Act 20:6 But we departed from the city of Philippi in Macedonia after the Days of Unleavened Bread,¹ and went by sea and came to Troas in five days, and remained there for seven days.

Act 20:7 Now on the first day of the week, when we assembled to break the Eucharist, Paul spoke with them because he was departing the next day and he continued speaking until midnight.²

Act 20:8 There were many burning lamps in the upper room where we were gathered together.

Act 20:9 And a young man named Eutychus was sitting in a window, and as he listened he sank into a deep sleep while Paul prolonged his message. And in his sleep he fell down from the third storey and was picked up as dead.

Act 20:10 But Paul came down, fell over him, embraced him and said, "Do not be troubled, for his soul is in him."

Act 20:11 Now when he came up, he broke bread and ate, and spoke until daybreak, and then departed by land.

Act 20:12 And when they brought in the youth alive, they rejoiced with him greatly.

Act 20:13 Then we went down to the ship and sailed to the port of Assos, for we intended to receive Paul there; for so he had commanded us when he went on by land.

Act 20:14 And when we received him at Assos, we took him on board the ship and came to Mitylene.

Act 20:15 We sailed from there the next day and came opposite the isle of Chios; the following day we came to Samos and stayed at Trogyllium; the next day we came to Miletus.

Act 20:16 For it had been determined that

Paul would bypass Ephesus so he would not be delayed there; for he was hurrying to keep the Day of Pentecost at Jerusalem, if he was able to.³

Act 20:17 From Miletus he sent to Ephesus and brought in the elders of the congregation.

Act 20:18 And when they had come to him, he said to them: "You know how I passed all my time with you from the first day when I came into Asia, Act 20:19 "as I served God with much humility, and in tears and in trials which came upon me by the treachery of the Judeans;

Act 20:20 "and I have not neglected anything that was useful for your souls, preaching and teaching you in the marketplaces and in houses;

Act 20:21 "while I was testifying to the Judeans and Aramaeans about returning home, into the presence of God and faith in our Anointed Lord Jeshua.

Act 20:22 "And now I am bound by the Spirit and I go on to Jerusalem, and I do not know what will meet me there.

Act 20:23 "However, the Holy Spirit testifies to me in every city, and says to me "Chains and tribulations are prepared for you."

Act 20:24 "But my soul is not considered valuable to me, so I may finish my race and the service which I received from our Lord Jeshua, to testify to the Good News of the grace of God.

Act 20:25 "And now I know that my face will not see any of you again, among whom I went, preaching the Kingdom to you.

Act 20:26 "And because of this, I testify to you this day, today, that I am innocent of the blood of you all, Act 20:27 "for I have not refused to show you all the will of God.

² Luke is pointing out that this was not a normal first day of the week, but one that was made special by the fact that Paul was leaving the next day.

³ Lev 23:9-22, esp vs 16: Note that even years after Jeshua's resurrection, his disciples were still observing Jehovah's annual Holy Days.

Act 20:28 “Therefore take heed to yourselves and to all the flock, among which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers, to shepherd the congregation of the Messiah¹ which He purchased with His own blood.

Act 20:29 “For I know this, that after I go, powerful wolves will come in among you and they will have no pity on the flock.

Act 20:30 “And some of your own people will rise up, men speaking perversions, to turn the disciples so they come after them.

Act 20:31 “Therefore, you must be vigilant, and remember that for three years I have not been silent, warning every one of you night and day with tears.

Act 20:32 “And now I commit you to God and to the word of His grace, which is able to build you up and give you an inheritance among all of the holy ones.

Act 20:33 “I have coveted no one’s silver or gold or apparel.

Act 20:34 “And you know that my hands have provided for my needs, and for those who have served with me.

Act 20:35 “And so I have shown to you that it is necessary to labour like this, and to be concerned for those who are weak. And remember the words of our Lord Jeshua, for He said, ‘He who gives is more blessed than he who receives.’”

Act 20:36 And when he had said these things, he knelt on his knees and he prayed and all them with him.

Act 20:37 Then there was great weeping among them all, and they embraced him and kissed him,

Act 20:38 but they were in pain most of all about the word which he spoke, that they² would not see his face again. And they accompanied him to the ship.

Act 21:1 We had departed from them and travelled straight to the isle of Cos, and the following day we came to Rhodes, and from there to Patara.

Act 21:2 And we found a ship there going to Phoenicia, so we went aboard it and set sail.

Act 21:3 When we came as far as the island of Cyprus, we passed it on the left towards Syria, and from there we arrived at Tyre; for the ship was to unload her cargo there.

Act 21:4 And when we found disciples there, we stayed with them for seven days. And every day they told Paul through the Spirit not to go to Jerusalem.

Act 21:5 After those days, we departed by road and they all accompanied us, with their wives and children, until we were outside the city. And they knelt on their knees on the seaside and they prayed.

Act 21:6 Then we kissed one another and boarded the ship, and they returned to their homes.

Act 21:7 So we journeyed from Tyre and came to the city of Ako, where we greeted the brethren, and lodged with them one day.

Act 21:8 On the next day we departed and came to Caesarea, and we lodged in the house of Philip the evangelist, who was one of the seven.

Act 21:9 And he had four virgin daughters who prophesied.

Act 21:10 And when we had stayed there many days, one prophet named Agabus came down from Judea.

Act 21:11 When he came to us, he took the belt from Paul’s waist and bound his own hands and feet, and said, “Thus says the Holy Spirit, ‘The Judeans in Jerusalem will bind the man who owns this belt like this, and deliver him into the hands of the gentiles.’”

Act 21:12 And when we heard these words, both we and the sons of that place pleaded with him to not go to Jerusalem.

¹ As in the older manuscripts. Some newer Peshitto manuscripts replace “the Messiah” with “God”.

² Literally we in the Peshitta

Act 21:13 Then Paul answered and said, "What are you doing? You are weeping and breaking my heart. For I am not only ready to be bound, but also to die in Jerusalem for the Name of our Lord Jeshua."

Act 21:14 So when he would not be persuaded by us, we ceased, saying, "The will of our Lord be done."

Act 21:15 And after those days we prepared and went up to Jerusalem.

Act 21:16 Also some of the male disciples from Caesarea came with us and brought one brother with them named Mnason. He was an early disciple from Cyprus, and received us into his house.

Act 21:17 And when we came to Jerusalem, the brethren received us gladly.

Act 21:18 On the following day we went with Paul to see Jacob when all the elders were there with him.

Act 21:19 When we had greeted them, Paul reported to them in detail everything which God had done among the gentiles through his service.

Act 21:20 And when they heard it, they glorified God. And they said to him, "You see, our brother, how many tens of thousands there are who believe in Judea, and all of them are zealous for the Instructions;

Act 21:21 "but they have been told that you teach all the Judeans among the gentiles to forsake Moses, and you say that they should not circumcise their sons nor should they walk according to the customs of the Instructions.

Act 21:22 "Therefore, because they will hear that you have come here to them, Act 21:23 "do what we tell you: We have four men with us who have vowed to purify themselves.

Act 21:24 "Take them, go and be purified with them, and pay their expenses so their heads will be shaved, and everyone will know that what they were told about you is false, and you keep and fulfil the

Instructions.¹

Act 21:25 "But those of the gentiles who believe, we have written that they must keep themselves from sacrifices to idols, from fornication, from what is strangled, and from blood."²

Act 21:26 Then Paul took those men the next day, and was purified with them, went to the Palace and entered, showing that it was the end of the days of purification, when an offering was to be offered for each one of them.³

Act 21:27 But when the seventh day arrived, the Judeans from Asia saw him in the Palace, and they stirred up all the people against him and laid hands on him,

Act 21:28 as they cried out, saying, "Men, sons of Israel, help! This is the man who opposes our people, teaching against the Instructions and against this place everywhere; and he has even brought an Aramaean into the Palace and has defiled this holy place."

Act 21:29 For they had earlier seen Trophimus the Ephesian with him in the city, and they supposed that he had entered into the Palace with Paul.

³ Jeshua made the only true sacrifice for sins. However, this does not mean that all sacrifices came to an end then, as there were also peace and thanksgiving sacrifices. Indeed, here we see Paul, many years after Jeshua's impalement, about to offer sacrifices at the Temple in Jerusalem, which he would only do if that was still Biblically correct. These are the sacrifices that will be offered at the new Temple during the Millennium, as shown in Eze 45:15 to 46:15. Today we cannot offer animal sacrifices as the Temple and altar were destroyed in 70 AD.

Act 21:30 And all the city was stirred up; and the people gathered together, seized Paul, and they dragged him out of the Palace; and immediately the gates were shut.

Act 21:31 Now while the crowd was seeking to kill him, the commander of the garrison heard that the whole city was in an uproar.

Act 21:32 He immediately took a centurion and many soldiers, and they ran to them. And when they saw the commander and the soldiers, they stopped beating Paul.

Act 21:33 Then the commander called out and took him, and commanded him to be bound with two chains; and he asked who he was and what he had done.

Act 21:34 And men from the crowd cried this and that. And because of their shouting, he could not know what was the truth, so he commanded him to be taken into the barracks.

Act 21:35 And when Paul reached the stairs, the soldiers carried him because of the violence of the people.

Act 21:36 For many people were coming after him, shouting and saying, "Impale him!"

Act 21:37 And as he was about to be led into the barracks, Paul said to the commander, "If you permit it, may I speak to you?" He replied to him, "Do you know Greek?"

Act 21:38 "Are you not the Egyptian who some time ago raised an insurrection and led four thousand evil-doers into the wilderness?"

Act 21:39 Paul said to him, "I am a man, a Judean from Tarsus, the notable city of Cilicia, where I was born. I implore you, let me speak to the people."

Act 21:40 So when he had allowed him, Paul stood on the stairs and motioned with his hand to them. And when they were quiet, he spoke to them in Judean

Aramaic,¹ saying,

Act 22:1 "Brothers and fathers, hear my defence before you."

Act 22:2 And when they heard that he spoke to them in Aramaic, they kept all the more quiet. Then he said to them:

Act 22:3 "I was brought up in this city beside the feet of Gamaliel, and I was taught carefully the traditions of our fathers, and I was zealous toward God as all of you are also.

Act 22:4 "I persecuted this Way to the death, and I would bind men and women and deliver them to the prison, Act 22:5 "as the chief of the priests had witnessed of me, and all the elders from whom I received warrants to go after the brethren in Damascus, so I could bring those who were there to Jerusalem as prisoners where they would receive capital punishment.

Act 22:6 "Now as I journeyed and came near Damascus at midday, suddenly out of the quietness a great light from heaven burst upon me.

Act 22:7 "And I fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to me, 'Saul, Saul, why do you persecute Me?'

Act 22:8 "So I replied and said, 'Who are You, my Lord?' And He said to me, 'I am Jeshua the Nazarene, whom you are persecuting.'

Act 22:9 "Now the men who were with me saw the light, but they did not hear the voice which spoke to me.

Act 22:10 "Then I said, 'What will I do, my Lord?' And our Lord said to me, 'Arise, go into Damascus, and there you will be told everything that you will be commanded to do.'

Act 22:11 "And when I could see nothing because of the glory of that light, those who were with me led me by my hands, and I came into Damascus.

Act 22:12 "Then one man, Khananjah,

¹ That is, in the local Hebrew dialect, as recorded in the Peshitta.

devout in the Instructions, having a good witness from all the Judeans who dwelt there, Act 22:13 “came and he said to me, ‘Brother Saul, open your eyes.’ And in that moment my eyes were opened and I saw.

Act 22:14 “Then he said to me, ‘The God of our fathers has chosen you to know His Will, and to see the Righteous One, and to hear the voice of His mouth.

Act 22:15 ‘And you will be His witness to all the children of men of what you have seen and heard.

Act 22:16 ‘And now, why do you wait? Arise, be immersed, and wash away your sins, while you call on His Name.’

Act 22:17 “Then I returned here, to Jerusalem, and I prayed in the Palace, Act 22:18 “and I saw Him in a vision saying to me, ‘Hurry, you must depart from Jerusalem, for they will not receive your testimony about Me.’

Act 22:19 “So I said, ‘My Lord, they know that I delivered to prison and beat those who believe in You in all our synagogues.

Act 22:20 ‘And when the blood of Your witness Stephen was shed, I also was standing with them and consenting to the will of those who killed him, and I was guarding the clothes of those who were stoning him.’

Act 22:21 “Then He said to me, ‘Go, for I am sending you far away to preach to the gentiles.’”

Act 22:22 And they listened to Paul until this word, and then they raised their voices and shouted, “Lift him up from the earth, for it is not right for such a fellow to live!”

Act 22:23 Then, as they cried out and threw off their clothes and cast dust toward Heaven,

Act 22:24 the commander ordered him to be taken into the barracks, and ordered that he should be examined by scourging, so he could know why they shouted out against him.

Act 22:25 And when they had stretched him out with leather thongs, Paul said to the centurion who stood over him, “Are you allowed to scourge a man who is a Roman, and not condemned?”

Act 22:26 When the centurion heard that, he called to the commander, saying to him, “What are you doing? This man is a Roman.”

Act 22:27 Then the commander came and said to him, “Tell me, are you a Roman?” And he said, “Yes.”

Act 22:28 And the commander replied, saying “With a large sum of money I obtained this Roman citizenship.” Paul said to him, “But I was born with it.”

Act 22:29 Immediately those who were about to scourge him withdrew from him; and the commander was afraid when he learned that he was a Roman, for he had bound him.

Act 22:30 The next day, because he wanted to truly know what he was accused of by the Judeans, he released him, and commanded the chief priests and all their ruling council to come, and he brought Paul down and stood him among them.

Act 23:1 Then Paul gazed at the assembly and said, “Men and brethren, I have lived in all good conscience before God until this day.”

Act 23:2 And the priest Khananjah commanded those who stood beside Paul to strike him on his mouth.

Act 23:3 But Paul said to him, “God will strike you, you whitewashed wall! For you sit to judge me according to the Instructions, while you command me to be struck contrary to the Instructions?”

Act 23:4 And those who stood there said to him, “Do you accuse God’s priest?”

Act 23:5 Paul said to them, “I was not aware, brethren, that he was the priest; for it is written, ‘You will not curse the ruler of your people.”¹

Act 23:6 But when Paul realised that some of the people were Sadducees and some were Pharisees, he cried out in the council, “Men and brethren, I am a Pharisee, the son of a Pharisee; and for the hope of the resurrection of the dead I am being judged!”

Act 23:7 And when he said this, the Pharisees and the Sadducees fell upon one another; and the people were divided.

Act 23:8 For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, nor envoys, nor spirit; but the Pharisees confess all of these.

Act 23:9 Then there arose a loud racket. And some of the scribes who were on the Pharisees’ side arose and protested with them, saying, “We find no evil in this man; and if the Spirit or an envoy has spoken to him, what wrong is there in that?”

Act 23:10 And when there was a great uproar among them, the commander was afraid they would tear Paul apart, and he commanded the Roman soldiers to go and remove him from their midst, and bring him to the barracks.

Act 23:11 But when it was night, our Lord appeared to Paul and said to him, “Be strong; for as you have testified for Me in Jerusalem, so you must also testify in Rome.”

Act 23:12 And when dawn came, some of the Judeans banded together and put themselves under a curse, saying that they would neither eat nor drink until they had killed Paul.

Act 23:13 Now there were more than forty men who had formed this conspiracy with an oath.

Act 23:14 They came to the priests and elders, and said, “We have cursed ourselves under a great curse that we will not taste anything until we have killed Paul.

Act 23:15 “Therefore we now ask you, and the rulers of the council, to request the commander to bring him to you, as you want to examine his conduct properly; but we are ready to kill him before he arrives before you.”

Act 23:16 And Paul’s sister’s son heard of their plot, so he entered the barracks and told Paul.

Act 23:17 Then Paul sent and called for one of the centurions and said to him, “Escort this young man to the commander, for he has something to tell him.”

Act 23:18 The centurion took the youth and brought him to the commander and said, “Paul the prisoner called me and begged me to bring this young man to you. He has something to say to you.”

Act 23:19 Then the commander took the youth by the hand, drew him aside and asked him, “What do you have to tell me?”

Act 23:20 And the youth said to him, “The Judeans have planned to ask you to send Paul down to their council tomorrow, as though they want to learn more about him.

Act 23:21 “But do not believe them, for behold, more than forty men are watching for him in ambush, and they have placed a curse on themselves that they will not eat nor drink until they kill him; and behold, they are ready and waiting for your promise.”

Act 23:22 So the commander dismissed the young man, commanding him, “Tell no one that you have revealed these things to me.”

Act 23:23 And he called for two centurions and said to them, “Go, prepare two hundred Roman soldiers, seventy horsemen, and two hundred right-handed archers to leave for Caesarea at the third hour of the night;

Act 23:24 “and also prepare beasts of burden to mount Paul on, so he may escape to Felix the governor.”

Act 23:25 Then he wrote a letter that he gave to them saying:

Act 23:26 Claudius Lysias, to the most excellent Governor Felix: Greetings.

Act 23:27 This man was seized by the Judeans so they could kill him. I helped him with the Roman soldiers and saved him, when I learned that he was a Roman.

Act 23:28 And when I wanted to know the reason they accused him, I brought him before their council.

Act 23:29 I found out that they were accusing him concerning questions of their law, but there was nothing charged against him worthy of death or imprisonment.

Act 23:30 And when a plot was shown to me, that the Judeans were to ambush him, I sent him to you immediately, and also ordered his accusers to speak with him before you. Stay well.

Act 23:31 Then the Roman soldiers, as they were commanded, took Paul by night and brought him to the city of Antipatris.

Act 23:32 The next day the horsemen dismissed their comrades, the foot soldiers, to return to the barracks.

Act 23:33 And they brought him to Caesarea, delivered the letter to the governor, and presented Paul to him.

Act 23:34 And when he read the letter, he asked him what province he was from. And when he understood that he was from Cilicia, Act 23:35 he said to him, "I will hear you when your accusers have come." And he commanded that he be kept in Herod's Praetorium.

Act 24:1 Now after five days Khananjah the chief of the priests came down with the elders and Tertullus, an orator. They gave evidence to the governor against Paul.

Act 24:2 And when he was called upon, Tertullus began his accusation, saying: "Because of you, we live in abundant peace, and great stability. The people receive much through your care.

Act 24:3 "And we all, in all places, receive your grace, excellent Felix.

Act 24:4 "However, so we may not weary you with many things, I beg you to listen to our lowliness briefly.

Act 24:5 "For we have found this man to be a corrupter and an instigator of dissension among all the Judeans throughout the world, for he is a leader of the teachings of the Nazarene.¹

Act 24:6 "And when he wanted to defile our Palace, we seized him, and wanted to judge him according to our law.

Act 24:7 "But the commander Lysias came and with great violence snatched him from our hands and sent him to you,

Act 24:8 "and he commanded his accusers to come to you. When you question him you can learn from him about all these things of which we accuse him."

Act 24:9 Then those Judeans cried out about him, and they said, "These things are so."

Act 24:10 Then the governor beckoned to Paul to speak, and Paul replied, saying, "I have known for many years that you are the judge of this nation, and because of this I gladly render this defence for myself, Act 24:11 "that you may know that it is no more than twelve days since I came up to Jerusalem to worship.

Act 24:12 "Nor did they find me speaking with anyone in the Palace, nor did I gather a crowd; not in their synagogues and not in the city.

Act 24:13 "Nor do they have anything in their hands before you to prove any of the things of which they now accuse me.

Act 24:14 "But this I do confess, that I serve the God of my fathers in the teachings of which they speak, for I believe all things which are written in the Instructions and in the Prophets.

Act 24:15 "And I have hope upon God in things which they also preach; that there will be resurrections of the house of the dead, both of the righteous and of the iniquitous.

Act 24:16 "Because of this, I also labour, that my conscience may always be pure before God and before the children of men.

Act 24:17 "And after many years I came to give alms and offer gifts to the children of my nation.

Act 24:18 "When these men found me in the Palace, I was purified, not with a crowd nor with tumult.

Act 24:19 "So the Judeans from Asia who stirred up the people are those who are obligated to stand here before you with me and to bring whatever charge they have.

Act 24:20 "Or let these say what offence they found against me when I stood before their council,

Act 24:21 "unless it is for this one statement which I cried out when I stood among them, 'Concerning the resurrection of the dead I am being judged before you this day.'"

Act 24:22 But Felix, because he knew the Way more fully, deferred the proceedings and said to them, "When the commander comes down, I will hear the case between you."

Act 24:23 So he ordered the centurion to guard Paul with liberty, and that not one of his friends should be forbidden from serving him.

Act 24:24 And after some days, Felix was with his wife Drusilla, who was Judean, and he sent for and called Paul and heard him concerning the faith of the Messiah.

Act 24:25 Now as he spoke with them about righteousness, holiness, and the judgement that was going to come, Felix was afraid and said, "Go now; and when I have space I will send for you."

Act 24:26 For he had hoped that he would be given a bribe by Paul. Therefore he sent for him often and spoke with him.

Act 24:27 But when his two years were fulfilled, the next governor came in his place, called Porcius Festus. And Felix, wanting to do the Judeans a favour, left Paul as a prisoner.

Act 25:1 Now three days after Festus came to Caesarea, he went up to Jerusalem.

Act 25:2 Then the chief priests and the Judean leaders informed him about Paul; and they petitioned him,

Act 25:3 when they asked him this favour; that he would send him to Jerusalem, for they made an ambush along the road to kill him.

Act 25:4 But Festus replied, "Paul is being kept at Caesarea, and I am travelling there shortly."

Act 25:5 "Therefore, let those among you to whom this has come into their hands, go down with us and accuse this man with all of his offences."

Act 25:6 And when he been there eight or ten days, he went down to Caesarea. And the next day he sat on the judgement seat and commanded Paul to be brought.

Act 25:7 When he came, the Judeans and leaders who had come down from Jerusalem brought many serious things against Paul, which they were unable to prove.

Act 25:8 Then Paul rendered his defence, that he had not violated anything; "Not against the Judean Instructions, nor against the palace, nor against Caesar."

Act 25:9 But Festus, because he wanted to bestow a favour on the Judeans, said to Paul, "Will you go up to Jerusalem and be judged there before me about these things?"

Act 25:10 Paul replied and said, "I stand at Caesar's judgement seat, where I am rightfully judged. I have not sinned against the Judeans in anything, as you also know.

Act 25:11 “And if any offence was done by me, or anything worthy of death, I would not excuse myself from death; but if there is nothing in these things of which they accuse me, no man will deliver me to them as a gift. I invoke an appeal to Caesar.”

Act 25:12 Then Festus conferred with the sons of the kingdom, and said, “You have invoked an appeal to Caesar. To Caesar you will go!”

Act 25:13 And after some days had passed, King Agrippa and Bernice came to Caesarea to inquire about Festus’ welfare.

Act 25:14 When they had been with him for some days, Festus related Paul’s case to the king, saying: “There is one man, a prisoner left by Felix, Act 25:15 “and when I was in Jerusalem the chief priests and the Judean elders informed me about him, asking me to make a judgement against him for them.

Act 25:16 “So I said to them, ‘It is not the custom of the Romans to deliver up any man to slaughter as a favour until the accused lawfully meets the accusers face to face, and he has opportunity to give a defence concerning the charges against him.’

Act 25:17 “Therefore, when I came here, the next day without any delay I sat on the judgement seat and I ordered them to bring the man to me.

Act 25:18 “And his accusers stood with him, and could not prove any evil indictment against him like those I had supposed, Act 25:19 “but had some charges of one thing or another about their religion against him and about a man, Jeshua, who had died, of whom Paul said that He was alive.

Act 25:20 “And because I was unable to judge questions about such things, I said to Paul. “Do you want to go to Jerusalem and be judged there concerning these matters?”

Act 25:21 “But he requested that he be reserved for the decision of Caesar, and I commanded that he be kept until I send him to Caesar.”

Act 25:22 Then Agrippa said, “I would like to hear this man.” Festus said, “Tomorrow, you will hear him.”

Act 25:23 So the next day, Agrippa and Bernice came with great pomp, and came to the house of judgement with the commander and the leaders of the city, and at Festus’ command Paul came.

Act 25:24 And Festus said: “King Agrippa and all the men who are here with us, you can see this man about whom all the Judean people complained to me, in Jerusalem and here, crying out that this one should live no longer.

Act 25:25 “But when I found that nothing worthy of death had been done by him, and because he had appealed to be judged by Caesar, I commanded that he be sent.

Act 25:26 “I do not know what to write to Caesar concerning him. Therefore I have brought him out before you, and especially before you, King Agrippa, so that after his case is examined I may find what to write.

Act 25:27 “For it is not right to send a prisoner and not to write his offences.”

Act 26:1 Then Agrippa said to Paul, “You are permitted to speak for yourself.” So Paul stretched out his hand and offered his defence, saying:

Act 26:2 “Concerning all the things of which I am accused by the Judeans, King Agrippa, I consider that I am blessed, because today I can bring a defence before you, Act 26:3 “especially because I know that you are an expert in all charges about the Judean Instructions. Therefore I ask you to hear me with a patient spirit.

Act 26:4 “Now all these Judeans know, if they wished to testify of my way of life from my youth, that it was spent from the beginning among my own nation and in Jerusalem.

Act 26:5 “For they who know me believe that for a long time I lived as a Pharisee, and in their approved teachings.

Act 26:6 “And now I stand and am judged for the hope of the promise which God made to our fathers.

Act 26:7 “For unto this hope our twelve branches, earnestly serving God by diligent prayer by day and night, hope to attain. For this hope, King Agrippa, I am accused by the agency of the Judeans.

Act 26:8 “How can you judge that we should not believe that God raises the dead?

Act 26:9 “Indeed, I had previously thought that I must do many things contrary to and against the Name of Jeshua the Nazarene.

Act 26:10 “I also did this in Jerusalem, and many saints I cast into prison by the authority I received from the chief priests; and when they were killed, I participated with those who condemned them.

Act 26:11 “And I tortured them in every synagogue and pressured them to blaspheme the Name of Jeshua; and being full of great rage against them, I also went out to persecute them in other cities.

Act 26:12 “While I journeyed to Damascus to do this with authority and approval from the chief priests, Act 26:13 “at midday, O king, on the road I saw a light from heaven, brighter than the light of the sun, burst upon me and those who journeyed with me.

Act 26:14 “And we all fell on the ground, and when I heard a voice, it said to me in Aramaic, ‘Saul, Saul, why do you persecute Me? It is hard for you to kick the goads.’

Act 26:15 “So I said, ‘Who are You, my Lord?’ And our Lord said to me, ‘I am Jeshua the Nazarene, whom you are persecuting.

Act 26:16 “And He said to me, ‘Rise to your feet, for I have appeared to you for this: to appoint you as a servant and a witness that you have seen me and are going to see me.

Act 26:17 ‘I will save you from the Judean people, and from the other nations to whom I am sending you,

Act 26:18 ‘that you will open their eyes so they will turn from the darkness to the light, and from the authority of Satan to God, that they will receive release from sins and a portion with the saints by the faith that is in Me.’

Act 26:19 “Because of this, King Agrippa, I did not stand in dispute against the heavenly vision, Act 26:20 “but I preached first to those in Damascus and to those in Jerusalem, and in all the villages of Judea. I also preached to the gentiles to repent, and be converted to God, and to do works worthy of repentance to God.

Act 26:21 “Because of these things the Judeans seized me in the Palace and they wanted to kill me.

Act 26:22 “But God has helped me to this day, and behold I stand and testify to the small and great, not saying anything beyond what Moses and the prophets said, apart from those things which they said would come;

Act 26:23 “that the Messiah would suffer, that He would be the beginning of the resurrection from the house of the dead, and would preach light to the Israelite people and to the gentiles.”¹

Act 26:24 Now when Paul had given his defence, Festus cried out in a loud voice, “Paul, you are insane! Much learning has made you insane!”

Act 26:25 Paul said, “I am not insane, most excellent Festus, for I am speaking words of truth and integrity.

Act 26:26 “Also King Agrippa really knows of these things, and because of this I speak publicly before him, for I think that none of these matters have escaped his attention, as they were not done in secret.

¹ Deu 18:15-19, Isa 52:13-53:12, Psa 16:8-11, Zec 12:10, Isa 42:6, Gen 22:18, etc

Act 26:27 “King Agrippa, do you believe the prophets? I know that you believe.”

Act 26:28 Then Agrippa said to him, “In a little while you will persuade me to become a Christian.”

Act 26:29 Paul said, “I have desired from God both a little and very much, not for you only, but also for all of those who hear me today, to become like me, but without these chains.”

Act 26:30 And the King, the governor, Bernice and those who sat with them stood up for him;

Act 26:31 and when they withdrew from there, they talked with each other, and they were saying, “This man has done nothing worthy of death or chains.”

Act 26:32 Then Agrippa said to Festus, “This man might have been released if he had not invoked an appeal to Caesar.”

Act 27:1 And Festus commanded that he was to be sent to Caesar in Italy, and he delivered Paul and the other prisoners to one man named Julius, a centurion of the Sebasta Regiment.

Act 27:2 So when it was time for us to journey, we boarded a ship from a city of Adramintius which was going to the coasts of Asia. Aristarkus, a Macedonian from the city of Thessalonica, came on the ship with us.

Act 27:3 And the next day we came to Sidon. The centurion acted with compassion towards Paul and allowed him to go to his friends and be refreshed.

Act 27:4 Then we sailed from there, but because the winds were against us, we went around to Cyprus.

Act 27:5 And we had passed over the sea of Cilicia and Pamphylia, and arrived at Mura, a city of Lycia.

Act 27:6 The centurion found an Alexandrian ship there that was going to Italy, and he put us in it.

Act 27:7 And because it was barely moving, it was many days of labour before we came next to the island of Cnidus, and because the wind would not permit us to go straight, we went around Crete, opposite the city of Salmone.

Act 27:8 As we labouriously sailed around it, we came to a place called Beautiful Harbour, which was near the city called Lasea.

Act 27:9 And we were there for a long time, until the day of the Judean Fast was past,¹ and it was a fearful time for men to travel by sea, and Paul advised them,

Act 27:10 saying, “Men, I have seen that our voyage will end with disaster and great loss, not only of the cargo and our ship, but also our own souls.”

Act 27:11 But the centurion listened to the helmsman and the master of the ship more than to the words of Paul.

Act 27:12 And because the port was not suitable during storms, and winter coming, many of us wanted to journey from there, and if it was possible for us, to reach a certain port in Crete called Phoenix, opening toward the south, and winter there.

Act 27:13 When the south wind blew, they hoped to arrive according to their desire, so they proceeded around Crete.

Act 27:14 But a little while later, the wind of a hurricane came upon us, called Typhon Euroclydon.

Act 27:15 The ship could not stand against the wind and was carried forcefully, and we gave in to its hands.

Act 27:16 And when we passed a certain island called Claudia, we laboured to keep hold of the lifeboat.

Act 27:17 When we took it on board, we tied it onto the ship; for we were afraid that it would fall into a trough in the sea. Then we took down the sail and so we were driven on.

¹ That is, the Day of Atonement, which is in late September or October. (Lev 23:27-32)

Act 27:18 And as the storm grew more severe upon us, the next day we threw the cargo into the sea.

Act 27:19 On the third day we cast away the ship's tackle with our own hands.

Act 27:20 And the storm held us for many days, and we had seen neither the sun, nor the moon nor the stars, all hope for our lives was entirely cut off.

Act 27:21 But when the men could no longer endure the situation, Paul stood in their midst and said, "Men, if you had believed me, we would not have sailed from Crete and we would have been spared from this loss and this suffering.

Act 27:22 "And now I inform you that our souls will be without harm, for not one of you will be lost, but only the ship.

Act 27:23 "For during the night an envoy of the God whom I belong to and whom I serve appeared to me, Act 27:24 "And he said, 'Do not be afraid, Paul; for you will stand before Caesar; and behold, as a favour God has given you all those who sail with you.'

Act 27:25 "Therefore take heart, men, for I believe in God and that it will be just as it was spoken to me.

Act 27:26 "However, there is one island for us to be cast upon."

Act 27:27 And after we wandered and were buffeted for fourteen days in the Adriatic Sea, about midnight the sailors thought that they were approaching land.

Act 27:28 And they cast in an anchor and found the depth to be twenty fathoms; and when they had gone a little farther, they found it to be fifteen fathoms.

Act 27:29 Then we were afraid lest we should founder on a rocky place, so we cast in four anchors from the bow of the ship, and prayed that day would come.

Act 27:30 But the sailors sought to escape from the ship, and they lowered the lifeboat into the sea, pretending that they would go and tie the ship to the land.

Act 27:31 When Paul saw this, he told the centurion and the soldiers, "If these men do not stay in the ship, you cannot survive."

Act 27:32 Then the soldiers cut the ropes of the lifeboat from the ship and they set it adrift.

Act 27:33 And until dawn, Paul persuaded them all to take food, for he said to them, "Behold, today is the fourteenth day of danger, and you have tasted nothing.

Act 27:34 "Therefore I beg you to take food to sustain your lives, for not a hair from the head of any of you will perish."

Act 27:35 And when he had said these things, he took bread and praised God before them all; and he broke it and began to eat.

Act 27:36 Then they were all encouraged, and they also took food.

Act 27:37 And in all we were two hundred and seventy-six souls on the ship.

Act 27:38 So when they were filled with food, they lightened the ship and threw the wheat into the sea.

Act 27:39 Now when it was day, the sailors did not recognise the land; but they observed a certain bay in the land with a beach, and they were considering if it was possible to run the ship into it.

Act 27:40 And they cut the anchors and left them in the sea, and loosened the rudder ropes; and they hoisted the small topsail to capture the wind and they sailed towards the land.

Act 27:41 But the ship struck a protruding place between two deep channels in the sea, and the prow was stuck fast from the bow and could not be moved, while the stern was being destroyed by the force of the waves.

Act 27:42 Now the soldiers had wanted to kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim away and escape from them.

Act 27:43 But the centurion refused to let them do this, for he wanted to save Paul, and he commanded those who could swim to go first and get to land,

Act 27:44 and they sent the rest on boards and other wooden pieces of the ship. And so they all escaped to the land.

Act 28:1 Now after this, we learned that this island was called Meleta.¹

Act 28:2 And the natives who dwelt there showed us great kindness; for they kindled a fire and called us all to get warm, because of the heavy rain that was falling and the cold.

Act 28:3 And when Paul took a bundle of sticks and set them on the fire, a viper came out of them to escape the heat of the fire, and bit his hand.

Act 28:4 So when the natives saw it hanging from his hand, they said, "Perhaps this man is a murderer who, though he has escaped the sea, yet justice will not let him live."

Act 28:5 But Paul shook his hand and threw the viper into the fire and nothing bad happened to him.

Act 28:6 But all the natives were thinking that within an hour he would swell up and drop dead on the ground; but after they had waited for a long time and saw that no harm came to him, they changed their words and said, "He is a god."

Act 28:7 Now there was a village in that place belonging to a man named Puplios, who was Chief of the island, and he received us into his house for three joyful days.

Act 28:8 And Puplios's father was ill with a fever and a disease of the intestines. Paul entered before him, prayed and he laid his hand upon him and healed him.

¹ Though many English Bibles translate Melita as Malta, the Aramaic (Melete מֵלֵטָא) and Greek (Meletay Μελίτη) manuscripts have it as Meleta. Meleta is almost certainly the Dalmatian island called Mljet (mil-yet) today, which is in the Adriatic Sea. Malta, in the Mediterranean Sea, only became the British choice after Malta became their colony. Mljet has venomous snakes. Malta does not.

Act 28:9 So when this happened, the rest of those on the island who were sick also came to him and they were healed.

Act 28:10 They honoured us with great honour; and when we were leaving there, they loaded us up with provisions.

Act 28:11 So after three months we left, journeying in an Alexandrian ship which had wintered at the island. It had the sign of the Twins on it.

Act 28:12 And we came to the city of Syracuse, and we remained there for three days.

Act 28:13 From there we travelled around and came to the city of Rhegium. And after one day the south wind blew for us; and in two days we came to Putielos, an Italian city.

Act 28:14 And we found brethren there, and they begged us to stay. We were with them for seven days and then we went on to Rome.

Act 28:15 And when the brethren there heard about us, they came out to meet us at the forum called Appius Forus and went to the Three Inns. When Paul saw them, he praised God and was encouraged.

Act 28:16 Then we entered Rome and the centurion allowed Paul to dwell where he wanted with the soldier who guarded him.

Act 28:17 And after three days Paul called to the Judean leaders, and when they had assembled, he said to them: "Men and brethren, though I have done nothing against the people or the Instructions of my fathers, yet I was handed over in bonds from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans.

Act 28:18 "And when they had examined me, they wanted to release me, because the rulers found that I had done nothing deserving death.

Act 28:19 "But as the Judeans stood against me, I was compelled to call for an appeal to Caesar, not that I had any accusation against the children of my nation.

Act 28:20 "Because of this I have begged you to come, so I may see you and relate these things to you, because for the Hope of Israel I am bound with this chain."

Act 28:21 And they said to him, "We have not received a letter about you from Judea, nor have any of the brethren who came from Jerusalem spoken any evil of you to us.

Act 28:22 "But we desire to hear from you what you think about this teaching, because we do not know anyone who accepts it."

Act 28:23 So they appointed a day to him, and many came to where he was lodging, and he revealed things about the Kingdom of God to them, as he testified and persuaded them about Jeshua from the Instructions of Moses and from the Prophets, from morning until evening.¹

Act 28:24 And some of them were persuaded by his words, and others were not persuaded.

Act 28:25 So they were dismissed from before him when they did not agree with each other, and Paul had said this to them: "The Holy Spirit spoke rightly through the mouth of Isaiah the prophet against our fathers, Act 28:26 when he said, 'Go to this people and say to them: "Hearing, you will hear and you will not understand; and you will see and you will not perceive;

Act 28:27 for the heart of this people has grown hard and they have dulled their hearing, and they have shut their eyes, lest they should see with their eyes and hear with their ears and understand in their hearts and turn to Me, and I would forgive them.'"²

Act 28:28 "Therefore, know this! This salvation of God has been sent to the gentiles, for they are listening to it!"

¹ For a list of many of the passages Paul used, see the footnotes to Luk 24:27.

² Deu 29:4, Isa 6:9-10, Eze 12:2, Mat 13:15, Joh 12:40, Rom 11:8

Act 28:29 And when he had said these things, the Judeans departed and there were many disputes among them.³

Act 28:30 Then Paul rented his own house and lived in it for two years, and received all those who came to him there.

Act 28:31 And he was preaching about the Kingdom of God and boldly teaching about our Lord Jeshua the Anointed without hindrance.

The Testimonies

Hebrews¹

Heb 1:1 God, who in various places and in different forms,² spoke with our fathers by the prophets from the beginning,

Heb 1:2 He has in these last days spoken to us by His Son, whom He has appointed the Heir of all things,³ and by Him He made the universe;

Heb 1:3 for He is the brilliance of His glory and the image of His being, and is upholding all things by the power of His Word, and when He had personally accomplished the cleansing of our sins, He sat down at the right side of the Majesty on high,⁴

Heb 1:4 and this One is far greater than the envoys, just as the Name He possesses is so much greater than theirs.

Heb 1:5 For to which of the envoys⁵ did God ever say: "You are My Son, today I have begotten You."⁶ And again: "I will be His Father, and He will be My Son."⁷

Heb 1:6 But again, when He brings the Firstborn into the universe, He says: "All the envoys of God will worship Him."⁸

Heb 1:7 And of the envoys He speaks in this way: "He makes His envoys spirits and His servants flaming fire."⁹

Heb 1:8 But about the Son He says: "Your throne, O God, is forever and ever; a Branch of righteousness is the Branch of Your Kingdom."

Heb 1:9 "You have loved righteousness and You have hated iniquity. Therefore God, Your God, has anointed You with the oil of gladness more than Your companions."¹⁰

Heb 1:10 And again: "You, in the beginning, laid the foundation of the earth, and the heavens are the work of Your hands;¹¹ Heb 1:11 "They will pass away, but You will remain; and they will all wear out like a garment;

Heb 1:12 "and like a cloak You will fold them up, and they will be changed. But You will remain Yourself, and Your years will not end."¹²

Heb 1:13 But to which of the envoys has He ever said: "Sit at My right side, until I put Your enemies under Your feet as a footstool"¹³

Heb 1:14 Behold, are they not all serving spirits who are sent to serve those who will inherit Life?

Heb 2:1 Therefore we are indebted to be even more attentive to what we have heard, lest we fall.

Heb 2:2 For if the word spoken through envoys was established, and everyone who heard it and transgressed it received a just 'reward',

Heb 2:3 how will we escape if we despise those things which are our salvation, things which began with our Lord, and were spoken by those who came from Him, and were heard and confirmed among us,

Heb 2:4 while God testified for them with signs and wonders, and by various miracles, and by gifts of the Holy Spirit which were given in accordance with His will?

Heb 2:5 For He has not subjected the world to come, about which we speak, to envoys.

Heb 2:6 But as the Writing testifies and says: "What is man that You are mindful of him, and the Son of Mankind that You care for him?

Heb 2:7 "You made him a little lower than the envoys; You have placed glory and honour on His head, and You have given Him authority over the works of Your hands.

Heb 2:8 "You have subjected all things under his feet."¹ But if He subjected everything to him, it leaves nothing that is not subjected to him.² But now, we do not yet see all things subjected to him.

Heb 2:9 But He who was a little lower than the envoys, we see that He is Jeshua, and for the suffering of His death, glory and honour are placed on His head; for by God's grace, He tasted death in the place of every person.³

Heb 2:10 For it was fitting for Him, who made all things by His hand and all things are for His sake, to bring many children to glory, that the Prince of their salvation would perfect Himself through His suffering.

Heb 2:11 For He who makes holy and those who are made holy are all of one; because of this, He is not ashamed to call them His brethren,

Heb 2:12 when He said: "I will declare Your Name to My brethren; within the congregation I will glorify You."⁴

Heb 2:13 And again: "I will trust in Him."⁵ And again: "Behold, Me and the children whom Jehovah has given to Me."⁶

Heb 2:14 Therefore, as the children shared in the flesh and blood, He also shared in these things with them in the form of His death, that He would destroy the one who had held the authority of death, who is Satan,

Heb 2:15 and He would release those who through fear of death were subject to bondage all their lives.

Heb 2:16 For death was not authorised over the envoys, but it was authorised over the children of Abraham.

Heb 2:17 Therefore, it was right that in all things He became like His brethren, that He would be a compassionate and trustworthy Chief of the Priests in the things of God, and would make atonement for the people's sins.

Heb 2:18 Because He has suffered and been tempted in this, He can help those who are tempted.

Heb 3:1 Therefore, my holy brethren, called with a calling from Heaven, consider the Apostle and Chief of the Priests of our confession, the Messiah Jeshua,

Heb 3:2 who is faithful to the One who appointed Him, as Moses was in His whole household.⁷

Heb 3:3 For His glory is much greater than that of Moses, just as the honour of He who built the house is much more than that of his house.⁸

Heb 3:4 For every house is built by someone, but He who built all things is God.

² 1Co 15:27-28 clarifies that All things does NOT include Jeshua's Father.

³ That is, Jeshua was lower than the envoys while He was human, and He died the death that each and every one of us deserves to die for our own sins (Rom 3:23).

⁴ Psa 22:22, Joh 20:17

⁵ Psa 91:2 & 2Sa 22:3

⁶ As in Isa 8:18, rendered as God in the Peshitta.

⁷ Num 12:7

⁸ Zec 6:13

Heb 3:5 And Moses was entrusted with the whole household as a servant, for a witness of those things which would be spoken by him,

Heb 3:6 but the Messiah is a Son over His House, and we are His House if we hold fast to the end, with boldness and pride in His Good News.

Heb 3:7 Therefore the Holy Spirit said: "Today, if you will hear His voice, Heb 3:8 "do not harden your hearts to anger Him, as in the rebellion, in the day of temptation in the wilderness, Heb 3:9 "when your fathers tempted Me, proved Me, and they saw My works for forty years.

Heb 3:10 "Therefore I was weary of that generation, and I said, 'This is a people who err in their heart, and they have not known My ways.'

Heb 3:11 "So I swore in My wrath, 'They will not enter My rest.'"¹

Heb 3:12 Therefore beware, my brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart that is not faithful and you would depart from the Living God;

Heb 3:13 but question yourselves every day, while the day is called Today, lest any one of you be hardened by the deception of sin.

Heb 3:14 For we have been joined to the Messiah if we hold fast to this true covenant from the beginning until the end,

Heb 3:15 just as it is said: "Today, if you will hear His voice, do not harden your hearts to anger Him."

Heb 3:16 For who are those who heard and angered him? Was it not all those who came out of Egypt, led by Moses?

Heb 3:17 And with whom was He wearied for forty years, but those who sinned and their bones fell in the wilderness?²

Heb 3:18 And to whom did He swear that they would not enter His rest, but to those who were not convinced?

Heb 3:19 So we see that they could not enter in because they did not believe.

Heb 4:1 Therefore, while the promise of entrance into His rest remains, let us fear lest any of you come short of entering.

Heb 4:2 For the Good News was preached to us as well as to them; but the word which they heard did not benefit them, for it was not joined with faith in those who heard it.

Heb 4:3 But we who believe are entering that rest. But just as He said: "So I swore in My wrath, they will not enter My rest,"³ for behold, the works of God have existed from the creation of the world.⁴

Heb 4:4 For He spoke this about the Sabbath:⁵ "And God rested on the seventh day from all His works";⁶

Heb 4:5 and yet again He said: "They will not enter My rest."⁷

Heb 4:6 Therefore, because there exists a place where each man may himself enter, and those who were called first were not convinced and did not enter in,

Heb 4:7 again, after a long time, He has appointed another day, just as it is written above, saying to David, "Today, if you will listen to His voice, do not harden your hearts."⁸

Heb 4:8 For if Jeshua, the son of Nun,⁹

³ Psa 95:11

⁴ Gen 2:1

⁵ The Peshitta has "about the Sabbath" here, while the Greek renders it as "in a certain place of the seventh day in this way". The Peshitta clearly identifies the seventh day in Gen 2 as the Sabbath.

⁶ Gen 2:2-3

⁷ In this case, it may refer to Num 14:1-32, where the rest they did not inherit was the Promised Land.

⁸ Psa 95:7-8. 'Another day' refers to another opportunity to enter God's Rest. It does not refer to changing which day is the weekly Sabbath.

⁹ This is of course Jeshua, Moses' protégé. In a similar way, Jeshua is Jehovah God's had given them rest, He would not have spoken about another day after this.

² Num 14:29-34

Heb 4:9 Therefore, it remains for the people of God to keep the Sabbath.¹

Heb 4:10 For whoever enters His rest has himself also rested from his works just as God rested from His own.

Heb 4:11 Let us therefore be careful to enter into that rest, lest we fall in the manner of those who were not convinced.

Heb 4:12 For all of the word of God is living and effective, and much sharper than any two-edged sword,² piercing and separating the soul and spirit, and the joints and marrow and bones, and judges the thoughts of the conscience and heart.

Heb 4:13 And there is no creature hidden before Him, but everything is naked and open before the eyes of Him to whom we give an account.

Heb 4:14 Therefore, because we have a great Chief of the Priests, Jeshua the Messiah, the Son of God, who has ascended into heaven, let us hold fast to His confession.

Heb 4:15 For He is not a Chief of the Priests who cannot suffer with our weaknesses, but was tested in all things like us, yet is without sin.

Heb 4:16 Therefore let us come with open eyes³ to the throne of His grace to receive mercy and we will find grace to help in times of suffering.

Heb 5:1 For every Chief of the Priests from the children of men is appointed for protégé (Prov 8:22-31).

¹ Contrary to most English translations, both the Peshitta and Greek manuscripts tell us to keep God's Sabbaths. The Peshitta has Lmashbathu לְמִשְׁבָּתָּהּ -"to keep Sabbath" and the Greek has Sabbatismos σαββατισμός, literally "to Sabbatise", both meaning to observe the Sabbaths. See Exo 20:8-11 & Deu 5:12-15.

² Literally 'double-mouthed'.

³ This is probably an Aramaic idiom meaning boldly.

the sake of men over the things that are of God, presenting offerings and sacrifices because of sin.

Heb 5:2 He can humble himself and suffer with those who did not know their errors because he is also clothed in weakness,

Heb 5:3 because of his own debt and because of the people's, thus also for himself, he makes offering for his sins.

Heb 5:4 And it is not for himself that a man takes this honour, but he who is called by God, just as Aaron was.

Heb 5:5 So also the Messiah did not become Chief of the Priests to glorify His Soul, but it was He who said to Him: "You are My Son, today I have begotten You."⁴

Heb 5:6 As He also says in another place: "You are a priest forever in the likeness of Melchizedek";⁵

Heb 5:7 who, while in the flesh, He offered prayers and supplications, with loud cries and tears, to Him who was able to give Him Life from death, and He obeyed.

Heb 5:8 Though He is the Son, He learned obedience from the fear and the suffering which He endured,

Heb 5:9 and in this way He was perfected,⁶ and He became the Cause of everlasting life to all those who obey Him,⁷

Heb 5:10 and God named Him as Chief of the Priests "in the likeness of Melchizedek".

Heb 5:11 Now about Him and about this Melchizedek we have much to say, and it is hard to explain to you, because you have impaired hearing.¹

⁴ Psa 2:7

⁵ Psa 110:4

⁶ Vs 8 & 9 show us that Jeshua was until then imperfect in some respects, natural for a son being trained, but impossible for an omniscient, flawless, eternal God like His Father.

Heb 5:12 For by this time you ought to be teachers, but now you need to be taught again and learn the first basic letters of the words of God; and you are in need of milk and not solid food.

Heb 5:13 But everyone whose food is milk is not familiar with the word of righteousness, for he is an infant.²

Heb 5:14 For solid food is for the mature, those who, because they practise, have trained their senses to discern good and evil.

Heb 6:1 Therefore, let us leave the beginnings of the Word of the Messiah and let us go on to perfection. Or are you laying another foundation again: of repentance from dead works and of faith toward God, Heb 6:2 and the teaching of immersions, of laying on of hands, of resurrection from the house of the dead, and of everlasting judgement?

Heb 6:3 If Lord Jah permits this, we will do it.³

Heb 6:4 But it is impossible for those who have descended into immersion once,⁴ and have tasted a gift from Heaven, and received the Holy Spirit,

Heb 6:5 and have tasted the good Word of God and the power of the world to come,

Heb 6:6 if they would sin again and seek to be renewed in conversion once more and to impale the Son of God once more, they have become contemptible.

Heb 6:7 For the earth drinks in the rain that comes upon it many times, and it grows plants that are useful to those for whom it is cultivated, and it receives blessings from God;

Heb 6:8 but if it produces thorns and thistles, it is rejected by Him and near to being cursed, and in the end is burned.⁵

Heb 6:9 But, my brethren, we are confident of excellent things concerning you, things that accompany salvation, even though we speak in this manner.

Heb 6:10 For God does not do iniquity, that He would forget your works and your love which you have shown in His Name, in that you have served the saints, and you do serve.

Heb 6:11 And we desire that each one of you have this diligence for the perfection of your hope until the end,

Heb 6:12 and that you do not become faint, but that you become imitators of those who in faith and in patience have become heirs of the promise.

Heb 6:13 For when God made a promise to Abraham, because He could swear by no one greater, He swore by Himself,

Heb 6:14 and He said, "Blessing, I will bless you, and multiplying, I will multiply you."⁶

Heb 6:15 And so, he was patient and he received the promise.

Heb 6:16 For the children of men, they swear by that which is greater than them, and in every dispute there is among them, a sure end is brought to it by an oath.

Heb 6:17 Therefore God was all the more willing to show the heirs of the promise that His declaration would not change, so He bound it with an oath,

Heb 6:18 that by two things which cannot be changed, because God cannot lie, it is great comfort to us who have sought refuge in Him, and we may lay hold of the hope which has been promised to us.

Heb 6:19 It is He who is to us like an anchor which holds fast in our soul, that we will not be moved and will enter inside

³ As in the Peshitta.

⁴ In contrast to the Peshitta's descent under water in full immersion (Ima'moodeetha nchethw (למעמֹדֵי יָמָא נְחֵתָו), the Greek instead has one rise in 'enlightenment', suggesting the Greek manuscripts have been influenced by Gnosticism.

the veil,

Heb 6:20 where Jeshua has entered already, for our sake,¹ and has become the Everlasting Priest in the image of Melchizedek.

Heb 7:1 For this Melchizedek, King of Salem, priest of the Most High God, is he who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings and blessed him,

Heb 7:2 and to him Abraham gave a tenth of everything that was with him. But his name is translated as “King of Righteousness,” and also “King of Salem,” which means “King of Peace,”²

Heb 7:3 without his father and without his mother being written into the genealogies, nor the beginning of his days nor the end of his life, but in the likeness of God’s Son, his priesthood remains forever.³

Heb 7:4 Now see how much greater this man was than Abraham, the chief of the fathers, for he gave a tenth of the best to him.

Heb 7:5 And those who are the sons of Levi, who received the priesthood, have a commandment for them to receive a tithe from the people according to the Instructions, from their brethren, even though they have come from the loins of Abraham;

Heb 7:6 but this one who is not written in their genealogies received a tithe from Abraham and he blessed him who received the promises.

Heb 7:7 Now beyond dispute he who is lesser is blessed by he who is greater than he.

Heb 7:8 Here the children of men who die receive tithes, but there he testifies in the Writings that he lives.

Heb 7:9 And so we say that even Levi, a man through Abraham who receives tithes, he was also tithed, Heb 7:10 for he was still in the loins of his father when he met Melchizedek.

Heb 7:11 Therefore, if perfection was through the Levitical priesthood, for under it the Instructions were established for the people, why would another priest need to rise according to the image of Melchizedek? Nor does it say that he would be in the image of Aaron.⁴

Heb 7:12 But just as there was a change in the priesthood, there was also a change in the Instructions.

Heb 7:13 For He about whom these words are spoken was born into another branch, and no man from it had ever served at the altar.

Heb 7:14 For it is revealed that our Lord arose from Judah, a branch of which Moses never spoke anything concerning priesthood.

Heb 7:15 Therefore it is again apparent that He said in the likeness of Melchizedek, there arises another priest

Heb 7:16 who is not according to the Instructions of fleshly commandments, but according to the power of indestructible life.

Heb 7:17 For He testifies about Him: “You are the priest forever according to the image of Melchizedek.”⁵

Heb 7:18 For there was a change to the former order because of its impotence and unprofitableness,

Heb 7:19 for the Instructions cannot perfect anything; but they were replaced with a greater hope, through which we approach God.

Heb 7:20 And He confirmed it to us with an oath,

Heb 7:21 for they were priests without an oath, but this One with an oath when He

² Gen 14:17-20

³ The Aramaic of this verse is very different from the Greek, which implies that Melchizedek himself was immortal, rather than the position he was filling, as the Aramaic shows.

⁴ Exo 28:1, Exo 29:1-46

⁵ Psa 110:4

said to Him by David: "Jehovah has sworn and will not lie, 'You are a priest forever according to the image of Melchizedek'",¹ Heb 7:22 so all this is a better covenant by which Jeshua has become the guarantee.

Heb 7:23 And there were many of these priests, for they would die and be unable to continue.

Heb 7:24 But this One, because He is everlasting, His priesthood does not pass away.

Heb 7:25 And He can give everlasting life to those who come near to God through Him, since He lives for all time and He offers prayers for us.

Heb 7:26 Now this Priest was right for us, pure, without malice and undefiled; who is separate from sin, and is exalted higher than the heavens;

Heb 7:27 and there is no need for Him to offer up sacrifices every day, as those high priests did, first for their own sins and then for the people's, for this One did it once for all time when He offered up His Life.

Heb 7:28 For the Instructions appoint weak men as high priests, but the word of the oath, which came after the Instructions, appoints the perfected Son for eternity.

Heb 8:1 Now the main point of all this is that our Chief of the Priests sits on the right of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens.²

Heb 8:2 He is the Servant of the House of Holiness and of the Tabernacle of Truth which God set up, and not any son of man.

Heb 8:3 For every chief of the priests is appointed to offer gifts and sacrifices. Therefore it was necessary that this One also have something to offer for Himself.

Heb 8:4 And if He were on earth, He would not even be a priest, for there have been priests who offered the gifts according to the Instructions;

Heb 8:5 they who serve the copy and the shadow of these heavenly things, as was told to Moses when he made the tabernacle: "See and make everything according to the pattern that appeared to you on the mountain."³

Heb 8:6 But now Jeshua the Messiah has received a better service than that, inasmuch as He is also Mediator of a better covenant, which was given with better promises than that.⁴

Heb 8:7 For if the first one had been faultless, then there would have been no place for this second one.

Heb 8:8 Because He found fault with them, He said: "Behold, the days are coming," says Jehovah, "when I will perfect a New Covenant for the family of the house of Israel and for the family of the house of Judah;

Heb 8:9 "not like the covenant that I gave to their fathers in the day when I took their hands and I brought them out of the land of Egypt; because they did not continue in My covenant, and I also rejected them," says Jehovah.

Heb 8:10 "For this is the covenant that I will give to the family of the house of Israel: After those days," says Jehovah, "I will put My Instructions in their minds and write them upon their hearts; and I will be their God, and they will be My people.

Heb 8:11 "No man will teach another citizen of his city nor his brother, saying, 'Know Jehovah,' for all will know Me, from their little ones to their elders."⁵

Heb 8:12 "For I will make Atonement for their iniquity, and their sins⁶ I will not remember again.”¹

³ Exo 25:40

Heb 8:13 In that He says, “New,” He has made the first old. And that which is old and growing obsolete is approaching demolition.

Heb 9:1 But in the first there were ordinances of service and the earthly House of Sanctuary.

Heb 9:2 For the first tabernacle that was made had in it the Menorah,² the table, and the presentation bread, and it was called the Sanctified House;

Heb 9:3 and within the inner tabernacle, behind the second veil, it was called the Sanctified Sanctuary,

Heb 9:4 and in it there was the golden censor for incense and the ark of the covenant entirely overlaid with gold, and in it was the golden pot that had the manna in it, and Aaron’s branch that budded, and the tablets of the covenant;³

Heb 9:5 and above it were the cherubim of glory forming a booth over the mercy seat. But this is not the time to speak about each one of these things that were fashioned in this way.⁴

Heb 9:6 And the priests entered the outer tabernacle all the time and performed their service,

Heb 9:7 but the chief of the priests would enter the inner tabernacle by himself once a year with blood, which he offered for his soul and for the offences of the people.⁵

Heb 9:8 Now in this the Holy Spirit taught that the way of Holiness was not yet revealed for as long as the first tabernacle was still standing.⁶

Heb 9:9 This was a symbol for that time in which offerings and sacrifices were offered which were not able to perfect the conscience of him who offered them;

Heb 9:10 concerned only with food and drink, and various different immersions, that are fleshly ordinances established until the time of reformation.

Heb 9:11 But the Messiah who came has become the Chief of the Priests of the good things that he did, and He entered the great and perfect tabernacle that was not made with hands, which is not of this creation.⁷

Heb 9:12 He did not enter with the blood of yearling goats and calves, but with His own blood He entered the Sanctified House that one time, and He achieved everlasting redemption.⁸

Heb 9:13 For if the blood of goats and calves and the ashes of a heifer, sprinkled on the unclean, sanctifies them for the purifying of the flesh,

Heb 9:14 how much more will the blood of Messiah, who through the eternal Spirit offered Himself without blemish to God, purify our conscience from dead works, acting against the Instructions, at this point.

³ Compare with 2Ch 5:10, which says that only the tablets were in that Ark at that time. Exo 16:33-34, Num 17:1-11 and Deu 31:24-26 say that the manna, Aaron’s branch and the Book of Instructions were placed before the Testimony, where they could be seen. It is quite possible that the manna and branch were later placed inside the Ark to protect them when Israel sank into idolatry, but the Book of Instructions was removed, perhaps at 2Ki 22:3-13.

that we may serve the Living God?¹

Heb 9:15 Because of this, He is the Mediator of the New Covenant, for by His death, He became salvation for those who transgressed against the first covenant, that we who are called may receive the promise of the everlasting inheritance.

Heb 9:16 For where there is a covenant, the death of him who made it must be shown.

Heb 9:17 For it is only valid concerning the dead, because as long as he who made it lives, there is no use for it.

Heb 9:18 Because of this, not even the first was established without blood.

Heb 9:19 For when Moses had spoken all the commandments to all the people in the Instructions, Moses took the blood of a heifer, and water with scarlet wool and hyssop, and sprinkled it upon the scrolls and upon all the people,

Heb 9:20 and he said to them, "This is the blood of the covenant which God has commanded to you."

Heb 9:21 Then he also sprinkled from the blood on the tabernacle and upon all the vessels of the service.

Heb 9:22 Because in the Instructions all things are cleansed with blood, and without the shedding of blood there is no forgiveness.²

Heb 9:23 For it was necessary that these symbols of the heavenly are purified by these things, but the heavenly articles with better sacrifices than these.

Heb 9:24 For Messiah has not entered the Sanctified House made with hands, which is a symbol of the true one, but He entered into heaven itself, to appear before the face of God for our sake;

Heb 9:25 not that He should offer Himself many times, like the chief of the priests does when entering the Sanctified House every year with blood that is not his.

² Exo 24:6-8

Heb 9:26 Otherwise He should have suffered many times since the creation of the world; but now, at the end of the age, He has offered Himself once, sacrificing Himself to destroy sin.³

Heb 9:27 And just as it is appointed for the children of men to die once, and after their deaths the judgement,

Heb 9:28 in this way also the Messiah was offered once, and He sacrificed Himself for the sins of many. He will appear a second time, without our sins, for the salvation of those who are expecting Him.

Heb 10:1 For the Instructions have a shadow of the good things to come, but they are not the essence of these matters. Because of this, though they kept offering these sacrifices every year, they could never perfect those who offered them,

Heb 10:2 for if they were being perfected, certainly they would have ceased their offerings, because their consciences would have ceased buffeting them with their sins if they had been cleansed after one time.

Heb 10:3 But through their sacrifices they are reminded of their sins every year.

Heb 10:4 For it is not possible for the blood of oxen and yearling goats to take away sins.

Heb 10:5 Therefore, when He came into the world, He said: "You did not want sacrifices and offerings, but You have clothed Me with a body."⁴

Heb 10:6 "You did not ask for burnt offerings and peace offerings for sin.

Heb 10:7 "Then I said, 'Behold, I have come; for from the beginning of the Writings it is written of Me; to do Your will, O God.'"⁵

Heb 10:8 Previously He said sacrifice and offering, burnt offerings, and peace offerings for sin You did not want, which are offered according to the Instructions, Heb 10:9 then He said, “Behold, I have come to do Your will, O God.” In this He eliminates the first that He may establish the second.

⁵ Psa 4:7-8

Heb 10:10 For it is His will that we are sanctified through the offering of the body of Jeshua the Messiah this one time.

Heb 10:11 For every chief of the priests who stood and served everyday and offered those sacrifices from ancient times that were never able to cleanse sins.

Heb 10:12 But He offered one sacrifice for sins forever, then He sat at the right side of God,

Heb 10:13 and He remains there until His enemies are placed as a footstool under His feet.¹

Heb 10:14 For by one offering He has perfected forever those who are being sanctified.²

Heb 10:15 And the Holy Spirit also witnesses to us, saying,

Heb 10:16 “This is the covenant that I will give them after those days, says Jehovah: I will place My Instructions into their minds, and I will write them on their hearts,

Heb 10:17 “and their iniquity and their sins; I will not remember them.”³

Heb 10:18 Now where there is forgiveness of sins, an offering for sins is not required.

Heb 10:19 Therefore, brethren, we are given boldness to enter the Sanctified House by the blood of Jeshua, Heb 10:20 and the Way of Life, who renewed us within the veil, which is His flesh.

Heb 10:21 And there is, for us, a Chief of the Priests over the House of God.

Heb 10:22 Therefore, let us approach with a true heart and confident faith, having our hearts sprinkled and purified from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water.

Heb 10:23 Let us hold tightly to the confession of our hope and let us not waver, for He who promised us is faithful.

Heb 10:24 And let us look after one another by encouraging love and good works,

Heb 10:25 and we should not forsake our assemblies, as is the manner of some persons, but look after one another, and all the more as you see that Day approaching.

Heb 10:26 For if a person chooses to sin after receiving the knowledge of the Truth, after that there is not a sacrifice that can be offered in place of the sins,

Heb 10:27 but that terrifying judgement is ready, and fiery zeal which devours the adversaries.

Heb 10:28 For if anyone violates Moses’ Instructions, he dies without mercy on the words⁴ of two or three witnesses.⁵

Heb 10:29 How much more will his punishment be, do you think, when he has trampled upon the Son of God, and regarded the blood of His covenant by which he was sanctified as a common thing,⁶ and he has despised the Spirit of Grace?

² Jeshua made the only true sacrifice for sins. However, this does not mean that all sacrifices came to an end then, as there were also peace and thanksgiving sacrifices. Indeed, many years later we see Paul about to offer sacrifices at the Temple in Jerusalem, which he would only do if that was still Biblically correct. (Act 21:20-26). These are the sacrifices that will be offered at the new Temple during the Millennium, as shown in Eze 45:15 to 46:15. Today we cannot offer animal sacrifices as the Temple and altar were destroyed in 70 AD.

Heb 10:30 We know Him who said, "Vengeance is Mine; I will repay."¹ And again, "Jehovah will judge His people."²

Heb 10:31 It is a very fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.³

Heb 10:32 Therefore remember those first days when you received immersion,⁴ and you endured a great struggle with suffering and shameful affliction;

Heb 10:33 and you became a spectacle and you also became companions with people who endured these things;

Heb 10:34 and you were grieved concerning those who were imprisoned. You endured the theft of your possessions with joy, because you knew that you have a greater possession in Heaven which will not pass away.

Heb 10:35 Therefore do not throw away your boldness, for there is a great reward coming to you because of it.

Heb 10:36 For it is necessary for you to have endurance to do the will of God and receive the promise:

Heb 10:37 "For there is very little time, and He who is coming will come and will not delay."⁵

Heb 10:38 "But the righteous one will live by My faith; and if he gives up on it, My soul has no pleasure in him."⁶

Heb 10:39 And we are not despondent, which leads to destruction, but are those of the faith which gives our souls to us.

Heb 11:1 Now faith is conviction about things hoped for; it is as if those things were active, and the revelation of the things not seen.

Heb 11:2 And by this the ancients had their witness.

Heb 11:3 For by faith we understand that the worlds were fashioned by the word of God, and the things which are seen were made of things which are not seen.⁷

Heb 11:4 By faith Abel offered to God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, and because of it he obtained a witness that he was righteous, God testifying of his offering; and through it, while he is dead, he still speaks.⁸

Heb 11:5 By faith Enoch was carried away and he did not taste death, "and was not found because God had carried him away";⁹ for before he was carried away he had this witness, that he pleased God.

Heb 11:6 For without faith no man can please God, for whoever is brought near to God is indebted to believe that He is, and He is the rewarder of those who seek Him.

Heb 11:7 By faith Noah, when he spoke with Him about things to be that were not yet seen, he worshipped God, and he made for himself the ark for the lives of the children in his household, by which he condemned the world and he became the heir of the righteousness which is in faith.¹⁰

Heb 11:8 By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to go out to the place which he was to receive as an inheritance. And he went out, when he did not know where he was going.¹¹

Heb 11:9 By faith he sojourned in that land which was promised to him as in a foreign country, and he dwelt in tabernacles with Isaac and Jacob, the children of his inheritance of the promise;

Heb 11:13 They all died in faith, and had not received their promises, but they saw them afar off and rejoiced in it, and confessed that they were strangers and sojourners on the earth.³

 Heb 11:32 And what else will I say? For there is little time for me to retell of Gideon and Barak and Samson and Jephthah,² and David and Samuel and the other prophets:

Heb 11:33 who by faith conquered kingdoms, brought justice, received promises, shut the mouths of lions,

Heb 11:34 quenched the power of fire, were delivered from the mouth of the sword, from weakness were strengthened and became strong in battle and overturned the camps of enemies.

Heb 11:35 And they gave women their children, resurrected from the dead.³ And others died from torture, not expecting to be delivered, that there would be a better resurrection for them.

Heb 11:36 But others endured mockings and scourgings, and others were handed over to chains and imprisonment.

Heb 11:37 Others were stoned, others were sawn in half, were tempted, others died by the mouth of the sword. Others wandered wearing only sheepskins and goatskins, and were destitute, afflicted, and beaten;

Heb 11:38 people of whom the world was not worthy. They wandered in deserts and mountains, in caves and caverns of the earth.

Heb 11:39 And all of them, about whom there is a testimony by their faith, have not received the promise, Heb 11:40 because God foresaw that for our benefit, they should not be perfected without us.

Heb 12:1 Therefore we also, who have all of these witnesses who surround us like clouds, let us throw off all our weights, and also the sin which is always ready for us, and in patience let us run this race that is set before us,

Heb 12:2 and let us gaze on Jeshua, who is the author and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy that He had, endured the stake, and He ignored the shame, and He sits at the right hand of the throne of God.

Heb 12:3 Therefore behold how much He endured from those sinners who were opponents to their own souls, so you do not become careless in yourselves nor weaken your own soul.

Heb 12:4 Until now, you have not yet come to blood in the struggle against sin.

Heb 12:5 And you have strayed from the teaching which says to you as to sons: "My son, do not turn away from the Way of Jehovah, nor let your soul be discouraged when you are rebuked by Him;

Heb 12:9 And if our fathers who are in the flesh have chastened us, and we revered them, then how much more are we indebted to submit to the Father of Spirits so we should live?

Heb 12:10 For they have chastened us for a short time as they pleased, but God for our benefit, that we may share in His holiness.

Heb 12:27 Now this that He said, "Yet one more time," indicates the change of those things that are shaken, because those things that are made to remain are those which are not shaken.

Jacob [James]

Jac 1:1 Jacob,¹ a servant of God and of our Lord Jeshua the Messiah: To the twelve branches which are scattered abroad: Peace.

Jac 1:2 My brethren, let it be all joy to you when you enter into many and various temptations, Jac 1:3 for you know that the testing of your faith imparts patience to you.

Jac 1:4 But patience will be a complete work, that you would be perfected and complete, not lacking anything.

Jac 1:5 If any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask from God, who gives to all simply, and it will be given to him without reproach.

Jac 1:6 But let him ask in faith while not doubting, for he who doubts is like the waves of the sea which are tossed by the wind.

Jac 1:7 And do not let that man think that he will receive anything from Lord Jah;²

Jac 1:8 for whoever doubts in his mind is troubled in all his ways.

Jac 1:9 Let the poor brother glory in his exaltation,

Jac 1:10 and the rich man in his humiliation, just as a flower of the herbs passes away like this.

Jac 1:11 For the sun rises with its heat and the grass withers; the flower falls, and its beautiful appearance perishes. Just so the rich man will also fade in his ways.

Jac 1:12 His blessing is to the man who endures temptation; for when he is tested, he will receive the crown of life which God has promised to those who love Him.

Jac 1:13 Do not let anyone say when he is tempted, "I am tempted by God"; for God is not acquainted with evil, and He does not tempt anyone.

Jac 1:14 But each one is tempted by his own desires and he lusts and is seduced.

Jac 1:15 And when this desire has conceived, it produces sin; and sin, when it has grown, produces death.

Jac 1:16 Do not be led astray, my beloved brethren.

Jac 1:17 Every good and every perfect gift descends from above, from the Father of Light, with whom there is no change, not even a shadow of variation.

Jac 1:18 He was willing and He gave birth to us by the Word of Truth, that we would be the first-fruit of His creation.

Jac 1:19 And you, my beloved brethren, let every one of you be swift to hear and slow to speak and slow to become angry;

Jac 1:20 for the wrath of man does not produce the righteousness of God.

Jac 1:21 Therefore put away from you all abominations and the multitude of evils, and accept in humility the Word which is planted in our nature, which is able to save your souls.

Jac 1:22 But be a doer of the Word, and not a hearer only, and do not deceive yourselves.³

Jac 1:23 For if a person is a hearer of the Word and not its doer, this one is like a man who sees his face in a mirror;

Jac 1:24 for he sees himself and goes away and forgets how he was.

Jac 1:25 But everyone who gazes into the perfect Instruction of Liberty and continues in it is not a hearer who has forgotten what he heard, but a doer of the works, and this one will be blessed in his work.

Jac 1:26 If anyone thinks that he serves God, and does not hold his tongue, he deceives his own heart and his service is worthless.

Jac 2:1 My brethren, do not hold the faith of our Anointed Lord Jeshua, the Lord of Glory on the basis of appearances.¹

Jac 2:2 For if there enters into your assembly a man with a gold ring, or in fine clothing, and there enters in a poor man in dirty clothes,

Jac 2:3 and you show regard to the one wearing the fine clothes and say to him, "You sit here in a good place," and say to the poor man, "You stand there," or, "You sit here before our footstool," Jac 2:4 Behold, are you not discriminating in your souls, and you have become exhibitors of evil thoughts?

Jac 2:5 Listen, my beloved brethren: has God not chosen the poor of this world to be rich in faith and heirs in that kingdom which God promised to those who love Him?²

Jac 2:6 But you have dishonoured the poor man. Behold, do the rich not oppress you and drag you into the house of judgement?

Jac 2:7 Behold, do they not slander that noble Name by which you are called?

Jac 2:8 If you fulfil the Instructions of God as it is written, "You will love your neighbour as yourself,"³ you are doing well;

Jac 2:9 but if you act on appearances, you commit sin, and are convicted by the Instructions as transgressors against the Instructions.

Jac 2:10 For whoever keeps all the Instructions, and stumbles in one thing, he is condemned by all the Instructions.

Jac 2:11 For He who said, "You will not commit adultery," also said, "You will not murder."⁴ Now if you do not commit adultery, but you have murdered, you have become a transgressor against the Instructions.

Jac 2:12 So you should speak and so you should act, as you are a person who will be judged by the Instruction of Liberty.

Jac 2:13 For judgement is without mercy against him who does not practice mercy; but with mercy you have dominion over judgement.

Jac 2:14 What good is it, my brethren, if a man says to me that he has faith but he does not have works? Can his faith give him life?

Jac 2:15 If a brother or a sister is naked and lacks daily food,

Jac 2:16 and one of you says to them, "Go in peace, be warm and be full." but you do not give them the things which are needed for the body, what good is it?

Jac 2:17 Even so, faith without works is by itself dead.

Jac 2:18 For someone may say to you, "You and I have faith. I have works. Show me your faith without works, and I will show you my faith through my works."

Jac 2:19 You believe that God is one. You do well. Even the demons believe and tremble!

Jac 2:20 But are you willing to know, O foolish man, that faith without works is dead?⁵

Jac 2:21 Was not our father Abraham justified by works when he placed his son Isaac on the altar?⁶

Jac 2:22 Do you see that his faith

² Mat 5:3-11 & 19:24

³ Lev 19:18, Mat 22:38

⁴ Exo 20:13-14

⁵ Though faith is utterly essential to our salvation, these verses destroy the dangerous "faith alone" idea embraced by many Protestants. Faith which does not result in a righteous way of life and godly works is not really faith, but merely empty words. Mat 7:21 & Luk 6:46.

⁶ Gen 22:1-27

supported his works, and by works his faith was perfected?

Jac 2:23 And the Writings were fulfilled which say, "Abraham believed Jehovah, and it was accounted to him for righteousness."¹ "And he was called the friend of God."²

Jac 2:24 You see that a son of man is justified by works, and not by faith only.

Jac 2:25 Likewise, was not Rachab the prostitute also made righteous by works when she received the scouts and sent them out another way?³

Jac 2:26 Just as the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also.

Jac 3:1 My brethren, there should not be many teachers among you, as you should know that we will receive a stricter judgement.

Jac 3:2 For we all stumble often. Anyone who does not slip in word, this man is perfected, and can control his whole body.

Jac 3:3 Behold, we put bits in horses' mouths so they will submit to us, and we turn their whole body.

Jac 3:4 Also mighty ships, although they are driven by the wind, they are turned by a small piece of strong wood to wherever the will of the helmsman determines.

Jac 3:5 Even so the tongue is also a small member and yet has dominion. And a small fire kindles a great forest!

Jac 3:6 And the tongue is a fire and a world of sin, like a jungle. While the tongue is set among our members, it defiles itself and sets the whole body on fire for successive generations as if rolling on wheels; and it burns with fire.

Jac 3:7 For the nature of all beasts and birds, and creatures of the sea and land are tamed by the nature of mankind.

Jac 3:8 But no man is able to tame the tongue. It is an uncontrolled evil, full of deadly poison.

Jac 3:9 With it we bless Lord Jah⁴ and the Father, and with it we curse men who are made in the image of God.⁵

Jac 3:10 Out of the mouth proceed blessing and cursing.⁶ My brethren, these things ought not to be so.

Jac 3:11 Is it possible for fresh and bitter water to come from one spring?

Jac 3:12 Or can a fig tree, my brother, produce olives, or a grapevine produce figs? So in this way, salty water cannot also be fresh.

Jac 3:13 Who is wise and educated among you? Let him show by his works a beautiful way of life in the gentleness of wisdom.

Jac 3:14 But if there is bitter envy in you or contention in your hearts, do not become puffed up against the truth and lie.

Jac 3:15 For this 'wisdom' does not descend from above, but is earthly, from soulish thoughts and from demons.

Jac 3:16 For where there is envy and contention, there is also chaos and every evil thing.

Jac 3:17 But the wisdom that is from above is pure and filled with peace, gentle and attentive, filled with love and good fruits, without divisions and faces that are not accepted.

Jac 3:18 Now the fruits of righteousness are sown in peace by those who make peace.

Jac 4:1 Where do wars and contentions come from among you? Is it not from the lusts that fight in your members?

Jac 4:2 You desire earnestly and you do not have. You murder and covet, but it does not come into your hands. You fight and you do battle, yet you do not have because you do not ask.

Jac 4:3 You ask and you do not receive, because you ask wickedly, so your lusts may be fed.

Jac 4:4 Adulterers! Do you not know that the love of this world is the hatred of God? Therefore whoever wants to be a lover of this world is an enemy of God.

Jac 4:5 Or perhaps you think that the Writings say worthlessly that the Spirit who dwells in us yearns jealously?

Jac 4:6 For our Lord gives us more grace. Therefore He says: "God humbles the proud, and He gives grace to the humble."¹

Jac 4:7 Therefore submit to God. Stand up against Satan and he will flee from you.

Jac 4:8 Draw near to God and He will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, sinners; purify your hearts and doubting souls.

Jac 4:9 Be humble and lament, and let your laughter be turned to mourning and your joy to grief.

Jac 4:10 Be humble before Jehovah,² and He will exalt you.

Jac 4:11 You should not be speaking against each other, my brethren, for he who speaks against his brother or judges his brother, speaks against the Instructions and judges the Instructions. And if you judge the Instructions, you are not a doer of the Instructions but its judge.

Jac 4:12 He is the one Giver of the Instructions and judgements, He who is able to give life and to destroy. Who are you to judge your neighbour?

Jac 4:13 Now what will we say about those who say, "Today or tomorrow we will go to this city, we will work for a year there, and we will earn an income and make a profit";

Jac 4:14 but they do not know what will happen tomorrow. For what are our lives? It is only a vapour that appears for a little while, vanishes and then passes away.³

Jac 4:15 Therefore they should say, "If Lord Jah⁴ pleases, we will live and we will do this or that."

Jac 4:16 They boast in their pride. All such boasting like this is evil.

Jac 4:17 And whoever knows to do good and does not do it, it is sin to him.

Jac 5:1 Oh, you rich men, weep and wail over the miseries that are coming upon you!

Jac 5:2 For your wealth has decayed and stinks, and your garments are moth-eaten.

Jac 5:3 And your gold and your silver have corroded themselves, and their corrosion will be a witness against you and it will eat your flesh. You have gathered up fire for yourselves for the last days.

Jac 5:4 Behold! The wages of the labourers who reaped your fields, which you kept by fraud, cry out; and the cries of the reapers have reached the ears of Lord Jah of Sabaoth.⁵

Jac 5:5 You have made merry on the earth and you have been gluttons. You have fattened your bodies as for a day of slaughter.

Jac 5:6 You have condemned and you have murdered the righteous one; and he has not stood against you.

Jac 5:7 But you, my brethren, be patient in your spirit⁶ until the coming of Lord Jah.⁷ Be like the farmer who waits for the precious fruit of the earth, waiting patiently in his spirit for it until he receives the early and spring rain.

Jac 5:8 You also be patient in your spirit and strengthen your hearts, for the coming of our Lord draws near.

Jac 5:9 Do not grumble against one another, my brethren, lest you be judged. For behold, the Judge is standing before the gate!

Jac 5:10 My brethren, take the example of the prophets for patience in spirit in your afflictions, who spoke in the Name of Jehovah.¹

Jac 5:11 For behold, we give our blessings to those who endure. You have heard of the endurance of Job and you have seen the end that Lord Jah made for him; because Jehovah² is very compassionate and merciful.

Jac 5:12 But above all else, my brethren, do not swear vows, neither by heaven nor by earth nor with any other oath, but let your word "Yes," be "Yes," and "No," "No," lest you be condemned in judgement.

Jac 5:13 And if anyone among you is suffering, let him pray. And if anyone is rejoicing, let him sing psalms.

Jac 5:14 And if anyone among you is ill, let him call for the elders of the congregation, and let them pray over him and anoint him with oil in the Name of Jehovah.³

Jac 5:15 And the prayer of faith will heal the one who was ill, and Jehovah will raise him up.⁴ And if he has committed sins, he will be forgiven for them.

Jac 5:16 But you, confess your offences to one another, and you must pray for one another to be healed, for the power of prayer of a righteous man is great.

Jac 5:17 For Elijah was a man subject to suffering like us, and he prayed that rain would not fall on the land, and it did not come down for three years and six months.

Jac 5:18 And he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain, and the earth yielded its fruits.⁵

Jac 5:19 My brethren, if any one of you wanders from the Way of Truth, and someone restores him from his error,

Jac 5:20 let him know that he who turns a sinner from the error of his way saves his soul from death and blots out the multitude of his sins.

Jude¹

Jude 1:1 Jude, a servant of Jeshua the Messiah, and brother of Jacob: To the gentiles called beloved ones by God the Father and preserved by Jeshua the Anointed:

Jude 1:2 Mercy, peace, and love be multiplied to you.

Jude 1:3 Beloved, I write to you with all diligence concerning our common salvation. For it was necessary to write to you, as I am exhorting you to contend for the faith which was delivered once to the saints.

Jude 1:4 For some men have obtained an entrance who were condemned from the beginning, evil men who pervert the grace of our God into an abomination and they deny the Lord who is the only God, and our Anointed Lord Jeshua.

Jude 1:5 But I intend to remind you, as you know, that at one time God removed all the people from Egypt, but at a later time He destroyed those who did not believe.²

Jude 1:6 And the envoys who did not keep to their principality, but abandoned their own way of life, He has kept in chains under darkness for their unknown day of great judgement;

Jude 1:7 just as Sodom and Gomorrah, and the surrounding cities who fornicated like them, and went after other flesh, were placed beneath the everlasting fire, and they are condemned to judgement.³

Jude 1:8 Likewise these also dream of their lust and they defile the flesh, for they reject authority, and they slander the Glory.

Jude 1:9 Yet Michael, the chief envoy, when he spoke with the devil about the body of Moses, did not speak to bring a judgement of slander against him, but he said, "Jehovah will rebuke you!"⁴

Jude 1:10 But these slander those who they do not know; and whatever they know naturally, like brute beasts, they desire, and they will be destroyed in them.

Jude 1:11 Woe to those who have gone in the way of Cain, and after the deception of Balaam for profit, and they rejoiced like those who perished in the rebellion of Korah.⁵

Jude 1:12 These are they who are defiled in their feasts, while they run riot without fear and feed themselves; they are clouds without rain that wander in the wind; fruit trees who have died without fruit; they have died twice and have been pulled up from their roots;

Jude 1:13 raging waves of the sea, and their froth shows their shame; they are wandering stars for whom the gloom of darkness is reserved forever.

Jude 1:14 Now Enoch, who is the seventh from Adam, also prophesied about these men when he said, "Behold, Jehovah comes with myriads of His saints,"⁶

Jude 1:15 "to make judgement on all, to reprove all souls because of all their works by those who did wickedness; and because of all the harsh words which wicked sinners have spoken."⁷

¹ Jude is not in the Peshitta. This book comes from the Crawford Aramaic manuscripts.

² Exo 32:21-28, Num 13:1-14:32 & Num 16:1-35

⁴ As in Deu 34:4-8 & Zec 3:2. Jehovah is rendered as Lord Jah (MarJah) in the Peshitta.

⁶ Gen 5:3-24. Jehovah as in Deu 33:2, Dan 7:10, Zec 14:5; Jehovah is rendered as Lord Jah (MarJah) in the Peshitta.

Jude 1:16 They are those who murmur and complain about everything, while they walk according to their desires; and their mouths speak only guilt while they flatter people for profit.

Jude 1:17 But you, beloved, remember the words which were spoken before by the apostles of our Lord Jeshua the Messiah:

Jude 1:18 how they told you that in the last times there would be mockers who would follow their own desires as they went after wickedness.

Jude 1:19 These are those who are distinguished by physical souls, because the Spirit is not with them.¹

Jude 1:20 But you, beloved, be encouraged from above in your holy faith, while praying in the Holy Spirit,

Jude 1:21 and let us keep ourselves in the Love of God as we look for the mercy of our Anointed Lord Jeshua unto everlasting life.

Jude 1:22 And some of them, snatch them from the fire;

Jude 1:23 but when they repent, show them pity and respect, even while you also hate the garment that is defiled by the flesh,

Jude 1:24 for Him who can keep us without offence and without defilement, and make us stand without a flaw.

Jude 1:25 He alone is God our Saviour, through Our Anointed Lord Jeshua, first in His Glory and Joy.² To Him be praise, dominion, honour and majesty, both now and into all the ages.

Amen.

First Peter

1Pe 1:1 Peter, an apostle of Jeshua the Messiah: To the chosen and sojourners who are dispersed in Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia, 1Pe 1:2 those chosen by the foreknowledge of God the Father, in sanctification of the Spirit, that they are for obedience and for sprinkling of the blood of Jeshua the Anointed: Grace and peace be multiplied to you.

1Pe 1:3 Blessed be God. He is our Anointed Lord Jeshua's Father, who in His great mercy has begotten us anew by the resurrection of Jeshua the Messiah to the hope of life,

1Pe 1:4 and to an incorruptible inheritance which is neither defiled nor withers, which is prepared in heaven for you,¹

1Pe 1:5 while you are kept by the power and in the faith of God, for the lives which are ready to be revealed in the last time.

1Pe 1:6 Lives in which you will rejoice forever, though in this time you will be wearied a little with various temptations which come upon you suddenly,

1Pe 1:7 that the proof of your faith may appear, which is worth more than refined gold. It is tested by fire for glory, honour, and praise at the revelation of Jeshua the Anointed, 1Pe 1:8 Him who you have not seen, but you love Him. And through His faith, you rejoice greatly with glorious inexpressible joy, 1Pe 1:9 that you may receive the reward of your faith; the life of your souls.

1Pe 1:10 This Life the prophets have investigated diligently, when they prophesied of the grace that would be given to you,

1Pe 1:11 and they searched for what time the Spirit of the Anointed who was in them was testifying that the sufferings of the Anointed would come and His glory that would follow.

1Pe 1:12 It was revealed to all of those who were searching, because they were seeking not for themselves, but they were prophesying for us the things which are now revealed to you through those who have preached to you by the Holy Spirit who was sent from heaven; things which the envoys also desire to look into.

1Pe 1:13 Therefore gird up the loins of your mind and be perfectly attentive, and hope in the joy that is coming to you in the revelation of our Lord Jeshua the Anointed,

1Pe 1:14 as obedient children, and do not partake again in your former lusts that you had lusted in when you were without knowledge;

1Pe 1:15 but be holy in your entire way of life, for He who has called you is holy,

1Pe 1:16 because it is written, "You be holy too, for I am holy."²

1Pe 1:17 And if it is the Father you call on, He who without favouritism judges every person according to his works, be led in reverence during this time of your sojourning;

1Pe 1:18 for you know that you were not redeemed with perishable things like silver or gold from your worthless works which you received from your fathers, 1Pe 1:19 but with the precious blood of the Lamb who is without blemish and without defilement. He is the Messiah.

1Pe 1:20 He was appointed to this before the creating of the world, and was manifested in these last times for you, 1Pe 1:21 who by Him believe in God, He who raised Him from the house of the dead and He gave Him glory, so that your faith and your hope would be in God.

1Pe 1:22 As your souls are purified through obeying the truth and filled with love without favouritism, that from a pure and perfect heart you will love one another,

1Pe 1:23 as people who have been born from above, not from seed which fails, but from that which does not fail: the Word of the Living God who abides for eternity,

1Pe 1:24 because "All flesh is as grass, and all its glory is as the flower of the field. The grass withers, and its flower fades, 1Pe 1:25 "but the Word of Jehovah endures forever."¹ Now this is the word which is preached to you.

1Pe 2:1 Therefore, put away all wickedness from you and all treachery and acceptance of envy and slander,

1Pe 2:2 and be as suckling babies yearning for the pure Word like spiritual milk, that you may grow strong in life,

1Pe 2:3 if you have tasted and you have seen that Jehovah is good.²

1Pe 2:4 He to whom you are drawing near is He who is the Living Stone, who was rejected by the children of men, and is chosen and precious to God.³

1Pe 2:5 You also, as living stones, are being built and have become a spiritual Palace, and holy priests, to offer spiritual sacrifices acceptable before God through Jeshua the Anointed.

1Pe 2:6 For as it says in the Writings, "Behold, I lay in Zion a chief cornerstone, approved and precious, and whoever believes in Him will not be ashamed."⁴

1Pe 2:7 Therefore this honour is given to you who believe; but to those who are disobedient, 1Pe 2:8 He is "A stumbling stone and a rock of offence."⁵ And they stumble on it for they are not obedient to this Word to which they were appointed.

1Pe 2:9 But you are a people chosen to be priests for the Kingdom, a holy nation, a redeemed assembly that can proclaim praises to Him who called you from darkness into His marvellous light;

1Pe 2:10 you who from the beginning were not considered as a people but now are the people of God; who had not obtained mercy but now mercies are poured upon you.

1Pe 2:11 Beloved, I beg you as wayfarers and foreigners, depart from all fleshly lusts that make war against the soul, 1Pe 2:12 and let your way of life be beautiful before all the children of men, so those who speak evil words about you may see your beautiful works and praise God in the day of examination.

1Pe 2:13 Submit yourselves to all the children of men for God's sake, and to kings because of their authority, 1Pe 2:14 and to judges, for they are sent by Him for the punishment of evil-doers and for the praise of those who do good.

1Pe 2:15 For this Way is the will of God, that by your excellent works you shut the mouths of those fools who do not know God;

1Pe 2:16 as free children, and not as people who use their own liberty as a cloak for their evil, but as servants of God.

1Pe 2:17 Honour every person. Love your brethren and be in awe of God. Honour the kings.

1Pe 2:18 And those who are servants among you, submit to your masters with reverence, not only to the good and gentle, but also to the severe and the perverse.

1Pe 2:19 For this is grace to them before God, and to those who, because of an excellent conscience, endure the suffering that comes upon them from iniquity.

1Pe 2:20 But those who endure suffering because of their foolishness, what glory is it for them? But when you are doing good and they afflict you and you endure it, then it magnifies your glory with God.

1Pe 2:23 “He was reviled, and did not revile; and when He suffered, did not threaten, but He handed over His judgement to the Judge of Righteousness.

1Pe 2:24 “And He took all of our sins and lifted them in His body to the tree, and when we are dead to sin, we will live in His righteousness; for by His scars you are healed.”¹

1Pe 2:25 For you had gone astray like sheep, but now you have returned to the Shepherd and the Caretaker of your souls.

1Pe 3:1 Likewise you wives, submit to your husbands, so even those who do not obey the Word may be won without labour by your beautiful way of life, 1Pe 3:2 when they see that you conduct yourselves in reverence and with discretion.

1Pe 3:3 And you are not to be adorned with outward ornaments like braiding your hair, or wearing gold jewellery, or fine apparel;

1Pe 3:4 but be adorned in the secret person of the heart, with the incorruptible ornament of a gentle and excellent spirit before God.

1Pe 3:5 For in this way, even from the beginning, the holy women who hoped in God so adorned their souls and submitted to their husbands, 1Pe 3:6 just as Sarah was subject to Abraham, calling him “my lord”; she whose daughters you are by good works when you are not shaken with any fear.

1Pe 3:7 Likewise you husbands, dwell with your wives with understanding, and hold them in honour as the weaker vessels, for they also inherit the gift of everlasting life with you, that you will not stumble in your prayers.

1Pe 3:8 In conclusion, all of you should be in harmony, and you should suffer with those who suffer; love one another, and you are to be merciful and humble;

1Pe 3:9 not a person returning evil for evil, nor should you return insults for insults, but contrary to these things, you are to bless, for you are called to this, that you may inherit a blessing.

1Pe 3:10 For “He who loves life and desires to see good days, let him keep his tongue from evil, and his lips will not speak deceit; 1Pe 3:11 “let him turn away from evil and let him do good; let him seek peace and pursue it.

1Pe 3:12 “For the eyes of Jehovah are upon the righteous,² and His ears listen to them; but the face of Jehovah is against the evil.”³

1Pe 3:13 And who will do evil to you if you are zealous to do good?

1Pe 3:14 But if you suffer for Him and righteousness’ sake, you are blessed. “And do not be afraid of those who threaten you, and do not be provoked.”⁴

1Pe 3:15 But cherish the Anointed Lord Jah⁵ in your hearts, and always be ready to give a defence to everyone who asks you a reason for the hope of your faith, with gentleness and reverence;⁶

1Pe 3:16 which is a good conscience for you; that those who speak against you as evil people, and reject your beautiful way of life in the Anointed may be ashamed.

1Pe 3:17 For it is better for you to suffer evil for doing good works, if this way is the will of God, and not because you are doing evil.

1Pe 3:18 For the Anointed also died once because of our sins, the Righteous One for the sake of sinners, that He might bring us to God, and His body died to bring you to God but His Spirit lived.

1Pe 3:19 And He preached to those souls who are held in Sheol,¹

1Pe 3:20 who from the first were unconvinced during the days of Noah, when the longsuffering God commanded that there be an ark of hope for their repentance, but only eight souls entered it and were kept alive through the waters.²

1Pe 3:21 For this is also a model of how you are saved in Him by immersion, not when you wash impurities from the body, but when you confess God and the resurrection of Jeshua the Messiah with a pure conscience.

1Pe 3:22 He has been escorted into heaven, and He is on the right side of God, and the envoys, authorities and powers are subject to Him.

1Pe 4:1 Therefore, since the Anointed suffered for us in the flesh, you also must be equipped with the same mind as Him, for everyone who has died to his body has ceased from all sin, 1Pe 4:2 that he will no longer live for the desires of the children of men during his time in the body, but for the will of God.

1Pe 4:3 For enough time has passed in which you served the pleasures of the pagans; in debauchery, drunkenness, whoredom, orgies and worship of demons.³

1Pe 4:4 Behold, now they marvel and insult you because you do not run riot with them in the former debauchery,

1Pe 4:5 who will give an account to God who is going to judge the dead and the living.

1Pe 4:6 Because of this He preached the Good News to the dead also, that they would be judged like the children of men in the flesh, and they would live through God in the spirit.

1Pe 4:7 But He has arrived at the end of all things; therefore be ashamed, wake up and pray.

1Pe 4:8 And before everything else, let each of you have fervent love for one another, for “love will cover a multitude of sins.”⁴

1Pe 4:9 And be loving to strangers without grumbling.

1Pe 4:10 Every one of you has received a gift from God, let him serve his neighbour as a good leader in the House of God with his unique grace.

1Pe 4:11 Everyone who speaks according to the Word of God, let him speak. And everyone who serves according to the ability which God supplies to him, do that in all things so God may be glorified through Jeshua the Anointed, to whom belongs Glory and Honour forever and ever. Amen.

1Pe 4:12 Beloved, do not be astonished by the temptations which will come to you, as if something strange happened to you, for they are for your proving;

1Pe 4:13 but rejoice that you share in the Anointed’s sufferings, for in this way also you will rejoice in the revelation of His glory, and you will be jubilant.

1Pe 4:14 If you are reproached for the Name of the Anointed, you are blessed, for the Glorious Spirit of God rests upon you.⁵

1Pe 4:15 Only do not let one of you suffer as a murderer or a thief or an evil-doer.⁶

1Pe 4:16 But if one of you suffers as a Christian,¹ do not let him be ashamed, but let him praise God in this Name.

1Pe 4:17 For it is time for the judgement to begin from the House of God; and if it begins with us, what will be the end of those who are not convinced by the Good News of God?

1Pe 4:18 Now "If the righteous barely lives, where will the evil and the sinner be found?"²

1Pe 4:19 Therefore let those who suffer according to the will of God commit their souls to Him in doing excellent works, as to a faithful Creator.

1Pe 5:1 But I beg the elders who are among you, as your fellow elder and a witness of the sufferings of the Anointed, and a partaker of His glory that will be revealed:

1Pe 5:2 Shepherd the flock of God who follow you, and care for them spiritually, not by compulsion but with pleasure, not for filthy profit but with all your heart;

1Pe 5:3 not as lords over the flock, but that you would be wonderful examples to them;

1Pe 5:4 and when the Chief Shepherd appears, you will receive from Him a crown of glory that will not fade.

1Pe 5:5 And you younger people, submit to your elders, and each one fully clothe their mind with humility, for "God opposes those who are proud, and He gives grace to the humble."³

1Pe 5:6 Therefore, be humbled under the mighty hand of God, that He may exalt you at the right time,

1Pe 5:7 and cast all your cares upon God, for He takes care of you.⁴

walks about seeking whom to devour.

1Pe 5:9 Therefore, stand against him while you are steadfast in the faith, and know that these same sufferings are also against your brethren in the world.

1Pe 5:10 But the God of Grace who called us to His eternal glory by the Anointed Jeshua, He who gives us strength to endure these small afflictions, will empower, confirm and establish us in Him forever.

1Pe 5:11 To Him be the glory and the power and the honour forever and ever.⁵ Amen.

Second Peter¹

2Pe 1:1 Simon Peter, a servant and apostle of Jeshua the Messiah: To those who have equal honour in the faith with us, worthy through the righteousness of our Lord and our Saviour Jeshua the Anointed:

2Pe 1:2 Grace and peace be multiplied to you by the teachings of our Anointed Lord Jeshua,

2Pe 1:3 as the One who has all things which are of divine power, with the life and worship of God, given by the teachings of Him who called us into His glory and majesty, 2Pe 1:4 who gave great and precious promises to you, that through these you will be partakers of the divine nature when you flee from the corrupt desires that are in the world.

2Pe 1:5 But there is also this; when you diligently do all, add onto your faith virtue, and onto virtue knowledge,

2Pe 1:6 onto knowledge perseverance, and onto perseverance patience, and onto patience reverence for God, 2Pe 1:7 and onto reverence for God concern for the brethren, and onto concern for the brethren, add love.

2Pe 1:8 For when you are found with these things and abound, they will not be empty nor unfruitful, for they establish you in the teachings of our Anointed Lord Jeshua.

2Pe 1:9 For he who is found without these things is blind, because he does not see that he has forgotten the purification of his former sins.

2Pe 1:10 Therefore, my brothers, be even more diligent, for by your good deeds you make your calling and your selection sure, for when you are doing these things you will never fall;

¹ Second Peter is not in the Peshitta. This book comes from the Crawford Aramaic manuscripts.

2Pe 1:11 for in this way an abundant entrance into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and our Saviour Jeshua the Anointed will be given to you.

2Pe 1:12 Therefore I am truly not weary from reminding you of these things, though you also know them well, and you are established upon this truth.

2Pe 1:13 But it seems right to me, as long as I am in this body,² to keep your memories awake, 2Pe 1:14 as I know that I must soon leave my body, just as our Lord Jeshua the Messiah showed me.

2Pe 1:15 Therefore I am constantly careful towards you, making sure that you will have a record of these things after my departure.

2Pe 1:16 For we have not gone after cunningly devised fables when we informed you of the power and coming of our Anointed Lord Jeshua, but we were eyewitnesses of His majesty.

2Pe 1:17 For He received honour and glory from God the Father when the Voice came to Him from the Excellent Glory of His Majesty: "This is My Son, the Beloved, He in whom I am delighted."³

2Pe 1:18 And we also heard this Voice which came to Him from heaven when we were with Him on the holy mountain.⁴

2Pe 1:19 We also had given to us the true word of prophecy, which you do excellently when you gaze at it as at a lamp that shines in a dark place, until the day dawns and the sun⁵ rises in your hearts;

2Pe 1:20 and you know this first, that every prophecy is not an interpretation of the Writings given on its own,

2Pe 1:21 for even from ancient times,

² The Greek in this and the next verse uses tent, which appears to be a mistranslation of the Aramaic for in this body (b'pagra אֲנִי בְּפָגְרָא).

prophecy has never come by the will of man, but the holy men of God spoke when they were compelled by the Holy Spirit.

2Pe 2:1 But there were also false prophets among the people, even as there will be false teachers among you, who will bring in destructive heresies, even denying the Lord who bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction.

2Pe 2:2 And many will follow their abominations; because of them the Way of Truth will be blasphemed.

2Pe 2:3 By covetousness and babbling words they will make a profit among you; those whose judgement begins and is not idle, and their destruction does not sleep.

2Pe 2:4 For if God did not have pity upon the envoys who sinned, but cast them down into the depths in chains of darkness, and handed them over to be kept for the judgement of torment;

2Pe 2:5 and did not have mercy on the first world, but He preserved Noah, one of the eight, a preacher of righteousness, when He brought the Great Flood over the world of the wicked;

2Pe 2:6 and when He burned the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah, and overturned and condemned them, when He set them as an example to those who were going to be wicked;

2Pe 2:7 and He delivered righteous Lot, who had suffered indignities from the abominable way of life of those who were without Instructions.

2Pe 2:8 For the righteous soul of that just man, while dwelling among them, was tormented from day to day by seeing and hearing their lawless deeds.

2Pe 2:9 Jehovah knows how to deliver from suffering those who reverence Him,¹ but the iniquitous are tormented and kept for the Day of Judgement,

2Pe 2:10 and especially those who go after the flesh in desiring uncleanness, and they despise authority. They preach insolence and pride; they are not afraid when they blaspheme the Glory,

2Pe 2:11 whereas the envoys, who are greater in power and might than them, do not bring a judgement of blasphemy against them from Lord Jah.²

2Pe 2:12 But these, like wild brute animals who are hunted and destroyed, slander those things they do not know, and they will be destroyed by their corruption,

2Pe 2:13 when those who consider repaying iniquity with iniquity a pleasure, and banquet with defilement during the daytime, they are filled with defects and celebrate when they indulge themselves in their love feasts,

2Pe 2:14 when their eyes are full of adultery and sins that never come to an end as they seduce unstable souls. They have a heart trained in greed and are accursed children.

2Pe 2:15 And when they abandoned the straight way, they strayed and followed the way of Balaam, son of Beor, who loved the wages of iniquity;

2Pe 2:16 but he was rebuked for his violations: a voiceless donkey spoke with a man's voice, restraining the madness of the prophet.³

2Pe 2:17 These are fountains without water, clouds from which a hurricane is driven, these for whom the gloom of darkness is reserved.

2Pe 2:18 For when they utter empty horrors, they seduce by filthy desires of the flesh and some words, a few who were escaping from those who are employed in deceiving.

2Pe 2:19 And while they promise them liberty, they are slaves of corruption; for that thing by which anyone is conquered, by it he is made a slave.

2Pe 2:20 For if, when they have fled from the abominations of the world through the teachings of our Lord and our Saviour Jeshua the Messiah, they are again entangled in these things and they are overcome, their end is worse than the beginning.

2Pe 2:21 For it would have been better for them to have not known the way of righteousness, than when knowing it, to afterwards turn away from the holy commandments that were delivered to them.

2Pe 2:22 But these things have happened to them according to the true proverb: "The dog returned to its vomit,"¹ and the sow that was washed, to wallowing in the mire.

2Pe 3:1 Beloved, I now write this second letter to you and through them I awaken memories in your pure minds,

2Pe 3:2 that you may recall the words which were spoken before by the holy prophets, and the commandments of our Lord and our Saviour which were through the apostles,

2Pe 3:3 as you knew from the first: that scoffers will come in the last days, who scoff while they walk according to their own lusts,

2Pe 3:4 and they say, "Where is the promise of His Coming? For since our forefathers fell asleep, everything continues as it was from the beginning of creation."

2Pe 3:5 For this they choose to disregard: that by the Word of God the heavens and the earth began and the land arose from the waters and in the water,²

2Pe 3:6 by which the world that existed then was flooded with water and was destroyed.³

2Pe 3:7 But the heavens and the earth which exist now are preserved by His word, and they are reserved for fire on the day of judgement and the destruction of the wicked children of men.⁴

2Pe 3:8 And you must not disregard this fact, beloved, that to Lord Jah one day is as a thousand years, and a thousand years is as one day.⁵

2Pe 3:9 Jehovah does not delay His promises, though some people consider them delayed, for His Spirit is long-suffering toward you, for He does not desire that any person should perish but that every person would come to repentance.⁶

2Pe 3:10 But the Day of Jehovah⁷ will come as a thief, in which the heavens will pass away quietly, but the elements will be set on fire and destroyed; and the earth and the works that are in it will be exposed.

2Pe 3:11 Therefore, since all of these things will be destroyed, what is right for you? How holy should your way of life and your worship of God be?

2Pe 3:12 For you expect and eagerly desire the coming Day of Jehovah,⁸ in which the heavens, tried by fire, will be dissolved and the elements will be set on fire and melt.⁹

2Pe 3:13 But we look forward to the new heavens and new earth, according to His promise, in which righteousness dwells.¹⁰

2Pe 3:14 Therefore, beloved, as you expect these things, take care to be without spot and without defect, and you will be found by Him in peace;

2Pe 3:15 and the patience of the Spirit of Lord Jah¹¹ is salvation. You should consider this and also our beloved brother Paul. According to the wisdom given to him, he wrote to you, 2Pe 3:16 and as in all of his letters, he spoke in them of these things. There are things in them which are difficult to understand, which those who are untaught and unstable pervert, as they also do to the rest of the Writings, to their own destruction.

2Pe 3:17 You therefore, beloved, as you know these things beforehand, beware lest you are also taken in the deceptions of those who are without Instructions, and you fall from your stability.

2Pe 3:18 But you must grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and our Saviour Jeshua the Anointed, and God the Father, to whom be the Glory both now and always and into the days of eternity. Amen.

Paul's Letters

Romans

Rom 1:1 Paul, a servant of Jeshua the Anointed, called to be an apostle who was separated to the Good News of God,

Rom 1:2 which He first promised through His prophets in the Holy Writings,

Rom 1:3 about His Son who was begotten in the flesh from the seed of the house of David,

Rom 1:4 and was revealed as the Son of God with power and by the Holy Spirit, who rose from the house of the dead; our Lord Jeshua the Messiah.

Rom 1:5 For in Him we have received grace and apostleship among all the nations, so they may obey in the faith of His Name, Rom 1:6 and you also are of those who are called by Jeshua the Anointed.

Rom 1:7 To all who are in Rome, beloved of God, called and holy: Peace and grace with you from God our Father and from our Anointed Lord Jeshua.

Rom 1:8 First, I thank my God through Jeshua the Anointed for all of you, for your faith is heard about in the whole world.

Rom 1:9 For God is calling me to testify that I serve Him in spirit in the Good News of His Son, that without ceasing I am always reminded of you in my prayers,
Rom 1:10 and I seek favour that somehow there may now be a way opened to me in the will of God that I may come to you.

Rom 1:11 For I greatly desire to see you and give to you a gift of the Spirit, so that you may be confirmed in Him;

Rom 1:12 and together we will be comforted in your faith and mine.

Rom 1:13 But, my brethren, I want you to know that many times I have wanted to come to you, but I was prevented until now, that in you there would also be some fruit for me, just as in the other gentiles.

Rom 1:14 For I owe a debt to preach to every person: Greeks and barbarians, wise and ignorant.

Rom 1:15 So I take pains that I may also preach the Good News to you who are in Rome.

Rom 1:16 For I am not ashamed of the Good News, because it is the power of God to give life to all who believe in it, for the Judeans first and for the Aramaeans.

Rom 1:17 For in it the justice of God is revealed from faith to faith; as it is written, "The just will live by faith."¹

Rom 1:18 For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all the iniquity and wickedness of the children of men, who suppress the truth as iniquity,
Rom 1:19 because a knowledge of God has been revealed to them, for God has revealed it to them.

Rom 1:20 For the secrets of God are apparent to the intellect of His creatures from the foundation of the world through His power and His eternal divinity, so they are without an excuse,²

Rom 1:21 because they knew God and they did not glorify Him as God, nor did they thank Him, but they became destitute in their reasoning, and their hearts became dull and without understanding.

Rom 1:22 Though they thought of themselves as wise, they became insane,
Rom 1:23 and they changed the Glory of the Incorruptible God into the likeness of an image of a corrupt man and into the likeness of birds and four-footed beasts and creeping things of the earth.

Rom 1:24 Therefore God handed them over to the vile desires of their heart, to disgrace their bodies among themselves, Rom 1:25 and they exchanged the truth of God for lies, and they revered and served created things rather than their Creator, to whom belongs praises and blessings forever and ever. Amen.

Rom 1:26 Because of this God handed them over to disgraceful diseases, for even their women changed their natural needs and became accustomed to that which is not natural.

Rom 1:27 Likewise also the men; they abandoned their natural need for women, and burned in their lust for one another, men with men committing disgraceful acts, and they received the rightful reward for their errors in themselves.

Rom 1:28 And because they decided in themselves to not know God, God gave them over to a worthless mind, so whatever they do is inappropriate;

Rom 1:29 for they are filled with all iniquities, fornication, bitterness, wickedness, greed, envy, murder, strife, treachery and evil thoughts;

Rom 1:30 murmurers, slanderers, God-haters, insolent, proud, boasters, inventors of evil, lacking reason and disobedient to parents,

Rom 1:31 and because they are unstable, they do not have love nor peace nor compassion;

Rom 1:32 who, while they know the judgement of God, that those who commit these things will be condemned to death, are not only doing them, but also approve of those who are doing these things.

Rom 2:1 Therefore there is no excuse for you, O man, for that of which you judge your neighbour, you are guilty of that yourself; for you who judge also practice these things.

Rom 2:2 But we know that the judgement of God exists in truth against those who practice these things.

Rom 2:3 And why do you think, O son of man, who judges those practising these things, when you are practising them also, that you will escape from the judgement of God?

Rom 2:4 Or are you against the riches of His kindness and against the patience of His Spirit and against the place that He gave to you? Do you not know that the kindness of God is bringing you to repentance?

Rom 2:5 But because of the hardness of your unrepentant heart, you lay up a treasure of wrath for yourself for the day of the revelation and the righteous judgement of God.

Rom 2:6 He will pay every person according to his works:¹

Rom 2:7 to those who patiently do good works and are seeking glory and honour and indestructibility, He gives everlasting life;

Rom 2:8 but those who resist and will not obey the truth, but obey iniquity, He will pay them with anger, wrath,

Rom 2:9 suffering and trouble; to every soul who cultivates evil, to the Judeans first and to the Aramaeans;

Rom 2:10 but glory, honour, and peace to everyone who cultivates good, to the Judeans first and to the Aramaeans.

Rom 2:11 For there is no favouritism² with God,

Rom 2:12 for those who sinned without the Instructions,³ they will be destroyed without the Instructions, and those who sinned, having the Instructions, will be judged by the Instructions.

Rom 2:13 For it is not the hearers of the Instructions that are righteous before God, but the doers of the Instructions that are justified;

Rom 2:14 for if the gentiles who do not have the Instructions, from their nature do those things in the Instructions though they did not have the Instructions, they are the Law to themselves,

Rom 2:15 and they show the work of the Instructions written on their heart, and their conscience testifies for them, while their thoughts rebuke or defend each one

Rom 2:16 in the day when God judges the secrets of the children of men according to my Good News by Jeshua the Anointed.

Rom 2:17 But if you are called a Judean, and your comfort rests on the Instructions, and you boast in God

Rom 2:18 that you know His will, and you discern what is excellent from what you were taught from the Instructions,

Rom 2:19 and you are confident that you are yourself a leader of the blind and a light to those who are in darkness,

Rom 2:20 and an instructor of those lacking understanding, a teacher of children, and you are a model of the knowledge and truth in the Instructions.

Rom 2:21 You, therefore, who teach others, do you not teach yourself? You who preach that people should not steal, are you stealing?

Rom 2:22 You who say that people should not commit adultery, are you committing adultery? And you who abhor idols, you plunder the Sanctified House.

Rom 2:23 You who boast in the Instructions, you violate against the Instructions and you insult God Himself.

Rom 2:24 For "The Name of God is blasphemed among the gentiles because of you," as it is written.¹

Rom 2:25 For circumcision is beneficial if you carefully observe the Instructions; but if you depart from the Instructions, your circumcision becomes uncircumcision.

Rom 2:26 Therefore, if he who is uncircumcised observes the commandments of the Instructions, behold, will his uncircumcision not be counted as circumcision?

Rom 2:27 And the uncircumcised who by his nature carefully observes the Instructions will judge you who, with the Writings and with circumcision, transgress against the Instructions.

Rom 2:28 For he is not the Judean who is one outwardly, nor is that which is seen in the flesh circumcision;

Rom 2:29 but he is a Judean who is one inwardly,² and his circumcision is that of the heart; in the Spirit and not through the Writings;³ those whose glory is not from the children of men but from God.

Rom 3:1 Therefore, what is the excellence of the Judeans, and what is the advantage of circumcision?

Rom 3:2 Much in every way! Primarily, because they were entrusted with the words of God.

Rom 3:3 But what if some of them did not believe? Can their lack of belief destroy the faithfulness of God?

Rom 3:4 Certainly not! For God is true and every person lies, as it is written, "You are righteous in Your words, and You will be vindicated when they judge You."⁴

Rom 3:5 But if our iniquity establishes the righteousness of God, what will we say? Is God doing iniquity when He inflicts His wrath? (I am speaking as a man.)

Rom 3:6 Certainly not! If it is so, how will God judge the universe?

Rom 3:7 For if the truth of God could increase through my lies for His glory, why am I therefore judged as a sinner?

Rom 3:8 Or is it as they slander against us, saying that we say, "Let us do evil that good may come”? Their condemnation is reserved for justice.

Rom 3:9 Therefore why are we held to be greater? Because we have precedence? We have already determined that the Judeans and the Aramaeans are all under sin,

Rom 3:10 just as it is written: “There is not one righteous, not even one;

Rom 3:11 “nor one who understands; nor one who seeks God.

Rom 3:12 “All of them have turned aside as one and they have been rejected. There is not one who does good, not even one.”¹

Rom 3:13 “Their throats are open tombs”;² “their tongues are deceitful”;³ and “The venom of asps is under their lips”;⁴

Rom 3:14 “Their mouth is full of curses and bitterness.”⁵

Rom 3:15 and “Their feet are swift to shed blood;”⁶

Rom 3:16 “adversity and misery are in their ways;

Rom 3:17 “and they have not known the Way of Peace.”⁷

Rom 3:18 “The fear of God is not before their eyes.”⁸

Rom 3:19 But we know that all the things the Instructions say, they say to those who are in the Instructions, that every mouth may be shut, and the entire universe may be guilty before God.

Rom 3:20 Because by the works of the Instructions no flesh will be justified before Him, for through the Instructions sin is made known.⁹

⁹ Psa 143:2

Rom 3:21 But now the righteousness of God is revealed apart from the Instructions, and the Instructions and the Prophets are testifying to this,

Rom 3:22 for the righteousness of God is through the faith of Jeshua the Anointed to everyone and upon everyone who believes in Him. For there is no difference,

Rom 3:23 because they have all sinned and they were deprived of the glory of God,

Rom 3:24 but they are freely justified by grace and the redemption which exists in the Anointed Jeshua.

Rom 3:25 God chose this One beforehand as the Atonement through faith in His blood, because of our sins which we have already sinned,¹⁰

Rom 3:26 to display His righteousness at the present time, for He is being just and is the justifier of the one who has the faith of our Lord Jeshua the Anointed.

Rom 3:27 Therefore, where is the boasting? It is eliminated by Him. By what Instructions? Of works? No, but through the Instructions of Faith.

Rom 3:28 Therefore we conclude that a man is justified by faith and not by the works of the Instructions.

Rom 3:29 Or is He the God of the Judeans only and not of the gentiles? Yes, of the gentiles also,

Rom 3:30 since there is one God who justifies the circumcised by faith and also the uncircumcised by faith.

Rom 3:31 Therefore, are we eliminating the Instructions by faith? Certainly not! Instead, we are establishing the Instructions.

Rom 4:1 So, what will we say about what Abraham, our principal forefather, found ¹⁰ Lev 23:26-32. The Greek manuscripts suggest in this verse that God tolerated our sins in the past, as shown in NIV, ESV, NASB, etc. The Peshitta makes it clear that God does not ever tolerate any sin, and Jeshua has to atone for ALL of our sins.

according to the flesh?

Rom 4:2 For if Abraham was justified by works, it was something of which to be proud, but not before God.

Rom 4:3 For what do the Writings say? "Abraham believed Jehovah, and it was accounted to him for righteousness."¹

Rom 4:4 Now to him who labours, his wages are not counted as grace but as that which is owed to him.

Rom 4:5 But to him who does not labour but only believes in the One who justifies sinners, his faith is accounted as righteousness to him,

Rom 4:6 just as David also said about the blessedness of the man to whom God accounts righteousness without works, for he said,

Rom 4:7 "Blessings to those whose iniquity is forgiven, and sins are covered;

Rom 4:8 "and blessings to the man to whom Jehovah will not reckon his sins."²

Rom 4:9 Therefore, is this blessing on the circumcised or on the uncircumcised? For we say his faith was accounted to Abraham for righteousness.

Rom 4:10 So, how was it accounted to him? In circumcision, or not in circumcision? It was not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision.

Rom 4:11 For he received the sign of circumcision as a seal of the righteousness of his faith when he was uncircumcised, that he might be the father of all those who believe among the uncircumcised, that it will also be reckoned to them for righteousness,

Rom 4:12 and he was the father not only to those from the circumcision but also to those who are of the uncircumcision who follow in the steps of the faith of our father Abraham.

Rom 4:13 For the promise to Abraham and his seed, that he would be the heir of the universe, was not made through the Instructions, but through the righteousness of his faith,

Rom 4:14 for if those of the Instructions were the heirs, faith would be worthless and the promise would have become nothing,

Rom 4:15 for the Instructions work out as wrath; for where there are no Instructions there are no transgressions of the Instructions.

Rom 4:16 Therefore one will be justified in faith which is by grace, and the sure promise will be to all his seed, not only to the one who is of the Instructions, but also to the one who is of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all,

Rom 4:17 just as it is written, "I have made you the father of a multitude of nations"³ in the presence of the same God in whom you believed, who gives life to the dead and He calls those who are not as if they are;

Rom 4:18 and though without hope, he believed in hope, that he would become the father of a multitude of nations, as it is written, "So will your seed be."⁴

Rom 4:19 And he did not fail in his faith, though he considered his body dead, for he was a hundred years old, and Sarah's womb was dead.

Rom 4:20 He did not doubt the promise of God as if he lacked faith, but he was strengthened in faith and gave praise to God,

Rom 4:21 and he affirmed that what God had promised to him, He was able to perform.

Rom 4:22 Therefore "it was accounted to him for righteousness."⁵

Rom 4:23 Now this was not written for his sake alone, that it was accounted to his faith for righteousness,

Rom 4:24 but also for our sake. For He is also going to account for us; we who believe in the One who raised our Anointed Lord Jeshua from the house of the dead.

Rom 4:25 He was handed over because of our sins, and He arose so He could justify us.

Rom 5:1 Therefore, because we have been justified by faith, we will have peace with God in our Lord Jeshua the Messiah, Rom 5:2 for in Him, by faith we are brought into this grace in which we stand, and we rejoice in hope of the glory of God.

Rom 5:3 And not only in this, but we also glory in tribulations, for we know that tribulation perfects perseverance in us;

Rom 5:4 and perseverance, character; and character, hope.

Rom 5:5 But hope does not produce shame, because the overflowing love of God has been poured into our hearts by the Holy Spirit who has been given to us.

Rom 5:6 Truly, the Messiah, due to our weakness at the time, died for the sake of the wicked.

Rom 5:7 Though it is improbable that a man will die for the sake of the wicked,¹ yet for the sake of the good perhaps a man would dare to die.

Rom 5:8 But here God demonstrates His own sure love for us, that while we were sinning, the Anointed died in our place.

Rom 5:9 Therefore, how much more, having now been even more justified by His blood, we will be saved from wrath by Him.

Rom 5:10 For if when we were enemies we were reconciled to God in the death of His Son, therefore, how much more, through His reconciliation, we will live by His Life.

Rom 5:11 And not in this way only, but we also rejoice in God through our Anointed Lord Jeshua, for it is through Him that we have now received the reconciliation.

Rom 5:12 Therefore, just as by the hand of one man sin entered the world, and death through sin; in this way death spread to all the children of men, because they have all sinned.²

Rom 5:13 For until the Instructions, sin was in the world but it was not counted as sin, because there were no Instructions.

Rom 5:14 But death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over those who had not sinned in the likeness of the transgression of the Instructions by Adam,³ who was an image of Him who was to come.

Rom 5:15 But the Gift is not like the Fall. For if by the fall of one many died, therefore so much more is the grace of God and His Gift which by one Man, Jeshua the Anointed, became superabundant to many.

Rom 5:16 And the gift is not like the offence of one. For the judgement which came from one offence resulted in condemnation, but the gift which followed the sins of many led to righteousness.

Rom 5:17 For if, because of one's offence, death reigned, all the more will those receiving an abundance of grace and the gift of righteousness reign in life by the hand of the One, Jeshua the Anointed.

Rom 5:18 Therefore, because of one's offence there was condemnation for all the children of men, in a similar way the righteousness of One is the triumph of life for all the children of men.

Rom 5:19 For just as through the disobedience of one man the many became sinners, in this way also because of the obedience of One, the many will become righteous.

Rom 5:20 But the Instructions were introduced so sin would increase. And where sin increased, grace became superabundant there,

² Gen 2:16-17 & 3:19

³ This passage confirms that Adam had to have received Instructions from God prior to his fall, so the time prior to the Instructions (aka Torah or Law) was very brief.

¹ The Greek manuscripts substitute 'righteous' for 'wicked', likely an error in their translation from the Aramaic.

Rom 5:21 so that as sin reigned in death, in this way grace will reign through righteousness to everlasting life through our Lord Jeshua the Messiah.

Rom 6:1 Then what will we say? Shall we continue in sin that grace may abound?

Rom 6:2 It cannot be so! For those of us who died to sin, how will we live in it again?

Rom 6:3 Or do you not know that all of us who were immersed into the Anointed Jeshua were immersed into His death?

Rom 6:4 We were buried with Him through immersion into death, and as Jeshua our Messiah rose from the house of the dead through the glory of His Father, so we also will walk in new life.

Rom 6:5 For if we have been planted with Him in the likeness of His death, in this way we will also be in His resurrection, Rom 6:6 for we know that our old person was impaled with Him, that the body of sin will be destroyed, so we will not serve sin again.

Rom 6:7 For the one who has died has been freed from sin.

Rom 6:8 But if we died with the Anointed, we believe that we will also live with the Anointed, Rom 6:9 knowing that the Anointed, having been raised from the house of the dead, dies no more. Death has no further dominion over Him.

Rom 6:10 For when He died, He died to sin once for all; but now that He lives, He lives to God.

Rom 6:11 So you also, count yourselves as dead to sin, and you are alive to God in our Lord and Messiah, Jeshua.

Rom 6:12 Therefore do not let sin reign in your dead body, to obey it in its lusts.

Rom 6:13 Nor yield your members as instruments of iniquity for sin, but yield yourselves to God as people who are alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness to God.¹

Rom 6:14 For sin will not have dominion over you, for you are not under the Instructions but under grace.

Rom 6:15 What? Shall we then sin because we are not under the Instructions but under grace? It cannot be so!

Rom 6:16 Do you not know that to whoever you present yourselves to obey, you are bonded as slaves to him who you obey, if your ear listens to sin or if to righteousness?

Rom 6:17 But thanks be to God that though you were slaves of sin, you obeyed from the heart that form of teaching to which you were delivered.

Rom 6:18 And having been freed from sin, you became slaves of righteousness.

Rom 6:19 I say, as to the children of the house, because of the weakness of your flesh, that as you presented your members to serve defilement and iniquity, now also in this way present your members to serve righteousness and holiness.

Rom 6:20 For when you were slaves of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness.

Rom 6:21 What fruit did you have then in the things of which you are now ashamed? For the end of those things is death.

Rom 6:22 But now, having been set free from sin, and having become slaves of God, you have your fruit to holiness, and in the end, everlasting life.

Rom 6:23 For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is everlasting life in the Anointed Jeshua, our Lord.

Rom 7:1 Or do you not know, my brethren (for I speak to those who know the Instructions), that the Instructions² have authority over a man as long as he lives?

² The Instructions are all of God's teachings, including His laws and statutes. This is namoosa נְמוּסָא in Aramaic, similar to Torah in the Old Covenant.

Rom 7:2 As the woman is bound to her husband by the Instructions as long as he lives, but if her husband dies, she is released from her husband by the Instructions.

Rom 7:3 But if she leaves her husband while he still lives for another man, she will be an adulteress to him; but if her husband dies, she is freed by the Instructions, and she will not be an adulteress if she becomes another man's wife.¹

Rom 7:4 Now, my brethren, you also have died to the Instructions with the body of the Anointed, that you may become another's: the One who arose from the house of the dead, that you would bear fruit to God.

Rom 7:5 For when we were in the flesh, the diseases of sin which are known through the Instructions were working vigorously in our members, so we would bear fruit to death.

Rom 7:6 But now we have been delivered from those Instructions, and we are dead to that which controlled us, so that from now on we will serve in the newness of the Spirit and not in the oldness of the Writings.

Rom 7:7 Therefore, what will we say? Are the Instructions sin? Certainly not, for I would not have recognised sin except through the Instructions. I would not have known covetousness if it were not for the Instructions which said, "You will not covet."²

Rom 7:8 But through this commandment, sin found for itself occasions to develop in me every desire, for without the Instructions, sin was dead.

Rom 7:9 At the beginning, I was alive without the Instructions, but when the commandment came, sin lived and I died.

¹ See Mat 5:32, Mar 10:11-12, Luk 16:18 & 1Co 7:39

² Exo 20:17

Rom 7:10 And I found that the commandment of life was death for me.

Rom 7:11 For sin, finding occasions for itself by the commandment, seduced me, and with it killed me.

Rom 7:12 Therefore the Instructions are holy, and the commandment is holy and just and good.

Rom 7:13 And so, has the good become death to me? Certainly not! But sin, now that it appeared as sin through what is good, was perfecting death in me, so that even more, sin would be condemned through the commandment.

Rom 7:14 For we know that the Instructions are from the Spirit, but I am of the flesh, and I am sold to sin.

Rom 7:15 For what I did, I did not understand. Nor was it what I chose to do, but I did what I hated, that was what I was doing.

Rom 7:16 And if there was anything I did not want to do, that I did. So I testify that the Instructions are excellent.

Rom 7:17 So, it is not I who does this, but sin that dwells in me now.

Rom 7:18 For I know that good does not dwell in me, that is, in my flesh; for it is easy for me to delight in the good, but I cannot perform it.

Rom 7:19 For I was not able to do the good that I chose to do, but the evil I did not want to do, that I did.

Rom 7:20 Now if I did what I chose to not do, it was not me who did it, but sin dwelling in me.

Rom 7:21 Therefore I find the Instructions are in agreement with my conscience that chooses to do good, but evil is near to me.

Rom 7:22 For I rejoice in the Instructions of God in the inner man.

Rom 7:23 But I saw another instruction in my members that makes war against the Instructions of my conscience, and brings me into captivity to the instruction of sin which is in my members.

Rom 7:24 I am a wretched son of man! Who will deliver me from this body of death?

Rom 7:25 I thank God through our Lord Jeshua the Messiah! So now, I, in my conscience, am a servant of God's Instructions, but in my flesh I am a servant of sin's instruction.

Rom 8:1 Therefore there is no condemnation to those who are not walking in the flesh, but in the Anointed Jeshua.

Rom 8:2 For the Instructions of the Spirit of Life in the Messiah Jeshua has freed you from the instructions of sin and of death.

Rom 8:3 For the Instructions were weak because of the infirmity of the flesh. God sent His Son in the form of sinful flesh, because of sin, to condemn sin in His flesh, Rom 8:4 that the righteousness of the Instructions would be fulfilled in us, that we would not walk in the flesh but in the Spirit.

Rom 8:5 For those who are in the flesh are governed by that flesh and those who are of the Spirit are governed by that Spirit.

Rom 8:6 For the mind of the flesh is death, and the mind of the Spirit is life and peace.

Rom 8:7 Because the mind of the flesh is enmity towards God, it is not subject to the Instructions of God, for that is impossible.

Rom 8:8 And those who live in the flesh are not able to please God.

Rom 8:9 But though you were in the flesh, now you are in the Spirit, if the Spirit of God truly dwells in you. But if anyone does not have the Spirit of the Anointed in him, this one does not belong to Him.

Rom 8:10 And if the Anointed is in you, the body is dead because of sin, but the Spirit is alive because of righteousness.

Rom 8:11 But if the Spirit of Him who raised our Anointed Lord Jeshua from the house of the dead dwells in you, He who raised Jeshua the Messiah from the house of the dead will also give life to your dead bodies because of His Spirit who dwells in you.

Rom 8:12 Therefore, my brethren, we are not debtors to the flesh, that we should walk in the flesh.

Rom 8:13 For if you live in the flesh you are going to die; but if in the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you are living.

Rom 8:14 For those who are led by the Spirit of God, these are the children of God.

Rom 8:15 For you have not received the spirit of bondage to fear again, but you have received the Spirit of adoption as children, by whom we cry out, "Aba, our Father."

Rom 8:16 And that Spirit testifies to our spirit that we are children of God,

Rom 8:17 and if children, also heirs. Heirs of God and children inheriting with Jeshua the Anointed, for if we suffer with Him, we will also be glorified with Him.

Rom 8:18 For I conclude that the sufferings of this present time are not comparable to the glory which will be revealed in us.

Rom 8:19 For the entire creation hopes for and expects the revelation of the Children of God.

Rom 8:20 For the creation was subjected to futility, not willingly, but because of Him who subjected it in hope;

Rom 8:21 because this creation will also be set free from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the Children of God.

Rom 8:22 For we know that all of creation groans and is in labour until today.¹

Rom 8:23 And not only them, but also we who have the first-fruit of the Spirit in us. We groan in ourselves and we look for the adoption as children and the redemption of our bodies.

Rom 8:24 For we live in this hope, but hope that is seen is not hope; for if we see it, why would we still be looking for it?

Rom 8:25 But if we hope for something we do not see, then we wait with perseverance.

Rom 8:26 In this way the Spirit also helps us in our weaknesses. For we do not know what is necessary for us to pray for, but the Spirit prays for us with groanings which cannot be spoken.

Rom 8:27 Now He who searches the hearts knows what the mind of the Spirit is, because He is praying for the sake of the saints according to the will of God.

Rom 8:28 And we know that God helps those who love Him; He helps those whom He called and ordained from the beginning in everything for their good.

Rom 8:29 For whom He knew from the beginning, He also shaped them in the likeness of the image of His Son, so He would be the Firstborn of many brethren.

Rom 8:30 Moreover, those whom He shaped from the beginning, He also called; and those whom He called, He justified; and those whom He justified, He glorified.

Rom 8:31 Therefore, what will we say about these things? If God is for us, who is against us?

Rom 8:32 And if He did not spare His own Son, but He delivered Him over for the sake of all of us, how will He not give us everything with Him?

Rom 8:33 Who will bring accusations against God's chosen? It is God who justifies.

Rom 8:34 Who is condemning?¹ The Messiah has died, and He is risen, and He is at the right hand of God, and He prays for our sake.

Rom 8:35 What can separate me from the love of the Anointed? Shall suffering, or imprisonment, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?

Rom 8:36 As it is written: "For Your sake we are killed every day and we are counted as sheep for slaughter."²

Rom 8:37 Yet in all these things we are conquerors through Him who loves us.

Rom 8:38 For I am convinced that neither death nor life, nor envoys nor authorities nor armies, nor what is present nor what will come,

Rom 8:39 nor height nor depth, nor any other created thing, will be able to separate me from the love of God which is in our Lord Jeshua the Messiah.

Rom 9:1 I speak the truth in the Anointed, and I do not lie, my conscience bears witness to me in the Holy Spirit, Rom 9:2 that there is unceasing sorrow and great affliction in my heart.

Rom 9:3 For I have prayed that I myself might be destroyed by the Messiah for the sake of my brethren and my kinsmen who are in the flesh,³

Rom 9:4 who are the children of Israel, the children called to the glory, and the covenants, and the Instructions, and the service and the promises which are in it;

Rom 9:5 who from the fathers and from them, Messiah appeared in the flesh, who is the God over us all, who is praised and blessed in the eternity of eternities. Amen.

Rom 9:6 But it is not that the word of God has failed, for they are not all Israel who are from Israel,

Rom 9:7 nor are they all children because they are from the seed of Abraham; for it was said, "In Isaac will your seed be called."⁴

Rom 9:8 That is, it is not the children of the flesh who are the children of God; but the children of the promise are counted as the seed.

Rom 9:9 For this is the word of the promise: "At that time this One will come and Sarah will have a son."¹

Rom 9:10 And not only this, but also when Rebecca was with our forefather Isaac and had sexual intercourse with him, Rom 9:11 before her children would be born, or they could do good or evil, the choice of God was first revealed, so this was not by works but by Him who called,

Rom 9:12 for it was said, "The older will be a servant to the younger."²

Rom 9:13 As it is written, "Jacob I have loved, and Esau I have hated."³

Rom 9:14 Therefore, what will we say? Is there iniquity with God? Certainly not!

Rom 9:15 Behold, He also said to Moses, "I will show love to whomever I love, and I will have compassion on whomever I pity."⁴

Rom 9:16 So it is not by means of him who wills, nor by means of him who runs, but by the hand of the Merciful God.

Rom 9:17 For in the Writings He said to Pharaoh, "I have raised you up for this, that I may show My power with you, and that My Name may be declared in all the earth."⁵

Rom 9:18 Therefore He shows compassion to whomever He wills, and He hardens whomever He wills.

Rom 9:19 Without doubt, you will say, "Why does He find fault? For who can stand against His will?"

Rom 9:20 But who are you, O son of man, that you give an answer to God? Does the thing formed say to the one who formed it, "Why have you formed me like this?"⁶

Rom 9:21 Or does the potter not have authority over the clay, that from it he will form one vessel for honour and another for disgrace?⁷

Rom 9:22 For if God was willing to show His wrath and to reveal His power, His patient Spirit brought wrath against many vessels of wrath that were prepared for destruction,

Rom 9:23 and His love overflowed on the vessels of compassion, which were prepared for God for glory,

Rom 9:24 for it is us whom He called, not only from the Judeans, but also from the gentiles.

Rom 9:25 Just as it also says in Hosea: "I will call those who were not My people, My People, and those who were not beloved, Beloved."

Rom 9:26 "For it will be that in the place where they were called 'not My people,' there they will be called 'Children of the Living God.'"⁸

Rom 9:27 But Isaiah preached against the children of Israel: "Though the number of the children of Israel will be as the sand of the sea, a remnant of them will be saved.

Rom 9:28 "For He will finish the matter, cut it off and Jehovah will do it upon the earth."⁹

Rom 9:29 And as Isaiah said before: "Unless Jehovah of Hosts had left us a remnant, we would have become like Sodom, and we would be like Gomorrah."¹⁰

Rom 9:30 Therefore, what will we say? That the gentiles, who were not pursuing righteousness, have obtained righteousness, even that righteousness which is from faith;

Rom 9:31 but Israel, pursuing the Instructions of righteousness, has not attained to the Instructions of righteousness.

Rom 9:32 Why is that? Because theirs was not by faith, but by works of the Instructions. For they stumbled at that stumbling stone.

Rom 9:33 As it is written: "Behold, I lay in Zion a stumbling stone and a rock of offence, and whoever believes in Him will not be ashamed."¹

Rom 10:1 My brethren, my heart's desire and my prayer for their sake before God is that they may be saved.

Rom 10:2 For I bear them witness that they have a zeal for God in them, but not according to knowledge.

Rom 10:3 For they did not know God's righteousness, so they sought to establish their own righteousness, and because of this, they have not submitted to the righteousness of God.

Rom 10:4 For Messiah is the consummation of the Instructions for righteousness to everyone who believes.²

Rom 10:5 For Moses wrote about the righteousness in the Instructions in this way, "Whoever does these things will live by them."³

Rom 10:6 But the righteousness of faith says this; "Do not say in your heart, 'Who has ascended into heaven and sent the Anointed down?'"

Rom 10:7 and, 'Who descended into the abyss of Sheol and brought the Anointed up from the house of the dead?'"

Rom 10:8 But what does it say? "The answer is near to you, to your mouth and to your heart."⁴ This is the word of faith which we preach:

Rom 10:9 If you confess with your mouth our Lord Jeshua and you believe in your heart that God has raised Him from the house of the dead, you will have Life.

Rom 10:10 For the heart that believes in Him is justified, and the mouth that confesses Him lives.

Rom 10:11 For the Writing says, "Everyone who believes in Him will not be ashamed."⁵

Rom 10:12 And in this He makes no distinctions for Judeans nor for Arameans, for He is the one Lord Jah⁶ over all of them, who is rich to everyone who calls upon Him.

Rom 10:13 For "whoever calls upon the Name of Jehovah will have Life."⁷

Rom 10:14 Therefore, why would they call to this One unless they believed in Him? And how would they believe in Him unless they heard Him? And how would they hear without a preacher?

Rom 10:15 And how will they preach if they are not sent? As it is written: "How beautiful are the feet of the envoys of peace and the envoys of good things!"⁸

Rom 10:16 But not all have obeyed the message of the Good News. For Isaiah said, "My Lord, who has believed our report?"⁹

Rom 10:17 Therefore, faith comes by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.

Rom 10:18 But I say, have they not

Though telos can sometimes be translated as "the end", in this passage using "the end" is often twisted into a claim that God's Law or Instructions are reduced to nothing, rather than confirming that the Anointed is the righteousness that the Instructions lead us to. heard? Behold: "Their report has gone out to the whole earth, and their words to the ends of the world."¹

Rom 10:19 But I say, did Israel not know? First Moses said this: "I will make you jealous by a people who were not a people, and I will anger you by a people who were not obedient."²

Rom 10:20 But Isaiah was bold and he said: "I appeared to those who did not seek Me; I was found by those who did not ask for Me."³

Rom 10:21 But to Israel He said: "I stretched out My hands all day to a contentious and disobedient people."⁴

Rom 11:1 So I say, has God cast away His people? Certainly not! For I also am from Israel, from the seed of Abraham, from the branch of Benjamin.

Rom 11:2 God has not cast away His people who were known to Him from the beginning. Or do you not know the Writings which say that Elijah complained to God and said this about Israel,

Rom 11:3 "Jehovah, they have murdered Your prophets and torn down Your altars, and I alone am left, and they seek my soul."⁵

Rom 11:4 But it was said to him by revelation, "I have seven thousand men left for Myself who have not bowed on their knees nor worshipped the LORD."⁶

Rom 11:5 Like then, even at this time there is a remnant left in those chosen by grace.

Rom 11:6 And if by grace, then it was not from works; otherwise grace is not grace.

But if it is by works, then it is not from grace; otherwise work is not work.

Rom 11:7 Therefore, why has Israel not found what it is seeking; while the chosen have found it? Because the rest of them were blinded in their hearts.

Rom 11:8 Just as it is written: "God gave them an irritating spirit and eyes that will not see and their ears will not hear, to this very day."⁷

Rom 11:9 And again, David said: "Let their table be a trap before them and their reward an offence;

Rom 11:10 "let their eyes be darkened, lest they see, and their back will always be bent down."⁸

Rom 11:11 But I say, did they stumble so they would fall? Certainly not! For through their offence, and to their jealousy, Life came to the gentiles.

Rom 11:12 Now if their offence is riches for the world, and their condemnation riches to the gentiles, therefore how much more is their fullness!

Rom 11:13 For I speak to you gentiles; I am an apostle to the gentiles and I honour my service, Rom 11:14 that perhaps I may make the children of my flesh jealous and I may save some of them.

Rom 11:15 For if their rejection is the reconciliation of the world, therefore how much more will their return to life from the house of the dead be?

Rom 11:16 For if the first-fruit is holy, so is the substance; and if the root is holy, so are the branches.

branches. But if you boast, is it not that you are supported by the root, rather than the root is supported by you?¹

Rom 11:19 And you will undoubtedly say, “The branches were cut off so I could be grafted in their place.”

Rom 11:20 This is fine, but they were cut off because of their unbelief, and you stand by faith. Do not be lifted up in your mind, but fear.

Rom 11:21 For if God did not show pity on the natural branches, He surely will not show pity on you either.

Rom 11:22 Therefore, behold the goodness and severity of God: on those who fell, severity; but toward you, goodness, if you abide in Him in His goodness. Otherwise you also will be cut off.

Rom 11:23 And they, if they do not continue in the destitution of their faith, will also be grafted in, for God is able to graft them in again.

Rom 11:24 For if you, who were cut from a wild olive tree, for that is your nature, and were grafted—contrary to your nature—into the good olive tree, how much more will these, who are the natural branches, be surely grafted into the olive tree?²

Rom 11:25 For I want you to know this mystery, my brethren, lest you become wise in your opinion of yourselves; that partly this time of blindness of the heart has happened to Israel until the fullness of the gentiles has entered in.

Rom 11:26 And then all Israel will be saved, just as it is written: “The Redeemer will come from Zion, and He will turn away iniquity from Jacob;³

Rom 11:34 “For who has known the mind of Jehovah? Or who has become the lord of His council?”⁶

Rom 11:35 “Or who has first given to Him and then been paid back by Him?”⁷

Rom 11:36 For all is from Him and all is by Him and all is in His hand, that praises and blessings be to Him for an eternity of eternities. Amen.

Rom 12:1 Therefore I beg you, my brethren, by the mercies of God, that you present your bodies as living sacrifices, holy and acceptable to God, which is a reasonable service.

Rom 12:2 And you are not to imitate this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your minds, and you will discover what is the good, acceptable and perfect will of God.

Rom 12:3 For I say to all of you, through the grace given to me, that you should not value yourself beyond what is necessary, but you should only value yourself modestly, as God distributes to every person a measure of faith.

Rom 12:4 For just as there are many parts in one body, and all of the parts do not have the same function,

Rom 12:5 so we also, who are many, are one body in the Anointed, and each one of us is a part of each other.

Rom 12:6 Now there are a variety of gifts corresponding to the grace that is given to us. There is that of prophecy, according to the measure of his faith;

Rom 12:7 there is that of service, it is for that one in his service; and there is that of a teacher, used in his teaching;

Rom 12:8 there is that of comforter, used in his comforting; and giving, used with generosity; and a main leader, used with diligence; and that of a caregiver, used with cheerfulness.

Rom 12:9 And do not let your love be deceitful, for you are to hate evil and cling to the good.

Rom 12:10 You are to be affectionate to your brethren and love one another, preferring to give honour to each other.

Rom 12:11 Be diligent and not lazy, be enthusiastic in spirit, and serving your Lord;

Rom 12:12 be rejoicing in your hope, be enduring in your tribulations, be persistent in your prayers;

Rom 12:13 be supportive of the needs of the saints, be friends of strangers.

Rom 12:14 Bless your persecutors; bless and do not curse.

Rom 12:15 Rejoice with those who rejoice, and weep with those who weep.

Rom 12:16 And whatever you esteem about yourselves, do it also for your brethren. And do not esteem your opinions highly, but go to those who are humble. And do not think yourself wise in your own opinion.

Rom 12:17 Do not repay anyone evil for evil, but you should be committed to doing good before all the children of men.

Rom 12:18 If it is possible, according to all that comes from within you, make peace with everyone.

Rom 12:19 Beloved, do not avenge yourselves, but put wrath in its place; for it is written, “If you do not do your own judging, I will do your judging for you.” says God.¹

Rom 12:20 “And if your enemy hungers, feed him; and if he thirsts, give him a drink; and if you do these things for him, you will heap coals of fire on his head.”²

Rom 12:21 Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.³

Rom 13:1 Let every soul be subject to the governing authorities, for there is no authority that does not come from our God, and the authorities that exist are under instructions from God.

Rom 13:2 Therefore whoever stands against the authority stands against the Instructions of God, and those who stand against them will bring judgement on themselves.

Rom 13:3 For judges are not a terror to the doer of good, but to the evil. Therefore, if you do not want to be afraid of the authority, do good, and you will have praise from him.

Rom 13:4 For he is God’s servant to you for good. But if you do evil, be afraid; for he does not wear the sword in vain; for he is God’s servant, a wrathful avenger on those who practice evil.

Rom 13:5 Because of this, it is necessary for us to be subject, not only due to wrath but also for conscience’ sake.

Rom 13:6 Also because of this you pay taxes, for they are God’s servants established to do these things.

Rom 13:7 Therefore render to each one what is owed: taxes to whom taxes are

¹ Probably derived from Deu 32:35, which has Jehovah, the Peshitta uses God in this instance. Also Pro 20:22, Jer 15:15, Psa 94:1, 1Th 4:6 and Heb 10:30 owed, customs to whom customs, reverence to whom reverence, and honour to whom honour.¹

Rom 13:8 And you should not owe anyone anything except to love one another, for whoever loves his neighbour has fulfilled the Instructions.

Rom 13:9 For this also, which says, "You will not commit adultery," "You will not murder," "You will not steal," "You will not covet," and if there is any other commandment, it is summed up in this saying, "You will love your neighbour as yourself."²

Rom 13:10 Love does no evil to a neighbour, because love is the fulfilment of the Instructions.

Rom 13:11 And know this: that it is now the time, even the hour, to awake from our sleep; for now our Life³ is nearer to us than when we first believed.

Rom 13:12 The night is now passed and the day has arrived. Therefore let us cast the works of darkness from us, and let us put on the armour of Light.

Rom 13:13 And as those in the day, let us walk properly, not in revelry and not in drunkenness, not lying down in unchastity, not in envy and strife.

Rom 13:14 But put on our Anointed Lord Jeshua, and make no provision for the lusts of your flesh.

Rom 14:1 But give your hand to the one who is weak in faith, and you will not be divided by your disputes.

Rom 14:2 For there is he who believes he may eat everything, and he who is weak who eats vegetables.

Rom 14:3 But he who eats, do not let him despise whoever does not eat, and whoever does not eat, do not let him judge him who eats; for God has accepted him.

Rom 14:4 Who are you to judge a servant who is not yours? For if he stands to his Lord, he stands. Or if he falls to his Lord, he falls. But he will stand, for he has come into the hand of his Lord who establishes him.

Rom 14:5 There is one who distinguishes a day from a day; another distinguishes all of the days. Let every person be certain of themselves in their mind.

Rom 14:6 Whoever esteems whatever day, he esteems it to his Lord; and everyone who does not esteem whatever day, to his Lord he does not esteem it. And the one who eats, he eats to his Lord, and he gives God thanks; and he who does not eat, to his Lord he does not eat, and he gives God thanks.⁴

Rom 14:7 For there is not a person of us who lives to himself, and there is not a person who dies to himself.

Rom 14:8 Because if we live, we live to our Lord; and if we die, it is to our Lord we die. Therefore, whether we live or we die, we are our Lord's.

Rom 14:9 For this cause the Anointed died and lived again. He arose so He would be Lord Jah⁵ to the dead and the living.

Rom 14:10 But why are you judging your brother? Or why are you despising your brother? For we are all going to stand before the judgement seat of the Anointed.

Rom 14:11 As it is written: "As I live, says Jehovah, every knee will bow to Me, and every tongue will swear to Me."⁶

Rom 14:12 So then, every one of us will give an account of his soul to God.

⁴ Some people misuse this passage to claim that it means keeping the Sabbath is now a matter of personal choice. But notice that Paul has carefully avoided even mentioning the Sabbath. The choice is only in what we eat and which day we eat it; it says nothing about whether or not we should observe Jehovah's Sabbath as a Holy Day.

⁵ As in the Peshitta.

³ Or salvation.

Rom 14:13 From now on, let us not judge one another, but rather resolve this, that you will not lay a stumbling block before your brother.

Rom 14:14 For I know and I am convinced by Lord Jah Jeshua¹ that there is nothing that is defiled before Him; but to him who considers anything to be unclean, to him it is unclean.

Rom 14:15 But if you grieve your brother because of food, you are not walking in love. You should not destroy by your food the one for whom the Anointed died.

Rom 14:16 Do not let our good be insulted;

Rom 14:17 for the Kingdom of God is not eating and drinking, but righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit.

Rom 14:18 Whoever serves the Messiah in these things is beautiful to God and approved by the children of men.

Rom 14:19 So, now let us run after peace and after building one another up.

Rom 14:20 Let us not destroy a servant of God because of food. For everything is pure, but it is evil for the man who eats it with a stumbling block.

Rom 14:21 It is good that we do not eat meat nor drink wine nor do anything by which our brother is subverted.

Rom 14:22 You who have faith in your soul, have it before God. Blessed is he who does not condemn his soul in what he approves.

Rom 14:23 For whoever doubts and eats condemns himself, because he is not doing everything in faith; for whatever is not from faith is sin.

Rom 15:1 Therefore, we who are strong are indebted to bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves.

Rom 15:2 Let each of us please his neighbour with good, leading to edification.

¹ As in the Peshitta. As Jehovah's son, Jehovah allows Jeshua to use His Name, thus we have our Lord Jah Jeshua.

Rom 15:3 For the Anointed also did not please Himself; but as it is written, "The reproaches of those who reproached You fell on Me."²

Rom 15:4 For everything that was written long ago was written for our instruction, that we through patience and the comfort of the Writings may have hope.

Rom 15:5 Now may the God of patience and comfort grant that you value one another with equality in the Messiah Jeshua, Rom 15:6 that with one mind and one mouth you may glorify God the Father of our Anointed Lord Jeshua.

Rom 15:7 Therefore you must accept and bear with one another, just as the Anointed has accepted you, to the glory of God.

Rom 15:8 Now I say that Jeshua the Anointed served the circumcision for the truth of God, to confirm the promises made to the fathers,

Rom 15:9 and the gentiles will glorify God for the mercies which are upon them, as it is written: "I will give thanks to You among the gentiles, and I will sing praise to Your Name."³

Rom 15:10 And again it says: "Rejoice, you gentiles, with His people!"⁴

Rom 15:11 And again it says: "Praise Jehovah, all you gentiles! Praise Him, all peoples!"⁵

Rom 15:12 And again, Isaiah said: "There will be a root of Jesse who will rise to rule over the gentiles, and the gentiles will hope upon Him."⁶

Rom 15:13 For the God of Hope will fill you with all joy and peace through faith, that you may abound in His hope by the power of the Holy Spirit.

Rom 15:14 For I am convinced concerning you, my brethren, that you also are filled with goodness, and are full with all knowledge, and you are also able to instruct others.

Rom 15:15 But I have written a little boldly to you, my brethren, to remind you of the grace given to me from God,

Rom 15:16 that I may be a servant to Jeshua the Anointed among the gentiles, and I may labour for the Good News of God, that the offering of the gentiles may be accepted and sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

Rom 15:17 Therefore I give glory to God in the Anointed Jeshua.

Rom 15:18 For I do not dare to speak of anything which the Anointed has not accomplished through me, by word and by works, for the gentile audience;

Rom 15:19 by mighty signs and wonders, through the power of the Spirit of God, so that from Jerusalem I have gone around to Illyricum and I have fulfilled the Good News of the Anointed.

Rom 15:20 And while I can, I will preach the Good News, but not where the Name of the Anointed is invoked, lest I build on a different foundation,

Rom 15:21 but as it is written: "Those who were not told about Him, they will see Him; and those who had not heard, they will be convinced."¹

Rom 15:22 Because of this, I was hindered many times when I wanted to come to you.

Rom 15:23 But now, because I no longer have a place in these regions, and I have been desiring for many years to come to you,

Rom 15:24 when I go to Spain, I hope to come and see you. For I hope to see you on my journey, and if a few of you will accompany me on my way there, I will be delighted to see you.

Rom 15:25 But now I am going to Jerusalem to serve the saints.

Rom 15:26 For those in Macedonia and Achaia were willing to share with the poor saints who are in Jerusalem.

Rom 15:27 They were willing, because they are also indebted to them. For if the gentiles have become partners in their spiritual things, the gentiles are also indebted to serve them in physical things.

Rom 15:28 Therefore, when I have finished this and have sealed this fruit to them, I will go by you to Spain.

Rom 15:29 But I know that when I come to you, I will come in the fullness of the blessing of the Good News of the Anointed.

Rom 15:30 Now I beg of you, my brethren, through our Anointed Lord Jeshua, and through the love of the Spirit, that you labour with me in prayer to God for me,

Rom 15:31 that I may be delivered from those in Judea who are disobedient, and that the service I bring to the saints in Jerusalem would be well received,

Rom 15:32 and I will come to you with joy in the will of God, and I will be refreshed with you.

Rom 15:33 May the God of peace be with all of you. Amen.

Rom 16:1 Now, I entrust Phoebe our sister to you, who is a servant of the congregation in Cenchrea,

Rom 16:2 that you may accept her in our Lord as is right for saints, and help her in any matter that she seeks help; for she has been a helper to many and to me also.

Rom 16:3 Greet Priscilla and Aquila with peace, who are labourers in the Messiah Jeshua with me, Rom 16:4 for they offered their necks for my soul, and I thank them, and also all the congregations of the gentiles, that I have not been alone.

Rom 16:5 And give greetings to the congregation that is in their house. Invoke peace on my beloved Epaenetus, who is the first-fruit of Achaia in the Anointed.

Rom 16:6 Invoke peace on Maria, who has laboured much among you.

Rom 16:7 Invoke peace on Andronicus and Junia, my relatives who were captives with me, and are known by the apostles. And they were in the Messiah before me.

Rom 16:8 Invoke peace on Amphilius, beloved in our Lord.

Rom 16:9 Invoke peace on Eurbanus, our fellow worker in the Anointed, and Estachys, my beloved.

Rom 16:10 Invoke peace on Appela, selected in our Lord. Invoke peace on the members of the household of Aristobulus.

Rom 16:11 Invoke peace on Herodion, my relative. Invoke peace on the members of the household of Narcissus who are in our Lord.

Rom 16:12 Invoke peace on Trupana and Trupsa, who have laboured in our Lord. Invoke peace on my beloved Persis, who has laboured much in our Lord.

Rom 16:13 Invoke peace on Ruphus, selected in our Lord, and on his mother and mine.

Rom 16:14 Invoke peace on Asuncritus and Plagon and the brethren who are with them, and Harma, Petroba and Harme.

Rom 16:15 Invoke peace on Pillagus and Julia, Nereus and his sister, and Alumpa, and all the saints who are with them.

Rom 16:16 Invoke the peace of one another with a holy kiss. All of the congregations of the Anointed invoke your peace.

Rom 16:17 But I beg of you, my brethren, to beware of those who are causing divisions and diversions away from the teaching which you have learned, and that you should stay away from them.

Rom 16:18 For those who do this are not serving our Anointed Lord Jeshua, but their belly, and with smooth words and blessings deceive the hearts of the innocent.

Rom 16:19 Your loyalty has been made known to everyone. Therefore I rejoice in you, and I want you to be wise towards good, and innocent towards evil.

Rom 16:20 For the God of Peace will crush Satan under your feet soon. The grace of our Anointed Lord Jeshua be with you.

Rom 16:21 Timothy, who works with me, and Lucios, Jason, and Sosipatros, my brothers, invoke your peace.

Rom 16:22 I, Tertius, who wrote this letter, invoke your peace in our Lord.

Rom 16:23 Gaius, who received me, invokes your peace; and the whole congregation, Aristus, the steward of the city, and Quertus, a brother, all invoke your peace.

Rom 16:24 Now to God, who is able to establish you in my Good News which has been preached about Jeshua the Messiah, by the revelation of the mystery that had been hidden from the time the world began,

Rom 16:25 but has now been revealed in this time by the writings of the prophets and by the commandment of the Eternal God and has been taught in all the nations for the hearing of faith.

Rom 16:26 To Him who alone is wise; in His hand is the glory of Jeshua the Anointed forever and ever. Amen.¹

Rom 16:27 The grace of our Lord Jeshua the Messiah be with you all. Amen.

¹ 1Co 15:51-55, Eph 5:32

First Corinthians

1Co 1:1 Paul, called by—and an apostle of—Jeshua the Messiah through the will of God, and Sosthenes our brother:

1Co 1:2 To the congregation of God which is in Corinth, to those who are called and holy, sanctified in the Anointed Jeshua, and all those who call on the Name of our Lord Jeshua the Anointed in every place, both theirs and ours:

1Co 1:3 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and our Anointed Lord Jeshua.

1Co 1:4 I give thanks to my God always for you concerning the grace of God which is given to you by the Anointed Jeshua,

1Co 1:5 for you are enriched in everything by Him in every utterance and in all knowledge,

1Co 1:6 as the testimony of the Anointed was verified in you,

1Co 1:7 for you have not been deprived of even one of the gifts, and you are expecting the revelation of our Anointed Lord Jeshua, 1Co 1:8 for He will confirm you to the end, that you may be blameless in the day of our Lord Jeshua the Anointed.

1Co 1:9 God is faithful,¹ and by Him you were called into the fellowship of His Son, our Anointed Lord Jeshua.

1Co 1:10 Now I plead with you, my brethren, in the Name of our Anointed Lord Jeshua, that you will all speak as one, and that there will be no divisions among you, but that you will be perfected in one mind and in one conscience.

1Co 1:11 For Chloe's household have sent to me concerning you, my brothers, that there is contention among you.

1Co 1:12 Now I say this: that there are some of you who say, "I am of Paul," and there are some who say "I am of Apollo," and there are some who say "I am of Cepha,"² and there are some who say "I am of the Anointed."

1Co 1:13 Has the Anointed been divided? Or was Paul impaled for you? Or were you immersed in the name of Paul?

1Co 1:14 I thank my God that I immersed none of you except Crispus and Gaius, 1Co 1:15 lest anyone would say that I have immersed in my own name.

1Co 1:16 Though I also immersed the household of Stephanas. But I do not know if I immersed any others.

1Co 1:17 For Messiah did not send me to immerse, but to preach the Good News, not with wisdom of words, lest the impalement of the Anointed would be rejected.

1Co 1:18 For the message of the impalement is insanity to the lost, but to us who are being given life it is the power of God.

1Co 1:19 For it is written: "I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and I will take away the theories of the intellectuals."³

1Co 1:20 Where is the wise? Where is the scribe? Where is the debater of this world? Behold, has God not shown the wisdom of this world to be insanity?⁴

1Co 1:21 For since, in the wisdom of God, the world did not know the wisdom of God; it was God's will that through the insanity of the preaching⁵ He will give life to those who believe.

1Co 1:22 For the Judeans ask for a sign,

² Cepha ܠܫܢܐ is Aramaic for Rock, and is commonly rendered as Peter from the Greek petros.

³ Isa 29:14

⁴ Truly, it is insanity to believe that random changes to a living organism's DNA can result in wonderful and complex new organs. Every real world example demonstrates that only careful thought, design and manufacture can result in a functional new object.

⁵ Insane from the viewpoint of the worldly wise.

and Aramaeans seek philosophy;

1Co 1:23 but we preach the Anointed as He was impaled, an offence to the Judeans and madness to the Aramaeans,

1Co 1:24 but to those who are called, Judeans and Aramaeans, Messiah is the power of God and the wisdom of God.¹

1Co 1:25 Because the madness of God is wiser than humans, and the weakness of God is stronger than the children of men.

1Co 1:26 For you see your calling, my brethren, that not many among you are wise in the flesh, nor many among you mighty, nor many among you the children of a notable family.

1Co 1:27 But God has chosen the foolish of the world to shame the wise, and He has chosen the weak of the world to shame the mighty;

1Co 1:28 and He has chosen those from low-born families and the rejects of the world and those who are nothing, to bring to nothing those who are,

1Co 1:29 so no one will boast before Him.

1Co 1:30 But you are also from Him in the Anointed Jeshua; He who became the wisdom and the righteousness and the redemption and the holiness of God for us; 1Co 1:31 that, as it is written, "Whoever boasts, let him boast of Jehovah."²

1Co 2:1 And I, my brethren, when I came to you, I did not proclaim to you the Good News of the mystery of God with magnificent speech nor with scholarship.

1Co 2:2 Nor did I present myself among you as if I knew anything except Jeshua the Anointed and Him as He was impaled.

1Co 2:3 I was with you in fear, and in much trembling.

1Co 2:4 And my message and my preaching were not with persuasive words of wisdom, but in the demonstration of the Spirit and of Power, 1Co 2:5 that your faith would not be in the wisdom of the children of men but in the Power of God.

1Co 2:6 But we speak wisdom with the perfect, but not the wisdom of this world, nor of the rulers of this world, who will be brought to nothing.

1Co 2:7 But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery that God set apart before the world and kept secret for our glory, 1Co 2:8 which not one of the rulers of this world knew; for if they had known it, they would not have impaled the Lord of Glory.

1Co 2:9 But as it is written: "Eye has not seen, nor ear heard, nor has come into the heart of man anything which God has prepared for those who love Him."³

1Co 2:10 But God has revealed them to us through His Spirit, for the Spirit searches all things, even the deep things of God.

1Co 2:11 For who is the son of man who knows the things of a man except through the spirit of man which is in him? Even so, no man knows the things of God except through the Spirit of God.

1Co 2:12 Now we have not received the spirit of the world, but the Spirit from God, that we might know the gifts that have been given to us by God.

1Co 2:13 Those things that we speak are not teaching in the words of man's wisdom but in the teaching of the Holy Spirit, and we compare spiritual ones and spiritual things.

1Co 2:14 But the soulish man does not receive spiritual things, for they are madness to him; and he is not able to know them, because they are known by the Spirit.

1Co 2:15 But a spiritual man judges everything, and he is not judged by man.⁴

1Co 2:16 For “Who has known the mind of Jehovah that he may teach Him?”¹ But the mind of the Anointed is given to us.

1Co 3:1 And I, my brethren, have not been able to speak to you as to spiritual people but as to fleshly, as to babes in the Anointed.

1Co 3:2 I gave you milk to drink and not solid food; for until now you were not able to receive it, nor are you able now;²

1Co 3:3 for you are still in the flesh. For wherever there are envy, contentions, and divisions among you, are you not fleshly and walking in the flesh?

1Co 3:4 For when one of you says, “I am of Paul,” and another says, “I am of Apollo,” behold, are you not fleshly?

1Co 3:5 For who is Paul, and who is Apollo, but servants through whom you believed, and each man according to what Lord Jah³ gives to him?

1Co 3:6 I planted and Apollo watered, but God made it grow.

1Co 3:7 Therefore, neither he who plants is anything, nor he who waters, but God who makes it grow.

1Co 3:8 For whoever plants and whoever waters are one, and each man will receive his wages according to his labour.

1Co 3:9 For we labour with God and you are God’s harvest and God’s building.

1Co 3:10 According to the grace of God which is given to me, I laid the foundation as a wise master builder, but another builds on it. But let every person take heed to how he builds on it.

1Co 3:11 For no man is able to lay any other foundation than this which is laid, which is Jeshua the Anointed.

1Co 3:12 Now if anyone builds on this foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay or straw, 1Co 3:14 If a builder’s work is that which endures, he will receive his reward.

1Co 3:15 And he whose work is burned up, he will suffer loss; but he himself will escape, though as from that fire.

1Co 3:16 Do you not know that you are the Palace of God and the Spirit of God dwells in you?

1Co 3:17 And whoever destroys the Palace of God, God will destroy him. For the Palace of God, which you are, is holy.

1Co 3:18 Let no one deceive himself. Whoever among you who thinks that he is wise in this world, let him become a fool that he may become wise.

1Co 3:19 For the wisdom of this world is nonsense to God. For it is written, “He has caught the wise in their craftiness”;⁴

1Co 3:20 and again, “Jehovah knows the thoughts of the wise, that they are worthless.”⁵

1Co 3:21 Therefore, do not let anyone glory in men, for everything is yours:

by this; for my Judge is Jehovah.¹

1Co 4:5 Therefore you should not be judging before time, until Lord Jah² comes, who will illuminate the secrets of darkness and reveal the imaginations of their hearts; and then each one's praise will come from God.

1Co 4:6 Now, my brethren, I have established that it is for your sake that you may learn these things from myself and Apollo, that you don't suppose more than what is written, so a man should not be lifted up against his fellow man because of anyone.

1Co 4:7 For who is looking into you? And what do you have that you did not receive? And if you have received it, why are you boasting as if you have not received it?

1Co 4:8 So now you have become full of yourselves! You have been made rich! And you have reigned without us! Oh, that you had reigned, that we also might reign with you!

1Co 4:9 For I think that God has appointed us, the apostles, as the last, as if we would be put to death; so we would be a spectacle to the world, to envoys and to men.

1Co 4:10 We are crazy for the Messiah, but you are sensible in the Messiah! We are weak, but you are mighty! You are praised, but we are despised!

1Co 4:11 Even to this hour we are hungry and thirsty, and we are naked, and we are abused, and there is no house for us to dwell in.

1Co 4:12 And we toil when we labour with our hands. They dishonour us and we bless; they persecute us and we endure;³

1Co 4:13 they accuse us and we entreat them. We have become as the scum of the world and the offscouring of every person until now.

1Co 4:14 I do not write these things to shame you, but as my dear children I warn you.

1Co 4:15 For though you may have ten thousand instructors in the Anointed, yet you do not have many fathers; for in the Anointed Jeshua it is I who have begotten you through the Good News.

1Co 4:16 Therefore I urge you, that you should imitate me.

1Co 4:17 For this reason I have sent Timothy to you, who is my beloved and faithful son in Lord Jah,⁴ that he may remind you of my ways in the Messiah, such as the things that I teach in all the congregations.

1Co 4:18 Now some of you have been boisterous, as if I were not coming to you.

1Co 4:19 But if Lord Jah⁵ is willing, I will come to you soon, and I will know, not the words of those who lift their souls up, but their power.

1Co 4:20 For the Kingdom of God is not in word but in power.

1Co 4:21 How do you want it? Shall I come to you with a branch, or in affection and a spirit of gentleness?

1Co 5:1 Also, it is reported that there is fornication among you, and such fornication as is not even named among the pagans; that a son has gone as far as taking his father's wife.⁶

1Co 5:2 And you are puffed up, rather than sitting in mourning while whoever committed this crime is taken away from among you.

1Co 5:3 For while I am distant from you in body, I am near to you in spirit. Now I have judged he who committed this as though I were present with him.

1Co 5:4 In the name of our Anointed

Lord Jeshua, you will all assemble together, and I will be with you in spirit, and with the power of our Anointed Lord Jeshua, 1Co 5:5 and you will deliver this one to Satan for the destruction of his body, that his spirit may live in the day of our Anointed Lord Jeshua.

1Co 5:6 Your boasting is not good. Do you not know that a little leaven leavens the whole lump?

1Co 5:7 Purge the old leaven out of you, that you may be a new lump, since you are unleavened. For our Passover is the Messiah, who was sacrificed for our sake.¹

1Co 5:8 Therefore let us keep the feast, not with old leaven, nor with the leaven of bitterness or wickedness, but with the leaven of purity and holiness.²

1Co 5:9 I wrote to you in a letter that you are not to mix with fornicators.

1Co 5:10 But I did not speak about the fornicators who are in this world, or about the greedy, or about extortioners, or about idol worshippers, since then you would be required to depart from the world.

1Co 5:11 But I have written this to you, that you are not to mix with anyone called a brother who is a fornicator, or greedy, or serves idols, or is abusive, or a drunkard, or a robber; you are not even to eat bread with them.

1Co 5:12 For who am I to judge outsiders? You judge the insiders,

1Co 5:13 but God judges the outsiders. Remove the evil one from your midst.³

¹ Exo 12:1-13:10

² When translated from Aramaic to Greek, the last leaven in this verse was changed to unleavened, making it appear that there is no good leaven. In Mat 13:33 Jeshua confirms that there is indeed good leaven, which is God's Kingdom spreading and transforming us, and is celebrated with the leavened loaves offered on the Feast of Weeks.

³ Deu 17:7. Though in the New Covenant we are to exclude them from our congregation until they repent, not to put them to death, as 1Co 6:1 Dare any of you be judged before the iniquitous when he has a dispute with his brother, and not before the saints?

1Co 6:2 Or do you not know that the saints will judge the world? And if the world will be judged by you, are you not worthy to judge small disputes?

1Co 6:3 Do you not know that we will judge envoys? How much more those who are of this world?

1Co 6:4 And if you have a judgement concerning worldly things, are those who are neglected in the congregation put on your judgement seat?

1Co 6:5 Now I say it to you in this way: Is there not even one wise man with you who will be able to reconcile between a brother and his brother?

1Co 6:6 But brother disputes with his brother, and even before unbelievers!

1Co 6:7 Now therefore, you have condemned yourselves, because you have lawsuits against one another. Is it not because you have been wronged? Is it not because you have been cheated?

1Co 6:8 But you are also doing wrong and you are also cheating your brethren!

1Co 6:9 Do you not know that iniquitous men will not inherit the Kingdom of God? Do not be deceived. Neither fornicators, nor idol worshippers, nor adulterers, nor sexual molesters, nor homosexuals, 1Co 6:10 nor defrauders, nor thieves, nor drunkards, nor slanderers, nor extortioners will inherit the Kingdom of God.

1Co 6:11 And each one of you have been some of these things. But you are purified by immersion, and you are sanctified, and you are justified in the Name of our Anointed Lord Jeshua and by the Spirit of our God.

1Co 6:12 Everything is lawful for me, but not everything is useful for me. Everything is lawful for me, but no person will have dominion over me.

1Co 6:13 Food is for the belly and the we have the ministry of life.

belly is for food, but God will bring them both to nothing. Now the body is not for fornication but for our Lord, and our Lord is for the body.

1Co 6:14 And God has even raised our Lord and will raise us by His power.

1Co 6:15 Do you not know that your bodies are members of the Anointed? Shall we take the members of the Anointed and make them members of a prostitute? Certainly not!

1Co 6:16 Or do you not know that whoever is joined to a prostitute is one body with her? For it is said, "They will become one body."¹

1Co 6:17 But whoever is joined to our Lord is one Spirit with Him.

1Co 6:18 Flee from sexual immorality. Every sin that a man does is outside his body, but he who commits fornication sins within his body.

1Co 6:19 Or do you not know that your body is the Palace of the Holy Spirit who dwells in you; whom you have received from God, and you are not your own?

1Co 6:20 For you were bought for a price; therefore you should glorify God with your body and with your spirit, which are God's.

1Co 7:1 Now concerning the things which you wrote to me: It is good for a man to not touch a woman.

1Co 7:2 But because of fornication, let a man take his wife, and let a wife take her husband.

1Co 7:3 Let the husband render to his wife the love that is owed to her, and likewise also the wife to her husband.

1Co 7:4 The wife does not have authority over her body, but her husband does. And likewise the husband does not have authority over his body, but his wife does.

1Co 7:5 Therefore, do not deprive one another except when you both agree for a time that you devote to fasting and prayer; and then you will return to pleasure again lest Satan tempts you through the desire of your bodies.

1Co 7:6 But I say this as a concession, not as a commandment.

1Co 7:7 For I wish that all the children of men would be like myself in purity. But every person has their own gift from God, one in this way and another in that way.

1Co 7:8 But I say to those who are unmarried and to the widows: It is beneficial for them if they remain like I am;

1Co 7:9 but if they cannot endure it, let them marry. For it is better to marry than to burn with desire.

1Co 7:10 Now to those who are married, I command, yet not I but my Lord: A wife is not to depart from her husband.

1Co 7:11 But if she does depart, let her remain without a man or let her be reconciled to her husband. And a man is not to forsake his wife.²

1Co 7:12 But to the rest I, not my Lord, say: If there is a brother who has a wife who does not believe, and she is willing to live with him, do not let him leave her.

1Co 7:13 And if there is a woman who has a husband who does not believe, and he is willing to live with her, do not let her leave him.

1Co 7:14 For the unbelieving husband is sanctified by the wife who believes, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the husband who believes; otherwise their children would be defiled, but now they are pure.

1Co 7:15 But if the unbeliever separates, let him separate; a brother or a sister is not under bondage in such cases. God has called us to peace.

1Co 7:16 For how do you know, wife, if you will save your husband? Or how do you know, husband, if you will save your wife?

1Co 7:17 But as Lord Jah¹ has distributed to each one and however God has called each one, so let him walk. And I also command this in all the congregations.

1Co 7:18 If anyone was called while circumcised, do not let him turn to uncircumcision. And if he was called while uncircumcised, do not let him be circumcised.

1Co 7:19 For circumcision and also uncircumcision are nothing, but keeping the commandments of God matter.

1Co 7:20 Let every person continue in the calling in which he was called.

1Co 7:21 If you were called while a slave, do not let it concern you; however, if you can be set free, choose to serve for yourself.

1Co 7:22 For whoever is a slave when called in our Lord is God's free man. Likewise he who is a free man when called is the Messiah's slave.

1Co 7:23 You were bought at a price; you will not become slaves of men.

1Co 7:24 Brethren, let every person continue in that calling in which he was called with God.

1Co 7:25 Now about virginity: I have no commandment from God; yet I give advice as a man who God has favoured to become faithful.

1Co 7:26 I think that this² is good because of the present distress; that it is useful for a man that he should be so.

1Co 7:27 Are you bound to a wife? Do not seek a divorce. Are you divorced from a wife? Do not seek a wife.

1Co 7:28 And if you take a wife, you have not sinned; and if a virgin marries, she is not sinning. But they will have suffering in the flesh, which I would spare you.

1Co 7:29 And this I say, brethren, that now time is short, and for those who have wives it will be as if they had none,

1Co 7:30 and those who weep as if they did not weep, and those who rejoice as if they did not rejoice, and those who buy as if they did not possess,

1Co 7:31 and those who use this world as not misusing it. For the form of this world is passing away.

1Co 7:32 Therefore I want you to be without care. For he who has never had a wife thinks about what belongs to his Lord and how he may please his Lord.

1Co 7:33 But he who has a wife cares about the things of the world and how he may please his wife.

1Co 7:34 There is also a distinction between a wife and a virgin. She who has never been with a husband thinks about her Lord, that she may be holy in her body and in her spirit. But she who has a husband thinks of the world and how she may please her husband.

1Co 7:35 And I say this for your benefit, not that I may cast a noose onto you, but that you will be faithful to your Lord, performing beautifully and not distracted by the world.

1Co 7:36 But if any man thinks he is disgraced by his virgin, who is past her time, and he has not given her to a man; it is fitting to give her as he chooses to do; he does not sin; she may be married.

1Co 7:37 But he who has truly determined in his mind and is not pressured to please, but has power over his will, and so decides in his heart to keep his virgin does well.

1Co 7:38 Therefore, he who gives his virgin does well, and he who does not give his virgin does better.³

1Co 7:39 A wife is bound by the Instructions to her husband for as long as he lives; but if her husband falls asleep, she is free to marry whom she wishes, but only in our Lord.

² Paul is likely referring to virginity here.

³ Referring to a father deciding if his daughter should or should not be married.

1Co 7:40 But she is happier if she remains as she is, according to my thoughts; and I think that the Spirit of God is with me on this.

1Co 8:1 Now about sacrifices made to idols: We know that we all have knowledge, and knowledge puffs up, but love builds up.

1Co 8:2 And if anyone thinks that he knows anything, he knows nothing yet as it is necessary for him to know.

1Co 8:3 But if anyone loves God, this one is known by Him.¹

1Co 8:4 Therefore concerning food sacrificed to idols, we know that an idol is nothing in the world, and that there is no other God but the only One.

1Co 8:5 For even though there are what are called gods, whether in heaven or on earth, as there are many gods and many lords, 1Co 8:6 yet for us ours is one God, the Father, for everything is from Him, and we are in Him; and one Lord Jah—Jeshua the Messiah—for all is through Him, and we are also in His hand.

1Co 8:7 However, that knowledge is not in everyone; for there are some people who are conscious of the idol, and until now eat it as a thing offered to an idol; and because their conscience is weak, it is defiled.²

1Co 8:8 For food does not bring us to God; for if we eat, we gain nothing, and if we do not eat, we lose nothing.

1Co 8:9 But beware lest your strength becomes a stumbling block to the weak.

² Paul is not contradicting Acts 15:20, which absolutely condemns participating in sacrifices to idols. Paul is talking about eating the food after it has been offered to idols, and pointing out that the food itself is actually unchanged by the pagan's sacrifice. But he warns that even so, eating it would be dangerous for some brethren, who are drawn back into their old pagan beliefs.

1Co 8:10 For if a man sees you who have your knowledge reclining in a house with idols,³ behold, because his conscience is weak, he will be encouraged to eat those sacrifices.

1Co 8:11 And so he who is weak perishes because of your knowledge; he for whom the Anointed died.

1Co 8:12 For if you subvert your brethren like this, and tread on the conscience of the weak, you are sinning against the Anointed.

1Co 8:13 Therefore, if food brings down my brother, I will not eat meat into the ages, lest I bring sin to my brother.

1Co 9:1 Have I not been a son of freedom? Have I not been an apostle? Have I not seen our Lord Jeshua the Messiah? Have you not been my work in my Lord?

1Co 9:2 And if I was not an apostle to others, I am to you, and you are the seal of my apostleship.

1Co 9:3 This is the answer I give to those who judge me:

1Co 9:4 Why is it not legal for us to eat and drink?

1Co 9:5 And why is it not legal for a sister or wife to travel with us, as do the other apostles and the brothers of our Lord, and Cepha?

1Co 9:6 Or is it only Barnabas and I who have no authority, that we should not labour?

1Co 9:7 Who fights in a war at his own expense? Or who plants a vineyard and does not eat from its fruit? Or who herds sheep and does not drink from the milk of his flock?

1Co 9:8 Do I say these things as a son of man? Behold, the Instructions say these things also.

1Co 9:9 For it is written in the Instructions of Moses, "Do not muzzle an ox that treads..."¹ Is it only oxen that God is concerned about?

1Co 9:10 For it is understood that He said it for our sakes, and it was written for our sakes, because it is necessary that he who ploughs should plough in hope, and he who threshes should hope for a harvest.

1Co 9:11 If we have sown from the Spirit among you, is it a great thing if we reap from your body?²

1Co 9:12 And if others take this authority over you, is it not even more fitting for us? Nevertheless we have not used this authority, but we have endured all things lest we hinder the Good News of the Anointed in any way.

1Co 9:13 Do you not know that those who serve in the House of Sanctuary are provided for from the House of Sanctuary, and those who serve at the altar share with the altar?³

1Co 9:14 Likewise, our Lord commands that those who preach his Good News should live from his Good News.⁴

1Co 9:15 But I have not become accustomed to using one of these things, nor have I written this so these things should be done for me; for it would be better for me that I should die than that anyone should make my glory void.

1Co 9:16 Though I also preach the Good News; there is no pride in me, for the necessity is laid upon me; woe to me unless I preach the Good News!

1Co 9:17 For if I do this for my pleasure, I do it as my reward; but if it is without my pleasure, I have been entrusted with a stewardship.

1Co 9:18 Then what is my reward? That when I preach the Good News of the Anointed, I present it without charge, and I do not use the authority in the Good News that He gives to me.

1Co 9:19 For though I am free from all things to everyone, I have subjected myself to the many that I may gain;

1Co 9:20 and I am with Judeans as a Judean, that I may gain Judeans; and with those who are under the Instructions, I am like those who are under the Instructions, that I may gain those who are under the Instructions;

1Co 9:21 and with those who do not have the Instructions, I am like one without Law, though I am not without Law to God but within the Instructions of the Messiah, that I may also gain those who are without Instructions;

1Co 9:22 I am with the weak as a weak one, that I may gain the weak. I am everything to everyone, that I may offer life to everyone.

1Co 9:23 Now I have done this, that I may be a partaker of the Good News.

1Co 9:24 Do you not know that all of those who run in a stadium run, but one of them takes the prize? Also run like this so you may obtain it.

1Co 9:25 Now everyone who competes restrains himself in all things. Now they run to obtain a perishable crown, but we for one that is imperishable.

1Co 9:26 Therefore I run like this: it is not as if it is for something unknown. Thus I fight: not as he who fights the air.

1Co 9:27 But it is my body I discipline and I bring into subjection, lest I, who have preached to others, should become rejected myself.

1Co 10:1 Therefore, my brethren, I want you to know that all of our fathers were under the cloud, and all of them passed through the sea, 1Co 10:2 and all of them were immersed by Moses in the cloud and in the sea.

1Co 10:3 They all ate the one food of the Spirit,

1Co 10:4 and they all drank the one drink of the Spirit. For they drank of that Rock of the Spirit which was with them, and that Rock was the Messiah.¹

1Co 10:5 But God was not pleased with the majority of them, for they fell in the wilderness.²

1Co 10:6 Now these things are examples to us, that we should not lust for evil just as they lusted.

1Co 10:7 Nor should we serve idols as some of them also served. As it is written, "The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play."³

1Co 10:8 Nor should we fornicate, as some of them fornicated, and in one day twenty-three thousand of them fell;

1Co 10:9 nor should we tempt the Messiah, as some of them tempted, and serpents destroyed them;

1Co 10:10 nor should we complain, as some of them complained, and they were destroyed by the Destroyer.

1Co 10:11 Now all of these things happened to them for our example, and they were written for our warning, for the end of the age is coming upon us.

1Co 10:12 From now on, whoever thinks he stands, let him beware lest he fall.

1Co 10:13 No temptation has come to you except those of the children of man; but God is faithful, who will not allow you to be tempted beyond what you are able, but with the temptation will also make an escape, so you can endure it.

1Co 10:14 Because of this, my beloved, flee from serving idols.

1Co 10:15 I speak as to the wise; you judge what I say.

1Co 10:16 The cup of thanksgiving which we bless, is it not partaking in the fellowship of the blood of the Anointed? The bread which we break, is it not partaking in the fellowship of the body of the Anointed?⁴

1Co 10:17 Just as that bread is one, so are we all one body; for we all receive from that one bread.

1Co 10:18 Behold Israel in the flesh: Are not those who eat the sacrifices partakers of the altar?

1Co 10:19 Therefore, what am I saying? That an idol is anything, or that the sacrifice to an idol is anything? No!

1Co 10:20 But I say that the things which the gentiles sacrifice they sacrifice to demons and not to God,⁵ and I do not want you to have fellowship with demons.

1Co 10:21 You cannot drink the cup of our Lord and the cup of demons; you cannot partake of our Lord's table and of the table of demons.⁶

1Co 10:22 Or do we provoke our Lord to jealousy?⁷ Are we stronger than He?

1Co 10:23 All things are lawful for me, but all things are not helpful; all things are lawful for me, but all things do not edify.

1Co 10:24 Let no one seek his own, but each one the other's well-being.

1Co 10:25 Eat whatever is sold in the meat market, asking no questions for conscience' sake;

1Co 10:26 for "The earth is Jehovah's, and all its fullness."⁸

1Co 10:27 If any of those who do not believe invites you to dinner, and you desire to go, eat whatever is set before you, asking no question for conscience' sake.

1Co 10:28 But if anyone says to you, "This was offered to idols," do not eat it for the sake of the one who told you, and for conscience' sake; for "The earth is the Lord's, and all its fullness."

1Co 10:29 Conscience, I say, not your own, but that of the other. For why is my liberty judged by another man's conscience?

1Co 10:30 But if I partake with thanks, why am I blasphemed for the food for which I give thanks?

1Co 10:31 Therefore, whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God.

1Co 10:32 Give no offence, either to the Judeans or to the Aramaeans or to the congregation of God, 1Co 10:33 just as I also please all men in all things, not seeking my own profit, but the profit of many, that they may be saved.

1Co 11:1 Imitate me, just as I also imitate the Messiah.¹

1Co 11:2 I praise you, my brethren, that you remember me in all things and just as I delivered them to you, you are keeping the commandments.

1Co 11:3 But I want you to know that every man's Head is the Anointed, the head of woman is man,² and the Head of the Anointed is God.

1Co 11:4 Every man who prays or prophesies while his head is covered dishonours his Head.

1Co 11:5 And every woman praying or prophesying while her head is uncovered dishonours her head, for she is equal to her whose head is shaved.

1Co 11:6 So if a woman is not covered, let her also be shorn. But if it is a disgrace for a woman to be shorn or shaved, let her be covered.

1Co 11:7 For a man is not required to cover his head, since he is the image and glory of God; but the woman is the glory of man.³

1Co 11:8 For man is not from woman, but woman is from man.

1Co 11:9 Nor was man created for the woman, but woman for the man.⁴

1Co 11:10 Therefore the woman must have this authority over her head, because of the envoys.

1Co 11:11 However, man is not isolated from woman, nor woman isolated from man in our Lord.

1Co 11:12 For as woman was from man, even so man also is through woman; but everything is from God.

1Co 11:13 You judge among yourselves: Is it right for a woman to pray to God with her head uncovered?

1Co 11:14 Does not even nature teach you that when a man grows his hair long, it is a disgrace to him?

1Co 11:15 And when a woman grows her hair long, it is a glory to her; for her hair is given to her for a covering.

1Co 11:16 But if anyone disputes against these things, we have no other custom for this, nor do the congregations of God.

1Co 11:17 Now in these things that I command you, it is not as if I praise you, for you have not gathered together to your advantage, but you have descended into meanness.

1Co 11:18 For first of all, when you come together as a congregation, I hear that there is division among you, and some of these things I believe.

1Co 11:19 For there will also be contentions among you, that those who are approved among you may be known.

1Co 11:20 Therefore when you assemble, you do not eat and drink according to what is appropriate for the Day of our Lord.

1Co 11:21 But one eats his own supper by himself in front of a hungry one and another one is drunk.

1Co 11:22 What! Do you not have houses in which to eat and drink? Or do you despise the congregation of God and you shame those who have nothing for themselves? What will I say to you?

² Gen 3:16

³ Gen 1:27, Gen 5:1 & Gen 2:23

⁴ Gen 2:21-23

Shall I praise you in this? I do not praise.
1Co 11:23 For I received from our Lord that which I also handed down to you: that our Lord Jeshua on the night in which He was betrayed took bread;

1Co 11:24 and He blessed and broke it and He said, "Take, eat; this is My body which is broken for yourselves; you will do this for my memorial."

1Co 11:25 Likewise, after they had eaten, He also gave them the cup, and He said, "This cup is the New Covenant in my blood. Every time that you drink this cup, you will do it for my memorial."¹

1Co 11:26 For every time you eat this bread and drink this cup, it is our Lord's death you commemorate, until His Coming.

1Co 11:27 Therefore, whoever eats this bread of Lord Jah and drinks from His cup and is unworthy of it will be guilty of the blood of Lord Jah, and of His body.²

1Co 11:28 Because of this, let a person search their soul, and then let them eat of this bread and drink of this cup.

1Co 11:29 For whoever eats and drinks while unworthy eats and drinks condemnation to his soul for not discerning the body of Lord Jah.³

1Co 11:30 Because of this many are weak and sickly among you, and many sleep.

1Co 11:31 For if we would judge ourselves, we would not be judged.

1Co 11:32 But when we are judged to be chastened by our Lord, we are chastened lest we are condemned with the world.

1Co 11:33 From now on, my brethren, when you assemble to eat, you will wait for one another.

1Co 11:34 But whoever is hungry, let him eat in his house, lest you assemble for condemnation. But the rest I will instruct you on when I come.

1Co 12:1 Now concerning spiritual gifts, brethren, I want you to know

1Co 12:2 that you were pagans, and you were being led by these voiceless idols, and had no discrimination.

1Co 12:3 Because of this I want you to know that no one who is speaking by the Spirit of God can say that Jeshua is damned, and nor can a man be saying that Lord Jah⁴ is Jeshua except by the Holy Spirit alone.⁵

1Co 12:4 Now there are diversities of gifts, but there is One Spirit.

1Co 12:5 There are diversities of services, but there is one Lord Jah.⁶

1Co 12:6 And there are diversities of miracles, but there is One God who works them all in everyone.

1Co 12:7 But to each person the revelation of the Spirit is given as it helps him:

1Co 12:8 for a word of wisdom is given to him through the Spirit, but to another the word of knowledge through the Spirit in him,

1Co 12:9 to another faith by the Spirit in him, to another the gift of healing by the Spirit in him, 1Co 12:10 but to another miracles, then to another prophecy, then to another discerning of spirits, then to another different languages,⁷ then to another the interpretation of languages.

1Co 12:11 But that One Spirit does all of these, and distributes to every person as He wills.

1Co 12:12 In a similar way the body is one and there are many members in it, but we are all members of that body. We,⁸

⁴ As in the Peshitta.

⁵ Meaning no one can say Jeshua is Lord Jah with true conviction unless they have the Holy Spirit dwelling in them.

⁶ As in the Peshitta.

⁷ The Aramaic dleshane ܕܠܫܢܐ also means tongues, as the instruments used to speak the languages.

⁸ Literally "they", twice in this verse.

³ As in the Peshitta.

while being many, are thus also one body in the Anointed.

1Co 12:13 For by one Spirit we were all immersed into one body; whether Judeans or Aramaeans, whether servants or children of the free; and we have all been caused to drink the One Spirit.

1Co 12:14 For the body is not one member but many.

1Co 12:15 Now if the foot should say, "Because I am not a hand, I am not part of the body," is it therefore not part of the body?

1Co 12:16 And if the ear should come and say, "Because I am not an eye, I am not part of the body," is it therefore not part of the body?

1Co 12:17 If the entire body were an eye, where would the hearing be? And if it was all hearing, how would there be smelling?

1Co 12:18 But now God has set each member, every one of them, in the body just as He chooses.

1Co 12:19 And if they were all one member, where would the body be?

1Co 12:20 But now there are many members, yet one body.

1Co 12:21 The eye cannot say to the hand, "You are not necessary to me."; nor can the head say to the feet, "You are not necessary to me."

1Co 12:22 But to the contrary, those members which seem weak are more necessary.

1Co 12:23 And those members of the body which we think are shameful, to these we bestow greater honour; and those that are unpresentable we make greater coverings for them,

1Co 12:24 for those members that are not honoured, we need to honour them, for God united the body and He has given greater honour to the members which are small,

1Co 12:25 lest there be divisions in the body, so all of the members will care for one another equally.

1Co 12:26 Now when one member is suffering, all of them share the pain; and when one member rejoices, all of the members rejoice.

1Co 12:27 For you are the body of the Anointed, and members in your places.

1Co 12:28 And God has established in His congregation: first apostles, after them prophets, after them teachers, after them workers of miracles, after them gifts of healing, helpers, leaders, and various languages.

1Co 12:29 Are they all apostles? Are they all prophets? Are they all teachers? Are they all workers of miracles?

1Co 12:30 Do they all have gifts of healings? Do they all speak with languages? Do they all interpret?

1Co 12:31 But if you are zealous for greater gifts, I will show you a better way.

1Co 13:1 If I speak with every language of men and of envoys, but have no love in me, I am like clanging brass or a noisy cymbal.

1Co 13:2 And if there are prophecies given through me, and I understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have all faith in me, so that I can remove mountains, but have no love in me, I am nothing.

1Co 13:3 And if I give everything that I have to feed the poor, and if I give my body to be burned, but have no love in me, I will gain nothing.

1Co 13:4 Love is patient and its spirit is kind; love does not envy; love does not get upset and is not puffed up;

1Co 13:5 does not behave rudely, nor does it seek its own, nor is it provoked, nor does it consider evil.

1Co 13:6 Love does not rejoice in iniquity, but rejoices in the truth;

1Co 13:7 bears all things, believes all things, hopes and endures all things.

1Co 13:8 Love never fails. But prophecies will cease; and languages will be silenced; and knowledge will become nothing.

1Co 13:9 For we know a little of much and we prophesy a little of much.

1Co 13:10 But when perfection comes, then that little part will be as nothing.

1Co 13:11 When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I was led as a child, and I thought as a child; but when I became a man, I ceased these childish things.

1Co 13:12 For now it is like we see in a mirror, but then face to face. Now I know a little of much, but then I will know just as I am known.

1Co 13:13 And now continue in these three: faith, hope and love; but the greatest of these is love.

1Co 14:1 Pursue love, and be zealous for spiritual gifts, but especially that you may prophesy.

1Co 14:2 For he who speaks in languages does not speak to men but to God, for no person understands what he says; however, by the spirit he speaks mysteries.

1Co 14:3 But he who prophesies speaks edification and encouragement and comfort to men.

1Co 14:4 He who speaks in languages builds himself up, but he who prophesies builds up the congregation.

1Co 14:5 Now I wish that all of you may speak in languages, but even more that you may prophesy; for he who prophesies is greater than he who speaks in languages, unless he interprets, for if he interprets he builds up the congregation.

1Co 14:6 And now, my brethren, if I come to you and I speak to you in languages, how will I benefit you unless I speak to you either by revelation, by knowledge, by prophesying, or by teaching?

1Co 14:7 For even soulless things, like a flute or harp which make sounds, if they do not make a distinction between one tone and another, how will it be known what is played or what is harped?

1Co 14:8 And if the horn makes an indistinguishable sound, who will be prepared for battle?

1Co 14:9 So you also, if you say words in languages, and you are not interpreting, how will anything you say be understood? It will be as if you are speaking into the air.

1Co 14:10 Behold, there are many kinds of languages in the world, and there is not one of them without sound.

1Co 14:11 But if I do not know the meaning of the sounds, I am a foreigner to him who speaks, and he who speaks is a foreigner to me.

1Co 14:12 Even so, since you are also zealous for the gifts of the Spirit, seek to abound for the building up of the congregation.

1Co 14:13 So he who speaks in languages, let him pray that he interprets.

1Co 14:14 For if I pray in languages, my spirit prays, but my understanding is unfruitful.

1Co 14:15 Therefore, what will I do? I will pray with my spirit, and I will also pray with my understanding. I will sing with my spirit, and I will also sing with my understanding.

1Co 14:16 Otherwise, if you bless in the spirit, how will he who occupies the place of the unlearned say "Amen" for your giving of thanks, since he does not know what you said?

1Co 14:17 For you have blessed well, but your neighbour is not built up.

1Co 14:18 I thank God that I speak in languages more than all of you;

1Co 14:19 but in the congregation I would rather speak five words with my understanding, that I may teach others also, than ten thousand words in languages.

1Co 14:20 My brethren, do not be children in your understanding; however, to evil be infants, and in your understanding be fully mature.

1Co 14:21 In the Instructions it is written: ““With foreign speech and another language I will speak to this people; and in neither of these ways will they hear Me,” says Jehovah.’¹

1Co 14:22 Therefore languages are established for a sign, not for believers but for those who do not believe; but prophecy is not for unbelievers but for those who believe.

1Co 14:23 However, if it happens that the whole congregation assembles together, and they all speak in languages, and those who are uninformed or unbelievers come in, will they not say to themselves that they have gone insane?

1Co 14:24 But if all of you prophesy, and an uninformed person or an unbeliever comes in, they² are sought out by all, and they are reproved by all of you.

1Co 14:25 And the secrets of the heart are revealed; and then he will fall on his face, and he will worship God and say that God is truly in you.

1Co 14:26 Therefore I say to you, my brethren: Whenever you gather together, whoever among you has a psalm, let him speak; and whoever has a teaching, whoever has a revelation, whoever has a language, and whoever has an interpretation, let all these things be done to build you up.

1Co 14:27 And if anyone speaks in languages, let two speak and at the most three; let each one speak, and let one interpret.

1Co 14:28 But if there is no interpreter, let him be silent in the congregation, for he who speaks in languages speaks only to himself and to God.

1Co 14:29 And let two or three prophets speak, and let the others discern.

1Co 14:30 And if something is revealed to another who sits by, let the first be silent.

1Co 14:31 For you can all prophesy one by one, that every person may teach and every person may be comforted.

1Co 14:32 For the spirit of the prophet is subject to the prophet.

1Co 14:33 Because God is not a God of confusion but of peace, as it is in all the congregations of the saints.

1Co 14:34 Let your women be silent in the congregations, for they are not allowed to speak; but they are to be submissive, just as the Instructions also say.

1Co 14:35 And if they wish to learn something, let them ask their husbands in their home; for it is shameful for women to speak in the congregation.

1Co 14:36 Or did the Word of God come forth from you? Or did it only come to you?

1Co 14:37 If any one of you thinks that he is a prophet or he is of the Spirit, let him know that these things which I write to you are the commandments of our Lord.

1Co 14:38 But if anyone will not know, let him not know.

1Co 14:39 Therefore, my brethren, be zealous to prophesy, and do not forbid speaking in languages.

1Co 14:40 But let everything be done decently and with order.

1Co 15:1 Moreover, brethren, I teach to you the Good News which I preached to you, and you received it and you stand in it, 1Co 15:2 and by it you are saved, if you remember those words which I preached to you; unless it is that you believed unworthily.

1Co 15:3 For I delivered to you from the beginning all that which I received: that the Messiah died because of our sins, just as it is written,

1Co 15:4 and that He was buried, and that He rose in three days, as it is written,

1Co 15:5 and He appeared to Cepha, and

² Literally ‘he’.

after him to the twelve.¹

1Co 15:6 After that He appeared to over five hundred brethren at once, many of whom remain to the present, though some of them have fallen asleep.²

1Co 15:7 After that He appeared to Jacob, and after him to all of the apostles.³

1Co 15:8 Then, the last of them all, He appeared to me also, as if to a premature baby.

1Co 15:9 For I am the least of the apostles, and I am not worthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the congregations of God.

1Co 15:10 But by the grace of God I am what I am, and His grace within me has not been worthless; for I have laboured more than all of them, yet not I, but His grace which was with me.

1Co 15:11 Therefore, if it was I or if it was them, so we preach and so you believed.

1Co 15:12 Now if it is preached that Messiah has been raised from the house of the dead, how can there be some among you who say that there is no life for the dead?⁴

1Co 15:13 For if there is no Life for the dead, then not even the Anointed is risen.

1Co 15:14 And if the Anointed is not risen, then our preaching is worthless and your faith is also worthless.

1Co 15:15 And we are also found false witnesses of God, for we have testified about God that He raised up the Anointed, when He did not raise Him up.

1Co 15:16 For if those who have died do not live again, then not even the Anointed lives.

1Co 15:17 And if the Anointed is not alive, your faith is empty and you are still in your sins!

1Co 15:18 And certainly those who sleep in the Anointed have also perished.

1Co 15:19 So if it is only in this life that we hope in the Anointed, then we are more wretched than all the children of men.

1Co 15:20 But now the Anointed is risen from the house of the dead, and is the First-fruit of those who sleep.

1Co 15:21 For since by a man came death, also in this way by a man came life for the dead.

1Co 15:22 For just as by Adam all the children of men die, also in this way by the Anointed all of them will live.⁵

1Co 15:23 But each person in his order: the First-fruit was the Messiah,⁶ afterwards those who are the Messiah's at His Coming.⁷

1Co 15:24 Then comes the end, when He delivers the Kingdom to God the Father, when He destroys every ruler and every authority and all powers.

1Co 15:25 For He is going to reign until all of His enemies have been set under His feet.⁸

1Co 15:26 The last enemy that will be destroyed is death.

1Co 15:27 For He will bring all into submission under His feet.⁹ But when it says "all things are subjected to Him," it is understood that this excepts His Father¹⁰ who subjected all to Him.¹¹

1Co 15:29 Otherwise, what will those do who are immersed on behalf of the dead, if the dead do not live again? Why are they immersed on behalf of the dead?²

1Co 15:30 And why do we live in peril every hour?

1Co 15:31 I swear, by your boasting for me, my brethren, in our Anointed Lord Jeshua, that I die every day.

1Co 15:32 If, as a citizen of the people, I was thrown to wild beasts at Ephesus, what have I gained if the dead do not rise? "Let us eat and let us drink, for tomorrow we die."³

1Co 15:33 Do not be deceived. Evil talk corrupts good minds.

1Co 15:34 Awake your hearts to righteousness, and do not sin; for some do not have the knowledge of God in them. I speak this to your shame.

1Co 15:35 But one of you will say, "How are the dead raised? And in what body do they come?"

1Co 15:36 Fools! If the seed you sow does not die, it will not live.

1Co 15:37 And that thing you sow is not that body that it will become, but you sow a naked grain of wheat or of barley or some other grain.

1Co 15:38 But God gives it a body just as He pleases, and to each one of the grains a body for its nature.

1Co 15:39 But every body is not equal to another, for there is the body of a son of man, and another of beasts, and another of birds, and another of fish.⁴

1Co 15:40 There are also heavenly bodies and there are earthly bodies; but there is one glory of the heavenly, and another of the earthly.

1Co 15:41 And there is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of a star; and one star is greater than another star in glory.

1Co 15:42 So also is life for those who die. They are sown in corruption, they are raised without corruption.

1Co 15:43 They are sown in dishonour, they are raised with glory. They are sown in weakness, they are raised in power.

1Co 15:44 They are sown as the physical body, it is raised as the spiritual body. For there is a physical body, and there is a spiritual body.

1Co 15:45 And so it is written, "The first man Adam was a living soul."⁵ And the last Adam is the life-giving Spirit.

1Co 15:46 But the spiritual was not first, but the physical, and then the spiritual.

1Co 15:47 The first man was from the dust of the earth;⁶ the second Man is Lord Jah⁷ from heaven.

1Co 15:48 So just as he was a being from dust, so also are those of dust; and just as He is a being from heaven, so also are the heavenly.

1Co 15:49 And as we have worn the image of him from the dust, thus we will also wear the image of Him from heaven.

1Co 15:50 Now this I say, my brethren, flesh and blood are not able to inherit the Kingdom of Heaven; nor can corruption inherit indestructibility.

1Co 15:51 Behold, I tell you a mystery: Not all of us will sleep, but we will all be transformed;

1Co 15:52 suddenly, like the blink of an eye, at the last trumpet. For it will sound, and the dead will rise without corruption, and we will all be transformed.

1Co 15:53 For this destructible is going to wear indestructibility, and that which dies will wear immortality.

1Co 15:54 And when this destructible puts on indestructibility, and that which dies, immortality, then these written words will come to pass: "Death is swallowed by victory."¹

1Co 15:55 Death, where is your sting? O Sheol, where is your victory?²

1Co 15:56 For the sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the Instructions.

1Co 15:57 But thank God, who gives us the victory through our Anointed Lord Jeshua.

1Co 15:58 Therefore, my beloved brethren, be steadfast and do not be shaken, but always be abounding in every work of Lord Jah, for you know that your labour in the Lord Jah³ is not worthless.

1Co 16:1 Now concerning the collection for the saints, as I have commanded the congregations of Galatia, so you must do also:

1Co 16:2 On every first day of the week let each one of you lay something aside in his house,⁴ storing up what comes to his hand, that there be no collections when I come.

1Co 16:3 And when I come, I will send whoever you select to carry your gift to Jerusalem with a letter.

1Co 16:4 But if it is appropriate when I visit, when I depart, they can depart with me.

1Co 16:5 Now I will come to you when I have passed through Macedonia, for I will pass near the city.

1Co 16:6 And perhaps I will remain with you, or even stay the winter with you, that you may accompany me to where I go.

1Co 16:7 For I do not wish to see you now as I am on the way; for I hope to stay some time with you, if my Lord permits me.

1Co 16:8 But I will remain in Ephesus until Pentecost, 1Co 16:9 for a great gate has opened to me that is filled with opportunities and many adversaries.

1Co 16:10 Now if Timothy comes to you, see that he can be with you without fear; for he cultivates the works of Lord Jah,⁵ as I do.

1Co 16:11 Therefore, let no one despise him. But accompany him in peace, that he may come to join me; for I am waiting for him with the brethren.

1Co 16:12 Now about Apollo, my brethren; I have greatly desired him to come to you with the brethren, but he clearly did not desire to come to you then; but when he has time he will come to you.

1Co 16:13 Be alert and stand in the faith, be brave, be strong.

1Co 16:14 And let all that you do be done with love.

1Co 16:15 I ask you, my brethren; concerning the household of Estephana, for you know they are the first-fruit of Achaia, and they placed themselves into the service of the saints;

1Co 16:16 that you will listen to such as them, and to everyone who labours with us and helps.

1Co 16:17 For I rejoiced in the arrival of Estephana, Fortunatus, and Achaicus, for they supplied to me the things you lacked.

1Co 16:18 For they have refreshed my spirit and yours; therefore you should acknowledge such as these.

Second Corinthians

2Co 1:1 Paul, the apostle of Jeshua the Anointed by the will of God, and Timothy our brother: To the congregation of God which is at Corinth, and to all the saints who are in all Achaia:

2Co 1:2 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and from our Lord Jeshua the Messiah.

2Co 1:3 Blessed is God, the Father of our Anointed Lord Jeshua, the Father of mercy and the God of every comfort, 2Co 1:4 who comforts us in all our afflictions, that we can comfort those who also have all our afflictions, with the comfort by which we are comforted by God.

2Co 1:5 For just as the sufferings of the Anointed abound in us, so our comfort also abounds through the Anointed.

2Co 1:6 Now if we are afflicted, it is for your consolation and for your salvation. And if we are comforted, it is for your consolation and that you may be diligent in enduring the same sufferings which we also suffer.

2Co 1:7 And our hope for you is certain, because we know that if you are partners in the suffering, you will also be partners in the consolation.

2Co 1:8 For we want you to know, brethren, about the afflictions which came to us in Asia: that we were greatly afflicted, beyond our power, until our lives were about to perish.

2Co 1:9 We had the sentence of death passed on us, that we should not trust in ourselves but in God who raises the dead.

2Co 1:10 He delivered us from a violent death, and we hope that He will deliver us again.

2Co 1:11 Through the help of your prayers for us, it may be that His gift to us is a favour done for the sake of the many and for the many who may confess Him because of us.

2Co 1:12 For our boast is this: the witness of our conscience is that we have worked in the world in generosity, purity and in the Grace of God, not with fleshly wisdom but by the grace of God, and even more towards you and yours.

2Co 1:13 For we are not writing any other things to you except what you know and also acknowledge. Now I trust you will acknowledge this, even to the end, 2Co 1:14 just as you have also acknowledged a little from much, that we are your boast as you also are ours, in the Day of our Anointed Lord Jeshua.

2Co 1:15 And in this confidence I was willing to come to you earlier, that you might receive double the grace;

2Co 1:16 and I will pass by you on the way to Macedonia, and I will come to you again returning from Macedonia, and you can accompany me to Judea.

2Co 1:17 Therefore, when I proposed this, did I propose it as a momentary thought? Or did I perhaps plan these things according to the flesh, so it would be necessary for there to be Yes, Yes, and No, No?

2Co 1:18 God is trustworthy, so our word to you was not Yes and No.

2Co 1:19 For the Son of God, Jeshua the Anointed, who was preached to you by me, Silvanus, and Timothy; was not Yes and No, but was Yes in Him.

2Co 1:20 For all of the promises of God in Him, that is in the Anointed, are Yes. Because of this, we give the Amen by Him, to the glory of God.

2Co 1:21 For God is establishing us with you in the Anointed, and He has anointed us, 2Co 1:22 and He has sealed us and He has given us of His Spirit in our hearts as the pledge.

2Co 1:23 Now I testify to God and from my soul, that because I pitied you I did not come to Corinth.

2Co 1:24 It was not because we are lords over your faith, for we are helpers for your joy; for it is by faith you stand.

2Co 2:1 But I determined this within myself, that I would not come to you in sorrow again.

2Co 2:2 For if I sadden you, then who will gladden me but the one whom I have made sad?

2Co 2:3 And this is what I wrote to you, lest, when I came, I would be saddened by those who should have gladdened me, for I have trust that in all of you, my joy is for all of you.

2Co 2:4 From much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote these things to you, with many tears, not that you would grieve, but that you might know the abundant love which I have for you.

2Co 2:5 But if someone causes grief to me, he has not grieved me, but all of you in some way; lest the message weigh upon you.

2Co 2:6 This rebuke from the majority is sufficient for him,

2Co 2:7 so now, on the contrary, it is necessary to forgive and comfort him, lest such a one as he is swallowed up with excessive grief.

2Co 2:8 Therefore I urge you to confirm your love to him.

2Co 2:9 Because of this I also wrote, to know by a test, whether you are obedient in everything.

2Co 2:10 Now the one whom you forgive, I also forgive, for anything I have forgiven him, I have forgiven it for your sakes in the presence of our Anointed, 2Co 2:11 lest Satan should take advantage of us; for we know his devices.

2Co 2:12 But when I came to Troas with the Anointed's Good News, and a door was opened to me by Lord Jah,¹ 2Co 2:13 I had no rest in my spirit, because I did not find my brother Titus; so I left them and I went to Macedonia alone.

2Co 2:14 Now thanks be to God who always makes a vision for us in the Anointed, and through us reveals the fragrance of His knowledge in every place.

2Co 2:15 For we are the sweet fragrance of the Messiah to God among those who are being saved and among those who are perishing.

2Co 2:16 To the one we are the smell of death for death, and to the other the aroma of the Life for life. And who will be worthy for these things?

2Co 2:17 For we are not like the others who dilute the Words of God; but that which is the Truth according to what is from God, we speak before God in the Anointed.

2Co 3:1 Do we begin again from the beginning to show you what we are? Or do we need, as others do, that letters of commandments be written to you or that you should write commands about us?

2Co 3:2 For you are our letter, written in our hearts, and known and read by everyone;

2Co 3:3 and you know that you are the Anointed's letter, which is served by us, written not with ink but by the Spirit of the living God, not on tablets of stone but on tablets of the heart of flesh.²

2Co 3:4 And in this way our trust is through the Anointed to God.

2Co 3:5 We do not think we are sufficient in ourselves in anything, as our power is from God.

2Co 3:6 He made us worthy to be servants of the New Covenant, not by the Writings but by the Spirit; for the Writing kills, but the Spirit gives life.

2Co 3:7 But if the service of death, written and carved in stone, was glorious, so that the children of Israel were not able to gaze at Moses' face because of the glory of his face in that which is passing away,

2Co 3:8 therefore how will the service of

² Eze 11:19, Eze 36:26

the Spirit not be greater in glory?

2Co 3:9 For if the service of condemnation had one glory, how much more will the service of righteousness exceed it in glory?

2Co 3:10 For what was glorified was not even glorious in comparison to the excellent glory of this.

2Co 3:11 For if what is passing away has had its glory, that which remains is so much more glorious.

2Co 3:12 Therefore, because we have this hope, we all the more conduct ourselves with boldness;

2Co 3:13 and not like Moses, who put a veil over his face so that the children of Israel could not gaze at the end of what was passing away.

2Co 3:14 But their understanding was blinded. For until this day, whenever the Old Covenant is read, that veil remains over them, and it is not revealed to them that it is being abolished by the Messiah.

2Co 3:15 And even today, whenever Moses is read, the veil lies over their heart.

2Co 3:16 But whenever anyone turns to Jehovah, the veil is taken away from him.¹

2Co 3:17 Now Jehovah is the Spirit; and there is freedom wherever Jehovah's Spirit is.²

2Co 3:18 But we, all of us with unveiled faces, see as in a mirror the glory of Lord Jah, and we are being changed into that image from glory to glory, by the Spirit of Lord Jah.³

¹ This veil symbolises how humans had been separated from God. It began opening when Jeshua died. (Mat 27:51) This access to Jehovah was given to Christ's disciples from then onwards, and it will be given to all people when He returns as King of Kings (Isa 25:1-12). Jehovah as in Exo 34:33-35, Lord Jah (MarJah) in the Peshitta.

² As in Isa 61:1-2, Lord Jah (MarJah) in the Peshitta.

³ As in the Peshitta.

2Co 4:1 Because of this, this service which we hold is not tiresome to us, as mercy has come upon us.

2Co 4:2 But we reject shameful secrets and we do not walk in craftiness and we do not deny the word of God, but by revealing the truth we show our souls and minds to all the children of men before God.

2Co 4:3 But if our Good News is hidden, it is hidden to those who are lost, 2Co 4:4 those whose intellects the god of this world has blinded because they do not believe, lest the light of the Good News of the glory of Messiah, who is the image of God, should dawn on them.

2Co 4:5 For we do not preach ourselves, but the Messiah, Jeshua our Lord, and we are your servants for Jeshua's sake.

2Co 4:6 For it is God who said that from the darkness the Light will shine. He has dawned in our hearts so we would be enlightened with the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jeshua the Anointed.⁴

2Co 4:7 But this treasure in us is in earthen vessels, that the greatness of the power will be from God and not from us.

2Co 4:8 For in all things we are hard pressed, yet not strangled; we are harassed, but we are not condemned;

2Co 4:9 we are persecuted, but we are not forsaken; we are struck down, but we are not defeated;

2Co 4:10 all the time we bear the dying of Jeshua in our bodies, that the life of Jeshua may also be revealed in our bodies.

2Co 4:11 For if we, the living, are delivered to death for Jeshua's sake, in this way also the life of Jeshua will be revealed in our mortal bodies.

2Co 4:12 Now death labours in us and life in you.

2Co 4:13 Therefore, as we all have that one spirit of faith in us, as it is written, "I believed and because of this I spoke,”¹ we also believe and because of this we speak.

⁴ Gen 1:3-5, Isa 42:6-16

2Co 4:14 And we know that He who raised our Lord Jeshua will also raise us by Jeshua, and will bring us to Him with you.

2Co 4:15 For everything is for your sakes, and when grace abounds through many, thanksgiving will abound to the glory of God.

2Co 4:16 Because of this, it is not tiresome to us, even if our external being is being destroyed. Conversely, we are being renewed from within day by day.

2Co 4:17 For though the suffering of this time is very small and fleeting, it prepares us for great glory without limits, for ever and ever.

2Co 4:18 For we do not rejoice in these things which are seen, but in these things which are not seen. For the things seen are for this time, but the things which are not seen are those that are eternal.

2Co 5:1 For we know that if our house on earth, this body, is destroyed, there is a building from God for us, a house made without the work of hands, in Heaven forever.

2Co 5:2 And concerning this we are made to groan, and we long to wear our house which is from heaven, 2Co 5:3 for now, though we are clothed, we seem to be naked to us.

2Co 5:4 For while we are now in this house we are made to groan from its weight; not because we want it to be stripped, but that we want to cover over it, that its mortality may be swallowed up by Life.

2Co 5:5 And He who prepares us for this is God, who gives us the pledge guarantee of His Spirit.

2Co 5:6 Therefore, because we know and are convinced that as long as we dwell in the body we are living away from our home with our Lord, 2Co 5:7 for we walk by faith, and not by sight.

2Co 5:8 Because of this, we trust; and we long to depart from the body and to be with our Lord.

2Co 5:9 We are diligent, whether we are away from home or an immigrant, that we may be pleasing to Him.

2Co 5:10 For we are all going to stand before the throne of the Anointed, that each one will be paid by Him for the things done in his body, whether good or evil.

2Co 5:11 Therefore, because we know how awesome our Lord is, we persuade the children of men; but we are well known to God, and I hope that we are well known in your understanding.

2Co 5:12 For we do not praise ourselves to you again, but it is an opportunity for us to give to you, that you may boast about us before those who boast in appearances and not in the heart.

2Co 5:13 For if we are crazy,² it is for God; and if we are normal, it is for you.

2Co 5:14 For the Anointed's love compels us to reason thus: That One died as a substitute for every person; therefore every person died with Him;

2Co 5:15 and because He died as a substitute for every person, so those who live should not live for themselves, but for the One who died for them and rose again.

2Co 5:16 Therefore, from now on, we do not know anyone by their body. And though we knew the Anointed in the body, now we do not know Him so.

2Co 5:17 Therefore, all who are in the Anointed are a new creation; with this the old things have passed away,

2Co 5:18 and everything from God has become new. He has reconciled us to Himself through the Messiah, and He has given us the service of reconciliation,

2Co 5:19 for it was God, who in the

Messiah reconciled the world to Himself in His majesty, not counting their sins against them, and has committed to us the word of reconciliation.

2Co 5:20 Therefore we are ambassadors on behalf of the Anointed, as though He who is God invited you through us. Therefore we implore you on the Anointed's behalf; be reconciled to God.

2Co 5:21 For He who had not known sin made Himself as sin in your place, that through Him we would become the righteousness of God.

2Co 6:1 We beg of you, as your helpers, that the grace of God will not become worthless in you.

2Co 6:2 For He said: "In an acceptable time I have answered you, and in the day of salvation I have helped you."¹ Behold, now is the acceptable time; behold, now is the day of salvation.

2Co 6:3 Why would you give a person an occasion for stumbling in anything, for it will be a defect in our service?

2Co 6:4 But in everything we show ourselves as servants of God: by much patience, by sufferings, by distresses, by imprisonments,

2Co 6:5 in scourgings, in chains, in tumults, in labours, in vigils, in fasts;

2Co 6:6 by purity, by knowledge, by endurance of spirit, by kindness, by the Holy Spirit, by love without deceit,

2Co 6:7 by the message of truth, by the power of God, by the armour of righteousness that is on the right and on the left,

2Co 6:8 by glory and by disgrace, by praise and by reproach; as if deceivers and yet true;

2Co 6:9 as if unknown and yet we are known; as if we are dying and behold we live. We are as if we are punished, and yet we are not dying;

2Co 6:10 as if we are in sorrow and yet we always rejoice; as if poor and yet we make many rich; as if we have nothing and yet we possess everything.

2Co 6:11 We have spoken openly to you, Corinthians, and our heart is enlarged.

2Co 6:12 You are not restricted by us, but you are restricted in your affections.

2Co 6:13 For I say, as to children; render my remuneration to me, which you have, and enlarge your love towards me.

2Co 6:14 You should not be like children yoked together with unbelievers. For what partnership has righteousness with iniquity? And what intimacy does light have with darkness?

2Co 6:15 And what harmony does the Anointed have with Satan? Or what part does a believer have with an unbeliever?

2Co 6:16 And what agreement does the Palace of God have with demons? For you are the Palace of the Living God. *It is just as it is said: "I will dwell in them and I will walk in them. I will be their God, and they will be My people."*²

2Co 6:17 Therefore "Come out from among them and be separate from them, says Jehovah. You will not touch what is unclean, and I will receive you."³

2Co 6:18 And "I will be a Father to you, and you will be My sons and daughters, says the Lord Jah who holds everyone."⁴

2Co 7:1 Therefore, as we have these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all the uncleanness of the flesh and the spirit, and let us cultivate holiness in the fear of God.

2Co 7:2 Bear with us, brethren. We have not done iniquity to anyone, we have not corrupted anyone, we have not cheated anyone.

2Co 7:3 I do not say this to condemn you; for I have said before that you are in our hearts, to die and to live as one.

2Co 7:4 Great is my boldness toward you, and I am full of pride in you, with comfort and abounding richness I am joyful in all my afflictions.

2Co 7:5 But when we came to Macedonia, our body had no relief at all, for we were troubled in everything. Outside were conflicts and inside were fears.

2Co 7:6 Nevertheless God, who comforts the humble, comforted us with the coming of Titus, 2Co 7:7 and not only with his coming, but also with his consolation with which he was comforted by you, for he proclaimed to us your love for us, and your mourning, and your zeal for our sake, and when I heard it, my joy was great.

2Co 7:8 For although I grieved you with a letter, I do not regret it myself; though I was sorry. For I saw that the same letter made you grieve, though only for a while.

2Co 7:9 But it gave me great joy, not because you grieved, but because your grief brought you to repentance. For you grieved in a godly manner, so you were not harmed by us in anything.

2Co 7:10 For grief because of God produces regrets of the soul which will not be reversed and repentance onto salvation; but the grief of the world produces death.

2Co 7:11 For behold! This happened so you sorrowed because of God. How much more diligence have I produced in you, and apology, anger, fear, love, zeal and vengeance! And in all these things you proved yourselves to be pure in this matter.

2Co 7:12 For what I wrote to you, I did not do it for him who had been wronged, nor for him who did the wrong, but so that your diligence for us would be known before God.

2Co 7:13 Therefore we are comforted, and in our comfort we rejoice greatly in the joy of Titus, whose spirit has been refreshed by all of you.

2Co 7:14 For I am not ashamed of everything I have boasted about you to him. But as everything we spoke to you is the truth, even our boasting to Titus was found to be true.

2Co 7:15 And his affections have greatly increased for you as he remembers the obedience of you all, and how you received him with fear and trembling.

2Co 7:16 I rejoice that I trust in you in everything.

2Co 8:1 Moreover, brethren, we make known to you the grace of God that is given to the congregations of Macedonia; 2Co 8:2 that in their many trials and afflictions there was abundance in their joy and their deep poverty abounded with the wealth of their generosity.

2Co 8:3 For I bear witness that according to their power, and beyond their power, their souls were willing;

2Co 8:4 they sought us and implored strongly that they could share in the grace of the service to the saints.

2Co 8:5 And when we were not as we had hoped, they gave themselves to our Lord first, and also to us in the will of God.

2Co 8:6 So we requested from Titus, that as he had begun, so he would also complete this grace in you.

2Co 8:7 But as you abound in everything; in faith, and in the word, and in knowledge, and in all diligence, and in our love for you; in this way you will also abound in this grace.

2Co 8:8 I am not commanding obedience from you, but through the diligence of your companions I am testing the truth of your love.

2Co 8:9 For you know the grace of our Anointed Lord Jeshua, who for your sakes became poor when He was rich, that you by His poverty would become rich.

2Co 8:10 And I give this advice to you to help you, because what you proposed last year, do not only begin but also do;

2Co 8:11 for now you must finish the works that you wanted to do; so in your eagerness and desire, you may complete the works that you have.

2Co 8:12 For if there is willingness according to what he has, so it is accepted. It is not according to what he does not have.

2Co 8:13 For it does not mean that others should be relieved and you burdened;

2Co 8:14 but all be together; that at this time your abundance may supply their lack, and also that their abundance may supply your lack; that there must be equality.

2Co 8:15 As it is written, "He who gathered much had no surplus, and he who gathered little was not deprived."¹

2Co 8:16 But thanks be to God who gave this concern for you to the heart of Titus.

2Co 8:17 For he accepted our request, and because he was greatly concerned, his desire was to go out among you.

2Co 8:18 And we sent our brother with him, whose praise is in the Good News in all the congregations,

2Co 8:19 and not only that, he was also chosen by the congregations to go with us in grace, serving with us to the glory of his God and for our encouragement,

2Co 8:20 but in all this we fear that someone may claim we are flawed in this lavish gift which we administer;

2Co 8:21 though we take care of what is right, not only before God, but also before men.

2Co 8:22 And we also sent with them our brother, who we have always found to be diligent in many things, but now even more diligent, because of the trust of many for you.

2Co 8:23 Therefore, if Titus is my partner and helper among you, and if our brethren are other apostles of the congregations of the glory of the Anointed,

2Co 8:24 then the demonstration of your love and our pride in you among them will show before all the congregations.

2Co 9:1 Now concerning serving the saints, it is superfluous if I write to you;

2Co 9:2 for I know the willingness of your minds, and because of this I boasted of you to the Macedonians, that Achaia was ready a year ago; and your zeal has stirred up many.

2Co 9:3 Yet I sent the brethren, lest our boasting, which we boasted about you, would be empty in this matter, that as I said, you will be ready;

2Co 9:4 lest some Macedonians come with me and find that you are not prepared, and we would be ashamed for what we said, and you would be shamed by this boast in which we boasted.

2Co 9:5 Therefore I have been careful to ask my brethren to come to you beforehand, and to prepare the blessing which had been previously promised, that it would be prepared as a blessing and not as if it came from greed.

2Co 9:6 But recall this: He who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and he who sows bountifully will also reap bountifully.²

2Co 9:7 So let each one give as he purposes in his mind, not with sorrow or from compulsion; for God loves a joyful giver.³

2Co 9:8 And every favour comes from the hand of God to increase you, that you will always have sufficient in all you do, and you will have abundance in every good work.

2Co 9:9 As it is written: "He has dispersed abroad, He has given to the poor; and His righteousness stands forever."⁴

2Co 9:10 Now He who gives seed to the sower and bread for food, He will give and multiply your seed and increase the fruits of your righteousness,

2Co 9:11 that in all things you may be enriched in everything with all the rights of an heir in that which perfects thanksgiving to God by us.

2Co 9:12 For the labour of this service not only supplies the needs of the saints, but also abounds greatly in thanksgiving to God,

2Co 9:13 for they glorify God through experiencing this service when you gave your confession to the Good News of the Anointed, and you became partners in your inheritance with them and every person, 2Co 9:14 and they bring many prayers for you with love, because of the abundant grace of God that is upon you.

2Co 9:15 Thanks be to God for His indescribable gift!

2Co 10:1 Now I, Paul, beg you by the serenity and gentleness of the Anointed, when our faces are among your faces I am gentle with you, but when I am absent I am bold toward you.

2Co 10:2 But I beg of you that when I come, it will not be necessary for me to proceed with boldness when I give counsel against those persons who assess us as if we walk in the flesh.

2Co 10:3 For even if we are walking in the flesh, is it not so we can battle with the flesh?

2Co 10:4 For the weapons of our warfare are not of the flesh but of the power of God, and by them we subdue rebellious strongholds,

2Co 10:5 and we cast down arguments and every high thing that is exalted against the knowledge of God, and we take all thoughts as prisoners for obedience to the Messiah,¹

2Co 10:6 and we are ready to institute the punishment of those who do not obey when your obedience is fulfilled.²

² Such punishment will only come from us

2Co 10:7 How do you look at people? If anyone is convinced within himself that he is the Messiah's, let him know from his soul that he is. We are also the Anointed's in this way.

2Co 10:8 For if there were anything more I could boast about the authority our Lord gives to me, I am not ashamed, for He gave it to us for your edification and not for your destruction;

2Co 10:9 But I avoid it, lest it be supposed that I intend to terrify you with my letter.

2Co 10:10 For there are people who say, "The letters are weighty and powerful, but his bodily presence is weak, and his speech contemptible."

2Co 10:11 Let him who speaks like that consider this; that what we are in the messages in our letters when we are absent, we will also be like that in deeds when we are present.

2Co 10:12 Though we dare not value or compare ourselves with those who commend themselves, those who compare themselves among themselves are not wise.

2Co 10:13 For we do not boast beyond our measure, except within the limited measure that God appointed us to, which reaches out to include you.

2Co 10:14 For it is not as if we just joined ourselves to you when we arrived, for we came this far with the Good News of the Anointed for you.

2Co 10:15 We do not boast beyond our measure, that is, in the labour of others, but our hope is that as your faith increases, we will be magnified by you and our measure will abound, 2Co 10:16 to go beyond you also to preach the Good News, not to boast by the measures of others, but we will boast in whoever we have won.

2Co 10:17 But "He who glories, let him glory in Jehovah.”¹

2Co 10:18 For it is not he who praises himself who is approved, but he whom Lord Jah² praises.

2Co 11:1 Oh, that you would be a little patient with me, while I speak foolishly; and you are patient with me.

2Co 11:2 For I am jealous for you with the jealousy of God. For I have betrothed you to one Man, a pure virgin to present to the Messiah.

2Co 11:3 But I fear, lest as the serpent seduced Chavvah³ by his craftiness, so your minds may be corrupted from the integrity that is in the Anointed.⁴

2Co 11:4 For if he who comes to you preaches another Jeshua whom we have not preached, or you receive another spirit which you had not received, or another Good News which you had not accepted, you may well be persuaded.

2Co 11:5 Though I think that I have not come short in anything of those apostles who ‘greatly excel’.

2Co 11:6 For even if I am simple in my speech, yet I am not in my knowledge. But we have been revealed to you in all things.

2Co 11:7 Or have I offended against you when I humbled myself that you might be exalted, and when I preached the Good News of God to you without charge?

2Co 11:8 For I robbed other congregations when I took expenses for your service.

2Co 11:9 And when I came among you, and I was in need, I was not a burden upon any of you, for the brethren came from Macedonia and they satisfied my needs. And in everything I kept myself and I will keep myself from being a burden upon you.

2Co 11:10 As the truth of Messiah is in me, my boasting about this region of Achaia will not fail.

2Co 11:11 Why? Because I do not love you? God Himself knows!

2Co 11:12 For what I do, I will also continue to do; to cut off the accusations of those who seek a pretext to be regarded like us in the things of which they boast.

2Co 11:13 But they are false apostles and treacherous workers, and they portray themselves as apostles of the Anointed.

2Co 11:14 And do not wonder at this! For if he who is Satan can imitate an envoy of light, 2Co 11:15 it is no great thing if his servants also imitate servants of righteousness, and their end will be according to their works.

2Co 11:16 Now I say again, no one should think of me as if I am a fool. And if not, even receive me as a fool, that I also may boast a little.

2Co 11:17 What I speak now, I do not speak by our Lord, but as in folly, on this occasion of boasting.

2Co 11:18 Because many boast according to the flesh, I also will boast.

2Co 11:19 Are you the people who listen to those lacking intelligence, while you are wise?

2Co 11:20 And do you submit to the one who brings you into bondage to himself, who embezzles from you, who takes from you, who exalts himself over you, and who strikes you on the face?

2Co 11:21 I speak as one held in dishonour; it is as if we are poor because we lack intelligence. But I say that in everything a man presumes, I presume also.

2Co 11:22 If they are Hebrews, so am I. If they are Israelites, so am I. If they are the seed of Abraham, so am I.

2Co 11:23 If they are servants of the Anointed, I say, lacking intelligence, that I am greater than them, for I am in labours more than them, with wounds more than them, in chains more than them, in death many times.

2Co 11:24 And I have been whipped five times by the Judeans; I received forty stripes minus one each time.

2Co 11:25 Three times I was beaten with branches; once I was stoned; three times I was shipwrecked; I have been in the sea for a day and a night without a ship;

2Co 11:26 on many journeys, in dangerous rivers, in danger from robbers, in danger from my countrymen, in danger from the gentiles, I was in danger in the city, I was in danger in the wilderness, in danger in the sea, in danger from false brethren;

2Co 11:27 in toil and weariness, in many vigils, in hunger and in thirst, in many fasts, in cold and in nakedness;

2Co 11:28 aside from many other things, the crowds who are with me every day and my deep personal concern for all the congregations.

2Co 11:29 Who is suffering, and I am not suffering? Who is made to stumble, and I do not burn with indignation?

2Co 11:30 If it is fitting to boast, I will boast in my sufferings.

2Co 11:31 God, the Father of our Lord Jeshua the Messiah, who is blessed forever and ever, knows that I do not lie.

2Co 11:32 In Damascus the leader of the army under King Aretus, was guarding the city of the Damascenes to apprehend me;

2Co 11:33 but they lowered me in a basket through a window in the wall, and I escaped from their hands.

2Co 12:1 It is necessary, but not profitable for me to boast. I have come to visions and revelations of our Lord:

2Co 12:2 I knew a man in the Anointed who fourteen years ago, whether in the body or without the body I do not know, but God knows; this one was caught up into the third heaven.

2Co 12:3 I knew this man; whether in the body or without the body I do not know, God knows;

2Co 12:4 who was caught up into Paradise¹ and heard inexpressible words, words which no man is authorised to speak.

2Co 12:5 Of this one I will boast; but about myself I will not boast, except in my sufferings.

2Co 12:6 For if I had wished to boast, I would not be mishandling the truth. But I abstain, lest anyone should think more of me than what he sees in me and what he hears from me.

2Co 12:7 And lest I would be lifted up by the abundance of revelations, I was handed over to a thorn in my flesh; an envoy of Satan to buffet me, lest I become lifted up.

2Co 12:8 Concerning this, I begged my Lord three times to remove it from me.

2Co 12:9 And He said to me, "My grace is sufficient for you, for My power is made perfect in weakness." Therefore I joyfully boast in my sufferings, that the power of the Anointed may rest upon me.

2Co 12:10 Therefore I am satisfied in suffering, in reproach, in distress, in persecution, in imprisonment for the sake of my Messiah. For when I am weak, then I am strong.

2Co 12:11 Behold, I have been mindless in my boasting because you compelled me. For you were indebted to me and should have testified for me, because I did not lack anything that those greatly eminent apostles have, even though I am nothing.

2Co 12:12 I performed the signs of an apostle among you with all patience, and with heroic deeds and wonders and miracles.

2Co 12:13 For in what do you lack from other congregations, except only in this: that I was not a burden upon you? Forgive me this wrong!

2Co 12:14 Behold, this is the third time I am ready to come to you. And I will not be a burden upon you; for I do not seek what is yours, but you. For children ought not to lay up treasure for their parents, but parents for their children.

2Co 12:15 And I will cheerfully pay my expenses and I will also give myself for the sake of your souls; even though the more I love you, the less loving you are to me.

2Co 12:16 And though I was not a burden upon you, perhaps I robbed you by treachery like a crafty man.

2Co 12:17 Did I greedily desire what was yours by the hand of another man whom I sent to you?

2Co 12:18 When I asked Titus, and sent the brethren with him, was Titus greedily desiring what was yours? Did we not walk in the same Spirit and in the same steps?

2Co 12:19 Again, do you think that we make excuses to you? We speak before God in the Anointed. And all these things, my beloved, are for your edification.

2Co 12:20 For I fear lest I come to you and I will not find you as I wish, and that I will be found by you to not be what you wish; lest there be fighting, envy, rage, contention, slander, murmuring, insolence and tumult;

2Co 12:21 and lest, when I come to you, my God will humble me, and I will mourn over the many who have sinned and have not repented from the uncleanness, fornication, and lewdness which they have done.

2Co 13:1 This will be the third time I am coming to you. "By the mouth of two or three witnesses every word will be established."¹

2Co 13:2 I have told you before, and now I am saying it to you again the second time; when I was with you I said it to you and now as I am absent I write it: to those who have sinned, and to all the rest of you, that if I come again I will not spare;

2Co 13:3 since you seek proof that the Anointed speaks in me, He is not weak among you, but mighty among you.

2Co 13:4 For although He was impaled in weakness, yet He lives by the power of God. We are also weak with Him, yet we are living with Him by the power of God that is among you.

2Co 13:5 Examine your souls as to whether you stand in the faith. Tend to your souls. Or are you not aware that Jeshua the Anointed is in you? If He is not, you are worthless.

2Co 13:6 But I hope that you will know that we are not worthless.

2Co 13:7 Now I pray to God that there will be nothing evil in you, that you may appear as our proof; and that you will be productive, and we may seem worthless.

2Co 13:8 But we cannot do anything against the truth, but only for the truth.

2Co 13:9 For we rejoice when we are weak and you are strong. And we also pray for this, that you may be perfected.

2Co 13:10 Therefore I write these things when I am absent, lest when I come I deal with you severely, according to the authority which my Lord has given to me, for building you up and not for your destruction.

2Co 13:11 From now on, my brethren, rejoice. Be perfected and be comforted. Let there be harmony and peace in you; and the God of love and peace will be with you.

2Co 13:12 Invoke each other's peace with a holy kiss.

2Co 13:13 All of the saints invoke your peace.

2Co 13:14 The peace of our Anointed Lord Jeshua, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with all of you. Amen.

Galatians

Gal 1:1 Paul, an apostle, not from the children of men nor by the hand of a son of a man, but by the hand of Jeshua the Messiah and God, His Father, who raised Him from the house of the dead,

Gal 1:2 and all the brethren who are with me: To the congregation in Galatia:

Gal 1:3 Grace to you and peace from God the Father and from our Lord Jeshua the Messiah,

Gal 1:4 who gave Himself because of our sins, to set us free from this evil world, according to the will of God our Father,

Gal 1:5 to whom be glory forever and ever. Amen.

Gal 1:6 I marvel at how quickly you have been turned away from the Anointed, who called you by His grace, to another Good News,

Gal 1:7 which does not exist; for there are some who trouble you and they want to alter the Good News of the Anointed.

Gal 1:8 But if even we, or an envoy from heaven, preach to you things outside of what we have preached to you, he will be accursed.

Gal 1:9 As I said before, so now I say again; if anyone preaches to you anything outside of what you have received, he will be accursed.¹

Gal 1:10 For do I now plead to men, or to God? Or do I seek to please men? For if I was pleasing men until now, I would not have been a servant of the Messiah.

Gal 1:11 But I make known to you, my brethren, that the Good News which was preached by me did not come from a man.

Gal 1:12 For I neither received it from man, nor did I learn it, except through the revelation of Jeshua the Anointed.

¹ Paul is speaking of his teachings, which are entirely based on the Bible and what Jeshua taught him. Many churches today are already teaching another Good News and another Jesus.

Gal 1:13 For you have heard of my former way of life in Judaism, that I greatly persecuted the congregation of God and I was destroying it.

Gal 1:14 And I advanced in Judaism beyond many of my older contemporaries in my nation, and I was very zealous for the traditions of my fathers.

Gal 1:15 But when He who chose me separated me from my mother's womb and called me in His grace,²

Gal 1:16 so He could reveal His Son in me, and so I would proclaim Him among the gentiles, I did not immediately reveal it to flesh and blood, Gal 1:17 nor did I go to Jerusalem to the apostles who were before me; but I went to Arabia, and I returned again to Damascus.

Gal 1:18 And after three years I went to Jerusalem to see Cepha,³ and I stayed with him for fifteen days.

Gal 1:19 But I did not see another apostle, except only Jacob, our Lord's brother.

Gal 1:20 Now these things which I write to you, behold, before God, I do not lie.

Gal 1:21 After these things I came to the regions of Syria and Cilicia;

Gal 1:22 and the congregations in Judea who are in the Messiah did not know my face.

Gal 1:23 But they had heard this only, "He who had formerly persecuted us, behold, now he preaches the faith which he had once overthrown."

Gal 1:24 And they glorified God for me.

Gal 2:1 Then after fourteen years I went up to Jerusalem again with Barnabas, and I brought Titus with me.

Gal 2:2 For I went up by revelation, and I revealed to them the Good News which I preach among the gentiles, and I showed it to those who were considered to be something, between me and them, lest I had run, or might run, worthlessly.

Gal 2:3 Even Titus, an Aramaean who was with me, was not compelled to be circumcised.

Gal 2:4 But false brethren came in to spy on the liberty which we have in the Anointed Jeshua, so they could enslave me.

Gal 2:5 We did not yield to their oppression for a moment, that the truth of the Good News might continue with you.

Gal 2:6 But those who were esteemed to be something; though whoever they were is not a concern to me, for God does not accept favouritism for any man; and they did not add anything to me,

Gal 2:7 but on the contrary, when they saw that I was entrusted with the Good News for the uncircumcised, as Cepha was entrusted with the Good News for the circumcised, Gal 2:8 for He who encouraged Cepha in the apostleship to the circumcised also encouraged me in the apostleship to the gentiles.

Gal 2:9 So when they perceived the grace that had been given to me, Jacob, Cepha, and John, who were esteemed to be pillars, gave the right hand of fellowship to me and Barnabas, that we should go among the gentiles and they among the circumcised.

Gal 2:10 They desired only that we would remember the poor, and it has long been a concern to me that we do this.

Gal 2:11 And when Cepha came to Antioch, I rebuked him to his face, because they were made to stumble by him;

Gal 2:12 for before some people came from Jacob, he was eating with the gentiles; but when they came, he withdrew and separated himself, for he was afraid of those who were of the circumcision.

Gal 2:13 And the rest of the Judeans also yielded in this with him, and even Barnabas was led to accept their position.

Gal 2:14 And when I saw that they were not being upright in the truth of the Good News, I said to Cepha before the eyes of them all, "If you, who are a Judean, are living as an Aramaean and not as a Judean, why do you compel gentiles to live as Judeans?"

Gal 2:15 "For we who are Judeans by nature, and are not from gentile sinners, Gal 2:16 "know that a man is not justified by works of the Instructions but by the faithfulness of Jeshua the Anointed; we also believe in the Anointed Jeshua, that we may be justified by the faithfulness of the Anointed and not by works of the Instructions; for nobody is justified by works of the Instructions.¹

Gal 2:17 "But if, when we seek to be justified by the Anointed, we ourselves also are found to be sinners, is Jeshua the Anointed therefore the servant of sin? Certainly not!

Gal 2:18 "For if I build again those things which I destroyed, I have shown myself to be a transgressor against the covenant.

Gal 2:19 "For through the Instructions, I have died to the Instructions, that I may live to God.

Gal 2:20 "I have been impaled with the Messiah and since then it has not been I who is living, but the Messiah is living in me; and this life which I now live, I live in the flesh by faith that the Son of God lives, who loved us and gave Himself for us.

Gal 2:21 "I do not reject the grace of ¹ Following the Instructions (aka Torah or Law) is needed, but keeping the law today does not and cannot justify us from the law we broke yesterday. Only the sacrifice of Jeshua can do that. We cannot rely on our feeble attempts at keeping God's Instructions. We must always remember that it is our God's faithfulness that saves us and it is His grace that gives us the strength to love and obey Him.

God; for if righteousness comes through the Instructions, then the Anointed died for nothing.”

Gal 3:1 Oh, Galatians without understanding, who can rival you? Behold, He was portrayed as the Artisan¹ before your eyes, Jeshua the Anointed, when He was impaled!

Gal 3:2 I only want to know this from you: Did you receive the Spirit by works of the Instructions, or by the hearing of faith?

Gal 3:3 Are you this foolish? You began in the Spirit, and now you will finish in the flesh?

Gal 3:4 Have you endured all these things for nothing; or was it not for nothing?

Gal 3:5 Therefore He who gives the Spirit to you and works miracles among you, is it by works of the Instructions, or by the hearing of faith?

Gal 3:6 It is just as Abraham “believed Jehovah, and it was accounted to him for righteousness.”²

Gal 3:7 Therefore know that those who are of the faith are the children of Abraham.

Gal 3:8 Because God knew beforehand that it is the nations which are justified by faith, He preached to Abraham earlier, as the Holy Writings say, “All the nations will be blessed in you.”³

Gal 3:9 So then, believers are blessed with Abraham the believer.

Gal 3:10 For those whose works are from the Instructions are under a curse; for it is written, “Cursed is everyone who does not do all that is written in the Instructions.”⁴

Gal 3:11 And that with God no one is justified by the Instructions is revealed in this writing “The just will live by faith.”⁵

Gal 3:12 For the Instructions are not from faith, for whoever does the things that are written in it will live by them.⁶

Gal 3:13 Now the Anointed has redeemed us from the Instruction’s curse and He became a curse in our place, for it is written, “Cursed is everyone who is hung on a tree,”⁷

Gal 3:14 that the blessing of Abraham will be upon the gentiles in the Anointed Jeshua, and we may receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.

Gal 3:15 My brethren, I speak as one among men: That a son of man’s covenant, once it is confirmed, no man can reject or alter anything in it.

Gal 3:16 Now the promise was promised to Abraham and to his Seed. He did not say, “to your seeds,” as to many, but “to your seed,” as to the One, who is the Messiah.⁸

Gal 3:17 For this I say, that the Covenant was confirmed first from God to the Messiah. Therefore the Instructions, which were four hundred and thirty years later, cannot cast away and revoke the promise.

Gal 3:18 For if the inheritance is through the Instructions, then it will no longer be from the promise to Abraham; but God gave it to him by the promise.⁹

Gal 3:19 Then why have the Instructions? They were added because of apostasy, until the Seed to whom the promise was made would come; and the Instructions were given by envoys in the hand of a mediator.

Gal 3:20 For a mediator does not mediate for himself, but God is One.

¹ Jeshua is the supreme artist/creator who, under His Father’s guidance, made all things.

⁷ Deu 21:23

⁸ Gen 12:3

⁹ Compare with Gen 15:4-16, where the promise is given to Abraham while he is living in Canaan as a stranger.

Gal 3:21 Then are the Instructions against the promise of God? Certainly not! For if Instructions could be given which are able to give life, truly righteousness would have come from the Instructions.

Gal 3:22 But the Writings have confined all things under sin, that the promise by the faith of Jeshua the Messiah would be given to those who believe.

Gal 3:23 But until the faith came, we were kept by the Instructions while we were shut off from the faith that would be revealed.

Gal 3:24 Therefore the Instructions were our guide to the Messiah, that we would be justified by the faith.

Gal 3:25 But once the faith came, we were no longer under a guide.

Gal 3:26 For you are all children of God by the faith of Jeshua the Anointed.

Gal 3:27 For all those who have been immersed into the Anointed have put on the Anointed.

Gal 3:28 There is neither Judean nor Aramaean, neither slave nor free, neither male nor female; for all of you are one in the Anointed Jeshua.

Gal 3:29 And if you are the Messiah's, then you are Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise.

Gal 4:1 Now I say that during the time the heir is a child, he is not distinct from the servants, even though he is the lord of them all,

Gal 4:2 but he is under guardians and stewards until the time appointed by his father.

Gal 4:3 Likewise we, when we were children, were subject to and under the principles of the world.

Gal 4:4 But when the end of that time arrived, God sent His Son, and He was born from a woman, and He was under the Instructions, Gal 4:5 so He would redeem those who were under the Instructions, and we would receive adoption as children.

Gal 4:6 And because you are children, God has sent the Spirit of His Son into your hearts, crying out, "Aba, Our Father!"

Gal 4:7 Therefore you are not slaves but children, and if children, also heirs of God through the Anointed Jeshua.

Gal 4:8 For then, when you had not known God, you served those which by their nature were not gods.

Gal 4:9 But now that you have known God, and especially that you are known by God, have you turned again to those sick and weak principles, and you want to be subject to them first?

Gal 4:10 You observe days and months and times and years.¹

Gal 4:11 I fear that I have laboured among you for nothing.

Gal 4:12 I beg of you, my brethren, become like me, for I have also been like you. You have not wronged me in anything.

Gal 4:13 For you know that because of my physical infirmity I preached to you at first.

Gal 4:14 And you did not ridicule nor loath the trial of my flesh, but you received me as an envoy of God, like the Anointed Jeshua.

Gal 4:15 Therefore, where is your blessing? For I testify of you that, if it was possible, you would have plucked out your eyes and given them to me.

Gal 4:16 Have I become your enemy because I preached the truth to you?

Gal 4:17 They embrace you, but not for what is excellent, but to oppress you, for they want you to embrace them.

Gal 4:18 Now it is good for you to embrace excellence always, and not only when I am with you.

Gal 4:19 My children, for whom I labour first until the Messiah is formed in you,

Gal 4:20 I am willing to be with you now and to change my tone; but I am astounded by you.

Gal 4:21 Tell me, you who desire to be under the Instructions, do you not hear the Instructions?

Gal 4:22 For it is written that Abraham had two sons: one by a bondwoman and one by a free woman.

Gal 4:23 But he who was from the bondwoman was born through the flesh, and he who was from the freewoman is through the promise,

Gal 4:24 but these things are symbolic of the two covenants: the one from Mount Sinai which produces bondage, which is Hagar;

Gal 4:25 for Hagar is Mount Sinai in Arabia, and matches with this Jerusalem, which is serving in bondage with its children;

Gal 4:26 but the Jerusalem above is free, which is our mother.

Gal 4:27 For it is written: "Rejoice, barren one, you who do not reproduce. Sing and shout, you who do not give birth! For the children of the desolate have become more than the children of the wife."¹

Gal 4:28 Now we, my brethren, are children of the promise like Isaac.

Gal 4:29 And as then, he who was born by the flesh persecuted him who was by the Spirit; so it also is now.

Gal 4:30 But what do the Writings say? "Cast out the bondwoman and her son, for the son of the bondwoman will not be heir with the son of the freewoman."²

Gal 4:31 Therefore, my brethren, we are not children of the bondwoman but children of the freewoman.

Gal 5:1 Therefore stand in the liberty by which the Anointed has made us free, and do not be bound again in a yoke of slavery.

Gal 5:2 Behold, I, Paul, say to you that if you become circumcised, the Anointed will not profit you at all.³

Gal 5:3 And I testify again to every man who is circumcised that he is obligated to observe all of the Instructions.

Gal 5:4 You have become estranged from the Anointed, you who are justified by the Instructions and you have fallen from grace.

Gal 5:5 For we, through the Spirit who is from the faith, wait for the hope of righteousness.

Gal 5:6 For in Messiah Jeshua neither circumcision nor uncircumcision is important, but faith which is perfected in love.

Gal 5:7 You were running well. Who disturbed you so you would not obey the truth?

Gal 5:8 Your persuasion is not from Him who called you.

Gal 5:9 A little leaven leavens the whole lump.

Gal 5:10 I do trust that you, in our Lord, will not embrace those other things; and whoever troubles you will bear his judgement, whoever he is.

Gal 5:11 And I, my brethren, if I still preach circumcision, why am I being persecuted? Has the offence of the stake been eliminated?

Gal 5:12 And I wish that those who trouble you, they would be cut down, cut down!

Gal 5:13 For you, my brethren, you have been called to liberty; only do not let your liberty become an opportunity for the flesh, but through love you should serve one another.

Gal 5:14 For the Instructions are all fulfilled in this one saying: "You will love your neighbour as yourself."¹

Gal 5:15 But if you bite and devour one another, beware lest you be consumed, one by another!

Gal 5:16 So I say that you should be walking in the Spirit, and then you will never fulfil the cravings of the flesh.

Gal 5:17 For the flesh desires everything that opposes the Spirit, and the Spirit desires everything that opposes the flesh; and they are both contrary to one another, so you aren't doing everything that you want.

Gal 5:18 And if you are led by the Spirit, you should not be beneath the Instructions.²

Gal 5:19 For the works of the flesh are known, which are fornication, impurity, prostitution,³

Gal 5:20 idol worship, witchcraft, hatred, contentions, jealousies, rage, insolence, dissensions, schisms,⁴

Gal 5:21 envy, murder, drunkenness, revelries, and all such things.⁵ Those who commit such things, as I told you from the beginning, and now I say again; they will not inherit the Kingdom of God.

Gal 5:22 But the fruits of the Spirit are love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, a sweet spirit, faithfulness,

Gal 5:23 humility and endurance. The Instructions are not against these.

Gal 5:24 And those who are the Anointed's have impaled their flesh, with all of its sicknesses and cravings.

Gal 5:25 Therefore, we will live in the Spirit, and we will surrender to the Spirit.

Gal 5:26 And do not let us become empty of glory by putting one another down and envying one another.

Gal 6:1 My brethren, if any one of you is overtaken in a trespass, you who are in the Spirit restore him in the spirit of humility, and be careful lest you also may be tempted.

Gal 6:2 And carry one another's burdens, for in this way you fulfil the Instructions of the Anointed.

Gal 6:3 For if anyone thinks that he is something when he is not, he is deceiving himself.

Gal 6:4 But each one should examine his work, and then his soul may rejoice to himself alone, and not to others.

Gal 6:5 For every person should carry his own load.

Gal 6:6 And let him who hears the word share in all good things with him who preaches.

Gal 6:7 Do not err, do not put God to shame; for whatever a son sows, that he will also reap.

Gal 6:8 Whoever sows to the flesh will reap destruction from the flesh, and whoever sows to the Spirit will reap everlasting life from the Spirit.

Gal 6:9 And when we do what is good, do not let it become tedious for us, for there will come a time when we will reap, and that will not be tiring for us.

Gal 6:10 Therefore, while we still have time, let us do good to everyone, especially to the children of the household of faith.

Gal 6:11 See these writings that I have written to you with my own hand!

Gal 6:12 Those who wish to boast in the flesh are those who urge you to be circumcised, for they do not want to be persecuted for the impalement of the Messiah.

Gal 6:13 For not even those who are circumcised keep the Instructions, but they want you to be circumcised so they may boast in your flesh.

Gal 6:14 But do not let it be that I should boast except in the impalement of our Anointed Lord Jeshua, in whom the world has been impaled to me, and I have been impaled to the world.

Gal 6:15 For circumcision is not anything, nor is uncircumcision, but the new creation is.

Gal 6:16 And those who agree to this path, peace and affection will be upon them, and upon the Israel of God.

Gal 6:17 Therefore, let no one trouble me, for I bear in my body the scars of our Lord Jeshua.

Gal 6:18 My brethren, the grace of our Lord Jeshua the Messiah is with your spirit. Amen.

Ephesians

Eph 1:1 Paul, an apostle of Jeshua the Messiah by the will of God: To those who are in Ephesus, holy and faithful in the Anointed Jeshua:

Eph 1:2 Peace to you and grace from God our Father and from our Lord Jeshua, the Anointed.

Eph 1:3 Blessed is God, the Father of our Anointed Lord Jeshua, who has blessed us with all of the blessings of the Spirit in Heaven in the Anointed,

Eph 1:4 just as He chose us in Him before creating the foundations of the world, that we should be holy and without spot before Him, and in love He commissioned us beforehand for Himself,¹

Eph 1:5 and adopted us as children in Jeshua the Messiah, as that is pleasing to His will,

Eph 1:6 that the glory of His grace may be praised, which overflows upon us by His Beloved.

Eph 1:7 For in Him we have redemption and by His blood the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of His grace

Eph 1:8 by which He has abounded generously in us in all wisdom and understanding,

Eph 1:9 and He taught us the mystery of His will, which He had purposed to do Himself beforehand,

Eph 1:10 that in the government at the end of time everything from the head down would be made new by the Anointed, both those which are in heaven and which are on earth.

Eph 1:11 And we are chosen in Him, for He ordained us beforehand and He willed that all things He would do are according to the counsel of His will,

Eph 1:12 that we would be the first of those who hoped in the Anointed to the honour of His glory.

Eph 1:13 You also heard the Word of Truth through Him, which is the Good News of your salvation; and you believed in Him, you were sealed in the Holy Spirit who was promised,

Eph 1:14 who is the Pledge of our inheritance until the redemption of those who are saved, and for the glory of His Honour.

Eph 1:15 Behold! Therefore I also, after I heard of your faith in our Anointed Lord Jeshua and your love for the saints,

Eph 1:16 do not cease to give thanks for you,² and remember you in my prayers:

Eph 1:17 that the God of our Lord Jeshua the Anointed, the Father of glory, would give to you the spirit of wisdom and revelation with His knowledge,

Eph 1:18 and that the eyes of your hearts will be enlightened; that you will know what is the hope of His calling, and what are the riches of the glory of His inheritance in the saints,

Eph 1:19 and what is the exceeding excellence of His power in us who believe, according to the working of His immense power

Eph 1:20 which He worked in the Anointed and raised Him from the house of the dead and seated Him at His right hand in Heaven,

Eph 1:21 higher than all principalities and rulers and powers and dominions, and higher than every name that is named, not only in this world but also in the one to come.

Eph 1:22 And He has put everything in subjection under His feet, and He has given to Him who is higher than all to be Head over the congregation,

Eph 1:23 which is His body, and the fullness of Him who fills all in all.

Eph 2:1 And even fills you; you who were dead in your sins and your foolishness,

Eph 2:2 from that which you walked in at first, when you did according to the things of this world and according to the will of the prince of the power of the air, and this spirit is vigorous in the disobedient children.

Eph 2:3 We also once employed ourselves in the lusts of our flesh, and we were doing the will of our flesh and of our mind, and we were completely children of wrath, just as the rest.

Eph 2:4 But God, who is rich in compassion, because of His great love with which He loved us, Eph 2:5 when we were dead in our sins, He gave us life, together with the Anointed, and by His grace He saved us.

Eph 2:6 And He has raised us up with Him and sat us with Himself in heaven in Messiah Jeshua, Eph 2:7 to show to the coming ages the greatness of the riches of His grace and His kindness which has come upon us through the Anointed Jeshua.

Eph 2:8 For it is by His grace we have been saved with faith, and this was not of ourselves, for it is the gift of God,

Eph 2:9 not from works, lest anyone should boast.

Eph 2:10 For we are His creatures, who were created in the Anointed Jeshua for good works, which God prepared from the beginning, that we should walk in them.¹

Eph 2:11 Therefore you need to remember that you were first Gentiles in the flesh and were called the uncircumcision by that which is called the circumcision, but is a work of the hands in the flesh;

Eph 2:12 and you were existing at that time without the Messiah, and you were foreigners to the government of Israel and strangers to the covenant of promise, and you were without hope and without God in the world.

Eph 2:13 But now in Messiah Jeshua you who once were far off have been made near by the blood of the Messiah.

Eph 2:14 For He is our peace. He made the two into one, and He has destroyed the fence that stood in our midst,

Eph 2:15 by His flesh and through His commandments He has cancelled the laws of commands² and the hatred, so He could create in His Person one new man from the two, and He made peace,

Eph 2:16 and He reconciled the two with God in one body, and through His impalement has killed the hatred.

Eph 2:17 And He came and preached the news of peace to you who were far off and to those who were near.

Eph 2:18 Because through Him we both have access by one Spirit to the Father.

Eph 2:19 Therefore, you are neither strangers nor guests, but children of the Holy One's city and children of God's household,

Eph 2:20 and you are built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jeshua the Messiah Himself being the chief cornerstone of the building,

Eph 2:21 and by Him the entire building is constructed, and grows into a holy Palace in Lord Jah,³

Eph 2:22 and you also are being built by Him for the dwelling of God in the Spirit.

Eph 3:1 For this reason I, Paul, am the prisoner of Jeshua the Anointed for you gentiles;

Eph 3:2 if you have heard of the stewardship of the grace of God which was given to me among you.

Eph 3:3 For the mystery was taught to me by revelation, as I wrote to you briefly, ² The laws of command that Jeshua cancelled were the laws and rules created by the Pharisees, which erected a fence between the Judeans and the Gentiles. He did not cancel the Laws and Instructions of Jehovah God (See Mat 5:17-19, Exo 12:48-49 & Num 15:15-16).

³ As in the Peshitta.

Eph 3:4 and when you can, while you read, understand my knowledge in the mystery of the Anointed,

Eph 3:5 which in other generations was not made known to the children of men, but now it is revealed to His holy apostles and to His prophets by the Spirit:

Eph 3:6 that the gentiles would also be children of the inheritance, and members of His body, and of the promise that was given in Him through the Good News,

Eph 3:7 of which I have been a servant according to the gift of the grace of God, given to me by the activity of His power.

Eph 3:8 To me, who is the least of all the saints, this grace is given; that I am to preach the Good News of the unsearchable riches of the Anointed among the gentiles,

Eph 3:9 and that I may enlighten everyone by the stewardship of the mystery which was hidden from the world in God, the Creator of All.¹

Eph 3:10 That the full wisdom of God would be made known to the diverse principalities and rulers who are in Heaven by the congregation,

Eph 3:11 which He had planned from eternity and He accomplished in our Lord Jeshua the Anointed, Eph 3:12 through whom we have boldness and confident access through His faith.

Eph 3:13 Therefore I ask that you do not become wearied by my afflictions, which are for you, for this is your glory.

Eph 3:14 And I bow my knees to the Father of our Anointed Lord Jeshua,

Eph 3:15 from whom all fatherhood in heaven and earth is named,

Eph 3:16 that He would give to you, according to the riches of His glory, to be strengthened by the power in His Spirit in your inner person,

Eph 3:17 and may the Anointed dwell in your hearts through faith. And when your root and your foundation are confirmed by love,

Eph 3:18 then you can discover with all of the saints what is the height and depth and length and width;

Eph 3:19 that you may know the magnitude of the knowledge of the love of the Messiah, and you may be filled with all the fullness of God.

Eph 3:20 Now to Him who is able and has the power to do exceedingly more for us than all that we ask or imagine, according to His power that is active in us, Eph 3:21 to Him be glory in His congregation in the Anointed Jeshua throughout all generations, forever and ever. Amen.

Eph 4:1 Therefore I, a prisoner in our Lord, ask that you walk as is worthy of the calling with which you are called,

Eph 4:2 with all humility of mind and gentleness and a sustained Spirit, and that you would be patient with one another in love,

Eph 4:3 and you would endeavour to keep the harmony of the Spirit in the bonds of peace.

Eph 4:4 For you are in one body and in one Spirit, just as you were called in one hope of your calling;

Eph 4:5 for there is one Lord Jah,² and one faith, and one immersion;

Eph 4:6 and one God, the Father of all and above all, and with all, and in us all.

Eph 4:7 But to each one of us grace is given according to the measure of the Anointed's gift.

Eph 4:8 Because of this it is said: "He ascended to the Heights, and brought captivity captive, and He has given gifts to the children of men."³

² As in the Peshitta.

³ Psa 68:18

Eph 4:9 Now what does this mean, “He ascended”, but also that He first descended into the lower parts of the earth?

Eph 4:10 He who descended is the same as He who ascended higher than all the heavens, to restore all things.

Eph 4:11 And He Himself gave some who are apostles, some who are prophets, some who are evangelists, some who are pastors and some who are teachers,

Eph 4:12 for the perfecting of the saints for the work of service, for the building up of the body of the Anointed,

Eph 4:13 until we will all be one in the faith and in the knowledge of the Son of God, and one perfect man, to the measure of the stature of the maturity of the Anointed;

Eph 4:14 nor will we be children who are shaken and troubled by every wind of teaching, by crafty children of men who seduce with their cunning plots.

Eph 4:15 But we were firm in our love, that in all of our affairs we may increase into He who is the Head; the Anointed;

Eph 4:16 and from Him the whole body is constructed and joined by every joint, according to the gift given to every member in measure for the growth of His body, that His building may be completed in love.

Eph 4:17 This I say and testify in Lord Jah,¹ that from now on you should not be walking as the other gentiles, who walk in the emptiness of their minds,

Eph 4:18 for their intellects are darkened, and they are foreigners to the Life of God, for there is no knowledge in them because of the blindness of their heart;

Eph 4:19 for they have cut off their hope, and have handed their souls over to lewdness, and to the cultivation of all impurities with greediness.

Eph 4:20 But you have not learned to go in this way in the Messiah,

Eph 4:21 if you have truly heard Him and you have been taught by Him, as to what the truth is in Jeshua:

Eph 4:22 for you should put aside your former way of life: that old man who is corrupted by deceitful lusts,

Eph 4:23 and you should be made new in the spirit of your minds,

Eph 4:24 and you should put on the new man whom God has created in righteousness and in the purity of the Truth.

Eph 4:25 Therefore, you are to put aside lying, and each one speak the truth with his neighbour, for we are members of one another.²

Eph 4:26 “Be angry, and you are not to sin.”³ Do not let the sun set on your wrath,

Eph 4:27 nor should you give place to the devil.

Eph 4:28 And whoever has stolen, from now on let him not steal, but let him labour with his hands and let him produce well, that he will have something to give to the one who has need.⁴

Eph 4:29 Do not let any hateful words come out of your mouth, instead say what is good and useful for edification that you may impart grace to those who hear.

Eph 4:30 Nor are you to grieve the Holy Spirit of God, by whom you have been sealed for the day of redemption.

Eph 4:31 Let all bitterness, anger, wrath, clamour, and insults be taken away from you, along with all malice.

Eph 4:32 And you are to be kind to one another and affectionate, forgiving one another just as God has forgiven us in the Anointed.

Eph 5:1 Therefore you will be imitators of God as beloved children.

² Zec 8:16

³ Based on Psa 4:4, which is literally “Tremble, and do not sin.”, reminding us to humble ourselves before God.

⁴ 2Th 3:10-12

Eph 5:2 And walk in love, as the Anointed also loves us and handed Himself over for us as the offering and the sacrifice to God for a sweet fragrance.

Eph 5:3 But fornication and all impurity and greed, you should not even let it be named among you, as is appropriate for saints;

Eph 5:4 nor abusive language, nor words which are worthless, disgraceful or nonsense, all things which are not needed, but instead of these give thanks.

Eph 5:5 For this you know; that everyone who is a fornicator, impure, or greedy, or who serves idols—for them there is no inheritance in the kingdom of the Anointed and of God.

Eph 5:6 Do not let anyone deceive you with empty words; for it is because of these things that the wrath of God comes upon the disobedient children.

Eph 5:7 Therefore you should not be partners with them.

Eph 5:8 For at first you were living in darkness, but now you are in the light in our Lord. Therefore as children of light you should walk in this Way,

Eph 5:9 for the fruits of the light are in all goodness, righteousness, and truth.

Eph 5:10 You are to be distinguishing what is pleasing to our Lord.

Eph 5:11 Nor should you fellowship with the servants of darkness, because there is no fruit in them, but you should rebuke them.

Eph 5:12 For the things that they do in secret, it is an abomination to even mention it.

Eph 5:13 For all things are exposed and corrected by the light, and it is the light that reveals everything.

Eph 5:14 Therefore it is said: “Awake, you who sleep, and arise from the house of the dead, and the Messiah will give you light.”¹

Eph 5:15 Therefore, see that you walk honourably, not as fools but as the wise,

Eph 5:16 who redeem their opportunities, because the days are evil.

Eph 5:17 Because of this, ensure you do not lack intelligence, but understand what is the will of God.

Eph 5:18 Nor will you be drunk with wine, in which is debauchery;² but be filled with the Spirit,

Eph 5:19 and speak among yourselves in psalms and hymns and songs of the Spirit. Sing from your hearts to Lord Jah,³

Eph 5:20 giving thanks all the time for everyone’s face in the Name of our Anointed Lord Jeshua and to God the Father.

Eph 5:21 Submit one to another in the love of the Messiah.

Eph 5:22 Wives, submit yourselves to your husbands, as to our Lord;

Eph 5:23 Because the man is the head of the woman, just as the Messiah is also the head of the congregation; and He is the Saviour of the body.⁴

Eph 5:24 For just as the congregation is subject to Messiah, in this way also the wives to their husbands in everything.

Eph 5:25 Men, love your wives, just as our Messiah also loves His congregation and handed Himself over for its sake,

Eph 5:26 to sanctify it and purify it, washing it with water and the Word,

Eph 5:27 that He could establish the congregation for Himself and when it is glorious, and there is not a blemish nor a wrinkle nor any such thing, then it will be holy and without defect.

Eph 5:28 In this way, men ought to love their wives as their own bodies; for he who loves his wife as himself truly loves.

Eph 5:29 For no one ever hates his own body, but nourishes it and cares for it, just as the Anointed also cares for His congregation,

² Pro 23:29-35

³ As in the Peshitta.

⁴ Gen 3:16, Eph 1:22 & Col 1:18

¹ Isa 26:19 & 60:1, Eze 37:1-14, 2Ti 2:23-26

Eph 5:30 for we are members of His body and we are from His flesh and from His bones.¹

Eph 5:31 “Because of this, a man will leave his father and his mother and be joined to his wife, and the two of them will become one body.”²

Eph 5:32 This is a great mystery, but I speak about the Anointed and about His congregation.³

Eph 5:33 Therefore, all of you, every one will love his wife as himself, and the wife will be reverent to her husband.

Eph 6:1 Children, obey your parents in our Lord, for this is right.

Eph 6:2 “Honour your father and mother,” which is the first commandment with a promise:

Eph 6:3 “that it may be well with you and you may live long on the earth.”⁴

Eph 6:4 Parents, do not provoke your children, but nurture them in the discipline and teachings of our Lord.⁵

Eph 6:5 Servants, obey your masters who are in the flesh with reverence and trembling, with sincerity of heart, as to the Anointed;

Eph 6:6 not just while in eyesight, as if you please the children of men, but as servants of the Anointed doing the pleasure of God;

Eph 6:7 and serve them in love from all your soul, as to our Lord, and not as to men,

Eph 6:8 for as you know, anything that each one does that is pleasing, he will be rewarded by our Lord, whether he is a slave or a free man.

¹ The Peshitta literally says “we are from His flesh and from His bones.” The ‘from’ makes it clearer that we are spiritually somewhat like Chavvah (Eve), who was made from Adam’s rib (Gen 2:21-23).

Eph 6:9 And you also, lords, act like this to your servants. Be forgiving to their offences, for you know that your Lord is in Heaven, and there is no favouritism with Him.⁶

Eph 6:10 Therefore, my brethren, be strengthened in our Lord and in the force of His power.

Eph 6:11 Put on all of the armour of God, so you can stand against the tactics of the devil.

Eph 6:12 For your fight is not with flesh and blood, but with principalities, with rulers, and with the powers of this darkness, and with the evil spirits that are under Heaven.

Eph 6:13 Therefore put on all the armour of God, so you will be able to confront the evil one; and when you are ready, you will stand in all things.

Eph 6:14 Therefore stand, and gird your waist with the Truth, and put on the breastplate of Righteousness,⁷

Eph 6:15 and shod your feet with the readiness of the Good News of Peace;⁸

Eph 6:16 and with these, take your shield of Faith with which you will have the power to quench all of the fiery arrows of the evil one.

Eph 6:17 And put on the helmet of Salvation, and grasp the sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of God;⁹

Eph 6:18 and pray always and desire always in all prayers that you will be in Him in the Spirit, watching constantly while you pray and make supplication for the sake of all the saints;

Eph 6:19 and also for me, that the Word may be given to me when I open my mouth, that I may boldly preach the mystery of the Good News,

Eph 6:20 for which I am an ambassador in chains; so I may speak boldly, as it is necessary for me to speak.

Eph 6:21 But so you may also know how things are with me and everything that I am doing, behold, Tukiqos, a beloved brother and trustworthy servant in our Lord, will inform you;

Eph 6:22 for I will send him to you for this purpose, so you may know how things are with me, and he will comfort your hearts.

Eph 6:23 Peace to our brethren, and love with faith, from God the Father and from our Anointed Lord Jeshua.

Eph 6:24 Grace be with all those who love our Lord Jeshua the Messiah without corruption. Amen.

Philippians

Phi 1:1 Paul and Timothy, servants of Jeshua the Anointed: To all the saints who are in the Anointed Jeshua who are in Philippi, with the elders and servants:

Phi 1:2 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and from our Anointed Lord Jeshua.

Phi 1:3 I thank my God for my constant remembrance of you,

Phi 1:4 for your faces are in all my prayers, and I rejoice while I make supplications

Phi 1:5 for your fellowship in the Good News from the first day until now, Phi 1:6 for I trust in this: That He who began good works in you will continue them until the Day of our Anointed Lord Jeshua.

Phi 1:7 Now it is right for me to think like this about all of you, because you are placed in my heart, and you are my partners in the grace of the Good News, both in my chains and in going forth in my spirit for the Truth.

Phi 1:8 For God is my witness, how greatly I love you with the affection of Jeshua the Anointed.

Phi 1:9 And this I pray, that your love may abound still more and in knowledge and all discernment of the Spirit,

Phi 1:10 that you would distinguish those things that are suitable, that you may be pure and without offence in the Day of the Anointed,

Phi 1:11 and filled with the fruits of righteousness which are in Jeshua the Anointed, to the glory and the honour of God.

Phi 1:12 But I want you to know, my brethren, that my condition led to me presenting the Good News all the more,

Phi 1:13 for it was revealed to the whole Praetorium, and to everyone else, that my chains are in the Anointed.

Phi 1:14 A multitude of the brethren who are in our Lord have become confident because of my chains, becoming more defiant and fearlessly speaking the Word of God.

Phi 1:15 Some men preach from envy and strife, but some men are preaching the Anointed in good will and in love, Phi 1:16 for they know that I am appointed to bring a defence of the Good News.

Phi 1:17 But those who preach the Anointed by contention are not sincere, as they hope to add affliction to my chains;

Phi 1:18 and in this I have rejoiced and I do rejoice, for in every way, whether in pretense or in the truth, the Anointed is preached;

Phi 1:19 for I know that these things will turn out to be life for me through your prayers and the gift of the Spirit of Jeshua the Anointed,

Phi 1:20 just as I hope and I expect that I will not be ashamed in anything, but that in showing my face, as always, so now also will the Anointed be magnified in my body, whether in life or in death.

Phi 1:21 For my life is my Anointed, and if I die, it is a gain for me.

Phi 1:22 But if in this life of the flesh there is fruit for me from my labour, I do not know what I will choose.

Phi 1:23 For the two are pressing on me: I desire to depart so I may be with the Anointed, and this would be much better for me.

Phi 1:24 Nevertheless to remain in my body is pressing on me because of my business with you.

Phi 1:25 And this I know confidently, that I am remaining and dwelling here for your joy and the growth of your faith,

Phi 1:26 and when I come to you again, your boasting through me will abound to Jeshua the Anointed alone,

Phi 1:27 as is suitable to the Good News of the Anointed. You should be guided, such that whether I come to see you or whether I am absent, I may hear this about you: that you stand in one spirit and in one soul, and you are celebrated as one in the faith of the Good News,

Phi 1:28 and you are not shaken in anything by those who stand against us, as a demonstration of their destruction, and life for you.

Phi 1:29 And this is given to you from God, that not only should you believe in Him, but also in the Messiah, and that you should suffer for His sake,¹

Phi 1:30 and you should endure struggles like those you have seen in me and now you hear about me.

Phi 2:1 Therefore, if there is any comfort for you in the Messiah, or if the filling of hearts with love, or if the fellowship of the Spirit, or if any affection and mercy,

Phi 2:2 fulfil my joy by all of you having one conscience, and one love, and one soul, and one understanding.

Phi 2:3 You should not do anything in contention or empty glory, but in humility of mind each person will esteem his neighbour as better than himself.

Phi 2:4 Nor should a man be concerned for himself, but every person for his neighbour.

Phi 2:5 Let this mind be in you which was also in Messiah Jeshua,

Phi 2:6 who, while He was in God's form, did not consider the extortion that He was the equal of God,

Phi 2:7 but He stripped Himself and He took the form of a servant, and was in the form of a child of man and was in nature as a man.

Phi 2:8 And He humbled Himself and He was obedient unto death, even the death of the stake.

Phi 2:9 Therefore God has highly exalted Him and He has also given to Him the Name which is greater than all names,

Phi 2:10 that at the name of Jeshua every knee will bow, which is in heaven, and on the earth, and which is under the earth,²

Phi 2:11 and that every tongue should confess that Jeshua the Anointed is Lord Jah,³ to the glory of God His Father.

Phi 2:12 Therefore, Beloved, just as you have always obeyed, not only when I am near to you, but all the more now when I am far away; in fear and in trembling, serve your Saviour,

Phi 2:13 for it is God who carefully works in you both to will and also to do what you desire to do.

Phi 2:14 Do everything you do without murmuring and without disputing,

Phi 2:15 that you may become perfect and without blemish, as the purified children of God who dwell in a harsh and crooked generation, and appear among them as lights in the world,

Phi 2:16 for you are to them in the place of life, so that my boast in the day of the Anointed is that I have not run for nothing nor have I laboured worthlessly.

Phi 2:17 But even if I am offered on the sacrifice and service of your faith, I rejoice and I exalt with you all.

Phi 2:18 In this way you also rejoice and exalt with me.

Phi 2:19 But I hope in our Lord Jeshua to send Timothy to you shortly, that I also will be refreshed when I learn about you.

Phi 2:20 For there is no one here like my soul, which is sincerely concerned for what is yours.

Phi 2:21 For they are all seeking for themselves, and not for what is of Messiah Jeshua.

Phi 2:22 But you know the proof of this one, that like a son with his father he has served with me in the Good News.

Phi 2:23 I hope to send this one to you soon, when I have seen how it goes with me.

Phi 2:24 And I trust in my Lord that I am also coming to you soon.

² Based on Isa 45:23, also Psa 72:8-11.

³ As in the Peshitta.

Phi 2:25 Yet a matter has urged me to send to you Epaphroditus, a brother who is a helper and worker with me, but your apostle and a servant of my needs;

Phi 2:26 because he was longing to see all of you, and he was distressed to know that you had heard that he was sick.

Phi 2:27 For he was sick almost unto death; but God had compassion upon him, and not only upon him but upon me also, lest it would be sorrow upon sorrow for me.

Phi 2:28 Therefore I sent him to you diligently, that when you see him again you will rejoice, and it will be a little rest for me.

Phi 2:29 Therefore receive him in Lord Jah¹ with all joy, and hold such men in honour;

Phi 2:30 because of his work for the Anointed he came close to death, and he scorned his soul to supply what was lacking in your service toward me.

Phi 3:1 Therefore, my brethren, rejoice in our Lord. Though I write these things to you, it is not tedious to me, for they protect you.

Phi 3:2 Beware of dogs, beware of evil workers, beware of the circumcisers!²

Phi 3:3 For we who serve God in the Spirit are the circumcision, and we glory in Jeshua the Anointed, for we do not trust in the flesh,

Phi 3:4 though for me, I could have also trusted in the flesh, for if anyone hopes that he may trust in the flesh, I more than he:

Phi 3:5 a son circumcised the eighth day, of the family of Israel, of the branch of Benjamin, a Hebrew son of a Hebrew; a Pharisee of the Instructions

Phi 3:6 with zeal, a persecutor of the congregations; and in the righteousness of the Instructions, I was faultless.

Phi 3:7 But these things that were advantages to me, I count them as losses because of the Anointed.

Phi 3:8 I also consider all these things a loss because of the majesty of the knowledge of Messiah Jeshua, my Lord, for whose sake I have lost everything, and consider them as a dung heap, that I may gain the Messiah,

Phi 3:9 and I may be found in Him, while not having my own righteousness which is from the Instructions but that which is from the faith of the Anointed, which is the righteousness that is from God;

Phi 3:10 that through it I may know Jeshua and the power of His resurrection, and I may share in His sufferings, and I may be conformed with His death,

Phi 3:11 that perhaps I may be in the resurrection from the house of the dead.

Phi 3:12 Not that I have already received it, or that I am already perfect; but I run on, that perhaps I may obtain that which Messiah Jeshua has obtained for me.

Phi 3:13 My brethren, I do not think to myself that I have obtained it; but one thing I know; I have forgotten those things which are behind me and I reach out before me, Phi 3:14 and I run toward the goal to take the victory of the high calling of God in the Anointed Jeshua.

Phi 3:15 Therefore let those who are perfected be governed by these things, and if you are governed by anything else, God will also reveal this to you.

Phi 3:16 However, so we may arrive at this one path, let us follow and be in one accord.

Phi 3:17 My brethren, imitate me, and you should observe those who walk in this way, according to the pattern you have seen in us.³

Phi 3:18 For there are many who are walking differently, and there are many times I have said to you about them, and now I weep as I say that these are enemies of the stake of the Anointed.

² Act 15:13-24, Rom 4:9-13

³ 1Co 11:1, 1Th 1:6

Phi 3:19 For their end is destruction, those whose god is their belly, and their glory is in their shame; these whose minds are on earthly things.

Phi 3:20 For our enterprise is in heaven, and it is from there that we look for the Saviour, our Anointed Lord Jeshua, Phi 3:21 for He will transform our humiliating body,¹ to become the image of His glorious body, according to His great power by which He is able to subdue everything to Himself.

Phi 4:1 Therefore, my beloved and dear brethren, my joy and my crown, stand like this in our Lord, my beloved.

Phi 4:2 I request from Euodia and from Syntyche that they be of one mind in our Lord.

Phi 4:3 Also I request of you, true son of my yoke, that you will help these who labour with me in the Good News, with Clement and my other helpers, those whose names are written in the Book of Life.

Phi 4:4 Rejoice in our Lord always. And again I say, rejoice!

Phi 4:5 Let your humility be known to everyone. Our Lord is near.

Phi 4:6 Do not be anxious, but always² be in prayer and in supplication, and let your requests be made known to God with thanksgiving;

Phi 4:7 and God, who is greater than all minds, will guard your hearts and your minds with His peace through the Anointed Jeshua.

Phi 4:8 Therefore, my brethren, those things that are true, those things that are pious, those things that are righteous, those things that are pure, those things that are loved, those things that are praiseworthy and those that are works of glory or of praise; meditate on these things.

Phi 4:9 These things which you learned and received and heard and saw from me, do these, and the God of Peace will be with you.

Phi 4:10 But I rejoiced greatly in our Lord that you have become concerned for what is mine; though you were concerned, but you were hindered.

Phi 4:11 Not that I said this because I had need, for I have learned that whatever there is, it will be enough for me:

Phi 4:12 I know what it is to be humbled, and I also know what it is to abound. In everything and in all things I learn in fullness and in hunger, also in wealth and in poverty,

Phi 4:13 Because I am powerful enough for all things through the Messiah who strengthens me.

Phi 4:14 However, you have done well in that you have shared in my afflictions.

Phi 4:15 Now you Philippians know also that in the beginning of the Good News, when I departed from Macedonia, not even one congregation shared with me concerning receiving and giving except you only.

Phi 4:16 For even in Thessalonica you sent my necessities once and twice.

Phi 4:17 Not that I seek the gift, but I seek the fruit that abounds to you.

Phi 4:18 Indeed I have all and abound. I am full, and I received all the things which you sent to me by Epaphroditus, a sweet aroma and acceptable sacrifice which pleases God.

Phi 4:19 And my God will satisfy all your needs according to His riches in glory by the Anointed Jeshua.

Phi 4:20 Now to God our Father is the glory and the honour forever and ever. Amen.

Phi 4:21 Invoke the peace of all the saints in the Anointed Jeshua. The brethren who are with me invoke your peace.

¹ In the sense of being weak, feeble and physical compared to our promised new body.

² Literally 'at every time'.

Phi 4:22 All of the saints invoke your peace, especially those who are of Caesar's household.

Phi 4:23 The grace of our Lord Jeshua the Messiah be with all of you. Amen.

Colossians

Col 1:1 Paul, an apostle of Jeshua the Anointed by the will of God, and Timothy our brother:

Col 1:2 To the holy brethren and believers in the Anointed Jeshua who are in Colossus: Peace to you and grace from God our Father.

Col 1:3 We thank God, the Father of our Anointed Lord Jeshua, and we always pray for you,

Col 1:4 behold, from when we heard of your faith in Jeshua the Messiah and of your love for all the saints;

Col 1:5 because of the hope which is kept for you in heaven, of which you heard before in the word of the truth of the Good News,

Col 1:6 which was preached to you, as it is also preached to all the world, and grows and yields fruit, just as it also has in you since the day when you heard and were taught the grace of God in Truth;

Col 1:7 as you learned from Epaphra, our beloved companion, who is a faithful servant of the Anointed for you,

Col 1:8 and he made known to us your love in the Spirit.

Col 1:9 For this reason, from the day we heard it, we do not cease to pray for you, and ask that you will be filled with the knowledge of God's pleasure in all wisdom and all understanding of the Spirit;

Col 1:10 that you may walk according to what is right and that you may please God in all good works, that you would yield fruit and increase in the knowledge of God;

Col 1:11 and you would be given strength, according to the majesty of His glory, in all patience and length of Spirit and in joy.

Col 1:12 Thank God the Father, who has made us worthy to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in the light.

Col 1:13 He has saved us from the power of darkness and brought us into the Kingdom of His beloved Son.

Col 1:14 He through whom we have salvation¹ and the forgiveness of our sins.

Col 1:15 He is the Image of the unseen God and the Firstborn of all creation.²

Col 1:16 By Him everything was created which is in heaven and on the earth, everything seen and everything unseen, whether thrones or dominions or principalities or powers. Everything has been created by His hand and for Him.³

Col 1:17 And He is the One before all, and all things exist through Him.

Col 1:18 And He is the head of the body, which is the congregation, for He is the Head and the Firstborn from the house of the dead, so He is the First in everything.

Col 1:19 For it pleased the Father that all the fullness should dwell in Him,

Col 1:20 and by Him to reconcile all things to Himself, and He made peace by the blood of His stake and by His hands, whether things that are on earth or things that are in heaven.

Col 1:21 And you, who were once foreigners and enemies in your mind by your evil works, He has now given you peace

Col 1:22 in the body of His flesh and in His death, to establish you before Him as holy ones, without blemish and without indictment;

Col 1:23 if you continue in your faith, while your foundation is true, and you are not moved from the hope of the Good News which you heard, which was preached to all creation under Heaven, of which I, Paul, became its servant.

Col 1:24 And I rejoice in my sufferings

for your sake, and I fill up what is lacking in the afflictions for the Anointed in my flesh, for the sake of His body, which is the congregation,¹

Col 1:25 of which I became its servant according to the stewardship from God which was given to me among you, that I would fulfil the Word of God,

Col 1:26 that mystery which has been hidden from the world and from generations, but now has been revealed to His saints.

Col 1:27 To those that God has chosen to make known what are the riches of the glory of this mystery among the gentiles; which is the Anointed who is in you, the Hope of our glory.

Col 1:28 Him we preach, and we teach and we educate every person in all wisdom, to be certain that every person is perfected in Jeshua the Anointed.

Col 1:29 I labour in this for Him, and I fight with the help of the power that is given to me.

Col 2:1 For I want you to know what conflicts I have for you and those in Laodicea, and for the others who have not seen my face in the flesh,

Col 2:2 that their hearts may be comforted, that they may approach in love, and all the riches of assurance and the understanding of the knowledge of the mystery of God the Father and of the Anointed,

Col 2:3 in whom are hidden all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge.

Col 2:4 Now I say this so no one should deceive you with persuasive words,

Col 2:5 for though I am separated from you in the flesh, I am with you in spirit, and I rejoice to see your organisation and the steadfastness of your faith in the Anointed.

Col 2:6 Therefore, as you have received our Lord Jeshua the Messiah, so walk in Him,

Col 2:7 strengthening your roots and being built up in Him and being established in your faith, that which you have learned, that you may abound with thanksgiving.

Col 2:8 Beware, lest anyone rob you through philosophy and empty deceit, according to the teachings of men, according to the principles of the world, and not according to the Anointed.

Col 2:9 For in Him dwells all the fullness of Divinity bodily;

Col 2:10 and in Him who is the Head of all principalities and powers you also are completed.

Col 2:11 In Him you were circumcised with the circumcision made without hands, by putting off the body of sins² through the circumcision of the Messiah, Col 2:12 and you were buried with Him in immersion, in which you also arose with Him because you believed in the power of God, who raised Him from the house of the dead.

Col 2:13 And you who have died through your sins and the uncircumcision of your flesh, He has given you life with Him, and has forgiven us all of our sins,

Col 2:14 and He has, by His authority, wiped out the record of our debts that was against us.³ And He took it from our midst, and He nailed it to His stake.⁴

Col 2:15 And by putting off His body, He stripped the principalities and the powers, and He publicly shamed them by His Existence.⁵

² The Greek RT adds "of the flesh,"

³ The Greek RT adds 'which was contrary to us'

⁴ Notice that it is the record of our sins that is nailed to Jeshua's Stake, not Jehovah's Instructions. God's Law is holy.

⁵ The Aramaic is Qnomeh קְנוּמֶה, which

¹ Paul does not mean there was anything missing in what Jeshua did on the Stake for our salvation. He is referring to the trials he must face as a Christian in nurturing the people in Messiah's congregations.

Col 2:16 Therefore let no one bother you about food or drink, or in regard to the feasts and the beginnings of months and sabbaths;

Col 2:17 because these are shadows of things to come, and the body is the Anointed.¹

Col 2:18 Neither let any one, delighting in false humility of mind, lead you to condemnation, subjugating you to the worship of envoys, by which he presumes to see something when there is nothing, and is puffed up by his fleshly mind,

Col 2:19 not taking hold of the Head, from whom the whole body is built and linked by joints and its members grow with the increase from God.

Col 2:20 Therefore, if you died with the Anointed to the principles of the world, why is it as if you are living in and being judged by the world?

Col 2:21 For it is: 'Do not touch, do not taste, do not handle,'

Col 2:22 which are things which will be destroyed; and these are the commandments and the teaching of the sons of men.²

Col 2:23 Though they appear to have a word of wisdom in them and the appearance of humility and worship of God and do not spare the body, there is no honour in keeping these things, for they are things which the body needs.

Col 3:1 Therefore, if you have risen with the Anointed, seek that which is above: the place where the Anointed sits at the indicates His essential nature or pure existence.

¹ These holy days (feasts) are important shadows of what is coming. Paul is telling us to keep them and to let only our true brothers and sisters in the Anointed (the Body of Christ) guide us in how to observe them. These 'shadows' give us understanding of God's Plan of Salvation. Paul himself also observed them as shown in Act 20:6, 1Co 16:8, Heb 4:9, etc.

² Isa 29:13, Mat 15:8-9, Mark 7:6-7

right hand of God.³

Col 3:2 Feed on that which is above, not that on the earth.

Col 3:3 For you have died, and your life is hidden with the Anointed in God.

Col 3:4 When the Anointed is revealed, who is our life, then you will also be revealed with Him in glory.⁴

Col 3:5 Therefore kill your earthly members, which are fornication, impurity, diseases, evil desires, and greed, which is idol worship.

Col 3:6 Because of these things the wrath of God is coming upon His disobedient children.⁵

Col 3:7 You also once walked in these things when you were working in them.

Col 3:8 But now you must put off all these things: anger, wrath, wickedness, blasphemy, filthy speech.

Col 3:9 Nor are you to lie to one another, but put off the old man with all of his ways,

Col 3:10 and put on the new man who is made new in knowledge and in the image of His Creator,⁶

Col 3:11 where there is neither Judean nor Syrian, neither circumcised nor uncircumcised, neither Greek nor barbarian, neither freeman nor slave, for the Anointed is all and in every person.

Col 3:12 Therefore, as the chosen ones of God, holy and beloved, put on mercy, compassion, kindness, humility of mind, gentleness, a patient spirit,⁷

Col 3:13 bearing with one another, and forgiving one another. And if anyone is outraged against his neighbour; just as the ⁷ Joh 14:20-24 makes it clear that Jeshua's spirit is in every person who commits themselves to keeping His word, but it is not placed in those who will not obey Him.

Anointed has forgiven you, so you also must forgive.

Col 3:14 And to all these things add love, which is the bond of perfection.

Col 3:15 And the peace of the Messiah will govern your hearts, to which you are called in one body; and you will thank the Messiah.

Col 3:16 Let His Word dwell in you richly in all wisdom, let you teach and instruct your souls in psalms and praises and songs of the Spirit, singing with grace in your hearts to God.

Col 3:17 And everything that you do, in words and works, do it in the Name of our Anointed Lord Jeshua, giving thanks to God the Father through Him.

Col 3:18 Wives, submit to your own husbands, as that is right in the Messiah.

Col 3:19 Husbands, love your wives and do not be bitter toward them.

Col 3:20 Children, obey your parents in all things, for this is pleasing before our Lord.

Col 3:21 Parents, do not provoke your children, lest they should lose heart.

Col 3:22 Servants, obey your masters in the flesh in all things, not just while in eye-sight as those who please men, but with a pure heart and in awe of Lord Jah.¹

Col 3:23 And do everything you do with all your souls, as to our Lord and not as to the children of men,

Col 3:24 and know that from our Lord you will receive a reward in the inheritance, for you serve the Anointed Lord Jah.²

Col 3:25 But he who does wrong will pay for the wrong which he has done, and there is no favouritism.³

Col 4:1 Lords, be just and fair to your servants, for you know that you also have your Lord in Heaven.⁴

Col 4:2 Continue in prayer, be vigilant in it and give thanks;

Col 4:3 also praying for us, that God would open to us the door to the Word, to speak the mystery of the Anointed, for whose sake I am bound,

Col 4:4 that I may reveal it and speak it, as it is necessary for me to do.

Col 4:5 Walk in wisdom toward the outsiders, and buy your opportunities.⁵

Col 4:6 Let your words always be with grace, as if seasoned with salt, and be aware of each person and how it is appropriate for you to answer.⁶

Col 4:7 Whatever news there is about me, Tukyqos, a beloved brother, trustworthy servant, and our companion in Lord Jah,⁷ will tell you.

Col 4:8 I am sending this one to you for this purpose, that he may know your circumstances and comfort your hearts,

Col 4:9 with Onesimus, a trustworthy and beloved brother, who is one of you. They will inform you about what is happening here.

Col 4:10 Aristarchus, who is a prisoner with me, invokes your peace, with Mark the nephew of Barnabas, about whom you received a directive: if he comes to you, you should receive him,

Col 4:11 and Jeshua who is called Justus. These are my only helpers in the Kingdom of God who are from the circumcision and they have been a comfort to me.

Col 4:12 Epaphra, who is one of you, invokes your peace. He is a servant of the Anointed who always labours for you in prayer, that you may stand perfect and complete in the whole pleasure of God.

Col 4:13 For I testify of him that he has a great zeal for you, and for those who are

First Thessalonians

1Th 1:1 Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy: To the congregation of Thessalonica in God the Father and in our Anointed Lord Jeshua: Grace to you and peace.

1Th 1:2 We give thanks to God always for all of you, and we are reminded of you constantly in our prayers,

1Th 1:3 and we recall before God the Father your works of faith, and your labours of love, and the patience of your hope in our Anointed Lord Jeshua, 1Th 1:4 for we know, my beloved brethren, of your selection by God.

1Th 1:5 For our outreach to you was not in words only, but also in power and in the Holy Spirit, and your conviction was true, as you know how we were among you for your sake.

1Th 1:6 And you imitated us and our Lord, for you received the Word in much affliction, and in the joy of the Holy Spirit,¹ 1Th 1:7 and so you became examples to all the believers in Macedonia and Achaia.

1Th 1:8 For from you the Word of our Lord has been heard, not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but also in every place where your faith in God is heard, such that we do not need to say anything about you.

1Th 1:9 For they tell us what an introduction we had to you, and how you turned to God from the fear of idols, to serve the Living and True God, 1Th 1:10 as you wait for Jeshua—His Son from Heaven—whom He raised from the house of the dead; He is the one who delivers us from the wrath to come.

1Th 2:1 And you, my brethren, you know that our introduction to you has not been for nothing.

1Th 2:2 But first we suffered and were abused at Philippi, as you know, and then, in a great struggle, we spoke with you boldly of our God and the Good News of the Messiah.

1Th 2:3 For our comfort was not from deception, nor uncleanness, nor by treachery.

1Th 2:4 But as we have been approved by God to be entrusted with His Good News, even so we speak, not as if we would please men, but God who proves our hearts.

1Th 2:5 For we did not speak with flattering words at any time, as you know, nor as a pretext for covetousness; God is our witness.

1Th 2:6 Nor do we seek glory from men, not from you and not from others, when we might have been honoured as apostles of Messiah.

1Th 2:7 But we were humble among you, just like a breastfeeding mother who cherishes her children.

1Th 2:8 So, we cherish you and long to give you not only the Good News of God, but also our souls, because you are our beloved.

1Th 2:9 For you remember, brethren, that we were toiling and labouring with works of our hands by night and day, that we would not be a burden to any of you.

1Th 2:10 You and God are witnesses of how we preached the Good News of God to you, purely and justly, and we were faultless toward all those who believe;

1Th 2:11 as you know, just as a father does with his children, that we have been pleading and we are filling your hearts and exhorting you

1Th 2:12 to walk suitably towards God who called you into His kingdom and to His glory.

1Th 2:13 For this reason we also thank God constantly, that the Word of God which you received from us, you did not receive it as the word of men, but as it truly is, the Word of God, which is working its works among those who believe.

1Th 2:14 For you, my brethren, imitated those congregations of God which are in Judea who are in the Anointed Jeshua. So you also suffered from your own countrymen, just as they did from the Judeans,

1Th 2:15 who murdered our Lord Jeshua and their own prophets, and they have persecuted us; and they do not please God and have become opposed to all men, 1Th 2:16 for they forbid us to speak with the gentiles that they may be saved, so they always fulfil their sins; but wrath has come upon them until the end.

1Th 2:17 But we, brethren, felt bereaved of contact with you for a short time, but not in our hearts, and we endeavoured even more to see your faces with great love.

1Th 2:18 And we wanted to come to you; even I, Paul, time and time again; but Satan hindered me.

1Th 2:19 For what is our hope and our joy and our crown of glory? It is only you before our Anointed Lord Jeshua at His coming, 1Th 2:20 for you are our glory and our joy.

1Th 3:1 Because we could not resist any longer, we chose to remain in Athens alone,

1Th 3:2 and we sent Timothy to you, our brother and servant of God, and our helper in the Good News of the Anointed, that he may strengthen you and inquire how you are concerning your faith, 1Th 3:3 lest any of you should lose their hope by afflictions; for you are aware that we are appointed to such things as these.

1Th 3:4 For, when we were with you before, we said to you that we would be persecuted, just as you know it happened.

1Th 3:5 Therefore, when I could not restrain myself, I sent to know your faith, lest the tempter had tempted you, and our labour would be worthless.

1Th 3:6 But now that Timothy has come back to us from you, and he gave us good news about your faith and your love, and that you have good memories of us everywhere, and that you greatly desire to see us, just as we also to see you;

1Th 3:7 therefore, brethren, we were comforted by you above all our adversaries and afflictions, because of your faith.

1Th 3:8 For now we live, if you abide in our Lord.

1Th 3:9 For what thanks can we render to God for you, for all the joy with which we rejoice before our God because of you,

1Th 3:10 except that we pray all the more earnestly before God by night and by day, that we may see your faces and perfect what is lacking in your faith?

1Th 3:11 But God our Father, and our Anointed Lord Jeshua, will direct our way to you.

1Th 3:12 And may He multiply and increase your love to one another and to everyone, just as we love you, 1Th 3:13 so that He may establish your hearts faultless in holiness before God our Father at the coming of our Anointed Lord Jeshua, who is with all of His saints.

1Th 4:1 Therefore, my brethren, we beg of you and we pray earnestly for you in our Lord Jeshua that just as you received us, how necessary it is that you should walk with and please God, that you may grow even more;

1Th 4:2 for you know those commandments we gave to you from our Lord Jeshua.

1Th 4:3 For this is the will of God: your holiness and that you should separate yourselves from all fornication;¹

1Th 4:4 and that each one of you will know how to possess their vessel in holiness and in honour,

1Th 4:5 and not in the passion of lust, like the other gentiles who do not know God;

1Th 4:6 nor should you presume to violate and take advantage of someone or his brother in this matter, because our Lord is the avenger of all, as we also said to you several times before and we testified to you.¹

1Th 4:7 For God has not called you to impurity, but to holiness.

1Th 4:8 Therefore whoever defrauds, he does not defraud man but God; Him who places His Holy Spirit in you.

1Th 4:9 But concerning brotherly love you do not need to be written to, for you yourselves are taught by God to love one another;

1Th 4:10 and you are doing so toward all the brethren who are in all Macedonia. But I beg of you, my brethren, that you abound supremely;

1Th 4:11 and that you will be diligent, peaceful and occupied with your own business, that you work with your hands, just as we commanded you,

1Th 4:12 that you will be walking properly toward outsiders, and that you are not dependant on a man.

1Th 4:13 But I want you to know, my brethren, that you should not be sorrowing for those who sleep like the rest of mankind who have no hope.

1Th 4:14 For if we believe that Jeshua died and rose up, even so God will bring those who have fallen asleep in Jeshua with Him.

1Th 4:15 For this we say to you by the word of our Lord, that we who have life which remains until the coming of our Lord will not overtake those who are asleep.

1Th 4:16 For our Lord, with a command and with the voice of the head envoy and with the blast of the trumpet of God, will descend from heaven. And those who died and are in the Messiah will rise first.

1Th 4:17 And then we who remain and who have life, we will be carried away with them, as one in the clouds, to meet with our Lord in the air. And in this way we will always be with our Lord.

1Th 4:18 Therefore, comfort one another with these words.²

1Th 5:1 But about the times and the seasons, my brethren, you do not need to be written to.

1Th 5:2 For truly, you yourselves know that the Day of our Lord comes like a thief in the night.

1Th 5:3 When they say there is peace and quiet, then from the silence, destruction will rise upon them, as labour pains upon a pregnant woman. And they will not escape.

1Th 5:4 But you, my brethren, you are not in darkness, that this day, like a thief, should overtake you.

1Th 5:5 For all of you are children of light and are children of the day and you are not children of the night nor children of darkness.

1Th 5:6 Therefore let us not sleep, as the rest do, but let us be watchful and prudent.³

1Th 5:7 For those who sleep are sleeping in the night, and those who drink are drunk in the night.

1Th 5:8 But we who are children of the day, let us be vigilant in our minds, and put on the breastplate of faith and love, and let us take the helmet of the hope of Life.⁴

1Th 5:9 For God has not appointed us to wrath, but to obtain salvation in our Anointed Lord Jeshua;

1Th 5:10 He died for our sake, so if we are awake or if we sleep, we will live as one with Him.

1Th 5:11 Therefore comfort one another and build one another up, just as you also are doing.

1Th 5:12 But we beg of you, my brethren, that you will recognize those who labour among you, and have standing among you in our Lord and teach you,

1Th 5:13 that you let them be esteemed by you in great love and because of their works be at peace with them.

1Th 5:14 Now we beg you, my brethren, correct wrongdoers and encourage the feeble souls, bear the burdens of the weak and be patient to every person.

1Th 5:15 Beware lest anyone repays evil with evil, but always pursue what is good for each and every person.

1Th 5:16 Rejoice at all times,

1Th 5:17 pray without ceasing,

1Th 5:18 in everything give thanks; for this is the will of God in Messiah Jeshua for you.

1Th 5:19 Do not quench the Spirit.

1Th 5:20 Do not reject prophecies.

1Th 5:21 Examine everything and hold fast what is excellent.

1Th 5:22 Flee from every form of evil.

1Th 5:23 Now He, the God of Peace, will make you completely holy; your entire spirit and your soul and your body. He will keep you faultless for the coming of our Anointed Lord Jeshua.¹

1Th 5:24 He who calls you is faithful, and it is He who will do it.

1Th 5:25 My brethren, pray for us.

1Th 5:26 Invoke the peace of all our brethren with a holy kiss.

1Th 5:27 I bind you by our Lord that this letter be read to all the holy brethren.

1Th 5:28 The grace of our Lord Jeshua the Messiah be with you. Amen.

Second Thessalonians

2Th 1:1 Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy: To the congregation of the Thessalonians in God our Father and our Anointed Lord Jeshua:

2Th 1:2 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and from our Lord Jeshua the Anointed.

2Th 1:3 We must give thanks to God for you always, my brethren, which becomes all the more necessary as your faith grows, and the love of every one of you increases towards his neighbour,

2Th 1:4 so that we boast of you in the congregations of God for your faith and endurance in all your persecutions and sufferings that you endure,

2Th 1:5 which is a demonstration of God's righteous judgement, that you may be worthy of His kingdom, for whose sake you suffer;

2Th 1:6 and if it is righteous, for God to reward those who trouble you with suffering,

2Th 1:7 and He will save you who are tormented with us when our Anointed Lord Jeshua is revealed, who will come from heaven with armies of His envoys,

2Th 1:8 when He takes vengeance with blazing fire on those who do not know God, and on those who do not acknowledge the Good News of our Anointed Lord Jeshua.¹

2Th 1:9 These will be paid with the judgement of everlasting destruction from the face of our Lord and from the glory of His power,²

2Th 1:10 when He comes to be glorified in His saints and will show His wonders in His believers in that Day, because you who believed our witness to you.

² Rev 6:14-16 & Rev 21:8, Mat 18:8, Mat 25:41 & 46. Note that the destruction is everlasting, not the process of destructing.

2Th 1:11 Therefore we always pray for you that God would make you worthy of your calling, and would completely fill you with the pleasure of goodness and works of faith in power, 2Th 1:12 that the Name of our Anointed Lord Jeshua may be glorified by you, and you also by Him, according to the grace of our God and our Lord Jeshua the Messiah.

2Th 2:1 Now we ask you, my brethren, concerning the coming of our Anointed Lord Jeshua and concerning our assembling unto Him,

2Th 2:2 that you not be soon shaken in your minds nor be troubled, not by word nor by spirit nor by a letter that seems as if it is from us, saying "Behold, the day of our Lord has come."³

2Th 2:3 so no one will deceive you by any means to that effect. Truly, it will not come until there is first the rebellion,⁴ and the man of sin will be revealed, the son of destruction,

2Th 2:4 who opposes and exalts himself against everything that is called God and religion, so that he will also sit in the Palace of God as God, and he will portray himself as if he is God.⁵

2Th 2:5 Do you not remember that when I was with you I told you these things?

2Th 2:6 And now you know what controls this, and that he will be revealed in his time.

2Th 2:7 For the Mystery of Iniquity has already begun to work; surely that which alone restrains now will be taken from the midst.

2Th 2:8 And then the Iniquity will be revealed, which our Lord Jeshua will consume with a breath from His mouth and He will destroy him with the revelation of His coming.¹

2Th 2:9 The coming of that one is in the workings of Satan, with all power, signs, and false wonders, 2Th 2:10 and with all the deceptions of iniquity in those who are perishing, for they did not receive the love of the truth, that they would have life.

2Th 2:11 Because of this God sent them active deceptions, that they will believe lies.

2Th 2:12 They will be judged: all those who did not believe the truth but chose iniquity.

2Th 2:13 But we owe thanks to God always for you, brethren beloved by our Lord, for God from the beginning has chosen you for salvation through sanctification by the Spirit and by belief in the truth, 2Th 2:14 to which He called you by our Good News, that you may glorify our Anointed Lord Jeshua.

2Th 2:15 Therefore, my brethren, be established and hold fast to the commandments which you were taught, whether by word or our letter.

2Th 2:16 Now He, our Lord Jeshua the Messiah, and God our Father, who have loved us and given us everlasting comfort and good hope by His grace;

2Th 2:17 may He comfort and establish your hearts in all words and every good work.

2Th 3:1 From now on, brethren, pray for us, that the word of our Lord will be running and be glorified in every place, as it is with you, 2Th 3:2 and that we will be saved from evil and vicious men; for not every person is of the faith.

2Th 3:3 For Lord Jah² is faithful; He will keep you and will deliver you from evil.

2Th 3:4 And we put our trust in you in our Lord, that whatever we command you, you have done and you will also do.

2Th 3:5 And our Lord will guide your hearts into the love of God and into preaching the Anointed.

2Th 3:6 But we command you, my brethren, in the name of our Anointed Lord Jeshua, that you keep separate from every brother who walks in evil and wickedness and not according to the commandments which they received from us.

2Th 3:7 For you know yourselves that it is right to imitate us, for we have not walked in evil and wickedness among you;³

2Th 3:8 nor have we eaten anyone's bread free of charge, but we worked with labour and toil night and day, that we would not be a burden upon any of you.

2Th 3:9 It was not because we do not have authority, but that by our lives we would be an example to you, that you may imitate us.

2Th 3:10 For when we were with you, we also commanded you this: That everyone who is not willing to work, neither will he eat.

2Th 3:11 For we hear that there are some who walk among you in evil and wickedness, who do not work and do nothing.

2Th 3:12 Now those who are such we command and exhort them in our Anointed Lord Jeshua that they work in quietness and eat their bread.⁴

2Th 3:13 But you, my brethren, you should not grow weary in doing what is excellent.

2Th 3:14 And if anyone does not obey these words in this letter, separate that person from you and do not take part with him, that he may be ashamed.

2Th 3:15 Yet do not treat him as an enemy, but you will admonish him as a 2Th 3:18 The grace of our Anointed Lord Jeshua be with all of you. Amen.

First Timothy

1Ti 1:1 Paul, an apostle of Jeshua the Anointed, according to the commandment of God our Lifegiver and the Lord Jeshua the Messiah, our hope:

1Ti 1:2 To Timothy, a true child in the faith: Grace, mercy, and peace from God our Father and our Anointed Lord Jeshua.

1Ti 1:3 As I asked you when I went into Macedonia; remain in Ephesus, and you are to command certain men to not teach any different teachings, 1Ti 1:4 and they should not give heed to fables and genealogy accounts which never end. These things cause more disputes and not edification in faith of God.

1Ti 1:5 Now the sum of the commandments is love from a pure heart, and from a good conscience, and from true faith, 1Ti 1:6 and some people have strayed from these things and they have turned away to empty words.

1Ti 1:7 They seek to be teachers of the Instructions, while they do not understand anything that they say nor the things about which they argue.

1Ti 1:8 But we know that the Instructions are good if a person will be lead by the Instructions,

1Ti 1:9 though he knows that the Instructions were not appointed for the righteous person, but for the iniquitous and for the rebellious and for the wicked and for the sinners and for the vicious; and for those who are impure; and for those who strike their fathers and for those who strike their mothers, and for murderers,

1Ti 1:10 and for fornicators, and for males who lie with males, and for thieves who steal the freedom of children, and for liars, and for those who violate their oaths, and for all things that are opposed to the sound teaching

1Ti 1:11 of the glorious Good News of the happy God with which I have been entrusted.

1Ti 1:12 And I thank Him who has enabled me, our Lord Jeshua the Messiah, because He counted me trustworthy and He has put me into His service, 1Ti 1:13 I who was formerly a blasphemer, a persecutor, and abusive; but I obtained mercy because I did it while I was ignorant and without faith.

1Ti 1:14 And the grace of our Lord abounded in me, and the faith and love which are in the Anointed Jeshua.

1Ti 1:15 This is a faithful saying and worthy of acceptance; that Messiah Jeshua came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am chief.

1Ti 1:16 Because of this He showed me mercy, that Jeshua the Anointed might show all of the patience of His spirit in me first, as an example for those who are going to believe in Him for everlasting life.

1Ti 1:17 Now to the King of eternity, to Him who is indestructible and invisible, the One God, be honour and glory for eternities of eternity. Amen.

1Ti 1:18 This charge I commit to you, my son Timothy, according to the previous prophecies about you, that by them you may wage this excellent warfare,

1Ti 1:19 having faith and a good conscience. For those who have rejected this have had their faith emptied, 1Ti 1:20 like Hymenaeus and Alexander, whom I delivered to Satan so they may learn that they should not blaspheme.

1Ti 2:1 Therefore I beg of you that first of all you will offer supplications to God, and prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks for the sake of all the children of men, 1Ti 2:2 for the sake of kings and rulers, that we may have a quiet and peaceful way of life in complete reverence and purity to God.

1Ti 2:3 For this is pleasing and acceptable

before God our Saviour,

1Ti 2:4 who wants all the children of men to have life and for them to return to the knowledge of the truth.¹

1Ti 2:5 For One is God and One is Mediator between God and the children of men, the Son of Man; Jeshua the Anointed.

1Ti 2:6 He gave Himself as a ransom instead of every person, as a testimony that came in its time, 1Ti 2:7 for which I am appointed as its preacher and an apostle of truth. I say, and I do not lie, that I am a teacher of the gentiles in belief of the Truth.

1Ti 2:8 Therefore I want men in every place to pray, lifting up their hands in purity, without anger and without schemes;

1Ti 2:9 in this way also, that in fashion the women will be modestly dressed, with propriety and their adornments will be moderate, not with braids of gold or pearls or costly clothing, 1Ti 2:10 but with good works, which is suitable for women who profess to worship God.

1Ti 2:11 Let a woman learn in silence with all submission.

1Ti 2:12 For I do not allow a woman to teach nor to take authority over a man, for she should be quiet.

1Ti 2:13 For Adam was formed first and then Chavvah.²

1Ti 2:14 And Adam was not deceived, but the woman was deceived, and violated the command.³

1Ti 2:15 Nevertheless she will live through her children if they continue in faith, love, and holiness, with modesty.

¹ God wants all to repent. But He has given us free will, and will not force anyone to repent.

² The first woman's name in Hebrew is Chavvah and in Aramaic it is Chava חַוָּה, which means Life. Eve is from life in Greek (Eva).

³ Gen 2:18-3:13

1Ti 3:1 This is a faithful saying: If a man desires to be an elder, he desires a good work.

1Ti 3:2 But an elder ought to be such that no faults are found in him, and be the husband of one wife, have a vigilant mind, be sober, of good behaviour, love strangers and be a teacher;

1Ti 3:3 and he should not transgress with wine, nor his hand be quick to strike, for he should be gentle, not quarrelsome, nor love money;

1Ti 3:4 and he leads his own house well, having his children in submission in all purity;

1Ti 3:5 for if he does not know how to lead his own house well, how can he lead the congregation of God?

1Ti 3:6 Nor should he be a recent disciple, lest he becomes lifted up and falls into the judgement of Satan.

1Ti 3:7 And he must have an excellent testimony from outsiders, lest he fall into shame and the snare of Satan.

1Ti 3:8 Likewise Servants must be pure, should not speak two things,⁴ nor should they be inclined to much wine, nor love defiled riches, 1Ti 3:9 but they should hold the mystery of the faith with a pure conscience.

1Ti 3:10 And they should first be proved; and then let them serve when they are without fault.

1Ti 3:11 Likewise, their wives should be modest, and will have alert minds, and will be faithful in all things, and they should not be slanderers.

1Ti 3:12 He who has one wife, and leads his children and his house well may be a Servant.

1Ti 3:13 For those who serve well obtain a good standing for themselves and great boldness in the faith of the Anointed Jeshua.

1Ti 3:14 These things I write to you, and I

⁴ That is, two different versions of the one thing.

hope that I will come to you soon;

1Ti 3:15 but if I am delayed, I write so you may know how it is necessary to behave in the household of God, which is the congregation of the Living God, the pillar and foundation of the Truth.

1Ti 3:16 And truly this is a great mystery of righteousness: He was revealed in the flesh and justified in the Spirit. He appeared to envoys and was preached among the gentiles. He was trusted in the world and ascended into glory.

1Ti 4:1 Now the Spirit says clearly that in the last times they will depart from the faith one by one, and they will go after deceiving spirits and after the teachings of demons;

1Ti 4:2 these will have false forms to deceive and speak lies, searing their consciences, 1Ti 4:3 and they will forbid marriage and abstain from those foods which God created for use and for thanksgiving by those who believe and know the Truth.

1Ti 4:4 For every creation is good to God,¹ and nothing is rejected if it can be received with thanksgiving;

1Ti 4:5 for it is sanctified by the Word of God and by prayer.²

1Ti 4:6 If you will teach these things to your brethren, you will be a good servant of Jeshua the Anointed, as you are brought up by words of faith and by the good teachings which have been taught to you.

1Ti 4:7 But abstain from the insipid fables of old women, and train yourself in righteousness.

1Ti 4:8 Though bodily exercise profits a little at this time, righteousness is profitable in everything, for it has a promise of life in this time and in the future.

1Ti 4:9 This is a faithful saying and worthy of acceptance.

1Ti 4:10 Because of this we labour and we are reproached, because we hope in the Living God, who is the Saviour of all the children of men, especially those who believe.

1Ti 4:11 These things teach and command.

1Ti 4:12 And do not let anyone despise your youth, but be an example to the believers in word, in conduct, in love, in faith and in purity.

1Ti 4:13 Until I come, give attention to reading, to prayer and to teaching.

1Ti 4:14 Do not despise the gift that is in you, which was given to you by prophecy and by the laying on of the hands of the elders.

1Ti 4:15 Meditate on these things and live in them, that you may be known to everyone you come before.

1Ti 4:16 Take heed to your soul and to your teaching. Persevere in them, for when you do these things your soul will live, and those who hear you.

1Ti 5:1 Do not rebuke an elder, but petition him as a father, and those who are younger as your brothers, 1Ti 5:2 and the older women as mothers and those who are younger as your sisters, with all purity.

1Ti 5:3 You are to honour those widows who are truly widows.

1Ti 5:4 But if a widow has her children or grandchildren, let them first learn that they should be assigned to their children's households and they should repay their parents; for this is acceptable before God.

1Ti 5:5 But if she is truly a widow, and is alone, this one's hope is upon God and she continues in prayers and supplications night and day.

² Leviticus 11 lists those meats that are sanctified by God's Word and tells us which ones are not sanctified, and therefore unclean. Prayer and giving thanks are also required, but they cannot convert a food which God has declared to be unclean into one that is sanctified.

1Ti 5:6 But she who worships the Arena¹ is dead while she lives.

1Ti 5:7 You will command them about these things, that they may be without fault.

1Ti 5:8 But if anyone does not take care of his own, and especially those who are children of the household of faith, he has renounced his faith and is worse than those who do not believe.

1Ti 5:9 Therefore you will choose a widow who is not less than sixty years old, and who had one husband, 1Ti 5:10 and she has a testimony of good works: if she has brought up children, if she has received strangers, if she has washed the saints' feet, if she has relieved the afflicted, and if she has walked in every good work.

1Ti 5:11 But avoid providing for the younger widows; for they may separate from the Anointed, and seek to have a husband, 1Ti 5:12 and their judgement is determined, if they have rejected their former faith.

1Ti 5:13 And they also learn to be lazy, going around from house to house, and not only being lazy, but also gossips, taking up vain activities and talking about inappropriate things.

1Ti 5:14 Therefore, I am willing that those younger widows marry, bear children, manage their homes, and not give our adversaries even one instance of abuse.

1Ti 5:15 For until now, they have begun to turn after Satan, one by one.

1Ti 5:16 If any believing man or woman has widows, let them support them, and do not let them be a burden on the congregation, that it may have enough for those who are truly widows.

1Ti 5:17 Those elders who are leading well deserve double honour, especially those who toil in the word and in teaching.

1Ti 5:18 For the Writings say, "Do not muzzle the ox while it is treading," and, "The labourer deserves his wages."²

1Ti 5:19 Do not accept an accusation against an elder except from the mouth of two or three witnesses.³

1Ti 5:20 Rebuke those who are sinning before everyone, that the rest of the people may also fear.

1Ti 5:21 I charge you before God and our Anointed Lord Jeshua and His chosen envoys that you will observe these things and do not let your mind be prejudiced by anything, and do not do anything with favouritism.

1Ti 5:22 Do not lay hands on anyone hastily, nor share in foreigners' sins; keep yourself pure.

1Ti 5:23 No longer drink only water, but drink a little wine because of your stomach and because of your ongoing illness.

1Ti 5:24 There are some children of men whose sins are known, and they precede them to the house of judgement, and there are those which go after them.

1Ti 5:25 Likewise, the good works of some are known, and those that are otherwise they cannot conceal.

1Ti 6:1 Let those who are under the yoke of bondage hold their masters in all honour, that the Name of God and His teaching will not be blasphemed.

1Ti 6:2 And those who have believing masters, let them not despise them because they are their brethren, but rather serve them because they are beloved believers whom they are refreshing with their service. Teach these things and request their obedience.

1Ti 6:3 But if anyone teaches another teaching and does not consent to these sound words of our Anointed Lord Jeshua, and the teaching of the reverence of God,

¹ "the Arena", signifies also the gladiator exhibitions, theatre and other non-sanctifying worldly entertainment.

 1Ti 6:4 this one is proud though he knows nothing, for he is ineffective, involved in disputes and in arguments about words, from which come envy, strife, blasphemy, establishing an evil mind, 1Ti 6:5 and the misery of the children of men who corrupt their minds and they are cheated of the truth, and they think that making money is the worship of God. But you, stay away from these things.

1Ti 6:6 For our great profit is the worship of God, and in the necessities we have enough.

1Ti 6:7 For we brought nothing into the world, and we know that we can take nothing out of it.

1Ti 6:8 Therefore, having food and clothing is enough for us.

1Ti 6:9 But those who desire to be rich fall into temptations and into traps, and into many foolish and harmful lusts and the children of men sink into corruption and destruction.

1Ti 6:10 For the root of all these evils is the love of money, and there are some who have desired it and strayed from the faith, and have brought themselves many miseries.

1Ti 6:11 But you, O man of God, escape from these things and pursue righteousness, justice, faith, love, patience and gentleness.

1Ti 6:12 Fight well in the contest of faith, and grab hold of everlasting life, to which you are called and you have professed the good profession before many witnesses.

1Ti 6:13 I testify to you before God who gives life to all, and before Messiah Jeshua who testified an excellent testimony before Pontius Pilate,¹

1Ti 6:14 that you keep the commandments without being defiled and without blemish until the revelation of our Lord Jeshua, the Messiah,

1Ti 6:15 He who is going to reveal in His time the Happy God, the mighty One who is the only King of Kings and Lord of Power,² 1Ti 6:16 He alone is incorruptible, dwelling in light which is impossible for a human to approach, and none of the children of man has seen nor even can see Him,³ to whom be honour and authority for an eternity of eternities. Amen.

1Ti 6:17 Order the rich of this world to not be lifted up in their minds, and that they should not trust in wealth, for there is no certainty in it; but upon the Living God, who gives richly to all of us for our comfort.

1Ti 6:18 They should do good works, and they should be rich in good deeds, ready to give and to share.

1Ti 6:19 Then they will lay up for themselves a good foundation for the time to come, that they may lay hold of true life.

1Ti 6:20 O Timothy! Guard what is committed to you, and escape from the voice of emptiness and from the perversions of false knowledge;

1Ti 6:21 for those who profess it have gone astray from the faith. Grace be with you. Amen.

Second Timothy

2Ti 1:1 Paul, an apostle of Jeshua the Anointed by the will of God, and by the promise of Life¹ which is in the Anointed Jeshua:

2Ti 1:2 To Timothy, beloved son: Grace, love, and peace from God the Father and from the Messiah, Jeshua our Lord.

2Ti 1:3 I thank God, whom I serve with a pure conscience, from my forefathers, as I remember you constantly in my prayers night and day,

2Ti 1:4 and I long to see you, and I remember your tears, that I am filled with joy,

2Ti 1:5 with my remembrance of your genuine faith, which first began in your grandmother Lois and your mother Eunice, and I am convinced is in you also.²

2Ti 1:6 Therefore I remind you to stir up the gift of God which is in you through the laying on of hands.³

2Ti 1:7 For God has not given us a spirit of fear, but of power and of love and of Instruction.

2Ti 1:8 Therefore do not be ashamed of the witness of our Lord, nor of me His prisoner, but overtake the evil with the Good News by the power of God;

2Ti 1:9 He has saved us and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to His will and the grace which was given to us in Jeshua the Messiah before the world began,⁴

2Ti 1:10 and is revealed now in the revelation of our Saviour Jeshua the Anointed, who has destroyed death and brought life and incorruption by the Good

News,⁵

2Ti 1:11 and I am appointed as a preacher by Him, and an apostle and a teacher of the gentiles.

2Ti 1:12 Because of this I endure these things; and I am not ashamed, for I know in whom I have believed and I am convinced that my trust has come into His hands and He will keep it for me until that Day.⁶

2Ti 1:13 Let the sound words which you have heard from me be your model in the faith and love which are in the Anointed Jeshua.

2Ti 1:14 Keep the good trust by the Holy Spirit who dwells in us.

2Ti 1:15 This you know, that all of those in Asia have turned away from me, among whom are Pugelos and Hermogenes.

2Ti 1:16 May our Lord be compassionate to the household of Onesiphorus, who many times refreshed me, and he was not ashamed of the chains of my bondage, 2Ti 1:17 for when he came to Rome, he sought me diligently and found me.

2Ti 1:18 May our Lord grant to him that he may find mercy with our Lord in that Day; and you know how he served me, especially at Ephesus.

2Ti 2:1 Therefore you, my son, be strengthened in the grace that is in the Anointed Jeshua.

2Ti 2:2 And the things that you have heard from me through many witnesses, those things that I have entrusted to faithful men, it has come into their hands to teach others also.

2Ti 2:3 Endure evil as a good soldier of Jeshua the Anointed.⁷

2Ti 2:4 For a soldier, not a man, is bound in the affairs of the world, to please him who has chosen him.

2Ti 2:5 And if anyone competes, he is not crowned unless he competes according to the rules.

2Ti 2:6 It is fitting that the ploughman is the first to be sustained by his harvest.

2Ti 2:7 Consider what I say, and may our Lord give you wisdom in all things.

2Ti 2:8 Remember that Jeshua the Anointed, who is of the seed of David, is He who arose from the house of the dead according to my Good News,¹ 2Ti 2:9 for which I suffer evil as if I am an evil-doer, even unto chains; but the Word of God is not chained.

2Ti 2:10 Therefore I endure all things for the selected ones, that they also may find the salvation which is in the Anointed Jeshua with everlasting glory.

2Ti 2:11 This is a faithful word: If we died with Him, we will also live with Him.

2Ti 2:12 If we suffer, we will also reign with Him. But if we reject Him, He will also reject us.²

2Ti 2:13 And if we do not believe in Him, He continues to be faithful, for He cannot reject Himself.

2Ti 2:14 Keep reminding them of these things, charging them before our Lord that they should not dispute about words to no benefit, to the ruin of those who hear such things.

2Ti 2:15 Take care of yourself and present yourself perfectly before God as a worker without shame who preaches the Word of Truth straightforwardly.

2Ti 2:16 But avoid empty words from which there is no benefit, for they who speak them will add more and more to their wickedness.

2Ti 2:17 And their speech is like a consuming cancer which will seize many. For Hymenaeus is one of them and Philetus another;

2Ti 2:18 they have strayed from the truth, saying that the resurrection of the dead has already occurred; and they overthrow the faith of some men.³

2Ti 2:19 Nevertheless the foundation of God stands firm, that has this seal to it: "Jehovah knows those who are His,"⁴ and, "Let everyone who names the Name of Jehovah stay separate from iniquity."⁵

2Ti 2:20 But in a great house there are not only vessels of gold or silver in it, but also of wood and ceramics, some for honour and some for dishonour.

2Ti 2:21 Therefore if anyone will purify himself from these, he is a pure vessel for honour that is suitable for the use of His Lord, prepared for every good work.

2Ti 2:22 Escape from all the youthful lusts; and run after righteousness, faith, love, and peace with those who call on our Lord with a pure heart.

2Ti 2:23 But avoid the disputes of the foolish and ignorant, for you know that they generate conflict.⁶

2Ti 2:24 And a servant of our Lord should not quarrel but be gentle to everyone, teaching with a patient spirit,

2Ti 2:25 that he may teach those who dispute against him humbly; perhaps God will grant them repentance, and they will know the truth,

2Ti 2:26 and they will remember their souls and break free from the snare of Satan, who has captured them to do his will.⁷

2Ti 3:1 But you know this, that in the last days perilous times will come:

2Ti 3:2 and the children of men will be lovers of themselves, and lovers of money,

2Ti 3:5 Yet they have a form of respect for God but they are far from His power. Remove yourself from people such as these.

2Ti 3:6 For some of them are those who crawl from house to house and capture women who are buried in their sins, and led to various lusts;

2Ti 3:7 who are always learning and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth.

2Ti 3:8 Just as Jannes and Jambres rose against Moses, so do these also stand against the truth: people who corrupt their minds and are rejected from the faith;²

2Ti 3:9 but they will not advance, for their madness is known to everyone, just as theirs was also known.

2Ti 3:10 But you have followed my teaching, my manner of life, my love, my endurance, my desire, my faith, my patient spirit, 2Ti 3:11 my persecutions, my afflictions, and you know those things that I endured at Antioch, at Iconium, and at Lystra. What persecutions I endured, and my Lord delivered me from them all.

2Ti 3:12 But all those who choose to live in the worship of God in the Anointed Jeshua will be persecuted.

2Ti 3:13 And evil men and deceivers will add to their evils as they deceive and go astray.

2Ti 3:16 Every Writing which is written by the Spirit of God is profitable for teaching, for correction, for direction and for guidance in righteousness,³ 2Ti 3:17 that the man of God may become perfect, for every good work perfects him.

2Ti 4:1 I charge you therefore before God and our Anointed Lord Jeshua: He will judge the living and the dead at the revealing of His kingdom:

2Ti 4:2 Preach the word and stand with diligence, in time and without time. Reprove, rebuke and teach, all with sustained spirit.

2Ti 4:3 For the time will come when they will not obey sound teaching, but according to their desires they will multiply teachers for themselves for their itching ears;

2Ti 4:4 and they will turn their ears from the truth, but they will turn aside to fables.⁴

2Ti 4:5 But you be watchful in all things, endure evil, do the work of an evangelist and fulfil your service.

2Ti 4:6 Therefore I am to be offered for a sacrifice, and the time of my release has arrived.

2Ti 4:7 I have fought an excellent fight and I have finished my race, and I have kept my faith.

2Ti 4:8 And now, a crown of righteousness is reserved for me that my Lord will award to me on that Day when He will judge the just, and not to me only but also to all who have loved His revelation.⁵

2Ti 4:9 Let it be a priority to you to come to me quickly;

2Ti 4:11 Only Luke is with me. Get Mark and bring him with you, for he is useful to me for service.

2Ti 4:12 And Tychicus I have sent to Ephesus.

2Ti 4:13 Bring the writing carrier¹ that I left with Carpus at Troas when you come; and the Writings, especially the parchment scrolls.

2Ti 4:14 Alexander the blacksmith showed me great evil. May our Lord repay him according to his works.²

2Ti 4:15 You also must beware of him, for he is arrogant against our words.

2Ti 4:16 At my first defence not a man was with me, but they all abandoned me. May this not be charged against them.

2Ti 4:17 But my Lord stood with me and strengthened me, so that the message might be preached fully through me, and that all the gentiles might hear. And I was delivered from the mouth of the lion.

2Ti 4:18 And my Lord will deliver me from every evil work and give me life in His heavenly kingdom. The glory is to Him forever and ever. Amen!

2Ti 4:19 Greet Prisca and Aquila, and the household of Onesiphorus.

2Ti 4:20 Erastus stayed in Corinth, but Trophimus I have left in Miletus when he was sick.

2Ti 4:21 Let it be a priority to you to come before winter. Eubulus invokes your peace, as well as Pudens, Linus, Claudia, and all of the brethren.

2Ti 4:22 Our Anointed Lord Jeshua is with your spirit. Grace be with you.

Amen.

Titus

Tit 1:1 Paul, a servant of God and an apostle of Jeshua the Anointed, in the faith of God's selected and the knowledge of the truth which is in the reverence of God, Tit 1:2 upon the hope of everlasting life which the True God promised before the world began,¹

Tit 1:3 and He has revealed His Word in His time through our preaching, which I was entrusted with by the commandment of God our Saviour:

Tit 1:4 To Titus, a true child in the common faith: Grace and peace from God the Father and from our Anointed Lord Jeshua, our Saviour.

Tit 1:5 This is why I left you in Crete; that you should set right the things that are lacking, and appoint elders city by city as I ordered you;

Tit 1:6 one who is faultless, the husband of one wife, having faithful children who are not abusive and not subject to immorality.

Tit 1:7 For an elder is required to be faultless as a steward of God, and not governed by his own mind, not bad-tempered, not excessive with wine, not quick to strike with his hands, not loving filthy riches,

Tit 1:8 but he should love strangers, love goodness, be modest, just, holy and keep himself from lusts.²

Tit 1:9 And he should be concerned about teaching the words of Faith and also to be able to comfort by his sound teaching, and to rebuke those who are contentious.

Tit 1:10 For there are many who are not submissive, and their words are empty and they deceive the minds of the children of men, especially those who are from the circumcision.

Tit 1:11 It is necessary to stop their mouths, for they destroy many households, and for filthy riches they teach things that are not right.

Tit 1:12 One of them, a prophet of their own, said, "Cretans are always liars, evil beasts and idle gluttons."

Tit 1:13 He actually brought this testimony! Therefore rebuke them severely, that they may be sound in the faith,

Tit 1:14 and do not yield to Judean fables and commandments of the children of men who hate the Truth.³

Tit 1:15 To the pure all things are pure, but to those who are defiled and unbelieving, nothing is pure to them for even their mind and conscience is defiled.

Tit 1:16 They profess to know God, but by their works they reject Him, and they are enemies without obedience and rejected from every good work.

Tit 2:1 But you, speak what is proper for sound teaching:

Tit 2:2 and teach that the elders should have alert minds, and be modest, pure, and sound in faith, in love, and in patience;

Tit 2:3 and also the older women, that their appearance be proper for the worship of God, and not be slanderers, nor indulge in much wine, and be teachers of good things;

Tit 2:4 and that they encourage the young women to love their husbands and their children,

Tit 2:5 to be chaste and holy, taking good care of their households, and be obedient to their husbands, lest anyone blaspheme against the word of God.⁴

Tit 2:6 Likewise exhort the young men to be serious,

Tit 2:7 but in all things be a model yourself, always showing good works; and in your teaching, let your speech be wholesome,

² 1Ti 3:1-8

³ The 'Oral Law' of Judaism is one part of these fables.

⁴ Pro 31:10-28

Tit 2:8 serious and not corrupt. Do not let anyone despise it, that he who is against us may be ashamed, as he will not have anything evil to say against us.

Tit 2:9 Servants are to be obedient to their masters, and be pleasing in all things, not resisting them,

Tit 2:10 nor let them steal, but show good loyalty in all things, that they may adorn the teaching of God our Saviour in all these things.

Tit 2:11 For the grace of God has been revealed, that gives Life to all the children of men,

Tit 2:12 and it leads us to reject the wickedness and lusts of the world, and to live in this world we should live in purity and righteousness and in the worship of God,

Tit 2:13 while we look for the blessed hope and glorious revelation of the Great God and of our Lifegiver Jeshua the Anointed,

Tit 2:14 who gave Himself for us, to redeem us from all iniquity and purify for Himself a new people, zealous for good works.¹

Tit 2:15 Speak these things, seek and rebuke with all authority. Let no one despise you.

Tit 3:1 Tell them to obey and submit to rulers and authorities, and to be ready for every good work.²

Tit 3:2 They will not insult anyone, nor be contentious. But they will be gentle, and show their kindness in all things to all the children of men.

Tit 3:3 For we ourselves were also once foolish and without conviction. We were deceived, and servants to varying lusts and wickedness and envy. We were busy being despicable and even hating one another.

Tit 3:4 But when the kindness and the caring love of God our Saviour was revealed,

Tit 3:5 not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to His own love He gave us Life, through the washing of the birth that is from above and the renewing of the Holy Spirit,

Tit 3:6 the One whom He poured out on us abundantly through our Saviour, Jeshua the Anointed, Tit 3:7 that by His grace we are being justified and we will become heirs according to the hope of everlasting life.

Tit 3:8 This is a faithful saying, and these things I want you to affirm to them constantly, especially concerning the cultivation of good works in those who have believed in God. These things are good and beneficial to the children of men.

Tit 3:9 But abstain from foolish disputes, stories of genealogies, contentions, and strivings from the scribes; for there is no profit in it and they are worthless.

Tit 3:10 After the first and second admonition, you should avoid a divisive man.³

Tit 3:11 Understand that such a person is perverse and a sinner, and he is condemning himself.

Tit 3:12 When I send Artemas to you, or Tychicus, be diligent to come to me at Nicopolis, for I have set my mind to spend the winter there.

Tit 3:13 Now about Zena the scribe and Apollo; you should look after them well and ensure that they will lack nothing.

Tit 3:14 And they will also teach our people to learn to cultivate good works, even in urgent matters, that they may not be unfruitful.

Tit 3:15 All who are with me pray for your peace. Pray for the peace of all of those who love us in the faith. Grace be with you all. Amen.

Philemon

Phm 1:1 Paul, a prisoner of the Anointed Jeshua, and Timothy our brother: To Philemon, our beloved companion and labourer,

Phm 1:2 and to our beloved Aphia, and to Arkippus our companion and labourer, and to the congregation in your house:

Phm 1:3 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and from our Anointed Lord Jeshua.

Phm 1:4 I thank my God always, and I remember you in my prayers,

Phm 1:5 behold, from when I heard of your faith and love which you have toward our Lord Jeshua and toward all the saints,

Phm 1:6 that the sharing of your faith will produce fruit in works and in knowledge of every good thing which is for you in the Anointed Jeshua.

Phm 1:7 For we have great joy and comfort, for by your love the affections of the saints have been refreshed.

Phm 1:8 Therefore I have great freedom in the Anointed to command you in those things that are right,

Phm 1:9 but because of the love I instead ask you; I, Paul, the elder as you know, but now also a prisoner of Jeshua the Anointed;

Phm 1:10 I appeal to you for my child Onesimus, whom I have begotten while in my bondage, Phm 1:11 he who at times was not useful to you, but now he is very useful to you and also to me.

Phm 1:12 I am sending him to you as my offspring.¹ But will you receive him like this?

Phm 1:13 Though I was willing to keep him with me, so he could serve me on your behalf in the bondage of the Good News,

Phm 1:14 I did not want to do anything without your counsel, that your good deed would not be by compulsion, but by your will.

Phm 1:15 Perhaps he departed for this purpose for a while, that you might receive him forever,

Phm 1:16 not as a slave from now on but as more than a slave, as my beloved brother and how much more as yours, both in the flesh and in our Lord.

Phm 1:17 Therefore, if you are my partner, receive him as if he is mine.

Phm 1:18 And if you are missing anything or this one owes a debt, charge it to me.

Phm 1:19 I, Paul, have written this with my own hand. I will pay you myself, without saying to you that you also owe me your soul.

Phm 1:20 Yes, my brother, I am refreshed by you in our Lord; satisfy my love in the Anointed.

Phm 1:21 Because I trust that you will listen to me, I have written to you, and I know that you will do more than what I said.

Phm 1:22 But also prepare a dwelling place² for me soon, for I hope that through your prayers I will be given to you.

Phm 1:23 Epaphra, a fellow prisoner, invokes your peace in the Anointed Jeshua, Phm 1:24 as do Mark, Aristarkus, Dema and Luke, my helpers.

Phm 1:25 The grace of our Anointed Lord Jeshua be with your spirits. Amen.

John's Testimonies

First John

1Jo 1:1 We preach to you that which was from the beginning, which we have heard and which we have seen and we have perceived with our eyes, and which we have touched with our hands; that which is the Word of Life;

1Jo 1:2 And the lives were revealed, and we perceived, and we bear witness, and we declare to you that the eternal life was with the Father and was revealed to us.

1Jo 1:3 And the things which we saw and we heard we also disclose to you, that your fellowship is with us and our fellowship is with the Father and with His Son, Jeshua the Anointed.

1Jo 1:4 And these things we write to you that our joy in you may be full.

1Jo 1:5 This is the Good News which we have heard from Him and we declare to you, that God is light and there is not any darkness in Him at all.

1Jo 1:6 If we say that we have fellowship with Him and we walk in darkness, we lie and we do not understand the truth.

1Jo 1:7 But if we walk in the light as He is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of His Son Jeshua cleanses us from all of our sins.

1Jo 1:8 If we say that we have no sin in us, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us.

1Jo 1:9 But if we confess our sins, He is faithful and righteous to forgive us our sins and He will cleanse us from all our iniquity.

1Jo 1:10 And if we say that we have not sinned, we make Him a liar, and His word is not in us.¹

1Jo 2:1 Children, I write these things to you, that you will not sin. And if anyone sins, we have the Redeemer of the cursed with the Father, Jeshua the righteous Messiah.

1Jo 2:2 For He is in Himself the Atonement² because of our sins, and not in our place only but also in place of the whole world.

1Jo 2:3 Now by this we can tell that we know Him, if we keep His commandments.

1Jo 2:4 For he who says, "I know Him," and does not keep His commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him.

1Jo 2:5 But whoever keeps His word, truly the love of God is completed in them. By this we know that we are in Him.

1Jo 2:6 He who says "I am in Him," it is necessary for him to walk just like He walks.

1Jo 2:7 Beloved ones, I do not write a new commandment for you, but an old commandment which you have had from the beginning. The old commandment is the word which you have heard.

1Jo 2:8 Again, a new commandment I write to you, that which is true in Him and in you, because the darkness has passed away, and the true light is beginning to shine.

1Jo 2:9 Therefore, whoever says that he is in the light, and hates his brother, is in darkness until now.

1Jo 2:10 But he who loves his brother dwells in the light, and there is no offence in him.

1Jo 2:11 And he who hates his brother is in darkness and walks in darkness, and does not know where he is going, because the darkness has blinded his eyes.

sinned", meaning that all of us have sinned before we became Christians. As John soon make clear, once we are Christians we are to turn away from sin.

¹ Ecc 7:20. Note that this is "have not

² Lev 23:26-32, Lev 16:2-34, Heb 9:11-15

1Jo 2:12 I write to you, children, that your sins are forgiven to you because of His Name.

1Jo 2:13 I write to you, fathers, that you have known the One who is from the beginning. I write to you, young men, that you have overcome the evil one. I have written to you, boys, that you have known the Father.

1Jo 2:14 I have written to you, fathers, that you have known Him who is from the beginning. I have written to you, young men, that you are strong, and the word of God dwells in you, and you have overcome the evil one.

1Jo 2:15 Do not love the world or the things that are in it, for whoever loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him.

1Jo 2:16 For everything that is in the world; the lust of the body, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of this life; these are not from the Father but these are from the world.

1Jo 2:17 The world is passing away, and its lusts; but he who does the will of God will dwell forever.

1Jo 2:18 My children, time is coming to an end; and as you have heard, the Fake Messiah¹ is coming; even now many fake Messiahs have come, and from this we know that it is the time of the end.

1Jo 2:19 They went out from us, but they were not from us; for if they had been from us, they would have remained with us; but they went out from us to reveal that they were not from us.

1Jo 2:20 But you have an anointing from the Holy One, and you can distinguish every person.

1Jo 2:21 I have not written to you because you do not know the truth, but because you know it, and that every lie is not from the truth.

1Jo 2:22 Who is a liar? Is it not everyone who denies that Jeshua is the Anointed? This one is a fake Messiah. He who denies the Father also denies the Son.

1Jo 2:23 And whoever denies the Son does not believe in the Father either; whoever confesses the Son confesses the Father also.

1Jo 2:24 Therefore let that which you heard from the beginning remain in you. For if that remains in you which you heard from the beginning, you also are remaining in the Father and in the Son.

1Jo 2:25 And this is the promise that He has promised us; everlasting life.

1Jo 2:26 But I have written these things to you because of those who seduce you.

1Jo 2:27 And if you remain in the anointing which you received from Him, then you do not need anyone to teach you, as the anointing which is from God will teach you about everything true, and there is no falsehood in Him. And as He has taught you, abide in Him.

1Jo 2:28 And now, my children, abide in Him, that when He is revealed, we will not be ashamed before Him at His coming, but we will be open faced at His arrival.

1Jo 2:29 If you know that He is righteous, know also that everyone who does righteousness is from Him.

1Jo 3:1 Behold how greatly the love of the Father abounds to us, that He has called us and made us His children! Because of this, the world does not know us, because it does not know Him either.

1Jo 3:2 Beloved, now we are children of God, and it has not yet been revealed what we are going to be, but we know that when He is revealed, we will be like Him, and we will see Him as He is.²

1Jo 3:3 And everyone who has this hope in Him purifies himself, just as He is pure.

¹ As translated from the Peshitta msheecha dagala מְשִׁיחָא דַּגְלָא. This appears as AntiChrist when translated from the Greek, meaning “in place of Christ, ie, the vicar of Christ or a Fake Messiah.

² David also is waiting for this (Psa 17:15).

1Jo 3:4 But whoever sins commits iniquity, for sin is entirely iniquity.

1Jo 3:5 And you know that He was revealed to take away our sins, and there is no sin in Him.

1Jo 3:6 And everyone who remains in Him does not sin. Everyone who sins has not seen Him nor have they known Him.

1Jo 3:7 Children, let no one deceive you. He who does righteousness is righteous, just as He, the Messiah, is righteous.

1Jo 3:8 He who commits sin is from Satan, for Satan has sinned from the beginning. Because of this the Son of God appeared to destroy the works of Satan.¹

1Jo 3:9 Whoever has been begotten by God does not sin, for His seed is in him; and he is not able to sin, because he has been begotten by God.

1Jo 3:10 In this the children of God are distinguished from the children of Satan: Everyone who does not do righteousness nor loves his brother is not from God.

1Jo 3:11 For this is the commandment that you heard from the beginning, that you will love one another.

1Jo 3:12 Don't be like Cain, whose nature was from the evil one and murdered his brother. And why did he murder him? Because his works were evil and his brother's righteous.²

1Jo 3:13 Do not be surprised, my brethren, if the world hates you.

1Jo 3:14 We know that we have departed from death to life, because we love the brethren. He who does not love his brother remains in death.

1Jo 3:15 For every person who hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer can have everlasting life abiding in him.

1Jo 3:16 By this we know His love toward us, for He gave His soul in our place. And it is right that we also would give our souls for the sake of our brethren.

1Jo 3:17 And whoever has this world's goods, and sees his brother in need, and withholds his compassion from him, how is the love of God in him?

1Jo 3:18 Children, let us not love one another in word or in tongue, but in deeds and in truth.

1Jo 3:19 And by this we know that we are of the truth, and before He comes we persuade our hearts.

1Jo 3:20 For if our heart condemns us, how much greater is God than our heart, and He knows all things.

1Jo 3:21 Beloved, if our heart does not condemn us, our faces are open before God.

1Jo 3:22 And whatever we ask we receive from Him, because we keep His commandments and we do good before Him.

1Jo 3:23 And this is His commandment: that we believe in the name of His Son Jeshua the Anointed and we love one another, as He commanded us.

1Jo 3:24 Now whoever keeps His commandments is kept by Him and He dwells in him. And by this we know that He dwells in us, from His Spirit whom He gives to us.

1Jo 4:1 Beloved, do not believe all the spirits, but distinguish the spirits, whether they are from God; because many false prophets have gone out into the world.

1Jo 4:2 The Spirit of God is known by this: Every spirit that confesses that Jeshua the Anointed has come in the flesh is from God,

1Jo 4:3 and every spirit that does not confess that Jeshua has come in the flesh is not from God.³ And this is from the spirit of the Fake Messiah, which you have heard is coming, and he is already in the world now.

1Jo 4:4 But you are children from God, and you have overcome them, because He who is in you is greater than he who is in the world.

1Jo 4:5 They are from the world. Because they are from the world, they speak and the world listens to them.

1Jo 4:6 But we are from God and he who knows God listens to us. And he who is not from God does not listen to us. By this we perceive the spirit of truth and the spirit of deception.

1Jo 4:7 Beloved, let us love one another, because love is from God; and everyone who loves is born from God and knows God, 1Jo 4:8 for God is love, and everyone who does not love does not know God.

1Jo 4:9 In this is the love of God known to us; that God has sent His Only Begotten Son into the world, that it will live through Him.

1Jo 4:10 In this is love; it was not that we loved God, but that He loved us and sent His Son to be the Atonement because of our sins.

1Jo 4:11 Beloved, if God loves us like this, we are also obliged to love one another.

1Jo 4:12 No one has ever seen God. But if we love one another, God dwells in us, and His love is fulfilled in us.

1Jo 4:13 By this we know that we dwell in Him, and He dwells in us, because He has given His Spirit to us.

1Jo 4:14 And we have seen and we testify that the Father has sent His Son as Saviour of the world.

1Jo 4:15 Everyone who confesses that Jeshua is the Son of God, God dwells in him, and he dwells in God.¹

1Jo 4:16 And we believe and we know the love that God has for us, for God is love, and everyone who dwells in love dwells in God.

¹ Joh 14:8-23

1Jo 4:17 And by this love is fulfilled among us: that open faces² will be ours in the day of judgement; because as He is, so we are also in this world.

1Jo 4:18 For there is no fear in love; but perfect love casts out fear, because fear is suspicious. And he who fears is immature in love.

1Jo 4:19 Therefore we love God because He first loved us.

1Jo 4:20 But if a man says, "I love God," and hates his brother, he is lying; for he who sees his brother and does not love him, how is it possible for him to love God whom he has not seen?

1Jo 4:21 And this commandment we have received from Him: that everyone who loves God must love his brother also.

1Jo 5:1 Everyone who believes that Jeshua is the Anointed is born from God and everyone who loves the Parent also loves the one who is begotten by Him.

1Jo 5:2 And in this we know that we love the children of God, whenever we love God and we do His commandments.

1Jo 5:3 For this is the love of God—to keep His commandments. And His commandments are not burdens.³

1Jo 5:4 For everyone who is born from God conquers the world for himself. And this is the victory that conquers the world; our faith.

1Jo 5:5 Who is he who conquers the world for himself, but he who believes that Jeshua is the Son of God?

1Jo 5:6 This is He who came by water and blood; Jeshua the Messiah; not only by water, but by water and blood.

1Jo 5:7 And the Spirit bears witness because the Spirit is Truth.

1Jo 5:8 And the three of them bear witness: the Spirit, and the water, and the ² As in the Peshitta, could also be rendered as confidence, no need for shame or boldness.

³ In Jer 23:33-39 Jehovah explains how unimpressed He is when people call His words "burdens".

blood; and the three of them are as one.¹

1Jo 5:9 If we receive the witness of men, how much greater is the witness of God? For this is the witness of God which He testifies about His Son.

1Jo 5:10 Everyone who believes in the Son of God, there is this witness in his soul. Everyone who does not believe God makes Him a liar, because he does not believe the witness that God testifies about His Son.

1Jo 5:11 And this is the witness: that God has given us everlasting life, and these lives are in His Son.

1Jo 5:12 Everyone who takes hold of the Son also takes hold of life; and everyone who does not take hold of God's Son, there is no life for him.

1Jo 5:13 These things I have written to you, so you will know that you have everlasting life; you who believe in the name of the Son of God.

1Jo 5:14 Now this is our confidence toward Him; that everything we ask Him according to His will, He hears us.

1Jo 5:15 And if we are convinced that He hears us about whatever we ask from Him, even now we trust that we will receive the desired things that we ask from Him.

1Jo 5:16 If anyone sees his brother sinning a sin which does not condemn him to death, let him ask, and his soul will be given to him, to those whose sin is not of death. And there is the sin of death. For this, I say do not pray for the man.

1Jo 5:17 For every iniquity is sin, and there is a sin that is not of death.

1Jo 5:18 We know that everyone who is born from God does not sin; for he who has been born of God keeps his soul, and the evil one does not touch it.

1Jo 5:19 We know that we are of God, and the whole world lies under the sway of the evil one.

1Jo 5:20 And we know that the Son of God has come and He has given us a mind that knows the True One; and we are in Him, the True One, in His Anointed Son Jeshua. This One is the True God and eternal life.

1Jo 5:21 My children, keep yourselves from the worship of idols.

¹ As in the Peshitta. However, the Roman catholic 'church' began inserting the following into their Old Latin Bibles in the fifth century: "For there are three that bear record in Heaven, the Father, the Word and the Holy Ghost; and these three are one." It then went into their Vulgate in the seventh century, and finally made its way into some copies of the Greek manuscripts, beginning in 1522. This forgery was clearly a desperate attempt to force the Babylonian trinity into the Bible.

Second John¹

2Jo 1:1 The Elder: To the chosen lady and her children, those whom I love in the Truth, and not only I, but all those who know the Truth, 2Jo 1:2 because of the Truth which dwells in us and will be with us forever.

2Jo 1:3 Let there be grace, mercy, and peace with us from God the Father and from our Lord Jeshua the Messiah, the Son of the Father, in truth and love.

2Jo 1:4 I rejoiced greatly when I found some of your children walking in truth, as we received the commandment from the Father.

2Jo 1:5 And now I plead with you, lady, not as though I wrote a new commandment to you, but that which was with us from the beginning: that we love one another.

2Jo 1:6 This is love, that we walk according to His commandments. This is the commandment that you have heard from the beginning which you have been walking in.

2Jo 1:7 For many deceivers have gone out into the world who do not confess that Jeshua the Anointed has come in the flesh. They are deceivers and fake Messiahs.²

2Jo 1:8 Look after your souls, lest you lose those things you have worked for, that you may receive a full reward.

2Jo 1:9 Everyone who transgresses and does not continue in the teaching of the Anointed does not have God in him. He who continues in His teaching, this one has both the Father and the Son in him.

2Jo 1:10 If anyone comes to you and does not bring this teaching, do not receive him into your house, nor will you say 'Welcome' to him;

2Jo 1:11 for he who says 'Welcome' to him shares in his evil works.

2Jo 1:12 Though there was much for me to write to you, I did not want to do so with paper and ink; but I hope to come to you so we can speak mouth to mouth,³ that our joy may be complete.

2Jo 1:13 The children of your chosen sister invoke your peace. Amen.

Third John¹

3Jo 1:1 The Elder: To the beloved Gaius, to him whom I love in truth:

3Jo 1:2 Our beloved, I pray that you may prosper in all things and be healthy, just as your soul prospers.

3Jo 1:3 For I rejoiced greatly when brethren came and testified about your faithfulness, that you walk in the truth.

3Jo 1:4 For there is no greater joy to me than when I hear that my children walk in the Truth.

3Jo 1:5 Our beloved, you do in faith what you do for the brethren and especially for those who are strangers,

3Jo 1:6 who have testified of your love before all the congregation. You did well when you supplied them, just as is becoming to God, 3Jo 1:7 because they went forth for His Name's sake, while they did not receive anything from the gentiles.

3Jo 1:8 Therefore we are indebted to receive such as these, that we may become helpers for the truth.

3Jo 1:9 I tried to write to the congregation, but he who loves to have the preeminence among them, Diotrephes, will not receive us.

3Jo 1:10 Therefore, if it be that I come, I will recall his works which he does. He slandered us with evil words. And when that was not enough for him, he does not receive the brethren; and he forbids those who would receive them, and throws them out of the congregation.

3Jo 1:11 Our beloved, do not imitate the evil, but the good. The one who does good is from God, the one who does evil has not seen God.

3Jo 1:12 About Demetrius: He has a testimony from everyone, and from the congregation, and also from the truth.

And we also testify, and you know that our testimony is true.

3Jo 1:13 There is much for me to write to you, but I do not desire to write to you with ink and pen;

3Jo 1:14 but I hope that I will see you soon, and we will speak mouth to mouth.

3Jo 1:15 Peace be with you. The friends invoke your peace. Invoke the peace of each friend by His Name.

Revelation¹

Rev 1:1 The Revelation of Jeshua the Messiah, which God gave to Him to show His servants what will soon take place. And He signified and sent it by His envoy to His servant John,

Rev 1:2 who witnessed the Word of God, and the testimony of Jeshua the Anointed, and everything that he saw.

Rev 1:3 Blessings to the one who reads and those who hear the words of this prophecy, and they who keep those things which are written in it; for the time is near.

Rev 1:4 John, to the seven congregations which are in Asia: Grace to you and peace from Him who is and was and is coming, and from the seven Spirits who are before His throne,

Rev 1:5 and from Jeshua the Anointed, the faithful witness, the Firstborn from the dead, and the ruler over the kings of the earth. He loved us and released us from our sins in His own blood,

Rev 1:6 and He has made us a priestly kingdom to God and His Father.² To Him be glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen.³

Rev 1:7 Behold, He is coming with clouds, and every eye will see Him, even those who pierced Him. And they—all the families of the earth—will mourn for Him.⁴ Yes! Amen.

Rev 1:8 “I am the Alap and the Tau,” says Jehovah God, “He who is and was and is coming, He who is Almighty.”⁵

⁴ Based on Zec 12:10, which focuses on Israel. Revelation expands it to include the entire earth.

⁵ As in Isa 48:12, Exo 6:3; Jehovah is rendered as Lord Jah (MarJah) in the Peshitta.

Rev 1:9 I, John, am your brother and son, your companion in suffering, and in the patience which is in Jeshua. I was on the island that is called Patmos because of the Word of God and because of the testimony of Jeshua the Anointed.

Rev 1:10 I was in the Spirit on the first day of the week,⁶ and I heard behind me a great voice, like a trumpet,

Rev 1:11 which said, “What you see, write in a book and send it to the seven congregations: to Ephesus, to Smyrna, to Pergamos, to Thyatira, to Sardis, to Philadelphia, and to Laodicea.”

Rev 1:12 Then I turned to know the voice which spoke with me. And when I turned, I saw seven golden menorahs,⁷

Rev 1:13 and in the midst of the menorahs was the likeness of the Son of Mankind, and He wore an ephod and was girded about the chest with a golden band.

Rev 1:14 His head and His hair were as white as wool, like snow, and His eyes like flames of fire;

Rev 1:15 His feet were like Lebanese brass, which is refined in a furnace, and His voice as the sound of many waters;⁸

Rev 1:16 and in His right hand there were seven stars, and out of His mouth came a sharp lance, and I saw Him looking like the sun in its strength.

Rev 1:17 And when I saw Him, I fell at His feet as if dead. But He laid His right

The Wave Offering commemorates Jeshua’s resurrection and return to His Father in heaven with His Blood. There is no command to observe the first day of the week as the Sabbath here.

⁷ Exo 25:31-37: The menorah is a seven-branched lampstand that burns olive oil. It reminds us of God’s seven day Creation and His seven Spirits. The seven menorahs thus remind us of the 49 days leading up to Pentecost, in this scene represented by Jeshua.

Rev 2:4 “But I have this against you, that you have left your first love.

Rev 2:5 “Remember where you have come from and do the first works. If you do not, I will come against you and move your menorah unless you repent.

Rev 4:4 Around the throne were twenty-four thrones, and on those thrones I saw twenty-four elders sitting, clothed in white garments; and they had crowns of gold on their heads.¹

Rev 4:5 And from the throne proceeded thunders, lightnings, and voices. And seven lamps were burning before the throne, which are the seven Spirits of God.

Rev 4:6 And before the throne was a sea of glass, like crystal. And in the midst of the throne, and around the throne, were four beasts full of eyes in front of them and behind them.

Rev 4:7 The first beast was like a lion, the second beast like a calf, the third beast had a face like a son of man, and the fourth beast was like a flying eagle.

Rev 4:8 These four beasts, each having over their limbs six wings surrounding them, were full of eyes within. And they are not silent day or night, saying: "Holy, holy, holy, Almighty God Jehovah,² He who was and is and is to come!"

Rev 4:9 And when the beasts give glory and honour and thanks for grace to Him who sits on the Throne, and to Him who truly lives forever and ever,

Rev 4:10 the twenty-four elders fall down before Him who sits on the Throne and worship the Living One who truly lives forever and ever, and cast their crowns before the Throne, saying:

Rev 4:11 "You are worthy, our Lord and our God, to receive glory and honour and power; for You created all things, and by Your pleasure they exist and were created."³

Rev 5:1 And I saw on the right hand of Him who sits on the Throne a Writing, inscribed on the inside and on the outside, and sealed with seven seals.

Rev 5:2 Then I saw another mighty envoy proclaiming with a loud voice, "Who is worthy to open the Writing and to loosen its seals?"

Rev 5:3 And there was no one in heaven nor on the earth nor under the earth able to open the Writing, and to open its seals and look upon it.

Rev 5:4 So I wept much, because no one was found worthy to open the Writing and to loosen its seals.

Rev 5:5 But one of the elders said to me, "Do not weep. Behold, the Lion of the branch of Judah, the Root of David, has prevailed to open the Writing and its seals."

Rev 5:6 And I saw in the midst of the Throne and the four Beasts and the elders, a Lamb which was as though it had been slain. And It had seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God sent into the whole earth.

Rev 5:7 Then He came and took the Writing from the hand of Him who sat on the Throne.

Rev 5:8 Now when He had received the Writing, the four Beasts and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb, and every one of them had a stringed instrument, and golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of the saints,

Rev 5:9 who sing a new hymn of praise, and they said: "You are worthy to take the Writing and to loose its seals; for You were slain, and You have redeemed us to God by Your blood from every branch and nation and people,⁴ voices of many envoys around the throne, the beasts, and the elders; and the number of them was one hundred and one million, Rev 5:12 and they were saying with a loud voice: "Worthy is the Lamb who was slain to receive power and wealth and wisdom and strength and honour and glory and blessing!"

Rev 5:13 And every creature which is in the heavens and on the earth and under the earth and those that are in the sea, and all that are in them; I heard them saying to Him who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb: "Blessing and honour and glory and dominion, forever and ever!"

Rev 5:14 And when the four beasts said, "Amen!" the twenty-four elders fell down and worshipped.

Rev 6:1 Now I saw when the Lamb opened the first of the seven seals; and I heard one of the four beasts speaking with a sound like thunder, "Come and see."

Rev 6:2 And I heard and I looked, and behold, a white horse. And he who sat on it had a bow; and a crown was given to him, and he went out and he gave victory; conquering and to conquer.

Rev 6:3 When He opened the second seal, I heard the second beast say, "Come."

Rev 6:4 And a red horse went out. And it was given to him who sat on it to take peace from the earth, and that every one should kill; and a great sword was given to him.

Rev 6:5 When He opened the third seal, I heard the third beast say, "Come." And behold, a black horse, and he who sat on him had a pair of scales in his hand.

Rev 6:6 And I heard a voice in the midst of the beasts saying, "Two quarts of wheat for a denarius,¹ and six quarts of barley for a denarius; and you will not harm the oil and the wine."

Rev 6:7 And when He opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of a beast saying, "Come."

Rev 6:8 And I saw a pale horse. And the name of him who sat on it was Death, and Sheol joined him. And he was given authority over a fourth of the earth, to kill with sword, with starvation, with death, and by the beasts of the earth.²

Rev 6:9 And when He opened the fifth seal, I saw from under the altar the souls of those murdered because of the word of God and because of the testimony of Jeshua which belonged to them.

Rev 6:10 And they cried with a loud voice, and they said, "How long, O Lord Jah,³ holy and true, until You judge and You avenge our blood on those who dwell on the earth?"

Rev 6:11 Then a white robe was given to every one of them; and it was said to them that they should rest for a little time longer, until their companions and their brethren are also perfected, who would be killed just like them.

Rev 6:12 And I looked when He opened the sixth seal, and there was a great earthquake; and the sun became blackened like hair sackcloth, and the moon became like blood.⁴

Rev 6:13 And the stars of heaven above fell to the earth, like a fig tree which drops its figs when it is shaken by a mighty wind.

Rev 6:14 Then the heavens were parted and rolled up like scrolls,⁵ and every mountain and all the islands were moved from their places.⁶

Rev 6:15 And the kings of the earth, and princes, and commanders, and the rich, and the mighty, and every slave and free child, hid themselves in caves and in the Rev 7:1 And after this I saw four envoys standing over the four ends² of the earth, holding the four winds, that the wind will not blow on the earth, nor on the sea, nor on any tree.

Rev 7:2 Then I saw another envoy ascending from the dawning of the sun, and he had the seal of the living God. And he cried with a loud voice to the four envoys to whom it was given to harm the earth and the sea,

Rev 7:3 and he said, "Do not harm the earth, nor the sea, nor the trees until we have sealed the servants of our God between their eyes."³

Rev 7:4 And I heard the number of those who were sealed. One hundred and forty-four thousand, all from the branches of the children of Israel:⁴

Rev 7:5 from the branch of Judah twelve thousand; from the branch of Reuben twelve thousand; from the branch of Gad twelve thousand;

Rev 7:8 from the branch of Zebulun twelve thousand; from the branch of Joseph twelve thousand; from the branch of Benjamin twelve thousand were sealed.

Rev 7:9 After these things I saw a great crowd which it was not possible to count, from all nations, generations, peoples, and languages, standing before the Throne and before He who is the Lamb, clothed with white garments, and palm branches in their hands,

Rev 7:10 and they shouted with a loud voice, and they were saying, "Salvation belongs to our God, to He who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb!"

Rev 7:11 And all of the envoys stood around the throne and the elders and the four beasts, and they fell on their faces before the throne,

Rev 7:12 as they said: "Amen! Glory and blessing and wisdom, thanksgiving for grace and honour and power and might be to our God forever and ever. Amen."

Rev 7:13 Then one of the elders spoke, and he said to me, "Who are these wearing white garments, and where have they come from?"

Rev 8:2 And I saw seven envoys who were standing before God, and seven trumpets were given to them.

Rev 8:3 Then another envoy came and stood at the altar, having a gold censer. And he was given much incense to offer with the prayers of all the saints upon the altar which was before the throne.

Rev 8:4 And the smoke of the incense ascended with the prayers of the saints, from the envoy’s hand before God.

Rev 8:5 Then the envoy took the censer, filled it with fire from the altar, and threw it over the earth. And there were thunders, voices, lightnings, and earthquakes.

Rev 8:6 The seven envoys who had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound.

Rev 8:7 And the first sounded and there was hail and fire, mingled with water, and they were thrown onto the earth; and a third of the earth burned, and a third of the trees burned, and all the grass on the earth was burned.

Rev 8:8 Then the second sounded and it was like a great burning mountain fell into the sea, and a third of the sea became blood;

Rev 8:9 and a third of all the creatures in the sea which have souls died, and a third of the ships were destroyed.³

Rev 8:10 Then the third sounded and a great star fell from heaven, burning like a torch, and it fell on a third of the rivers and on the springs of water;

Rev 8:11 and the name of the star is Wormwood; and a third of the waters became like wormwood; and many of the children of men died, because the waters were made bitter.

Rev 8:12 Then the fourth sounded and a third of the sun was devoured, and a third of the moon, and a third of the stars, and a third of them became dark; and a third of the day did not appear, and likewise the night.

Rev 8:13 And I heard an eagle flying through the midst of heaven, saying, “Woe! Woe! Woe to the inhabitants of the earth, because of the sound of the trumpets of the three envoys who are about to sound!”

Rev 9:1 Then the fifth sounded and I saw a star fall from the heavens on the earth. And the key to the pit of the depths was given to it.

Rev 9:2 And smoke came up from the pit like the smoke of a very hot great furnace.⁴ And the sun and the air were darkened because of the smoke of the pit.

Rev 9:3 Then from the smoke, locusts went out over the earth. And power was given to them, like that of the scorpions of the earth.

Rev 9:4 And they were told not to harm the grass of the earth, nor any green herbs, nor trees, but only those children of men who do not have the seal of God between their eyes.

Rev 9:5 And they were not permitted to kill them, but they suffer torment for five months. And their torment was like the torment of a scorpion when it attacks a man.

Rev 9:6 In those days the children of men will seek death and they will not find it; and they will want to die, and death will flee from them.¹

Rev 9:7 And the shape of the locusts was like the shape of horses prepared for battle; and on their heads were crowns that looked like gold, and their faces were like the faces of men.

Rev 9:8 They had hair like women's hair, and their teeth were like lions'.

Rev 9:9 And they had breastplates like breastplates of iron, and the sound of their wings was like the sound of chariots with many horses running into battle.

Rev 9:10 They had tails like scorpions, and the sting was in their tails. And their authority was to hurt people for five months.

Rev 9:11 And there is a king over them, the envoy of the depths, whose name in Hebrew is Avado, but in Aramaic he has the name Share.²

Rev 9:12 One woe is past. Behold, there are two woes to come.

Rev 9:13 After these things the sixth envoy sounded and I heard a voice from one of the four horns of the golden altar which is before God,

Rev 9:14 saying to the sixth envoy who had a trumpet, "Release the four envoys who are bound at the great river Euphrates."

Rev 9:15 So those four envoys, who had been prepared for an hour and a day and a month and a year, were released to kill a third of the children of men.

² The Greek manuscripts use names referring to destruction and destroyer. In the Peshitta, Bauscher says that Avado עֲבָדוֹ refers to 'work' and Share שָׂרָא indicates 'strength'. As their king, this envoy would indeed be urging these creatures to fulfil their work of strongly punishing those who are still refusing to return to God.

Rev 9:16 Now the number of the army of the horsemen was two hundred million. I heard the number of them.³

Rev 9:17 And thus I saw the horses in the vision: those who sat on them had breastplates of fire, and chalcedony, and brimstone;⁴ and the skulls⁵ of the horses were like the skulls of lions; and out of their mouths came fire, brimstone, and smoke.

Rev 9:18 By these three plagues a third of the children of men were killed; by the fire and the brimstone and the smoke which came out of their mouths.⁶

Rev 9:19 For the power of the horses is in their mouths and also in their tails.⁷

Rev 9:20 And the rest of the children of men who were not killed by these plagues did not repent from the works of their hands: to not worship demons and idols of gold, silver, brass, wood, and stone, which cannot see nor are able to hear or walk;

Rev 9:21 and they did not repent from their murders or their witchcraft or their sexual immorality.⁸

Rev 10:1 And I saw another envoy coming down from heaven, and he wore a cloud. And a rainbow from heaven was on his head, and his appearance was like the sun, and his legs were like pillars of fire.

Rev 10:2 And he had a little scroll open

³ It is only in very recent times that mankind has become able to assemble such a vast army of 'mounted' soldiers, whether their 'horses' be flesh or mechanical.

⁴ Probably meaning red for fire, chalcedony comes in a broad range of colours, including white, red, blue, green, brown, etc, while brimstone is sulphur, so it is yellow.

⁵ Skulls, not heads, suggesting these are tank-like machines rather than living animals.

in his hand. Then he set his right foot on the sea and the left on the land,

Rev 10:3 and he cried with a loud voice, like a lion roaring. And when he cried out, the seven thunders spoke with their voices.

Rev 10:4 Now when the seven thunders spoke, I was ready to write; but I heard a voice from the seventh heaven which said, "Seal up that which the seven thunders spoke, and do not write it."

Rev 10:5 And the envoy whom I saw standing on the sea and on the dry land lifted up his hand to heaven

Rev 10:6 and he swore by Him who lives forever and ever, He who created heaven and all that is in it, the earth and all that is in it, and the sea and all that is in it,¹ that there will be no more time,

Rev 10:7 but in the days when the seventh envoy sounds, the mystery of God would be completed, as He declared to His servants, the prophets.

Rev 10:8 Then I heard a voice from heaven again, speaking to me. And it said, "Go, take the little scroll which is open in the hand of the envoy who stands on the land and on the sea."

Rev 10:9 And I went to the envoy and I said to him, "Give me the little scroll." And he said to me, "Take and eat it; and it will be bitter in your stomach, but in your mouth it will be like honey."

Rev 10:10 And I took the little scroll from the envoy's hand and I ate it, and it was as sweet as honey in my mouth. But when I had eaten it, my stomach became bitter.²

Rev 10:11 And he said to me, "You are given time to prophesy again to many nations, peoples, languages, and kings."

Rev 11:1 And a reed was given to me, like a branch. And the envoy stood, and he said, "Rise and measure the Palace of God, and the altar, and those who worship in it.

Rev 11:2 "But the inner court of the Palace, leave it out and do not measure it, for that is given to the gentiles, and they will trample the holy city for forty-two months.

Rev 11:3 "And I will give authority to my two witnesses to prophesy for one thousand two hundred and sixty days, clothed in sackcloth."

Rev 11:4 These are the two olive trees and the two menorahs³ who stand before the Lord of the whole earth.

Rev 11:5 And whoever seeks to harm them, fire comes out from their mouths and consumes their enemies. And those that choose to harm them, so it is given to them to be killed.⁴

Rev 11:6 These have authority given to them to shut up heaven, so that the rain does not fall in the days of their prophecy;⁵ and they have authority given to them to change water to blood, and to smite the earth with all plagues, as often as they desire.

Rev 11:7 Now when their witnesses are complete, the beast that ascends from the sea⁶ will make war with them, and will conquer them, and it will kill them.

Rev 11:8 And their corpses will come into the street of the great city where their Lord was impaled, which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt.

Rev 11:9 Then those from the peoples and generations and languages and nations will look upon their corpses for three and a half days,⁷ and they will not allow their corpses to be put in tombs.

Rev 11:10 And the inhabitants of the earth will rejoice over them, and they will celebrate and send gifts to each other, because of the two prophets who tormented the inhabitants of the earth.

Rev 11:11 Now after the three and a half days the living spirit from God entered into them, and they stood on their feet, and the Spirit of Life fell upon them and great fear came over those who saw them.¹

Rev 11:12 And they heard a great voice from heaven that said to them, "Come up here." And they ascended to heaven in a cloud, and their enemies gazed at them.

Rev 11:13 And in that hour there was a great earthquake, and one-tenth of the city fell. In the earthquake seven thousand named men were killed, and the rest were afraid and they gave glory to the God who is in heaven.

Rev 11:14 Behold! Two woes are gone. And behold, the third woe is coming at once.

Rev 11:15 Then the seventh envoy sounded, and there were great voices in heaven that said, "The kingdom of the world has become our God's and His Messiah's, and He will reign for ages of ages!"²

Rev 11:16 And the twenty-four elders who sit before God on their thrones fell on their faces and worshipped God,

Rev 11:17 saying: "We praise You, O Lord Jah, Almighty God,³ who is and who was,⁴ because You have taken Your great power and You have reigned.

Rev 11:18 "And the nations were wrathful, and Your wrath has come, and the time to judge the dead, and You will give the reward to Your slaves, the prophets and to the saints, and to those who fear Your Name, to the small with the great, and You will destroy those who have corrupted the earth."

Rev 11:19 Then the Palace of God was opened in heaven, and the ark of His covenant was seen in His Palace. And there were lightnings and thunders and voices and earthquakes and great hail.

Rev 12:1 And a great sign appeared in heaven: a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and a crown of twelve stars on her head.

Rev 12:2 Then she was pregnant, and she cried out in labour and she was in anguish to give birth.

Rev 12:3 And another sign appeared in heaven: behold, a great, fiery dragon,⁵ and he had seven heads and ten horns, and on its heads seven diadems.

Rev 12:4 Its tail drew a third of the stars in heaven and cast them onto the earth.⁶

The dragon stood before the woman who was ready to give birth, so when she delivered, he would devour her Son.

Rev 12:5 And she delivered a male Son who was to shepherd all nations with a branch of iron.⁷ And her Son was caught up to God and to His throne.

Rev 12:6 Then the woman fled into the wilderness, where there was a place for her prepared by God, that she would be provided for there for one thousand two

¹ The Aramaic shows a two step resurrection: first they are brought back to life as they were just before they were killed, then they are transformed into spirit beings before the eyes of the world. This may be the beginning of the First Resurrection of the saints. Mar 10:25-31, Rev 20:5-6

⁴ The Greek adds "and who is to come"

⁵ From the Aramaic taneena ܬܢܝܢܐ, meaning large reptiles, dinosaurs, etc, previously called dragons.

⁶ This can refer to either the envoys that fell with Satan, or symbolise Christians who had a good faith but were deceived by Satan and rejected their faith.

⁷ Psa 2:9, Mic 5:2-5, Mat 2:6, Rev 2:27 & 19:15 hundred and sixty days.

Rev 12:7 And there was war in heaven: Michael and his envoys fought against the dragon; and the dragon and its envoys fought,

Rev 12:8 but they did not prevail, nor was a place found for them in heaven.

Rev 12:9 So the great dragon was cast out, the head serpent, called the Devil and Satan, who deceives the whole world. And it was cast unto the earth, and its envoys were cast down with it.

Rev 12:10 Then I heard a great voice in heaven saying, "Now is salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, for the accuser of our brethren has been cast down, it who accused them before our God day and night.

Rev 12:11 "And they were victorious by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of His testimony, and they did not love their souls unto death.

Rev 12:12 "Therefore, O heavens, rejoice and those who dwell in them! Woe to the earth and the sea, for the devil has come down to them, having great wrath, for it knows that it has a short time."

Rev 12:13 Now when the dragon saw that it had been cast down onto the earth, it persecuted the woman who gave birth to the Male.

Rev 12:14 And the woman was given two wings of a great eagle to fly into the wilderness to her place, where she is nourished for a time and times and half a time, from before the face of the serpent.

Rev 12:15 So the serpent spewed water from its mouth like a river after the woman, that she would be caught and carried away by the waters.

Rev 12:16 But the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed that river which the dragon had spewed from its mouth.

Rev 12:17 And the dragon was enraged against the woman, and it went to make war with the remnant of her seed, those who keep the commandments of God and have the testimony of Jeshua.¹

Rev 13:1 Then I stood on the sand of the sea. And I saw a beast rising from the sea, having ten horns and seven heads, and on its horns ten crowns, and on its heads the name of blasphemy.

Rev 13:2 Now the beast which I saw was like a leopard, its feet were like those of a bear,² and its mouths like those of lions. And the dragon gave it its power, its throne, and great authority.³

Rev 13:3 And one of its heads was as if it had been crushed to death, but its deadly wound had been healed. And all the earth marvelled after the beast.

Rev 13:4 And they worshipped the dragon who gave authority to the beast; and they worshipped the beast, saying, "Who is like this beast and who is able to make war with it?"

Rev 13:5 And it was given a mouth speaking great things and blasphemy, and authority was given to it to act for forty-two months.

Rev 13:6 Then it opened its mouths to blaspheme before God, to blaspheme the Name and the dwelling of those who dwell in heaven.

Rev 13:7 And it was given to it to make war with the saints and to overcome them. And it was given authority over every generation, people, language, and nation.

Rev 13:8 And all of the inhabitants of the earth will worship it, those whose names are not written in the Book of Life of the Lamb that was slain before the creation of the world.

Rev 13:9 The one who has an ear, let him hear.

Rev 13:10 Whoever leads into captivity will go into captivity; and those who

Rev 13:11 And I saw another beast coming from the earth, and it had two horns and was like the lamb but spoke like the dragon.

Rev 13:12 And it will use all the authority of the first beast before him, and it will make the earth and those living on it also worship the first beast, which was healed of its deadly wound.

Rev 13:13 And it performs great signs, such that it even makes fire come down from heaven on earth before the people.¹

Rev 13:14 And it seduces those living on the earth by the signs which were given to him to perform before the beast, saying to those living on the earth to make an image to the beast who was wounded by the sword and lived.

Rev 13:15 It was given to him to give a spirit to the beast's image,² and to make all who would not worship the beast's image to be murdered.

Rev 13:16 And it will cause all, small and great, rich and poor, masters and servants, to be given a mark on their right hands or between their eyes,³

Rev 13:17 that no one can buy or sell again except one having on him the mark of the name of the beast, or the number of its name.

Rev 13:18 Here is wisdom. And whoever has a mind, let him calculate the number of the beast, for it is the number of a man: Six hundred and sixty-six.⁴

Rev 14:1 And I looked, and behold, the Lamb standing on Mount Zion, and with Him one hundred and forty-four thousand who have His Name upon them and His Father's name written between their eyes.⁵

Rev 14:2 And I heard a sound from heaven, like the sound of many waters, and like the sound of loud thunder. And I heard the sound of a harpist playing on his harp.

Rev 14:3 And they sang a new hymn of praise before the throne, before the four beasts, and before the elders; and no one could learn that hymn except the hundred and forty-four thousand redeemed from the earth.

Rev 14:4 These are those who have not been defiled with women, for they are virgins.⁶ They follow the Lamb everywhere He goes. They were redeemed from men, the first-fruits to God and to the Lamb,

Rev 14:5 for in their mouths no lies are found, for they are without fault.⁷

Rev 14:6 And I saw another envoy flying in the midst of heaven, and he had the everlasting Good News with him, to preach to those who dwell on the earth, and to every people and nation and language and generation;

Rev 14:7 saying with a great voice, "Fear God and give Him glory, because the hour

¹ This is a repeat of the fire that Satan was allowed to bring down against Job's crops and servants in Job 1:16.

² The Greek adds "that the beast's image could even speak." It may be that the first beast is a resurrection of the Roman Empire, and its image is the Roman Catholic church, which will again be openly murdering Jehovah's servants as 'heretics'.

³ Literally 'on between their eyes', suggesting the beast's mark might be visible as well as internal. Compare with Exo 13:9 and Exo 13:16 and their notes as well as Rev 7:3.

⁴ The most likely interpretation of this is "VICARIUS FILII DEI", which adds up to 666 in Roman numerals. This title means 'Vicar of the Son of God' and was engraved on the Roman Pope's tiara until 1963. Rev 15:2 tells us to have the victory over this 'name'; do not submit to its lies!

⁵ Literally 'on between their eyes', suggesting that this time God's mark might be visible as well as internal.

⁶ This may mean they are not defiled by the Great Prostitute and/or her daughters (See Rev chap 17).

⁷ The Greek adds 'before the throne of God'.

of His judgement has come; and worship Him who made the heavens and the earth and the sea and the springs of water.”¹

Rev 14:8 And another, a second envoy, followed him and said, “The Great Babylon is fallen, is fallen, she who from the passion of her fornication gave drink to all the nations.”²

Rev 14:9 And another, a third envoy, followed them, saying in a great voice, “Whoever worships the beast and its image, and receives its mark between his eyes,”³

Rev 14:10 “he will also drink of the wine of the passion of Lord Jah,⁴ which is mixed full strength in the cup of His wrath. And he will be tormented by fire and brimstone before the holy envoys and before the Lamb.

Rev 14:11 “And the smoke of their torment rises for ever and ever. And there is no rest, day and night, for those who worship the beast and its image, and him who takes the mark of its name.”⁵

² The Greek has ‘of the wine of the wrath of her fornication’.

³ The Greek has ‘on his forehead or on his hand’, as does Rev 20:4. Rev 20:4 has ‘on between their eyes or on their hand’ in the Aramaic Peshitta manuscripts.

⁴ As in the Peshitta.

⁵ The phrasing of this verse makes it clear that is those who are worshipping the beast and have its mark who are being punished. This places the punishment here on earth during the Tribulation. Rev 9:17-18 & 9:3-6 speak of just such punishments, and Isa 34:10 & Rev 19:3 speak of smoke ascending forever and ever, though these are both fires that will eventually burn out. If you really believe that this torture lasts for eternity, then verse 10 means that Jesus and his angels will have to spend the rest of eternity watching these unrepentant sinners being tortured. Is this your concept of Paradise in the New Heaven and Earth? But punishment during the Tribulation leaves open the possibility that they may be able to later repent of their false

Rev 14:12 Here is the patience of the saints; those who keep the commandments of God and the faith of Jeshua.

Rev 14:13 Then I heard a voice from Heaven that said, “Write of the blessings of the dead, to those who are departing in our Lord from now on.” “Yes,” says the Spirit, “because they rest from their labours.”⁶

Rev 14:14 And behold, a white cloud, and on the cloud sat the likeness of a man, and on His head He had a gold crown, and in His hand a sharp sickle.

Rev 14:15 And another envoy came out of the Palace and shouted with a great voice to Him who sat on the cloud, “Send in Your sickle and reap, for the hour to reap has come.”⁷

Rev 14:16 So He who sat on the cloud thrust in His sickle onto the earth, and the earth was reaped.⁸

Rev 14:17 Another envoy came out of the Palace which is in Heaven, having a sharp sickle with him.

Rev 14:18 And another envoy came out from the altar, who had authority over fire, and he shouted with a great voice to him who had the sharp sickle with him, “Send your sharp sickle and gather the clusters of the vineyards of the earth, for its grapes worship and seek forgiveness through Jeshua. God warns us here: this is not a punishment that anyone could desire, even briefly. Never submit to the beast!

⁶ Some Greek manuscripts add “and their works follow them.” The Peshitta does not contain this additional phrase.

⁷ This is the First Resurrection of the Righteous! This confirms Paul’s statement that this resurrection could not have already happened when he wrote 2Ti 2:18. The timeline shown here shows that the resurrected saints will be able to watch God pour His Seven Plagues on those who have rejected Him and persecuted them. The Greek replaces the last phrase with ‘the time has come for You to reap, for the harvest of the earth is ripe.’

⁸ Mat 24:30-31, Mat 25:31-34, 1Th 4:13-18

are ripe.”

Rev 14:19 So the envoy thrust his sickle into the earth and he gathered the vines of the earth, and cast it into the great winepress of the passion of God.¹

Rev 14:20 And the winepress was trampled outside the city, and blood came out of the winepress, up to the horses' bridles, for one thousand two hundred stadios.²

Rev 15:1 Then I saw another great and marvellous sign in heaven: seven envoys having the last plagues with them, for in them the wrath of God is finished.

Rev 15:2 And I saw a sea of glass as if mingled with fire, and those who are victorious over the beast and over its image and over the number of its name, standing on the sea of glass, having God's stringed instruments with them.

Rev 15:3 And they sang the song of Moses, God's servant, and the song of the Lamb, saying: "Great and marvellous are Your works, Lord Jehovah God!"³ Your works uphold all that is just and true, O King of the world!

Rev 15:4 "Who will not revere You, O Lord Jehovah, and glorify Your Name?"⁴ For only You are holy. Therefore all the nations will come and worship before You, because You are True."

Rev 15:5 After these things I looked, and the Palace of the tabernacle of testimony in heaven was opened.

Rev 15:6 And seven envoys who have the seven plagues with them came out of the Palace, clothed in pure and bright linen, and bound around their chests with gold bands.

Rev 15:7 Then one of the four beasts gave to the seven envoys seven vessels full of the wrath of God, who is the Life forever and ever. Amen.

Rev 15:8 And the Palace was full of the smoke of the glory of God and of His power, and no one could enter the Palace until the seven plagues of the seven envoys were finished.

Rev 16:1 Then I heard a great voice from the Palace say to the seven envoys, "Go and pour the vessels of the wrath of God on the earth."

Rev 16:2 So the first went and poured his vessel upon the earth and severe and painful abscesses came upon those people who had the mark of the beast and on those who worshipped its image.

Rev 16:3 Then the second envoy poured his vessel into the sea and the seas became as dead;⁵ and every physical soul in the sea died.

Rev 16:4 And the third envoy poured his vessel into the rivers and into the springs of water and they became blood.

Rev 16:5 And I heard the envoy of the waters saying: "You are righteous, who is and who has existed, and are holy, You who have decreed these things.

Rev 16:6 "Because they have shed the blood of the prophets and of the saints and You have given them blood to drink. They are worthy."⁶

Rev 16:7 And I heard the altar saying, "Yes, Jehovah God, true and righteous are all of Your judgements."⁷

Rev 16:8 Then the fourth envoy poured

⁵ The Greek has 'it became blood as of a dead man'. Blood in this verse is likely a mistranslation from the Aramaic for sea.

his vessel over the sun and power was given to it to scorch the children of men with fire.¹

Rev 16:9 And the children of men were scorched with great heat and they blasphemed the Name of God who has authority over these plagues; but they did not repent and give Him glory.

Rev 16:10 Then the fifth envoy poured his vessel over the throne of the beast and its kingdom became darkness; and they gnawed their tongues from the pain.

Rev 16:11 And they blasphemed the Name of the God of Heaven because of their pains and because of their sores and they did not repent of their works.

Rev 16:12 Then the sixth envoy poured his vessel over the great Euphrates River and dried up its waters, so the way of the kings from the rising sun would be prepared.

Rev 16:13 And I saw three unclean spirits like frogs coming out of the mouth of the dragon, out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet.

Rev 16:14 For they are spirits of demons who perform signs, which go to the kings of the whole world, to gather them to the war of that great Day of God Almighty.

Rev 16:15 "Behold, I am coming as a thief. Blessings to him who watches and keeps his garments, lest he walk naked and they see his shame."²

Rev 16:16 And He gathered them to the place called Megiddo³ in Hebrew.

Rev 16:17 And the seventh envoy poured his vessel into the air, and a great voice came from the Palace before the Throne that said, "It is done!"

Rev 16:18 And there were lightnings and thunderings and there was a great earthquake; its like has not occurred since there were the children of men on the earth, this is so great an earthquake.

Rev 16:19 Then the great city became three parts, and the cities of the nations fell.⁴ The Great Babylon was remembered before God, to give the cup of the wine of His passion of His wrath to it.

Rev 16:20 Then every island fled and the mountains were not found.⁵

Rev 16:21 And great hail, weighing a talent,⁶ fell from heaven upon the children of men. And the children of men cursed God over the plague of hail, because His plague was exceedingly great.⁷

Rev 17:1 Then one of the seven envoys who had the seven vessels came and spoke with me, saying, "Come, follow me. I will show you the judgement of the prostitute who sits on many waters,

Rev 17:2 "for the kings of the earth have fornicated with her. And all those who dwell on the earth have been drunk with the wine of her fornication."

Rev 17:3 And he took me into the wilderness in the Spirit. And I saw a woman sitting on a blood-red beast full of names of blasphemy, which had seven heads, but ten horns on it.

Rev 17:4 And the woman was wearing purple and scarlet, and gilded with gold and precious stones and pearls, and had her gold cup in her hand and it was full of uncleanness and the filth of her fornication.⁸

Rev 17:6 And I saw the woman drunk from the blood of the saints and from the blood of Jeshua's witnesses. And I was astonished with great amazement when I saw her.²

Rev 17:7 And the envoy said to me, "Why are you astonished? I will tell you the mystery of the woman and of the beast that bears her, having seven heads and ten horns on it.

Rev 17:8 "The beast which you saw was, and is not, and is about to ascend from the sea and go to destruction. And those dwelling on the earth will marvel, whose names have not been written in the Book of Life from the foundation of the world, when they see the beast which was, and is not, and yet is approaching.

Rev 17:9 "Here is the meaning for him who has wisdom: the seven heads are seven hills on which the woman sits.³

Rev 17:10 "And there are seven kings. Five have fallen and one is; there is another who has not come yet. And when he comes, it is given to him to remain a little time.

Rev 17:11 "And the dragon and the beast which it brought, it is and it is not the eighth, and is of the seven, and is going to destruction.

Rev 17:12 "And the ten horns of the beast are ten kings who have not received a kingdom yet, but they receive authority as kings for one hour with the beast.

Rev 17:13 "These all have one will, and Rev 17:17 "For God has put it into their hearts to fulfil His pleasure and to act with one purpose, and will give their kingdom to the beast, until the words of God are fulfilled.

Rev 17:18 "And the woman which you saw is that great city which has ruled over the kings of the earth for itself."⁵

Rev 18:1 After these things I saw another envoy from heaven, having great authority, and the earth was illuminated with his glory.

Rev 18:2 And he shouted in a great voice, "Babylon the Great is fallen, is fallen, and has become a habitation for demons and a prison for every unclean and detestable spirit!"⁶

Rev 18:3 "For all the nations have drunk of the wine of her fornication she mixed for them, and the kings of the earth have fornicated with her, and the merchants of the earth have become rich through the power of her infatuation."

Rev 18:8 “Therefore these plagues will come upon her in one day; death and sorrow and starvation. And she will burn in fire, for Lord Jehovah who judges her is powerful.²

Rev 18:9 “And the kings of the earth will weep and lament for her, those who fornicated and exalted themselves with her, when they see the smoke of her burning.

Rev 18:10 “They will stand opposite from fear of her punishment, and will say, ‘Woe! Woe! Woe to that great city Babylon, that mighty city! For in one hour your judgement has come.’

Rev 18:11 “And the merchants of the earth will weep and mourn over her, and there is not one who buys their cargo again:

Rev 19:1 After these things I heard a great sound of many crowds in heaven, saying, “HaleluJah!² Salvation and glory and power to Jehovah³ our God!

Rev 19:2 “For true and just are His judgements, because He has judged the great prostitute who corrupted the earth with her prostitutions; and He has required the blood of His servants from her hand.”

Rev 19:3 Again they said, “HaleluJah! And her smoke rises up forever and ever!”⁴

Rev 19:4 And the twenty-four elders and the four beasts fell down and worshipped our God who sits on the throne, saying, “Amen! HaleluJah!”

Rev 19:5 Then a voice came from the throne, saying, “Praise our God, all you His servants and worshippers of His Name.⁵ All, the small with the great!”

Rev 19:6 And I heard a sound like that of many crowds, and like the sound of many waters and like the sound of mighty thunderings, saying, “HaleluJah! For our Almighty God, Lord Jah⁶ reigns!

Rev 19:8 And to her it was granted to wear fine linen, pure and bright, for the fine linens are the uprightness of the saints.

Rev 19:9 Then he said to me, “Write: ‘Blessed are those who are called to the marriage supper of the Lamb!’” And he said to me, “These are the true sayings of God.”⁷

Rev 19:10 And I fell at his feet and I worshipped him. But he said to me, “No! I am your fellow servant, and of your brethren, those who have the testimony of Jeshua. Worship God! For the testimony of Jeshua is the spirit of prophecy.”

Rev 19:11 Then I saw Heaven opened, and behold, a white horse. And He who sat on it was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness He judges and He makes war.

Rev 19:12 His eyes were like a flame of fire, and on His head were many crowns. And He had a name written that no one knew except Him.

Rev 19:20 Then the beast was captured, and the false prophet with it who worked signs before it, by which he seduced those who received the mark of the beast and those who worshipped its image. And both were taken down and cast into the Lake of Fire that burns with brimstone.

Rev 19:21 But the rest were killed with the sword of Him who sat on the horse, which came from His mouth.³ And all the birds of prey were filled with their flesh.

Rev 20:1 And I saw another envoy from Heaven, who had with him the key to the depth and a great chain in his hand.

Rev 20:2 And he seized the dragon, the ancient serpent, who is the Devil and Satan,⁴ and bound him for a thousand years;

Appendix 1: Where Jehovah is Fully Vocalised

Jehovah is the correct spelling of the One True God's Name, as confirmed in the most ancient vowel-pointed Hebrew manuscripts we have, including both the Aleppo and Leningrad codices. Jehovah has been written fully vocalised 50 times in the Leningrad Codex B19A, meaning that all of the vowels and accents have been included to ensure that the correct spelling and pronunciation of Jehovah will never be lost. This codex was written in 1008 CE (AD) and is our oldest complete codex of the Hebrew Writings. Here is the first instance of Jehovah in the Leningrad Codex, at Genesis 3:14:

For clarity, the digitised copy is below:

וַיֹּאמֶר יְהוָה אֱלֹהִים 3:14

Jehovah, God's name, is the middle word. The phrase translates literally as "So-said Jehovah God (Elohim):"

The fifty places where the fully vocalised version of Jehovah appear are Genesis 3:14, 9:26, 18:17; Exodus 3:2, 13:3, 13:9, 13:12, 13:15, 14:1, 14:8; Leviticus 23:34, 25:17; Deuteronomy 31:27, 32:9, 33:12, 33:13; 1Kings 3:5, 16:33; Jeremiah 2:37, 3:1, 3:13, 3:21, 3:23, 3:25, 4:3, 4:4, 4:8, 5:2, 5:3, 5:9, 5:15, 5:18, 5:19, 5:22, 5:29, 6:9, 8:13, 30:10, 36:8; Ezekiel 44:5, 46:13; Nahum 1:3; Psalms 15:1, 40:5, 47:5(6), 100:5, 116:5, 116:6; and Proverbs

1:29.¹ These instances are marked with footnotes throughout this Bible.

In the thousands of other instances of Jehovah, the dot above the second consonant from the right (ו) has been left out, removing the "o". This has probably been done to make Jehovah 'unpronounceable' as Jeh-vah, which the scribes were required to do by Judaism at that time.

Jehovah is spoken with a short 'e' and the emphasis is on the 'vah'. It is pronounced as Je-ho-VAH by the Karaite and Sephardi Jews (Judeans) and has been used by Biblical followers of Jeshua (Jesus) going back to the Apostles. The Ashkanazi Jews pronounce it as Yehovah as their dialect is a bit different.

Jehovah has been found fully vocalised at twelve locations in the Aleppo Codex and in over one thousand other Hebrew manuscripts.

The Bible teaches us to use the Name of Jehovah, but always in an honourable way (Psa 116:13, Isa 12:4, Zec 13:9). Jehovah has several meanings, including "the One Who Is", "the Self-Existing", "Giver of Life", "the One Bringing into Being".

The LORD in small caps in other translations is actually Jehovah, so the LORD God is in fact Jehovah God, and Lord GOD is really Lord Jehovah, where God's Name has been removed and replaced with mere titles. In this translation, as explained in Appendix 5, LORD with small caps always refers to the pagan god Baal, never to Jehovah.

Appendix 2: Jehovah in the New Covenant

Though Jehovah has been replaced with Lord Jah (MarJah) in our copies of the Aramaic New Covenant, Jehovah was in the originals of both the Aramaic and Greek New Covenant manuscripts, and was systematically destroyed as explained in Shabbath 116a, of the Babylonian Talmud.

Among the surviving old manuscript fragments, the Vatican holds some pages of Luke's and John's Gospels written in fully vowel pointed Hebrew. They were identified by Nehemiah Gordon, who says he "was at the National Library of Israel looking through a microfilm of miscellaneous manuscripts photographed at the Vatican Library when I came across three pages of the Gospel of Luke (1:1-35) and one page of the Gospel of John (1:1-13) in Hebrew... These four pages appear to be a copy of an earlier lost manuscript as is evident from the fact that Luke cuts off in the middle of the third page, so the origin and date of the original remains a mystery. The Hebrew text of Luke contains the name Yehovah with full vowels 15 times!"

As well as containing Jehovah as God's Name, the third Luke page also has Jeshua as the name of God's Son. As these pages do appear to be copies, it is difficult to decide how much weight to give to them. These pages were accessed as https://digi.vatlib.it/view/MSS_Vat.ebr.530_pt.1/0071. End with 0072 and 0073 for the three pages of Luke and 0074 for the page of John (11 July, 2018). Nehemiah has also transcribed the pages and translated them.

We have restored God's Name Jehovah to where we believe it was originally, using the extant manuscripts and correcting it where there are direct quotations from the Old Covenant.

Appendix 3: Masoretic Deletions of Jehovah

There are 133 places in the Hebrew Old Covenant manuscripts where the Masorete scribes note that they have removed Jehovah and replaced it with Lord (Adonai). This is explained in The Massorah, by C.D. Ginsburg Vol. I, pp. 25, 26, §115 and Vol. IV, p. 28, §115 where he says of this one form of Adonai: "this Rubric which records all the instances in the Bible where Adonai stands by itself for the Tetragrammaton" and "some of the best MSS. and early editions read the Tetragrammaton." Somewhat like the ESV translators, these places were marked by a special form of Adonai, so it is possible to restore them.

Our English translation has restored Jehovah in these places:

Genesis 18:3, 18:27, 18:30, 18:31, 18:32, 19:18, 20:4; Exodus 4:10, 4:13, 5:22, 15:17, 34:9, 34:9; Numbers 14:17; Joshua 7:8; Judges 6:15, 13:8; 1Kings 3:10, 3:15, 22:6; 2Kings 7:6, 19:23; Isaiah 3:17, 3:18, 4:4, 6:1, 6:8, 6:11, 7:14, 7:20, 8:7, 9:8, 17, 10:12, 11:11, 21:6, 21:8, 21:16, 28:2, 29:13, 30:20, 37:24, 38:14, 38:16, 49:14; Ezekiel 18:25, 18:29, 21:9, 33:17, 33:20; Amos 5:16, 7:7, 7:8, 9:1; Micah 1:2; Zechariah 9:4; Malachi 1:12, 1:14; Psalm 2:4, 16:2, 22:30, 30:8, 35:17, 35:22, 35:23, 37:13, 38:9, 38:15, 38:22, 39:7, 40:17, 44:23, 51:15, 54:4, 55:9, 57:9, 59:11, 62:12, 66:18, 68:11, 68:17, 68:19, 68:22, 68:32, 73:20, 77:2, 77:7, 78:65, 79:12, 86:3, 86:4, 86:5, 86:8, 86:9, 86:12, 86:15, 89:49, 89:50, 90:1, 90:17, 110:5, 130:2, 130:3, 130:6; Job 28:28; Lamentations 1:14, 1:15(2), 2:1, 2:2, 2:5, 2:7, 2:18, 2:19, 2:20, 3:31, 3:36, 3:37, 3:58; Daniel 1:2, 9:3, 9:4, 9:7, 9:9, 9:15, 9:16, 9:17, 9:19 (3); Ezra 10:3; Nehemiah 1:11, 4:14.

Ginsburg, in his Introduction to the Massoretico-Critical Edition of the Hebrew Bible, pgs 368 and 369, also specifies eight places where Jehovah has been replaced with God (Elohim). These places were Psalms 14:1, 14:2, 14:5, 53:1, 53:2, 53:4, 53:5, 53:6. Jehovah has been restored here too.

The Aramaic Peshitta of the Old Covenant has also retained MarJah, representing Jehovah, in most of these places. Bauscher, in his The Aramaic-English Interlinear Peshitta Old Testament, suggests that the OT Peshitta was made at a time when only the first few of the replacements of Jehovah's name had been made, perhaps two or three centuries before Jeshua was born to Mary.

Many of these deletions are of people speaking God's name Jehovah. One wonders if they were removed to help justify Judaism's unscriptural ban on saying Jehovah.

Though the Judean scribes are guilty of removing Jehovah 141 times from the Hebrew Old Covenants, most English translators have removed Jehovah almost seven thousand times from their Bibles. Who has the greater sin?

Appendix 4: Hebrew, Aramaic and Greek Texts of the Old Covenant

The Masoretes willingness to remove God's sacred Name 141 times, which they believed in, and to mangle Jehovah into Jeh-vah over 6,500 times, makes one dubious about how they, and their predecessors, would treat other Old Covenant (OC) passages that support Jeshua as the Messiah, whom they did not believe in.

We believe that the quotations of the Old Covenant made by Jeshua and His apostles were made from older, and more accurate, Hebrew manuscripts than what we have today in the Masoretic text. There are times that the Greek Septuagint and Aramaic OC Peshitta appear to preserve these original passages, and so they have been restored to this OC translation where appropriate. They are marked by footnotes, and some are listed here:

Psa 145:13, where the second sentence of the verse has been omitted.

Psa 40:6, where the Masoretic text omits a prophecy of the incarnation of Jeshua.

Isa 7:14, where the Masoretic text has been altered to change the prophecy of Jeshua's virgin birth to a merely ordinary pregnancy.

Deu 32:43, where the Masoretic text removes a statement that the envoys worship Jeshua, thus downplaying His divine nature as God's True Son.

Isa 61:1, where the Masoretic text removes a prophecy that Jeshua will restore sight to the blind.

Isa 42:4, where the Masoretic text replaces a prophecy that the gentiles will trust in Jeshua's Name.

Appendix 5: Baal and the LORD

The Canaanites called their main god Baal. Baal simply means Lord. Lord was the title that they used to refer to their god Hadad, who was the king of their gods and also their god of war, fertility and storms. Baal (LORD) worship included sexual immorality, perversions and even child sacrifice (Hosiah 4:12-14, 2 Chronicles 28:2-4). The Canaanites developed the habit of calling him the LORD instead of Hadad because they believed he was a fierce and unforgiving God and were afraid of him. By not using his actual name, they hoped they might avoid drawing Hadad's attention and then his punishment to themselves.

As Baal is a title and not a name, this translation renders it as LORD. To distinguish between lord originating from adon or adonai and lord from baal, we use LORD with small capitals to indicate when the original word is the Canaanite Baal. When Baal is used with other words as a place name, such as Baal-Zephon, it is left as Baal in the translation.

This distinction also applies to Act 14:12-13.

The conflict between Jehovah God and the LORD (Baal) is clearly shown in 1 Kings 18:17 to 40.

Appendix 6: Hebrew, Aramaic and Greek Fonts

The Hebrew, Aramaic and Greek characters used in the Footnotes are from LibreOffice Writer, which supports the use of Unicode characters. The Hebrew and Greek words, phrases and pronunciation are often based on the OnlineBible.net resources, while the Aramaic words, phrases and pronunciation are often from Ewan MacLeod's Bibles at his JesusSpokeAramaic.com website.

Appendix 7: How to Search for Words and Phrases in the Digital Versions of this Bible.

Though other programs can be used in a similar way, the PDF can be opened in the free FOXIT pdf reader. It has a simple search bar at the top that allows searches on words and phrases. Clicking on the search box will open a drop-down selection box which allows Advanced Searches, permitting more control, as well as a complete list of all matches.

The HTML version will open in your web browser. In the free FIREFOX browser, click on the Edit button and select 'Search this page' to bring up a search window, with some options, at the bottom of the screen.

We prefer the CALIBRE ebook management program for the epub version. When the Bible is loaded, just right-click the file and a management screen will appear which will allow searching. Calibre will also allow you to expand images for more detailed views.

Firefox and Calibre will both allow you to click on footnote anchors, take you there and return you to the text.

These programs all have PC and Mac versions.
